FULL HOUSE AS LIBRARY TRUSTEES MEET

the left are Mrs. Robert Goodrich, Mrs. Joseph Ulmer, Leon Galloway, Library Attorney Philip Robinson, Board President Elery Bean and John Hansen. It was the most heavily attended Library Board meeting in the quarter century of the library's existence. Further action on the Chaplin films was tabled.

Chaplin Film Festival Controversy Continues as Bd Tables Question

The Hicksville Library Trustees heard two hours of debate, pro and con, on the Charlie Chaplin Film Festival, Monday night at a regular Board meeting and then voted to table further action on the question. Meanwhile, the flood of letters and debate on the subject continued.

Don Zirkel of the editorial staff of the TABLET, Catholic weekly newspaper serving Brooklyn and Long Island, speaking before the Holy Name Society of St. Ignatius Loyola RC Church, Hicksville, declared: "The unsuccessful attempt to honor Commie-love Charlie Chaplin is typical of the fuzzy thinking on the part of many Americans who should know better."

"If Chaplin were an anti-Negro propagandist like John Kasper, an anti-semitic like Gerald L.K. Roth, or a friend of the Mafia, whose community would be actually up in arms about any attempt to honor him here, especially taxpayers' money," Zirkel stated. "But, his crime is only that he is a Communist propagandist - a defender of the diabolical international conspiracy which has enslaved, murdered or raped one third of the world."

"We reject the implication," he continued, "that a Communist or a pro-Communist is any better than any other criminal, anti-semitic, anti-Negro or persecutor of minority groups."

At the meeting Monday night in the jammed auditorium of the Public Library it was obvious by the statements made the applause following the statements that the greater majority of those present were in disagreement with the Library Board's action in cancelling the films. Much of the criticism was directed at the Board for bowing to the wishes of "pressure groups" and "self appointed censors."

Five in Race For Fire Bd.

The election of a Hicksville Fire District commissioner and district treasurer on Tuesday night, Dec. 2, has attracted eight candidates. Five are seeking the seat to be vacated by the expiring term of Commissioner George Engel and three are running for the post of District Treasurer now held by Bernard Schuster.

The election will take place at the East Marie St. Firehouse on Tuesday, Dec. 2, with the polls open from 7 to 10 PM. Three voting machines are being rented to handle the voters. No advance voter registration is required in fire district elections.

Filled candidates for Fire Commissioner, a non-paying position with a five-year term of office, are Chief B. Medard Ofenloch, Ex-Chief Stanford (Sam) Weiss, Ex-Chief Larry Huntle, James Matienzo and Cono (Nick) Briganti.

Engel, whose term is expiring, is not a candidate for re-election. The candidates to succeed District Treasurer Schuster for a three year term are Frank Wallach, Joseph Wickman and William Dargatzis.

All candidates are active members of Hicksville Fire Dept.

The next issue of the HERALD will be published a day ahead because of the holiday. Copy deadlines will be advanced to Monday.

Marching Cadets Enroll Sunday

St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Parish, Hicksville, is now forming a Girls Cadet Corp. The training program will include marching, fancy drilling and instruction on bugle and drum. Registration will take place in the school basement this Sunday, Nov. 23, from 9 AM to 1 PM. Girls

10 years of age and up will be accepted.

For further information contact Mrs. W. Minihan at WE 1-2505. Since only a limited number can be accommodated the first 125 girls to register will be accepted at this time.

Lamb to Speak Air Raid Test About College Next Monday

Dr. Wallace E. Lamb, superintendent of Hicksville schools, will speak at an open meeting tonight (Thursday) in room 167, Hicksville Senior High School, on the proposed Hicksville Community College. All residents interested are invited to attend according to the meeting sponsors, the Hicksville Citizens for Better Government in School Affairs.

Nassau County's Air Raid Warning System will be tested next Monday evening, Nov. 24, at 8 o'clock. Col. Louis M. Merrick, Nassau County Civil Defense Director, announced. Traffic will not be halted, nor will the public be required to take shelter. Similar quarterly tests will be held in February, May, August and November each year.

Two-Hour RR Here Tomorrow

Hicksville will have its own special rail road in operation for two hours tomorrow (Fri). Starting at 3 PM, it will run up and down 2,680 feet of track in the Long Island Rail Road's new Hicksville freight terminal at the Charlotte Ave. crossing.

It will be known as the "Hicksville, Nassau & Mid Island Rail Road" and special life-time passes (good for two hours) have been issued to about 50 special guests. It will consist of a diesel locomotive "borrowed" from the LIRR and a bright orange caboose, likewise "borrowed."

The HN & MIRR operation is part of the program tomorrow afternoon putting the new freight yard into service. The yard has a capacity of 35 freight cars.

Board Hires Dr McCormick; Raise Pay for Principals

Hicksville Board of Education has voted to engage the services of Dr. Felix McCormick of Columbia University to bring up to date the long-range student enrollment projections of the School District as recommended by Dr. Wallace E. Lamb, superintendent of schools. The vote last Friday night was five in favor and one abstention.

A new salary scale for Principals and Assistant Principals of the School District, effective Jan 1 when the increases in pay for teachers goes into effect, was unanimously carried with six votes in favor.

The present scale has assistant principals starting at $6000 and going up to $9500 in nine steps with principals starting at $7500 and rising to $11,000 in six steps.

The new scale, recommended by Donald F. Abr, assistant superintendent for education, starts at $6000 and rises to $9800 in eight steps on the assistant principal scale (BA plus 30 hours), while principals will go from $8100 to $11,300 in five steps. A $300 differential is provided for BA plus 60 hours.

The new scale allows assistant principals to earn $500 a year more than they would as a teacher.

The Mid Island Hebrew Day School at 42 Locust Ave., Bethpage, will have a Thanksgiving Harvest Festival on Saturday, Nov 29, at 8 PM.

CP MEETING

The Hicksville Auxiliary of the Cerebral Palsy Assoc. will meet Tuesday, Nov. 25 at Hicksville High School at 8:30 PM. The program for the evening will be "Trees and Tower," presented by the L.I. Lighting Company.

DEAR JEAN..

Traffic conditions on North Broadway at the entrance to Mid Island Plaza are expected to improve vastly as of this weekend when the new concrete on the east lanes will probably be open to traffic movement. Repaving of the west lanes, we understand, will be postponed until after the holidays....Gertz at Mid Island is getting a new coat of paint on its four-story building. A feature of the holidays this year will find a colorful display of lights on the east wall of the Gertz building, facing North Broadway....Keep in mind this year a traditional burning of the greens will probably be held after Christmas in Hicksville this year....The 22nd Mercy Ball takes place this Friday evening at Garden City Hotel. Last year 2,000 attended to raise over $50,000 for the benefit of Mercy Hospital....BILL NELSON, Mid Island Plaza executive secretary, has joined Hicksville Kiwanis....He's moving to East Meadow from his present residence in Jamaica....

Belated greetings to GEORGE RITZLER of Hicks Circle (& Holden's Stationery Store) Hicksville who celebrated his 77 birthday last week.... Mr. and Mrs. JOE ESATTO of Hicksville Farms would appreciate the return of their car "Ginger" who was accidentally "cat-napped" by someone last week. Ginger who is tawny with white markings, is a family pet and has several new-born kittens who need her attention, so please return her, says Joe....Have you ever found a ticket for overtime parking, attached to your windshield wiper, when you returned to your car? Have you ever carefully checked the license plate number on the ticket with your plate number or do you just take for granted that the ticket is yours. Last week a resident found a ticket on his car and started to blow a fuse because the meter still had time left on it. On checking the ticket, he found it was not made out for his plate number. Some gracious person near him had gotten a ticket and then put it on his car. If he had neglected to check the plate number he probably would have sent in the ticket covering the so-called person who got it. Our friend tore up the ticket and we hope that other guy gets it but good....

Anyone entering the Public Library auditorium last Thursday night for the showing of the film Broke may have been under the impression it was S.R.O. but that wasn't the case at all. The film was in German and the sub titles could be seen only by those in the first few rows. Everyone else, except those who understood German, had to stand....

Our best wishes to Miss MARY RUOCCO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ruocco of Rosedale, whose engagement to WILLIAM F. VOGT, son of Mrs. G. Vogt of Bryant Ave., Hicksville was recently announced. Our best wishes also go to Miss MARGARET PETCHLER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Petchler of Huntington who had become engaged to WILLIAM POWERS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Powers of Plainville....

Two hundred and forty students of Hicksville Jr. High were at Carnegie Hall, Tuesday, for the WHEELER SECKETT Concert. Recently 50 science students made a trip to Brookhaven National Lab at Upton... All night permits for New Year's Eve will again be issued this year by the Liquor Authority. Dec. 5 marks the 25th anniversary of the repeal of prohibition, hick... A group of 22 visitors will be in Hicksville Feb. 17, 18 and 19, representing the Middle States Assoc. of Colleges and Secondary Schools and they will be engrossed in the second step in evaluating the Hicksville Secondary (High) School. While on their studies here, they will be housed at either Meadowbrook Motel in Jericho or Garden City Hotel... Security National Bank, while denying on one hand that it plans to merge with Meadow Brook National Bank, announces the opening of an office in Melville on the other... Mrs. J. A. KUDLESS, president of the Hicksville Chapter of the Mental Health Assoc., is seeking volunteers as aids to the recreation and occupational staffs of mental hospitals. Call her at WE 8-1683...This year the Hicksville Rotary is selling shares on a new car at $10 a throw (it was five bucks last year). Each club member has 14 tickets to sell. BOB CORCORAN, law partner of MICHAEL SULLIVAN, is a new member of Hicksville Rotary... FRANK CHLUMSKY remains faithful to the Salvation Army and continues as service unit chairman in Hicksville. The "Army" has kicked off its Christmas program... We at the HERALD have several offers of repaired old toys for needy children. Participants Gain In Rec Program Hicksville Schools Recreation Dept. notes almost 2,000 separate participations in the week's program. The bulk of these participants were absorbed by the seven elementary centers and the teen centers, regularly conducted at Burns Ave., East St., and the High School, according to Patricia Schwartz, recreation coordinator.

The special interest groups claimed their share of the week's activity beginning with the fencing classes held Tuesday and Thursday 4-5 p.m. and 5-6 p.m. in the Jr. High cafeteria. Dr. de Nagy, language teacher, also instructs a community fencing class on Saturday at 10 a.m. in the High School gym.

Jr High Students Honor Teachers

The students of Hicksville Junior High School, through their efforts, have earned funds to purchase plants which have been placed in two of the lobbies of the school.

Women's Club Presents Arctic Film

Charles H. Stoll, noted attorney, adventurer, and past president of the famous Campfire Club of America, will present a motion picture and story of his 1937 trip to the Arctic.

Stoll waited 29 years to make this adventure trip of a lifetime. He had financed and directed an expedition to the Aleutian Islands under the auspices of the American Museum of Natural History in 1928. It was this experience that whetted his appetite for hunting the great polar bears and in 1937 Mr. Stoll made the "journey of his dreams." He brought back the thrilling story of hunting on the magnificent white plains of Alaska for a quarry almost perfectly camouflaged. He reports on hunting wolves from planes flying low through strong winds at 20 or more degrees below zero.

This unusual and exciting experience he will share next Monday evening, Nov. 24, at 8:15 P.M., in the Senior High School auditorium. There shall be no admission fee. The Women's Club of Hicksville is an outgrowth of the Hicksville Delphian Association established in 1923. This association met regularly for 12 years and in 1935 the Women's Club was formed. Meetings are held monthly and programs are varied and interesting. The object is to provide means for promoting Social, Educational and Philanthropic interests. The Club is a member of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs and is represented on the Gertz-Hicksville Customers Advisory Board.

Suzari Marionettes at Woodland

The Woodland Ave. School Parent-Teacher Assoc. of Hicksville will present the well-known, Suzari Marionettes in Alladin and His Wonderful Lamp at the school auditorium.

The date is this Saturday, Nov. 22. The time 10:30 A.M. and 2 P.M. Admission $4.50 for children; $7.75 for adults. Absolutely no pre-schoolers will be admitted without an adult.

Only 300 seats at each performance so come early. As usual, candy will be sold. Proceeds to go to the Hicksville P-TA Council Scholarship Fund.

The Suzari version of "Alladdin" is a musical extravaganza with tricks and illusions that will delight the children. Magicians, vanishing genies, a flying carpet and many other unusual effects follow, one after another, in a combination of over-sized puppets and real human actors together on the stage at the same time.

Be sure to attend the P-TA Council sponsored program at the High School at 8:30 p.m. on Nov. 25 at which Donald Abt, Asst. Supt. of Schools, will speak on the three track system.

Chaplin Controversy Upsets HOPE

The member of the Hicksville Organization for Public Education voted at a public meeting on Nov. 12, to express its concern with the current controversy regarding the Chaplin films.

Disturbed because "censorship pressures brought by any individual or group upon the actions and decisions of our elected library board is reprehensible and poses a serious threat to the educational health of the community, HOPE urged the Board to act courageously and forthrightly as an institution of education for democratic living." As such an institution serving all the people of a community, the library is obligated to remain impartial to the current political, racial or religious controversies providing only enlightenment and information, to all desiring such services, the organization said.

Understanding that the Hicksville library is a member of the American Library Association, the HOPE group urged the Trustees to "reassert their original decision to show the Chaplin films. This decision reflected, in spirit, the principles stated in the Library Association's Bill of Rights of 1948 and reaffirmed in 1951 to include all media of communication used or collected by libraries.

"Cultural freedom is indivisible. In their desire to avoid creating dissension in the community, the Trustees unwittingly denied the cultural rights of other citizens. It is irrelevant and dangerous to confuse disapproval of a particular artist or author as an individual and each citizen's right to see, read or hear that man's work. We have the right to choose for ourselves, but not to deprive others of their freedom of choice," said President Morton Cohen.

Bethpage School Board will meet Tuesday night, Nov. 25, at 8:15, according to M.F. Tittle, District Clerk.

Miss Joan Lauck Becomes Bride

Miss Joan Celine Lauck, daughter of Mrs. Walter Lauck and the late Mr. Lauck of 35 W. John St., Hicksville, became the bride of James P. McMann of Brushton, N.Y., on Saturday, Oct. 18. Mr. McMann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo McMann. The ceremony and Nuptial Mass was performed at St. Ignace R.C. Church, Hicksville, with the Rev. Marion Reinhardt, cousin of the groom officiating. Father Reinhardt also presented the newly married couple with the Papal Blessing, from Rome.

Mrs. Joseph Hoffmann, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and James Peets of Brushton was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. McMann will be living in Germany, where the groom is at present stationed with the U.S. Army.

Only 3 Fire Calls

The Hicksville Fire Dept. received only three alarms during the week of Nov. 12 thru Nov. 18. The first call was on Nov. 14 from the Gerard Connors residence at 58 Vincent Rd., when a stove over-heated. Later that day they put out a rubbish fire on North Eway near the Mid Island Bowling Alleys. The following day, Nov. 15, they extinguished a fire in a pile of leaves on William St.

CURRENT COMMENT:

The Library And Chaplin

By FRED J. NOETH

THE CHARLIE CHAPLIN film festival episode has about run out of steam and fire with the Library Board of Trustees voting Monday to table further consideration of the matter.

The subject has been and continues to be one of controversy, near and far. A former resident air mailed us a clipping from a Chicago newspaper with a report on the episode.

We have been amazed and somewhat dismayed with the twists and turns the issue took. We understand that some of the library officials are distressed with the proportions to which the subject has ballooned. The facts seem clean cut: The Board of Trustees, a group of citizens elected to operate the Library in much the same manner as a Board of Education operates the public schools, decided to show films starring an admittedly controversial figure. At the time the Board made its decision, it heard pro and con argument from a group of citizens in the audience.

When the decision became known, there was a greater outburst of public opinion. Presumably the Board of Trustees weighed this further expression and decided to drop the film showing.

Then there came even more expressions - reaching further and further away from the community. Editorial writers on the Big City papers got into the act. Expressions such as "pressure groups," "censorship," etc., were heard. Curiously the very people in most instances who are denouncing "pressure tactics" are much the same people who appear to be cranking up the heaviest "pressure" right now.

These facts are basic: (a) The Library Trustees, assumedly a group of citizens attuned to the public because of the role they play, took a course of action. (b) Upon receipt of further expression of opinion, the Trustees reconsidered and recinded their earlier and possibly hasty action.

The good name and reputation of the Friends of the Library, a group which has served the library for over eight years, has been blackened and tarred. The Friends of the Library, a group of ladies whom we hold in the highest respect, have even been denied the right to meet in the Public Library.

As far as we have been able to ascertain, the Friends of the Library thru spokesmen voiced objections to the Chaplin Festival when the Trustees first voted to show the films, 4 to 1. The Friends did nothing further - in fact, legally there was nothing they could ever do - but express their opinion. The Board of Trustees, subsequently, listening to new voices and a wider range of local opinion, voted to cancel the showing.

No one "suppressed" the showing of the Chaplin films. Anyone who wants to see them badly enough can (a) see them next time around at the Museum of Modern Art in New York or (b) get up the $22.50 and rent them from Brandon Films and have a private viewing. We are not at all interested in arguing whether or not Chaplin is an artist. We don't think our Public Library is the Public Movie House.

The voters of Hicksville authorized the expenditure of over $300,000 to build a new Public Library because it was felt the community needed an adequate library. We now have one of the finest library structures on Long Island. Many of our neighbors are struggling along in rented stores, on voluntary membership support, etc. We supported each and every ef-

SHAME AND DISGUST

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter out of shame and disgust. The shame I feel results from the coerced cancellation of the showing of the old Charlie Chaplin comedies by the Hicksville Free Public Library Board of Trustees. The disgust results from the activities of Mrs. Emil Szendy and her organization, the Friends of the Hicksville Free Public Library, in affecting this cancellation.

Let us first look at the facts surrounding this whole incident: The Library Board of Trustees voted 4-1 to show some comedies which Charlie Chaplin made in the year 1917. The cost was to be approximately $22.50. The Friends adopted a resolution opposed to the showing of these films.

The reason why the Board of Trustees voted to show these films was because of the talents Charlie Chaplin has displayed over the years as an outstanding comedian. Anyone with any sense of appreciation will realize that in his films, Mr. Chaplin has portrayed people with a mixture of pathos and comedy. He has played, in other words, the "poor slob" - the guy who everybody takes for a ride. This type of person and this type of humor has no geographical or political boundaries. These films can honestly be viewed and enjoyed in Kansas as well as in Tokyo, in Tokyo, as well as in Des Moines. The type of individual he has portrayed is native to all races, to all religions, to all creeds. It is, in other words, something which may be relished and enjoyed by all. This, in my humble opinion, constitutes his films as works of art. There is, not, and I challenge the Friends to show otherwise, one iota of political overtone to these films.

The reasons given by the Friends for their opposition were that because Mr. Chaplin lived and prospered in the United States for many years, because he never became an American citizen, because he chose not to return to the United States rather than face Congressional questions about income tax evasion, alleged Communist activities, and about his moral behavior; because of all these reasons, they felt his films should not be shown to children. They felt he should not be "held up" to our children. There was conspicuously absent from their reasons any reference to any possible political quality to these films.

Let us now analyze these divergent points of view, keeping in mind at all times the fundamental concept of individual liberty and freedom which is guaranteed to all of us by the United States Constitution.

I publicly ask Mrs. Szendy and her organization the following questions:

1. Is there anything in these films whereby Chaplin is attempting to influence the audience politically?

2. Is there anything in these films whereby one is urged to become or remain a citizen of the United States?

3. Is there anything in these films which suggests that one should evade income taxes?

4. Is there anything in these films which suggests that the viewer should follow a loose code of moral behavior?

If the Friends feel they can honestly answer "Yes" to these questions, I would appreciate a public statement of their reasons for their answers.

Actually, isn't the short and simple truth of the matter that Mr. Chaplin's films are no more than a portrayal of a personality type known to all peoples, at whom all people will laugh one moment, and grieve for the next? Isn't it a fact that there is completely no connection between Charlie Chaplin's films and the private life of Mr. Charles Chaplin?

As one who deeply believes in the dignity of the individual and the individual freedoms guaranteed us by our form of government, I disagree strongly with Mr. Chaplin's conduct of his private life. However, I fail to see, and this is why I am writing this letter, any association between Mr. Chaplin as an individual and Charlie Chaplin, the "low-down" of the films. I submit the latter characterization is the one which his films convey, and not the former. There is, in my opinion, no earthly reason why these films of the pathetic yet humorous tramp should not be viewed, particularly since Mr. Chaplin receives no royalties from the showing.

The views expressed by Mrs. Szendy and the Friends are not new in our history. We have had groups who have attempted censorship under the guise of being "saviors" of our country's youth before. Actually, if the Friends would stop and analyze their actions, rather than attempt an appeal to emotion as being "saviors of our children," they would see the dangers inherent to our basic freedoms in their position. First, they went to censor the showings of comedies which have absolutely nothing to do with the unsavory private life of the actor. Secondly, because of the precariousness of their position both morally and logically, they scream "un-American and dangerous to our youth," as a pure emotional appeal. These tactics are also not new.

The reasoning is as follows: If you can't convince people by the correctness of your position, with good common sense, start using names which will emotionally arouse them. I maintain this tactic has been adopted by the Friends, and it is indeed a danger to our beliefs in freedom of speech and press, and, in general, of expression. If the Friends follow in the paths of their predecessors, the next logical step for them to take would be to demand that certain writings, which they will call "un-American, Communist, Socialistic, or subversive," in an appeal to emotion, should be removed from the shelves of the Library.

The sorrowful part of this whole incident is the tactics employed by the Friends to obtain their censorship. This appeal to emotion rather than reason is the basic weapon of every totalitarian regime which this world has ever seen. Nazi Germany, Fascist Italy, and Communist Russia have all made great use of this technique. In essence, Mrs. Szendy and the Friends should be ashamed of themselves for using these devious means to arrive at their untenable end. Actually, is this attempt at censorship any different from that attempted by the Russians in reference to "Dr. Zhivago," the Pulitzer prize-winning novel by Boris Pasternak? Aren't both attempts to keep some form of the media of communication from the people? Indeed, a closer scrutinization will reveal that "Dr. Zhivago" is extremely critical of the Russian Communist regime and is therefore criticized for good cause by the Communists, whereas these Chaplin films in no way convey any sort of political message, and are therefore unjustly condemned by the Friends.

I wish to point out that I am certainly not calling anybody an American or a Communist. I merely write this letter as a citizen, because I feel the action taken by Mrs. Szendy and the Friends is unwarranted, ill-conceived and, in essence, dangerous to our beliefs in the preservation of our basic freedoms of expression, as outlined in, and judicially interpreted from, the Constitution of the United States of America.

DISMAYED

To the Editor:

As a citizen of the community of Hicksville and a beneficiary of many of the excellent services of the Hicksville Library, it was with dismay that I learned of the latest action of the Board of Trustees in reversing its previous decision to show the Charlie Chaplin films due to protests received from a small group here.

We are scornful of Soviet attempts to re-write history by eliminating all reference in their encyclopedias and history books to politicians who have fallen from grace. It is frightening to find an attempt to make Charlie Chaplin an un-person occurring within our own community. As a part of the cultural record of our century, Charlie Chaplin movies deserve to be shown and discussed on their own merits as we wish in vain that Pasternak's prize-winning novel might be read and discussed in the Soviet Union. The function of a library must be to act as a forum of ideas as well as a record of man's activities in both his greater and lesser moments. Censoring to demands of pressure groups within the community infringes upon the right of the rest of us to make our own choice as to what we wish to see and read. Certainly it must be already apparent to the Board that an error was made in attempting to pacify a minority by compromising a principle so universal in our society that this dispute has already exceeded the boundaries of Hicksville. May their faith in the democratic process give the Board members courage to do their duty as representatives of all the people. To sacrifice principle now in an effort to "keep the peace" is only inviting further interference in the future. The next effort to dictate taste and acceptability on the part of such groups may point a finger at "War and Peace" or "Common Sense" or Mickey Mouse".

Services For Mrs. Anna V. Curtis Start 3 New Fuel Contracts

Funeral services will be held tomorrow evening (Friday) for Mrs. Anna V. Curtis, Director of Music at Wantagh Community Church, who passed on shortly after noon, Tuesday, following a long illness.

She is survived by her daughter Mrs. John P. Sheehan, of Wantagh; two sons, Elwood A. Curtis, Jr., of North Bellmore and Henry A. Curtis of Roslyn Heights.

Also surviving are her brother Charles Voigt, of Hicksville and twelve grandchildren.

A life-long resident of Hicksville, Mrs. Curtis moved to Wantagh four years ago following the death of her husband, Elwood Arnold Curtis, who for more than 40 years played a leading role in that community's civic and cultural life.

Rev. H. Paul Gubse, of Wantagh Community Church will officiate at religious services, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock in Stock's Funeral home, 132 Newbridge Road, Hicksville. Burial in the family plot in Plainview Cemetery, on Saturday morning, will be private.

For many years a concert singer and member of the famed Desoff choir, Mrs. Curtis directed the Hicksville Choral Society for more than 30 years. Funds for the first books in Hicksville Library were defrayed by a benefit concert of the society.

Over the years more than $10,000 were contributed to worthy community projects. One of its greatest accomplishments was the Memorial Clock Tower in the Hicksville High School dedicated to the men who lost their lives in World War I. The Choral raised $2,600 for that project.

Dr. and Mrs. Curtis were married in 1913, four years after he established dental offices in Hicksville. They were a very devoted couple and their home at 100 W. Nicholas Street was a community show place.

Following her bereavement, four years ago, Mrs. Curtis moved to Beech Street, close to her daughter's home and devoted her energies to aiding the newly established Community Church through the establishment of the choir and participation in Women's Association activities.

News of her death brought expressions of sympathy from hundreds of persons who were privileged to have enjoyed her acquaintance.

Three contracts calling for the manufacture of nearly 100 nuclear fuel elements for two American universities and one in Canada have been received by Sylvania-Corning Nuclear Corp. and production has started at its plant on Cantigue Rock Rd., Hicksville. It was learned today.

The fuel elements are for research reactors at Pennsylvania State, University of Florida and McMaster University, Ontario.

ort of the Library to acquire a proper structure, including the several plans which were nixed:

We never contemplated that the Public Library would become a tax-supported picture palace where films could be shown, at the expense of the taxpayers, to a handful who may be interested enough to show up.

We feel it would be more appropriate for the Library Trustees to concern themselves with fulfilling the functions of a library. The library tax-raised budget this year is $107,000 with $14,650 designated as "operating". No mention of film rental appears in the published budget voted upon by taxpayers last May.

The doughnut, an old American tradition, originating in Boston many years ago, is now all dressed up. The Donut Man has now come to Hicksville with not one or two varieties, but 49, all guaranteed to tempt and suit your taste. Fresh batches are available every few minutes, and all are carefully and expertly prepared by doughnut bakers of long standing at the Donut Man Shop on So, Oyster Bay Rd., next to the Plainview Theater.

No longer will you have to wonder whether your local bake shop will have doughnuts when you want them. Now you can have your old favorites among doughnuts as well as many new ones, and you can be assured that they will always be fresh.

The Donut Man has the 49 varieties available not only for take-home trade, but also for over the counter sales, where you can sit and relax while enjoying fresh doughnuts with a delicious cup of coffee.

Harry Scheib, Manager of the Donut Man Shop, is a doughnut man from way back, and he knows that the public wants tastiness with variety, and he personally guarantees that this is what you will get. He also knows that quality control is one of the secrets to the making of good doughnuts which make them light, fluffy and delicious. Only the finest quality flour is used along with pure vegetable shortening, eggs, milk, pure cane and corn sugars.

Among the varieties you will find - odd shaped, spiced, sugared, raisin, cinnamon, plain, chocolate, honey, glazed, iced, pure jelly fills, whole wheat and many, many more.

The Donut Man Shop is an up-to-date, air conditioned modern structure, clean and functional in design. Picture plate glass windows and doors are tastefully blended with chrome and stainless steel. FLAG DRIVE PLANNED

Next July 4th, new American flags bearing 49 stars will come into official being, honoring the entrance of Alaska into the union as the 49th state. Scouts, cubs, and Explorers of Arrowhead District will take advantage of this occasion to sell new 49-star American flags to residents of this area.

The "Pride in Old Glory" Drive, as the campaign will be called, will start its organized phase in December. January will be devoted to training Scouts and Leaders. Sales are scheduled to start on or about Feb. 15th and continue for two months. Delivery of the flags is guaranteed to take place before July 4th.

URGENT NEED

Sea Scout Ship 18, Hicksville's only Sea Scout organization urgently needs men and materials. The ship, which meets Wednesday evenings at 8 PM in the basement of the Seaman Eisemann Building on Broadway, needs additional adult leadership. Any adults who would like to work with older boys (14 to 17) should visit the ship on any meeting night.

At this time, the boys are busy preparing for the annual Sea Scout Bridge of Honor and Explorer Ball to be held at Hofstra College on Saturday evening, December 6th. This year, Ship 18 acts as host crew, and thus is responsible for all arrangements.

There is also a great and continuing need for usable marine equipment such as rope, life preservers, cars, etc. The equipment need not be new; the boys and their leaders are quite adept at making discarded equipment usable again. This equipment can be brought to any meeting.

CUB PACK MEETS

Pack 291 on Thursday, Nov. 20, at 7:00 PM, will hold their monthly meeting in the gymnasium of Trinity Lutheran School, 40 West Nicholas St., Hicksville.

In line with the theme for the month "See and Do," Dens I through 6 will display their skills and talents in form of skit and displays. A must for all Cub parents and friends to witness for it shall be an evening well spent.

On Tuesday, Nov. 25 at 8:15 PM the Pack executive committee will meet in the school cafeteria to discuss the many plans and problems of the pack. Cub parents and friends are most cordially invited to attend.

CUB SCOUT PACK 591

Cub Pack 591 held their second pack meeting at The Hicksville Jewish Center on Monday, Nov. 17 at 7:30 PM. Den #12A2 showed and played the musical instruments that they had made as the month project. Cub Master Arnold Toner announced that next month's theme will be The Joy of Giving.

Bob Cat pins were presented to Bruce Golden, Harvey Rosen, Robert Taub, Leonard Kramer and Johnathan Smith. Cub Master Toner and Committee man Gilbert Golden conducted induction ceremony.

Plans were made for a February Father and Son dinner and preparations for three nature field trips were brought to the attention of the pack. More details will be presented at the next pack meeting, which will be on December 15th at the Center.

PRESENTED CHARTER

On September 23, in the St. Ignace Cafeteria Warner Lansing, Chairman of Arrowhead District, BSA, presented the Charter to Robert Quinn, Inst. Rep. of the Holy Name Society.

Upon presenting the Charter, Mr. Lansing also gave the 100% Boy's Life Award and the 10 year anniversary award to Cub Pack 91. Mr. Quinn then presented the Charter to Charles Lang, Chairman of Pack 91. The pack was very well represented by cubs and their parents. It is always a pleasure to have Father Ballweg, our moderator visit with us.

Three new boys were welcomed; Kevin P. Finnegan, Robert Larkin, and Terrance McGreevy, who are now Bobcats. John Glinka, Cub Master, presented the following boys with the ranks they had achieved: William Walker two silver arrows, Francis Cowden one gold and two silver arrows, Michael Wellman one gold and two silver arrows, Thomas Weiss one silver arrow and Ronald Glinka Lion Rank.

Double Parking for Commuters

Commuter parking space at the Hicksville RR passenger station will be more than doubled in the next few weeks as a result of a cooperative arrangement between the railroad and the Town of Oyster Bay. Under a plan worked out by Town Supervisor John J. Burns and LIRR President Thomas M. Goodfellow, the entire parking area west of Jerusalem Ave. — including a section from which several railroad buildings and tracks have been removed — will be leased to the town for $1 a year.

DOUBLES AREA

In the past, there has been room for approximately 200 cars in the station area. By moving its Hicksville freight yard about a mile to

Midway Bazaar In New Temple

The members of Midway Jewish Center have concentrated their efforts on making this year's Bazaar bigger and better than ever. This is the first such event to be held in the new building at 330 South Oyster Bay Road, rather than the small barn that had formerly been used.

The Bazaar, which will run for three days starting Saturday night, Nov. 22, 23 and 24, will offer bargains and variety for pre-Holiday shoppers.

Chanukah Night In Italy

On Saturday, Dec. 6th, Chanukah Night in Italy will be celebrated at the Congregation Shaarei Zedek, E. Barclay St., Hicksville at 9 P.M. Supper, professional entertainment and dancing all add up to an evening filled with fun. Reservations are being mailed. For further information please contact either Rose Kellner at Wells 1-4447 or Jean Steuer at Wells 1-2630.

Special Service

A special Friday night service for new members of both Sisterhood and Congregation will be held at the Congregation Shaarei Zedek Barclay St., Hicksville at 9 P.M. The Oneg Shabbat will follow.

the west, the LIRR left all the old freight property for additional parking. The move will provide space for parking an estimated total of 400 cars.

Burns and Goodfellow were assisted in working out the cooperative parking program by Councilmen Henry J. McInnes of Hicksville and Marjorie R. Post of Massapequa, both members of the Town Board committee on parking.

Relocation of the railroad's freight yard was undertaken as a preliminary phase of the $10 million Hicksville RR grade elimination project, which is still in the final planning stages.

"Although no definite date has yet been set by the Public Service Commission for the start of the grade crossing work, we saw a chance here to join with the town in expanding parking facilities well in advance of the project proper," Goodfellow explained.

"The freight yard would have to be moved eventually anyhow, and it seemed like a good idea to get it out of the way at once and give commuters more parking space as soon as possible."

"Town officials have worked with us closely in making this move, both by helping negotiate the purchase of the new yard site and by agreeing to grade and patrol the entire parking area."

Supervisor Burns cited the arrangement as "one of several steps that must be taken in the future to provide additional commuter parking." He added:

"The good neighbor policy of the LIRR in cooperating with the town administration to make additional commuter parking space available in this area shows the railroad is genuinely interested in lending a hand in solving a very complex problem."

Burns noted that the expanded parking facilities would be available until the grade crossing work actually begins. Then the space will be used for the temporary tracks and construction materials required to build the overhead structure for the LIRR's Main Line.

However, he pointed out, when the elimination project is completed, the parking area will not only be restored, but will be paved and marked off for most efficient use. The PSC is planning temporary alternate parking space during the actual construction period.

A program and demonstration entitled "What is Art?" will be presented.

The Art League is happy to announce their first art exhibition. Remember the date --- December 13th and 14th at the old Fire House. There will be many fine varieties of art for sale.

Great Inclinations

When day is done and silence falls
I stare at all my empty walls
I visualize the paintings fair
Which could enhance these walls so bare.

As always it occurs to me
How costly fine large walls can be.

Then like a shining revelation
There came to me the inclination
To cover canvas with some color
But no attempt was ever diller.
So then and there I vowed to be
The greatest dull painter of the century.

Jericho Teachers Parent Group Meets

Members of the Parent Teacher Organization of the Jericho High School on Nov. 9 sat down to a covered dish supper in the General Room of the Robert Seaman School. Clara Karches, and her hospitality committee were the overseers of the tempting array of shrimp dishes, beef in tasty sauces, time tested recipes for pies such as apple and pecan, and Danish pastries that were among the many delightful epicurean offerings that were served to those attending.

Mrs. Emily Lazar, the president, presided over a short business meeting. There was an informative address by Mr. Heller, principal of the school, after which there was an opportunity for parents to discuss school problems.

THERE ARE STILL plenty of good reserved seats available for both the Friday, Nov. 28 and Saturday, Nov. 29th, performances of the Birchwood Players latest production, "The Happy Time"... Here is the cast.

The VILLAGER urges everyone to purchase tickets for this production which promises to provide Birchwoodites with another wonderful evening of theater. This is the only fund raising affair our Civic Assoc. has planned this year and we urge all residents to purchase their tickets now. Admission is $2.00 both nights except for teenagers, Friday Nov. 28 $1.25. Write to Bus, Mgr. Gil Stein, 162 Birchwood Pk. Drive and enclose your check. Tickets will be mailed to you promptly.

Jericho Scouts Achieve Quota

The Jericho Chapter, Nassau County Council of Boy Scouts of America, extends its gratitude to the many campaigners and contributors who made its annual budget campaign a success.

The Chapter is composed of Troop 129, Pack 129, and Pack 49. The efforts of door to door solicitors, plus the generosity of the community's contributions, enabled the Chapter to reach its assigned quota of $1500.

Jericho can be proud of its support of Scouting. Its community effort will contribute to the increase in services and facilities essential to our youth.

Carpets Take The Floor

The selection of floor coverings depends on your own taste, on color, decorative requirements and practical motives. In considering the latter category you might look to a multi-color, sturdy texture to carpet the stairway then "go" for a lighter, softer texture for a less frequently used area. Before flooring your home with loveliness determine which factor is most important to you.

When you consult with an experienced decorator your sense of values will be quickly recognized. When this is coupled with professional advice, talent and master workmanship the results are bound to be sure and satisfactory. Legionnaires' Log

CHARLES WAGNER, Post 421, Hicksville, N.Y.

By ARTIE RUTZ

Well, if you missed the Mortgage Burning, you missed a good time and for a while there was STANDING room only. And HENRY BRENGEL was certainly surprised when it was announced that also was honored with his name engraved on the new plaque. T. O.B. Supervisor JOHN BURNS and MIKE SULLIVAN contributed some well chosen words that were received enthusiastically and deeply appreciated by all present. Every body in the hall were Legion-connected, one way or another, including JOHN & MIKE, who are Legionnaires, except one gentleman, who it turned out, belonged to our original set of Sons of The American Legion. JIM CARTER was a busy little beaver with his camera, snapping pictures of everyone in sight. Nice to have you back with us, JIM. Strange, how seven platters of hors d'oeuvres wound up on the same table, wasn't it. When RUDY BOUSE noticed it, oh, boy, they did a JACKIE GLEASON. Why but those hot dogs baked in a roll were tasty.

Tight quarters made the work of the Color Guard just a little more rougher than usual but our "observer" got a good eyeful of their maneuver and made mental notes for future use. THE Auxiliary gals had about the best time of any. They signed up 9 new members plus getting a chairman for a project missing too long from our Legion scheme of things. And her husband is quite a guy too. He's donating a pint of blood in behalf of one of our elderly members. I trust you have met DICK & CYNTHIA HOCHBRUECKNER. Our Membership Officer, ED HODKINSON, signed up a few of the boys, also, and it reminded me to tell EDDIE that in case he thought he has been busy at the last couple of meetings with 1959 memberships, about the membership officer of the LOWE-MCFARLANE POST 14 in SHREVEPORT, LA., who signed up by VETERANS' DAY, a total of 7,521 members for 1959. He must have nine arms and a 48 hour day. And how about this unique membership contest being waged between the Departments of Oklahoma and North Carolina where the losing Commander must go to work saving souls in the winner's department. Seems that both commanders are preachers and the loser must conduct a one week free revival meeting in the winner's church. Don't forget, your dues are due and payable now, bring that friend to the next meeting.

Jr Daughters Give Show
The Junior Catholic Daughters of America, Court Queen of Angels, of Hicksville are having a Minstrel-Variety Show on Sunday, Nov 30 at 3:00 P.M. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Back to School For Nicholas

The Nicholas St School P.T.A. of Hicksville at its meeting tonight (Thurs.) 8:15 will be in a "Back To School Night" to give the parents an opportunity to learn more about instruction in Reading and Arithmetic.

Parents will be given the chance actually to participate in a typical day's program, under the direction of Mr. Harold Robbins, Principal, and his staff of teachers.

Annual Bazaar At Methodist Church

"Golden Snow Flakes" will be the decorating theme of the annual bazaar of the Women's Society of the Hicksville Methodist Church. The sale will be held Thursday and Friday, Nov 20 and 21, from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M.

Baked goods and hand made articles, as well as white elephants, plants and Christmas novelties will be for sale.

Ruth Jurgelevich, chairman of the Mary circle, and Pat Casey, chairman of the Naomi circle, are the co-chairmen.

With the proceeds of this show, the Juniors are hiring a bus to take them to Aurisville, N.Y. for Junior Day. There will be an award of two tickets ($4.90 seats) for the Broadway Musical, Music Man and $10 expense money.

During the past 10 months the carrier has been used as an "instrument of peace" both in Mediterranean and Far Eastern waters. She spearheaded carrier support during the Lebanon landings, became the largest US ship to transit the Suez canal, crossed the Indian Ocean to operate with the 7th Fleet off Formosa in mid Sept. and traveled over 75,000 miles or three times the distance around the world measured at the Equator.

FRANK C. TOOLE, former vice president of Cryodon M. Johnson Co., Bethpage, has resigned to enter business for himself and has purchased the Institute Press on Broad Hollow Rd., Farmingdale, from its former owner, Sol Kaye. A press release reports that "Solomon Kaye, from whom Mr. Toole purchased the Institute Press, was the organizer and publisher of the Mid Island Times, an offset newspaper published in the Bethpage-Hicksville area for several years until its suspension more than a year ago."

FLORENCE ZIEGLER of Hicksville has been elected to the office of student government representative of the freshman class at the State University Teachers College at Fredonia. Miss Ziegler, a 1958 graduate of Hicksville High, is enrolled in the music education curriculum at the college.

Friends will be happy to know that JUDY DE VINCENTIS, a Freshman at Genesee State University Teachers College at Genesee, N.Y., will be home for Thanksgiving.

SIMON ENOCH, 57 Bountyn Lane, Jericho, a field representative for Mutual of New York, attended a special training forum held in Princeton. Under discussion are methods by which an individual can use Social Security as a basis on which to build a well-rounded family security and retirement program, and various other phases of life insurance and accident and sickness insurance.

CHAPLIN STORY

Pleas were made for the recognition of "artistry" as opposed to "political views" of artists. Bob Connolly of 33 Dartmouth Dr., president of Hicksville Democratic Club, defended the films stating it was not a matter of support to an enemy, an enemy to the country can be an artist and still perform works of art.

Mort Cohen, president of Hope read a statement favoring the showing of the films, but because of the two minute limit placed on all speakers he was unable to conclude the statement. Two speakers after giving their names and addresses identified themselves as "card carrying members" of Hicksville library. A statement was made that patriotism can sometimes become "silly" such as the case in WWI when German street bands were frowned upon and Wagner was not played at the opera.

When asked why the films had been cancelled Board President Elery Beam replied that opposition to the showing had been made by the Friends of the Library, executive committee of East St. PTA and the Levittown Council K. of C. He said also one of the local paper "made a fuss". He said the whole matter could be attributed to "the complacency of the community", had the board known then of the feeling of the community being shown at this meeting "things would have been different".

At this point Joseph Geoghan introduced himself as Grand Knight of the Joseph Barry Council K. of C. He said he did not know of the action taken by the Levittown

K. of C., but inquired why it was not mentioned that the Council he represented had adopted and forwarded to the board two weeks ago, a resolution opposing the showing of the films.

Library Director Kenneth Barnes stated it had been received a week or ten days ago. Beam told him too many letters had been received to read aloud. Geoghan asked permission to read the resolution. He was told he may do so if he could do it within the two minute period.

Geoghan, was cut short by the two-minute time limit. He voiced the opposition of the Council with its 425 members and their families.

Olga Szendy, president of the Friends of the Library, also felt the pinch of the two-minute limit. Her prepared statement, a copy of which was delivered to the HERALD, pointed out the "Friends" opposition to the showing of the Chaplin films for three reasons:

(1) Library Board was elected to dispense taxpayers money for library services. Library shelves are only partially filled, there is an unsatisfied demand for unavailable books. Taxpayers' money should be used for books first, other services last.

(2) Choice of programs to supplement library services should demonstrate "taste and judgment". Celebrating an "ingrate who has turned his back on America and reviled it" is bad judgment.

(3) Spending $300 on a Picasso program, followed by a Chaplin festiva, was a "pattern of contempt" and the Friends felt it their duty to protest.

After tabling the question the Library Board went on to the subject of Christmas decorations. Beam stated that the simple decorations would be done this year by the staff which had volunteered their services. $25 was approved for the project that will include a tree in the children and adult rooms and wreaths. Since their organization eight years ago the Friends traditionally did the Christmas decorating.

WINS TRAVEL BAG
Mrs. RUTH HOROWITZ of 50 Circle Drive, Hicksville, was the happy winner of a beautiful hang-up car bag for suits and dresses presented to her by the Travel Service Mart of Hicksville, 7 W. Marie St. This was the result of a drawing held by the Travel Mart from all the coupons deposited during the recent Hicksville Festival Days. All in all, there were almost 1000 entrants in this contest held in the big tent where the Travel Mart had a booth. Mrs. Horowitz was surprised when notified she was the winner and joyfully claimed her prize. She was extremely pleased with this all and stated she enjoyed the entire show, parade and festivities, particularly as she won this lovely prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Femister of 33 Grape Lane, Hicksville, are the proud parents of a daughter, Laurene Therese, born on Nov. 4 at Mercy Hospital.

ROBERT WHEATY of Libby Ave. Hicksville, assistant principal of East St. School, has applied for membership in Emergency Co No 5 of Hicksville Fire Dept.

GREATEST RALLY: Hicksville Overtakes Westbury High, 28-21

by HOWARD FINNEGAN

WESTBURY—All previous chapters concerning great rallies that embellish Hicksville High's colorful grid history were relegated to affectionate but secondary lore, here, Saturday, as the Orange, staggered by three first period Green Wave touchdowns, swirled from behind in the last half with THE great rally that produced a rousing, 28-21, victory.

Orioles Hold On to First Place

by BILL SAKAL

The Orioles continued to hang onto first place in the Holy Family Section of the CYO Bowling League last week at Woodbury Lanes, and the Red Sox still trail by half a game.

The Dodgers remained in third but the Braves dropped down to number 8 spot to be replaced by the Pirates. Four games still separate the first 5 teams and a lot can happen between now and the end of the season. Even the Athletics or the Giants can suddenly become alive and within a short span of time seriously challenge the leaders. The Giants are only 12 games behind the Orioles and the Athletics 17, and while this span looks tremendous anything can happen.

C. Faddis with a 211 game and a 541 series helped the Orioles take 3 points from the Dodgers to retain their 1/2 game lead.

Other 200 bowlers of the evening were: N. Kleiner 217, R. Beach 216, P. Callahan 207, G. Thompson, 201, N. Barry 201 and J. Hoplar 200.
