COUPLED WITH TRAFFIC

GRADE CROSSINGS CIVIC GRIPE NO. 1

HICKSVILLE--Elimination of railroad crossings at grade is the number one gripe and community problem it was emphasized this week at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and again at a session attended by representatives of ten local civic organizations. Tied to the RR crossing problem is traffic congestion, it was also noted. The Chamber of Commerce anticipates a up-to-date report on the progress at its April general meeting when local representatives in the State Legislature will be special guests.

At a meeting held in Woodland Ave. School for consideration of a plan for the possible formation of a civic or community council, spokesman for various neighborhood organizations discussed what they considered general overall community problems. First mention was given to the grade crossings, closely following by "traffic."

TOP URGENCY

When the Chamber of Commerce met Friday for lunch, the crossing elimination program was also highlighted as a project of top urgency. Chamber President Pat J. Buffalino reported on efforts to a traffic committee led by Henry G. Eisemann, Aaron L. Rochman told the group that funds appear to be available for the crossing program as soon as plans can be developed for bid taking.

At the February Chamber meeting it was reported by Robert Corcoran for Michael Sullivan that the Township and County administrative leaders have been in conference with the Public Service Commission in an effort to speed the preparation of plans.

Sullivan is town attorney and chairman of the Chamber's grade crossing program. The local problem has won the interest and attention of County Republican Leader J. Russel Sprague who arranged a meeting for Sullivan, himself and Benjamin F. Feinberg, chairman of the State Public Service Commission.

ADVANCED STATUS

Due to the efforts of the Chamber with the assistance of Assemblyman John J. Burns, the status of

High Tension Wire Falls

HICKSVILLE -- Grumman workers got an unexpected holiday, Tuesday, when a high tension line fell at South Broadway near Blomington Ave and cut power for the plant as well as an estimated 3,000 homes in the south Hicksville-Levittown area. Aircraft workers were dismissed for the day. The dropping line caused loud, explosion-like noises which alarmed many in the area.

The local crossing elimination program was advanced to priority status following hearings before the PSC examiner in New York during 1955.

Paul Walker, manager of Getz, and Donald Hayes of J.J. Newberry, were among those present at the Chamber meeting and were invited to become members. Walker said that the Mid Island Plaza Merchants Assoc. would be pleased to cooperate with the efforts of other community groups in seeking an early solution to the problem of crossing elimination.

The group also heard that the widening of North Broadway from John St. north, will probably be the subject of bid taking in April.

Nye Fourth

JOHNSON CITY -- Eugene Nye of 80 Bamboo Lane, Hicksville, placed fourth in the state finals of the American Legion Oratorical Contest held here on Mar. 17.

ROTARIANS from Hicksville and Plainview Clubs flew to San Juan, Puerto Rico, earlier this week, to attend a Rotary luncheon. Dick Sollner, Eastern Airlines pilot and local Rotarian who has made the trip many times, handled arrangements. Recently another service club in the area went to

DRIFTING--WITHOUT DREAMS

'Core' for Island In 25 Years?

Hicksville of the year 1981--twenty-five years in the future--is visualized as the scene of the "Mid-Island Core", a regional centre, "around which the rest of the satellites revolve".

Fourth year architectural design students of Cooper Union last summer developed a plan, the "Mid-Island Core." Just as New York, Chicago, Detroit and San Francisco are the most obvious "cores," so Hicksville is depicted for that role on the Long Island of tomorrow.

"In our planning, we grouped together those functions which relate not only to Hicksville but to the township and rest of the island. Here is the seat of government for the entire township, with its administrative buildings and courts. Here are the rail centre and the financial and business administration centres. Here is an educational complex for the surrounding area. Here is a permanent fair, with provision for outdoor-indoor exhibits to attract industrial and commercial displays. Here is an area in which to relax with theatres, cinemas, spectator sports, restaurants, night clubs, all readily available," according to the forecast by the Cooper Union students.

"The building of the new Hicksville would be a beautiful thing to see, to take part in. The concept of the Core would virtually unfold in an orderly way. Here would be birth, on the ruins of the past, development and fruition, the whole process of the growth of a real city for man."

Accepting the fact that in 1981 there will still be automobiles or some more advanced form of locomotion, the parking problem of

Switzerland Calling, Mom

HICKSVILLE -- The McQuillen home at 85 Duffy Ave., here, was the scene of great excitement Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. Margaret McQuillen received a surprise phone call from her son, John, halfway around the world, in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

John, an employee of the Arabian-American Oil Co. in Saudi Arabia, phones from Switzerland, where he was spending a vacation. Mrs. McQuillen, who hasn't seen John, nor heard his voice, for over a year, said the transmission was as clear as if it had been made from across the street, and that she will never forget this particular St. Patrick's Day.

Red Cross Fund Drags

MINEOLA -- Initial reports of contributions to the Red Cross Fund Appeal are slim. It was disclosed here today, Hicksville with a quota of $3,100 has turned in $10, Bethpage aiming for $2,000 has only $1 deposited and Jericho with a goal of $2,000 reports $5. Contributions sent directly to Chapter Headquarters here are credited to Chapter Headquarters here are credited to the areas from which the funds are received. Plainview has a quota of $700 and reports $20.

Board Starts Work On New Tax Budget

HICKSVILLE--The Board of Education will hold two meetings next week at the high school. Monday night is the regular board session and Tuesday will be devoted to continued consideration of the 1957-58 district budget which comes before the voters on May 8. The School Board nearly completed the first code of the budget at an open session last Monday night during a two-hour period. The trustees agreed to separate the code 2-23 formerly legal and auditing into 2-23 auditing and 2-24 legal, a new category. The Board also appropriated sufficient funds to take care of three special elections during the coming year in addition to the annual meeting.

The salary allowed for the district clerk, it is proposed, will be increased from $2000 to $2500, the district treasurer increases from $2000 to $2160 and the school attorney from $7000 to $7560, as preliminary decisions. Code Two was described by School Superintendent Wallace Lamb as "the Board of Education overhead including certain provisions mandated by law and others required for general administration of the district."

In an opening statement, Dr. Lamb told the Board that an enrollment of 11,800 is expected next year, a gain of more than 11 per cent and the community population will be 43,000.

Pastor Stammel Here 15 Years

The Rev. Edward Stammel, 100th anniversary of his birth, is celebrating his 15th year as Pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas St., here, tomorrow (Fri). The church is one of the oldest in the area, having been established 107 years ago in 1850.

Pastor Stammel accepted the call to Trinity as Associate Pastor to the late Rev William D. Ruch at the age of 25, one year after graduating from Concordia Lutheran Seminary in St. Louis. When Pastor Ruch accepted a call to Redeemer Lutheran Church in Riverhead, the Rev Stammel became Pastor at Trinity. At that time the congregation was small but deeply rooted in the community. Total membership in 1942 was 310 souls. Its Sunday School had an enrollment of only 200 children, and the entire budget for the year amounted to $8,300.00.

Dynamic Pastor Stammel, foreseeing the expanding spiritual needs of a growing community, worked endlessly and unceasingly to build the congregation to its present 1,300 souls. The Sunday School enrollment now numbers 1,000 children, and is constantly growing. In 1955, through Pastor Stammel's incessant hard work and encouragement, Trinity Lutheran established what is now known as Trinity Lutheran School. Starting with Kindergarten and First Grade that year in the basement of the church, it now has its own Parish School Building, housing grades Kindergarten through Eighth Grade and has an enrollment of almost 400 children.

In 1952 Pastor Stammel recommended that the congregation establish and underwrite a mission parish on a 40 acre tract of land in Plainview. This parish is now known as the Church of the Good Shepherd, Plainview, has its own Pastor, the Rev. John Hirsch, and the congregation numbers approximately 400.

But Pastor Stammel is not resting on these accomplishments. Recognizing the need for instilling in the hearts of the children Christian principals in everyday living, he has started a Lutheran High School Movement.

When asked about the need for such a school, Pastor Stammel said, "There is no stronger, no more forceful laws and principles of living than those set down by God and His only Son, Christ. If the Church prepares itself to meet the spiritual needs of the coming generation and their parents and vice versa, then there would be no such things as juvenile delinquency. Bringing up a child in the way he should go is the responsibility of Church and parent. The peak of our teenage population in the mid-island area has not yet been reached...will we be prepared to meet it?"

Author Speaks Here Mar. 29

HICKSVILLE—"What Makes a Good School System?" will be discussed at the next meeting of the Organization for Public Education. Featured will be Dr. Paul Woodring, consultant to the Ford Foundation for the Advancement of Education. The public is invited to the meeting, 8:15 pm next Friday, Mar. 29, in the all-purpose room at the Fork Lane School, here.

Dr. Woodring, currently on leave from Western Washington College of Education, is the author of the book, "Let's Talk Sense about our Schools." He had been a thoughtful critic of public education, searching for principles which may reasonably guide its future. He has expressed in his book a desire "not to give answers, but to aid those who seek their own answers." His talk is expected to clarify some basic principles involved in a good school system, to aid those who want to go on to study their own school system.

The organization for Public Education will try to make available to the public background knowledge upon which citizens can base their own thinking about problems and improvement in the schools, according to a spokesman. Soon to be released for public study and discussion is a HOPE survey of the school system, based primarily upon answers to questions drawn up by survey teams in several areas of interest (instruction, personnel, finance, etc.) Reports, copies, when available, and for other information, write James Cass, at 2 Winter Lane.

Dr. Gosselink Writes Book

HICKSVILLE - The Rev. Dr. Marion G. Gosselink of the Parkway Community Church on Hempstead Ave., here, has just had his fourth volume of talks to boys and girls published. The book, entitled "Inspiring Talks To Juniors" is a series of talks pertaining to the various seasons of the year, special days, holidays, and the like, with a religious theme.

In putting across the message, Dr. Gosselink explains the uses to which the children can put their time throughout the year to follow the teachings of Christ.

Each talk is set forth in a chapter, and there are a total of 40 talks in the book, each with its particular reference to a specific day.

For example, he explains the banishment of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden as a story which says, "that the fruit of the tree which they were forbidden to eat was the grape. Adam and Eve learned how to make wine from the grapes, and became drunk. That made them so lazy that they disobeyed God by not working in the garden. Then God drove them out of Paradise, and said, 'In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread.'"

The story of Christ's betrayal by Judas Iscariot is aptly described as follows: Judas Iscariot was one of Jesus' twelve disciples. He was treasurer of the group. He must have been a good business man to have been chosen for that position. But he got into the bad habit of taking money out of the treasury and keeping it himself. It got such a hold on him that at last he sold Jesus into the hands of evil men for 30 pieces of silver."

Civics Oppose Gas Station

OYSTER BAY--The Town Board heard the petition of Gorman and Harrison Inc., for a change of zoning from Residence "D" to Business "F", also a special permit use for a gasoline station to be located on the North side of West John St. and the East side of Kuhl Ave., Hicksville, on Tuesday. Counsel for the petitioner told the Board that there is no gas station on that side of the street and further pointed out that a traffic count made by the Nassau Dept. of Public Works in April 1956 indicated that there were enough cars passing the spot to warrant a gas station.

The application was opposed by the North West Civic Assoc. on the ground that there was no need for another gas station in that area and its erection would devalue homes in the area.

Also heard was the petition of Stella Marcinkowski for a change of zoning from Residence "D" to Business "C" property located on the West side of Broadway, approximately 100 ft. south of 16 St. Hicksville.

HICKSVILLE TODAY is outlined on this map with the development plan for the future superimposed. The light cross marked zone in the center is the Mid Island Core of the future.

--WITHOUT DREAMS

tomorrow's Hicksville is solved by working on three levels. The lowest level will be for main traffic, parking and trucking will take place at grade and the top level of the core is reserved primarily for pedestrian travel.

Besides the separation of functions, the elevated core serves an esthetic and symbolic purpose, setting it off from the other areas its importance is dramatized, making it commensurate with its position relative to the township and the rest of the island," the study points out.

Other areas in Hicksville are allowed to follow their natural trends. Industrial areas branch out along the rail road, while contiguous with residential areas, are separated from them by parks and bands of green.

In our solution we have been visionary. Twenty-five years is a long period of time and many changes will take place in it. If these years are not used with wisdom and foresight, they will pass quietly with the inadequacies of everyday living piling up in geometric progression. The bankruptcy of no planning or little planning has been graphically demonstrated.

Our philosophy of planning was to provide a basic framework within which to work rather than a rigid step by step formula.

In succeeding editions the HERALD will publish details on the development of the core as planned by William G. Harvey, Jr., George Kleit and Hugh Keiser.

HEAR PSYCHOLOGIST

Miss Louise Cameron, school district psychologist, will be guest speaker when the Nicholas School P-TA meets tonight (Thurs). In keeping with the theme of the year, "Educational Know How," she will discuss "The Family Approach."

Election of officers of the Mid-Island Area of the Eagles will be held tomorrow (Fri) night at the VFW Hall on Grand Ave., Hicksville, according to E. W. Linscott.

SITE PLAN - CIRCULATION AND LAND USE
SCALE 1" = 800' 0"

LAND USE in Hicksville in 1961 is indicated on this map of the present-day school district. Areas labeled A and B are multi-story dwellings, A-a and B-a are single and two level housing, C is the Core, D are neighborhood service cores and E indicates industrial areas. The band from left to right thru the center (C) which is currently the railroad right of way becomes the Core of the future. The train tracks would remain, except trains would run two levels below the pedestrian level.

Attorney Gets His Polar Bear

Charles H. Stoll, well-known attorney with law offices at 35 Broadway, Hicksville, has achieved a long-time ambition in "bagging a polar bear" in the Arctic regions. Mr. Stoll, who for many years made his home on New South Rd. in Hicksville, will mark his 70th birthday in November.

He is known internationally as an explorer. In 1928 with Mrs. Stoll and Capt. Bob Bartlett aboard the chartered schooner, Morrissey, he went to the Arctic in behalf of the Museum of Natural History. On that trip the party brought back a walrus group and a bird group, both of which are on permanent exhibit at the Museum.

In 1944, in behalf of the Carnegie Institute, Mr. and Mrs. Stoll went to Mexico to get specimens of American mountain lions.

Mr. Stoll went alone on his present trip and covered in hours a distance which took almost as many months, 29 years ago. He flew by chartered plane from New York to Seattle, thence to Fairbanks and on to Kotzebue, Alaska.

He left Mar. 5 and arrived in Alaska about 24 hours later. After arranging with a guide-pilot and a small plane, he flew out over the Arctic waste land. Another small plane with a cameraman flew along.

According to reports reaching Stoll's law office in Hicksville, the polar bear was spotted about 100 miles from the mainland the second or third day after his arrival at Kotzebue. A smooth landing place on the ice pack was found and the small planes went down. Stoll and his guide approached the location of the bear from different directions when suddenly the animal was 30 feet from Stoll.

He got it with the fourth shot and the polar bear was found to be an excellent nine-foot male specimen. Ten-foot is considered the tallest among these animals.

With limited load capacity on the small plane, the animal was skinned. The skull was kept for a guide in eventual mounting.

The next day, according to Aaron L. Rochman who is associated with Stoll and gave this report in the HERALD, the attorney and his pilot flew over the spot again and shot wolves who had gathered at the spot where the bear had been skinned.

Stoll is hoping to arrange a jet-plane flight over the North Pole before he returns to Long Island.

He was a member of Oyster Bay Town Board as a Justice of the Peace some years ago. During World War II he served as Civic Defense chairman for the Hicksville-Plainview area.

His home today is on Caladonia Rd., in Dix Hills, Suffolk County. Many of the trophies of previous expeditions are mounted and exhibited at his law office in Hicksville.

READY FOR THE HUNT on the snows of the Arctic 29 years ago in 1928 are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stoll. In the background can be seen part of the rigging of the ship Morrissey which took them into the Arctic white waste land on an expedition sponsored by the Museum of Natural History. Earlier this month Mr. Stoll returned to the Arctic by plane and fulfilled a 30-year-old ambition in shooting a polar bear.

Information about this program may visit the local Reserve unit, Second Battalion of 305th Infantry Regt., which meets at the new armory at 101 Oak St. here, just north of Hofstra College, any Monday evening between 7:30 and 10:00.

There they will find many of their neighbors including Maj. B. C. Schuster of 42 Twinlawn Ave., Hicksville, Phone WE 5-4209.

Plan Cake Sale For Saturday

A cake sale scheduled for Saturday, Mar. 23 in the General Purpose Room of the Old Bethpage Grade School, is the second fundraising event planned by the Old Bethpage PTA. It was announced today. The sale will take place between the hours of 12 noon and 9 p.m. when residents of the school district will be voting on an extension of the new school on Round Swamp Road.

Irwin Wexner, director of the Queens Island Reading Center, will speak on "Children and Their Reading Problems" at the Mar. 25 meeting. New business at that meeting will be the presentation of the slate of officers by the Nominating Committee. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor. As an added incentive for parent attendance a special book award, in addition to the usual ice cream party, will be made to the class having the greatest percentage of attendance.

BOAT SHOW AT PLAZA

More than 150 Boat and Marine dealers in the Long Island area are expected to attend a dinner meeting at the Newberry restaurant in Mid-Island Plaza, tonight (Thurs) at 6, to finalize plans for the first All Long Island Boat and Fishing show which will be held at the Plaza from Apr. 26 through May 5th.

Dancers, Singers To Give Show

Election of Officers for the new year will take place during the business portion of the meeting. The slate proposed by the Nominating Committee follows: Mrs. Ronnie Fenster, Pres.; Leonard Auslander, Millicent Levy, and Audrey Goldberg, Vice-Pres.; Marion Marmarsten, Corres. Sect'y.; Mindy Taylor, Fin. Sect'y.; Bea, Thaler, Rec. Sect'y.; Hortense Zallin, Treas.; Phyllis Klimmel, Counselor; Muriel Winter, Delegate to Metropolitan Council; Eve, Leitner, Alt. Civics, Congressman Meet About PO Service

Congressman Stuyvesant Wainwright and North Bethpage Civic Assoc. Post Office Chairman, Ernest Centrella, have an appointment this week to discuss the difficulties encountered by residents who do not have Bethpage mailing addresses.

The NBCA has long fought for Bethpage addresses for residents and it is hoped that the outcome of the discussion will be favorable.

Centrella will report to the membership at the Mar. 20 meeting the result of his interview with Rep. Wainwright.

HEMPSTEAD - A recent change in the Reserve Forces Act now makes it possible for young men of draft age to fulfill their military obligation as reservists instead of as draftees.

Under this program a volunteer may serve for only 6 months on Active Duty and a maximum of four and one half years as an active Reservist, serving with the unit nearest his home one evening a week.

Young men are eligible for this new program even after they have taken their pre-induction physical. Once they have received their final draft notice, however, they have lost their chance to make a choice in the manner in which they will fulfill their military obligation.

CYO Coaches, Faculty In Benefit Game

By Elwood S. Kent, Jr.

HICKSVILLE Coach Walter Gaylor of the St. Ignatius CYO and Chet Jaworski of the High school faculty, have agreed to have their teams meet on a mutually convenient date, with all the proceeds going to the Scholarship Fund.

Both organizations must be commended for their great community spirit. In furthering the educational needs of the students in the District, possibly this effort could be made an annual affair. It will undoubtedly draw a great many fans, together with other civic minded people. Watch this column for further announcements.

St. Ignatius, entered their first and very newly organized Swimming Team in the Nassau County CYO Swim Meet at Uniondale High school, on Mar. 15.

In a Junior one Length Freestyle event, Francis Biasi came in Second, the first victory. Frank Colletta was first in Senior Backstroke. Eugene Jamison, fighting all the way, came in Second in the Senior Two Length Freestyle. Our great Medley Team, consisting of Frank, Vincent, and Chris Colletta, showed at Third in their heat (best time in this event also). Our four men Relay Team with Francis Biasi, David McCarthy, Elwood Kent, and William Heart, placed second in their heat. Robert Heart swam in a Junior One Length Freestyle, and though he didn't win, place, or show, he put up a good fight. Robert is about knee high to a grasshopper, and all heart. Best of luck to all of these boys in future meets, and thanks for the good job they turned in, in their first endeavor.

BASKETBALL FINALE

Basketball for the Senior Division, at Burn Ave. school, came to an end Mar. 16, with two very good games. In the first encounter, the Knicks beat the Warriors 59-44. The first quarter score was 26-2 in favor of the Knicks, but the Warriors, true to their name, fought back to close the gap. Bob Harman was high scorer for the Knicks with 16 points, while Bob Huff, with 21 points, was high for the game and his team.

In the second game, the Warriors kept on with their phenomenal scoring, and beat the Celtics 66-52. It was a see-saw battle most of the way, with only one or two baskets difference, until the last six minutes, and then the Warriors went to town. This, we believe, is the highest winning score for this division, this season. Vincent Colletta was high with 18 points, for the winners, while Mike Talbot had a 20 point total to take honors for the game and his team. These boys did very well this season, and the coaches were happy and proud to have worked with them, and they hope to see them and many more next year. Thanks and congratulations to all the boys.

THIS IS LITTLE LEAGUE Organize More Teams

The Hicksville Nationals started tryouts for the new season at six ball fields on Mar. 16.

Due to the large last minute registration the league was compelled to add two additional minor league teams. The distribution of our 870 boys competing for a position on a team will be as follows:

Six major teams-80 boys; Twelve minor teams-180 boys; Sixteen farm teams-400 boys.

entered for baseball. Information on the card will point out where and to whom to report. Your glove is a must - bring it with you. If your insurance has not been paid, you may pay the $1 when reporting for the first game.

The St. Ignatius CYO Girls and the Holy Family Girls met in the final game, of their two-game series, last week. The results were the same as in the first game. Seniors of St. Ignatius won over Holy Family, then Holy Family teams won the next two. Considerable time and energy was exerted in training these teams, but the results were worthy of the attempt. The brand of basketball was excellent, and the feeling of good will was paramount. Next year, no doubt, a schedule of more outside games will be arranged.

Response to Girl's Softball was beyond expectations. Make a date for Friday night to travel to Uniondale High and cheer the CYO Girl's swim team to victory. The boys made a good showing last week, and the girls will do likewise. Seeing the Uniondale pool, alone, is worth the trip. Plenty of good seats are available.

KEEP OFF GRASS

A concerted effort is now being made to get the ball fields in shape for the fast arriving baseball season. In order to do a good job, it is essential to the grounds not to be used during the period they are being worked. Please, all boys, all organizations, do your best. Be patient, wait for the completion of the work. Don't undo the good that has been done. Quartermaster McLaughlin, from all reports, is now checking the baseball equipment for the coming season. I hope I can get into my garage, shine up the bats, clean the bases, etc., before he catches up with me. Also, maybe I can trade him the old bases, keeping the new???

Special mention should be made of Walter Gaylor and Lloyd Harmon for their excellent handling of the basketball activities in the Burn Ave. school.

Comets Champs In PBC Loop

HICKSVILLE - The Comets are the Champions in the Junior Division of the PBC League, here.

After losing the first game of the season, they went on to win all the remaining games. They are a very good team of boys, who had never played much basketball together. Although they are juniors, they could beat many older teams, for there is excellent team play, with no "star", and everyman working together to win.

Having won the local Championship, the juniors will now meet the Plainview Champs at the Fern Pl school, Plainview, Monday, March 25, at 7 p.m.

A Card and Bunco Party will be held in the American Legion Hall on Nicholas St., here on Saturday, March 30, at 8 p.m. for the benefit of the PBC League. For information, phone Tom Colwell, WE1s 6-4759, or Bill Staker, WE1s 6-7987.

Legionnaires' Log

by Artie Ruiz

It was St. Patty's eve---at the Legion clubhouse---semi-darkness enveloped the crowded dance floor---green flashes of light erupted from the tiny mirrors of the revolving chandelier---the dancers moved slowly in rhythm to the soft music---a vision in grey appears amid the dancers---moving, noiselessly to the nearest male dancer---a gentle tapping on the shoulder---a voice softly whispers, "Oh, I thought you were Arthur!"---now, among the celebrants at the tables, the query was raised---"Where's Arthur?"---it grew in magnitude until the very walls seem to whisper, "Where's Arthur?"---the music ends---the dancers desert the polished floor---the searching figure disappears thru the south egress---still the question is being asked, but in bolder volume now---"Where's Arthur? Who is Arthur?"---"With we knew what this is all about,"---"I'll tell you now---the lady of the whispered query---was looking for a match!

The St. Patty's Dance was quite a success both socially and financially and was a most memorable event held in a while. Al Donals of Ray Television donated the door prize which was a combination television lamp and antenna and Vera Burley was the lucky winner of this. Al also donated a clock radio which was raffled off and Fran Suglia was the holder of the winning ticket. Ed Emmil, floor waxing service, donated three necktie sets which were given as prizes. The nice thing about these donations was the fact that we did not solicit for them but rather these people came forth voluntarily and offered them to us, that's real Legion spirit. There was quite a few very complimentary remarks thrown in the direction of Rudy Bouse's food and deservedly so, because it was tops.

Our Service Officer, Tony Corren, reported on the case of one of our deceased members whose widow was, and still is, having a troublesome time with the government in trying to place his name on a grave stone. It seems he had served under a slight variation of his given name and the government refuses to accept the original spelling. Tony, a real good service officer, has the matter up with Senator Javits, who in turn has taken the matter up with the Senate Rules Committee. This is an example of how far the American Legion will back up a veteran, member or not, even on a relatively trivial matter.

The Post voted double its usual donation to aid the Boy Scout Fund in Nassau County. We welcomed a transferred member, Bill Eggermann, 41 Vincent Road, a former member of the Joe B. Garrity Post in Ridgewood, my old stamping grounds.

The next social affair on the calendar is a dance sponsored by the Past Post Commanders under the chairmanship of Henry C. Bregel, which will take place on Saturday night, April 13.

I don't know which of the Veterans Organizations has charge of the Memorial Day Services this year, but time is drawing near and no word yet on the arrangements.

OPERATION VFW

William M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211 VFW BY HAHN

With the advent of Spring, the membership has an opportunity to participate in one of the most important functions of our organization; selection of candidates, and subsequent election of officers for the ensuing year. The retiring slate, from Commander down the line, merits member's appreciation for the able and constructive manner in which it conducted the Post's affairs during its tenure. A veteran's organization, at any other group large or small, can only attain goals within the scope of its leaders' potentialities, both in management ability, and desire for accomplishment.

This has also been a year of expansion of activities on the part of our Ladies Auxiliary, and expectations of further progress seem assured at this time.

Sincerest thanks and congratulations to those, who in "carrying the ball" selfishly, have contributed so greatly to maintaining veterans' objectives.

One of the principal "ball carriers" has just returned from a Florida vacation, extremely well tanned, and in fine condition to resume his duties as Adjutant. It is to be noted that he contrived to maintain his bachelor status in the face of the most over-powering femininity in the sovereign state of Florida. Perhaps the unattached ladies of Hicksville will prove more adroit and persevering.

The "Ping Pong Committee" headed by Lou Palladino, reported definite progress at the last meeting, and thanks to Harry Schlietfer's efforts in fabricating table legs, there is every indication that volleys of ping pong balls may soon be zooming over the heads of the long entrenched seven card stud players.

St. Vice-Commander, George Waldron, as Chairman of the Membership Committee, has maintained the all important membership level at better than one hundred percent of the previous year's mark. Membership is the very sine qua non of the organization, and George's efforts in this respect are worthy of notice.

In the laudable dispensing department, one cannot overlook the wonderful job done by Bob Obermeyer in maintaining the Post's quarters so efficiently.
