Four Decline Business Position

HICKSVILLE—With a fifth and final eligible candidate for the position of business manager of the school district still to be interviewed, the Board of Education was advised by the State Civil Service Commission at Albany that it may be able to appoint Harry Ernenwein temporarily, pending another examination next year. Four candidates have been interviewed to date, all successful participants in a Civil Service test for the job held last February, and the four have declined the position.

Since July 1, Ernenwein, who held the position for more than a year, has been continued in the position on a temporary basis pending the interviewing of successful candidates.

At a Board of Education meeting, Friday night, a petition containing more than 300 signatures asking the Board to keep Ernenwein in the job was presented.

Gas Bills Topic for Civics

HICKSVILLE—The next meeting of the Cedar-Cliff Civic Assn. will be held at the AMVETS hall opposite the firehouse, tonight (Tuesday, July 20). Seven representatives from the Long Island Lighting Co. will be present to answer questions pertaining to the rates, services, etc. of the company. All residents of the Cedar-Cliff area are cordially invited to attend.

Scout Mothers Set Dinner July 28

HICKSVILLE—The Mothers Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop 64, and Sea Scout Ship 18 will hold their annual picnic dinner on July 28 at 7:30 PM at Henningaen's Restaurant. All members are asked to contact Mrs. Gail Engle or Mrs. Lloyd Butler for reservations.

Marine Reservist Receives Medal

FREEPORT—Pvt. First Class William J. Lent, USMCR of 27 McKinley Ave., Hicksville, was scheduled to receive the Bronze Star Medal with "V" for meritorious achievement with a Marine Rifle Co. between Feb. and July 1953, last night. Presentation was scheduled for Pvt. Lent, a Marine reservist and Korean veteran, at the formal guard mount of the 11th Rifle Co. USMCR at 112 Hansa Ave., here.

Two Weekend Fire Tournays

HICKSVILLE—The fire dept. will participate in two parades and tournaments over the weekend. The vamps and ladies auxiliary will take part in the Tournament of the South Shore Firemen's Assoc. at Belmont Park, Elmont, on Saturday morning and the 8th Battalion Drill at Plainview on Sunday afternoon. The firemen are also planning to take part in an invitation Central North Shore tournament at St. James in Suffolk County the following Saturday, July 31.

Tuesday, July 20—2:58 AM, 3:27 PM; Wednesday, July 21—5:46 AM, 4:18 PM; Thursday, July 22—4:42 AM, 5:12 PM; Friday, July 23—5:42 AM, 6:13 PM.

Only Week Left To Get Tickets

HICKSVILLE—Baseball fans here have only seven days left in which to purchase tickets for the Hickville night game at Ebbets Field at Brooklyn on Aug. 3, the sponsoring committee warned today.

Tickets are 52 and are available until next Tuesday, July 27, at the Herald office, next to the Post Office, and at Boslet's on Herzog Place. After Tuesday, all unsold tickets will be returned to the Brooklyn Dodgers. Twenty-five cents of each reserved ticket purchased will go to the program of the local Police Boys Club.

Three boys have been named to participate in Happy Felton's Knothole Gank over TV prior to the game on Aug. 3. They are Lester Areson of 16 Eighth St., Hickville, member of FBC Lions team; John McGrain of 21 Lawn Lane, Levittown, member of St. Ignatius team; and Robert Sholl of 22 Jackson Place, Hickville, member of the FBC Rotary team.

The game at Ebbets Field for Hickville Night this year is between Brooklyn and St. Louis.

(First in a Series)
 The Hickville Board of Education last week announced that it has decided to suspend temporarily any action on the recommendation of the "Hutchinson Recreation Survey."

While the Survey has been in limited circulation, the vast majority of the community has not had the opportunity to become familiar with its details. For that reason the HERALD will publish in succeeding issues, the text and recommendations of the survey. On May 20 the HERALD reported that the Board of Education had engaged Dr. John Hutchinson, director of recreation, Teachers College, Columbia University, to make a "recreation survey". It was scheduled for completion by June 20 at a cost not to exceed $1,000.—Editor.

Purposes of the Recreation Survey of Hicksville School District, according to its author, were:

1. To determine to what degree Hicksville School District should provide recreation for the community.
2. To designate the immediate steps or the minimum program which should be provided.
3. To outline the future steps which the School District may take to provide the "ideal recreation program."

Part A of the report is presented as "a point of view which is basic to any recreation-education venture." It is printed as follows without comment:

PART A School-Community Recreation

The school is a social organization which operates within a community that has developed to serve the needs of people who live there. Consequently the school, to serve its purpose, must function as a community school. To accomplish this end, the school must concern itself with recreation because recreation affects the mental, emotional, physical and social development of people.

Recreation today should be a part of the modern school program which is designed to help people prepare for a full life. In this era leisure is fast becoming a major factor for which people must prepare. Added to the many technological advances of recent years is the development of automatic machines and factories which make the twenty-five hour work more of a possibility each year. Unless the schools prepare children and youth so that they can use this leisure in a worthwhile manner, education will become rather shallow and unrealistic.

To exist as a real societal force, recreation must be conducted in light of the new culture. Because recreation has moved beyond the ideas of either sitting in the open air or keep idle hands busy, the old park and playground concepts no longer satisfy. Recreation can be a self-expressive venture in which people may relax and relieve tensions, learn new things, enjoy relationships, or create as one feels the urge. These factors all lead to fuller personal development—a project to which the school is committed.

Education should no longer be viewed only as that phase of community living which take place within the school. In effect, the modern American community has developed a community education curriculum which transcends the traditional school curriculum. Many agencies in a community contribute toward this broad community education program; and many activities, including recreation, make up this overall community education curriculum.

Co-ordinating Council Starts Cataloging Current Activity

HICKSVILLE—The newly organized Hicksville Youth Co-ordinating Council has five sub-committees in operation today cataloging current youth activities and programs in the community as one of its primary projects. The HY-CC was created at a meeting attended by 24 adults at the Trinity Episcopal Church Hall, last Thursday night. The next meeting is set for the same location, July 29.

Tentatively stated, the purpose of the council is to co-ordinate youth activities here by locating a central building or buildings for special affairs; and to assist in the programming, publicizing and fund raising of same, for both present and future youth organizations.

It was stressed that the Council is not "apportioning" any particular youth organization but rather seeks to cooperate and assist with those in existence and to aid in developing new ones to fit local requirements.

Joseph Byrne is vice chairman in charge of social activities and John Ehrenfeld, vice chairman in charge of new activities.

Other officers are Fred J. Noeth, recording secretary; Irving Mallon, corresponding secretary; and Charles H. DeShaw, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are: Siegel, constitution and by-laws; Mallon, cataloging of existing youth programs; Dorothy Salom, adult resources; Gladys Kist, housing and building; and DeShaw, public relations and finance.

A spokesman said yesterday "It was the opinion of all present that a co-ordinating council could do much to prevent any youth problem from arising in Hicksville, since a council would be a means of enabling present organizations to expand their activities. Such a council could also insure greater youth participation."

Kiwanis Hears About League

JERICHO—The history, needs and possibilities of the Little League was explained to members of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club at a luncheon meeting last Wednesday at the Milleridge Inn, here. Charles Egginton was guest speaker on the subject. He was introduced by Fred Satter.

Perfect attendance tabs were awarded as follows: John Staryk, 8 years; William E. Koutensky, 6; Arthur Bagasinski, 4; Joseph Oliver, 3 and Harold Holden, 2.

Plainview Host Sunday For Fire Dept Contests

PLAINVIEW — This Sunday, July 25, will bring the Annual Ninth Battalion Fireman's Tournament here, where the fire departments of Hicksville, Westbury, Jericho, Farmingdale, Bethpage, Carle Place, and Plainview will compete for trophies in each of the ten events scheduled.

Hicksville Emergency Co. No. 5 has been invited to enter their racing team in the contest as a guest.

A large attendance is expected in view of the recent growth of the community, where many of the new residents will witness this type of competition for the first time. With this in mind the "Plainmen" have erected a grandstand for the convenience of the spectators. Refreshments will be available on the grounds.

The tournament is scheduled to start at 12:30 P.M. sharp with a motorcade, consisting of the fire apparatus of the various departments competing, and will form at the corner of Garden Gate and Old Country Road, and proceed east on Old Country Road to Central Park Drive, north on Central Park Drive to the tournament grounds. The program of events will follow immediately after the motorcade.

They are: 3 Man Ladder, Running Ladder, Motor Hook and Ladder Class "B", Motor Hose Class "B", Running Hose, Booster Tank, Motor Pump, Combination Hose and Pump, Efficiency and Bucket Brigade.

Trophies for the events have been donated by many of the local business concerns where they have been on display at various stores in the area. There will be a high point trophy and trophies for first, second, and third places in each event, making a total of thirty-one in all.

It is hoped that the weather will be clear, but in the event of rain the tournament will be held the following Sunday, Aug. 1st.

Roasting Roast Brings Firemen

HICKSVILLE — An even roast was on the stove at the Pat Young home, 68 Moeller St., Sunday, and the firemen came calling—to put out the burning meat. The alarm was sounded at 3:52 P.M. At eight o'clock in the evening the volunteers were rolling again, this time for an oil burner alarm at the home of M. Canble, 130 Spindle Rd.

Biggest Sales Event of Year

HICKSVILLE — Retailers here opened their doors Thursday morning for the biggest sales event of the year, Hicksville Dollar Days, sponsored by the Retail Division, of the Chamber of Commerce. The general reaction to this event from the merchants was from "most successful Dollar Days" to "peak business" during the three big days.

Patrick Buffalino, Chairman of Dollar Days stated after the sale, "Dollar Days was a tremendous success due to the cooperation of the merchants in giving terrific values as advertised. This year by far was the greatest event, coupled with the largest turnout of business firms participating."

Business men in general were pleased with the response by the public to the sale. To cite a few: Susan Joy "most successful sales event of the year, public responded in terrific way". Hicksville Firestone, "the best sales days in many a year". Hicksville Sweet Shop, "Our advertised special of 1/2 gallon of 1/2 cream went fast; almost 800 1/2 gallons sold". Every merchant up and down the street noted great amount of traffic in town, stores were filled with shoppers during three days and they wish to thank the public for their response to sale days.

Kiwanis Plans For 6th Kids Day

HICKSVILLE—Kid's Day sponsored by Kiwanis International, will be celebrated Saturday, Sept. 25 here and in hundreds of other communities throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii using the theme "Build for Tomorrow."

James H. Walters, President of the Kiwanis Club, said that although this is the sixth annual observance of Kid's Day, it is the first year of sponsorship exclusively by Kiwanis International and its member clubs throughout North America. He added that work on this sixth annual celebration is well under way and it is expected that more clubs than ever before will participate in this annual activity for youth.

"Preliminary plans for local activity are now being formulated by the committee in charge" Walters said. He named Joseph Oliver as chairman and Joseph Heller, Everett Smith, Henry McInnes, Louis Kappstatter, Fred Hughes, Leon Galloway, William Murphy, Rev. David Duncombe, Albert Heuer and Jean Staryk as members of the committee under whose direction the activity will be carried out even though all members of the Kiwanis club will share in the project.

Walters pointed out that youth work has been a major aim of Kiwanis International throughout the thirty-nine years of its existence.

The Kid's Day program, one of Kiwanis' major activities for youth, focuses attention on this important work of the organization on one day, and permits each club to develop a local program best suited to its community while integrating it with the club's year-round program for youth.

Last year over a million two hundred thousand children were entertained on Kid's Day.

Oliver, Chairman of the Kids' Day committee, indicated that further details will be announced in the near future. He urged all citizens to wholeheartedly support Kid's Day (as they have in past years) and join with other civic-minded residents of Hicksville in observing this day set aside especially for helping youth.

MAKING THEIR HOME in South Norwalk, Conn., after a two-week motor trip through Canada, are Mr. and Mrs. Malagise. The bride is the former Doris Gamling of 290 Plainview Rd., Hicksville, who was married at St. Ignatius Loyola R. C. Church on June 27. The groom is from Norwalk. A reception followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T. Kean of 290 Plainview Rd., Hicksville. Jean Royston of Flushing was maid of honor and William Ryan of Norwalk, best man. Banschbach Will Study Psychology

VALPARAISO, IND.—Norman Anthony Banschbach, a 1950 Graduate of Hicksville High School, has been approved for admission to Valparaiso University College of Arts and Sciences this fall. He plans to major in psychology at the Lutheran university. Norman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Banschbach of 16 Nelson Ave., Hicksville.

He completed four years service in the Air Corps this month and is enroute to Hicksville with his family for a visit in August before leaving for Valparaiso.

Dear Jean:

A. CARL GRUNEWALD and family of Libby Ave., Hicksville, left on Saturday for a trip to Maine. . . . The next edition of the Hicksville Republican Club handbook on the community and its organizations is scheduled for publication shortly. More than 15,000 copies will be distributed this year, according to SIDNEY PELLEY who is in charge of the project. . . .

The School Board has made no decision, as yet, regarding the new attorney for the School District although the committee of the board of this question was scheduled to meet last week. . . . The question of federal aid funds for new school construction in Hicksville continues to be rather elusive. The High School project has not been found eligible for such aid and now the board is trying to get aid on the four small additions. . . . A youngster caused a stir in the post office last week when he let go of an empty pop bottle and it sailed through a window of the office. Police were on the scene promptly and the boy's father has promised to make good on the damage. . . . AL EIRICH, school board member who went to Kentucky with his family around July 1, is due back home someday this week. . . . Dollar Days last weekend proved to be an outstanding success, thanks to the overall cooperation by retailers and others. . . .

James Steinert
 HICKSVILLE — James Steinert, former resident of Plainview Cemetery, here, for the son of the late Judge Joseph Steinert is reposing at Henry J. Stock Funeral Home on Newbridge Rd.

He is survived by his wife, May; four brothers, Dave, Jerome, Samuel and William; and two sisters, Mrs. Jackson of Amityville and Mrs. Brown of Lynbrook.

Agnes Dietrich
 PLAINEDGE — Agnes Dietrich of 886 Heathcliff Dr., died here on July 15th at the age of 87. She is survived by her husband, Henry; son Thomas, and two grandchildren. Funeral was from Thomas Dalton's in Hicksville. Requiem Mass was at St. James R. C., Plainedge. Interment was at St. Johns Cemetery, Glendale, N. Y.

Little League Meeting July 28

HICKSVILLE—A meeting of civic group leaders and interested adults has been called for Wednesday evening, July 28, at the high school at 8:15 PM for the purpose of considering the formation of a community-wide Little League for 1955. The meeting was announced by Vincent D'Angelo of Wellgale Lane who urges all males interested in assisting on various committees and as coaches and managers to attend.

Greenwood Agrees to Run

BAY SHORE—Ernest Greenwood has accepted the Democratic designation to run as Representative in Congress from the First Congressional District which embraces all of Suffolk County and the Mid-Island area of Nassau. His name will be placed on the primary ballot.

He is expected to oppose Stuvant Wainwright, Republican incumbent, from Brightwaters who defeated Greenwood two years ago. Greenwood had previously held the congressional office for two years, having defeated W. Kingsland Macy, Republican.

In a statement on his candidacy, Greenwood said "I appreciate the confidence placed in me not only by the Democratic Committee, but also by the many Independent Republicans and Independent Democrats. At no time have I promoted myself to seek public office; in fact, only twice in my life time have I had to ask for a job either to make a living or to be of service to others.

"I shall never buy a nomination nor seek the aid of anyone outside our district in either getting me one or of being elected. I shall rely upon the good sense and judgment of the majority of the voters. I shall not promise any group or individual any personal favors."

Special Report on Recreation

This changing concept regarding community education has had an effect upon the role of school administrators. For example, the school superintendent is no longer just that, he is a superintendent of community education. He is concerned with all educational ventures occurring in a community. This does not mean he has the responsibility for all the educational activities, but it does mean that he has a moral responsibility to aid in their development in every way possible. Further, it means that he must encourage the schools to do those tasks which the school is best fitted to do in the particular community. Often, recreation is one of those tasks.

When the school assumes the responsibility for community recreation it must develop the best program possible within the limitations under which it works. A recreation program is not a series of sports activities—it is more than that. Recreation includes clubs, cultural activities, social activities, music, crafts, art, dramatics, sports and games, and various outdoor activities like hunting, fishing, camping, and hiking. Within the limits of its resources, the school should aim toward a well rounded program that serves the entire community. In developing a program the school must further recognize that just as in education the teacher is very important; so, too, in recreation the leader is the key to success. The influence of a recreation leader upon a child or youth may have as great or a greater impact than that of a teacher. Any compromise in terms of good leadership is revealed both in the inadequate program which develops and in the effects the activities have upon participants.

The problems accompanying unassimilated youth and misdirected children have not, apparently, grown to undesirable proportions in the School District. However, with the school population growing rapidly and the number of teen-agers at least doubling within the next five years, juvenile delinquency promises to become a major concern. Intelligent public planning and administration of recreation is universally recognized as one of the public services which forms a first line of defense against juvenile delinquency.

Because the School District in Hicksville is the only legally established governmental agency which logically can develop a recreation program, it behooves this agency to begin immediately to develop a sound recreation program. The purpose of this School District in attacking this problem should be twofold: (1) aiding agencies already committed to conducting recreation to develop their programs to the fullest; and (2) providing varied recreation opportunities for everyone in the community.

The interest of individuals and groups in Hicksville School District in furthering recreation is highly commendable. The work of volunteer leaders in the District also deserves high praise. Any plan by the Board of Education to develop a recreation program should honor these efforts and do everything possible to encourage similar contributions and to make possible even greater contributions. Community recreation must be conceived of as a combined effort of many individuals and groups and not the total responsibility of any one agency.

School Addition Plans Complete

HICKSVILLE — Plans for the four additions to elementary schools for which a bond issue was approved earlier this year are now ready for submission to the State Education Dept. at Albany, it was learned today. At a Board meeting on Friday night, a motion was made by Trustee Emil J. Sweeney to proceed with the opening of bids on these projects, Aug. 17. The board also discussed plans for renovations in the old Nicholas St. School building by the replacement of the heating furnaces and installation of more fire escapes and sprinkler systems. It was indicated that the school may be used for at least two more years for class purposes and may thereafter become an administration building for the fast growing school system.

THE SOUTH HICKSVILLE

Sentinel

By CRAIG WALSH

$5,000,000

With Congress investigating the building industry it was only a matter of time before William J. Levitt was called to Washington to explain his part in the government financing of some of the houses he built. The objective of the investigation and Levitt's testimony both bear examination, especially by those of us who purchased Levitt houses. First of all, the objective is to review the present laws referring to government financing of building so that they can be improved. This may be a bit simplified, but it is certainly the basic purpose. Levitt testified that he made a profit of $5,000,000 on about 4,000 of the rental houses. Now, that's a pretty good piece of chutzpah and many people can't help but wonder how it was done and if it was all on the up and up?

Was It All Legal?

As far as we can see in the newspapers, there was no infraction of the law in any of the transactions in question. About the worst that anyone could say, and it was by Senator Capewhart (Rep., Ind.), that it was a "windfall". If anything was wrong, it was with the law and with the government officials who interpreted and administered those laws. When Congress sets up the laws which permit people in certain circumstances to have a financial advantage, those persons should not be criticized if they should profit. We may disagree strongly with many of Levitt's ideas, but we can't see why he should have been subjected to the scare headline treatment of last week.

A Big Job

Nobody can deny that Levitt brought about a major revolution in the housing field. He not only brought homes within reach of a great many who could not otherwise have afforded them, but he brought some real competition into the business and the effects were evident among other builders. As long as he stuck to building houses, he did fine. It was only when he stepped into other phases of community activity that he got out of line. He overran established communities and wiped out at least one of them. He tried hard to envelope us in the community he named after himself.

He established his own newspaper and on at least one public occasion he openly instructed his editor to follow his party line to the hilt. His worst fiascos were building his gift horse Levittown Hall in Hicksville and trying to enforce a false loyalty from his customers. He also "convinced" our elected officials they should ignore the results of a public referendum and establish the highly complicated inter-township Pool-Hall District. He did all of these things and we cannot see that they were to our benefit. But we cannot join in his persecution for making a profit, even a handsome profit. As long as he stuck to building low cost houses, he was tops.

Hold Playground At Powell School

BETHPAGE—The summer recreation program at the Powell Ave. School here has started its third summer, serving to provide a recreation program for your girl and boy during the summer months. On opening day, July 6, two hundred children were greeted by Mrs. Rosalie Hanswirth, Howard Vogts, and Donald Kent, the summer playground personnel at the Powell Ave. School.

The playground is open for boys and girls between the ages of five to seven. Please do not send children if they are under five years of age. The program is held five days a week, between the hours of nine in the morning to three in the afternoon. Arts and crafts instruction is given by Mr. Donald Kent every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday morning. On Wednesday afternoon, the children become the audience for movies, our main attraction being cartoons. Every Friday is a special kind of day. The following is the program for these special days.

July 23rd—Field Day.
July 30th—Doll Show.
Aug. 6th—Square Dance Festival.
Aug. 13—Hike and Picnic to Bethpage State Park.
Aug. 19th—Farewell Costume Party.

On Friday, June 9, the children went on their hike and picnic to Bethpage State Park. After hiking to the park, the children played games and the winners were awarded prizes. After lunch, the boys played a softball game and then all joined in a song fest.

Many thanks to volunteer chaperones—Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Leo, Mrs. Foy, Mrs. Ostroski, Mrs. Bunnee, Mrs. Erickson, Mrs. Barone, Mrs. Sanson, Mrs. Maher, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Dynok, Mrs. Schwab, Mrs. Head, Mrs. Schottland and Mr. Furze.

Obituaries

Amelia Gluth

BETHPAGE—Amelia Gluth of 45 Floral Ave., here died at her home on July 14th. She was 70 years of age and was born in Finland. She is survived by her husband, William; daughter, Wilhelmina Hansen, and two grandchildren, Linda and John.

The funeral was held from Arthur E. White funeral home. Services were held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Saturday, July 17 at 2 P.M. The Rev. James Taylor officiated. Interment was at Plainedge Cemetery, Bethpage.

Another Ha-Ha Dance July 21

BETHPAGE—The members of the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. wish to express their appreciation to the many neighbors and friends who joined them in celebrating their 35th Anniversary on July 3rd at their Outdoor Variety Show.

In spite of threatening weather and intermittent showers, well over one hundred persons attended the celebration held in the rear yard of the association's clubhouse.

The next regular meeting of the organization will be held Wednesday evening, July 21, at which time another "Ha-Ha Prize" will be awarded. This is a prize awarded to the member present at the meeting whose name is drawn at random from the list of members. The "Ha-Ha" comes when the name of an absent member is drawn. They get no prize; just a big "Ha-Ha" and another name is selected. Winners at the last two meetings were Mary Walker and Julia Green.

This plan is sponsored by the membership committee of the NECA in an effort to stimulate even greater attendance at meetings which now is a highly commendable 25 per cent of enrollment.

Meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at the groups clubhouse and all residents are welcome and invited to attend.

Hair - Breadth Harry

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The small but embattled band of Hicksville High Comets who waged the gallant, but losing contests, against powerful Garden City and Farmingdale on the gridiron last fall has clearly left a distinct mark on coach Dom Sabetalla.

Dom, despite a busy time studying for his Masters' Degree in recent years and his present position as Assistant Principal in the fast growing Uniondale School District, is not ready to retire as coach of the Hicksville Field Club and readily admits that the fire the 1953 Comets had for the game was the deciding factor in keeping his hand in the coaching game.

Quite possibly the hope that some of the Comets will move up to the Black and White is the reason that the Field Club has not disbanded.

Manager E. Irving Jesser and the coach are not concerned about the prospects for the fielding of other teams in the Nassau County area, but will go about trying to build a team and then import a schedule of Queens, Suffolk or out-of-state clubs if need be.

First important step will be to find out just how many football players from the past Field Club elevens and last year's high school team will be interested in playing.

Within a week it is planned to send out a questionnaire to former Field Club players and to members of the '53 Comets to determine just how many will be interested in performing again.

Based upon the answers, the Black and White will start formulating its 1954 organization.

Once a week running sprints and touch games are planned to start early in August and concentrated sessions twice a week will commence in September.

The day of the mammoth iron fisted clubs is gone in semi-pro ball and there is a careful effort made on the part of the Field Club management not to over-match its youthfully inclined teams.

It wasn't too many years ago, just after the war, that the Black and White refused to play an exhibition game with the then All-American Conference Brooklyn Dodgers in the Freeport Stadium.

Local football leaders rejected the flat $1,500, plus percentage, on the grounds that even a slight workout on the part of Pros would find the Long Island players far short of precision training and thus more open to injuries.

This point is stressed to indicate that there is a place for the energy of that group of post-high school age lads who want to have activity two nights a week and something really competitive on a large scale Sunday afternoons.

Those who are not on the Field Club's mailing list can easily make themselves welcome to the team by contacting either Dom or Irv Jesser down at the high school once practice begins.

An appeal to reason will have to be made if the tempers continue to flare in some quarters of the Hicksville Community Softball League. Everyone is unquestionably having fun, but some of the needling borders on the ridiculous.

Already three umpires have had enough and called it quits. Frankly, it is understandable that in a league where the measure of talent can be quickly determined by the 13-12, 14-9 etc. scores that the umpires get a little weary of those who can measure a ball 1/100,000 of an inch off the corner of the plate.

Presently on display in the Mid-Island office window on North Broadway, next to the Post Office, are the five beautiful trophies over which the clubs are waging the nightly excitement.

These handsome prizes go to the winners in the two divisions of the league. It should be reported, however, in the interest of understanding, that competition in the league is free but no prizes can be awarded out of the funds to conduct the activity.

Therefore, each club puts up less than ten dollars for prize money so that each team may have something to shoot for.

Hicksville players on the Meenan Oiler team thought that the heavy traffic going in the direction of Huntington Friday night was for the opening round of the ASA in which they were competing.

It took unusually long to get to Huntington Park for the game, but few of the cars went right through the village to the game.

It seems there was something about Dividend Days in Huntington and some how the word got SPREAD in Hicksville.

With Herman Rigby and Ed Coleman hitting hard the Oilers won 9-4 and 2-0 in its first two ASA starts.

Bill Brodriuk outpitched and got a little more support than fellow townsman George Cheslock did in the shutout. Cheslock actually was brilliant for Levittown Ford but his mates weren't sharp in the field.

Five Way Tie for PBC Juniors

The Hicksville Lions continue to hold undisputed first place in the Police Boys Club Intermediate League while five teams are tied up for leadership in the Junior Division.

The Lions met the Hicksville Cards on July 14 and Carl Schulz, Lions pitching ace, came within one out of a perfect game. Wideman, the Cards' right fielder, hit a 2-2 pitch for a single to spoil the bid for a perfect game. Hahbohn, Cards pitcher, held the Lions to 5 hits but throwing errors accounted for the score reaching 8-0. Charles McGunnigle had a triple for the Lions first hit and scored what was the winning run.

The Plainview Ducees met their home town rivals, the Redwings on July 13, and once again the fine pitching of Joe Tarnino brought the Ducees a 12-2 win. McLaughlin, Schneider and Hernandez led the Ducees at bat.

The Levittown Cobras won from the Plainview Royals by a forfeit on July 12.

The Hicksville Rotary met the last piece Royals on July 15 and had 13 hits good for 23 runs while the Royals had 3 hits for 2 runs.

The Rotary had a field day and took advantage of the many errors made by the Royals.

FIVE WAY TIE FOR FIRST
In the Junior Division, where five teams are tied for first position, the Plainview Eagles met the Plainview Raiders on July 12 and the Eagles won their first game of the league play, 7-1. The Raiders got 2 hits off Scott. Ed Burnside got two hits to lead the Raiders at bat.

The Hicksville Hawks met the Plainview Wildcats on July 12 also and Leo Kanawada, Hawks pitcher, threw a no-hitter while the Hawks collected 18 hits good for 25 runs. Billy Schrimple had two home runs and a single to lead the offensive.

The Plainview Tomcats travelled to Oyster Bay on July 13 to meet the Bombers and the Oyster Bay team got their second win by a 7-4 margin over the Tomcats.

The Hicksville Lions met the Plainview Comets on the same day and the Comets behind the 1-hit pitching by Manganorlis won the game easily, 8-0. Mike Durcan collected three hits to lead the Comets at bat.

The Plainview Raiders met the Hicksville Aces on July 14 and after 3 innings, the Aces were leading 4-2 but in the 4th inning the Raiders scored 6 runs to win the game, 10-2.

The Sycoset Dragons and the Plainview Corsairs met on July 14 and the Dragons won 17-2; Charley Harrison who came into pitch in the second inning, threw no-hit ball and struck out nine men in a row on 30 pitches.

Tigers Defeat Bellaire 3-1

HICKSVILLE — The Tigers Police Boys Club baseball team beat the strong Bellaire Diners team 3-1 on Sunday, here, as Eric Weller drove in two runs in the ninth inning.

Richie Hogan pitched a strong 3-hit game as Spiro was the hitting star with 3 hits. The tigers, sponsored by the PBC, wishes to announce that they will play every Sunday at the high school field, here, and would like some fans in the stands to root for the home team.

Coach Artie Patterson has the boys in tip top shape. Next Sunday's attraction will be the Elmhurst Patriots in a Queens-Nassau League game.

WORLD READER OPINION

Letters To Editor

Who Shall Lead Our Youth?

By MARTIN WALTER
To the Editor:

The question, dear citizens of Hicksville, is who shall lead them—these young, who would not be young, too long; these boys, who would be men, too soon; these girls, whose entire being yearn achingly toward the arms of their lovers, too soon; these bold and courageous, who have not as yet learned the wisdom of caution; these boisterous, flamboyant, cantankerous, spoiled—darlings, these children of ours, dear citizens of Hicksville? Who shall lead them? For will not the leaders of today shape the rulers of tomorrow?

When our fair community recently hit the headlines, and notoriety—mainly through the dashing sport of three children, showing too little regard for proper authority, the good citizens of Hicksville suddenly realized that a problem of Juvenile Delinquency (little as it may seem) now existed among us; and that something had to be done about it: but quickly! But who shall lead them?

So a meeting was called post-haste; and everyone was invited—the little people and the big—the good people and the bad; the wise and the unwise—the informed and the uninformed; and when the meeting was done, it was promptly accused of fiddle-faddling by one of the parents of one of the three dashing, sporting, young, corner-lounging gentlemen of Hicksville, which is a goodly sized hamlet in the Town of Oyster Bay. Therefore, a lot of people were concerned.

But the teen-agers knew what they wanted; that is some of them knew. They too, held a meeting at the home of a well-meaning and concerned parent-citizen of Hicksville; and lo and behold, an organization of teen-agers was formed with (who would have thought) two of the three dashing, sporting, young, corner-lounging gentlemen of Hicksville as their leaders. Thus, from out of the dregs the Hicksville Social and Athletic Club was born. But who shall lead our children, dear citizens of Hicksville? Shall their thoughts, be woven by twenty year old (teen-ager?) Elmo Fanta? Shall they be led by sixteen year old Richard Zimmerman?

What is the line of reasoning behind the organizers (men and women, that is) of the H. S. & A. C.? Does it follow that a teen-ager who has shown a proficient ability to be nasty and to do wrong, therefore, is qualified to know and to show what is right? Do we put these minors on a pedestal and reward them for wrong doings? Do we tell our girls and boys to look up to them and to do as they do?

Do we let loud-mouthed parents pronounce unjustifiable judgement upon us so that we are recalled into something hastily done? If Juvenile Delinquency in our town is so bad, then is not a curfew for minors, in order? If Juvenile Delinquency in our fair town is so bad should not the parents of wayward children be taught a more extensive course in the use of the rod? If Juvenile Delinquency in our good town is so bad, can it be charged to want as one often finds in the larger cities of our country, or to the deficiencies of the parents who have so little time for the children that they have begotten, and who, themselves, do not yet know how to live happily, graciously, and contentedly amongst their own members of society? So, who shall lead them? Who shall lead our darling children?

Signed by a parent who believes that his children should be led by honest upright, normal, straight-thinking, outstanding (as opposed to notorious) competent young boys and girls who will lead the way so that his normal children, too, will know how to become honest, upright, straight thinking outstanding and competent citizens of Hicksville.

Knights Name L I Delegates

HICKSVILLE—At the regular meeting held by Joseph Barry Council #2520, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday, July 18 the following members of the council were named delegates to the L. I. Chapter, K. of C. Grand Knight Harry Woods, Deputy Grand Knight R. Mc Gregor; Kenneth Krummacker; Walter Lee Jr.; John Zalewski; and Dermott Dunne.

The following were named as delegates to the N. Y. State Council Convention, Grand Knight Harry Woods, Past Grand Knight Francis Donovan, Trustee Thomas Douglas, and D. Dunne.

Joseph M. Geoghan, Chairman of the Annual Dinner and Dance, to be held Oct. 11, at the Wheatly Tavern, Westbury, which will be a Testimonial to honor Past Grand Knight Francis J. Donovan, reported that plans are well under way and that the members are doing a good job. Robert Mc Gregor, who is in charge of the Tickets, would like the members to contact him early in order to insure a reservation for this affair.

Grand Knight Woods made a plea for members to give blood to the L. I. Chapter Blood Bank. The council recently made a withdrawal from it and would like to replace it. Woods appointed R. Manning to handle appointments for giving blood. All members of Joseph Barry Council are requested to give Manning their support.

There will be a meeting of the Dinner-Dance Committee on Tuesday evening, July 27, at the V.F.W. Club House, Grand Ave.
