HICKSVILLE—Henry C. Brengel, president of the Board of Education, has been authorized by the board to sign a contract with architects Knappe and Johnson for the preparation of preliminary plans for alteration of the present high school building on Jerusalem Ave to Junior High School use. The proposed plans will also include additions to the building. Cost estimates will not be available until preliminary plans have been developed but it has been unofficially reported that the project may exceed a million dollars.

The architects have also been directed to proceed with the development of final plans for the additions to the four small elementary schools. Appropriation of $2,400,000 for this work was recently approved by the voters with an overwhelming majority.

The Board of Education is scheduled to receive bids on Mar. 29 for the new $3,000,000 high school to be erected on property between Division Ave and Newbridge Rd.

The campaign will officially open with a kick-off dinner at the Garden City Hotel on Mar. 25.

Study Great Neck Youth Centre

GREAT NECK—A group of Hicksville citizens, including District Court Judge Joseph P. Leikuecher, were visitors on Saturday night at the Youth Center in the former Chapel Theatre, here. The trip was arranged by Mrs. Edward Kist, active worker for the Hicksville Teen Canteen program, to study the operation of the Youth Center which provides activity for hundreds of boys and girls in the Great Neck school district. Also participating in the visit were Harry Ernenwein, business manager of Hicksville School District, and Mrs. William Orton, community coordinator of the Teen Canteen.

Denies Resignation Reports

HICKSVILLE—Arthur Eirich, member of the Board of Education, today denied reports that he has resigned or plans to resign from the School Board. He was elected less than a year ago and has two more years of his term to serve. He is also the secretary of the Board.

EFFECTIVE JULY FIRST:

Boost Salary Schedule For Teachers, Principals

HICKSVILLE—Increases in salaries for teachers, principals, custodians and clerical help of the school district are scheduled, effective July 1, it was learned today. The Board of Education has approved new salary schedules which, a spokesman said, is "basically the recommendations made to the Board by the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Education" in February.

The new schedule provides for raises spread over 15 steps. Starting salary for teachers with a bachelor's degree or equivalent, now $3,200, is raised to $3,400, going up by steps to a top of $6,500. For masters' degree or equivalent teachers will start at $3,700, compared with $3,400 at present, going up the scale to $6,600. For a doctorate or equivalent, the start is at $4,000, compared with the old schedule of $3,600, rising to $6,900.

For elementary principals the new scale is $5,500 to $7,900, compared with the old schedule of $5,000 to $7,000; new scale for junior high is $6,000 to $8,400 compared with present scale of $5,500 to $7,200, and for senior high the new scale on nine steps is from $6,500 to $9,900, compared with present range of $6,000 to $8,000.

Also scheduled to receive increases are the custodians of the system and the clerical help.

The new schedules will be provided in the 1954-55 school budget which comes up for consideration of the voters of the district at the annual meeting in May. The tentative budget is expected to be completed by the end of this month. The date for the preliminary hearing on the budget has not been announced as yet.

Senior Trip Is Thing of Past

HICKSVILLE—The senior trip to Washington D.C. during the Easter recess, a tradition in the local school system for a quarter century, is a thing of the past. The Board of Education has voted to discontinue sponsorship of the annual senior trip due to the increasing size of the annual senior class and the greatly increased responsibility which is a direct result. Trips to Washington have been held annually with the exception of the war years when travel accommodations and hotel facilities were limited.

Reaction Comes Fast On New Salary Scale

HICKSVILLE—Word of the new salary schedules in the school system got around fast, this week. Lee Ave. P-TA, Thursday night, was prepared to go on record endorsing a pay boost request when it was announced that word of the Board's action had been received. The next evening, Mar. 12, the P-TA Council met at the home of vice president Doris Phillips of 25 Link Lane and expressed pleasure at the Board's action on the teaching scale. However, "disappointment" was recorded at the Council meeting on the schedule adopted for principals, the Council apparently feeling it should have been scaled higher.

Suggest School Buses Unload Off Streets

HICKSVILLE—Plans for the widening of W. Nicholai St. to permit two-way traffic is currently receiving the attention of the authorities. Various proposals to increase the protection of children alighting from school buses on Nicholai St. in front of the school and Trinity Lutheran Church are being studied, including a plan to change parking regulations and mark out a crossing walk in the middle of the block.

The street was the scene of a tragic accident recently when a young student was struck by a school bus and killed.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors at a meeting in the Milleridge Inn, Jericho, last Friday heard of the proposals from Elmer Kroemer, member of the Board and chairman of a safety committee for Trinity Lutheran Church which had several conferences with the police.

The directors voted to write a letter to the Board of Education suggesting that thought be given to loading and unloading of buses at all schools "off street".

The Chamber also went on record in favor of a proposal to the school authorities that steps be taken to make certain the present Nicholai St. School site, when it is no longer needed, be made available for development as a community parking field.

The Directors heard a report from George Rappaport, attorney for the Township on the parking district program, who said the field in the rear of the Professional Bldg. off Broadway and Barclay St. should "be ready by the end of the month".

He reported that "there are no brokers involved" in the acquisition of the former Griffin and Rushmore property which is the subject of contracts for development as additional parking fields.

Safety Speaker Holds Audience

By ELIZABETH D. BAKER
HICKSVILLE—A safety talk which captured the audience from the first sentence was given before members of the Lee Ave. P-TA, Thursday night by a well-known children's doctor, who described some of the accident cases within his experience.

Dr. James A. Caddy in a talk on "Your Child's Health" said "None of us do anything constructive about safety. From 1930 to 1950 mortality rates from rheumatic fever fell 65 percent, from diarrhea 90 percent; from pneumonia, 75 percent, but only a 24 percent decrease was noted in the mortality rate from accidents."

"If Daddy drives through red light traffic signals, he can't expect his children to grow up to be safe drivers," he remarked.

He also noted that in one month of the Korean war when 600 soldiers lost their lives; at home 2,000 children died in accidents.

"All this money," he said, is spent to fight polio, to fight rheumatic fever, but only peanuts is spent to fight for safety. It is hard for us to justify as parents the fact that a child has died of third degree burns. In hospitals when we see children with one complete side swathed in bandages, we know it is the "pot-handle syndrome," the child has reached to the top of the stove and overturned a container of hot fluid to spill over his side."

He went on to tell how his

C. Church. Seated, from the left, are Very Rev. George M. Bittermann, pastor of St. Ignatius; Assemblyman Joseph Carlino of Long Beach, and Francis Donovan, Grand Knight of the Council. Standing are Robert Corcoran, breakfast chairman, and Herbert Purick, president of the Holy Name Society of St. Ignatius. Speakers were Carlino and Rev. Joseph Nesson of St. Joseph's College. Greetings were extended by Rev. Louis Schwebius, pastor of Our Lady of Mercy R. C. Church, Plainview. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

PLAN BIG BAZAAR
Plans are being made for a monster bazaar of St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville, to be held May 7, 8, 15 and 16.
At the first bazaar meeting held at St. Ignatius Cafeteria on Mar.

10 plans for prizes and booth decorations were made. Mary O'Neilley of 74 9th St., Hicksville, was the first lucky winner of a $100 saving bond. Another $100 bond will be awarded at the next bazaar committee meeting on Apr. 7.

First Communion Dates May 15, 22

HICKSVILLE—The Blessed Pius X Society of Confraternity Parents met Mar. 1 for the monthly meeting in the auditorium of the Confraternity building of St. Ignatius Church.

It was announced that the group's first newspaper had been distributed to the children in all classes, and that the Children's Library opened Mar. 7 in the office of the Confraternity building, and will be open following Sunday 9 and 10 o'clock masses.

Thomas Griffin, chairman of attendance, asked that all parents send a note to a child's teacher following an absence from religious classes in an effort to encourage regular attendance by all Confraternity children.

James Surless, Athletics chairman, requested that fathers of boys in the activity program join to help in the Saturday mornings devoted to pastimes, as many more men are needed to assist him.

Because of the great many children receiving their first Holy Communion this year, the first group date will be May 15, and the second May 22, both at the 8:15 A.M. mass. Religious articles for the First Communicants will be available at the next regular meeting, Monday, April 5 at 8:15 P.M.

Dark horse awards were given to Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Rennie, and Mrs. Hammond. The theme of the meeting was "The Life of Christ," as depicted in a film.

Dear Jean:

GEHARTY'S STORE on Main Pkway, Plainview, is being enlarged to more than double its present floor space. Gas stations in every corner are the thing ahead for Plainview. One is in operation and two are under construction at the Corner of Old Country Rd and Central Ave. near the firehouse. . . . A real live lamb went to school recently, but not with Mary as the nursery rhyme reports. Mrs. SMITH, mother of PHEBE ALICE SMITH of Miss GOLDKLANG'S class brought an infant lamb to Nicholai St. School, Hicksville, "so that the children in the lower grades might be able to experience the pleasure of playing with the animal for a while". . . . Industries along Duffy Ave., Hicksville, who have been promised improvements on that pothole alley for upwards of two years are wondering if the gravel scattered about recently is the extent of such improvements? One industrialist said this week that he "never saw a lousier road". . . . Developers of the Mid Island Shopping Plaza on the former St. John's Home property off North Broadway expect to break the publicity in "three or four weeks" regarding the identity of the major tenant. The shopping centre is expected to be completed in 12 months. A yearly feature of the centre is the plan to have a tunnel for delivery trucks running under the mall. Truckers will make deliveries into the basements of the stores. . . .

L.I.R.R. says that 77 trains were delayed a total of 2,022 minutes by the accident at New Hyde Park on Feb. 4 when a Diesel-powered passenger train struck a derailed freight car. . . . CURTIS W. WELCH, associate field underwriter with the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co. which has an office at 7 W. Marie St., Hicksville, has been honored for "leadership in the Phoenix Mutual field force". . . . Hicksville GOP Club dinner-dance will be held Friday night, May 28, at Williston Masonic Club, Williston Park. Members are being asked $4 per person. . . . The N.H.O.A. holds its next meeting at Levitt Hall on Tuesday night, Mar. 23. . . . Several people are pointed out that there is a real need for a garden apartment house in Hicksville. Apartments for rent appear to be in constant demand, going by the inquiries we receive at the Herald office. . . . The home of Councilman FRANK CHLUMSKY on Ernest Ave., Hicksville, is being renovated with new exterior shingling. . . . Here's a quote from the Daily Mirror "I've always had a feeling that government is everybody's business." The quote is credited to political boss ERNEST FRANCKE. They are going to enlarge the Town Hall at Oyster Bay again. This time a department is being created for the Town Attorney's office. One of the first editorials the Herald ever printed was one which urged that the Town Hall be moved to Hicksville, in the center of all activity, rather than constantly enlarge in remote and almost inaccessible Oyster Bay. . . . Dr. WALLACE LAMB is scheduled to assume his duties in Hicksville as a new assistant superintendent on July 1. STANFORD MILLER is administrative assistant to the superintendent in charge of elementary education. . . . I hear that the boys at BETHPAGE LUMBER are decked out with new green identification caps just in time for St. Patrick's Day.

Exhibit Stage Design Models

By BELLAH ROGERS
HICKSVILLE—An art exhibit of stage design sets is on display at Vince Braun's Meat Market, Broadway, here.
These sets were made by the seventh and eighth graders of the Junior High School.
These stage design sets represent plays which the children had seen and those which they made up. Some of the children did the play which they were studying in English class.

These sets were made under the helpful instruction and direction of Miss Salesky, art teacher.

3 Grass Fires

HICKSVILLE—Three grass fire alarms called the volunteer firemen out during the week. On Mar. 10 at 12:49 P.M. a run was made to a grass fire on Milton St. off Burns Ave., and the same day at 1:56 P. M. a call was received to a grass fire at Newbridge and Old Country Rd.
On Mar. 12 at 1:04 P. M. a run was made to a grass fire on Twin-lane Ave.

Temporary Home of Jewish Community Centre Ready

By ARTHUR H. HAUT

PLAINVIEW — After many weeks of concerted effort, in the trusty "do-it-yourself" tradition, the members of Jewish Community Center here are about to announce the completion of their temporary home.

Plans are being made for a festive dedication ceremony in the near future, and according to Sol Newborn, Congregation President, "We'd like to use this occasion to thank the many public-spirited newspapers and residents of this community whose unselfish support, both spiritual and material, have made this accomplishment possible. At the same time, we'd like to acknowledge the tireless efforts of many of our members, from all walks of life, who put on their work clothes and braved the bitterest of cold to literally build this center with their own hands."

The idea of a Jewish Community Center for Plainview's residents of the Jewish Faith was born last September when a handful of families, interested in holding services for the High Holidays tried unsuccessfully to rent a building. Finally services were made possible through the co-operation of the Plainview Volunteer Fire Dept. The firemen moved their engines into the street while services were being held in the firehouse.

Shortly thereafter, David Weltz, a chicken dealer and long-time resident, volunteered the use of his vacant barn at the token annual rental of $1.00 per year. A great deal of renovation and adaptation had to be done to convert the barn into a useable meeting place. A construction committee was organized and went to work with salvaged and donated materials to complete a building with washrooms, an altar, a pulpit and seating capacity for about 100 persons.

negogue for Sabbath and High Holidays being used as a 55-Holiday services, the building will house Sunday School, Neighborhood, Men's Club and committees.

The rapid progress of the Jewish Community Center here can be seen in the fact that although this temporary home has just been completed, plans are already under way for a larger center, the facilities of which will be available on a nonsectarian basis to worthy community groups as well as the Jewish Congregation. A one acre plot near Oak and Cherry Sts. here, has been purchased as the future site of the center.

A fund raising campaign to finance this project is being started with a Spring Festival Dance to be held at the Manetto Hill School this Friday, Mar. 20, at which time a special award will take place. This affair will be followed with a Dutch Supper in the month of April, details of which will be announced shortly. Everybody is information can be obtained from Fred Stadler and Sandy Pollack.

Civics to Hear Police Officers

PLAINVIEW — Acting Capt. Francis Looney, legal advisor to Nassau County Police Department chief of staff and Capt. Vincent Chimenti, commanding officer of the 2nd Police precinct, Nassau County, will address the civics of this community Tuesday evening at the Manetto Hill School. They will talk on police work in the mid-Island area.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Protests on High Utility Billing

By JOHN DOWLING

Several hundred mid-island residents have jumped the Long Island Lighting Co. for allegedly overcharging on gas and electric bills. The storm of protests has stirred up Public Service Commission interest and an investigation should get under way shortly.

It's interesting to note that a few months back LILCO inaugurated a full scale advertising campaign to acquaint the public with the advantages of using or converting to natural gas. The campaign theme was "it costs so little". When you analyze the statement "it costs so little" you wonder what it means. It costs so little to do what? Too convert or too use natural gas? It seems to me that there's more gas in LILCO'S advertising than in the natural gas itself.

And while we're on the subject let's take a look at the airy explanation given the outraged mid-island residents by LILCO'S local representative. He said:

"The utility rates in the Plainview area would "naturally" be a bit higher because there are "few" homes there.

"The company has to charge higher rates at first," he claimed, "because there are too few customers to provide revenue to cover the cost of installing gas and electric lines."

Those remarks should be of great interest to the Public Service Commission while they're making their investigation.

In addition, we hope the PSC will dig a little deeper and correct a condition that has long been a heart-scald to thousands of mid-

Island housewives and their families.

Every time a 10-mile an hour wind hits the mid-island area, roofs start to go the lights. And LILCO'S answer is always the same.

"We have thousands of men out working on it and service will be restored as soon as possible." That may all be very true but isn't it about time that some measures were taken to prevent this continual mid-island blackout whenever a wind storm hits the island? If Long Island Lighting was a small operation, these blackouts would be understandable. But since it's considered a major utility employing thousands of competent personnel why aren't these talents used to prevent this condition that's causing so much public discomfort.

MID-ISLAND DATA . . . Plainview civics have letter on way to Town Board asking for meeting to discuss zoning for industry. . . Reeves Instrument and other businesses have already been contacted by civic group. . . Rumor has it that a whole raft of candidates will compete for open post on Plainview Board of Education. . . Drama club still seeking male thespians for planned three one-act dramas. . . Casting starts next week at Manno Hill.

Gas or Electric Bill Too High?

If you think your gas and electric bills, or even your phone bills, are out of line, drop a card to the Public Service Commission, Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway, New York City, New York, and an investigation will be made.

Inauguration Film for GOP

PLAINVIEW — A 30 minute film on the inauguration of President Eisenhower will be the feature at the Republican Club's next meeting, which will be held Wednesday evening March 17 at the Plainview Firehouse, according to Anthony Ocker, Jr., president.

In addition, the membership will be called on to approve the organization's by-laws which have been undergoing revisions during the past few months. Refreshments will also be served at the meeting, Ocker reported.

P-TA Election

PLAINVIEW — At the March meeting of the Manno Hill School Parent-Teachers' Assoc., Mrs. Catherine Stauber, Manno Hill Road, was elected president for the coming year. She will succeed Mrs. Marie Funfgeld who headed the organization this school year.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Catherine Hill, 10 Sunrise St., vice-president; Mrs. Alice Stuhmer, 5 Nassau Ave., recording secretary; Mrs. Ann Beterino, 28 Westbury Ave., corresponding secretary and Mrs. Rosalie Branca, 48 Westbury Ave., who was elected treasurer. The new officers will be installed at the June meeting of the P.T.A.

A cake sale beginning at 4 P.M. and lasting to 9 P.M. will be held Mar. 18 at Dan's Supermarket, Old Country Rd. by the Plainview Auxiliary of the American Legion. It was made known by the president, Dorothy Schupp. Many home made cakes have been offered.

Temporary Home of Jewish Community Centre Ready

By ARTHUR H. HAUT
PLAINVIEW — After many weeks of concerted effort, in the truest "do-it-yourself" tradition, the members of Jewish Community Center here are about to announce the completion of their temporary home.

Plans are being made for a festive dedication ceremony in the near future, and according to Sol Newborn, Congregation President, "We'd like to use this occasion to thank the many public-spirited newspapers and residents of this community whose unselfish support, both spiritual and material, have made this accomplishment possible. At the same time, we'd like to acknowledge the tireless efforts of many of our members, from all walks of life, who put on their work clothes and braved the bitterest of cold to literally build this center with their own hands."

The idea of a Jewish Community Center for Plainview's residents of the Jewish Faith was born last September when a handful of families, interested in holding services for the High Holidays, tried unsuccessfully to rent a building. Finally services were made possible through the co-operation of the Plainview Volunteer Fire Dept. The firemen moved their engines into the street while services were being held in the firehouse.

Shortly thereafter, David Weltz, a chicken dealer and long-time resident, volunteered the use of his vacant barn at the token annual rental of $1.00 per year. A great deal of renovation and adaptation had to be done to convert the barn into a useable meeting place. A construction committee was organized and went to work with salvaged and donated materials to complete a building with washrooms, an altar, a pulpit and seating capacity for about 100 persons.

negogue for Sabbath and High Holidays being used as a Synagogue services, the building will house Sunday School Sisterhood, Men's Club and committees.

The rapid progress of the Jewish Community Center here can be seen in the fact that although this temporary home has just been completed, plans are already under way for a larger center, the facilities of which will be available on a nonsectarian basis to worthy community groups as well as the Jewish Congregation. A one-acre plot near Oak and Cherry Sts. here, has been purchased as the future site of the center.

A fund raising campaign to finance this project is being started with a Spring Festival Dance to be held at the Manetto Hill School this Friday, Mar. 20, at which time a special award will take place. This affair will be followed with a Dutch Supper in the month of April, details of which will be announced shortly. Everybody is information can be obtained from Fred Stadler and Sandy Pollock.

Civics to Hear Police Officers

PLAINVIEW — Acting Capt. Francis Looney, legal advisor to Nassau County Police Department chief of staff and Capt. Vincent Chimenti, commanding officer of the 2nd Police precinct, Nassau County, will address the civics of this community Tuesday evening at the Manetto Hill School. They will talk on police work in the mid-Island area.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Protests on High Utility Billing

By JOHN DOWLING

Several hundred mid-island residents have jumped the Long Island Lighting Co. for allegedly overcharging on gas and electric bills. The storm of protests has stirred up Public Service Commission interest and an investigation should get under way shortly.

It's interesting to note that a few months back LILCO inaugurated a full scale advertising campaign to acquaint the public with the advantages of using or converting to natural gas. The campaign theme was "it costs so little". When you analyze the statement "it costs so little" you wonder what it means. It costs so little to do what? Too convert or too use natural gas? It seems to me that there's more gas in LILCO'S advertising than in the natural gas itself.

And while we're on the subject let's take a look at the airy explanation given the outraged mid-island residents by LILCO'S local representative. He said:

"The utility rates in the Plainview area would 'naturally' be a bit higher because there are 'few' homes there.

"The company has to charge higher rates at first," he claimed, "because there are too few customers to provide revenue to cover the cost of installing gas and electric lines."

Those remarks should be of great interest to the Public Service Commission while they're making their investigation.

In addition, we hope the PSC will die a little deeper and correct a condition that has long been a heart-scald to thousands of mid-

Island housewives and their families.

Every time a 10-mile an hour wind hits the mid-island area, poof out go the lights. And LILCO'S answer is always the same.

"We have thousands of men out working on it and service will be restored as soon as possible." That may all be very true but isn't it about time that some measures were taken to prevent this continual mid-island blackout whenever a wind storm hits the island? If Long Island Lighting was a small operation, these blackouts would be understandable. But since it's considered a major utility employing thousands of competent personnel why aren't these talents used to prevent this condition that's causing so much public discomfort.

MID-ISLAND DATA . . . Plainview civics have letter on way to Town Board asking for meeting to discuss zoning for industry. . . Reeves Instrument and other businesses have already been contacted by civic group. . . Rumor has it that a whole raft of candidates will compete for open post on Plainview Board of Education. . . Drama club still seeking male thespians for planned three one-act dramas. . . Casting starts next week at Manno Hill.

Gas or Electric Bill Too High?

If you think your gas-and electric bills, or even your phone bills, are out of line, drop a card to the Public Service Commission, Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway, New York City, New York, and an investigation will be made.

P-TA Election

PLAINVIEW — At the March meeting of the Manno Hill School Parent-Teachers' Assoc., Mrs. Catherine Stauber, Manno Hill Road, was elected president for the coming year. She will succeed Mrs. Marie Fungfeld who headed the organization this school year.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Catherine Hill, 16 Sunrise St., vice-president; Mrs. Alice Stuhmer, 5 Nassau Ave., recording secretary; Mrs. Ann Beterino, 28 Westbury Ave., Corresponding secretary and Mrs. Rosalie Branca, 48 Westbury Ave., who was elected treasurer. The new officers will be installed at the June meeting of the P.T.A.

A cake sale beginning at 4 P.M. and lasting to 9 P.M. will be held Mar. 18 at Dan's Supermarket, Old Country Rd. by the Plainview Auxiliary of the American Legion, it was made known by the president, Dorothy Schupp. Many home made cakes have been offered.

Inauguration Film for GOP

PLAINVIEW — A 30 minute film on the inauguration of President Eisenhower will be the feature of the Republican Club's next meeting which will be held Wednesday evening March 17 at the Plainview Firehouse, according to Anthony Ocker, Jr., president.

In addition, the membership will be called on to approve the organization's by-laws which have been undergoing revisions during the past few months. Refreshments will also be served at the meeting, Ocker reported.

Go One Way On Broadway?

By Fred J. Noeth

EXPERTS LOOKING at traffic congestion in the Hicksville business section seem to be agreed upon one way traffic movement for Broadway.

At least two semi-official studies have come to this conclusion. It has also been the informal proposal of two readers in letters to the Herald and was the subject of consideration by the Hicksville Civic Assoc. nearly two years ago.

The proposals have this in common: Make Broadway a one-way street, northbound, from Old Country Rd. to John St. or from Marie St. to John St. The return one-way traffic movement (south bound) would be proposed for Jerusalem Ave. from John St. down to Marie St. or to Old Country Rd.

In the process, Herzog Pl. would become a one-way street, moving vehicles off Broadway to the west.

How the business establishments would feel about these proposals, remains to be seen. We do know that previously attempted plans to have Herzog Pl. a one-way street met with strong objection.

The bottleneck at the five-corner intersection of John St., Broadway and Jerusalem Ave. contributes to the thinking about one-way movement. While the three-phase traffic signal at this corner has improved the situation, it still is a continuous snarl. The back-up of trucks and autos waiting for the RR gates to rise at the station does not help in the slightest degree.

We are not reciting the proposed one-way operation as a proposal which we are prepared to endorse. We are outlining the current thinking on this problem in preparation for the day when it will be officially proposed.

Shur Tomorrow Is That Grand Day

O'Brien, Fitzpatrick or Michael O'Shane, the Irish have music, a lilt in a name, and "Shur" 'tis tomorrow that "ivery" man of "thim" will be "a wearin' of the green", for tomorrow is the day of days for all descendants of old Erin.

And so to every O'Callahan, or Mary O'Leary tomorrow's the day for the Irish and the familiar phrase: "Up to St. Patrick! Erin ga bragh."

It was Bound To Happen

The Senator McCarthy episode seems to be entering a new phase. For many months he has been flying about the face of America like a gadfly, making a lot of noise and seriously hurting some people he has chosen to bite. But for all his noise, he has done about as much good as a gadfly. And a gadfly may fly about for a while, but when it gets too annoying, someone is bound to reach for a fly swatter.

New Editorial Medium

Every dark cloud has its silver lining. A silver lining in the dark cloud of McCarthy was the emerging of the television station as a medium of editorial expression. This also was bound to come in time, and it is certainly a big step towards maturity for television. The Columbia Broadcasting System and particularly Ed Murrow, CBS director, deserve much credit for pioneering. Not so much for publicly expressing their opinion of an important issue. Newspapers have been doing that in America for more than 200 years, ever since the days of John Peter Zenger and his New York Weekly Journal. But more for extending television's value by using its unique powers to reach people's minds with an editorial message.

People Want Stock

To get back to things of more immediate interest to Hicksville, we can report on the reception received by last week's story on the new ostrich raceway. The first reaction was one of wonder that the ostrich could be successfully used for racing in this climate. This soon gave way to the feeling that if the promoters are willing to risk their all, they must know what they are doing. Soon there were a number of inquiries for shares of stock. People certainly know a good thing when they see it, and of course they remember the great financial success of others who were in on the ground floor of other famous raceways.

Where Will It Be?

Some people have wondered about its location. Our informed source is not willing to disclose the location right now. However, we can say this. It will not be located in the "park" now under the jurisdiction of the Town of Oyster Bay township through the Hicksville Park and Parking District. This is the land set aside by Levitt for park purposes. For one thing this "park" is not particularly suited for any recreational purpose because of its long narrow shape and its close proximity to homes. Further, the people living immediately adjacent are well aware of the smell at other raceways. Besides, it's too small.

Snickers

In the discussion of the ostrich raceway, there has been an undercurrent of levity and facetiousness. In fact, quite a few snickers have been seen. We wonder if this is the right reception for a sporting venture which may well bring fame and fortunes.

In People's Corner

Written in the interest of Better Local Government

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER

If by any chance you still believe that the Republican Machine in our town is fighting incorporation and not the basic principals of Home Rule, listen a little longer.

If by any chance you still believe that the Republican leaders carefully prepared arguments against incorporation, are presented for your benefit, not for the perpetuation of their own important interests, listen a little longer.

If it were true that our Republican officials wanted to provide some semblance of Home-Rule for our people—but objected to incorporation as the means—why don't they look for another, more agreeable means. If they were really concerned with our welfare, and not primarily their own, there is an action that would give to our people the benefits of Home Rule, without the "so called" evils of incorporation.

This action could be voted by our town councilmen and placed in operation by a simple resolution of the Town Board. This action would be simple, and easy, would require no referendum, no petition. This action would require only a small effort on the part of our councilmen, but of course, could not be put into effect without the "nod" from their party boss.

The action referred to, is area representation on our Town Board. The option to use local representation on Town Boards, is written into and is part of the Town Law of the State of New York. It is part of the American tradition of proportional representation.

Under the district representation plan the unincorporated areas would be divided into four to six town election districts. Each of these districts would elect a councilman, without help or interference from the other areas. Our district could be composed of the fifteen election districts in Hicksville, same fifteen districts that now comprise our school, fire, park and parking, street lighting, water and sanitation districts.

Under the district representatives system if the man we elected to the Town Board did not properly represent us, we could refuse to reelect him, and elect another councilman.

Under this system of representation, our councilman would be directly responsible to the people at election time. In this simple manner, without incorporation, the Republican Town Board could give to the people in all the unincorporated areas of our Township, some semblance of Home Rule.

If it were really only incorporation that the Republican Machine, and its bosses oppose, and not the fundamental principals of Home Rule, they could at the next Town Board Meeting prove it to all the people.

Certified Public Accountant

Mr. Newborn will answer questions in this column.
Address Herald, Box 45, Hicksville.

Thanks to the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Accountants for information supplied for today's column.

INTEREST ON LOANS

The interest you paid on loans is deductible. This includes any mortgages, automobile, appliance, home improvement or personal loans you may have had. Interest on installment purchases is deductible. Evidence, such as a statement from the seller should be obtained to show the amount of interest you paid.

STATE — LOCAL TAXES

Most taxes, other than federal taxes, are deductible. These include state and local real estate, personal property, income, retail sales and gasoline taxes. You may also deduct auto license and registration fees, but not dog and hunting licenses. If you don't have an exact record of some of these taxes, you can make a reasonable estimate. For example, if you know how many miles you drove your car and the average miles-per-gallon, you can make a fair estimate of the number of gallons of gasoline you bought. Multiply this by the state gasoline tax rate of 4 cents and you have the approximate amount of tax paid.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTION

Another type of deduction you can take if you itemize your deductions is your contributions to any religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary organization. These contributions are deductible up to 20% of your income. In adding up your contributions, don't forget that gifts or property can be deducted at their fair market value as of the time they were donated. Suppose, for example, you contributed to your church a share of stock which had doubled in value while you had it. You can deduct, as a contribution, the full value of the stock at the time of the gift, even though you only paid half that much for it.

At the same time you escape the tax you would have had to pay on the capital gain which would have been realized if you sold the stock instead of contributing it. Contributions of money or goods to individuals are not deductible, no matter how worthy. Contributions of service are not deductible in any case. Blood donations are considered as a service rather than as a gift of property, so they are not allowed as deductions.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXPENSES

Unless you or your wife has reached the age of 65, your medical expenses are deductible only to the extent that they exceed 5% of your income. In your medical expenses you can include the cost for you (and for any dependent who received over half his support from you, even if he earned $600 or more) of medical, dental, nursing and hospital services, medicine, eyeglasses, hearing aids, crutches, ambulance calls, travel for medical treatment in some cases, etc. You also can deduct premiums for health, accident, hospitalization and medical insurance, but you must reduce your medical expenses by the amount of any benefits received from the insurance. If you or your wife is 65, medical expenses for both of you are wholly deductible (within the maximum limits), but the 5% rule applies to medical expenses you pay for dependents regardless of their age or yours. The maximum deduction for medical expenses varies from $1,250 to $5,000, according to the number of persons claimed as exemptions.

CASUALTY LOSSES

You are entitled to deduct losses (to the extent they are not covered by insurance) from fire, storm or theft. Damage to an automobile as a result of accident is deductible if not due to your willful negligence.

MISCELLANEOUS DEDUCTION

If you had certain expenses connected with your employment (other than the travel and reimbursement expenses already deducted in computing adjusted gross income) you can claim them as miscellaneous deductions. Examples would be tools, uniforms, union dues, and employment agency fees. Other miscellaneous deductions include the cost of a safe, deposit box used for keeping securities, fee for preparation of your tax return, "periodic" alimony or separate payments ordered by a court (but not payment specifically for support of children), and a share of interest and real estate taxes paid by a cooperative apartment corporation of which you are a tenant-stockholder.

Q. I made $200 during the year, and I don't think I have to file a return. Is that right?

A. That's right, but if there have been withholding taxes on that income the only way to get them refunded is to file a return.

Q. During the year I collected $300 in unemployment insurance. Is that taxable?

A. No.
Q. My husband died last year and I received payment from life insurance policies. Is such payment taxable income?

A. No, the proceeds of life insurance policies payable upon death are not taxable.

Check-list of non-taxable items:
1. Veteran's bonus.
2. Veteran's disability compensation.

3. Workmen's Compensation Payments.
4. Life insurance proceeds paid on death of insured.

5. Mustering-out pay.
Check-list of deductible expense items:

1. Medical, dental and hospital expenses.
2. Interest on personal loans and home mortgage.

3. Employment agency fees.
4. Cost of having income tax returns prepared.

5. Residence damaged by water pipes freezing and bursting.

You're Shareholders in Program

By ROBERT E. TUTTLE
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL
PLAINVIEW SCHOOLS

Many citizens of our communities are unfamiliar with the educational pattern as it exists today. These articles are written to inform you concerning schools, their organization and operation. You, the citizens, are the shareholders in the vast program of public education in your community.

Good schools, competent teaching and effective learning depend primarily upon interested and active citizens who not only know schools exist but assume responsibilities as shareholders in our most important endeavor—the well rounded education of our youth. Citizens make or break the schools.

Interested active citizens help make schools better, for schools represent democracy in action. Democracy in action—grassroots democracy, our unique way of life, is reflected in our schools. In the State of New York any adult with children in school or the owner or renter of real property is entitled to vote in school district meetings. Thus, in general, any citizen, who can vote in municipal or state elections can vote on school district matters. Registration is required before voting in some school districts.

Aside from the home no other agency influences and molds the youth of our nation as do the public schools. Are you taking your child's education for granted? Is the report card your child brings home the only bridge between the school and your home? Do you know the hows and whys of your child's learning?

A child's learning is at the center of the whole educational process. Nothing is of greater importance or significance than the proper environment to encourage effective learning. The structure and superstructure of the state, the school district, the Board of Education, tax levies, pencils, books etc. have come about to facilitate the meeting of the teachers and pupils in a purposeful learning situation.

A learning situation for the adults is here for, the all out interest of every citizen is needed to keep the schools in tune with the changing pattern of American life. Frequently, too little and too late have been the efforts of well-meaning but inadequately informed citizens seeking to provide ample educational opportunity for our children. Citizens driven by the compulsion of a vital interest in the how, what, when and why of their children's learning will ask countless questions and seek many answers.

We Meet Wedding Ring Club

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

I attended a meeting of the Wedding Ring Club last Tuesday evening, and enjoyed myself tremendously. This is an organization for the married women of Hicksville which meets at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church. (Next to Stop & Shop-Bway Store.)

The theme was St. Patrick's—and songs were sung by the membership, and we played a game called "Art Exhibit," and refreshments were served. The four hostesses for the evening were Bea Eisemann, Edna Dempsey, Connie Haig, and Hattie Harter. It is up to the hostesses to strike a theme and plan a meeting—which is a complete surprise to the members each month. If you'd like to be a part of a group like this—get in touch with me; I'd be glad to tell you whom to contact. They meet the second Tuesday of each month. While you're at Stop 'n' Shop Saturday, March 20, you might purchase some home made cakes that the club is selling. Thought I'd call your attention to it.

PASSION PLAY

There was a speaker for the evening at the last meeting — Mrs. William Bines, of 46 Walter Ave. Since Lenten Season is upon us, she had an appropriate talk. While she was overseas in Germany with her husband, Capt. William Bines, of the Air Force, for 3 1/2 yrs., she ventured to Oberammergau to see the Passion Play. This play is staged every ten years; the first play was put on in 1634 and played every decade till 1934 and ended in the reign of Hitler. The first post-war performance was given in 1950. The villagers take part; the cast consisting of hundreds. The parts are handed down from generation to generation in the same family. People come from all over the world to see this spectacle, and the villagers open their homes for the tourists who have traveled for thousands of miles.

It is not uncommon at this occasion to see cars from India, France, England, etc. The play starts at 8 A.M. and ends at 6:30 P.M. with an hour off for lunch.

MIRACLE WOMAN

Mrs. Bines also recalled taking a trip to Konneranuth, in Bavaria and saw Theresa Newmann, as she had heard of the many miracles this woman performed. Theresa Newmann had become ill many years ago, right after the first world war; was completely paralyzed, and in great pain. They tell of a vision she had, asking her if she wished to be cured. She answered that she only wanted what God willed, also asking if it was possible for a young man to be spared of his fatal illness so that he may continue his study to become a priest—the suffering to be commuted to herself.

The wish was granted. Since 1923, she has eaten absolutely no thing and since 1927 has had not one drop of liquid. She goes to church every morning to receive holy communion. She opens no mail—but reads every letter. She has horn marks on her forehead, and her hands are pierced right through. The nail marks are on her feet and an open wound just below her heart. She feels closeness and the suffering of Christ this time of year, bleeding profusely from midnight holy Thursday until Good Friday at 3 P.M. She has been examined by doctors—over and over. This mystery of modern times has no explanation.

BIRTHS AND BIRTHDAYS

You folks on Washington Ave., who remember Mr. and Mrs. Epilon Relyea, formerly a neighbor, now residing at Bayville, might be interested in knowing that they have an heir now—born Feb. 23—name: Dwight James. . . Happy Birthday wishes go out to Betty Mogavero, author of Hillside Terrace Happenings in 'the Herald' . . . Happy birthday to Malake Gorra . . . March 15th . . . My cousin Bob and Marge Maljean gave birth to a son Kieth Robert, on the 8th of March . . . born at Horace Harding Hospital . . .

Sgt. Joseph Weill was the guest of the Henry Franks (Washington Ave.) last week. He arrived here to be stationed in Trenton, after serving in Colorado, and before that—Korea . . . The Greecos; of Ketcham Ave., are getting more and more done on the attic as time goes on . . .

Arena Players At Old Country Rd.

The next regular meeting of the Old Country Road Parent Teachers Assoc. will be held this Wednesday, Mar. 17 at 8:15 P.M. in the school auditorium.

The arena players will present "Fresh Variable Winds". The cast includes: Susan Mann, George Desmond, Bonnie Sue Grass, Silvia Schenk, and Tony Kilps. Joseph Fideleman is the director.

Estelle Wilbur, GS Leader Maintains Full Schedule

Proof of the saying "If you want a job done, ask a busy person to do it" is Estelle Wilbur, of Plainview Rd., Treasurer of East St. P.T.A., Town Chairman of the Hicksville Girl Scouts, Hicksville's representative to the Mid-Island Council of Girl Scouts, and an active member of St. Stephen's Church are just a few of the jobs she does in characteristic capable fashion.

In addition to her civic and community work, Estelle is the very busy mother of two girls, Bonnie and Pennie. Her talent for floral arrangements is in demand at all community events and popular legend has it that if you turned Estelle loose with a couple of dandelions and a handful of crabgrass she'd have a display that would take prizes at the flower show. What she does with a handful of good flowers is a work of sheer beauty. Her attractive home is proof that her artistic taste is not confined to flowers alone. She has a preference for early American and has furnished her home in pieces of that period.

One of her many honors is a life membership in the P.T.A. which was awarded to her for outstanding contribution to youth. Last year Estelle was one of the representatives of the Mid Island Council to attend the national convention of Girl Scouts in Cincinnati.

As Town Chairman of the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Wilbur has been instrumental in bringing the local scouts to their present position of importance in the Council. During her term of office the 3,000th scout in Mid Island Council was registered from Hicksville and the 200th troop established here, and the first Father-Daughter dinner for our scouts and their dadas was held at the Bethpage country club. She is currently sparking a drive for a men's auxiliary of the Hicksville Girl Scouts.

Estelle is married to Merton Wilbur, a Telephone Co. executive and has been a resident of Hicksville for over 20 years.

A gracious representative of the established residents, Estelle has made many new comers feel at home. Her ability to work harmoniously with groups is the secret of her success in all of her activities. Her ability as a leader has made her a figure in great demand by local organizations but P.T.A. and Girl Scouting remain, fortunately for both groups, her primary interest.

which can be obtained free at clinics.

"In the words of Thomas Watson," he said, "parents should THINK the one word slogan coined by the former. Remember that child, whose life you save may be your own."

An interesting safety film shown by Frederick Bergman of the school's faculty, provided a fine note to a fine program.

During the business meeting with the president, Robert Eaton, presiding, the following were named to a nominating committee to submit a slate of officers, at the April meeting: Martha DeTrano, Ruth Kiernan, Charlotte Miller, Mrs. Walter Dunbar, and Donald Abt, principal.

Named to a Gift Committee were: Mrs. Theodore Wagner, Mrs. Robert Robinson, Martha DeTrano and Mrs. Herbert Halper.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Warren Phillips, and Mrs. Thomas Horne, treasurer, gave her report. Lillian Hughes, chairman of the Safety Committee, asked that people who were willing to help with the work call her.

In the hallway of the school, parents admired several art displays. Kindergarten had woven paper chain links in green, orange and white into a shamrock with the paper words above: "Erin go bragh" (Ireland go free.) Charcoal drawings of plants by Mr. Shaw's fourth grade were excellent, as well as some real eerie appearing spooks drawn by first graders in Room 106 in white on black paper.

Interesting Talk on Safety

home burned down a few weeks ago. His son, when asked to explain why he started a fire in the house said: "You know on TV Daddy, how Superman blows out the fire? I tried to too, but I guess I'm not as strong as Superman."

"If you parents don't think how to prevent accidents, you won't prevent them," he said. "You can't hold accidents against your doctor, you're often there and he isn't. By the time a child begins school, he should have learned some basic safety rules. Every 'WHY' deserves an explanation. In 1950 one-third of the death to children by accident were witnessed by mothers, who saw their children being hit by a car. Meet the school bus that your child arrives home on, and discuss a group of mothers to take turns meeting the bus."

Turning to a discussion of firearms, Dr. Caddy said that when accidental deaths were definitely the parents' fault for the trite phrase "I didn't know the gun was loaded," certainly was no excuse. Discussing "Drano" he said that this looks like "sugar" to the youngster, and that bags of lime look like "white sand" to them.

"If you're not safety-conscious, you're not fit to be a mother," he said. "Don't leave objects lying around. I have had cases of skull fracture caused by children pulling the electric iron off the board on top of their heads. From age one to two, children taste, test and tug. Whack their fingers if they are going to touch something dangerous and explain why. Take the time to show him how he can be hurt."

"Discipline is important," he continued. "I believe in the old basic principles of sound discipline. The pendulum is moving back towards more firm methods."

He told of parents who got up after a late bridge party one morning to find their children had made toast of leftover sandwiches by holding a cigarette lighter beneath them. He told of other parents who told him their two children must have fallen out of second story window. Although not hurt apparently, they had been locked in the attic and after a while they rang the front doorbell to be let in. "Think of the knife drawer too," he added, telling of a child last week who had cut off two of his fingers with a cleaver.

"Provide and maintain safe play areas," he stressed, adding "Get Behind the Little Leagues and support your civic group program. Let's make Long Island safe for kids."

In concluding his interesting talk, Dr. Caddy said that anyone with young children should have a two-door car. "Two children fell from cars in two days recently," he added and also advised that young children should have tetanus booster shots every two years.

East St Endorses Fluoridation

HICKSVILLE—The East St. Parent-Teacher Assoc. joined forces with the P.T.A. Council in the endorsement of a program of fluoridation of drinking water here when a favorable vote took place on Thursday night, Mar. 11. Delegates from other P.T.A. groups attended as well as representatives from the Mothers Club of St. Ignatius Church.

Raps More Bang for Buck Policy

BETHPAGE—The Eisenhower administration has failed to protect itself and the American people from the excesses in Congressional investigations as used by Sen. McCarthy, it was charged by Thomas C. Finletter, President Truman's Secretary of the Air Force, at the Meeting of the Young Democratic Club here, Friday night.

The former Air Force Secretary also charged that the Republicans are placing more importance on their "More Bang for a Buck" slogan than on adequate defenses against possible enemy attack. He said that whenever the Air Force budget is less than 18 billion dollars, national security is endangered. The Republicans in their quest for economy have pared the Air Force budget to 12.1 billion dollars. Finletter said the only way to protect ourselves is to have a powerful enough air force to discourage any attack, and it cannot be done for less than 18 billion dollars. Finletter told the Young Democrats that for 14 months President Eisenhower's aides had convinced him that the Republicans cannot win the next election without the evil issue of McCarthy. Only within the past week has the administration started to strike back at the McCarthy tactics, and then only half-heartedly.

The former Air Force secretary also charged that the Republicans have been misleading the American people with false stories about communists in government. With all the explosive publicity, Finletter said the issue is being used to vent jealousy rather than to bring about new legislation.

Carlton H. Bentley of Hicksville was installed as president of the Young Democratic Club of Oyster Bay. Other new officers are James Morganthal of Loust Valley, first vice president, James Cassidy of Massapequa, second vice president, Murray Altman of Hicksville, treasurer, and Mrs. Hilda Robbins of Glen Head, secretary. The installing officer was Ed Hart, chairman of the Nassau County Young Democrats.

Jamboree Film Shown to Troop

HICKSVILLE—The thrilling adventure of 50,000 Boy Scouts from all over the United States, Puerto Rico and eight foreign countries at the Boy Scout Jamboree were shown in a color-movie at the Boy Scout Troop 321 (whose insignia is the Black Knights) Court of Honor held Thursday, Mar. 4 in the Dutch Lane School. The film, taken in California, provided a treat for all.

The program opened with the Scout Pledge after which Roy Brown, director of Field Service in Nassau County, described the activities of the Scouts who participated in the Jamboree last summer, mentioning that 220 boys from Nassau County were there.

After the film, which was shown by David LeFebvre, the audience settled down for the main procedure of the evening, Art Greenham, scoutmaster of Troop 321, spoke of the necessary requisites for a good scout, and outlined the activities of the boys during the past year.

The following scouts were honored by promotions: John Hennigan, star scout; Charles Greenham, most award for public speaking; named as second class scouts: Stephen Redin, Alan Flacks, Charles Mabie, Leonard Davis, and Brian Dillon. Named to the rank of Tenderfoot: Thomas Dackow, Paul Kiffin, Edward Palmer, David Laney, Robert Vanderboven, Fredric Fogley, Gary Stephan, George Bruun, Michael Quattrone and George Altomose.

By LOUIS LOMBAIDE, SCRIBE. Boy Scout Troop 321 held its first Green Bar Patrol meeting on Mar. 2 at the home of Co-Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Bub Arthofer. Plans for the next two months and for summer camp were discussed.

A one day hike was held Mar. 5 in Bethpage woods by 12 scouts under the guidance of Junior Scoutmaster Bud Corcoran, and Sr. Patrol Leader Al Magill. Many advanced scouting tests were passed and two Lean-on built. Distribution of authority plans among officers were also discussed.

Attending the meeting too were: Scoutmaster Edward Quimby, Assistant Scoutmaster James Jacobs, Committeeman Edward Jacobs, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Bob Corcoran, Sr. Patrol Leader Al Magill, William Geatta, Richard Cappaso, patrol leaders, and scribe, Louis Lombaide.

Dr. Gilbert Sherman of Valley Stream, member of the committee on fluoridation from the 10th Dental District of the New York State Dental Faculty, advocated the program in an interesting talk. He said that such a treatment of the water mostly benefited the child under 12 since once the enamel of the teeth is set, the effects are not so great. He said, however, that the unborn child is also benefited from such a program, since the mother can transfer to her child the beneficial effect gained from properly treated drinking water. The cost of such a program annually averages approximately 10 cents per person, he said.

A film showing the benefits of the program to children was shown. During the business meeting there was lengthy discussion of safety measures. Several voiced complaints of witnessing drivers going through stop-lights and asked what could be done to emphasize the importance of obeying the laws. Mrs. Lawrence Foran, president, promised to take up the matter with P.T.A. Council. A vote against have a Community Chest here was passed.

Named to the nominating committee were: Miss Nina Plants, school principal; Mrs. Vincent Hoosack, Mrs. George Donahue, Mrs. Adele Schnapper and Mrs. Walter E. Tolle.

St. Patrick's Day decorations created by the first graders of Miss Elizabeth Ryan were used in the auditorium as well as artistic representations of March coming in like a lion and going out like a lamb, made by pupils in Helen Geoghan's first grade class. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

HICKVILLE GABLES:

March is Red Cross Month

By CONSTANCE GIBSON
Hicksville 4-1482

This month the Red Cross is working towards its goal in dollars and cents with which it hopes to continue its works of mercy. No matter how much is said about this wonderful organization there is more to be added. Always on hand, the Red Cross has saved many lives and contributed much to the happiness of our people. Blood, sickroom supplies, aid in disaster all is given by this organization.

Now we have a chance to lend a helping hand to a helping hand. In charge of our 42nd district is Mrs. A. G. Soininen of 8 South Elm St. Aiding her here in the Gables are Mrs. Younger of Gables Rd., Miss Cissy Wilson of 24 Gables Rd., Mrs. George Maguire of 21 Terrace Place, Mrs. Clifford Goff of 289 Plainview Rd., Mrs. Marjory Giannelli of South Elm St., and Mrs. Odum. These women who are giving freely of their time, either have or will call on you in the near future. Please welcome them.

Belated wishes for a very happy birthday go to Michael Oates, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Oates of 29 South Elm St., who was six years old Saturday, Mar. 13. The Oates family celebrated the event by taking Michael and his sister Kathy for a day at Lollypop Farm, Syosset much to the younger generations delight. Out for the day were Mrs. Oates mother, brother and sister also of Long Island.

Birthday wishes also go to Thornton A. McGill who celebrated his on Mar. 12.

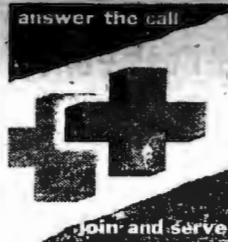

We have been late before but never this late and wish to sincerely apologize Timmy Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baldwin of 13 Gables Rd. celebrated his fourth birthday on Feb. 16. Present at his party were Donald McGee of 27 Gables Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baldwin and children Rita Marie, Jimmy and Michael at East Meadow and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Baldwin and children Larry, Barbara and Tommy of Westbury. A good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary on Mar. 11. Unfortunately they had to rush their 15-year-old son, David, to the doctor's that day to have a fractured elbow set.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Fernandez of 4 South Elm St. accompanied friends, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murray of Yonkers to Manhattan where the two couples saw the Josephine Hull comedy, "Gold Gold Cadillac". It will be a long time before they forget this Mar. 13.

Our East St. sixth graders were really excited over the fact that they came out on top in their weekly, Friday ballgame, this time on March 12 with the Ice Ave. School group. Looks like we have some future champions in our midst.

Mrs. Helen E. McIntosh of 3 Gables Rd. welcomed her son, Bruce, home for a weekend stay after which he will return to Grove City College where he is a senior. After graduation, Mr. McIntosh will attend the Western Theological School in Pittsburg.

We would like to send our very best wishes for a speedy recovery to Miss Zeltite Jansons, formerly of Cedar Street now of 83 North Broadway who was rushed to Meadowbrook hospital Thursday, March 11. We're all pulling for you Susie so get well soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olson and daughter June along with Mr. and Mrs. William Horn of 303 Plainview Rd. entertained Mr. Olson's mother, Mrs. Ruth Olson of New Canaan, Connecticut for the weekend of March 14.

All the people of the Gables would like to send their sincerest best wishes to James Byron of 17 Gables Rd. who is in serious condition in Greenpoint Hospital, Brooklyn. Your friends and neighbors are all thinking of you, so do your best to get better fast.

Paul Russel, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Russel of 16 Gables Rd. has just returned home from the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital, Copague, after having his tonsils removed.

Also sick this past week was two year old sister Florence, but we hear that she is now able to be up.

Special congratulations go to Aija Jansons of 33 North Broadway and Donald Gogan of West Cherry St. who were married in St. Ignatius Loyola Church, March 18 at 4 o'clock. Miss Patricia Gogan, sister of the bridegroom was the Maid of Honor while Kenneth Gogan was best man for his brother. The bride wore a white, ballerina length dress of lace and tulle set off by a shoulder length veil. In her hands she carried white roses. The Maid of Honor wore Peacock green. The bride's brother, Mr. John Jansons gave her away. After a reception at the Hicksville Inn the couple left for a motor trip through the South.

Mrs. Gogan is an airline Stewardess for the Pan American Air Lines, having graduated from the Grace Downs Airline School in this city. Mr. Gogan is stationed with the Navy.

HICKVILLE DOWNS:

Our Civic Dance is March 20

By JOAN DOWD
Hicksville 4-1937

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts of 98 Cliff Dr. have as their guest this week, Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Emma Hicks Farrell of Ossining, New York.

Mrs. Theodore Wicks of 94 Cliff Dr. was taken to North County Community Hospital suddenly on Sunday. May you have a speedy recovery, Jean.

Seen the Mat Brennans of Stanley Street lately? Maybe you did but just didn't recognize them in their new 1950 navy blue Ford! They certainly make a nice picture.

At last we have all the data on the Cedar-Cliff Civic Assoc. dance on March 20. It is to be held at 8:30 at the Masonic Temple, West Nicholas St., Hicksville. Jimmy Priest and his "Minute Men" will provide the music so we're sure that it will be good. We've heard them before and think they're terrific. For you who enjoy competition there will be dancing contests. Those who do not dance (and there are some) still have a chance to win something too. There's going to be a door prize. Those who like to eat will be satisfied too.

There will be free beer and sandwiches with free "set-ups" and no Corkage fee. All this sounds great to me. How about you? There are only about 100 tickets left so you'd better hurry. If you haven't gotten yours yet, call Hicksville 3-4592 and you'll have one before the day is over. As a matter of fact, you can have all you want before the day is over. Everybody is welcome! Bring your friends and neighbors! If this affair isn't a big success, it won't be the fault of the entertainment committee. They've worked hard and long toward just that end.

If someone lost a set of keys (house and car) in, at or near the public phone booth on Stanley Street, they have only to see Ed. Quinn at 4 Sussex Street. He picked them up there Wednesday night.

Why did you move to Hicksville? Personally, we wanted to get away from city life with its littered streets and rubbish filled lots . . . among other things.

Now we find places in our own neighborhood where people drop their unwanted furniture, mattresses, tires, etc. If you see any of these unfortunate, uninformed people, explain to them that there is no need for it. The sanitation trucks servicing our neighborhood will pick up just about anything the trucks can possibly carry.

There was a group of surveyors working at Allen St. and Cliff Dr. Monday and rumor has it that two houses are to be built there in the near future. Several lots have been staked out.

That's all for now.

Bob Betscha, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Betscha of 25 Notre Dame Ave., Hicksville, a sophomore at New York State Teachers College, was named to the Dean's List for the first semester of the college year, 1953-54. Mr. Betscha is studying for a B.S. degree as a major in commerce. He is a member of Sigma Lambda Sigma, a social fraternity, and is on the Student Council for the second year.

A youth recreational building with an initial outlay of $20,000 has gained quiet but influential support in Bethpage. Already very serious meetings on the project have been held and a full scale announcement will be forthcoming once the many problems of administration and finance have been evolved.

The costly proposition of acquiring land for the building site would be overcome by combining the activities of the PBC with the project.

Erection on the present plot where the PBC clubhouse now stands would give the recreational committee its much needed land and the expanded facilities would greatly enhance the operation of the PBC.

Under consideration the building, when fully completed, would be a modern three story structure.

A basketball court and shower rooms are slated for the lower level. The second floor is slated for game rooms and perhaps television or reading rooms.

Purpose of the third floor would be for the adults of the community for meetings and other activities.

Before it is finished the project will be exhausting and complex for its sponsors but it seems apparent that it will be successful since the temper of the fast growing community of Bethpage is not to wait to get a finer place to live in but work to make it so.

The second game of the Alliance League finals between the Hicksville PBC and Port Washington will be played on the Mineola court tomorrow (Wednesday) night.

The best bit of on the spot reporting by a local daily when it properly fixed blame for the fist swinging affair at Hempstead in the semi-finals on the host club properly cemented Coach Steve Ruggiero's blistering attack on the NCABL for its assignment of the officials.

Hicksville took the first issue 78-68 at Hicksville but lost at the Hub 62-59 when the Rams with tremendous physical edge bullied out the win.

Ruggiero named no names that he wanted but insisted that if any one of three were assigned to the rubber game at Locust Valley he would order his team home.

Two consistent and competent men worked the final. Hicksville with only seven regulars went down ten points in the third period but came on to win it by eleven in the fourth.

By eliminating Hempstead, Hicksville was regarded as a slight favorite to annex its fourth straight title over the challenge of Port.

Mineola's fine spirit just failed to nip Valley Stream in the Nassau County Scholastic finals at Hofstra College, Friday night. The honors went to the South Shore for the second year in a row, 60-59. It was an overtime thriller.

Six-foot eight Connie Dierking of the winners is a smooth ball player and his 32 points saved the south shore representative.

But for factual reporting however we must agree with the county seat fans that the officials did coddle him just a bit.

And just a bit won it!

Little League Rallies March 28

HICKSVILLE—The Central Nassau Little League annual rally and registration day will be held in Levittown Hall, here, between 2 P.M. and 5 P.M., Sunday, March 28. All boys between the ages of 8 and 12 who live within the league's boundaries are eligible to attend and must be accompanied by parents. Parents must register their boys otherwise they will be ineligible for the try-outs.

Little League baseball and World Series films will be shown. Prominent guests speakers are expected to be on hand. Plans for the season will be discussed in detail.

It is expected that a total of between 600 and 800 youngsters will participate in the activities of the Eastern and Western League Divisions. Each youngster will receive a thorough tryout to determine his playing ability, after which he will be assigned to a team.
