$5,574 For Boy Scout Fund In Local Appeal

HICKSVILLE—A total of 4,298 individual donations totalling $5,574.13 for the Boy Scout fund campaign here were reported today by William E. Koutensky, drive chairman. "I again want to express thanks to my co-workers for helping us make an exceptionally fine showing", Koutensky stated. "Checks are still coming in to me, and if some of the residents were out of town, it is not too late to send your contributions to me, care of the Long Island National Bank of Hicksville, or to any of my co-workers".

New Mail Route In Plainview

PLAINVIEW—Home mail delivery service for a new area here began yesterday (Monday) as route 31 of Hicksville Post Office was established. Served by the new carrier are sections 3 and 4 of Morton Village, Rural Homes and the original Plainview Ranch Village, all areas south of Old Country Rd.

Promise Inside Story Of CD

HICKSVILLE—The "inside story" of Civil Defense in this community is promised by Thomas Cullen, former assistant community CD director, and George McCarthy, at a meeting of the Democratic club tomorrow (Wednesday) night, Mar. 10 at the Legion Hall on E. Nicholas St. The general public is invited to attend the session which starts at 8:30 P.M.

Finletter to Speak Friday

Thomas K. Finletter, former secretary of the Air Force, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Young Democrats of the Town of Oyster Bay this Friday, Mar. 12, in Bethpage Legion Hall here at 8:30 p.m.

He will discuss "Political Budgets and McCarthyism—Twin Threats to Our National Defense".

There will be elections of officers of the club followed by installation ceremonies to be performed by Edward J. Hart, county chairman of the Young Democrats. Larry McKeown, county chairman of the Democratic Party, will speak on "The Importance of the Young Democrats in the Town of Oyster Bay"; and Thomas G. Evans, of Hicksville, outgoing president, will welcome the new officers. The meeting is open to the public.

1,618 CAST BALLOTS:

Approve All 6 School Proposals

HICKSVILLE—All six propositions were carried by substantial majorities at the special referendum of the school district on Saturday when 1,618 persons voted during the 10 hour period that the polls were open. About 75 people were waiting for the start of the voting at 1 o'clock in the morning and balloting continued steadily throughout the day.

Jack Drutman was elected chairman of the special meeting prior to the start of voting. He read the announcement of the official tally on the three voting machines when the polls were closed.

The vote was as follows: Prop. 1—Addition to Dutch Lane School at cost of $600,000. 1,417 yes, 173 no.

Prop. 2—Addition to Old Country Rd. School at cost of $600,000. 1,427 yes, 168 no.

Prop. 3—Addition to Burns Ave. School at cost of $600,000. 1,418 yes, 172 no.

Prop. 4—Addition to Fork Lane School at cost of $600,000. 1,419 yes, 169 no.

Prop. 5—Purchase of 4.9 acres off Newbridge Rd. near Fordham Rd. for $42,000 from surplus funds. 1,409 yes, 185 no.

Prop. 6—Division of school district into voting and registration areas. 1,369 yes, 160 no.

FOLLOW COUNCIL'S LEAD:

Water Fluoridation Gains P T A Backing

HICKSVILLE—Members of the Junior High PTA went on record at the monthly meeting Thursday night, Mar. 4, as supporting the PTA Council in its plan to initiate a drive locally for fluoridation of the water supply. It was announced that a film on the subject would be shown Thursday, Mar. 11 at the East St. PTA meeting.

Hear Speaker Thursday Night

HICKSVILLE—"Fluoridation" will be the topic, timed for PTA Health Month, at the meeting of the East St. PTA at the Thursday, Mar. 11 meeting. Dr. Gilbert Sherman, of Valley Stream, a member of the Committee on Fluoridation from the Tenth Dental District of the New York State Dental Faculty, will be the guest speaker.

Rites Thursday For M. J. Noeth

BETHPAGE—Michael J. Noeth who was with the Nassau County Surrogate's Office for more than a quarter century passed away at his home, on Martha Blvd., here, Sunday evening, Mar. 7. A resident of Hicksville for more than 30 years, he had moved to this community five months ago. The funeral will take place Thursday morning.

Mr. Noeth was 62 years of age. He is reposing at Henry J. Stock Funeral Home on Newbridge Rd., Hicksville. A mass of requiem will be said at St. Martin of Tours E.C. Church in Bethpage on Thursday morning, Mar. 11, at 10 o'clock. Interment will follow in Holy Road Cemetery, Westbury.

WAR BOND CHAIRMAN

He had been active in Hicksville community affairs. He served as chairman of War Bond Drives in Hicksville-Plainview area during World War II when the hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of war bonds were sold during successive drives. He also was a member of the Hicksville-Plainview Civilian Defense War Council during World War II in charge of the communications division.

A son, Tech. Sgt. Arthur A. Noeth, was killed on Sept. 17, 1944 while serving with the Army Air Force in Italy. His youngest son, Robert, was fatally injured in a bicycle-auto collision in Plainview in 1937.

Mr. Noeth is survived by his wife, Catherine; an older brother, Frederick Noeth of Richmond Hill; a son, Fred J. Noeth, editor and publisher of the Mid-Island Herald; and two grand children, Lynda and Arthur Noeth.

He was born in Brooklyn Sept. 15, 1881, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Noeth of 832 Flushing Ave. He brought his family to Hicksville in 1922, and resided for many years at the corner of Plainview Rd. and McKinley Ave.

He was a clerk in the Nassau County (Continued on Page 4)

A letter was read by Mrs. Charles Glaser, secretary, from the Dutch Lane PTA "in regard to a community supported recreation program.

A letter from John Dobson of the Chamber of Commerce asked for an expression of opinion on forming a local Community Chest. A motion was seconded and passed that the group favor such a move.

Principal Leon G. Galloway announced that the children who had been given transportation until "such time as sunset took place an hour after school's dismissal," would no longer be driven home since it is not dark now until 6 o'clock. He also said that the school board appreciated the needs of the Junior High and that his recommendations had been presented to the members at a conference the week of Mar. 1.

Mrs. Theodore G. Roseberry, president, was presented with a gavel by Principal Galloway in behalf of the group.

Mrs. Martin Polsenski, Mrs. John Ehrenfeld and Richard Evers were named to the nominating committee.

It was made known that Miss Grace Dondoro, reading consultant, would aid the parents group to help their children in reading.

Margaret Gleckler, head of the Junior High Mathematics Dept., discussed "Junior High's Place in Mathematics" pointing out that most occupations, including that of homemaker, required a knowledge of the subject, with 21 to 23 occupations requiring skill in the subject. "Today's work," she said "depends on yesterday's work and all the years before. A skill in using numbers, the foundational adding and subtracting, are learned from the first to the sixth grade, while in Junior High improvement in this knowledge and skill is sought." She mentioned the use of math in everyday life such as in forming a budget for the home, and in installment buying.

MAKE FIMB TRIPS

Mrs. Gleckler said that bank forms are used for demonstration, film strips, and field trips with business people in Hicksville most cooperative.

Under the direction of Norman Seip, the Junior High Band presented a varied program, which included a fine clarinet solo by John Hickey, and a flute solo by Mario Russo, who displayed exceptional tone preception and skill. Among the six numbers were "Tennessee Waltz," "Song of India," by Rimsky Korsakoff and "Embassy March."

Anthony Pollera, the new music teacher, was introduced. Singing was held in an assembly program Thursday. According to a statement in the school paper, the immediate objective of Mr. Pollera's program is to develop a lasting enjoyment of music, so intense that (Continued on Page 5)

Jericho Opposition To Arena Increases

JERICHO—Unanimous opposition to the proposed "Little Madison Square Garden" was expressed by over 100 residents here attending the annual meeting of the Jericho District Taxpayers Association held last Thursday night at the Jericho School.

All portions of the Jericho District—Syosset, Westbury Heath, Oakwood Estates, Jericho, Brookville, Hicksville—were represented at the open meeting.

Opposition was voiced on the undesirability of such mass sports activity in a primarily residential area, on the traffic problem inevitable with a concentration of 2,000 cars at sports events, on the fact that parking facilities shown in the proposed plan were considered inadequate. Questions were raised as to the actual sponsorship of the project, which calls for a building to house a full-sized arena with an auditorium seating 4,000 to 5,000 persons and a smaller hall for diners seating 400 to 600 people. A hearing to downzone seven acres from residential to industrial on Brush Hollow Road has already been held before the Town Board, which has reserved decision.

A number of civic groups in the area have already voiced opposition to the project, and the Village of Westbury which borders the proposed construction, is planning to voice an informal protest. It was reported. It is expected that hundreds of residents will send letters to the Town Board asking for denial of the petition.

Arthur Kaye, president of the Association, presided at the meeting at which four governors, to serve three-year terms, were re-elected. Those included Francis B. Carmody, Jericho; William C. Humphreys, Hicksville; Louis J. Rauch, Brookville; and Edward R. Mooney, Syosset. Officers reelected were Arthur A. Kaye, Brookville, president; H. Willets Underhill, Jericho, vice president; Henry G. Bruns, Jericho, treasurer; and Hamilton Hadden, Jr., Jericho, secretary.

Nassau Ready for Vaccine Trials

MINEOLA—The Nassau County Dept. of Health today initiated preliminary steps for participation in poliomyelitis vaccine trials which will take place this Spring among children of the first, second and third grades of all schools within the county. The program will be carried out with the cooperation of the Nassau County Medical Society and the Nassau Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"The selection of Nassau as one of the 20 counties in New York State to participate in this program did not come as a surprise," said Dr. Earle G. Brown, health commissioner, when notification arrived from the State Health Department at Albany.

"Nassau meets the criteria under which counties were selected, such as, over 50,000 population, high poliomyelitis incidence during the past five years, adequate health and educational facilities and geographic location suitable for a significant cross-section study."

"The poliomyelitis vaccine trials will get under way some time in April. Conferences are now being set up with the Medical Society and the Nassau Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to devise a plan under which more than 80,000 children in Nassau Schools will be eligible for the injections."

which more than 80,000 children in Nassau Schools will be eligible for the injections."

Legion to Dance At Clubhouse

HICKSVILLE—The Charles Wagner American Legion Post will hold a St. Patrick's Dance on Saturday, Mar. 20 at the clubhouse on E. Nicholas St. The Tony Bell Trio will provide the music and there will be refreshments.

At the Mar. 16 meeting of the Post a proposed change in the constitution and by-laws will be voted upon.

About Those Food Freezer Plans

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

A birthday party was held at our home Saturday for my husband, Gene, and attending were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Maljean, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGowan, J. Rava and his Daunce, Tina; Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. R. McGowan; Miss Alice Zimmerman. Hope the piano playing didn't bother the neighbors.

Belated birthday greetings to Gene's uncle, Raymond Maljean, and his cousin Bob Maljean. Also happy birthday to Mrs. Roy Sopko, of Vincent Road.

Before she left for Ireland, Mrs. Paskie's (of Fulton Ave.) mother left this recipe for us: English Fruit Cake: 8 oz. brown sugar, 12 oz. butter, or margarine, 1 c flour, 1 t all spice, 1/4 t ginger, 1 dessert spoon molasses, 3 lbs. mixed candied fruit, 5 eggs, well beaten, 1 t baking powder. Beat sugar and butter 15 minutes and fold in flour and eggs alternately. Add mixed fruit, and baking powder last with flour. Bake in a very slow oven 225 degrees 5 to 6 hours.

A stock shower was held for Marge Maljean last week. Attending were Terry Sharp, Helen Athas, Jean McGowan, Jean Turner, Peggy Purcell, Ann Sthal, Alice Zimmerman, Mary Zimmerman, Florence McKenna, Joan Hochscharner, and myself.

If I have another food plan salesman knock, I think I shall go mad. I believe that there are almost as many food plans going into business as are going out of business. Some of the plans made headlines recently when they were found to be shortweighting customers. That's no news to us. We have also seen some loopholed contracts, and heard a lot of promises by salesmen which were not backed up in writing. One of our kinks about food plans is that they try to tell you that they're interested in selling the food plan—NOT the freezer.

Try to buy a food plan without the freezer. . . . That would mean the salesman would go home minus his commission. . . . And that many of the "food plan outfits" would have rung up no sale because they farm out the food anyhow. . . . We know a girl who made approximately $400 weekly selling "food plans" . . . and every freezer went for LIST PRICE, when they could have been purchased at a big discount at an appliance store. . . . When I tell this to salesmen they say that the food plan cannot be purchased at the store. . . . I bought a $600 list price freezer for $440, at a time when steak was 69 cents a lb. after having a food plan man tell me that his steaks were 61 cents. . . . But I noticed in the fine print that 25% of it was waste bringing the actual price up to 78 cents for the same cut I was paying 68 cents for. . . .

When you buy a freezer food plan you may be buying a wonderful plan because all plans are not as I have described here—there are charlatans in every trade, but—take caution—EVEN IF YOU ABE PLANNING on buying the BEST and most WELL KNOWN—phone your better business bureau to see if there are any complaints leveled at the outfit, and ask their advice. . . . If you deliberate this way and take your time you won't be swindled. This description I've outlined does not blanket the entire business. There are many reputable firms that are a credit to the business.

One of the readers informs me that a builder could not accept her thanks for including a playground in the development. . . . he said that he was required by law to do this. . . . I wonder what the minimum number of houses is for such a law? . . . Will check and let you know. . . . Maybe you've got a playground coming to you.

This time of the year signs are placed in many windows advertises. (Continued on Page 11)

Dear Jean:

The Theatre Guild in Plainville is getting along nicely but there is an urgent $500 set for men to take part. Non residents are welcome, as well as local folks, for a meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) night, Mar. 10 at Manetto Hill School. . . . EUGENE J. SMYTH of Hicksville was co-pilot of a Navy twin-engine transport which was blown 65 miles off course by winds this week and landed at Meriden, Conn., instead of New York City. SMYTH is a Marine Captain. . . . We hear the high school senior class may not take its traditional Easter recess trip to Washington this year, a fact which is causing considerable local feeling. . . . OSCAR LAUER of 185 Lee Avenue, Hicksville, is Nassau-Suffolk chairman for the Sweethearts Nights planned for the Old Timers Assoc. of the Bronx YM-YWHA to be held at the new Y building at 1130 Grand Concourse, Bronx, on Saturday night, Mar. 13. He'll be glad to hear from all former Y members in this area. He can be reached at HI 4-0414. . . . A new publication in this area which boasts of dealing "strictly with facts" in its first issue talked about 20 room additions to local schools at $600,000 each. Actually, the additions will make the buildings a TOTAL of 20 rooms each. . . . LARRY ROMAN has been advised by the State Education Dept that his taxpayer's appeal on the School Attorney Fee question will be the subject of an early decision at Albany. . . . A local woman who finds particular interest in some of current films being shown on TV programs is DOROTHY DRAKE OF Acre Lane. She is featured in several of them. . . . Lot of the headline yackety yack about our RR grade crossings would give readers the impression that tomorrow, or the day after at the latest, construction of overpasses will start. Actually, we may not see any physical work on these projects until 1956, 1957 or even five or ten years HENCE. . . . If you were out of town when the Boy Scout Fund campaign was underway in Hicksville, you can still mail in that check to WILLIAM E. KOUTENSKY, chairman at the L. I. National Bank of Hicksville. . . . Rotary Club bulletin reports that Freeman PARK is in Florida. His committee is hard at work on plans for the club's dance on Mar. 20 at Stewart Manor Country Club. . . . Surprising, as it may seem, there is no fire hydrant as yet in front of the new Woodland Ave School (which is actually on Ketcham Road). The building is now scheduled tentatively for occupancy in April. . . .

OFF MILLWOOD GATE:

Hicksville Needs an Ambulance

By DOROTHY J. BROWN
Hicksville 4-8128

At the meeting of the Millwood Gate Property Owners Assn., Thursday evening at the Lee Ave. School, committee chairmen presented very interesting reports. Eugene Magee reported progress on the formation of a soft-shell team. Men, there is still time for more to sign up. Mr. Magee also informed the veterans that they could call the Board of Assessors of the County of Nassau, write them or pick up personally from this office in Mineola an application form and instructions for filing same for exemption from taxation of real property. This application with all the required information and records must be filed before May 18, 1954 or the third Tuesday in May of each year.

Fire Alarm Box 235 has been installed at Broadway and Millwood Gate and is in working order. The one for Fordham Rd. and Oxford will be put up in a few weeks as soon as more new boxes come.

Lights were turned on completion one of the development Wednesday, Mar. 3 and in the other sections a few days later. Everyone is pleased to see these lights working each night.

John Mulholland reported on the need for the school additions and other propositions which were voted on Saturday. After a brief question period on the school question, Mr. Mulholland introduced Jerome Zettler of the North West Civic Assn. Inc.

Mr. Zettler in turn introduced Herbert Johnson, past president of N. W. Civic Assn., who spoke to the group about providing the local fire dept. with an ambulance. At present the Nassau Police has the only ambulance available for emergencies and this covers the whole of the second precinct which is several towns besides Hicksville. Hicksville with a population of over 30,000 should have an ambulance available right here in town as there are many cases where a person was sick enough to have an ambulance but had to be taken to the hospital in a car as the present one was out on another call.

This need has been recognized by the Rotary Club and also by the Hicksville Civic Assn. but they have met with some stumbling block each year. The North West Civic Assn. Inc. wants to get people in such organization aroused to the needs and problems involved and enlist their help to sponsor the formation of a community committee to work out the details necessary to put this project over the top. Costs of operation were discussed as being very low per taxpayer for the protection received. Our Civic Group voted to send a resolution giving their endorsement of the program to the North West Civic Assn. Inc.

PERSONALS:

Among the news this week there seems to be several anniversaries. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gervasio of 17 Queensbury Lane are celebrating their 19th on Sunday, Mar. 7. On this same day Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christensen of 47 Fordham Rd. will have been married nine years and on Mar. 10 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rabbitt of 44 Fordham Rd. have eight years to their credit.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Rabbitt had a double celebration in the city with dinner and floor show at the Wivel on 54th St. Manhattan. Both couples had an enjoyable evening together.

On the cheer list this week, we find little two year old Richard Scymanski of 4 Greenbriar Lane who is suffering with bronchitis and tonsillitis. Let's hope he is over this illness by the time this reaches print.

Mrs. Marguerite Schmidt of 88 Woodbine Dr. N. suffered a slight shock this week but is taking nourishment and able to get up a little each day. May her strength continue to come back more each day until her health is completely restored.

Dr. Gans Cites 3 Basic Beliefs For Success In Educating

HICKSVILLE — "Guiding Children to Success in Learning" was the subject of a lecture by Dr. Roma Gans at a meeting of the Dutch Lane P-T A, Tuesday evening, March 2.

Dr. Gans, Professor of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University said that three things are basic to successful learning. First, the belief in one's self, the ability to know one's forte, is of the utmost importance. Whereas one child may read beautifully, another whose reading ability is slower developing may be good at arithmetic. Secondly, a child must have concern for others, a desire to belong. Thirdly, there must be a desire to learn. Consider the amount of things a child does learn by the time he is six or seven. He gains a tremendous vocabulary, learns to associate the written word with an object totally unrelated in form, learns the relationship between numbers and things, while at the same time his physical skills are constantly increasing.

Considering how much is required of the young child, Dr. Gans warned that parents must not add to his burdens by accepting any standard that assumes they can travel at the same pace. Let each set his own pace and encourage him with patience and understanding. Let them know we're glad they are different. A child needs his own uniqueness. To say a child does not belong in high school because he is a non-reader is absolutely wrong. Dr. Gans says every child belongs in high school and every child can be taught to read. There is no reason to expect all children to read at the same pace or to excel in every field.

Dr. Gans was greeted with a wave of laughter at her suggestion that children in general are probably psychic. She reminded us that children know with uncanny accuracy how and when to insert the last straw. Dr. Gans graciously consented to a question and answer period following her lecture and I think the unanimous feeling of the audience was that the evening was all too short.

During the business meeting which preceded the lecture, a nominating committee was chosen consisting of Mrs. Joseph Cawley, Chairman; John J. Chase, principal of the Dutch Lane School; John Drutman, Mrs. Ernest Theiss, Mrs. George Shiel, Mrs. Ernest Scarlata, Mrs. Donald Dougherty, and Miss Malvina Barnett, one of the fourth grade teachers at Dutch Lane.

The Executive Committee of the Dutch Lane P-T A as its last meeting voted unanimously to approve the schedule of salary increases for principals and teachers suggested by the Citizens Advisory Committee. Milton J. Leavitt explained to the committee how the schedule operates.

PRE-SCHOOL SECTION

There will be a meeting of the Pre-School Section of the Dutch Lane P-T A at 8:30 P.M. Wednesday, March 10th, in the Faculty Room of the school. There will be a group discussion of "Family Fun", and plans will be made for future meetings. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome, especially fathers.

SPRING FAIR

John Green, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Dutch Lane P-T A wishes to remind every one of the approaching Spring Fair to be held March 19. This is book week—look through your attic and shelves and send along the volume you no longer need. Next week is White Elephant Week—all the odds and ends which will open up space for you in your attic. Maybe that odd pot or pan is just what someone needs. Time is getting short so don't forget.

Teeners Dance

HICKSVILLE—Square dancing as well as modern steps will be featured for youngsters this Friday, Mar. 12 in Levittown Hall, here, at a dance sponsored by Teen Canteen. Durgarees may be worn for the dance if desired. Bill Katke, renowned caller, will be on hand to direct the square dancing. Twenty-five cents will admit one and there will be candy and cookies for refreshments. An announcement will be made concerning the future roller skating party.

Ocker Heads Red Cross Drive

PLAINVIEW — Edmund Ocker of Old Country Road, has been appointed Chairman of the Red Cross Drive for this community, it was announced recently by Red Cross officials.

Ocker, who has previously served as Chairman of Boy Scout drive, is a former Plainview Fire Chief and a member of Kiwanis.

Civics to Hear Police Official

PLAINVIEW — A Police Dept. official of the second precinct will be the principal speaker at the Civic Association's next meeting to be held Monday, March 15, at 8 P.M. in the Manno Hill School, it was announced today. It is expected that the discussion will center around the functions and duties of the Nassau County Police.

Peter McIntosh, civic association president, reported that at the last directors' meeting of the association it was decided to place before the membership a plan to engage the Board of Directors which would include a re-assignment of the duties of the present directors.

The plan was proposed by director Edward Callahan and adoption of it will mean more efficient meetings and provide the organization with a more feasible method of obtaining results in civic matters, according to McIntosh.

reported that Plainview has been assigned a quota of $500.00. This is the first time Plainview has been given a separate quota by the Red Cross and Ocker has expressed the hope that residents will respond to the appeal as they have in the past.

A system of area captains composed of volunteer workers has been organized and they will cover the entire community. The volunteers include: Mrs. Nicholas Messina, 52 Nassau Ave.; Mrs. John Economopou, Heather Lane; Mrs. Herman Gerbarien, 51 Surrey Lane; Mrs. Edmund Ocker, Old Country Road; Mrs. Robert Berry, Baranov Ave.; Mrs. Al Calamo, Lincoln Gate; Mrs. Dolores Lockwood, Cherry Drive; Mrs. Leonard Benson, Sunrise St.; Mrs. Henry Ziermann, Sidney St. and Tim Sullivan, Old Country Road.

25 Candidates For Legion

PLAINVIEW—Twenty-five new candidates will be initiated and sworn in as members of the Plainview American Legion Post 1812 on March 23 at the Charles Wagner Clubhouse in Hicksville, according to Al Schupp, commander. Following the swearing in ceremonies, a dinner of corn beef and cabbage will be served the membership.

NEIGHBOR-DOWLING VIEWS NEWS.

No Industrial Land in District

By JOHN DOWLING
There is not one square foot of Plainview land zoned for industry of any kind. This astounding fact, which comes from the Town Hall itself, has left many residents of this community wide-eyed with wonder and promises to develop into a lively issue within the months to come.

Apparently there are some who believe that the desire for light industry in the community to help meet the future tax burden was buried years ago when at that time a move to establish industry for Plainview was vetoed.

We all agree, however, that the picture has changed considerably since then and those who formerly advocated "no industry for Plainview" are just as much concerned about the absence of industry zoned-land as the residents who have been pressing for it for the past two years.

At the present time, districts all around Plainview are receiving bids from reputable organizations with a view toward setting up business. All of these requests pass through the hands of the Town Board. Somewhere rejected because the type of business is undesirable. Others are turned down because residents object.

Plainview doesn't have the opportunity to do either because of the present arbitrary zoning setup. It is our hope that the town board will see fit to make a critical examination of the Plainview zoning ordinances and give the community's residents the right to decide whether they want light industry or not. At least, then, the issue will be settled once and for all.

P-TA Backs

The students will want to express themselves in singing. This, it is stated, can be done by using many different types of songs, folk, hymns, ballads, chanteyas, and last but probably the most effective, the popular song. This group singing will be a major activity in the general music class until the singing approaches spontaneity. Thereafter the students will study instruments of the band and orchestra, American Folk Music, and outstanding periods in music history. A good deal of attention will be focused on appreciation and theory, according to the article.

SHOW SAFETY FILM

As the final number of the entertainment program, a film was presented by Victor Fiddler, chairman of the Safety Committee. In story form, the advantages gained by observing rules set up because of past experiences were pictorially demonstrated, rules such as slowing down to the proper speed in a school zone, crossing streets only in prescribed areas, and even the advantage of closing the cover of a book of matches before striking the match.

A social hour followed in the school's cafeteria where committee members served sandwiches, crumb cake, coffee and tea.

GOP Bulletin Appears Soon

PLAINVIEW — The Republican Club's new bulletin is scheduled to make its appearance here in early March, the Herald learned this week. The committee in charge is composed of Anthony Ocker, Richard Bergmann, Charles Voorhies, Herman Williams and Joseph Arenas.

We Get A Scoop

We have just learned a startling bit of news from a sometimes highly reliable source and we want to share it with you. It seems that a new sporting enterprise is about to be started very near to Hicksville. We are told options have been obtained on an extensive tract of land nearby to set up an ostrich raceway. Ostrich racing is a popular sport in some parts of the world and this is the first attempt to introduce it in this country. It is said to be much more spectacular than horse racing, and that it can be much more profitable. Ostrich lovers are greatly excited about the new raceway. Our informant, who doesn't want to be named right now, says that because very delicate legal and political arrangements are about to be consummated, only the barest outlines can be revealed at this time.

Political Help Needed

We are given to understand that new legislation will be needed to get the new raceway off to a good start. The help of highly placed political figures is to be sought to assure operation on the highest possible level of respectability. One rumor has it that a bill to limit the number of ostrich raceways in the state to eliminate competition is ready to be eased quietly through Albany. After all, the promoters want to keep a good thing to themselves.

Off Track Betting

Off track betting is a distinct probability, we are told. New legislation is being written for introduction by influential legislators. This will permit betting offices at choice locations in Nassau, New York City, and other places. The modern day miracles of large-screen color television and electronic computers will be used so that customers can place their bets and see the race results immediately without bothering to travel to the raceway. The betting will be totalized from all betting locations and the overall figures used to set the odds. Bigger things are coming, boys. But first fool proof legislation must be set up.

Finest Legal Talent

Only the finest of legal talent will be retained by the new raceway. The top legal man will receive suitable compensation. Recent experience at another well known raceway indicates that a straight ten percent cut of the gross is too much for one man, even though he is the finest available. It's embarrassing to receive too much money. So the plan is to permit the legal counsel of the new ostrich raceway to reduce his fee whenever he thinks he is getting too much. This should be satisfactory to all concerned.

Can't Be Too Careful

Our sometimes highly reliable source tells us that the ostrich raceway, as yet unnamed, will be very, very free of the kind of scandal which recently broke over other well known raceways. The new owners are watching the present scandal so they can avoid the same pitfalls. They will ask for help from only the most highly respectable political figures in each of the many levels of government. Everything must be above reproach. Of course, the owners realize there will be no harm in letting their helpers in on a good thing. After all, many public servants sacrifice their families to the cause of public service. Nothing is too good for these men. A little bit of stock at a modest price would be a nice token of appreciation, and the owners want to be generous to those who will make it all possible. In some especially deserving cases, the friendly and helpful politicians will be sold the stock on promissory notes with payments to be made out of dividends which are expected to be quite sizable.

Pop Corn Stand

The promoters, according to our informant, realize that help will be needed from a great many highly placed individuals in various walks of life. They also realize they should be generous and share their good fortune with these people. In the final analysis, the many sided sharing will take all the revenues of the track, and none will be left for owners. However, their prospects are very bright for holding on to the pop corn concession. They believe that the profits from pop corn will be enough to more than reward them for their efforts.

In People's Corner

Written in the interest of Better Local Government . . .

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER
Have you ever wondered why the Republican Party leaders, even without the support of the rank file Republicans, are so dead-set against the incorporation of any area as a village?

Have you ever considered the sad plight of their own committeemen who must campaign against some of the very things, they as individuals, feel may be good for the community?

The party in power, if bent upon perpetuating itself, must subordinate the individual to the party line. To such a political party, even the thought of encouraging the electorate to think about or consider individual candidates, on the bases of ability, is terrifying. Because when the voter starts to consider casting his ballot for the best man, the party might as well give up its hope for perpetual power. When the merits of a proposition are considered by the voter, instead of the party's stand on the subject; the "straight ticket" vote (the blind vote) diminishes to the vanishing point.

No one party has a monopoly on all the good men, or all the good ideas, anymore than they have a monopoly on all the beautiful women.

Only in local elections can the voter really know the candidates. In local elections the American voter has the best chance of expressing the real-public will. In local elections we are more apt to vote for or against a man, not merely for or against a party.

This inclination, on the part of the American voter to vote for the best man, is shown quite clearly in the village elections of our county. Only one out of over 60 incorporated villages in our county dares to enter a slate of Republican or Democratic candidates. Where the area is small, where the voters know all the candidates—they do not vote for Republicans or Democrats, they vote for the man they consider best qualified for the job.

Since the perpetuation of political power is the most important consideration of the Republican Party leaders, and since incorporation as a village will cut across all party lines, can you honestly think that it is your interest and welfare they are primarily concerned with when they oppose house rule thru incorporation?

Dividends out of earnings received by you in 1953 on your stocks are taxable and must be reported on the tax return. If the dividend is not out of earnings you will so be informed by the corporation making the distribution. In this case the dividends are reductions of the cost or other basis of your stock and they are not taxable until they exceed such cost or other basis. Thereafter they are taxable as gain from the sale or exchange of property and are recorded on Schedule D.

Stock dividends are not taxable if they do not change your proportionate interest in the corporation, for example—a dividend of common stock of the same class as common stockholders. If a different class of stock is given, for ex-

Fork Lane Panel Discusses Children and Parents

HICKSVILLE — "A child is not a toy, or a pet, but a human being," asserted the Rev. Granston Clayton, minister of the Methodist Church, at a panel discussion sponsored by the Fork Lane School P.T.A. Tuesday, Mar. 2.

Continuing he said: "Respect him, but don't spoil him. Believe and expect him to turn out good, never demand him to, and he will turn out good."

Also taking part in the panel discussion was Mrs. Florence Weber, student guidance counselor at the high school, and Police Lt. George Barr, County director of the Nassau Police Boys Club, P.T.A. President Joseph J. Parnicky was moderator.

"Crime prevention is a community project," Lt. Barr declared. He described the P.B.C. as an instrument to aid in keeping juvenile delinquency down, and emphasized that way will he go."

Asserting that too many parents shoulder off their responsibilities on to the schools, Mrs. Weber pointed out that "Families should plan more things together, and not expect the schools to 'baby sit,' while the parents are following their own pursuits."

In the following question and answer period, all three panelists agreed that "Home, School, and Church" are the three most important influences in a child's development.

The Parent Education Committee announced that it will hold a "Fathers Night" on April 27. A film, "Preface to Life," will be shown with Joseph Redi presiding to answer questions.

Named to the nominating committee were: Dexter Conay, Herbert Cavenaugh, Hilda Marsden, Muriel Stephens, and Dorothy Stevens.

"Safety" will be the theme at the April meeting, when a film "State of Mind," will be shown followed by a brief talk. John Neison is chairman of Safety committee, and will be in charge.

Refreshments donated by the kindergarten mothers will be served on a table decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's Day by the Hospitality Committee.

Woodchucks Show Thier Craft

HICKSVILLE — In honor of "H. Club Week" from Mar. 6 to 14, the Woodchucks have an exhibit of their work at the Public Library lasting until Mar. 9. On view are birdhouses, covered boxes and leather work made by the boys whose ages range from 8 to 10.

Shirley Willoughby, leader of the club which was organized last November, said that the group meets every Thursday evening at the Dutch Lane School, and that more leaders are needed.

FASHION SHOW THURSDAY

Resort as well as casual wear will be shown at a Spring Fashion Show at the Paraglide Restaurant, Mar. 11 at 8:30 P.M. when 12 women of the Central Nassau Section of the National Council of Jewish Women will act as models. There will be refreshments and door prizes. A representative of a well-known cosmetic firm will also show correct make-up.

700 More Register for Mar 13

By DOROTHY GUELPA
About 700 people remembered to register so they can vote on Friday, Mar. 12, on the new Central Ave. School bond issue. Voting hours are 1 and 9 P.M.

I hope when you do vote you will have read the circulars being distributed by the school board and discussed intelligently this matter with your neighbors—not just follow the crowd like another sheep.

Incidentally, orchids to the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. which sent post cards to all its membership reminding them of the school registration.

Tonight (Tuesday) Mar. 9 at 8:15 the school committee of the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. is meeting with members of the Community Relations Committee and representatives of the Teachers Assoc. and a few invited, interested citizens to try to iron out problems they see in the school system.

PERSONAL NOTE

An apology is in order to my readers and to the publicity chairman of the local organizations I am pleased to write about. Due to an oversight, no mention of the death of a very dear uncle of mine was made in Friday's Herald so I have been "read off" for my lack of news by some of my friends.

Personally, I didn't care whether or not the paper was published

Nicholai Pupils Give Program

HICKSVILLE—A program of entertainment which included music and dancing as well as student-prepared refreshments was presented by the children of the Nicholai St. School at Jones Institute during a recent visit.

The musical part of the program prepared by Myra Martini of the school staff included three band selections, an acrobatic dance by Judy Yanoff, a solo, "Oh My Papa" by Richard Torres, who is known as the "Eddie Fisher" of Nicholai St. School; a baton twirling routine by Carol Levine, and a tap dance quartet in costume executed by Holly Hunt, Elaine Boos, Wilma McDouall and Rosalind Longaro.

Also five numbers sung by the Nicholai St. Chorus: "Oh Susanna," "Billy Boy" and "High-Ho" in remarkable two-part harmony.

Under the direction of Mary Leposay, third and fourth grade teacher, and Sandra Seliger, teacher of a first grade, the youngsters prepared refreshments for all. John Trauth presented the institute with an artistically arranged bouquet of gladioli prepared by his mother.

Harold Robbins, new principal at the school, promised the folks at the institute and their general superintendent, Patrick Cunningham, that another visit would be made as soon as possible.

Chorus members were: Mary Ann Wallace, Mary D'Amato, Eileen Schneider, Barbara Cohen.

Obituary

Ruth Ann Nagel

GLEN HEAD—Ruth Ann Nagel, nee Rusch, a native of Hicksville died on March 6 at Doctor's Hospital in New York City. She was the wife of Morgan E. Nagel and had made her home at Northgate Rd. here.

The Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hicksville, officiated at funeral services at the Knolls Funeral Home, 128 Main St., Port Washington, last night (Monday).

Burial will take place at 10 o'clock this morning (Tuesday) at Nassau Knolls Cemetery.

Mrs. Nagel is survived by her husband, her mother, Emma Rusch of Hicksville, and the following brothers and sisters, all of Hicksville: William A. Rusch Jr., Therese O'Toole, Raymond H. Rusch, Edwin C. Rusch, Viola D. Borley.

because her brother Jimmy is sick but she received many gifts and had a big birthday cake, ice cream, etc. to round out her big day.

BETWEEN ISSUES

Several heavy trucks, not on deliveries, continue to pay no heed to the newly installed "No-Thru-Trucking" signs—installed last week by the Highway Dept. . . . The license number of such vehicles reported to the local police would help to eliminate any further occurrences . . . Jerry Zeller, Ambulance Committee Chairman has a heavy schedule these next few weeks speaking to the many civic groups in Hicksville on the need for an Ambulance for Hicksville, which by the way has been in the by-laws of the Hicksville Civic and Community Association as adopted by the group on Jan. 10, 1947. . . . Several revisions of the Constitution of the Association were presented at the March meeting and tabled for further discussion at another meeting . . .

A CONSERVATIVE VOTES NO!

The Joint Committee on Interscholastic Athletics for Nassau County has recommended that the present North Shore and South Shore Athletic Leagues be retained with certain major reorganizations within each group.

The conclusions of the group are limited to a period of the next two years. The point is sharply made that the continued growth of Nassau will require another study in 1957. If the league schools approve, the switches could take place next year.

Enrollment is the basis for the suggestion that the divisions in each league be changed.

Insofar as we feel it would affect Hicksville High we must fiercely object to the proposal. We do want Hicksville to play opponents in its own class, but more than enrollment must be considered when deciding in which circle to travel.

Distances between schools are important. Emphasis which each school places on athletics is also of prime importance. Severing of traditional ties slices some of the interest out of schedules.

At present this is the construction of the North Shore League:

- | | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| Eastern Division | Western Division |
| Hicksville | Garden City |
| Sea Cliff | Mineola |
| Roslyn | Port Washington |
| Farmingdale | Manhasset |
| Oyster Bay | Great Neck |
| Westbury | Glen Cove |

The new set-up requested would be:

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| AAA Division | AA Division |
| Hicksville | Manhasset |
| Farmingdale | Oyster Bay |
| Great Neck | Westbury |
| Mineola | Roslyn |
| Port Washington | Sea Cliff |
| Glen Cove | Bethpage |
| Garden City | Herricks |
| | Island Trees |

Absorption of the new schools is necessary but not insurmountable under the present schemes. Unlike the South Shore where there is some form of a football league, the North Shore divisional set-up pertains only to baseball and basketball.

Of course numbers of students help a coach or school in those two sports but the record bears out that they are not always needed.

Oyster Bay and Westbury, together, have seven more county basketball championships than Hempstead and Sewanhaka. In the past that is pitting the County's two smallest schools against the two biggest. On the North Shore football schedules are still drawn up on a free lance basis. And considering the subject of enrollment as the factor in balancing interscholastic athletics look at what happens under the new system to always powerful Baldwin.

It would lose touch with Mepham, Sewanhaka, Hempstead, Freeport, Valley Stream and Lawrence. Those are the big football schools in the county.

Oceanside, Levittown, Long Beach, South Side and Malverne had better get very wary if the leagues should decide to organize football. Baldwin joins that group.

Hicksville has not profited very much by the big increase in student enrollment. Many times schools do not. Retarding Hicksville are the split sessions which may be corrected when the new high school is completed. It is hard for a boy to get overly excited about playing for his high school team under the present circumstances particularly if he lives some distance from the school.

Basketball practice this year started well after six at night and under those circumstances it is difficult to unite the entire student body in support.

Hicksville has always looked upon interscholastic athletics with patience but no pat or no push. In recent years the program has started to flourish but still does measure up to the schools where close association is now suggested.

Perhaps in two years the facilities and inclinations will be there for such a move and since the athletics body recognizes that within that period additional changes will have to be made, Hicksville had best wait until the completion of that time.

April Tryouts For Eight Teams

BETHPAGE—Eight Little League teams will be sponsored this summer with tryouts to take place Apr. 4, 11 and 18, locations to be announced later.

Grumman will sponsor the Cougars, the Panthers, Helcats and the Guardians. The four remaining teams will be sponsored by C. M. Johnson, C. W. Lauman, J. W. Robinson and the Bethpage Fire Dept.

There will also be four Babe Ruth League teams sponsored by Aero-Foam, Co., A. M. Roofing Co., Grumman, Page Drugs, and Campaigne Trucking Co. This league is for boys 12 to 15. Four farm teams are also planned for Little Leaguers.

Registration cards will be available at the schools, or from Mr. Agiesta, 394 Broadway, and are to be returned as soon as possible to the latter.

Final winners in the Merchandise Club are $250. D. Hanson; $250, A. Miller; $150, A. M. Lewis; $100, S. Knight, and $50, C. Boland. Winners were made known at the Feb. 27 meeting of the Ladies Aux. of the Little League. The next meeting will be held Mar. 31 in the Broadway School.
