No Preliminary Hearing On $3 Million Budget

HICKSVILLE—Mimeographed copies of the school district budget for 1954-55 are scheduled to be available at the office of the various school principals in the district starting Apr. 26 from 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. each school day.

The budget will come up for vote at the annual meeting on Tuesday night, May 4, at the high school starting at 7:30 P.M.

A preliminary hearing upon the budget, which has been the custom in the district for the past several years, is not scheduled for this year, it was learned today.

Mistaken For Mail Box

HICKSVILLE—The post office has found it necessary to move the waste paper receptacle away from the front of the building on North Broadway. The container, provided for the community by the Lions Club, has been shifted a few doors north and now stands in front of the Herald office. The changed location became necessary because a number of persons had mistaken it for a mail box. Letters containing hundreds of dollars in checks were discovered unopened and uncancelled, in the waste receptacle recently, it is reported.

First Reports In Cancer Crusade

MINEOLA—First reports in the Cancer Crusade were made today. Hicksville with a goal of $2,500 has collected $172 or 7 per cent of its quota with Joseph F. Bayer as chairman. In Bethpage, where Val Mihic is chairman, $294.58 has been collected of 27.5 per cent of a goal of $1,100. Jericho reports 17 per cent, or $50 on a quota of $300, and Plainview with Mrs. John Trask as chairman has 14 per cent of its goal of $1,000 or $137.68.

Plan Session On Street Lighting

PLAINVIEW—A public hearing to discuss street lighting for this community will be held in the evening in the Mannetto Hill School after April 20, according to Peter McIntosh, president of the Civic Assoc., who told the Herald that he has received a letter from Town Clerk Henry Curran stating that the hearing for the meeting will be set as soon after April 20.

In addition, according to McIntosh, the Town Board and the Civic Association's executive board will meet in the near future to discuss ways and means of developing business here.

Rotary Installation On June 24

HICKSVILLE—The Installation Night of the Rotary Club will be held on June 24 with George Dalton as chairman assisted by Jim Barnett, William Heberer and Alan Baum. Wesley Gless will be seated as president, succeeding Lou Smith. The Rotary has also appointed Bert Coue as chairman of a committee on the Police Boys Club to "look into the matter of the three service organizations providing a meeting place for the PBC in addition to transportation". With Coue on the committee are Dick Sollner, Frank Bergman and George Krutzel.

MORE LETTERS WILL HELP:

Legislators Report On Crossing Project

HICKSVILLE—The task of getting L. I. grade crossings eliminated here will "just begin" when and if Gov. Thomas E. Dewey signs the priority law now on his desk, it was pointed out by Assemblyman John J. Burns in a brief talk to the Chamber of Commerce directors at Henningsen's, here, Friday. More letters from local individuals and organizations, at this point, may help obtain Dewey's signature, it was noted.

Burns was co-sponsor of the bill which will put the local crossings in a higher priority status. However, funds for such work must still be appropriated, and there, Burns said, is where the real job begins.

State Senator William Hulst was also a speaker at the meeting and gave full credit for the legislation to his colleague in the State Assembly. Hulst said, on the basis of a recent trip to Albany, that the governor may not get around to the bill "for another week."

"If he vetoes it," Hulst added, "don't stop. There are other ways to overcome the situation."

He revealed that the bill was released from committee in the final hours of the State Legislature because the Public Service Commission, upon his appeal, had written a letter certifying that the local crossings present a serious problem.

Michael Sullivan, chairman of the grade crossing committee for the Chamber, said that the community must also get action on local traffic flow. "We can't go before the PSC and expect action on our crossing problem until we have solved the traffic question."

Sullivan thanked Hulst and Burns for recognizing the Hicksville problem and going to work on it. He stressed that the bill before Dewey is not a measure to automatically start work on the crossings. If the Governor signs the present bill, the PSC will then have to clear a path to conduct hearings and efforts to secure state funds for the project can commence. He described the current bill as a device to "remove an obstacle."

The Directors, in addition to urging all interested residents and civic groups to forward letters to Gov. Dewey, also decided to request the backing of Oyster Bay Town Board and the County Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Lewis Waters also spoke briefly at the meeting.

Presidents Al Schackner thanked Burns and Hulst for their efforts to promote the elimination of local crossings.

HICKSVILLE—Construction is scheduled to start by mid-summer on Mid-Island Plaza, the $25,000,000 regional shopping center to be built on North Broadway here by Walter G. Stackler and Leonard L. Frank, it was announced yesterday by the builders.

The remainder of this tract will be devoted to driveways and parking space for 5,100 vehicles at one time. An additional 30 acres across the street has been reserved for future business development.

The ten buildings, containing a total of 900,000 square feet of rentable area, will include two major department stores and 92 other retail and service establishments, according to the builders. Dear Jean:

Mrs. F. ALBRECHT of Jericho Rd., Jericho, found a parasite on her lawn yesterday (Monday) morning. She will return it to anyone who can identify it. Call either Hicksville 3-0908 or Hicksville 3-0007.

Paving of Duffy Ave., Hicksville, long sought by industrial firms there, is scheduled to start the end of April it was reported this last week. . . . AL SCHACKNER will be a candidate for re-election as president of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce. . . . Supervisor WATERS was guest speaker at the Chamber session. He started by saying he was glad to speak to "the Business Men's Assoc.," probably to the embarrassment of a few present. . . . Memorial Day program will take place in Hicksville on Monday morning, May 31. . . . Members of Emergency Co. 5 of the Hicksville Fire Dept have challenged the Hook and Ladder Co. to an efficiency contest on May 30. Co. 5 gave the neighborhood children a treat last Sunday when they tested their turret on Duffy Ave., shooting a spray nearly a 100 feet into the sky. The company this week also put out the first issue of its own publication. . . . Phone Co. is planning to change Syosset exchange over to Walnut in the near future. . . . ROLAND HEBERER is a candidate for re-election for a five-year term as trustee of the Hicksville Library on May 4. His petition has been filed. . . . Members of the Exempt Firemen's Assoc. who reach 65 years of age will not be required to pay annual dues under a proposed by-law change. Hicksville Kiwanis has appointed a committee to look into the pros and cons of a Y.M.C.A. for the community. . . . A School Board member informs us that the proposed tax rate will probably be nearer to $3.74 per $100, instead of the $3.65 which was forecast in the Herald last Friday. Folks who swallow that story that "the more you build the less you pay" are gonna be surprised. . . .

The Army and Air Force recruiting office which opened at the Herald office on Feb. 15 closed this week. . . . Apr. 9 was Bird Day by proclamation of the State Education Commissioner. Arbor and Wild Life Day this year will be celebrated Apr. 30, May 7 or May 14, according to local option. . . .

This is wonderful kite flying weather—which is a good time to remind youngsters and their parents to be careful of where they engage in this sport. Stay away from power lines and never, use a wire kite string. There have been a couple of fatalities so far this year. . . . The name of DICK BRAUN showed up a couple of places on the fire dept. ballot as a write-in, last week. His name on the ballot has been traditional. He got a vote for Chief, first assistant chief, and battalion delegate. . . .

will occupy 107 acres," Staecker said. "On a 29-acre tract opposite, on the east side of Broadway, we later intend to erect an office building, a medical center and garden apartments. In this area, parking will be provided for 3,000 additional vehicles."

Yesterday's announcement climaxed 18 months of intensive surveys and planning. The builders have examined many of the nation's largest regional shopping centers. Extensive surveys of population and buying potential have been made by Larry Smith & Co., of Seattle, Wash., and Manhattan, rated among the nation's outstanding consultants on regional shopping centers.

Site plan and structural design have been developed over a period of more than six months by Lathrop Douglass, Manhattan architect who has designed some of the largest and most successful regional shopping centers in the country, including the new Cross-Country Center in Yonkers, N. Y., and a similarly huge project in Levittown, Pa.

Scientific parking and traffic movement plans have been worked out by Wilbur Smith & Associates of New Haven, Conn., nationally-recognized traffic engineers.

TUNNELS FOR TRUCKS

Included in the traffic plan for Mid-Island Plaza are truck tunnels underneath most of the stores in order to separate pickups and deliveries from shopping traffic. Wide driveways between parking spaces will be provided and the spaces themselves will be wider than normal to provide maximum ease of entrance, exit and parking. Broad, permanent canopies will extend from all the buildings over the walks to protect pedestrians from the weather.

Mid-Island Plaza is expected to draw business from a trading area of more than 1,000,000 population with a gross annual income of nearly $3,000,000,000, according to Nat Antler, who is in charge of promotion and leasing. Antler formerly was sales manager of Albert M. Greenfield & Co., of Manhattan. More than 3,000 persons are expected to be employed in the business enterprises located in the huge regional shopping center, he added.

Father In Korea Writes His Son on 1st Birthday

HICKSVILLE—Eric David Friedman, who became one year old on March 26, has a letter from his daddy, Airman 1/c Allen Friedman, stationed at K-13 in Korea with the United States Army Air-Force, 319th Fighter Inceptor Squadron, which he will always want to keep.

The letter expressed the way all fathers feel toward their sons and reads as follows:

"My Dear Son:

In a very short while you will be one year old. I know that you do not realize the importance of the occasion because you are very young, yet it will probably be the most important birthday in your life. As you get older the years fly by, each birthday will be just another day in your life. At the most, they will mean that you are getting older.

This birthday is very important to you because it is your first. When you are 13 years old, you will celebrate another important birthday. It will be the dividing point, according to the Jewish Religion, between being a boy and becoming a man. The third most important birthday of your life will be your 18th. Once you become 18 you are eligible for military service.

"I hope and pray to God that when you enter the Service there will be no war. If there is peace in the world, your service-time will be a very valuable experience. I admit that it will be a hateful experience, but it will provide you with a new outlook on life. I am sure, my son, that you will leave the military service as a man.

"Mommy wrote me a very lovely letter today. The letter was all about you. I am proud of you son for making mommy so happy. I am very proud of you. When you were a little baby, you were very good. It was seldom that mommy or I had to scold you. Son, I don't expect you to be a little angel. In fact, if you were a little angel, I wouldn't like it. But I do expect you to mind mommy. Do what she tells you, because until you are old enough to make your own decisions intelligently, Mommy is the one who has to decide what is best for you.

"My son, you can't possibly realize how much I miss you. I wish with all my heart that I could be with you on your birthday. However, the government has seen fit to send me to Korea and being with you on your birthday or at any other time for the next eight months is impossible. But, believe me, I am with you in spirit all the time. When I get home, you will be 21 months old. Just old enough to have fun with Daddy. And believe me, Ricky, we will have lots of fun.

"Ricky, let me take this opportunity to wish you a very happy birthday.

"Take care of Mommy because I am unable to do so at this time. Be good to Mommy. She is I am

Town Rejects Down Zoning Plea

By JOHN DOWLING
The Oyster Bay Town Board's action in denying an application by a large builder to down-zone land from residences C to D in the Woodbury section has the stamp of approval from residents throughout the entire township.

The application was opposed by the Woodbury, Syosset and Locust Grove school boards as it would reduce the minimum plot requirements and permit the builder to construct a maximum number of homes. This would literally swamp the already hard-pressed school districts and place a tremendously high tax burden on the residents. Another bright note in the school boards victory was strong opposition voiced by the Woodbury-Parent Teachers Assoc. and the Woodbury Men's Club.

Previously, the Plainview Board of Education had appeared before the Town Board and defeated a builder's application which would have had the same effect in that community had the builder been successful.

From these recent developments, it is now quite apparent that many mid-island school districts are going to fight to prevent sudden and complete demoralization of their existing school facilities by indiscriminate building with never an offer by builders to at least provide land for schools. And what is more important our local town officials have made it apparent by their actions that they are on the side of the school districts and the residents.

The builders have been on the gravy choo-choo for a long time.

They are the major contributors to the school problem and any attempt to down-zone land so that they can squeeze as many homes as possible on small plots should meet with considerable opposition by mid-island school boards, community organizations and the residential population in general.

All in all, in this instance, our representatives on the Town Board deserve the commendations of the populace for their realistic and business-like approach to a problem that is the major source of concern to every mid-island resident.

MID-ISLAND DATA . . . look for a sharp increase in Plainview Republican Club activity . . . Dems in same area have just published small brochure. . . Civics expect town board's answer on meeting to discuss industry momentarily. . . It is rumored that another candidate is about to enter Plainview school board race. Civics also hope to have all candidates at their next meeting. . . American Legion hopes to provide Sunday afternoon dances for teenagers. . . Plans still not complete. Sounds like an excellent idea. Public Information Committee of the Citizens School Advisory Committee getting set to kickoff a drive against the prominent display of suggestive and licentious pocketbooks and similar material. Transportation Committee has the job of solving one of the school district's knottiest problems.

The Rosary Altar Society of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville, will have its meeting Tuesday, April 13 at 8:30 P.M. instead of Good Friday, April 16.

Teens to Skate Again Apr 16

By BARBARA CLARK
Hicksville 3-9160

The Plainview Teenage Club held its regular meeting at Mannelto Hill School, Friday evening, April 2 from 7 until 10 P.M.

During this time we first held our business meeting and at this meeting discussed our coming Skating Party to be held Friday April 16. We will go to the Mineola Rink.

Mr. Frank told at this meeting that he will resume driving the bus for us next Friday. We were all very glad to hear this. After the business meeting the boys had wrestling under the very able direction of Mr. Rees. Following the wrestling the girls had Cheering. It was a wonderful meeting because the cheering shirts were distributed. The girls have been waiting a long time for them. Right after the Cheering the Band rehearsal started. Even though the band is very small it sounds very good. The kids seem to be working very hard. While these activities were going on others were dancing to the music of the "Gleason" phonograph. Soda was served at this meeting and for a change all the soda was cold. The teeners cordially invite all the new residents of Plainview to come down and get acquainted.

Change in Dates For Final Concert

The attention of all members of the Hicksville Community Concert Association is drawn to a change in date for one of the two remaining concerts that may be heard before the close of the season. The Conrad Thibault recital in Huntington, originally scheduled for April 27, has been changed to May 4.

The other concert that members are privileged to attend is the Longines Symphonette in Malverne Saturday evening, April 10.

Trees Are Indeed Lovely

"I think I shall never see a newspaper lovely as a tree", so says our Oyster Bay Town Board when it comes to publishing its legal notices. Trees are indeed very lovely and in addition to pleasing our aesthetic senses, they serve many useful purposes for both the human and animal population. Our Town Board finds a use for trees, too. Rather than advertise its public notices in the newspaper that almost everybody reads, they tack the notices on a few selected trees around town.

On Your Favorite Tree?

Are these public notices tacked up on your favorite tree? If not, just drop a line to the Town Board and let them know. Oh, but they're mighty fast to do things for us in Hicksville. And you can bet you can have a notice on your favorite tree, too.

Why On Trees?

Now, why do you suppose our public notices are tacked up on trees instead of being published in this newspaper? Are trees more effective in bringing messages to people than a newspaper? Does the Town Board believe they are serving the people well by this practice? Or is there perhaps an ulterior motive? Might it be that our township officials will tolerate no criticism? Especially by a newspaper that reaches the people? Are they trying to "show" the newspaper who is boss? Whom do they think they are kidding?

Criticism Is Basic To Our Government

Public criticism of government is basic to our democratic system of government. It is part of the checks and balances of our government. To try to stifle criticism, is not in keeping with good government. Legal advertising in newspapers by various levels of government is the accepted practice for informing the public throughout the country. Many weekly papers would have a difficult time surviving without the revenue it brings. To withhold such advertising from a paper that effectively reaches the readers of a community, certainly comes under the heading of trying to choke off public criticism. We hope our public officials will review their thinking on this subject.

Written in the Interest of Better Local Government

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER

In the 1948-49 N. Y. State Auditor's Report, it was pointed out that the good faith deposits received by the Highway Department of the Town for street opening permits, were not officially established by the Town Board, either by resolution or through enactment of an ordinance as required by Section 130 (7) of the Town Law.

In the 1950-51 N. Y. State Auditor's report the following appears: "Good faith deposits were received in some instances by the Highway Department for street openings. As stated in the report of the previous examination, the requirements for these deposits and regulations governing street openings have not been officially established by the Town Board, either by resolution or through enactment of an ordinance as required by Section 130 (7) of the Town Law."

The 1950-51 New York State Auditor's report then went on to say:

"Receipts of good faith deposits should be deposited in a separate bank account as a trust fund, rather than co-mingled with other revenues in the highway fund account."

The recommendations of the New York State Auditor's do not sound unreasonable to me — Do they to you? These recommendations apparently do sound unreasonable to our Town Board.

Perhaps this recommendation of mine, might be more acceptable from their point of view.

The official establishment by the Town Board either by resolution or ordinance, of a Town "Leave us Alone Week", taking as their official motto, "Speak to us in a low soothing voice—otherwise we may become most disagreeable".

THE SCHOOLS ARE YOURS:

School District Organization

By ROBERT E. TUTTLE

My neighbor, Mr. John Q. Public and I were discussing local school district organizations.

"A friend of mine," began John, "bought a home in Nassau County. He assumed his children would go to a nearby school but actually they had to attend a school several miles away. How can one tell where school districts begin and end?"

"That is a difficult question as school districts vary considerably as to size, shape and type. But the best thing for new residents to do is to contact the nearest school. School officials will determine what district one's address is in."

"What about this matter of size?" asked John.

"Island Trees School District covers approximately two square miles while Plainview takes up about 6 square miles and is about the same size as the Hicksville School District. On a map of school districts the boundaries make the areas look much like one of Grandma's patch work quilts, for there seems to be no rhyme or reason to explain why districts were laid out as they were."

"Are all district boundary lines hard to locate?"

"Not at all. South Oyster Bay Road divides Hicksville and Plainview School Districts. It is an example of an easily located boundary line."

"I always thought school district lines ran along roads or natural boundaries—such as rivers, lakes or mountains."

"Here again let me cite an example. In Plainview School Districts Old Country Road is a good east and west main made boundary line. Yet the district line on the south, in general, varies from 800 to 1,000 feet south of Old Country Road."

"Is that true in other districts?"

"Indeed John. In a great many districts throughout the state the examples I cited are typical."

"How did this situation come about?"

"Districts were laid out over one hundred years ago in 1812 to be exact. At that time some of the roads that now exist just didn't."

"I suppose it didn't make too much difference when the land was used for farming but now, with houses being built, it seems to me, the location of district lines becomes more important."

"That is true, John. Today many times the census enumerator is faced with the problem of which house is in which district."

"What else should I know about local school districts?"

"You should know the kinds of districts, the district officials and their duties. Let's talk about the kinds of districts. They are common, union free and the union free may be divided into consolidated and central."

"That sounds complicated," remarked John.

"Not if you keep in mind that a local school district is a unit of government set up to administer the education over a certain area."

The earliest and simplest type is the common school district organized in 1812. Today there are very few common school districts in the state. Most are of the union free type."

"What is the difference between common and union free?"

"Common school districts were organized when population and educational problems were small. The union free type is attempting to meet the problem in a more modern manner. In a common school district there is a Board of Trustees, usually three in number, and a District Clerk and District Treasurer elected by the voters at the annual meeting in May. But in a union free district there is a Board of Education consisting of from five to nine members elected by the people. The District Clerk and Treasurer are appointed by the Board of Education for a one year term. Usually in a common school district the Clerk and Treasurer are not compensated but in a union free district they are."

"What are the powers and duties of the board?"

"The Board, regardless of the name given to it, is responsible for the education of all the children in the district. The Board selects and hires the principal, teachers and other personnel; determines policy; provides facilities and equipment approved at the annual school meeting; approves supply orders, bus contracts and initiates any building program."

"You make it sound like a full time job—being a Board member."

"It is an enormous task and the compensation amounts to zero in money. Board members receive no pay for their services. Usually, however, the Board delegates responsibility and authority to the principal in so far as the general administration of the school system is concerned. The District Clerk handles the minutes and correspondence of the Board while the Treasurer is concerned with finances."

"Let's see we have discussed the Board, Clerk and Treasurer," summarized John. "Are there any other district officials I should know about?"

"Yes, the census enumerator and the attendance officer. State Education Law provides that a census of all school district children from birth to 18 years of age shall be taken yearly on August 31st. The census enumerator visits each home in the district to gather the necessary information."

"Attendance officer," said John, "that sounds suspiciously like truant officer."

"Right you are. Today, though, the name for the position is attendance officer. You see the word truant does not cover the full scope of the work for many cases involve no truancy at all. Usually cases reported to the attendance officer result in a routing check to find out the cause of the absence. Many times the absence is illness or other personal reason which has not been reported to the school."

"Then by reporting the absence of my child to the school office I could eliminate a visit from the attendance officer."

"Yes, school officials encourage parents to phone the school when their child is absent starting the reason. You see John, schools are anxious to eliminate as much waste motion as possible."

"Aren't we getting a little off the subject?" inquired John.

"There are other types of school districts aren't there?"

"Two others should be discussed—consolidated and central. When two or more districts merge we have a consolidated district usually taking the form of the union free."

"That word central seems familiar to me. Aren't there a great many central schools in the state?"

"True there are. A recent count showed 413 central districts in the state. Kings Park is one and the most recent was created when Sea Cliff, Glenhead and Glenwood Landing formed a central district. These two are the only ones on Long Island. The rest are upstate, many in local areas of a rural nature where several or as many as 40 individual districts have joined in a centralization. There are, though, three central high school districts on Long Island—Mepham, Sewanhaka, and Valley Stream. In these three only high school education is centralized, but in a central school district all education, kindergarten through grade 12 is centralized."

Dutch Lane Nominates Officers

Officers for 1954-55 were elected at a meeting of the Dutch Lane P-T-A on Tuesday, April 6, at the Dutch Lane School, Hicksville.

The slate of officers presented by the nominating committee headed by Mrs. Joseph Cawley and unanimously accepted included: President, Mrs. Robert Munhall; Vice-president, Mrs. Frank Lagay; Recording Secretary, Miss Malyne Barnett, a fourth grade teacher at Dutch Lane School; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Raymond Sandbeck; Treasurer, Robert Leuci, also a fourth grade teacher at the school; Historian, Mrs. Louis R. Morse.

The new officers will be installed at the May meeting of the P-T-A.

Following the business meeting Edgar Woodard, Parent Education Chairman of the Western Long Island District of the Parent-Teacher Congress, spoke on the qualifications of a School Board Candidate. In describing the work of the School Board he asked everyone to remember that the members of the School Board are elected by popular vote—a very important task for the community. The community alone is responsible for providing itself with the candidate who can do the best job, he said. As for individual qualifications, a candidate must be sympathetic to the needs of children, have time to devote to school affairs, able to represent the community impartially. Specifically he should be active in civic affairs, be between the ages of 35 and 55, stand for better education for all, be forward thinking and optimistic. He should be successful in his own business enterprises and be able to work with others toward a common goal.

Prospective candidates Lawrence Roman, Mrs. Edna Sutton and Joseph Cawley had been invited to give their views. Mr. Cawley was present and answered questions generously after stating his qualifications and platform. Mr. Roman and Mrs. Sutton were unable to be present.

Residents of the Dutch Lane School district should take note of the following times and places of registration and voting for the coming election and School Board members. Everyone must register for this election. Registration will be held Saturday, April 24 from 2—10 P. M., and Thursday, April 29 from 4—10 P. M. at Old Country Road School.

Election will be Wednesday, May 5, at the Old Country Road School. On May 4 at 7:30 P. M. there will be the Annual Budget Hearing at the High School. Education is big business so go and find out where the money is used.

PRE-SCHOOL SECTION
Dr. William B. Walling, psychiatrist who lives at Blacksmith Road, Levittown, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Pre-School Section of the Dutch Lane P-T-A, on Tuesday, April 13, at 8:30 P. M. The subject of the meeting will be "When Should Parents Intervene in Childhood Disputes."

Dr. Walling will elaborate on the differences between the aggressive child and the non-aggressive child. A question and answer period will follow the lecture.

See Action On Pine Ave School

The April meeting of the Bethpage PTA produced one piece of news that will interest all. William Benintendi, PTA School Board Representative, announced that the Pine Ave. School is about 20 per cent complete and that the bonding company has taken over. A new contractor has not as yet been obtained. This is no assurance of early completion but it at least indicated some action. Benintendi further reported that the proposed bond issue for the Central Blvd. School had carried by one vote over the 2/3 majority necessary. He also reported on a meeting of the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. with Dr. Chisholm, District Superintendent of Schools, the plan regarding centralization or consolidation were discussed. The meeting ended with a suggestion that a professional survey of school needs be made.

The annual school district budget will be brought before the public and voted on, on May 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the Broadway School. On May 6th there will be a vote for the two new school board members from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Broadway School.

An announcement was made asking anyone who could play an instrument or sing to volunteer for a community sing for the June meeting.

The polio vaccine program sponsored by the Nassau County of Health will get rolling shortly. Parents of children in the 1, 2, and 3rd grades can look forward to slips asking for consent to have their child enrolled in this program.

CD PROGRAM

At this point Tex Surprise took over the meeting, a movie short was shown, "Operation Doorstop". Surprise also introduced local workers in the Civil Defense here. Speakers who gave short talks were Buddy Massara, and Col. Louis Merrick.

As previously announced saboteurs were to attempt to do their worst on vital local installations. At the close of the program "Surprise announced that the saboteurs had been able to knock out the water supply, lights, and schools, also the railroad.

Next month's program was announced, "Fathers Night", this will be headed up by Cliff Shortman, and Pete Castelluzzi.

The "Father of the Year" will be announced at this meeting.

TRANSFERRED TO KOREA

He had been serving as a mechanic with the 46th Infantry Division, which is being returned to the U. S. He will finish his tour of Korean duty with the 2d Division, now training to maintain combat efficiency.

Denker, whose parents live at Rockville Centre, entered the Army in July 1952 and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N. J.

The Spotlight

By HOWARD PINNEGAN

Garden City's Geoff Sutton got it right out in the open last week when he pitched a one-hitter against Hicksville's Comets.

It was a replay of the 1-1 deadlock between the two clubs and in both games the Orange and Black was shorn of hitting power of any degree.

Coach Bill Anderson was a little uncomfortable about all the talk that his club would be in the Nassau County finals come June. He tried his best to shake the belief that he had a powerhouse.

Where he failed to impress on that point his boys backed him up in the two Trojan contests.

Hicksville still holds the respect for its fine pitching staff but Anderson surely is in desperate straights to get some runs knocked over to support it.

Tommy Sparaco, his long homerun iced the opening win against St. Mary's, got the lone hit off Geoff in a 7-2 loss. Eighteen other Comets were moved into the lineup and demonstrated their swinging abilities. Only five got more than one crack at Sutton.

Of 22 Garden City putouts, 11 were marked as strikeouts. Nine hits were garnered by the victors off three Hicksville pitchers with Dick Hogan charged for seven in four innings.

The concern is not for Hogan, however, who will make a good mark during the Eastern Division NSAL campaign but for the lack of run producing hits.

The high school track team made its debut Friday on the local circuits and had the chilling afternoon made even more so by the fact that Roslyn skipped off with a 64-40 victory.

It was a fair day for three Comets, Alex Prazendenkow, Marty Watkins and Dick Evaschuk and their efforts barred a humiliating rout for the Comets.

Since the host drew a complete blank in five events it is conceivable that a duplicate of Great Neck's 91-13 win over Glen Cove could have occurred had not those three been on hand.

It took Prazendenkow 56 seconds to win the 440-yard dash and he came back to finish second in the discus and tied teammate Russel Hawkins for the same spot in the broad jump.

Advance billing on Watkins in the high jump was up to expectations as the Comet Freshman cleared 5 feet, 7 inches in his first meet. Hawkins kept plugging for the losers and he finished second in this event also.

Evaschuk glided the Grecian platter 130 feet, 11 inches to annex the discus event and was second to a winning toss of 40 feet, 11 inches in the shot.

We have been deluged with inquiries about the Hicksville Community Softball league. Many civic organizations are already forming teams and are straining at the bit.

In recent years the Board of Education has provided the facilities and the personnel to keep this activity a part of our community life and it is reported that no change on that plan is contemplated.

All persons interested in the league will be asked to attend a meeting on the subject during the first week in May and activity will roll soon after that.

The Herald will carry the announcements as to time and place.

Little League Meeting Set

HICKSVILLE—A general membership meeting of the Central Nassau Little League will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) night at Levittown Hall, here. All prospective league personnel is cordially invited to attend by Ray DeChester, Jr., commissioner. Tryouts for 9 year olds will be held this Saturday starting at 9 A.M. and at 2 P.M. for 8 year olds.

Seven Men Join Eagles

HICKSVILLE—John J. Gabriel, Grand Aerie Representative of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, announced that seven local men had been accepted for membership in the Mid Island Aerie. The announcement was made at a meeting held at the Hicksville Inn on April 6.

The new members are Vincent Antonellis, 17 Enness Ave., Bethpage; Richard Cronin, 19 Sherman Ave., Bethpage; Austin Connelly, 26 Haverford Road, Hicksville; Alfred Richartz, Whitney Ave., East Norwich; Edgar W. Donovan, 255 Third St., Bethpage, and Fred Krause, 841 Bowling Green Drive, Westbury.

The next meeting of the mid-Island Aerie will be held at Pet-ski's Tavern, 265 Woodbury Rd., at 8 p.m. tonight (Tuesday April 13). Local men between the ages of 18 and 55 are invited to attend.

Pfc. George Barnett, who recently attained his present rank, is now in line for corporal. He has completed his advanced schooling at Gary Airforce Base, San Marcos, Texas. Before going to Texas, Pfc. Barnett was stationed at Camp Pickett, Virginia, where he taxied airplanes.
