Reports Of School Board Candidates Circulating

HICKSVILLE—Community interest began to focus today upon the annual school district election in May when two trustees of the Board of Education will be elected. The terms of Henry C. Brengel, long-time member, and Edna Kuhne Sutton, completing her second term, expire this year. Brengel told the Herald yesterday he does not think he will be a candidate. Mrs. Sutton said she is not prepared to state her intentions. Meanwhile, it was learned, that petitions are being circulated in behalf of the candidacy of Joseph Cowley of 2 Glow Lane, as a candidate to succeed Brengel. Designating petitions for the election must now state the specific vacancy to be filled, it was learned. There were reports current regarding at least three other potential candidates here.

Jr. High Host to P-TA Council

HICKSVILLE—Junior High PTA will be host to PTA Council at a meeting in the Junior High School library tonight (Mar. 23) at 8:30. Speakers will present information regarding the roles played by some of the "Specials" in the Public School System. Mrs. Otto, speech therapist; Mrs. Dondero, reading consultant; Mr. Chittenden, attendance census supervisor, and Mr. Glaser, school psychologist, will be present to discuss the subjects.

Note Red Cross Drive Progress

MINEOLA—The progress of the Red Cross campaign in the mid-Island area was noted today with the first report of funds deposited. Hicksville with a quota of $2,100 under co-chairmanship of Henry McInnes and Joseph Reinhardt has raised $654.90; Bethpage with a goal of $1,000, led by Mrs. Jean Mazzara and Mrs. Elmer Norman, has $306; Levittown with a goal of $5,500 under Otto Frank has collected $1,738.64. Plainview with a quota of $500 has not reported as yet.

Cedar-Cliff Has Big Night

HICKSVILLE—A very successful social affair was held by the Cedar Cliff Civic Assoc. Saturday night, Mar. 20 for the members and their friends in Masonic Temple, West Nicholai St., here.

Names of the winners of the dance contests could not be learned at press time, but it was reported that John McKernan was given the door prize. Judges for the contests were: James Glynn, president of the association; Frances Harrell, secretary, and Arnold Jeanson.

Congressman Appoints 3 Boys

WASHINGTON—Three Hicksville boys are among the five candidates and 15 alternates named this week by Congressman Styvesant Wainwright of the First Congressional District, here. They are Robert E. Christensen as a principal candidate for Annapolis, Charles F. Crofts Jr. as second alternate for the same appointment; also Thomas W. Gilligan as a second alternate for West Point.

Glenbrook Civics Set Dance

HICKSVILLE—The Glenbrook Civic Assoc. is completing plans for a spring dance at the Masonic Temple, here, on May 1. Herbert Federhush of 20 Amherst Rd. is chairman of arrangements. The admission will include refreshments. There will be square dancing and entertainment.

Fred J. Noeth, editor and publisher of the Herald, was guest speaker at the last meeting of the Glenbrook Civics. He discussed the various types of special and service districts in the Hicksville area and a brief outline of the various functions of the county and township governments.

Dog Lost, Likewise A Master

HICKSVILLE—Did you lose a Beagle puppy? Have you seen a boy's pet dog? While one dog owner was hoping for word about his eight-month-old light cream and tan dog, another young dog was seeking his master.

Prince is lost and Eugene Salerno of 49 Harding Ave. hopes someone will call HI 4-0447 and report his whereabouts. Eugene raised Prince since he was six weeks old. His hair is quite long and covers his eyes a little.

The puppy with the lost master is waiting for a telephone call at HI 4-0002. The Beagle was found wandering in the northwest section in the rain, Friday. She has a black body, brown head and ears, white legs and feet and white undersides.

LETTERS NOW WILL HELP:

RR Crossing Priority Bill on Dewey's Desk

ALBANY—Legislation to place Hicksville rail road grade crossing elimination in first priority position is now awaiting action by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce announced yesterday. The measure passed both the Senate and Assembly, here, and went to the Governor for signature in the closing hours of the session. Dewey has 20 days in which to act.

The Hicksville Chamber suggests "the favorable action" by Dewey "could be assured if interested taxpayers will write to him at the Executive Mansion, here, urging such action."

Assemblyman John J. Burns introduced bill no. 1861 Int. 1520 on Feb. 2 and State Senator William Hults introduced the companion measure, No. 1857, Int. 1276 on the same date, at the request of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Legislation amends chapter 195 of the laws of 1941 entitled "An act to establish a definite program for the elimination of highway-railroad crossings at grade under jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission pursuant to section 14 of article 7 of the State Constitution".

The Hicksville eliminations have been listed in part II of the 1941 laws for which no funds were allocated. If Dewey signs the bills now before him, Hicksville elimination will be placed in Part I of the 1941 laws where the program can be progressed and preliminary plans and cost estimates developed.

An appropriation of funds will still be necessary to carry out the projects, however, since money available for Part I projects already has been allocated or spent.

A print of the bill does not mention Hicksville by name. It refers to the project as "Oyster Bay, village streets".

Adult Program Exhibit Mar. 31

HICKSVILLE—The Adult Education Program here will hold open house and an Exhibit at the High School, Jerusalem Ave. on Wednesday evening, Mar. 31, at 8:15 P.M. With the exception of a few classes at this will conclude the Spring Semester of the program, according to Elsey Bean, director.

The classes in sewing, tailoring and various arts and crafts will have on display the objects produced during this term.

In the auditorium the instructors of the sewing classes will conduct a fashion show; the Obedience Training group will put the dogs through their paces, and a dance exhibition will be given. The Americanization classes will entertain also. The Adult Chamber Music group will accompany the program.

Tense Moment As CD Team Rescues Victim

LOWER AWAY—Members of the Mineola Rescue team lower a live "victim" in a sling stretcher from the roof of the former Huettner building at Broadway and Marie St., Hicksville, in the glare of fire dept. floodlights in a surprise Civil Defense drill held on Mar. 16. Emergency telephone line relayed directions from crew on the roof to other team members on the street. Pierre Charbonnet got this exclusive picture for the Herald.

EMERGENCY CANTEEN for rescue workers was provided on Marie St. during the CD drill by members of the Hicksville Fire Dept. Ladies Auxiliary led by Mrs. Ernest Dieter-

We Take Trip to Old Toll House

By DOROTHY R. BROWN
HI 4-0128

Are you making vacation plans? If your plans take you to New England, and perhaps more specifically to any of the lovely vacation spots in and around Boston, please plan to include the Toll House on R. 18 in Whitman, Mass., for fine meal. Built in 1709, this house, located halfway between Boston and New Bedford, made an excellent place for stage coach passengers to eat, while a toll was paid, and the horses changed.

Most people are familiar with the "Toll House Recipe Book" and the famous "Toll House Cookies" everyone likes. Did you know that these both originated at the famous Toll House in Whitman run by Kenneth and Ruth Wakefield?

The food is seasoned and served attractively. Juice cocktail is served with rosettes of exquisitely seasoned cream cheese on ritz crackers. A cone for children may be served with the cone as a cap on the ice cream decorated as a clown. Their creamy fresh lemon meringue pie with its 3 inch deep meringue well known. There are many choices of main dishes and special menus for very young children and juniors up to 12 years of age.

There are two main rooms used for serving. At noon they use the newest addition, which is decorated as an outdoor garden with a real old tree growing in the center and small circular flower garden at table level surrounding the trunk. Each table has a different floral arrangement and at noon different colored luncheon mats are used to match flowers.

We had luncheon there last week while up in Mass. visiting my parents and Lee, my husband, was greatly impressed with the place and left feeling well satisfied with a grand meal.

Perhaps you have been somewhere to visit that you feel was interesting or very worth while, and would like to pass this information on to others. Contact yours truly and we will try to put it in a future column and thus help others in forming their vacation plans.

Here is a vacation hint heard on the radio the other day. For those who travel by car, did you realize that the U. S. Routes going North and South are odd numbered while the East and West Routes are even numbered?

Our belated congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. B. Baranaki of 60 Fordham Rd. on the birth of their daughter Feb. 25. Linda Lee weighed in at 8 pounds and 6 ounces.

Belated birthday greetings go to Natalie Puskoris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Puskoris of 45

Dear Jean:

A hit and run driver smashed into the 1953 Chevrolet owned by RICHARD B. MALLETT of 137 East Ave., Hicksville, while it was parked in front of his father's house on Plainview Rd a minute after midnight, one night last week. His father is Herald photographer, FRANK MALLETT. . . . Eastern Camera Exchange of Hempstead, which has a store in Hicksville, earned one of the highest honors in the photo store category of a nation-wide Brand Names Retailer-of-the-Year competition, it was announced in New York. More than 1700 leaders in business, advertising and distribution will witness the presentation of the coveted Certificate of Distinction at a dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria on April 22. . . . Mrs. JAMES CONDON got quick results from a Herald Want Ad when she offered her home on McAllester Ave for rent, recently. Her husband is on duty with the Army in Germany and is not expected back in this country for two or three years. . . . A Hicksville amateur photographer made legal history last week with the first showing of 3-D color films in a Federal courtroom. He is STANLEY SUSSMAN of Willow Ave who showed slides in Brooklyn Federal Court at the trial of three alleged still operators. The Hicksville man said he took the pictures for a friend of his, a Treasury agent. . . . It is suggested that all of Jesdoh, North of the Tyle, will shortly petition the town board for annexation of the nearest incorporation village. . . .

Construction of a quarter-million dollar plant for Riverside Plastics Corp is scheduled to start this month on west side of Miller Rd., Hicksville. . . . ROBERT W. CORCORAN of Twin Lawns Ave., Hicksville, who is assistant counsel for the State Liquor Authority, was quoted in the New York Times story regarding the loss of a liquor license by the Harry M. Stevens Inc. caterer outfit at Roosevelt Raceway. It was said the outfit "cut in former Assistant DA ALBERT M. DeMBO for 10 per cent of the profits from its food and liquor concessions" at the trotting track in Westbury. . . .

Mrs. JOHN NOLAN of 84 E. John St., Hicksville, called Councilman CHLUMSKY last week to suggest that the town install parking meters in front of the homes of residents all along John St. "From morning to night they park right in front of our homes," she said. "We can't park our own cars there and I think that someone ought to be getting some good out of the situation. . . .

Mrs. MARGARET KUEHN of 69 West Marie St., Hicksville found a pair of bi-focal glasses at the corner of Nichols St. and Division Ave. and would like to return them to the owner. Her number is Hicksville 8-1228. . . .

Fordham Rd. Natalie was three years old March 4 and had a small party. Those who helped her to celebrate included Robert Jr., John, and Catherine Rabbitt; Tom and George Kellers; Gary Christensen, Muriel and Steven Rockstein, and their mothers.

Miss Karen Cucicoli of 8 Mayflower Dr. celebrated her birthday on Friday, March 12 with some of her friends. She entertained Linda Koeck of Birchwood Lane, Patricia McNeely and Patricia Brittain of Mayflower Dr. and Cathy Mann of Woodbine Dr. S. with a little puppet show. Karen learned to make these paper puppets in school. Other games were played and refreshments served.

Word reached us that birthday greetings go to Elizabeth Lane of 27 Fernside Road who was eleven years old on Friday, March 12. Dennis Knealy of 49 Fordham Rd. celebrated his second birthday on March 13.

Last Friday a group of first graders at Lee Ave. School presented a little program for their parents. This included a playlet called "McNamara's Band" with the theme centering on St. Patrick's Day. Several of the young stars included Robert Rabbitt of Fordham Rd., Linda Koeck of Birchwood Lane, Virginia Keener of Woodbine Dr. and Susan Farquharson of Fordham Rd.

Hi Jinks Is Fast Moving Show

By ELIZABETH D. BAKER

HICKSVILLE—The Hi Jinks Variety Show, presented at the High School Mar. 11 and 12 at 8 P.M., was a hit from start to finish with the audience responding spontaneously to the fast-moving entertainment.

Although every number was well received, outstanding hits were Patricia Hughes, in a dance entitled "Blues in the Night," and the finale number when Dolores Tuccerone, clad in a sparkling sequin dress which was high style in the "Roarin' Twenties," presented the Charleston. She was called back for repeated encores. The school's orchestra sparkled in the show with their lively interpretation of the popular music. John Searino was at the drums, trumpeters included: Carl Droke, Anthony Genovese, and Robert Arthofer; soprano: Robert Yost, Stuart Morton, and Warren Lipsky.

Dancers with Dolores included: Janet Anselm, Joyce Brough, Patricia Burgoyne, Mildred and Rosemarie Cardinale, Constance Delaney, Roberta Greco, and Phyllis Ruggiero. Exceptionally good was their presentation of "Bell Bottom Blues," the costumes short and nautical.

Eugene Nye won approval with his solo, "Somebody Stole De Wedding Bell." Virginia Mohr provided pleasure in her interpretation of "Night and Day," on the piano, and Barbara Segall pleased with her two numbers, "Chippendales" and "Dance of the Jesters."

The audience, which not only filled the downstairs, but overflowed to the gallery, also showed keen appreciation for the following numbers with Martin Watkins as master of ceremonies; Dance, "Ebb Tide," Patricia Hughes; Accordion Ensemble: "I Believe," and "Heart of My Heart," by Agnes Arthofer, Ronald Boos, Dorothy Hoffman, Mary Molinaro, and Elizabeth Munkel.

Duet: "A—You're Adorable," Margaret Berger, and Marge Sanzano; dance, "The Tango," Dolores Tuccerone, and Guy Roberts.

Song solo, "Begin the Beguine," Josephine Trocola; dance, "The Old Soft Shoe," Maureen Maurer; piano solo, Michael Mathias; The Schnickelfritz Boys, Hugo John and his friends; duet, "Cruisin' Down the River," Margaret Berger and Marge Sanzano.

Dance, "The Samia," Dolores Tuccerone and Guy Roberts, which with the other dance "The Tango," proved the two to be skilled as Terpsichorians.

Song solo, "My Secret Love," by Harriet Moles with Virginia Mohr at the piano; Pantomime, "I Like It," by Martin Watkins; solo, "Young at Heart," sung by Priscilla Tedesco duet, "Life is Just a Bowl of Cherries," Priscilla Tedesco and Eugene Nye; Accordion solo, "Tico-Tico" and "Tea for Two," Michael Geniatti.

Terry DeSerre singing "Temptation," and "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," trio, "Tennessee Wig Walk," by Muriel Muas, Martha Wagner and Eileen Kalfur; Josephine Trocola singing "Talk of the Town," and a trumpet number by Carl Droke.

The audience, which not only filled the downstairs, but overflowed to the gallery, also showed keen appreciation for the following

Make-up was by Mary Fuller.

Judy Wycoff, setting and lights by Donald Holmes and the art students, assistant stage director was Michael Zimmerman, and the tickets and programs were done by the students in the High School Print Shop.

Jeane Boller, math and general science teacher, coached the students in the musical numbers and was at the piano with the school's orchestra. He was assisted by Donald Holmes, art teacher, and by Ruth Daly, faculty member, who was presented with a bouquet of flowers from the cast after Friday night's performance.

Theatre Manager Says Best Movies Are His Selection

HICKSVILLE—"The best pictures available for child audiences are selected for Saturdays, Sundays and school holidays" it was asserted today by Charles Kastner, of the theatre, taking exception to a published report of the Better Movies Committee of the Parent-Teacher Council.

"I did not tell the committee I have 'nothing to do' with the selection of films for showing here," he asserted. "We show only the finest type pictures, the best that can be obtained from the exhibitors."

"I have made and do make changes in pictures scheduled for showing here." He pointed out that westerns, comedies and musicals are chosen for showing to youthful weekend and school holiday audiences.

He challenged the statement of the P-TA movie committee, made to a recent council meeting, that Dr. Tracy the Dental group.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

PSC Gave Warning On Gas Cost

By JOHN DOWLING

A check with the Public Service Commission in New York City has revealed that the L. I. Lighting Co. has been cautioned against the use of "misleading advertisements" in its endeavors to convert the public to the use of natural gas for household purposes.

A PSC spokesman explained that the utility concern has been told to inform all families contemplating changing over from their present method of heating or cooking to consider the cost.

"Every family converting to natural gas in addition to those purchasing homes that are equipped to use natural gas must be told that this method is apt to be more expensive," the spokesman told us.

He also pointed out that the supply of natural gas is limited and LILCO is required to assure the PSC that it is able to supply the needs of a certain area before Commission approval is granted.

In connection with the current mid-island uproar over alleged overcharging of consumers by LILCO, the PSC reported that at the present time they were in receipt of a total of 42 individual complaints. Nine of these were received in January; 22 in February and eleven up to and including March 11.

In addition, the commission received a petition from North Farmingdale containing 53 names.

The PSC spokesman said that individual complaints will be contacted and an inspection of their meters made. The charge for this testing and inspection is 75 cents with the money reverting back to the consumer if the meter is found to be "running fast". LILCO will also be ordered to refund the over charge in cases where defective meters are found.

In the case of a petition such as the one received from North Farmingdale residents, the PSC's handling of the problem will be slightly different, the Herald learned.

"Each signer provided his name is legible and his address is affixed to the petition, will receive a personal letter from the Public Service Commission asking if the petitioner desires an examination be made of his meter," according to the PSC spokesman.

"If the complaints reply in the affirmative and investigation will be conducted and the usual 75 cents charge made," the spokesman added.

"However, if no reply is received," the spokesman noted, the petition or petitions will be kept on file and no further action will be taken."

Mid-island residents who feel they've been over-charged and have signed a petition to that effect should make sure that their signature is legible and their address also appears on the petition. In addition, in order to insure an investigation by the Public Service Commission they must rely to the Commission's letter requesting an inspection, it was pointed out.

Encourage Flag Display Here

PLAINVIEW—In an effort to encourage a wider display of the Nation's flag, the Plainview Post No. 1812, American Legion is currently conducting a campaign to see that the business and residential property owners in the village are acquainted with the appropriate dates on which to display the flag and to see that all are in possession of one or to make it easier for them to obtain one.

The committee formed to foster this move, under the direction of Burt Nessel, has already contacted the various businessmen in the town and nearly all have to arrange to purchase flags from the local Legion Posts.

During the next few months, members of this committee will call on every property owner to deliver this message and to take orders for flags which the post can obtain for them.

The post has a 3 x 5 foot flag complete with lawn socket that is ideal for the average home owner and which will retail for about $10 (business sets run a little bit higher). Anyone interested in obtaining flags in time for Memorial Day is asked to contact Chairman Burt Nessel at Hicksville 4-1682 or the Commander Alfred B. Schupp at Hicksville 3-0993. Further information may be obtained from Joseph Arena at the X-L Cleaners on Old Country Road, Plainview.

THE SCHOOLS ARE YOURS:

The State Has An Interest

By ROBERT E. TUTTLE
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL
PLAINVIEW SCHOOLS

My neighbor, John Q. Public and I had agreed to meet periodically to discuss education. John Q. had just moved into Nassau County from New York City. We sat on the lawn at his house.

"Just how powerful is the state in public education?" asked John as he knocked the ashes out of his pipe. "I've always thought that Albany issued the orders and the schools obeyed."

"No, John, that is not entirely true. Actually the state lays down the general policies, rules and regulations for all the schools of the state," I said, sitting down in the lawn chair next to him.

"Well, what do you mean by general policies, rules and regulations?" countered John with a quizzical look.

"For example, the state says a school year shall have at least 190 days including holidays such as Columbus Day or Washington and Lincoln's birthday. Also, John, any teacher or administrator employed by a school district must have a state license just as your doctor or lawyer does."

"Are there any other important items?"

"Yes, several others should be mentioned. Plans for a new building must be approved by Albany. Bus transportation contracts, fire drills and records of attendance are set and subject to state review and approval. Also double sessions of classes each school day cannot be inaugurated without the approval of the New York State Education Department."

"That is interesting," mused John. "But what about the subjects taught in the schools? Does the state lay down any rules about that?"

"The experts in the state compile a syllabus for each of the various subjects taught in the schools. A syllabus is a general outline of the subject together with references, suggestions and other sources of information."

"Does the teacher have to use that?"

"No, in many school districts," I answered, "the teachers make up their own courses of study which are submitted to the state for approval. The state syllabus as such is a guide. Also, John, it should be remembered that all educators from the state level to the local classroom are engaged in teaching children as the primary goal rather than subjects as such."

"Who is the chief executive officer of our state educational system?"

"The Commissioner of Education is the executive head of our state school system. His position is comparable to the President of a large corporation, for he and his designated assistants are responsible for carrying out the interests of the state in education. Here is another interesting point; John. The Commissioner acts as a court of appeal deciding any controversies brought before him by the various school systems."

"How does the Commissioner obtain his position? He isn't elected is he?"

"No, not by the people. He is chosen by the Board of Regents."

"Regents?" pondered John.

"That strikes a familiar note. I remember taking Regents examinations as a high school student."

"Right you are, John. Regents examinations are still given in our schools. The Board of Regents, however, is a group of 15 prominent citizens of the state who are recommended by the governor and elected by the New York State Legislature."

"Just what does the Board of Regents do?"

"The Board of Regents is similar to the board of directors of a large business corporation. The Board meets once each month. Perhaps this will give you a better idea." I said, leafing through some notes. "Yes, here it is. Here is what is stated in a folder published by the University of the State of New York Press in May, 1951:

"The Board of Regents is the governing body of the University of the State of New York and the State Education Department.

"The primary functions of the Board of Regents are the formulation of educational policy for the state and the exercise of powers which reside in the University. The policies and procedures established by the Board of Regents are known as Regents' rules and have the force and effect of law."

"You have me confused. What are these two agencies you just read about? Let's see, they were the University of the State of New York and the State Education Department."

"The University of the State of New York includes all secondary schools (High Schools) and higher educational institutions which are incorporated in New York State. The State Education Department with 1,600 employees is charged with the general supervision of the educational system of the state."

"There is one other thing that puzzles me," mused John. "How does the state know that local schools are carrying out education as the law requires?"

"The District Superintendent of Schools or the city or Village Superintendent of Schools is the field representative of the State Education Department."

"City Superintendents I know about as we have one in New York City. But, Village Superintendents?"

"Village Superintendents are responsible to the state as well as the local community to make certain that state laws, rules and regulations are followed. He also submits various periodic and yearly reports to the State Education Department. For example, Dr. E. H. Le Barron is the Superintendent of Schools in Hicksville."

"That I see. But the District Superintendents?" questioned John.

"To begin with all areas in the state not employing local Superintendents of Schools are under the jurisdiction of the District Superintendent of Schools. Nassau County, for example, is divided into two supervisory districts. Mr. John W. Chisholm is Superintendent of the First Supervisory District and Mr. Harry W. Gross is Superintendent of the Second Supervisory District."

"What does the Superintendent do?"

"His duties are multitudinous and varied. But essentially he is the chief executive officer over a certain area, charged with the responsibility of determining that schools conform to the regulations and rules of the Board of Regents, the State Education Department and New York State Education Law."

"Consistently And Contemptuously"

"Consistently and contemptuously ignores the community's needs and desires." These are the words of the retiring president of the Levittown Civic Council in speaking of the manner in which the Joint Pool Hall District is being administered. Perhaps these words are a bit strong, stronger than most of us would be inclined to use, but they do give a pretty good idea of what happens when the politics get out of hand.

Relatively Few Use Hall

Relatively few owners of Levitt-built houses have occasion to use Levittown Hall, also known unofficially as Ransome Hall. But when summer comes, practically all of us, and the kids, will be using the pools. We don't expect that the pools will be shut down or that the water will be stagnant. But we do expect that we will have precious little to say about them. And remember, we paid for the pools in the price of houses, and we are paying for their upkeep through special taxes. Next summer, if we think some of the regulations might be changed to suit our convenience or comfort, we can go fight Town Hall about it. Not our own Oyster Bay town Hall where we conceivably have some rights, but over at the Hempstead Town Hall.

Bill Of Goods

Our Town Board jumped all over themselves giving in to Levitt's demands last year. Apparently they got the word from headquarters. They got themselves sold bill of goods. In the ruckus last year, we all remember the pious words of the Oyster Bay Supervisor saying he would never consent to any arrangement against the will of the people. Then he got the word, and did his tune change! He set up a public referendum and then ignored its findings. He went along with the Hempstead Supervisor who was evidently anxious to extend his "empire". Special legislation was rushed through Albany over the objections and many local citizens, some of whom went to considerable expense. The Joint District, popularly known as the Pool Hall District, was set up with two commissioners from Hempstead and one from Oyster Bay. Three members so there couldn't be any tie votes! Guess who always wins!!

The Results

We now have a special, special service district for Levittown Hall and the swimming pools. It's the only one of its kind in the entire state. It further louses up the already unreasonably complicated and confused township government set up. The only people it serves well are the politicians who become further entrenched by it, and Mr. Levitt who thinks he can force an unwilling loyalty on his customers.

Harold J. Harter, 140 West John St., Hicksville, a senior in Hamma Divinity School at Wittenberg College in Springfield, Ohio, will sing with the Hamma Choir during its tour of churches in Ohio and Indiana, March 24 to April 11. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Harter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Condon, 186 Ohio St., Hicksville were hosts to the committee of Cub Pack 91 on Wed., Mar. 17. Plans were made for the 5th annual candy sale of salt water taffy by the Cubs. Next Pack night will be Friday evening, Mar. 26, at St. Ignatius School.

In People's Corner

Written in the Interest of Better Local Government . . .

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER

This is addressed to all Republican Committeemen and to our "lesser" town and county officials.

You who have been, sometimes against your will, and more often against your better judgment, carrying the disagreeable load of justifying your party's stand to a dissatisfied public, and to your own unhappy party members, have for long time now been deceived and duped yourself.

It is now clearly apparent that your high chief "Saddle Bags" Sprague and his lordly group of "we are the law" Republican state bosses, have been much more interested in their own personal welfare than in the good of the people or even in the good of their own Republican Party.

They have duped you into believing that, even when you are working sometimes against the good of the people, that you were working always for the good of your Party.

Now it has been disclosed, for all to see, that you were working more for the "good and welfare" of your Party Boss than the good of your party. Now we all know that your boss was using your party—just as he was using you—for his own personal grandezza.

When ever and wherever our American Two Party System breaks down evils creep into government. This happens no matter where, no matter when, no matter who! People who follow the leader without thought encourage irregularities. Local leaders who jump to obey, who blindly act on another's conviction, who are too lazy, too tired, too thoughtless, to form opinions of their own, make it easy for the unscrupulous to prosper and thrive.

"King" Macy was near the beginning, "Saddle Bags" Sprague and his friends are now in the middle, where do you suppose it will all end?

Ask the CPA

By SOLOMON NEWBORN

Certified Public Accountant

Mr. Newborn will answer questions in this column.
Address Herald, Box 95, Hicksville.

FEDERAL: $600 for all taxpayers and dependents.

STATE: Single person, trust, or estate $1,000; married persons living together and head of a family $2,500; each dependent $400.

QUESTION CORNER

Q. My baby was born February 28, 1953. How much is my exemption?

A. 10/12 x $400 equals $333.33

Q. Does money collected from unemployment insurance have to be reported?

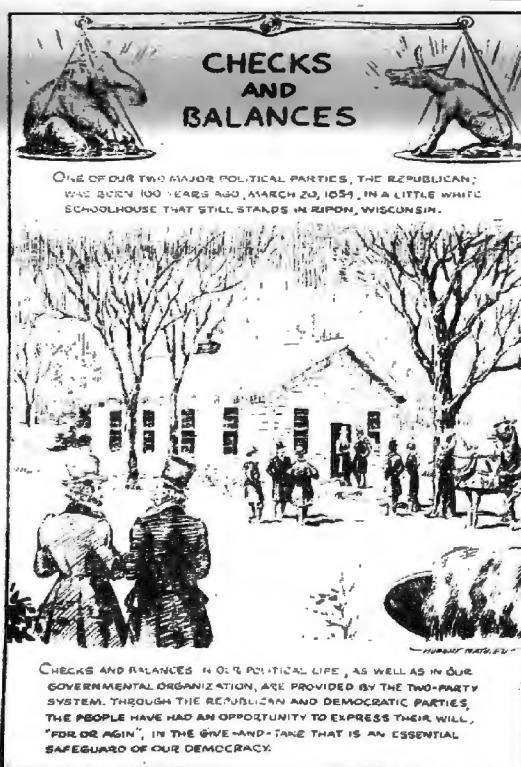

A. No—it's non-taxable.

Q. My husband died last year and I received payment from life insurance policies. Do I have to pay tax on it?

A. No—the proceeds to life insurance policies payable upon death are not taxable.

CHECKS AND BALANCES

ONE OF OUR TWO MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES, THE REPUBLICAN, WAS BORN 100 YEARS AGO, MARCH 20, 1854, IN A LITTLE WHITE SCHOOLHOUSE THAT STILL STANDS IN RIPON, WISCONSIN.

WHO MUST FILE RETURNS

A return must be filed by a single individual or head of a family with net income and net capital gain of $1,000 or more. A married individual not living with spouse must likewise file with a net income and net capital gain of $1,000 or more.

If married and living with wife (or husband) the figure is $2,500. A return must be filed by all persons, including married couples, who had combined gross income of $5,000 or more, regardless of amount of net income.

Net income defined as gross income (including capital gains) less deductions but before subtracting exemptions.

CLAIMING PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS

You may claim $1,000 as a personal exemption if you are single, you were married but not living with husband or wife you may also claim $1,000.

Those who during the entire taxable year was the head of a family, or a husband and wife living together during the entire taxable year, may claim $2,500. If separate returns are filed by husband and wife the exemption may be claimed by either or divided in any proportion.

A head of a family is defined by regulations as an unmarried individual or a married person not living with his or her spouse, who actually supports and maintains as a family unit one or more dependent individuals who are closely connected by blood relationship, relationship by marriage or adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

A taxpayer is entitled to a credit of $400 for each person who receives his chief support from the taxpayer, provided the dependent is under 18 years of age or if over 18 years of age is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, or in full-time attendance at an approved school or college receiving chief support from the taxpayer. This exemption can be claimed only by the person who provides the chief support and cannot be divided between two individuals.

If you occupy the status of a "head of a family" you automatically lose credit for one dependent. Thus, a head of a family with one dependent may claim a total of

Being Father Is Full-Time Job

HICKSVILLE—"Being a father" is a full-time job, and in some cases is more important to a boy's development than the mother's role, it was opined at a panel of parents and educators at the Old Country Road PTA meeting on Mar. 17. The panel members had just watched a production of "Fresh, Variable Winds", an American Theatre Wing play put on by the Arena Players, a professional theatre group.

Members of the panel were Dr. D. Neidleman, Administrative Director of the Mid-Nassau Community Guidance Center; Mrs. Thornton McGill, fifth grade teacher at Old Country Road school; Mrs. Robert Olsen and Walter Schlichting.

The play, which was presented "in the round", with the audience forming a circle around the players, dealt with the discovery by a father that, in turning his son's care over completely to his wife, had missed many of the joys and responsibilities of fatherhood. Members of the cast were: Susan Mann, Bonnie Sue Grass, George Desmond, Sylvia Schenk, and Tony Klips. The director was Joseph Fideleman.

One-half of such deposit will be refunded to all non-bidders upon return of all copies in good condition.

JWV Auxiliary Installs Staff

HICKSVILLE—Installation of officers was held Mar. 18 by the Ladies Auxiliary of Jewish War Veterans, Post 655, with Audrey Shapiro presiding over the ceremony. Mrs. Shapiro, who is county chairman, was presented with a gift.

As a token of her three years service as treasurer, Myrtle Lang, newly-elected president, was presented with a service pin. A gold auxiliary pin was given to Emily Eisner, outgoing president, and also another gift as a memento of her past service.

Visitors from the Hempstead and Merrick JWV Auxiliaries attended. The committee served refreshments during the social hour.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Frederick Epping, Jr. celebrated his 9th birthday on Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Epping, W. Marie St., Hicksville, with a small party.

His guests included: Dennis and Garry Pearsau, Stanley and Bobby Gregurki, Ronald Fury, Nancy DeMonaco, Lynda and Arthur Noah and Freddie's sister, Ann.

A donor sales night will be held by the members of the Sisterhood of the MJCC at the home of Annette Corchnoy, at 102 Dartmouth Drive, Hicksville, in the Hillside Terrace area, Thursday, March 26, at 8:30 P.M.

Excerpts from "Anna Christie" by Eugene O'Neill will be presented by the Theatre Group of the Division Ave. School, Levittown, under its Adult Education Program as the feature attraction of the Second Birthday Party of the Central Nassau Section, National Council of Jewish Women at the Levittown Fire Hall on Thursday evening, March 25 at 8:30 P.M.

The play is under the direction of Aaron Diamond. Sadie Marks is program chairman and Helen Spitzer is chairman of the birthday party.

Twenty eight Boy Scouts of Troop 91, Hicksville, spent an enjoyable morning at the St. George Hotel Pool, Brooklyn Saturday, Mar. 20. They were accompanied by Scoutmaster Ken Walz, Adolph Arthofer, Bert Sholl, Stanley Mruz, Link Parry and John Boehle.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Board of Education, Union Free School District 19, Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, reserves the right to waive any informalities in or to reject any or all bids, or to accept that bid, as a whole or in part, which in its judgment is for the best interest of the School District.

Each bidder must deposit with his bid, security in an amount not less than five percentum (5%) of the base bid in the form and subject to the conditions provided in the Information for Bidders.

No bid shall be withdrawn pending the decision of the Board.

Gertzen Forms Vet Daughters

By JIMMY COOLEY
Amherst Correspondent

HICKSVILLE—Malcolm Gertzen, veteran of World War II, and father of two children, who resides at 8 Adams St., here, has the honor of being the organizer of the first chapter of the Daughters of American Veterans, it was learned today. An active member of the Pioneers of Long Island AMVETS, Mal took on his own shoulders the task of knitting together a fine group of youngsters who some day will make up the bulk of our present day Ladies Auxiliary.

Starting his job three weeks ago, he asked the parents of the children if they would approve of his idea. With the showing at the meeting held at AMVETS hall, 25 East Marie St. on Wednesday evening, the parents not only approved but dug in to help as well. Those eligible are the daughters of veterans here. During the recent meeting the young ladies enjoyed dancing, shuffleboard, checkers, soda, candy and cake. A number of movies dealing with Wild Life and cartoons were shown under the motion picture operator Jimmy Surles.

During the evening, ping pong games were started and Mal has asked some of the members of AM VETS if they could obtain more games for the youngsters. It would be appreciated if more members of the post and auxiliary could attend and give a hand he replied. With the way that many problems face the youths of today are being brought to mind, organizations such as mine and many help to combat ugly happenings.

Veterans who may be interested are asked to contact Mal or Jim Surles at home or at the AM VETS clubhouse on Friday evenings after 7 p.m. If you care to drop a post card address it to Daughters of American Veterans C/O AMVETS Post #44. There are at least 30 to 40 children now in the membership and we hope to triple it within a few weeks. They will participate in the coming Memorial Day parade, stated the organizer.

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD:

Organize Another Den For Cubs

By GENE MALIBAN
Hicksville 3-5515

This will be good news for folks near Miller Road. Mrs. Pat Giannone has been setting up another den with Mrs. Ted Abramowski, who lives on Twin Lawns Ave. Naturally—this enables parents who want to enroll their children in the cub scouts, to do so. If you have a boy 8 to 11 yrs. of age and are desirous of his membership in the scouts—phone HI 3-8149 for info, or phone This pack 91 meets monthly, also on the last Friday of every month at St. Ignatius Loyola at 8:15 P.M.

LOTS OF FUN

Mrs. Giannone would enjoy hearing from some of you mothers who would volunteer to be den mothers, as the scouts are very short of them. Oddly enough—it's not a tiresome task, as one might suppose—She tells me that she has so much fun with her den—and learns so much, herself, that she looks forward to the meetings. Able bodied men may also apply to be scout masters. Perhaps we can recruit some from Woodbury Gardens?????

GIRL SCOUTS

In the course of the week, I also had occasion to speak to Mrs. Marion Wilbur, of Plainview Road.

You may know, she is the Town Chairman of the Hicksville Girl Scouts. The girls divided into age groups 7-10 (Brownies), 10-14 (intermediates), and 14-18 (seniors). In this group, the various churches and organizations do not sponsor the troops and packs. Rather, they are under a town committee in order to have simply one organization. They meet in the schools once a week for 1 to 1½ to 2 hour periods. When the Woodland Ave. School opens its doors, there will be an urgent need for leaders in this section. And at the present time—there is a need for leaders in our present schools. Mrs. Wilbur's phone number is HI 3-0003. Give her a call, girls, if you can't get into this wonderful group . . . It is only two hours a week at the most.

WHAT'S WITH TREES

Someone phoned us asking what is the purpose of the tree limbs that are fastened to the roofs of houses which are being built. Sometimes whole, small trees are used for this purpose . . . You've got me . . . Maybe some of the readers know . . . By the way, we received response from last week's column on the Plainview Theatre Guild. This is not a closed group; anyone can belong—even if he lives in another area. At present—men are in demand for the group. Anyone for acting?????

PARTY

Sheila Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Kent, of 127 Pollock Pl. passed her sixth birthday Feb. 27. A party was given to celebrate the event Sunday. After refreshments, a talent show was staged, after which a game of musical chairs was played. A wonderful time was had by all. PRESENT were: Lauren Giannone, Claudia and Pamela Stine, Sally Stine, Patricia Leopold, Carol Ann Ernest, Nancy Alzano, Rickie and Karen George Baird, Rickie and Ken ny Service, Johnny Nedet, Jim Murry and Elwood Kent, Sheila's brother.

RED CROSS DRIVE

Was speaking to Marion Gingell, of Crown St. She's been working very hard to help make the Red Cross Drive a success. The team she captained includes: Mrs. K. Alfano, Mrs. J. Fiederline, Mrs. A. Pius, Mrs. T. Nigri, Mrs. H. Frank, and Mrs. Ragusa.

We'll keep you posted on the civic news as we are the publicity people for the club again this year. The other posts are forthcoming. Perhaps we'll be hearing by next week.

William McCaffrey, a Plainview attorney, asked Plainview Civic Assoc. for official endorsement for the petition drawn up by taxpayers in the area. I spoke to Peter McIntosh, civic proxy, and he informed me that, as a public service, the association permitted Mr. McCaffrey to speak to the members of the club at the regular meeting, along with other non-members and interested parties.

"By popular vote, the endorsement of this civic association is placed upon the petition drawn up by independent homeowners for the purpose of requesting the PSC to investigate costs which are believed to be excessive." This was the statement given to me by Civic President McIntosh.

I tried to get in touch with Mr. McCaffrey but was unsuccessful before deadline. I'll let you know how my interview with him turns out—next issue. This is a subject that has been on the lips of local residents for some years now, and it appears as if it is coming to a head, what with Mr. McCaffrey's efforts in contacting local civic associations.

If any of the residents of Woodbury Gardens have complaints, I have been told by Don Drummond, president of the civics that they are requested to attend the very next meeting of the club and present the case then, should we be contacted by the petitioning group. In this section we heat by gas, and from what I've heard for two years from neighbors—some residents have been discouraged by the high bills.

Plans are underway for the 30th Anniversary Dinner Dance of the Hicksville Lions Club at Barnhardt Park on Saturday, May 22. Mary Barella is Chairlady of this affair ably supported by Joan Nedel, Florence O'Connell and Valerie Cooper, all of Hicksville.

Woodbury Gardens Civic Notes:

A meeting of the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc. was held at the East St. School Thursday, March 18. (Third Thursday of each month). Herb Johnson and Jerry Zettler of the Northwest Civic Assoc. spoke on the subject of a proposed Hicksville ambulance to be run by the fire dept.

DRYER

Any way you look at it, there's no more need for "hanging on the ropes" when washday rolls around. No more need to lug wet and heavy loads of wash . . . or ruin your hands and disposition in cold or rainy weather.

With an Automatic GAS Dryer you're on "permanent vacation" from those washday woes. It does the job so much better, so much easier and quicker, in solid indoor comfort.

What's more it dries so fluffy-soft and wrinkle-free your ironing chores are reduced as much as 35%. It pays its own way, too, by cutting down on wear and tear . . . making linens and children's clothes go so much farther.

It does so much and costs so little why not get the facts today, on how a new GAS Dryer can automatically whisk your washday cares away!

LONG ISLAND LIGHTING COMPANY

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The final game of the NCABL Amateur and Alliance playoffs was still without a home when the weekend was completed.

Hicksville's stern warning that it will not play on a third successive Wednesday night is a big block.

The local quintet has dwindled to just eight players and two of those—Dick Kerbs and Reg Jederowski—must attend National Guard sessions on Wednesdays.

That left Hicksville just six players to even the series against Port Washington and although Steve Ruggiero's crew managed the trick that time they want Kerbs and Jederowski around for the contest that completes all the madness of this hectic season.

The loop had appealed to the Port Washington Board of Education for permission to play a third game on the Port High floor if needed after Hicksville dropped the first game.

This resulted in a furious reaction from the Hicksville unit. The Alumni countered that the Hicksville Board would be as receptive to such an appeal just the same as the Port Board would and that at least a draw for the final game should be held if a home floor was going to be used.

There is no indication on how the last match will go. Hicksville has been just so so all season and to take a stab would be almost groundless.

Roy Stephenson's plans for a softball league out in Linenhurst were born without comparative reaction on the part of the people in the area but the fireworks are really flying now.

Stephenson took over the picnic grounds behind an Inn and started building stands and laying out a diamond.

Next came the installation of light poles to hold mazdas and the furor started.

The townsfolk took exception to the lights and discovered that the town board had not granted a permit for the erection of the lights.

Application has been made now. Objections have been received but the Little League now hopes to gain some benefit from the park and will probably throw its pressure in support of the stadium.

Driving down Brush Hollow Road in Jericho, past the present roadstands and factories, we found that an open air movie will be ready for business some June.

A modern sports arena in the same area would almost be just too much of an annoyance, however. Or so we are told.

NORTH WEST NOTES:

Vets May Apply For Tax Exemption

By JAMES CUMMINGS

Tuesday, May 18, is the deadline for filing application for Exemption From Taxation of Real Property Purchased With Pension, Bonus or Insurance Money. Sect. 4, sub. 5 of the Tax Law, provides that real property purchased with the proceeds of a pension, bonus or insurance granted by the United States or New York State for military or naval services is exempt from taxation to the extent that such moneys are used in or towards the purchase of the property.

This exemption is permissible only when the property is owned by the person who rendered the service, or by his wife or widow, or dependent father or mother, or by his minor children. The exemption applies to all COUNTY, TOWN and HIGHWAY taxes, but NOT to SCHOOL taxes or to levies made by SPECIAL DISTRICTS.

No such exemption may be allowed in excess of $5,000, and to obtain it, a verified application should be filed with the county assessors at Mineola on or before Grievance Day, the third Tuesday.

Arrange Track Meet On Apr. 10

HICKSVILLE — A track meet for grammar school boys of Confraternity and Parochial School will be sponsored by the Sports Committee of St. Ignatius Loyola at the high school track, here on April 10 starting at 1 o'clock.

Entries close on April 6. Rev. Lawrence Ballweg has made arrangements and has applications available for boys and girls prepared to compete.

There will be a number of events for individuals ranging from 40 to 100 yards, broad jumping and relay races. Prizes will be awarded in all events for first, second and third place — Gold, silver and bronze medals for individuals and relay teams. Three large trophies will be awarded, one to each grade division of the school which obtains the most points.

Dog Training Expert On TV

HICKSVILLE — Mrs. Marjorie Cummings, who conducts the Obedience Dog Training group of the Adult Education Program, here recently appeared on the "We Love Dogs" TV program on Channel 5 with her Champion French Poodle, "Suzeet".

This Saturday, Mar. 27, at 6:30 P.M. on this same channel, "Jet," owned by Mrs. June Thompson, a member of the group, will be shown by Milo Pearall, noted trainer in dog obedience.

Don Smatlak Leaves Service

HICKSVILLE — Cpl. Donald Smatlak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smatlak of Harrison Ave., returned home Friday afternoon and has been discharged from the Army. Stopped at the Herald office to say he received copies of the home town paper regularly while stationed in the Far East. He has been in the service since 1951.
