Town GOP Improves Margin In Record Off-Year Vote

All Republicans were returned to office in the Town of Oyster Bay, Tuesday, in the heaviest off-year voting on record. Almost 80,000 voted in the 149 election districts of the town, compared with a vote of 94,000 in the gubernatorial election of last year. While the total vote was heavier, the plurality remained almost identical with the Republican margin of victory recorded two years ago in the last town elections.

Supervisor John J. Burns led the Republican victory in the township.

While Bethpage sunk into the Democratic column, it was the only bright spot for the opposition. Republican gains were noted in such areas as Massena, North Massena, Hicksville and Plainview. The areas north of Jericho took come thru with higher Republican pluralities than 1958 and 1957.

DENOUNCES SMEAR

Thomas R. Pynchon, chairman and leader of the Oyster Bay Town Republican Committee, commenting on the returns Election night, declared:

"The resounding victory given the Republican officials led by Supervisor John J. Burns at the polls in the Town of Oyster Bay, is, in my opinion, a clear-cut rejection of the outrageous ill-fated attempted smear campaign of the Democrat-Liberal candidates in this election and a handsome endorsement of the incumbent administration by our responsible Town officials.

"I am sure I speak for all the successful candidates when I say we are grateful for the over-whelming vote of endorsement and support given today by the voters.

"Particularly, this has been a great victory for the Republican organization and as chairman and leader of the Oyster Bay Town Republican committee, I wish to thank all the committeemen of our 149 election districts and their fellow workers for their untiring efforts in bringing the story of good, clean Republican government before the electorate.

"The Oyster Bay Republican officials pledge themselves to be worthy of this expression of confidence in good, responsible government." Community Republican leaders in Hicksville, Plainview and vicinity echoed the sentiments of Town Leader Pynchon.

DEMOCRAT DEFEAT at the polls, Tuesday, was forecast by the Hicksville Republican motorcade and rally held Friday night. The parade of autos featured this truck bearing notice of "Tammany's Funeral." The rally was held in the former A&P on Broadway. (Photo by Ed Lates).

The Adult and Young Adult Departments of the Bethpage Public Library will move into new quarters this month. The library will occupy a recently constructed store building on 235 Broadway. The new library will house a reference and reading room, a stack area for fiction and non-fiction, and an alcove for newspapers and periodicals. It will have a book capacity of 15,000 volumes, as well as generous space for the numerous students who daily use the library for reading and study.

The present adult library in the Firehouse will be transformed into an attractive children's room. The space now occupied by the children's collection will be used as a workroom. The library was closed earlier this week to carry out the moving operation.

The opening of the enlarged Children's Library will also see the arrival of a professional Children's Librarian, Mrs. Louise D. Carr, a graduate of Atlanta University School of Librarianship, will bring a wealth of experience in children's library work to Bethpage. Prior to entering a career in librarianship, Mrs. Carr was a high school teacher in Columbia. Her recent experience includes work in the Children's Department of the Public Library.

Current Comment

The Arkansas traveller and his bedfellows have been rejected by the voters of the Town of Oyster Bay in spite of the most nauseating campaign of trick slogans and distortion of the facts that it has been our misfortune to witness.

Despite the wishful predictions of the coming glory by a propaganda sheet disguised as a newspaper, the voters have had the last word. The only outrage the voters apparently detected was the attempted outrage of trying to deceive them.

The top brass of the little-more-than-a-rag yellow sheets were observed slinking around Republican headquarters, Tuesday night, trying to find out what happened.

Our faith in human nature has been fully restored.

Summer High School Hits New Heights

BY SCHOOL ADMINISTRATOR

During the summer, the Hicksville High School soared to new heights in having its largest enrollment and being able to offer the greatest variety of course selections. By offering a wider variety of courses we have improved greatly the value of Summer High School program.

The value of the Summer High School depends upon its ability to offer a further enrichment of the regular secondary school program. Its ability to enable pupils of sufficient ability and maturity to complete their high school program in less than the normally required time while reasons for so doing are acceptable, its ability to enable graduated students to meet special college entrance requirements in science and mathematics, to enable veterans to complete a full high school course, and its ability to enable the pupils to make up work which they failed in their regular work during the school year.

Certain Standards

In all of our offerings, we must always be aware of state approval. We must maintain certain standards in regard to the physical plant, certification of our teachers, size of classes and library facilities.

Enrollment in the Summer High School requires a written recommendation signed by the principal or guidance dept. of the previous school attended. Students may take only two courses during the Summer term, and may earn either a full year credit or one-half credit depending upon the nature of the course.

A pupil who completes a course in a Regents subject in the Summer School earns credits by passing the August Regents Examinations. No student may take the August regents unless he has attended the required number of days in summer school in that subject.

A pupil who completes a course in our Summer School which does not terminate in a regents examination may be granted regular school credit. Credits earned in our Summer School are accepted as local school credit by any other registered secondary school.

A pupil who fulfills the attendance requirement of our Summer School (30 days out of 35 days) must earn a minimum of 65 per cent in a regents subject and 65 per cent in a local test in order to receive regents or school credit.

In attending approval of our Summer School we must adhere to the rules and regulations of the Summer School State Handbook issued by the New York Education Dept.; occupy the building and make use of the equipment of our registered secondary school; admit only pupils who have presented a written recommendation or permission form signed by the principal of the school which they attended during the preceding term; employ only teachers who are qualified to teach in the secondary schools of this state. These teachers are assigned to classes in the subject for which they are qualified; provide at least 35 days of actual instruction exclusive of days used for registration and examinations; provide class periods of at least eighty minutes in length; organize classes so as to include only pupils enrolled for the same period of work; require laboratory work for all pupils who take science as an "advanced subject"; keep the school library open full time, under the supervision of a trained librarian; maintain a master attendance register in the central office and keep a careful record of the daily attendance and academic progress of each pupil; assign not more than 30 pupils as a general rule to a class.

Earns State Aid

State aid is paid to our Summer School on the daily average attendance for each pupil who is enrolled in one or more approved secondary school subjects. An approved subject must be a course in one of the regular subjects of secondary school curriculum and must appropriate standards of achievement, must meet the minimum time requirement and must follow a State course of study.

Driver education and training is offered as a part of the Summer School program. New York state approval must be secured each year. We must schedule a minimum of 47 clock hours exclusive of registration and a final examination.

Our Summer High School has been in existence for many years. It started with a few hundred pupils under the leadership of Miss Mahel R. Farley until its enrollment of 1,600 last summer. This is an excellent growth. At first only subjects from the ninth year through twelfth year were offered. It was soon found that a demand for all of the former high classes must be met. We now offer in Summer School all of the major junior and senior high school subjects.

Special Science Work

We have for some time offered special courses in science. Those who have excellent abilities may take Biology or Physics during the summer term and obtain a credit by passing the Regents examinations. This will give the students greater flexibility in making out their programs and to allow science majors to attain six years of science in high school.

In the field of Art and Mechanical Drawing, we offer the regular classes. This gives a golden opportunity to those young people who intend to enter the field of teaching. As most of these students, because of college entrance requirements, do not have time to take the art work during the regular school year, many may now earn one credit of art by taking two eighty minute courses. To the students studying engineering, it gives an opportunity to take the basic courses in mechanical drawing.

In the Mathematics field along with the regular school Algebra and 10th Year Mathematics, we offer Intermediate Algebra, Trigonometry and Advanced Algebra. By taking a combination of these courses in summer school, a pupil is prepared to take Calculus in his senior year. A Mathematics major may now take six years of Math in high school.

In the field of Music, we offer band and orchestra. At the end of the Summer School we present an all exclusive Music Festival. This last summer in cooperation with the Recreation Department, we gave a special band concert at Mid-Island Plaza.

This summer we offered 42 different courses including six courses in English, six courses in Science, six courses in Citizenship Education, seven courses in Mathematics, four courses in Business, six courses in foreign Language, three courses in Art, one course in Driver Education and three courses in Mechanical Drawing and employed thirty-eight regular certified teachers.

We are happy with our Summer High School not only in its offerings but in the attitude of the pupils attending the school. They attended for one reason only and that was one of learning. We had no conduct problems and few problems in pupils failing to do assigned homework. We feel that the district can rightfully be proud of the Secondary Summer High School Program.

When Aunt Hettie, in Boston or Bangkok, writes you a letter, a huge piece of governmental machinery goes into action. WEST BIRCHWOOD-JERICO CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Municipal Garbage Collection Due to Start With New Year

BY JOHN NASON

Municipal garbage collection will begin in West Birchwood Jan. 1, 1960, according to information received this week. It was stated that this arrangement will prevail whether or not the streets have been officially deeded to the Town of Oyster Bay.

Dr. H. Edward Greenberg, chairman of the Community Welfare Committee, made this announcement at the last meeting of the group, on Oct. 23. Up to that time there had been some speculation that municipal pickups would not be allowed on streets still not accepted by the town.

The chairman also revealed that the process by which streets and sidewalks are deeded to the town has been initiated for the occupied areas in the community. There was no indication given as to how long this procedure would take.

However, it was pointed out that the town has definite requirements for "acceptable" streets and until these are met no final action can be taken. Some of the conditions that must be corrected are cracked and broken sidewalks and curbs; protruding expansion joints and poorly graded streets that prevent water from running into storm sewers.

Every resident can help speed the deeding of the streets by checking his own property and reporting any deficiencies that exist to John Nason (OV 1-6509). These shortcomings will then be referred to the builder for correction.

The committee also heard a report from a group who met with Republican Councilman Poulos to discuss the matter of Oyster Bay accepting the streets. The group, composed of Leon Schaffer, Jack Alfred and Dr. Harold Pike said that the official pledged his support to the West Birchwood efforts.

Once the streets become a part of the Town of Oyster Bay, municipal improvements such as street lights, traffic lights and stop signs can be considered. It also means improved police protection for the community.

A report by Muriel Bernstein indicated that a recommendation made by the committee last month appears to be taking root. She said that definite progress has been shown in the campaign against curbside parking.

"Cars parked at the curb present an unnecessary safety hazard for the many children in Birchwood," she said. "It is pleasant to notice that many families have heeded this advice to keep cars in garages or on driveways." She also cautioned that cars parked on driveways should be locked to prevent children from accidentally releasing the emergency brake.

The committee was also shown a letter from Peter Hussey, Commissioner of Parks and Playgrounds. It revealed that a public park is in the offering for an area adjacent to the proposed Cantiague School in the extreme western section of the completed community.

Civic Committees in Action

COMMUNITY PURCHASES

The community tree-planting campaign was well received with orders for over ninety trees. The trees will be planted by Waltham Gardens during the last two weeks of this month. All trees ordered will be planted by the end of November. Orders will be accepted until Nov. 19th.

TAXATION AND ZONING

At a recent meeting, Samuel Gordon and Elliot Sheftman were elected co-chairmen of the committee. It was decided to send a representative to the Town of Oyster Bay Budget hearing for 1960.

It will be one of the primary functions of the committee to watch for any proposed variances in the Oyster Bay building codes which could result in Jericho areas being downgraded for zoning purposes.

Attending members included John Nason, Maxwell Spivack, Irene and Seymour Singer, Morton Hertelinger and Jack Klein. Next meeting is scheduled for November 12th at the residence of Samuel Gordon, 9 Warren Lane.

EDUCATION

The Lay Advisory Education Committee report investigating school buildings and educational needs will be delivered to the Board of Education on November 15th for deliberation.

The West Birchwood Educational Committee has organized a Get-Out-The-Vote sub-committee to (a) get and distribute to the public accurate information concerning Jericho's educational needs, (b) encourage people to vote, (c) provide babysitting service and transportation on election day.

All of us should: (A) Seek as much accurate information about the needs for the Cantiague School in light of the entire Jericho School District, (B) Separate the selfish, distorted, narrow-minded, emotional appeals from the accurate information aimed at providing good education for children from all areas of Jericho, (C) VOTE YES for the Cantiague School some time in Jan. or Feb.

REMINDEE: Next educational committee meeting on Friday, Nov. 20 at 8:30 in the home of the Schreiber's, 27 Orange Drive.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

A vitally needed Youth Activities Committee has been formed. A community wide meeting is being planned. All persons interested please contact Dr. Allen Warheit, OV 1-5171 for more information.

AN EDITORIAL

That was a bang up Halloween Party we had the other night. There was a lot of work and preparation involved and it showed itself in the quality of the decorations, the size of the crowd, and the fact things went so smoothly.

The Halloween Party could not have been called a success without the more than 200 people who were there. Despite smoothness of operation, the quality of decorations and the like, it was the size of the turnout that made the final difference between success or failure.

This Saturday evening we have another event . . . an election. We'll hardly be able to call it a success—and the officers and board representative—unless we have a substantial vote.

Voting at this General Membership Meeting will be from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. so you can pop in and pop out, if you desire, to cast your ballot. The candidates for office are offering to spend a lot of time in the next year for the Civic Association. The least you can do is to take enough time to vote.

Halloween Fete Hugh Success

By SEYMOUR BERKMAN

More than 200 Civic Association members square-danced and made merry at the first Halloween fete run by the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. Saturday night at the Robert Seaman School. The school auditorium was tastefully decorated with streamers and balloons as well as Halloween pumpkins and brilliant orange crepe paper.

Music was furnished by Eddie Hyman and his band with Eddie putting the dancers through the paces not only on the square dancing but on assorted other steps of Latin-American origin. A midnight supper consisting of southern fried chicken, rolls, coleslaw, potato salad and cider was served with doughnuts and apples as the pièce de résistance for dessert.

Eleanor Winthrop, chairman of the Social Committee which was in complete charge of the affair, paid tribute to the hardworking members of the individual sub-committees whose perfect coordination was responsible for the success of the dance.

Accepting a special resolution from the Board of Directors thanking the Social Committee, Eleanor stated that the following sub-chairmen and their members deserved a special accolade: Elaine Cohen, ticket sales; Lorraine Elowsky, decorations; Roslyn Glassman, entertainment; Lila Kinberg, food; Joan Serko, placement and Evelyn Warheit, accessories.

How To Be A Good Neighbor

Leave your garbage in front of your house all week . . . Jack looks so lonely snoozing in his back yard, let's keep him company . . . Tell your neighbors that they're foolish to bother with a good lawn. You're going to have a crabapple lawn. It's green, isn't it? . . . When June gets in the way send him next door . . . Return the lawnmower you borrowed for a "few hours" last week. When Fred finds it doesn't work, tell him it worked when you had it . . . A man's home is his castle. Run a cyclone fence around the front yard . . . When Charley finishes fertilizing, tell him the stuff he used will ruin his lawn . . . Pick up the Sunday paper from the front lawn in your pajamas . . . You're doing the inside of the first. To heck with the outside. . . Of course, the stakes around

To the Editor of W. Birchwood News

Can anything be done to alleviate the intolerable conditions prevailing at the entrance to the West Birchwood development? The answer is that something must be done and done fast to preclude a serious accident between passenger car and one of the many bulldozers which come roaring across Broadway hell bent for election.

The northbound entrance to the Northern State parkway has a deep ditch just off the Broadway side and one accident—not serious—has been reported. The situation at night is also very bad due to the lack of clear markings and signal lights.

The Nassau County police department is to be commended for having two officers directing traffic at the intersection during certain hours of the day. But there are periods of time when control is in the hands of the employees for the contractor building the expressway section.

What is needed is a coordinated program of safety devices formulated by the authorities responsible for traffic control at the intersection. We suggest immediate action be taken before a fatal accident results in widespread protest by West Birchwood residents.

Zippie the Champ Arrives Here Nov. 14

At the last meeting of the Jackson School P.T.A. held at the school on Oct. 26, it was announced that "Zippie" the very popular TV Champ, formerly seen on the "Howdy Doody" show, the Garry Moore show, and many others, will be at the Jackson School on Saturday, Nov. 14. The program will consist of a two-act live show and in addition to "Zippie," it will feature "Poochie," the International performing clown. There will be two performances, one at 11:00 a.m., and one at 1:30 p.m. Tickets at 75 cents each may be purchased from any one of the following: Mrs. S. Miller, WE 8-4491; Mrs. A. Finkow, WE 8-7265; Mrs. S. Lewinson, WE 5-5812; Mrs. M. Portnoy, WE 8-9009.

The meeting, conducted by its president, Mrs. Jack Feldman, was very well attended and heard reports from all of its committee chairmen. A new constitution and the budget for the new year were both approved.

The highlight of the evening was the very stimulating and informative talk given by the guest speaker, Mrs. Sadie Hofstein who spoke on the topic "The Suburban Child." She explained how the suburban child can be made to face life's problems in spite of the fact that he is on his own so much in the very early years of his life.

Civics to Amend Constitution

For three years our Civic Assoc. has lived by a constitution which at the time of its adoption adequately served the new and vital community organization.

We continuously, year after year, increased the services to this community and consequently we were able to increase our membership to the point where presently approximately 70 per cent of all families in this community belong to our Civic Assoc. Innumerable new problems cropped up continuously and new committees had to be activated to deal with them. Time and again we found that a number of sections in our constitution were in need of revision, especially in the light of new developments and challenges.

About a year ago a committee of civic minded Birchwoodites, under the able chairmanship of Sam Hecht, president of our Jericho School Board, started a series of meetings to explore this matter and come up with appropriate recommendations for constitutional changes. Several months ago the Birchwood Civic Assoc. Board of Directors, at a special meeting called for this purpose, endorsed these changes.

To mention but one proposal, there is the matter of the election of officers and directors. Our old Constitution does not provide for a nominating committee. Were it not for perhaps last minute action by some individuals our Assoc. might well have found itself for the past two years without any volunteer candidates for office.

The Civic Assoc. Board of Directors has set aside Wednesday, Nov. 11 as the date, 8:30 p.m. is the place for a special membership meeting to consider and vote on proposed changes in our Constitution. We appeal to all our member residents to be present at this meeting to assure this community that the Democratic process of self government will not go by default. We, the volunteer members of the Civic Assoc. Board of Directors, members of its committees, and officers of the Assoc., want to continue to serve this community. We can only do so with your mandate. Remember Nov. 11 is the date. Come one, come all, don't be late.

Coming Apart at the Seams

By GLORIA BRUNSWICK

Now that most of us have survived the first 2 or 3 years of home ownership and have gotten through the growing pains of "settling," it looks as though the second team of mishaps is about to park on our door-steps. (The door-step is peeling and chipped, of course!)

As you meander through our midst you see an industrious, never-ending Army at work — The Lost Battalion of Fixing Up and Doing Over! On every block in our community the cash register jingles merrily and the Accounts Payable Ledgers is swollen with figures.

New laws have been the rage this summer. "The Best look over the Merrian and then the Best down and died." "I sprayed with XZY942163 and it killed the clover overnight — There's nothing left — I mean NOTHING!"

Replacement of shrubs is an old story. "Hemlocks are so beautiful and evergreen, but 12 of mine are evergreen and that's not the style this year!"

Almost as much as women, our homes need a freshening of paint. "The estimate he gave me equals the basic price of the house." "My husband will do — an hour each week-end for 3 years — who's in a rush?" "We're making our house edible. Caramel colored brick with pistachio frosting and a sprinkling of coconut around the shutters."

Other exterior fancies elicit such remarks as, "If I could find the guy who put in those dry wells," and, "They said this kind of super-expensive concrete would never crack—" and, "If I just had five minutes in a dark alley with the so-and-so who sold me the screen for the sliding glass doors—"

Indoors, the list of Things To Be Attended To Within The Next Decade makes the old Blue List with its 476 items look like an inter-office memo. For example —

Quite a few Birchwoodians may soon be posting for the "before" attitude in deodorant ads. They can no longer shower without bathing their dens, den closets, or any assorted guests who may be visiting on the lower level. One has the choice of ripping out the bathroom and starting from scratch, or scratching and hoping perfume will fool even one's "best friends".

Then again, warped doors are making "togetherness" mandatory for even the most modern of families.

And, when it took the children until Aug. 8 to thaw out, some couples decided to install addition-at radiation in the "little" bedrooms rather than face another arctic exploration this winter.

So, as we cunk here and calibrate you, we still affirm righteousness by how much finer this all is than living in a modern, mid-town duplex apartment with maid service, with the subway on the corner, with the Superintendent just a house phone away. Quick, Watson, the needle!

Keeping Christ In Christmas

The Long Island Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, service organization representing 45,000 members on Long Island, open its annual "Keep Christ In Christmas Campaign." Through the medium of Christmas Seals and outdoor billboard posters the campaign is endeavored to remind the public at large that Christmas is "Christ's Birthday."

At a recent meeting of the Long Island Chapter, James A. Murtagh of Richmond Hill, Chairman of the Drive urged the delegates present to have their membership use the seals on all correspondence from now until the Christmas season ends. With financial assistance of the local Councils of the Knights of Columbus, 125 billboard posters, depicting the Nativity will receive a place of prominence in all localities of the four counties that make up Long Island.

Operation VFW

Wm. M. Gove Jr.
Post No. 3211 Hicksville
By LOU PALLADINO

Not too much to speak about today, and yet there are a few items that can be mentioned. There is always a little something that can be brought up that may be of interest. So let's get about it.

First you must be told about our annual dinner-dance. The place isn't official as yet, because it hasn't been reported at the meeting, but by the time this is published it will be. This being our Silver Anniversary, we decided it would be appropriate to be a little more elaborate. It will definitely be held at the Milleridge Inn. This is the nicest place we could get, and it's close to home. Of course we had to guarantee a little more, but think we can do it. The committee threw it on the floor at the last meeting to get all the pros and cons. The consensus was that if it is available, this was the place we wanted.

We have to put a lot of effort behind the affair for we want it to be our biggest ever. Can't give you any prices as yet, but the date is set for Feb. 13, 1960. Seems like an awful long way off, doesn't it? Preparations have to be made early, so everything can be taken care of. You will be reminded often about the date and the affair to keep it fresh in your mind.

The time has come to start hollering up about the dues for 1960. Once again this year we want to try to get it in before the first of next year. We didn't accomplish this last year, but we have hopes of doing it this year. Each year we start with high hopes. In anything you do, if you're discouraged at the start you're licked. So fellows, when and if you get your envelope and can afford your dues, please don't hesitate. Make yourself the individual to keep the ball rolling, and pretend that you are the last one paying. This will make it easier for everyone concerned.

While on the subject of dues, we wish to notify you that no longer will part of your dues go to the National Building Foundation of the VFW. Now all of it will remain dues. Don't know if it makes any difference to us. We still pay the same amount. It must mean something to somebody for them to notify us of this. So we pass it on to you to make of it what you will.

A group of us attended the testimonial dinner for Past County Commander, Jack Kluge, recently Bob Obermyer, Jim Rock and myself, along with our wives. They had a nice crowd at the Old County Manor. County Executive Holly Patterson was there and gave a short talk. All the operators in the county were there. Had a very nice time. Once again it shows how politics run on a much smaller scale. If you sit back and watch, you'll find it very interesting, and all try to impress what a good post they have. We may be partial, but we say ours is the best.

The ladies jumped all over us because we made a mistake on their meeting date. It was Thursday, Oct. 15, at 8:30 p.m. Sorry girls, it was a slip. Also have been notified that they are having a card party Nov. 5 at the VFW headquarters. So anybody interested in card parties, here's your chance. In their informal way, our girls usually run good ones. When you're married to the president, it can get mighty tough, especially if you try to write a column.

The weather is getting cool now, fellows, so how about attending meetings again and give your side of the story?

COCKTAIL PARTY was held on Sunday, Nov. 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mahler of 70 Blueberry Lane, Hicksville. Many invited guests including all the Republican candidates, were free to come and go from 3 o'clock in the afternoon until late evening. Among those who attended were County Clerk, Francis Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, Supervisor John J. Burns and Mrs. Burns, Town Councilman Edmund Ocker, Town Clerk

Henry M. Curran, Mrs. Irma Bova, President of the Hicksville Grandmothers Club, and Philip F. Robinson, Vice President of the Ernest C. Francke Republican Club. After the picture above was taken, many more guests arrived, and everyone had a most enjoyable evening with plenty to eat and drink. (Photo by Gus Hansen).

by Bob Sutton

From all reports, Saturday's Hal-loween Dance was a gala party for all who attended. The committee for that night did a wonderful job. I, for one, had a wonderful time.

Prize winners of the night were Mrs. John Davis, Tony Corrieri, Cynthia and Richard Hockbrucker, Mrs. Joyce Quinn and Edward Quinn.

Sunday's trip to King's Park was another success with a large turnout. Art Gunzweiler and Ernie Gundlach reported. A covered dish supper was served to the members and families upon their return. Would like to thank the members who served the food. Bob Sutton, John Davis, Pat Hodgkinson, Jerry Sietz, Cynthia Hockbrucker, Ella Palladino, Thelma Davis and Madeline Swallow.

Membership officer, Bob Hasel reports that we are very close to our goal of 249 by the 11th of this month. We now have 10 new members and 144 renewals for a total of 154.

The capsule drawing was won by Manuel Kalpert, who was not present.

Saturday, Nov. 7, is the big parade in Seaford. Your commander and color guard will be present. Everyone is welcome, so hope to see a good turnout on that day. Will leave here at 12:30. The Sons of the Legion will also be present. On Sunday, Nov. 8, at 2:30 p.m., religious services will be held in Cedarhurst at the Beth El Synagogue, with a short parade from the Cedarhurst Post and return; after services. activity of the Guard. They are now recruiting members, and meet in the Hempstead Armory twice monthly, but will transfer to a new armory next Spring.

It looks like our dark horse is doing a good job for the children's Christmas Party. Sid Hodgkinson won again.

Trend Toward Single-Story Schools

Ethetics, safety and suitability for small children are three of the most important factors behind the growing trend toward single-story elementary school construction. School shown is the Leo Road elementary, in Valley Stream, L. I., designed by architectural firm of Frederic P. Wiedersum Associates.

Statistics of the U. S. Department of Education reveal that almost 70 per cent of all new elementary schools built in this country are one-story structures. According to Frederic P. Wiedersum of Frederic P. Wiedersum Associates, architects and engineers with offices in New York City, Valley Stream, L. I. and Trenton, N. J., it is likely that the preference for single-story schools will become even greater in the next few years.

"Despite this popularity," Mr. Wiedersum says, "some people still question the feasibility of this type of building."

Three of the comments most often heard are that single-story schools are more spread out than schools of multi-story construction and, consequently, use more land; that schools of this type require larger foundations and roofs, and that they must cost more to build.

The validity of some of these observations cannot be disputed, according to Mr. Wiedersum. When a thorough comparison is made between both types of school, however, it becomes apparent that there are numerous factors which decide the desirability of one type or another.

It is true, for example, that single-story schools cover a larger area of land than multi-story schools. Since most suburban school sites are ample in size, however, the need to use additional land for the single-story school is not usually an important factor.

It is also true that one-story schools require more footings and foundations. But it must be taken into account that footings and foundations need not be as heavy as those needed to support the weight of a two or three-story building. The savings resulting from the lighter footings and foundations certainly help to offset some of the cost.

One-story schools do require a greater roof area, but again, when one considers the elimination of stairways and the need for fewer utility rooms in the single-story building, much of the cost of the extra roof area is offset.

"Any consideration of both types of school," Mr. Wiedersum says, "would not be complete without an investigation of the outstanding advantages of the single-story school."

The New York State Department of Education recommends single-story construction of elementary schools wherever feasible. Here are some of the reasons:

Perhaps the most important is the safety factor. With the elimination of stairways, control and discipline are easier to maintain and more exit areas are made possible for the rapid evacuation of children in the event of fire.

Ethetics is another important point to consider when making a comparison between single and multi-story schools. Single-story schools have a great deal of charm and are in better scale with the houses in a residential community than a two or three-story school. This is an important benefit when one thinks about the effect of school design on maintaining real estate values in a suburban community.

Finally, the single-story school is not as monumental as a 2-story school, and thus is more suited to small children—duplicating the atmosphere of "feeling at home" and encouraging better student-teacher morale.

Herald Sportslight

By Howard Finnegan

That gentle but unmistakable sound much like that of a hail descending on a tin roof that came from the direction of the south shore, Sunday morning, was the rustling of the sports pages in the fair village of Freeport and the collective reaction to Hicksville's 41-0 thrashing of respected Farmingdale.

For the Red Devils are the proud possessors of a 28-game undefeated skien and the news that Hicksville's latent power finally exploded before a damp but delighted Alumni Homecoming Day of over 530 put a different complexion on this coming Saturday's contest.

With quarterback Bill Schrimpe calling a diversified attack and Bob Cerone a whirling spoor, the Comets completely demolished Farmingdale on a dreary afternoon.

The Comets now have two straight after three discouraging losses to start the season and under coach Adamo Tomani's direction have a chance to knock Freeport from the ranks of the undefeated and score the most important victory in Nassau in 1959.

The Red Devils visited Hicksville last year which was the first Alumni Homecoming Day for Hicksville and escaped with a 20-13 victory.

That moved the undefeated notch to 22 games and it is almost ironic that the Comets will have another chance to sever the streak.

The game will commence in Freeport's sprawling Municipal Stadium at 2:00 p.m. sharp and a caravan of cars carrying over 1,000 Hicksville supporters will converge on the oval an hour earlier.

Hicksville's rapid resurgence and the varied aspects of its attack have created great interest in this contest. The facts are still hard and clear that Freeport holds a big edge. However, the stadium has never awed Orange and Black players in the past and the rolling '59 Comets aren't likely to be scared of the assignment.

Rated no less than a two touchdown underdog by the daily papers, the Comets floored Farmingdale at the opening gun. Cerone intercepted two passes with a total 82 yard runback and Schrimpe sent the Comet runners—Cerone, Bob DeMattia, Fran DeCabia, Dick McKenna, himself—in all directions.

Despite the steady rain Schrimpe handled the ball flawlessly and passed to the equally sure Brad Jaworski, Jim McKinstry, Cerone and DeCabia for a net gain of 200 yards.

Scoring Tds were Cerone, Schrimpe, Jaworski and McKinstry. The latter went over twice.

Farmingdale which only lost to undefeated Mineola 14-13 in another league encounter was distraught at the finish. It was the largest score ever recorded in this long series but the Dalers contributed greatly to it.

They completely violated the rule that when you are getting beat real bad don't throw the ball or you're likely to be routed even worse.

In the final minute McKinstry picked off a forward and ran it back 56-yards for a marker. It was Hicksville's fifth interception of the day.

The finality of the score must be watered down in relation to Hicksville's power. However the marked improvement of the Comets couldn't be covered by the sea of mud and insistence of the rain.

Just how great a stride Hicksville has made will be known Saturday. Unlike the '58 game the County championship doesn't rest on the outcome. However the club that wins Saturday and maintains its pace in the final two games of the season might well be regarded as the best in the county at the season completion.

Scoring looms as the most outstanding attribute of each club. And in that regard we look for what may be an historic contest. Our pick:

Yellow Jackets Host Oyster Bay

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1 at 2:15 P.M. on the Hicksville Junior High School St. Ignatius Yellow Jackets tangled with the St. Patrick's Shamrocks of Huntington.

St. Ignatius won the kickoff toss and elected to receive. Heskin of St. Patrick's kicked to Charlie Lang of the Yellow Jackets who ran the ball from the end zone to the 10 yard line. St. Ignatius failed to move the ball and St. Patrick took over on the 25 yard line. With Heskin and Sheehan carrying the ball the Shamrocks went over for the first touchdown of the game. The try for the extra point failed and St. Patrick lead by a 6 to 0 score. The Shamrocks kicked off to St. Ignatius where Schultz and Blaser started the Yellow Jackets on the march. Thru second and third quarters the teams battled back and forth with Schultz, Hoesack, Blaser, Bruckner, Lang and Corrigan carrying the leather for the Yellow Jackets and Heskin, Sheehan and Manion going great guns for the Shamrocks. On the St. Ignatius Yellow Jacket line: Callahan, Huber, McKenna, Peplow, Bendish, Hoesack, Wallerwick and Collins played outstanding ball.

In the last quarter a Ceder pass to Alperie was good for a touchdown, again St. Patrick failed to make the extra point. St. Patrick again threatened in the waning minutes of the game but an alert Pat Blaser intercepted a pass and St. Ignatius took over. A long pass from Schultz to Corrigan was incomplete and the game ended with St. Patrick the winner 12 to 0.

On Sunday Nov. 8th, St. Ignatius Yellow Jackets will entertain the St. Dominic team of Oyster Bay at the Hicksville Junior High Field at 2:15 P. M.

Cerone Wins Top Player Award

Robert Cerone won the outstanding player award for the Hicksville Alumni's 1959 Homecoming game for his work in setting up the 41-0 upset of Farmingdale with two early interceptions and fine running. . . . So well did Hicksville play that the voting committee had a difficult time in reaching the decision. Dick Rennie '36, Fred Fluckinger '37, George Thomas '44, Ed Coleman '45, and Ray Halleran '43 were among those who participated in the vote. . . . Former Principal Miss Mabel R. Farley, who came on from Milton, Pa. for the day, was among the first to attend the Quarterback Brunch. Many of her former students visited with her there, at the Reception after the game and the dance at Bethpage Country Club. . . . Miss Mildred Clark, home economics teacher, must have been proud of the huge victory cake baked in the shape of the old high school that her former student Mary Segreto Rogers created for the reception. Aside from its beauty it was very delicious. Some ex-grad remembered the old cannon in front of the High School which is long since removed and ran to the five and dime to acquire a toy replica and place it next to the flag pole. . . . Hostess and Host Ann and Joe Naso arranged and carried off the Reception for the students in expert style. It was the high point of the day. . . . E. Parker Yutzler presented the award to Cerone with a good insight for past and present football that was very interesting. . . . Joseph Naso flew up from North Carolina where he is attending College for the day. His ex-teen mate Mickey Anglin came on from Easton, Pa., where he is going to Lafayette. Pat Sarle from Cortland State Teachers and Robert Zembrowski from Rensselaire were among the other college students attending.

Attends Session

Major scientific developments in the contact lens field were reported today by Dr. L. D. Glatt of Hicksville, who just returned from the National Contact Lens Symposium held in New York last week-end. Sponsored by the Optometric Center of New York, the Symposium drew more than 700 optometrists from every part of the United States and several from Canada, Mexico, France and Asia.
