CHANGE TO UNION FREE:

Harbes, Schwarz Off Plainview School Board

PLAINVIEW—This community replaced its Common School District with a Union Free School District set-up, Friday night, as only 73 persons cast their ballots, and then immediately elected a five-member board of education. There were 70 votes in favor of the change and three opposed.

Elected to the school board the same evening were Gerard Litchy and Joseph Stapleton for three-year terms, Joseph Arena and Mrs. Catherine Crab for two-year terms and John Hartmann for one-year term. Hartmann was a member of the previous three-man board under the common school district set-up.

Charles Voorhies was continued as district clerk at least until the new fiscal year begins on July 1 and Peter Taormina was expected to continue as district treasurer. John Harbes and William Schwarz former board members, were nominated for election to the new board but failed to receive sufficient majorities. Other candidates named during the evening included Fred Baum and James Nottingham for one-year terms.

The meeting was called to order by Schwarz and Anthony Ocker Jr was named chairman of the session. Appointed as tellers were Frank Keller, Darrell Humphrey and Nottingham.

Potato Growers Fight US Plan

HICKSVILLE — Determined potato farmers in Nassau and Suffolk, banded together as the Committee in Opposition, today launched a determined last minute effort to defeat a proposed Federal Marketing Agreement and Order for Long Island.

More than 1,000 Nassau and Suffolk growers are expected to vote between June 5 and 9, by mail ballot on the question. The Opposition Committee lost its request that the ballot be secret. The referendum as set up in Washington calls for signatures of growers on the ballots.

The Committee also lost a plea for the use of voting machines and local polling places. The ballots (continued on page 4)

Predicts Levitt Will Take Over Hicksville in 3 Yrs

HICKSVILLE—Three years hence this community will lose its identity, Lawrence A. Roman predicted at the Civic Assoc. meeting Thursday night. The Civic Assoc. president announced a community mass meeting on the subject of incorporated government for Thursday night, June 8, at the Firehouse auditorium.

"We can only save the identity of Hicksville through incorporation," Roman asserted. All residents interested are being urged to attend the meeting on June 8, which starts at 8:30 p. m. It is hoped to launch a full scale campaign for incorporated local government from this meeting.

He cited the recent letter from William Levitt of Levitt & Sons as a compelling reason for immediate action on incorporation.

Complaints on Gas Bills

Widespread complaints about "abnormally high" gas and electric bills from residents of Hicksville Gables section were presented at the same meeting, last Thursday. They cited bills of $40, $50, $51 and $58 for two months service. Normal bills here are generally less than $20 for two months.

One woman stated she sends out her laundry, but no ironer, uses only gas for cooking and hot water, but received a two-month gas statement of $25.58. Her neighbors, many of whom attended the meeting, cited like experiences.

A mass protest and request for investigation is being made to the Lighting Co. in behalf of seven homeowners in the area by the Civic Assoc.

Students Debate On Incorporation

HICKSVILLE — A panel discussion on Incorporation for this community was one of the features of the Open House program of the high school, Friday night. Members of Carl Wollon and Patrick Naso Social Studies Classes participated in the debate which drew an interested audience.

The urgent need for action on incorporation "before Levittown gobbles up Hicksville" was stressed by one of the advocates. The panel was presented in a classroom.

Building 11 New Stores on Broadway

HICKSVILLE—A row of 11 stores is today well under construction on Broadway at the corner of W. Carl St., it was learned yesterday by the Mid-Island Herald. The structure, which will measure 149 feet by 75 feet, is being constructed by Mack Kanner and Son of Merrick, who is also listed on the town building permit as owner of the property. The estimated value of construction, according to the permit, is $60,000. The property owner admitted yesterday that there have been several applicants for space in the stores, but declined to name any specific businesses at this time.

The project is expected to stimulate business activity on the south end of Broadway, forming an almost continuous row of store fronts from Old Country Rd. north to the corner of James St., on North Broadway, where the new post office is rapidly taking shape.

EVERYBODY AGREES: Panel Sees Need for School Bus But Opinions Vary on Degree of Service

HICKSVILLE — School transportation — to some degree — is apparently necessary in the district today but there is a widespread difference of opinion as to degree such service should be provided, it was found at the panel discussion on this question at the Civic meeting, Thursday night. More than 200 persons attended the general meeting to fill the firehouse auditorium.

Presentation of four viewpoints on the question was followed by a general question period in which members of the audience participated. Fred J. Noeth was moderator of the panel discussion. Speakers were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Uihlein, James Condon, Chairman of the Citizens School Bus Committee; Lawrence C. McCaffrey and Lawrence O. Eisenbauer. The latter two, while members of the School Board, spoke as individuals.

Mrs. Uihlein felt that the funds for transportation might better be invested in new school construction. She admitted the need for transporting "blind and crippled children" but claimed that under the present arrangement many youngsters now are forced to wait out in the rain for the bus to arrive, that parents do not watch them at the bus station, and that many children carried in buses walk home for lunch.

Condon asked "would you jeopardize the life of a child because of a plea for false economy? Are you interested in safeguarding the lives of school children in our community? All of us abhor and despise a murderer, and in the same category, we find ourselves up in arms whenever sex degenerates maul our children, yet we have no qualms of conscience when we expose our children — yours and mine — the dangers of the highways, in requiring them to walk to school. Hicksville is growing up. It has a long way to go before we have sidewalks and traffic lights at intersections to provide safety for our children in walking to and from school."

HICKSVILLE PARK: Police Car, An Eyeful and Wedding

Hello Again:
Just to keep the records straight, that Police Car in front of E. Dieterich's home at 45 McAlester Ave. Sunday, wasn't there to arrest him. Actually, he had trouble with his Gas Tank. He was unable to obtain service from the Conservative Gas Corporation (evidently you are not suppose to have emergencies on Sundays) so he contacted the Nassau County Police who came and handled the situation.

You men who were unable to attend the Costume Dance, sponsored by the Civic Association, really missed an eyeful. Ask F. Noeth or Bud Werner if this isn't true. Everyone really had a wonderful time and I hope that next year more people will come.

If we get much more rain the people at the south end of McAlester Ave. are going to have to obtain a row boat. It's a shame something can't be done to eliminate the floods they get there every time we have a heavy shower.

Miss Ida Heim of 49 McAlester Ave. will become the bride of Alfred Hansen on Saturday, June 10, at five o'clock at St. Ignatius Catholic Church. Reception following at American Legion Hall on East Nicholas St. The couple will reside with the bride's parents at the above address. Congratulations and best wishes to both of you.

Mrs. George Chapman of 39 McAlester Ave. attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Timothy Wright Hoxie of Flushing, who is a member of the Social Register there. Among the guests were: R. D. Moffett, R. Rocker, A. Steffins, L. Markey, A. Wissner, J. Flahume and L. Behrens.

Little Richard Bonhard of 37 McAlester Ave. has the measles. Do hope you are up and around again soon Richie.

I guess that's all the news for now. See you again next Wednesday.

Bye
DORIS WERNER

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Barbara Sterner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sterner of 15 North Dr., Hicksville, celebrated her 6th birthday with a party at her home, Sunday. Games were played. A large white birthday cake trimmed with yellow and rose flowers was the centerpiece on the gaily decorated refreshment table. Guests were Judy Schroder, Russ Brown, Christine Gorney, Chuck Vimney and Myria Giannenti, Steve Amrendale, Patty Coane, Philip Seegar, Robert Sterner. Adult guests were Mr. and Mrs. Steiner, grandparents; Mrs. Gorney, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Coane, Mrs. Seegar and Mr. and Mrs. J. Schroder.

Dear Jean . . .

Sealed bids for repairs and rebuilding of the front entrance to Woodbury School are being received until June 6. D. M. DOSEN-BERRY of Huntington is the architect. . . If you were not contacted in the Federal Census, District Supervisor FREDERICK D. WEBBER asks that you write him at the U. S. Naval Storehouse in Bethpage. Give your address as of Apr. 1 and the name of each person living in the household, together with relationships, sex, color or race, and age on last birthday. . .

ERNEST FRANCKE recently became a member of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. He spoke at a recent meeting of the Twinlawn Civic Assoc. on the subject of property assessments. The Twinlawn group, I hear, is planning a block dance this summer. . . Another block party is in the making in the Hicksville Park section. . . I understand Hicksville Gables has acquired about 4 1/2 acres of JOE BRAUN'S former potato land between Woodbury Rd. and Sunset Ave. for new homes. . . PATSY de PRISCO is now operating the new Jericho Beer Distribution station on the Tpke. . . Just when we got the idea that Hicksville Airport was being selling meat and hardware than flying planes, came a story about a missing airplane. GEORGE SPOELER reported one of the planes aboard, but it was found a few days later in the custody of one of the two owners of the monoplane. . . ORAIG MacINTOSH of Hicksville was elected recording secretary of the Elementary School Council, Junior Red Cross, at a meeting in Garden City. He's the grandson of Councilman FRANK CHLUMBSKY. . . Boy Scout Troop 91 of Hicksville held a successful card party at the Parochial Hall, Friday night. . . This is worth thinking about: If I shop out of our town. . . and you shop out of our town. . . what will happen to our town?

Sale of the 62-acre former FROELICH farm at South-Oyster Bay and Woodbury Rds., Hicksville, to a syndicate headed by HARRY LEIBOWITZ, Jamaica builder, has been disclosed. The syndicate proposes a 1000 unit project and now holds a total of 212 acres in the area. . . The Lions Club had its first fishing party last Wednesday. Those who went out to Peconic included BOB BOTTO, RAY BONAZZI, MYRON SAUSNER, ROLAND HEBBERER, BILL STAHLEY, JOHN PETRONE, GOVVE OPENLOOH, FRED BIRK, GORDON ULMER and CLEFF FREITAG. They claimed capture of 200 fish, not counting gosh knows how many sea robins, according to "Snagger" PETRONE. . . LARRY ROMAN had his car stolen in Babylon, Monday; got it back Tuesday near same town with 100 miles added and no gas. . . Residents of FARM LANE off South Broadway, Hicksville, complained at the Civic meeting last week that their mail is delayed two and three days. There is a Farm Lane in the Levitt section and most of their mail goes south first, then comes back to Hicksville marked "not no. 50." A protest to Postmaster MOLLITOB is planned. Elimination of Farm Lane as a local street name would solve the problem, but the Hicksville folks are reluctant to give up theirs. . . All business men are being urged to attend the meeting tonight (Wednesday) in the Legion Hall, to discuss a sale in August. . . Bethpage is talking about a merchants' group. . . Mr. and Mrs. ERNEST FRANCKE went to Germantown, Pa., Saturday, to visit their daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. PETER ELLINGTON. Ernie got his first view of his five-week-old granddaughter, JUDITH. . . Remind us sometime to recite the story of how Mannoletto Hills was changed to Plainview as a community name. . . Election of Hicksville Civic officers went off as scheduled, Thursday, but there was a close vote for Treasurer. Incumbent GEORGE BLACKLEY won out by one vote over WALTER WERNER, 25-24. . .

Eisenhower pleaded for cooperation between newer residents and older residents in "giving and taking." He felt that the community would not oppose a reasonable proposition but declared himself not in favor of riding children from a half mile distance. He cited records to show that 706 children are transported at present from a half-mile and more. There are only 495 children at a distance of three quarters of a mile and only 293 from a mile distance or more. In the kindergarten to third grade age group, only 187 live a mile away and 492 in this age group at a half mile.

He reported on distances from new developments to schools, clocked by his auto, and gave the sections in mileage which lack sidewalks. He admitted a real hazard faces children from the Ronald Homes which is a 1.2 mile from East St. School and has a quarter mile without sidewalks.

McCaffrey quoted accident statistics to show that 27 per cent of all pedestrian accidents last year involved children and the safety of children carried in school buses. He reported that Merrick School District transports children from kindergarten through sixth grade for a half mile distance. Valley Stream carried K to 6 a half mile and Wantagh carries all children more than .7 mile from school and some from only .3 mile, K to 8.

"We need bus service in Hicksville and we will need it even more in the next two or three years. Hicksville is building up faster than we can build schools," McCaffrey said. He felt that the cost of service could be reduced in several ways, among others by having buses make three trips instead of two.
McCaffrey urged that serious consideration be given to the type of service desired by the community and said the School Board hopes to work out a system by which all voters on June 21 will be able to express opinions and indicate the extent of service desired. Qualified voters of the district will cast their ballots at the high school on Wednesday night, June 21, between 8 p. m. and midnight on the question of appropriating $20,000 for bus service starting in September. Registration of voters will take place this Saturday, June 3, at Nicholai St. School between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m.

acher, Godfather. The baby was named after Sister Jean Therese OP of St. Catherine's Convent in Whitestone.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krumenacker and children, George, Eleanor, Marge and Frank Charles of West Hempstead; Mr. and Mrs. R. Varca and Miss Madeline McCormack of Queens Village.

After the church ceremonies, the guests went to the Varca home for dinner. A white cake with a white dove on top of it was the centerpiece of the dinner table.

Children Exceed Parochial Space

HICKSVILLE — The number of children enrolling for the fall term at St. Ignatius Parochial School last week on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were far in excess of the facilities of the school.

Mother Adelaide, principal, asks parents of those children who were not accepted to please be patient and try to understand that the school has room for just so many and that the children who will be admitted are within the age limit for starting school in the fall. If there are any vacancies in September, parents will be notified, the principal added.

will be mailed to Riverhead, then taken to Washington and counted. Results will no. be made known for two weeks.

An urgent plea to growers to be sure and vote, regardless of their views on the question, is being circulated this week through newspaper advertising and direct mail by the Committee which feels that a heavy vote will mean the defeat of the plan to give the broad powers to the Secretary of Agriculture to control potato acreage, marketing and socialize the industry.

Music Pupils to Enter Solo Festival

GARDEN CITY — Hicksville public schools again announce that they are to be represented in the Long Island Division of the All-State Solo competitions Festival sponsored by the N. Y. State School Music Association, to be held this year at Adelphi College on Friday and Saturday, June 2 and 3. These affairs are open to the public without charge.

Entries are being made this year by all Hicksville Public Schools, and will include students from the third thru the twelfth grades, and represent piano, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, flute, saxophone and vocal entries.

These festivals, which are open to all Long Island schools are intended to encourage students in proficiency in their chosen instruments as well as to give them experience in public appearance and the benefit of competent adjudication and criticism. By maintaining high standards of performance and musicianship among individual players, the quality of organizations manned by these young musicians is also improved. Since these festivals are held yearly on Long Island, the Hicksville Music Department urges parents and teachers to plan early for entering talented students.

Wins Drum Scholarship

The highest possible rating is "one," the next "two," and so on. Students or organizations may enter according to their advancement in any one of six grades of difficulty, and soloists obtaining "one" ratings in grade 6 are eligible for college scholarships, in music, such as the one earned in drums last year by Julius Schulz of Hicksville High School. A "one" or "two" rating, in any grade of difficulty makes a student eligible for a medal.

Hicksville has had a very enviable record in the proportion of its students who had received one or two ratings. Miss Harriet Spink and Norman Seip announce a considerably increased number of entries this year indicating a growth in interest and performance ability.

As usual, a practice performance by students taking part will be held in the High School auditorium the week of the festival. This is for practice in playing or singing in public and is open to families and friends. Piano entries will perform on Wednesday, May 31, beginning at 3:15. Vocalists and other instruments will be heard Thursday, June 1 at the same hour.

Students taking part this year are as follows:

High School: Emmanuel Carretas, trombone; Marie Haynes, mezzo-soprano; Joan Krier, mezzo soprano; Richard Maggi, tenor;

George Marks, trumpet; Harold Rotstein, piano; Amida Silva, soprano; Claudette Slavek, saxophone; William Waspe, trumpet.

Junior High School: Richard Adams, clarinet; Thomas Adams, clarinet; Marion Arthofer, piano; Ruth Davenport, piano; Carolyn Drollinger, piano; Richard Evaschuk, tuba; Roy Melers, trumpet; Sandra Olsen, piano; Metta Simonsen, piano; Nina Simonsen, piano; Joan Wiley, piano; Carol Nygren, piano.

Nicholai St. School: Anna Marie Russo, piano; Mario Russo, flute; Evelyn Schulz, piano; Barbara Steck, piano; Pierre Swick, piano; Juliet Tuckner, piano; Jessica Wetterauer, piano.

Stained Glass Church Window Honors Ministers of Trinity Thru 100 Years

HICKSVILLE — The "Minister's Window," a stained glass window in memory and in honor of the pastors who served during the 100 years of Trinity Lutheran church's existence, was dedicated last Sunday at the church at the 11 o'clock service.

The window was designed and executed by Robert M. Metcalf and Associates in Yellow Springs, Ohio. Metcalf also designed three other windows which were dedicated at the same service.

The Minister's Window theme is taken from the passage, Isaiah 61, 6: "Men shall call you the Ministers of Our God." At the central lancet, from top to bottom, one notices the shield with the dove, symbolizing God the Holy Spirit. Immediately beneath is the Arisen Christ, the Greatest Minister.

The lancet to the right, reading from the top, one notices the Shield with the Book and the Sword, symbolizing the great St. Paul. Beneath is St. Paul preaching, The Palm Tree and Phoenix over the head of St. Paul are symbols of the resurrection. The lancet to the left of the center, reading from the top, one may see the Shield with the Church, the symbol of St. Peter. Beneath is St. Peter preaching at Pentecost with St. John and St. Andrew. In the tracery work at the top of the window, right of center, can be seen the figure of St. Augustine, from whom Luther learned the secret of salvation by grace thru faith.

Next to St. Augustine is Dr. Martin Luther. Flanking these two figures are two adoring angels, one holding the seven branch candlestick, the symbol of the church, the other the shield with a cross, likewise a symbol of the church.

Three Other Windows
 The window to the left of the chancel is the second "Miracle Window," "The Miraculous Draft of Fishes." This window was given in loving memory of George F. Bauer and his wife, Charlotte S., nee Quaritus, by their daughter, Florence E. Eisemann.

The window to the left of the chancel is "The Good Samaritan" with the theme "Go and do thou likewise." This was given in loving recognition of those who faithfully served in the Sunday School department since its inception. The children and teaching staff of the Sunday School made this gift possible.

The window to the right of the altar and nearest to it was given in loving memory of August Kielmann by his family. This window is based on the parable of the lost sheep.

Circus Is Coming

Most Seats Reserved

WESTBURY—The famous Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, complete with 42 elephants, 185 horses and 275 wild animals is going to set up right outside Hicksville on Old Country Rd. for a two-day benefit June 9 and 10. The 40-acre tract is just over the Wantagh Parkway bridge on the north side of the highway.

The sponsoring American Legion Posts in the County explained today that residents may see the famous show, just as it is presented in Madison Square Garden, for only a dollar—but it can cost six dollars to get in. On a six-dollar reserved seat ticket, $4.80 is for the Legion's Welfare Fund, 20 cents is Federal tax and the remaining dollar goes to the circus. Tickets are sealed at three, four, five and six dollars each and are available at the Hicksville Legion Hall, 24 E. Nicholas St., and from Legion Posts in Bethpage and Levittown as well.

Legion Circus Hdq. is at 3175 Northern Blvd., Manhasset, phone Manhasset 7-1229 or 7-1230.

The circus will be delivered to this section in 90 railroad cars.

The Jericho VFW Post joined with Hicksville and Greenvale veterans in a visit to Northport Veterans' Hospital on May 17. Dancing was enjoyed by the group. Claret, cigarettes, candy, ice cream and cup cakes were distributed.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems
By JOSEPH E. DOCKOW

QUESTION: Recently we suffered a fire loss which was paid by our insurance company. Now a friend tells me that my insurance policy expired with the settlement and I must take out a new policy. Is this true?

ANSWER: Not entirely unless the insurance company paid you the full amount of the policy. When an insurance company pays for a fire loss, it deducts the amount paid you from the amount of the policy. Thus, if you had a ten thousand dollar policy and the company paid you five thousand dollars, you would still have five thousand dollars in insurance. However, you should see your insurance agent about having your policy changed to give you adequate protection again.

High Percentage Of Pupil Foot Ills

HICKSVILLE — Over 75 per cent of local school children have one or more foot ailments were discovered in a foot survey recently by Dr. P. L. Rubinstein, podiatrist, of 87 B'way. He found the results "startlingly high" and made the disclosure in connection with the national observance of Foot Health Week.

"These foot illis were discovered in time and serious results in later life were avoided," Dr. Rubinstein said. "Most foot defects originate in childhood. Poor shoe fitting, improper hygiene, careless cutting of toenails, serious unobserved mechanical and postural faults can result in permanent foot trouble later in life. All could have been avoided through proper professional care and advice."

Surveys by the National Association of Chiropractors have shown that seven out of every ten persons require professional foot care. This year chiropracist-podiatrists are placing special emphasis on the prevention of foot ailments among school children and industrial employees.

State Convention For Chiropractors

SYRACUSE — Chiropractor George Loucks of 87 B'way, Hicksville, expects to attend the 39th annual convention of the New York State Chiropractic Society, Inc., here, June 17 and 18. About 500 chiropractors are expected.

Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley will be featured speaker at a giant public rally scheduled for Saturday night June 17, at the grand ballroom of the Hotel Syracuse.

The convention will discuss chiropractic legislation to be introduced into the next session of the State Legislature at Albany. One bill planned calls for a system of statewide licensure of chiropractors thru the Dept. of Education, since New York is one of the few remaining states without such legislation at present.

LISTEN TO THE DOCTOR: Complications and Sequelae In Common Infectious Disease

By JOSEPH A. LOPENER, M.D., HICKSVILLE

In the article, "Dangers of Spring," in the Mid-Island Herald of April 12 it was mentioned that certain common infectious diseases are to be expected on the increase in May and June, in the first place measles. This prediction proved true, as we have quite an increase in the incidence of measles in our neighborhood.

In our observation of all the common infectious diseases, as whooping cough, chickenpox, measles, mumps, diphtheria, scarlet fever, mothers consider measles not only as the mildest, least dangerous disease, but look at it with an "everybody has to get it anyway, let's better get it over as soon as possible" attitude. Fortunately this opinion is at least in part correct, but only in part. For measles in very young children from about 6 months to 3 years is a serious disease, as there are not infrequently complications and sequelae that are especially dangerous at this young age. The season also plays some role in the severity of the disease. Measles are not only more frequent but more severe in the Winter and Spring months.

The most dreaded complication in children up to 3 years is bronchopneumonia. Next to it in frequency are otitis and membranous laryngitis. In measles of infants, gastric disorders and diarrheas must be taken just as seriously a pneumonia. Other complication may be a swelling of lymph glands (adenitis), inflammation of the lining membranes of the mouth (stomatitis), sometimes hemorrhages, as often quite severe nose bleeding. These complications may occur in cases that do not seem severe in the beginning. The ultimate result of an attack of measles may not be evident for some time.

Cases in which the temperature is high and does not fall with the appearance of the rash, or persists when the rash fades, should be watched with greatest concern. A persistent temperature increase even of low grade, persistent dry cough, slow recovery, finds most frequently its explanation in the development of pulmonary (lung) tuberculosis or TB of the lung glands, or a flare-up of it. Every such child should, after a certain time after the measles are over, be tested with a tuberculin test and if positive, an X-ray examination should be done.

Complications and sequelae in whooping cough (Pertussis) to be watched for are pneumonia, hemorrhages in the mucous membrane linings of the eyelids, bleeding from nose and ears, convulsions, flare-up of tuberculosis, enlargement of the lungs (emphysem); but most dreaded are difficulties in nutrition, diarrheas and dehydration.

As to diphtheria, sequelae to be watched for even in mild cases are inflammation of peripheral nerves (polyneuritis) and damage done to the heart muscle by the toxins of the diphtheria bacillus in consequence of which heart trouble and failure may appear often some time after the disease is over.

In scarlet fever some of the most frequent complications and after diseases are quite independent from the severity of the disease itself and may even be more serious, as swelling of glands and abscesses, middle ear inflammation, deafness, and especially inflammation of the kidneys.

That's why children, after the forementioned diseases common and at this time of the year more frequent infectious diseases, should be kept under strictest observation of their doctor for several months.

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

Hicksville High concluded its most successful track season in a decade, last week, when the Comets edged out Manhasset 55 1/2-47 1/2.

Lou Millevolte's youngsters won six first places in the tightly contested meet.

Williams and Scott finished one-two in the 100-yard dash, while Schwartz was third in the event that was timed in :10.8.

Depth in most of the events was responsible for the Hicksville win and it has been a long time since the Orange and Black has placed that many finishers in the 100-yard dash.

Evidence of the upsurge in the running events, which has been the Comets weakest spot in recent years, was also reflected in the 350-yard dash.

Harry O'Mack and Chisolm Raeburn so outdistanced Manhasset chasers in that event that they rambled to a dead heat in the rather slow time of 2:16.

The Town Hallers won the Relay and the 120-yard Low Hurdles, but the Comet total picked up when Dick Maggi won the Discus Throw with a 119 feet 6 inch glide.

Scott won the 220-yard dash in :10.8 with Charlie De-Serre finishing third. Tommy Fellenz ran to victory in the 440-yard dash in :56.8 with Soldwedel right behind him in second place.

Other Hicksville scorers were Elias Stetz with a third in the shot put, Charlie Elder with a second in the high jump and the pole vault.

Ted Tappett of Manhasset, whose real name is Phil Walters, will compete in the LeMans Racing Classic of France on June 24. Ted is the brother of Fred Walters, owner of Walters Liquor Store, W. Marie St., Hicksville. Ted has broken all Long Island stock car records in recent years and for the racing classic will drive a racing car now being built by Tappett Motors which will combine a Cadillac engine with a specially built racing body.

The LeMans racing classis is a 24-hour racing event over an eight and a-half mile course. The top prize money goes to the car covering the most mileage within the time limitation.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON, D. C.—About one out of every five eligible veterans will fail to receive compensation or pension checks due June 1 . . . unless Congress acts promptly on pending deficiency appropriation requests for VA. The administration funds were slashed by a straight 10 per cent. On top of this the VA claims to have enough money on hand to pay only about 80 per cent of compensation benefits due to go into mail on June 1. The money will probably come to VA, but late enough to impose serious hardship on veterans.

INTERNATIONAL RALLY . . . American Legion National Committee turned thumbs down on plans to hold international conference of vet organization representatives in Paris in November . . . NEO made this move because they claim the American Veterans Committee and other unspecified groups are pressuring for conference in "guise of seeking peace" . . . Assistant Sec. of State Ed W. Barrett gave State Department endorsement by sending letters to American Legion, VFW, Amvets, DAV, AVC, Blinded Vets Assn, Catholic War Vets, Jewish War Vets and the Military Order of the World War . . . to date the proposed rally has been endorsed only by AVC and Blinded Vets . . . with Amer. Legion leading the parade against participation.

NOW FOR SOME NEWS AND VIEWS from Charles Wagner Post 421 . . . PAUL HUOKSTEIN is still in Meadowbrook Hospital with a heavy plaster cast around his head and shoulders . . . another month before he can sit up . . . CARMEN DEMARZO, up and around, and we hope to see him at the next meeting . . . AL VITALE back after a two weeks illness . . . County papers have been printing a few stories about the PRIDE family who stopped in Hicksville after making a tedious trip from Calif. . . . Publicity has been given to police, Hub Diner and various people who played a small part in helping the PRIDES . . . BUT, the real people behind the scene were Legionnaire BILL SCHMIDT and his wife, BLANCHE . . . Some future dates to remember: May 31—Working committee for clubhouse playroom . . . June 9 and 10—Big Circus, tickets available only in $5 and $6 reserved and $2 general admission . . . June 18—our first picnic, which I hear will feature a clam bake . . . AND of course our CARNIVAL, which hasn't definitely been settled yet, but I'm just reminding you to save your nickels and dimes for the event . . .

Empire Slaps Bottos After Hub Loss

HICKSVILLE—This community, which is noted for the high spirit of its softball campaigns, had another first class intra-village feud on its hands following Sunday's 5-1 victory of underrated Empire Diner over vaunted Botto Bros. on the high school grounds.

Botto's got but one unearned run off the offerings of veteran Jim Barone, as its heavy batting order was held to just five hits.

For Empire, it marked a successful bid for hometown recognition after it had lost 2-0 to Holy Name in the Hemstead Softball League which pulled it back into a three-way tie for round one honors in that loop.

Smith The Loser

Joe Smith took the loss for Botto's in the first of what promises to be an interesting series of games. He was tagged with five hits and three runs before he retired in favor of Bill Bordiuk in the eighth.

Manager Bill Gabarino started the winning Empire rally in the seventh. With the score tied at 1-1 he smashed a hard double off the glove of Billy Byrnes at firstbase and Herman Rigby followed with another blast past George Karman at third base.

Rigby scored when leftfielder Ed Coleman's throw to home got past catcher Ralph Ferrara.

Barone protected the lead after that and was aided by two more markers picked up at the expense of Bordiuk.

Fine Game At Hub

The contest at the Hub was one of the finest of the season, Barone gave up only two hits and two walks but the hits came in the very first inning and scored both the Holy Name runs.

Jim Boyer hurled an equally fine game for the winners allowing just two hits both of which were struck by Herman Rigby. Hicksville had a big chance to get to Boyer in the third inning when it had the bases loaded and none out. However, Boyer struck out Sid Rigby and picked Mel Voohtres off at third to clamp down on the maroon.

Comets Escape Cellar Position

HICKSVILLE—The Comets of Capt Javorski climbed out of the Eastern Division NEAL baseball cellar last week as they sandwiched a 14-3 loss to Roslyn with 9-2 and 11-1 victories over Westbury and Sea Cliff respectively.

The resulting standing gave the Comets a record of three wins and eight losses for league work.

John Pickerring won the decision over Westbury as he allowed five hits. Hicksville got the same number of safe blows off Bob Veegebach but three errors by Westbury were followed by a double by Elias Stetz in the fifth inning and that swayed the issue in the winner's favor.

Roslyn broke a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning with four runs and scored the same number in the sixth and seventh frames to wrap up the game.

SOFTBALL LEAGUE PLAY: Lions and Maples Lead in First Week

HICKSVILLE—Mastery of the art was not one of the outstanding items in the first week of the Hicksville Softball League, but both the Lions and Shady Maples played good enough ball to record two wins in the first round, while the Cement Mixers loom as a strong contender by virtue of a 4-3 win over Near You. . . . Stan Smith bested Merritt Metzger in a tight duel for the Mixers, who boast many a name from the Botto Bros. club in their lineup . . . the Lions' first win was over the Long Island Nationals by a 16-13 score in a nightmare of walks. Monty Cheslock banged out two home runs and Eddie Miller one. Ralph Cooks outlasted Lon Austin in the unimpressive hill struggle . . . With Jim Barone pitching for Bob Dwyer's Shady Maples, Empire Diner was easily beaten. Steve Ruggiero took the loss and was definitely wanting some good support in the field. Charlie Van Wickler cracked a fourmaster for the Maples, while Herman Rigby lost a fourbagger when he failed to touch second base after a long third inning clout . . . Ralph Cuccaro hit a home run and Charlie Domisi a double and a single, but Near You absorbed its second loss when Barone had it for the Maples again and scored a 6-1 win . . . Friday night the short-handed Lions started Frank Ruggiero on the rubber, but lifted him in favor of Bill Bordiuk after Jericho scored three runs in the first inning. The Lions rushed over four runs in their half of the first and easily went on to beat Gerald Davis after that.

PBC Holds First Evening Track Events

HICKSVILLE — After being plagued with cold and rain, these past few weeks, the PBC Track squad finally was able to get in an evening of practice at the high school field, for the coming Precinct track meet to be held the latter part of June.

The practice included instructions on proper starting for sprints, passing the stick for relays and pointers on broad jump. The next practice will include high jump and shot put.

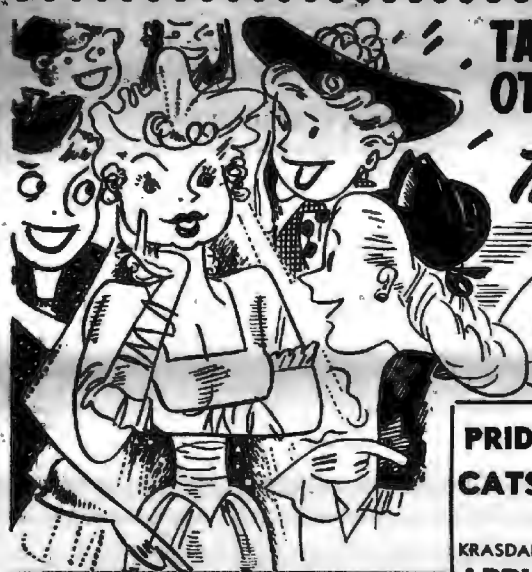

Relay teams are now being formed and a few more boys are needed. All those who signed up and any others who wish to join are urgently requested to attend the next practice session.

The following boys showed a keen interest and willingness to learn some of the fundamentals: Louis Aurriemma, Howard Noggin, Bill Reinhardt, Charles McQuinn, Richard Lambertson, Thomas Knipping, and William Sutton.

Any boy between the ages of 10 and 18, not weighing more than 127 pounds is welcome to join for the coming meet. If you are not a member of the PBC and would like to participate, meet at the High field at our next practice at 7 p. m. sharp on Wednesday, May 31, and every Wednesday thereafter. In case of rain, Thursday, June 1. At the last meeting of the Legion Auxiliary in Bethpage, Mrs. Aversley of Harrison Ave. was the demonstrator for a plastic party.
