Lift Ban On Water Use

PLAINVIEW—More than 250 residents were present at the Civic Assoc meeting in the Mannetto Hills School, here, Tuesday night and heard water commissioners announce that the ban on watering of lawns has been lifted for this season in the district. The ban was imposed on July 3, providing a fine of $50 for violators. Water officials received a heavy assault of questions from interested residents at the meeting. Also present were Town Highway Superintendent John R. Brandt, Councilman Frank Chumsky, and representatives of the fire dept and school system. (See Dowling's comments and earlier story on water system on page 9).

Auxiliary Cops' Dance Saturday

HICKSVILLE—The Police Auxiliary Civil Defense Unit 312 will hold a barn dance this Saturday evening, Sept. 13 at the Masonic temple, W. Nicholas St. The winner of the Television set will be announced at the dance and proceeds from the sale of the tickets for the television award will go towards the purchasing of equipment and uniforms for auxiliary policemen. All are invited to attend the dance to have a good time and to meet the men who are giving their time and efforts to protect the community. Auxiliary Police Chief Thomas Cullen said.

Skywatch Recruiting On Street

MINNEOLA—A cooperative sidewalk recruiting drive between Minneola Community and Hicksville-Plainview Civil Defense forces will be staged tomorrow (Friday, Sept. 12), for the Sponsoring Ground Observer Post. Arrangements were made by Frank Sutter, director of the Hicksville C-D; Cyril C. Ryan, for Nassau and Louis P. Griswold, supervisor of Sponsoring skywatch. Recruitment workers will gather around a table at West Marie St. and Broadway, Hicksville, inviting passerby to sign up for two hours sky-watching per month. The recruiting will be from 5 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. The goal is 100 volunteers from Hicksville-Plainview.

Official Paper For Plainview

The Mid-Island Herald is today the official newspaper for Plainview. The Board of Education of Union Free School District No. 19, Plainview, Town of Oyster Bay, at a recent meeting designated the Herald as the official newspaper for the district, according to Charles A. Voorhies, district clerk. The Herald has also been official newspaper for Hicksville School District since 1950.

School Enrollment Triples In 3 Years

Registration in Mid-Island public schools has more than tripled in the short span of three years it was found this week as local schools reported on our opening day registrations. Hicksville schools alone have doubled the total enrollment of the year 1949. Bethpage has topped the 1,000 mark for the first time and Plainview has doubled since last term. Jericho is the only local district which has remained relatively unchanged with large-scale new home building in that area still to come.

Dr. E. H. LeBaron, superintendent of Hicksville Schools, reported the system this term has 28 kindergarten classes with 869 enrolled and about 1,000 expected before the end of the current term. Hicksville schools are more than 1,000 above the opening day of last term.

18 MORE TEACHERS

Bethpage School System has its own junior-senior high school, limited to the freshman class, for the first time this term. There are 324 pupils in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades. Victor L. Miller, supervising principal, said the system has 56 teachers this term compared with 38 last year.

Miller said there are 794 pupils in the Broadway School, Bethpage, this term and 617 in the Powell Ave. building. Double sessions for the first, second and third grade are being held at the Broadway building and double classes for the first and second at Powell.

The Bethpage School Board has engaged an architect who is making preliminary plans for another 20-room elementary school on property in the district recently bought with approval of the voters.

FIVE SCHOOL BUSES

Plainview Schools this year is sending 108 pupils to Oyster Bay in the 7th, 8th, 9th grades and about 56 to Hicksville in the 9th thru 12th grades. B. A. Battig has the school bus contract this year and is operating five buses in the district, one more than last year.

Robert Tuttle, principal of Plainview, announced this week that Mrs. Ann Marianova was added to the faculty as first grade teacher making 17 classroom teachers, full time physical education and school nurse teachers on the faculty in addition to part time music and art teachers.

The first, second and third grades in Plainview are on double sessions, with class time 8 A.M. to 12 noon and 12:30 to 4:30 P.M. All public school classes in Hicksville are on split-day schedules.

OUR NEW LIBRARIAN: Adult, Teenager Programs Among Activities For Fall

HICKSVILLE — Miss Helen Wheeler of Freeport was appointed head librarian to the Hicksville Free Public Library during the summer. She was formerly head librarian at the Riverdale Library, Whitestone, N. Y.

Miss Wheeler plans to conduct a series of fall programs for adults and teen-agers at the library. A survey to determine the type of program desired by members of the library is now being made by a post card questionnaire. Adult programs in former years consisted of book reviews and guest speakers.

RESUME STORY HOUR

The Saturday morning story hour will be resumed for the winter months and a new program for pre-school age children in the form of a picture book hour is planned for each Tuesday afternoon, Miss Wheeler announced.

"We plan to make more use of the ceiling projector which the Hicksville Lions Club gave to the library last year," she said.

The ceiling projector will be loaned to bedridden residents for a three to four week period. Books on film are projected on the ceiling, page by page, for easy reading of bedridden patients. The Lions purchases new books on film each year and the library now has a collection of 70 books for adults and children.

Miss Wheeler is a graduate of Freeport High School and Barnard College where she received her BA degree. She received her MS degree from Columbia University in 1951. She also attended the University of San Carlos, Guatemala, for a summer session of Spanish classes.

Return Aboard S S Constitution

Louis and Eugene Parmigiani arrived home in Hicksville Aug. 25 aboard the S.S. Constitution after a two and one half months stay in Europe, where they visited friends and relatives.

While in Europe they had an audience with Pope Pius XII in St. Peter's Cathedral and they also visited many Italian cities, such as Genoa, Bologna, Torino, Milan, Montecatini, Firenze, Venice, Rome, Chiavari and Targueto.

At the pier in New York they were greeted by Mrs. Louise Parmigiani and son, Louis; Mrs. Marie Sansorino and Mrs. Elvira Panciroli, all of Hicksville, and Mrs. Minnie Parmigiani of Forest Hills.

ATTEND CONVENTION

CHICAGO—Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Wycoff of Old Country Rd., Hicksville, attended the convention of the International College of Surgeons, here, where Dr. Wycoff received certificates of Associate Membership in OES and GYN at the convention.

THIS SATURDAY afternoon, Sept. 13, starting at 1 o'clock the Hicksville Fire Dept. expects that this grandstand on Burns Ave. will be filled with spectators for the running of the 24th annual firemen's contests. This picture was taken by Frank Mallett, Herald photographer, during the heavy down-pour on Labor Day when the parade was held but the contests were postponed. Few braved the lashing rain as firemen and their ladies, over 3,000 strong, paraded for almost two miles. More than 50 fire companies will take part in the fast contests for handsome trophies, according to Chairmah Sam Weiss.

Dear Jean:

Hicksville Rotary meets today (Thursday) at the Millbridge Inn (formerly the Maine Hotel and a truly historic building in this area) at Jericho. It is reported the Kiwanis Club will start meeting there next Wednesday. . . . Dr. WALTER M. STILLINGER is home from a trip to Paris. . . . Adult Education registration takes place at Hicksville High next Monday and Wednesday evenings, Sept. 15 and 17. . . . Aircraft Specialties of Hicksville was the first concern on the island to make its quota in the LI Industry Fund for hospitals. AL RUSSELL is president. . . . The Herald was quoted in the New York State CD News Letter for Aug. 30 regarding the local CD Auxiliary Police project to raise funds for uniforms. . . . We got a box of Cheer, new detergent, in the mail this week as part of promotion for new product. . . . East Meadow-Hicksville Levitt section was described as "West Levittown" at PSC hearing on bus route change this week. Could it be that because Levitt is making up daily operating deficit of $50 to $60 Hempstead Bus Corp. calls it thusly? . . . Our photographer FRANK MALLETT of 183 Plainview Rd., Hicksville, had news in his back yard this week. That yellow flowering bush, the first to bloom in spring, was in flower this week! . . . Only 20 days left to renew your driver license. . . . Voter registration in this year takes place at local polling places Oct. 4 from 7 A.M. to 10 P.M. and Oct. 11 from 1 to 10 P.M. . . . First letter of year addressed to SANTA CLAUS came into Hicksville Post Office on Monday. "RICKY" wants a new bike and big circus tent and a "Jerry Mahoney-puppet". . . . State Senator WILLIAM HULTS is being invited to address the Hicksville Civic meeting at the firehouse on Sept. 25. . . . Businessmen meet tonight to start plans for Christmas lighting.

The Parent-Teacher Assoc. session is here again. Hicksville East St. School and Junior High School associations both meet tonight (Thursday), and the new Lutheran Parochial school P-TA will organize this evening. . . . The NLHOA which took such a strong position against incorporation of Hicksville, appears to be attracted to the idea of incorporation for Levittown, according to the latest news release. . . . Wonder why Oyster Bay highway dept. could not follow the excellent example of North Hempstead in the placement of speed limit signs? Here we find "populated area" is the compromise for a local name whereas in North Hempstead each hamlet entrance is clearly stated, including New Canaan, Carle Place, etc. . . . Our new high school is still in preliminary planning stage, but word comes to us that it may include an indoor swimming pool, stand three stories high. . . . Street light in front of Hicksville firehouse has not been lighted for better than a week now. . . . We hear a local appliance store will change over to hardware after Oct. 1. . . . And that an insurance firm may take over a large part of the office space on the second floor of the Huettner bldg. . . . GUS KEUTE took the brunt for most of the questions at the Plainview civic meeting Tuesday night. . . . There are new rumors about another paper in Bethpage. . . . FIRST DAY for first graders and the first day of the new Lutheran parochial school in Hicksville, Sept. 3, found these youngsters with their teacher, Miss Lillian Olsen. The pupils pictured are Ruth Dickon, Sandra Brown, Patricia Giese and Gary Patocka. The Nassau Christian School, Hicksville branch, has Edwin Jiede as principal and Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, as supervisor. The latter will conduct an organizational meeting tonight (Thursday) for a Parent-Teacher Assoc. of the new school at the Church at 8 p.m. All parents are urged to attend. The school has 34 in first grade registered and 33 in two kindergarten sessions. (Photo by Wes Giese).

NORTH WEST NOTES.

Road Hazards Cause For Alarm

By James Cummings
For more than a year the Town Highway Dept. promised residents of North West Hicksville better roads. To date all that has been accomplished, if I may use the word, is the refilling of low spots and holes throughout the development. Yet, everytime it rains this fill is washed away by a "natural course."

Are we to believe that this was formerly a small stream upon which now stands many residential homes? During the latter part of June the Highway Dept. started the installation of curbing to prevent floods from washing away sidewalks, top soil etc. as in the past. This curbing project was not half complete when parts of the curbing washed away by heavy rains.

A section on Kuhl Ave. between Indiana and Georgia Sts. has caved in several times during the past months causing a gaping hole in the ground, endangering cars parked in this block. The rains still overrun property on Ohio St. and Kolmar Ave. considered one of the bad spots by Mr. Brandt.

Corrective action should be taken by the Town Board to eliminate this problem. The least any homeowner should be able to expect today is paved streets and curbs. Every other development in this area has them, what happened in NW Hicksville? Why the discussions between the builder and the Highway Dept. as to who is responsible for the up-keep of the roads? Lets stop "passing the buck" and get down to cases.

BETWEEN ISSUES: We note the new model being constructed by Jerry Spiegel on corner West John and Burns Ave. . . . These new homes will occupy the farm land between Myers and Burns Ave. . . . If heavy frocks were kept out of our main arteries, there might be less holes to fill by the Highway Dept. . . . With the beginning of school this week for many of our youngsters—remember to be extra careful when driving through the development—do not pass any school buses—let our children grow up!

Town Verdict Was Popular

By FRED J. NOETH

WE HAVE BEEN SOMEWHAT remiss in not attempting sooner to express the thanks and appreciation of the people of the community to Oyster Bay Town Board on the question of splitting the Hicksville Park and Parking District.

Quite frankly the entire episode was rather discouraging at times. The fact that the bill permitting a split was introduced, when such a measure could only fit the local situation, was disheartening. The opinion given by the County Attorney in urging the Governor to sign the bill was even more depressing.

However, the public hearing brought out the true issues involved and the Oyster Bay Town Board, after long and careful deliberation of all the factors and assorted opinions, came out with a most agreeable decision. Our district and community remains as it was originally created.

There are so many local organizations and individuals who should be cited for their part in convincing the Town Fathers that we will not attempt to list them. For most of them the satisfaction with the final outcome is their reward.

The public hearing put it on the line concerning the real issues. A studious attempt to avoid any public discussion of the entire question had been made by a certain element which has been indicted by its own actions, printed statements and subsequent reaction to the decision.

We are grateful to Supervisor Charles E. Ransom, Councilman Frank Chlumsky and the other members of the Town Board for reaffirming our trust and belief in the democratic processes.

And now that the Hicksville Park and Parking District will remain as it was created, co-terminus with the School and Fire Districts, it becomes important that its purpose be fully utilized. For example, it is a Park as well as a Parking District. We should therefore make efforts to get property set aside for future Park development. Vacant acres and lots are fast disappearing before the bulldozers of home development companies. Unless we act now, we may someday be forced to acquire property at much higher prices so that tomorrow's generation can find a spot of green grass or a shady avenue or a playground.

The question of commuter parking is also of prime importance and we cannot afford further delay.

The need for tomorrow's park areas is today, we can report with authority, the objective of a citizens' committee currently being organized. It may very well be tied in with the combined need for a local picnic area and possible site for future firemen's tournaments.

And Yet Another False Alarm

HICKSVILLE FIREMEN received another false alarm last Thursday, making a total of 16 for the year which is almost as many as there were for the combined total of the past four years. The vamps got no false alarms in 1948, three in 1949, 8 in 1950 and 7 last year.

We believe the schools can assist this campaign and help reduce the number of false fire calls by stressing to pupils the hazards and dangers involved. In practically every case children are suspected and some have been apprehended on the scene. In at least one instance, a youngster stood on the seat of a tricycle to pull the alarm box lever.

Hicksville Fire Commissioners at a meeting Tuesday night decided that perhaps stronger measures are needed to halt such alarms. The operation of signal boxes will be discontinued in such areas where false alarms persist, they decided.

NOTICE FROM CHIEF

HICKSVILLE—All members of the fire department are being asked to report to Burns Ave. on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock to assist in dismantling the grandstand.

The Legionnaire

The Mineola Fair is currently in progress and tomorrow (Friday) evening veterans of Nassau County will take part in a mass celebration and parade. At this writing we haven't heard whether any of the other veterans organizations in Hicksville will participate but we are very pleased to report that the Charles Wagner Post will have a color guard on hand when the ceremonies begin at 7 P.M.

Representing the Post will be Commander Ed Becker, Jim Carter, your reporter and Jim McLaughlin (who said we couldn't get his name in this week's column.) Although it may not appear to be a very grand accomplishment—this four man participation—it's the first time in our association with the Post that we can recall Legion activity of this nature except in strictly local affairs. We feel it's a good thing and hope to see more of it.

The final report is now in from the Bazaar Committee and while receipts didn't quite come up to expectations there was a reasonable profit turned over to the treasury and with two other organizations already renting the equipment from us it appears that one more steady source of income has now been created. And with the experience gained this year you can look forward to bigger and better bazars in the future.

Although Walter Barnett did not start on this venture as the chairman he wound up working on it every night and it was his tremendous energy which was the greatest single factor in the success achieved. Barney tells us Guy Smith did a great job for him in the booths and we know that prior to our vacation John Pank, Rudy Bouse, Jim Carter, Fred Brangel among others were pitching in on the construction work.

Next year, with 100% cooperation from the membership, we all look for a huge success.

Charles Wagner Post
No. 421, American Legion

After last week's meeting the members present were treated to color movies of the "Indianapolis 500". . . . Commander Becker reports circus receipts are still not completed but percentage wise at least, the returns will be a little higher this year. . . . Auditing Committee (LeRoy Wells and Frank Bissel) expected to report at next meeting. . . . And speaking of Monday nights meeting how about a big turnout for our guest speaker, 1952 Boys Stater, Mario Bianco? Boys State is one of the fine projects of the Legion and we should all be interested in Mario's report. . . . Good to see Bill Schmidt around again. . . . Winner of the lamp given in connection with the Ladies Bazaar Cake Sale was Catherine Powell. . . . Maxine Knorr, 1952 Girls Stater, and her parents guests of the Auxiliary last Friday night. . . . Have a post card announcing an opening for a disabled vet with a credit company. Have no details, but will give address to anyone interested. . . . Conrade Tom Cresson at the V.A. rest camp, Mt. McGregor, N. Y. . . . Jack Rondeau, after doing a bang up job, has resigned from the Bar Committee. Artie Bletsch is the new Committee Treasurer. . . . Bowling team members who will not be at the next meeting contact Jim Arueman quickly—You're in the League!

The Auxiliary elections were held last Friday night and Joan Brengel was the new President. Congratulations and good luck Joan!

The supporting cast includes Harriet (honest Bob they roped me in) Mangels, 1st V.P.; Sylvia Gundlach 2nd V.P.; Rose Becker, Corresponding Secretary; Dot Frick, Recording Secretary; and Marie Haggerty, Treasurer.

To the outgoing officers, headed by Ruth Schlichting, the thanks of the Legion for a good years work.

And while we're in a "thanking mood"—Thanks to all those who commented so nicely on last week's column. Didn't know we had that many readers!

SUMMER PROGRAM ENDS

The Hicksville Public Library is fortunate in having its own separate Young People's Library and a professional children's Librarian who arranges special programs for their enjoyment and improvement. Each summer the Young People's Library sponsors a summer reading club. A member receives his club card in June and a star is added for each book read around the year's theme—this year, it has been the circus—"The Big Top—Read for Fun Club." The room has been decorated in a circus motif by our staff artist, Miss Katherine Saris, so that the decorations give one the impression of being in a circus tent.

The summer reading club's activities for the very youngest members have included a weekly story-book hour conducted every Tuesday by Mrs. Rebecca Dodge, Children's Librarian, which culminated in a party on Aug. 26. For the seven to ten age group, a drama club was conducted by Mrs. Hester Easer, also of the Library's staff.

A series of weekly painting classes was so popular that two sections were held. Madame Emmy Lichtwitz-Krasso, of the Parsons School of Design and Vienna, directed these art classes, and a reception and exhibit for parents and friends was held on Aug. 1, the final class day. The season closed with a bang for the three hundred club members on Sept. 6, as a party. Members of the Friends of the Library, Mrs. Walter Tolles, chairman, prepared the refreshments for this gala event. The Drama Club's play, "The Frog Prince," was presented, and Frank Warner, General Secretary of the YMCA, presented a folk song program.

A picnic supper followed, at which time the Reading Club Diplomas were distributed to those who had read the required number of books.

Now we are thinking about winter activities for the adults and teen-agers who use the Hicksville Public Library. A mailing list is being assembled of those people in Hicksville who would like to receive announcements of the Library's activities. Your Librarian would like to know what types of programs courses, lectures, etc. you of Hicksville would enjoy AND

THOSE WHICH YOU WOULD ATTEND if the Library were to sponsor them. Won't you help her by filling out the Questionnaire below and mailing or bringing it into the Library the next time you come? (An envelope addressed to the HICKSVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, HICKSVILLE, N. Y. will reach us). There are more blanks at the Library on the main Desk.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Water Commissioners of the Plainview Water District have determined that it is necessary that the facilities of the Water District be increased and improved by the acquisition of parcels of land and the installation thereon of not more than 3 wells and construction of control and administration buildings, including installation of an elevated water storage tank or tanks and appurtenant thereto; installation of certain proposed connecting pipes; and the installation and acquisition of such other facilities as the Board of Water Commissioners may from time to time decide, and Sidney B. Brown, C. E., consulting engineer, employed by the Water Commissioners has prepared a map and general plan of said improvements and has estimated the cost of such improvements as $750,000.00.

THEREFORE, pursuant to the provisions Section 26-B of the Town Law of the State of New York, as amended, the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, County of Nassau, New York, will meet at the Town Hall, Oyster Bay, New York, on the 23rd day of September 1952, at 10 o'clock A.M. (E.D.T.) to consider the said map, general plan of the proposed improvements and estimates, and will hear all persons interested in the subject matter, concerning the same, in order to determine whether it is in the public interest to make the proposed improvements, either in whole or in part, and also whether said improvements should be authorized and approved within the Plainview Water District. Any person desiring to be heard in relation said improvements as may be authorized and approved by Law, United, Oyster Bay, New York September 1952.

Adults Register Sept. 15 And 17

HICKSVILLE—Elery H. Bean, Director of the Adult Education Program, under the sponsorship of the School District announces several subjects which are new this semester. It is the aim of Director Bean, to offer a variety of novel courses with appeal to men and women which will help them to enjoy life in our community more fully. Registration for classes takes place at the high school next Monday and Wednesday, Sept. 15 and 17, 7:30 to 9:30 P.M.

For example, the Gardening, Garage Building, Attic Finishing courses are offered to help those who are new in the community and to whom these chores are unfamiliar. Likewise, the course in Hand Bags, Metalcraft and Jewelry Making and Textile Stenciling provides opportunities for the women to learn to make jewelry and hand bags, etc., for themselves and others with a minimum of expense.

"If there are any courses in any subject in which you and your friends are interested, a class can be started if 12 or more students request it," Bean said.

The new subjects include: Bookkeeping for Small Business—A course under Leon Galloway who has for many years been a teacher of Bookkeeping. This subject is intended for the small business establishments in town or for those contemplating establishing small business.

Hand Bags—Mrs. Bertha Dwyer is giving this interesting course by request. She has given this course in Home Bureau and it has proved very popular and worthwhile. Handbags are made very inexpensively. Remnants can be used and bags can be made of cloth or leather to match suits, hats or coats.

Law for the Home Owner—Is a must for the new home owner. Phillip Robinson, who is a local Attorney, will show how to avoid many of the problems which arise in the purchase and sales of homes. Metalcraft and Jewelry Making—These crafts have been very popular in other districts. Robert Staudigel will show the art of making jewelry and ornamental utensils.

OBITUARIES

Edward A. Kunz

HICKSVILLE—The funeral for Edward A. Kunz, of 15 Frevert Pl., was held from Henry J. Stock's Funeral Home on Newbridge Rd., Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 9. He died on Saturday, Sept. 6, at the age of 73.

Mr. Kunz was a carpenter in this community all his life. He was a 50-year member of the Royal Arcanum Lodge. A former member of Hook and Ladder Co. of the fire dept., he was a charter member of the Exempt Firemen's Assoc. Exempt firemen held services for him on Monday evening with a large number of firemen present in uniform, led by Ex-Chief Fred Masters Sr., president.

Religious services were also held on Monday evening with the Rev. Howard Rogers of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was at Plainlawn Cemetery.

Mr. Kunz is survived by a son, Edward, and two daughters, Dorothy and Marjorie Collins; a brother, Jules Kunz, and two sisters, Marie Weber and Marion Feldkampof, and seven grand children.

Three Kiwanians Going Upstate

SYRACUSE—The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville will be represented at the 1952 convention of the New York Kiwanis District here Sept. 20 to 24. Club President Charles I. Montana announced today.

The local delegates are Vice President Sam Pace, Fred Suttar and President Montana.

Dr. Bernard Miller Takes Bride In N. J. Ceremony

Miss Mary Margaret Mackinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Mackinson of 120 S. Second Ave., Highland Park, New Jersey, became the bride of Dr. Bernard Miller of 209 Raritan Ave., Highland Park, N.J., Monday, Sept. 1 at a Nuptial Mass.

The Rt. Rev. Mgr. James A. Mackinson of Jersey City, N. J., uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony followed by the Nuptial Mass with the Rev. Robert Murray of Princeton, N. J. officiating. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Miller of 19 East Cherry St., Hicksville, and the late Mr. Miller.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white antique taffeta style with a vee neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt with wide, soft pleats ended in a train. Her full length veil of rosepoint lace fell from a Juliet cap. She carried white orchids on a prayer book.

Miss Eleanor Miller, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Jane Joyce of Spring Lake, N. J., Mrs. Frank A. Mackinson of Highland Park, Miss Gloria Puskas of New Brunswick, N. J. and Miss Mary Waldron of East Orange, N. J. They all wore gowns of moss green taffeta with miniature picture hats of the same material. The maid of honor carried garnet gloriannas with magnolia leaves and the bridesmaids carried scarlet gloriannas.

Miss Mary Eleanor Miller, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a moss green, taffeta gown and a wreath of ivy. She carried a paper lace bouquet.

Dr. George Miller of Hicksville was best man for his brother. The ushers were Dr. Thomas McLaughlin, Thomas J. Mackinson, Frank A. Mackinson, Jr. and John F. Varley.

Mark Grasser of Hicksville was the soloist and Miss Marie Jones of New Brunswick, N. J. was the organist.

A reception was held at The Pines.

The bride is a graduate of the College of St. Elizabeth Convent, N. J. Dr. Miller who served as a captain in the U.S. Army, is a graduate of Fordham University and L.I. College of Medicine. He is on the staff of St. Peter Hospital, New Brunswick, N. J.

Her very many friends and neighbors wish Mrs. Henry J. Stock of Newbridge Rd., Hicksville, a speedy recovery after the recent operation.

NORTH EAST REPORT:

Gala Event At Public Library

By LEE CHANIN

Hicksville 3-0853 R

The Big-Top-Read-for-Fun Club, the Dramatics Club and the Painting class wound up their summer activities with an outdoor party on the lawn of the children's library building.

The party was a big success and all the kids, including my Leslie, had a wonderful time. Many people had expressed disappointment when they learned that a picnic had been planned for the youngsters instead of a trip to the city as in previous years. But with an enrollment of some 300 children this year, it is understandable that such a program would have been impossible.

I think that Miss Wheeler, Mrs. Dodge and the other librarians deserve a tremendous vote of thanks from all of us parents for encouraging good reading habits in our children and for the fine programs they carry out each summer. They all have my personal vote of appreciation.

Priscilla Barnett of 7 Dorothy St., had a big lawn party on Sept. 6 in honor of her 4th birthday with lots of kids and lots of fun. Just learned that Santa Groce family of 38 Violet Ave., were blessed with twin boys on July 17.

Heartly congratulations.

Dorothy Bartel of 6 Marion St., is very happy to have her mother, Mrs. Lege, home from the hospital after a stay of fourteen months.

WELCOME to the new residents of 8 Marion street—Mr. and Mrs. John Beckerich and their two children. Their neighbors said farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Demoulin who have been renting at the same address, and recently moved to Port Washington.

BRIAR PARK, PLAINVIEW:

New Schedule For Local Bus Line

By Ethel Rooney HI 3-5324
Hello Folks,
The start of school has emptied the streets. Poor Jimmy and Kathy are missing a few of their chums who started kindergarten this year. Jimmy should start next Fall. I hope they have a kindergarten for him to go to.

As usual, there have been a few mix-ups about youngsters getting off at the wrong stop, getting on the wrong bus, etc. Time will straighten all that out; however, it might be a courtesy item to teach your youngsters who go to the bus stop alone, about not running on the lawns near the stop, and not making extra noises. There are a number of night workers in our community and although they aren't cranks, it must be hard for them. Also, I've spoken to some of the corner owners who had their shrubbery torn apart last year by thoughtless children who forgot to remember that they weren't permitted to do that on their own shrubs or neighbors either.

The P.T.A. will hold its first meeting for this term tonight (Thursday, Sept. 11) at 8 o'clock. A reception for the school board is scheduled. You ought to attend these meetings even if you have no children attending the Manno Hill School. It is a community activity of interest to all of us, in addition is a pleasant evening in the company of your fellow parents. Their programs are always interesting and often prove very helpful. The evenings are always followed by the serving of coffee and cake. Try to make it. I'm sure you'll enjoy yourself.

John Barcot of Blanche St., will celebrate his 35th birthday on Sept. 15. Happy Birthday, John—How about saving me a piece of birthday cake?

The Rosary for Peace group will meet at the home of Mrs. Florence Wallace, of 30 Nassau Ave. on Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, at 8:30 P.M. The evening only lasts about half an hour so why not drop in and join the others?

The Plainview Aqviet Auxiliary of Post No. 11 held election of its new officers last week. The newly elected officers are President, Mrs. Ethel Geigetter; Secretary, Mrs. Marcella Olson; Treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Rooney; Chaplain, Mrs. Mary Ward. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 1, at the home of Mrs. Diane McCormick, 43 Island St.

The bus line running into Hicksville has put out a new bus schedule. We should now be able to catch a bus at our corner at approximately 6:40, 7:19, 7:43, 8:19, 9:15, 9:55, 11:10, 11:45 A.M. and 1:10, 1:50, 3:10, 3:45, 5:05, 5:45, and 7:10 P.M. These, of course, are the busses going into Hicksville. Coming home you can catch them at 6:55, 7:25, 7:55, 8:25, 9:25, 10:20, 11:20 A.M. and 12:30, 1:25, 2:20, 3:20, 4:10, 5:20, 6:20, and 7:20 P.M.

Comfort Committee Lets Men In Service Know Local Folks Care

BY RAE CANTILLI
Here in Plainview we have a very little heralded group of hard-working people who about every three months or so send packages to those men and boys in Plainview who are in the service. These packages include two members of Plainview Civic and Community Assn., two members of Plainview Volunteer Fire Dept. Inc. and two members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Dept. They work strictly from donations and money raised by raffles, etc. to let the servicemen from Plainview know that the people back home have not forgotten them.

The packages out contain almost everything that can be shipped easily and will not spoil and that the men in uniform can really appreciate. Candy, crackers, razor blades, various canned sandwich spreads, cigarettes, stamps, books, a copy of the Mid-Island Herald, pencils, etc. are sent out regularly to all parts of the United States and the world.

On this committee are Louis Cavelli, Charles Lieb, Ann Ocker, Mrs. Grabow, Ruth Gessner and Ruth Himberger. This Committee would certainly welcome any contributions from anyone and they would appreciate any names of men in the service who come from Plainview. For any information (Continued on Page 16)

Town Board Hearing Sept. 23 On New Plainview Water Supply

OYSTER BAY—The Town Board will hold a public hearing here on Tuesday morning, Sept. 23, upon a proposal to increase the facilities of Plainview Water District at a cost estimated at three-quarters of a million dollars, it was learned today. The hearing is set for 10 o'clock, according to Town Clerk Leslie C. Disbrow.

The proposition includes the installation of three wells on property to be bought in the Plainview Water District as well as construction of a control and administration building, an elevated water storage tank, installation of main, etc.

A map and general plans have been prepared by Sidney B. Bowne, C.E., who has been hired by the district for the work. The general plan of improving the system will be the subject of the hearing.

Plainview District since it was established has bought water thru meters from Jericho Water District. The latter has now given notice that its own requirements have forced curtailment of outside sale.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Civics Set Pace For Cooperation

by JOHN DOWLING
This past Tuesday evening was one of surprise and enlightenment for many residents of Plainview. It was probably the first time in the history of this growing village held in the Manno Hill School. The huge crowd in attendance was due mostly to the well-planned and well-coordinated information campaign carried on by the association's officers and members. They covered all of Plainview with appropriate leaflets and also received the full cooperation of this newspaper in their efforts to see that every residents was informed of the time and place of the meeting.

The people filed into the school auditorium with a two-fold purpose—to hear talks by the town councilman, the highway superintendent and school board members—and to ask questions.

Plainview oldtimers mingled with Plainview's newcomers and chatted back and forth trading stories. Despite minor differences on some questions it was fairly obvious to most people that all were agreed that an actively supported Civic Assoc. is one of the keys necessary toward moulding a happy future for Plainview and its residents.

If the attendance at the meeting can be used as a norm, this writer feels that Plainview is well on its way toward solving many of its problems and will in the future take its place among the outstanding communities of Nassau County.

A big "A" for accomplishment, in the opinion of this writer, is due the officers and block captains of the Civic Association

JWV Corner

BY BILL OLITSKY

Our goal is permanency in the program for disabled veterans who are hospitalized in localities and are often difficult for loved ones to visit. The goal is attainable but only through the wise application of expanding knowledge we have acquired and still receive through our visits and courses and our work with the types of patients we visit. Perhaps no veterans organization has yet developed a permanent program. It is still a goal to be achieved by local, state, national or combined efforts of all veteran groups cooperating to meet this need.

We of the JWV have gone to you . . . the business people of Hicksville, the bankers, lawyers, doctors, store keepers and John Doe. We showed what our post had done. You folks were swell, not only to us personally, but to the work we have undertaken. I know it's very hard for a business man to get away to do this humanitarian work of personal visits. We have men and women willing and able to perform this particular phase of the program. We don't take credit for our part of helping these disabled men, men who can't help themselves; because had it not been for your past generosity, these visits could not have been made.

As you all know, we are on our 2nd Annual Pleasure Hunt. Our Sr. Vice Commander Seymour Lang and Trustee Elliot Lauer are about to visit all local business men. Will you join us in our hunt for pleasure for the disabled? We have not reached our goal to carry out our visiting program; it's up to you, Seymour and Elliot.

Sid Kaplan just entered into a one-man-drive for membership. I hear ten ex's have joined the 40 already on our rolls. Welcome, guys, and bring the gals for the Auxiliary; we sure can use the additional force as you know we anticipate the addition of another ward to our visitation group. Volunteers and their outstanding contributions to patient care is recognized by all. We are fortunate in the type and number of volunteers who are giving so generously and unselfishly of their time to assist in rendering the best visitations possible. On behalf of our Commander, Sid Kaplan, Auxiliary President Ethel Lauer, Sr. and their Hospital Chairmen, I want you to know our deep gratitude.

Today, Sept. 11, is our Post meeting down at the Shaarei Zedek, East Barclay St. at 9 P.M. There is much to be discussed about our coming winter program. Sam Mosel promises a delightful evening. You know Sam . . . he brews a delicious cup of coffee and he's a bachelor. Where did you learn, Sam? I know it's not from the "K" rations. See you at 9.

Four New Schools May Open As K-4, Carpenter Tells Civics

The SENTINEL

School Problems Elsewhere

Plainview's school problem with a 2000-home development threatening to swamp by a huge influx of children an already overcrowded 8-room school has a familiar ring. We can now view objectively conditions which approximately parallel our own, two years ago: There too the builder builds houses and sells them, presumably, at a profit, and leaves the problem of providing school facilities in the lap of the School Board. The buyers do not realize at the time that the problem is really being placed in their own laps, as the School Board only functions as their representative and spends their money, to be collected from them in taxes, and that the interim period of makeshift facilities will be their hardship for which the School Board should not be blamed.

The Developer's Responsibility

The School Board does not have authority to build schools for a potential or even probable school population. Tangible evidence of the need must be at hand in terms of actual numbers established by a census taken by door to door visits. Inevitably, therefore, construction lags behind the need; the children suffer, and the Board is bedevilled. Schools are as essential to a residential locality as water supply and streets; these latter the builder must provide as part of his operation. But, at the present time, all the Planning Commission demands is the setting aside of land, suitably located, for school sites, which the builder then sells, also presumably at a profit, to the School Board; i.e., the people who bought the houses.

Levitt's Viewpoint On Schools In This Area

Back in 1950 when the first Levitt houses in this area were being built the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. appealed to Levitt and Sons for assistance in meeting the school problem they were creating by building 2,800 houses in District 17. Bill Levitt answered on May 3, 1950 as follows:

"The question of school facilities is a state function and far beyond the capacities of private individuals or firms. The analogy to the Trump project is illogical and poorly made. Mr. Trump merely built a few apartment houses and set aside certain basement facilities for nursery groups. There is not the remotest comparison in his problem and the problem of Levittown.

"If education is to be the province of the private builder then we should not stop at the construction of buildings for such purposes. We should also purchase the supplies, engage the staff, and administer the huge undertaking that we have sponsored. I think that any sensible citizen will quickly agree that such a program would create a paternalistic system that has no place in this country.

"Under the circumstances your suggestion must be rejected and I cannot continue any further correspondence on the subject," Levitt concluded.

In conformity with Planning Commission requirements, Levitt made available sites for schools which were sold to the community. These appeared on the developer's map from which houses were sold. Somehow, many believed that there were actual schools in the area, and were dismayed to find only undeveloped sites when they took possession of their houses.

Sale of the Sites

Contrary to commonly held belief, the sites were not given to the community; they were sold to the School Board at a total cost of $148,000. The School Board was not entirely satisfied with them; the Fork Lane site was too small, and the Dutch Lane and Old Country Road sites, too large. A high tension power transmission line and easement crosses the Old Country Road site and makes that part of the property practically unusable. The Dutch Lane and Old Country Road sites are too close together, and the Old Country Road site, especially, bordering on Old Country Road, is not well located geographically. But it was a case of take it or leave it, and the need was too urgent to delay while other sites were investigated.

Schools—or the Hall

It has occasionally been conjectured that school sites given to the community early in the building program would have benefited it far more than construction of the Hall, not only in cash saving but also in accelerating construction. The School Board could not even

BY CRAIG WALSH

Although the four new schools on Dutch Lane, Old Country Road, Fork Lane, and Burns Ave. will be opened during the next several months, it will in all probabilities be necessary to accommodate the fifth and sixth grades in other school district buildings according to Allen W. Carpenter, member of the Hicksville School Board. He spoke to the members of South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Homeowners at its September meeting in Levittown Hall. He also stated that it will be necessary to have either the first grade or the fifth and sixth grades on split sessions during the current year.

Carpenter estimated that the attendance for each of the schools was as follows: East St. 773; Nicholas 94; Lee Ave. 664; Dutch Lane 564; Old Country Rd. 500; Fork Lane 413, and Burns Ave. 350.

During a question period a parent of a high school student said there seemed to be "something lacking" in the High School program but was unable to determine just what the difficulty might be. Carpenter thought the parent probably had noted elimination of the hobby clubs which are very popular with the high school students. In past years there were as many as twenty such hobby clubs and now there are none due to split sessions in the high school, Carpenter said.

This problem will probably be solved only by the construction of a new Senior High School and conversion of the present building to a Junior High School.

Carpenter said that plans for the new High School are now being made and that the completed building should be ready for use "in about two years or so."

NLHOA Invites Democratic Club

The North Levittown Home Owners Assoc. has invited the Levittown Democratic Club to present their program for the Incorporation of Levittown at the general meeting to be held tonight (Thursday, September 11), at Levittown Hall.

Carl Sigman, Democratic candidate for County Executive, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

Plans have been made to have another prominent speaker present the advantages of Town Government at a future meeting.

It would be pretty hard to eat around those 50-some hidden taxes in a loaf of bread.

RANCH HOUSE-BLUES:

Oil Consumption

Quantities of oil delivered by the oil supplier have frequently been questioned by the home owner, especially when deliveries are on a yearly contract basis with a fixed amount paid monthly irrespective of quantity delivered. With the latter basis, the deficiency amount billed at the end of the season may be a severe shock to the consumer.

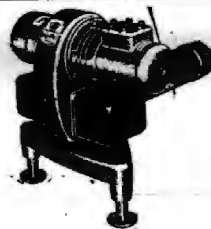

As with water consumption, the amount utilized may vary considerably from house to house. There are extreme variations in temperature maintained, number of open windows, frequency with which temperature is brought up to 70 degrees, and burner adjustment. The heat lag of the radiant concrete slab is appreciable; the heat-up period to bring the room temperature to 70 degrees is relatively long; and heat emission frequently persists long after the thermostat is satisfied. Windows are open, and the heat, and the oil consumed in producing it, literally thrown out the window.

Especially in the fall and spring, the heat input into the slab must be judiciously controlled to prevent waste of fuel. On installations more complex than those in Levitt houses, automatic controls, specially designed for radiant heating systems, compensate to some degree for heat lag; in the Levitt houses the owner must apply experience and judgment to cut off heat input in ample time before an expected outdoor temperature rise, and to add heat in advance of an expected temperature drop.

On "automatic delivery" schedules, the tank is usually filled each time delivery is made. Deliveries are scheduled by the supplier according to "degree-days" accumulated since the last delivery, calculated from Weather Bureau reports. The tank is full when the vent stops whistling. The home owner is charged for the quantity of oil that has been added to the tank to fill it.

When the home owner questions the quantities of oil that he is charged with he can request that the tank be "rodged" in his presence, before and after delivery. The "rod" is marked off in feet and inches to indicate depth of oil in the tank; by use of tables prepared for the purpose, feet and inches can then be translated into gallons. The home owner can make his own "rod" by marking off any suitable stick or pole, and use it to keep close track of his daily consumption.

Assorted Notes On School Days

By FLORENCE VRYN
LE 9-4407

Tell me, did it startle you to see all the little villagers you were watching in dungies and shorts this summer show up for school like models out of "Parents Magazine"? I know these are neighbors of mine who have probably never seen my small son's face. They never managed to catch him in that five minute period when he was clean. Five minutes! An optimist.

Glad to see the Magills back for fall. Charlotte and the family spend most of the summer at Cutchogue. Alf is some shot and the first rabbit I ever tasted was one he bagged. Delicious.

All the little tots started kindergarten this year and now there are only a few left home. Michael and Ira Kleirrock started off to school hand in hand last week. Michael is in Betty's class, the second, and Ira is starting kindergarten. It makes me feel old to see the real little fellows old enough to go. Millie is lucky, for the Kleirrocks have a new son, Stevan, who was born July 30. If he follows in the footsteps of his brothers he'll be a very nice little boy, indeed. The Kleirrocks live at 17 Rising Lane.

Speaking of new additions I hear the Don Phelan's have another boy. The Phelans live at 14 Abbott Lane.

Saturday Mary Helen Armstrong, Rosa Szendy, and my Betty joined the rest of the children who attended the Hicksville Library Picnic. All the children who had participated in the summer program received a card inviting them to the affair. They were entertained by the youngsters in the dramatic group who performed "The Frog Prince." It must have been a wonderful performance because Betty came home with the whole story intact and she remembered the speeches some of the children gave so the group must have been wonderful to have made such a clear impression.

All of the mothers who have children attending Lee Ave. School owe a vote of thanks to Giese Nurseries on Lee Ave. who were nice enough to donate asters to be placed on the desks for the teachers in the morning and afternoon sessions.

While waiting around for the kids to come home from school we were talking about single sessions and when it would be possible to have them. It reminded me of the first meeting the School Board had with the new residents who had just moved to Hicksville. At the time there was a "lunatic fringe" who without any contact with the board was positive they were not going to provide education for our children and when the school sites were voted on this same crowd set up a howl that the board was going "too fast." If you were at the meeting in the High School you might remember that many people found it impossible to believe the older residents would vote for school sites in the new sections. They did though. No one who knew anything about the situation ever doubted they would, only the people who were looking for trouble where none existed. The pattern remains the same except the battle cry has changed. Instead of "too fast" it's "too slow."

Joy Ann Crespi, one of our newest residents, who lives at 12 Meeting Lane, will have a head start when she goes to school. Her daddy, David, teaches art at West Babylon Junior High. Joy Ann will have the neatest notes and the most colorful pictures in school if she inherits her daddy's talent and she is the most popular gal in class if she inherits her mom's pleasant charm.

See you next week, back to the salt mines, gals.

Weekend Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Whalen of 523 Plainview Rd., Hicksville, were visited by Miss Antoinette Byrne of the American Bankers' Association, for the weekend of Aug. 15.

Miss Byrne was entertained by a visit to Jones Beach for a performance of "Night in Venice," luncheon at the Three Village Inn, Stony Brook, and spent Sunday visiting model houses in the Hicksville vicinity.

start to plan until sites had been acquired after affirmative vote of the district. The set-up of Levitt Hall has prevented its use for much needed school purposes; even for kindergarten, it was refused for that purpose to both the Hicksville District and, recently, to the Island Trees District. It is a poor kind of community building that cannot be used in an emergency for school purposes; what more important community activity can there be?

Thwarting the Democratic Process?

Basic in our democratic process is the free choice by the people of their representatives and officials. To facilitate that choice we hold primaries to select our candidates, or require the filing of nominating petitions. The names of candidates and their qualifications are thereby brought before the public for their consideration. However, a write-in selection is still legally permissible, though effective only where the write-in candidate has unusual popularity, or as a coup d'état.

As a coup d'état—a sudden decisive exercise of force by a minority—it thwarts the democratic process by preventing the majority, because of time limitations, from expressing by the ballot their acceptance or rejection of the suddenly-presented candidate for office.

Only one candidate had filed for the office of Water Commissioner when the polls opened at 7 P.M. on Tuesday, Sept. 2nd. The voting was desultory, the sole candidate was acceptable and had no opposition. But at 8:35 P.M., 25 minutes before the polls closed, a caravan of automobiles arrived led by a write-in candidate Anthony Apicella, a name made familiar by Mrs. Apicella's twice unsuccessful candidacy for the School Board. Because of the light vote previously recorded, and because the remainder of the electorate could not be advised that a contest had suddenly developed, the results were close, though Mr. Apicella was defeated.

Frost Damage at the Pools

The SENTINEL hopes that the pumping systems at the pools are properly drained this year. Water left within the cast-iron casings of the pump impellers will cause them to break, when it freezes. It has been suggested that the smashed pump casings at the East Meadow pool, reported in the spring of this year as due to vandalism, may have just been old man FROST at work.

As Szendy Sees It:

Opinion on Levitt-House Matters
By a Levitt-Home Owner

Should SHALHO and NLHOA Merge

Amalgamation of the two local organizations has been suggested several times, the last time at the Shalho meeting on the 2nd of this month by Mrs. Charles D. Eginton of NLHOA.

While amalgamation may be desirable from the standpoint of centralizing civic effort, there exists such differences of viewpoint between the two organizations that any sincere effort in that direction should probably first be prefaced by an attempt at reconciliation of those differences.

The basic and perhaps irreconcilable difference in viewpoint is indicated by the names the organizations have selected. While both draw membership from within the traditional boundaries of Hicksville, defined also by the School District and other Hicksville Service Districts, one identifies itself with North Levittown, sometimes believed to be the northern edge of Levittown just south of Spindle Road, and the other with Hicksville. One calls itself the North Levittown Home Owners Association, and the other the South Hicksville Association of Levitt Home Owners.

The choice of North Levittown for a name could hardly have been accidental. In other Levitt home areas, outside Levittown, the civic organizations identify themselves with the locality, and are the East Meadow and Wantagh Levitt Home Owners Assoc. they are not known as the West Levittown or South East Levittown Associations. Only in this area has there been an effort made to foist a new name on the locality, with initial action taken by adoption of the name by a civic organization.

The pattern of civic action attempted by the organization was foreshadowed by its choice of name. Besides sponsoring the "split" and the establishment of a North Levittown Park District, NLHOA circulated petitions to change the postal address of the area from Hicksville to Levittown, and organized vigilante squads to safeguard the "Levittown" signs erected in Hicksville by the developer. NLHOA has functioned largely as a Levittown organization, and is one of the main spring member organizations of the Levittown Civic Council.

SHALHO, on the other hand, has accepted the existing boundaries of the various Hicksville District and operated as a Hicksville civic organization. It is unfortunate but perhaps inevitable that the two organizations have been at loggerheads, primarily because of NLHOA's pro-Levittown and corresponding anti-Hicksville attitude.

Amalgamation only appears possible if there is a complete turnabout in viewpoint in one organization or the other. SHALHO's firm establishment within an existing sphere of governmental limits and control and its repeated successes in that sphere, make change of its viewpoint unlikely. It appears that the adjustment must be made by NLHOA.

While the individual "North Levittowners" have been known to profess to be Hicksvillites, especially at public hearings and during election campaigns, the organization still adheres in spite of numerous setbacks, in the original North Levittown concept. The "hard core" of the organization seems to have no intention of being realistic and abandoning that concept; the recent loyalty-quiz of officer candidates amply demonstrated that. While NLHOA members continue to accept the domination of that "hard core", amalgamation seems impossible.

SCHOOL TIME

Hey Mom! school times here—remember? Yeh—so do I, but, how about Pop—what's he going to do about it? The kids need some things fixed up. Like a few new shelves to hold their new school books, and stuff—closets for their extra warm clothes, rubbers, galoshes and things.

Maybe it's time to explore the attic for extra space. We have plans and specifications for building a new room or two, just for the asking. Our booklets on unpainted furniture will describe the many beautiful tables, desks, wardrobes and chests of drawers of all sizes. Beautifully finished to receive either stain or paint. They are reasonably priced too. Take Pop for a hike over to see "Uncle Tom" you'll be amazed at the raft of things on display here that I'm sure will make your home life an even more pleasant and comfortable place for you and the kids to live in.

Our complete line of wallboards, sheetrock and finishing materials, wallpaper and paints are new in every respect as to design and color. I'm sure we here at Cashels can fill your every need to the nth degree.

Should your ideas run into a little more than the old pocket-book will stand at the moment (what with clothes and books for the kids) ask about our deferred payment plan (up to 3 years to pay). It's a way to get things done now and pay later. Let's get the kids fixed up right!—Times a wastin'.

P-T-A Holds First Term Meeting

By DOROTHY GUELPA

The P.T.A. held its first meeting of the fall season on Thursday, Sept. 4, and it was very well attended. Mrs. Elvira Melone, president, welcomed the people and expressed the hope that they and many more will continue to come to the meetings. She also announced that the Fall Conference of the P.T.A. will be held at the Broadway school Oct. 15. The students will be excused at the end of the morning session on that day. The October meeting will be the Teachers Reception and a purely social evening is planned. The program is under the able direction of Mrs. Florence Lee, Arthur Bunce said it was also planned to have pre-meeting films for the early comers.

Victor Miller, school principal addressed the meeting and said "Strange as it seems, he and the teachers were very happy to see the children return to school after the summer vacation." He also pointed out that there are now 1411 children in the school system which is a 50 percent increase over last year. There are 28 new teachers to help take care of this increase, but again the lack of space is beginning to rear its ugly head.

The kindergarten thru the 3rd grade is on half time now and the outlook is for more of the same. He, along with Frederick Kramer, chairman of the Board of Education and Charles Campagne, had discussed the plans for a new elementary school just a few days ago. He also expressed hope that when the time comes to build the new school the people would get behind the School Board and give them whole hearted cooperation.

Mr. Cantelmo gave a report on the Summer Recreation program of which he was in charge and said that between 115 and 235 children attended each day.

He also explained that with the introduction of a high school program also comes the problem of inter-school athletic programs. This year Bethpage has scheduled six football games with other schools. This is a modest beginning because football is a strenuous game and the team needs a lot of practice and conditioning before a full schedule is advisable.

An insurance program has been arranged with the New York State Athletic Insurance Plan whereby every 7, 8 and 9th grade child participating in sports will be adequately covered in case of injury. The School Board is going to assume one-half this cost and the student the other half. The cost is a $6 policy for inter school football ($3 to student) and a $3 policy for basketball—interschool ($1.50 to student) and a 60¢ policy for any one engaged in intra mural sports. That is small cost when you consider what one visit to a doctor would cost you.

Arthur Bunce announced that Sept. 15 would start this year's Adult Education classes. He also publicly thanked the Mid-Island Herald for its fine coverage and cooperation with this program.

PEEPING TOM

A peeping Tom gave the homeowners in Bethpage Greens a bit of excitement last week. He was reported to have been caught looking in the window of a 12-year-old girl's home and when his car wouldn't start, he was grabbed by the parents and their friends. After he allegedly told them he had never done anything like that before and that he was the father of two children, the irate parents let him go.

Later that week he was picked up in N.Y.C., according to the N.Y. daily papers, and said he had suffered severe headaches and had no recollection of his supposed trespassing. That's a good story but there is still a little girl suffering from the shock of such an ordeal.

Board Plans New Fire Truck Vote

At the annual budget election of the Bethpage Fire District on Sept. 2, the proposition to purchase a new Hook and Ladder truck was defeated by the narrow margin of five votes. The Board of Fire Commissioners feels that a statement to the public on this most important matter at this time is in order.

The statement: Last Spring, in anticipation of the election, the Board of Commissioners wrote to the active local civic organizations, requesting an opportunity to discuss our problems. Each group that responded was visited by representatives of the board and the matter of replacing our obsolete ladder truck was discussed and explained. There was general approval of this proposition, and little or no opposition was encountered. Several groups went on record as favoring the purchase of a new truck.

NO LONGER SAFE

The present ladder truck is 24 years old, as are its ladders and other tools and equipment. It is no longer considered safe to risk the life and limb of any of the firemen in operating this truck or using its ladders. The manufacturer has advised that replacement parts for the truck itself are no longer available, and its brakes, lights, motor, speed, and maneuverability are not satisfactory.

Bethpage Fire Dept., which is entirely a volunteer organization, has expanded to meet the needs of the community's fire service, and now consists of two engine companies, a rescue squad, and a hook and ladder company. Obviously, the latter is unable to function properly or even safely under present conditions, and is seriously handicapped in carrying out its work. In the event of a sufficiently serious fire, it would be necessary to call for aid from neighboring departments, which is undesirable and an imposition both on the firemen and on the people of another community who have paid for their own apparatus.

The proposed new truck would cost about $32,000, and could be expected to give adequate service for as long as 15 years. The proposition was to pay for this truck in one year, entirely avoiding the additional expense involved in issuing bonds, borrowing money, and paying interest charges. Contrary to the greatly exaggerated rumors circulated prior to the election, the cost to the individual taxpayer was to be relatively small.

Since it is no longer safe to use either the truck or the ladders, the old truck has been taken out of service by the Board of Commissioners.

At present the fire department and the community are without ladder truck service. It is essential that a new one be obtained as (Continued on Page 18)

In the World Today!" —says Tom McCahill

THIS IS THE VERDICT OF THE NATION'S LEADING IMPARTIAL MOTOR CAR EXPERT AS REPORTED IN MECHANIX ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE, SEPTEMBER, 1952, ISSUE

NEVER has an automobile received a finer tribute than that accorded the Nash Ambassador by MECHANIX ILLUSTRATED Magazine's Tom McCahill, outstanding-car expert.

Tom McCahill tests all makes of cars—200 different models in the past six years. He puts them through back-breaking grinds and reports his impartial findings. He writes of Nash:

"The finest shock-proof ride in the world today... Undoubtedly the best bump-leveler we have."

"On an acre-per-dollar basis, the bargain of the year."

"Among the best performing cars made in America."

"In hill-climbing, it takes a back seat to none."

"This year's line is by far the best Nash has ever offered; and that's saying a lot."

Visit your Nash dealer. See and drive America's first cars styled by Pinin Farina, whom McCahill calls the "Rembrandt of automobile design"—the Golden Airlifts. One ride and you will agree with Tom McCahill.

Wonderful Living in Hicksville

By Bunny Lauer HI 3-2794J
Hello, all you lovely people. Isn't this a wonderful place to live? Imagine even though the schools are still in double sessions there is room available for every child who is of kindergarten age. One of our neighboring communities is less fortunate and it is really a pity to rob an innocent child of the wonderful training that they do get in kindergarten. It is the first step of going up the ladder and one of the most important steps. Boy, am I glad that I live in Hicksville! Besides the wonderful schools:

PLAINVIEW FOLKS

that you may want to give, just contact Rae Cantilli, 17 Island St. HI. 3-0233M and I will be glad to put it on to the committee.

To illustrate just how much the servicemen enjoy receiving packages and news from home, I would like to put in print a letter received from Pvt. George Larsen, U.S. Infantry, Camp Polk, La. "To Plainview Comfort Comm.: I send you a few lines to inform you that your package has reached its destination, and that I appreciated every bit that was in it. Thank you very much and I hope that I someday can do something in return. Sincerely George E. Larsen."

The following is a letter received from a boy in the Navy. "Hiya Folks: It's been some time since I last wrote, so I thought I'd drop a line today to thank you for the packages that you have sent me and to let you know that I'm still alive and kicking. The package that I've received lately and the other one which arrived some time ago were both in very good shape as were the contents, and the crew showed their appreciation by making short work of them. Needless to say, the packages were greatly welcomed and appreciated very much by yours truly. Again thank you for your thoughtfulness and kindness. Soon, perhaps, I may be able to thank you all personally. Until then I'll secure with a so-long and a I'll be seeing you." J. F. Podera, ADI USN, Operations, USNS, Navy 117, F.P.O., N.Y.C., N.Y.

A card from a Marine was as follows: "Dear Plainviewites: Thank you very much for your package. It's nice to receive something from the 'home town.' It arrived in fine condition." Sincerely, Cpl. John L. Ennis USMC, SMS - 3 Marine Corp. Air Station, Miami, Florida.

So if you have a son, brother, husband who makes Plainview his home town, let me know, and if you would like to help the committee with a donation that would be appreciated also. From time to time I'll try to keep you informed on the Plainview Comfort Committee's activities and put some more letters into print.

here, we have the best fire department also and the nicest people in all the world live in Hicksville, so thank your lucky stars that you are fortunate to live here too.

The Teubners of Lee Ave. are sure in full swing. Saturday afternoon they went to a wedding and reception in Franklin Square. Saturday evening the whole family went to Mineola to help Mabel's mother, Mrs. Emily Wheeler, celebrate her 68th birthday. Other guests at the birthday party included, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teubner, Miss Peggy Wheeler, Mrs. Edward Strickland and Bert Hefner. Mabel also has a full schedule for this week with meetings almost every night and a Stanley demonstration on Thursday morning. Guess it must be those Wheaties for breakfast, huh!

Elliot Lauer, Lee Ave. is home after attending a "Seminar" of the John Hancock employees in upstate New York over the week-end. Master Griffith Ziegler of 5 Linden Blvd. is home after a vacation on his grandpa's farm in Newberg. His parents recently enjoyed a trip to Troy, N. Y. Last week they had guests from Brooklyn, Miss Pat Gilligan and Miss Bonnie McTigue. Come on Halstonites, lets hear from more of you.

Boy, wasn't Sunday nasty though—real cold and wintry? We even had to put the heat up for the kids baths.

Sgt. Gets Send Off
Staff Sgt. Ray Rogers of 40 Fulton Ave., Hicksville, today enroute to assignment in Korea, was given a send-off party by his neighbors last week on Wednesday night. He is married and has two children. He was wounded in World War II in the Battle of the Bulge.

Took care of a beautiful baby, Saturday, Master Scott Allen Rathner of Bethpage, while the rest of his family spent the day in the Bronx and Brooklyn. He was as good as gold. The kids took to him like a duck to water and were very sorry to see him go home. You know something—I miss him too.

Welcome home to the Rudnik family of 437 Division Ave., who had spent the summer in their home in the Rockaways.

Oh boy, is Iva proud. She has applied for her own library card. When you enter kindergarten you are eligible to have a card all to your self.

A Patio party was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald King of Cottage Blvd. The weather was perfect, the food was wonderful, the people friendly and the music was dreamy and of course, everyone had a good time. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Mel King, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Marcell, Edith Mandel, Barbara Jones, Jack Eisner and Bob Loft.

You know something? How about jotting down your news and bringing it to the bus stop with you when you bring or call for the kids. I will also be very happy to renew your subscription.

Blood Appeal At Drive In

BETHPAGE — The Hempstead Turnpike Drive In Theatre for the second time will aid in the Blood Donor campaign. During the Friday and Saturday night performances, Sept. 12, and 13, The Rev. Harold Hoffmann, Levittown, recently returned from Korea, will appeal to the theatre's patrons for blood donors.

Two Levittown Gold Star wives, Mrs. Eileen Mitchell and Mrs. Pearl Coogan, will be on hand to accept pledges.

Mickey Fishman, manager of the theatre, will present each donor with a guest ticket for any future performance at the theatre.

TO SPONSOR MOVIE

The Ketcham Club of the First Reformed Church, Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville will sponsor a movie, "King of Kings," at the church on Friday evening, Sept. 26 at 8 P.M. A free will offering will be taken and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Hook-Ladder

soon as possible in the interest of the safety of our volunteer firemen, the lives and property of our residents, and our large industrial taxpayers. With this explanation it is felt that many of those who opposed the purchase of a ladder truck will reconsider and give it their support. At the earliest opportunity, therefore, this proposition will again be submitted to the resident taxpayers of the district at a special election to be held for this purpose. It is the intention of the board to have the money appropriated over a period of two years, rather than one year, as previously planned, which will actually make the tax bill of the individual taxpayer less than it was last year.

SERVES COMMITTEE

Robert W. Gillespie of Stewart Ave., Bethpage, was a member of the Athletic Events committee for the 10th annual outing of the Nassau County Dept. of Public Works held on Aug. 26 in Bayville. More than 900 men attended.

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

If Hicksville High football coach, Chet Jaworski, chooses he could get out a bundle of crying towels in discussing his 1952 Comet eleven and everyone would listen to him.

Instead, he is earnestly working hard with his lean and green crew and with a few breaks hopes to improve on last season's one won and six lost campaign.

From that squad Jaworski may have only one regular returning. If it turns up that 220-lb. Guard George Zulkofske can't play, the '52 club won't have one veteran to anchor it.

One of the breaks that Jaworski hopes for is that when his team is set he won't have a key injury occur like that one cost him the services of quarterback Harold Manaskie in the early minutes of the Great Neck contest last fall.

The team was built around the passing arm of Manaskie and suffered badly for the loss of it.

After an opening 12-0 win over Long Beach he was forced out of the Great Neck contest which Hicksville lost 6-0. The Neckers went undefeated last year and just got past the Comets, patched up offense and all.

Undefeated South Side trailed Hicksville 7-6 at halftime and then turned on the steam to win 26-7. In 19-6 and 25-6 losses to Westbury and Farmingdale the air arm would have reversed the issue for the Comets.

A close review of last year's season does show that bad as it was the margin between a good and a bad season was small so Jaworski is going about his present task trying to convince his players that if they work their efforts will show up well.

Chet frankly admits that with the exception of Long Beach and Farmingdale the rest of his opponents aren't expected to be at peak levels like they were in many cases last year.

Despite this honesty his job is still tough.

Richie Evaschuck is the only other big player and at present Jaworski is torn between using him to help out the small line or adding power to his small backfield.

It may be that he and his assistant coach, Bill Anderson, will alternate him between the two posts.

Other candidates for the team are: David Ableman, Thomas Adams, Frank Ardito, Francis Barton, Richard Budd, Anthony Celentano, Jerome Cohen, Raymond Delay, Joseph De Vaul, Philip Engel, William Heil, Charles Kraemer, Thomas Knipping, Charles Cella, Martin Katz.

Also Thomas Klemenko, Joseph Martanello, Joseph McDougal, James McQuinnan, Steve Plosky, George Rogan, Eugene Sladish, Louis Millevotte, Raymond Sawyer, Ed Scott, Howard Speedling, Julius Szalay, Vic Triolo, Stanley Sucharski, Louis Wagner, Bruce Wells, Joe Pacalek, John Gerard and Al Rife.

My spies report to me that the big Republican softball game at Oyster Bay last Saturday was called an 11-11 tie by official scorer, Congressman Len Hall.

Hicksville even had big Roy Stephenson on the mound for a few scoreless innings against their Oyster Bay counterparts.

Some persons indicated that the local club actually had a 17-5 lead, but it was a great part and this is one time the Republicans did not want a recount!

Jupiter is the largest planet of the solar system.

The gallant little Hawks, PBC precinct winners, proved no match for powerful Port Washington team in the Police Boy's Club playoffs. Pitchers Peter Nygren and Larry Eisenhauer were victims of sloppy support in the semi-final round with an alert, hard-hitting Port offense and the Hawks bowed 11-0.

Levittown lost to Franklin Square in senior finals, 10-2 at recent game in Kennedy Park, Hempstead.
