Extend March Of Dimes Plea

The 1951 March of Dimes Drive in the mid-island area is being extended to enable individual communities to achieve the quotas assigned, it was announced by Mrs. Jeanette Curcio of Bethpage, chairman of a seven-town mid-island zone.

Island Trees has topped its $1,000 quota with $1,200; Hicksville with Mrs. Arthur Arcil as chairman has contributed $500 to date; Plainview has contributed over $400; Jericho School $17; Syosset $312; Elainedge $140; and Bethpage $1,400.

Mrs. Curcio will be assisted in the Bethpage drive by Mrs. Mae Sisic and Mrs. Agnes Michaels. A check for $1,000 was received from Grumman's.

A new car award which was held recently in Bethpage, was solely for the Bethpage emergency polio fund and not for the current national fund drive, it was explained by Mrs. Curcio. Proceeds from the car award are being used to help defray expenses of eight Bethpage polio victims, she said.

Plainview School Question Falls

PLAINVIEW—There were 343 votes cast here on Thursday night, Mar. 15, at the Manetto Hill School upon a proposition to spend an additional $125,000 for a new 7-room grade school.

Although a majority of 183 approved the proposition, a two-thirds affirmative vote was needed. There were 150 no votes and 10 were void. No final decision has been made by the Board.

MAILMAN BITTEN

HICKSVILLE—William Kelly of 57 Carnation La., Levittown, was bitten by a mongrel dog on Mar. 17 while dropping a letter in the front door mail slot at 299 Acre La. The dog is owned by Morgan Goldman of 299 Acre La.

Start Lee Ave School

HICKSVILLE—Construction was scheduled to start this week upon construction of the substructure and basement of Lee Ave. elementary school, here, with the award of a contract for the job to Joseph Bisceglia & Sons, Inc., of Harrison, N.Y.

Bisceglia, who is the general contractor for the new Bethpage School and did the work on the Abbey Lane and Gardeners Ave.,

GIVE BUILDER DEADLINE:

Halstone Folks Protest Public Dumps

HICKSVILLE—Owners of homes in the Halstone section demand that the builder immediately take action to clean up public dumping in their neighborhood, according to a petition signed by property owners in the section. The southerly ends of Garden Blvd. and Linden Blvd. are the focal point of attack. Unless conditions are corrected by April 1 they plan to institute court action, if necessary.

Mrs. E. W. Goodman of 41 Garden Blvd. has kindly provided the HERALD with a copy of the petition to Halstone Corp. at Jamaica which reads in part:

"At various times during the past year individual homeowners have made complaints to you and have received no satisfaction except unfulfilled promises.

"Not only has the vacant land in question become a public dumping ground, but the stagnant water that has accumulated in low

Levittown schools, was the low bidder at $63,389. There were 13 bidders ranging upward to $99,000 when bids were opened by the School Board on Mar. 7. The contract was awarded on Mar. 14.

The Lee Ave. school will be a $600,000, 20-room structure of brick and steel construction. The present contract includes excavation, rough grading and the foundation.

spots represents a potentially serious health menace to the community as a breeding ground for mosquitoes.

"The accumulated water, which in spots reaches a depth of two feet, represents a safety menace to our children in that they could easily drown while playing in those areas.

"Aside from the health and safety menace, the use of these areas as a dumping ground tends to reduce property values of the homes in the vicinity and makes living there in general much less pleasant. The erection of barricades at the southerly end of the pavement on these streets is requested after the clean-up process as an expedient in preventing cars and trucks from driving off the pavement and dumping rubbish."

HICKSVILLE—Five men to volunteer for a radiological squad for the Hicksville-Plainview Civil Defense unit are urgently needed. Director Frank Sutter said last night. Three have already enrolled from Plainview and two more are needed there for a complete squad of 10. Training will start immediately for this important assignment.

Another session for registration of CD volunteers takes place this Friday night, Mar. 23, at Nicholai St. School from 7:30 to 9:30

W. KINGSLAND MACY

Hearings now being held in Missouri in a post-election battle for a seat in Congress as the U. S. Representative from the First Congressional District, are of more than passing interest to mid-Island residents. Macy, an Islip Republican who held the office until the end of 1950, lost to Greenwood, a Bay Shore Republican on the Democratic-Liberal ticket, in the November election by 135 votes. Subpoenaed this week were voters from homes in Levittown and Hicksville as Macy's attorney sought to prove they moved into their new dwellings after July 7 and thus were not entitled to vote. Greenwood's lawyer countered that they signed contracts to purchase prior to July 7 and therefore, under a 1936 Supreme Court order, were qualified to vote. Residents of Ponder and Brittle Lanes were among the 54 witnesses questioned in the 7th session of the hearings.

ERNEST GREENWOOD

Plainview Sends Easter Baskets

PLAINVIEW—Seven men from this community in the armed forces are receiving Easter baskets from their home town through the activities of the Comfort Committee led by Mrs. Wm. Schwarz, Chairman. Baskets included razor blades, pencils, writing paper, comic candies. Each week the Committee sponsors delivery of a copy of the Mid-Island HERALD to local men in service also.

Vamps Reach Fire Before Alarm Blows

HICKSVILLE—Volunteer firemen got to the scene of a blaze, Sunday at noon, before the sirens and public alarms were sounded. This is how it happened:

Stanley Mruz, Hicksville Civic Assoc. president, recalled this week that last Nov. 1 the HCCA had again protested to the Oyster Bay Town Board regarding dumping at the Seafaring pit.

On Nov. 28 the Town Board replied, "The dumping of refuse in the Seafaring pit was ordered stopped before your complaint came in. We will keep constant check to avoid future dumping." Previously, in Nov. 1949, the Civic Assoc. had protested to the Town Board against continued digging of sand pits on both sides of the LIRR and called attention to a 1945 town ordinance which states it is the town's policy re-

Sunday evening at 6:25 the firemen answered a grass fire call on South Bayway near Lewis St. and then on Saturday afternoon they fought a fire on the former St. John's Home property, behind the Spiegel Homes along Nevada St.

Gasoline from a tilted tank flooded the corner of Broadway and Cherry St. on Thursday, Mar. 16, and firemen were called by a silent alarm at 3:42 P.M.

Rotary to Receive Charter on Monday

HICKSVILLE—Charter Night for the new Rotary Club will be held next Monday March 26, at the Sunrise Village, Bellmore, it was announced by Alexander Johns, president, at a meeting held at Thursday afternoon at the Alibi.

"Doc" Quesbarth, as the guest speaker, gave a talk on rubber. His interesting talk was based on 25 years' experience in the rubber field.

Guests at the meeting were Bill Koernig, Joe Fiegerman and L. Fusaro of Huntington and Herb Purick, who was a guest of member Gus Reinhardt.

The Rotary members will be guests of the Lions Club at a joint meeting next Wednesday, March 28, at the Hicksville Inn.

Catholic Daughters Planning Minstrel

HICKSVILLE — The Court Queen of Angels, Catholic Daughters of America are planning an old-time minstrel and dance on Apr. 27 and 28. All proceeds will go to the Convent Fund of St. Ignatius Parish.

Many Hicksville and Levittown stars who performed so brilliantly in the "Gay Nineties Revue" of the last few years will again participate, according to the sponsors. The production is under the direction of Frank McNichols of Mineola. He has had many years' experience in putting on shows of this type.

Cast in leading roles are Thomas Costello, Mark Madden, Larry Eisenhauer, Bill West, Hank Varca, Harry Woods, Bill Molitor, Dorothy Yahres, Charles DeSerrre, Terry DeSerrre, Helen Litzwan, Andrew Morris, Jeanne O'Connor, Kathleen Conway, Laureen Glass and Jimmy McCormack.

Dear Jean...

J. GORDON ULMER, Hicksville-Plainview Red Cross chairman, urges the volunteers to make reports of funds collected to him at Ulmer and Coe Service Station without delay. Spaces were painted out this week for Bway parking meters and Police Capt. JESSUP at 2nd Precinct insists that meters are being enforced. Likewise, 3-hour limit in parking fields . . . HUETTNER'S this year celebrates its 75th year in business. Firm was founded in 1876 . . . Wow, wow. Big day at Stop N Shop starting bright and early next Wednesday morning. Cowboys, free gifts, samples, etc. . . . SAM PACE, Kiwanis secretary, was home ill last week . . . Hicksville teachers and custodians are to receive a $100 cost-of-living wage increase. . . . Today is the first day of Spring . . .

The BERGOLD farm on Old Country Rd., just west of the State Parkway bridge, Hicksville, has been sold for home development. An auction of farm equipment was held at the farm yesterday (Tuesday) morning.

I hear a HOWARD JOHNSON restaurant is scheduled for the corner of Hempstead Tpk. and Loring Rd., Levittown.

When Lions Club President MYRON SAUSMER was in New York recently, he attended a meeting of the Lions at the Hotel Martinique . . . The Editor won't like this item, but what local fireman managed to sing his mustache and eyebrows up a high blaze, Sunday morning? . . . And what Hicksville Park "battletock" did it again, Saturday, by leaving his groceries on the A&P check-out counter when the horn sounded? . . . "Northern Civic Assoc. of Levittown" may be the name of that new group in the south part of Hicksville.

PLAINVIEW residents are reminded they need a permit from the fire warden before they burn rubbish on their property. Permits may be obtained, for the asking, from wardens CHARLES LIEB of Main Pkwy or WM. SCHWARZ of Old Country Rd.

A Hattie newspaper carries an item about RUNHILF WESSELL of the local high school faculty attending the UN as a delegate from the World Organization of the Teaching Profession.

A four million dollar bond issue for new Levittown School Dist. 5 schools was carried, Saturday, with 461 yes and 22 no. We found the turn out pretty poor since there are almost 10,000 qualified voters in the district. . . . No school next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, for Hicksville Adult Education pupils at the high school. Courses resume on Apr. 2 . . . Any business man got a basement for rent to a Model RR Club? If yes, call the Herald . . . Do you know what a "brassard" is? It's an armband. The Office of Civil Defense has just received its first shipment for distribution to all those engaged in protecting lives and property. Imagine the surprise on the face of a certain CD officer when he read a memo at Mineola: "The brassieres are here for distribution" . . . Next Tuesday morning, Mar. 27, at 10 o'clock, the public hearing starts before the PSC at 233 Bway NYC, on the need for additional safeguards at Charlotte Ave. and New South Rd. RR crossings . . . Ever hear of the OPS? Neither did we until the BMA meeting Thursday. It's Office of Price Stabilization and after a lot of phone calling we found its regional office at 2 Park Ave., NYC. A phoned request for data brought the reply, "You'll have to write us a letter" . . . A meeting of the fire chiefs in this section is scheduled at East Meadow next week regarding reporting of five alarms by phone and confusion with Levittown . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Michnoff of 281 Broadway, Bethpage, are the parents of a son, David Joel, born on Monday, Mar. 19, at Nassau Community Hospital. The father is one of the proprietors of the Bethpage Sweet Shop.

HICKSVILLE — Members of Dorothy Willard, president, announced that the LIRR has erected the wire fence along the school property requested by the Auxiliary.

She also announced that tickets are available to members for a lecture by Vincent Hartnett at the high school next month.

She said the organization had done splendid work for a group so young—being started last November. She mentioned their help for the nuns, the school and aid on homework assigned students.

Hicksville Park and Duffy Park: Terrific Fire Draws Many Spectators

Hello, Folks:

Belated birthday greetings to Robert Ryndfleiss of 289 Nichols Street (Duffy Park). Bob was 8 years old on Mar. 11.

Walked through the dirt road up McAlester Ave. to have a look at the new homes there. They are going to be very nice. How wonderful it would be if, when buying a new home, one could also buy all the new muniture to go with it?

Had a terrific fire near us last week. Seems it was in part of the Sand Pit on the other side of the tracks. When we looked out the door it seemed as if it were only a block away. Cars came streaming through McAlester Ave., like a Sunday afternoon in the summer. Most of them contained people who were attracted by the flames while driving along Old Country Road and who then turned down our street to watch the blaze.

Mothers who have children who take the school bus had better keep an eye on them, as I've been told they keep running back and

Frederick Van Gaasbeek

HICKSVILLE — Frederick C. Van Gaasbeek of 103 Parkview St. died on Mar. 13. Funeral services were held on Thursday at Fairchild Chapel, Garden City. Interment was at Pinelawn Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Doris; and three sons, Fred, James and George.

Frank Scandale

BETHPAGE — Frank Scandale, 73 of 10th Street, died at Meadowbrook Hospital yesterday (Tuesday). Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Thursday) at the White Funeral Home on Broadway at 10:30 a.m. with a blessing by the Rev. Conway of St. Martin of Tours Church. Interment will be at Holy Rood Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Angelina; a son and a daughter.

Leola Spaulding

HICKSVILLE — Mrs. Leola Spaulding of 146 Newbridge Rd. died on Monday, Mar. 19. Funeral services were held last night (Tuesday) at the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home. The Rev. David Duncombe of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church officiated. Interment will be at Harpers Ferry, Pembroke, North Carolina.

She is survived by her husband, George; one son, James; and two daughters, Mrs. Rosa Aracil of Hicksville, and Mrs. Isabel Davison; and four grandchildren.

Joan Morfis

PLAINVIEW — Joan Morfis, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Morfis of Washington Ave., died on Mar. 15. Funeral services were held at the Mowen Funeral Home on Friday, with the Rev. Howard Rogers of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was at the L. I. National Cemetery. She is survived by four brothers and three sisters.

forth across Duffy Ave. Cars really speed along that road and the children aren't careful.

Glad to hear Susan Walker of 29 McAlester Ave. is back on the mend again. Seems she was in the hospital having her adenoids removed.

A St. Patrick's Day party was held at Dot and El Bonhard's, 37 McAlester Ave., Saturday evening. Everyone had a grand time. At 10:15 a mysterious man came

Dot and Mrs. Jim Condon of 47 McAlester Ave. took their children in to see the St. Patrick's Day Parade, Saturday. Glad I'm not Irish, as that's a chore I wouldn't relish — taking three small children to a parade. Better you than me, Betty and Jim.

Would appreciate any news at all, folks. Bye now.

OFF-SOUTH BROADWAY: Tip of Hat to Both Frankie and Johnny

By Bunny Lester.
HICKSVILLE 3-2784-4

Hats off to the new Soda Spa, FRANKIE AND JOHNNY! Their open house sure was something. Boy, was that ice cream good. I saw COUNCILMAN FRANK CHLUMSKY there and just about everyone else under the sun. The fellows sure have loads of patience and I do mean patience. It seemed the same gang of kids lined up for the free ice cream the whole evening. Some of them even had the nerve to ask for special flavors, yet each and every one of them was treated like kings.

Boys, you would make some dandy baby sitters. Maybe I'll drop my three off when I want an afternoon off. Too bad open house comes so seldom. Lots of luck; your certainly deserve it.

Speaking of luck, folks around here had better hang on to theirs, because MRS. GLADIS McLOUGHLIN of 189 Lee Ave. has her learner's permit, and husband John is teaching the fair lady how to drive. I take great pleasure in quoting him: "She is bucking all over the development; hey, watch that clutch, easy does it." Their son, Dennis, was a year old Mar. 15 (tax day—what a nice deduction). Gladis' parents Mr. and Mrs. James Marion of Brooklyn, came out for the birthday party and will remain through the Easter holidays.

Another girl learning to drive is MRS. KAY FAGIOLA if 183 Cottage Blvd. If and when she ever gets her license, poor husband Louis, can kiss the limousine goodbye. Kay will run a taxi service for us gals who have places to go. Now if we can only find someone with a baby sitting service, we would be set. Kay had some friends in the other night to wish her luck and a speedy victory. They were Mrs. Ruth Rice, Mrs. Kay Sapela, Mrs. Ames McLeod, Mrs. Marianne Cohen, Mrs. Martha Feinberg and Mrs. Lila Woodley. The girls baked a beautiful cake and decorated it with a small car. They all got "drunk" on chocolate milk.

Mom and I went to the white elephant sale at the Nicholai St. School last week and had a wonderful time. What bargains we picked up! By the way, INGRID, did that glass top fit the bottom of your sixer when you got home? Never mind, the money went for a good cause, anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ivory of Brooklyn were the guests of MR. and MRS. W. IVORY of 181

Lee Ave., Wally's kid brother, left for the Marines last Friday.

Blessed events dept.—Honey Girl cat of Mr. and Mrs. RUSSELL HANSEN of 210 Lee Ave., just gave birth to a little brown striped kitten. Nurse GINNEY VARCA just phoned in. Cat and kitten are doing well, more expected soon. I'll keep you all informed of this breathtaking event.

Little NANCY LAMBERT of 1 Fairview Court is sick in bed. Her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling of N.Y.C. came out to visit her this weekend. Speedy recovery, Nancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kachinske and son of Middletown, Conn., spent the weekend visiting MR. and Mrs. KACHINSKE of 3 Fairview Court.

MR. and MRS. RALPH RANKIN of 217 Lee Ave. had Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doucette and Edward Lange as guest Sunday. By the way, Mrs. Kelly's brother, JACK CUMMINGS, of Detroit, is a dream boat. He was here on a visit with his mother and brother, Rob. No, gals, Bob is a happy married man.

Mr. and Mrs. LEE of 187 Cottage Blvd. and their children, Raymond and Danny, spent Sunday in Valley Stream.

That black eye little TOMMY TERESEBI is sporting has been donated by Master PETER LAMBERT.

The O'NEILS of 188 Cottage Blvd. had company from New Jersey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. BEN RUDNIK of 437 Division Ave. gave a dinner in honor of the engagement of Mrs. Rudnik's niece to Al Diamond of Brooklyn. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koenig, who just arrived from Florida.

IN OUR OPINION:

Legal Notices Are Important

By FRED J. NOETH

LEGAL NOTICES or legal advertisements are important information for all citizens at all times. In recent months the importance of such local notices appearing (or not appearing) in the Herald has been greater than at any time in our past history.

Legal advertisements in New York State are divided into two groups: first, those concerning the protection of the private citizen; and, second, those concerning the official acts of governmental officers.

The reasons for increased interest in legal notices in the mid-island section include: (a) more persons today are property owners in this community than ever before, since farms previously owned by one person have been subdivided many times over to increase the number of owners; (b) more actions are being undertaken by public bodies than ever before, largely by reason of the local growth and development.

Some legal notices are mandatory and others are permissive. Our concern is with mandatory notices and the question of whether or not such notices truly provide the service intended.

We are irked no end by the gibberish of legal notices which define the location of a proposed zone change, for example, in such technical terms that the average property or home owner cannot understand what is intended.

The best test of a news story is whether it can be clearly understood. The best test of a legal notice might be the same.

The Statutes of New York State requiring or permitting the publication in newspapers of legal notices and process are many and they cover the legislative, judicial and administrative functions of the state and its political subdivisions, writes Edward L. Ryan, former Assistant New York Attorney General.

But as far as we know, the laws regarding the form of legal notice are not much different when it comes to townships or villages. Why, then, do village notices seem to offer a more complete picture of what is proposed? Many village notices on zone changes, for example, include a small drawing or diagram indicating the property where a change is proposed. Town legal notices seem to rely entirely upon the printed word—and that is generally involved and technical.

You must dig out a tape measure, compass, or hire a qualified surveyor when you read a notice like this:

"Beginning at a point on the north side of Bethpage Rd. 387.46 feet westerly from the right-of-way of the LIRR; thence running north 19° 12' East 200 feet thence running south 70° 58' 30" 379.11 feet to a point in the land of the Hicksville Water District; running thence south 19° 01' 30" West along said land of Hicksville Water District 360.22 feet to a point on the norh side of Bethpage Rd.; thence running north 45° 07' west 412.46 feet."

That is the actual text from a recent town notice regarding a zone change in this community which did not appear in the Herald.

We appreciate that the technical description must be given. But why not include a small sketch or diagram to help the reader know that this parcel might be in his back yard or across the road?

It is customary, we understand, to charge applicants for a zone change the printer's cost of publishing the legal notice. It would be relatively simple to add a small additional fee to cover the cost of an engraving which could be published with the notice.

Sketch of this type would add to clarity of legal notices.

Last week we read a notice in the Farmingdale Post where the Village Board is designating a portion of the business section for special assessments on parking costs. Besides the "legal" description of the property, the notice included publication of a large scale map of the territory in question.

Even the addition of a few extra sentences to the notice might help: i.e., reference to some present-day landmarks would go a long way toward clarifying legal advertisements.

Good Luck, Rotarians

THE NEW ROTARY Club of Hicksville will receive its charter from the International organization next Monday evening at Bellmore. We welcome this new service club, the third in Hicksville, to our community and wish it success in its efforts.

A community can only profit by the activities of such service organizations. The Hicksville Kiwanis, the oldest here, over the years has done much which has escaped public notice simply because its efforts in behalf of underprivileged children had to be conducted without publicity to be effective. We recall the Kiwanis in its initial days took the leadership in such matters as promoting parking fields and other civic matters.

The Lions came along about three years and have also contributed to the development of a better community in which to live. The Lions Club is currently handling the commerce and industry division of the Red Cross fund campaign, a task which might not otherwise have been accomplished.

Next Wednesday night at the Hicksville Inn the Lions and the new Rotarians will hold a joint dinner meeting starting at 7 o'clock. In the past the Lions and Kiwanians have met together.

Certainly there is rivalry between these organizations, but it can only result in a better community. Each group, in its own way, stands for service to the community.

We Need Commuter Fields

A PUBLIC HEARING was held in Massapequa, Thursday night, by Oyster Bay Town Board upon a $110,000 public-commuter parking field project for that south shore community. The news is of local interest because the Town is paying half of the cost and that, as a result, Oyster Bay township is spending MORE town-wide funds in Massapequa for parking than in Hicksville.

Further, Hicksville commuters have been pleading with the officials to "do something." Several commuters got together and made a survey of local properties some months ago. One of their number, an architect, even did a layout to show accommodations for about 150 cars on one of the proposed fields.

We're not jealous of Massapequa. More power to our south shore neighbors if they can get action on parking problems. But what about Hicksville's plea for attention?

The new Massapequa parking field will be constructed on property owned by the New York Water Service Co., the Long Island State Park Commission and the Long Island Rail Road. Civic and business leaders in Hicksville have been waiting for the town (more than a year now) to get action upon use of the LIRR property at our depot for public-commuter parking.

Tid Bits of Humor

As told to Madeline Rives Godfrey

29 Willif Ave., Hicksville

A LADY WALKING along 5th Avenue saw something brightly shining, lying on the sidewalk.

She stopped to examine it: suddenly clapped her hand to her mouth—then breathed a sigh of relief. "Gentleman, Gentleman," she called to a man walking in front of her. As he turned, embarrassed she said, "You dropped something," then hurried away.

The man looked at the object lying there on the walk, felt in his back trouser pocket, then glanced nervously about him, stooped and retrieved the bridge he had dropped when removing his handkerchief.

Hicksville Teacher Pay Behind County

HICKSVILLE—A study of the salary survey, made by the Nassau County Classroom Teachers' Assoc. was discussed at a meeting of the local Classroom Teachers' Assoc. last Thursday at the high school study hall.

The study revealed that although teachers' salaries in Nassau are moving up, the Hicksville scale is behind; that State legislation which can only prescribe minimums for the entire State does not indicate that it will meet the needs of the Nassau County area; and that present State legislation on State Aid to District 17 would be of great assistance to the district and should be supported by correspondence to State legislators, teachers heard.

The Association plans to sponsor a talk by Vincent Hartnett on Apr. 30 at the high school auditorium.

PLAINVIEW COUNTRY HOMES: "Unholy Trio" Races When Alarm Sounds

By RAE CANTILLI
HI 3-0288-M

Hill Folks:
I guess you all know by now the result of the Mar. 15 vote on a proposed $125,000 supplementary appropriation for a new school. A group of us were there when the ballots were counted and, as far as we know, the vote was 183 for, 150 against and 10 void. This is unofficial as this column is written. Since the appropriation lacked a two-thirds majority, it was not put through. A total of 343 voters went to the polls to vote, and I was certainly glad to see so many familiar faces from the Plainview Country Homes.

There seems to be an epidemic of ~~news~~ around Plainview, Sunday. The "unholy trio" of Gessner, Cannilli and Hinszberger can be seen scooting off to each fire alarm at top-rate speed. The only thing is that the fire siren is so faint that unless you are straining your ears you can't hear it.

Mrs. Marks of 14 Eldorado Blvd. is our Fashion Frock representative for the Plainview Country Homes. She informed me that she has a wonderful selection of dresses at very reasonable rates, and would like any ladies interested to phone her at HI 3-0035-W or call at her home. She also tells me that she and her husband are celebrating their 9th wedding anniversary on the 14th and since it is also her mother, Mrs. Suller's birthday, they are having a small celebration at home. Congratulations to all of you.

The O'Donnell's on Eldorado have a new arrival in their home. She is their brand new daughter, Janice Lynn born on Feb. 12. The very best to the little one.

The newly established Home Owners Association will have another meeting on Wednesday, Mar. 28 at 8:30 p.m. Keep this date in mind and you will be informed on a meeting place, later on.

The Paynes celebrated St. Patrick's Day at a Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner at the Vets-Hall in Hicksville. From all reports they had a wonderful time.

Speaking of the Vets don't forget the Am-Vets Ball, Mar. 31. All of us around here are making plans to go. Since the dance is optional, a lot of us are getting our formal's out. It is not often we can go formal. Harold Russell the movie star and also National Commander of the Am-Vets is going to be guest of honor. It's at the Paraglide Club in Hempstead and donations are $5.00 a couple.

By the way, quite a few of the gals around here, including yours truly, are taking driving instructions in connection with the adult education course in Hicksville. Just a warning to pedestrians and car owners alike — beware of the Plainview Country Homes in the future.

So long for now.

Locust Grove Votes On Extra Money

Mrs. Owen Treanor of 37-25 Mallard Rd., Hicksville, was hostess at a Better Brushes party held Mar. 15 at her home. William Peysen was the demonstrator. The guests were Mrs. Peggy Woerle of Amityville, Mrs. Cecile O'Hara of Hicksville, Mrs. Virginia Tucker of Merrick, Mrs. Gordon of Floral Park, and Mrs. Mabel Neilson of Bay Shore. Mrs. Tucker won the door prize.

The best value on your shopping list

It's your telephone. And here's why:

You can call—and be called by—many more people than ever before at local rates.

Telephone service is faster, clearer, more dependable than ever. Yet the price you pay for your telephone has gone up far less than most other things you buy.

It has taken a tremendous amount of telephone construction to bring you this added value. In the past five years the new buildings, lines and switchboards we've built into the State's existing telephone system have made it possible to serve two million more telephones. This huge program has totaled $780,000,000.

The big job is not yet completed. Some people are still waiting for telephones, and defense needs—which must always come first—are demanding an increasing amount of telephone equipment and service.

In these critical times, particularly, it is reassuring that the telephone system is not only bigger, but better and more flexible than ever before.

Town Approves 2 Changes for Schwamb Farm

Board has approved two changes of zone of the Schwamb farm property on Bethpage Rd., Hicksville, from residential to Business "C" district and Industrial "T" district. The property is adjacent to the Hicksville Water District land.

The industrial zone was granted with the stipulation that a triangular piece of the land be given to the Hicksville Park and Parking District and that a 6-foot chain link fence be constructed along its eastern boundary and improved with planting of trees and shrubs. The approval also stipulates a 10-foot buffer strip on the west side with adequate planting to serve as a screen on the buffer strip.

PLANNING YOUR GARDEN?

Offer Herald Readers Expert Guidance

The planning done by home gardeners in the next few weeks will largely determine how complete and efficient the operations will be during the whole garden season, according to Prof. C. B. Raymond, chairman of Cornell's newly formed home gardening committee.

He says it's a good idea to figure out the space you have before deciding on the crops to grow. A farmer with plenty of land and only a little spare time can plant widely spaced rows to permit some form of power cultivation and can grow any crop he wants.

The gardener in town with limited space may best place rows much closer together, practice such tricks as companion and succession cropping, and choose crops like beets, carrots, lettuce, onions, and snap beans that give lots of eating from a little space.

Offer Booklet

As a guide for home gardeners, Cornell has just printed Bulletin E-820, "Planning and Planting the Home Garden." It offers suggestions on growing fruits, flowers, and vegetables, and has a handy table with information on time to plant, suggested plantings for families of four to six persons, space between rows and plants, and the time required for fruits and vegetables to mature.

Vegetables cited as the easiest to grow are green snap and wax beans, beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, chard, leaf lettuce, onions, parsley, radishes, spinach, summer squash, tomatoes, and turnips. Anyone with limited experience or limited garden space should confine his efforts to this group.

The garden site should have at least five or six hours of direct sunlight in the middle of the day. The kind of drainage and the distance from trees are also important in selecting a site. Tree roots rob the plants of nutrients and moisture. In the bulletin home gardeners will also be able to find suggestions on soil preparation, weed control, fertilizers, small fruits and ornamentals.

The county Extension office has free copies of the bulletin. It may also be obtained from the Mailing Room, Roberts Hall, Ithaca, N. Y.

Articles to be donated for a rummage sale on Mar. 29 and 30 will be picked up if donors will call either Mrs. Adams at Hicksville 3-1986 or Mrs. Daines at Hicksville 3-0545. The sale will be sponsored by the WSCS of the Hicksville Methodist Church and will be held at the church from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Many good articles of clothing for packages to Europe will be available as well as materials for hook rugs.

lasting to sand bank and pit, top soil removal and other excavations "to provide the proper use of land to prevent all manner of excavations which create pits, holes or hollows in the earth, leaving it in a hazardous or dangerous state."

"On Nov. 15, 1949, the town clerk reported that 'old' pitfalls were referred to Town Attorney Summers and the Town Building Dept," Mruz said today. "We have heard nothing since."

The sandpit question may come before the Civic Assoc. at its regular meeting tomorrow (Thursday) night at the Firehouse auditorium.

Town Clerk Leslie Disbrow told the Herald this week that there is no town ordinance against the dumping of refuse, particularly "fill" in open pits. However, the town seeks to limit all dumping to the incinerator grounds at Locust Grove.

The Home HANDYMAN'S CORNER

By TOM CASHIEL

Your terrific response to our sale on pickets and posts certainly proves that a lot of you Guys and Girls like to do things yourselves—that's the reason for this DO IT YOURSELF COLUMN. We here at Cashiel's are only too glad to help you with your fence problems whether it be masonry or wood construction.

The type of wood used in construction of a fence is extremely important to the homeowner. If a poor quality of wood is used in a picket fence, for example, it will not take paint well and is likely to need replacement at an early date. Post and rail fences are much less costly to maintain in general, but they too must be built of durable wood. It is especially important to get the best quality wood for posts. Wood such as cypress, cedar and redwood are commonly used, but whatever type is chosen, it is wise to have the ends treated with creosote.

Now that you have your fence built—why not give it a good coat of white Pittsburgh Paint, or some startling color to blend in with the color scheme of your home. Don't spoil all your hard work by a poor choice of color or paint.

Stop in today and our fence experts will help you plan and show you how to build that fence.

County Delays Action On PBC Resignations

HICKSVILLE — The twelve adult sponsors of the Hicksville unit of the Police Boys Club led by President Harold Manasik, Sr., joined in signing a letter of resignation from the county organization at a special meeting held Wednesday night, Mar. 14, at the Legion Hall, here.

The letter was presented at the County Board of Trustees meeting in Mineola by Fred C. Birk of the local unit, Thursday night. The resignation was held over for consideration and action at a county board future meeting.

The letter, in part, follows:

"On Wednesday night, March 7, the Hicksville Aces, winner of the 2nd Precinct Intermediate Basketball League engaged in, and won a play-off game at Westbury. The game has since been declared forfeited to Westbury by Lt. William McCullough.

"Rule No. 8 of the Nassau County Police Boys Club Basketball Rules for 1950-1951 reads:

"Rosters: A roster of not more than 15 names will be submitted for each team. Changes in roster may be made January 3, 1951. Rosters for intermediate league will be submitted in triplicate by January 3, 1951.

"Hicksville's alleged forfeit is based on the fact that one boy playing for the Hicksville Aces previously played for the Hicksville Cards in the same league but was transferred to the Aces roster. This transfer was made in accordance with Rule No. 6 and to the best of our knowledge was accepted in Mineola as correct.

"Hicksville's loss through transgression of a verbal order not a printed rule, and the manner in which the irregularity was acted upon and judged, violates our sense of fair play. The boys of the team who played and won the game in question can hardly be expected to appreciate the fine points of verbal orders which deprive them of a hard won victory in which they rightly take pride.

HICKSVILLE—All local public schools and St. Ignatius School will close today (Wednesday) for the Easter vacation.

Softball Teams to Organize Soon

The local high school athletic field will be bustling with activity the Sunday after next as the various softball teams in this area hold their first spring workouts.

Player personnel of Hicksville teams has varied very little in recent years, so pre-season softball writeups must be repetitious for the folks who have been with us all along.

However, it is in the hope that our newer residents take note of the proceedings and perhaps avail themselves to them, that we are going at the softball game at this early date.

We know, of no other village in Nassau County that goes in for softball in such a big way as does Hicksville.

Yearly there is a community league which averages about ten teams and it can boast the best pitching of any league in the county.

The caliber of Hicksville softball has been such that in recent seasons it has been represented by not one but two teams in the exclusive Jones Beach League.

Botto Brothers last season won the County division of the Rockville Centre night league and also won the Nassau ASA softball championship.

It was the third year in a row that the ASA title found itself in Hicksville.

The freshly organized Empire Diner team ran off with the championship of the Hempstead Softball League last season and also came home to pick up the marbles in the Hicksville loop, much to the surprise of all and sundry.

The Long Island Nationals, Bottos and Empire will be just a few of the many teams that will be working out soon on the high school grounds. It is our understanding that the rosters are not closed and material will be needed all round.

New residents may unearth enough talent to really push Hicksville over the top in this softball game, and they will be welcome.

It will be to the advantage of the Hicksville clubs too, since tolerance of player temperament in the past has cost them dearly.

Botto Brothers, who, aside from their honors won, also point out that they lost three games to the famed Grumman Geese last season, have already announced an ambitious rule for the coming year.

They will defend their Rockville Centre championship, seek a berth in the Jones Beach League again, enter the Nassau County ASA playoffs and seek the championship of the Hicksville league.

In order to face such a large schedule—it should mean at least 60 games—they will need a big squad.

Lou Kappstatter has already been named assistant manager to Bernie McGunnigle to help the Botto boss over the long pull.

So it will be a big season and the time to get in on the day is early.

The triumph of the Hicksville Lions in the Northern Division of the Nassau County Alliance League was a marked distinction for Coach Steve Ruggiero.

He is the first mentor to win both an Alliance League and a Nassau County Amateur League title for Hicksville.

His 1948 Kiwanis club prevailed for the NCABL flag after a three-cornered dog-fight with Westbury and Mineola.

Lou Principe of the Nassau Scholastic championship senior Bay team attended the Friday night presentation of the Hicksville High School Senior play.

It really was a good show and compared in its field with the performance Mr. Principe put on to help coach Dick Rawley's team nip Sewanhaka for the County title.

It was he who blasted the Indians' defense with accurate balls from outside the foul line in the first three quarters and held the Eastern Division champs in the game until Selz wrapped it up with a corking rally in the opening minutes of the last period.

This was one of 1800 portions of ice cream served free to those present at this gala affair. Miss Madison was portrayed by a professional mod-

Lions Even Alliance Playoffs 83-57; Rubber Tilt at Freeport Tonight

FREEPORT—The championship of the Nassau County Alliance League will be decided here tonight (Wednesday) when the Hicksville Lions, still in high gear from their 83-57 victory on their home boards Monday night, which evened the series, face the Rockville Centre Cubs in the final game of a best two-out-of-three set at the Columbus Avenue Grammar School.

It was left-handed Ray Fitcher who lit the fire under the young Lions, Monday night at Hicksville, He poured in 17 points in the first half as Hicksville zoomed to a 49-28 intermission lead and added 8 more in the last two periods as the Lions completed the rout.

Title Game Even

Few persons will venture a guess as to who will run off with the grand prize tonight but the contest is regarded as a toss-up.

That is quite a change from the series first started when the South Shore team was odds on to win the crown.

Hicksville invaded the home jail of the Cubs for the first game but layups and Frank McCue added a set.

Fitcher came back with two baskets and John Econopouly hit from the foul line twice and Hicksville was ahead 19-9.

From then on in the Lions swarmed all over the visitors. They led at the quarter 30-18.

at half time 49-28 and 65-44 after three periods.

Fitcher was high with 25 points. Levitt contributed 16, Econopouly 14, McCue 7, Charlie Doneil 5, Kerbs and Wesnofske 2 apiece.

Bill Neu, who will be a big threat in the championship game bowed 74-69 despite a spunky try.

In the game at Hicksville Fitcher was remarkable as well as deadly. His pet shot came after he made a semi-circle dribble of the court and then tossed the ball over his opponents' head.

He put Hicksville in front 2-1. Milton Levitt played very well under the boards in the opening minutes and popped in two creditable baskets. Bill Cheslock stole the ball twice and went in for tonight, pivoted in 19 points for the losers.
