VERY REV. GEORGE M. BITTERMANN, pastor of St. Ignatius R. C. Church of Hicksville, blesses the cornerstone of the new $300,000 convent for the Sisters of St. Dominic on E. Cherry St. Priests of the parish and the nuns were present for the brief ceremony of placing the cornerstone and dedicating the modern, fire proof structure, on Friday morning, Feb. 12. Open house for members of the congregation will take place this Sunday and Monday, Feb. 21 and 22, until 5 o'clock each day. The Sisters will take up occupancy about the first of March, moving from their present frame building which was erected about the turn of the century. The new building has quarters for 22 nuns, in addition to a Chapel, community room, refractory and three music rooms. Construction of the building, which was delayed by truck driver strikes, was begun in Oct. 1952. The parish also recently completed a $65,000 project of adding two rooms to St. Ignatius School and remodeling another. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

First Registration Day For School Voters Feb 23

HICKSVILLE—The first of two registration dates for voters of the school district, preparing for the referendum on six questions on Mar. 6, is set for next Tuesday, Feb. 23 between 4 and 9 P.M. at the high school. There are approximately 2,200 persons already registered and qualified to vote. A second registration is set for Saturday, Feb. 27, from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M.

Voting on four questions involving additions to elementary schools, a land purchase, and a change in the system of voting and registration in the district, will be put before the voters on Saturday, Mar. 6, between 10 A.M. and 8 P.M. at the high school.

Frequent P.T.A. and civic association speaking appearances are being made by a special referendum committee citing the need for an affirmative vote. The first four questions require a two-thirds majority of those voting to carry.

Penny Auction Fights Polio

HICKSVILLE—Comic books, puzzles, pens and other gear were sold at a penny auction by the students in Room 205 of Junior High recently to earn $7 for the March of Dimes. Vito Gáten was auctioneer. The auction was the suggestion of Arthur Isaksen. Mr. Gilfin is teacher of the group.

Matthews Town Comptroller

OYSTER BAY—Leroy Matthews of Locust Valley will assume the $7500 a year position as the first comptroller of the Town of Oyster Bay on Mar. 1. His appointment was exclusively forecast by John Dowling in the Herald on Feb. 9. The Town Board confirmed his selection at a meeting last Tuesday. Matthews is 37, married and has two children. He has been deputy director of the Nassau County Real Estate Dept.

AFTER 8 MONTH STUDY:

NW Civics Enlist Support For Community Ambulance

By JAMES CUMMINGS

HICKSVILLE—Armed with facts based upon the experience of numerous volunteer ambulance services in other sections of Nassau County, the North West Civic Assoc. is prepared to carry its campaign for a community ambulance to other civic groups in Hicksville, the Herald learned exclusively today. Eight months have been spent by the North West Civics led by Jerome Zettler, ambulance committee chairman, in quietly gathering information now ready for public presentation.

"For the past ten years", Zettler told the Herald yesterday, "various civic and business organizations have from time to time approached the Board of Fire Commissioners with the request that an ambulance be operated by an emergency squad of our fire dept. These requests have been turned down for various reasons.

"The North West Civic Assoc. was one of the groups interested in securing an ambulance and met with the same objections from the Commissioners. However, our group thought the objections of the Commissioner were not valid and decided to investigate the operation of fire dept. ambulance service in other Nassau communities.

"After eight months of work," Zettler continued, "writing and speaking to many fire company officials in Nassau, our Civic Assoc. is now prepared to present its findings to the people of Hicksville through their civic associations."

Letters have been sent to 12 civic groups in Hicksville by Zettler and his committee asking the opportunity to meet with the executive committee and tell the entire story.

"The North West Civic Assoc. feels that it should be the privilege of the people of Hicksville, not the Fire Commissioners, to decide whether or not the community should have the protection of a local ambulance," Zettler added.

Questions asked in the survey of areas which now provide residents with ambulance service covered costs, insurance coverage, methods of obtaining personnel, restrictions as to eligibility to use the ambulance and whether those who have ambulances have ever been involved in a lawsuit as the result of transporting a patient.

Among the areas responding were Bethpage, Garden City Park, Williston Park, North Massapequa and others.

Typical of the replies came from Bethpage: "The ambulance is manned entirely by volunteer firemen who serve as members of the rescue squad in addition to their other duties as firemen. They are required to hold both Standard and Advanced First Aid course certificates from the Red Cross. The Rescue Squad is summoned by a special signal on the fire alarm system.

"The Ambulance is available", District Secretary James Sturtevant continued, "to anyone in the district in case of emergency and will respond to a call for emergency assistance at any time; however, we do not remove patients to a hospital except on the request of a physician who will direct same and arrange for admission of the patient; nor do we bring patients home from hospitals at any time."

Garden City Park replied on the question of cost "our ambulance is considered a piece of apparatus and is maintained as such. However, the approximate cost per year including cleaning of sheets, supplies and gas, etc. is $250."

Inquiries regarding the Ambulance Project may be sent to P. O. Box 95, Hicksville, or to Zettler at 73 Gardner Ave., chairman of the committee.

CELEBRATE FOUNDING IN 1933:

Council To Honor Lucia McIntosh, First P-TA President at Dinner

HICKSVILLE—Lucia McIntosh of 6 Howard St., first president of the Hicksville Parent-Teacher Assoc. when it was organized 21 years ago, will be guest of honor at the Founder's Day dinner arranged by the P-TA Council for next Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, at Corte's Restaurant, Bethpage.

The "Hicksville Story" published at the time of the community's bi-centennial recalls: "In the fall of 1932 it was decided that it would be a good thing to organize a Parent Teacher Assoc. and accordingly a large number of parents, teachers and interested citizens of the community met in the auditorium of the high school on the night of Oct. 23, 1933 for this purpose.

128 CHARTER MEMBERS
"E. A. Van Slyke, then Superintendent of Schools, was in charge of the meeting. After signing 128 charter members, a nominating committee was appointed, who in turn nominated Mrs. McIntosh as the first president. She was unanimously elected and served for two years, in which time many fine programs were given and a lot of good work accomplished in connection with the schools."

Mrs. McIntosh was called "perhaps the most versatile woman in Hicksville" in a newspaper article in 1935 when she was elected president of the Women's Republican Club.

She has continued her activity in behalf of community and civic affairs to the present time. She is one of the most active members of the Hicksville Home Rule Committee, chairman of the speakers bureau for the incorporation movement, participated in the application for a court review of Supervisor Ransom's refusal to grant a vote on home rule as an active sort in Northern Bohemia, she attended a girl's finishing school there. She has traveled extensively on the Continent and the British Isles.

Mrs. McIntosh has constantly been active in organization work. She was one of the charter members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Charles Wagner American Legion Post, here, and a project which she helped promote as county welfare chairman continues to this day—the visits by the Legion Post on a rotation system to the veterans hospitals.

She was an organizer about 1921 of the Dephlian Society for "the purpose of studying literature, drama and languages in a social group."

Audience Feels Expansion Plan Is 'Not Big Enough'

HICKSVILLE—With no state aid the new school building program to be voted upon March 6, will cost each taxpayer $12.41 per year on each $4,000 of assessed valuation, it was pointed out Wednesday night by Frank Legay at a special meeting of the Dutch Lane P.T.A. He also said that with state aid the cost might be "nothing" because in 1950 this district was called "an emergency area" and a law was passed that "if our school tax is more than 95 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation, the state pays all building cost above that." He said that at the present time area residents pay $1.13 on each $100 of assessed valuation.

A motion by Victor Siegel that the members present at the special meeting go on record as unanimously approving a "yes" vote on March 6 on the school referendum was passed.

The general feeling at the meeting, it was reported, was that perhaps the program was not "big enough."

The text of comments for speakers of the Referendum Committee is published in today's Herald on page 12.

TEACHER'S PET was the title of the one-act comedy presented for the entertainment of the Lee Ave. School P-TA on Feb. 11. Lillian Balke at the desk was in the role of teacher and Ruth Kiernan, standing at the blackboard in special costume (in case her friends don't recognize her), was the assistant principal. Standing in the background is Charles Meier who was principal. Seated,

GOP Women Await Charter

HICKSVILLE—A preorganizational meeting of the Centre Island Women's Republican Club was held Monday night at Levittown Hall, here. Pending receipt of a charter from the county GOP, the club has decided to delay solicitation of membership and the conduct of official business. The charter application is now under consideration.

Florence Vryn, president of the club, named a volunteer committee to serve on the development of programs.

Dear Jean:

Regional Conference is set for first meeting Feb. 28 at Hempstead Elks Clubhouse when village chairmen of American Relief for Korea will meet. WILFRED JACKSON of Hicksville is expected to attend. Good to see Mrs. WILLIAM L. GEYER of Grove St., Hicksville, outdoors again after a stay in the hospital. Keep up the good work, DOT. . . . Central Nassau Little League Dance takes place at Levittown Hall this Saturday night, Feb. 20. We had the night of the week correct but the date was wrong in Tuesday's Herald. . . . Most Hicksville stores, banks, etc. will be closed next Monday, Feb. 22, for Washington's Birthday.

A representative of Dictograph Products Inc of Jamaica told the Herald this week that authorized salesmen for the concern, which sells home fire alarm systems, carry credentials from the firm and urged housewives to ask for them. He also said the Fire Chief EDWARD SCHLUTER JR. was scheduled to see a demonstration of the alarm device yesterday. . . . A report in the Bethpage news last week gave an incorrect impression. ORVILLE BRIGGS was the first scoutmaster and organizer of Boy Scout Troop 118. . . . Do you know who holds the record as the public official with the longest period of service in our Township if not the county? She is BERTHA GIFFORD of Bethpage who has been elected a trustee of the Jones Fund for 24 consecutive years. . . .

Repainting of the sign on Newbridge Rd in front of West Village Green in Hicksville this week eliminated the designation "Levittown". DERMONT P. DUNNE, formerly of Hicksville, who now lives at 68 Claving Ave., Syosset, has been appointed Nassau chairman for the 49th annual Charity Ball of the L. I. Chapter Knights of Columbus to be held May 14 in Bklyn. . . . Don't miss the official opening of the new MACPHERSON CHEVROLET place of business at 27 First St., Hicksville, this Saturday from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M. . . . Lt. Col. EDWARD A. ARRINGTON of 8 North Dr., Hicksville, is commander of a new 11th Aerial Port Operations Squadron which was activated at Mitchel Air Force Base on Tuesday, Feb. 16. Col. Arrington is a pilot with Pan American out of New York International Airport. . . . BERT COUBE who conducts the luncheon raffle at the Hicksville Rotary Club meetings was the winner last week. When members put up a howl, he set them against the prize to the dental clinic fund. . . . Hicksville is planning a dinner-dance with BARBARA SOININEN as chairman of arrangements. . . .

Most astounding fact is the lack of agreement among school board members on whether or not there is a real threat of triple class sessions as some speakers are now saying. . . . Still no word from Albany on LARRY ROMAN's appeal that the one per cent attorney fee is "unreasonable". . . . Wheels are moving quietly but steadily forward for revived push to get vote for Hicksville on home rule. . . .

Town Board is getting ready to name an additional assistant town attorney. THEODORE SUMMERS of Syosset, town attorney, who has been confined to his home with illness, is going to Fla. for a rest. . . . Port of New York Authority is considering a special radio broadcast devoted to Hicksville. . . .

What local Post Office BIG WIG is expected to make his debut as official dog catcher for the Post Office? This is the note I received signed "An Admirer". . . . By the way, the Post Office will be closed on Monday, Washington's Birthday, and there will be no delivery except special deliveries. . . .

Civics Prepare Petition Forms

HICKSVILLE—Members of the Park Community Civic Assoc. are preparing petition forms with the assistance of their attorney, Salvatore L. DiGiuseppe of Rockville Centre, to forestall if possible the construction of a gasoline service station on the east side of Jerusalem Ave. between So. Dean and Tobias St. Petitions will be made available to all residents thru their neighborhood civic groups, according to President Peter Ferraro. Recent action in Supreme Court, reversing the Town Board of Appeals, on this particular application was the subject of a special report in Tuesday's Herald. The Town is planning to appeal the decision.

Debate Is Set For Meeting

HICKSVILLE — The "Bricker Amendment" will be the topic of debating teams of the Diocesan Debating League at a social meeting of Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus, set for Tuesday night, Feb. 23 at the VFW Clubhouse on Grand Ave.

W. E. Smith of Bethpage is in charge of the program for the evening. Grand Knight Francis Donovan will preside.

23 Scouts Spend 3 Days In Camp

WADING RIVER—Members of Boy Scout Troop 291 of Hicksville, led by Scoutmaster Edward Quinby, spent the 3-day Lincoln's birthday weekend at Camp Wauwaxpex, here. Also accompanying the 23 scouts were Assistant Scoutmaster Edward Jacobs and Committeeman James Jacobs.

Over the weekend Scout Bob Thompson was awarded his tenderfoot pin and other boys passed numerous tests.

Becker's Lincoln Day Talk Impresses GOP Club

By B. C. SOININEN
Members of the Hicksville Republican Club, who were unable to attend the monthly meeting, last Friday, Feb. 12, missed a most interesting evening. Congressman Frank Becker as guest speaker, had the undivided attention of all present with a straightforward and sincere dissertation on both national and personal events. He carried a Lincoln's Day message from the President to all the people. He quoted a number of statements made by Abraham Lincoln and showed the remarkable similarity to President Eisenhower's own personal views. The listeners were impressed by each President's dependence on God's grace to help them perform their tasks for man. One can not help but feel that where this exists, the nation is blessed indeed.

Congressman Becker, also gave a resume of his duties in Washington, which embraces regular work on budgets, the President's messages, military defense, taxes, committee meetings and floor discussions, a staggering amount of mail, visitors to be made welcome and tours arranged for them, his own sub-committee on harbors and rivers and his special avocation to aid servicemen and the widows and children of servicemen, both as an individual and a congressman. We are indebted to Congressman Becker for a most enjoyable speech and hope he will address the club again.

Special Civic Session Feb 23

HICKSVILLE — A Public Meeting of the North West Civic Assoc. was held by the Executive Board on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, at Burns Ave. School at 8:20 P.M., to hear two speakers from the Citizens Advisory Committee who will fully discuss the pending increase in school attendance and the Mar. 6 referendum. The meeting is open to all interested parties.

State Ruling Effects Four

ALBANY — Motor Vehicle Commissioner James R. Macduff today released a list of driver license and motor vehicle revocations and suspensions for major causes during the latter half of January.

Registrations of Grace Johnson of 10 W. Old Country Rd., and of Benjamin Rivera of 7 Arrow Lane, both Hicksville, have been suspended pending investigation for unlicensed operator convictions.

The license of Nicholas W. Mazzei of 22 Salem Rd., has been suspended for persistent violation under the point system. The license of Arthur Szerlip of 27 Bamboo Lane, also Hicksville, has been suspended on the same charge.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Suffolk Learns From Nassau

By JOHN DOWLING
It's good to see that many Suffolk township, village and community leaders, profiting by Nassau's experience, are taking a definite stand regarding the promiscuous and indiscriminate erection of homes by builders who refuse to recognize or accept a share in the problems arising from their construction.

In the case of the Huntington town, for instance, the town board is considering 41 proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance in order to prevent instant inundation of the school system by a simultaneous influx of new homeowners. Those of Huntington who are sponsoring these amendments are quite naturally opposed by the official mouthpiece of the builders—the Long Island Home Builders Institute. The LIHBI asks that these changes be squelched and a more flexible law be substituted in their place.

The Institute says that economic arguments have no relation to zoning. This is the eternal tenet of the Institute and their clients and anyone who dares even to suggest that large builders have a responsibility to the community in which they have made or are making money must be ready to withstand all kinds of vituperation and harangue.

Even the outsider who has only a passing interest in Nassau—Suffolk educational problems can discern that a builder who develops a large tract with hundreds of small homes creates an immediate school problem. And he creates it by virtue of the fact that he fails to make provision for schools within the perimeter of the developed area. The builder who sets aside a few parcels of land for a school is a rare bird. In fact, few even gave consideration to playgrounds until they were forced to by town government.

If the Long Island Home Builders Institute and its builder-clients have such deep-rooted interests in the Long Island communities why don't they call a halt to all these fancy phrases such as "consonant with the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the community," and instead of talking do a little acting.

There'd be no kick coming from Huntington's residents or the people of other Suffolk communities if the large builders would make it their business to see to it that in every large development some acreage was set aside for schools.

But whether the builders continue to reject these moral and real responsibilities or not, Suffolk's leaders in all fields have been awakened to the need for regulatory zoning and other ordinances and no amount of high-sounding propaganda from the LIHBI will deter these good people from working in the best interests of all Suffolk communities.

PLAINVIEW VAMPS REPORT

William Schrimpe Resigns Office

Fire Chief William Pancioli wishes to publicly thank William Schrimpe, a member of the Board of Directors, who resigned on Feb. 6, 1954. He has served two years of a five year term on the board. It is known to the members of the company that he has donated many hours to perform his obligations to the best of his ability.

At this point, we of the fire company want to wish him and his family the best of everything and lots of happiness in their new home in Syosset. His resignation was accepted on Feb. 8.

A new member of the board, Louis Cervelli has been elected. He has been chief of the company and is active at present as chairman of the Plainview Comfort Committee.

In the past he has been a member of nearly every committee in the company. Therefore, we know he is capable of filling the need on the board. Due to the large number of votes cast for him he can feel that he has the full support of all the company members.

Cupid's Ball Was Success

By BARBARA CLARK
"Cupid's Ball" teenage dance "The Plainview teenage dance" really went over with a bang. We never realized what versatile members we had until John Diana played the piano for us and then sang "Rags to Riches" and Jimmy Sharkey sang "I'm Yours" and "Liberty Bell".

Everyone thought that the Decorating Committee really went out of its way to make the school look the best yet.

The Refreshment Committee served terrific food and soda with plenty of both for everyone.

The door prize was won by Mark Gallagher and Lueille Aquilino. Jacky Dewling and Arleen Gleason won the Lindy contest while Jimmy Sharkey Arleen Gleason, Louis Spina and Angela Rodono tied for first place in the fox trot contest.

A vote of thanks is extended to the chaperones who were our Director Mr. Rees, Mr. Denino and Mr. Payne, Mr. Frank, Mrs. Dowling and Mrs. Delamain. The Band consisting of Leo and Frank Pierce, Roger Sherman, Purlsey and Auletta were terrific.

The Plainview Basketball Team "The Teens" were victorious over the Farmingdale team 59-58. The next regular game will be held Thursday, Feb. 18th at Hicksville.

Hope all Teenagers turn out for our next meeting at Manetto Hill School Friday nite.

Civics Arrange To Hold Dance

PLAINVIEW—At the Civic Association's regular monthly meeting held Feb. 16 at the Manetto Hill School a dance committee consisting of Thomas Granito, 215 Floral Dr.; Rae Cantilli, 17 Island St.; Bob Kirschner, 8 Abbey Lane; Bernard McCaffrey, 161 Manor St. and Mrs. Rhoda Ludwig, 161 Orchard St., was organized to set the wheels in motion for a community-wide dance. The date for the affair will be announced in the near future.

Other Association business taken care of at the Feb. 16 meeting included the election of a nominating committee for the forthcoming election. Those chosen to serve on that committee included Sam Ackerman, Les Hoffman, Robert O'Brien, Mrs. Roberts, Thomas Granito, Dave Weltz and Robert Kirschner.

Start Meter Reading Here

PLAINVIEW—Meter reading of the Water District will commence Feb. 23 and will cover the period from Dec. 1 to Mar. 1, John Trank, the district's water superintendent announced today.

Residents who are not at home when the meter readers call will find a self-addressed, self-stamped card in their mail box which may be filled out with the meter reading and returned to the Water District office. This will save a call back by the meter readers and saves the district additional expenses, it was pointed out.

HICKSVILLE DOWNS:

Meet Your New Reporter

By JEAN DOWD
Hicksville 4-1887

How does one go about writing the column so aptly handled in the past by Marge Kern? I suppose the first thing would be an introduction, I'm Jean Dowd of 100 Cliff Drive (where, incidentally, any newsworthy items or gripes will gladly be accepted). We do not know all of our neighbors yet but, with your help, we will soon.

An new down to business... Speaking of Marge Kern as we were above, she celebrated her birthday Feb. 11 with the help of her husband and mother, and her neighbors, Annette Gerstenfeld and Alice Bifalco who dropped in. Mr. and Mrs. John Murray of 25 Cedar St. announced the birth of their third son, Thomas, who arrived on February 9th and tipped the scales at 6 pounds 6 ounces.

The catechism classes of the new parish, Our Lady of Mercy, were started Saturday, Feb. 13. The classes are being held in private homes in the different developments. We hope that by this time everyone has his parish census form filled out and returned. If you have not as yet obtained one, call Hicksville 4-1886 and it will be mailed out to you. You may also give the necessary information over the telephone and the form will be filled out and given directly to Father Schwebius.

Reports Success Of Card Party

PLAINVIEW — Mrs. Dorothy Schupp, president of the local Unit 1812 American Legion Auxiliary, today reported that the card party held last week by the unit was an outstanding social and financial success.

Major prizes were won by Frances Santa Maria who held the winning ticket on the radio and Mary Maidment who won the door prize, a basket of cheer.

The next event on the Auxiliary's schedule, according to Mrs. Schupp, will be a cake sale to be held March 18 between the hours of 4:00 and 9:00 P.M. at Dan's supermarket, Old Country Road and Universal Blvd.

The Legion Auxiliary has received its permanent charter and meets every first and third Mondays of each month at Manetto Hill School.

T/Sgt. EDWIN L. DEY - Ready to Serve You

Army, Air Force To Recruit Here

HICKSVILLE—A United States Army and Air Force Recruiting office has been established at the Herald office, 98 North Broadway, next to the Post Office, it was announced today by M/Sgt. John J. Friel, Army, and T/Sgt. Edwin L. Dey, Air Force.

The new office will be the focal point of their area which includes Hicksville, Bethpage, Plainview, Island Trees, Levittown, Westbury, Farmingdale, Freeport, Merrick, Bellmore, Wantagh, Seaford, Massapequa and Carlo Place. The office was chosen because of the community's central location.

The office will be open daily, Monday through Friday from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M. The phone number is HI 3-1400. Space for the new office is being provided as a public service by the Herald.

Girls Represent Norway Feb 27

PLAINVIEW — The local Girl Scouts will represent the country of Norway at the Juliet Lowe program at the Calderone Theatre in Hempstead on Feb. 27, it was learned this week, following a meeting of the town committee at the home of Mrs. Alma Craib.

Mrs. Grace Berry is chairman for the program the Girl Scouts will present at the P-T-A meeting in Manetto Hill School next month. There will be folk dancing, singing and skits by the Girl Scouts.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Town Must Put Up Good Fight

By Fred J. Noeth

THEY ARE BEGINNING to say "you want to be careful where you drop a match in Hicksville—the whole town may go up in a flash of fire". The reference is, of course, to the number of gasoline service stations in our community.

The decision of Supreme Court Justice Pette reported in Tuesday's Herald on the matter of a new gas station for Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, has caused understandable concern throughout the township. The Board of Appeals in July of last year turned down the application of Commercial Properties, Inc. The Board's verdict was taken to Supreme Court and reversed. The matter is now going to the Court of Appeals.

We seem to recall that 15 or 20 years ago the Board of Appeals refused an application for a gasoline station on the South Shore. The matter was taken to court and the Board was reversed. Thereafter, the Board granted every subsequent application on the grounds, we were told, that a request had once been denied and then reversed in court.

The refusal of the Commercial Properties application was the first rejection most folks can recall in more than a decade. The members of the Parc Community Civic Assoc. who had worked hard to defeat the application were elated with the verdict last July.

The fact that the court had reversed the Board, therefore, came as a cold shock to the neighborhood.

What makes this all the more disturbing is the fact that we had been led to believe that the zoning ordinances of the township had, as the result of some three years of study by experts, been "completely modernized". This leads us to inquire why the regulations governing permits for gasoline stations were not altered to make establishment of more filling stations difficult, if not impossible. As it stands now, it would appear to the layman that all a person has to do is acquire property zoned for business use and he can get a permit to build a gasoline station.

We realize that gasoline filling stations are important and that Hickville has need of more today than it had say five years ago when the population (and number of autos) was about one-third of today's total. But do we have to have all the service stations for the township in Hicksville? Why, for example, can Garden City limit the number of stations to one while Hicksville has to put up with about 50 and face the possibility of more to come?

Justice Pette commented: "It is obvious that the filing of the objections (at the hearing last year by the people of the neighborhood) . . . converted the hearing before it into a referendum, on the strength of which the board, in part, predicated its denial of petitioner's application for the permit sought". In other words, the court found that the Board of Appeals rejected the application because of the large numbers present at the hearing in opposition.

The decision was certainly popular with the neighborhood and the people of the Parc homes area went away with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment. Now there remains for the township to warrant such confidence and put up the strongest kind of fight on the appeal to have Justice Pette reversed. Unless this is achieved, there apparently will be no limit to the number of such facilities likely to be set up here.

How can the State Park authorities limit the number of stations, for example, or Garden City for that matter, while the township retains such ineffectual regulations? The problem is squarely in the lap of the Town Board and they will act upon it only if YOU convince them that you consider it a serious matter worthy of immediate attention.

NINE PTA'S TODAY
 Six years ago the one community-wide P-T A was split when a separate unit for East St. School was organized. Nicholas School formed a P-T A the same year. Three years ago separate Junior and Senior High P-T A's were organized and new ones have been instituted as each new school was opened. There are today nine P-T A's in Hicksville with an estimated 3,000 members.

 A Council of P-T A's was formed nine months ago. Mrs. William Giannelli is president, and this group is sponsoring the Founder's Day dinner next Tuesday. Mrs. W. Gardiner Thomsson of Rockville Centre, district P-T A director, will be present.
 The National Congress of Parents and Teachers Inc. came into being on Feb. 17, 1897. It was organized by Alice McLellan Birney with the help of Phoebe Apperson Hearst.

Ten Night At Public Library

HICKSVILLE—Thursday evening, Feb. 25, is teen-age night at the Free Public Library, here, and Librarian Kenneth Barnes announces there will be a movie and refreshments. The comedy film is "Ruggles of Red Gap" with Charles Laughton and Charles Ruggles. Free tickets are available at the library desk, Jerusalem Ave. and Second St.

WRITTEN EXAMINATION for supervisory positions in Hicksville Post Office was taken Saturday at the high school under the watchful eyes of (left to right in background) Postmaster William G. Mollitor, Postal Inspector E. Natri of Jericho and William R. Tahley, superintendent of mails. Taking the test were employees of the local office. By

HILLSIDE TERRACE HAPPENINGS:

Civic Activity Benefits Us All

Dear Hillside Terrace Residents:

The Feb. 10 meeting of your Civic Assoc. produced quite a few new subjects for consideration and further consideration and reports in committee.

Subjects that were acted upon since the previous meeting could have more committee support from residents by a larger attendance and more residents becoming members. Meetings are held the second Wednesday of each month at 8 PM at the East St. School unless otherwise notified. Why not mark your calendar right now.

The purpose of the association is to bring together the residents of Hillside Terrace who are interested in civic betterment of any nature, with the purpose of promoting the cause of GOOD CITIZENSHIP, and the GENERAL WELFARE of the residents of HILLSIDE TERRACE in particular, and HICKSVILLE in general.

For this purpose study is made of local topics which may improve local conditions, and we shall also take such practical action as may be wise and desirable after such study.

The words in capital letters above, quoted from our constitution, emphasize the points that a lot of people have missed. Don't take offense at this statement, but rather

Enjoy Reading Herald Issues

HICKSVILLE — "Both my wife and I get a great deal of pleasure reading the Herald, and look forward to receiving each issue," writes James P. Berry of 6 Cornell Ave. here. With his kind letter was an enclosure of a check for a one year subscription.

Church Society Sets Meetings

HICKSVILLE—All chairman of the Executive Committee of the Blessed Pius Society of St. Ignatius Church are reminded of the meeting next Monday, Feb. 22 at 8:15 P.M. in the old school auditorium.

The next regular meeting of the Confraternity parents will be held Monday, March 1, in the same place. Father Lawrence Ballweg, moderator, will have an interesting topic for discussion.

Vincent Hilly, membership chairman, is expecting to see many new parents at the regular meeting as a result of the drive for an increase in the rolls now in progress.

let us all reconsider our own views as to why we have a civic assoc. We can accomplish more locally by group action, which in most cases is better than individual action. If you agree with this, let's show it by bringing our neighbors and ourselves to the next civic meeting.

Action is being taken at the present time on stop signs, requested for every corner, and contact is being made with the Long Island Lighting Co. on street lights.

Civic association presidents, or representatives are to meet once a month, for exchange of ideas and support on different matters. Among these are support for re-activation of a long dormant Hicksville Incorporation Civic Council, Civic Association participation and attendance at Citizens Advisory Committee meetings. The next meeting of the latter is on Feb. 11 in the high school auditorium. Plan to attend if possible as questions from the floor should be in order.

A vote will be taken on Mar. 6 for approval or disapproval of a $2,400,000 school expansion program. Vote on this carefully as it has an effect on everyone, especially the five room school on Newburgh Rd. and the division of the school district into special voting and election areas. (If I like to see an elementary school in the North East section where most of the housing development is taking place.) Question for thought: "Is it possible that classrooms of the upper grades could be used for elementary teaching if they should become available due to more younger children in the area than junior and senior high school students in two to six years?"

A two mile limit on bus service has been set by the school board I am told. The state authorizes a three mile limit. (Items like this need more discussion in meetings. After all it's for your children either now or later.)

Plans for a spring dance are in the offing. We have all enjoyed these and will enjoy future ones.

Our playground area is still being discussed in committee with reports indicating some progress with TOB and the builders, but final dispositions have not been made, as we have not distributed the questionnaires. When you receive them give the matter your immediate attention if possible and let's not suggest the "impossible and the moon too." The moon is enough.

Would you like to vote on the bond issue for the Municipal Parking Lot? Well perhaps it can be brought to a vote, at least the possibilities are there if enough support is given to an active committee.

Have you read about the local Civil Defense program . . . someone being paid $10,000 per year, and also in the textile business? Let's have more about this and perhaps some volunteers for our own area at the next meeting.

I've tried to give you an idea about some of the matters that are discussed at your civic meetings, so that many of you may become interested enough to attend and become active members. The association was formed for you and will only become as strong as the membership behind it. If we all help, 660 of us can make small work out of the biggest undertaking.

I hope to see you all at the next regular meeting on March 10 at 8 PM at the East St. School.

Your Neighbor

Cancer Crusade For Funds Sets Goal For 1954 Effort

A goal of $140,000 has been set for the 1954 Cancer Crusade for funds, it was announced today by H. Bogart Seaman, chairman of the advisory committee of the Nassau County Cancer Committee. The campaign, led by Desmond J. Drischell of Baldwin, will be held during April, designated Cancer Control Month by President Eisenhower. Honorary chairman of the crusade is Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower.

The goal, while $10,000 higher than last year, is still less than the total amount raised in the 1953 drive. Last year, with a goal of $130,000, the cancer crusaders raised nearly $165,000.

"This not only enabled us to meet our budget, but has given us the opportunity this year to expand our services in Nassau County," Mr. Seaman said. "The Cancer Committee has allocated part of the funds for a special study of pelvic cancer, and the remainder of the money will be used for the most pressing need as determined by a study which will be completed shortly. In short, the generosity of Nassau people is showing results in a very tangible way."

Sixty percent of the funds raised remain in Nassau County for education of the public, dissemination of information to physicians, and

Expect Police Speaker Mar 3

HICKSVILLE—The Northeast Civic Assoc. expects to have a member of the Nassau County Police Dept. present as a speaker at the group's next meeting on Wednesday night, Mar. 3, at the high school. Vice President William Fuesat presided at a recent session when by-laws were revised and approved.

Road conditions in the northeast area are currently a subject of concern for the group as well as the "dog problem". Harold J. Wahne and Fuesat have been named to attend meetings of the Civic Information Exchange as representative of their organization.

LEGAL NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE
PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that pursuant to the County Law, of the County Government Law of Nassau County, the Nassau County Administrative Code and Amendments to said laws, also a resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Nassau adopted February 1st, 1954, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that map showing real property to be acquired for Sanitary Sewer and/or other Public Purposes, Northeast corner of Northern Boulevard and Millburn Avenue and the west side of Grand Avenue at a point about 730 plus or minus feet south of Fishermens Road and various other streets in the vicinity of Baldwin, Town of Hempstead, Sewage Disposal District No. 2-B, Sewage Collection District 2-B, Dated October 26, 1953, was prepared by order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Nassau, approved by the Commissioner of Public Works of said County, and is on file in the office of the said Commissioner of Public Works of Nassau County.

Said map shows real property to be acquired for Sanitary Sewer and/or other Public Purposes, Northeast corner of Northern Boulevard and Millburn Avenue and the west side of Grand Avenue at a point about 730 plus or minus feet south of Fishermens Road and various other streets in the vicinity of Baldwin, Town of Hempstead, Sewage Disposal District No. 2-B, Sewage Collection District 2-B, distinctly indicating the several parcels of real property to be acquired, the purported owners thereof and the dimensions and bounds of each of said parcels.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that a hearing will be held in respect to such map in the Meeting Room of the Board of Supervisors in the Old County Court House, Mineola, Nassau County, New York, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon on March 8th, 1954, at which hearing said Board will afford a reasonable opportunity to all persons interested to make objections thereto or suggest changes therein.

FAMILY LIFE COURSE

A program focused upon the interests of parents in their younger children will begin Tuesday, Feb. 23, in the Bethpage School. Mrs. Helen Reid, a well-known lecturer in this field, will lead the class which is the first of its kind in the evening school in Bethpage.

The first meeting will include the film "Preface to a Life" in the library of the Broadway School. Mrs. Reid and Rodman Hartjen have arranged a series of films to direct and stimulate group discussion on the topics of general interest arranged by Mrs. Reid. The final class will be discussing the film "Farewell to Childhood" which deals with the adolescent and pre-adolescent age groups. All ages will be covered in the course of the Family Life program.

Most of the adult education classes have been meeting for three weeks now. The dressmaking, ceramics, and high school equivalency groups have reached maximum registration and it may be necessary to limit the number of registrants for these groups in the future. The Reading Program for Adults has several openings since the remedial type program with "measuring" devices from the Washington Square School was expected to draw more registrants.

DEMOCRATIC DOINGS

Big doings in the Bethpage Democratic camp with plans underway for the Town of Oyster Bay Young Democrats to hold their installation of officers in the Bethpage Legion Hall on Mar. 4. Carlton Bentley of Hicksville is the newly elected club president.

Ladies Auxiliary of the Butternut Bros. Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held a very successful cake and apron sale on Feb. 12. As a result, they are able to present the Girl Scouts with a check for $39.35. The Auxiliary members wish to thank all who contributed cakes and supported this affair.

P-T-A Program On CD Grows Into Community Wide Event

BETHPAGE—It will be Civil Defense Day here on April 1. The Parent-Teachers' Assoc. is sponsoring CD Day and the volunteers of the CD Unit here will carry out the various highlights of the day's program.

"Community Survival" is the theme for the April P.T.A. meeting as planned by the Program Committee, which includes Mrs. Sam Merin, Chairman; Mrs. Henry Rockhill, Mrs. John Griffin, Leo Schotland, and Rodman Hartjen. Tex. Surprise, CD Chairman of the P.T.A., is responsible for the unique way in which CD will be brought home to the entire community.

The program will begin at 9 A. M., with the CD exhibits on display in the south parking field of the Broadway School. The school children will participate in air raid drills and also be given the opportunity to see the outdoor exhibit which will still be in operation in the evening. There will be an indoor exhibit as well in the Broadway School Cafeteria beginning at 7 P.M.

The regular P-T-A meeting will take place at 8:15 P. M. and the program on "Community Survival" will follow at 9 P.M. This will include a ten minute CD film and short talks by community and county leaders.

The entire community is being asked to enter into the spirit of the day. Stores will be requested to set up special displays and announcements concerning the program.

Through the cooperation of Victor L. Miller, Supervising Principal, the Art Depts. of the local Schools, and CD Unit 313, a poster contest will be held for the school children. The theme of the contest is the child's impression of CD. There will be three prizes in each of three different age groups, 7th through 10th grades, 4th through 6th, and Kindergarten through 3rd. Closing date of the contest is Mar. 12. Posters will be on display a week before CD Day. Judges for the contest are Buddy Mazzara, Arthur Bunce, Tex. Surprise, Mrs. Patricia Flyer, and Mrs. Margaret Esposito. The awards will be made by the local CD Director Fred Willard, on CD Day.

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The Hicksville PBC Alumni added a new chapter to basketball here, Monday night, entitled, "The Dribble to No-where."

For those who covet sub-titles, the alternate could be tabbed "The Pass to Noone."

That could be the only impressions one could gain from viewing Hempstead's 87-79 Alliance victory on the local boards.

The verdict should prove a boon since circumstances have been such that the Hub crew had almost come to believe that a win over Hicksville was nearly impossible.

The Rams will enter the playoffs, which get underway next week, in a much better frame of mind, armed with the knowledge that not only did they defeat Hicksville, but that they accomplished the feat in what they bitterly refer to as "the pit".

Hicksville will be in the playoffs also. In a season of juggling the Alumni spun itself into five losses but the field wasn't too strong so the possibility of a fourth straight championship has not been removed.

To win again will take a far better effort than was exhibited Monday.

First of all there was some good work. Stan Kellner chipped in 25 points and did a creditable job.

The important thing is that all his shots were good ones and all of them should have been taken. Such was not the case with some of his team mates. The return pass was almost non-existent.

It came in the glaring spotlight when late in the game the PBC Alumni had rattled off ten straight points and had two on one for the bucket that would have tied it. The Hicksville player standing all alone under the nets never got the pass.

Hicksville never got the basket.

The pattern of the club has always been run and shoot. With that there can be no quarrel. However, defense is completely forgotten in some instances.

As usual the club tried to avert defeat with the hawking press. It resulted in many points for the PBC. It resulted in many more for Hempstead.

There just cannot be four men passing. It has to be done by the whole club or the other team simply has a fellow free to simply dribble up the basket and put in a layup.

Hempstead did that at least eight times in the last period.

Hicksville's dribbling trouble came not on the steal and fast breaks but when the winners had their zone defense set. Hempstead has the tallest timber in the loop and to dribble into the jammed bucket proved unsuccessful.

The biggest waste came with the inability or indifference to using the talents of Ted Schwarting. That he sat out most of the third period did not help at all.

The money games are coming up.

The best foot forward is certainly required. And once it is forward it has to be kept there!

Hicksville Again Denies Baymen, Dalers New Eastern Champions

HICKSVILLE—Oyster Bay High's championship ambitions were foiled for the second year in a row, here Tuesday afternoon, by a super-charged Comet five which led all the way in reversing a previous 20-point loss to win 69-62.

As a direct result Farmingdale was elevated later in the evening to its first Eastern Division flag. A hairline 32-31 decision at Westbury removed the pressure of the Dalers' final two games where they are called upon to face both Oyster Bay and Hicksville.

In those contests the Dalers would be nothing more than an even bet. Actually had Westbury upset the new champs both Hicksville and Oyster Bay could have gained a triple tie with victories in the final tests but all conjecture is out the window now.

Farmingdale reigns with a mark of 3-0 while Oyster Bay and Hicksville are deadlocked at 5-5.

BITTER PILL

Last year Hicksville's 43-33 win on its own court ended Oyster Bay's 38-game winning streak, was only one of two losses in an 18 game slate, and blocked the Gold's bid for a sixth straight flag.

The Baymen are aware that Chet Jaworski's club can readily roll in February but weren't prepared for the sharp Hicksville attack which riddled first a zone and then a man-to-man defense.

In administering the bitter pill, Hicksville skipped off to a 30-22 lead at half time.

For the greater part it was a truly team effort. Boh Paton was high man with 21 points and did most of his damage in the second half.

In the third period Bob DeLay made two heady plays from underneath and that helped soar the lead to 50-36 after three periods.

Actually both clubs made 23 second half alone and most came in field goals and Hicksville won it from the foul line where they deposited just 23 of 63 points from the foul marker. Oyster Bay made 16 of 23.

The missing of 30 free throws strikes as shabby but it is part of the calculated Baymen attack to foul and foul again and completely unbalance the opposition.

In the extremely long fourth quarter this roughhouse paid the visitors dividends. When the score reached 59-41 Hicksville the Baymen came with a rush. They flipped fifty shots at the basket in the the final rush.

They did manage to cut the lead to six points but goals by Dick Evaschuk, Ed Scott and Joe Pepe each hit to preserve the win. In the order named those boys contributed 17, 10 and 8 points to the Hicksville cause.

DeLay banged in six field goals and a foul.

Hicksville's ever improving record now stands at 7 wins and 9 losses which shows the great improvement of a club that could win only 2 of its first 9.

4 Golf Courses Open Saturday

BETHPAGE — The State Park Commission announces that the four 18-hole golf courses at Bethpage State Park here will be open for play this Saturday, Feb. 20, if weather and playing conditions are favorable. All four courses have been closed since Jan. 1.

Recent mild weather has removed all frost from the ground and the courses will remain open for the balance of the 1954 season, when weather conditions permit.

Harold Arthur, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wicks of 210 Ninth St., Hicksville, was baptized Sunday, Feb. 12 at Trinity Lutheran Church by the Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor. Servad Marshall and Edith Marshall were the god parents.

Good Neighbors for 28 Years

Speakers Cite Educational Losses And Disruption of Home Routine

HICKSVILLE—Dozens of appearances are being made in the community by 17 speakers representing the "Referendum Committee" on the school expansion propositions set for vote at the high school on Mar. 6. The following is the text provided speakers as the basis for their remarks. It is reprinted for the information of residents who may not have heard these comments at neighborhood session.

SPEAKERS' OUTLINE

At the present time, 85 per cent of our children are on double sessions in this school district. What this means to our children and to our family life is a well worn tale by this time. The educational losses already suffered—some never to be regained—the disruption of normal play and of family routine—these we know all too well.

Is there a mother here who wouldn't love to have all her children on a 9 to 3 schedule? Yes, we are all in favor of a single session program. Yet, next fall, almost a thousand new children will be added to the already overcrowded schools—and another similar amount in Sept. 1955—and so on each year for at least eight years.

Let me paint a picture of what it may be like in 1955. You might have triple sessions. In fact, it is a real possibility.

Let's assume a four hour session, which is about as little as a child conceivably should have. The first group would start classes at 7 a.m. and finish at 11. The next group would start, let us say at 11 a.m. and finish at 3. The last group would start at 3 p.m. and finish at 7 p.m.

APPLIED TO FAMILY

Now let's apply that to a family. There are two children in the family. One goes to the first session, the other to the second session. The mother fixes breakfast for one around 6 a.m. and hustles him off to school. At 11 he's back for lunch. But meanwhile, the mother has made a 10 o'clock breakfast for the second child who goes at 11 a.m. That child is back at 3 p.m. for lunch. What about dinner? Well, they'll all have to get together for it somehow. As for a family with three children, who happens to attend three different sessions, the mother has a full day indeed. How about the child returning home at 7:30?

However, the problem can still be largely solved. The Board of Education has completed plans and received state approval for the construction of four elementary school additions. On March 6 you will have the opportunity to vote the money necessary for the construction of these additions and

CD Police Still Active Group

HICKSVILLE—Clifford Goett, leader of the Civil Defense auxiliary police here, today announced a meeting of his unit and all other interested men for next Tuesday night, Feb. 23, in the cafeteria of St. Ignatius School on E. Nicholas St. Goett pointed out today that members of the unit "did not resign in a body" in the difference of opinion between Civil Defense authorities and members of the unit last June. He said the majority of the membership is still on the rolls.

the purchase of land for the site of a future school. As for sites, land has become very scarce in Hicksville and a thoroughly conservative study made by The Institute of Field Studies of Columbia University has recommended the immediate acquisition of at least three sites before they become completely unavailable.

YOU MUST REGISTER

A large vote is necessary to indicate your support of this expansion. Both husband and wife should therefore register and vote. Don't let your children and your neighbor's children down.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Will the opening of the Woodland Ave. School late this spring relieve overcrowding?

We'll still have over 80 per cent double session in Sept. 1954. And what about the other thousand entering in 1955 and 1956, etc.

Isn't there danger of overbuilding?

Dr. McCormick, director of the Columbia Survey said in Sept. 1953, "If we had all the proposed schools right now, we would not have one classroom too many". The expected long term and permanent enrollment after 1955 will still require all the schools recommended—and possibly more.

How much will these school additions cost me in taxes?

Text of statement from Board of Education was published in the Herald on Feb. 11.
