HICKSVILLE A CITY? Home Rule, Low Taxes Possible, Mayor States

HICKSVILLE—Complete home rule and the possibility of lower taxes on local real estate were the prospects offered the community, Thursday night, when Mayor Luke Mercadante of Glen Cove spoke in favor of a city form of government for Hicksville. He addressed an audience of interested citizens in the firehouse auditorium.

Before becoming a city, Glen Cove was an unincorporated area with a population comparable with Hicksville, the Mayor retorted. Two unsuccessful attempts were made before the pro-city forces won 30 years ago.

Labor Day Parade, Tourney Top Firemen's Event in State

HICKSVILLE—More than 15,000 persons are expected to witness the 22nd annual Firemen's Labor Day Parade and Tournament here next Monday. It is the biggest competition for volunteer firemen held in the State with 54 companies and departments entered. It will be a full-day program with a parade in the morning and firemanic contests throughout the afternoon.

Approximately 3,000 volunteer firemen and the members of ladies auxiliary units will parade in the morning to the music of about 30 bands. Hundreds of gleaming fire trucks will roll in the parade down the full length of Broadway from Herzog Pl. south to the racing course on New South Rd. (near the Glassfloss plant). At any point along Broadway, spectators will get a view of the marchers.

6-Division Parade

The parade will start at 9:30 AM sharp (shin or shine) with ex-chief Jack Leckie as grand marshal. Hicksville firemen will leave the E. Marie St. firehouse, swing south on Broadway to Carl St., go west on Carl and Old Country Rd. to Jerusalem Ave., and north on Jerusalem Ave. where the six divisions of the parade will fall in behind the hosts, then east on Herzog Pl. and south on Broadway to the racing course on New South Rd.

Seating for more than 6,000 is provided at the new racing course on New South Rd. and thousands more can be accommodated in the adjacent fields. The contests start running at 1 o'clock sharp.

A committee of local residents will be stationed along the parade route to judge the vamps and their ladies upon their appearance, most men in line, etc. Among the invited participants this year is the new Levittown Fire Dept.

Starting off the Labor Day weekend will be a big free block party this Saturday night in the public parking field opposite the Firehouse between Marie and Nicholas Sts. There will be a dance band and during the evening the firemen will award a television set from Botto Bros.

Contest Tonight for Water Commission; Uhlein Friends May Have To Write-In

HICKSVILLE—A contest for the election of a water commissioner of the district is anticipated tonight (Wednesday). Taxpayers who have been district residents for 30 days prior to the election may vote at the court house, Bay Ave. and Heitz Pl., between 7 and 10 PM.

Louis H. Uhlein of 2 Murray Rd. announced his candidacy yesterday for the one-year term, opposing Laurence Bevan who is seeking re-election. Harry Borley, completing his third 3-year term, is a candidate for re-election for the 3-year position and is unopposed.

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Leslie

C. Disbrow said yesterday that Bevan and Borley had filed their petitions for nomination and were on the ballot. Whether Uhlein's name would appear was uncertain. The law does not specifically state the closing date for filing of petitions, but it has been normal procedure to request petitions five days in advance of the election to allow time for printing the ballots.

Uhlein said today that if his name does not appear, he will urge all his friends to write-in his name in the space provided for one-year candidates. Bevan was appointed to the board recently to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father.

'Go Ask Mr. Harbes' Is School Board Reply on Plainview Education Plans

PLAINVIEW—Joseph Arena, president of the Board of Education, today said the community should "ask Mr. Harbes" where their children will go to school.

Voters of the district on Friday night with a vote of 113 no and 85 yes out of 198 ballots cast rejected a proposal by the School Board to erect a $150,000 temporary-type building on the property adjacent to the present two-classroom structure.

"Mr. Harbes told everyone how to vote, now he can tell them where to go to school," Arena stated Sunday when asked by the Herald for comment upon the board's plans to meet the school housing problem.

Hearing in Albany

John G. Harbes, former member of the board, was scheduled to be in Albany this afternoon

PROPAGANDA CAMPAIGN WARMS UP:

Levittown Group Tries to Entice New People Away from Hicksville

The residents of about 500 ranch-type houses in the southerly part of Hicksville are understandably confused, if they care enough, about just where they live. A mass of printed and oral propaganda is being directed at them in an attempt to alienate them from Hicksville.

The "old times" among these new residents have lived in Hicksville for almost three months and the latest arrivals are here a matter days.

Powerful Forces At Work

There are powerful factions at work in Levittown (which less than three years ago was known as Island Trees or a part of Hicksville) to convince these latest occupants of houses built by Levitt & Sons that they owe allegiance to Levittown. The reason behind these efforts is not too clear.

During the week a circular was distributed among the homes in the section just north of the Township boundary line which proclaimed, in large type: "Neighbors, you live in LEVITTOWN!" and then in smaller type "... and need not become a part of Hicksville." It continued: "Learn the true facts about local government, county government, school districts, tax problems, other vital issues."

The circular announced a special rally for tomorrow (Thursday) night at 8:30 PM at the Abbey Lane School on Gardiners Ave. This buildings is on the continuation of Jerusalem Ave., south of Hempstead Tpke. The circular also held out the promise "Admission Free" and announced the sponsors as the Levittown Property Owners Association.

Circulation-mad Levittown newspapers are desperately trying to woo the residents of this section. The Levittown News was last week called to task by the Hicksville Business Men's Assoc. Inc. for publishing a headline described by the BMA as a "gross libel" against Hicksville business and professional people. The headline claimed new residents are being "snubbed" by local merchants although the news article failed to substantiate the headline.

The Levittown Eagle has published several editorials on the subject. July 13 it headlined "Sorry, Hicksville—This is Levittown." The editor reasoned: "Because a (Continued on Page 3)

NEW YORK — The suggestion of the Hicksville Civic and Community Association that the freight and express depots of the Long Island Rail Road be moved further west to eliminate blockading of grade crossings at Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, by long passenger trains is today under official investigation.

Harold N. Weber, executive secretary of the New York State Public Service Commission, reports the suggestion has been brought "to the attention of the chief operating officer of the LIRR and he has notified us (PSC) that this will be investigated. He will advise us later as to any action that can be taken by them to assist in correcting the alleged condition," Weber added.

A shift of the depots to the west, it is believed, would make it unnecessary for westbound trains to stand for long periods with the crossing blocked while heavy loads of freight, express and mail is taken aboard.

Dear Jean . . .

No appointment of a plumbing inspector for the Township, due under the recently adopted plumbing code, has been made as yet. Several plumbers had asked us about it . . . Salesmen of JOHN F. TROMMERS Inc at Bethpage Rd., Hicksville, and other areas turned down two unions as collective bargaining agents in balloting conducted by the NLRB . . . Watch for 40-minute headway on the bus service along Jerusalem Ave. from Hicksville RR station south to Levittown, operating until midnight . . . Headlines of a few months ago that parking meters would be operating in Hicksville by Labor Day are not coming to pass. Companies need about a month for installation after contract is signed—and it has not been signed as yet . . .

BILL CISLER volunteered his services as a gate keeper for the PBC boxing show, Friday night, but left before the events got far underway. And little wonder, as he was scheduled to leave Hicksville at 3 o'clock the next morning for Arizona. . . New York papers reported last week that EZE ANYANWU-OGUERI, young African ruler, had been working in a garment factory in his quest for first-hand data on American working conditions. He was a visitor last year to Hicksville High School while a student at Adelphi College but his stop here was hush-hush at the time because he wanted no publicity. . . It's no laughing matter to the taxpayers involved, but we found a sarcastic chuckle in the fact that a fire district and department for Levittown was sold to the public via a fancy two-color leaflet as a project costing $280,000 and then, no sooner than the district was approved by the State, the new fire officials announced the initial bond issue at $350,000. They explained the increase as due to "increased costs." . . . School Superintendent E. H. LeBARRON returned to his desk this week after a 3-week vacation at Mayville, upstate. He didn't play as much golf as in previous years and of course did not duplicate his vacation achievement of a few years back when he made a hole-in-one.

All major builders in Hicksville District were provided with forms upon which new home purchases could state the age of their children, indicating the grade in school they plan to attend. Of all the local builders, only LEVITT & SONS cooperated. . . It is now less than a week until the opening of school. Will pedestrian walks be marked out at school crossings before the term begins? It hardly seems likely . . .

The folks had a wonderful time out at the Plainview firemen's field day, Sunday, despite the fact that rain had delayed the proceedings for a week. They must of had about 1,000 people present, many from Hicksville . . . ROBERTA QUINLAN of NBC television was the recent vacation guest of Mrs. WALTER STOLZ of Bethpage . . . Quote of the week by HARRY STYNE of Hyattsville, Md., who was visiting Mrs. WILLIAM GRADY of Bethpage. Said Mr. STYNE: "Hicksville is a nice town, but when I decided to go downtown, a railroad crossing gets me in any direction I proceed" . . . KING EZE, mentioned elsewhere in this department, has often been the guest of NICK ECONOPOULY of Waters Ave., Hicksville. They students together at Adelphi. The King is ruler of seven million Nigerian people. He has 120 sisters and no brothers . . . A special meeting of parents of Cub Scouts will be held next Wednesday night, September 6, at Bethpage School at 8 P.M. . . Big meeting tonight (Wednesday) at Mineola to give Civilian Defense leaders the low-down on community programs—but Hicksville, Bethpage and vicinity won't be represented because no local CD leaders have been appointed as yet . . . The bombs will, of course, fall on other communities (enemies please note) . . . Old Country Rd. will get widened to Parkway Bridge, first. Notice of condemnation proceedings to provide land for widening mentions only property in Towns of Hempstead and North Hempstead. . . High School tennis courts will be officially opened next week. They were closed this week while finishing surface was applied . . . Watch the Herald office window for late sports bulletins, particularly on events taking place Tuesday nights. . . 15 acres of land on the west side of the LIRR, behind the water works property, is scheduled for rezoning from residential D to industrial L. Hearing takes place before Town Board in Oyster Bay, Sept. 7 . . .

Town Hearing On Meter Law Sept. 7

OYSTER BAY — The Town Board will hold a public hearing at the Town Hall, here, next Thursday morning, Sept. 7 at 10 o'clock upon a proposed ordinance to control Hicksville parking with the use of meters. The text of the ordinance was published in the Herald last week.

On Sept. 12 the Town Board will open bids on the improvement of property for a new Hicksville parking field with an entrance on the north side of W. Marie St. The property has been bought from Mrs. F. N. Tallafiero and is expected to provide space for about 60 cars. H. G. Holzschacher at 66 W. Marie St., Hicksville, is the engineer on the project.

part of Levittown is in Oyster Bay Township, it doesn't follow that it can't be called Levittown. It is true that your post office address is 'Hicksville.' Then on Aug. 10, the Eagle editorialized under this caption: "Look out, Oyster Bay Section . . . Hicksville Wants Your House." It inferred that the value of a Levitt house may be decreased "if it is located within the boundaries of Hicksville rather than Levittown."

A brand new map published and sold by Levitt & Sons entitled "Levittown and Vicinity" shows with a faint, unidentified line the Hempstead-Oyster Bay Township boundary line. While it fails to include the Miller Homes streets down near Hempstead Tpke. and Wantagh Ave., it does embrace part of Lee Ave., Cottage Blvd., Fairview Ct. which are no part of the Levitt development. The map also embodies Alexander and Dante Aves. which are unquestionably in Hicksville and have been for years.

Trend Toward Hicksville
Among the facts which are helping to defeat empire-minded Levittown individuals and groups from swaying the residents of new Levitt houses in Hicksville to the south are these:
The Post Office advised these new people that their correct home address is "Hicksville."

A new school to be built on 10 acres of property (in the process of acquisition from Levitt & Sons) which fronts on Fork Lane will be known as the "South Hicksville School," according to the School Board.

And a few blocks south of the Township boundary line with frontage on Pelican Rd., near Kingfisher, the fifth school to be constructed by the Levittown School District will be known as the "North Side School." And a few blocks further south of this location is the "North Village Green."

The Oyster Bay Town Building Dept. has issued permits for the construction of these homes including in the location of each dwelling the fact that they are in "Hicksville."

The Hicksville Water District is recording these properties as being in "Hicksville."

These homes are in Hicksville School District, Hicksville Park and Parking District, Hicksville Water District, Hicksville Fire District, Hicksville Street Lighting District and soon-to-be-created extension of Hicksville Garbage District.

New People Lean Toward Civic Unit

Residents of new Levitt homes in Oyster Bay Township (South Hicksville) held a general meeting at the Levittown Community Church Friday evening and approved, by a vote of 7 to 1, the need to form a local civic organization within the section. They also approved the work which has been done so far by the committee of 10 men who formed several weeks ago, at the request of the people living in this territory, to serve as a nucleus for starting the civic group.

Active Interest Soon
Maurice Schoenwald, temporary chairman of the committee, told those present that they could be proud of the splendid showing made by them and other residents of the section at the recent vote on the purchase of the school sites in Union Free School District No. 17. Although they were in the minority of those eligible to vote on this issue, they had accounted for more than 60 per cent of the votes cast. This reflected an active interest in local affairs unusual in most new communities, he said.

The rest of the meeting was turned over to the discussion of the possibility of residents of this section joining the Levittown Property Owners Association, which had extended an invitation to them. Committee member Gabriel Goldberg stated that the LPOA was an active organization with a great deal of past experience and prestige which could be valuable to the new homeowners. He also remarked that a separate organization formed in the Oyster Bay section would create competition that could weaken both civic groups.

Object To LOPA
Edward Regan, temporary vice-chairman of the committee, replied that the issues now, and in the future, confronting the residents of this territory could only be solved and handled by the people residing there. The LPOA, regardless of the sympathy they felt, held no voting power nor legal voice that could be of active aid as they were primarily an organization operating in the Township of Hempstead. Several other residents voiced their dissatisfaction with the LPOA because it had failed to do anything, even of an informative nature, for them on their first issue which confronted them, that of the recently approved purchase of school sites.

However, Robert Baird, another member of the committee, stated that he felt the residents should "keep an open mind on the issue" and postpone the forming of a permanent civic group until they had heard Mr. Pedowitz, president of the LPOA, discuss his organization at a special rally to be held Thursday night (Aug. 31) at 8:30 at the Abbey Lane School. The suggestion was accepted.

Home From Germany With Son Born There

HICKSVILLE — As the Army transport from Europe sailed into New York Harbor last week, 2½ year old John Cole told his parents "there's Hicksville" and immediately began studying the plans and buildings to find "grandma's house."

Capt. and Mrs. Ray Cole returned to Hicksville this week after a couple of years in Germany and Europe. Capt. Cole spent three years in Germany with the Army Signal Corps. Two years ago he was joined by his wife and little John. Another son, Ray, was born in Germany 11 months ago.

Grandma's house is at 294 Old Country Rd. near Underhill Ave. The Coles are staying at the home of Mrs. Cole's mother, Mrs. Ellen Van Wart, until the captain reports for duty at the end of his leave at Fort Bragg, N. C. During the interval he plans a quick trip to the west coast to see his mother in Oregon while his wife and children remain here.

Capt. Cole told the Herald the larger cities of Germany have almost been completely rebuilt and the country has made tremendous recovery. In contrast to England, which he visited occasionally, there is no rationing of goods in Germany.

A small party to welcome Capt. and Mrs. Cole was tendered Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Hank Jochem at their home on Underhill Ave.

Former Resident Treats Boys Upstate

SYRACUSE — A former Hicksville family got homesick when they saw the Hicks, fire department racing team here for the State Firemen's Tournament and Convention recently and as a result the vamps enjoyed a special treat on their way back home.

Ready to leave for the trip back to Long Island, Medard Ofenloch and other members of the Hicksville department found a parcel on the seat of their fire truck and a note which read: "Hi Fellers—Here's a few sandwiches to eat on your way home. I just want to show a little respect for the Hicksville Fire Department. I lived in Hicksville and liked it until my husband was transferred here. Please give our love and regards to ALL when you get back home. Respectively, Jos. Adams family."

Mayor Explains

He explained the Moore Plan for the relief of real estate taxpayers, a system for sharing of state revenues with municipalities, does not help in Nassau because there are so many large unincorporated areas. Based upon the federal census, incorporated villages receive $3 per capita and cities receive $6.76 per capita. Last year this meant Glen Cove got $83,801.25 based upon the 1940 population census, more than enough to pay all its elected officials. Hicksville receives nothing of this per capita shared revenues.

Quot's State Bureau

Mayor Mercadante quoted the State Bureau of Municipal Information to prove that average per capita cost of government is less in cities than in villages. A study of 36 cities of the state with populations between 7,000 and 24,000 showed a per capita cost of 20.9. A study of 27 incorporated villages in the same population brackets revealed a per capita cost of 21.6.

A city also enjoys better protection of its governmental powers, the Mayor added. "The tendency is to increase the powers of county government and to transfer village and town functions to county government. Cities are not included in this transfer of powers."

His remarks precipitated a spirited debate of the advantages of village as compared with city government here. The proposal was tabled for further consideration at a later meeting. Lawrence A. Roman, chairman of the Incorporation Committee, introduced the speaker. He indicated the Committee would continue with its efforts on obtaining village government since the opportunity to advance to a city form would always be available in the future.

STOP DRAFTS THIS WINTER!!!

Caulking is one of the best steps you can take to seal out drafts that cause discomfort and add to winter fuel bills. It's good protection against water leaks too, which if not stopped at once, might cause costly repairs later.

These are the places in your house where air and water may be seeping into your house: (1) In masonry houses, around window and door frames, (2) around mantels, (3) corners and edges of gableboards, (4) around roof glabors, (5) in frame houses, at the joint lines between house and chimney, (6) where wall meets roof, (7) wood trim, (8) between top of foundation wall and sill, and (9) anywhere where dirty streaks, light, or curtains moving unexplainably, indicate that air is coming through.

The process of caulking consists of scraping, cleaning, repainting, stuffing with oakum or rock wool if gap is over 1/4 inch wide, and caulking. There are several methods of applying caulking. One is to apply bulk caulking compound with a knife. Another is to use a caulking gun, a handy and easy method for the average owner. A third way is to buy caulking ropes that can be applied with the fingers.

It's also a good to check the putty in your windows before cold weather sets in. If loose or crumbling, it's a wise policy to replace it with new, long-lasting putty or other glazing material. When properly sealed, no window will rattle in the wind or leak air and water. For instance, our all purpose caulking gun gels at only $1.69, plus 50 cents per cartridge of caulk compound—also can be had in a variety of colors (at small additional cost) to match your particular color scheme.

Call or see your "Uncle Tom" on this, or any other question regarding your home comfort. We'll cheerfully deliver your needs in a hurry.

Hicksville In Levittown
Is Story Getting About

HICKSVILLE—This community is now described as a part of Levittown by some non-residents and we have an eavesdropper to prove it. A woman passenger on the LIRR one day this week failed to get off the train at her destination, Mineola, and rode out to Hicksville. Here she proceeded to Boslet's Store on Herzog Pl. and called the people who were expecting her in New Hyde Park.

According to the local side of the phone call overheard, the traveller had difficulty in making it clear just where she was calling from. Finally, in desperation, she said: "I'm at Hicksville IN LEVITOWN."

Meanwhile, this week Lawrence A. Roman, chairman of the Incorporation Committee, got off letters this week to the C. B. Fleet Co. of Lynchburg, Va., and the Postmaster General in Washington complaining that medical doctors in the community on Aug. 19 received sample packages of drugs addressed to them as ger, who has practised here for 30 years, was addressed at "119 Bway, Levittown, NY"

In the letter to Washington, Roman wrote: "We are extremely concerned with the loss of identity of our community. . . . It has reached the point where we feel that (improper addressing of mail) is being done deliberately to assist someone in absorbing our community".

Baby Shower and Visitors from Penna

Hi Folks! I Well, here I am again trying to write a column out of the little bit of news that I have.

Mrs. Vincent Cunningham of 46 McAlester Ave. gave a baby shower AUG. 15 for Mrs. P. Levix of 44

McAlester Ave. Sixteen women attended and I hear Mrs. Cunningham had her cellar decorated beautifully in yellow. Everyone had a wonderful time and Mrs. Levix was truly surprised.

The Cunninghams are also entertaining visitors from New Brighton, Pa. this week. Mr. and Mrs. Carl MacNeas and family. Mr. MacNeas served in the U. S. Army in Germany with Mr. Cunningham.

Fireman Name
Bond Winners

BETHPAGE— U. S. Savings Bonds were awarded at the Firemen's Bazaar held here, Wednesday to Saturday, at the firehouse with Louis Maggi as chairman.

Augustus Freatcott of 54 Sheridan Ave. was awarded a $100 bond; Mrs. Charles Seitz of 54 Woodbury Rd., $50 bond; Mrs. Emma Duebel of 14 Lafayette St., $25 bond; Anna DeThomas of 836 Central Ave., $25 bond; and Frank Ruggieria of 100 Raymond St., Hicksville, $25 bond. William Auer of Harrison Ave. won an electric clock.

I hope you all noticed that Ernest Dieterich of 45 McAlester Ave. finally got to the bottom of the garbage collection investigation and as a result we will now have three garbage collections and one ash collection per week. Thanks Ernie, we really need them.

We have a wonderful baby sitter in the neighborhood, but I'm not allowed to mention his name as HE said he's not available to all people. Of course, I hear he might be bribed with a case of cold beer. This gentleman, by the way, played Santa Claus to the children last year.

That's all the news I could find this week folks. Bye now.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT
Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Marion Iggulden, daughter of Mrs. Charles Iggulden of Old Country Rd., Hicksville, and the late

Mr. Iggulden, to Alf Johndro, son of Mrs. Emma Johndro of Cedar St., Hicksville. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Iggulden is a graduate of Hicksville High School and is employed by the New York Telephone Co. Her fiancé is also a graduate of Hicksville High School and is employed by the L. I. Lighting Co.

OF THE TELEPHONE
jumped OVERNIGHT

At exactly 12:01 A.M. last May 14th the value of the telephone took a big jump. That's when we expanded suburban local calling areas. We raised to at least 70,000 the number of telephones all Hicksville 3 and 5 subscribers can reach—and be reached by—without an extra charge for the call. That's nearly 4 times as many as most of you could reach before.

At the same time, with the introduction of Metropolitan Area Telephone Service, the rates for calls from most points in Nassau County to New York City and Southern Westchester were reduced five cents or more.

Add it all up and you find that the telephone is worth more to you than ever before. Most of you can reach more friends, relatives or customers and they can reach you with a local call. Yet the price you pay for service is a much smaller part of the family budget today than it was ten years ago.

Two Thirds of Children In New Homes Not Old Enough For School, Yet

Exclusive

HICKSVILLE—About 200 students can be expected from the first 525 Levitt houses in this school district, a study by the Herald disclosed today. There are over 660 children from infants to age 17 in the first group of homes, 69.3 per cent of them of pre-school age.

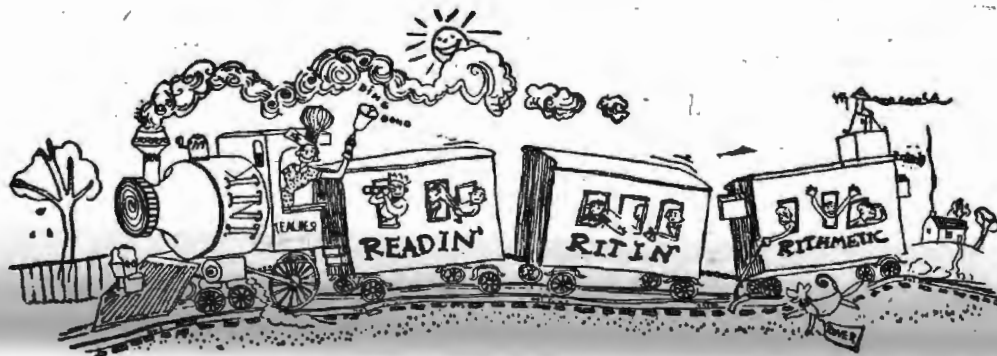

The Herald survey provides a partial answer to the question which has plagued school officials throughout the summer months, since it indicates a pattern which may apply in the rest of the houses being built in Hicksvillh by Levitt & Sons.

The Columbia Report prepared for the school district to enable it to plan future educational requirements estimated 1.5 children per house in the Levitt section. The Herald study of the first 525 units showed an average of 1.26 children per house.

Since it is reported that 2300 houses (including the 525 already occupied) will be finished and occupied by Feb. 1, 1951 in Hicksville, the arrival of 2,898 children can be anticipated of which 30.7 per cent or 890 will probably be of immediate school age.

The Herald found that in 525 houses there were 104 children under 1 year of age, 73 were 1 year, 100 were 2 years, 108 were 3 years, 74 were 4 years, 50 were 5 years, 34 were 7 years, 17 were 9 years, 13 were 10 years, 11 were 11 years, 8 were 12 years, 5 were 13 years, 10 were 14 years, 7 were 15 years, 5 were 16 years and 5 were 17 years of age.

Mid-Island Enrollments to Reach New Record As Schools Open Sept. 6

Classes resume for thousands of boys and girls in the mid-Island section next week. Hicksville, Bethpage, Jericho, Plainview and Island Trees public schools open for sessions bright and early on Wednesday, Sept. 6. St. Ignatius Parochial School in Hicksville opens on Sept. 11.

Enter New Building
All mid-Island school districts, with the possible exception of Jericho, are confronted with fast increasing enrollments as the result of new home building in their areas. Island Trees pupils will attend sessions for the first time in a new building. Bethpage will have a new school completed and ready for occupancy by January. Plainview still has a problem, the plan for a temporary-type building being rejected by voters last Friday. Hicksville expects to have a new addition to East St. School building ready for classes a year from now.

Island Trees (not to be confused with Levittown School District) will send its 7th and 8th grades on full time classes to the former Old Bethpage School Building. Kindergarten through the sixth grade will be in the new building on double sessions. L. A. Blodgett, supervising principal, told the Herald yesterday that a six-room addition to the new building is already under construction and there are hopes that by January the 7th and 8th grades will all be housed under one roof.

Enrollment for Island Trees is anticipated at about 900 pupils. High school pupils of the district go to Farmingdale.

Five New Classrooms
Hicksville Public School System will have five additional classrooms available for the opening of the fall term. Two rooms have been equipped in Nicholai St., two in East St. building and one in the high school.

While estimates of anticipated enrollment in Hicksville are subject to change, almost daily, somewhere between 150 and 200 new students are expected to register for the new term.

Dr. E. H. LeBarron, school superintendent, told the Herald "we are ready to move in any direction" based upon the opening day enrollment. If Nicholai St. School capacity is reached, the balance of the new pupils will be sent over to East St. School.

Hicksville high school will continue to take sophomore, junior and senior classes from Levittown. The Levittown District has been advised that Hicksville can no longer take freshman from the area to the south and the Levittown people will house these pupils in the new Division Ave. School.

Parochial School Filled

St. Ignatius Parochial School closed enrollments last Spring and is at the limit of its capacity, despite the fact that a four-room addition was constructed last term.

Bethpage Public School will be on double sessions for the most part, the 7th and 8th grades attending a full day. High School pupils from Bethpage attend Farmingdale while parochial students come to St. Ignatius, Hicksville.

Plainview is expected to go on double sessions with the start of the new term. Hicksville has told Plainview it can no longer accommodate pupils below the 6th grade from Plainview. Junior and Senior High pupils from Plainview go to Hicksville High and parochial pupils attend St. Ignatius.

Motorist Must Stop As School Bus Halts

ALBANY — Motorists are required to stop upon meeting or overtaking a school bus, the State Motor Vehicle Bureau warns, provided the bus meets new requirements as to signs and signal lamps.

Effective since July 1, a new law requires that "school bus" signs be conspicuously displayed on the exterior of each school bus. The signs, to be shown at the top of the bus, must be in black letters not less than one inch in width on a background of "national school bus chrome." The letters must be visible and readable from a distance of at least 200 feet and must be illuminated so as to be visible for 500 feet if operated between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise.

The state motor vehicle commissioner is authorized by law to adopt rules and regulations governing the signs and signal lamps. The former requirement that flashing red signal lamps bearing the word "Stop" is eliminated.

Miss Patricia Keefe of Kingston, N. Y., is the weekend guest of Miss Joan Kerbe of West John St., Hicksville.

NICHOLAI ST. SCHOOL will get improved classroom lighting this term, according to Hicksville Board of Education. Voters of the district approved an appropriation at the annual meeting last May to install new lights. The above before and after pictures of a typical schoolroom illustrate how the installation of fluorescents will eliminate sub-standard conditions. Westinghouse Electric Co. has won a $2,102.40. A separate contract will be awarded contract for fixtures in 15 classrooms at for the installation of the fixtures.

SUBJECT TO REVISION: Follow Same Bus Stops For First Day of School

HICKSVILLE—Students attending the kindergarten thru and including the third grades of local school be transported to classes this Fall if they live a half mile or so from the school buildings, public or parochial. Those who attend the fourth thru sixth grades and reside a mile or more from school will also be transported.

The first day of school next week may find some confusion in the bus arrangements. It is expected that upon the opening day buses will pick up students at the stops in effect last Spring. New stops will be created where needed, the school authorities indicated.

Two South End Stops

The most southerly stops on the run for the Nicholai St. and Parochial Schools—the stops of greatest interest to residents in Levitt houses in the south part of the school district—are on the run of Bus D, according to last term's schedule.

Bus D on its first trip makes Hempstead Ave. (Dutch Lane) at 8:27 A.M. and at Newbridge Rd. and Third St. (name changed to Elmira) which is near the point Newbridge Rd. from the Levitt houses.

On the other side of the the Levitt house section in Hicksville, Bus D on its second morning trip goes down Jerusalem Ave. to pickup at Alexander Ave. at 8:43 A.M.

Last term when this schedule was in effect, there were no thru streets at the south end of the district from Newbridge Rd to Jerusalem Ave. Today Spindle Rd and other streets cut across this section and may be used when the schedule is revised.

Dr. E. H. LeBarron, school superintendent, back from his vacation ahead of schedule to prepare for the opening day, told the Herald Saturday that the same schedule as last term will be in effect the first day but will be subject to revision to conform to the new board policy on classes transported and to meet the requirements of the new home areas.

To Advise Students

Students will be advised of changes and those eligible to ride will be equipped with identification badges. On return trips on the afternoon, buses discharge pupils at the same points where they were picked up.

Board regulations prohibit the adults from riding on the buses with children. The Benkert Bus Company of Bethpage has been awarded the contract for the period ending June 1951.

pected to be in effect on the opening day follows:

The Stork AND The School Board

The stork has been extra busy during recent years—delivering a lot more precious little bundles than he ever averaged before. The first of these are beginning to storm the schoolhouse doors right now, and their little brothers and sisters will follow them before we know it.

And during the past couple of years the builders have been busy also, filling the demand for housing.

Members of our hard working School Boards know this all too well. They know what this additional enrollment will mean in terms of more classrooms, more teachers in elementary grades, more textbooks and supplies. They're doing their best to get ready, but they can't do the job alone. They need the help, understanding and support of all—parents, professional people and businessmen.

Keep informed on the issues and the efforts to solve these problems. Read the HERALD regularly for complete news of these local matters. The best way to make certain that you don't miss an issue is to take an annual subscription. If you already subscribe, get your neighbor interested. It's his problem too.

800 ATTENDED LAST YEAR: Adult Classes Resume

HICKSVILLE — Adults of the community will also return to classes and studies soon, probably during October, when the popular Adult Education Program of the school district opens for the fall term.

Last fall and spring over 800 adults from mid-Island communities registered for classes which are held three evenings a week. More than 30 subjects were offered and Elery H. Bean, director of the program, expects to offer about the same number this year.

Registration of students for the courses will probably take place the last week in September or first week in October, Bean indicated, with the fall term opening a week later. A second 10-week session is planned for the Spring.

A $2 fee is charged residents and non-residents alike for each course in which they enroll except Americanism for which no fee is charged. Very few courses will be discontinued because of the State Education Department directive prohibiting courses "essentially for pleasure," Bean told the Herald. The ban will prohibit bridge and social dancing. Details concerning the subjects to be offered, dates of registration and start of the term will be published in the Herald when plans are completed, Bean promised.

School District Owns 89 Acres for Buildings

HICKSVILLE — This school district now owns 89 acres of property for potential new school building sites in addition to 26 acres now occupied by schools, or a total of 115 acres. With the exception of the recommended purchase of an extra 20 acres adjoining the Bergold tract between Newbridge Rd. and Division Ave. below Third St., the district today owns all the land which the Columbia Report recommended for acquisition to take care of long-range educational facilities needed for the district.

On Wed., Aug. 16, purchase of 47.4 acres from Levitt and Sons for three new elementary schools was approved. Previously voters approved purchase of about 10 acres on Lee Ave. at South Bway, 10 acres on Burns Ave. and 22 acres on the east side of Newbridge Rd. Nicholai School occupies less than 5 acres, East St. School is on 6.5 acres and the High School stands on 15 acres.

Classes For Mothers Held By Health Dept.

LEVITTOWN — Classes for mothers-to-be are held in the basement of the Community Church, Perriwinkle Lane and Azalea Lane, every Thursday at 1:30 p. m. under the direction of Nassau County Health Department. Public Health nurses conduct the classes. All expectant mothers from the mid-Island area are invited to attend the free sessions.

THIS MAP of Hicksville School District shows the location of present and proposed schools. It is taken from the Columbia Report. Property has been acquired by the district for all the proposed schools (indicated with stars) except those shown on the right hand border fronting on New South Rd. and off Woodbury Rd.

8,570 PUPILS BY 1960: Expect Double Student Enrollment This Term

HICKSVILLE — When classes resume here next week the enrollment of students for elementary school is forecast at double what it was last year the same date, according to the Columbia Report. There were 679 pupils in the public school for grades from kindergarten to sixth grade last September. Columbia estimates the enrollment will be 1358 this term.

Little change is expected in the junior and senior high school where 251 were enrolled for grades 10 to 12 inclusive last fall and 266 are expected this term on opening day.

The greatest increase is naturally forecast for the kindergarten, first and second grades. There were 95 in kindergarten last year and 279 are expected this term on the basis of the Columbia studies.

Four kindergarten sessions were held last term, two in the morning and two in the afternoon (two each at Nicholas and East St.). With 279 expected to report next week, at least seven more kindergarten classes will be needed if 25 are put in each class. Total school enrollment last fall was 1,210 pupils in all grades thru high school of the public system. The Columbia report predicts a total of almost 2,000 will be present this fall, jumping to 3,185 in 1951 and continuing up each year to a peak of 8,570 in 1960, ten years hence.

A factor which may lower the total opening day estimates, however, is the determination of the School Board to refuse students from neighboring districts and the anticipated all-time peak enrollment at St. Ignatius Parochial School.

SUCCESSFUL CARD PARTY
A very successful card party sponsored by the Altar Society of St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville, was held Monday night, Aug. 22, at the school hall for the benefit of the Convent Building Fund. Mrs. Vincent McGunnigle, chairman, and her committee wishes to thank the merchants who donated prizes and all those who helped make the affair a success.

A hand-made quilt was awarded to Mrs. Violet Naso. Two cash prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Dwyer and Mrs. Charles Ambron. A basket of fruit as the door prize was won by Mrs. Rose Weiner of Commack.

Catherine Finn won an electric iron, Joseph Gomula, a blanket; Anna Finn, bathroom set; Mrs. Koch, 5 gallons of motor oil, and Mrs. Anna Guckenberger, inner tube, all as special prizes.

John Kasten was high scorer in bridge; Emily Wickmann, pinocchle; Emily Del Orto, bunco; Mrs. Julie Lorenzo, canasta; and Louise Wetterauer, first non player.

8 Bike Safety Rules for Pupils

With the opening of school again, hundreds of mid-Island youngsters will transport themselves to classes on bicycles. The New York Safety Council calls the attention of parents and children to these suggestions for bike safety:

- 1—Keep bicycle to far right of street and ride WITH traffic.
- 2—Ride in straight line without weaving and stunting.
- 3—Ride single file when with a group.
- 4—Do not carry passengers, either on handlebars or on frame.
- 5—Obey all traffic signs, rules and signals applicable to cars.
- 6—Do not hitch rides on any other vehicles.
- 7—If you must ride at night, have a good light and reflector.
- 8—Check the mechanical condition of your bicycle at regular intervals.

IN OUR OPINION:

Sentiment Is Strong for Old Names

By FRED J. NOETH

THE EFFORTS of various communities in the mid-Island section to retain their established names is greatly misunderstood by newer residents. Because the people of Hicksville or Island Trees want to protect the name of their home village and preserve their boundary lines against the expansion of Levittown, the people in the older sections are accused of being "snob" or being "against Levitt".

NOETH

Let's fill in the history of the name "Levittown" for you. Before Levitt & Sons began to build and build, the section in which they chose to start on the north side of Hempstead Tpke was generally known as Island Trees or Isle of Trees. The name was based largely upon the fact that a one-room school house stood out in the open fields, the seat of learning for Island Trees School Dist. No. 26 of the Town of Hempstead.

Actually, Levitt built his first houses in the adjacent school district, Jerusalem District No. 5 of the Town of Hempstead. The Jerusalem District is today officially known as the Levittown School District but Island Trees has tried to hold fast to its name.

Strange as it may seem, it was less than three years ago that William J. Levitt, president of Levitt & Sons, announced on Dec. 31, 1947 "we are changing the name from Island Trees to Levittown, such change to take effect immediately." At the same time he added, "When completed at the end of 1948 Levittown will be a community with a population of approximately 20,000."

But Levitt did not stop in 1948 nor 1949 nor 1950. Already plans for 1951 and beyond are in the works and what was intended by the builder to be an area of about 5,000 houses became a section of 12,000 dwellings.

About a year ago we began warning of the threat to our identity and at one time declared, partially in jest, "Where Levitt builds is Levittown." It has become a grim joke—on us.

Hicksville people were not always of one mind on the subject of their community name. Around 1924 a referendum vote was held to decide on a change of name but it failed, largely because those in favor of a change could not agree on what the change should be. The name has a historic significance. It was named for Valentine Hicks, second president of the Long Island Rail Road, who was instrumental in having the rail road extend its first tracks to this section over 100 years ago. Hicks and his associates owned a good deal of land hereabouts and set aside the property for the site of the station, right of way, etc.

It is common practise to identify new home sections by the names given by the builders. We have today the Hicksville Park section, Duffy Park, Frank Homes, Briar Park, Pine Tree Manor, etc. But Levittown has ceased to be the name of a development. It has been established as the name of a community and when one community threatens to engulf another, there is bound to be conflict of views and strong feelings pro and con.

Bethpage Does It Right

HICKSVILLE and surrounding communities might well take a leaf from the note book of Bethpage public officials. This sister community in the mid-Island area has come up with a new public service activity which once again proves some over-all thinking is taking place there.

The school census in Bethpage was completed a week ago (even while other districts are still counting and may not finish the job until after the term begins) and in the process an accurate population census of the community has been compiled. The school census, as you probably know, is intended to show how many children of various age groups live in the community. The idea of counting the adults also is very good since unincorporated areas are not counted and recorded as such by the Federal census. Further, the federal count is made only very 10 years.

Bethpage today knows for a fact that it has over 5,000 residents. Hicksville, Plainview, Jericho and other districts can only accept educated guesses on this score.

But beyond this, the school census takers in Bethpage were able to tell each parent of school-age children what grade their son or daughter will attend next month, the time they report to classes (where double sessions are in effect) and give data on school bus stops. This kind of information means a great deal to the parent of a child attending local sessions for the first time.

We also greatly admire the foresight and community interest of the Bethpage Fire Commissioners by their inclusion of funds in the district (on a permissive referendum) for new street signs.

The law permits fire districts to appropriate funds for street markers. Sept. 5, Bethpage is going to vote upon an additional $1500 appropriation to finish the street sign job which got started last year with public vote endorsement.

Hicksville, in contrast, has some street signs which were acquired more than a dozen years ago. They were inexpensive signs constructed with the help of the WPA and were never intended to last forever. John R. Brandt, town highway superintendent, has attempted to keep Hicksville signs in shape with painting, patching and repairs. Some of the signs are now beyond repair and there is no hope for replacements unless something is worked out as was done by Bethpage.

Many Hicksville streets have no markers at all. In addition, a good many of our duplicated street names have been corrected (thanks to the diligent efforts of Elery Bean and Stanley Mruz of the Civic Assoc.). But the inability firemen to find the address in time of emergency could be a serious matter.

And speaking of street signs, consider this case: A woman on Kingston Ave. (formerly known as Elm or Maple, we're not certain), just arrived here, ordered a telephone installation. After a wait of a couple of months she contacted the phone company and asked the reason for the delay. They replied that the installer had not been able to find the street!

Shall We Incorporate?

Not New Campaign

The HERALD, in cooperation with the Information Division of the Committee for the Incorporation of Hicksville, will publish this department regularly in an effort to bring its readers a full discussion of this question. The HERALD invites comments and questions on this subject in writing.—Editor.

Ques.—Why has there suddenly developed a campaign for incorporation of Hicksville?

The movement to incorporate Hicksville is not new although it is now receiving more favorable local support than at any previous date. Some people, such as Lucia McIntosh, have been pressing for incorporation for 20 years or more. The Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. has had incorporation as one of its objectives since shortly after it was organized, about four years ago.

The recent interest has developed largely because the boundary of the community is being threatened. It has been found that an unincorporated area has difficulty in maintaining a boundary, no matter how long it has been established. A municipality such as a village or city is recognized in law, and its boundaries are part of its fundamental establishment.

Ques.—What is the essential reason for incorporation as compared with the present government for Hicksville?

A concise and official answer to this question can be found in a letter which Eugene M. Travis wrote on Sept. 13, 1916, in his capacity as Comptroller of the State of New York. It was written to the Glen Cove Committee on Incorporation and the argument is just as true today:

"Concerning the advantages to be attained by incorporating the hamlet of Glen Cove either as an incorporated village or as a city of the third class, I need but say that you will then have power to exercise many functions of government and render service to the citizens of the community which is not now possible to secure for them, or which, if it is possible, can be secured only by unsatisfactory and clumsy method under the Town Law. I view that law as being to a very great extent, antiquated and obsolete. However that may be, it was never designed for the government of densely populated sections of the State. The attempt to make it fit other conditions by the addition of articles concerning water, fire, light and sewer districts resembles very much indeed the building of numerous additions in connection with an already completed structure."

Hicksville cannot be regarded as a small rural area. Therefore, it should not be governed under laws designed for small rural settlements which are wholly inadequate and inefficient for its welfare and which hamper its growth and retard its development. Communities are not created for government, but government must be designed to fit the communities.

Sound Off News and Views of VFW Post 3211

I would like at this time to extend my own personal thanks to the members of the American Legion Post 421, for undertaking the Boxing Exhibition held last Friday evening at the high school for the Transportation Fund of the PBC. The good will gesture on your part must be most encouraging to the boys of this excellent organization—PBC. It would be a fine thing if a number of other organizations in town would also sponsor such affairs or projects.

While on the subject of projects, whatever happened to the men who were assigned to work out the clock deal? I've been attending all the meetings of late but never heard the subject discussed one way or another. If you fellows are either for it or against it—speak up, so at least Mr. Roth will know how or what is going to be done. I'm positive that some other organization or club will do the job if the VFW decides to abandon the project. It was my own personal idea to have Post 3211 put the famous old landmark back in working order, and thus rendering our community a service. Personally, I don't care what organization has it repaired, but whoever it is I know that the people in town will be deeply grateful to you.

Recently I heard a lot of talk not from groups of members, but rather individuals, who are more or less becoming only too critical with the work that some of our officers are doing or not doing. It always reminds me of the spectator at a football game sitting in the stands shouting his fool head off telling the player on the field how to run, tackle, kick and etc. For him that's easy. However, if that particular player should stop dead in his tracks and invite that spectator onto the field to carry on in his place—what a line of excuses he would have to offer. The players like our officers are doing their level best. You will find that a word of encouragement, some personal assistance or advice will go much further than criticism.

This condition does not exist only in 3211, but in all organizations. However, I'm bringing this to light for whatever it might be worth to our own members. Many a fine club, organization or even friendships have been broken up over this very thing, especially when such critical words are exchanged in a moment of anger.

If you are dissatisfied with one's workings, the next best thing to do is to wait until the election rolls around and then let the black ball fall where it may.

MOST OF THE CHILDREN from the new Levitt houses in South Hicksville will find themselves attending classes this fall in Nicholai St. School building (above). During the summer the Free Public Library vacated rooms it had occupied in this wing of the building, providing additional classrooms. The Columbia Report estimates it may be necessary to use this structure, the oldest building in the district, for at least 10 more years to keep pace with the fast climbing pupil enrollment.

P-TA to Meet Teachers Sept. 7

BETHPAGE — The P-TA will hold its first fall meeting Thursday, Sept. 7, at the school at 8:15 p. m. Mrs. Emelia Noce will preside. Supervising Principal Victor Miller will introduce the teachers and school board members.

Miss Marilyn Schueler and Miss Doris Welti of the faculty will be the guest speakers. Their topic will be "The Importance of Parent-Teacher Discussion Groups." They organized the first P-TA discussion group last year which proved to be very successful in that it promoted interest and better understanding between parent, teacher and child.

The program was planned in cooperation with this year's theme, "One Unit — the Child, the Parent and the Teacher."

The regular teachers' reception usually held in September will be held in October this year.

School Days Ahead Get Out Woolens

With Queen Anne's lace and conflowers in the fields and blue skies overhead, school days may seem a long way off, but they'll be upon us before we know it. This year, refurbishing the youngsters' wardrobes need not be a chore if you start early enough and work it into your leisure time, say the specialists at the New York State College of Home Economics at Cornell.

The first step, of course, is to bring out the woolens and take stock of sizes. Johnny and Mary Ellen—like many children—may do most of their growing in the summer time. Give the woolens a good brushing and airing in the sunshine. Little mending jobs that you may have overlooked before can be done on the porch when friends call or when you relax to enjoy your yard and the garden. Other sewing tasks such as lengthened hems that have been pressed and basted but not hemmed and new garments with buttons still to be sewed on may be left for visiting days or vacation time at lakeshore cottage or summer resort.

County Transit Group Strongly Urges Hicksville-Westbury Bus on Old Country

GENEOLA — Establishment of bus service along Old Country Rd. between Hicksville and Westbury is urgently recommended by the Nassau County Transit Commission in its third report made to County Executive J. Russel Sprague recently.

"Bus service along Old Country Rd. is clearly needed," the Transit group stated. "Old Country Rd. is the main east-west highway in this part of the County.

"Several months ago Post Omnibus Corp., a bus company sponsored by real estate developers, applied to the Public Service Commission for approval of a Westbury-Hicksville bus route. It would be preferable, however, if an established operator (ie, now operating) furnished the service."

The Commission recommends that "service on the suggested route should be established as soon

Ballentine Selects Healy for New Area

MARABEUQA — Lawrence R. Healy, former resident of Hicksville, have been designated for an important position with P. Ballentine in Pennsylvania area, it was learned this week. He was formerly a salesman with the Long Island and New York City territories.

A recent issue of the Ballentine house organ reports Healy "will work with our distributors in Pennsylvania cities of Harrisburg, Chambersburg, Johnston, Kanie and Altoona."

as possible after application therefore is made."

The route has been endorsed by the Hicksville Business Men's Association Inc., Hicksville Civic Association. A petition with 261 signatures of the Bowling Green Civic Association members was also filed with the Transit Commission.

The Commission in its report did not support a request by 26 Syosset residents that a bus route be established between Hicksville and North Hempstead Tpke. at Nassau-Suffolk Boundary line (Cold Spring Harbor) via South Oyster Bay Rd., Syosset-Cold Spring Rd. and North Hempstead Tpke.

The Commission found: "This proposal was submitted by 26 residents of Syosset who are interested in having bus service provided to the New York State Fish Hatchery, Carnegie Institution and L. I. Biological Association, all near the Nassau-Suffolk boundary on North Hempstead Tpke. The need for transportation along the proposed route appears limited to one of two trips at the beginning and end of the working day. There appears to be no other justification for the proposed bus route."

The answers to everyday insurance problems
By JOSEPH E. DOCKOW

QUESTION: We've carried a fire insurance policy on our home and furniture for many years. The policy must soon be renewed and we think some changes should be made in it. Some of the insured property has become almost worthless while some of the things, including the home itself, have greatly increased in value. What should we do to arrive of an accurate figure?

ANSWER: First call in your insurance agent for an appraisal of the house, then make a complete inventory of your furnishings and personal effects. Be very thorough. You'll find the job won't take as long or be so arduous as you think. That inventory and the insurance policy, after it has been issued, should, if possible, be kept in a safe deposit box. Then, if you ever have a fire, your can check against the inventory and determine your exact loss.

State to Study 5-Corner Signal

ALBANY—The State Traffic Commission has initiated a study of the traffic signal at the 5-corner intersection of Broadway, John St., and Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, the Civic and Community Assoc., was advised this week by R. C. Geogor, Director.

The Civics believe that the system of the traffic light must be changed to accommodate the funneling of autos and vehicles into this intersection from three directions at once. "When our study has been completed," Geogor wrote, "such action will be taken as may be proper and possible under the circumstances."

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The passing of the Hicksville Field Club is regretable but it had to happen.

An official announcement stating that the Black and White will be a thing of the past on semi-pro gridirons throughout the County hasn't been made as yet, but the doom of the outfit has already been sealed.

Some of those men elected to the governing body of the proposed 1950 Club have already been working out with other teams and not one player from last year's team to whom we have spoken believes that the Field Club will operate this season.

The surprising spirit that swept the community three weeks ago and started reorganization talk has all but died. The interviewing committee assigned to hire a coach has come up with nothing and unless there is a complete about face during this week, the high school field will be empty Sunday afternoons this Fall.

Many will be truly sorry to see the Field Club go. At one time it was the source of grand entertainment as well as a fountain of community pride.

But the last few years have experienced bitter days for the team. To try and place blame now would be meaningless.

It is best to hope only that with the passing of time and the coming of fresh minds and athletes that it will be possible to rebuild the club again.

Softball is going full blast towards a wild finish. playoffs and All-Star games both at Jones Beach and the ASA affair at Glen Cove.

Grumman won the game at Glen Cove by an 8-0 count as Ollie Johnston pitched a no-hitter and faced just 27 men in doing it.

Bill Bordiuk pitched the first four innings Sunday night at the Cove and after retiring the side in order for the first three innings in the All-Star game Sunday afternoon at Jones Beach and gave up one run to Newburgh to become the losing pitcher when the Seashore contingent bowed 7-0.

An odd thing about the game was that Bordiuk could have eased himself out of the loser's role and averted a shutout for the Long Island crew. He blasted a homerun in his turn at bat in the third inning but was declared out when he returned to the dugout for batting out of turn.

It was a busy week for Bordiuk and Manager Bernie McGunnigle was keeping his fingers crossed that his star pitcher would have enough left for the important assignment at Rockville Centre where a victory in one of two games last Monday, would give the Botto club the second half title.

Teddy Smith also had a game on tap in the Jones Beach League for last Monday and could offer no help to the Botto team at Rockville. His Republic Racers need to win their last two games to take the title in that loop and he has to be on hand at all times to insure that the Racers wrap it up.

Bill Garbarino and his Empire Diner team still are facing a possible three-way playoff in the Hempstead-Two-light league as well as a two out of three games with the Cement Mixers for the Hicksville league title. All in all, softball still will be in for a big sports play before it bows to king football.

Coach Chet Jaworski has informed us that a seven-game football schedule has been filled for his 1950 gridirons. For a while it looked it was only going to be a six-game slate but South Side, Farmingdale, Patchogue, Westbury, Mineola, Great Neck and Oyster Bay have been rounded up to complete the card.

Cards Capture League Crown

Hicksville's Cardinals led thru the season by the strong right arm of Tommy Valentine and the bats of his battery mate Ed Scott. Peiry, Peyton, Toppen and Co., took a hard fought 5-2 win over Syosset's Tigers to give them undisputed claim to the Second Precinct Police Boys Club title in the 10 to 13 age group.

Earlier this week, they had downed a strong Bethpage nine 13-3 and 12-6 with the above named players contributing heavily to these wins.

Grumman Yankees Twice Defeat Bottos 1-0 for Title

GLEN COVE—With the World's championship an ultimate aim, the Grumman Yankees move to the ASA Eastern Regional Playoffs at Summit, New Jersey, this weekend but they had to withstand two determined bids by Botto Bros. of Hicksville to win the Met title here in City Park Stadium, last week.

With Roy Stephenson invincible on the mound, Grumman won both contests with the Hicksville team by 1-0 scores.

Bordiuk Botto Ace

Botto's Bill Bordiuk went the route in both games for Hicksville and was the instrumental reason by which the losers extended the Yankees. He muffled the Grumman bats, usually most potent in championship play, in each game.

His two-hit pitching forced the first game into eight innings before his mates bowed when centerfielder Merrill Yarotakey fell on the slippery grass, made so by a steady rain, and allowed the winning run to tag up at second base and come all the way to score.

Grumman had shut out St. Demetrius, the Queens County champs, 5-0, to open the tourney with Stephenson holding Hicksville to three bunt singles to win the second game.

Ted Smith Wins

In order to face Grumman again Hicksville had to beat St. Demetrius in the first game, Saturday night. With Teddy Smith taking the pitching assignment, Hicksville accomplished the task 5-2 with more ease than was expected.

Smith allowed six hits but they were scattered throughout the game while Bottos took advantage of Jim Banashefske's wildness to make their four hits count in the scoring column.

Highlight of the game was a powerful home run struck by Bordiuk, who filled in at second base in place of the injured Jerry Kiesel, with one on in the seventh. It sailed into the distant left field stands and turned a 3-1 ball game into a safe 5-1 contest for the winners.

Stephenson struck out the first 11 men in the championship game and Stan Smith's solid single through the box was the only Hicksville hit. He was cut down stealing to end the inning.

The Hicksville support behind Bordiuk was amazing. Third baseman Ed Coleman made two fine plays and shortstop Ray Haloran and Yarotakey at second base turned in the top ones of the night.

Booters Display Fine Form: Coach

HICKSVILLE — Under the coaching of Karl Weber, soccer star of a few years past, the pioneers for future soccer teams here got underway at the Shady Maple Field this week.

For the first hour Coach Weber had the boys running and booting the ball all over the field. By-standers got a thrill out of watching the boys "using their heads" which one doesn't see often in any game.

According to Coach Weber the boys showed a great promise which even surprised him. Anyone who thinks the game is a push-over should see the boys when they're through practicing. Hicksville as yet does not know who they will play first, but it looks as if the first game on Sept. 17 will be an away date.

Boxing Exhibit Big Hit Annual Show Likely

HICKSVILLE — The PBC outdoor boxing exhibition and entertainment promises to become a regular annual event in this community following the success and public-acceptance of the first program held Friday night at the high school grounds for the benefit of the Police Boys Club. Almost 500 persons enjoyed the show which featured outstanding local boxers. The show was under the auspices of the Charles Wagner American Legion Post.

A stadium for the event was created on the high school gridiron by the PBC sponsors who moved over bleachers from the Fourth St. side of the track to form a half-circle in front of the permanent stands. Within this area and surrounding the raised ring were more than 300 chairs loaned for the event by St. Ignatius Parish through the cooperation of the Rev. George M. Bittermann, pastor.

Lights were installed for the ring and the entire area by Stanford Weiss and Harry Borley who freely donated their services. The sound equipment for announcements was loaned by John Jeanson. Members of the Legion Post manned the refreshment stand, turning over all proceeds to the PBC.

Sully Velez of the Miller Homes was referee for the bouts and Robert Swain of Murray Rd. was judge. Henry Uffmann was timer, and Rudy Bouse handled the introductions and announcements.

Boxers who took part included: Paper weight division — Ed Scott vs. George Tappen, both of Hicksville.

140 lbs. — Don Johnson of Roosevelt vs. Ken Kunz of Hicksville, 3 two-minute rounds.

135 lbs. — Arthur Velez of Merrick vs. Herrick Thergood of Roosevelt, 3 rounds.
