Library Board Seeking Offers

Vol. 1, No. 27 Wednesday, July 13, 1949 Single Copy 5c

Draw Lots to Determine Shoveller:

Break Ground for Church Sunday

HICKSVILLE — The Methodists will break ground for a new church building this Sunday morning, July 17, at 11 o'clock. The observance will be held on the northwest corner of Old Country Road and Nelson Ave., where the new church will stand.

Morning worship at 9:45, in the present building at 105 Broadway, will precede the ground-breaking. Dr. Theodore C. Bobolin, superintendent of the Brooklyn-North District of the Methodist Church, will be guest preacher.

At the ground-breaking a number of visitors will extend greetings and good wishes to the local congregation. They will include

Dr. Bobolin, Dr. Harry B. Belcher, superintendent of Brooklyn-Long Island Church Society; Irvin T. Davies, lay official from the former Embury Church in Brooklyn, which is donating $15,000 from its funds to the Hicksville Church; Edward Carmen of Jamaica; and Dr. Chilton McPheters of East Norwich.

The person who lifts the first shovel of dirt will represent the 140 contributors who, from April 1 to July 1, gave to the Building Fund a total of $2,008 in cash and made ground-breaking possible. His name will be drawn by lot. His picture will be taken and placed in the new church as a permanent reminder of this occasion. The new church, when ultimately completed, will contain a total of more than 12,000 square feet of usable floor space. It will contain, besides sanctuary, a parlor, choir room, kitchen, social hall.

Plastic Factory May Employ 200

OYSTER BAY — Construction of a factory in Hicksville which will provide employment of upwards of 200 people in the manufacture of plastic cloth is proposed. The Town Board has received an application for a zone change to industrial on the factory site along New South Road, Hicksville, near Glasflos.

A new application for a zone change on property along South Broadway, Hicksville, from residential to business is planned by the Halstone developers, it was learned. A previous application was rejected after strong opposition from the residents of the neighborhood.

Plan Control of Boats

The town board is preparing an ordinance which will regulate the speed of motor craft in town waters on both the north and south shores and also prohibiting the dumping of refuse in town waters from yachts and other boats.

120 Youths Guests Of Kiwanis Friday

Hicksville Kiwanis Club will act as hosts to 120 boys under 15 years of age at a major league baseball game this Friday (July 15) at the Polo Grounds. Buses will leave at 11:15 a. m. from Robert Williams parking field on East Marie St.

James H. Walters, member of the Boys and Girls Committee of the Kiwanis Club, said that each boy must have his parents' permission in writing in order to join the trip. The boys are advised to have a late breakfast or early lunch as there will be no stops made during the trip.

In case of rain, the game and trip will be cancelled.

HICKSVILLE—The Library Board of Trustees is still looking for suitable quarters for the Public Library and is interested in receiving offerings of available space — in writing — from anyone who can assist. Such offers may be addressed to the attention of Joseph Heim, board president, Twinlawn Ave.

"We are not interested in vacant ground," President Heim stressed. The Board has a problem of finding new quarters without delay, since the Board of Education has given notice that the space in Nicholai School, now used by the library, is needed this fall for additional classrooms, due to increased pupil enrollment.

Bethpage Reaches 39-Year Ambition

BETHPAGE—Community spirit and faith in the future growth and development of Bethpage was lauded by prominent speakers at the dedication of the new firehouse on Broadway, Saturday afternoon. More than 500 persons attended the formal dedication program held in the auditorium. Hundreds enjoyed open house and dancing in the evening.

Congressman Leonard W. Hall in his address expressed the wish that more evidence of community spirit of the type shown here would be evidenced across the nation. He sounded a warning that home rule must be guarded and preserved.

Growth of Agencies

"There are far too many people willing to give over control of this, that and the other function to some agency or bureau in Washington," Hall asserted. He congratulated the community upon its fine new building.

Henry E. Strasser was master of ceremonies. County Judge Henry J. A. Collins at the start of the program unveiled two plaques in the foyer of the building, one listing the members who had served in World War II and the other stating the members of the fire board at the time of the dedication.

Supervisor Harry Tappen was another principal speaker, recalling visits to the community 55 years ago by horse and wagon, "before I was of voting age." He also recalled giving a lecture on fire prevention in the local school 55 years ago. "I speak with a little authority on this community," he said. "I have watched you grow. This building," he declared, "is a

Priest Supervised Job Of Building Firehouse

Rev. Michael Harrigan of St. Martin of Tours RC Church told the audience at the firehouse dedication Saturday, that from a layman's viewpoint of such things, he can assure the fire district it has a very substantial building and one which Bethpage might well be proud. He added that he received no salary for "supervising" its construction.

Father Harrigan's service as "sidewalk superintendent" was the subject of good natured joking also by MC Henry Strasser.

to give service to the people and will stand at a monument to the foresight of the community and people of Bethpage."

The history of the fire fighting company, going back 39 years to the days of Central Park, was traced by William Ahern. The first equipment of the vamps, organized in 1910, was a hand-torn pumper bought in Springfield, L. I., with funds raised by subscription and benefits. He introduced Al Guarini, who for many years coached the vamps in the presentation of benefit shows.

School Abandons H. S. Playground

HICKSVILLE — The district summer playground has proven very popular and a banner year is predicted by E. H. LeBarron, school superintendent. Because of the large turnout at East Street, the High School playground will be abandoned and both instructors will spend their time at the East Street, Le Barron said.

With the playground only four days in progress, there have been over 300 present. Totals by days are: Tuesday 63, Wednesday 53, Thursday 96 and Friday 106. This represents an age group range from 4-14 and does not include the twilight baseball league.

Participation totals in various sports and activities are: Baseball 120, softball 62, basketball 128, shuffleboard-116, paddle tennis 22, children's games (4-6) 160, quarts 48, plus other activities that include swings, see-saws, giant stride 86.

21 Ride First Beach Bus

HICKSVILLE—The first trip of the season for the bus to Bayville Beach from Hicksville was made Monday morning with 20 children and one adult as passengers.

Trips will be made every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, leaving the Hicksville Courthouse at Heitz Pl. and Bay Ave., at 8:30 a. m. The bus leaves the beach for home at 3:30 p. m. sharp. Fares are 30 cents round trip for children and 50 cents round trip for others. Passengers will not be picked up at the courthouse on rainy days.

Democrats Meet Tonight

HICKSVILLE — The Franklin D. Roosevelt Republican Club meets tonight (Wednesday) at 8:30 o'clock in the Courthouse, Bay Ave. and Heitz Pl., according to President Louis J. Reinmcher. All enrolled Democrats of the mid-Island area are invited to attend.

Events During Coming Week

- MONDAY, July 18—8:30 PM—"Peg O My Heart" at East Meadow Summer Theatre for benefit of First Reformed Church societies, Hicksville. (Detailed Herald Community Calendar on Page 8)

Ballantine Moves Out

Special to Mid-Island Herald

HICKSVILLE—P. Ballantine & Sons has permanently closed down its Long Island Branch depot on W. Barclay St. after being located here for about 13 years. A fleet of 65 trucks, trailers and vans, manned by 80 men, carted away the contents of the building to Newark, N. J., Monday. No deliveries have been made from the depot since the strike of truck drivers started April 1st.

A force of 105 people had been employed at the local depot, most of them drivers and sales personnel. A spokesman for Ballantine's told the Herald yesterday that it is anticipated most of the personnel will be absorbed by local distributors.

Explaining the close-down, it was pointed out that the depot had been operated at a loss since its inception. Ballantine is now withdrawing distribution, believing that there is sufficient distributor coverage on Long Island through local agencies.

A sign posted on the grounds in front of the office here proclaims: "Delivery operations from this depot have been permanently dis-

There were about 30 county policemen on hand Monday when the caravan left the depot. No disturbances were reported.

It has been estimated locally that the annual payroll of the depot was in the neighborhood of $400,000. Many of those employed there, however, were not local residents.

Mid-Summer Clearance

Five Hicksville stores are offering mid-summer clearance sales this week-end. Perceptive shoppers will review these offerings on page 2 in this issue.

Brengel Again Heads School Board

HICKSVILLE — Henry C. Brengel is again president of the Board of Education. He was re-elected at the reorganization meeting last week on Tuesday, while Lawrence Eisenhauer was elected vice-president and Dr. Charles Masek, secretary.

ed his first meeting since assuming office on July 1 as the successor of John Herzog. Edna Kaha, Sutton is the fifth member of the board. Andrew B. Heberer is district clerk and Sidney Volk district treasurer.

The following committees of the board were named for the coming year: Eisenhauer and Masek, building and grounds; Eisenhauer and Masek, teachers; Sutton and McCaffrey, custodians; McCaffrey, attendance; Sutton, East St. School; McCaffrey, Nicholai St.; Masek and Eisenhauer, High school.

Bethpage Awards Transportation Jobs

BETHPAGE — Fred Kramer was re-elected chairman of the School Board during the annual reorganization meeting last Tuesday night. Other officials are: Joseph Elinger, vice-chairman; Charles Campaigne, school lunch committee; Mrs. Evelyn Auer, district clerk; Walter Mundy, treasurer; Dr. Louis Lutige, school physician.

A contract for transporting children to the Bethpage School and Farmingdale High was awarded to Mrs. Mae Benkert. Pupils to the St. Ignatius Parochial School, in Hicksville, will be transported by the Purinton Bus Line.

Jericho Re-Elects Scoble as Chairman

William B. Scoble was re-elected chairman of the School Board at the annual reorganization meeting held last Tuesday night. Burt Titus is the treasurer and Mrs. Arthur Kay is the district clerk. Dr. Walter M. Stigger of Hicksville was appointed school physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shea of 277 West Nicholai Street, Hicksville, had as their Fourth of July weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olsen of Brooklyn.

Dear Jean...

Newlyweds MR. and MRS. JOHN HOFFMAN are among our new neighbors this week in a new home in the Gable development. The bride is from Post Washington and the groom is from Hicksville. MR. and MRS. J. MORRIS and their two daughters, Barbara and Elaine, are here from Staten Island. MR. and MRS. E. JENSEN and two-year-old daughter are from Forest Hills. MR. and MRS. A. DeCORA and seven-year-old son and daughters, five and two years, are from Franklin Square. Welcome to our community.

Of some local interest is the fact that Oyster Bay School Board announced officially and publicly last week that the contract of School Superintendent LEON J. DEMING will not be renewed. His present contract expires next January. BILL DUFFY claims he had no inside information about the kind of growing weather farmers would experience this year, but for the first time in 53 years he has no potatoes under cultivation. He estimates the drought will mean a four million dollar loss for Long Island growers this year. I notice the grain on the Hicksville school district's acreage along Newbridge road has been harvested. DONALD BOSLET, Syosset postmaster, was a delegate to the recent Lions state convention at Lake Placid. He was named a director for this region. HARRY STOLZ, Bethpage postmaster, says he don't know when house-to-house mail delivery will start. Installation of boxes and house numbering has been very slow and is holding up the new service. Postmen are still talking about the windstorm which spent the waterfronts July 4th. FRED BRAUN'S Meat Market at 77 B'way gets our vote for the most outstanding July 4th window display complete with a giant firecracker. Herzog Place, Hicksville, is a county road. However, it may soon be taken over by the town highway system. The Hicksville Civics have voted to give a trophy for the Labor Day tournament. BILL GEYER and HARRY ERNENWEIN are the committee. An oldtimer in Jericho affairs tells us the current rumors about a drive for a new fire headquarters is "the same old talk we've heard for 16 years." The vamps had to surrender their pool table to make room for the new racing track.

Plainview Fire Co. will soon burn the mortgage upon its fire engine headquarters, I heard this week. Mothers are reminded that they can have their children photographed, without charge or obligation, this Friday and Saturday, July 15 and 16, at PETER AND WENDY store. Who will bring in the 100,000th prescription to SMITH'S Drug Store? That number is due to come up within the next few days and when it does it will be filed without charge.

SCHWARTZ FURNITURE has outfitted two model homes in new developments: Zelda Park and Brookfield Homes. The firemen's tournament will return to Bethpage Rd. this Labor Day. C. M. JOHNSON Co., Bethpage advertising and printing concern, is considering a change of address to Garden City. Lack of space at the present address is believed a reason and the old Salisbury Country Club may be their new home. HICKSVILLE FIRESTONE has had its store front repainted. Looks good, JACK and CLIFF. STARLIGHT SHOP will soon be remodeled inside and out.

The Blessed Virgin Sodality of St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville, enjoyed an all-day outing at Jones Beach Sunday, July 10. There were 21 girls who left from the Parochial School at 10:30 a. m.

Quinn's Party Celebrates Island Trees Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Quinn were hosts at a house-warming party on Saturday evening, July 2, in their new home on 63 Amber Lane, Island Trees.

Their guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ofenloch, Bernadette, Gwendolyn, Gerard and Hubert Ofenloch, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Schlosser, Mr. and Mrs. Anselm Ofenloch, Mr. and Mrs. Medard Ofenloch, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelchek, Miss Dorothy Cister, Fred Braun, Edward Gross, all of Hicksville.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinn, Genevieve and Marion Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. George Quinn, Walter Krill, Mr. and Mrs. David See of Bellmore. Also Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Quinn of Massapequa, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Quinn of Island Trees, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas DeBeche, George Hoffman of Merrick, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gunther of Valley Stream, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bogart of Mineola, Miss Jean Campbell and Earl Thomas of West Hempstead.

SUN TAN vs. BAD BUEN. If you sun bathe, it would be wise for you to fully realize the folly of attempting to take more sun than is good for you. The smart sun bather always sees that his sun tan comes by degrees. For after all is said and done, it's HEAT that pours down from the sun.

The smart host sees that his guests receive the attention they deserve. In that way, he is assured of a continued friendship. Clergy Support BMA Proposal

HICKSVILLE — The Business Men's Association is receiving the promise of support from local clergymen in their campaign to eliminate solicitation of local businessmen unless approved by the BMA. The program is aimed to eliminate numerous "non-local appeals that work to the detriment of bonafide local churches and societies," according to President Charles Schwartz.

All retailers of the community are being asked to insist upon a letter of solicitation approved from the BMA from fund-raisers and canvassers.

When requests for solicitation letters are made by out-of-town clergy, the BMA plans to check with the local ministers and pastors of the denomination represented. In addition, local organization leaders are being asked to apply for approval before soliciting stores and shops for donations and prizes.

The general plan has been pre-

Soldier Phones Mother from Germany

Pfc. Thomas E. Vallinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vallinski of 40 East Old Country Rd., Hicksville, telephoned his mother from Germany on July 1 and talked for five minutes. "The connection was very clear," Mrs. Vallinski said, "and it was wonderful hearing his voice again."

Pfc. Vallinski is attending school in a mechanical course in Eschwege, Germany, where he has been stationed since January. His address is: 12306468, Det. A 7715, E.C.A.S., AFPO 171 c/o Postmaster, New York.

sented to the pastors of all local denominations. To date, it has received the endorsement of Rev. George M. Eitzenmann, pastor of St. Ignatius R. C. Church; Rev. Cranston Clayton, pastor of Hicksville Methodist Church; and Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church.

CUBS ENJOY OUTING

A group of 54 Hicksville Cub Scouts of Pack 298 and their friends enjoyed a picnic at Belmont Lake State Park Sunday, July 10, despite showers in the afternoon, according to Jack Ehmman, director of the Cub Pack committee.

The boys enjoyed hot dogs, rolls, soft drinks, watermelon and potato salad. Games and races were featured at the outing.

Jean Zoeller Wed In June

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jean Zoeller, daughter of Mrs. Emil Zoeller of Park Ave., Bethpage, to Joseph Holoskie, son of Peter Holoskie of Freeville, Pa., on June 19, at St. Martin of Tours Church, Bethpage, at 4 p. m.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Emil Zoeller, of Richmond Hill, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a fitted business style bodice, sweetheart neckline, high turned under collar and long sleeves. The full skirt with insets of lace at the hem folded into a long train. Her long, illusion veil, trimmed with lace, was secured with a seed pearl tiara. She carried a white orchid with lilies of the valley.

Miss Odette Lavanchy was the maid of honor. She wore a lilac taffeta gown styled with a sheer yoke and portrait neckline. The shirring on the skirt was caught with rosebuds and over a hoop. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations with lilac carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Montgomery of New York City in Nile green, Miss Ebel Jaworski of Hicksville in pink, and Miss Jo Anne Garrett of Hicksville in aqua. Their gowns were in similar style to the maid of honor. Their bouquets were of white roses and carnations and carnations to match the color of each gown.

Miss Jean Wallner of Waldwick, N. J., was the flower girl. She wore a white gown and a coronet of white roses in her hair. She carried a basket of mixed colored flowers to match the bridesmaids' gowns.

The best man was Francis R. Carroll of Port Chester, N. Y. The ushers were George Susiro of New York City, William Akers of Bergenfield, N. J., and Frank Russo of St. Albans.

A reception was held at Anselmi's, Bethpage. The newlyweds are residing on Park Ave., Bethpage, following a wedding trip to the Poconos.

The bride is a graduate of Farmingdale High School and is employed as a statistician. Her husband is a graduate of New York University and is employed by an insurance concern in New York City.

Ocker Won't Forget Last Day As Lifeguard

PLAINVIEW — Edmund Ocker is not likely to forget his last day as life guard at Tobay town beach on the Atlantic Ocean. He put in his last day of duty on July 4th and during the morning assisted in pulling eight people out of the wild wave. Two of them were in such serious condition that they had to be taken to nearby Jones Beach tower for further treatment.

The Plainview Fire Chief has been putting in summers as a life guard since 1940. How many people has he saved from drowning in that time? He guesses the number would run into the thousands but that's not all there is to a lifeguard's job. Lost children and rendering first aid for bathers also occupied many of his hours of beach and pool patrol. In 1942 he was in charge of the officers' and enlisted men's pools at Mitchell Field.

In one of his last rescues as an official lifeguard he had the unfortunate experience of throwing a shoulder out of joint while in the icy waters. The trick shoulder was earned some years ago while playing football in college. He is associated with his dad, Anthony Ocker Jr., electrical contractor.

Local Residents Seeking Election

The community is represented on both the Republican and Democratic county tickets for election this fall. District Court Judge Joseph P. Labinecher, resident of Woodbury, has been named to succeed himself for a six-year term as judge of the fourth district which embraces the Town of Oyster Bay and City of Glen Cove. His opponent is Nathan Dorfman, Glen Cove attorney.

Henry J. Bermingham of Plainview is Democratic candidate for County Clerk, opposing Republican Charles E. Ransom of Sea Cliff. Bermingham was an unsuccessful candidate for town councilman in Oyster Bay Township two years ago.

Another Male Hair Stylist at Powder Box
HICKSVILLE — The Powder Box at 21 Broadway has another male hair stylists on its staff. Reynolds Rhodes of Wantagh started to work at the local beauty shop about two weeks ago.

Vincent Celosi of Paris, France, has been with the Powder Box since May. He's been in America for about five months and lives with relatives in Deer Park.

Jerusalem Ave. Bus Runs Again

HICKSVILLE — Bus transportation to the Levitt development at Island Trees, halted since the strike by drivers of the Purinton Bus Lines on May 23, resumed during the week as the route was taken over by the Levittown Bus Corp. The new concern will run buses through to Wantagh Railroad Station thus providing service to Jones Beach via a transfer to beach buses at Wantagh.

The new concern, also re-establishing Hempstead-Levittown service at 25 cents a trip, raised the fare from Hicksville depot to Levittown by a nickel. The fares are 15 cents to the northside of Hempstead Turnpike and 20 cents to the south side. Fare through to Wantagh would probably be 30 cents although some trips will not go through completely.

Departure times from Hicksville will be 7, 9, 10 a. m., 4:10 and 6:10 p. m. Arrival times here will be 6:50, 8:30, 9:58 a. m. 4:10 and 5:50 p. m. The complete schedule is available at the Herald office.

Boy's Day Competitions

JONES BEACH — Today is Boy's Day (July 13) here with contests in archery, paddle tennis, shuffleboard, hole-in-one-golf, swimming and running races open to boys 11, 12 and 13 years of age. Duffy Reports on Trip: Pedestrian King on West Coast Streets

HICKSVILLE — Pedestrians have the right of way and get full protection of the law in Los Angeles, William Duffy disclosed following his recent trip to the west coast. Motorists must stop for pedestrians and those who fail to heed the laws are quickly served with summonses.
Upon his return home last week,
Duffy told the Herald about the new freeways—four and six width highways — which are being constructed. Buildings are being removed from the path of these super roads which are described in detail in the July 11 issue of Life magazine. He also noted that drivers on the west coast are very courteous.
The flowers he observed are beyond describing and "something to see." Mr. and Mrs. Duffy found them all in bloom. The Los Angeles colosseum which costs $10,000 includes a 7-acre rose garden containing 6500 plants and 142 varieties of roses.

The Duffys had as a guide their host, a friend who went to Los Angeles 28 years ago. Now a high postal official, their host was on vacation at the time and was able to point out the homes of Hollywood stars and the many points of interest in the region.
Duffy is president of the Long Island National Bank.

Miss Audrey Davis Becomes Bride Of Walter Thorman

Miss Audrey Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Davis of 80 East John St., Hicksville, became the bride of Walter Thorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorman of 16 Rave St., Hicksville, Sunday afternoon, July 10, at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, at five o'clock. The Rev. Edward Stammel officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white frosted organdy fashioned with an off-the-shoulder effect bodice, long sleeves and a full hooped skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil was secured with a crown of seed pearls. She carried white roses and bouvardia.

Mr. Eugene Thorman of Merrick was the matron of honor and her only attendant. She wore aqua frosted organdy and a picture hat in matching material. Her bouquet was of red roses.

Eugene Thorman, brother of the groom, of Merrick, was the best man. The ushers were Clifford Davis, brother of the bride, and Eugene Staehle, cousin of the groom. Walter Baldwin sang during the ceremony.

A reception for about 75 guests was held at Anselm's, Bethpage. After a wedding trip to Catskill, the newlyweds will reside on East John St., Hicksville.

Joseph Habenicht And Bride On Visit

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Antoinette Kosiorek, daughter of Mrs. Anthony Kosiorek of Erie, Penn., to Joseph H. Habenicht, son of Mrs. Anna Habenicht of West Ave., Hicksville. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Hicksville and plan to make their home in Erie, Penn.

The groom attended Hicksville High School and is now employed at the Hammermill Paper Company in Erie. The bride attended East High School and is employed at the Erie Resistor Company in Erie.

The bride was the guest of honor at a surprise party given by Rose and Ann Habenicht, at their home on West Ave. The bride received many beautiful gifts.

Among the shower guests were: Mrs. Olga Boach of Huntington, Miss Lita Ganderton of Glen Head, Mrs. Fred Habenicht, Mrs. Hugh Habenicht, Mrs. Carl Rowehl, Mrs. William Rowehl, Mrs. Michael Rowehl, Mrs. Michael Esullo, Miss Laura Rowehl, Miss Ann Habenicht, Miss Rose Habenicht, Mrs. Frieda Grimes, all of Hicksville and Mrs. Anna Habenicht.

Glucker Play Goes On Broadway In Fall

NEW YORK — A former Hicksville resident, Maurice Glucker, is co-author of a comedy, "The Perfect Pattern," which is planned for early fall production on Broadway. Maurice's father was a partner in Simon and Glucker who for many years operated a well-known stationery store in Hicksville. He has spent some time in Hollywood and occasionally returns to Hicksville to visit old friends.

"The Perfect Pattern" by Madeline Davidson and Maurice Glucker is described by Sherman Young as a light comedy with a nice uplifting feeling about it.

nance to regulate flat roof construction on homes and clarifying the code requirements on minimum ground floor area in all types of zones is contemplated, according to Councilman Frank Chlumsky.

Councilman Chlumsky told the Herald that the town fathers are planning to act against violators of the building code in the case of really development signs. The ordinance of the town requires billboards be placed in industrial zones or upon the developer's own property. All alleged violations—some signs being located miles from the development—will be referred to the town building department for action.

At the board meeting last Thursday, permission was given by the board to the Hicksville Fire Dept. Ladies Auxiliary to hold a beach party at Centre Island causeway on July 19.

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

If you will glance at the standings and schedule of the Herald Softball League you will realize why the Grinders are rated an excellent chance of winning the regular season championship and are considered better than an even money bet to get at least a tie for the flag.

Presently, they have a 4 and 2 record. If they get a replay of their Lion loss they will resume play with a 2-1 lead in the second inning and will have the bases loaded, two out and a count of 3 and 2 on the batter.

On that basis they stand a very good chance of winning and their record will go to 5 and 1. And for their last three opponents they will face the three weakest teams in the loop—Locust Grove, Russlers and Post Office.

The other leaders have their work cut out for them in their final three games. The All Stars had to face the Lions, Farmers and Nationals, and Bottos had the Farmers, Nationals and Russlers to play.

The odds are running greatly in their favor and if the Grinders hold their form, the championship should be easily annexed by them.

A few weeks ago the Lions played the Nationals and in the sixth inning, with the Nats ahead, 4-3, and the bases empty, shortstop Paul Olynik threw his glove at a ball hit by Ed Warnake. The glove did not hit the ball.

The batter was awarded third base on the play and the Lions protested at that point. A passed ball scored the Nats' fifth run and the Lions lost by two runs.

Had the Lions officially filed their protest, they would have had a chance to bat in the seventh inning again with the score only 4-3.

The rule book clearly states that "There is no penalty for a fielder who throws his cap, glove or other part of his uniform at a batted ball unless the object actually hits the ball."

Another interesting rule in the softball book reads as follows: "The Plate Umpire shall call balls and strikes. HE SHALL DETERMINE WHETHER A BATTED BALL IS FAIR OR FOUL, etc . . ."

And the good book also says that there shall be no conflict of authority between umpires and that all final decisions shall rest with the umpire whose exclusive authority it was to make the decision.

Now where would that have fitted in around the Hicksville Softball wars?

Billy DeVine, Hicksville High pitching star for the past four years, had a tryout for the Brooklyn Dodger farm system in Ebbetts Field last week.

Gene Pasta has rejoined the Grumman Yankees since his return home to Hicksville after the closing of classes at the University of California.

Dalers Defeat Plainview 9 - 5

By DIANE UFFMANN
Plainview and Farmingdale were the only teams to play Thursday night in the Junior Mid-Island League. Plainview lost with a score of 9-5. Hartmaier started for Plainview and Keute and Melish went in to relieve. Jackie Lameba was the winning pitcher for Farmingdale.

Plainview and Farmingdale played three innings on Sunday. They were tied 1-1 and then the game was called because of rain.

Grinders-Lions Replay Likely Aug 1

George Dickstein, Umpire-in-Chief of the Amateur Softball Association of the Americas, has ruled that the Grinders protested 9-8 loss to the Lions is valid and the order to replay the game is suspended from the Mid-Island Herald Softball League within the week.

The Grinders protest involved the calling out of their batter, John DeBella, when he left the batters' box in the top of the second inning. He advanced on to the playing field and umpire Jim MacCaffrey ruled him out.

The Mid-Island Herald wrote to Dickstein for an interpretation of the rules on that point and in reply the head softball umpire of the United States and Canada stated that, "If a batsman steps, runs or jumps outside the lines of the batsman's position and does not hit the ball there is no penalty for such act."

DeBella did not touch the ball and thus cannot be ruled out for illegally batting a ball.

To make the final decision ironbound; the league is still waiting for an interpretation from Hubert Johnson of Detroit, Mich., who is top man on the joint rules committee of ASA softball. Time has also been extended the Lions management to defend and dispute the protest if it finds it possible.

The Lions have agreed to replay the game if they find that the batter was not out. In that case, the facts would be presented to an open meeting of league members for their approval of the replay and thus avoid the expending of time and effort of calling in a protest board for what would have to be an obvious decision.

In the event the replay is ordered, August 1st will be the date assigned.

The Herald League needed only two of its seven dates allotted for the midseason layoff and makeup games. On these the Nationals had an easy time in beating Locust Grove 13-4 and the Farmers ran over the Post Office 9-3.

Loyolas Bow To Grumman 4-0; Rally To Beat Republic 4-2

Catcher Bryan Masterson brought 700 fans to their feet in Jones Beach Stadium Thursday night, with a screaming home run tied to left field which fired the Hicksville Loyolas to a 4-2 victory over Teddy Smith and the Republic Racers.

Masterson's blow was the first Hicksville hit of the game and was the Loyolas' first in 11 and 1-3 innings, for the night previous the Blue bowled to the Grumman Yankees, 4-0, in a five inning game in which they were held hitless by Roy Stephenson and Ollie Johnston.

The Grumman loss was sustained on Rockville Center's modern softball plant, Lister Field, and despite heavy rains before the game 1,800 fans overflowed the stands.

Until Masterson delivered in the seventh, Teddy Smith was the mangle over the Loyolas. Two unearned runs gained in the first frame on four Hicksville errors looked more than enough for him to decision Bill Bordiuk despite the fact that he only relinquished a lone hit. However, an error at first which allowed Jerry Kiesel to reach base with one gone in the seventh opened the gates.

Hicksville tied it 2-2 on Masterson's blast and before the crowd settled back Ed Coleman banged a double. Jim Barone deposited a single in centerfield and the Loyolas went ahead 3-2. Barone advanced on the throw home and later scored on a single by Pete Zelter.

It was the Loyolas' third victory in five beach starts and left them two games behind the divisional leaders from Franklin Square.

The Hicksville batters were no

Precinct In Clean Sweep In PBC Play

While Hicksville's PBC topped Carle Place 1-0, "Syosset" was taking the measure of Port Washington to give the Second Police Precinct a clean sweep for the day in the North Shore PBC League.

Syosset's big break came in the third inning, when big Eddie Kraemer cleared the sacks with a tremendous triple to give pitcher Paul Cramer a lead he never relinquished. Cramer struck out nine and issued but one pass to take a deserving 5 - 2 triumph.

For Hicksville's cause, Pitcher Hartmann went the route, bearing down in the clutches, which, coupled with Ernie Small's 5th inning homer, gave the locals the nod 1-0.

Syosset has 6 wins and 4 losses, while Hicksville has 7 wins and 3 losses. Batteries: Carle Place—Scro; Albanese. Hickville—Hartman; Wesnofske. Syosset—Cramer; Kerbs. Port—Brown; Elkin.

Superman Guest At John's Tavern

HICKSVILLE—Walter Podolok, known professionally as Superman, one of the most popular present day wrestlers, was the guest with his wife, two daughters and manager, at John's Tavern, W. Marie St., recently for a buffet supper. Superman had a match earlier the same evening at Copaque, and is due to make a European trip shortly.

Krebs Victor 6-1

Krebs and Schulz Motors defeated Great Park on Sunday, July 3, with the score of 6 to 1. Game was played at Grant Park. Bill DeVine pitched a no-hitter until the 7th inning and was spoiled for a shut-out by one run.

match for Stephenson as he secured all the outs in a four inning chore via strikeouts. Johnston, replaced him in the fifth and worked one frame before rain halted the game, struck out two. Masterson bounced to him to accomplish the third out.

Grumman tagged Bordiuk for seven hits and three of their runs were earned.

In both the second and third innings Stephenson walked three men in a row but the best Hicksville could do with its opportunities was a loud foul down the left field line by Bill Byrnes.

Ted Murray went to the bank of the Mill River, which borders all fields of Lister Park, to make an unbelievable catch of a ball hit off the bat of Stephenson in the third. It was the outstanding play of the night.

Do We Expect Too Much of Govt?

MAYOR Mc GUP By J. Jarvis

Miss Patricia Ann Clayton addressed the class of 49 of Hicksville High School was given a fine reception by the graduation audience in June. The daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Cranston Clayton of 241 Broadway, Hicksville, her remarks are reprinted herewith for the Herald readers:

"We are living in a time of unrest, when the principles of democratic government, which we have long taken for granted, are being attacked, not only by non-democratic foreign governments, but even by distinguished groups of people within our own country. And surprisingly, much of this internal discontent arises from people who would seem to have no cause for complaint.

Make Democracy Work
 "It is not surprising when Negroes, like Paul Robeson or Benjamin Davis, who have been the victims of undemocratic persecution, denounce our government as hypocritical and tyrannical, and end by rejecting democracy as we know it altogether. It is to be expected that when a supposedly democratic form of government fails to provide democratic rights to a portion of its people, that portion should protest. Our duty to such groups is plain. Instead of repressing their protests, we should set things right in their behalf. The first step in preserving democracy is, as we are often told, to make democracy work. "But what shall we say of Judith Coplon, Eugene Dennis, Whittaker Chambers, Alger Hiss and the American citizens who recently broadcast for Adolph Hitler? They are not from the ranks of the poor or underprivileged. They have always been reasonably well-fed, well-clothed, and well-protected by the laws of the land. Unrest, and dissatisfaction with democracy among such people as these presents us with a kind of mystery, a mystery which we must solve if our country is to survive.

PATRICIA ANN CLAYTON

"I suggest that much of our American radicalism is caused by teaching people to expect more from the nation than any nation can guarantee, and more than our own nation ever promised to provide. In fairness to our government, let us be careful to distinguish between what it obligates itself to do for us and what we must always do for ourselves. It promises us freedom of speech but it cannot guarantee that we have anything worth saying when we assemble but it cannot guarantee that any good will come out of our assembling. It guarantees us freedom of religion but it cannot guarantee that we shall be religious or that we shall follow a good religion.

We All Must Work
 "Neither our government nor any government can guarantee us a good job if we won't work. It cannot guarantee us friends unless we are friendly. It cannot guarantee us happiness unless we have happiness within us. The United States of America is not God, and it should not be required to serve the purposes of God. It cannot give us the Kingdom of God. It cannot offer us an Utopia.

"Therefore, we should not speak even of our own country as being more than it is. A salesman must be careful to sell his products on the basis of their actual merits. Else he will reap dissatisfied customers. By the same token, when we teach people to expect more from the government than it can ever possibly provide, we are simply sowing the seeds of disappointment and unrest. We shall be doing far more to preserve our liberties if we remain thankful for the substantial blessings which our country can and does afford us and consecrate ourselves to making the most of them.

"We should remember, too, that the permanence of our form of government depends, in the final analysis, upon the quality of the people who comprise it. Ours is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. But this can mean little as easily as it can mean much. If we, the American people, are a second-rate people, then ours is a government of second-rate people, by second-rate people, and for second-rate people. Our government can remain worthy to endure only if we, its people make it so.

"The most important task then, in preserving our liberties is to build solid character into the lives of ourselves and our fellow-citizens. To this end, may I call attention to the counsel once offered us by the Father of our Country, George Washington: 'Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of education, reason and experience alike forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle.'

Opinion and Comment:

Bus-Taxi Snarl At R.R. Depot

With bus service between Hicksville and the Levitt development reestablished along Jerusalem Ave., the problem of bus-taxi congestion at the Hicksville depot is again brought more strongly into focus. (And we might add that the schedule of service by the Levittown Corp. leaves much to be desired. It is the hope of the BMA and other local groups that more frequent trips will be warranted shortly).

Our concern at the moment, however, is with the space allowed near the Hicksville depot for the arrival and departure of buses. A very short span from the Newbridge Rd. (Herzog-Pl.) corner north to the RR crossing is designated by ordinance for a bus stop and three taxi stands. The space is entirely inadequate with not one but three different bus lines now pulling into this congested curb space.

The Hicksville Advisory Parking Commission, headed by Rev. Howard Rogers, made the suggestion to the town fathers last fall that new bus stations be established—one in front of the Reformed Church along Jerusalem Ave. near Newbridge Rd. and the other around the corner on Newbridge, both within easy steps of the depot. Parson and Levittown buses could pause in front of the church, which is already equipped with prohibiting auto parking, and the other station could serve Schenck as it starts the loop around the community.

This would provide badly needed additional space for the taxis along Jerusalem Ave. in front of Solter Monumental Works.

And speaking of taxis, disturbing reports have reached the Herald regarding the antics of some operators; at least one of whom believes the limited cab stand is for his exclusive use.

As our community grows and the neighborhood fills in with homes, the importance of the depot as a terminal for buses and cabs will grow. Now would appear to be the time to give some real attention to the development of an adequate station for cabs and buses. When the new gas station is opened for business on the opposite corner, the problem is going to get even more involved, since less curb space is bound to result.

Our terminal problems are not in the distant future. They are here with us now, getting worse daily. For an immediate partial solution, amendments to the local parking ordinance would be a starting point for the town fathers. A cabbie licensing ordinance, such as Port Washington and Farmingdale have in effect, should be another immediate consideration.

Three Cents A Word

Are you interested in your community paper? We believe you can better understand what we are attempting to do if you can picture the problems and difficulties encountered before the printed page comes into your hands.

For example, we did some calculating this week and came up with the astonishing fact that it costs about three cents a word to bring a typical issue—such as this—to your living room. The exact figure for last week's edition was .0278 per word. At this point you might be justified in remarking that we waste a lot of wordage—because there are a few items in each issue which hold no interest for you. But consider, there are people of all kinds of likes and dislikes and interests who read the Herald each week because of something that does interest them.

The editing problem then is deciding which words to print and which to eliminate. We'll be doing a successful job when we publish enough of the kind of material which interests the greatest number. You can help us if you will express your likes and dislikes. We like to hear from Herald readers.

Hicksville on Air Map

Hicksville is one of only four Nassau communities designated on the new 1949 Airport Map and Directory issued this week by the New York State Department of Commerce. Underscored in red on the map are 250 other villages of the state which are "air marked"; i.e., marked with the name of the town clearly visible to pilots. Other Nassau villages marked are Freeport, Oyster Bay and Glen Cove.

Hicksville was airmarked through the efforts of the civic association using paint and technical services provided by the Aviation Bureau of the State Department of Commerce. The name of the village is painted in 10-foot letters on the roof of the Playhouse Theatre.

Charter Ceremony Held for Troop 291

Charter Night ceremonies for Boy Scout Troop 291, Hicksville, were held at the Trinity Lutheran Church, on June 23. The Scouts were the guests of the Men's Club, sponsors of the Troop.

William Tietjen, commissioner of the Northeast District of Nassau County Boy Scouts, presented the charter to Oscar Brown, president of the Men's Club. Mr. Brown then presented it to Scoutmaster Al Wedderien.

Second class badges were awarded to the following Scouts during the ceremony: Robert Frier, William Banschbach, Kenneth Martin, William Eisemann, Malcolm Strossen and Edward Erb.

William Prohaska was awarded the Senior Patrol Leader Badge. Various demonstrations in fire prevention, first aid and safety were given by the various patrols.

The Herald phone number is Hicksville 3-1400.
