CD Evacuee Drill Involves Township

HICKSVILLE—This community will be the scene of a large-scale demonstration of Civil Defense in action tonight (Tuesday) in handling 1,000 evacuees of H-bomb blasted areas of the Township. The high school on Jerusalem Ave. will be the reception centre to handle, in theory, over 12,000 victims of a bombing starting at 7:30 in the evening.

Col. William Godfrey, local CD community director, is deputy township commander for the purpose of the exercise and all interested residents, and CD volunteers are invited to witness the program at the high school. There will be motion pictures shown in the high school auditorium and mass feeding of the evacuees.

Hazel Moves Board to Fork Lane

HICKSVILLE—Hurricane Hazel failed to stop the Board of Education meeting, Friday night. When it was found that power had failed at East St. School where meetings are regularly held, the meeting place was changed to the principal's office of Fork Lane School. There were 18 persons present, including two reporters and members of the Board.

Volunteer firemen were kept running from 6 to 8:30 PM as the high winds tore at power lines. Short circuits in power lines set fire to trees on Twinlawn Ave., Notre Dame Ave. and at other locations. Power failed in some stores on Broadway and the LI National Bank operated on emergency power.

The winds and storm stopped suddenly at 8:30 in the evening.

Faculty Surprise on Thursday

HICKSVILLE—Surprises and entertainment are promised by the high school faculty in complete charge of arrangements for the Hicksville High School P-TA meeting program this Thursday night, Oct. 21, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

According to Mrs. Theodore Rosberry, program chairman, "Teachers are human. How do teachers sometimes feel about us as parents, about our children as students? Come and enjoy finding out Thursday at the high school P-TA". Refreshments will be served!

Legion to Seat Staff, Saturday

HICKSVILLE—Allen S. Carpenter of 11 Loretta Lane will be installed as commander of the Charles Wagner American Legion Post on Saturday evening, Oct. 23, together with his staff. Guy Smith is chairman of arrangements and James Carter will be master of ceremonies.

The Post is planning a gala costume party for Saturday, Oct. 30 at the Clubhouse on E. Nicholas St. Members are urged to bring their friends. The Legionnaires will make their annual trip to Kings Park on Sunday, Nov. 21, and donations of books, magazines, old ties, shoes and clothing may be left at the clubhouse. Al Barlow is in charge.

Teen Plays Select First Show

HICKSVILLE—The Teen Players have selected their production with an all-teen cast, according to producer Jean Maljean: "By Any Other Name" by George S. Eliot and Jay Looney. At the next meeting, tonight (Tuesday, Oct. 19) the one-act play to be performed by the group will be decided upon. The cast of both productions includes: Marion Brennan, Judy DiVincentis, Loretta Lorenzo, Linda Balke, Carole Dewar, Fred Goldman, Bonnie Poitras, John Lorenzetti, Nancy Verrall, Eileen Osborne, Judith Martini, Nancy DeMonaco, Mary Ann Rossi, Rhoda Brandes, Harold Trotter, Dolores Tucciarone, Thomas Shewchenko, Greg Sohnen, Thomas Sohnen, and Kathi Donovan.

The new group has snowballed over the two weeks of existence and has had the good fortune to have as directors such well-known professional people as Mrs. Bruce Ferguson of Barter Theatre and Mrs. Dedrie DuFrey of Adelphi College. Maljean hopes to make the Teen Players a Hicksville institution for the furtherance of the dramatic arts, in that there will be a workshop schedule after the productions have been underway. It goes without saying that any occupation such as this tends to decrease juvenile delinquency. Any adult help in this direction will be welcomed by calling HI 3-5615.

HAND OUT PASSES IN TWO WEEKS.

Front Door Rule Puts 600 More On School Bus

HICKSVILLE—More than 600 children in six schools here will receive bus passes during the first week in November, the result of a change in the measurement of distances, it was learned at the Board of Education meeting in Fork Lane School, Friday night. Measurement of distance is now being made from the front entrance of the school to the child's home rather than from a point on the school grounds nearest the pupil's residence.

Max W. Cheney, administrative assistant in charge of transportation, made a preliminary report. The Board of Education by a four to one vote had approved the revised policy a few weeks ago. Joseph Cawley had dissented in that voting.

4000 NOW RIDE

According to Cheney, the incomplete report on six schools indicates 53 more riders to Woodland Ave., 151 to Old Country Rd., 116 to Fork Lane, 124 to Dutch Lane, 28 to Burns Ave., and 206 to Lee Ave. for a total of 678. He expects there will be another 80 for East St. making a total of 4,000 students of the district now being transported.

The Board heard a report from Trustee Emil J. Szendy on the conference held in Albany with the Education Dept. on the question of providing transportation in the special hazard instances. Szendy headed the Board committee which included Trustees Arthur L. Eirich, Attorney Bertram Crane and Cheney. Eirich went in the place of Cawley who had been assigned with Szendy. All four concurred in Szendy's report which indicated that transportation could be provided in the case of hazardous routes for walking students, provided there are sufficient funds appropriated.

A motion to provide such transportation was made by Szendy. He moved that the method of measurement can be changed to follow the proper pedestrian route for a child via guarded crossings. Eirich seconded, but the motion was defeated with Edna Sutton, Cawley and Richard School voting no.

Cawley said that the August trip of Mrs. Sutton and School Administrators to Albany had indicated that measurement should be along the direct car route. School voted no, stating he felt the change would "solve nothing".

Two areas in particular may have profited by a regulation; it was noted. One a portion of Hillside Terrace in the vicinity of Haverford Rd. and a section on the east side of South Broadway.

James E. Matienzo of 162 Haverford Rd. addressed the board and asserted he would "never" let his six-year-old child cross Woodbury Rd. without an escort. "All we want is a fair shake for the children," he said. When the motion was (Continued on Page 15)

Board Minutes, When Exhibited, Will Tell Full Story, He Asserts

HICKSVILLE—Arthur L. Eirich of 12 Elwood Ave., member of the Board of Education, today answered at length a joint statement of three other members which took issue with him and Emil J. Szendy. The complete statement of Edna Kuhne Sutton, Joseph Ciwley and Richard G. Scheel was published in the Herald weekend edition.

ON AND OFF MILLWOOD GATE:

Election Day for Home Owners

By DOROTHY R. BROWN

Hicksville 4-8128
The papers are full of campaign yddges and election issues. We hear political speeches on the radio and TV sets. Our mail is starting to bring tracts with data on candidates for the Nov. 2 elections to fill government offices. While we may get tired of all this, we should be very thankful that we do live in America where we have the two-party system, with a choice of candidates. It makes for a strong government and is a healthy situation for any country.

Our Communistic neighbors hold elections yearly but they have a one party state. There is no choice.
It would seem rather foolish to waste time voting in this case but these people are expected to vote for the local, state and national election.

Speaking of elections we should bear in mind the election coming up in our local Civic Assoc.
this Thursday, Oct. 21, at the Lee Ave. School at 8 P.M. in the monthly meeting of the Millwood Gate P.O. Assn. In looking over the list as published by the Herald Sept. 28 one notices the lack of competition and also that one and the same person is nominated for two offices. Out of 150 homes I would think that there would be more people capable and willing to accept an office in their own civic association. Nominations will be opened for more additions at the meeting before voting takes place.

Are we Americans with our two-party system and our freedom of choice going to allow these rivals to show up when we have a good reason to go to the polls? Think about it! Please vote Nov. 2

for the local, state and national election.

Come prepared with your nominations and may we build the slate up with two or more candidates for each office. Let's have some friendly but very healthy competition at this meeting. These officers will be our leaders for the ensuing year and will make our association grow as it should. See you all Thursday, at 8 P.M. at the Lee Ave.
School.

Vacation is over and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy C. Brown Jr. are back home from their visit to New England. It seems good to get back and see all the hills and trees again. In spite of frosts the foliage was not very brilliant this year. Many of the huge old trees which had

Dear Jean:

About 40 members of Hicksville Teen Club are scheduled to appear on WPIX on Nov. 2 at 5 o'clock on the "Dance Time" program. . . . The Teen Club is arranging a dance for election eve, Nov. 1, at Burns Ave. School. . . . Republicans are planning their annual election eve rally in Hicksville. . . . Councilman FRANK CHLUMSKY was honored at the Kiwanis meeting last week when he was presented with an award in recognition of his work for the Salvation Army by BRIG. GENERAL HAROLD BEVAN of the Hempstead office. . . . We hear that Hicksville schools won an award for their display at the Fair and Industrial Exposition at Roosevelt Raceway last week. . . . It is reported that the question of hiring a Recreation Director for the School District is far from dead issue. It may be one of the questions before voters when a referendum is held early in December. . . . CHARLES DeSHAW came home from Nassau Hospital, Sunday, but has orders from his doctor to get a complete rest. . . .

Almost every pole on Broadway was decorated with a campaign poster of the Republican candidates. Then ARTHUR ISAKSEN says he put up 70 posters advertising Home Town Night which the Democratic Club is running this Saturday at the VFW Clubhouse and ALL POSTERS disappeared by the next morning. . . .

The bulletin of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church reports that Miss HILDA JOHANNES, a former Sunday school teacher, is very ill in Meadowbrook Hospital and cards from members and friends would be appreciated. . . . It was noted that the Kitchen Kabinet changed its meeting location last week. . . . Little DOREEN DeJONG, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeJong of 21 Michigan Dr., Hicksville, a student of Trinity Lutheran School, was presented with a special Braille typewriter by her teachers for her birthday last week. Seven-year-old DOREEN is blind. . . . The Hicksville Republican Club flatly declined to take part in the 100th anniversary salute to the Republican party in this issue. . . .

been landmarks for years had disappeared in one of the hurricanes.

Mrs. Sandra Bowbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Bow-bridge of 25 Ferndale Dr., and Private Joseph Reina of Staten Island went to Maryland and were married by a Justice of Peace on Oct. 9. Pvt. Reina was home on furlough from Camp Ft. Bliss of Texas where the couple plan to reside. Mrs. Reina was formerly employed at the Academy Lumber Co. of Hicksville.

We hear that Miss Diane Schmidt of 68 Woodbine Dr. N. had a rather large family birthday party on Sunday, Oct. 10. Including adults, she had four guests for each year of her age. Good in Math?
Right, Diane was celebrating her sixth birthday bit early as it did not actually arrive till Oct. 13.

Others who have had birthdays recently included Teresa Drake of 2 Birchwood Lane who was three years old on Sept. 26 and also Barbara Schneider of Mayflower Dr. who was three on Sept. 28. Oct. 1 we saw Marie Lezale of Woodbine Dr. N. blossom out with a pretty blue 2-wheel bike. Occasion was her birthday and she had a small party with only relatives as guests. Dennis Travers was eleven years old on October 2, and Terry Tanguay of 14 Ferndale
Drive was four years old on Oct. 5.
This past week little Johnny Hebrank of 3 Woodbine Dr. S. was three years old on Columbus Day, Oct. 12, and Stephen Hmelovsky of Woodbine Dr. S. was three years old on Oct. 15. Richard Lenard junior of 51 Fordham Rd. was five years old on Saturday, Oct. 16. We trust all these people had a nice birthday and have many more to come.

Hicksville Church of Christ at 108 Broadway is holding Evangelistic Services all through this week. The speaker is Foster G.
Sizemore who has been at the University Heights Christian Church of Indianapolis, Indiana, for the past 13 years. There is to be a service each night except Saturday at eight o'clock. No excuse that you can't get a baby sitter, allowed.
They have put extra cribs and bassinetts etc. in the nursery so bring the kiddies and put them to bed at the church. Note Friday is Women's night. No, men are allowed too but be sure they bring their wife or girl with them. Sunday night the service begins at 7 P.M. and this is youth night. Let's have a good turnout of all the young people at this service.

The population in our development is on the increase. We had several new babies arrive while you truly was on vacation. Mr.
and Mrs. Walter Walick of 5 Ferndale
Dr. are the parents of a girl named Susan Catherine. Susan weighed seven pounds and three and half ounces and has one sister three years old.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coleman of 27 Mayflower Dr. are the parents of a girl born Sept. 28 at Mercy Hospital. Jean Louise has one sister Christine, five and half and a brother James almost four years old. Mr. Coleman's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman of Cape May, New Jersey, are visiting with them for a couple of weeks thus getting acquainted with their new granddaughter.

Be Careful of Strange Visitors

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

You certainly have been hearing a great deal of good news from us lately. By that I mean "No News Is Good News"—and we haven't had our column in the paper in so long that you probably have forgotten us.

I'd like to warn you that there is a prowler who is scaring the daylights out of local residents. Lock the windows and doors. His itinerary seems to center in Plainview.

HORSES, HORSES, HORSES
My good friend, Dot Ryan, of Libby Ave., is very proud of her daughter, Nancy Verrall, because Nancy came in 3rd place at the Girl Scout Horse Show which took place at Bethpage Riding Club. Karen Hartig, of Charles St., was also in the show and came in 2nd place. Janice Klemencic of Woodbury Rd. came in 7th place.

NOTHING FISHY ABOUT THIS

Nick Camerano, of Jamaica Ave., has organized a club for fish lovers. Anyone interested in joining such an organization, phone HI 4-1885. The organization will meet and discuss breeding and care of tropical fish.

WEDDING RING CLUB

I attended the Fifth Anniversary Dinner of the Wedding Ring Club of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church on Oct. 12th. We enjoyed a delectable turkey dinner and no one had to do the dishes as each girl brought a plate and silver and a bag, and returned home to wash her own plate at the end of the evening. Invited as a guest, Pastor Rogers brought a huge box of candy.

The charter members who still reside here were present: Marge Dunbar, Harriet Mangels, Vivian Koch, Alma Rogers, and Dotty Schnachtenburg. Marge Dunbar presented the originator of the club, Vivian Koch, with a beautiful chrysanthemum, after which Mrs. Dunbar made a speech concerning the founding of the ladies club, bringing back memories to those who belonged over the years. She recalled how ten girls started the club five years ago, meeting at each other's homes until the organization became so large that the meetings had to take place in the church itself.

HADASSAH MEETING

Last Wednesday, Oct. 13, the Hadassah held a meeting at the ICC. "Freedom From Fear" was discussed by Dr. Mayer Barash, sociologist of Hofstra College. Also on the program was Mr. Heilind Heffler, Historian, Mr. Heffler has his own radio program on WMCA.

NARROW ESCAPE

Above, I mentioned the danger of a prowler in the neighborhood. I believe I should say a few words about the danger of innocent looking people who aren't necessarily prowlers. Salesmen are only interested in making a living—not bothering you, but sometimes psychopaths and thieves enter doors under this guise. It was not long ago that a simple call was made by a buxom woman at my home who turned out to be unmanageable. She made threats and I was in great fear that she would become violent. I made same ruse to get my daughter out so that she'd be out of harm's way.

Since the woman was so large, I felt no match for her; and, tho' I'm not a girl woman, I managed to talk her out the door, at length. After the whole thing was over, I vowed not to ever let a saleswoman or saleswoman in my door—under any circumstances. We're living in an era of sadistic crimes, according to current newspaper accounts, so take it from me—be careful.

Five magicians astounded fathers and sons of the St. Stephen's Lutheran Church on Friday, Oct. 15 after the Father and Son dinner given there. The affair was a big success, and the Men's Club deserves the thanks for a most entertaining and mystic evening.

Assembly Candidates at Civics

JERICHO—Republican and Democratic candidates for the state assembly are scheduled to share the speaker's platform when the Jericho Civic Assoc. meets this Thursday evening, Oct. 21, at 8:30 in the Robert Seaman School. They are John J. Burns of Sea Cliff, incumbent and GOP candidate, and William McCaffrey of Plainview, Democratic candidate.

Chamber to Offer Prizes For Christmas Decorations

BETHPAGE—At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, it was decided to offer three equal prizes for home Christmas decorations. One prize will be awarded for the best window decoration; one prize for the best lawn decoration, one prize for the best over-all decoration. No home will be eligible to win more than one prize.

The type of prizes will be announced at a subsequent meeting. It was also decided to put up Christmas decorations on Broadway, between Central Ave. and Powell Ave.

Robert Purcell of Bob's Electronics, Chairman of the Committee, will submit a report of the

Woodbury Garden Civic Notes

The next meeting of the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc. will be held at 8:30 P.M., Thursday, Oct. 21, at the Woodland Ave. School Auditorium, according to Frank Hamilton, president. The speaker for the evening will be Vincent D'Angelo, who will tell how the Little League was formed and how it operates. Refreshments will be served.

Raising funds for the children's Christmas Party will be discussed, as well as the coming dance on Nov. 13, the proceeds of which will go for this annual cause.

Eirich Replies and Cites Record

and made public. I have argued that this be done and that minutes be approved immediately at a meeting following the use when the action was taken.

"To my knowledge," Eirich continued, "is not only proper but easy for all concerned and the Board will be open for a lot less criticism if minutes were acted upon promptly. Because of my views on this matter and others I have been termed 'dissident'. I am wondering if parents of the children for whom we are supposed to set such high ideals have ever belonged to an organization which conducted its business meetings in such a manner. It is my belief that we can set an example for our children by acting doing and being honest and above-board in our actions—let such actions speak for themselves.

"To my knowledge, I have NEVER voted 'yes' or 'no' on a motion without first giving my full reason (and the record is there, or will be, for the public to check). I am vain enough to believe that some of you, the taxpayers, would feel that I have you and your child's interest more at heart than the three in majority control of the board would like you to believe. The reader will remember the trouble Mr. Szendy and I had with bus transportation. On many occasions when I have attempted to give first consideration to the taxpayer and our children, my actions were termed 'dissident' by the three in control.

"There is mention made in that statement published in the last issue of the Herald regarding the hiring of a district clerk. In past editions of the local papers I had myself to majority rule."

ADVISORY COMMITTEE
As for the matter of appointment of members of the Citizens Advisory Committee, Eirich said "they give you half the real action. If you will read the record, as they invite you to, you will find that my reasons for objecting to limiting selection thru the PTAs were not, as they would have you believe, to withhold forward thinking but rather to recruit any willing voter and taxpayer of the district—whether their children attend Catholic, Hebrew or Lutheran schools or our own public schools—for service on the advisory committee. It is wise to point out at this time that certain people who served last year on this committee were considered 'no longer eligible' or active enough by those three. They have arbitrarily declared the committee is no longer in existence.

"Now for the matter of principals' salaries. The charge is made that for some reason, best understood by themselves, Messrs. Eirich and Szendy want lower pay for principals'. Nothing could be further from the truth. I ask you now, who is misrepresenting the truth? I personally voted 'no' on a motion to increase principals' salaries ONLY. The motion reads as follows (omitting the lengthy preamble to the motion which has already appeared in the Herald):

"Motion by Mr. Cawley, seconded by Mr. School, moves that the principals' salary schedule of the attached report (page 8) be adopted. The adoption of this schedule to be contingent upon the attorney checking the legality of the action. Effective Oct. 1, 1954.

"And the record (quoting directly from it) shows:

"Voting: Mr. Cawley—aye.

"Mr. School—aye.

"Mr. Szendy—No. (Reasons) Salary schedule exists, principals are acting under it, amount approved in budget is in accordance with salary schedule; recommendations of the Advisory Committee were considered at the time by the Board, schedule does not take into account varying degree of teaching experience of principals employed.

"Mr. Eirich—No. (Reasons) New schedule is proposed under the premise that because of the heavy responsibility and that compensation commensurate with said responsibility is a must, and in considering the opening of the new additions to the elementary schools it will increase such responsibilities and compensation of the jobs of the principals, such considerations should be given in the same

Pius X Society Plans Pageant

HICKSVILLE—The Executive Committee of the Blessed Pius X Society of Confraternity Parishes will meet tomorrow (Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 8:15 P.M. in the Confraternity building. All Committee Chairmen and Co-chairmen are requested to attend.

Mrs. Marge Williams, Chairman for the Christmas Pageant, has made a request for talent for this annual affair. There will be two night performances this year in order to accommodate the many participants.

Open Meeting For Board Set

ISLAND TREES—The date of the Open Board Meeting of the Board of Education here has been changed to Oct. 19. This change is effective for the October—Open Board Meeting only and is not permanent.

The shift in date will permit the Board of Education to attend and participate in the New York State School Boards Association Convention being held in Syracuse, Oct. 26 through 28. This marks the first time that the Board will attend the State convention.

direction insofar as the Superintendent, Ass't Superintendent, Administrative Ass't for Elementary Education, Administrative Ass't for Transportation, and the business manager are concerned.

"In furtherance of this, due to the aforementioned increased facilities, plus the potential increased enrollment, which undoubtedly will post added responsibilities on our classroom teachers, it is obvious that the same consideration should be given in connection with salary increases to our classroom teachers.

"Mrs. Sutton—aye.

"That is the record," Eirich pointed out. "I feel that after you dwell on the reasoning indicated, you might be prone to think as I do. By their having known of this reason, I guess they felt it would sound better for them if they passed it on to the public as being reasons 'best known and understood' by us, hoping you would never know the real truth.

"I hope these three trustees are measuring up in everyone else's opinion as well as they are in their own. To be fair to yourself, readers, and to all concerned, it would be wise to make it a point to attend our board meetings and hear the action as it emanated from our minds and hearts. When you hear our President actually coach our colleagues to hurry and make their motions, I am inclined to believe you will start to surmise that quite a good deal of the action and motions are pre-arranged, cut and dried—just as I believe.

PRE ARRANGED ACTION

"In fact, I do know because I was at one time a part of such a three-way plan. Many was the time I was coached in what action to take and when I refused to continue in such action, I was automatically deemed 'dissident'. I am thankful that I did keep an open mind to all the criticism I heard of some of our people. When you are so strongly urged to disbelieve in a person, you sometimes begin to wonder if a little behind the scenes actions could not be prevalent.

"Again, may I state I feel that if you will attend the meetings and hear the actual happenings you find that 'all that glitters is not gold'."

100th BIRTHDAY

REPUBLICAN PARTY

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President

Dwight David Eisenhower, one of the foremost soldier-statesmen in American History, became the 34th President of the United States on January 20, 1953. He was nominated on the first ballot of the 25th Republican Convention at Chicago on July 11, 1952.

"Ike" was born in Denison, Texas, on October 14, 1890, but was reared in Abilene, Kansas, which he calls "home." A West Point graduate—class of 1915—he rose from the rank of second lieutenant of the Infantry to Supreme Commander Allied Expeditionary Forces in World War II. He became General of the Army with 5-star rank, which he held until he resigned to become a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination. From June 1948 until December 1950, he was President of Columbia University in New York City. He obtained leave of absence in December 1950 to help build the defense of Europe against Communism under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Once again, he was named Supreme Allied Commander in Europe.

President Eisenhower has proven to be not only a great military leader; he is also a great crusader for a stronger, healthier America. The pledges made by the President during the 1952 campaign are being kept. The war in Korea is stopped. The spending spree has been halted, inflation has been checked, a comprehensive tax revision has brought a 7½ billion tax reduction to taxpayers this year—the largest in our history—national defense has been tightened, social security expanded, home ownership has been made easier, farm prices are being stabilized; the St. Lawrence Seaway is on the road to reality; Communist and security risks have been expelled from the government, and honesty, integrity, and forthrightness have been reestablished in the executive department of our government.

Fifty-four nations have given President Eisenhower decorations, and other honors have been heaped upon him everywhere, but he has always remained "Ike"—a very human, optimistic, God-fearing American—in the eyes of the world.

NEW YORK STATE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM for 1954

EDUCATION: Maintain our schools as the finest in the nation, our teachers the best paid, our educational system responsive to the needs of our children, and support the work of the Educational Finance Commission to these ends.

HOUSING AND RENT CONTROL: Continue the great public housing and slum clearance programs which have flourished since 1943, by supporting the $200,000,000 increase in the loan fund for low-rent housing; expand our efforts to encourage the construction of homes for middle-income families at prices they can afford, with recognition of the necessity of encouraging private initiative.

EMPLOYMENT AND BUSINESS: Encourage expansion of business and employment by government policies which foster economic strength and the creation of new enterprises and job opportunities. We are proud of the work that has been done in building the Thruway, launching the St. Lawrence power development, establishing the State Commerce Department, and maintaining a government which encourages economic growth.

Maintain effective rent controls so long as the housing shortage continues.

CIVIL SERVICE: Continue efforts to convert the Civil Service of this state into a modern personnel system, expanding opportunities for public administration training and a genuine public career service, extending opportunities for capable, devoted people to enter public service.

STATE AID: Continue to promote the fiscal stability of the communities of the state through sound state aid programs, while at the same time encouraging responsible home rule.

HIGHWAYS AND THRUWAY: Augment our system of Thruways with an unsurpassed toll-free road system under the program for relieving traffic congestion in cities through modern arterial highways; and carry forward the farm-to-market program for town roads initiated during our Republican Administration.

Complete the Thruway system as rapidly as possible and expedite plans for great new Thruways spanning the State.

CONSERVATION: Conserve and rebuild our natural resources and preserve their use and enjoyment for the benefit of all the people.

BINGO: Submit to the people the question of legalizing bingo on a local option basis under careful safeguards, for the exclusive benefit of religious, charitable and civic organizations, so that the people may express their will at the polls on a proposed amendment to the state constitution.

MENTAL HOSPITALS: Support the $350,000,000 bond issue proposed by Governor Dewey and approved by the Legislature, to finance the expansion of the finest mental hospital system in the world without new taxes.

HEALTH: Advance the great public health programs and research projects that have been inaugurated during the last twelve years, which offer the hope of longer, happier, healthier lives to our people.

SOCIAL WELFARE: Safeguard and conserve our human resources, in cooperation with voluntary agencies, through progressive and humane social welfare measures for the sick, the needy, the disabled.

EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY: Continue and expand the historic programs inaugurated in this state to end discrimination and promote equal opportunity for all.

JOB SECURITY: Maintain sound, liberal programs, sensitive to the needs of our people, in the fields of unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation and sickness disability benefits for the 6,000,000 working men and women of the state; continue the programs which have so effectively promoted harmonious labor-management relations in our state; buttress the protection of our people under minimum wage, child labor, factory safety and migrant worker laws.

STATE FINANCES: Protect the fiscal stability which has marked New York finances during the past twelve years; continue to humanize our tax laws, maintain sound fiscal management and the practices which have enabled us to keep tax rates lower than they were in 1940.

YOUTH: Support the programs of the State Youth Commission for meeting the problems of youth; extend our pioneering programs to combat juvenile delinquency and rehabilitate young offenders, extend our research in the training of mentally retarded and cerebral palsied children and the treatment of emotionally disturbed children; strengthen and expand child guidance clinics and community mental health services.

THE AGING: Continue our programs to promote the health, happiness and economic welfare of our senior citizens.

WATER POWER: Support development by the state of its water power resources and provide the benefits of cheap hydroelectric power for all the people of the state.

AGRICULTURE: Advance the interests of agriculture by continuing constructive programs to achieve increased consumption and maintain a prosperous and stable farm economy; to emphasize affirmative programs for the farmer, the utilization of scientific research in his behalf, and to promote improvements in marketing facilities to reduce the costs of distribution.

UTILITIES: Maintain a sound, vigorous program of regulating public utilities to assure fair rates and high quality service.

GOOD GOVERNMENT: Continue the magnificent record of social accomplishment and good government which the Republican party of the State of New York has provided the past twelve years.

HEALTH, WELFARE AND PENSION FUNDS: Develop sound standards, in cooperation with labor and management, for the protection of the 3,000,000 wage-earners who have a vital stake in the solvency of their health, welfare and pension funds, encouraging the constructive growth of such funds while safeguarding them against waste, mismanagement and looting.

MILK: Foster through the dairy industry an ever more effective promotional program to help the public take advantage of the healthful properties of milk, thus stimulating the consumption of fluid milk—the leading farm product of our state.

STATE UNIVERSITY: Maintain a State University program worthy of the Empire State, expanding opportunities for higher education and specialized training for our youth.

EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION: Further development of educational television by responsible community agencies without government operation or domination.

VETERANS: Support and maintain our outstanding programs of veteran benefits and assistance.

CIVIL DEFENSE: Prepare for and be ever alert to meet any attack or other emergency by continuing to develop our civil defense and natural disaster programs.

COURT REFORM: Support the work of the Commission on the Courts and efforts to modernize our court system, eliminate calendar delays, reduce costs of litigation and ensure competent qualified judges in our courts.

UNINSURED MOTORISTS: Press for enactment of legislation to rid the roads of financially irresponsible motorists.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT: Support integration of the best features of the social security program with the State Retirement System, to enhance the economic security of public employees and their families.

COMMUNISM: Safeguard our state from the treachery of Communists subversion.

CORRUPTION: Fight against corruption on every front, smash alliances between crime and politics wherever they may arise, and support the efforts of the Waterfront Commission to stamp out gangsterism and criminal control on the New York waterfront.

INTEGRITY IN GOVERNMENT: Maintain a government sensitive to its ethical responsibilities and dedicated to the concept that, under God, public service is a public trust.

Ours is a record of public service unparalleled in the long history of New York State. It is a record on which we are proud to stand.

To Governor Dewey, whose vision, leadership, courage, energy and great talent for public administration have inspired all who have worked with him, in public and party service, we pay our tribute of grateful appreciation.

We record, also, our gratitude for the splendid achievements of our Republican Legislature.

In this year, the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Republican party, we solemnly renew our pledge to continue to serve all the people of New York State, faithfully and well.

GOP Was Founded On Slavery Opposition

The Republican Party was born 100 years ago—the offspring of Whigs, Free Soilers and Democrats opposed to the spread of slavery in the United States.

The first recorded meeting of "Republicans" was held in the Congregational Church in Ripon, Wis., on Feb. 28, 1854, at the call of Major Alvan E. Bovay, a prominent Whig.

A second meeting, attended by 53 voters out of not more than 100 eligible in the town, was held on March 20, 1854, in Ripon's one-room schoolhouse. The little frame building, built in 1850 at a cost of $300, has been restored and preserved as the "Birthplace of the Republican Party."

Major Bovay later said of the schoolhouse conference:

"We went into the little meeting Whigs, Free Soilers and Democrats. We came out of it Republicans, and we were the first Republicans in the Union."

The 53 Republicans of Ripon were men who deplored the spread of slavery under the administration of President Franklin Pierce, a Democrat. Their decision to form the new party was spurred by U. S. Senate passage of the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, which proposed the creation of two territories west of Iowa and Missouri, to be called Kansas and Nebraska, and the extension of slavery into the area.

The little schoolhouse was sold in 1876 to George W. Peck, a Democrat and author of the famous "Peck's Bad Boy" stories, who later became Governor of Wisconsin. Peck converted it into a house.

'SHRINE OF FREEDOM'
In 1908, the Ripon Historical Society purchased the building and moved it to the campus of Ripon College. Forty-three years later, in 1951, the Republican Education Foundation moved it to its present site on the town square, where it stands as a shrine of freedom.

On the 100th anniversary of Major Bovay's historic meeting of 53 Ripon voters—March 20, 1954—President Eisenhower touched a button in the Nation's Capital which lighted "Freedom's Flame" outside the schoolhouse. The citizens of Ripon have pledged themselves to keep the flame burning as long as freedom exists in the United States.

The Ripon meeting was followed in the spring and summer of 1854 by many other anti-slavery conferences that brought Republican organizations into being in Michigan, Iowa, Ohio, Maine,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The above is one of two famous "lost" pictures of Abraham Lincoln taken June 3, 1860, in Springfield, Ill., by Alexander Hesler, Chicago portrait photographer. Lincoln is quoted as saying after looking at the proofs, "Well, that expresses me better than any I have seen. If it pleases the people, I am satisfied."

The pictures show the first Republican President to be without the beard he had grown by the time of his inauguration on March 4, 1861.

Hesler's Chicago studio was twice sold and burned out once, but somehow the priceless glass plate negatives of the Lincoln portraits escaped harm and found their way east where one of them was used in 1890 in the publication of a 10-volume biography of Lincoln by John G. Nicolay and John Hay.

The precious plates then dropped from view until 1932 when they were sold and shipped to St. Louis. They were shattered in transit, making impossible the production of additional prints. The fragments were turned over to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington and put on display.

Twenty years later, in 1952, came one of those rare strokes of fortune that every collector dreams of. King V. Hostick, a dealer in rare documents, made a purchase of historical items from a Philadelphia estate. It included two glass negatives—in near perfect condition—showing a beardless Lincoln as he had posed in Springfield in 1860. The plates were duplicates of those that had been broken.

Hostick, the owner of the negatives, made an arrangement with Yousef Karsh, of Ottawa, to make 1,000 copies, size 11 by 14, from the negatives.

President Eisenhower has print No. 1. Leonard W. Hall, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, has print No. 2. Print No. 3 hangs in the "Little White Schoolhouse" in Ripon, Wis., where the first recorded meeting of Republicans was held 100 years ago.

"Under the Oaks," First Republican Convention,
Jackson, Michigan, July 6, 1854

The meeting in Jackson, Michigan, July 6, 1854 is recorded in history as the first Republican Convention. It is especially notable because it was a formal convention that adopted a platform and nominated a full state ticket. It was attended by thousands of leading citizens from all over the state. The meeting was first to be held in a hall on the town square, but because of the heat and the size of the crowd, the meeting was adjourned to "Morgan's Forty" a grove near the edge of town where the wide oak trees spread their shade.

This year in Jackson, Michigan, the city has held a six day celebration called "Freedom Festival" beginning July 4 and continuing through to July 10. Vice President Richard Nixon keynoted the celebration on Centennial Day—July 6.

ORIGIN OF THE "G.O.P."

Republicans began calling their party the G.O.P., for Grand Old Party, in the middle Eighties. The term apparently was adopted from Grand Old Man, the nickname of England's William Ewart Gladstone, then at the height of his fame and power. It was taken up by the Democrats at first in derision, but the initials have since come into general use without regard to the meaning of the words for which they stand. The abbreviation has been especially handy for newspaper headline writers, who find "Republican" hard to fit in a narrow column.

Morhouse New State Chairman

L. Judson Morhouse, who at 43 has become the new chairman of the New York Republican State Committee, first evinced an interest in politics at an early age. When studying law in the office of Elmer Vincent of Ticonderoga, late Essex County attorney, he became interested in Republican politics and did his share of doorbell ringing and work in local campaigns.

At 23 he ran for Justice of the Peace in Ticonderoga and was defeated. Four years later he tried again and won the election.

When war came he went into the Army as a private and was discharged a first lieutenant.

He was elected to the Legislature as Assemblyman from Essex County in 1945 and served for six years. While in the Legislature he was particularly interested in the work of the Labor and Industry Committee, in road improvement and as a member of the Special Committee on Military Affairs was active in the passage of the Civil Defense Act.

Long Fight Ended With Equal Suffrage.

During the long fight for equal voting rights for women, suffrage pickets frequently paraded through the streets of the Nation's Capital, carrying purple, white and gold banners and defying police attempts to interfere with their demonstrations. A Republican Congress, called into special session in 1919, passed the equal suffrage (19th) amendment to the Constitution.

Republicans In Forefront For Women's Rights in 1919

In 1854, the year the Republican Party was founded, the women of the nation had no voice in politics. They were not even allowed to vote.

Today, in the 83rd Congress, there are 13 women members — two in the Senate and 11 in the House of Representatives. This record of women's representation is the all-time high in Congressional history.

Since 1872, when the Republican platform made the "first national declaration in favor of expanding women's rights," the Republican Party has assumed the leadership in creating greater opportunities for women in local, state and national affairs.

In 1892, long before women were given equal suffrage under the Constitution, they made their first official appearance at a Republican National Convention, held in Minneapolis, Minn.

In 1916, the Republican platform included the first Federal woman's suffrage plank. There were five women delegates and nine alternates at the national convention which approved the plank.

PROGRESS WAS SLOW

Progress was slow, however. From 1913 to 1919, the Democrat Party, in control of all branches of the Federal Government, defeated a proposed Constitutional amendment on equal suffrage five times.

But in May, 1919, the newly elected Republican Congress summoned into special session, first act was the introduction and passage of the equal suffrage (19th) amendment.

Twenty-six of the 36 states which ratified the amendment had Republican legislatures. Of the nine states which took definite action against ratification, only one was Republican.

Even before the amendment was written into the Constitution, 12 states, all Republican, had given women full suffrage in state affairs.

It was a Republican President, William Howard Taft, who appointed the first woman chief of a major federal agency. She was Miss Julia Lathron, designated in 1912 as head of the newly-created U. S. Children's Bureau.

Today, more than 50 women occupy top-level posts in the Eisenhower Administration. One is a member of President Eisenhower's Cabinet. She is Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of the new Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The President or departmental heads have chosen women for positions dealing with diplomatic affairs, the United Nations, health, education, civil defense, social welfare, foreign assistance, fiscal matters, postal operations, customs, legal affairs, transportation, patents, employment and parole problems.

Since women made their first official appearance at a GOP national convention 62 years ago, the representation at national party conclaves has increased steadily every four years.

An all-time high of 389 women Delegates and Alternates was recruited at the 1952 Republican convention in Chicago which nominated Dwight D. Eisenhower for President. For the second time in convention history, a woman served as Secretary, and for the first time a woman was Assistant Parliamentarian.

Morhouse

executive director of the New York Good Roads Assoc. Two years later he was named president of the National Good Roads Association designed to broaden the effort for an adequate highway system.

This year he served as general chairman of the New York State Thruway Celebration Committee at the openings of two sections of the Thruway stretching from Utica to Buffalo.

He is also chairman of the Committee on Transportation of the Interstate Commission on the Lake Champlain Basin. He is a member of the Real Estate Advisory Board to the Secretary of State and a member of the Commission on Town and Village Tax Relationships.

Morhouse attended Middlebury College from 1932-34. He passed the New York State bar examination in 1939 and started practice of law in Ticonderoga soon afterward.

GOP Founded

Massachusetts, New York and other northern states.

The first formal Republican convention that adopted a platform and nominated a full slate ticket was held "under the oaks" at Jackson, Mich., on July 6, 1854. The votaries who assembled in Jackson on that occasion overflowed the town's largest hall and adjourned to a nearby grove of oak trees, where they agreed to combat the "gigantic wrong and shame" of the proposed extension of slavery into the territories of Kansas and Nebraska.

This first convention adopted a resolution which said "that in view of the necessity of battling for the first principles of Republican government, and against the schemes of an aristocracy, the most revolting and oppressive with which the earth was ever cursed or man debased, we will cooperate and be known as 'Republicans' until the contest be terminated."

The movement begun in Ripon and "under the oaks" in Jackson 100 years ago changed the political face of the Nation.

DEBACLE:

Trojans Put Comets to Rout

GARDEN CITY — Hicksville High had six minutes of glory, here Saturday afternoon, and appeared on the way to jarring the host Trojans smack out of their own ballpark but Warren King's squad had merely to feast on the Comets' own miseries for a crushing 25-7 victory.

In learning that an hour does not make a day the Comets stumbled eight time and lost the ball four times inside there own thirty in so doing.

Add to which the continuing problem of not being able to shift the defense to balance the offensive formation of the opposition and you have easy touchdown runs of 67 and 54 yards for the winners.

All those factors ruined the Comets and oddly they still had a chance to win as late as the fourth minute of the last period.

CITY FIRST

Garden City marched 67-yards after the opening kickoff and scored on its only successful pass of the day. It was a 29-yard toss over the double line.

Hicksville turned John Martarello into a block busting fullback and coupled with the sprinting of Ed Scott the Comets moved 80-yards with a daring Martin Katz to Ken Connors gaining the TD in the third period.

Katz to Scott on a trick pass play pushed Hicksville in front 7-0 but the dikes opened fast after that.

SPORT-O-GRAMS

By Nat Ferraro
OFF THE STREETS!

If more communities would provide more Fall and Winter sports programs for youngsters, there would be a sharp decrease in juvenile delinquency. The Little League, Babe Ruth Leagues, American Legion Junior Leagues take care of Spring and Summer. But, little has been done in many places to organize indoor athletic activities for the colder months. When youngsters are interested in sports, they have neither the time nor energy to get mixed up in crime.

If your car does not receive its 5,000 mile check-up, you can run into serious trouble. An inspection will detect minor defects before they have a chance to grow into major problems. Stop in tomorrow for that check-up. Broadway Service Station, Broadway and James Street, Hicksville. Phone HI 3-9702.

Field Club Keeps Pace Socking Yonkers 39-0

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

HICKSVILLE — The Field Club kept pace as the leader in the New York division of the York-Jersey Football League, here Sunday afternoon, with an offense tuning 39-0 victory over Yonkers. Over 600 persons watched as the Black and White almost matched Jersey City's 46-0 romp over the same club.

Jersey City is the power packed fourth period for another 12-year leader of the other division and scoring shot over left guard. coach Dom Sabatella hoped to sound a warning to the Vikings that the road is not clear to the championship.

It was sounded. Methodically and without sensation the B&W rolled over six touchdowns and not one brought a roar from the stands.

Irv Mondschien was the first to tally with a nine yard skirt of the right end. Joe De Vaul added the placement.

In the second period Howard Speedling cut over left tackle and outfoxed two defenders 23-yards to the endzone.

Hicksville was quick to improve its 14-0 advantage immediately after the third period kickoff.

Tom White and Vince Alexander recorded dashes of 16 and 18 yards and White came right back in the Speedling churned 26-yards to the three and Joe Cassee plunged for the final TD of the day.

Alexander converted the last point.

The Field Club travels to Plainfield, New Jersey next Sunday for the first of four teeth pulling assignments that are coming up.

School Bus

lost he left the room asserting he was "disappointed in Nassau County".

Regarding hazards, the Board agreed to send a letter to the Town Board urging elimination of dangers by the installation of sidewalks in certain areas. It was reported that the policeman who had been assigned to Woodbury Rd. and Pollock Pl. had been replaced by roll-away stop signs.

A motion by Eirich, seconded by Ssdeny, to raise the salaries of classroom teachers and administrators was defeated 8 to 2.

Cawley commented that he felt "it is illogical to lump teachers and administrators together", that most of the administrators are here only six months and the teachers are on a fair schedule.

NEW SCHOOL SITE

Eirich made a report on proposed sites for a new school in the south east section of the district, and said he found the Fred Kuhne, florist, property available. It is a tract of about 10 acres on South Broadway and the owner wants $15,000 an acre. He said he was prepared to make a motion to acquire the property but was willing to wait a week since other members wanted to look at the site.

Schoel and Cawley said they felt the Kuhne property is "too close to Lee Ave. school".

The Board agreed to meet tomorrow (Wednesday) night to act upon accumulated minutes of meetings and to close future meetings at 12 midnight, to be extended only by unanimous consent. They were scheduled to hold an executive meeting last night (Monday) to interview eight candidates for the position of district clerk.

Speaking Tour For Democrats

HICKSVILLE — Positive action to "correct the serious shortcomings of the national and state Republican administrations" was promised by Democratic candidates during a local tour Saturday.

Ernest Greenwood, candidate for his second term in Congress, and William H. McCaffrey, candidate for Assembly, spoke from a sound truck. Large crowds listened in business sections and residential neighborhoods all through the day.

Greenwood based his appeal for election on his work during his previous term in the House of Representatives. He compared his many accomplishments with the "shortcomings and misrepresentations" of the GOP incumbent. Greenwood said his opponent's "flowery version of his record and the way it is printed in the Congressional Record are two different stories." He added dryly that the Congressional Record has built up quite a reputation for accuracy over the years and he asked the voters to draw their own conclusions.

McCaffrey blasted the Republicans for their "long record of neglect and for placing corporate profits above the public welfare." As an example, he claimed the public is deprived of representation on the Public Service Commission and this has resulted in high rates for gas and other utilities. Also, the Long Island Railroad was handed back to the Pennsylvania Railroad amid much fanfare, but on a silver platter and on the Pennsylvania's terms. McCaffrey proposed that "pari-mutuel" betting at Boss Sprague's racetrack and other race tracks be taxed higher and the proceeds used to support the schools."

CEDAR CLIFF HAPPENINGS: Mystery of Vanishing Signs

By JAMES PHIRST
Hicksville 4-4391

Cedar Cliff roughly fits the gap between Woodbury Manor and Hillside Terrace in Hicksville with its north and south boundaries being Woodbury and Plainview Roads, respectively. Members of our civic group are making a thorough canvas of this section for clues. Evidence of their success appeared at the last meeting in the form of 12 dues bearing members.

From Allen St. came an eager quartette composed of Carl Button, Al Commatta, Frank O'Brien and Frank Straino. A sextette from Cedar St. gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. John Diars, Mrs. Marjorie Nass, James Sweeney, Herman Plate and John Murray.

Ernie Ammirato brought 100 permanent membership to Juniper St. by getting on line at the treasurer's table with Ted Wicks from Cliff D.

The biggest local mystery is how supposedly permanent installation of new street signs could result in two disappearing in the past weeks. The most likely culprits could be the failure of the town highway dept. to use cement in the installation of the poles. Tch, tch — and Election Day soon near at hand.

From John Farrell, member of numerous committees sharing publicity assignments with me comes the warning news, verified by Chief Arnold Jeanson, that we can expect a one engine firehouse to grow up on a triangle of land on the north side of Woodbury Rd. between Cedar St. and Cliff Dr. John, hearing many burning rumors on the subject, sought out the one man that could put out the fire with facts.

Since news of an unsensational nature is an elusive thing, I urge the Herald's faithful readers to call me when something is overheard that might interest the rest of us Hicksvillians.

Oct. 22, 8:30 P.M.—Card party of Jericho VFW Post at Cedar Swamp Rd School, Jericho.
