WE HAVE OVER 2,500 POPULATION?

Hicksville, Ohio, With 2,629 People Is In Almanac But Not Our 'Hamlet'

Hicksville, New York, is not listed as a place in the United States with a population exceeding 2,500 persons, according to the 1954 edition of the "World Almanac and Book of Facts", now on sale.

The Almanac does list Hicksville, Ohio, which is an incorporated village, as having 2,629 inhabitants.

Hicksville, New York, does not appear although conservative estimates of local population based upon school census and other local surveys set the population at more than 30,000 persons. Neither Levittown, New York or Penna., are listed either.

There are only 20 places in New York

State, including the City of New York, listed in the Almanac as having more than 30,000 inhabitants. The Almanac also lists 16 places which are not incorporated including Oyster Bay 5,215 persons, Port Jefferson 3,296, Islip 5,254, Kings Park 10,960, Brentwood 2,803, Huntington 9,324, and Bay Shore 9,665 to list a few from Long Island.

The figures quoted are for 1950. Among incorporated villages on Long Island, the record shows Farmingdale 4,492, Floral Park 14,582, Rockville Centre 22,362, Westbury 7,112, Garden City 14,486, Valley Stream 26,854, and Glen Cove 17,144.

Mothers March of Dimes

Now that the March of Dimes is really underway, I hope the people of Hicksville will MARCH along with us and make 1954 our banner year. My hope and wish is that every man, woman, and child will give at least one dime before January 31.

We did a wonderful job for our Postmen on their day off, let us not ignore our Mothers, who, too, are going out on THEIR DAY OFF?

Hicksville March of Dimes
LEONA M. BERGIN, Chairman

Promise of 'Shake-Up' in CD Recalls Local Resignations

HICKSVILLE—Reports that the Civil Defense organization in Nassau County is in for a "complete and drastic" shake-up were received with interest by hundreds of CD volunteers, here, this week. However, since the report trickled out of the office of County Director Cyril C. Ryan, local residents concerned about the CD program in the community saw little hope for a real solution of local problems.

Little has been heard about Civil Defense in this community during 1953.

The program as actively carried on for Hicksville and Plainville for a 26-month period which came to an abrupt halt a little over a year ago in December 1952.

At that time Frank Sutter, volunteer community director, and his CD committee which included heads of fire service, evacuation and transportation, welfare service, supply, public works and rescue, besides his deputy director and the secretary of the committee, resigned in a group.

At that time Sutter commented: "Since CD was reactivated over two years ago, I have tried to organize our people in this unit into an efficient CD unit. This work has become more difficult as time goes on. Under the present conditions within the organization, I find it impossible to continue."

Sutter, who had been a leader in CD throughout World War II, with

Ex-Fire Chief Fred Fricke Was Fireman for 44 Years

HICKSVILLE — Religious services for the Ex-Fire Chief Fredrick D. Fricke, Sr., late of 75 Heitz Place, who died Tuesday, Jan. 5, were held yesterday (Thursday) at 8 P.M., at the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home with the Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, officiating. Members of the fire department in full uniform also conducted services last night.

His death reduces the ranks of living past fire chiefs to 21. In 1924 as a member of Company Two he served as fire chief. For 39 years and 7 months he was active as a volunteer fireman and for 4 years and 7 months he was on the honorary roll.

After the fire dept passed a resolution to create such a list, he was the first man named to it. He had also been a member of the Hook and Ladder Co., and of Co. Three which he joined on April 12, 1928. Besides his membership as an exempt fireman he belonged to the Carpenters Local Union 1772.

The funeral was at 11 A.M. this morning (Friday).

He is survived by his mother, Marie, who is 94 years of age; his widow, Lillian; five sons, Fredrick, Dietrich, Louis, Arnold and Irving; one daughter, Mrs. Marie Auer; a brother, Herman; three sisters, Mrs. Catherine Jud, Mrs. Elizabeth Borley and Mrs. Caroline Steele, and also by 13 grandchildren.

HENRY G. EISEMANN, president of the Bank of Hicksville, with the three winners of the Christmas Story Coloring Contest sponsored by the Herald in which cash prizes were awarded by the Bank. Left to right are Miss Irene Stoeffel, one of the contest judges; Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wharton of Lee Ave., Hicksville, 3rd award; Suzanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre

Recall Local CD Controversies

licenses were issued at various hours in various services, a complete control centre was set-up, and with the provision of waste paper salvage drives, a radio transmitter was purchased and installed in the control centre.

Members of the CD auxiliary police stayed with the organization until July of last year when Thomas Cullen, police head, resigned and many of his members followed. They organized the "Centre Civics" with the avowed purpose of getting Charles Eginton, local director, ousted. Eginton had been named in March to fill the position formerly held by Suttar.

In Sept., Eginton accepted the resignations of the police auxiliary members and nothing further about CD activity here has been recorded since.

New residents of Fifth Ave., Hicksville, are: at 96, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Greenstone and two sons, formerly of the Bronx; at 93, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gosselin and two sons, formerly of St. Albans, and at 180, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller, and two daughters, formerly of Upper New York.

Dear Jean:

Before some loyal Hicksville Legionnaires start a search on the Herald office, we must report that JOE BETHPAGE's idea was not a success about the post today. . . . Only 20,000 out of 250,000 Neassa's car owners have obtained their new 1954 auto tags to date. . . . Genna has some long lines awaiting for Feb. 1. Best suggestion is to send for the tag thru the mail. . . . A. SIDNEY ROTH, president of Rothrock in Hicksville, as chairman of the L. I. Home Builder's Institute committee on FEA-VI will report to the general membership on general problems when the Institute meets in Forest Hills next Monday night. . . . We hear there are now about five candidates for the position of second assistant chief of Hicksville Fire Dept. Election time is in April with EDWARD SCHLUTER, Jr., scheduled not to seek a third time and his first assistant, ARNOLD JEANSON, in line for advancement without opposition. The present second assistant, LARRY HUTTLE, will become first. There is generally a contest for second assistant, the first step "up the ladder". . . . Eight members of the Kiwanis were present at a day-before Christmas Hicksville Rotary meeting at the Milleridge Inn at Jericho, led by President JAY SCHWARTZ. . . . Hicksville Chamber Directors meet today for luncheon at the Milleridge.

Dr. JAMES A. ROGERS of Rockville-Centers was quoted in the Sunday News as requesting that Hempstead Town Board "do something" about the confusion resulting from the fact that there is a Jerusalem Ave., Jerusalem Rd., etc. The News erred, however, in stating that the Doctor has an office at 581 Jerusalem Ave., "Levittown". The address is in Hicksville. . . . And speaking of duplication, it is said to note that after all the good work by local Hicksville Civics in eliminating about 100 duplicated names, some of the newer streets are duplicating older names. . . . TED SUMMERS town attorney, is confined to his Syosset home due to illness, but he was in touch with the Town Board on Tuesday when the members met, via telephone. . . . Don't forget the Home Rule Committee holds its benefit dance tonight (Friday) at the Legion Hall on E. Nicholas St. You can get a ticket at the door. . . . THOMAS D. SHEEDY is the new proprietor of JOHN HAUGHEY's bar and grill at the corner of Broadway and W. Cherry St., Hicksville. JOHN'S place was well-known, for a time, as the Hawk Room. . . .

Fire Dept Ladies Installs Staff

Mrs. Harold Manaski, who has been elected a busy year as president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hicksville Fire Dept., surprised her members over to Mrs. Ernest DeLoach at the installation dinner and Christmas party which was held at the Corte's Restaurant, Bethpage.

Mrs. Manaski, who has been a member of the auxiliary for six years, received two letters from the group in appreciation for the fine job she did in planning the social events. She is also a member of the Woman's Club. Her husband is a member of Co. No. 1, and holds the office of captain. They live at 251 Mendham Drive with their two children, Harold, Jr., and Thomas.

Mrs. Sam Weiss installed the officers who also included: Josephine Fry as vice president; Peggy Hittle, recording secretary, Mrs. William Cisher, treasurer, and Mrs. Conrad Schlauch, financial secretary.

Mrs. George McCue who has an auxiliary, volunteered to hold the position for another year. Outstanding officers were: Doris Kelly, Mrs. Ernest Fry.

The women exchanged gifts with capable friends after the dinner. Many of the honorary members were present.

Thanks were extended to the chairman of arrangements, Beatrice Jensen, and Gene Cardella. The auxiliary is open to any widow, mother, wife, sister or daughter of a member of the fire department, either active or retired, after one year of probation. The auxiliary will meet tonight (Tuesday) in the firehouse, North St., at eight o'clock.

Adults Sign-Up For Spring Term

Hicksville—Registration for the Spring Adult Education program will take place next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Jan. 11 and 12, at the high school on Jerusalem Ave. between 7:00 and 9:00 P.M., according to Director Elery H. Bean.

He outlined additional features and changes in the spring program for the benefit of the Herald readers today:

Another new faculty member is Pierre Charbonnet, who will teach photography in place of Frank Mallett who conducted these classes formerly. Mallett is unable to continue teaching because of the pressure of his work, but he has recommended Charbonnet who is a graduate of the School of Modern Photography, German School of Photography and has completed a course in Motion Picture Photography at the City College of New York. In addition, he has worked with several of the better photography studios and was assistant to Philippe Haliman of Life magazine.

Adult Education is anxious to assist industry in training men and women to do a better job for employers as well as broadening their capabilities. With this in mind Blue Print Reading for Beginners has been a subject offered in the past and this term an advanced course in this subject is being given as well.

Also, a course called Fundamentals of Industrial Inspection is being offered, which will cover the use of basic measuring gauges, quality control, metallurgical tests and various tests needed in industry today. Horace Corigliano, a Metallurgical Engineer with a local electronic concern will teach this course. He is a Bachelor of Metallurgical Engineering and at present is working on his Master's Degree in this field. He is in charge of testing materials and processes for the Arma Corporation, Roosevelt Field.

"This term we are experimenting," Bean stated, "formerly our talented art teacher, Mrs. Louis Hoebel, has held evening classes. This term we decided to offer this course in the afternoon from 1:20 to 4 P.M. at her studio Wednesday afternoons. Mrs. Hoebel is including sketching and pastel painting in addition to Oil Painting. Our program is geared to meet the needs of the students and the community. If the art students feel they are better able to work during the day, the Director is anxious to accommodate them providing a sufficient number of students are registered."

Don't Know Us And Don't Care

By Fred J. Noeth

SECOND REFLECTION on the information published on the Herald's front page today regarding the fact that Hicksville does not rate a listing "as a place with over 2,500 population" will show that it is not just a subject for smiles—actually, it is darn serious.

Hicksville as an unincorporated hamlet, regardless of its "unofficial" population, receives scant attention on many levels. In the eyes of the Federal government, Hicksville, New York, "does not exist". No Federal or State census figures are available on Hicksville because, under the laws that govern such things, we have "no official boundaries". Our population is counted with the entire unincorporated area of the Township of Oyster Bay.

The same thing happens on the state level. It is one of the reasons, in our opinion, why so little has been done regarding our local railroad grade crossing elimination program. The five crossings in Hicksville listed for eventual action under a 1941 law are to be found designated in that law as located in "Oyster Bay".

Is it any wonder that it becomes difficult to convince the state authorities that "Hicksville" has problems of traffic and congestion requiring the elimination of crossings when they don't even keep a record of our population? Building permits statistics are likewise lumped with those for the rest of "Oyster Bay."

There are many other incidents which arise, day in and day out, when the unincorporated status of Hicksville can be seen as a serious detriment. Hicksville is by-passed more frequently than we realize because official information about it and its growth is not recorded. A new business or industry may give some thought to establishing here, but if they can trace through the numerous authorities involved—ie, the township for a building permit, the county for planning, the water district for water supply, etc.—they are understandably confused and find it simpler to go elsewhere.

There is no official local office of agency where a person, business or industry can go and get authoritative answers and data. New homeowners, for example, are among the first to note this fact. Problems of health go to one community and a matter of garbage collection to a person's private home. Simple questions on zoning almost require the services of a lawyer. Park and recreation inquiries might just as well be sent to Mars via the next Space Cadet program.

Someone has written that simplicity in government is essential if people are to protect their freedoms and obtain the fullest benefits. The present layer upon layer remote-control management of our community affairs is complicated and confusing beyond belief. It is little wonder that the people who compile the World Almanac don't even know we exist.

Town Proposes New Dog Law

OYSTER BAY — Fines for dog owners who permit their pets to run loose on public streets, un-leashed, are provided in a new ordinance the Town Board proposes to adopt. A public hearing on the ordinance is scheduled for Tuesday morning, Jan. 19, at the Town Hall, here, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Violators of the ordinance would be liable for a fine of $25 for each offense. Dogs at large would be seized by the dog warden. Within a five day period owners can redeem their pets when they produce a license for the animal and pay a $2 charge. Dogs not redeemed by owners may be bought by other persons interested upon payment of the license fee and the $2 charge, the ordinance proposes. The text of the ordinance will appear in next Tuesday's Herald.

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE" ... The New Year's Eve Party sponsored by Mal Gertzen, George Honecki and I in such a short time went very well. There was plenty of every thing except people. The crowd wasn't as large as we expected, but those who attended had a grand time. Mal, who always helps make an affair a long remembered one, brought along his best gal ... his wife Mary and friends. They entertained us with songs and a guitar. One of his charming guests was a former singer of radio and believe me that girl could really sit you back in your chair. Those attending were Bob Cuccaro, Mike Purish, Johnny Swieticki, Dick Gornhorn, Bill Ruzmens, Fred Adams, Bill Johndro and their respective parties. From the Ladies Auxiliary were Mary Gertzen, Ellen Swieticki, Helen Schneider and Marie Purish. We were sorry to hear that Fred and Rita Kastner could not attend due to their son being ill ... may be well at this writing. Aside to Commander Strembel ... the "Juke Box" went out with the old year. If the post is still interested in a piano ... I believe that Mike Purish knows a party who

East Merrick ... Hicksville ...

In a few short weeks ... will be on us, the attendance is almost certain as far as tickets are concerned. If the amount shown on the records can be counted as very definite ... there will be an overflowing crowd. Remember get there early for a good table. Post #44 has sold out on ducats. If you wish more, contact Commander Hal Cooley of the Col. McHale Post #9, Levittown. There will be a joint meeting between the post and auxiliary very shortly.

The photo of Santa Claus in my last week's column in the Herald was a very good idea on the part of the editor. A real fine worker and helper at the club last week was Kenneth Gertzen who was busy as a beaver giving your truly a great big hand cleaning up. All members who have not renewed as yet ... please hurry and do so this is going to be a big year for #44-HARRY ZPOK and Joe Pakulak was missed this year at the party ... hear tell that Harry has a better half in the city ... hhhmmmm.

Well AMVETS, seeing that this is a new beginning I must close and here is hoping my columns may get better with each coming week. Give me those "odds n' ends".

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD

Give Now to March of Dimes

By GENE MALJEAN
Hicksville, Mar-5515

The Woodbury Rd. Police on Polio needs $6,000 from Hicksville village this year. That's the quota. I wonder if we can stretch a little of that Gadd Will Toward Men over from Christmas to see if that quota can be attained.

If that figure seems large, think of the fact that Ray Sluder of Cliff Drive a polio victim, received $4,500 this year for medical aid. This fact may make the need even more lucid when that volunteer brings the donation container to your door. And please remember that the volunteer receives NO RE-NUMERATION. The captain in charge receives NOT A DIME. The chairman, Mrs. Thomas Bergin, of Park Ave., receives NOTHING. THE ENTIRE COLLECTION IS TURNED OVER FOR POLIO AID.

It has been noted that in some worthwhile nationally approved drives, many used the excuse that charity receives only a fraction of collection. This is not the case in this drive, or in the approved drives that we all recognize. The recent exposé have helped us to recognize frauds, but has done good charities some harm.

I might mention that the polio victim aforementioned, Ray Sluder, is taking part in the drive, although he is still under care for polio. There are many able bodied folks in Woodbury Gardens, but as yet, few have volunteered to help out, although we have collectors in other areas of Hicksville. Please phone my wife May, local captain or Mrs. Bergin (HI 4-2850) if you would like to help out in this cause. I hate to plead, but please, we ask you—help out as your help is needed.

We have a partial list of volunteers with more to be published next week. These are in the Vidoni and Hillview homes Peggy Service, East End Ave.; Julia Kent, Pollack Pl.; Sue Baird, East End Ave.; Mrs. Rose, East End Ave.; Alice Baldwin, Vidoni Homes. As we have said before—these folks aren't making anything on this—so please be courteous if they approach you, even if you aren't able to participate. They could be discouraged by a curt reply.

We have another one of those aggravating people around again. Neighbors have phoned us regarding a depraved wretch who is probably casing one of our homes, or several, possibly. He is parking his car in front of some homes for hours—why—we do not know.

There are several conclusions we could draw. He might be casing a house for meditated robbery, noting the habits of the dwellers. He may be waiting for a girl friend or he may be a nut. Recently, Mr. Mecklenburg, of Vincent Road has brought this to our attention.

What can you do? Not very much, but phone the police if you spot him. Or you may jot down his license number. Let's bear from you as this may be serious. Did I forget to mention that he may be a process server?

Predictions for 1954: I Predict:
1. That my New Year's resolution will not last very long.
2. That, in view of this—I might not make any, after all.
3. That Christmas will be celebrated on a Saturday next year due to the nature of the Gregorian Calendar.

- 4. That the happiness boys hereabouts will break the corner light 52 times this year—bleas their deliquescent hearts.
  - 5. That we will be threatened with lawsuits by some irate reader.
  - 6. That school taxes will go up.
  - 7. That, even though profits in business will be lowered, and buying power will increase—people will still complain about prices.
  - 8. That our road situation will

Sentinel

By Craig Walsh

Just A Year Ago

Levitt and Sons closed their Levittown Hall to the public just about a year ago. They had built it as a "gift" to the purchasers of the houses they built, and they didn't like the reluctance shown in accepting it as a public expense. The public showed its usual good sense by looking the gift horse in the mouth and Levitt didn't like it. So he took the bull by the horns and forced the issue.

Levitt Methods

Let it be said that when Levitt wanted something, he knew how to go about getting it. First he tried to get Levittown Hall on the public tax rolls using local residents as intermediaries. That failed. He then used the more direct method of publicly and personally establishing what he called the Levittown Steering Committee. He appointed most of its members. He also publicly admonished the editor of his Levittown Tribune to vigorously support his objectives. We don't presume to know what Levitt did behind the scenes. But we do know that his Steering Committee met with Supervisor Herman of Hempstead and agreed to a public referendum on the question of Levittown Hall and the two swimming pools. We know that each member of the Levitt Committee individually agreed to the questions to be asked. We don't really know (but we can guess) that Levitt told them they made a faux pas.

The next day the Town Boards of Oyster Bay and Hempstead announced the unanimous agreement of the Levitt Committee to the questions on the proposed referendum. At the same time the Committee said the proposal was unacceptable. The political bodies were "amazed and disgusted" with the about face, obviously Levitt-inspired. But the amazement and disgust were destined to be short lived.

The Referendum And The 'Rump'

The referendum went off as scheduled with the vote being decisively against the public operation of the Hall. We still remember the rump referendum put on by Levitt's proteges and how they tried to pass off that Yale professor as an impartial arbiter. After setting up a legal referendum at public expense, the Oyster Bay Town Board decided what it didn't count. They obviously felt that Levitt's one vote counted more than the public's vote. The rest of the story was just carrying through with the red tape and now we have the "Joint Hempstead and Oyster Bay Swimming Pool and Community Hall District", popularly known as the Pool Hall District.

Worst Fears Realized

A great many people objected to the Joint Pool Hall district because it would be one of those crazy quilt overlapping special districts for which our county is famous. Others didn't believe its public operation of such a facility. They rightly believed that it would add only expense and confusion to our community problems. Many also believed that the Hempstead Town Board would take over operation of the district completely and that local people would have nothing to say about it. How right they were! It was predicted that our Oyster Bay officials would be outvoted 6 to 5. Actuarly, it is 2 to 1. Two members of the joint district commission are from Hempstead and one from Oyster Bay. Those who were so anxious to have the joint district are now learning what it means.

Abbie Fay Sutter Becomes Bride at West Point

In a military ceremony in the West Point Cadet Chapel, Abbie Fay Sutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Sutter of 15 Henry Place, Hicksville, became the bride of Lieut. Stuart Glover McLennan, Jr., son of Col. and Mrs. McLennan, Br., USAF (ret.) of Wilton, N.Y., on Saturday, Jan. 2, at 10:30 in the afternoon.

The single ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Frank E. Falley, Protestant chaplain in residence. White flowers and tall white candles formed the background for the ceremony.

The bride's white Chantilly lace gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice with nylon illusion neckline, a full skirt which swept into a train, and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. Her chapel length veil was caught by a matching lace headband, trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. Tiny white rosebud streamers were attached to the white satin prayer book she carried, also marked by a spray of white orchids and white roses.

A full length gown of flame red taffeta was worn by the bride's sister, Mrs. William N. Kistner of 5 Field Ave., Hicksville, as matron of honor and only attendant of the bride. The gown was designed with a round neckline, a circular skirt and three-fourths length sleeves. She carried English ivy with red carnations, white, roses and white chrysanthemums. Her small matching taffeta hat had a half veil and was adorned with seed pearls.

Capt. William Copper of West Point was the best man while ushers included: Cadets John Borgatta, Kenneth Sipes, Louis Wagener and Alan Devereaux, all in full military dress for the ceremony. They formed an arch of swords for the bridal couple as they left the chapel.

Many Hicksville relatives and friends of the bride attended the ceremony and the reception which followed in the U.S. Hotel Thayer, West Point, where Lieut. and Mrs. McLennan cut their three tier wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom in military attire.

To travel on their honeymoon the bride wore a gray wool suit styled with a high neckline and Peter Pan collar. accessories in Navy blue, and her orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

Celebration Trip to New York

By DOROTHY BROWN
Hicksville 4-6128

How does the big city look through the eyes of a ten year old boy? We hear that Leonard Hanson of 54 Fordham Rd. celebrated his 10th birthday with a party including many friends and family on Dec. 27. One of the many gifts received was a trip to Radio City Music Hall and a sightseeing tour of New York City with his Grandmother on Dec. 28.

Another big birthday party was held on Thursday, Dec. 31, at 44 Fordham Rd. by the two Rabbitt brothers who though not twins seem to have the same birthday. Robert was 7 and John was 5 years old. They had many of their friends in to help celebrate.

January, the birth month of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, a polio victim in his youth, was chosen by him as the month for the March of Dimes Drive to help other polio victims. Mrs. Thomas Bergin is Captain of the Hicksville Area Drive and plans to start the house canvass after Jan. 15. Can this development depend on you to make our group 100 per cent? Any donation small or large is acceptable. If there is any one who can spare a few hours one evening or afternoon we would appreciate their contacting yours truly of 8 Greenbriar Lane at HI 4-0128 or call Mrs. Bergin at HI 4-3850. Lots of volunteers would make the collection easier for all.

Our congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. James Durgin of 18 Ferndale Drive on the birth of their daughter on Christmas. Denise Patricia weighing 7 pounds 4 ounces and 19 inches long was born in a Bronx hospital near the home of her grandparents.

Reports have been received that Thomas J. Murphy of 77 Woodvine Drive had to return to the hospital with his fractured jaw. We trust the complications are not too serious and he will soon be home again to stay.

Cub Mothers Given Orchids

BETHPAGE—Orchid corsages were presented to all den mothers and committee women at the annual Christmas party held for the local Cub Scouts. Santa attended and saw that all received a gift from the grab bag.

The following awards were made: Stephen Germano, lion badge, gold arrow, and silver arrow; Walter Uocellini, silver arrow; Ernie DeWitt, bear badge, gold and silver arrows; Frank Dell Orto, silver arrow; Arthur Kessler, lion badge, gold and silver arrows, John Michaelson, bear badge; Richard Miller, silver arrow.

The following were graduated from Cubbing into Boy Scouting: Raymond Hauck, John Hajdusek, Arthur Kessler, George Lee, Fraser Shaw, and David Tweedie.

Songs were sung during the evening and refreshments served.

Eugene Bianco of New South Rd., Hicksville, was host New Year's Eve to a group of his High School classmates and other friends at a gay party held in the recreation room of the Bianco home.

Balloons and crepe paper were used to decorate the walls and ceiling of the room. Dancing was enjoyed to recordings throughout the party which lasted from 8:30 P.M. to one A.M.

Among Eugene's guests were Loretta and Barbara Wilson, "Clem" Graziano, Betty Way, Barbara Baun, Valeria Bechtler, Carolyn Drollinger, Carol Nygren, Janet Creutz, Adrienne Maida, Karin Creutz, Barbara Cedren and Ellen Boos.

Also Raymond Bianco, Philip Engle, Rudy Schaufler, Eddy Schaufler, Walter Sellers, Jimmy Furlong, Mario Bianco, Roy Stephens Eugene Bianco, the host; Jimmy Ohrtman, Jack DeVaul, Henry Maibach, Richard Thurer, Joseph Haller, Willy Furlong, Brian Kraft, Arthur Zimmet and Hugo Jahn. COMMENTS WE DOUBT WILL DO ANY GOOD DEPT:
 Mr. X dropped in on us and he feels that someone isn't being fair to him. His front window has been broken and his side window has been cracked as well.

The irony is that Mr. X had his illuminated Santa broken. I'd say that Mr. X doesn't have the proper Christmas Spirit. I withhold his name because he would be labeled a "hatehater" of local children. But when he spoke to me he was exasperated and May and I could not blame him.

We had a call from a woman of Hillside Terrace, who would like transportation to Republic Aircraft Corp., Farmingdale. Please call us if you can help her.

Two Former Residents Wed

Miss Janice Hohorst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hohorst of Emerson Rd., Brookville, became the bride of Richard Seligman on Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Hicksville. The Rev. Howard Rogers, pastor, officiated at the candle-light ceremony. Mr. Seligman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Seligman of Hempstead Tpke., Levittown. Both the Hohorst and Seligman families are former residents of Hicksville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace over net and satin with a cathedral length train, long sleeves and a scalloped lace neckline. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried white orchids and sweet peas.

Miss Dais Freitag of Hollis, as maid of honor, wore a gown of aqua silk abutting with a matching headpiece and sheet veil. She carried a bouquet of deep shaded pink and lavender sweet-peas. The bridesmaids, Mrs. MaryAnn Harse sister of the bridegroom and Miss Adele Dula of Jackson Heights wore similar gowns and headpieces. They carried bouquets of lighter shades of pink and lavender sweet peas.

Bernard Seligman, cousin of the bridegroom, was bestman. Ushers were Donald Gouse, cousin of the bride, and Stuart Harse.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Stockholm Restaurant. The couple flew to Bermuda on a wedding trip after which Mr. Seligman will enter the Army. Mrs. Seligman will reside with her parents until her husband is permanently stationed when she will join him.

Mrs. Seligman is a graduate of Hicksville High school and her husband of Farmingdale High. He has been conducting his own agricultural business in Prattburg.

PBC Looks Forward For Change

HICKSVILLE—After three years of looking over its shoulder to see who was its closest pursuer, the pattern has changed for the PBC Alumni and the direction for finding who's who in the Alliance race its straight ahead.

And standing up front bold and clear is the West Hempstead A.C.

Roslyn Edges Comet Keglers

MANHASSET—The 1954 North Shore Athletic League Bowling season got underway here Monday, on the Village Club alleys with Hicksville High bowling to Roslyn 2,027 pins to 1,945.

It was a complete washout for the Comets who dropped all five points to the Hilltoppers although the small margin of four and three pins separated the two contestants in a brace of games.

Roslyn rolled 627 in the first match with the Comets pulling up with 623. The victors took the second set decisively 782 to 639 but the finale was a 668-663 shading for the blue and white.

The lineups:

Roslyn (5)		Hicksville (5)
Fanning	181	146	139
Eystala	186	154	126

which is determined to wrest the title from Hicksville this campaign. The Rams screamed past Port Washington earlier in the week and have a 4-0 mark.

Hicksville polished off St. Dominic's rather easily, Sunday, but had to travel to Port last night for a telling assignment. Port gave Hicksville an opening loss to start the campaign.

Local fans will not see the Alumni in its usual home assignment this Monday since the scheduled opponent, Fairchild Guided Missiles has dropped from the league.

Steve Ruggiero's team had a 3-1 mark before last night's game.

SCORING LEADER

Official figures from the Alliance front office indicate that Wally Menten from the Bethpage crew leads the scoring chase. With 38 field goals and 17 fouls for 97 points in three games was up front for work up to the start of the new year.

VFW Post Affair Set For Feb. 13

HUNTINGTON—Feb. 13 is the date for the Hicksville Veterans of Foreign Wars William M. Gouse Jr. Post #211 annual dinner and dance to be held at the Georgian Inn, Jericho Turnpike, here. Tickets may be secured by calling Commander William J. Frohenhoefer at HI 3-1878, or Senior Vice Commander Louis Klein at HI 4-1976.

At a meeting on Monday, Dec. 28 the following board of directors was nominated and elected at the Grand Ave. clubhouse: William J. Frohenhoefer, Raymond Frohenhoefer, Frank Sutter, Alfred Wangenheim, Lester Iehle, Louis Klein, Frank Mallet, George Walden, John McDonald, George Cisler, and Joseph Reinhardt.

Senior Hicksville High School PTA meetings have been scheduled for Jan. 28, Feb. 25, Mar. 25, Apr. 29, May 27 and June 24.

Down in seventh place was steady Stan Kellner of the Hicksville PBC with 58 points in three contests.

Indications are that Hicksville will not have any scorer up in the top ten this year but will hope to upset West Hempstead's timetable with switching performances between Kellner and Pat Enos.

Junior High Bows to Spurt

ISLAND TREES—Hicksville Junior High School suffered a 27-18 reverse here, Monday afternoon, as the hosts pulled away in the final period.

The Trees assured its second straight victory with eleven points in the last period while Hicksville could muster only three after sticking close in the opening 18 minutes.
