Trinity Lutheran Church Outlines Expansion Plan

HICKSVILLE—Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church congregation members have approved a ten year expansion program which will cost about a million and a quarter dollars. The program includes a future high school, believed to be the first Protestant parochial high school in Nassau.

The parishioners who, by unanimous vote, approved the expansion in church seating, parish facilities and school capacity and facilities, were about 450 who attended a meeting, Tuesday, Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of the congregation, presented the plan, along with the Church Council, headed by Arthur Brown, president of the congregation, and the Board of Education of Trinity School, headed by Theodore Hoffmann, chairman.

Scout Leadership Training Experiment For Tri-Parkway

An experiment in training young Boy Scouts in leadership is now being tried simultaneously throughout the Tri-Parkway District in a series of sessions aimed at training present and potential leaders in Boy Scout troops in the vicinity. This pilot course if successful will be repeated twice yearly in the future on a smaller scale, officials said.

The idea developed and executed by Albert Muenzfeld, Bethpage Scoutmaster for troop 118; Bob Hughes, Scoutmaster of troop 64, Hicksville and Bert Ainsley, scoutmaster of troop 373, Levittown; involved a total of 250 boys, holding First Class ratings or higher in their respective troops.

Three courses are being given covering Levittown; Hicksville and Plainview; Bethpage, Plainedge, Island Trees and Farmingdale. This latter course is the largest of the three, having a registration of 110 boys. Al Muenzfeld is the field director. There are four evening sessions of two hours each and a final all day session will be held at Harkness Training Center in North Hills. One adult is in attendance for every seven boys taking the course.

TV Audience Sees Boogie Jump

BETHPAGE—The High School here is jumping. About 40 students appeared on "Ted Steele's Teen Dance Band" show on Channel 9, TV, recently. They belonged to the Winter Recreation Program and were supervised by Edward Orr, Howard Vogts, Mrs. Rosalie Hauswirth, Bob Winters and Carol Van Quest.

The Swing Band from the school played "The Bethpage Boogie Jump" for the TV audience, and the local Twirlers and Cheerleaders appeared. The Swing Band consists of Fred Ippetto, Sal Greco, Frank Mancuso and Sal Ruggiero.

A dance contest was won by Betty Agrista and Mike Domingo. Betty won the door prize, too.

Larry Wilson, president of the GO, showed the school's football trophies. Tony Sabino showed the Yearbook and an issue of Hi-Times, the school paper. Mildred Noce showed the Girls' Sports Nite trophy.

Misfortune Plagues Murrays

HICKSVILLE—Jotta Murray, the wife of Edward Murray and president of the Dutch Lane P.T.A., has been hospitalized since last Wednesday with pneumonia.

The Murrays, whose home at 39 Glow Lane was badly damaged by fire last November, had been living temporarily in a Levittown house which they rented. Mr. Murray and the two boys, Mike, 8 and Pat, 5½, moved back into their own home last Saturday, with the help of Mrs. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Murray's mother, from Hempstead.

While work is progressing on their home on Glow Lane, Mrs. Murray's pneumonia is proving to be a stubborn case. The doctors do not know when she will be able to leave Manhasset Medical Center, where she was taken.

Mrs. Hollingsworth has been staying with the Murrays, and was looking forward Tuesday to the arrival from Pennsylvania of Edward Murray's mother, to relieve her so she can join her husband again in Hempstead.

Teens To Help Draft Program

HICKSVILLE—Teenagers themselves will help draft a recreation program to be sponsored by the Youth Coordinating Council this Tuesday.

Five to ten teenagers over 14 will meet that evening with three members of the HYGC's Program Committee—Fleming Harding, Irving Mallon and Martin I. Greenfield.

The program is expected to include athletics and social activities. It is expected that the HYGC will accept the offer of the school district to use the schools for sports events. Social activities will be housed in the second floor rooms of 240 Old Country Rd., which was offered for the council's use by Frank M. Wells when their former quarters in the former Lebkuecher building at Jerusalem and Nicholas St. were closed.

DISMISS COMMITTEE, THANK PUBLIC:

Audit of Ambulance Fund Closes Project

HICKSVILLE—The Ambulance Fund Committee today made public a final report of the campaign, complete with the auditor's report, revealing that $8,202.52 was contributed in the campaign. After all expenses have been paid, the sum of $714.28 has been turned over to the Fire District with instructions that the balance be used for ambulance purposes only, according to Jerome G. Zettler and Herbert Johnsen, co-chairmen.

In an open letter to the people, Zettler and Johnsen said: "On behalf of the Hicksville Ambulance Fund Committee, we wish to express our deepest gratitude to all the people of Hicksville, the business and industrial, religious and service groups, who made the Ambulance Campaign so successful."

To the fire district, they said: "We wish to express the committee's grateful thanks to the commissioners and the volunteer firemen of the rescue squad for the wonderful cooperative way you are operating this community ambulance. We feel that the unselfish service already given has made our efforts worthwhile. Thanks again."

And to the Fund Committee: "Jerry and Herb wish to thank any and all people who helped to bring this project to its conclusion. We respectfully and gratefully discharge all members of the Ambulance Fund Committee."

The vehicle, presented to the fire district on Labor Day, according to the audit prepared as a public service by Purick and Kent, accountants and auditors, of 115 North Bway., cost $6,369.30 (Please Turn to Page 14)

Dinner-Dance This Sunday

GLEN COVE — The Congregation Shaarei Zedek of Hicksville will highlight its educational building fund campaign with a dinner-dance this Sunday, Jan. 29, at the Golden Slipper, Cedar Swamp Rd., here.

Tickets are available only from Herman Lipschultz of 69 North Broadway, Hicksville (WE-1-5030), at $7.50 per person including all gratuities. A new Oldsmobile will be awarded to some lucky person during the gala evening.

OPEN HOUSE NEXT WEDNESDAY:

Eisemann To Celebrate 35 Years Of Growing With The Community

HICKSVILLE — It is more than a passing coincidence that both this community and Henry C. Eisemann have, in these past 35 years, matured and achieved a measure of success and recognition.

That is why, Eisemann, in celebrating his 35th anniversary with the firm of Seaman & Eisemann, Inc. has marked as his theme "35 Years of Growing With Hicksville" when he formally opens his new building at 167 Broadway to the public next Wednesday, Feb. 1 from 7 A.M. to 3 P.M.

It began 35 years ago on Feb. 1, 1921, when Eisemann joined the firm of Seaman & Talliaferro, changing the name to Seaman, Talliaferro and Eisemann Inc. The firm itself, which had been founded in 1889 to engage in a general insurance and real estate business, was not large, even by the standards of those years, but its position in Hicksville was a creditable one. From the day of his joining the firm, Henry Eisemann infused a new spirit of progress and forward looking aggressiveness.

Eisemann had grown up here, on a farm not too far from where his present new building at 167 Broadway (Please turn to Page 12)

SOMETHING DOWN DRAIN?

Board Ponders Question Of Real Snazzy Art Sinks

HICKSVILLE—Sinks—not the ordinary common household variety, but two special types, one for the administration of shampoos to high school girls and another for washing the grimy hands of lower grade students—became a topic of major consideration at the Board of Education's special meeting, Friday night. Mrs. Edna Kuhne Sutton, board president, asserted that the art class sinks were an "educational matter."

Other board members openly questioned what could be "so special" about these art sinks that makes them worth $1,139 each. School Architect Henry Johnsen explained that this particular sink (and it was proposed to buy four of them on recommendation of Asst. Superintendent Stanton Miller) is the "only one of its breed."

The shampoo sinks were promptly taken care of. Five sinks of the kind found in deluxe beauty parlors are in the high school but are not connected to the plumbing. Johnson explained this too: Original plans called for "other type" sinks in the home economics rooms. Then after the plans were drawn, the style of sink and room purpose was changed. Bids on installation of the shampoo basins in the classroom set aside for beauty courses for girls ranged from $685 to $814.

The job was given to plumber Fred H. Davis, lowest bidder, to hook up the shampoo tubs by unanimous vote.

The special "arty" sinks were another matter. Originally each of the four small schools (Pork, Dutch, Burns and Old Country) had a "regular" sink in each classroom at $260 apiece. When it was decided to make a classroom in each school serve for art classes, the district got a credit for the non-installed "ordinary" sinks.

Miller has now recommended ed the "only one of its breed" Sheldon unit which costs $1,139.

Questions by board members disclosed that the "special" has a special clay sediment tray, drawers and a stone top.

As discussion on the sinks continued, Mrs. Sutton commented "I do not like to see an argument on an 'educational' item." Architect Johnson was directed to see if there are "others of the breed", maybe not quite so expensive. The four "specials", less the credit allowed would cost $3,516.

The Board also decided to authorize construction of a sidewalk from Old Country Rd. to Blueberry Lane (at a cost of about $800) as requested by the P.T.A.

Trustee Arthur L. Elsiech left the meeting at 12:28, protesting the "difference of" (Please turn to Page 6)

Call For Bids On PO Station

HICKSVILLE—Sealed bids to establish and construct a contract station of the post office in the vicinity of Woodbury and South Oyster Bay Roads, here, will be received Postmaster Harry Cotter until 12 noon on Jan. 31. Information and bids forms are available at the Post Office on North Broadway.

HENRY G. EISEMANN, second from right, was honored by the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America on Dec. 12 for his leadership in the organization. Left to right are Supreme Court Justice Marcus Christ, Eagle Scout Robert Schilling, Mr. Eisemann and Sterling Mudge, president of the Nassau Council who made the presentation. Thirty-five years of the growth of Seaman and Eisemann in Hicksville will be celebrated when the firm moves into its new office officially next Wednesday, Feb. 1. (Platnik photo).

Christian Mothers Social on Feb 4

By MRS. JOHN REGAN

The St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers of Hicksville held its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, Jan. 23, with Mrs. Rita Sullivan presiding. Rev. John Wissler opened the meeting with the Daily Prayer for Christian Mothers. He announced that a Cans Conference for married couples will be held this Sunday afternoon, Jan. 29 at 2:15 P. M. The topic of discussion will be "Marriage and the Mystical Body of Christ".

Mrs. Sullivan stated that for all those interested, Question Box will be on hand at every meeting and Father Wissler will take time out to answer all questions.

The annual February social of the Auxiliary will be a Square and Round Dance to be held on Saturday evening Feb. 4th, at 8:45 P. M. in the school basement. Skies will direct the Square dancing accompanied by his All-American Dance Band. A Buffet supper will be served at 11 P. M. Door prizes will be awarded; games will be played. Come and have a wonderful night to be enjoyed with your husband. All this for only One Dollar a person. Mrs. Mildred Sauer is Chairlady of the Dance Committee.

Mrs. L. L. Sullivan announced that St. Ignatius School will be closed from Friday, Feb. 3, to Tues. Feb. 14. School buses will be notified by the Bus Captains.

Chairladies, Mrs. Marie Scorzani and Mrs. Ann Jablonski were congratulated on the wonderful success of the Christmas Party held in December.

It was also announced the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine will hold a play called "Cheaper by the Dozen" on Feb. 5. It will be portrayed by a dramatic group of young actors from the CVO of Brooklyn under the direction of Father Dunn. The funds from the play will help to defray the cost of buses in transporting children to and from Confraternity lessons.

A luncheon will be held at the Garden City Hotel on Monday, Feb. 6, at 12 Noon for the benefit of the Bishop Molloy College for Women. Anyone interested in attending, contact Mrs. Sullivan or Mrs. Wm. Schiffmacher regarding tickets.

Plans are in the offing for the annual Communion Breakfast of the St. Ignatius Auxiliary of Christian Mothers which will be held on Sun. May 27, at Henningsen's Restaurant. Father Heenan will be the guest speaker, and Mrs. Harriet Seith is in charge.

Mrs. McGee of 27 Gables Rd. was the winner of the beautiful Hand-Crocheted bedspread. Mrs. E. Flynn was the winner of the Dark Horse.

After a short intermission, Brother Edward Leo gave a wonderful talk on the work of the Magist Brothers. The Society originated in 1871 with only one hundred brothers and today has a total of thirteen thousand. Brother Edward Leo asked all the mothers to remember in their prayers the work of the brothers, and those self-sacrificing men and women in the vocational field.

For the June social a play will be held and Mrs. Betty Wright asked for volunteers with talent. Rev. Wissler closed the Meeting with a prayer at the request of Mrs. Sullivan, President.

Dear Jean:

State Attorney General JAVITS has ruled that Oyster Bay Township must wait until the election of 1957 to fill the two new vacancies on the town board. It has been hoped that the spots could be filled by an interim appointment. . . . The Hicksville Girl Scout dinner at the Milleridge Inn last night was a fine success with over 80 present. More about this in our next edition, including the full report by MARY GOODRICH, chairman. . . . We hear that O. E. MCINTYRE has halted employment of home-tyrists and is going mechanical instead. . . . ROBERT L. DART, formerly publisher and editor of the Clinton Courier who has taught college journalism, is now on the Hicksville staff. He is writing press releases at the Pentagon. . . . WALLACE E. LAMB, school superintendent, has been reappointed a member of the Regent's College High School Articulation Committee. . . . CHARLES P. TROJAN of Bethpage has achieved the Investors Diversified Services Millionaire Club. The top honor group is for sales representatives who produce a volume of a million dollars or more. . . . S. KLEIN, Hempstead store, is sponsoring a "Career in Fashion" contest and Hicksville High is entered under the supervision of RICHARD GREEN, retailing teacher. . . . ROBERT CONNOLLY of Hicksville, who will probably be the Democratic candidate for State assembly opposing JOHN J. BURNS of Sea Cliff this fall, called on Gov. HARRIMAN in Albany on Monday to "present the views of Hicksville Democrats". . . . Meadow Brook National Bank earned $2.28 on each of the average number of shares outstanding during 1955. Bank resources rose 55 per cent. . . . The new office of SEAMAN & EISEMANN features a unique heating and air-conditioning system. Only gas will be used for fuel. . . . It is reported that CHAN HENN will be designed by the town board on Tuesday for the position of supervisor of the municipal garbage collection system in the township. . . . The appointment of FRANCIS J. ANDERSON of Hicksville as first deputy county clerk at $12,000 this week was unique since ERNEST FRANCKE, county clerk, is also from Hicksville. Rarely does the top deputy come from the same community as the dept. head. . . . HICKSVILLE JEWISH CENTRE holds a congregation meeting at the VFW Hall on Wednesday night, Feb. 1. . . . ARTHUR SCHWARTZ of 197 Spindle Rd., agent for Standard Accident Insurance Co., informs us that effective Feb. 1 all female auto drivers will pay the same insurance rate. INDUSTRIES OF HICKSVILLE:

Envelope Concern Is New Here But Firm Began 40 Years Ago

By EILEEN WOLF

HICKSVILLE—Envelope packaging is a "specialty" business, and one of the largest independent envelope packaging firms is located here, P. L. Andrews Corp., on Andrews Rd. off Bethpage Rd.

Like many Hicksville firms, Andrews is new to this area—it moved into its new plant in January last year—although its history dates back to 1916.

The founder was P. L. Andrews, who is presently chairman of the board of the company. He started in the paper business in 1890's, and was with Robert Gair Co., Inc., a large paper container company. When he founded his own company, P. L. Andrews was located at Bush Terminal, Brooklyn.

Later, the firm moved to another Brooklyn location, at Irving Ave. and Troutman St. And then, in 1927, it moved to Glendale, where it stayed for 27 years.

The Andrews company moved to Hicksville in order to be able to have a one-story plant, which is more efficient for handling bulk paper material than multiple stories. The quarters in Glendale were not arranged on one story, nor even in one building.

The plant here is somewhat larger, too. It has about 95,000 sq. ft. as compared to about 80,000 sq. ft. in Glendale.

For these reasons, the former Schwamb vegetable farm became the site of the Andrews plant, and the company plant and Andrews Rd. was built. There is room on the site for further expansion in the future.

The envelopes made by P. L. Andrews Corp. are high quality packaging, which demand expert and special skills and machines. The company specializes in making large, small, odd, or special shaped envelopes, rather than large continuous runs of ordinary commercial envelopes.

Paper hairnet envelopes, or cellophane stocking envelopes, envelopes used nation-wide by Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward for underwear, heavy brown envelopes with metal clasps, or inter-office communication envelopes are some of the products of the company. Most of Andrews' customers, besides those of national stature, are in the New York metropolitan area.

A good deal of the business is in record sleeves and record album pockets. P. L. Andrews devised the first record sleeve for R.C.A.

According to Stuart Andrews, grandson of the founder and company president, all the company's products are of some kind of paper. Most of the envelopes are of kraft envelope paper—a heavy, wood paper, without rag content. Some are made of cellophane and some others are made of Glasine—a transparent paper, used also for window envelopes.

Andrews said that the specialty envelopes depend on having expert "adjusters" to set up the machines for the correct size for each envelope's specifications. The company is looking for such employees now.

P. L. Andrews Corp. has a more extensive printing department than other envelope firms, and can print attractive envelopes according to the special needs of the customers. Andrews noted that packaging often makes a difference in the sales of the product inside. His company is equipped to print all sorts of layouts on their packaging products, according to the customer's wishes.

Many of the 165 Andrews employees still come from Glendale. Some hire a chartered bus each day to make the trip to Hicksville. An increasing number come from the local area. About 30 or 40 are local residents at the present time.

The plant employees are members of the AFL International Brotherhood of Teamsters. About 60% of the employees are men, many of whom are highly skilled.

Civics Favor New Jericho School North Of Turnpike

JERICHO — The Civic Assoc. packed the Robert Seaman School here Thursday night, Jan. 19, to hear the facts and figures on the purchase of local school property. Ronald West, a member of the Board of Directors of the Civic Association and a member of the school Site Committee, presented a very comprehensive picture of why the school should be placed north of the Jericho Tpke. instead of South.

The property north of the Turnpike, West stated, is approximately $3,000 to $5,000 per acre while the property south of the Turnpike is $15,000 to $20,000 per acre. The property proposed to be purchased by the School Board is the most valuable property in Jericho as this entire section is proposed business, he said. Not only would we lose the vast amount of revenue from this business property, but was pointed out to the audience, the lost revenue from this property would pay for the entire cost of our high school. One member commented that this would be like taking down the Empire State Building to erect a public school.

Civic Assoc. President, Harold Smith, gave a short talk on the possibility of inducing business to come into Jericho and not taking the most highly valuable property from the tax rolls for a school when there are undeveloped areas North of the Turnpike where the school could be located.

It was suggested that the School Board be given an opportunity to give their point of view as to why this property should be taken for a high school. A motion was made and seconded to have a letter sent asking for a School Board member to appear at a special meeting to discuss why this property should be taken in preference to another site north of the Turnpike.

GOP To Install Officials Feb 12

BETHPAGE — The Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club is making plans for a Dinner-Dance on Feb. 12.

About 150 people are expected to attend the affair, during which the new and re-elected officers for 1956 will be installed. The place is the Thatched Cottage in Northport, and the time will be about 7 P.M., according to Lorraine Carter, chairman of the dinner-dance committee. Working with Mrs. Carter are Rose Caputo, Joan Lang, and Ann Donovan.

The officers for 1956 who will be installed are: James Donovan, Pres.; Edward Schreiber and Lorraine Carter, Vice-Pres.; Joan Lang, Corres. Sec.; Jessie Prinz, Record. Sec.; Charles Campaigne, Treas.; and Charles Lang, Finan. Sec. All the officers were re-elected, except for Edward Schreiber and Jessie Prinz, who are newly elected.

Trustees to be installed at the dinner-dance are Jack Strong, Joe Laurie and Henry Spindler.

Fire Auxiliary Installs Staff

New officers of the Bethpage Fire Dept. Auxiliary will be installed following the annual dinner to be held this Saturday evening, Jan. 28 at the firehouse.

Mrs. Michael Simone, who has served the Auxiliary as president for the past five years will turn over her gavel to Mrs. John Marzic, new president. Also taking office will be Mrs. Louis Sisia, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Albertson, Jr. recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald Donlon, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Charles Romscho, treasurer. Fire Chief Edward Schauf will be the installing officer.

SNOWBALL DANCE

The Slaverhood of the Hicksville Jewish Center will hold 1956 Annual Snowball Dance, Saturday Jan. 28, at the Waukegan Jewish Center, Seaman's Neck Rd., and Woodbine Ave., Waukegan. Tickets are $5 per couple. There will be a floor show followed by a midnight supper. Derry Carroll and his Levittimers will supply the music for the evening.

HONORING Mr. Henry G. Eisemann's

35 YEARS OF GROWING WITH HICKSVILLE

Having served the public in our old location at 90 Broadway, we are now settled in our new building at

167 BROADWAY

(between Cherry and Carl Streets)

Where we will be prepared to welcome all our friends.

We have constructed what we believe to be a building with the utmost in modern facilities, equipment and convenience for taking care of our constantly increasing business.

Without our friends, it would not have been possible. Therefore, our move is also an expression of gratitude.

Hicksville is our home. We have grown up in it and are proud of it.

We are glad to do our bit in adding this permanent improvement and in making Hicksville better known as a leading Long Island community.

CURRENT COMMENT:

School Dollar Important Too

By Fred J. Noeth

EDUCATORS, particularly those who are concerned with the business affairs of our schools, must not forget that educational finance is governed by the same rules and principles as other financial transactions. A tax dollar spent on education is still a dollar of expenditure. Improvement in business management and efficient operations will result not only in savings to the taxpayer but also in more educational values for the money spent.

If a person in Hicksville were to raise this point, quoted above, he would be readily branded by a certain element as "against education." It has become anti-education to question expenditures. In fact, we heard a speaker at a recent meeting of civic group leaders—a high official in our education system—say in effect that a community can determine the quality of its educational program by the size of the annual school budget it approves.

The opening quotation is from prepared remarks of State Comptroller Arthur Levitt before a session of the State Assoc. of School Business Officials held in Syracuse on May 24 of last year.

It is true that it takes money, a lot of money, to run a big educational system. The people of Hicksville have not been stingy when it comes to their school system. Last May, they approved a budget permitting the expenditure of four million dollars for the community system in this current year. They voted down a minor appropriation, not to hamper the educational system, but because it was the only way they could positively express their opinion of a certain phase of how the affairs of the district were being handled.

A few weeks ago it was announced that a group of taxpayers were organizing a group titled "Hicksville Citizens for Better Government in School Affairs." The outburst of criticism of those whose names were linked with this group was amazing. The outcry was so violent in certain quarters as to lead one to believe the truth of the statement: "where there's smoke, there's fire." Perhaps we need "better government."

We don't believe there is any secret about the fact that the way to change the "government of school affairs," if it is felt that a change is necessary, would be thru the democratic election of School Board members. There are seven members on the Board, three of whom face the ballot box for decision this coming May. The identity of the three trustees who take their seats on the Board as of July 1 could result in a change in the School District "government."

The approval of funds and the quality of the educational system are NOT in direct relationship to each other. Despite the approval of a four million dollar budget last May, there are students who lack books today; there is a fine new home economics dept. in the new high school, complete with dishwasher, but no dishes. These shortages, and others, are matters of common knowledge among the concerned parents of our students. The shortages are not due to a lack of tax dollars, either.

HOMEMAKER'S DISPATCH:

Where To Keep Bread

The best all-round place to store bread is in a refrigerator freezing unit or a home freezer. Freezing is practical, even for the loaf you're currently consuming. Frozen loaves thaw in a 3 or 4 hours at room temperature, and frozen slices can be popped directly into the toaster. Better set the toaster thermostat up a bit longer to brown.

You don't need to give the bread a special wrapping treatment to freeze it—just store it in its original covering of waxed paper or cellophane. Specialists say this wrapper does a fine job of keeping moisture in. Of course, you'll have to close the wrapper tightly after each use.

If you don't have a freezer, a well-ventilated breadbox in a warm corner of the kitchen is best. When hot humid weather comes, however, you may want to keep the bread in the refrigerator to keep it from molding. Otherwise, the refrigerator is not recommended for storing bread. At ordinary refrigerator temperatures, the texture of the loaf may become harsh.

HERALD READER OPINION:

Military Service And Teachers

To the Editor:

In a recent meeting of the Hicksville Teachers Assoc. a proposal was made by a member that teachers be advanced one salary step for each year of military service regardless of whether they received their college training prior to entering or after leaving military service.

The present salary schedule in the Hicksville Schools for a teacher with four years of college is a beginning salary of $3,800 which increases to a maximum of $6,900 in 15 steps in a period of 15 years. As matters now stand, a prospective teacher who completed four years of college and then entered the Armed Forces, upon his return is placed on a higher salary schedule dependent on the years of military service. However, the prospective teacher who received his college training after leaving military service is not entitled to any advanced salary step. This policy has resulted in an inequitable situation. There are teachers with years of service in World War II who are not entitled to be placed on an advanced salary step, and there are teachers with service in World War II and the Korean War who are placed on an advanced salary step.

All veterans regardless of whether their college training came before or after the war lost time away from civilian occupations, businesses, or professions. They can not make up for these lost years on the salary schedule. It seems that this situation has been recognized in the case of veterans with college training prior to military service, but not in case of veterans who obtained college training after military service.

There are many valid reasons why veterans did not receive a college education prior to World War II. The main reason was the lack of opportunity. The years before 1941 were depression years with 8 to 10 million persons unemployed and the opportunities for young people to enter college were very few. Of course, our much maligned school board is not responsible for the catastrophes of depression and wars. However, it is responsible for the morale of its teaching staff. By what process of reasoning can the veterans' group deprived of the salary advance be convinced that this is just a state of affairs?

Many communities in New York State and in other states have based their salary advance on the basis of years of military service. I think the Board of Education should reconsider this situation in our schools.

Please withhold my name.

THE GREEN THUMB:

A Foretaste of Spring

By ALMA W. CRAIB

Are you getting a bit weary of winter, and longing for the first forsythia blossoms that herald the coming of spring? Well, you can't hurry the calendar, but you can the forsythias, by providing the conditions that will bring them into bloom a couple of months from now, and there are other flowers you may have now, for just a little effort.

With a sharp knife or pruning shears, cut long sprays from the back of the forsythia bushes, before you get these with flower buds. The long whips that shoot straight up usually have only leaves. It's the twigs that have the blossoms; you can tell by the faint tinge of yellow in the tightly rolled bud.

Bring them in and put them into a deep container of very warm water. After a few hours, pull up the branches so that the buds are not under water, and set them in a sunny window. In a week or two you will have a show of cheerful, yellow blossoms that will give you a lift on the darkest day.

Japanese quince and pussy willow respond in the same way, but a bit more slowly. Fruit blossoms may be forced into premature bloom, too, and the flowers have a delicate, fragile beauty, quite different from the later, more robust blossoms.

Even the leaves of our common trees and shrubs can be coaxed to come out now, and they make delightful arrangements with a few fresh flowers from your houseplants. Tiny, new, oak leaves are exquisite in form and color, and their dulled red combines beautifully with coleus in the rosy shades, and sprays of pink begonia.

Bulbs of paper-white narcissus and Chinese sacred-lily (narcissus var. orientalis) are also still available in garden shops, and the nearer we get to spring, the shorter a time they take to come into bloom. Put them into a bowl, about two inches apart on a bed of peat moss or pebbles to give the room room to develop, and weigh them down with larger pebbles. Add water just to the bottom of the bulbs, but never allow them to dry out. Leave them in a cool, dark place (but don't forget them!) until the bowl is full of roots, and the top growth is advanced enough that you can see the tips of the buds. Bringing them into the light too soon may blast the buds or make them grow enormously tall and awkward. When you can see the buds by gently dividing the leaves, bring them into a warm room but shade them until the sticky white growth turns green, which it will do in a day or two. Then put them in the sun, and they will bloom in about a week.

The Chinese sacred-lily, which is also a narcissus, is not nearly as well known as the paper-white, but it is just as easy to grow, and it is more fragrant, and I think prettier. It also seems to last a little longer. Both of these may be grown in earth, indoors, too, but they take a little longer to bloom when planted in soil.

Social Security Question Box

Question: - Reader K. A. writes: - I am not an American citizen but I am working doing housework for a family over 15 years and have social security. The Mrs. takes it out of my pay. Am I entitled to a pension anyway after I am 65 years old?

Answer: - United States citizenship is not a requirement for entitlement to social security benefits. If you meet all the requirements for entitlement you can receive payments regardless of citizenship.

Down Drain

(Continued from Page 1) opinion between the chair and parliamentarian" and asserting that "the same courtesy is not extended to all board members."

After he left, Milton Leavitt offered a motion that "the board express the opinion that Mr. Ehrlich's reasons expressed for leaving a Board meeting prior to the conclusion of Board business are not acceptable to the Board."

After asking for a second four times, Chairman Sutton himself seconded the motion which was carried 5 to 1 with Trustees Emil Szesny voting "no." He commented "this is not a board meeting" and noted the "buffoonery of Mr. Cawley," "constant talking by Mr. Leavitt," "Give a person some rights on the board," he asked. "Why can't we go on with Board business? This has become a three-ring circus."

Twenty-minutes of discussion and talk took place before the 5 to 1 vote was counted, rejecting Ehrlich's reason for leaving the meeting.

Another 20 minutes was spent on getting the meeting adjourned on motion by Trustee A. O. Spindlen who commented that it was nonsensical to continue.

Vice President Joseph Cawley, who had arrived at the meeting at 10:15, seconded the adjournment motion and then voted "no" on the grounds that the Board should finish its business. Mrs. Sutton also voted "no" for the same reasons as Mr. Cawley. The motion carried 4 to 2.

Need Traffic Light On So. Bway

By DOROTHY R. BROWN
REDLIGHTS! Whatever happened to the one scheduled to be installed here at South Broadway and New South Road? Also the stop on Red sign at the junction of Millwood Gate and Broadway? Are they waiting for someone to be killed before taking further action on this installation? There have been over three accidents there in the past three months.

Another good reason is for the safety of our children. There are several school buses which have to cross from Millwood Gate onto Broadway across the heavy Grumman traffic. They cannot take the chances a regular driver does. (endangering himself and others doing it). Also he cannot change his route and go by Leo Ave. onto Broadway where there is a light. We may do this latter one and many do this to save time and perhaps a life.

The bus driver often waits as long as ten or more minutes to get across the street. A car in the first lane may let him go but he has to be careful about the second lane as often a car will come along and go by the whole line in the center lane, not watching people who come out of the side streets. I had a close one when this happened to me one day.

School buses usually like to keep a time schedule so parents will not worry about the children coming home or waiting out on cold mornings. How can they when they have to waste so much time waiting to cross one street?

Some of these foggy mornings, it has been a very bad crossing. A driver said that he opened his door looked and put one hand on the horn and let out a prayer as he crossed the street that no one was coming. He could not see through the fog. A light would have stopped any traffic and been much safer for all the children on that bus. The poor bus driver is really asked to have a lot of responsibility on his shoulders when he takes a bus load of children across this heavy traffic. He would be the first to be blamed if any accident occurred. Please let's get this light up before anyone is hurt badly by the lack of it.

Have you seen any buttons bursting on Mr. James Drake's coat lately. He has good reason for it. They had their son, James Jr., christened at St. Ignatius Loyola Church on Jan. 8. James Jr. is the first boy in 29 years and is the first grandson out of nine grandchildren. The Godparents are Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Noya of Levittown. After the service the Drakes had a large buffet supper for friends and relatives including about 15 children. James received many gifts. By the way James will sure know how to get along with the girls. He has four sisters to contend with through life.

There has been a great deal of sickness around with all these changes of weather lately. Little Scotty Smith of 88 Woodbine Dr. N. has been very sick with a lung virus and kept his parents pretty worried there for a short time. Seems to be coming along OK now we are glad to say.

Also Denise Dergin of Ferndale Dr. has been very sick with infected kidneys. She is up and around once again. We hope that is the end of her bug for this year.

Say did you ever hear of a four year old kid brother giving his mother 11 years old chicken pox? This happened recently at 4 Greenbriar Lane. Little Richard had chicken pox and then his big brother Jimmy had it. Jimmy is well and out in the fresh air again.

GOOD NEWS: Commuters and others who live along Broadway. Did you know that there is a bus line which goes from Massapequa R.R. station to Hicksville R.R. station and Vice Versa? It starts with 6:15 A.M. to the Hicksville Station with various times settling down to an hourly schedule so that you may get one around 45 minutes of the hour through the day til 5 P.M.

Coming back they leave on the hour except for a few early ones and the later ones at rush hour for commuters. Understand this is on trial for two months. If you like it and want it continued use it. Tell the driver you like it and hope they find it profitable.

PERFORMANCE made it the Largest Selling "8" in the World...

the FORD V-8

Just look at these official registration figures for the first 11 months—January through November, 1955

Here's why!

People just naturally go for 8 cylinders in the FORD package!

And to a world record extent!

Just think, in the first 11 months of 1956 alone, 344,496 more people bought Ford V-8's than the two other low-priced competitive eights combined!

Of course, the reason the Ford V-8 is the largest selling eight-cylinder car in the world is that more people like its brand of performance—the kind that comes with the car!

These people aren't amateurs in judging engines. Nearly 24 years of building Ford V-8's to supply their demand is convincing proof of that.

And the Ford V-8 of today is the best yet—by a country mile!

Smoother and quieter—you can scarcely hear it, even with the hood up!

Sassier—just ask the highway patrol officer who drives one. He knows it takes a Ford to catch a Ford!

And, for the very practical question of durability—ask a Ford cab driver. He knows how Fords take it day in and day out.

So, if it's performance that you want and wrapped like a gift—the '56 Ford V-8 is your baby.

Come in... try it today!

Change Night For Concert

The Mid-Island Concert Assoc., in its second concert of the season, will play host to a most unique group, The Woodwind Ensemble of Paris, now on its first North American tour. This prize-winning ensemble will be heard for the first time on Long Island, at the new Hicksville High School Auditorium here on Division Ave., on Thursday evening, Feb. 9, instead of Mar. 13 as first announced.

Said Mrs. Leroy Wells, president of the Mid-Island Concert Assoc., "We are proud to present this exceptional group and offer to our music public the opportunity to hear at first hand these world-famous artists." She urged association members to note the change of date and watch for a complete story giving the background of these famed representatives of the Paris Conservatory.

Cheaper By Dozen Comedy On Feb 3

A comedy in three acts "Cheaper By Dozen" will be presented by the Pius X Society of Confraternity Parents and Teachers on Friday, Feb. 3 at 8:30 P.M. in the school auditorium. A group of teen-age girls from St. Ignatius are busy selling tickets after the Masses, Sunday mornings. The tickets may also be obtained on Saturday mornings from 10-11 a.m. in the Parochial school and from Monday to Friday afternoons in the Confraternity building. The members of the Executive Committee urge all Pius X members to purchase or sell as many tickets as possible.

The teen-agers from St. Columba's CYO in New York City will be the performers but there will be some boys and girls from the St. Ignatius Confraternity in the play. Our own youngsters will also be the ushers and usherettes and will be the hosts and hostesses to the visiting John Barrymores and Sara Bernhardt.

Father Robert Dunn, Director of the St. Columba CYO is looking forward to bringing his troupe to Hicksville to present the play before a capacity audience.

150 Youngsters At Teen Dance

Over 150 youngsters attended the very successful teen-age dance held Friday evening, Jan. 20 at St. Ignatius School Cafeteria, Hicksville. Everyone enjoyed the excellent music of Jimmy Cummings and his terrific band.

While the youngsters were enjoying cokes and chips they were entertained by the charming voice of Miss Loretta Donohue who rendered two songs: "It's De Lovely" and "Just One of Those Things".

Specialty numbers included the "Bunny Hop", "Mexican Hat Dance" and "Hokey-Pokey". Later on in the evening, Thomas Judge well known baritone sang three selections from his vast repertoire "September Song", "Every Year" and "When You Walk With The One You Love" the latter two are very popular locally. The door prizes were drawn by Miss Linda Joyce Noeth and awards made to Miss Estelle Franzese and Nicholas Brigandi. The teen-age group is under the supervision of Rev. Leo J. Goggin.

Democrats Favor College Here

HICKSVILLE — Unanimous approval of a resolution favoring the establishment here of a four-year college as part of the New York State University was voted by the Democratic Club, it was announced Wednesday. Fleming Harding, the President, was directed by the membership to present this view at a meeting of community leaders called by Superintendent Wallace Lamb to consider how the projected college might be brought here.

Harding told the Club that the opening of a four-year college on Long Island was part of New York State's plan for expanding public higher education. He said: "Hicksville is a logical place for such a college. Property in the northwest section provides an ideal site. The need for a college here is acute. There have been too many complaints in the last few years that the percentage of local high school graduates who go on to college is far below the State average. In a community like ours made up predominantly of wage earners, parents cannot afford to send their children to private colleges at distant places and with high tuition fees. A college which students can attend while living at home is the answer." Dr. Joseph Maloney, an instructor in political science at Fordham University, stressed cultural advantages in having a college. He observed: "Our community would benefit from the intellectual stimulation of a college campus. Besides those young persons who would have the chance for a higher education, adults interested in pursuing various studies would be able to take courses taught by the highly trained specialists who make up a college faculty. We must also remember that a college will attract concerts, lectures and dramatic productions that the entire community can enjoy."

George Power, Democratic leader of the Hicksville Zone, directed the attention of the Club members to other advantages that might be expected to proceed from establishing a college. Said Power: "A college will bring an immediate increase in property values. The new activity means additional businesses to serve the needs of the student body and the faculty. Other construction work will be required. Some slump in home building has been noticed lately; work on the college will provide a new boost to construction in this area and will help keep our community prosperous."

Local Alternates For West Point

WASHINGTON—A Hicksville High School senior is Second Alternate appointment to the United States Military Academy class at West Point beginning July 3. A Bethpage boy was designated Third Alternate.

Congressman Stuyvesant Wainwright made the appointments for the First Congressional District, basing his decision on a Designation Examination.

Edward Allen Osborne, Jr., of 129 Acre Lane, Hicksville, as Second Alternate, has a chance to go to the Academy, in the Principal Appointment, a boy from Water Mill, and the First Alternate, from Riverhead, do not go.

Osborne, a 17 year old Honor Society student who has majored in science and mathematics, is editor of the High school yearbook. He has played football and basketball in school, too.

Peter Pashen, Jr., of Bethpage, received the Third Alternate appointment. He may go to West Point if Osborne and the two boys ahead of him do not go.

Pashen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pashen, Sr., of 8 Byron Lane. The 18 year old boy graduated Brooklyn Technical High School in 1955 and now is a student of Forestry at the State Rangers School at Wanakena, in upstate New York.

Eisemann Celebrates 35th Year Of Business Growth

way now stands. He had been a Marine in World War I, and had first returned to work in an insurance firm in New York City. However, having a tremendous faith in Hicksville, and in its future, when he became established in his life's work, he chose this community as his locale.

Eisemann has always enjoyed an excellent personal reputation as a man whose word could be relied upon, and he applied the same principle to his business.

His business grew. As it grew Eisemann became a more familiar figure thru-out the township, county and beyond. No matter where or how he traveled, he kept Hickville in the forefront of his attentions.

It is not an easy task to list all the facets of his business, community, social and philanthropic affairs that have occupied his attentions. Even a sample listing of affiliations could not be encompassed in this note.

He was the president of the Bank of Hicksville before it became a part of the Meadow Brook National Bank. In addition to being a Trustee of the Roslyn Savings Bank, he is a Director of various prominent business concerns including the Long Island Lighting Co. and the R E F Manufacturing Corp.

Eisemann was at one time Superintendent of the Sunday School of his Church, and has been most active in the Boy Scouts and was of tremendous service in securing the Livingston Manor Camp Site for the Scouts. His private philanthropies are legion—and there are no people outside Eisemann himself who knows about them.

For nearly 32 years he and his wife Florence, have made their home here. The original house has been enlarged and improved over the years so that today it is suitable for graciously entertaining some of the most prominent figures of the Long Island and national scenes.

Of his many enduring friendships, one of the strongest has been that with Leonard W. Hall, National Republican Chairman. This has been a friendship that seems to get stronger with time—and often leads Eisemann to Washington.

Welcome Wagon Hostess Honored

MANHASSET — Mrs. Donnie Spadino, Welcome Wagon Hostess of Hicksville and Plainview, for the second meeting in a row, won the prize for the "most attractively decorated basket". This was chosen from around 60 baskets brought by the hostesses from all of Long Island's Nassau and Suffolk Communities. The baskets are always decorated to carry out a theme of the season or holiday. Her basket carried out a Valentine theme.

The meeting was held on Jan. 19, in the dining room of B. Altman here.

Speakers included: Leonard Dover, Manager of B. Altman; Malcolm Ninefing, Vice President of Boulevard Branch of Meadow Brook National Bank; Rev. George G. Parker, Congregational Church; Patrick Reynolds, circulation and sales manager of the New York Times.

Also Don Weller, Assistant Vice President and Public Relations manager of Meadow Brook National Bank.

ON AND OFF ALBERT ST.:

Hicksville Manor Proves Popular

By SHIRLEY HUENLICH
Wells 5-2327

Have been hearing all sorts of nice things about the Hicksville Manor Restaurant opposite the Railroad station, under the management of J. Cappetta. Featuring an Italian-American Cuisine, the restaurant is quickly becoming one of our popular eateries. The August Mandala and their children, John, Mary, Jane, and Stephen, of 24 Albert St., and Mr. and Mrs. R. Baumann and children, Valarie and Marilyn of Nicholai St., had dinner there celebrating a Friday the 13th birthday for Mr. Mandala, and really enjoyed themselves.

Our son, Gary, celebrated his Friday the 13th birthday by having his playmates in for cake and ice cream. Present were John, Mary, and Jane Mandala, Karen Esgro, Ronnie Carman, Mary, Jackie, and Cathleen Taylor, as well as our daughter Diane.

Mr. and Mrs. John Petrone, Metropolitan Insurance collector for this section, are the proud parents of a daughter born Friday the 13th. The baby, to be named Regina Elizabeth, joins a sister, Denise, two years old.

Did you contribute when the "mothers Marched on Polio" a few Sundays ago? If you were out there is still time for you to get in touch with Mrs. Esther Walsh, 14 Marvyn Ave., who is collecting for this section. Helping her this year are Mrs. Doris McGee and Mrs. Helen Yoniak.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen McGee of 16 Marvyn Ave. had a few couples in for a little get-together a week ago Saturday. On hand were: Allice and Jim Skelley, Helen and Joe Yoniak, John and Sally Regan, and Esther and Bob Walsh.

Thomas Price of 23 Ferny St. was all of 5 yrs. old on Fri., Jan. 20. Little William Fitzgibbons of 2 Mineola Ave., celebrated his 1st birthday on Sat., Jan. 21.

Get Well wishes go to Ronnie Carman of 5 Somerset Ave who is bedded with Scarlet Fever.

Little Lois Skelley of Marvyn Ave. is quite enthusiastic about the Piano Lessons she has just started at the Long Island School of Music and Dance on Levittown Green. Another pupil at the school, 9 yr. old Robert Walsh, received his diploma from the trial course in accordion this past Thursday, the 19th, and he now goes on to work with a 120 bass accordion. Good luck!

A regular Thursday Night Get-together was held at the home of Mrs. Kay Yost, 21 Ferny St. on the 24th. Mrs. Yost, who I understand has recently been visiting in Washington, D. C., entertained Mrs. Price, Mrs. Lynn Schnurm, Mrs. Rosemary Farrington, Mrs. Virginia Haskell, and Mrs. Eileen Byrd.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Walsh of Marvyn Ave. were on hand Sunday afternoon, the 22d. to help Mrs. Walsh's God-Child, Margaret Mary McCue of Brooklyn, celebrate her 1st birthday.

The Grill on the new aluminum storm door at the Fueling home is really one of the most attractive ones I've seen to date.

Got your dancing shoes on? If not, better get set, for on Friday night, Feb. 10, in the Parish Hall of the Trinity Episcopal Church on Jerusalem Ave. there is to be a Mardi-gras semi-formal dance to which everyone is invited. Tickets are on sale now, so better be sure and get yours.

Hold Up Scare At Bank

HICKSVILLE—A man who claimed he was being "held up" was sent to the county jail last Friday. His sentence was 750 or 25 days.

Jean L. Thibodeau, 32, of 12 Duffy Ave., here, pleaded guilty in First District Court, to disorderly conduct charges. He was charged with causing "near panic" at the Long Island National Bank here that morning, when he slipped teller James Terleph a note saying, "I am being held up."

Terleph passed the note along, and the bank called the police. Four cars, and numerous policemen and detectives arrived on the scene, customers fled from the bank and crowds gathered, the charges asserted. The time was about 8:10 A.M., when commuter traffic was near its peak.

The two men behind Thibodeau, who were supposed to be holding him up, were a driver and dispatcher, John J. Giery, of 22 Cranberry Lane, Bethpage, and Daniel Ebbin, of 11 Mallard Rd., Levittown. Giery and Ebbin were indeed trying to get money from Thibodeau. They were trying to collect an $8 fare for transporting him here from Jamaica.

Thibodeau, an unemployed truck driver, had called the cabbie, which he patronizes "intermittently" according to the company, from Jamaica to have them pick him up. Giery did so, but when they arrived, and Thibodeau had no money for the fare, Giery had him wait in the dispatcher office until morning, so that he could draw money from his account in the bank. When the bank opened, Giery and Ebbin accompanied him.

Midland Civics Hear Francke

HICKSVILLE—The Midland Civic Assn. held their regular monthly business meeting last night (Wednesday) in the East St. School, here. Guest speaker at the meeting was County Clerk Ernest Francke, who explained the tax structure of Nassau in general, and the special taxes applicable to local residents in particular. He also described and explained the function of the County Clerk's office.

Ambulance

plete with radio, inter-com, lettering, etc.

Medical equipment on the ambulance cost $757.14 of which the largest single expenditure was $426.00 for a resuscitator.

Miscellaneous expenses amounted to $295.80 including printing, postage, etc.

The Ambulance Committee gave $75 to the rescue squad of the fire dept. toward the purchase of badges and other equipment and the balance of $714.28 has been turned over to the Fire District.

Purick and Kent reported: "The books, records and other financial data submitted for audit have now been examined and found to be in order. Verification of all details pertinent to the receipts and disbursements have been followed from their source to actual disposition and the entire proceeds of $8,202.52 have been disbursed in accordance with the intended purposes for which the Hicksville Ambulance Fund was founded."

The auditor's report is dated Monday, Jan. 23.

Elderly Couple Hurt In Crash

Two elderly people from Springfield Gardens were injured Friday, when their 1949 Studebaker collided with a fuel oil tank truck at Old Country Rd. and South Oyster Bay Rd., Plainview, on wet and slippery roads.

Joseph A. and Alice Dorenbecher, both 63, were taken to Meadowbrook Hospital by police ambulance, after the right side of their automobile was smashed by the front end and right side of the truck. Joseph Dorenbecher, sent to the hospital with possible fractured ribs and contusions and lacerations of the forehead, was admitted as a patient. Hospital authorities list his condition as "fair."

Harry Jackson, a Bayville man, was the driver of the tank truck, which is owned by Commander Fuel Oil Corp. of Oyster Bay.

At the same intersection on the following day, James V. Edwards, of 18 Katherine Dr. Plainview, and James Degnan, of South Laurie Blvd., Bethpage, were in collision. Both vehicles were westbound on Old Country Rd. at the time. No injuries were reported.

Confers Degree

HICKSVILLE — Honors of the first degree were bestowed on the following candidates of the Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 25 at St. Ignatius School Cafeteria:

Robert W. Bogardus, John J. Callaghan, James J. Entenmann, George J. Gramaglia, John W. Hegarty, John J. Lynch, George A. Miller, Ralph G. Russomane, Edward J. Scanlon, William Schiffmacher, Albert H. Voorneveld.

The next business meeting of the Council will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 7 at St. Ignatius. Past Grand Knight Frank Donovan will hold a meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 28 to organize a discussion club. Plans are now going made by Catholic Action Chairman William Minihan to hold the Council's annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, May 13.

Old Country P-TA Membership At 598

The regular monthly meeting of the Old Country P-TA, Parents-Teacher Assoc. of Hicksville, was held on Jan. 18 at the school.

The P-TA prayer was led by Mrs. Martin Polsenaki, President. Mrs. Mary Szabados, Chairman of the Membership Committee, reported that the total membership to date was 598 members which is really outstanding.

Mrs. Polsenaki announced that John Metzger, Vice-President had been appointed by the Executive Board as Chairman of the Nominating Committee. Members of this committee will be, Mrs. Mary Barnett, Mrs. Margaret Englert, Mrs. M. Kraft and Mrs. H. Wood.

At the conclusion of the business meeting a most interesting program was put on by the New York Telephone Co. The theme of the program was the "Long Island Story" illustrated by beautiful colored pictures of all the famous spots on the island and narrated by Mr. Colwell of the Telephone Co. He also introduced Richard Mendes, the Hicksville manager of the New York Telephone Co. Refreshments were served by the Fifth and Sixth grade mothers.

Hears Gibson

Nicholas Street School P-TA of Hicksville held its regular meeting on Thursday evening Jan. 19. Marvin Gibson, Director of Pupil Personal Services in the School System, and N. William Glaser, School Psychologist, spoke on "Our Exceptional Children."

Gibson spoke about bringing out the abilities and interests of the gifted child at home as well as in school.

Glaser pointed out the importance of teaching the retarded child by having special classes but having the child mingle with other children in other school activities.

A question and answer period was held after the talks headed by Glaser.

Twin Fencers Star At Lehigh

HICKSVILLE — Edward R. and Rudolph A. Schauler, 18 year old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph S. Schauler, of 249 W. Nicholas St. here, are members of Lehigh University's fencing team.

The twins are in their second year at the Bethlehem, Pa., engineering college, after having graduated from Hicksville High School in June, 1954. Edward is studying Chemical Engineering, and Rudolph is studying Mechanical Engineering.

Both the twins learned to fence at Lehigh, when they began to practice in their freshman year. Their team recently won a competition against Haverford College.

Height Defeats Braves 39-22

HICKSVILLE — Superior height proved the undoing of a smaller St. Ignatius Braves team against the St. Ignatius Arrows. The two Bantam Division teams were playing in the Northern Nassau Division of the CYO.

Top scoring honors for the game went to Hickey of the St. Ignatius Braves while McGunnigle and Cerone paced the winners with ten points each. It would have been impossible for Hickey to score thirteen points without the excellent passing and support of his teammates.

The St. Ignatius Arrows suffered a setback in the last few minutes of play when Cerone left the game with an injured right foot. The injury will keep him out of action about a week.

All spectators and coaches have agreed that the St. Ignatius Braves are very much improved since league play started and are now in a position to act as spoilers to the league leaders.

The victory for the St. Ignatius Arrows moves them into first place by percentage points in the Northern Nassau C.Y.O. Bantam Division. Friday night they meet with the second place team, Corpus Christie, at Jackson Ave School in Mineola.

The Arrows led at half time, 21-11. The final score was 39-22.

Parish Contest Start Is Rouser

HICKSVILLE — The St. Ignatius Loyola Intra Parish Basketball Competition got off to a rousing start this week.

The Red Devils lead the Senior Division after defeating the Blue Lakers 23-14. The Green Arrows and the Yellow Shirts tied the score and ran out of time. All games were played at the Burns Ave. school.

The Junior Division playing at the Fork Lane school ran up a series of close scores.

The Red Eagles defeated the Maroons, the Gray Sparrows defeated the Blue Eagles and the Yellow Jets defeated the Green Spiders. All victories were by 2 points. The Grey Sparrows won another game, this time by one point, over the Red Eagles.

Baseball Clinic Next Wednesday

HICKSVILLE — Next Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 P.M. at the Jerusalem Ave. Junior High School Gym, Tommy Holmes, Brooklyn Dodgers' batting coach and also the manager of Portland AAA team in Oregon, will be putting on a clinic for the benefit of all local boys. The adults who manage or coach baseball teams in various organizations will greatly benefit by this clinic.

Children and adults who want to seek further advice from Tommy can do so. Through the efforts of Val Stype of GLF, Tommy will be available at the GLF store 3 to 6 P.M. each weekday.

Faculty Defeats Fathers 44-38

HICKSVILLE — The male faculty of the Dutch Lane school here pulled ahead of the fathers of the school in the last few minutes of play to win last Friday night's basketball match 44-38.

After the game each player was presented with his prizes—Sloan's liniment and a poem inscribed on a plaque.

Over half of the reported 300 spectators at the rip-snorting game children, many of whom rooted with real school spirit for their teachers or dads. Organized cheering squads also joined in, for both sides.

Howard Scholefield, Dutch Lane principal, was one of the stars on the faculty team. Scholefield was a former physical education teacher. Another principal who was present was Murray Duncan, from Old Country Rd. school, who was the announcer at the match.

The evening was reported successful in raising school spirit and about $100 for the association.

A sixth grade basketball game which preceded the main event was won by Mr. Grandville's class. They topped Mr. Abt's class, 15-9.

Mrs. Edward Murray, P-TA president, was unable to attend the games. Mrs. Murray who is ill with pneumonia, is in Manhasset Medical Center. However, she is receiving no visitors at present.

WATCH WRESTLERS

The Bethpage Kiwanis club met on Tuesday evening at Anselmi's. The dinner meeting was followed by demonstrations by the Bethpage High School wrestling team, which has enjoyed by all members present.

The club meets each Tuesday evening at 6:10 p.m. at Anselmi's. Next week guests will be the high school music instructors who will explain their work in the schools.

Bomb Hoax During School Exams

BETHPAGE—A bomb hoax in the Broadway school here Monday caused a minimum of inconvenience to school authorities and to about 600 students taking mid-term exams in the building.

Police are still looking, however, for the persons with a "male-sounding" voice who telephoned the school and perpetrated the hoax, the first in the local district.

"There is a bomb set to go off in the school at 12," the voice said, shortly after 11 A.M. "You'd better get all the kids out." Then he hung up.

The Second Precinct Police were called immediately, according to Victor L. Miller, Supervising Principal, and the students were evacuated. Two students taking New York State Regents' Examinations and the other students who were taking classroom exams were about finished anyway. They were told that the school cafeteria would not be open for lunch and that consequently they would have to lunch at home or downtown.

By 12:20, the building had been examined by the police and school authorities, and was ready for the afternoon session of tests, which were not due to begin until 12:45. Examinations, which were given all during this Regents Week, not only made the schedule convenient for noontime evacuation, but reduced the number of students in the building. Only about 600 of the 853 enrolled students were scheduled to take tests Monday morning.

Broadway P-TA Election Feb 2

BETHPAGE — Broadway School P-TA members will be presented with a slate of officers for next year at their meeting, Feb. 2.

The Nominating Committee which will present the slate was named at the last meeting. They are Mrs. Mary Schreiber, Robert Puentes and Michael Kromberg.

Scholarship opportunities was the topic which the speakers at the meeting developed. Mrs. Evelyn Kranz explained the proposed plan for the Bethpage P-TA Scholarship.

Mr. Schulthies, guidance director, said that interest in scholarships should be broadened throughout the community. Mrs. Lupkin, assistant guidance director, reviewed the various types of scholarships that were available and how they were obtained.

On Feb. 3, the P-TA will hold its third Annual Oratorical Contest. Awards will be presented, and the name of the winner will be added to those inscribed on a trophy.

Mrs. Longman, chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee, also announced these future events which will be held by the association: a Penny Auction in March, and a Mother and Daughter Night in May.

The Mother and Daughter Night Committee is headed by Mrs. Squire. The members are Mrs. Hurley, Mrs. Baum and Mrs. Biondo.

Bethpage Driver Hurt In Crash

HICKSVILLE — Climaco Grieco, 44 of 57 Butternut St., Bethpage, suffered undetermined injuries in his back and neck last Saturday, when his car and another which left the scene of the accident were in a collision. He was taken to his home, after refusing medical attention at the scene.

Both vehicles were headed north on Broadway, police reports say, when the accident occurred at 5:55 A.M. near Rave St. here.

A Syosset man was seriously hurt the day before here, when his automobile crashed into a telephone pole at Woodbury Rd. near Ardsley Gate.

The driver, 55 year old Anthony P. Seminora, was taken to Meadowbrook Hospital with a concussion, possible fracture of the ribs and lacerations of the left thigh. Hospital authorities report him in fair condition.

New Moderator For Mothers Club

On Tuesday January 17, the meeting of the Mothers' Club of St. Martin of Tours was held at the parish hall, Seaman Ave., Bethpage.

At this meeting, the first in 1956, Rev. Father Smith was introduced and welcomed as the new moderator of the Mother's Club. Father outlined his plans and expectations for the club and confraternity for the current season.

The guest speaker, Rev. Father Mailli, from Molokai, India, was introduced by Mrs. Nicholas Biondo, program chairman.

Father Mailli, a priest of the Eastern Rite, is at present studying education at Fordham University. In his talk Father compared the religious practices and customs of the people of the United States with those of the people of India.

The Block Rosary was also discussed at the meeting and the members were reminded of the importance of group prayer to combat communism. All were encouraged to organize a Block Rosary in their section.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments served by Mrs. Johnson, hostess, and her committee.

GIFT FOR TROOP

The Boy Scout Mother's Auxiliary of Troop 118, Bethpage, presented two sleeping bags to the troop for the use of adults accompanying the boys on overnight trips. Presentation was made to Oscar Gerke, chairman of the Troop Committee and Albert Muenzfeld, Scoutmaster by Mrs. Frank Bavera, Auxiliary president and Mrs. Oscar Gerke, vice president, at a troop committee meeting at the home of John Mazzei, 25 Park Lane, Bethpage.

GIRL SCOUTS INSTALL

New officers of the Bethpage Girl Scout Town Committee and the Leaders Club will assume office during installation ceremonies to be held following a dinner at Corte's Restaurant, Hicksville Rd., Bethpage, on Monday, Jan. 31 at 8.

Taking office will be Mrs. John Doran, town committee chairman; Mrs. Edwin Fehrenbach, vice chairman; Mrs. William MacKay, secretary; and Mrs. Sigmund Rafinski, treasurer. Also Mrs. Peter Bohnert, president of the Leader's Club; Mrs. Rex Paul, vice president; Mrs. M. J. Morgan, secretary-treasurer.

Two New Courses For Adult Study

BETHPAGE — Adult Education students, who still have a chance to register for classes this Saturday morning, are offered two additional courses.

A Charm Course has been included in the curriculum in response to requests. A modeling school instructor, Mrs. Jennings, will teach the group on Wednesday nights. She will talk about good grooming, weight, hair and nail care and current cosmetics.

"Your Income Tax" will be taught by a Certified Public Accountant, Mr. Hiller, a local resident. Hiller will deal with this gritty subject for individuals, who no longer have the services of the Internal Revenue Dept. in having some help with their tax returns.
