Kiwanis Spreads Christmas Cheer With Three Activities

HICKSVILLE—Members of the Kiwanis Club accompanied by high school students, led by Miss Gladys Jenkins, made their annual Christmas visit to Jones Institute on W. John St. on Tuesday, Dec. 21. Entertainment was provided by Kiwanian Victor Agnew and his musical trio, Jimmy Rivero, singing cowboy, and the students.

The high school band and choir led by Miss Harriet Spiuk, entertained the Kiwanians at their luncheon meeting at the Millbridge Inn on Wednesday.

During the morning of the same day, members aided the UP committee in distributing 50 Christmas baskets to needy families in the area. In the afternoon Santa (Andy Ferrara) Claus with his Kiwanis helpers called upon 19 shut-in children in the area.

Board to Hear from DeLorme

HICKSVILLE—Gerard F. DeLorme of 134 Dartmouth Dr., former president of the Hillside Terrace Civic Assoc., has been granted time to speak at the Board of Education meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at the East St. School. It is expected he will continue his questioning of Board members, started six or seven weeks ago, regarding the contract given a new superintendent of schools which, in effect, replaces Dr. E. H. LeBaron on the first day of next July. A series of five written questions were submitted to the Board members by DeLorme who asked for individual answers.

Boy Scout Fund Workers To Dine

HICKSVILLE—William E. Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank, who is chairman of the Boy Scout Fund campaign here, will give a dinner for workers at Henningsen's Restaurant, here, on Thursday night; Jan. 13 at 7:30 P.M. District Court Judge Paul Widlitz has also been invited to attend by Chairman Koutensky.

Lee Pupils Remember Indians

HICKSVILLE—One of the many activities offered at the Lee Ave. School is a debating class composed of 5th and 6th graders. The students choose their own topics for debating and the subjects discussed was the plight of the American Indian living on one of the 200 reservations in the United States.

In the course of the discussion, a letter written to the Herald Tribune by the Director of the Tongue River Reservation in Sheridan, Wyoming, was brought in and read. The vivid description of the situation of the Cheyenne Indians and the appeal for some assistance to make a more cheerful Christmas for the Indian children on the reservation inspired the students to take a collection.

A letter wishing fellow Americans in the west a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year accompanied a check and was sent off in time for Christmas.

Advisory Group To Meet Monday

HICKSVILLE—The Citizens Advisory Committee on Education will hold its third meeting of the current term next Tuesday night, Jan. 4, at the Old Country Rd. School. Progress toward the development of school expansion propositions being prepared by the Board of Education and the initial efforts of sub-committees will probably highlight the meeting. Jack Drutman will preside.

Youthful Trio Held For Wrecking Tavern

HICKSVILLE—Three mid-Island youths were today charged with extensive damage to the Parkway Inn on North Broadway here over the weekend. Two of the trio were apprehended as they started to repeat the performance at the Rainbow Restaurant at 169 Broadway, police said. They were accused of breaking bottles of whiskey, glasses, mirrors, cigarette machine, chairs, two neon signs and a juke box. Arrested and held in $500 bail each, charged with malicious mischief and disorderly conduct, they are George Tappan, 18, of 8 Rose St.; Bernard Pindick, 17, of 9 Linden Court, both of Hicksville; and Gerald M. Janickey, 21, of 5 Berkshire Rd., Bethpage.

What's Ahead In 1955?

The Herald predictions and forecast for the mid-Island area in 1955, an annual feature, will appear in the weekend edition.

MODERNIZE OLD SCHOOL

Twice Rebuilt in 86 Years, Nicholai St Gets New Look

By FRED J. NOETH

The old Nicholai Street School building, twice rebuilt and enlarged in its 86-year history, will be completely modernized by the time the boys and girls return there for classes in the new year.

Final interior painting and reconstruction of the structure, which has served Hicksville's educational requirements since 1868, are being completed by contractor Edward Auer and subcontractors during the Christmas recess.

The first local public school house was built on Nicholai Street, a century ago. Slates and slate pencils, hard wooden benches, water pail and dipper, the school bell, were part of school days in 1858-59.

In those days before tax-support of schools, each child took two cents to school each day for tuition.

By 1868 the small building was no longer adequate and a new two-room building was erected on the same site. This structure, built 86 years ago, is probably within the frame and form of today's Nicholai School.

A tablet on the wall in the west end section of the building recalls that it was "reconstructed in 1897." August Hauser was then president of the board, Charles Voigt, secretary; Henry Puvogel was also on the board with John H. Hahn and Judge Andrew B. Heberer Sr., father of the late Andrew

B. Heberer Jr. who later was clerk of the school district for over 30 years. Frank Marrs was clerk in 1897.

The "extension" was erected in 1909-10. This is the east section which nearly duplicates the originally reconstructed area. John Puvogel was president of the Board when the extension was added. Frank P. Wetterau was secretary and board members included Dr. E. G. Rave, Harvey A. Turner and William Duffy. Frank Marrs was still the clerk.

The Hicksville School District had been organized Feb. 21, 1901.

The old frame, two-story building also housed the first high school in the community. When the high school was chartered by the University of the State of New York 40 years ago, there was a total pupil enrollment of 438 pupils with 14 teachers on the staff. The number of faculty members today nearly equals the total pupil enrollment of 1914.

The first high school graduating class at Nicholai consisted of five members. There were only two the second year.

The present high school opened in December 1924, just 20 years ago. Until then all classes for the entire public school system were housed in the Nicholai Street School building.

Evans Challenges Township 'Ignorance' About Expressway

HICKSVILLE—Recent announcements credited to Oyster Bay township officials expressing ignorance as to the proposed "state" route of the Wantagh to Oyster Bay north-south Expressway eradicating 450 homes in the township were challenged last night by Thomas G. Evans, chairman of the township Democratic committee. "The people in the path of the proposed route deserve a better explanation from their town officials than has been given so far," he asserted.

"Oyster Bay Town Board cannot claim ignorance about the proposed route of the Expressway. As far back as last Spring the Expressway had been the subject of a County Board of Supervisors meeting. The Supervisors' meetings are attended by the Supervisor from Oyster Bay."

"A statement released by the Board of Supervisors last March," Evans recalled, "said that the Expressway would be built and that the route would be 'on the general lines of Wantagh Ave. and South Oyster Bay Road,' and that a 12-week survey costing $10,500 would be contracted for by the county on Mar. 15 in order to determine the 'most desirable route.'

"While the Expressway is a 'state' project, the county hired engineers, working in cooperation with the county dept. of public works, to make a survey and the Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor has a direct voice and vote in the county government.

"Since the route is to be largely in the Township of Oyster Bay," Evans continued, "it is difficult to understand why the member of the County Board of Supervisors representing Oyster Bay would not have been consulted, and if not consulted made his opinion known, last Spring when the route was being determined."

The proposed Expressway was the subject of discussion at a meeting of the Allied Civic Council of Plainedge, according to Charles H. Lang, president. Officials of the township, state and other authorities were invited to be present.

Who Will Drive It Home?

THIS 1955 PONTIAC will be awarded to some lucky Hicksville Christmas shopper at the Hicksville Theatre tomorrow (Wednesday) night. In addition, gift certificates, each valued at $10 in the participating stores, will be awarded to 15 other shoppers. Here with Santa Claus when the car first made its appearance in the community are Patrick J.

Buffalino, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas program, (at left) and Mal Pierce who made the new car available. They will be present for the selection of the winning tickets on the theatre stage by William E. Koutensky, president of Long Island National Bank. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett)

The first meeting of the North West Civic Assoc. will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 4 at Burns Ave. School. Winners of the Christmas Home Decorations will receive their trophies from President Jerry Zettler at this meeting. Several important committee reports will be rendered, including the Kidie Christmas Party under chairmanship of Ferdinand Giese of Kuhl Ave.

Speakers are planned for several meetings during the coming year and will be announced at a later date. We sincerely hope that during the year 1955 you will attend all the meetings of the Association and take an active part in the programs to be outlined.

The spirit of the holiday season is ever present with the many house parties and guests stopping in. Your reporter and family had a Christmas call from Joyce and Ed Quinn this week. . . . With New Year's Eve just around the corner remember to make the last one for the road, a cup of coffee. . . . May the New Year bring you and your family prosperity and happiness.

Festive Program

HICKSVILLE — Nicholai St. School P-TA held its children's holiday program Thursday, Dec. 18 at Dutch Lane school.

The affair climaxed a busy year of activity and the Christmas program given by the children was very lovely and well done, with over 120 children participating. The band played three selections, "Forward March", "Iris Waltz", and "Alert March".

The officers and members of Nicholai P-TA wish to extend their best wishes for happy holidays to all.

Dear Jean:

Speedy recovery to JOHN (Stade) KUPFER, whom was seriously injured in an auto accident over Christmas. He is a member of Emergency Co. 5 and a guard at Grumman's. He is a patient at Meadowbrook Hospital.

All employees of Trunz stores (750 of them) received a week's salary as a Christmas gift from the president of the 50-year-old company, CHARLES M. TRUNZ Sr. . . . MILT LEVITT sends us a greeting card from his army post and says he will be out Jan. 8. He thanks us for all the copies of the Herald during the past two years. . . . The Herald is international, you know, with men and women in service around the world awaiting each edition of home town happenings. . . . Boston University students, including IRENE EDNA ROGERS of 63 Raymond St., Hicksville, are home for the holidays until Jan. 3. . . . Truck owners have two early deadlines for plates in this state. Commercial vehicle owners—as well as those who own suburbs—must have 1955 plates by Jan. 17 (midnight). The deadline for applying for new highway use permits and plates under the mileage law is Dec. 31. Affected are vehicles having maximum gross weight over 18,000 pounds.

Conferences have been going on quietly between officials of the Hicksville Youth Coordinating Council, Councilman FRANK CHLUMSKY and Deputy Town Attorney LANE on the proposal to use the former Leibacher building for a community youth centre. The project is said to look most promising.

GEORGE KUNZ of Plainview has been appointed deputy zone commander of the Township Civil Defense succeeding HENRY MCINNES of Hicksville who resigned. . . . Hook and Ladder Co. 1 had a wonderful Christmas party on Sunday afternoon, featuring entertainment by a group of youngsters, at the firehouse.

HOLIDAY VISITORS

Sgt. and Mrs. Herbert Knaack and daughter, Sharon, of New Mexico, are the holiday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Haughey, Third St., Hicksville. Mrs. Knaack is the former Miss Mary Hastings, assistant editor of the Herald.

Nicholai School

While long-range plans for our public school system call for the eventual demolition of the famous old Nicholai St. School, the current reconstruction work has unquestionably strengthened its useful life.

Trustee Arthur L. Eirich, who is in charge of Nicholai School for the Board of Education, conducted a Herald representative thru the building this week to provide the material for the next article on just what has been done to modernize the building.

Why It Is Not DESIRABLE To Save Away From Home

Each absent savings dollar restricts the supply of credit—making it harder for Nassau County commercial banks to lend you money on mortgages, businesses, home modernization, automobiles, appliances, etc. All banks prefer to loan money in their own area—to people they know best.

If you bank in a Savings Bank your money can work for you principally in Mortgage Loans. Only a commercial bank can make these and all the other types of loans you need and want—all available in Nassau County. (Business men please note.)

Savings Banks cannot offer Checking Account facilities. This requires you to have accounts in at least two banks—unnecessary and inconvenient.

Your absent dollars can affect payrolls. Through loans to local businessmen Nassau County commercial banks are helping to make more jobs—better jobs—more secure jobs.

SCHOOL NOTES:Schools Are 'First Walking Shoes'

(This column contributed as a public service by the Plainview Citizens Committee for Better Schools, 113 Morton Boulevard, HI 3-4718; meets 3rd Wednesday every month, 8:30 P.M., Jamaica Avenue School.)

Some of our readers protested our statement of last week that they, as ordinary citizens, must help the School Board plan its building program.

"I am a high school graduate employed as a salesman," says one reader. "I know nothing about what school buildings should contain. Why should I try to tell experienced professionals, working with state rules to guide them, what to do? When taxes come, I'll have to pay them. That keeps me busy enough right now, without my doing other people's jobs."

This may sound reasonable until we look at the School Board's situation more closely. The state's rules do not tell the School Board what kind of schools to build. A trip to any neighboring communities will show vast differences in elementary school buildings. The State's rulings are mainly designed to prevent construction of buildings which are physically unsafe. The responsibility for planning comes back to the School Board.

These five men must represent the community as they confer with architects. Just as you, a salesman, show the customer different qualities at different prices, the architects have various building plans to present to the board. You know the best value for the money doesn't always lie with the highest price or the lowest. If you are buying an extra pair of party shoes for yourself, you look one way. If you are buying your child his first walking shoes, you look a different way.

Your elementary schools are your child's first walking shoes on his trip toward becoming an educated citizen. They should not be worn when too small. They could cramp that early growth. Our School Board is therefore expanding our buildings. But here is where you come in.

As recently as in 1958, a small group of citizens voted at the School Board's annual meeting to cut the budget appropriation for salaries by a staggering percentage. We believe that these thoughtful individuals would have been the last ones to curtail their schools effectiveness in this manner if they had been informed of the reasoning behind that original figure. However, with this memory still fresh in the minds of our School Board, it is not surprising that they are wary of asking the community to support better quality education.

It is up to the citizens to inform the School Board that we will support an efficient, economical building program. We know that a truly economical system is one that can provide each child with what he needs: help for the slower child to progress as well as stimulation for the leader to keep forging ahead. It is not economical to save pennies now, only to find our youngsters haven't had their best talents and abilities brought out for lack of some needed time or room or facility.

With half time seasons, with over-crowded classes, without shops, without libraries, without science equipment, etc., our children would fall short of their capabilities. Shall we send them out to compete in the adult world to have them return with, "Why Wasn't I Taught More?"

Plainview's schools are helping the community's children.

Chamber Has Tough Job Selecting Best Display

PLAINVIEW — Anthony Rizzo of 81 Parkview Ave was today named as the winner of the Chamber of Commerce annual decorating contest for the holidays. His arrangement was named the "best residential home" decoration scheme".

According to Charles Voorhees, Chamber secretary-manager, the decision was a hard one to make with so many attractive designs and lay-outs to select from and with the very attractive set-up of Louis R. Baglione, 90 Orchard St., the decision to give Rizzo the top prize was arrived at only after thorough consultation.

Final decision was reached after deciding that the Rizzo home offered a more religious theme in its display and was therefore given the first place award, in keeping with the religious aspect of the traditional holiday.

Naturally, the Baglione home was given honorable mention as the second place winner with the Anthony De Piette home on Darley Place third; Henry Mark, Eldorado Blvd. 4th; James E. Spooner, Barnum Ave., 5th and the D. Batholomew home on Ambry St., 6th.

Top prize of a $25 saving bond will be delivered to the Rizzo family this week.

Chamber officials wish to thank all the residents who entered the annual contest and who put so much effort into the holiday decorating endeavor.

Cub Pack 13 Receives Charter

PLAINVIEW — Paul Soffrin, Neighborhood Commissioner of the Boy Scouts and the Cub Scouts, proudly presented their 1958 Charter to Cub Scout Pack 13, through Catherine Stauber, President of the Manetto Hill P-TA, the Pack's accepted into the Pack. It is hoped and anticipated this Den, under Mrs. Benoit's tutelage, will progress as satisfactorily as the other five.

A great many gold arrows, silver arrows, bear badges and lion badges were earned and received by the Cubs.

Cubmaster Joe Hendrick officiated at the impressive candle lighting ceremony, representing the official close of 1958 and the formal rededication for 1959 of the Cubs' vocation.

It was certainly refreshing to view the wonderful turnout by the parents and those others more closely associated with the boys. Nothing encourages the Cubmaster and his unselfish, able assistants more than good parent attendance.

Tom McGee, Pack Chairman, was proud to review the progress of the Pack since its reactivation last May. Tremendous strides have been taken and as Mrs. Stauber remarked, it appears the word "reactivation" will never again be used in reference to Pack 13.

Pack Chairman John Neen apprised all those present of the prowess of the boys in creating the Christmas mantle or center piece, with no little assistance by Al Stauber, Cubmaster Jim Hogan and Assistant Cubmaster Jim Hogan. Neen announced that next month's project will be a bird feeder, a model of which was displayed. Also, as a separate project, the Cubs are expected to make bird houses. A prize will be awarded for the best "bird domicile" of each Den.

The new Den, 6, with Mrs. Benoit as Den Mother, was formally ac-

HERALD READER OPINION:

Takes Look at Cawley's Promises

By GERARD F. DeLORME

To the Editor:

In reply to a letter I received from the School Board, I reluctantly accepted the invitation to discuss the questions. I wish to explain my reluctance. I felt time limit of 20 minutes was unnecessary and couldn't be pre-judged; also, I didn't feel the action was a decision of the majority of the board.

I believe Mr. Cawley stated in his pre-election platform last Spring "I stand unequivocally for making public all records and actions of the Board of Education. This is the basis of a fine relationship between the community and the Board and accordingly I shall move to:

"(A) Publicize the agenda of all Board meetings. (B) Provide reasonable opportunity for those present to be heard before the Board votes. (C) Record the Board member's votes in a public document at least one copy of which shall be filed in the Public Library for public examination. (D) Have the board's business regularly reported in writing to the people of the district.

"I consider that is the responsibility of the Board of Education not merely to sit by implacably and rest on the availability of information, but affirmatively to take leadership in seeing to it that the people of the district know exactly what the Board is doing and what it plans to do to provide necessary schooling for the children. I shall do everything I can to strengthen school-community relationship and give every interested citizen a full opportunity to express himself in school affairs. The schools belong to the people."

To comment further on Mr. Cawley's platform re: time allocation on my questions is unnecessary. However, I think it is a good time to review his platform and other subjects:

(A) To my knowledge, there has not been any agenda publicized by the Board for the benefit of the taxpayers since he took office, and particularly since he took the chair as acting president. (B) The practice of a taxpayer being heard before the Board votes has been very limited except when the need of a little speech by Mr. Lewitt is apparent. A typical example was shown recently when Mr. Matiase had to strongly protest to be heard on this very subject.

(C) A motion on 7/6/54 called for minutes of the meetings to be filed at the Public Library 10 days after approval. I have tried on several occasions to look at the minutes of previous meetings, but to no avail. In fact no minutes since the Sept. 16 meeting are on file. This is slightly more than 10 days.

It would appear the majority members of the Board is not affirmatively taking the leadership entrusted by the taxpayers to allow us taxpayers to know what's going on. If it's the desire of the majority of the board to maintain a school-community relationship, then these trustees should act competently to enforce their own motions of policies and not as they have in the recent past.

There seems to be more concern about acceptance by the community than a combined meeting of the minds toward a constructive goal. These actions, I'm sure are being noted by the community as time goes by. Continued actions, it appears, will have a great demoralizing effect on the taxpayer. I hope the obvious differences of the Board don't filter down within our school system to the administrators, teachers and ultimately to our children. This possibility cannot be ignored nor magnified enough.

I think it is about time the majority control of the Board takes account of itself and does something constructive.

One of the first things they should do is analyse Mr. Cawley's statements "the sponsorship of a recreation program is among our secondary responsibilities." How true! Let's get the job of first responsibilities to the community in order before going into our secondary ones.
