Sex Education Speaker's Topic

By ELIZABETH BAKER
HICKSVILLE—Why parents find it difficult to be objective in explaining sex to their children was discussed Thursday night in an interesting talk on "Attitudes We As Adults Have Toward Sex," by Murray Gegner at the monthly meeting of the Junior High P.T.A. in the auditorium of the school.

Mr. Gegner, who is a psychologist and a social worker at the Northport, L. I. Veterans Hospital, said that two forces operated on parents, the force of each individual on himself, and that dictated to us by our society and our religious beliefs.

"There is no one alive," he stated, "no matter what his training who is free of some anxiety about the subject. Since we are all in the same boat we should not be too disturbed because we have conflicts."

He said that sometimes parents, recalling some frightening experience they had with sex when young, will become over-protective towards their children. He pointed out that in order to teach our children to look on sex as a natural and healthy part of their lives, we must seek to regard sex as normal and healthy ourselves, since our attitudes reflect much of what was taught us by our parents.

Hillside Civics Get School Report

HICKSVILLE—Information will be presented at a meeting of the Hillside Terrace Civic Assoc. tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 8 P.M. in the East St. School in regard to proposals for school additions and purchase of land to be voted on at the special school district election at the high school Saturday, March 6. Registration for voting will also be explained.

Proposals to hold a Spring dance will be discussed and reports heard on the following topics: school bus, stop signs, lights at the entrance to the development and playgrounds.

Also on the agenda is a change of meeting night proposed so that a maximum number of residents can attend.

3 Service Clubs in Joint Tribute to Youth Worker

HEMPSTEAD—Harold Manaskie, Sr., was the surprise guest of honor at a dinner-dance given by the three Hicksville service organizations at the Elks Clubhouse, here, Saturday night. He was presented with an engraved wrist watch in behalf of the community for his service to local youth.

HAROLD MANASKIE Given Surprise Testimonial

Councilman Frank Chlumsky, who made the presentation of the gift, pointed out that Manaskie has long been actively identified with the Police Boys Club movement in Hicksville. Paying tribute to Manaskie for his unselfish service, Chlumsky stated that "youth is our most priceless possession."

ORGANIZED PBC
Manaskie who lives at 13 North Dr., Hicksville, organized the first PBC club in the community in 1947. For more than two years he carried on the club program almost single-handedly. With a group of 13 boys interested in baseball, including his son, Harold Jr. who is now in the Army at Keesler Air Base, Miss., he organized a team and transported the boys to various communities for competition.

Camp Outdoors At Busy Corner

HICKSVILLE—From 8 A.M. Saturday morning until Sunday morning at 9 A.M. the Boy Scouts of Explorer Post 359 camped outdoors at the corner of Jerusalem Ave. and Old Country Rd., here. Scouts reported that they kept "plenty warm" during the night because they had "enough blankets." A number of people visited the campsite during the practical demonstration to open Boy Scout Week.

The boys, who were 14 or older, prepared all their meals and slept in pup tents at the site with their leader, Dan Sutter. A nearby service station as well as a local resident kept them supplied with water.

Make Brotherhood Week Plans Thursday Night

HICKSVILLE—Plans for a rally to mark Brotherhood Week during the last seven days of this month will be completed at a delegate meeting next Thursday night, Feb. 11, in the Amvets Clubhouse on E. Main St.

The Legion, Amvets, VFW units, and auxiliaries as well as representatives of the clergy will unite to plan the observation.

The value of a united community was emphasized Tuesday night, Feb. 2, when Emily J. Eisner, one of the sponsors of the rally, spoke to the members of the Park Lane School P.T.A. on "Thoughts on Brotherhood."

Mrs. Eisner, who is president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Jewish War Veterans, 666, told of an interesting incident when she was in high school. A boy had made a poster with a Brotherhood theme and had drawn the Statue of Liberty and the links of a chain. She asked him about it and he reminded her of the saying, "A chain is only as strong as its weakest link."

Then he told her that his father had heard him arguing with his brother and criticizing some neighbors of their's. "My father," he said, "called us in and told us to sit down. He handed us each a bundle of sticks tied together with cord and told us to try and break them. This was impossible. Then looking sternly at us, he untied the string and gave us each an individual stick, easily snapped in two."

This lesson in the value of unity had always remained in the boy's mind, and was something she had always remembered, Mrs. Eisner said.

This is to be my last column in the Herald and I want to thank all my neighbors who have cooperated in giving me news. With our growing family I find the effort a little too strenuous for me.

The weather has been so enjoyable lately that more of us have been out trying to soak up some of the winter sunshine.

We have quite a few birthdays to report. John Michael Keough of 88 Cliff Drive marked the first milestone of his life on Feb. 3, celebrating on Sunday, Jan. 31. Helping him observe the day were his grandmother, aunts, uncles and cousins from Rockaway Beach.

Saturday, Jan. 30, Raymond Grutowski of 60 Cedar St. was seven years old and had a party at his home. His guests included Johanna J. Gerfo, John Sarafield, Catherine and Edward Monco, Robert Flanagan, Ellen and Sisay Garburgher. Games were played and Raymond cut the traditional birthday cake. Michael Sweeney was ill and unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roach are the parents of a daughter, Theresa Ann, who weighed 6 lbs. and 2 oz. at birth in the Horace Harding Hospital, Elmhurst, Queens, their third child.

Dads to Provide Labor, Build Troop House for Girl Scouts

WESTBURY — Representatives of the Hicksville Girl Scout Town Committee attended a meeting of the Mid Island Council Building Committee held at the Scout house here on Feb. 4. Copies of the specifications and architect's drawings for a troop house to be built by the Council were given to Mrs. Merton

Wilbur, Town Committee Chairman. The Troop house, to be built at Camp Edey, Girl Scout camp at Bayport, will be dedicated to Mrs. Robert Kampschulte of Farmingdale. Mrs. Kampschulte has been active in scouting for many years and is well known for her efforts on behalf of the camp.

Sex Education Is Speaker's Topic

Kearns and Richard Evers, all three of the Junior High faculty, really made parents wish they were "school children" again in their presentation of how "Education for Citizenship" is taught at the school. Mr. Curran said that our American heritage is taught so that an appreciation of this will teach the responsibility of good citizenship. The program is planned, he said, to cover the two years of Junior High, with the community and state covered the first year, and the history of the country as a whole, the second year.

"We begin," he remarked, "with a history of the Junior High itself, and tell the children what is expected of them in their new environment. The geography of Hicksville is taught, then that of Long Island, and that of New York State. An effort is made to cover the political and social significance of events from early times to now. "We try," he said, "to make our students evaluate for themselves the tremendous importance of good citizenship, and to teach them how to live in the 20th century." He mentioned two excellent textbooks that are used: "Exploring New York State," and "Living in Our America."

Mr. Kearns supplemented the talk with a demonstration of how film strips are used, showing some slides of Abraham Lincoln in color, and part of a current events film strip sent out each month by the New York Times.

The pictorial appeal is also supplemented by audio appeal as demonstrated by Mr. Evers, who played a number of records which presented a history with a lively musical background. He said that the students responded with such enthusiasm to the records that sometimes some jumped into the aisles, forgetting that they were not part of the action portrayed. Mr. Evers mentioned that the school did not have a tape recorder, which would be a valuable asset also.

Mrs. Theodore G. Roseberry, president, presided during the business meeting. It was voted to send a delegate to the Feb. 11 meeting in Amvets Clubhouse when a rally in observation of Brotherhood Week will be planned. An amendment to the by-laws making the annual dues for a family membership, $1.50 was passed and must be sent to Albany for further consideration, it was said.

Mrs. Charles Glaser read Bernard Braun's report of the recent PTA Council meeting. It was also voted to go on record as endorsing an increase in the pay of teachers and principals.

Mrs. Roseberry reported that the monthly dances were successful and asked for volunteer mothers to attend the next dance.

Leon Galloway, principal, announced that special clubs were being formed at the school to meet each Wednesday night from 5 to 6 o'clock for 10 weeks. Students must have permission slips from parents, he said, so that the school may be sure that parents know where their children are on the club nights, and also can arrange for them to get home safely.

Announcement was also made of the PTA Council Founders Day dinner to be held Feb. 23 at Corte's Restaurant. Principal Galloway, Miss Hazel Kester and Miss Leora Clinch, all with 25 years or more of service as teachers, will be honorary guests at the dinner, Mrs. Roseberry said.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria with Mr. Kearns auctioning off many prizes donated by local merchants which were left over from the recent card party. Attendance at the later event was restricted because of the weather.

The labor for this troop house will be supplied by men from the various towns in Council, and each Town Committee is soliciting donations for the project. When completed, the house will provide camping facilities for 96 more scouts a season. The need for expanding the existing facilities is urgent, for based on the existing space, only 8 per cent of the 4,000 scouts enrolled in Mid Island can be accommodated this season. When troop house is completed in the early spring, it will increase that percentage, officials state.

Dependence A Disease

Dependence on others is a terrible disease. Young animals depend on their mothers for a short time. But when the time comes, they are pushed away in no uncertain terms. Young humans depend upon their parents until they can care for themselves. As they grow they gradually assume more and more responsibility until they are completely on their own. Every once in a great while we see or read of a case where a grown person is still completely dependent upon its parents. And we all know what a terrible thing it is.

Communities Are Like People

Communities suffer when they depend upon other governmental agencies. We see it all around us. Hicksville is a prime example. It is hard to believe, but here in Hicksville we are completely dependent upon the Oyster Bay Township government for all of our municipal services. Why, we can't even clean our own streets! It has to be done for us by the township. And we are a community of more than 30,000 people. This kind of complete dependence upon the township is devastating to progress in all fields. Nobody can do something for us as well as we can do it ourselves.

Plainedge And Baldwin

Other prime examples of the degeneration caused by communities depending on township government are Plainedge and Baldwin, right here in Nassau County.

Plainedge is one of the oldest communities on Long Island. Because it depended on others for its governmental services, it never had its own community facilities and remained an undeveloped hamlet, or "populated area" as we see on the road signs provided by the township. The surge of new population is engulfing it and it is being officially divided into five parts by the post office. The people of Plainedge suffer a distinct loss because they live in a "populated area" rather than a community where they can work together to build up facilities and services for their common good.

The community of Baldwin, a hamlet like Hicksville, reached a peak in business activity, and right during the greatest growth of Nassau County, it slid back. Why? The answer should be obvious. They depended, not on their own efforts, but on others for the development of their community. Hempstead America's largest township by their own admission, handled Baldwin's problems for them. And the results speak for themselves.

No Need For Dependence

As nature wants its creatures to be independent, the State of New York has provided a means for its communities to free themselves of dependence upon the townships. Any community in the state, after it attains a population of 500, can obtain its own local government by going through certain well known procedures. The means is available, and only the will of the people is needed.

What About Our Community?

What are we in Hicksville to do? We are 30,000 strong. We are larger than a great many well known cities throughout the United States. Should we continue to hang on to Oyster Bay's apron strings? Should we let the township continue to wipe our figurative noses for us? Do we want Hicksville to go the way of Baldwin or Plainedge? Or are we able to stand on our own feet and run our own affairs the way we want them?

OUR PUBLIC LIBRARY:

Excellent Collection on Dogs

HICKSVILLE book collections on dogs to be found on Long Island has been given to the Free Public Library here by the Cocker Spaniel Club of Long Island, books from the private collection of the late Townsend Scudder. The books which are for reference purposes can be found in the teen-age room and number 100 volumes. Questions concerning your dog's history, what diseases he is subject to, and how to train him can be found in these books.

ARE YOU AN OLD SALT? Of particular interest to devotees of sailing and sailing ships is a new book at the library called "Way of a Ship" by Alan Villiers. Here is a thorough description of the famous ships that used to round Cape Horn, information about their rigging, recruiting of sailors, officers, as well as economies of sailing, performance and navigation.

NEW SLANT ON CIVIL WAR A new and different book has been written called "The Civil War," by James Street. While it may agree with practically nothing read heretofore, it is lively and different.

PAGE 4—MID-ISLAND HERALD, FEBRUARY 9, 1954

In People's Corner

By ALLEN CAMPBELL

Let us today play some more of "that glorious music." Not to the tune of their magic mirror formula—but to the tune of reality.

In their last bi-annual audit, the New York State Auditors say of the Town of Oyster Bay.

Sale of Sand and Gravel

"Revenues from this source arise from a contract between the Town and Luigi DeNovellis (Flatlands Sand Excavating Corp.) covering the removal of sand and gravel from the town incinerator pit at a stipulated charge per cubic yard.

"Duplicates of pre-numbered sales tickets rendered to customers by the Flatlands Sand Excavating Corp., covering the sale of sand and gravel at the incinerator pit, are submitted to the supervisor's office and serve as the basis for monthly billing by the Town for the sand and gravel removed." (pg. 12—N.Y. St. Auditors Report)

In effect, the Flatlands Sand Excavating Corp. writes their own bills for sand and gravel removed from town land. The auditors then went on to report:

"For purposes of Accounting Control, the sales tickets submitted should be checked for numerical sequence and the totals as reported should be reconciled by the town with the number of cubic yards of material removed as determined by periodic surveys, provision for which is embodied in the terms of the contract." (pg. 13—N.Y. St. Auditors Report)

Read this again, and see what it says! I need not reiterate in my own words. If you can understand the positive statement of the Auditors—then you can understand what the Town Board is not doing for their own protection—not to mention the people's protection.

If there are any councilmen, or town officials, or party leaders, who think this protection of public land, this accounting of public monies is flimsy and proper—constitutes good business practice—I'd like to hear from them, and so would our voting public.

Teen Program Activity Grows

PLAINVIEW — Teenagers of this community will join with other similar groups to participate in a radio show sponsored by WKBS of Oyster Bay, it was learned this week.

Since the beginning of the year teenage program here has been accelerated to the point where a basketball team has been formed and is currently entered in the PBC league. In addition, the girls of the club are setting up a cheer leading squad which will be uniformed.

Wrestling for the boys was also inaugurated last week and despite the handicap because of limited facilities the group is making excellent progress. Another activity that has proved tremendously popular since the first of the year is the periodic roller skating trips to the Mineola rink.

The teenage club meets every Friday at the Manetto Hill School and attendance has jumped 20 per cent since the new activity program was put into effect by the teenagers and the club's director, Gwyn Rees, who is also in charge of Physical Education in the school system.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Phooey To Annexing With NYC

By JOHN DOWLING
A New York City Councilman, Philip Schupler by name, last week introduced a resolution in the council chamber calling for the City's secession from the rest of New York and the eventual formation of Long Island. Of course, this includes Nassau and Suffolk and is the Honorable M. R. Schupler's way of saying "Come-on-A-My-House And I'll give you everything."

What has Nassau and Suffolk got that motivates these big city boys into casting covetous glances our way? Could it be the ever-increasing movement of purchasing power and industry way from the city or is it just because we're nice people?

On the other it may be what we haven't got that impels city peery to cry out "Join up with us and we'll all get the promise land together." Just for the record we don't have hoodlumism in our schools; we don't have a constant crime wave; we don't see much of zip-guns and switch blades and most of our gang wars are fought in the gymnasium on the basketball court or on the gridiron.

Since we lack so many of these important city functions it's easy to perceive why our benevolent city dignitaries periodically object to save us from ourselves.

Now if we're disposed to join forces it may be possible to obtain many of these cited benefits but we may also have to give a little in return in order to display our thankfulness.

We may have to forfeit our present system of receiving state educational aid; we may have to give up our community independence and with it the right to elect our own neighbors to important posts and we may have to pay considerable more in taxes to keep a myriad of over-lapping, do-nothing departments operating.

But what's wrong with losing a few relatively unimportant things when we could gain so much by merely nodding our heads affirmatively thereby sanctioning a marriage between the city and Nassau-Suffolk Counties.

However, if you don't like the idea and the prospects of what a union of this kind might bring, then join with us in saying phooey

 Dog owners should remember that dogs should always be on a leash. The only exception to this is when a dog is muzzled; then and only then is a dog free to run. To some, this may appear to be making quite an ado over nothing, but in Chicago, for example, there is such a serious rabies outbreak that all dogs and cats are to be vaccinated immediately.

All stray dogs are to be captured or destroyed. So, if you are a pet lover all well and good, just keep in mind that when you took on the care of the animal you also took on the duty of making sure that your animal doesn't harm anyone or anything in the community.

HICKSVILLE GABLES: Importance of Religious Study

By CONSTANCE GIBSON Hicksville 4-1482
 The start of a new semester of classwork brings us back to the schoolroom and religious instructions in particular. So many parents take Sunday school lightly when really it plays just as important a part in the life of every child as do regular classes—if not a more important one. Sunday school classes are held in all of the Hicksville churches, thus there is an opportunity for every child to attend.

wishes for a happy birthday to Mrs. William Horn of 303 Plainview Rd. whose day was Sunday, Feb. 8. Mrs. Horn celebrated with a turkey dinner along with her husband, daughter and son-in-law and grand-daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Olson and daughter June of the same address.

Classes at St. Ignace Loyola are held on all days of the week and in classrooms in both the old and new schools. Children attend according to age, those pre-communion and communion age meeting on Sundays—10 to 11 A.M., the latter also on Saturdays the same time and upper class children on the week days. Parents of Confirmation children are asked to join the Blessed Pius X Society which meets the first Monday of each month at 8:30 in the school hall.
 Miss Mildred Harrigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrigan of 293 Plainview Rd., teaches a class of ten children at the Hicksville Methodist Church on Old Country Rd. The class meets each Sunday morning from 9:45 to 10:45. On Sunday, Feb. 8 Miss Harrigan, her sister, Beverly, and four of the members of the class, Linda Stoik, Luba Wallander, Larry Green and Melinda Meade went to the Mincola Skating Rink for a day's fun.
 Another member of the Gables development, who teaches religious instructions is Mrs. George Maguire of 21 Terrace Place. Mrs. Maguire has the first grade at St. Ignace Loyola.

Mrs. Olson at a card party given by the members of Our Lady of Mercy Church, won the door prizes a geranium and a bottle of wine. The affair was held on Thursday, Jan. 28. The following Thursday, Feb. 4, Mrs. Olson won $6.00 as a result of the churches Brick of A Month Club. The Church is at the present time collecting funds for its building campaign.
 Thursday, Feb. 25, Mrs. Olson is helping cook for the smorgasbord dinner to be given by the Ladies auxiliary of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, the funds from which are going to the fund for the building of an addition to the church.
 We would like to send best wishes to two residents of the Gables who have returned home after a stay in the hospital.

An especially happy event was the return home of Bernadette McCoy, daughter of Lee McCoy of 8 Gables Drive from Mitchell Field Hospital where she has had to remain for over two months extended over two periods. Bernadette's friends are particularly glad that she has been able to resume schooling.
 Back home from the Presbyterian Medical Center in the city where he had to spend a few days is Eric Waller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Waller of 13 South Elm St. Mr. Waller, a student at Hicksville High School played a part in their very successful operetta, "The Fortune Teller."

Irwin J. Botto Takes Bride In Candlelight Ceremony

In a 6:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony Sunday afternoon Feb. 7, Mae Kahlbeck of 120 Old Country Rd., Hicksville, became the bride of Irwin J. Botto of 11 Roma St., Hicksville, at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, South Broadway, Hicksville. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Howard Rogers, pastor of the church.

The bride's gown of embossed taffeta in a candlelight shade, was styled with a full skirt, sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her halo hat matched her gown. An orchid corsage completed her attire.

A full skirt gown of blue nylon taffeta was worn by Mrs. Margaret Burke, a sister of the bride, as matron of honor. She also wore a matching halo hat and a corsage of tea roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert was best man.

A reception and dinner for the two families and a few intimate friends was held in the Garden City Hotel.

To travel on their wedding trip to Florida and Cuba, the new Mrs. Botto wore a brown gabardine suit, a white hat and gloves. On their return they will be at home at 11 Roma St., Hicksville.

Before marriage the bride was employed with the Elliott Addressing Machine Co., 117 Leonard St., N. Y. Her husband is the hardware and plumbing business in Hicksville.

Home Bureau Cooks Shellfish

HICKSVILLE — A sumptuous luncheon was set before the members of the Home Bureau here at the all-day meeting in the Legion Hall Tuesday, Feb. 2. After watching a shellfish cookery demonstration by Mrs. Edward Korbman and Mrs. Cornelius Krupp, the members sat down to a repast of Broiled lobster tails, scalloped oysters, fried shrimp and lobster Newburg on toast.

Rice was served with this menu at a cost to each member of 75 cents. At the meeting today, (Tuesday Feb. 9) there is to be a demonstration on "How to Fix a Chicken for Roasting with No Sewing."

John Form, Social Security office manager, spoke on "Your Social Security," declaring that even baby-sitters who work certain hours are eligible. He answered questions and discussed the new proposals by President Eisenhower. His talk was so interesting that the members wished there was more time set aside to hear the speaker, it was reported.

Mrs. Charles Pickering presided during the business meeting. Four new members: Mrs. Charles Hoerter, Mrs. George Osborne, Mrs. Bernard Haggerty and Mrs. August Graf, have joined in the past two weeks.

Mrs. Pickering announced that a new class would be taught in "Rayon Suits" by Mrs. Fred Kluepfel, assisted by Mrs. Walter Werthessen. She also made known that the Executive Committee would meet March 2nd in American Legion Hall at 1 P.M. with all members urged to be present.

A letter was received since the meeting by the president telling of a meeting in Mineola on Feb. 10, when Marjorie Wariman, director of Home Service of the Long Island Lighting Co., will prepare a fancy dinner at one P.M. from the freezer, using only 30 minutes. She will also demonstrate the technique of freezing foods, and will distribute recipes and other freezer information. These county-wide meetings are held two or three times a month.

The Home Bureau members study tray stenciling, cotton dress creation, fabric lampshade construction, upholstery, and in the Spring in time for Easter will learn how to make hats.

Inviting Bird Neighbors

Actually this bulletin does much more than just tell you how to attract birds. In it you will find many suggestions for studying bird neighbors once they have been attracted to your home and garden.

Primarily, however, the leaflet tells you what birds or types of birds you may expect about your home at different times of the year. It lists 18 species of birds which will use bird houses or some kind of a nesting shelter, and makes suggestions and shows just what kind of bird houses or shelters to build.

Different types of feeding stations are also illustrated, including feeders for Hummingbirds, and you will see how to protect your feeders and nesting boxes from cats, rats, and squirrels. At the end of the bulletin is a good list of books about birds. If you would like a copy of this interesting bulletin, just ask for "Inviting Bird Neighbors," Cornell 4-H bulletin 103, and address your request to the Mailing Room, Stone Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Nutrition Provides Topic For Dutch Lane School P-TA

HICKSVILLE — Dutch Lane PTA parents learned a great deal about nutrition Tuesday night Feb. 2, when Mrs. Norman Hoeler, nutrition expert of the Nassau County Chapter of Red Cross, was the speaker. She showed the parents what she called "The Wheel of Good Eating," which includes food to build, food to regulate, and food for energy. The body requires the complete proteins such as meat, fish, poultry, and the so-called incomplete proteins which include legumes and other vegetables, she said.

ENRICHED FLOUR
She pointed out that margarine and butter are equally nutritious, that it was extremely important that whole grain cereals be eaten and that unbleached flour be used. In answering a question about the use of enriched flour, she remarked that "unfortunately the law does not specify the amount of enrichment that shall be restored to flour sold as enriched."

"The basic requirements for a good diet," she said consist of at least one quart of milk a day per person, and at least four eggs a week, green and yellow vegetables and citrus fruits every day. She said that soft-drinks were one of the most active causes of dental cavities, and would not recommend them as bedtime snacks since children are not likely to brush their teeth after consumption. She recommended that preschool children have plenty of outdoor play for appetite stimulation, and some relaxation before meals. Also important is color appeal of foods to children, she said.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Herbert C. Spiseiman, president, announcement was made that the Spring Fair will be held March 10. A children's fair will be featured from 11 A.M. to 4:30 during which time food to "take home for supper such as salads and baked beans" will be sold. The adult fair will take place that evening from 8 to 11 P.M. John Green, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, is in charge.

At the next meeting Tuesday night, March 2, Dr. Roma Gans, professor of education at Columbia Teachers' College, New York, will speak on "Modern Trends in Education."

By the time you're a septuagenarian ...
You'll have consumed about 76,650 meals ... slept over 200,000 hours (longer than Rip Van Winkle) ... and voted for President of the United States 12 or 13 times. And, if you're like most folks, by the time you're seventy you'll have spent a full year talking on the telephone!
That's a lot of telephoning. It averages 20 minutes every single day from the minute you're born till you're threescore and ten. And it certainly shows how folks have come to depend on the telephone. Whether it's ordering groceries or calling the doctor...chatting with friends or closing an important business deal... the telephone is always there...ready to serve you.
Naturally that's the way we want it. You can be sure that telephone service is as fast and dependable as continuing research and effort can make it. So fast that on local calls it takes an average of 20 seconds or less from the time you lift the receiver until you hear the first ring. So dependable that the average phone stays in use 6 years without interruption to service. New York Telephone Company.

Scouts to Join in Celebration

BETHPAGE—Girl Scouts and Brownies here will take part in ceremonies commemorating Juliette Low Day Feb. 27 from 9 to 12 A.M. at the Calderone Theatre, Hempstead, it was made known by Caroline Ellinger, town chairman at the week end.

Lady Baden-Powell, wife of the founder of the Boy Scout movement, will be guest of honor. At this time a collection will be taken from each town composed of one penny for every year of each scout's life. Money is donated by the girls. Bethpage will represent a Pakistan scout during the ceremony to follow.

A concerted effort to dispose of the remaining Girl Scout cookies will be made on a Sunday to be announced soon. There will be no cookie sale during 1954, so everyone is asked to buy more now to finish the 1953 drive.

More Brownie and Girl Scout leaders are needed by the troop now in operation and by troops waiting to start when leaders are found. Training will begin Feb. 16 at the Island Trees School. Catherine Seitz will instruct the group, which will meet for eight consecutive weeks from 8 to 10 P.M. Scouts are now filling 'kits for Korea' to be sent to the children there. They contain some essentials such as soap, food, and a toy.

Central Federal Reports Growth

For the 34th straight time, dividend payments that are far higher than any ever paid in the past have been declared by the board of directors of the Central Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. of Nassau County, it was announced recently by executive secretary Vance Carnahan.

The total to be presented the profit-sharing institution's constantly-growing family of savers Dec. 31, he said, will be $105,000. That total was for the semi-annual period ending Dec. 31, the executive explained.

"It means," said Carnahan, "that Central Federal's total 1953 distribution will be more than $197,000. We are able to divide that much among our savers because of a sound policy governing our steady growth."

The executive secretary pointed out that Central Federal was organized in 1937 as the Long Beach and grew to the point where, last summer, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board authorized it to open a second office in Hicksville. Its family of savers has increased from a comparative handful to more than 13,000.

"Our policy is based upon a solid program that acknowledges the value of time-tested methods of operation and yet makes use of modern, progressive ideas," Carnahan said. "The public believes in Central Federal because of that workable combination of the old and the new and the services we offer."

He pointed out that Central Federal's dividends are based on a 2 1/2 per cent rate and added that, "Our savers are aware that we were and are the first and the only financial institution in either Long Beach or Hicksville with that rate. They know that our 2 1/2 per cent is paid on every dollar in their accounts—not just on part of their savings—and they know that our rate is based on a sound policy and not upon the idea of 'keeping up with the Joneses.'"

NORTH WEST NOTES:

Drainage Project on the Way

By JAMES CUMMINGS
Work on the long awaited and long promised drainage project will begin shortly for residents in North West Hicksville, Town Supervisor Lewis N. Waters told your reporter over the weekend. Mr. Waters added, "We will advertise bids to be received by March 15 and that after the contracts are awarded the work will begin. The installations will take several months to complete, from the time the initial work is started, probably through the summer months". The possibility of including the Staekler and Frank project had held the work up earlier this year.

NO-THRU TRUCKING
Supervisor Waters also informed the writer that no-thru trucking sign installations were referred to Councilman Frank Chulmsky. Mr. Chulmsky then authorized the installations of these signs at the intersections as specified in the letter from the North West Civic Association. The Highway Department is expected to place the signs as requested this week according to Supervisor Waters.

LETTER FROM READER
"Friday evening, Feb. 6th, my wife and I had returned from shopping and proceeded to back my car into our driveway at 60 Myers Ave. At that time I noticed a vehicle evidently driven by a maniac coming down Myers Ave. at excessive speed and it almost hit us. He swerved around my car at great speed and proceeded down Myers Ave. a short distance, turning right at Jersey St. If the party responsible reads this, I hope he will have sense enough to consider others in the future. If not I will be on the lookout for the vehicle and know how to handle the situation the next time. Signed: B. Reganata, 60 Myers Ave."

BETWEEN ISSUES

We look forward with interest to the start of the drainage program which has been top priority with the Civic Association for the past two years. A special vote of thanks to all who worked so diligently towards this goal for the residents of the North West section of Hicksville. . . there is a great need for recreational facilities for the youngsters of Hicksville, the PTA's of Hicksville are doing their part as well as the Teen Canteen are you doing your part? Bids are being received up until 8 P.M. tonight (Tuesday) for the installation of new street signs in Hicksville a portion of which will be installed in our area—as advertised in the Herald last Tuesday, Feb. 2nd. Be sure and read the legal each issue . . . Congrats to the boss, Fred Noeth, installed Saturday evening, as Captain of the Emergency Co. No. 5 . . . Stellar Passing Gives Comets Win

By HOWARD FINNEGAN
HICKSVILLE — Rapid fire give and go passes which toro the Westbury defense apart in the first two periods projected Hicksville High to a 54-49 victory over its traditional rival here, Friday night.

The victory evened the Comets mark at 3-3 in the Eastern Division standings where they are tied for third with Westbury and moved another notch up to 5 and 8 on the overall record.

St. Dominic's of Oyster Bay visits the Hicksville court this afternoon (Tuesday) in a non-league fray.

Worries Slack Off as JV Rolls

HICKSVILLE — Prospects for the future were a major concern of the JV players in the first period of the game. Here when the basketball returns of the Jay Vee team and Freshman squad were all bad earlier in the campaign but the lines of worry are lessening now that the Jay Vee is beginning to roll.

Paced by Eddy Fraser the Comet understudy have roared through with 48-47 and 57-41 wins over Oyster Bay and Westbury in their last two outings.

Al Rife and Ronnie Caley, had six years. Responding to the Jaworski plays, the Comets worked the ball in for what looked to be simple baskets.

Bob De Lay was on the receiving end of a pair to start the fireworks and then Ed Scott, Joe Pepe and Richard Evaschuk all took passes that baffled Westbury to score.

The Comets zoomed to an 18-7 lead and were in the vein 32-17 at halftime.

Personal fouls against DeLay, he was lost early in the third period, and Evaschuk forced Hicksville to a cautious game in the second half it tried to play with an eye on the clock.

Westbury did get within six points in the fourth period but Evaschuk, high for the night with 18, belted two home from underneath to preserve a workable edge. There was no recurrence of the rough house that marked the contest at Westbury since the officials took a firm grasp at the outset. Five charging fouls against the visitors for piling in under the board actually controlled the game.

Westbury won the first issue 51-48.

Getting Informed About Govt.

By DOROTHY R. BROWN
Hicksville 4-0128

Yes, we had a very interesting meeting of the Millwood Gate Property Owners Assoc. with Councilman Frank Chlumsky speaking informally to the group. He told us how the school and light district lines were established many years ago around boundaries of large farms and estates. The zoning code was explained and how government cannot stop businesses but may regulate its functions. The Garbage problem was well discussed as to town collections vs. private and benefits to citizens. Of course, it would not be complete if assessments and taxes had not been mentioned. Mr. Chlumsky explained that if we were not on the tax list as of May, we would not be on till the following year. The town elections were discussed.

Citizens who fulfill the qualifications register once a year for school elections. This will cover the annual election on the first Tuesday in May and any special elections held during the year. If you have not registered since May and have been here 30 days or more and own property, or have a child you may be eligible to vote at school elections and should register. There is to be a registration at the high school on Tuesday

Feb. 23 from 4-9 P.M. and Saturday Feb. 27 10 A.M. to 8 P.M. This registration is for a special election to take place on March 6 at the high school from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M. on 6 school questions. A 2/3 vote for approval is necessary.

The meeting closed with Mr. Chlumsky charging all the new officers with the duties of their office for the ensuing year. Gene McGee Vice-President who was home sick with the flu and Gene Cody, Sergeant-at-Arms whose wife was in the hospital were charged their duties by proxy. We all went home feeling better informed on our local government.

POLIO DRIVE REPORT

Many thanks go to all the women who collected funds for the "Mother's March of Dimes". Mrs. Gerard F. Ebert of 30 Linden Blvd. and Mrs. Margaret Smith of 9 Garden Blvd. were co-captains for the area covered by the Frank Homes, Lee Ave. and Holstone Homes. These women with their helpers collected $143.80. Mrs. Mary McCabe and Mrs. Esther Welsh collected $45.96 in the Broadway Terrace Homes and Neighboring Vidoni Homes. Mrs. Frances Becker and Mrs. Mildred Cohen collected $52.52 from the vicinity of Longside Ave. and including Murray Road. Mrs. LeRoy C. Brown Jr. acted as captain for the Millwood Gate development and wishes to thank all those responsible for their help in collecting $100.06.

PERSONALS:

Mrs. Marian Cody of Ferndale Drive has returned from a short visit at the hospital to the home of her parents in the Bronx. May her recuperation be a swift one.

Little Denise Patricia Durgin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Durgin of 20 Ferndale Dr. was christened at St. Ignatius Loyola Church last Sunday Jan. 31. The Godmother is Mrs. James K. Peace and the Godfather is Mr. Emile Bernier. A small dinner party following the ceremony was held at the home of the parents with relatives and Godparents present.

The stork has been rather busy here the last few weeks. Our best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. John Flaherty of Woodvine Dr. South on the birth of a daughter born in January at the Lenox Hill Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rabbitt of 44 Fordham Rd. recently had the addition of a fourth child, a baby girl born recently and named Suzanne. This makes a complete family of two boys and two girls for them.

Our congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. John Heilbrigg of 12 Mayflower Drive on the birth of their second son Feb. 2 at the North Country Community Hospital in Glen Cove. He weighed in 6 pounds 11 ounces.

Who tried to portray the character "The Amazing Mr. Pennypacker" for a charade at an informal party held at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Killen's of Ferndale Drive Saturday evening? Could it be Mr. Warren Nathan?

Rev. Ballweg Exhibits Aids

HICKSVILLE—The Rev. Lawrence Ballweg, moderator of "The Blessed Pius X Society", demonstrated visual and audio education aids used at St. Ignatius School at a meeting of the society on Feb. 1 in the hall of the old school. The theme of the meeting was "Back to School." Parents attended classes and were shown the progress being made in all confraternity programs.

Mrs. Peter Seitz reports that the group is having a membership drive as it is felt that the proportion of members to the number of children registered is not high enough.
