2,469 Eligible To Vote

HICKSVILLE—Final registration figures here reached 2,469, more than double the initial tally, but friends of candidates for the School Board expressed "disappointment". The final enrollment represents less than 20 per cent of the estimated eligible voters in the school district.

Final totals for the four voting districts follow: Burns Ave. School, 319; Old Country Rd. School, 909; High School, 714; and East St. School, 527, it was announced by District Clerk Andrew B. Heberer.

There were about 2,000 registered for the annual election last year when 1,502 cast ballots. Results last year, with six candidates for two positions, were Eirich 552, School 587, Carpenter 530, Smiley 428, Parr 372 and Soininen 364.

P-TA Staff Takes Loyalty Oaths

HICKSVILLE—It is believed a precedent in Nassau County Parent-Teacher Assoc. activities will be set when the newly elected officers of the Junior High School P-TA will take the loyalty oath to uphold the Constitution of the United States before their installation, Thursday night, May 6. The P-TA will meet at the high school. Bernard H. Braun is president-elect.

Zettler Question Gets Laugh

HICKSVILLE—The forum sponsored by the Council of P-TA Unit was a serious business as candidates spoke and questions were fired, last week on Tuesday night. However, a question by Jerry Zettler, one of the speakers, provided a hilarious moment.

Zettler was being sharply questioned by a man in the audience. As he finished, Zettler said "by the way sir, what is your name?" There was a moment of silence and then the man in the audience said "I don't know why you are so out of order, but my name is Leavitt — Milton Leavitt".

"I heard an awful lot about you," Zettler replied, and the audience went into an uproar of laughter.

Leavitt is a regular visitor to School Board meetings and questioner at annual school meetings. He was a president of the now defunct Education Assoc. of Dist. 17.

BUDGET VOTE COMES FIRST

12 School Board Trustee Candidates Await Verdict

Six contests for pairs of vacancies on Boards of Education in Hicksville, Lethbridge and Plainview will highlight voting here tomorrow (Wednesday). Annual school district meetings tonight (Tuesday), which start at 7:30 o'clock, will be devoted to consideration of record-breaking budgets for the operation of public schools in the fiscal year starting July 1.

Little activity is anticipated at the Hicksville meeting in the high school although the proposed budget exceeds $3,188,086, a gain of a $1 million since last year. Proposals regarding development of a youth program may arise at the meeting.

The Hicksville Board has forecast a tax rate of $3.79 per $100 for the coming year, compared with the present rate of $3.14. Election of a library trustee for a five-year-term will take place tonight also. Roland Heberer, incumbent, is unopposed for re-election.

In Plainview, voters of the district will decide tonight if they want to increase the size of their school board from the customary five to seven members. There has been relatively little discussion on the proposal which took the form of a petition to the Board of Education, as provided by law.

(See Neighbor Dowling's column on page 4 for details on the Plainview School Budget).

The Bethpage annual meeting may feature discussion and debate on teaching salary schedules. Frederick Kramer, president of the Board, today made a public statement to all residents of the district on the salary schedule question which appears on page 9 of this issue.

In a plea for the election of Lawrence A. Roman and Jerome Zettler to the Hicksville School Board, the Non-Partisan Taxpayers League of Hicksville gave

Two Members May Be Absent

HICKSVILLE—Arthur Eirich, member of the Board of Education, will not be present for the annual school district meeting tonight (Tuesday) at the high school, due to a previous commitment.

He will be attending the public health forum of the Brooklyn College of Pharmacy Alumni Assoc.

Edna Kuhne Sutton, another board member, may not be present also. Mrs. Sutton has been at the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota with her husband, Wilson.

WELCOME TO HICKSVILLE for O. E. McIntyre, Inc., one of the largest mailing concerns in the nation, was extended by prominent local citizens at a luncheon at the Beau Sejour, Bethpage, April 23. $50,000 for a new parish hall. Arrangements for the dinner were made by a committee headed by Arthur Campbell.

Prior to the address by Rev. Stretch, the architect's plans for the proposed new building were shown by Joseph M. Tracy, chairman of the building fund committee. The fund drive was described by Munn D. Myers, financial chairman of the committee. A financial history of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church was outlined by Stanley Rodgers, treasurer.

Other speakers included Rev. David S. Duncombe, Priest-in-Charge; and Mrs. Charles Baumgardner, who has been active in the church since the early years of its founding. A house to house canvas of Holy Trinity members began on Sunday afternoon, May 2.

Dear Jean:

Plainview School District will use voting machines for its annual meeting and the election of candidates for the first time this year. . . . Friends of all the candidates in local school districts have the telephones humming today in a last minute push for their favorites. . . . The military bridge and card party of the Old Country Rd P.T.A. is all set for May 19 at Levittown Hall, Hicksville. . . . Prudential Insurance is planning to acquire more office space at the corner of Eway and Marie St., above Susan-Joy. . . . Chamber of Commerce directors heard this week that R. R. tracks at Hicksville, if and when crossings are eliminated, will probably be raised off the ground because of cost and drainage factors. . . . We hear that one of the candidates had a short-hand stenographer posted in the audience at the Hicksville P.T.A. Council session for all candidates last week. . . . Emergency Co. 5 held another drill, Sunday, preparing for its May 30th challenge contests with the Hicksville Hook and Ladder Boys. . . . by the way, Capt. HAROLD MANASKIE of the H & L was unable to run with the boys, suffering from a back injury resulting from a fall out of the bath tub. . . . Three children were bitten by a dog in the Old Country Rd school yard recently. . . . And a 19-year-old youth was hurt when he fell from the fire escape at the Nicholai St. School early one evening. . . . Installation of sprinklers in Nicholai School, advocated by LAWRENCE ROMAN in his campaign for the school board, will soon be installed. The architect has been directed to draw up plans and specifications. . . .

Szendy Charges Probe Was Made To 'Dig Up Dirt'

HICKSVILLE—Emil J. Szendy, member of the school board, this week asserted that Edna Sutton, who is seeking re-election to the Board on May 5, should "not continue to serve" and is "guilty of conduct unbecoming a Board member."

His statement to the press follows:

"Mr. Henry Brengel, president of the Board of Education, has publicly refused to confirm or deny that Mr. Charles H. Stoll, attorney for the School Board in its defense against a taxpayer's claim that fees paid to School Attorney Michael J. Sullivan by the School District are too high, procured the professional investigation of my entire life made in an obvious effort to dig up 'dirt' on me. At the insistence of Mr. Brengel and Mrs. Sutton, and against my protest, Mr. Stoll has an open contract for services to the School Board which limits neither his services nor the fee which he may charge," Szendy stated.

"The conduct of the school board has been condemned by many. Obviously, no individual without a major axe to grind would spend that kind of money; in fact it is doubtful whether any individual, no matter how curious or interested, would spend that much."

"When School Board Trustees pass around a Report of an Investigation of this nature amongst themselves, they identify it, intentionally or unintentionally, as a matter that concerns them as Trustees. They should not now claim that it is of no concern to the public, and that the public should not know the occasion, source, and purpose of the investigation. Mr. Brengel and Mrs. Sutton must know why this Report was prepared and where it came from. The public should be told. KITCHEN CABINET"

"Mr. Eirich, Trustee, has revealed that the Report was shown to him by Mrs. Sutton in a dinner to which select Board members adjourned after public Board meetings, and that Mr. Brengel was present. It has long been suspected that Board policy determinations were being made not by the full Board at public Board meetings, but by a 'kitchen cabinet' meeting separately, in 'Diners'. The present agitation for public Board determinations publicly arrived at, now espoused by a Board member seeking reelection who has been a regular member of the 'kitchen cabinet', does not ring true."

"Passing such a Report around among Board members is action hardly compatible with the dignity, responsibility, and honor of School Trusteeship. Peeping Toms have never been singled out for honor in the community. Mrs. Sutton's comment on a much lesser indiscretion of another School Board member can be applied here as well: 'Its nature, its implications, and its example make it a matter that I personally feel cannot be condoned by any individual to whom district stewardship is entrusted.'

"It is my contention, publicly made at the Board meeting on April 21, that Mr. Brengel and Mrs. Sutton have been guilty of conduct unbecoming a Board member, which certainly should not be condoned. I believe that such conduct destroys in whole or in substantial part the public trust implicit in the word 'trusteeship'. Board members should not continue to serve or to seek reelection when such trust has been destroyed," Szendy asserted.

Former Commies Praise McCarthy, Other Congressional Inquiries

HICKSVILLE—A stirring, authoritative panel discussion on the Communist Conspiracy in America was presented Sunday afternoon, April 25, at Levittown Hall. Sponsored by the Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church, a panel of prominent ex-communists spoke to a receptive audience of about 400 people.

Louis Budenz, Benjamin Gitlow, Manning Johnson and Howard Rushmore—all one-time leaders in the American Communist Party or editors or writers for the Daily Worker—described as “extremely dangerous to our way of life the present lack of information of the public concerning Communism’s goals and methods in America.”

They called for an active effort on the part of all citizens, motivated by spiritual values and democratic ideals, to defeat Communist influences which are being felt strongly in many areas of American life.

Budenz, formerly managing editor of the Daily Worker and a member of the Executive Committee, ROBERT A. HEBERER, of Fairhaven, N. J., has been appointed superintendent of the garage by P. Ballantine & Sons, Newark brewery, succeeding Emil Foord, who has retired from active duty after 23 years of service.

Heberer, a native of Hicksville, was first employed by Ballantine in the company's Long Island territory in 1937. He served in the army from 1942 until 1946, at which time he was assigned to transportation duty in Newark. He was made assistant garage superintendent in 1952.

He is married and is the father of two children.

4th Grade Visits

HICKSVILLE—Miss Storey's fourth grade class of Lee Ave School visited Fairway Farms on Thursday, April 8. Some of the children saw cows and a calf for the first time at close range. They took pictures of the calf to show all their friends.

They enjoyed watching the machines that put the milk into the bottles and the other complicated looking machine which capped them.

They discovered that many dairies bring milk to this pasteurization plant. It reminded the class of the cooperative dairies they read about during their social studies unit of Minneapolis.

ties of the Communist Party, was applauded when he denounced the current anti-McCarthy and anti-Congressional Investigation work as Communist-inspired. He claimed that the anti-McCarthy movement was designed to halt all of the Congressional Investigations which have been severely damaging the Communist Party in the United States.

Rushmore, a former writer for the Daily Worker, told the audience that the New York Times, the Herald Tribune and the magazine The Nation, have been consistently slanting the news concerning McCarthy and other Congressional investigators. He described the Times' coverage of the opening of the current investigations in Washington as “the most immoral act of journalism I have ever seen”.

Congressional Investigations should be supported by public letters to Congressmen, newspapers, T.V. and radio stations, Budenz declared, explaining these investigations are our chief means of making use of the work of J. Edgar Hoover and the F.B.I., who may gather facts concerning Communist infiltration, but cannot prosecute or initiate investigations into subversive activities.

Father Ewing of the Social Studies department of Fordham University, was the moderator of the discussion.

The Reverend O'Day, Pastor of Holy Family Church, introduced the speakers.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS Some Details Of School Budget

By JOHN DOWLING

The total budget to be approved by the residents of Plainview at the annual meeting on Tuesday, May 4 at 7:30 P.M. in the Manetto Hill School approximates $693,000. This represents an estimated increase over the previous year's school budget of about $285,000. However, due to the district's sharp rise in assessed valuation, which is more than $14,300,000 at this time, and other factors, the tax rate for the district is not expected to take any large jump over last year's rate of 3.16 per $100 of assessed valuation. The new rate will be set officially in August.

The principal expenditure in the budget for the 1954-55 school year comes under the heading of instructional services and includes teachers and principals, salaries, textbooks, tuition payments to other school districts, supplies used in instruction and other related items. This amount totals about $375,000 or an increase of approximately $183,000 over last year's budgetary requirements in this category. Of the total budget, the amount set aside for this category represents a little more than fifty per cent.

The next largest chunk of the total moneys needed for the school system is shown up in the category headed Debt Service. This amount is $181,410 and covers the district's interest on bonds, redemption of bonds, other debt payments and other interest payments. Last year's debt service was $82,980.

Other items in the proposed budget include fixed expenses, transportation, capital additions, operation of plants, and upkeep and repair of plants. Of this group the category transportation and other indirect expenses including library expenses and book repairs, physician and dental fees, cafeteria fund, first aid and nurses' expenses total up to approximately $70,000.

Another section of the budget that calls for an expenditure of about $45,000 is described therein as operation of plant. The amount set aside for this operation will be expended on wages of custodians, fuel, water, electricity, custodial supplies, telephone and rubbish collection and other activities necessary to operate the schools.

The other major charge outlined in the proposed budget is headed fixed expense and will cost taxpayers $44,475. This includes the district's contributions to the teacher's retirement system, insurance and a minor expenditure of $75 which is the membership fee in the New York State School Boards Association. All of the figures discussed in this column are estimates and intended only to give you an idea of how the resident's tax dollars are apportioned for the operation of the schools in the system.

Nees Cites Experience, Record

John O. Nees, candidate for election to the Plainview Board of Education, today made the following statement:

"Originally when I undertook to stand for election to the school Board, I did not plan to carry any campaign or message to the people of the District through the press. It was my thought that my record of interest, work and faithfulness while serving the District the past three years as its Treasurer would be sufficient basis for the people of Plainview to make their choice. Since I too am somewhat of a newcomer, having moved into the District in 1950, I decided that there may be some folks newer than I who have not yet had the opportunity to know or meet me."

"It is for this reason that I have decided to introduce myself. I will attempt to acquaint you with the background and experience that I feel qualifies me as a School Board

Trustee and I hope to raise a few serious questions that I think each voter should consider before he or she casts a ballot.

"There are those in the District who feel that the resignation of Mr. Leland Baker will leave a void in the Board in the area of finance. I agree. I feel, however, that if I am privileged to serve you, that both my business and School Board experience equip me to fill that void. Let me explain.

"My business career began in 1935 when I became employed by the New York Stock Exchange. This led to a position as floor order clerk for a bond house. While so employed, I completed the course of instruction required for Customer's Men given by the New York Stock Exchange Institute. This course of study embraces Economics, Corporate Finance, Security Analysis and Accounting. "After leaving the world of high finance, I became associated with the largest direct writing mutual casualty insurance company. It was during this time that I studied at the College of the City of New York where I majored in Economics.

"In December of 1940 I was called to active duty with the United States Navy and served almost five years.

"I returned to the insurance business after the war and was engaged in soliciting and servicing risks of a nation-wide type. In February of 1953 I became associated with the Robert Gair Company as their Assistant Insurance Manager assisting in the purchase and maintenance of this Corporation's insurance. During these post war years, I prepared for and received the designation of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter, a professional insurance designation.

3 YEARS AS TREASURER

"Far more important is the experience I have gained as your District Treasurer these past three years. Every penny of the District's income as well as every penny that has been spent these past three years has passed through my hands. Who knows better than I what it costs to educate our children (I have two children in the system myself) and how to get the most out of the money? Please consider this my apprenticeship. An apprenticeship under some of the finest senior School Board members has instilled in me many of the finer points of good administration as well as a schooling in the complexities and vagaries of School District operation.

"Mr. John Hartmann, the acting president of the Board, said at the dedication of the Central Park School that it takes at least one year of service on the Board before a new member can pull his weight in the boat. I would like to think that you feel as I that having served my apprenticeship, I am now ready to go to work. Nothing would make me happier than to be given the privilege of serving your children and you as your elected School Board Trustee.

"I would like to make a couple of observations on Mr. Peter McIntosh's endorsement of my opponent in the April 22 issue of this paper.

"The first has to do with the statement that my opponent represents the Morton Village section of Plainview and that was a very important reason to consider him. Well, I assure all concerned that I am not running against (Continued on Page 10)

Payne States His Qualifications

Thomas J. Payne, candidate for election to the Plainview Board of Education, today made the following public statement.

"I am a candidate for the unexpired term of Leland Baker, for school trustee. I have been depending upon past endeavors to place me in this responsible position. In view of the elaborate campaigning of my opponent's backers, I find it necessary to explain my qualifications and motives. It has been stated that I'm a 'trouble maker' and the possibility of lack of harmony may prevail if I am elected to this position. Could they have implied that there is trouble to be found? Or could they have implied that I have no right to question an elected official's activities?

"I shall always insist upon exercising my right as citizen and taxpayer. Simply because a person has a mind of his own and will not 'go along with the crowd', is he a trouble maker?

"I have been in this community approximately four years longer than my opponent. During the four and a half years that I have lived in Plainview, I feel that I have come to know and understand the needs of our community and our children. I have participated in many local activities during this time. I became active in the Civic Assoc. which should be the most representative group in the community.

"I was appointed by the school board to serve on the Building and Grounds Committee. For a year and a half I served as secretary of this group. During this time, the committee played an important part in planning the Jamaica Ave. school and in securing favorable locations for future school sites. At present I am serving on the Adult Education Committee, which was appointed by the school board.

"Two years ago I felt the necessity for a program for the teenagers. With the assistance of a few people I did organize such a program. Today the membership is more than a hundred, with a weekly attendance of around 70. During this time I spent more than one night a week working with this group. Having such a close relationship with the teen-agers and having three very young children of my own (one of school age), I feel acquainted with the overall needs of our children.

"I derived a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that I gave something to the boys and girls that they should have. For this very reason I would like to serve you by helping to give them the best education obtainable. The best is 'none too good' and yet some thought has to go to the cost of education and its facilities. I can promote you an honest effort to do a good job and to obtain the most for the least amount of money.

"If you show your confidence in me at the polls, I will have gained the determination to do the title of trustee justice. I will place all the efforts of my past combined activities into one to assure you that your trust in me is well founded," Payne concluded.

Set Memorial Day Parade Route

By JOHN J. O'KEEFE

PLAINVIEW—Under the direction of Al Schupp, commander of the Legion Post, a meeting of the Memorial Day Committee was held at the Manette Hill School here last Tuesday.

At this time Schupp was elected chairman with Mrs. George Stu-

hme as secretary.

The route of the proposed parade preceding the traditional services was mapped out and it was announced that it would start at Bentley St., proceeding south on South Oyster Bay Road to Old Country Road, thence East on Old Country Road to the Plainview Fire House where the services will be held.

It was also tentatively agreed that a local speaker will be obtained and that the line of march will be discussed at the next meeting planned for May 11. The program of services will also be discussed at this time.

The Civic Assoc., one of the 14 local organizations represented at the meeting graciously offered to mimeograph and distribute the programs of the day's activities.

The owners of the Cape Stationery Store on Old Country Road also offered to contribute ice cream for all the children participating in the parade.

John Marrapodi is still seeking members for the Legion Post's Band, to try and get the Band in readiness for Memorial Day. Any-

Worth More, and Buyers are Proving it!

FORD
best seller !

National new car registration figures* for a seven-month period show Ford out front by thousands!

*SOURCE: R. L. Polk & Company. Registrations for period September through March, the latest month for which figures are available.

DURING THE SEVEN-MONTH PERIOD ending with March—the latest seven-month period in which national registration figures are available—Ford outsold its nearest competitor by thousands.

The main reason why Ford is so definitely the buyer's choice is simply that:

Ford is, without doubt, the "Worth More" car—America's best buy on a dollar-for-dollar basis!

Take engines—Ford offers the 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or the 115-h.p. I-block Six, both with engineering advances that make these engines the most modern in the industry.

Take comfort—Only Ford in its field has the revolutionary new Ball-Joint Front Suspension that provides riding and handling ease never before approached in a car of Ford's size and weight.

Take Power Assists—These optional extras can be compared with those of the costliest cars.

Master-Guide Power Steering, Swift Sure Power Brakes, Power-Lift Windows, 4-Way Power Front Seat and Fordomatic Drive make all driving a genuine pleasure.

Resale Value? It is a matter of statistical record that Ford cars return more of their original cost when they are sold than any competitive make.

As for performance, Ford's advantage here is best understood by personal experience. Your Ford Dealer will gladly make a '54 Ford available for a personal Test Drive . . . and we believe one Test Drive will convince you that Ford . . . America's best seller . . . is your best buy!

Optional at extra cost.

School Elections Coming Up

The school election tomorrow (Wednesday) is a real opportunity for us to vote for local candidates for important local offices. We should make the most of it! Our schools are not only responsible for the education our children receive, but the school tax is the biggest expense by far in our tax budget. Schools take more than half of our total property taxes, and if we are not careful it will continue to go up. The school election tomorrow is important and your individual vote will count. If you don't think so, just remember that the last school board election was decided by just 8 votes!

The Candidates

All four candidates deserving praise for offering to give generously of their time and energies for the exacting work of being a school board member. One candidate, running for re-election, knows the nature of the job. But unfortunately, she was persuaded to be somewhat inconsiderate of the taxpayers' money when it came to attorney's fees. The amount paid to the school board attorney for part-time services are staggering and this candidate's part in arranging for such charges are hardly worth our support.

Another candidate running for the first time has been steadily identified with the group which continually appears to strive for weaken ties with Hicksville and strengthen them with an adjoining community. This man, even though he may very well be capable, seems to be mixed up in his loyalties.

Roman and Zettler

Lawrence A. Roman and Jerome Zettler stand head and shoulders above the other candidates. Roman makes no bones about where he stands. His efforts to make Hicksville a better place in which to live are well known. In particular, he has strenuously opposed the excessive legal fees arranged by the present board and has carried his fight to Albany. They told him there that those things are for the local people to settle, and now he is asking for a place on the School Board. This is the kind of forthrightness and courage that is needed. Roman has shown that he deserves your support and that of your neighbors.

Jerome Zettler is well known for his activities in supporting community activities. He believes that a proper balance between economy and the need for adequate facilities and teachers salaries can be achieved and maintained by applying proven business methods to school system operation. The election of Roman and Zettler will be good for our school system and it will be good for Hicksville. We urge you to vote for them tomorrow.

Ask the CPA

By SOLOMON NEWBORN

Certified Public Accountant

Mr. Newborn will answer questions in this column.
Address: Herald, Box 95, Hicksville.

This is the first of a series of three articles on Income Tax Examination conducted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Q. How may the Bureau of Internal Revenue check my Income Tax Return if I have no records?

A. By law all taxpayers are required to keep such records as will truly reflect their income. No particular or formal methods of bookkeeping are prescribed. In case you have no records, or "forget" income the Director of Internal Revenue has three effective methods of reconstructing your income. If the Director questions the return and you cannot show that it is correct he is entitled to disregard any part of it and indeed, the whole of it.

The Government may use any of the following methods to reconstruct income:

1. Bank deposits-expenditures.
2. Net worth-living costs.
3. Percentage or unit mark-up basis.

Under the bank deposits-expenditures method the rule is that all bank deposits represent income unless the taxpayer presents evidence to the contrary. The taxpayer must prove his allowable deduction since the agent is not required to analyze each check drawn by the taxpayer. The agent also looks for income that was not deposited but was spent or expended for living expenses. These of course are added to the deposits to arrive at the taxpayer's gross taxable income. The Government does not have to tie in the income with any specific source. The burden of proof that the deposits do not represent income rests with the taxpayer. If he cannot prove this he will lose the case. This method is used most often in connection with examinations of those engaged in gambling or other illegal activities, professional people not keeping records, and people whose income is from salaries, dividends, interest, rent, etc.

In one case where the Government was reviewing a nine year period which had 65 deposits totaling some $80,000 the taxpayer argued that they represented income of prior years. The Court found for the Government... one reason being that the taxpayer was shown to have borrowed $32,000 in the period when he was supposed to have been accumulating this currency. The Court also assessed a fraud penalty. In another case the taxpayer attempted to establish the bank deposits as repayment of loans made in prior years. In the absence of definite proof by the taxpayer the Government was sustained and fraud penalty assessed.

(See next Tuesday's Herald for the second article on Income Tax Examinations as conducted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.)

Over 60 Protestant ministers, laymen, and Boy Scout Executives of Nassau will attend a conference on Protestant Scouting on May 6 at Ft. Slocum on Davids Island in Long Island Sound.

Parish Bazaar On 2 Weekends

HICKSVILLE—Hundreds of beautiful prizes are promised for those attending the Bazaar of St. Ignatius Loyola Church at the Parochial School on E. Nichols St. for two consecutive weekends. The Bazaar will take place on Friday and Saturday nights, May 7 and 8 and again on May 14 and 15. There will be $100 savings bonds awarded every night and hourly awards.

In People's Corner

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER

When one speaks of a community, we are talking about a body of people having common interests, common aspirations, and common responsibilities. We are not talking about people who are just temporarily situated in one locality.

In a democratic community the people should have the opportunity of thinking before they act. There is no merit in being courageous out of ignorance, if we have the facts and act out of conviction then we need not hesitate upon reflection.

Community-minded candidates are easy to recognize. You don't recognize them by that they claim their goals to be. You will recognize them by the consideration they show for the common interest, the common aspirations, and above all the common responsibilities of their community.

Community-minded candidates will in all their reasoning consider themselves a permanent and responsible part of their community. They are persons who will not reason themselves and others into sacrificing the long term good of their community for short term expediencies. They will not sell their community "down the river" because of popular demand, or for personal aggrandizement. He will do his best to present to the people the true long-term picture. He may from time to time ask for the support of the community, but he will not attempt to stampede the people into acting, against their better judgement, through fear or fright.

When we speak of economy, we are talking about the SAME MANAGEMENT of the affairs of a household or a community. Economy-minded candidates, when they are also community-minded, must weigh the benefits against the cost. They are not necessarily wiser, they are however quite apt to be wise spenders.

An economy-minded person is not a one-sided person. He must consider the community as a whole. Children, parents, teachers, administrators, as well as the taxpayer are all part of the true "long term picture". Any candidate who distorts one part of the picture at the expense of the rest of the community—is not even basically honest, let alone community-minded.

Candidates who are more interested in hasty action than in "long term" community good, have in recent years always been with us. But never before has a community-minded candidate deserted their principals, principals for which the community has supported them for in the past, to join with the short sighted, "action at any cost" group.

Not leaving with the discontented crew, nor with the arbitrary few, we recommend as school trustees, LAWRENCE A. ROMAN and JEROME ZETTLER, the only community-minded and economy-minded candidates in the school board election tomorrow (Wednesday).

Kramer Gives Board Position On Bethpage Teacher Salaries

BETHPAGE—Frederick Kramer, president of the Board of Education, in an open letter to the taxpayers of the School District, today clarified the position of the Board in relation to teacher salary considerations.

"As President of the Board of teachers representatives, such 'bon-education', Kramer declared, "I find deemed discourteous to the am compelled, for once and for all, gather all the facts pertaining to the Board and Teacher dispute, a new meeting was called to take place immediately preceding the regular School Board meeting. The very nature of the meeting of this type, necessarily, indicated privacy. The chairman of the Advisory Committee was in charge. To avoid unnecessary publicity concerning personalities to be discussed at this meeting, a reporter was asked to leave. No attempt was made to restrain any citizen from the regular school board meeting which followed."

"In order to clarify our position, let us first examine the procedure formerly followed by Boards of Education in the past pertaining to Teachers' Salaries. It was the policy of the principal to receive, study and submit future salary schedules to the School Board, at which time said schedules were examined and discussed at length before final disposition.

"At no time in the past did the School Board maintain a 'high handed, dictatorial, arrogant or tyrannical' attitude at these meetings.

"Now let us examine the present situation.

"(1) On or about the latter part of Feb. 1954, a letter was received from the Bethpage Teachers organization outlining a new, more extensive scale. Contrary to past procedure, this letter bypassed the supervisory staff. A copy of this letter was sent to the latter. A straight $300 increase was sought by the Teachers organization.

"(2) The Board felt that this was excessive due to high expenditures on new buildings and equipment. In an effort to compromise, the board returned a counter proposal; said proposal contained an increase of $200 over 1953 to 1954 schedule. "(3) This counter proposal was rejected by teachers. They in turn upped their original demands. In their second demand, the teachers wanted to reach a maximum salary in 12 years instead of 16. This would grant a raise of $300 to starting teachers and would also terminate in an $1,800 raise over last year teachers on the 12-year step. Clearly, this was excessive.

"(4) Again, in an effort to compromise, the Board raised its counter offer. The effect of this new Board offer raised the MA scale an additional $100, and the net effect of which would be a $400 increase. Also any teacher attaining tenure would receive an additional $100.

"At this point one can easily recognize that the Board was endeavoring to be cooperative.

"We then received a letter from the Advisory Committee of the Teachers organization rejecting all Board proposals and indicating that the teachers would seek taxpayers support for their second schedule.

"The Board, acting under the impression created by the Teachers group—such impression conveying the veiled threat of bypassing the Board's authority—adopted their last schedule offered. As in past years, contracts were sent to all teachers immediately preceding the Easter vacation.

"At the April meeting of the P.T.A. a motion was made to have a taxpayers meeting to which the Board and Teachers group was administrative body. In an effort by the Advisory Committee to invited. The outcome of this latter meeting set up a Citizens Advisory Committee.

"This Advisory Committee asked for a meeting with the Board. At this meeting the School Board made known the conduct of the way the situation stands at present.

"Your School Board has always had the best interest of the District at heart and has never refused to cooperate with anyone," President Kramer concluded.

Morton Village. I hope to get a number of votes from Morton Village. And yet, if I don't, I fully expect, I'll be elected to serve Morton Village as faithfully as any other part of our District. Every candidate for School Board Trustee should expect to serve the whole, not a part. The needs and welfare of our children are the same in all parts of our community.

The next question concerns this large group of nameless persons with whom Mr. McIntosh met and who evaluated the candidates. Since they are not identified, how are we to know if they are truly qualified to make such an evaluation or if they truly represent the people of Plainview? Could they possibly be some select group of self interest who would control the District for their own ends? If these people are thinking only of the District and the welfare of the children why can't they come forth and be counted? What have they to hide? I ask you, why doesn't Mr. McIntosh name them. Surely if they were people whose names it would help to mention, would not he have named them?

HOLD ELECTION
Sodality of Young Ladies of St. Ignatius had an election of officers Wednesday, April 28. Newly named officers are—Ann McGinnagle, President; Monica Wojtynia, Vice Pres.; Anna Marie Morschner, Treasurer; Eileen Donohue, Secty. The Rev. Leo J. Giarin is moderator. Sunday May 3, is World Sodality Day. Services will be held at 8 P.M. consisting of a May crowning, sermon and benediction. All young women are invited.

"These questions should be pondered by every conscientious voter before entering the voting booth on Wednesday, May 5.

I too am endorsed. Endorsed, not by a mere article in a newspaper by a group who chooses to be nameless, but by positive action of well known, highly respected citizens of the community. I refer to the three successive School Boards who have unanimously appointed me to successive terms as District Treasurer. If these men did not believe in me, how could they justify their appointments?

"In conclusion, I pledge to you that, if elected, I will work as faithfully and diligently to discharge the trust placed in me as I have the past three years as my District Treasurer," Nees concluded.

School Voting

warning that just school taxes are being raised by $40,000 and quoted the Governmental Statistical Corp., financial advisor to the district.

Pointing out that a 1950 report to the Board of Education warned that total property taxes of up to $30 a month are a "real possibility", the league offered this quote: "at present the income level would not be sufficient to bear these taxes and it is unlikely that the income (of homeowners) will rise sufficiently to make it possible to carry the future loads unless strict economy in the operation of the school plant and its construction is practiced."

Supporters of Joseph F. Cawley and Edna Sutton who are running as an opposing slate in the Hicksville election had nothing further to add to previously published statements in their behalf.

Cawley and Sutton are opposing each other in seeking the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of 20-year-member Henry C. Brengel who is not a candidate.

Mrs. Sutton, who is running for re-election, is opposed by Zettler. Charles DeShaw, who had earlier filed for Mrs. Sutton's position, has since withdrawn from the race and endorsed the Roman-Zettler candidacy.
