Molloy, Archbishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn, at St. Ignatius Loyola R. C. Church, here. Ceremonies will be held at four o'clock. Due to the size of the class, parishioners are reminded that accommodations are limited, restricting attendance to participants.

Boys will wear red gowns and red ties while the girls will be attired in white gowns with red collars and beanie. Thirty-five priestesses will be present for the sacred ceremonies.

You'll feel better for it," a spokesman said.

Almost $750,000 Going Out In Christmas Checks Nov. 17

HICKSVILLE—Officials of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce were guests of the Hicksville Chamber Board of Directors at a luncheon meeting at Henningsen's Restaurant, here, Friday. They heard William E. Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank, predict that nearly three quarters of a million dollars in Christmas Club checks will be in the mails to local residents on Nov. 17.

Michael J. Sullivan, chairman of the Grade Crossing elimination committee for the Hicksville Chamber, reported that progress by the LIRR in developing study plans for the local program are about "a month behind schedule." He reported that Assemblyman John J. Burns had advised him that the studies would be finished in about two weeks for consideration by interested local residents and groups.

President Albert Schackner welcomed the group from Plainview including Dr. Tracey, president; Mrs. Charles Voorthuis, secretary; Michael D'Amara, attorney; Anthony Ocker and Richard Bergmann.

SCHNEIDER TELLS PARENTS:

Lady School Guards, Stop Signs 'Do Job'

HICKSVILLE—The safety of children who must cross busy, traffic-clogged local streets enroute on foot to and from school was the subject of lengthy discussion at a Board of Education meeting attended by more than 100 parents in East St. School cafeteria, Friday night. Police Inspector Louis K. Schneider after outlining the operation of his division in making crossing studies answered numerous specific and general questions from the audience and School Board member Emil J. Szendy.

Schneider made it plain that no change in the traffic-control arrangements on Old Country Rd. in the vicinity of Clarissa Drive is likely in the future. He also indicated that a policeman or woman guard may be stationed on Newbridge Rd. near the corner of Nicholas St. shortly.

Robert Kluck of the Duffy Park Civic Assoc. which has been attempting for nearly two years to get a traffic light installed on Old Country Rd. for the benefit of children and adults who live north of the highway made little progress with the Inspector.

"You have the best possible protection there," Schneider asserted. He based this on the fact that a policeman is on duty daily and that 15 mph signs are set out in the road when school is in session.

Regarding days and hours when school is not in session, Schneider said the police would provide no crossing guards "for extra curricular activities."

Newbridge Rd. is going to get a cop or guard instead of roll-away stop signs, he explained, because Newbridge is a state highway and the state traffic commission will not permit roll-away stop signs.

The Woodbury Rd. crossing at Pollack Place for children attending Woodland Ave. School, south of Woodbury Rd., also came in for discussion. Schneider insisted that roll-away signs give "adequate protection." Asked about kindergarten children crossing unattended, he expressed the opinion that such children "are too small to go to school."

James Matienzo who has been keeping his child home from school because he can't get a bus pass obtained agreement from Schneider that children "should cross at specified intersections." Later Matienzo submitted a large scale map to the Board asserting that his child's route was more than a half mile, going by way of the designated crossing.

Schneider also told the group that women are doing a "good job" as crossing guards and that he (Continued on Page 2)

ONLY 18 DAYS UNTIL

Santa To Make Grand Entrance On Nov 27

HICKSVILLE—Santa Claus will come to town on Saturday morning, Nov. 27 at 10 o'clock it was announced today by Patrick J. Buffalino, chairman of the retailers committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber group expects to have the Christmas illumination with some innovations on Broadway and adjacent streets, which has become a community trademark at the holidays for a decade, ready before Thanksgiving Day, he added.

The merchants are also preparing to award a 1955 Pontiac, provided by Mal Pierce Pontiac, Inc. of Bethpage, in connection with the Christmas program this year. The award will be made on the stage of the Hicksville Theatre at Christmas.

Submit Junior High Plans To State Dept.

ALBANY—Plans for extensive changes in the present Hicksville High School, converting it to use for Junior High and approximately doubling its capacity, as well as plans for a small school in the south end of the Hicksville High School District, are being shown to officials of the State Dept. of Education here today by representatives of Hicksville School District.

The approval of the state dept. on the preliminary plans for both projects is necessary before the propositions can be submitted to a referendum vote, probably early in December.

The junior high school conversion is estimated as a two-million dollar project.

The new elementary school will be erected on the so-called "Wet-teran property" of about five acres on the east side of Newbridge Rd., between the Glenbrook development and the Holy Family R. C. Church property.

Representing the district here will be Dr. E. H. LeBaron, superintendent of schools; other members of the administrative staff, representatives of the architects, Nappe and Johnson, as well as Dr. Felix McCormick, consultant to the district on expansion and development of the system. A member of the Board of Education was also expected to be present.

Approve Survey

BETHPAGE — By a very close vote of 159 to 114 the proposed survey of the present and future needs of the School District was approved on Saturday. Only 273 people turned out to express their opinion and the approval was by only 45 votes. Under the present plans, NYU will conduct the survey and it will begin as soon as possible.

Teens Start Lee Ave. Unit, Take Part In TV Dance Time

HICKSVILLE—Despite bitter, rainy weather, 32 teenagers showed up at the opening of the Lee Ave. unit of Hicksville Teen Club on Wednesday night, Nov. 3. The new unit will work in cooperation with the Burns Ave. group, according to Edward Kist, chairman of the Teen Club. Mr. and Mrs. DaCosta are in charge of the new Lee Ave. unit.

On Monday, Nov. 1, the Burns Ave. School was really rocking as over 180 teenagers danced and made merry at the "Crazy Mixed-Up Dance" held by the Teen Club Decorations which appropriately made no sense were done by the Decorating Committee under direction of Helen Fling. Music was by the Nassau Ramblers and records so that there was continuous dancing throughout the night.

Marge Sanzani wore the "erazest" socks (a brick pattern with flowers as adornment) and won a free haircut, shampoo and set which was donated by the Marie-Threse Beauty Salon. Joe Kumanick wore the "Craziest" hat which was a jaxxy red number adorned with a propeller, daisies and other articles too numerous to mention. Joe won $250 worth of credit at the Hicksville Sweet Shoppe. Dance chaperones were Emma Stiller, Betty Miller, Betty Neal, Larry Roby, Madge DaCosta, Wes Nashman and Gladys and Ed Kist.

ON TV SHOW

On Nov. 2nd forty members of the Teen Club left here via chartered bus for the glamorous "big city" to star on the TV show "Dancetime". They had a lot of fun at the studio and were complimented by Mr. Ludden, star of the show, on their behavior and were asked to make a return trip in the near future. After a hasty meal at the fashionable "automat" the group piled on the bus and went on to Radio City to see "White Christmas".

The only mishap suffered was that every time Howie Nordin went up the aisle someone always mistook him for an usher and asked directions. After all this activity the group sang all the way home and arrived at Hicksville at 12 a.m. It can be reported that the chaperones' eardrums have finally recuperated from this ordeal. The hardy souls chaperoning this expedition were Madge DaCosta, Emma Stiller, Gladys and Ed Kist. Everyone is looking forward to the next outing of the Club although earplugs will become standard equipment for any brave adults sallying forth with the Club.

The Teen Club has instituted a "Record Rental Service" whereby teenagers having parties or gatherings can rent popular 45 rpm records for 2c per record per day. The Club now has a collection of over sixty of the latest records which would be an aid to any teenage party. The only qualification is that records must be returned before a Teen Club meeting on Monday or Wednesday or else a $1 deposit is forfeited. Contact either Mr. Kist or Mr. DaCosta if interested.

wished he had more than the 65 now on duty in the county.

More will be added after the first of the year, he said. Applicants must be under 40 and live within a half mile of the crossing where they serve.

He described the crossing at Old Country Rd. and Clarissa Dr. as "one of the most dangerous in the county" but insisted "you have the best possible protection there now." He repeated previous comments that he finds "no need for signalization there" but admitted "I'll probably never satisfy the people of Duffy Park."

Problems of inadequate street lighting and lack of sidewalks along highways, he noted, must be taken up with township authorities.

Steady had several questions about safeguards for children crossing South Broadway near Farm Lane for Lee Ave. School and was informed by Schneider that he knew of no request to the police for a traffic signal or patrolman at that point.

Inspector Schneider was introduced by Stanton Miller, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, assigned to the problems of pupils safety.

Election Day Storm Hit Us Hard

By Ruth Conti
(HI 3-7612)

There were quite a few Halloween parties around the neighborhood over the weekend but one of the biggest costume parties was held at the home of Joan De John at 25 Croyden Lane. Among the guests present were Chris Polanski, Sue Holtz, Jack MacCaren, Helen Mangerlomini, Philip Cortier, Jane Curtin, Thomas Loughlin, Carol Smith, Steaven Blust.

Pat Starachuk, Bill and Rosemary Krabbeier, Bobbie Lambino, Anthony Conti, Jean and Lois Hemmer and Linda De John.

The kids really had a good time with trick or treat and I never saw so many children ringing doorbells in all my life. I guess there was many a tummy ache the next day as I know there was in my family.

Well, Election Day really turned out to be a rainy day. I only hoped the weather didn't deter anyone from voting. There was quite a line at the polls so I guess everyone exercised their voting privileges around here. That was some electrical storm we had on election day also. One of our neighbors Bill Nicholson of 23 Croyden Lane came home to find his house had been struck by lightning. Terry Collins had her door chimes put out of commission and Mildred Salvador had two light bulbs shatter in her home. The Nicholsons were hit the worst though as the bolt knocked their attic window out of the frame and blew the wall plaques for the lights right out of the wall leaving only exposed wire. It was certainly lucky that they weren't home at the time and that a fuse blew out in the furnace so there was no danger of a fire.

The Fork Lane PTA will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday November 9 at the school auditorium. Miss Deborah Elkins of the Dept. of Education will speak. Also Irving Taub, chairman of Local Boy Scouts Organizational Committee, will give a talk and Mrs. Jane Deuts, Publicity Chairman of the Hicksville Town Council, will speak on Brownies and Girl Scouts so any of you parents who would like to see your children join the scouts should surely attend this meeting. It begins at 8:15 sharp.

Mrs. Cole of 47 Autumn Lane with her two children Susan and Richard have been visiting her family in England for three months. They will return on Monday. Her many neighbors and friends will be happy to see them back as they missed seeing them both of you.

around the neighborhood. Mildred and George Samuelson of 31 Croyden Lane celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary on October 21. Congratulations to both of you.

CURRENT COMMENT:

School Trustees 'Go To School'

By FRED J. NOETH

THERE WAS A LARGE turnout for the Board of Education meeting at East St. School in Hicksville last Friday night and those who stayed for the end (11 o'clock) had an opportunity to get a resume of how reading is taught in our public schools.

The one-hour talk by Mrs. Grace Dondero, reading consultant for the Hicksville schools, had been arranged as the starter of a series of "seminars" for the benefit of Board of Education members which in the months ahead will probably cover many technical phases of our educational system.

As we said, those who stayed—and many did—went away reassured that the children of Hicksville are offered excellent educational opportunities. We have been distressed to find, in recent weeks, that some persons fear the differences of opinion held by members of the Board of Education somehow disturb the education of our children.

The differences of opinion are, for the most part, on matters of policy regarding things related to the operation of the School District as a municipal body; ie, policy on transportation, interpretation of an individual board member's relation to his powers and duties, and those material dollars and cents items concerned with purchasing and construction which eventually are reflected in terms of tax bills.

We do not wish to appear as favoring discord on the Board; however, the right of an individual to express himself or herself or to act upon a problem to the best of the individual's ability and judgment must be respected and preserved at all cost. That is the basic essence of representative government.

Hear Reports On Convention

PLAINVIEW — Mrs. Catherine Stauber, president, and Mrs. Emma Miller, principal, gave their reports of the New York State 57th Annual Convention of State Congress of Parents and Teachers at the Manno Hill P-TA meeting on Nov. 4.

The theme of the convention was "Better Homes, Better Schools and Better Communities".

Nick Girolano, program chairman, introduced the "special teachers" Mrs. Theresa Valerius, art; Richard Hauge, music; Donald Hansworth, physical education.

The audience was divided into three groups and each teacher spent 15 minutes explaining their teaching methods. All who attended agreed that it was a most informative evening.

Money raising plans for the year include a penny auction and a spring fair to be held the latter part of April. The penny auction will be held Nov. 19 at the school. Refreshments will be served.

Fall Dance Helps Bring Santa

By GENE MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5315

Now that we've had ourselves a few icy blasts of wind to remind us that St. Nick is busily hammering away at his Christmas orders, it is time to turn our attention, (Woodbury Gardens residents, that is) to the Annual Fall Dance, the proceeds of which will go for the children's Christmas party. Tickets for this usually successful affair may be obtained by phoning Jim Surless at HI 4-2745. Volunteers are needed as well, to aid the Woodbury Gardens Civic Association which is sponsoring the dance. Perhaps we will hear from some of the less active members this time in helping the cause, which omits no kiddie in the area on that day of November 27, when Santa Claus will visit our community for the third time. As usual, he will tour the streets and set up headquarters to talk to the children and distribute candy and trinkets. Special thanks go to the Social Activities Committee: James Surless, 62 Smith Street, Edna Ney, 22 Ketcham Ave., Netta Powell, 46 Ketcham Rd., Joseph Barry, 40 Briggs St., Fred Bode, 123 Wilfred Blvd., Joseph Calcagni, 15 Ketcham Ave., and James Coveney, 38 Moeller St. The dance will be held at the Annets Hall on Nov. 13th at 8:30. There will be refreshments and a band.

A SAFETY MUST.

Have you ever had the terrifying experience, while driving at night, of a child on a bicycle looming before you in the darkness. You jam on the brakes or swerve to the other side of the road, but you can not help think—as you sit there gaining composure—that a near tragedy could have been avoided if the father or mother of that child would have bought a headlight for the vehicle. The red luminous tape which reflects light and glows in the dark is a fine accessory; but for real protection a headlight is essential. A few weeks ago a little girl from Long Island was fatally struck down by a car because of this condition. Let us be sure hikers have enough light in the darkness.

THIS AND THAT

Belated happy birthday to Thelma Poitras, of Hollins Rd., May and I just celebrated our sixth wedding anniversary... Have you ever noticed that the Woodland Ave. School is on Ketcham Rd. and the Dutch Lane School is on Hempstead Ave.,... My wife, May, as program chairman of Woodland Ave. PTA, distributed applications asking what type of program members would enjoy. She noticed on the replies that most members would like to hear speakers on juvenile delinquency and how to avoid it. How parents can guide their children from an early age to become useful citizens... apparently folks realize that habits and attitudes are formed at an early age in the home.

CRITICAL STARS

Have you ever noticed how those astrology columns flatter one? I happened to read an article this week by Kathleen Haley who described in detail the faulty characteristics of the possessors of various signs of the zodiac. Usually, when my wife reads her sign she is told that she is persevering. This article points out that in Taurus people their stubbornness is often mistaken for perseverance. Touched on also is the fact that Taurus folks never look at the other side of an argument. In short—Miss Haley claims they are bull-headed. Courageous writing, Miss Haley; I make no comment on the details, however—I'm not a braggart. And perhaps my wife is reading this. She's persevering.

ANOTHER INTRUDER

After the article May wrote a few weeks ago about the intruder who forced her way into our home, we received a phone call from a reader who was similarly endangered not so long ago, during daylight hours. It is a good idea to use one of those chains on the door and be determined to allow no stranger into the house.

Cedar Cliff Happenings

By JIM PRIEST
Hicksville 4-4391
Reflecting on an Editorial by the Editor Fred J. Noeth on joining your Civic Organizations, I have come to the conclusion that though some people in suburban areas recognize the value of these organizations they have to be talked into doing their part.

Fortunately the Cedar Cliff Civic Assoc. is blessed with just the man to do the convincing, John Reichel.

John, assisted by an inspired group of membership committeemen seems to be extending his Shaefer Beer sales techniques to a civic end as he just handed me a list of sixteen newly enlisted members.

On Cliff Drive 12 recruits line up and answer to the names of Mr. Mueller, Mr. Engert, Mr. Franco, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Fallacara, Mr. Miller, Mr. Costello, Mr. A. Hagedorn, Mr. S. Holzman, Mr. Smith, Mr. Barhold and Mr. Keogh. Four new members came from Spencer, Larch, Stanley and Cedar Streets, respectively as follows: Mr. Ribbare, Mr. E. Borruano, Mr. Connolly and Mr. Leonick. By the time you read this, I am told, there will be additional flock entering the fold.

It is warming to hear that the donor of our Association's handsome gavel has recovered sufficiently to return to work after a long illness. Good health to you Jim Langley and try to take it easy for a while.

Sad news is the departure of Jim McKernan and family for Washington where he will continue in his capacity as a loyal employee of The Voice of America. Charter members of Cedar Cliff won't forget that Jim was the moving spirit in the founding of the Association. The Capitol's gain is Hicksville's loss.

I hope that everyone took time to cast their vote whether it was to "Keep Tammany out of Nassau" or to End Forty Years of Boss Rule. At least when the results are in we can be sure that its the real will of the people if everyone has voted.

70 Boys Play Touch Football

HICKSVILLE—The Intra-Mural Program at the Lee Ave. School has started with a fine display of enthusiasm of the boys and girls of the 5th and 6th grades.

Over 70 boys of the 5th and 6th grades have turned out for the Touch Football league. Not only will the boys play football this year, but they will also officiate their own games. Referee clinics have been held under the supervision of the Physical Education instructor, Mr. G. Brown. During clinic hours the boys have practiced some of the finer points of the whistle blowing, as well as grasping a better understanding of the football techniques.

The Intra-Mural league will be composed of seven teams. These teams will play a series of games on the three football fields behind the Lee Avenue School on Mondays and Thursdays.

Brad Jaworski captains the "Bullets", Chris Colletta—"Yale", Danny Donovan—"The Bulls", Richard Human—"The Wild Cats", Peter Watson—"West Point", Robert Raszut—"Skyrocket", Joseph

Grum—"Navy". Every Friday after school hours the Girls' Sports Group will meet in the Lee Avenue School Gym. Thirty girls are participating this year in girls' basketball.

300 At Recruit Barn Dance

MELVILLE—Over 300 persons crowded into Wesnoffske's Barn here, recently, where the Hicksville Republican Recruits held their Barn Dance. Square dancing, straw hats and cider, plus much enthusiasm and entertainment made the evening complete. The Barn Dance was such a success that the Recruits are considering making it an annual event.

Predominant among Recruit activities for this month is a Dixie Dance to be held on Sunday evening, Nov. 14, at Henningsen's Restaurant, Newbridge and Old Country Roads, Hicksville.

A Dixie Band for both dancing and entertainment will be spotlighted. The festivities begin at 7 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend.

Cedar Cliff Dance Friday

HICKSVILLE — Chairman Jim Glynn of the Cedar Cliff Civic Assoc. entertainment committee urges that everyone interested in "some night life" this Friday, Nov. 12, make arrangements now. The occasion is the second annual dance to be held, this time at Inn on the Green in Levittown where the Minutemen will insure hours of dancing pleasure. See Jim at 9 Stanley St. before the 250 reserved tickets are gone.
