LIVELY MEETING TOMORROW:

Plea to Dissolve Park District Before Board

OYSTER BAY—The North Levittown Home Owners Assoc. is scheduled to present a petition to the town board here tomorrow (Thursday) morning requesting that the Hicksville Park and Parking District be dissolved and that a new district be formed excluding the area of Levitt-built homes in Hicksville.

Charles C. Miller, NLHOA president, is scheduled to offer a petition which, he told the Herald, contains "about 200" signatures from the 2000 homes in the area. Several other residents of the area informed the Herald yesterday that they plan to attend the town board meeting also and oppose the NLHOA plan.

Legal questions are expected to arise since the Park and Parking District now has financial obligations being met by tax upon property in the entire district. These include short term notes financing the two public parking fields off Route 58.

Town officials appear cool to the proposal. The reason for the move, it appears, is to prevent the use of two swimming pools in Hicksville built by Levitt and Sons from becoming district property. Levitt has indicated that he plans to transfer ownership of the pools to the town district.

JWV to Entertain 75 Korean Vets Sept 8

HICKSVILLE—Post No. 655 of the Jewish War Veterans is attending the J.W.V. County Ball at the Bethpage Country Club on Sept. 8.

Seventy-five wounded Korean servicemen from St. Albans Naval Hospital will be the guests of honor, escorted by an equal number of beautiful young ladies from Nassau, 30 of whom are from Hicksville.

The "Pleasure Hunt" now being conducted by the local post is one of the means used to provide funds for entertaining the wounded servicemen and veterans. Northport Hospital volunteers will be the recipients of most of the gifts and entertainment furnished thru the contributions of local residents and businessmen.

The chairman of the fund drive, Sidney Kaplan of 77 Center St., states that over $250 has already been subscribed. Prizes will be awarded on Nov. 8.

Funeral Today for Rev. William Rusch

RIVERHEAD—The Rev. William Rusch, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hicksville for a number of years, began in 1915, died at his home here on Sunday evening at the age of 66. He came to Riverhead eight years ago to become pastor of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church. Services will be held today (Wednesday) at 1 o'clock with interment at Plainlawn Cemetery, Hicksville, about 4 o'clock.

Rev. Rusch recently completed 40 years in the ministry. Before coming to Hicksville, he was in South America for four years. During his long tenure in Hicksville, daughter congregations of Trinity Lutheran Church were started in Glen Cove in 1920, and St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Bethpage in 1923. He served both communities in addition to Hicksville for a time.

It was during his tenure in Hicksville also that the present stone church edifice was erected, being completed in 1931.

The Rev. Rusch will lie in state in his church in Riverhead until funeral services this afternoon. He had been ill for about a year.

Contest for GOP Supervisor Choice Goes to Convention

Both Republicans and Democrats will make their official announcements of candidates for major township positions the end of this week. The GOP committeemen will meet tomorrow (Thursday) night at Rothmann's East Norwich Inn and the Democrats will assemble Friday evening at the Legion Hall, Hicksville. Interest in the election is keen with the absence of Harry Tappen, voter-popular GOP township supervisor, from the ballot. He has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the position he has held for many years.

Two Look South

Selection of the Republican standard bearer is still a wide-open question with two leading candidates for the designation. Lewis Waters, Syosset civil engineer and member of the Town Board as a Councilman, has the support of North Shore GOP committeemen while Ernest F. Francke, Hicksville Republican leader and member of the zoning appeals board, is backed by mid-Island and south-township factions.

Experienced political observers believe the fight will go right to the township GOP convention floor, tomorrow night. Some others feel that a compromise candidate may win out for the sake of party harmony of the issue is deadlocked.

No change is anticipated in the rest of the GOP slate as Town Clerk Leslie Dishrow, Tax Receiver Frank G. Schell and Town Councilmen Frank Otkunsky of Hicksville and Charles Bontiller of Locust Valley got named again.

The Democrats have not disclosed the names of any of their potential candidates. Richard T. Mayes, town Democratic leader, told the Herald his party has men in Sea Cliff and Hicksville under consideration for the supervisor candidacy, a woman in line for town clerk and at least one Hicksville man ready to run for Town Councilman.

Committeemen of both parties at their separate conventions will reorganize and elect their town party officials.

The county GOP committee organization meeting takes place Friday night at the Garden City Hotel.

HICKSVILLE FIRE DEPT., host to 53 volunteer fire fighting units here on Labor Day, comes under the judging arch on Cedar St. led by Fire Commissioners (left to right) Vincent Braun, Jack Lockie, Harry Steckler and Fred Miller. Another commissioner, Ex-Chief George Engel, was marshal for a division of the parade. One fire department came here all the way from Unionville, Conn. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

2 Bethpage Victims Of Polio This Week

BETHPAGE—Albert Kaufmann, age 30, of 17 Pershing Ave., was taken to Meadowbrook with poliomyelitis, Saturday. It has not yet been determined how serious his condition is. However, it was learned that he had been placed in an iron lung. Mr. Kaufmann is the father of two children.

A two and a half year old boy, also a resident of Bethpage, was taken to Meadowbrook Hospital, Thursday, suffering from the same disease. These are the first two cases to hit Bethpage this year.

Local Man Again On TV, Tuesday

NEW YORK CITY—Frank Pavlicek of Belmont Ave., Plainville, will make his second appearance on the Ted Mack Amateur Hour program next Tuesday evening, Sept. 11, with his tap dancing doll. He appeared on the same show last year and has been invited to return. The show appears on NBC, Channel 4, starting at 10 p. m.

Cisler Says Thanks To His Supporters

HICKSVILLE—William A. Cisler, new commissioner of the water district, today thanked all who supported him at the district election last Thursday night. He received 277 ballots and Lewis Ubbelin, 59. There were 32 void ballots. Cisler took office immediately, succeeding Laurence Bevan.

Record Crowds Here For Tourney

HICKSVILLE—The Westerners racing team of West Hempstead copped 16.5 points to win the 23rd annual Labor Day Firemen's Tournament here, Monday. More than 25,000 persons saw the parade and almost 10,000 were present for the afternoon races on Cedar St. under cloudy skies. The sixth event was run with a light drizzling rain falling.

Attendance set a new record for post-war tournaments here. There were 3,222 firemen in the parade line, over 300 ladies auxiliary members and more than 200 pieces of fire apparatus in line.

No serious accidents were reported. However, the Red Cross first aiders treated 46 persons during the day, according to Dept. Surgeon Walter F. Stillner, M.D.

Chairman Edward Kessler and his committee publicly thanked all who attended and participated in the program to make it a success. The parade prizes were: best appearing ladies auxiliary, Unionville; best appearing department, over 50 men, Forest; best appearing department, over 50 men, Forest; best appearing department, over 50 men, Forest; best appearing department, over 50 men, Forest.

THOUSANDS of dollars worth of fire fighting equipment rolled in the Labor Day parade, here. This is how the Hicksville apparatus looked from the judging arch, Monday.

BRIAR PARK, PLAINVIEW:Expecting Many More New Neighbors

By ETHEL ROONEY—BY 2-2884

In about two weeks we will have a load of new neighbors. The men have been busy finishing up for weeks and now they have the topsoil almost in the peering had painting just about done. Well, we have beaten them by about a year. In fact the LAUTERBACHS and ROONEYS moved in late on a Friday afternoon one year ago, Aug. 31. We should have had a celebration, but were too busy preparing for the Labor Day weekend. A year ago we were too busy settling, we didn't even realize Labor Day had come and gone. Of course, there were plenty of people in before us.

MR. and MRS. FRANK GROSSO of 81 Nassau Ave. are one of the luckiest couples in Sear Park. They moved in five weeks ago to a house and yard complete with a great big shady cherry tree sitting in the backyard. They have the last house on Nassau Ave. and the tree was left there by the farmers who worked this land a long time ago. MRS. GROSSO told me that youngsters have come from all over this section just to climb that tree.

Do you know of anyone interested in one of the original model Briar Park Homes? 69 Nassau Ave. has a sign in the window to call Garden City 7-8877 for information. The house is complete with aluminum combination storm windows and doors.

MR. and MRS. F. W. STREETMANN of 68 Nassau Ave. celebrated on Sept. 3rd. Their ex-brat their Third Wedding Anniversary. They were unable to come so they just celebrated quietly alone.

The PIERSONS of 43 Virginia Ave. have done something to help keep their children home. They have a sort of basketball court set up in the yard (with only one basket, of course) and a tent too. Both items are homemade by Mr. PIERSON, and although neither the basketball court nor the tent are expensive or elaborate, they help to make home the place for their youngsters.

Have you seen the screened-in porch MR. and MRS. JAMES H. CHATFIELD have at 33 Nassau Ave.? It is nice and roomy and provides a cool shady spot to reach on these hot summer days.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES

SCOOPES of Oaking-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., visited MR. and MRS. STELTSMANN of 68 Nassau Ave. on Aug. 29. MRS. SCOOPES and MRS. STELTSMANN are sisters.

The VENABLE family of 41 Virginia Ave. have a beautiful new barbecue in the yard. Not only is it a lovely ornament, it works, too, and will assure them many a nice picnic without having to travel to a crowded picnic ground.

JOHN DURKIN, JR. (SKIPPER to you) was one of the eight top newboys in a recent Newsday competition. He won a week at camp plus a sight-seeing plane trip.

This fall new courses are scheduled in retailing, mathematics, psychology and physics. The retailing courses — Retail Store Management and Operations, Store Service Seminar, Retail Merchandising, and Non-Textiles are part of the new Cooperative Retail Training Program.

OFF SOUTH BROADWAY: Hectic Weekend for Our Neighborhood

By Sunny Lane, HI 3-2704-J

If who must was cold last weekend. Felt like taking the woolies out of the moth balls. Guess I'll just sit back and wait for Indian Summer first.

Had a real hectic weekend. Saturday the WOODLEYS and us went to the Bronx.

Sunday the Bronx came to us. There were Mr. and Mrs. MILTON ROTH and sons RONNY and LARRY and Miss PRISCILLA GROSS.

Monday there was the parade—the tournament and my niece, SHELLY from next door's birthday party. Little Miss LAUER was all of two years old. Her birthday cake was bigger than she is. Small fry guests were YOLA WOODLEY and my brood HOLLY—IVA and PAUL.

The JOHNSTON Boys, THOMAS, 6, and JAMES, 3, of 10 Bellem Lane are home after a two and a half months vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. WALTER BEAUMER of Hahndorf, Ohio. On the way home they stopped to visit with their great grandma, Mrs. E. A. WILLIAMS of New Milford, Penna. Grandpa HEALINGER took them to Ohio and their daddy called for them last week. Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE BEAUMER and children, JULIE and NEWELL of Cleveland, Ohio, were JOHNSTON guests last week.

Mr. and Mrs. FRANK RANDALL of Cottage Blvd. spent the weekend in New Jersey visiting friends and relatives.

Master KENNETH BERG has returned to his home in New Hyde Park after spending ten days with the F. TEUBNERS of 179 Lee Ave.

Congratulations to my next door neighbor, HILDA MERKLER. She has received her license and only with one test. Mom and Pop and sister, LORRY, came out from Flushing Sunday to help her celebrate.

Little MISS DELANA GIOVENNELLE of Lee Ave. was christened Sunday at St. Ignatius R. C. Church. Her God-parents are Mrs. MARY GLACCHETTI and ANGELO CARRIO. There isn't enough room to list all the guests because just about every one was there. The food was delicious and plentiful. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. PHYLLIS GLACCHETTI (Grandma) and Mr. and Mrs. A. GLACCHETTI and AL GLACCHETTI.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sundberg and three daughters, JEAN, TERRY, MARGARET of 162 Lee Ave. spent the week end in Mount Val, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. S. STONE of Division Ave. gave a dinner party in their home, Monday. Members of their family, and guests were Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT STONE; son, ALBERT, JR., Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE BLAKE, Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT ROTH and children, DONNA and ALICE.

Mr. and Mrs. HENRY STERNER of 15 North Drive had guests Sunday. There were Mr. and Mrs. HERBERT STERNER and children DIANA, RAYMOND and HERBERT, JR. of Middle Village; Mr. and Mrs. EDDIE RUVE and children, NELDA and EDDIE.

Kinda tired after this week end, so forgive me if this column lacks vim and vigor. Tell the truth—aren't you glad it's school time?

BETWEEN DUFFY AND OLD COUNTRY: Weather Forces Block Party Indoors

HI Folks:

I spent Saturday evening looking for some of my neighbors at the Block Dance given by the Fire Dept. but alas I saw no one. . . . The Dance was not held in the parking field because of the weather. . . . It was transferred to the basement of the firehouse. Those that were present really enjoyed themselves. What I want to know is, who was that gentleman out without his wife, but with two of his neighbors wives?

Have you noticed how harsh George, the Krug man's voice has been? Seems George had charge of the Krug picnic and he blames it on too much yelling. Couldn't be too much beer, could it?

ANN DIEDERICH has, meeting of the Friendly Circle Club last week. All the members always show up at Ann's house because she makes those delicious Pizza Pies. . . . m m m m they're out of this world.

Who was that I saw with JOE HORAN last weekend?
DEANE LEBVIX of 44 McAlister Ave. celebrates her first birthday on Sept. 8.

MR. and MRS. HARDERN of 4 Mead Ave. had a birthday party for her son STERLING last week. Mrs. HARDERN also celebrated her birthday a day later.

Guess all you mothers will be glad school starts this week. Wish I could say the same, however, my children are still too small for school.

My phone has been silent lately, please give me a call.

NORTH WEST NOTES: North West Civics to Start Meetings

By JIMMY CONNINGS

The North West Civic Assoc. will start its second year of operations shortly. In the past year much has been accomplished and we look forward with interest to our first meeting to greet all our neighbors and friends after the summer months. Cards will be mailed shortly to all our members informing them of the meeting date, time and place.

We urge all our new neighbors on Gardner and Kuhl Ave. to make it their business to come on down and join with us in our efforts to better our community and assist us in promoting the many programs we have in mind. President Pat Boland and his staff have worked very earnestly during the last year, which was our first year and the hardest, but through cooperation and effort by all we organized a fine Civic Association here in Hicksville. Membership dues are $1.50 per house — per family — JOIN NOW.

PAPER DRIVE THIS SUNDAY

The CD Paper Salvage Drive will take place this Sunday, September 9th, beginning at 9 A.M. We urge all residents to put out their paper—tie it in bundles—so it will be easier to handle—place it near the curb or on your front stoop—Remember—Sunday—9 A.M.

GADABOUTS

Everybody enjoyed the Fire Tournament which was held in town over Labor Day weekend. The parade was quite long and impressive. For further details read other section in the Herald. Bill Albright putting the finishing touches on his garage... Jim McLaughlin completed his driveway work over the weekend... Pat Boland and his Dad finally completed the front of the house working late into the night. This well formed out of stone, makes a striking appearance to all passers-by. A wonderful piece of work. But it is not completed yet. There were many months of work involved, but it was well worth the effort. Men interested in Saturday work contact me by phone or in person at my home. Read the HERALD each and every week—for all the news that's local.

Until Next Week

PLAINVIEW COUNTRY HOMES: Youngsters Need Local Playground

By RAE GANTLEY—It is a shame CLARE MACALLISTER's mother and dad from Elmhart were recent guests at the MacAllister home.

Happy birthday to JANIE PATRICK who celebrated her first birthday Wednesday. Seems like only yesterday that she was born. Speaking of the Raynes, it anyone saw the police car in front of their home it was not because of a robbery. It was about the children playing bad on the empty lot next to Tom and Ginny's. It seems Tom was keeping the kids' ball to teach them to be a little more careful when they play. They are endlessly hitting the balls into his yard and even broke one of his windows.

You can't blame Tom or the children. If the people in the development would work together it would be a good idea to get a playground so all sides could be happy. Right now all of them are running the streets because there is no place close at hand to go to and have some fun. So keep this in mind, will you?

HIGH SCHOOL...
WHAT?

If your boy or girl is going back to high school this fall, it's time to think of the year AFTER graduation. Will your child face a skilled, competitive world equipped only for routine tasks? Or will he have the techniques for a highly-paid career — the techniques only a college education can give? Now is the time to start laying money aside for college training. Surely, there is no better reason for opening a savings account at the

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT
Mrs. Jeanette Curcio is brimming with enthusiasm over her attendance at the VFW National Encampment in New York City from Aug. 27 to the 31st. Mrs. Curcio is past president of the Bethpage Post Auxiliary and as a member of the National VFW Committee attended the dinners given by Mayor Impelleri and by Gov. Dewey. At each of these functions she had the pleasure of being introduced to these dignitaries.

Jeanette and Mrs. Anne Michaels, president of the Bethpage Post Auxiliary, who also attended the convention, were televised on the Steve Allen show. Quotes Mrs. Curcio, "That was one time we couldn't think of a thing to say."

Jack Krupnick, commander; Ralph Amendola, vice-commander; and Everett Belcher, past commander, Bethpage Post, took part in the monster VFW parade on Aug. 29.

Mrs. Ronald Law will start a new program for children between the ages of 7 and 10 years. Beginning Sept. 15 and on each succeeding Saturday, a story hour will be conducted at the library from 10 to 11 a. m. Since Mrs. Law will conduct the hour herself, the desk will be closed for the receiving and returning of books during this time. Library hours on Saturday are from 9 a. m. to 12 noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph J. Friedman of 2947 Ruth Road, Forest City, Wantagh, are the proud parents of a son, Alan Robert, born August 28, at Mercy Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman are former residents of Bethpage.

The Republican Club will hold its first meeting after a summer adjournment next Monday, September 10, at 8:30 p. m., at the Legion Hall.

The Holy Name Society of St. Martin of Tours Church will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 11, at 8:30 p. m. at the new Church Hall. At this time it is expected that arrangements will be made to attend the Candlelight Hour at the Chamaine Bowl in Mineola. This hour will be sponsored by the Holy Name Societies of Nassau County on Sept. 16.

FIRST PTA MEETING
"We Learn Together" will be the discussion topic for the first meeting of the fall term for the Bethpage PTA on Thursday, Sept. 9.

Arthur Bunce, program chairman, has scheduled as a theme for the entire season, "The Whole Child in a Wholesome Environment." All monthly programs will center around this topic, expanding and expanding the subject with each succeeding monthly meeting.

Working on the program with Mr. Bunce and Mrs. Lorraine Carter, Clara Gerke and Vincent Cantelino. Mrs. Elvira Wolone, who succeeds Mrs. Mildred Nove as President of the PTA, will preside.

PLAINEDGE PTA MEETS

Need Another Site For Bethpage School

BETHPAGE — At the School Board meeting held on Tuesday, Aug. 26, it was announced that enrollment for the new Bethpage school was 589; the Powell Ave. School, 308; Bethpage students attending Farmingdale High, 130; Hicksville High, 11; St. Ignace Parochial School, 28; St. Kilian's Parochial School, 6; other schools, 8.

The necessity of purchasing a site for another school was also determined at this meeting since the sale of several farms within the Bethpage school district for the building of homes, with their prospective school enrollment, will soon overtax the facilities of both buildings. A proposition will be shortly placed before the taxpayers to authorize the purchase of a 15 to 20 acre site for the school. Fred Kramer, re-elected President of the Board at the July meeting, presided.

You'll be coming to the Fair, of course, and we're sure you'll have a wonderful time. There will be lots to do for every member of the family. And whatever you do, be sure to—

VISIT THE TELEMObILE

It's the telephone company's super white trailer with its five convenient public telephones and some fine exhibits you'll want to see.

SEE YOUR VOICE... HEAR YOUR VOICE

An exhibit that lets you look at your voice as you talk on the phone. As you speak, the sound waves are registered on a screen as electrical impulses. And when you're through talking, what you've said will be played back so you can hear yourself as others hear you.

THE MECHANICAL BOOK

Tells the impressive story of the big expansion and improvement job undertaken by the telephone company to bring more and better telephone service to people in this State since 1945. Well worth seeing.

Title Tilt Was Two Innings Short

JONES BEACH—As a crowning blow to a season of front office interference, the championship game between Botto and Bellmore, which was supposed to be a nine inning affair, was cut to a seven inning game.

It was a rule of the league that team members would meet each of their opponents twice. One game was to be a seven inning one and the other a nine inning contest.

Bellmore and Botto played their seven inning contest in the first half and the second half game was scheduled as a nine inning game.

It was originally carded as such for a week ago Saturday night, but rain forced its cancellation.

Prior to the title tilt, Levittown and Bay Shore played five full innings of a game that was called last month when the lights went out and could not be restored that evening. The game was resumed in the fifth inning and played to an official nine inning completion.

Most of the 3,000 fans on hand wanted to see the big game but officials religiously pointed out that Levittown was in line for a playoff berth and the contest had to go the full nine innings.

There was no explanation as to why it wasn't played earlier in the week, or why it was saved for the night of the championship game.

Most Hicksville fans claimed a concession to Bellmore since the Sigmas only had one pitcher and its odds were better in a shorter contest since Botto had the capable Jim Barone to replace Bill Bordiuk if he tired.

And as events went, two more innings would have been a big lead for Chick Talgo to carry since his seven inning victory was narrowly drawn.

Levitt Fans Denounce Ump in Botto Loss

Levittown AA fans who stayed on for the Bellmore-Botto game at the Beach denounced the umpires for not invoking the same technical call that cost it a 2-1 decision to the Sigmas in the second half campaign.

It is a rule that the batter running to first base must stay in a three-foot lane on the right side of the bag while traveling the last 20 feet to the base. If he is not in that lane and is hit by a thrown ball, he is automatically out.

It took Bellmore ten innings to beat Levitt, but it appeared that it was beaten in the seventh. With the score tied 1-1 and a runner on third, the Levitt batter hit to third and the supposed winning run was in when a not too sure throw hit the runner going to first in the back.

Levitt was just about to celebrate its victory when the running lane rule was invoked and the run washed out.

It is a rule called once in ten million times at the Beach. In the sixth inning of the Botto-Bellmore game (score 2-1) catcher Ralph Ferrara threw to first but hit the runner in the left elbow, thus allowing him to go safe.

Manager Bernie McGinnis protested the call and demanded the running lane rule be invoked as the Levitt fans loudly pointed up their association with the rule.

The runner was allowed to go safe.

Bordiuk Is The Most Valuable Player

Bill Bordiuk of the Botto club was voted the "Most Valuable Player in the Jones Beach Softball League" this season and was presented with a trophy denoting that fact at Labor Day ceremonies in the Stadium.

The League conducted the poll among the managers of the various teams in the loop and their choice was Bordiuk.

The Hicksville PBC baseball team with a 20-0 record and the eastern division title under its belt in the County Marine Corps League, faces East Meadow, western division leaders, tomorrow (Thursday) night for playoff and county title at Freeport Stadium. Tickets are available from any player or at the Herald office, 98 North Broadway, for 50 cents.

Hicksville PBC in County Playoffs

By DIANA UFFMAN

Winning the last game of the season, the Hicksville Police Boys Club brought their final record to 20-0.

Hurling a 2-hit shutout was Bobby Hogan pitching against Wantagh's Billy Roundman.

Hicksville took the lead in the 2nd when Murray scored Hogan and Evanschuk on his base hit, after previously getting on with singles. Janicky also on base with a single was left on 3rd when the side was retired. In the 4th Hock scored on an error and Hogan scored on Keute's base hit. With a 4-0 lead in the beginning of the 5th Bob Hock blasted a home run to deep right field, Evanschuk scoring on an error. (After the final score to 6-0, Hicksville holds first place in the Eastern Division of the Nassau County Marine Corps League and will meet the first place winners of the Western Division, East Meadow, for the playoff games to determine the Nassau County championship. The team taking two out of three of these games will receive a trophy donated jointly by Brooklyn Dodgers and Marine Corps League.

Tossing the ball for Hicksville will be Bob Hogan (record 7-0), Bob Keute (6-0), and Tom Sauers (7-0). The hurling staff for East Meadow will be Don Hendrick (6-0), Jack Hugh (4-2), Buddy Driedline (1-0), Mick Ricciolo (2-2).

The deciding game, the second, will be played at Freeport Stadium tomorrow (Thursday) night. Tickets for this game can be purchased from any player or at the Herald office at 50 cents apiece. The time of the game is 8 p. m.

Bellmore Defeats Botto Bros 2-1 For Softball Title at Jones Beach

JONES BEACH—Bellmore is the 1951 title winner of the seashore loop here, but few from its own set will rise to toast the champion. For the triumph was an unpopular one for the team that has long been accused of being the pets of the league front office.

And all but its own supporters will long dispute the repeated close decisions that went its way in a 2-1 victory over Botto Brothers before 3,000 persons in the Stadium, Thursday night.

Spurred to the first half championship by the intercession of league officials who allowed it to add a top flight pitcher midway in the campaign, Bellmore wrapped up the second half flag in a bitterly contested battle.

The Sigmas second half showing was 11 victories without a loss while Botto had ten and one.

BORDIUK THE GREAT

It was an undeserved reversal for veteran Bill Bordiuk, who did not fail Hicksville in its bid for its most coveted softball laurel.

But it is sad to relate that too many of his teammates did fail him, and two unfortunate but nonetheless decidedly amateur defensive plays gave the winners their runs. However, even if it was the work of its own hand that laid the foundation for defeat, a surprising string of circumstances prevented Botto from pulling the game out of the fire.

More than a half-dozen of the bang-bang plays in the game resulted in favorable decisions for Bellmore, and one, which broke the back of a Botto inning, was really, horrified the neutral, silenced the winners and stunned, beyond recovery, the Botto side.

Bordiuk had much the better of the going in his duel with Chick Talgo, the Westchester importation, who went unbeaten in his many trips to Nassau this year. Bordiuk relinquished three hits to the Bellmore sluggers and the first was credited to Al Wolke, the league's leading hitter, when he reached first when Joe Laszkowski dropped the ball after the umpire had waved him out.

It was advanced by a sacrifice and came around to score when catcher Ralph Ferrara threw wild while attempting to pick him off stealing.

The other Bellmore run came in the fourth when Jerry Stahurski lined a clean shot into left and Ed Coleman's one hand attempt to cut it off misfired. The ball went all the way for a home run.

Just before that Larry Nucse drove a high fly to the center-field score board, but a fine play by Jack McGinnis held it to a triple and Ferrara caught him as he attempted to score on a short wild pitch.

RIGBY HOMER

Talgo was left for six hits by the Botto batsmen but he held on, what with the aid of some close verdicts.

With two on and one out in the first inning, the wavering Talgo was pulled out of a hole by a low and inside 3 and 2 pitch which was adjudged a third strike on Bordiuk. Herman Rigby struck the big blow in the third inning to retire the Hicksville hopes when he homered into deep left field.

Ed Coleman followed with a single and Bordiuk hit to short. Coleman slid into second yards ahead of the throw but was called out to the consternation of the onlookers.

Hicksville tried one last time in the seventh but was rebuffed on a close play again. Garry Nordahl led off with a single and moved along on Ferrara's bunt. Jack McGinnis beat out a hit and Nordahl moved to third. Laszkowski drilled a hard shot to third and Nordahl raced home.

Catcher Charlie Miller stood behind home plate with his feet wide apart and Nordahl slid over the dish and was tagged on the chest.

But the play had been anticipated long before it was achieved and Nordahl's very professional slide was ruled the loser to Miller's very unprofessional defense of the plate.

Rigby went down swinging to end the game.

Field Club Defeats Southampton 14-7 To Open Semi-Pro Football on Island

SOUTHAMPTON—With ex-Harvard star Chip Gannon showing the way, the Hicksville Field Club defeated Southampton 14-7, here, Sunday afternoon before 400 fans in Long Island's 1951 semi-pro football opener.

The Black and White charges of coach Dom Sabatella didn't even have a scrimmage before taking the field for the game, but the Field Club threw off the ragged edges for ten sparkling minutes in the third quarter and built its margin of victory.

GANNON PUNT

It was a Gannon punt that traveled 56 yards from scrimmage that put Hicksville in position for its first score.

The ball was downed on the losers' nine and when the attempt was made to kick out of danger, halfback Merrill Yarotsky crashed in to block the punt.

It rolled out of the end zone and the officials gave Hicksville the ball on the Southampton 20 and it was nine plays later that they finally conceded that the Black was ahead 2-0.

GOAL LINE STAND

As always, the Hicksville line was next to immovable and it stood the Field Club fortunes in good stead late in the first half.

Three Southampton pass completions had the ball on the Hicksville two yard line but four plays at the middle gained only a yard and the Black took over on downs.

If the promise of its line is good, the backfield is just as encouraging. Gannon did little running but left that to Bill Rigby, Tom McNamara, Ed Stets, Al Knipping and Jack Kogel.

Those runners did enough high stepping to reveal that the defense will be hard to contain once it gets rolled out.

Early in the second half Kogel, who cannot help but be a big favorite with the local fans, returned a punt 20 fancy yards to the Hampton 32. Trapped by two tacklers, Gannon shook loose and caught Lou Koji with a great pass on the Hampton 19.

McNamara ran the right end 12 yards to the seven. Rigby gained 4 yards on a quick opener and McNamara spun and twisted the last three for the touchdown. Yarotsky's attempt from placement was low and Hicksville led 8-0.

Two minutes later Kogel ran a punt back to the losers' 36. Knipping gained five yards and Rigby one before Gannon tossed to Rig on the 18 and he went at top speed into the end zone for a 14-0 lead.

The placement was again low. Southampton, aided by 55 yards in penalties against Hicksville in the last quarter, got rolling for its score which came on a pass of ten yards from Ted Sadowski to Harry Raynor.
