Kellner Gets Change of Zone, May Build Plainview Post Office

OYSTER BAY—An application by Samuel J. Kellner of Hicksville for a change of zoning at Plainview, where he hopes to build a new post office and four stores, was the subject of a public hearing here, Tuesday morning. The Board granted the application presented by Attorney George Kappaport. The zone change from residential to business was approved for the corner of Central Ave. and Southern Pkwy. in the Model Farms section, adjacent to the first Morton Village area developed.

While the formal contract for the post office which will start as a branch of Hicksville office has not been awarded, it is understood Kellner seeks it. Establishment of a Plainview branch has already been approved by postal authorities.

Sell Old Comics for Cancer Fund

HICKSVILLE—Old comic books are often considered of dubious value by parents, but three youngsters on Meadow Lane here put their's to good use last week. They collected $2.65 for the Cancer Fund by selling their old collections to children in their neighborhood. The funds were turned in at the Herald office by Tommy Schaeffler, 8; Kenny Bean, 8, and Jimmy Huttie, 10. The money is being relayed to Joseph F. Bayer, cancer drive chairman.

Mr. Summers is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith C. Johnson Summers, and two sons, Richard E. and Theodore V. Summers, Jr.

30-MONTH COMPARISON REVEALS:

More Home Buyers Here Today Nassau Residents And Workers

HICKSVILLE—Family and economic status of new home buyers here has undergone a marked change from conditions 30 months ago, it was learned today, with a larger percent of purchasers already Nassau County residents. Walter G. Stackler and Leonard L. Frank made the findings public following an analysis of mortgage application information supplied by the first 200 families who have signed contracts to purchase homes at Mid-Island Park on the north side of the community.

The current data was compared with a similar survey made in Sept. 1951 of 249 purchasers of Stackler & Frank's Woodbury Gardens project.

The current analysis shows that 26 per cent of the buyers in Mid-Island Park, the so-called "Trade Secrets Homes" in the $13,000 to $18,000 price range, earn their living in Nassau County, compared with 12.2 per cent of those in the Woodbury Gardens survey.

Frank said he felt this is due to the extensive industrial expansion and establishment of new businesses that has taken place in Nassau during the past three years.

Queens County is still the predominant source of buyers of new homes, but a smaller percentage is coming from Queens today. In Mid-Island Park, 30.6 per cent of the purchasers to date are former Queens residents, but in Woodbury Gardens, 39 per cent moved from Queens.

On the other hand, the percentage of buyers who already are residents of Nassau has almost doubled. Nassau residents account for 23 per cent of the sales in Mid-Island Park, but only 12.1 per cent of the Woodbury Gardens purchasers already lived in Nassau. Stackler believes this change has come about because an increasing number of families "are becoming dissatisfied with older homes they already own in Nassau and are selling them in order to move into larger houses on larger plots, or into houses of newer and better design."

The percentage of new home buyers moving from Brooklyn to the Hicksville area has shown a marked decrease, according to the Stackler & Frank surveys. Whereas 30 per cent of the Woodbury Gardens buyers were former Brooklyn residents, only 18.7 per cent of those in the new Mid-Island Park project moved from that borough.

Island Premiere Of New Comedy

HICKSVILLE—Two casts are rehearsing at the High School for the Apr. 8 and 9 presentation of the three act comedy, "I Love Lucy," an adaptation of the TV show's funnier moments, combined with some teen-age antics. The play, which was published about six months ago, will have its Long Island premiere here. Coach of the play is Ray Ruch, instructor in history and social studies at the high school.

The seniors are anticipating adult cooperation from parents and the community in their efforts to present good entertainment. Tickets will go on sale soon, with certain stores in Hicksville acting as agents of the students, places to be announced later.

The casts for the two performances are as follows: Ricky, Richard Baker and Hugo Jahr; Lucy, Valerie Bechtler and Karin Creutz; Ethel, Barbara Albrecht and Ann Schulz; Fred, Arthur Zimmert and Philip Engle; Peggy, Claire Keller and Mary Lou Vlette; Arthur, Stuart Orton and Barry Williams; Miss Whiting, Carole Anastasis and Judy Harvey; Mr. Littlefield, James O'Brian; Mrs. Richard Adams; Mrs. Littlefield, Carole Goetzelman and Constance Delaney; Joe, Eddie Schaufler and Richard Fearn; delivery men, Rudy Schaufler, Tom Gilligan and Roy Stephens in one cast, and Al Fichner and Brian Kraft in the other.

Surprise CD Drill Detours All Traffic

HICKSVILLE—Traffic thru the center of the community was detoured for more than an hour, Tuesday night, while Civil Defense forces rescued a "victim" from the roof of the former Huettner building and freed another "victim" in an overturned automobile at the corner of Bway, and Marie St. Members of the fire dept. stood by with floodlighting and a fire truck during the surprise demonstration.

Auxiliary Policemen led by Chief Clifford Goeff worked with county police in detouring traffic around the scene of the drill put on by members of the CD rescue service from Mineola. Traffic was turned aside on Broadway at RR crossing, at B'way and Cherry St., W. Marie St. and Jerusalem Ave. and E. Marie St. in front of the firehouse. Pedestrians were permitted to move freely.

No public alarm was sounded for the drill which included lowering the "victim" from the high roof of the former Huettner building in a sling stretcher on ropes. Another "victim" who was "trapped" in the overturned, wrecked auto which lay in the bus stop zone, was freed as rescue workers with cutting torches opened the car roof.

Observers on the scene included Buddy Mazzara of Bethpage, deputy to the county CD director for Oyster Bay Township, and Charles Eginton, local CD community director.

Daring Daylight Bandit Gets $3500 in Bethpage

BETHPAGE—This community was swarming with police officers and detectives within minutes after 11 o'clock this morning, following a brazen daylight holdup by a "young man". Mrs. Ethel Amendola, proprietor of Duke's Paradise at 10 Rail Road Ave., according to initial reports, was forced into the rear of the bar and grill, tied up in her kitchen and relieved of approximately $3,500. She managed to free herself and ran to Tony Amato's Nash showroom, next door, to give the alarm.

SINGING HYMNS, the Sisters of St. Dominic formed a procession to escort the Blessed Sacrament into their new convent on E. Cherry St., Hicksville, on Monday afternoon, Mar. 8. It marked the formal move of the nuns, who teach the children of St. Ignatius School, from the adjacent building which had been the convent here for 40 years. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

Make Up Not Necessary For 2 Snow Storm Days

Because an allowance of two extra days was added to the school calendar in Bethpage, it will not be necessary to make up the two days missed, Jan. 11 and 12 when adverse weather conditions caused the closing of the schools, Victor L. Miller, supervising principal of the Bethpage-School, said Monday. When the school calendar was set up, 192 days were scheduled instead of the 190 required by the state law.

Dr. Erie H. LeBaron, superintendent of the Hicksville Schools, said that no word had been received in his office from the State Education Dept. on making up the two days missed.

William R. Parrott, acting supervising principal of the Island Trees Public Schools, stated that approval on the closing of the schools on the above mentioned two days had been received from the State Education Dept., and that the two storm days will not have to be made-up.

New Basketball Net 'Borrowed'

HICKSVILLE—Robert and Donald Heller, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heller of 75 Underhill Ave., are feeling pretty low lately. They had just received a present of a new basketball net which had been fastened to a tree in front of their home so they could attain prowess on shooting baskets, when one morning recently it was gone.

Welfare Topic At GOP Session

By R. C. SOININEN
HICKSVILLE—The Republican Club members heard an enlightening and interesting talk, Friday night, by Miss Margaret Kirby, deputy commissioner of public welfare.

Miss Kirby discoursed on her own section of welfare and the problems associated with placing children of various ages, environment and temperament in adoptive homes and foster homes. When one or both parents are unable to take care of their children, the welfare dept. does what it can to place them temporarily in institutions or foster homes.

Older children, she said, usually prefer an institution because they like being in groups with other children.

She explained the utmost care is attached to all placements, to be certain that the boy or girl will receive kindness, love and patience from the new parents and that their religion is the same.

Miss Kirby finished her talk with an urgent plea to the membership, for help in finding foster parents. She said there are not enough homes to take care of all the boys and girls, who are desperately in need of guidance and help. Miss Kirby also said there is a great shortage of trained personnel for case workers. The qualifications are: A college degree, a years residence in the county and a kindly feeling for children.

Dear Jean:

Condolences are extended by CHARLES BARVELS, assistant cashier of the Bank of Hicksville, upon the death of his mother, a Brooklyn resident, this week. . . . Hicksville Kiwanis discloses that HAROLD MANASKIE has set a meeting on "Joint Youth Program" for March 24. This is a follow up of the Joint Service Club dinner-dance held recently. . . . First issue of the Nassau Republican, periodical for committeemen, officials and workers, is out this week. It includes report which we found significant "Women's Gain in Politics Show on Increase Under GOP". Such is not the case in our township or community. Few women are committeemen for the party, they seldom win office in GOP clubs or a place on the ticket. . . . Incidentally, a party was held this week between officers of the Centre Island Women's GOP Club and HOWARD HOGAN, town GOP leader. Also present was political boss ERNEST FRANCKE. . . . RAY VIET-HEER, former capt of Co. 3 who recently became a member of the county sheriff's staff at Mineola, has withdrawn as a candidate for assistant chief of the fire dept. There are still four others running for the position. The election is Apr. 8. . . . Hicksville Chamber members who have nominations to propose for May elections must send names, in writing to PO Box 401. No nominations can be made from the floor on the night of the election. Terms of five directors will expire. . . . We got a gawf out of the CD drill, Tuesday night. While all streets were blocked off tight and those at the barriers were tight lipped when asked "what's going on", CD officials were hoping for a crowd of spectators. There was no advance publicity and the Herald got a request in the mail on Wednesday (the next day) asking to have a photographer present the evening before. CHARLES MONTANA, insurance broker, came on the scene and wondered if AL SCHACKNER knew those fellows were on the roof of Al's building. A few firemen were tipped off the previous Friday or Saturday as to what was scheduled. It was a thrilling demonstration and a little advance word would have produced an interested audience. . . . The whole thing did prove something. CHARLES EDGINTON is still the CD director, according to the next day publicity. Someone said they heard he had resigned. . . .

We don't know why, but Westbury Post Office has been able to get the right to deliver mail to the new O. E. MC INTYRE plant on W. John St and a factory next to it, although the property is on our side of the Parkway. . . . North Broadway up by the Home property looks real nice with those new street lights. Now what about in front of the post office? And how about along Woodbury Road? . . . Watch for official action on the proposed ambulance for Hicksville early next month. . . . In case some of our "friends" have been getting ucers fretting about the published reports (not in the Herald) that this paper would get $10,000 for the publication of county legal advertisements this year, we can set them back on the road to health. Based on the first two months of this year, the notices will probably NOT EVEN GROSS $2500. . . .

Meeting of the Nassau Press Assoc. of which FRED J. NOETH, our editor and publisher, has been president for the past four years, takes place in Glen Cove this Friday evening. Our boss is not seeking re-election. . . .

PLAIN-VUES:

Plainview Twins Are Big News

By RAE CANTULLI

Hi Folks: I'm still in a state of recuperation, and that old doctor said two more weeks of keeping yo old feet up on a couch which is beginning to look like a 3 conditional fiend. So please, if anyone is in the vicinity of 17 Island St., do drop in and say "hello". Being able to do absolutely nothing gives a person plenty of time on their hands. Because of this the news is very little. So if there is any news, give me a call.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY DEPT:

A happy birthday greeting to Bonnie Myrick of Island St. who was 2 years old this week. Happy birthday to Bob Gessner of Island St. whose birthday was also this week.

GET-WE'LL-QUICK:

I hope Mrs. William Robinson of Eldorado Blvd. is feeling better. She was hospitalized for a while, and I hope she is on the road to recovery.

Illness seems to haunt Island St. Among those who have been ailing are Ralph Iverson and son Robert. Also Cheryl Davidson who seems to be having a very bad winter. Little Lynn Galanaugh is still on the sick list.

BLESSED EVENTING:

The big news of the week is the birth of twins in Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Berger of 45 Westbury Ave. are proud to announce the birth of twin girls, March 12, at Memorial Hospital of Queens. Vicky Diane weighed 5 lbs. and 11 ozs. while Margot Evelyn weighed 5 lbs. The twins have a 3 year old sister Susanne. The happy paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Eli Berger of Miami, Fla. I certainly wish to extend my personal congratulations and hope that the two new little arrivals will have a happy and healthy life.

Don't forget to give to your American Red Cross. The Red Cross has always been on hand when disaster strikes here on our own shores. So give a little with a representative call to collect. See you next week.

East St PTA Wants More Data

HICKSVILLE—East St. P.T.A. membership has authorized its officers to find out what steps are necessary to obtain fluoridation of the community water supply and report findings at a future meeting, it was noted today. It had been incorrectly reported that the P.T.A. was on record as endorsing the program without reservation. The P.T.A. at its meeting last week also polled the audience to determine the feelings of those present regarding establishment of a local Community Chest. Those present were not favorably inclined and the findings will be forwarded to the Chamber of Commerce. The P.T.A. itself did not take a stand.

Problems of safety in the East St. area will be taken up by the officers with the proper authorities, not the P.T.A. Council.

The annual Purim party for all children more than four years old will be held at Congregation Shalom Zedek Mar. 21 at 3 P.M.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Cost Of Living 'In Country'

By Fred J. Noeth

THE PROBLEM of gas and electric bills, which according to the people who receive them, are "excessive and high" has stirred the entire mid-Island area.

Wide-spread concern about utility billing was evidenced this week at a meeting of the Hicksville Civic Information Exchange attended by representatives of a dozen community civic groups. The same evening the Plainview Civic Assoc. was holding a meeting where a petition parade, aimed for delivery to the Public Service Commission, was launched. The daily press has also reported agitation about the utility bills in South Farmingdale and along the South Shore.

Glenbrook Civic Assoc. of Hicksville met Monday night at the North Village Green Inn, Levittown, and Robert Sklars introduced the problem of high bills. It was noted at the meeting that Glenbrook bills vary from $32 to $55 for a two-month period. A breakdown of the load is to be made by James Rodgers of the L. I. Lighting Co. to determine whether any particular appliance is causing high bills. Results checked by scientific devices will be analyzed at the next Glenbrook meeting.

The problem seems particularly acute for new home owners who have gas operated water heaters and those whose homes are heated by gas fed furnaces.

The gas water heater appears to be a real viper. We recall the Hicksville Gables people more than four years ago were up in arms about high gas bills, compared to those of neighbors, and it was eventually found that the gas water heater is not a particularly efficient device.

Persons with electric service only—electric range, electric heater, etc.—appear to find little to fret about.

There is little real concern, we gathered at the Civic Exchange meeting, as to the accuracy of the meters used by the utility company. The core of the problem does appear to rest in the rate structure. The Lighting Co. says the PSC sets the rates. This is true. However, it is also true that the utility company requests the rates and although the PSC does not always place rates at the level that applicants would like to see them, the utilities are frequently asking for adjustments—most of the time upwards.

We have an example of this with the Telephone Co. which is now pushing for new, higher rates which it claims are necessary to provide efficient service and return dividends to its stockholders. The applications for rate changes by the Long Island Rail Road are an old, old story.

In the case of the utility bills which are causing so much concern, many new home purchasers are again the victims of agents for developers who promise much but also leave a great deal of vital information unsaid.

Fantastic statements have been repeated by new home-owners as to local taxation, public improvements, recreational facilities, transportation, zoning and so on. It is regretted that far too many home purchasers learn the sad and bitter truth only after they sign all the papers and take up occupancy—the hard way.

In People's Corner

Written in the Interest of Better Local Government

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER

Political decisions are hard to make. Taking a stand on a local issue is sometimes hazardous. But if we are to act as good Americans should, questions that demand an answer, should be considered and discussed freely. Each citizen should have an opportunity to make up his mind himself.

In making up one's mind, about both local and national matters, it is often best to start from the "General" and work towards the "particular." Our life is short compared to our faith in the life span of our country. We must always remember that our country was not the beginning, nor will it be the end, of humanity's struggle. As long as we believe that what is good for humanity at large will ultimately prove to be best for our country, we are on the right track.

The decisions that we make today should be consistent with our American Heritage, with our tradition of personal dignity and our philosophy of democracy. What we do here today, is only one small link, binding the past with the future. Our generation will forge its link in that continuous chain, it can be strong link or a faulty one. The next generation cannot go back and strengthen that link. The link we forge is irrevocably made, to hold or break for all time.

Weak links of the past have led to the fall of great empires. Some day, sometime, the weak "American link" will be forged. It is our obligation to make sure it is not forged in our generation. It is our duty to the next generation, to prepare them with an understanding for, and a strong belief in, our heritage, our democracy.

Every decision, yes, our every act should be to strengthen the link we are forging. Our every act should be to strengthen our youth in the firm conviction that democracy works — not just in principal, but in daily practice.

If we refuse to take a stand, if we refuse to make the necessary decisions required of us, we are failing in our generation. If we fail to "keep the faith" ourselves, what can we expect of succeeding generations?

JEWISH WAR VETERANS OF HICKSVILLE, POST 655

By WILLIAM C. OLITSKY
ARTHUR TRAJDMAN, our comrade, has gone WEST . . .

He received his last orders at the Veteran's Hospital, Sunday, March 14. Arthur as a veteran remained constantly aware of the needs of our wounded and sick comrades lying in hospitals throughout this state. He was the inspiration behind the visits and parties we gave our unfortunate and sick buddies and always maintained that regardless of the man's race, color or creed we do what we can to obtain better medical care. This care for the veteran shall continue unabated until such time as there are no more waiting lists for entrance to a V. A. Hospital.

Although he is a veteran, he felt a keen responsibility toward our non-veteran fellow countryman and deeply respects and loves the American citizen's which he fought to preserve. He often spoke to me as his friend and past commander about our community's children who lie in the local hospitals. The Christmas and Thanksgiving parties we gave at St. Gilles the Cripple at Hempstead and St. Dominics at Bayville, N. Y. His thoughts of fostering and encouraging the youth of the community in ways American, to do. In this way children of all races and creeds can learn to play with one another and compete with one another but never forgetting the basic tenet of fair play, yes this was one of his feelings.

He took no rest seat to no man for his anti-discrimination work and always remember that it was one of the reasons Arthur was a Charter member of this Post, did so much in its formation. Where Artie couldn't participate in our blood donor program, always ready to take up the slack was Minerva as many know (Nernie) Arties right hand. We grieve with you in your loss, and stand steadfast by you, Ronnie and Michael.

Speaking to Sid Kaphan our Commander he said "I am deeply shocked to lose a man such as he. I can only say that the success of my administration must be shared by Arthur, without whom our accomplishments would have been of no great magnitude."

We of Post 655 bid thee farewell our heartfelt and true comradeship go with you. May your presence in eternity foster and perpetuate the noble spirit of Friendship and good fellowship. A drink of wine, a broken glass will we meet again. Farewell, Farewell!

Politician's Paradise

If there was ever a politician's paradise Nassau County is it! There isn't another like it in all of New York State's 62 counties, from Albany to Yates. And probably there isn't another one like it in the whole country. If the county politicians feel stymied by a little detail like a state law, what do they do? Why, they go ahead and change it. But, you ask, how can they do that? Don't they have to convince the upstate legislators that the change is good? No indeed, and here's why.

Special Laws For Nassau

Nassau is one of the few counties among the 62 in the State to have a special setup known as the County Charter government. So, when a revision in the law is needed, a bill applying only to those counties have charter government is introduced. And knowing that only Nassau County is affected and not their own counties, do you suppose the upstate legislators hesitate very long in accommodating their colleagues from Nassau? Well, they haven't yet. There are probably two contributing reasons for this. One is that they customarily help each other on what are known as local laws. The other is that they probably are not aware of background of the bills, and how they are sometimes not good bills from the public's viewpoint.

Case In Point

Among the many bills introduced at Albany are some especially for Nassau. One in particular is a beauty. It has to do with an incorporated area trying to be annexed to an incorporated village or city. The present law says that if a certain percentage of the taxpayers request annexation (in a manner prescribed by law) the Town Board is required to give its consent. The proposed law says that even if all the taxpayers ask for it, the Town Board can turn them down on the grounds that it is not in their best interest. Now "ain't" that somethin'!

Why the New Bill

November the Supreme Court reversed the Oyster Bay Town just such a case. Owners of more than two thirds of the property in petitioned for annexation to Muttontown, an incorporated village. The Town Board slapped their wrists and said not in their best interests". Then came the reversal in court. Hence, the new proposed law to revise a law the politicians don't like.

Will It Pass?

Even though the Village Officials Assoc. of Nassau County (and they are mostly Republican, too) have assailed this bill, as being a step in the wrong direction, it will probably pass and be approved by Gov. Dewey. And once more our elected officials will move another step away from the people to whom they are supposedly responsible.

Constitutional Revision

The Constitution of the State of New York requires that it be submitted to the people for revision at least every 20 years. The next date is 1958, four years hence. It is not too early to think about it. Perhaps it might be possible to do something about the stranglehold the entrenched politicians have on local and county government.

CANTEEN GURGLES: Growing by Leaps and Bounds

By JOANIE BULLO
This is the first column and we hope, in the future to carry items concerning not only Teen Canteen but high school news and information generally interesting to teenagers. All contributions will be gratefully accepted—either come in school or call Hicksville 4-0046.

It looks as though Teen Canteen is really growing by leaps and bounds. We now have approximately 140 kids coming to the canteen at Burns Ave. Monday nights and Dutch Lane Tuesday nights. Each canteen now possess a ping pong table, small games and records for dancing. Any parents interested in helping the small group of volunteers now running the canteens should contact Mrs. Orton, HI 3-7844, to help at Dutch Lane and Mr. Kist, HI 3-8077 to help at Burns Ave. No experience is required—just a willingness to help is necessary.

The Bunny Hop and Hokey Pokey have become a fad among us and our favorite moment is when Tommy "Fatso" Petit shows us how well he can lead the Bunny Hop. Joe Sitter and Bob Klewicki seem to be the ping pong champs at present but just wait until some of us girls get a little more practice.

The newest fashion "must" for Teen Canteen is for girls to wear skirts and hobbit ear instead of dungarees. Boys say they act more

Entertain Aunt From L. I. City

HICKSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Salvato and son, Thomas of 72 Linden Blvd., entertained in honor of Mrs. Joseph Salvato, Mrs. Salvato's aunt from Long Island City, on Sunday, Mar. 14, in the afternoon at a birthday dinner.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. F. Salvato and sons of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. J. Villano and children of the Bronx, Mr. and Mrs. W. LaManna and children of Hicksville; Rose and Linda Berestante of Long Island City.

like ladies now. Would be nice if the boys spruced up a bit too—how about it fellas?

Everyone at the "Canteen" thinks it wonderful that the Young Republicans donated the "green stuff" to furnish us with free bus transportation to Mineola Park, Mar. 27. This means that 60 of us can ride to and from the rink in luxury and get into the rink for only 50 cents. Normally 'twould cost at least a cool, frosty $1.25. Pretty good saving, what? Run to your nearest canteen to sign up for this terrific bargain. You'll pay 5 cents dues when you come but you'll get $5 worth of fun. Oh yes, bring your 50 cents with you when you sign up.

Jo Trocola would appreciate it if anyone talented would contact her for a show she would like to put on at Mitchell Field.

The Variety Show at the high school was terrific. Gosh we sure do have talent in Hicksville. Wish they could put on a variety show even more often—everyone enjoys it.

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD Theatre Guild Gets New Recruit

By GENE MALJEAN
 Hicksville 3-8515

The Plainview Theatre Guild is all set for cutting scripts and casting. It seems—and the best part of it all is that if you have an idea you'd be able to act—after preliminary practice—you're perfectly welcome, especially since there is a shortage of men.

The Guild has a goodly group of women—it appears, however—since this is not an esoteric club it is open to everyone—not only in Plainview but in neighboring places as well... and I imagine they can use some more women, although the men are being asked for at present. Yours truly has volunteered, although I have never acted before, but I'll try anything. My first meeting was a lot of fun, and I'm looking forward to the next.

The club meets at the Manetto Hill School the first and third Wednesdays of the month. Aspirants may drop in or phone me for info. You may be pleased to know that the guild is comprised of both professionals and amateurs alike. The first attempt will be three one-act plays—a drama, a mystery, and a comedy—all of which will be acted in the spring. The next presentation will be a full play, after it has been ascertained through the months just what types the members can play.

ALCOHOLICS AND SMOKERS
 It appears now that we smokers who continue to smoke in the light of the latest disclosures involving lung cancer, are as bad as alcoholics who continue to drink, although it may mean ruined health in the future. I reckon we're just not used to the idea.

THIS N THAT
 Word is getting around that Elmer Blaser and Charlie Leary of Briggs St., are doing some great work of finishing attics and building garages etc. at 51 Briggs St., that is... Al Basile, of 1018 82 St., Brooklyn, visiting us the other day and wants to know if Anthony Barody would phone him or us. Al says he lives somewhere in Hicksville and lost his address... My wife slipped this last item in, she believes everyone in Hicksville reads the Herald... Al and Ruth Mecklenburg, of Vincent Rd. celebrating their 14th wedding anniversary last Saturday went out on the town...

A HUNDRED YEARS

Now that the Prudential Insurance has granted a loan to Chrysler for $267 millions, payable in 100 years, I believe I'll place my application. The worst they can do is say no. I was talking this over with Edwin Balder, a Hicksville accountant, and he sees this expansion as industry's faith in our economic health. It's nice to hear some optimistic talk about economy nowadays; so many folks have us in a depression, so to speak. Imagine having 100 years to pay back a loan...

HERE'S A RAM

Marge Phillips tells us she was born on April 11. That would place her under the sign of Aries, the Ram. According to the zodiac, she is forthright and aggressive. She is alleged to have a dynamic drive to achieve something worthwhile. Her wagon is hitched to a star. Many fields hold her interest, and she would like to be something special. According to the horoscope she is romantically inclined, and pursues glamour, sometimes—unwisely, too easy a conquest disappoints an Aries.

"Do you wonder what the zodiac says about you? Phone us and we'll let you know."

CREAM PUFFS

Janet Horowitz of 33 Circle Drive, offers this recipe: Cream Puffs: 1/2 C butter, 1 C sifted flour, 1/4 T salt, 4 eggs. Bring butter and one cup water to boil in heavy saucepan. Add salt at once, stirring vigorously until mixture forms a smooth ball and leaves sides of pan. Remove from heat and add eggs one at a time, beating well after each egg. Drop by tablespoonfuls on greased sheet. Bake in hot oven 400 degrees for 40 minutes. Use whatever type filling you prefer—custard, chocolate, cream, etc.

Hold Spring Fair At Dutch Lane

The annual Spring Fair of the Dutch Lane P-T A will be held this Friday, March 19, at the Dutch Lane School, Hicksville. There will be a Children's Fair from 10:30-4:30 in which all the classes will participate. Games and prizes have been planned, as well as trinkets for the boys and girls to buy with their nickles and dimes. From 12:30 - 4:30 a Giant Cake Sale will be featured. All cakes, pies, and cookies will be homemade. There will be an opportunity to see the merchandise which will go on sale during the evening.

The doors open for the Evening Fair at 8 P.M. John Green and his committee have worked hard all year collecting brand new merchandise to suit every taste. It includes salad sets, dressing table skirts, hats for mother, daughter, and brother. Lots of pretty aprons have been made at home. There will be books and white elephants, too. Door prizes will be won. Coffee and cake will be available throughout the evening.

The Glenbrook Civic Assoc. of Hicksville will hold a spring dance on May 1 at the Masonic Temple, W. Nicholas St. Herbert Fedebush is in charge of arrangements.

ON AND OFF ALBERT STREET Loose Dogs Frighten Children

By SHIRLEY HUENLICH
 Hicksville 4-2327

We can finally breathe a sigh of relief now that the Federal Income Tax is finished, but only a short one, for now is the time to think about the State Tax.

Last week the typewriter took a turn for the worse rendering all typed matter unreadable, hence I missed writing a column in which I had fully intended to pay tribute to the Girl Scouts. However, it still not too late to let you know that on Feb. 16, Karen Anderson, 9, of 20 Albert St. was accepted as a Brownie in Troop 238. Also, not forgetting the Boy Scouts, we would like to have you know that Joseph La Rocca, of 20 Power St. joined as a Cub Scout on Mar. 8.

Joseph's Mother, Mrs. Rita La Rocca, had a birthday on Mar. 5 and celebrated with her friends and relatives.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry O'Connell, 27 Pernay St., who welcomed their third son on March 8.

Saturday, Normie Bergholts of 21 Somerset Ave. celebrated his fifth birthday. With him to celebrate in his grayly decorated cellar were: Robert Farrington, Charles and Robert Schurman, Thomas Price, Joseph La Rocca, Joseph Bavona, Joanne La Rocca, Karen Anderson, Gloria Gorgone and Mary-Jane Murphy.

Mrs. Edmund Carman, 8 Somerset Ave., started celebrating her March 13 birthday a day ahead when her mother, Mrs. E. Broadman, of Franklin Square, an heiress, Mrs. Maxwell also of Franklin Square and Mrs. Pascal of Albertson and their children came to lunch on Friday, Saturday, she again celebrated with Mr. and Mrs. F. Carman and daughter, Adele of Floral Park.

Mothers and daughters get set for an evening out. Thursday night, March 25, will be "Mother and Daughter Nite" at the High School, sponsored by the P-T A. The students will model clothes from Robert Hall. Refreshments will follow in the gym and a good time should be had by all.

In this section the dogs are still running around loose and the small children are petrified. Can't something be done to alleviate this condition?

No April Fool About CD Events

BETHPAGE—The usual April Fool pranks will take a back seat as Civil Defense takes over on April 1st here. Built around the theme of "Community Survival", the day-long program is being sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Assoc. in cooperation with Civil Defense Unit 813.

At 9 A.M. the south parking field of the Broadway School will be a scene of much activity. The outdoor exhibit planned for CD Day will include an Air Force Carry-All supplied by the White Plains Filter Center; a Welfare Unit, an Evacuation Ambulance, a Red Cross Mobile Unit, Transportation and other exhibits. All displays will be in operation throughout the day and evening. Six radio communication mobile units will also be patrolling Bethpage.

An indoor exhibit will be set up in the Broadway School Cafeteria beginning at 7 P. M. Among these displays will be a Red Cross Mechanical Picture Exhibit. The Communications Unit will have a Radio Transmitter and Receiver as well as a portable Telephone Switchboard in operation.

The Rescue Unit will show the tools they use and tools that could be used at home in a time of emergency. The Auxiliary Police will have a portable jail in operation for the "saboteurs" besides an exhibit. The Warden's Information Booth will have equipment for photographing and fingerprinting for identification in case new recruits would like to sign up then. The Welfare Dept. will display a Model Feeding Station. This will include a scale model house with miniature figures and buses.

The school children will participate in air raid drills and also be given the opportunity to see the outdoor exhibit. Their posters on Civil Defense will be displayed, too. The winners of the Poster Contest sponsored by Civil Defense Unit 813 will be given their awards during regular assembly programs.

The evening program on "Community Survival" will be a part of the regular monthly meeting of the P.T.A. on Thursday, April 1st. The business meeting will start at 8:15 P.M. in Broadway School Auditorium. Moderator for the program, which is to follow the business, will be Tex Surprise, CD Chairman for the P.T.A. Included in the program are short talks by community and county CD leaders and a ten minute Civil Defense film.

Local CD unit chiefs to be introduced are: Deputy Directors Harry Roodie and Thomas Oliver, Chief of Communications Frank Bilson, Chief of Supply Albert Auer, John J. O'Donnell, Chief of Auxiliary Police Frank Erickson, Chief of Five Harold Looney, Chief of Medical Dr. Louis Lutge, Chief of Welfare Lydia McNamee, Chief of Transportation Frank Mazzara, Chief of Rescue Fred Vapel, Chief of Supply Albert Auer.

Speakers for the evening and their topics are as follows: CD Director Fred Willard, "Bethpage CD Reports"; Buddy Mazzara, CD Director in the Town of Oyster Bay, "Civil Defense as a Peace Time Service"; Col. Louis Merrick, newly appointed head of Nassau CD, "You, the Family, and Civil Defense".

"Sabotage" will be the unusual feature of the night. CD volunteers turned saboteurs will plant flares symbolizing time bombs at certain water wells, power stations, railroads, and schools. Auxiliary police, wardens and Intelligence Service will try to apprehend the "saboteurs". The undercover work will start at 9 P.M. and the "saboteurs" that are caught will be housed in the portable jail that the Auxiliary Police will maintain in the Broadway School Cafeteria.

Following the program in the auditorium, refreshments will be served as usual in the cafeteria by Members of the community are asked to cooperate with CD workers and to come out to the exhibits and evening program. The P.T.A. Hospitality Committee of which Mrs. William Fesch and Mrs. Harry Petersen are Co-Chairmen.

Taking Better Movie Pled To Main Office of Theatre

HICKSVILLE—The Better Movies Committee of the Parent-Teacher Council, here, will seek the cooperation of the New York city office of the local theatre, it was learned this week. Charles Kastner, local manager, has told the committee that he is anxious to cooperate but he must accept the films sent to him by the main office.

Mrs. Theodore G. Rosebery, chairman of the Better Movies Committee, made her report at a council meeting held Friday night, Mar. 12, at the home of the vice president, Doris Phillips of 25 Link Lane.

Efforts to enlist the aid of other local organizations to improve the picture shows here on Saturdays and Sundays will be made, according to Mrs. William Giannelli, P-T-A Council president.

The National Foundation of Poliomyelitis has asked the help of local PTA groups in dissemination of information on the mass control of polio through injections of polio vaccine.

PTA Council will also take action in distribution of information on the benefits of fluoridation of the water supply locally to the community and groups within it.

the Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The first 1954 edition of the Sportlight indicated that the Hicksville PBC Alumni would regret cutting loose veterans Tom Hartmann and Jim Quinn once the Alliance League playoffs came around.

ITEM: The Hicksville PBC lost its first final round play-off game to Port Washington, Monday night when five of its players fouled out of the contest. With only eight men on hand the defending champs had a six point lead going into the last ten minutes. They had to play with four men from the ninth to the sixth minute and had only three for the last five.

And even at full strength the playoff poise has been replaced by out and out heaving from any direction.

That cult of "approved" (self) officials which are strangling Nassau club sports with the approval of a gratitude greased daily press now dismiss horrid officiating with the comment, "This league is going to fold anyway."

Just one thing we can't quite figure out. Why a resident of Syosset almost living on the top of Cold Spring Harbor Hill will raise a fuss over erection of a sports arena in the extreme west of Jericho and give as a reason that there wouldn't be enough parking space for the people who attend the events?

Those persons who were ready to tab Hicksville High an out and out favorite for the Eastern Division baseball title are holding back. Farmingdale looms big and the Comets are burning some of their bigger lights out internally.

The limelight becomes brighter every moment but that scandal of the player rosters we referred to back in November still goes undetected. It's truly unfortunate that it does and it will be more unfortunate if it is discovered.

Nice Weather And Grass Fires

HICKSVILLE — Four calls for grass fires and one of an oil burner alarm were received at the Firehouse Hicksville.

On Mar. 15 at 7:09 P.M. a run was made to 84 Arrow Lane at the home of Donald Levy for an oil burner fire.

Grass fire alarms included: Mar. 16 at 2:54 P.M., Bethpage Rd. and Grove St.; Mar. 16 at 2:44 P.M., Box 411, Bethpage Rd. near the water district, and on Mar. 16 at 5:10 P.M. at the corner of Rim Lane and Levittown Parkway.

77-65 Victory Events Playoffs

MINEOLA—The book is not closed on the 1954 Alliance League championship.

With Port Washington's name all but etched on the title page the Hicksville PBC Alumni turned in a sound 77-65 victory over the North Shore team, here Wednesday night.

Port had won the first tussel and was a heavy favorite when the defending champs could only floor six men for the game.

The rubber match was not scheduled as the Herald went to press but indications were that it might be at the Hempstead Armory, Sunday afternoon.

Hustlers Hold Slight Lead

WESTBURY — St. Ignatius teams are still on top in the CYO Eastern Section, Bowling League here with the Comets holding a slight edge at 68-28, and the Hustlers recording 67-29. The Questions are third with 62½ to 33½ and the Princes next with 60-36. The Hustlers were the High Team in the series with 2568 and the Comets have the high team game of 996.

Hal Gregory rolled a gore of 608 for a high in the series and Wulken of the St. Ignatius Reds rolled a 247 for the high individual game.

High averages were made by A. Baldwin, 178; J. Gallene, 166; F. Dragon, 165; A. Puccio, 163-59, E. Perinka, 163-57 and H. Gregory, 163-4.

Bowling Loop For Industries

HEMPSTEAD—The 18th edition of the LI Industrial Bowling Tournament, sponsored by the Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corps gets underway this Saturday night, March 20, at the Heineman's Centre, here. The tourney will run for four successive Saturdays, winding up the night of April 10.

Sixteen of Long Island's leading industrial teams will compete for the Jake Swirbul Trophy, which is awarded to the team totaling the greatest amount of pins over the 12 game route.
