Jericho Group Objects To Big Shopping Centre

JERICHO — Residents of Jericho registered strong opposition, Tuesday, to the proposed creation of a shopping centre of 27 stores on the Hicksville-Jericho Rd., north of the Parkway bridge and on the east side of the state road. Howard T. Hogan represented the applicant, Marcel Wetts, who plans to build 1200 homes on the former 288-acre Boetwick property.

Hogan said the area will house more than 3000 people and the developer plans a "substantial development" on the tract which runs about a mile east from the highway and a mile south from the Maine Maid.

Leading the opposition was Arthur Kaye who said "there is a solid feeling in Jericho," opposing speculative projects. Daniel Underhill, chairman of the Bank of Hicksville Board of Directors, was among those placed on record in opposition.

The Town Board, closing the hearing, pledged not to take action upon the application for two weeks to permit filing of additional written views by the opposition and applicants.

Civics Probe New Home Topsoil Topic

HICKSVILLE — The Civic Association plans to obtain compliance with the Township's regulation on Topsoil particularly as it might apply to the stripping of property where new homes are being built, it was learned today. William L. Geyer of 21 Grove St. has been named chairman of a special committee to study the problem which was outlined in the Herald last week.

Meanwhile, a group of Frank Homes residents are studying the possibilities of bringing joint legal action to force the developer to provide their homes with adequate topsoil. Residents of the section interested are invited to contact Charles Caldwell at 218 Lee Ave. His phone is Hicksville 3-2746-M.

Jericho Forms Taxpayer Group

JERICHO — Formal organization of a Taxpayers Assoc. here to familiarize taxpayers of the district with zoning and building regulations of the township as they apply locally, was scheduled to take place last night (Tuesday) at the School auditorium.

The meeting was called by a group which has been meeting to consider such an organization. Arthur Kaye is president, H. Willett Underhill, vice-president; Harry J. Miller, Jr., secretary, and Henry Bruns, treasurer.

Taxpayers of the district are apparently concerned with what has been described as "speculative building projects" in the district. The organization is expected to keep its members advised of contemplated changes of zoning in the district, circulate information about known plans and information on developments contemplated in the district.

Major purpose of the meeting last night was to ascertain local opinion about the formation of such a group.

The funeral will be from her late home. She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Christine Froehlich and was a member of the Altar Society of St. Ignatius. Burial will be at Holy Rood Cemetery, Westbury, under the direction of Henry J. Stock Funeral home.

HICKSVILLE—The tentative budget of the school district was made public today, indicating a possible one-third increase in the tax rate for 1950-51. The gross budget calls for the expenditure of $669,179.50 for the coming year with $454,279.50 to be raised by local property taxation.

A preliminary hearing will be held by the Board of Education upon the budget next Wednesday evening, Apr. 12, in the high school auditorium on Jerusalem Ave., starting at 8 o'clock.

The present tax rate is $17.70 per $1000 of assessed valuation, raising a net budget of $281,250.83. District Clerk Andrew B. Heberer estimates the rate for next year, based upon a low total district assessment of $17 million at "about $27.00," or an increase of 34 per cent. The present rate of $17.70 is based on a district valuation of $16,738,356.

Two Factors Cited

The $190,604 increase in gross budget for next year is explained largely by two substantial factors: (1) bus service for grade pupils living more than a half-mile from the school, approved by the voters last October, cost about $30,000 for the current year with interest on money borrowed, and allowance of $45,000 for such service next term; and (2) $30,600 cost of acquiring the 10-acre Albrecht property on Burns Ave. for a school site which voters approved Nov. 29, 1948.

Thus the proposed budget will cover the cost of bus transportation for two years, the current term and next year.

The budget also provided a bond payment and interest of $4,800 for the Library District. Voters gave their approval in January of this year to a bond issue to purchase a library building.

Other notable provisions of the proposed budgets are: allowance of $3,000 for a business manager (purchasing agent) for the district. (Continued on Page 18)

McIntosh 3rd School Board Candidate

HICKSVILLE — With two petitions filed by candidates for two vacancies on the School Board, a third candidate entered the field this week. A petition is now being circulated for George McIntosh of 129 Bay Ave.

Robert W. Corcoran of 74 Twinlawn Ave. filed his petition with District Clerk Andrew B. Heberer, Monday. Harry Ermenwein of 265 Jerusalem Ave. filed his yesterday. Two trustees for three-year terms will be elected by qualified voters on May 3 at the high school.

McIntosh has been a local resident for 25 years. He is a graduate of local grade and high schools and a professional licensed engineer employed by L. I. Lighting Co. He is the father of two children attending district schools. His wife, Ruth, is a teacher in East Meadow.

Sorry We're Late

The heavy volume of legal advertising this week has made this issue of the Herald several hours late in publication. We regret the inconvenience to you.

School Board Reminds Voters Of Extras Approved

HICKSVILLE—The Board of Education issued a formal statement to accompany the announcement of the tentative budget:

"The school budget for 1950-51 is presented to you with the sincere belief of the Board of Education that this budget provides for our district's educational needs and reflects our serious consideration of all costs involved.

"It should be borne in mind that the increasing school population necessitates greater appropriations for equipment, general supplies, teaching service, etc. Transportation service for the current and ensuing year, together with the purchase of the Albrecht land for a school site, also contribute in large measure to the total gross figure. It will be remembered that the decision to have transportation this school year and the land purchase were made after the last annual meeting.

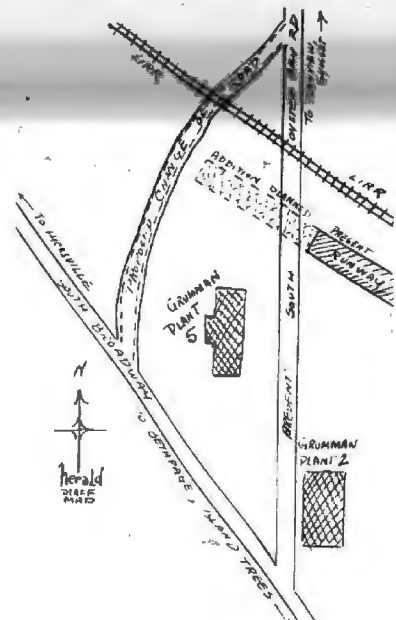

"You are cordially invited to attend the preliminary hearing on Wednesday night, April 12th, in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock at which time there will be a discussion of the budget.

ROUTE of South Oyster Bay Road will be altered near Grumman's to permit the aircraft firm to increase the size of its runway no. 33 (now 5,400 feet long), as indicated in this sketch. Dear Jean...

Teenagers are making plans to attend the big Spring Dance at the Hicksville Masonic Temple on Friday night, Apr. 14, remembering the good times they had last year at the same event sponsored by the Republican Club. It's FREE. BEA JEANSON is again chairman. County Health Dept. is planning to establish a health station in this area. MAYOR NOHOWEC told the audience at the civic meeting last week that he has heard, unofficially, Second Precinct Police headquarters may move from Syosset to Hicksville. CHRIS KATTAU of Elm St., Hicksville, reports that the MEAN, Mean person who has been taking pot-shots at his cats is still at it. This week his pet was wounded in the tail with a shot. Businessmen are preparing to attend a big, open meeting at the Legion Hall on Thursday night, Apr. 13. Publishers of weekly newspapers will meet here later this month to form an organization. Farewell party was held this week at Aviation Country Club, which has sold its 80-acre field on Jerusalem Ave. to Levitt for $176,000. Some doctors are talking about building a hospital on the site. ARTHUR STEWART of Jericho, past commander of the VFW Post, has been appointed to the Veterans' Service Agency at Mineola. Being a new arrival from Florida, she probably didn't know too much about heating systems. Anyway, the Hicksville vamps had a false alarm, Thursday morning, because a housewife at 62 North Bway saw clouds of steam and thought she had a fire. There were grass fires Friday on Twinlawn Ave. (yes, again) and in front of Keystone Glass later the same night.

Several Hicksville residents thought a truck had just passed at about 9:30 a. m. Wednesday. They learned later it was the earthquake which gently quivered the island that morning. A private exhibit for students was scheduled for last night (Tuesday) to mark the conclusion of the spring Hicksville Adult Education program. There were 480 subjects for the term, compared with 462 in the fall term. However, absence of an auto driving course held back the Spring enrollment. The next sign-up of students for the fall is tentatively expected in October. Everybody is getting interested in the Jelly Bean contest at FAULKEN's in the Prof. Bldg. The winner will be decided on this Saturday night. Did you put in a guess yet? There are 56 school districts in Nassau transporting pupils now. The county transit commission has found that district-owned buses cost $11 less per pupil to operate as compared with contracted service.

PLAINVIEW COUNTRY HOMES:
Spring Comes With Mud and Gardens

By RAE CANTILLI
 and RUTH GESSNER

Country Capers:
 Spring has sprung in this part of the Country. Everyone in the community is busy working out in their yards—full of energy and mud. So here's the news.

Little Judy Mandery, daughter of Norman and Frances Mandery on Vernon St., was a busy little girl last week. She celebrated her 1st birthday at a party out in East Northport at the home of her maternal grandparents. Not only that, but her paternal grandparents also had a party for her in Northport. Lucky little lady.

The Peeneys on Vernon Street visited Brooklyn on Saturday, Mar. 25.

Capt. and Mrs. Hudson moved into their brand new home on Vernon St. They previously lived over on Plainview Rd. The same week they had guests all the way from Cleveland, Mrs. Hudson's niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter.

Judith Otto also celebrated her birthday—her first, too — at a family party. She is the daughter of Gladys and John Otto, on Vernon.

THOMAS J. CUFF,

Over on Vernon Street we met one of the most interesting people, Mrs. Charles Miller. It seems that during the war, Mr. Miller was interned by the Japanese. Mrs. Miller told us that she and her daughter, Charlotte, had French papers and were not harmed. After the war they lived in San Francisco before coming here. They also have a son, Denis. Mrs. Miller is now recuperating from a sprained ankle, and we all hope she is better very soon.

Ed and Marilyn Martin recently celebrated their 6th wedding anniversary at their home.

Last Sunday, the Martins visited Mrs. Martin's sister, Mrs. John Scanlon, in Denville, New Jersey.

The Clancy's little son, Martin, is sick with an ear infection again. Here's hoping he is better soon.

Bob Gessner celebrated his birthday on March 22 quietly at home. Another year, Bob!

Ernest Zarza, Jr., son of Ernest and Lillian Zarza, was off Sunday to a grand birthday party in Lawrence.

Mrs. Pat Leight, over on Vernon, celebrated her birthday with a family dinner party.

Joe and Ann Arena had a wonderful party at her home on Vernon St. in honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. Ford, from New Hyde Park. They entertained 24 guests.

Those lucky Arenas also attended the play, "The Innocents" in New York, last Saturday.

Well, another resident of the Plainview Country Homes has joined us. Dick and Doris Hubbard became parents of a sweet little girl, Lee, born at North Communities Hospital, Glen Cove, on Mar. 22. They have one other child, Greg.

Well, that's that for this week, folks. Don't forget to attend the Plainview Civic Assn. meeting on April 14, and have a part in the doings of the Community.

If anyone of you have anything for us, how about giving us a ring, at Hicks, 3-0233-M.

The girls will receive Red Cross certificates upon completion of the required hours. The club is open for membership to any girl in the Frank Home vicinity between the ages of 12 and 16.

A rummage sale on Apr. 25 and 26 was planned at a meeting of the Altar Society of St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville, last Friday night. The sale will be held from 9:30 to 9 p. m. in the old school. Mrs. Florence Menninger is the chairman.

A TIMELY INCIDENT:

The Boy's Easter Dream

By Madeline Rives Godfrey

Old Shut-Eyes opened the nursery door softly and looked about. When he saw the Boy was fast asleep, he opened over him the big umbrella which he always carried, so that good children could dream beautiful stories when they were asleep. It had lovely pictures on it, for it was the same umbrella which Hans Anderson has told us so charmingly about, and the same old friend—SHUT-EYES.

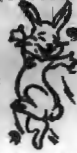

The Boy sat up in bed. "Old Shut-Eyes," he said "What are we going to do tonight?"

"Hurry get up and put on your things," whispered Old Shut-Eyes. "Where are we going?" asked the Boy.

"Never mind," replied Old Shut-Eyes, "you will soon see," and, before you could say Jack Robinson, the Boy was ready.

Old Shut-Eyes took him by the hand and led him outside the house and before them in the meadow, lay a large air ship, like a great rare bird resting with outstretched wings; and the Boy's eyes grew wider and wider with surprise. Old Shut-Eyes held the Boy by the hand and together they stepped into the airship. The Boy was unafraid, for he knew he was safe with his Old Friend.

Suddenly he felt himself go up, up, up into the air. Away they went sailing on, across the sky. On! On! On! they went—for a great while

AN ORIGINAL STORY

The Author, Mrs. Madeline Rives Godfrey, a former resident of New York City, has been living in her new home at 29 Willet Ave., Hicksville, since last July it seemed to the Boy—then, without warning, he felt himself going Down! Down! Down! The Boy held Old Shut-Eyes' arm a wee bit tighter, and held his breath, but he looked up into his friend's face without fear, until they reached the Earth.

Old Shut-Eyes and the Boy stepped from the ship to the soft grass, and before them spread a field of lovely Easter lilies, which to the Boy in the dim light, looked like stars. Just then the Dawn broke, and from out each lily cup a Fairy came forth, fluttering her wings, and they flew into the air and yorned themselves into a fine, and the light of dewy morn upon their gauze-like wings, transformed them into a rainbow of many colors (so the Boy thought as they floated past him); and the Queen of the Fairies called, as she waved her wand, "Come, Boy, follow us," and her voice sounded to the Boy like softest music.

So, hand in hand, Old Shut-Eyes and the Boy followed after them to the edge of a hearty wood until they came to a very large old tree. All about its trunk, on the ground, were nests filled with beautifully tinted eggs. Again the Queen of the Fairies spoke: "We are the Guardians of the little creatures whose Mothers and Fathers have been destroyed by the wicked hunters and cruel boys, and these, she said, pointing to the nests, were left behind by the poor little Mother, and Boy, because you are good and kind, you may carry one of them home with you to keep for yourself. Choose the one you like best." The Boy picked out a nest filled with brightest colored eggs, and very happily thanked the Queen, and the Queen was pleased, and she touched him lightly on his cheek with a kiss (for she loved children).

"Because you are gentle to dumb creatures", she said, "I shall give you a little rabbit to take care of, for I know that you will treat him well." So she plucked in his arms a soft white baby rabbit, with bright eyes, and the Boy's cheeks grew pinker and his eyes brighter with happiness. Then the Fairies rose in the air, and again they formed into lines, and as they passed, waved good-bye kisses to the Boy from their dainty fingers, and flew straight to their homes in the hearts of the lilies, and the Boy looked after them with dreamy eyes until they came back to where the Boy lived.

The Boy sat up in bed, rubbed his eyes and saw the sun peeping in at the window, telling him 'twas time to get up, and a little bird swinging on a tree outside, broke into song an Easter Hymn, wishing the Boy a Happy Easter Morn. The Boy then remembered it was Easter Day. He sprang out of bed and went to the window to thank his little friend for his sweet music. Then he looked about the room, and, on a table, he found a nest of gaily colored Easter eggs. He was thinking how pretty they were when he heard a queer (little scratching noise; he listened—then looked about and saw, at the foot of his bed, a little basket. He knelt down and opened it with eager hands, and at the bottom of the basket lay a fluffy soft, snow-white little Bunny, with pink eyes that looked up trustingly into his own.

Lovingly the Boy lifted it from its little bed of leaves, and cuddled it underneath his soft chin, and rubbed his nose tenderly against the little pink one, and the little Bunny closed his eyes and seemed very happy and content and the Boy's heart was filled with joy, for now he knew that his beautiful dream picture had come true, and he made a promise to himself on this Easter Morn ever to be kind and gentle to all living creatures.

I hope that all of my little friends who read this story will do the same, for the sake of One, who loves and watches over us all.

SERMON: From the King James version of the Bible: (Matthew 8: 5-8, 10, 13) "And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him. And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. . . . When Jesus heard it, he marvelled and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour."

Broadway between Marie and Nicholas St., to the "Go Ye" Chapel, Evangelist Association of the Church of Christ, Saturday. Thus was continued a tradition which ad its beginning in te community nearly a century ago.

It was in 1853 that Arnold Heitz deeded the property upon which the structure stands with the stipulation that it be used by Protestant church groups in turn with others, as long as it is maintained for religious purposes. When no longer used for religious purposes, the property reverts to his heirs. In that year the Union Chapel was built, a simple structure which was replaced at the turn of the century. The first meeting of the First Reformed Church was held in the Union Chapel on Dec. 9, 1883. Previously, in 1863, the Trinity Lutheran Church held services here. The first service for the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church was also held there in September, 1899.

The Methodists have had possession of the site for the past half-century. They held their first service there on July 12, 1899, at 4:15 in the afternoon. There the Rev. S. A. Sands preached and later became the first pastor. The original Union Chapel was torn down in 1901 because it was too small. The front part of the present structure was erected in 1902 with John Wagner, "trustee, architect and carpenter." It was erected in nine weeks at a cost of $1400.

By 1914 the building was too small to accommodate the growing parish and it had to be enlarged at a cost of $1800. In the early 1930's, during the pastorate of Rev. F. J. Paiplow, the building was greatly expanded by erecting an educational unit at the rear of the church.

The Rev. Elmer C. Kyla of New Jersey was present here Saturday to take over possession of the building for the new parish. A worship service was held there on Sunday evening, Mar. 26. Last Sunday the first regular services were scheduled by the new congregation.

"I forgot" might easily cost a house owner as much as $4000 today, unless he remembers to increase his property insurance to cover greatly-increased property values. MID ISLAND GARDENER: Some Good Points on Planting Lawns LAWN CARE—An early start on spring lawn jobs is recommended. It is all right to get started ahead of the first rain except an areas subject to severe washing.

LIME—Fortunately, few lawns receive the annual "whitewash" or light dusting of lime that was as much a spring ritual as sulphur and molasses a generation or two ago. A generous application of lime is needed every two or three years on those lawns with quite acid soils or where there is a de-fiency of calcium and magnesium.

It is a good idea to get a soil test if there is any question about lime. Raw, ground agricultural lime is satisfactory, especially for cool weather use. The maximum amount of lime per application is 50 pounds per 1000 square feet.

FEED—Very few lawns are fed often enough. Any fair soil will keep grass alive almost indefinitely, but without feeding the growth becomes steadily more spindly. In contrast, proper feeding develops vigorous growth for good deep colors. The minimum feeding program is (1) once in early spring, (2) repeated in late spring or early summer, and (3) again in early fall.

GRUB CONTROL—The Japanese beetle as well as the more recent arrival, the Asiatic garden beetle, continue their destructive activities in the east. The beetles themselves do not harm turf, but their grubs or larvae do. Modern pest controls can be applied to grub-proof a lawn. Late winter or early spring is a good time for application as alternate freezing and thawing carries the material into the root zone, where it is needed.

SEEDING—It is possible to overdo the matter of seeding by using too much seed. Here is one place where economy can be effected. It is a mistake to sow by hand. This is wasteful, because few people are skilled in scattering evenly the relatively small amount of seed that should be used.

If hand broadcasting is used, the seed should be mixed with two or three times its bulk of inert material such as sand or screened soil. The preferred method is to use a modern precision spreader. This should be of a type that will evenly sow as little seed as 2 pounds per 1000 square feet. This, by the way, is an adequate rate for good seed when reseeding a lawn.

Some lawns are so thick they do not require a general reseeding. However, if there are many bare spots, it will probably be less wasteful to make an overall light seeding rather than to try to hand seed the bare spots.

CLEAN UP DEBRIS—It is good to rake or sweep the lawn once or twice in the early Spring, particularly during the periods of freezing and thawing. Leaves should be removed lest they mat and smother small patches of grass. Discretion is necessary, as it is not advisable to walk over a lawn when the grass is frozen or when the ground is so soft that footprints are left.

SOIL TESTING—You can have soil tested by submitting a sample to one of the following:

Nassau County Farm Bureau, Old County Courthouse, Mineola, N. Y.

O. M. Scott & Sons Co Ridgefield, N. J.

F. W. Woodruff & Sons, Inc. Milford, Conn.

May Erect School On Flying Field

Division Ave. School, April 15 at Wisdom Lane Schools, Apr. 21, at Gardiner's Ave. School and Apr. 22 at Abbey Lane School.

The annual school meeting takes place on May 2, when the question of increasing the board of education from five to either seven or nine members will be decided.

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

Operation Unification was completely successful for the Botto Bros. softball team last week.

All departments were fully manned with the best talent available, from this area, when the club held its first Spring workout on the high school grounds, Sunday.

Biggest attention was focused on Joe Smith and Bryan Masterson. These two represent the trump cards for Manager Bernie McGunnigle in what is expected to be a dual bid for both Jones Beach and Rockville Centre League honors this season.

A Levitown weekly had given Smith a big spread in a recent issue in announcing that he would pitch for the All Stars this season. However, the story would seem to have been premature since he is safely in the Hicksville fold.

His presence assures the local team of strong representation in the Beach loop since Bill Bordiuk will undoubtedly hurl for Ranger again this year. And if Bill Bordiuk should be available to the Blue in the seashore league, the two combined would enhance the chances for a Hicksville club to finally cop the honors there.

Both will be on hand for Rockville Centre action and Masterson will receive their slants as the bid is made to return the championship back to Hicksville following the 1-0 loss which cost this village its second straight triumph there last season.

Masterson is the Baldwin catcher generally conceded to be one of the best backstops in the business in Nassau.

Others working out Sunday included Stan Smith, who is handy for most any work particularly so when it comes to batting, Jerry Kiesel, always ranked as one of the real power hitters in the County, and Ray Halleran and George Karman, infielders of considerable experience.

On hand also was the peppery catcher, Ralph Ferrara. Depth is what has been lacking in previous Hicksville softball clubs and the inclusion of both Masterson and Ferrara will not find that wanting in the Botto outfit.

Merrill Yartozkey, the slender first baseman, was missing from the practice and is the only big name in the local softball circles of the past two years who hasn't publicly declared his intention of playing as yet.

But the groundwork for a fine campaign has been well laid.

The big problem of combining the leading opposite factions in softball in these parts for the past three years has been done with neatness and dispatch.

Kiwanis Shot More But Jericho Scored Most To Win Senior Benefit

Frank Ruggiero's Kiwanis took 71 shots at the basket in its clash with Jericho, March 28, but was able to reap only 55 points for its efforts while the Vamps garnered 56 on 62 shots. . . . Athletes for both sides got their uniforms out of the mothballs after completing a hard season to perform for the Hicksville High Senior Class Washington Trip fund. Seniors showed their appreciation by a shocking lack of attendance. . . . Small crowd saw one of the better games of the year. Hicksville took a 6-2 lead in the first quarter only to have goals by Geveles, Stahurski and Halleran obtain a 9-6 quarter lead for the visitors. . . . Bill Byrnes and Ray Fitcher popped consistently for the Blue in the second stanza and opened a 18-13 lead at the eight minute mark. Big George Assmus twisted in two baskets as the half was drawing to a close but John Econopouly and Don Lang countered for Hicksville to hold a 21-17 halftime advantage. . . . Jericho's height finally came into dominance late in the third period as Assmus, Halleran and Coleman each hit with a pair of goals and the spurt carried the Vamps to a 34-33 lead as the last ten minutes of regulation play got underway. . . . It was nip and tuck for most of the last quarter and Jericho seemingly had it won with just ten seconds left. The Vamps were leading 48-45 when Chet Jaworski let a running one hander fly from behind the mid-court line which caught the nets at 9:53 of the period. Fitcher then stole a down-court pass and was fouled as he threw up a desperation shot. He missed the first but tied the game 48-48 with the second. . . . With just three seconds left Jericho made no attempt to bring the ball down and bided its time for the overtime. . . . Stahurski and Jaworski exchanged baskets in the first extra minute but goals by Halleran and Coleman wrapped the game up for Jericho despite a last second conversion by Econopouly which cut the final margin to 56-55. . . . Hicksville bench conceded defeat two minutes before the end of play in the fourth period and two of its members went to the locker room and got dressed. When Byrnes and Bordiuk fouled out in the overtime, Ruggiero was limited on whom he could press into action. . . . Stan Stahurski with 9 goals on ten shots was high man with 16 points. Fitcher hit with 6 of 12 shots for Hicksville for 15 points. Coleman had 4 successful shots out of 7 attempted, Halleran 6 of 15, Kiesel 1 of 9, Assmus 5 of 13, Courtney 1 of 3 and Geveles 1 of 6. Bordiuk had 3 of 12 for Hicksville, while Econopouly was good with 2 of 5, Jaworski 5 of 14, Erb 2 of 11, Lang 1 of 7 and Byrnes 4 of 8.

"In the Heart of Hicksville"

PARKING FIELD for 1500 automobiles is an outstanding feature of $5,000,000 Levittown Centre business district now under construction of Hempstead Tpke. at the corner of Division Ave. Initial occupancy is scheduled for May, according to Harry Thomsen Inc., agent for Berger-Tilles, developers. The Centre will cover 30 acres, consists of four large store structures and a two-story professional building. Berger-Tilles have also purchased 10 acres directly opposite on the south side of the Tpke. with a frontage of 469 feet. Space in the first northside store unit has been leased to Grand Union, A&P, Wheland Drug, Spotless Stores and Stork Klub. Woolworth and Miles Shoes will go in the second unit.

IN OUR OPINION:

Lack of Parking Chases Food Dollars

HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS, possibly thousands, are no longer being spent in Hicksville food stores because of local parking and traffic difficulties. The local people who are switching their weekend food buying habits from Hicksville to such places as Green Acres, Meadowbrook Shopping Centre, Levittown Village Greens and Milshire Park—all new centres, developed during the past couple of years—are not largely new residents. The "old timers," folks who have made their homes in Hicksville area for a decade or more, are going elsewhere despite their loyalty to the home town.

We could also mention the folks who have, more or less shamefacedly, told us they now do the weekend marketing in Bethpage, Huntington and Farmingdale.

The trend is serious. We mention it at this time because it has a vital bearing upon local taxes.

There has been a great deal written and said about the value of industry to a tax-burdened community. Taxes are levied, in layer upon layer, on real estate—on the house you own and the grounds about it. Industrial property, occupied by substantial plants, can be a great help since such establishments pay a fair share of the tax burden and provide few of the problems. For example, a factory pays school taxes but sends no one to school.

But let us not overlook the taxes paid by other commercial property—stores, for example. What is true of factories is also true of stores. You are familiar with the expansion—"a row of taxpayers", meaning a row of stores which share the local burden without increasing the load.

If Hicksville grows as a shopping centre—and it certainly should because of its natural facilities, location, etc.—more stores will be erected. Such commercial property increases in assessed valuation as the business centre grows in importance.

On the other hand, if more and more shoppers find it more convenient to hop in a car and breeze down to Hempstead Tpke., then we can eventually expect a back sliding of local values. Stores which do less and less business must obtain lower rentals or go where the crowds go.

For many, many years the cry has been that shoppers go to Hempstead, to Jamaica, to New York, etc. But generally, this has applied to purchasers of household goods, clothing and other staples of this kind. Now, we find the old standby—the food shopper—going elsewhere and a serious situation is shaping up fast.

If, as some have tried to convince us without success, our parking problems are actually easing—then there is real cause for worry. A slackening of the parking problem can mean only that shoppers are now going elsewhere. We think you will agree if you consider that there are today DOUBLE the number of homes in Hicksville as compared with only 30 months ago.

No one can tell with any degree of accuracy how many people who formerly came to Hicksville from surrounding communities such as Bethpage, East Norwich, Syosset, Westbury, etc., now go elsewhere. We can estimate a little more closely how many Hicksville people are going elsewhere. We just have to go to a neighboring shopping centre on a weekend and meet them.

The time is now for strong measures—real, concrete action. The business men, individually and collectively, are appealing for action. Residents are appealing for action. Will they get it before it's too late?

PUBLIC OPINION:
Post Office Not Adequate

Ninety percent of those answering are also of the opinion that a building constructed by the government should house the Post Office while ten percent favored a private building rented for an office.

There were a wide variety of opinions on the question of where a post office should be located. The majority felt the office should be south of the LIRR tracks and 30 percent favored location on a street "off Broadway." Supplemental comment on location included "that would depend upon the site available," "with adequate parking space" and "condemn or buy the Rushmore property on East Barclay St., which is now empty."

By a coincidence, this survey was made before the public opening of bids on March 27 when Griffin and Rushmore offered to sell their property on East Barclay St. for $25,000 and William Duffy offered property on Duffy Ave., opposite Underhill Ave. for $15,000. The comment about purchase of Griffin and Rushmore thus came to the Herald several days in advance of the announcement that the site was being offered for sale to the government.

The results of this survey, the first in a regular new feature in the Herald, will be made available to the post office authorities.

Next survey: Levittown expansion and Hicksville. Watch for it.

Sound Off . . . News and Views of VFW Post 3211

I would like to have you fellows of the Post acquaint yourselves with the names of William Godfrey, William Morris and Owen Buckholz, because they are all prospective members of 3211. They are so interested in the works and doings of our organization that they took the trouble to call up our membership chairman on the telephone and state their intentions. I'm sure that by now some member of the membership committee has visited with you, if not, someone will be there before long. I sincerely hope we will all have the pleasure of greeting you personally at the next meeting of the Post, which will be on Monday evening, April 10, in the Masonic Temple on West Nicolai Street, about 8:15 p. m. You are just the type of new fellows we are seeking—ones with initiative.

If any of you fellows want to see a real honest-to-goodness show be sure and see "Ye Daac of '49" which the local AMVETS are putting on in the Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, April 29th. I personally saw the show over in Bethpage recently and can vouch for it, so if you want to enjoy two and one half hours of fun and laughter, don't miss it. The doctors will tell you that the best cure of the majority of sick cases today is a good hearty laugh—so bring your ills to this show and when you leave you'll feel like a new person. Furthermore, the receipts are going to a very worthy cause; helping this newest veterans organization in town to really get started.

I'm sorry I didn't get around to telling you folks how to become a Jude expert before this, but here is all you do. Drop a card or letter to the Supt. of Documents, Govt. Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., and ask for the booklet catalog number 133-21-150. That will start you on your way, and to those of you who comply—good throwing.

At this time I would like to clear up the complaint made against me by Commander Bouse of the American Legion. Here's the story: When this project dawned upon me, I contacted a member of our Post and asked him if he would be good enough to contact you and Commander Ulmer of the AMVETS, to inquire as to whether or not you fellows would be willing to string along with the idea. When I inquired as to the results of my comrade's contacts, I must have misunderstood his reply, because last Thursday evening he informed me that he never spoke to you personally, but rather to someone else. Naturally, when he first informed me of a favorable reply, I took it for granted he spoke to you. That's the story and I'm man enough to admit here publicly that it was all a mistake. I hope that you fellows will go along with 3211 and the AMVETS on this community project, because a lot of publicity is going to be given this project, since, insofar as Hicksville is concerned, that famous old clock on east Marie Street is a precious landmark. Can we count on you and your men, Commander Bouse?

Next week my column will be devoted exclusively to the Ladies of our Auxiliary. Watch for it.

I wish you all a very Happy and Blessed Easter.
