Name Larry Eisenhower 'Long Island Dad Of Year'

NEW YORK—Lawrence Eisenhower of 147 W. Cherry St., Hicksville, has been named "Long Island Father of the Year" by the National Father's Day Committee in cooperation with the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America, it was announced today. The 89-year-old father of four children will be honored during a testimonial luncheon at Guy Lombardo's East Point House, Freeport, on Tuesday, June 10, with leading Long Island dignitaries in attendance.

Mr. Eisenhower, who is employed by L. A. Withington & Co., produce brokers, was selected for the honor, according to State Assemblyman John J. Burns of Sea Cliff and spokesman for the selection committee. "... because he has always worked heart and soul for his family, his community, his church, and his nation, and has done so much to insure that his own children and other youngsters in his community will mature into healthy and useful citizens." He is a former member of Hicksville School Board.

Mr. Eisenhower and his wife, Aileen Patricia Eisenhower, are the proud parents of Lynn Aileen, 14, who attends Our Lady of Mercy Academy in Syosset, Lawrence, Jr., 13, Robert Brian, 10, and Peter Roderick, 6, all of whom attend St. Ignatius School in Hicksville. Young Lawrence is a 1st Class Scout with Troop 91, while Robert Brian is a Bear Cub Scout with Cub Pack 91.

Dad is currently Chairman of Boy Scout Organization for the Tri-Parkway District. During the past seven years he has also served as Troop Committeeman, Pack Committeeman, and Chairman of a Cub Pack Committee.

Brengel also stated that all children of the district, with the possible exception of the kindergarten and some first graders, will be on single sessions with the fall term.

MORNING AFTER the big rain, presented this Monday morning view of the Searingtown sand pit and vicinity on the south side of West John St. with Herald Photographer Frank Mallett standing in the center of the undercut and cracked highway which has been closed to all traffic. Area of washout can be gauged from location of fence which appears to run thru "lake" but actually is suspended in mid-air between walls of the gully. Thousands of gallons of water which rushed thru to push down embankment can be seen in the former sand pit. Along the ledge in background is the LIRR main line which Hicksville Civic Assoc. fears is in constant danger from pit digging on both sides of tracks. See other picture below.

$50,000 Washout To Take County Month To Rebuild

HICKSVILLE—The County Public Works Dept. began reconstruction of a culvert and rebuilding of West John St. at Kuhl's Hollow, Monday, as officials estimated the project would probably take a month to six weeks. The wash-out of the roadside into Searingtown Sand Pit and undermining of the county highway, a main thoroughfare to the West, was the most destructive of numerous flood conditions throughout the Island as a 3.26-inch rainfall was recorded, Sunday.

Officers and members of Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. who have repeatedly protested the expansion of sandpit operations in the neighborhood, recalled their earlier objections to the open pit sand mining here.

RR BRIDGE OF SAND

Isaac Penner of nearby Cantiague Rd. who has made the sand-pit opposition an almost unending campaign, after viewing the yawning hole, said it was "extremely fortunate" that no one drove into the deep gully before traffic was halted. Penner, who has warned that "the bridge of sand" which now carries the LIRR tracks between the Searingtown pit and Preferred Sand, further south, might some day collapse with a "horrible loss of life," again repeated his grim warning.

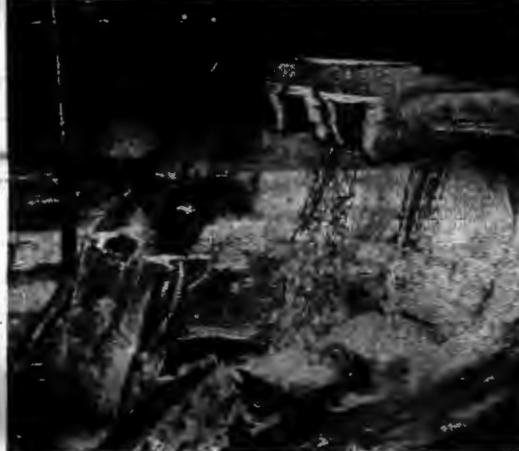

Public Works Commissioner John C. Gaibert and his deputy, Charles V. Smith in charge of road construction, were at the scene, Monday, to assess the damage and immediately ordered county crews on the project. A county spokesman told the Herald that the wash-out was considered "an act of God" and that no action was contemplated against the sand pit operators.

Stanley Mruz, Civic and Community Assoc. president, was among the first to notify the police of the wash-out. He was returning from Westbury about the time the side of the road caved, releasing thousands of gallons of water which had roared down from higher ground around Jericho, thru the Spiegel development (See page 6). Flooded streets and cellars were common, late Sunday afternoon and evening. Plainview's Island St. was hit harder than ever before (See page 7) and firemen had to evacuate families as the water rose over 3 feet in depth. Fairview Ct. in the Frank Homes was swamped as a sump on the next street, Lee Ave., was unable to carry off the torrents.

Several Levittown families had to be evacuated from homes on Meridan Lane. Row boats were used by firemen. The floods also damaged the new Telephone building and Hepshaw furniture structure at Hempstead Tpks. and Jerusalem Ave., Levittown.

Again In Fall

HICKSVILLE—There will be no more driver training classes until the fall term starts, it was stressed today by Elery Bean, director of the adult education program. The date of registration for the fall term will be announced later in the Herald, he said.

TREMENDOUS HOLE next to and under W. John St., Hicksville, can be seen in this Herald exclusive photo taken just as the rain stopped Sunday night. Water was still foaming like Niagara Falls thru what was left of Kuhl Hollow culvert and dropping 30 feet into the cave-in. Part of the reinforced concrete culvert which broke off like cardboard can be seen lying in bottom of pit (at left) with two Lighting Co. poles which fell, snapping power lines, testifying to the push behind the roaring flood. Size of the cavity can be measured against man on roadway, top left. This picture was taken by Mallett from treacherous perch on sliding crown of sand. County public works dept. estimates rebuilding job will cost about $50,000, take month to six weeks. Copy of this picture was studied by Oyster Bay Town Board with report by Councilman Chlumsky, Tuesday.

Letter On Summer Program Burns Levitt Home Owners

HICKSVILLE—Committees on traffic problems, commuter parking and membership were named at the South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners meeting in the Community Hall, Levittown Pkway, Tuesday night. The group heard interesting and factual reports from officers on the Township's new building code ordinance and its local application, on parking district split which is now considered "a dead issue", on water billing procedures, and on educational matters.

PRaise FOR HERALD
Arthur Schwartz and President Arthur Isaksen individually asserted that the Mid-Island Herald deserves the support of the community for not only "courageously and decently presenting all sides of vital local questions", but also for its help and assistance to SHAL-HO.

Election Notice

"Since this issue of the Herald went to press before the results of the special Hicksville School Board election were known, readers may get the score by calling Hicksville 2-1400 or seeing the Herald bulletin board at 98 N. B'way. A full report will appear in the next edition.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman of Lima, Ohio, spent the holiday weekend at the home of Mrs. J. Martarello, 75 E. Marie St., Hicksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Svandlik of Hicksville are spending several months at Fort Pierce, Florida. They expect to return to Hicksville some time in January.

Evelyn Buck Wed At Trinity

Miss Evelyn Buck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Buck of 222 Hawthorne Ave., Uniondale, became the bride of Rudolph Goenewich of 1 Melrose St., Elmont, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Goenewich, Sunday, June 1, at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville.

The bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with an off-the-shoulder effect neckline in a lace bodice. Her fingertip veil fell from a satin crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried white roses with baby breath.

Miss Beverly Buck of Levittown, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of Nile green tulle over taffeta with a lace bodice. She wore a white headpiece with lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was of tallisman roses.

Mrs. Gladys Novack of Hempstead, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Anna Nauth of Elmont, cousin of the groom, were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of lilac tulle over taffeta with a lace bodice. They wore lilac headpieces and carried yellow roses.

Joseph Gafaldi of Baldwin was the best man. The ushers were Charles Novack of Hempstead and Joseph Nauth of Elmont.

A reception for 145 guests was held in Uniondale. After a honeymoon through the New England states, the newlyweds will reside in Uniondale.

Dear Jean:

You can get a pet to own by going to the Township animal shelter at Locust Grove and paying a small fee. But you can't, officials warn, come back later and complain if he is not house-broken, howls when alone or chews up the carpet. . . . MEL STURTEVANT, we understand, is retiring from business in Bethpage. . . . Councilman FRANK CHLUMSKY as a delegate of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club, along with another delegate, ARTHUR RAGGINO of Syosset, expect to leave about the end of the week by auto for Seattle, Wash., where they will attend the Kiwanis International convention. . . . MAL PIERCE, auto dealer and member of the Bethpage Kiwanis, expects to be out there, too, making the trip by plane with a stop-over enroute at the home of mid-west relatives. MAL moved into his new home at Cold Spring Hills on that very wet day a couple of weeks ago when Hicksville was placing the cornerstone for the Lee Ave. School. . . . Training classes for Hicksville firemen are scheduled for tonight (June 5) and June 19 at the firehouse starting at 7:30. . . . Fire Co. No. 5 will make its annual fishing trip on July 6. JOE BRAUN is chairman. . . . Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM MARKS (he is owner of William's Hardware) were in Syracuse this week to attend the graduation of their son. They are expected home today. . . . We hear that a number of people along often-flooded Island St. in Plainview have their homes up for sale. One woman said she deliberately picked a mid-island area for her residence to get away from the water. Now every time it rains she has to wade thru the living room. . . . CRAIG MCINTOSH, son of Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE MCINTOSH of Bay Ave. and grandson of Councilman and Mrs. FRANK CHLUMSKY, as 1951-52 president of the Nassau County Junior Red Cross, presided at the meeting in Garden City recently when BRUCE VAKIENER of Baldwin was elected to succeed him. Three hundred delegates of 150 schools from 5 to 18 years of age were present. . . . Another landmark is gone: The marquee of the Huettner store at B'way and Marie St. was dismantled and removed during the week. Work on changing the interior to five separate stores is moving ahead rapidly. . . . We were interested to note that the Manaspequa Citizens' Committee for Eisenhower included the names of ED LYNDE, member of town GOP executive committee, and DUDLEY McCABE, recently appointed town councilman from that neighborhood to succeed the late DAN WALL. . . .

First joint meeting of Hicksville School Board and Citizens' Advisory Committee on Education, named by the Board, is scheduled for this month. . . . Teams are needed for the Community Softball League and it's amazing that the men in some sections don't get a team together. All they need is the willingness to play once a week and a couple of bats. The rest of the gear is being provided. If you have a neighborhood or organization team interested, drop in at the Herald office tomorrow (Friday) night when the schedule is drawn up. . . . SAM WEISS, president-elect of Hicksville Lions, is an ex-chief of the fire dept. He will succeed VINCE BRAUN, another ex-chief. Also members of the Lions are GEORGE ENGEL and HENRY GEBHARDT, also ex-chiefs. This club has more ex-fire chiefs as members than possibly any other non-firemanic group in town. . . .

S. G. LERNER, owner of the Hempstead Tpke. Drive-In Theatre, will open his new Comack Drive-In on Jericho Tpke. on June 26. . . . Don't expect a decision on the Hicksville Park and Parking District split proposal until the end of the summer, if then. The MLROA, who promoted the plan, have in their own words taken the position that the proposal has been defeated. . . .

Among the first homeowners in the Newbridge Terrace section of houses off Cherry St. and Newbridge Rd. are Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR L. EIRICH at 12 Elwood Ave. They have two sons, LEONARD and DWIGHT. . . . Folks are moving in almost daily at the Hicksville Downs and Hillside Terrace homes. . . . Among the first in the new Vidoni houses off South Broadway near Bloomingdale Ave. are the JAMES STATTI at 14 High St. and JOHN MARTONS at 7 High St. Both have small children who will probably be attending the new Lee Ave. School this term or next. . . . EDWARD STERN of Edward's Men's Shop also had a brush with the "high tides" over the weekend. His home is in a new development of Bethpage off Stewart Ave. . . . JOHN PETRONE is known as the "terrific fisherman" of the Hicksville Lions Club. He pulled up about two bushel of invisible flounders on the club's outing last week. Incidentally, it was the first Lions fishing trip that MYRON SAUSMER missed—and of course it did not rain that day. . . .

JOHN CLANCY of Clancy's Market of 76 Broadway, Hicksville, announced this week that he will be closed each Tuesday afternoon at 1 P.M. during June, July and August. . . .

Jane Stahley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Stahley of 15 Elm St., Hicksville, will graduate from the State University of New York, State Teachers College at Fredonia, N. Y., on Saturday, June 7.

Court Queen of Angels, Catholic Daughters of Hicksville, will hold a monthly meeting at the VFW Hall, Grand Ave., Hicksville this (Thursday) evening at 8:30. Installation of officers will take place.

Charles A. Betts of 87 Friendly Rd., Hicksville, has moved to 16 Miller Rd., Bethpage.

PLAN FOR 600-SEAT STRUCTURE

Register Pupils For New Lutheran Parochial School Today, Friday

HICKSVILLE—Registration takes place today (Thursday) and Friday for a limited number of Kindergarten and First Grade pupils of the new Trinity Lutheran parochial school which will begin here in the fall. Some time before the spring of next year the Congregation plans to erect a modern school building on its property at W. Nicholas St. here, according to Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor, and contributions for a building fund are now being received. A 500 to 600-seat school, kindergarten to 6th grade, including a gym, is proposed.

Open to all children, according to Rev. Stammel, preference will go to children of congregation members. Registration hours in the church basement are 1 to 3 p.m. today (June 5) and 3 to 5 p.m. tomorrow (June 6). The fall term classes will be limited to 35 in kindergarten with sessions of 18 children each, mornings and afternoons; and 35 first graders attending all day.

Classes in the fall will take place in the undercroft of the church with modern, up-to-date equipment available.

"The congregation of Trinity", Rev. Stammel stated, "is a member of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod which large church body has its own normal schools for the training of its male and female teachers for its well over 1,800 parochial schools in the United States. The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod is the leader, among all protestant denominations, in the interest shown in Parish education, on the elementary and high school level."

Tuition rates for children whose parents are members of congregations contributing to the Nassau Christian School, Inc. are $8 per month for first child, $4 for second and $2 for third. For non-members, $15 for first child and $10 for each additional child, per month.

A registration fee of $8.50 for each child is required, $7.50 of which is for books and equipment of the school, and $1 toward the purchase of books for the school library. All registrations, it is stressed, must be done personally by parents or guardian.

NORTH EAST REPORT:

Tent Caterpillars On Warpath

By Lee Chanin
Hicksville 3-0853 R

Those ugly tents attached to trees that I've commented on before are really hatching now, releasing millions of caterpillars creeping their way across roads, on people's properties, eating precious shrubs and foliage. It's alarming to see the damage these small insects can create.

Here's an interesting coincidence of three baby girls born to three neighbors on one street:

Kathleen, weighing 5 lbs. 13 ozs. was born on Apr. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. Benefield of 42-Libby Ave., and next door, at 44 Libby Ave., Haren Marie, weighing 7 lbs. 4 ozs., on May 21 to Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Shavetoff; the oldest of the three girls living next door at 46 Libby Ave. is Irene, who was born on Feb. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Caltagerone, weighing 5 lbs. 5 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Klein of 5 Willet Ave. celebrated their 6th wedding anniversary on June 1.

Mr. Gray, 1 Libby Ave., who has been pretty sick, is making a nice recovery and is getting outdoors now.

Dannele Shavetoff, who boasts the new baby sister mentioned above, made her First Holy Communion last week, at the Sacred Heart Seminary in Hempstead.

Ethel Kummer of 30 Libby Ave. received her First Holy Communion here at St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Church.

Could RR Tracks Collapse Also?

By FRED J. NOETH

THE WASHOUT on West John St., Hicksville, on Sunday night points up several matters which have not been in sharp focus of late. (1) These include the terrible menace for thousands every day as they roll across a bridge of sand aboard the Long Island Rail Road, (2) the waste of land which might, under other conditions, be the location for industries which appear attracted to our community, and (3) the continued hazards with Charlotte Ave. grade crossing totally unprotected.

The last word we heard was that the Public Service Commission had ordered the LIRR to install adequate safeguards at the Charlotte Ave. crossing including gates. The RR went further and asked permission to put in automatic gates and signals.

This week as hundreds of vehicles are being detoured around the John St. washout, including Schenck bus line, trucks, passenger cars and school buses, the crossing is handling more traffic than it every did before. According to those repairing the road which looks like it was hit by a bomb, the job will take a month to six weeks.

The very least that could be done at this moment, for the public's safety, is to have a watchman at the crossing.

As for the other points:

Can't we find a lesson in the manner in which John St. collapsed on Sunday? Could this happen to the LIRR main line at the opposite side of the great open pit? The Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. has tried on several occasions to get some answers. Members of the HCCA, including Isaac Penner, have read and re-read the Township ordinance controlling sandpits (and topsoil removal) and to a layman it seems to carry plenty of teeth to solve our problem. But for some reason or another, little progress is made.

The "bridge of sand" description was coined by Mr. Penner who said at a public meeting he refuses to risk his life riding the LIRR into Hicksville. He gets off the train at Westbury and makes the rest of the trip home by auto.

The community, besides being burdened with the eyecore of a big open pit right at the westerly approach, suffers other hardships because of the open pits. These include frequent fires which seem to resist all efforts of the firemen short of blasting. As the fires smolder, the entire North West section finds itself blanketed with thick, stinking fumes.

The ordinance definitely requires filling in of sandpits, with bond posting penalties, and specifies "clean fill". This is a word which appears to defy definition. The generally accepted term would indicate broken masonry and like materials. The fact that it burns and stinks seems to indicate the use of rubbish and inflammables.

The frequent appearance of Village of Westbury sanitation dept. trucks in the vicinity, obviously dumping rubbish from our neighbors in the Town of North Hempstead, is one of those major mysteries. In Hicksville we pay a good tax rate to have rubbish collected, carted to the township incinerator in Locust Grove and destroyed. Why then must we be the dumping grounds for Westbury.

PROGRESS FOOTNOTE: The public parking field opposite Hicksville Firehouse and next to the Legion Hall has been marked out for the second time since it was created three years ago. The job was finished just in time for Memorial Day.

Music Festival At East St School

HICKSVILLE—A Music Festival will be held in the East St. School Auditorium this Friday, June 6, at 8:15 a.m.

The audience will be entertained by the 1st and 2nd Grade Glee Club, the 3rd Grade Tonettes, 3rd and 4th Grade Glee Club, 5th Grade Choir, Twirlers, and School Band.

Amvets Alley

Robt. O. Ulmer Post 44
25 East Marie St., Hicksville

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE" ... Memorial Day parade was under the direction of AMVETS this year, and it's fitting and proper that we wish at this time our sincerest thanks to all Veteran groups, Auxiliary units, Fire Dept., Girl and Boy Scouts, HHS Band, VFW Rifle Squad, Clergy, etc., for helping us, this our first year as the leaders in making it a successful May 30th. Congratulations to Hal Cooley who took over the introductions of guests in place of Commander Johnny Podolski at the Memorial Hall.

AMVETS' MEMORIAL SERVICES: Directly after the high school services, AMVETS marched to the Plainview Cemetery, where we held services for all war dead. A wreath was placed on Sgt. Robert Ulmer's and Herbert Auer's final resting places. A prayer and Taps ended the services. We wish at this time to thank the Jewish War Veterans who allowed us the colors of their post to be placed beside our at the cemetery, the men in uniforms of the Fire Dept., Girl Scouts and visitors. IT'S GAINING MOMENTUM: Again I was approached by visitors at Plainview who wished that we could have the parade and services reverted back to the Cemetery. I quote: "I have been coming to this cemetery since I was a little boy and I can't see why it doesn't continue to be held here where it should be"—Unquote. This and many more questions were thrown at me ... these people are right and as I stated before, AMVETS will place this before the Hicksville Veterans Council along with the petitions and cards, Tattlem and notes from those citizens who wish it back at the deceased veterans' final home. If townspeople wish to do so, please send those cards and letters to me at AMVETS headquarters at the above address.

REUNION: The 80th Infantry Div. Association will hold its sixth annual convention at the Hotel Roosevelt, July 1-3. The 5th Army Veterans will leave on an unusual tour of now peaceful battle-grounds in North Africa and Italy. It will be a 44-day cruise starting Sept. 12.

A PLEA HAS REACHED THE FOXHOLE: "If there are any Marines in Hicksville or surrounding communities that served with EASY COMPANY, 2ND BN., 7TH REGIMENT, 1ST MARINE DIV. who fought at the YUDAM section of North Korea near the YALU river and who may know Cpl. Thomas C. Estwick, please contact me at the club. Tommy was wounded in action in this sector, later listed as Missing-in-action on Dec. 8, 1950. The Division is now home." READ THIS, IT'S A MUST: World War II had its Ernie Fyle ... Korea has theirs ... Marguerite Higgins writes the facts about the Korean war in her book titled "War in Korea" ... it's a must for all veterans.

MAINLY ABOUT AMVETS: Plainview AMVETS post held their installation at the Towers the other evening. Nice to know that all the rifle squad showed up for Memorial Day, except one. Saw Kenneth and Kieth Swicki watching their Mommy carrying the Post Banner in the parade. Ex-Marine Harry Zvesnik did all right after a six-year lay off. I guess that does it for this week, fellows.

ing District question made it clear that "we must continue to keep our eyes and ears upon the NLHOA lest in their zeal for a "greater Levittown" we find our pockets being picked, tax-wise."

Emil J. Szendy, school board member-elect, read a copy of a letter from Levitt & Sons to the school district regarding the possible use of Hall facilities and adjacent play areas during the forthcoming district-operated summer playground program.

Dick Goruso, director of the Community Hall, wrote in part: "The policy is that the use of Levittown Hall be limited to community organization. This does not include its use for organized school purposes." He suggested that the School District make its request thru "Dr. Miller and Mr. Durtman" of the NLHOA, provided that organization formally supported the recreation program.

Hicksville School Board had asked permission to use space in the Hall for handicraft work for local children and the nearby outdoor play area, both under adult supervision employed by the district, pending completion of the Dutch Lane School and its playground. It would have been an expansion of the program of other years and scheduled again this year at East St., Nicholas St. and the High School playgrounds.

The question was raised at the SHALHO meeting "must our school board beg the NLHOA for the use of facilities at the Hall and adjacent playgrounds when this program is planned for children in our area?"

NORTH WEST NOTES:

Big Damage In Path Of Floods

By James Cummings

Once again the rains of last Sunday unleashed raging currents of water throughout the entire development, flooding streets, lawns, cellars, etc. The water following its "natural course", according to recent statements made by John R. Brandt, Highway Superintendent, will make its way onto the underpass at West John Street.

Well, Sunday it did exactly that not only taking away curbs, top soil, concrete, etc., and was responsible for the cave-in on West John St. near the Searington Sand & Gravel Co. As the cave-in occurred a light pole, and hundreds of feet of dirt, etc., gave way due to the terrific pressure of water coming from our area.

On the spot John Finnegan, Arthur Woods, John Bartach and your reporter witnessed the tremendous damage it caused and the confusion no end. Getting back for a moment to our so called "natural course" of water, the most important thing that the Highway Dept. can do as soon as possible is to start on the drainage problem which is very serious throughout. At 87 Myers Ave. part of the concrete sidewalk on the corner broke away and fell into the street due to the fast moving currents. Along Kuhl Ave. between Indiana and Georgia Sts. the road foundation gave way right to the sidewalk, causing a large hole in the street at least 18 inches in depth in places. After a series of calls to Mr. Brandt, we finally reached him and asked him to visit the area at once. When he arrived at my home I had left to cover the cave-in on West John St.

He later informed me that he would place barriers at the spot of cave-in on Kuhl Ave. In the meantime John Finnegan and several of the neighbors worked on setting up a fare given to us by the Police Dept. to prevent further personal injury to residents returning home. For the past year I have stressed the danger time and time again of these deplorable road conditions and dangers of what might happen - so the occurrence of last Sunday.

We sincerely hope that the Highway Dept. will get to work promptly to correct these conditions and prevent further damage to our streets and roads.

TICKET DEADLINE

Tomorrow evening (Friday, June 6) is the deadline on reservations for tickets for our Beer Party and Dance on June 14 at the Legion Hall. By now you should have in your hands a reminder from the committee. This deadline was set so that residents might have an opportunity to purchase their tickets before the many others who are requesting them. From the committee reports only certain spots need to be covered with pamphlets, the others are responding very nicely. Check the pamphlet for the committeeman nearest you and reserve your tickets TONITE.

BETWEEN ISSUES: The Post Office in Hicksville wishes to inform residents that if the defacing of the mail box on Myers Ave. and California continues it will be removed... the time schedule on the front has been scratched off and tar has been put on the lock making it almost impossible at times for mailmen to open... so as to insure this box remaining in such a convenient location report any party or persons defacing it in future... The Softball Community League is forming for games this season... if there are any men in the development interested in forming a team to play once a week contact me at HI 3-3317-J... We should have some representation from this area - let's play ball... One resident on Georgia between Gardner and Kuhl had his top soil washed away Sunday after a back-breaking job carting it in the day before... If you are not already a member of the NWCA—let's make so by the first meeting this fall... there are now 367 homes occupied in this area - we want to see 100 per cent membership - support the Civic Association in their fight to get matters such as the flood conditions corrected. Attend the meetings. In unity there is strength.

COULD HAVE BEEN CHILD

The following letter from a resident gives further evidence of the need to stop all speeding of cars: "Here's a bit of steam I'd like to blow off in your NW column, if you're interested. I hope the hit and run driver who sped through Kuhl Ave. at 9 p.m. Wednesday and killed our 4-months-old puppy feels very noble. She was leashed, but apparently a link came apart and she darted to the street to

HICKSVILLE GABLES: Several Local First Communicants

By Ruth Schair
Hicksville 3-2343-R

Did we say something last week about hot weather closing in on us very suddenly? Enough said! Will get to the business at hand right now as time is of the essence in this household right at present. My Dad is in the hospital following an operation last week and guess most of you know what a lot of running around and confusion that entails.

Would surely like to apologize to Mr. and Mrs. John Seith of 15 Gables Rd. for the misprint in last week's HERALD concerning their recent wedding anniversary. They were married 15 years on May 11, not 13 years on May 15. There was also another celebration in this household on May 28, when John Seith, Jr., reached his 14th birthday. His parents presented him with a wonderful portable radio and a family party was held in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cotsonas of 14 Gables Rd. were recently visited by an old Navy buddy of Mr. Cotsonas, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sarnik of Bellerose. Mr. Sarnik, who is an Aviation Machinist Mate 2nd Class is a World War II veteran and has just recently served aboard an aircraft carrier doing 13 months of active duty in Korea.

Richard Albertson of 1 Gables Drive is back in the Vets Hospital in the Bronx following another operation. Al has certainly had his share of woe here lately, but understand he is doing nicely and will be home soon.

Miss Michael Kepler of 24 Gables Rd. made her First Holy Communion at St. Ignatius Church, May 30. On hand to witness this important event were her grandmother, Mrs. John Evers of New Hampshire and her uncle, George Evers of New York. Micky was someone she knew. Before anyone realized what had happened she was lying in the street, dead, right in front of our door. My husband was outside and saw no one stop and the car sped on too fast to even see the license number. All I can say is, it's certainly lucky it was no one's child we found lying there, but it can happen if something isn't done about these speeders.

Sincerely,
Mrs. John J. Spinella
41 Kuhl Avenue

Note: On Monday afternoon a speeding car took the life of another dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Albertson of Nevada St. - who will be next?

thrilled to receive a Cinderella wrist watch in honor of the occasion.

Also making their First Holy Communion at St. Ignatius Church were Kathleen McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGee of 27 Gables Rd.; Patricia McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKee of 31 Gables Rd.; Barbara, Francis and Joan Belinski of 25 Gables Drive; Patricia Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson of 14 Gables Drive; Peter Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baldwin of 13 Gables Rd. and Barbara DiBella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William DiBella of 28 South Elm St.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Caldwell of 295 Plainview Rd. celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary on May 31.

Just received a flash that Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Ward of 23 Gables Drive became the parents of a daughter, born to them at Mitchel Air Force Base Hospital, on May 30 at 2:15 P.M. This new addition to the Ward household weighed in at 6 lbs. 11½ ozs. and know she will get a big welcome from brothers, Robert and Kent. Glad you made the deadline, Mrs. Ward.

Another item of interest is the fact that young Edward Tils of 20 Gables Rd. was among those who won awards at the North Shore Jr. High School Track Meet on May 30. Eddie received a 2nd place ribbon in the 440 yard relay and a 3rd place ribbon for the broad jump. The awards were presented to the boys by Mrs. Quentin Roosevelt and the meet was sponsored by the Quentin Roosevelt Post No. 4 of the American Legion. Looks like future olympic material right here in Hicksville.

Sure you'll all be sorry to hear that our very nice Newsday carrier boy, Richie Hogan, is laid up with a broken leg. Hope it won't be long before you'll be up and around again Richie. The Hogans' address is 17 Elm St., in case any of you want to send cards.

Plainview Country Homes: Families Evacuate As Waters Rise

By Rae Cantilli
Hicksville 3-0233 M

Hi, Folks:
Memorial Day weekend here in the Plainview Country Homes turned out to be a really memorable day. The torrential rainfall turned Island St. and surrounding streets into a river comparable to any river here in New York State. Water rose to over 3 and a half feet or more, overflowing retaining walls that a few of the people had built around their homes for such a more than frequent occasion.

Water poured through walls, doors, etc. in more than 10 homes. Furniture, rugs, and many personal possessions were ruined and destroyed. Cellars on Relda Blvd. were swamped. Mr. Dileo from Grumman's came all the way from Port Washington when Bob Geigetter of Island St. requested the use of a canoe, which came in more than handy. Mr. and Mrs. Siente and Mr. and Mrs. Mayer of Island St., who had been gone all day, found it impossible to get into their homes by car or by walking, and the Geigetters ferried them in the canoe to their back doors. Their back doors, mind you, Mr. and Mrs. Schussler, on the corner of Island and Universal Blvd., had water pour through both the back door and the front door at the same time, ruining their fine rugs and furniture. Children were carried from those homes at the end, to higher ground as the water was too deep for them to walk. Cars had to be parked in front of the stores. Families whose homes were flooded had to find places to sleep for the night.

Wooden fences floated down the middle of the street, as well as garbage, toys and anything that had been left outside. The water streamed by and through homes as if all the levees on the Mississippi had burst. I was one of the fortunate ones living at the west end of Island St. The water came up to the middle of my lawn, depositing assorted varieties of boards, silt and garbage. The pumps spent the night working to relieve the situation. Our local fire department, and many others also came to the rescue, but the damage had already been done.

You have no idea what it was like last night (Monday) and even this morning when the mailman had to be assisted by Mrs. Geigetter and the canoe in order to deliver the mail. Who would ever imagine that here in the center of the island, miles away from any rivers, lakes or streams, anything of this kind could happen.

Right now drains are being installed and I understand the project will be completed in about three weeks from the writing of this column. I only hope and pray this situation will be relieved. To

BRIAR PARK, PLAINVIEW: Gas Mains And Goodbye To Tanks

By Ethel Rooney
HI3-5324

Hello Folks:

Have you ever in your lives seen so much rain? I'm getting to the point where I'll be willing to pay an extra big water bill if only it doesn't rain again for a good while. I glanced out in my garage a few minutes ago, and everything is completely covered. Even tomato plants are almost underground. Looking outside at the street, the water was coming up on the sidewalk. I wondered several times about the people down on Island St. They really get badly flooded by much lighter rainfalls, and I've never seen a heavier one since we are out here.

Fortunately, on Memorial Day morning, it didn't rain. However there weren't very many people out to watch the parade. The parade was sponsored by the Plainview Volunteer Fire Co. and the public was cordially invited to inspect the Fire House and its equipment after the services.

The program was as follows: "National Anthem" sung by Mrs. Elsa Bergmann, piano playing by Miss Mary Pavlicek; Invocation by Rev. Edward Stammel of the Plainview Chapel and Trinity Lutheran Church of Hicksville; Welcoming address by Fire Chief August Keuta.

Principal Address by Rev. Stammel. Introduction of the leaders of the organizations participating in the Services and parade, placing of the wreath at the memorial, Taps by the Boy Scout Troop 13, Plainview, followed by one minute of silence; Singing of "America" by the group present and Benediction by Rev. Stammel.

For the past week or so, the L.I. Lighting Company has been digging up our streets and front lawns in order to install the gas pipes which will relieve us of the nuisance of going outdoors in all kinds of weather to switch tanks. We had to switch the other day and I had to get Jim to do it for me and even he needed a wrench. I hope that was the last tank we had to switch. I don't care if it does actually cost a bit more when the bills come around. It will be worth it just to be spared the misery of switching tanks. I'd like to thank the workers who are putting in their pipes for their courtesy and careful way they handled our front lawns. I know some of you have been complaining about that, but they were really pretty careful. It could have been lots worse.

Some of the men on Virginia Ave. have been drilling through their chimneys on a cooperative basis. Unfortunately the electric hammer they were using broke down and it will take a bit of time and money to repair. However, cooperating like this will save them a considerable amount over that quoted by the men who came around.

The Manetto Hill PTA is meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8:30 P.M. You are always invited to attend these meetings, so why not try to come this time? They are always pleasant.

Frank Fink has been checking on the lighting district for Plainview and according to the facts he has acquired thus far, it will cost about 15 cents per hundred—for our homes it should come to approximately $6.00. Of course, they are still hunting for more information on the subject.

The AMVETS now have a Plainview Post. If you are a World War II veteran, you are eligible for membership. They meet the second Wednesday of every month at the Manetto Hill School. They are also forming a Women's Auxiliary but need a few more wives to get officially started.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS: Civic Groups Prepare To Unite

By John C. Dowling

Unification of Plainview's three major residents' organizations is proceeding by leaps and bounds and is expected to be culminated within a month, according to Norman Riley, president of the Briar Park Assoc., Val Himburger, president of the Plainview group and Fred Baum, president of the civic association.

The executive bodies of these groups have been meeting weekly during the past two months to work out the necessary details before the final step is taken. From what this column can learn, the members of the three organizations involved in the move are almost 100 per cent in favor of unifying with a few, if any, dissenting.

With hundreds of families scheduled to move into this community within the next year or two, the concept of uniting the groups into one civic-minded body is one that will bear much civic fruit, providing the residents of Plainview continue to lend their full support after unification is completed.

Merely electing officers and letting it go at that is a waste of time. The leaders, when elected, require a great deal more than the initial votes to get things done.

Research and advisory committees on roads, drainage, street lighting, playgrounds, parks and many other pressing problems are needed in order that all facts may be gathered and examined prior to going before the town officials with requests for necessary improvements.

Another prominent point to remember after the groups have been united into one organization, is the importance of attending meetings and lending your advice and suggestions.

Everyone has a pet project which they feel demands immediate action. One way to insure your project's attention by the officers of your civic association is to attend the meetings and give them a clear-cut picture of the present condition and how it can be improved upon. In this way the officers will be able to plan objectively with the help of the advisory committees and probably achieve the desired result.

Watch for the announcement that the three organizations have effected unification and then give the regular association your unqualified support. By doing this you will be establishing the basis for the procuring of those facilities that are so obviously necessary in the Plainview area.

add to the misery, many of the people on the East side of Universal Blvd. moved their cars to Old Country Rd. not realizing that because of the excavation for the drains, there was a bad soft shoulder on one side of Old Country Rd. Thus quite a few cars were embedded in mud and tow cars were required to drag the cars, axle deep in mud. Thus a bad-bit of planning somewhere along the line turned into misery and heartache for many people for the "umteen" time this year. It's a darn shame these people have to suffer for a couple of years before something was thought of.

NEW AMVET POST
The new Plainview Post No. 11 of AmVets held its first installation on Thursday evening, May 29. The following officers were installed: Commander Thomas Payne, 1st Vice-Commander Robert Geigetter, 2nd Vice-Commander Herman Myrick, Post Adjutant George McCormick. Officiating at the installation was State 1st Vice-Commander Arthur J. Maxey of Hicksville. Congratulations to the new officers and the best of luck to the new Post.

On Memorial Day, representatives of the new Post participated in the services at the firehouse here in Plainview where a wreath was placed in honor of the war dead. Any World War II or Korean veterans that are interested in joining the Post can do so by attending the meetings which are held at the Manetto Hill School on the second Wednesday of each month at 8 p.m. or you can get in touch with Commander Thomas Payne, 19 Island St. An Auxiliary is already in the process of being formed.

The Gessners of Island St. spent Memorial Day weekend in Connecticut.

Everyone had guests over the Memorial Day weekend. Mothers, dads, cousins, aunts, uncles, etc., all found their way to their relations here in the Plainview Country Homes.

I spent a very enjoyable evening with some old friends of the Scud-

GOING AROUND THE LANES:

Fishy Holiday With 'Town Afloat'

By Florence Vryas
LE 9 6407

The swimming season opened last weekend and to celebrate the occasion the whole town was afloat. Without benefit of tags, foreign cars "drifted" down Jerusalem Ave. Some of the interlopers had Connecticut licenses and unless they were guests of local residents, they had no right to float down our main thoroughfare. Come to think of it, some of them didn't appear to be enjoying the plunge. Some of the fellows were stuck trying to get to the Turnpike and were forced to take shelter where they could find it. No one had to abandon his car, so the situation wasn't entirely hopeless. Our street was a little pond during the downpour but as soon as it stopped the streets in this section dried off. Hope everyone else was as lucky.

Bond Lane has a fishy sort of holiday to report. They tell me everyone over there had a fish dinner thanks to the fishing prowess of Harry Sandler of 25 Pond Lane. He went on the annual fishing trip of the Thomason Co. and they went to Peconic Bay. There were three hundred fish caught and ten men to share the catch. Hence the fish dinners on Bond Lane.

The downpour didn't dampen Jacqueline Lloyd's third birthday party Sunday. Celia and Kathy Larkin, Susan Friedman, Pauline Gregutt, Barbara and Terry Bromm and Faye Harding all attended, in spite of the weather. Stephen Guy, Jacqueline's brother, had a great time watching his big sister cut her cake. Ruth tells me it was the funniest thing to watch the little ones try to play musical chairs. At that age there is just no telling them that they are out of the game if they don't have a chair and instead they all rejoin the march when the music starts again. The game ended with no chairs and all the original players. But the three year olds enjoyed the whole thing and Ruth said it was priceless to watch.

Jacqueline wore a beautiful white organdy party dress with a pink satin sash that had been made by her grandmother Mrs. P.G. Lloyd of Jackson Heights. If you've seen last week's Life it was very similar to those little girl's dresses except it had lovely puff sleeves. Ruth said she had plenty of help keeping order her mother, Mrs. Rose Falter, came in from Elmhurst. The whole party is now on file in Daddy's snapshot album because he is a camera bug. So 123 Scooter Lane had a very busy afternoon!

Kathy Caesar of 77 Acre received her First Communion, Thursday, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McManus of Philadelphia, her grandparents, were in for a visit over the holidays. Jack, Kathy's brother is a ham radio operator. He is a member of the Levittown Radio Club and of the Hicksville Civil Defense unit. Jack is a whiz at radio communication and he has made many interesting contacts with other ham operators. This is the amazing part of the story though, Jack is only 14. I think he's a good example to quote whenever you hear people saying the teenagers are always into trouble. Maybe a few of them are, but the majority of them never are mentioned and they are doing the worth while things. End of soap box lecture.

In driving through our section of town over the holiday, I noticed that some of the people who were going away left their garbage to be collected in front of their house. Wonder what they thought when they came home last night to discover no garbage had been collected since last Wednesday? Is that the service we are paying for? Seems to me the terms of that contract need a looking into.

There are quite a few cut scouts in my neighborhood as you may have gathered by reading these articles, and in spite of my dull (Continued on Page 18)

Between Duffy And Old Country: Desire Little More Band Music

Hi Folks:
 In spite of the weather the MEMORIAL DAY PARADE went off nicely. The only comment I have to make is that there should be more music. Why don't some of the other organizations have bands?

Douglas Lehmann. I wonder if 10 years from now those boys will still want an all male party??

Time to get those tomato plants in folks, I wish now I had a potato farm... potato... what's the...???

Glad to see the Krug delivery men back in action. We missed them when they were out on strike—especially George.

Haven't had any reports on the BACHELOR CLUB. Wonder if there are any bachelors left with the Wedding Month coming up???

What about it, fellows???

Supervising Garage Is Tough Job

By Henny Lauer
Hicksville 3-2784 J

What a nice weekend! Am kinda pooped out though with all the hustle and bustle and company. The biggest headache was my supervision of the building of Dad's garage. OK, OK, so I didn't do anything—just sat and watched, but I am the type of person who gets tired even just watching someone else work. Looks like everyone around here had plenty of work lined up for the long weekend.

By the way, you people who still haven't registered will have another chance to do so at the High School on Saturday, June 14 from 4 to 9 P.M. There will be a special district meeting on Tuesday, June 24, to appropriate money for a new elementary school in the northeast section of Hicksville.

To date, there are only 2,000 voters qualified to vote. I'm sure with little effort, we should be able to double that amount.

The Bolgers of Lee Ave. recently had a large gathering in honor of their daughter Helen's confirmation at St. Ignatius Church. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cunningham and daughters, Patricia and Maureen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gross and children, Pat, Tommey and Larry of Northport, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Langin and Children Kathleen and Tommey, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bolger and children, Betty, Larry and Marilyn and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kitchet of Bayshore. Dinner was served buffet style and everyone had a very lovely time.

Say, did the rest of you gals see that beautiful Hawaiian outfit that Joe Gangi sent his wife, Marge, from the Islands? The lei is made out of real pressed flowers and smells beautiful. Marge is writing to Joe to make sure he brings all the girls here at home a lei, at least, when he gets his discharge in the Fall.

The Saccos of Lee Ave. have been very busy. Last weekend they had guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Feldman from Forest Hills and their children, Ronnie and Steven; Mrs. L. Feldman from Brooklyn and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gessler from Roslyn.

Their big event, though, was the christening party held for their beautiful baby daughter, Lenore. A great big three-tier cake, baked by Agnes, was the centerpiece on the buffet table. Godparents were Ginny and Henry Varas. Guests were Joanne and Jeannie Varas, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sacco of Port Chester, Mr. and Mrs. Erad Gonsalves of the Bronx, Miss Louise Gonsalves, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sacco and son, Alfred, Jr. of Tuckahoe, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sacco and son, Ed., Jr., of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cochran and children, Linda and Pamela, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hawks and daughter, Gwen and Mrs. Ralph Rankin. The baby looked like an angel. She received many beautiful gifts.

Don't forget to keep Tuesday, June 10 open for the card party sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Congregation Shaari Zedek. The prizes are really something.

The Coons of Cottage Blvd. spent a wonderful weekend in Philadelphia visiting with Ethel's family and old friends. But it is always nice to get back home in Hicksville, isn't it?

Dotty Rankin of Lee Ave. was very pleasantly surprised last Monday when a group of the gals showered her with gifts for her birthday. They were Florence Franks, Henrietta Bolger, Agnes Sacco and Ginny Varas. To reciprocate, Dotty served ice cream, cake and coffee.

Oh, my weary back! Guess I shouldn't have sat so long watching the progress of the garage. Hel, Ma, next time, bring out a pillow.

Richard Andreas of Cottage Blvd. is busy in his flower beds. He sure keeps his place in a lovely state. Mrs. Andreas is a lucky woman to have such a nice son. I hope Paul turns out like him. Lila is always telling us how happy she is to have such wonderful neighbors next door.

The Legionnaire

Charles Wagner Post
 No. 421, American Legion

The annual Hicksville Memorial Day Parade seemed to us to be the biggest and best in many years, even though we were prevented from a "sideline view" because of our participation. A description of the parade itself is covered elsewhere as a news item, however, which leaves us free to comment on the Legion angle alone.

This year for the Charles Wagner Post, Guy Smith and Jim Carter carried the National and Legion colors respectively, flanked left and right by Jim McLaughlin and yours truly. The unit was led, of course, by Commander Elias Jabour and Past Commanders in line included Bob Beard, Rudy Bousa, Walter Schlichting, Fred and Poppa Henry Brenzel, Nick Harter and Joe Kayel. Dr. Le-

Barron, also a Past Commander, was present but not marching. Other Legionnaires you saw Friday were Johnny Nees, Howard Parton, Allen Carpenter, Jack Rondeau, Jim Arnemann, Eddie Becker, Al Barlow, Hank Jochum, Tom Doran, Carmen Dimarso, and George Mills.

And to complete the record, the clubhouse was ready with refreshments at the termination of the program through the efforts of Artie Bletsoth and Ernie Gundlach.

That shiny black car driven by Mrs. Al Barlow belonged to Guy Smith and the passenger was Spanish-American War Veteran Timothy E. LeClair of Cedar Drive, Plainview.

Right behind the Legion (and aren't they always!) were the ladies of the Auxiliary led by their President, Ruth Schlichting, who is not yet fully recovered from her recent illness, but who insisted upon taking her place in the line of march. Ladies parading with the unit included Rose Becker, Dot Fricke, Harriet Mangels, Dot Shea and Sylvia Gundlach, while parading with scout groups were several others including Juliet Lorenson. Not marching but participating in other ways, such as poppy sales, were Lil Doran, Anna Brenzel, Mrs. Harter and Mrs. Stillger. Colors for the Auxiliary were carried in the steady hands of Boy Scouts Allen Carpenter and George Scheriff.

Gold Star Mothers in attendance this year were driven in the parade by Heary Eisemann and Buddy Huettner. Lil Doran presented to each Mother a corsage of poppies on behalf of the American Legion Auxiliary. The mothers present were Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Haughey, Mrs. Heim, Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Potulak, Mrs. Rohrbach, Mrs. Schaffer and Mrs. Zeller.

While partaking of refreshments after the parade we had the pleasure of speaking with Henry Keelne, Sr. Vice-Commander of the Malvin Rohrbach Post of the Legion of Guardians who were represented here for the second consecutive year by a sizable delegation. This Post, named after Hicksville's Melvin Rohrbach, was organized in 1944, and is located on Ft. Hamilton Parkway in Brooklyn. Current Post Commander is Theodore C. Victory and their Chaplain, Edwin Beecher, was a guest speaker during the ceremonies at the high school.

They tell us they're glad to come to Hicksville each year and we say — Welcome! Your contribution to our program is appreciated.

We are not alone when we say the Hicksville High School Band was very, very good this year. Heard lots of fine comment. Keep up the good work, kids!

And a last line of credit to Ernie Gundlach's volunteer clean-up crew who pitched in to help clean up the clubhouse after the hungry Legionnaires and their guests had polished off the fine salads and cold cuts. Ernie thanks his wife Sylvia, my prettier side, Harriet, and Rose Becker for their help.

Although we usually refrain from a column wherein name after name is listed, we felt this once called for a change in habit and that all those participating deserved mention.

Hope we didn't bore you.

HEY! The Circus is still with us. Or rather, will be on June 20 and 21 at Roosevelt Field. Do you have your tickets yet, or are you going to disappoint the kiddies (and pop, too) this year? STEVE SCHOLAR has 'em at his Floor Covering store on North Broadway every weekday from 8 to 8 and the clubhouse is open Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evening from 3 p.m. on with tickets on hand.

And some closing notes — Picnic Aug. 10 at Shady Maples for Legionnaires and guests . . . Save your tears — Hank Jochum had a sweater under that white shirt in the parade . . . Rudy Bousa wants his Legion cap returned . . . More than one member has expressed a desire for a ping-pong table in the downstairs club room . . . Remember your books, magazines and clothing for the

Tells History Of Memorial Day
 HICKSVILLE—The background of how Memorial Day was originated was told by Fred Sutter at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Hicksville Inn last week.

He recalled that the observance began at the end of the Civil War when women of the South placed flowers on the graves of Northern as well as Southern soldiers. It later became a national holiday honoring the soldier dead of all wars.

THE BASIS of all comedy is pathos. By adopting this motto, which is as old as the history of the theatre itself, Sid Caesar succeeded to climb to the top of the ladder in the entertainment field and to maintain an evenly high standard in his comedy routines.

In Sid's case the ambition to conquer the world harked in the magic of the floodlights is not a hereditary impulse. The sedate business man in Yonkers certainly didn't suspect that some day his son, the boy with a liking for serious saxophone playing, will be "The Star of Your Show of Shows, Sid Caesar."

Young Sid had his future all planned. He was going to be a saxophone player. A good one, a serious one and maybe some day he'd be able to play in a philharmonic orchestra.

But there's no business like show business and by a lucky coincidence the orchestra Sid played with needed a funnyman. His status as a sort of two-in-one combination saxophonist-comedian might have continued indefinitely hadn't the second World War caused an upheaval in his life. Sid joined the Coast Guard.

In preparation for its revue, Tars and Spars, this branch of the service secured the guidance of a civilian producer—Max Liebman. Mr. Liebman's trained eye was quick to spot the possibility of developing Sid's natural ability for drollerie into a valuable specialization. When Max Liebman staked his first claim in the new field to conquer, television, Sid Caesar was with him. Thus TV Broadway Revue became the honorable ancestor of "Your Show of Shows."

A quiet, rather shy person in private life Mr. Caesar has developed his particular type of comedy to a point of perfection unsurpassed by any of the other comedians we occasionally invite into our living room via the microwaves.

The study of the split second accuracy with which Sid times every single batting of an eyelash and every move of his facial muscles, as well as of the modulations in his voice planned to attain a maximum humorous effect, have been a constant source of fascination to me. At this point I shall quote associate producer Harold Jenis: "Sid Caesar has a perfect genius of knowing what's good for him." During script conferences he doesn't hesitate to refuse some of the material prepared for his comedy routines. On the other hand he picks up some casual suggestion by the script writers and develops it into the final form in which it will be presented on the air. The most conclusive example of his flair for comedy is his parody of the role that rocketed Marlon Brando into stardom in the play, "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Laughter and tears are interwoven; so are success and hard work. By building his professional activity around two axioms Sid Caesar has secured a permanent niche for himself in television's Hall of Fame.

RAIN TROUBLE AGAIN?
Sure, you have a wet cellar—or slab after the last few days rain—so did we all. But—there's things that can correct some of the trouble. Our periodical ads and columns regarding rain gutters and down spouts, hooked up to dry wells serves a terrific purpose in disposing of rain water. Here are gutters and leaders so light a man can walk up a ladder with a whole house length—30 feet weighs less than ten pounds. Gutters that need no soldering—simple "S" slip joint connectors is all you need. Gutters that need no painting. This rain carrying equipment is as good looking as it is efficient. Unpainted these aluminum gutters weather to a soft gray finish—requiring no painting ever. So with no painting, you look forward to practically no maintenance. Just imagine the work these leaders and gutters will do—and for years and years at approximately 50.00 bucks per house complete. And you do it yourself—there's nothing to it. Don't put up with this rain-water problem any longer, it's a nuisance and it's unhealthy too. See your "Uncle Tom" today for a layout on this drainage system—there's no obligation, we're the friendly type.

LEVITT HOMES IN HICKSVILLE: Cutest Little Kittens—And For Free

By Adele W. Moseley
Phone LE 3-4490.
Yours for the asking—one of the cutest little newborn kittens imaginable. But there are so many youngsters who'd love to have one of these little bundles of fur for their very own, that you'd better get your request in fast. And since there are only two kittens available, it'll be a case of the early bird getting the worm.

Just phone me at LE 3-4490, and maybe you'll soon have a brand new little kitten to call your own. Talk about having your cake and eating it too! Marie Walsh of 117 Spindle Road (you know her better as Mrs. Craig Walsh, the Herald Girl Scout columnist) is attending those popular cooking lessons being given at the Community Hall on Levittown Pkwy. And not only is she learning to whip up scores of delicious dishes, but last week she walked off with a wonderful door prize. Keep up the good luck, Marie.

You, too, may attend the Cooking School, and add to your culinary repertoire. Just apply at your Sunrise Supermarket (there's one at the Parkway Village Green, and another at Carmen Ave.) for your free ticket of admission. Classes are held Tuesday mornings at ten, and Thursday afternoons. Of course, you don't have to attend regularly; simply go whenever you can get a ride over to the Community Hall. There's no baby-sitting problem, since you can park your youngsters right there, and they'll be kept amused with toys and coloring books and such.

Around The Lanes

wittedness I am beginning to understand the difference between the different bridges. Charlie Schmitt of 167 Rim Lane is a bobcat and he is now working on his wolf book. Charlie's daddy is cub master of pack 91. Life is pretty interesting around the Schmitt household now because there is a new baby to keep things hopping. Paul Michael was born on May 17 and his brothers although they rather thought another girl would keep things even have decided to keep him. Charlie, Jeffrey, and Virginia are the other members of the junior Schmitt family. The Senior members of the family, mom and dad, have everything under baby can really start three young-control again, even though a new sters off. Paul is a lucky young mart to have found such a lot of fun waiting for him.

This summer I have made up my mind to take those articles seriously which say you can lose weight swimming. The girls who swim steadily say there is nothing like it. Doris Hartman of 20 Blueberry Lane is a professional swimmer with the aquashow and she is a fine advertisement. The Hartman's have a new baby, Douglas Warren, to keep their little daughter, Judith, company. Judith is only four and she swims, believe it or not. Wonder if there is anything in this heredity deal? If so I feel the only thing my poor offspring will inherit is the ability to type with one finger. Daddy says one more thing they are liable to get—a slice of unpaid mortgage.

Betty is still agog about the mu-

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

Robert Hock of Hicksville High just missed being named the best baseball player in Nassau County according to word just received by the Herald.

Winner by a three-vote margin for the big honor was Bob Rogers of Manhasset who had the solid support of the entire Western Division of the North Shore Athletic League.

It is our understanding that along with the honor goes a two week Western swing with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Hock was named the best player outside of a pitcher in the voting but could not gain a tie in the top voting because only Eastern school sided with the West and Oyster Bay refused to vote since its own Dick Coles was not nominated for the honor.

That Coles actually wasn't considered for the award comes as a surprise in this section for he is a top flight pitcher, both pitching and slugging, with the undefeated aymen.

Many hold that Coles was not considered for the award since his coach, Dick Crawley, is not on the best of terms with his fellow coaches in the North Shore Athletic League.

There can be little doubt that some of the older mentors are disgruntled with the amazing job the Oyster Bay whip has done in turning out first class athletic teams—much to their annoyance.

Last year we expressed considerable anger when Farmingdale's Lou Porteraccaro did not come off with the honor. Now we are told that the award basically is given on geographical orderliness. One season the best player in Nassau County is taken from the South Shore League and next season from the North Shore loop.

We consider all awards for athletes rather silly since a fair way to arrive at the final selection seems hard to obtain. See what we mean?

public won a contested appeal play when the homeplate umpire overruled the base official on a call at second.

An infield out and a wild pitch delivered it and in the next frame Republic put over the two winning runs on a close play at first.

Botto appealed this call but after a conference the plate umpire refused to overrule the base ump.

The losers had a rally brewing in the bottom of the frame but got only one run over. Jack McCrosson cracked it in with a sharp clutch single to right that shook Smith but he had enough left to get Pete Zeiger on an infield grounder to end it.

Republic beat Bill Bordiuk when shortstop Garry Nordahl committed his fourth error to allow the tying run to get on in the seventh. Republic won a contested appeal play when the homeplate umpire overruled the base official on a call at second.

Only one thing was sure at the finish and that was the victory was joyously received by pitcher Ted Smith of the winners, centerfielder Merrill Yortoskey and Stan Smith, all Hicksville residents and once members of the Botto crew.

CAPTAIN TOSSES FIRST BALL

PBC Intermediate Action Starts

HICKSVILLE—With Police Captain Vincent Clements, commanding officer of the 2d Police Precinct, throwing out the first ball, the Precinct Intermediate PBC League got under way on Tuesday, May 27, at the High school diamond here.

In the inaugural contest, Oyster Bay's Saints, sparked by the pitching of Johnny Seviere and hitting of Tony Oddo, grabbed a last inning decision from the strong Hicksville Cards, 9 to 5.

The following evening, May 28, Oyster Bay's Stags and Hicksville's lions battled to a 7-7 deadlock with Johnny Gajewski's bat showing the way for the locals.

On Thursday evening, May 29, Hicksville's Aces, behind the fine hurling of Carl Schulz, romped over the Bethpage Jets 9-2. Ted LeViness and Ken Weldon emerged as spearheads of the Aces attack.

The Farmingdale Tigers, and Hicksville Royals were postponed by weather.

Draw Softball Schedule At Meeting This Friday

HICKSVILLE—The schedule for the Community Softball League to be conducted by the Board of Education will be drawn up in the office of the Mid-Island HERALD this Friday night at 8 p.m.

Recreation program coordinator Chet Jaworski, Hicksville High Athletic Director, will be in charge of the meeting. All team managers should be on hand with complete rosters of their teams.

It will also be the final date and place for new team applications. Jaworski has announced that new applicants are invited until the schedule is set.

A high school division for boys of school age will be incorporated into the league if enough interest is shown by that group.

Both Botto Bros. and Empire have declined to join their hometown loop so unbalanced power is not expected in league play.

Hogan No-Hits Dalers As Comets Pull Into 2nd

BETHPAGE — Hicksville High vaulted to its highest level in 15 years of Eastern Division diamond competition, here last week, and it was a sparkling no-hit performance by righthander Bob Hogan that provided the spring.

Hogan moved into the charmed circle with Billy De Vine and Larry Hoffman, each of whom have pitched no-hit games for Hicksville within the last decade.

There wasn't anything that resembled a base hit as Hogan set the Dalers down. He issued three bases on balls and struck out four as he defeated the defending County champions from Farmingdale, 9-0.

Two days before the Comets rallied with three runs in the last inning to defeat Roslyn, 7-6, and the two results left the Comets in a second place tie with the Dalers in the Eastern loop.

Farmingdale made its second trip of the year to the Hicksville field last Thursday in an attempt to break the deadlock but after a scoreless inning the game was rained out. It is expected that both schools will concede the game to the elements and the tie will go down in the final 1952 standings.

HOCK STILL HOT
Centerfielder Bob Hock continued to be a major sensation in Nassau as he went 3 for 4 against the Hill-toppers and 1 for 2 in the Daler game.

High tide for Oyster Bay waters, 10 minutes later at Bayville Bridge.
