P-TA Council to Honor LeBarron At Founder's Day Dinner in Feb.

HICKSVILLE—Dr. Erie H. LeBarron will be the guest of honor at the annual Founder's Day Dinner in February of the Council of P-TA's, it was announced at the Council's last meeting. Dr. LeBarron, a former Superintendent of Schools here, was recently appointed to the State Dept. of Education's Division of Buildings and Grounds. He works with school boards in the Long Island area.

Twenty-two delegates attended the Council meeting, Jan. 11. The full delegation of voting representatives from each unit is four—the school principal, the P-TA president, past president and one elected delegate. The units were representing at the meeting as follows: East St., 4; Dutch La., 3; Fork La., 2; Lee Ave., 2; Nicholas St., 0; Old Country Rd., 2; Woodland Ave., 2; Burns Ave., 2; Jr. High, 3; and Sr. High, 2.

Mrs. Greta Hutchinson, Legislative Chairman for the Western Long Island District, explained to the Council how legislation should function in the individual units. Legislation chairmen are a link between the unit, the school district, the community, state and nation, she said. They should work closely with Higher Education, Health and Safety chairmen, she advised.

March 14 is set for the Council's next meeting, their fourth regular one of the year.

Mrs. Martin Asorian, Western Long Island Representative, was a guest at the meeting. The East St. Hospitality Committee served refreshments.

Where names and addresses are recorded, substitute stickers are being mailed direct. Other car owners who do not have the 1956 permits are asked to apply at the annex.

DUN & BRADSTREET SAYS:

—NEW YORK CITY—The community of Hicksville has moved up from Seventh to fifth position among Nassau County communities in a physical count of businesses. According to Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., Hicksville has 517 businesses as of the first day of this year compared with 445 a year ago.

Hempstead continues to hold first position with 814 businesses, despite the loss of 746 names to newly created Post Office areas of West Hempstead, East Meadow and Uniondale. Freeport is second with 644, Valley Stream remains in third place with 556 and Great Neck held on to fourth with 526 names only nine more than Hicksville.

The report also indicated that Bethpage during the past year added 35 businesses, to reach 191. Jericho reported a loss of two for a net of 16. The listing does not include a separate report on Plainview.

ECHO OF STATE AUDITORS' REPORT:

3 to 2 Vote Defeats Old Motion To Get Car Allowance Refund

HICKSVILLE—By a vote of 2 aye and 3 nay, with one abstention and one member absent, the Board of Education has rejected a motion to force Stanton H. Miller, assistant superintendent of schools, to refund $777 to the school district. The State Auditors in their report on the district's fiscal affairs noted that retroactive payments are "unconstitutional". The motion to obtain the reimbursement, tabled on Sept. 9 of last year, was lost at the Board of Education meeting, Friday night.

Miller, now assistant superintendent for instruction, was formerly administrative assistant to former Superintendent E. H. LeBarron.

The State Auditor's report said: "In June of 1954, the Board passed a resolution for the payment of $777 for mileage on the administrative assistant's personally owned car, for the period from Aug. 1, 1953 thru June 30, 1954. Such allowance was retroactive in that it had not been provided in his contract of employment, nor by Board resolution prior to the incurrence of the expense."

The claim presented for such amount, as well as other claims for reimbursement for the use of personally owned cars, contained no detail as to miles traveled, dates of travel, points of departure and arrival and related time. Retroactive payments are unconstitutional and the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education require detailed claims," the State Auditors pointed out.

The State Audit was considered by the Board of Education on Sept. 9 and at that meeting Trustee Arthur L. Eirich made the motion to seek the refunding.

His motion was tabled pending an inquiry with the State Dept. of Audit and Control by the School Administration. The report of the inquiry on this item and others in the auditor's examination and record (Please turn to Page 18)

State Aid, LI College And Promised Petition

HICKSVILLE—The Board of Education meets this Friday night, Jan. 20, in East St. School rather than the high school because bid opening has been scheduled at the old stand.

To night (Thursday) a committee of the Board was scheduled to meet with various organization leaders in an effort to organize a movement to have a proposed State College, scheduled for Long Island, established here.

Last Friday night, School Superintendent Wallace Lamb told the Board the district may gain $200,000 in state aid for 1956-57 if the Heald Commission Report becomes state law.

The Board heard a report by Attorney Bertram Crane that Robert J. McGrath, who in November promised to hand the Board a petition with several thousand signatures asking for a district vote on purchase of the Willet Ave. School site, will not have the promised petition. Two referenda were held last year upon the site purchase and construction of a Willet Ave. Elementary School. Both times the question was rejected by the voters.

Weather Hinders Mothers March, Chairman Suggests Mailed Gifts

HICKSVILLE—About $250 has been reported collected by the Mothers' March on Polio to date by George Power, chairman here. However, only about 5 per cent of the collectors have reported, Power said.

A goal of about $10,000 has been set, the chairman said, but the most a Mothers' March has ever totaled here has been $2,200. Power said he thinks $4,000 would be a good showing for the district.

Power would like to receive by mail the contribution of persons who were not home when canvassers came to their door. His address is 57 Gardner Ave.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN Club installation was conducted this week by County Clerk Ernest F. Francke at a meeting of the Centre Island club at Town Republican Headquarters, 146 Newbridge Road, Hicksville. At the installation, corsages were presented by Mrs. Drake to retiring officers Mrs. Dolores Cummings, Mrs. Alice Eaton and Mrs. Vicki Menon. Also present for the ceremonies and meeting were Town Clerk Henry M. Curran and Councilman Henry McInnes. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

Burns Sees Every District Assured of More State Aid

ALBANY — The vigorous stand which Republican legislators took in 1954 to preserve the equal opportunity principle in education aid was credited today by Assemblyman John J. Burns of Sea Cliff with the fact that every school district in the state is assured at least as much as it now receives in State Educational Aid, plus 10 per cent.

Assemblyman Burns, who represents the district embracing the Mid-Island area cited the recommendations of the Temporary Commission on Educational Finance at Albany.

The Republican legislators drew from Gov. Harriman an 11th-hour repudiation of the Tammany flat-grant scheme and a promise that "no county, no community, no city is going to lose one penny of state aid for education."

"But for this forced promise," Assemblyman Burns pointed out, "the flat grant proposal undoubtedly would have been pressed in the Head Commission."

The original commission was appointed in 1954 by Gov. Dewey with Chancellor Henry T. Heald of NYU as Chairman. It was enlarged in 1955 with seven appointees of Gov. Harriman.

Scrap Glass Takes New, Useful Form At Glasfloss Plant Here

By EILEEN WOLF

HICKSVILLE—Many people collect scrap paper and scrap metal, but few collect scrap glass. Especially broken pieces of glass. Yet that's the raw material from which Glasfloss air filters and automobile storage battery separators are made in a modern plant on New South Road here.

The plant is one of 132 owned by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. It is one of two fiber glass plants owned by the company. The other is in Shelbyville, Ind.

Like many mid-land industries, the fiber glass plant had its beginning in the second world war. It was built by the U. S. Govt. in 1944, near Grumman Engineering Aircraft, off South Broadway. In 1948 Tilo Roofing Co. bought the plant, and continued the production of automobile storage battery separators which the Army had instituted. In March, 1954, it was bought by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Glasfloss air filters and battery separators begin as broken window and plate glass. The glass is collected and crushed by the company at the beginning of the process. Foreign elements are culled from the glass pieces and the result called "cullet". The cullet finally ends up as a web of glass fibers enmeshed in hardened bonding solutions in fluffy mats. The mats' thickness varies according to use.

The fiber glass process used here is of European origin. In 1931 it was devised in Italy, and brought to the U. S. in 1938. There are other methods, some of which begin from newly-manufactured glass. Pittsburgh Plate Glass' other fiber glass factory, in Shelbyville, does not use the European method to produce the very fine fibers it makes for textiles and insulation use.

Fiber is made here from cullet by heating it, and letting it drop through a battery of small holes, forming long, syrup-like fibers as it drops below. On the floor below, large rollers catch the fibers.

In this initial "spinning" process, a differentiation is made between the fiber to be used for filters and that intended for separators. The filter fiber is made coarser by having the holes larger and slowing the rollers. Also, it is sprayed with a heavy, red bonding solution which makes the fibers cling together in the mat.

The separator fiber is left dry and is cut from the roll as a "dry mat," which looks like a bunch of long strands of Angel's Hair. The company does sell what it calls "display fiber".

Baking the mats in a giant 125-foot oven hardens it in its fluffy shape. Before the dry mat is baked it, too, is "bonded" with a white liquid plastic, which also makes the fiber insoluble in electric battery chemical solutions.

Both the red filter mats and the white battery separator mats are "expanded" or pulled before they are baked, which means they are stretched lengthwise and widthwise. This is the process which fluffs up the mats. Three or four miles of filter mat a day are pulled (Please turn to Page 17)

ONE OF TWO SPINNING ROOMS in the Fiberglass plant, showing the balcony of cylindrical furnaces which melt the cullet. Below are the drums on which the fibers are rolled as they fall down through small holes in the bottom of the furnace. The thickness of the fiber is determined jointly by the size of the holes and the speed of the rotating drum. The smaller the holes and the faster the drum, the finer the fiber. Different thickness fibers are required for different products. The only other fiberglass plant owned by Pittsburgh Plate Glass Corp. is in Shelbyville, Ind., and makes thinner fiber than the Hicksville plant, for use in insulation and textiles.

Boy Scout Fund Workers To Train

BETHPAGE — Training meetings for all captains and workers for the Boy Scout Fund Drive were announced this week by Henry Rockhill and Morris Chandler, district chairman.

To facilitate coverage of the town, Bethpage has been divided into two districts known as Area one and Area two. Area one includes that section of the town, south of Cherry Ave. from the east side of Stewart Ave. to Plainview Rd. and Bethpage Parkway, south to the Old Motor Parkway and west to Hicksville Rd. Rockhill is in charge.

Area two includes all homes west of Stewart Ave., north of the Railroad tracks and that area north of Cherry Ave. from Stewart Ave. to Plainview Rd., running north to the Bethpage Fire District line. Chandler will handle the drive for this area.

He has set Thursday, Jan. 26, for a training session for his captains. Al Muensfeld, Community Training chairman for the drive, will direct the meeting. They will meet at the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. clubhouse at 8:30 p.m. On Wednesday, Jan. 25, Rockhill will meet with the captains and workers for his district, in the Powell Ave. School at 8:15 p.m.

Both men point out that it is very necessary for all workers to be fully aware of the aims and purposes of this year's fund drive which includes the $1,000,000 capital fund for the expansion of facilities for Nassau's 27,000 Boy Scouts and 17,172 Cub Scouts soon to move into the Boy Scout program; and the $250,000 expense drive for the current year.

Nassau residents have not been asked to contribute to a capital fund drive since 1925 when Camp Wauwepex was established. In Bethpage, there are nine Cub Packs, six Boy Scout troops totaling 659 scouts—a 41 per cent increase over last year.

Plans are made to reach every resident in the community in this one day drive to take place on Feb. 5.

Cold, Snow Slows Mothers March

BETHPAGE—The Mothers' March on Polio has collected $107 here with about 10% of the mother-collectors reporting, Mrs. Peter Curcio says.

Sunday's bad weather and subsequent snow and ice has deterred some of the collectors, she said, but she showed determination to see that all Bethpage was canvassed from door to door for the campaign. Mrs. Curcio said that the Mothers' March goal of about $1,000 would probably be met.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Building Alone Is Not Answer

By Fred J. Noeth

THE 'NOBLE EXPERIMENT', as it was called at the time of dedication last summer, has come to a close. The former Lebkuecher building, owned by the Hicksville Park and Parking District, is no longer available as a Community or Youth Centre. The site will be levelled for shopper parking in the area.

The building was made available last summer for local organizations thru the Hicksville Youth Coordinating Council in a test period. The HYCC is now planning to take over some space in a building owned by Frank Wells on Old Country Road near Newbridge, adjacent to the Centre Shops.

We held high hopes for the Community Centre Building idea. At the time it was suggested that the eight-room private house which in its latter period of private ownership became office space for professional people, we cited the Glen Cove Neighborhood House. We expressed the hope that the Hicksville building might eventually become the duplicate of the Glen Cove project which has served the North Shore city for 40 years.

During the time when the Hicksville building was in use there remained the legal question as to whether or not a Park and Parking District, such as we have in the community, had the authority to spend taxpayers' money on such an activity. This question may be resolved or clarified in the current session of the State Legislature at the request of Oyster Bay Township.

It was our hope that the building would become a focal point for numerous community activities, youth and adult. We have no municipal building which is readily available for the periodic meetings of adult leaders of Little League, Boy and Girl Scouting, etc. We do have schools but their basic purpose is education and educational activities have first and primary call.

For some reason, it never quite came off. The HYCC became, in effect, a new youth organization developing its own programs rather than serving as a true coordinating unit. Perhaps contributing to this was a certain wariness on the part of the established youth programs, which is understandable.

By strange coincidence just about the same time as the trial period for the Hicksville building ended, the Glen Cove Neighborhood House changed its role also. Henceforth it will be the sixth branch of the Nassau-Suffolk YMCA.

The statement from the YMCA says it this way: "Keenly aware of a need for trained assistance in extending its services to Glen Cove, the Board of Directors of the Neighborhood Assoc. elected to become affiliated with the YMCA after a study of several national organizations to determine which could best serve the needs of this city."

Which brings us back to a fundamental thought: The mere provision of facilities is not enough. The YMCA plan has worked out well in Huntington on a town-wide basis. It seems to have been the long-developed decision in Glen Cove. Capable, experienced and trained leadership is needed, working with a sound program. We still do not think it is a proper activity for the school district. The public school system has been developed for one purpose: Education of our children.

Meanwhile, the Police Boys Club needs adult leaders for its sports program; Little League and Babe Ruth League needs men and women; Girl and Boy Scouting needs manpower, adult volunteers. If you have the desire to assist in programs for the youth of our community, there is a wide open field which will utilize as much time and energy as you care to give.

Operation VFW

Veterans of Foreign Wars
William M. Gouse Jr. Post

By HOWARD W. DARLING
National Veterans of Foreign Wars Week commences Jan. 22 and ends on Saturday Jan. 28. Our National Commander requests that during this particular week all VFW members "tell the world" about the worthy aims of this great organization. As an individual you can do your part by bringing a friend or neighbor to our next Post meeting so that they may share in this wonderful work and become acquainted with the greatest bunch of fellows in this part of the county.

At the last meeting, Commander Louis Klein read several "thank you" letters from the veterans out at the Farmingdale Sanitarium where 3211 presented each one of the 53 veterans there a little token for Christmas. It was a fine gesture on the part of 3211 and the thank you notes received were heartwarming to say the least.

Thanks again to Helen Klevansky for sending me some more of those precious cellophane tabs for the blind home in Brooklyn. This is about the sixth time she had forwarded some for this work.

The next big affair on the agenda of the Post is our Annual Dinner Dance to be held on Feb. 18 at Henningsen's, Old Country Rd. and Newbridge Rd., Hicksville. Tickets are $9.50 per couple and can be had by calling George Walden of Briggs St., Hicksville. Get your reservations in early and be assured of a place.

Last Monday evening the Board of Directors of the Hicksville Veterans Assoc. for the ensuing year were duly nominated and elected. They are: William Frohenhoefer, Robert Obermeyer, Frank Sutter, Joseph Reinhardt, Louis Klein, Edward Shannon, Vernon Wagner, Fred Sutter, James Klueg, Louis Paddadino and George Walden. The first meeting of the Board was held on Monday evening, Jan. 16th.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Post announced that William Frohenhoefer was the winner of the License Plates Tab for 1956 which they awarded during the course of the evening. It has also been announced by the ladies that they are now bowling once a week at the Woodbury Lanes, Bowling Alleys. Any member interested may join them by contacting Mrs. Louis Klein, Susan St., Hicksville.

The Ladies Auxiliary also announces that two new members have joined their ranks.

namely, Mrs. Vernon Wagner and Mrs. Gene Iatroffelli. Welcome ladies and I know that you will become staunch supporters of this organization.

The World Premiere of VFW film "The Magic Bond" will begin during National VFW Week, on Television—Be sure and watch for the station and time. It depicts how the G. I.'s of yesterday are serving their country today, as members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Bob Considine, distinguished news columnist, TV commentator and former war correspondent, is the principal narrator in this film.

You will see how the VFW strives to "honor the dead by helping the living"; the work of the VFW and Ladies Auxiliary members around the disabled veterans in the nation's hospitals; the methods employed by the VFW to combat juvenile delinquency through its various youth groups, Boy Scout work, etc. Watch and view "The Magic Bond" and you will be proud that you wear the VFW emblem in your lapel.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: There is no circumstance in the world so bad that it cannot be the means of a great blessing.

Herald Reader Opinion

To The Editor:

My attention has been drawn to a resolution publicized by an organization which calls itself the "Center Island Jewish School", wherein this organization takes a stand on the matter of the Lonesome Train Cantata affair in the Levittown school system.

The Hicksville Jewish Center wishes to make it clear, without reference to the merits of the controversy in question, that this organization is a purely secular one. The Center Island Jewish School is not to be confused with this or any other synagogue in this area.

I note that the organization states its resolution to have been passed on Friday, Jan. 5, 1956. I would observe that no synagogue in Hicksville or elsewhere would meet on Friday evening, the Jewish Sabbath, for any purpose other than prayer.

I trust that you will give this statement whatever space is necessary to counteract any false impressions which may have been created.

ARTHUR SCHWARTZ
President, Hicksville Jewish Centre.
Jan. 14, 1956.

VOTE OF THANKS

Many thanks to the Officers and Committee of the Northwest Civic Assoc. for a job well done. Preparations for the yearly Christmas party took many hours of hard work. Return cards were sent out to members asking them to name their children so that none would do without.

Publicity specified that the party would be given for the children of members only. Surprising how many non-members came with their children or sent their children alone. Do these people realize that their children received, but a few other children had to do without. I think the hard working committee deserves a vote of thanks and a lot more consideration.

Social Security Question Box

Question: From Mrs. L. P. comes this letter: My husband is 63 years old and has been laid up with a heart condition since 1954. He has not worked since that time. Can he collect his social security now?

Answer: No! He must reach his 66th birthday before he can be eligible for social security benefits. However, he should contact his local social security office and file an application for a disability freeze as soon as possible. This will protect his benefit rate.

For information about social security address all inquiries to the Social Security Administration, 375 New York Ave., Huntington.

The Policies That Guide Us in Our Service to You

by Kerth S. McHUGH, President

New York Telephone Company

Never before has the telephone played such an important role in our daily lives. And at the beginning of a year that will bring even greater advances in the scope and usefulness of telephone service, we believe you should know the policies that guide us in providing that service. They appear below just as they were restated recently for the 80,000 telephone employees who serve you.

We are in business—to provide fast, accurate and dependable communication service when and where our customers want it; to do this successfully and progressively under public regulation; to make our service high in value to the user at the lowest prices that will enable the company to keep faith with investors; go ahead with improvements, and deal fairly with employees:

More specifically our objectives are . . .

Service—to furnish all users the best possible telephone service with friendliness and courtesy; to give the kind of service the customer wants—not what we think he ought to have; to insure the complete privacy of telephone calls; and continuously to improve the quality and scope of the service.

Employees—to have full regard for every employee as an individual person:

- to give each employee ample and equal opportunity to reach maximum effectiveness on his or her job and to advance to the limit of his or her ability.
- to pay wages and salaries that are good in comparison with those paid for comparable skills in the community; to keep working conditions good; to see that telephone work is performed safely; and to help provide reasonably against the problems attending accidents, sickness, old age and death.
- to practice real decentralization of management by giving supervisors in each community, and management employees at all levels, the full responsibility and authority they need for the best performance of their work; and to select, train and develop men and women so that there will always be first-rate managers to conduct the growing business.

Investors—to safeguard the investment of all who put their savings into the business; to give them a regular and reasonable return on their investment; to build and maintain a financial climate that will attract additional investment whenever the good of the service requires it.

Public Relations—to merit public good will by giving the best possible telephone service; to learn the user's wants and inform him of our policies, for mutual understanding will help both him and the company; to help users learn how best to use their service, since their cooperation is essential to the quality of all service; to let the user know what we have to sell.

- to remember always the little things in telephone service—our success lies in doing them well.
- to practice corporate good citizenship and to encourage all employees as individuals to take part in worthwhile activities as citizens in their communities.
- to be humble in the Company's size—our customers make our size possible.

Politics—to keep the Company out of politics; to recognize the responsibilities and authority of public officials and give them all proper support; to take all proper steps to safeguard the Company's interests by presenting the facts directly to public officials, city councils, legislative committees, regulatory bodies and other political authorities.

National Defense—to give first consideration to the communication requirements of our country; to see that the needs of local, state and federal governments, civilian defense authorities and the armed forces are met to the utmost during peace or war or the threat of war.

In conclusion—We are deeply proud of our part in the Bell Telephone System . . .

- The American Telephone and Telegraph Company is not only our share owner, but a vital contributor to the quality and scope of the service we furnish.
- Continuous research and development work by Bell Telephone Laboratories make possible a steady flow of improvements and economies to the advantage of our customers.
- The resources and skills of Western Electric Company, the manufacturing and supply organization of the System, enable us to buy, build and operate telephone facilities more efficiently than would otherwise be possible.

. . . We are glad we are a part of this great Bell System team and can call at will on all its members for help in providing the best telephone service in the world.

OFF NEWBRIDGE ROAD:

Discuss Taxes At Civics Meeting

By RUTH CONTI
WE 1-7612

A very interesting meeting of the Allied Community Civic Assoc., Inc. was held on Monday, Jan. 16, at the Fork Lane School Auditorium. The main topic discussed at the meeting was "Property Assessments and Taxes".

The guest speakers were Gen. Emil M. Podynn, Chairman of Board of Assessors, Dept. of Assessment of Nassau County, who spoke on real property assessment procedures, veteran's tax exemptions and other items pertaining to the above topics. The other guest speaker was William W. Brownlee, Jr., Manager of the Mortgage Servicing Dept. of Jamaica Savings Bank, who spoke on the underlying major causes for the increases in our monthly mortgage payments for the year 1956 and set forth his institution's policy in estimating and maintaining escrow fund accounts for real estate taxes and insurance coverage on our homes.

Don't forget to attend the second annual installation dance of the Allied Community Civic Assoc. to be held at the Bethpage Country Club Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at 9 P.M. Music for the affair will be provided by the 12-piece orchestra of Derek Carroll and his Levittuners. Tickets for the dance are $1.50 per person and may be obtained from Mrs. May Cassidy of 15 Preston Lane or may be purchased at the door if you haven't received them by mail.

There will be awards of a three-speed automatic phonograph, $25 U.S. Savings Bond, and five door prizes. I hope to see many of our friends and neighbors there as I'm sure a good time will be had by all.

The assoc. wishes to extend its heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the following professional men and business organizations for their support of the Christmas party whereby approximately 450 children in the community were given a Christmas stocking and candy cane by Santa Claus: Dr. Anthony R. Carotenuto, Dr. Chester B. Rackson, Warren M. Doolittle, Tom Loughlin, Whale Oil Company, Stop N' Shop and Crown Bake Shop, both of the Allied Shopping Center, Midway Farm and Midway Garage.

The Holy Name Society of the Holy Family R. C. Church selected the Christmas display of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams of 26 April Lane as the best outdoor display of the religious aspect of Christmas. Honorable mention was made of the displays of Mr. and Mrs. George McCue, 5 Edgewood Road and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waldvogel, 173 Kingfisher Road. All religious instructions have resumed at the Church after the Christmas holidays. The adult inquiry class will resume on Jan. 18.

Our sincere sympathy goes to our neighbor, Terry Collins, whose mother passed away two weeks ago in Meadowbrook Hospital.

Lewis Gordon of 5 Peter Road will be one year old on Jan. 22. Henry Cierski of 37 Croyden Lane celebrated his birthday on Jan. 4 with a small gathering of friends at his home. Millie Salvador of 32 Croyden Lane will celebrate her birthday on Feb. 4 and her husband William Salvador will celebrate his on Feb. 7. Congratulations and Happy Birthday to all of you.

SERMON TOPIC

Rabbi Phineas Kadushin of the Plainview Jewish Community Center has chosen as his topic "How the Jews Began" at Friday night services, Jan. 20, at 8:30. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rosenfeld will be host at the Oneg Shabbat which follows.

Plan Comedy Show Feb 3

The Plus X Society of Confraternity Parents and Teachers of St. Ignatius R. C. Church, Hicksville, is sponsoring a comedy in three acts on Friday, Feb. 3 at 8:30 P.M. in the school auditorium. The title of the play is "Cheaper by the Dozen".

The St. Columba CYO from West 25th St., New York, is coming to Hicksville to present the play. The teen-ager group is under the direction of Father Robert T. Dunn of St. Columba's parish. Their presentation of this popular play met with very great success in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Giannelli, Ways & Means Committee Chairman, have arranged with Father Dunn to bring his boys and girls to Hicksville. The tickets for the play are $1.00. They may be purchased from members of the Executive Committee or on Sunday mornings after all the masses. It is the hope of the members on the committee that the visiting actors and actresses will perform before a capacity audience.

Miss Audrey Blyman Home From Europe

HICKSVILLE — Audrey Blyman has just returned from a seven months study-tour of Europe on the Queen Mary which docked in New York on Jan. 17. After traveling around the continental countries, including France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Germany and Italy, she went to Edinburgh where she completed one term's work at the University of Edinburgh. The subjects she studied were Theory and History of Education, Moral Philosophy, Astronomy and Meteorology.

"Nothing can replace the atmosphere and feeling of home but travel can add to a person's experiences in such a way as to make this home life seem more cherished. The traveler if he wishes can notice the ways and manners of the various people he meets and collect thoughts which he needs to make his life richer," Miss Blyman said.

At the University she played on the hockey team. In Britain the game was first played and she enjoyed learning some new techniques which these players were keen on using. (To a Britisher keen on and smashing, "posh" are as standard as our wonderful or beautiful).

Fly-Up Held For 11 Brownies

HICKSVILLE — Girl Scout Troop No. 20, here, presented the official Girl Scout pins to about 11 former Brownie "Fly-ups" at a ceremony in Dutch Lane School, last Wednesday, Jan. 11. Mrs. Florence Cornellias of 24 Belfry Lane, here, is the Troop leader, with Mrs. "Jo" Blum and Mrs. Mildred De Shaw as Assistants. All three women will represent their Troop at the Nassau County Girl Scout Leader Dinner being held in Millerside Inn, Jericho, next Wednesday night, Jan. 25, at 7:15.

Lee Ave P-TA Has Fine Program

Perhaps the most interesting and informative program of this or any previous years was presented on the evening of Thursday, Jan. 12 at the meeting of the Lee Ave. P-TA of Hicksville.

Titled "The Educator Evaluates Your Child", the program developed how children are appraised, and how these evaluations are continued throughout the child's school career.

Moderator for this evening was Robert Eaton, Chairman of the Education Committee for this P-TA. The panel consisted of William McCarthy, Principal of Lee Ave. School; Donald F. Abt, Principal of Division Ave. Junior High School; Mrs. Bernice Newborn, teacher at Lee Ave.; Mrs. M. Winant, Elementary Guidance Supervisor; and Marvin Gibson, Director of Student Guidance No. 17.

These Educators by explaining from each of their individual angles the services given to our children, managed to the end of the program to give a clear picture of how these appraisals are made, and what the reasoning is behind their thoughts on our children.

A question and answer period was followed at the end of the panel program. The audience of approximately two hundred thoroughly enjoyed this interesting and educational evening.

200 Attend Holiday Dance

The Hicksville High School P-TA Holiday Dance drew over 250 students Saturday night, Jan. 7.

Among the 1955 graduates who attended were Gail Fallon, Marty Katz, Jay Poggali, Don Huffstetler, Lenny Keeling, Joe Stiller, Peter Callahan and Robert Tolces.

Joy Watson, of 8 Ninth St. here, won the cash door prize.

The next dance, Feb. 4, will be a GAB Dance, which stands for Girl Asks Boy, 1956 being leap year.

Mrs. John Fallon, P-TA chairman of the monthly dances, expressed her gratitude for the good behavior of the students and for the attendance of the chaperones. She is looking for about 12 more chaperones for the February dance.

Chaperones help at the door with tickets and other arrangements. Mrs. Fallon would like to start a checking system since two boys with identical jackets got them mixed up at the last dance. It seems. Prospective chaperones can call Mrs. Fallon at WE 5-3177.

THE GREEN THUMB:

Order Trees And Shrubs For Spring

By ALMA W. CRAIG
It is not too early to order any shrubs, trees, or perennials that you are planning to buy in the spring. Nurserymen will appreciate having your order before the rush begins, and will ship at proper planting time, giving you first choice.

There are decided advantages, however, in going to a local nursery at planting time and selecting your material—if you can get what you want: 1. you see what you are getting; 2. stock grown in your own neighborhood is better because it is accustomed to the same conditions it will encounter in your garden.

For instance, some daylilies (hemerocallis) bloom twice a season in the South, but make a poor showing in Northern gardens. Such a plant, ordered from a Texas or California firm would probably be a disappointment. 3. A plant transplanted from a local nursery to your border in a matter of hours would suffer little shock in being moved. Orders from a distant place, it may be several days on the way, subjected to extremes of heat and cold, dryness, and lack of ventilation.

Packing has been greatly improved, thanks to plastic, vermiculite and other modern inventions, but no plant arrives in the lush, green state of the one you transport quickly from a nearby nursery row to your garden. You will get a bigger, huskier specimen, too, because plants have to be pruned and trimmed to stand the rigors of a long journey. Moreover, your local nurseryman is usually a friendly and generous person, who will discuss your problem with you and give you valuable free advice along with your purchase.

In choosing material for foundation plantings, be sure the evergreens are truly dwarf, and the flowering shrubs a small variety. Pruning will not permanently curb a fifteen foot arbutus or a yucca that insists on growing both high and wide, without spoiling the ornamental value. The only way to be sure of what you are getting is to patronize a reliable nursery. Good shrubs and evergreens are naturally expensive, because it takes a lot of time and labor to grow a nice specimen, but they are a long-term investment that pays a larger dividend of beauty with each passing year.

However, you can balance your garden budget by growing your own perennials, at least some of them. Some are only for the expert, but many are no harder to raise from seed than are annuals, provided you start them at the right time. One good plant of shasta daisy, lupin, platycodon, etc., costs from fifty cents to a dollar. For about twenty-five cents you can raise enough from seed to supply yourself and all the neighbors.

But you must have patience. Pansies, delphiniums, hollyhocks, and a few others will flower late in the first summer if you plant them under glass in February, but most perennials do not bloom until the second summer, and a few, like columbine, may take three years. That is why the professional grower has to charge you "rent" for the long period in which he cares for them.

MEETING ON FRIDAY

The Robert O. Ulmer Memorial Post 44, Amvets, will meet this Friday night, Jan. 20 at the clubhouse on E. Marie St., Hicksville. The rifle squad is planning its first drill of the year under the direction of George Honoski.

Parties Highlight Social Events

By BETTY MOGAVERO
WELLS 5-9771

Hello, and a belated healthy and happy new year to you all. Have you found, such as I did—that the holidays are becoming more hectic and gayer as each new season rolls around, I have made one New Year's resolution, and that is to be extra thankful that our family is well and thriving, and that we are all together.

There were many holiday house parties in our development; The William Wallaces' of Wellesley Lane had one which was attended by the following neighbors: Mr. and Mrs. James Harvey; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mein; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wallace; Mr. and Mrs. William Keller; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fields; and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jemele, all of Wellesley Lane. An outstanding feature of this party was that our fun-loving mailman, Pat Sherbow and his wife were invited and Pat had everyone fooled for quite a while when he walked in masqueraded in a blonde wig, long eye lashes, and a red flannel nightgown. This is a sight I would have loved to see.

Another "wing-ding" was given

Seek To Save Striped Bass

ALBANY — Commercialization of certain species of fish in the waters in and around New York State is steadily leading to the eradication of these fish.

State Senator William S. Hults and Assemblyman John J. Burns feel they can help prevent the decline of one particular species, the Roccus Saxatilis—commonly known as striped bass—by amending the Conservation Law so that striped bass can be taken only by hook and line.

Among advocates of the bill are the sportsmen in the State, who feel that fishing for striped bass should be a sport, and allowing commercialization is leading to the extinction of this species. The present law allows striped bass to be taken with a net or in any other manner in any number. The proposed bill would not limit the number of striped bass to be taken, Hults and Burns said.

THEATRE GUILD MEETS

The second meeting of the newly reactivated Plainview Theater Guild will be held tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p.m. at the Jamaica Avenue School. Plans for the coming year will be discussed. Those who are interested but cannot attend are urged to phone Al Blumenthal at WE 5-6285.

by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blas of Cornell Lane, who invited Mr. and Mrs. John Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ziegler, all of Cornell Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casertano of Holyoke Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mogavero, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Berkowitz, of Cambridge Drive.

A still further "to do" was held at the home of the Richtmans of Cambridge Drive, who had the following in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Peck, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Blaustein, of Dartmouth Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Raudin of Cambridge Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler of Cornell Lane. A party to celebrate the New Year was given by the Norman Corchnays' of Dartmouth Drive, who invited Mr. and Mrs. Marty Turkel; Mr. and Mrs. John Maniscalco of Wellesley Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kilkenny, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gossy of Dartmouth Dr.

Cub Scout Pack No. 422 will hold a blue and gold dinner sometime in February for the Cubs and their families.

Welcome to new neighbors, Mrs. Esther Geller, her moon and three little daughters of Vassar Lane.

Wedding Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. John Marchetti of Cambridge Drive, who celebrated their 7th Dec. 18th.

Just received a Christmas Card from Capt. T. Thompson and his wife, Stella, who say they will return home from Germany next year in time to celebrate their 14th year of wedded bliss together. Also received a card from Col. Hoar and his wife, who are now in France.

All these drives for causes, of which I could never say in a million years which is the more worthwhile, are all well and good and vitally important to the health and welfare of our communities, but wouldn't one huge Community Chest fund drive once a year accomplish just as much (perhaps even more), and not involve as much painstaking labor on the part of these different volunteers? I don't know that this is a very good suggestion but many people have discussed it pro and con, and I thought I would just relay the thought to you.

A happy birthday hello on the way to Sharon Mein of Wellesley Lane, now 14 years old as of Jan. 11; Irene Felde of Wellesley Lane, who observed her birthday on Jan. 1; Michael Callahan of Cambridge Drive is a 2 year old lad come Feb. 7; Roger Starski of Vassar Lane, who becomes a 3 year old on Jan. 29; Debbie Sue Warren of Dartmouth Drive, who becomes 7 on Feb. 12; Pearl Rushefsky of Hunter Lane, who has a birthday Feb. 11; Trudy Arnold of Wellesley Lane, on Jan. 24; Bobby Hoops of Cambridge Drive, to be 9 on Jan. 20; Martin Turkel marked his big day on Jan. 5; Eric Lonschein of Haverford Rd. a big man of 4 on Jan. 17; Deborah Steinberg of Hunter Lane, who became 5 on Jan. 8.

Also, Michael Barcellona of Dartmouth Drive, 2 years old since Jan. 5; Charles Mirabella of Cambridge Drive, a sweet little boy of 2 since Dec. 20; cute little Steven Rushefsky of Hunter Lane is a 1 year old since Dec. 26; Ruth Gossy of Dartmouth Drive, who noted her natal day Dec. 13; Spouses Muriel and Howard Warren of Dartmouth Drive observed their birthdays Dec. 16 and 18 respectively; Kathryn O'Donnell of Dartmouth Drive is a miss of 6 since Dec. 11; twins Matthew and Jonathan Blaustein of Dartmouth Drive, are now 1 year of age since Jan. 3, with Mom, Pearl, marking her big day Dec. 17; and Maxine Frimmer of Dartmouth Drive was 6 on Dec. 29.

Blessed events occurred in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Goldis of Hunter Lane who have a baby girl named Denise Ellen, born Nov. 13 at the North County Community Hospital, weighing 6 lbs. 13 oz.; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kralstein of Hollins Road who are now the proud parents of Teri Sharon, born Dec. 12 at the North County Community Hospital, tipping the scales at 7 lbs. 11 oz.

from about 500 feet of original, unstretched mats. This is the estimate of Morris Scheperau, Training and Safety Director of the plant, who was once an expander himself.

The battery separator mats call for delicate expansion, however. These silvery rolls are expanded by women, and the mats are much thinner than the filter mats. About 50 separators go into an automobile battery. Women make up 40% of the total plant employees. They also work on the packing assembly line.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass had two fires recently in the exhaust stack of the large oven. One, a fuel blaze, was put out by the Hicksville Fire Dept. on Jan. 3. The second, in the same week, involved only material that was clogging the stack, which was cleaned by the fire. The company has averaged note quite two fires a year, although heating is involved in both major steps of the fiber forming and mat baking process.

After these two steps, the filter mats go through an assembly line, where they are cut in rectangular shapes, put into frames, faced with grillwork and sealed with tape. A Glasfloss air filter emerges.

The grillwork facing of the filters are made of another waste product—metal sheets from which bottle caps have been cut.

Battery separator mats go through an additional process before they can be cut and boxed. They have to be coated with "slurry," a latex solution, on one side. The slurry ensures separation of the electric charge in the battery. It is inspected after the separators are cut from the mat, to make sure there are no pinholes in it. According to Scheperau, Pittsburgh Plate Glass can guarantee a maximum of only 2% defective material to their customers.

The company also produces electric battery "extenders" of fiber glass mats, using glass as a bonding solution. Starch is used as the solution for other types of mats, sold as in-

OFF MILLWOOD GATE:

Palmese Won Holiday Contest

By DOROTHY R. BROWN
Wells 5-0128

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Donlon of 81 Woodbine Drive on the birth of their third child Collee Mary as they called her arrived at 7:58 A.M. on Jan. 11 at Nassau General Hospital in Copiague. Listen to this! While she weighed only 7 pounds 4 ounces she was born with one tooth already through. She has one sister, Cathy, who is three and a brother Dennis who is six years old. The children stayed at Mr. Donlon's sister's on Staten Island while Mrs. Donlon was in the hospital.

What dog we had two weeks ago. Even a dog was lost! Still missing is Terry as she was named, who is a brown haired dog. Anyone who has picked up this dog, which is part Collee and part German shepherd, please contact the guardian Mrs. Kelly at 6 Greenbriar Lane WE 1-7181. She is very anxious to hear of the dogs whereabouts.

A week ago Wednesday we had Millwood Gate Civic Assn. meeting at the Lee Ave. School. At the business meeting the decoration committee announced that Mr. and Mrs. Palmese of 11 Birchwood Lane had won the Christmas display award. They had a very effective arrangement of lights with a nativity scene on one side. Next year may we see more of this fine Christmas spirit.

Also we learned that the Anchor fence around the stores was due to be torn down and a woven wooden fence put up. We hope this is not just a dream. The back entrance will be closed at that time. Another item reported was by John Mutholland on School Budget. Mr. Yanotti and Mr. Mutholland are the Assn. delegates to the group whom Mr. Lamb is to confer information concerning schools and its functions.

Mr. Mutholland told us to watch the papers as they will be publishing the school board actions on various parts of the budget from now on at meetings. This will help us to better acquaint ourselves with the budget for the Annual May meeting. He gave us a brief outline of what has gone on so far in collecting data towards making up this budget.

After the business meeting closed by the proud father Pres. Donlon who had just come from the Hospital and seeing his new off spring.

We had a very interesting talk by Isadore Siegel, Vice Chairman of the Hicksville Youth Coordinating Council on the subject of "Youth in Hicksville." Mr. Siegel gave us a brief history of this council and why it was formed two years ago. The purpose and aim of this group is to promote and encourage Recreation Groups within the town. He told us about the building they have been using and how successful they, the council, felt that it had been for a starting project.

They found that they served over 1,000 different youngsters during the six months this was opened. From this experiment they feel that by forming the right atmosphere with the proper supervision, thus making it fashionable to do the right thing (all youth have an urge to do and dress alike) that it will help solve not all but many of the problems of youth. They will collect at the center instead of on the street corners when this center is opened.

Results of this project is that the council has proposed to the town of Oyster Bay that they hire a full time recreation director under the Park and Parking District budget. The second proposal is that the schools, which are some of the best, be utilized more fully to include these programs in the various sections of Hicksville. While much of the help could and would be volunteers a few would have to be paid. The director and help shouldn't come to what the cost of a new probation officer would cost and how much happier everyone would be. We as the public should back this program and help it along by volunteering when our services are needed and understand that they could use more help right now. Line forms on the right. It will be very gratifying to see how much the youth appreciate it when the oldsters take an interest in them.

Tonight (Friday) night at 57 N. Broadway Dr. Robert T. Ketchen a nationally known church leader, Author, Pastor, and Bible conference speaker will be heard. Everyone is invited to hear him. Come and bring your friends at 8 P.M. Jan. 20 tonight.

It is the same area as the International Little League.

Eight Vehicles Crash On Ice

PLAINVIEW — On "a sheet of ice" as one driver put it, eight vehicles, a fire hydrant and a telephone pole tangled in a series of collisions, Tuesday evening.

Quite a group of dented cars collected at Woodbury Rd. east of Dean Pl. here as the delayed action series of collision continued.

Thomas J. Cassens, 29, of 27 Cedar Dr. here, and Leonard Dorfman, 32, of 64 Hope Dr. here, were the drivers in one collision. Both were headed eastbound.

Virginia Rogers, 37, of 16 Steven St. here, was headed east when she was in a collision with Michael Zeitman, westbound of Kings Park. Bennett Westrack, 38, of 22 Constable Lane, Levittown, hit a fire hydrant, Frank Myers, a South Ozone Park man, drove a trailer truck into a telephone pole.

Denton H. Jefferies, 45, of Greenlawn, was in collision with another vehicle whose operator is unknown.

Tickets are available only from Herman Lipschultz, of 69 North Broadway, Hicksville (WE 1-5000), at $7.50 per person including all gratuities. A new Oldsmobile will be awarded to some lucky person during the gala evening.

Car Allowance

Recommendations was apparently made to the Board at an executive session when Trustees Erich, Emil Szendy and Joseph Cawley were not present.

Erich moved the question last Friday night as an item of "old business." A copy of the Miller bill for $777 for expenses in using his car was circulated at the meeting. Erich noted that the bill had been approved by Harry Ernewein, former business manager, and a pencilled signature, "Doc LeBarren", appears to have been erased. LeBarren has said he never approved the bill.

The Board was told that the State Dept. was not willing to make a recommendation "one way or the other" on the matter of a refund.

Trustees Cawley, Milton Leavitt and Elgin Sutton voted "aye" on the motion. Trustees Erich and Szendy voted "aye". A. O. Soininen abstained and William Yacum was absent. The motion was declared lost.

It is now contended that Hicksville High is retreating for a period to basketball oblivion.

That would not constitute an alarming circumstance. With the exception of the grandeur of Oyster Bay, Hicksville for the past 7 years has had the highest won and lost percentage in basketball happy Nassau.

Those lamenting the Orange and Black demise recall this and matter of factly accept it that the Comet prestige in the court game will continue to fall.

Causing this appraisal was last week's 65-34 loss to Oyster Bay and the 60-52 blow Bethpage delivered to any Eastern Division title chances four days later.

Some go all the way and claim that the Orange will not finish third in the Eastern Division standings and thus lose a berth in the first county wide playoffs slated for March.

Roslyn is expected to add to the Hicksville tribulations this Friday night at the Comet court and either the Hilltoppers or Sea Cliff are supposed to drive Chet Jaworski's boys into fourth place—and possibly fifth.

We don't buy it! Rated one two in pre-season calculations, Oyster Bay and Bethpage were a tough assignment, in order, and the effects of the first game had to have a bearing on the other.

We were cured by the Baymen's power and no longer think the Comets a block towards their winning the pennant.

However, Hicksville has but to collect itself to stay ahead of the rest of the field in the league. In doing so it could improve so as to cause a great deal of fireworks in the county eliminations.

From here on in the opposition will press the daylight out of the Comets. It would seem foolish if it did not happen repeatedly because of ineptness against the last two opponents.

However, the Comets biggest problem currently would seem to be the inability to get along with one another. Licking that problem would add a lot of mileage to the season.

This Friday the retreat will end. Hicksville 63, Roslyn 49.

The life of the Hicksville High Booster's Club is in serious danger because of a weak treasury. The organization in two short years has honored a great many students of the school at three different dinners. Each time close to 100 boys and girls were guests of the club.

Such an undertaking requires a good deal of money. The club does not solicit the community for funds but relies on its membership dues, which are small, and a basketball contest with the faculty.

The contest followed by a dance will be held in the new gym a week from Saturday night will all proceeds collected going to sustain the fall and spring dinners which acknowledge the outstanding work in extra-curricular activities of Hicksville students.

The organization is growing and has added recent alumni to its rolls. The fathers of the boys maintain a soda stand during school basketball contests and have to hustle to handle the crowd.

However, the Faculty game gives the group its one and only big push and it deserves the support of us all.

The tickets are 50 cents apiece. The game is a lot of fun and there is plenty of room for dancing.

Dick Alcock caged the longest shot under the pressure of competition in the new gym, Monday, when he left fly a shot from exact mid-court just as time expired in the third period.

It smacked the backboard and went cleanly through the nets to give the PBC Alumni a 12-point lead over Mineola. From there Steve Ruggiero's crew went on to a 77-65 win to pull up even at 2-2 in Nassau Amateur League play.

This Monday at home the fast moving Lincoln House team, which edged the Blue 30-26, first time out, will provide the action for Hicksville fans.

The Oyster Bay Hangover for Hicksville could not retard the PBC Senior team as it walloped the Senior club from the village of the arch rivals 62-10 this week.

Both were undefeated in the Precinct loop and Hicksville stands above the pack with 4-0.

Success stems from a ten-man team that is used in groups of five to outrush and tire the opponents. It is comprised of Bob McWilliams, Gary Martens, Allen Roseberry, Bill McKown, John and Pat McGunnigle, Gene Hall, Pete Siskinger, Martin Silverman and Pat Sarle.

The Celtics repulsed the Lakers to take undisputed possession of first place in the Hicksville High Intra-Mural basketball league. The score was 54-48.

The record is now 7-0 for the winners but the Lakers hang back waiting another bid with 6-1.

Harvey Dunefsky, Bob Arthofer, George Weeks, Pat Sarle, Ed Osborne, Fred Manone and Charlie McGunnigle pace the Celtics.

Jim Kelly, Gene Hall, Ed Maura, Pete Siskinger, Charlie Matexas, John Rowe and Frank Labaci hope to reverse things in the next meeting.

First place Garden City was upset by Hicksville in the NSAA this week and the Comet combine of Bob Arthofer, Richard Halbohn, Charlie McGunnigle, Paul Clark, Robert Rausch, Phil Strehl and Pat Sarle moved up to sixth place via the big win. The tally was 3-2.

Intra-Parish League Underway

HICKSVILLE — The St. Ignatius Intra-Parish League for Basketball was launched Saturday Jan. 14, at the Fork Lane School here. 120 boys, comprising the 10 teams to be sponsored by the St. Ignatius Loyola CYO Sports Assn., attended. These teams are divided into Sr. and Jr. divisions the Seniors ranging in age from 10 to 12, and the Juniors from 7 to 10. There are 4 Senior and 6 Junior teams, with a probable addition of 2 more senior teams in the near future.

The schedule for these teams are divided into two halves of 5 games each, with the winners competing against each other for the championship of the Division. League play will start Jan. 21.

Boys who compete in the Intra-Parish League are taught the fundamentals of the sport, teamwork, loyalty to the team, and above all, sportsmanship. These characteristics have always been considered basic for the foundation of good government.

At present St. Ignatius is represented by 4 teams in the Northern Nassau CYO League. Two teams represent the Parish in the Grammar Division, and two in the Bantam Division. All the boys competing on these four teams were developed in the St. Ignatius Intra-Parish League.

St. Ignatius Victor 27-15

HICKSVILLE — St. Ignatius Bantam 'A' Team employing a fast break from a zone defense acquired a good lead to beat a surprised St. Joseph team. This win gives St. Ignatius a won 3 lost 1 standing in the Nassau Northern Division CYO Bantam League.

Great rebound recoveries by Harman, Reimels, and Cerone enabled the St. Ignatius forwards McGinnigle and Connolly to be positioned for front court supremacy. Baisi and McGuire entered the game and kept up the good work. The St. Ignatius team switched to a man to man defense when the zone was threatened. Although it was the first time that the Blue and Gold played this type of defense, the boys did an outstanding job of it.

The St. Ignatius Five led St. Joseph at the half 13-5. The final score was 27-15.

PBC Needs Help from Fathers

HICKSVILLE — The Police Boys Club, according to Patrolman Ryan, needs more men to supervise the activities of the boys in the program, who are between 10 and 18 years old. The men need not be athletes, he said, and parents are especially welcome. "All boys appear to perform just a little better when their parents are looking on," Ryan said.

Directors do not receive compensation, he said, except that of knowing that they are helping the youth of their community become good citizens. The directors assist the patrolman in the various activities, including major outdoor sports and indoor activities during the winter. The current activities here are basketball, boxing and wrestling. Anybody interested in joining the PBC organization can call Patrolman Ryan at WE 1-7700 or Fred Birk, president of the local directors at WE 1-2544.

All funds for operating the local PBC are received from the County Organization, which once a year conduct a mail subscription to raise funds. All money received, Patrolman Ryan said, is spent entirely on the boys and the activity.

HYCC To Delay Action On Offer Of Space Until Program Shapes

By CHARLES H. DE SHAW
HICKSVILLE — The Youth Coordinating Council meeting here Monday night, Jan. 16, voted to accept the offer of Frank M. Wells, for use of the second floor space at 240 Old Country Rd. on a temporary basis. They also decided to postpone using the space until a "definite program" had been prepared.

Isadore Siegel, Council VP, stated that having "learned the mistake in the past of not having a program, the Council intended to make certain not to repeat the mistake." G. Fleming Harding accepted the temporary chairmanship of the newly appointed 9-member Program Committee, and called a meeting of the Committee for next Monday, Jan. 26. Siegel was appointed Vice-Chairman.

CITE NEED FOR FUNDS

The consensus of opinion of the members was that funds were an absolute necessity for the operation of a proper recreation program, and several suggestions were advanced.

Frank Wells, who offered use of his building, suggested two means of raising funds quickly: having the youth pay monthly Dues; and going to local businessmen offering membership in the Council for $5 annually.

Harding, as permanent Chairman of the Finance Committee agreed with Wells and in presenting the report of his committee stated that he HYCC was lacking in two respects for the successful operation of a youth recreation program: (1) lack of training, and (2) lack of a prepared program.

"If we accept the offer of Mr. Wells", he said, "we must have a prepared program before the doors open". A tentative budget, prepared on the assumption that the new quarters would be open at least 3 nights each week, was presented and covered a 40-week year. The Budget proposed a paid Recreation Director; paid assistance; materials and supplies; a 10-week summer program with materials, supplies, and transportation; building maintenance; insurance; and miscellaneous expenses, for a total of $5,075.

In commenting on the suggestion of Frank Wells that the Youth pay monthly Dues, Harding said that even the Boy Scouts of America pay such, as well as other organizations, and there was no reason why it could not be done.

"Let us", he said, "as an illustration assume that a minimum of 350 kids attend each month, and pay 50 cents dues, the amount raised annually would amount to $2,100, leaving a balance of $2,975 to be raised by the Council".

"The Council", he went on, "is fully capable of running a youth program, and can get the necessary training. But to do this, it is absolutely necessary that the entire organization fully support this. Unless all of us are 100 per cent in agreement and support, it will fall flat on its face".

Siegel recommended that a community-wide committee be formed to look into the recreation question and to plan a fund raising campaign.

"While it is quite possible that some of the Council members will want to serve on this committee," he remarked, "it would be entirely apart from the Council, uncontested in any way, and without the Council exercising any control over it. The membership should be comprised of business men, professional men, merchants, educators, civic assn. members, P-T-A members, clergy, representatives from political clubs, school board members, Chamber of Commerce representatives, etc. The greater the membership of this committee, the greater job that can be done".

Mrs. Hope Silvestri, HYCC president, in her opening remarks stated that she had given considerable thought to the problem of youth recreation and that one of the first things necessary for the Council to do was to educate the public as to what recreation actually is.

"A considerable number of people have the mistaken impression that recreation merely means, dances, movies, or a ball game. There is much more to it than these, and we will have a big job on our hands to explain in detail continuously exactly what it does cover."

Time Running Out On New Tabs

Private passenger car owners have until Jan. 31 to get 1956 license tabs. The Motor Vehicle Bureau on Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, near the railroad station is the place to apply, or the Mincola Bureau.

Last year, 52,196 registrations of all kinds were made in Hicksville, out of a county total of 460,729. The monetary figures for these registrations were unavailable, however.
