TWO MORE IN WEEK:

Cite Danger As False Alarms Increase

HICKSVILLE—The effectiveness of the elaborate fire alarm system in this district of 6.5 square miles is being seriously endangered by the increasing false alarms, officials of the local fire organization warned parents and homeowners this week. Two more false signals were received during the past week to make a total of 18 since the start of the year, exceeding the total of the past four years.

The false alarms in the past week were at widely separated points. On Sept. 16, box 47 at Thorman Ave., and Ormand Pl., off the east side of North Broadway, was turned in and three fire trucks responded with volunteers. The time was 6:18 P.M.

The next afternoon, Sept. 17, at 3:23 a false signal came from box 151 at Bobwhite and Bank Lanes in the Levitt section, west of Levittown Pkway.

In the second case, several adult witnesses in the area pointed out a seven-year-old boy as the culprit. He first denied responsibility but later admitted giving the alarm. Fire officials, after warning the youth and his parents, did not press for formal court action. The child's father became quite abusive to the fire officials, it is alleged.

The Board of Fire Commissioners have warned that if false alarms continue, the signal alarm boxes will be discontinued in neighborhoods where they originate.

"Over the years we have developed a very efficient system, placing alarm boxes in every section of the district", an official told the Herald last night. "We have added to the system as new homes have been established to place this service within the reach of all who may need it."

"Too many of these false alarms have proven to be the work of small children and we are again appealing to parents and educators to warn their charges of the responsibility involved when the lever on the alarm box is pulled."

One Hicksville volunteer fireman has already been injured when answering a false alarm this year.

LOCAL LADIES in Jail, as you can plainly see, and they appear to be enjoying the experience. It was all part of the fun at the barn dance in Hicksville Masonic Temple, sponsored by Hicksville-Plainview Auxiliary Police Unit 312 on Sept. 13. Walter W. Blessee, lieutenant of the police unit, was acting sheriff for the evening and stands guard over his "prisoners". A full dress inspection of the auxiliary, which numbers over 100 local men, was held last night (Wednesday) at the high school by Sgt. Lehman of the County Police Dept. Thomas Cullen is chief of the auxiliary police force which is acclaimed one of the best in the county. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett)

HICKSVILLE—Congressman Ernest Greenwood, U. S. representative in Washington for the First N. Y. N. Y. State Senator William Huits Jr., had been expected but a previous engagement for the same evening made it necessary for him to advise the civics that he could not be present. Information about voter registration will be available at the meeting tonight, Geyer added, as the Civic Assoc. starts its seventh year of activity.

Court Action Faces Delinquents

INSIDE OUR SCHOOLS 2nd Of Series Sight Conservation

By ALLEN E. DAVIS JR.
Principal, Burns Ave School
Hicksville

Following a policy of providing every child in the district all services possible, Hicksville Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Eric H. LeBarron, has this term brought back one of the most important of the special instructional services available—the Sight Conservation Class.

Introduced into the U S at Boston about 1913 but well-known in England before that, the Sight Conservation Class is a class set up and conducted in such a manner that children with limited eyesight may not only preserve the sight they now have, but may, in nearly every respect, receive the same well-rounded education provided for all children in the district.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

In view of mistakes made in the past, when children with poor eyesight were sometimes incorrectly classified as dull, how important it is to recognize poor sight as another physical disability; a disability that may be overcome by sympathy, expert instruction and modern equipment, enabling children to lead happy, useful lives. These are things we want for all our children. Thus the adoption of the Sight Conservation Class, based upon a generous philosophy of service to all the children is also an investment in the community itself.

Before looking into an actual Sight Conservation Class let us decide which children are eligible or should be in the class. From the medical viewpoint the recommendation of a qualified eye specialist is required. In general, children in the following categories will be included:

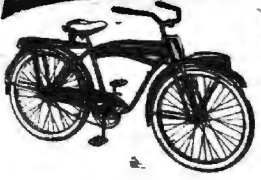

- (1) Children with vision between 20/70 and 20/200 AFTER correction.
- (2) Children with chronic eye difficulties.
- (3) Children suffering from eye diseases or diseases of the body affecting eyesight.

ROUND ISSUES of your Mid-Island Herald are now on permanent reference file at the Hicksville Free Public Library. Round copies of the Herald were accepted for the Library by Miss Helen Wheeler, librarian, from Miss Mary Haughey (right), assistant editor of the Herald. The books have become a historic weekly record of the growth and development of this area. (Photo by Frank Mallett)

It is open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense, receive pay of $60 a month for the four-year period, and upon graduation may be commissioned as officers in the navy and marine corps and be required to serve on active duty for three years. . . . Receipt of applications close on Oct. 14 for an open competitive examination for Postmaster at the new Levittown Post Office where the salary is $5,870. HARRY ERB is holding the position as acting PM. For information and forms, go to Levittown PO or write the U.S. Civil Service Commission at Washington 25, D. C. . . . State Health Dept this week reports that the old favorite—boric acid—used for 50 years for dusting powders, wet dressings, washes, ointments, and other external uses, has been found to be actually dangerous under some conditions. Doctors now say that boric acid poisoning occurs oftener than is generally recognized, mainly in young children. . . . The purpose of this year's drive, as in other years, is to accept renewal memberships from past subscribers and to enroll new members for a series of concerts to be given in the High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Bronson, Association President, recalled that in the past the Association has presented such memorable concerts as Mata and Hari, Sigl Weissenberg and Rey and Gomez, and that plans of the 1952-1953 season call for the same top quality of music and entertainment.

Attendance at the concerts is by membership only, it was pointed out by George McIntosh, Membership Chairman. While a canvass will be made, both in Hicksville and in the surrounding towns, Mrs. Earl Davenport, Association Secretary, said that a campaign headquarters will be established at Holden's Stationery Store, 100 Broadway, to accept memberships there. Mrs. Davenport made a special point of the fact that no box office admissions to any of the concerts will be sold, since the artists who appear in the series are selected according to the number of memberships obtained during the drive.

Vote Register Carries Over

By FRED I. NOETH

THE BARRAGE OF PUBLICITY from all sides urging the public to exercise a privilege of free people and vote is having telling effect. However, in the mid-Island area the urgency for registration to protect the right to vote is generally misunderstood, according to the number of phone calls the Herald has had in recent weeks.

First of all, it must be remembered that Hicksville, Bethpage, Plainview, Jericho and surrounding areas all come within that part of the Election Law which says that personal registration IS NOT REQUIRED. These are all unincorporated communities.

Personal registration before election is required in incorporated villages and cities of over 5,000 population. Therefore, in the City of Glen Cove with about 18,000 people, registration is required, but in Hicksville with 27,000 population, registration is not required before each election.

You don't even have to register in person if it happens to be the first time you are voting in this neighborhood. Your name can be registered for you and every eligible member of your family by a friend, a neighbor, or even your Republican or Democratic committeeman or his representative. In recent weeks, there have been authorized people going from door to door taking the names of voters—especially those who moved here recently. Some new residents have doubts about this procedure, but we can assure them that it is legitimate and you will be permitted to vote on Nov. 4 if registered that way.

Also, if you voted locally before in a general election (not to be confused with School Elections in May, for example), you need not register again this time. Your name is "carried over" by the election district registrars.

However, if you are doubtful of your status as a registered voter, then go to your election district polling place either this Saturday, Oct. 4, or next week on Saturday, Oct. 11 and verify your registration.

As for the election district in which you reside, we have information about these at the Herald office and will be glad to try and get you located. While the districts are getting more numerous, the polling places for some districts have been combined. Stop in Saturday at the following address nearest to you and they will send you to the right place if you are not there already.

Polling places include: Hicksville—East St. School, Levittown Community Hall, High School, Motor Vehicle Office, Courthouse, Water Works Office; Plainview—Firehouse; Bethpage—Firehouse, Powell Ave. and Broadway Schools and Plainidge School.

The Legionnaire

Been seeing considerable amount of advertising in various magazines and newspapers in recent weeks and now radio (and we assume TV) is joining in, all hammering away at the same theme—Register and Vote! The National Headquarters of the Legion started this same campaign through its own publications several months ago, but up until now we have chosen to ignore all this in our column, despite the fact that of all organizations the Legion should be one of the first to emphasize, on a community level, the right and duty of each and every citizen of the U. S. A. to get out and vote. This was no oversight on our part but rather an omission for cause; a deep belief that uninformed vote is a wasted vote and worse than none at all and a 100% voting turnout does not, in itself, make for a better democracy. England, France and Italy among others, have better voting records than the United States but have they a government preferable to ours?

What's the answer? Voting is certainly important, and we of the Legion are solidly for larger and larger votes. We'd like to see every voter go to the polls this November and every November but we'd like to see him go armed with information and a clear cut choice in his mind. So in supporting the official policy of the American Legion we say VOTE on November 4th but before you do please take a little time to turn on your radio or TV and listen to programs such as Meet The Press, American Forum etc. They're real, they're alive and you'll learn. Listen, learn, make up your mind and THEN VOTE

Charles Wagner Post No. 421, American Legion

Members in attendance for the Sept. 15 meeting really gave Artie Blatock a hard time with his reading of the minutes but in such case Artie came out on top. . . . Very good to see Don Versteeg out of Uncle Sama Air Arm and back at the Post in civies. . . . New method of lining up bartenders introduced last week when a "calendar" was pinned around at the meeting by Al Barlow. . . . Fred Fricke Jr. has his 1953 membership card. . . . At last something concrete is being done toward rifles for the Post. Johnny Williams has all the dope and arrangements are being made to obtain them quickly. . . . Roy Willicott—if you still want that apartment, get in touch with Al Carpenter.

Have you noticed how the Legion is becoming more and more interested in Police Boys Club work? The Hall is being made available to them for their Third Annual Card Party early in December and space is being provided for a trophy case for those team awards which up to this time have had no home. Also last week Jim Carter turned over to Rudy Bouse, for the P.B.C., half of his receipts from the group pictures of the Kings Park visit this summer. Jim has always done this for the Scouts in whom he is so interested and we think it very generous of him to do the same for the P.B.C. Now if a few more Legionnaires would join the P.B.C. as sponsors everything would be just great.

Football Committee is shaping up with Ernie Guedsch taking chairmanship. So far he has Jim Arnesman, Fred Bragall, Bob Beard, Jim Carter, Ed Becken, Walter Barrett, Bert Neasel, Walter Schlietger, Jay Jabour and Johnny Williams with him. More help can be used so don't be bashful. Sh! Free cats at all future meetings! Sh!

Sight Conservation

of the principal of the East St. School, Hicksville, or in writing to the office of Dr. Erie H. LeBaron, Superintendent of Schools. The medical authorities of the school system, including the head nurse, upon the recommendation of the Superintendent, will investigate the individual cases. Non-residents of the Hicksville area may be admitted. This may be accomplished by payment of tuition to defray expenses but only with specific permission of the Superintendent.

Looking in upon the Sight Conservation Class, conducted by Harry Brown at the East St. School, we notice first that all signs are in VERY LARGE PRINT. Mr. Brown is not at the head of the class but is close to one child while the others keep busy at different assignments. This points up an important feature of the Sight Conservation Class. Each child receives individual instruction and may proceed just as rapidly as his limitations will allow. Thus, in one such class may be found children of widely varying degrees of development.

One will notice a group listening to a talking book machine. This has been obtained from the New York State Commission for the Blind and from it the children may hear classic such as "Treasure Island" recorded by Basil Rathbone.

At the rear of the room two girls are seated at typewriters. A closer look shows us that they are typing entirely by touch, all typewriter keys unfastened. However, the letters struck appear on the paper in VERY LARGE PRINT. The girls are typing answers to questions received in Social Studies. They were able to look up the information they needed in a large-print book.

Mr. Brown is listening as a boy reads from such a book. The child sits at a desk carefully adjusted to his height and the book is at such an angle that eyestrain is eliminated.

As we observe the class we notice that the girls who were typing have taken paper and pencil and have left the room. We are shown that each child is following in an established program and has gone to a regular class. While there the girls will listen carefully, write with special sight-saving paper and pencils but will NOT read.

We are shown how children use a Braille slate to write upon and also a Braille typewriter, very affective for the blind.

As an aid to blackboard work, special heavy yellow chalk has been provided, and here, again, individual help is extended.

Everywhere about the room may be seen evidences of the children's handwork. There are bright water colors, clay models and woven baskets. There are signs and posters with slogans and rules for saving sight. We are told that the children are skillful and adept with their hands.

It is impossible to leave the Sight Conservation Class without a feeling of pride in its accomplishments. As Americans, we felt that our children are our proudest possessions, our hope for the future. In Hicksville this belief is being underlined by constructive action.

COMMUTER PARKING

To the Editor:
Your "Commuter Friend" (recent editorial) has my sympathy. I have been commuting from Hicksville for the last 29 years, and the only change in "Commuter Parking" that I can remember is that the Memorial Stone was taken away from the R Plaza. I have written to the 'Hicksville Fathers' at various times in that length of time and the answer was that "they were always too late to do so-and-so piece of property!"

My reason for commuting from Hicksville is that my hours are so uncertain at night and the service to Hicksville is so much better than Bethpage also the shopping convenience was better some time ago. The Park where charges are charged is fine but who with the railroad fare, subway fare, car expense, etc can afford to pay parking charges also at high rate?

Invite Candidates To Oct. Meeting

By JAMES CUMMINGS
President McCarthy this week extended an invitation to both Dudley McCabe, Republican candidate for Town Councilman, to address the membership at their Oct. meeting. Mr. McCabe is incumbent by appointment, having succeeded the late Daniel Wall. Mr. Laakson was recently selected by the Democrats as their candidate for the office.

All members are urged to come early, as it is most likely both gentlemen will deliver their addresses at the beginning of the meeting. The business portion of the meeting will follow with a report by the nominating committee on the slate of officers to be selected for the coming year. Their report will be subject to approval by the membership; elections will take place at the November meeting. If you have not registered—be sure and do so—registration will take place at local polling places Oct. 4 from 7 A.M. to 10 P.M. and Oct. 11 from 1 P.M. to 10 P.M.

BETWEEN ISSUES: we learned that Mrs. Frances Regnate of 60 Myers Ave., passed her drivers test with flying colors. . . . Mrs. Sue Schultz of Indiana Ave., is now attending driver training school locally. . . . By the way did you know that George Schultz, Treasurer of the Civic Assoc., is manager of Capital Finance here in Hicksville? . . . Herb Johnson of 87 Myers Ave., putting the finishing touches on his two-car garage. . . . Jim McLoughlin working earnestly over the weekend in preparation for field-stone front on home. . . . Bert Saul also has the remodeling urge. . . . George McCarthy is Lieut.-Secy of the Hicksville Police Auxiliary. . . . Other members of Police unit include Tony Planski, Joe Gelsar, Ed Fitzpatrick and y.t. . . . Nothing new on the roads to date—same deplorable conditions prevail!

OFF SOUTH BROADWAY
Noisy Cabs Still Racing Here

By BUNNY LAUER
Hicksville 3-2794 J
This is special to all the cabs that ride through the development full speed ahead and I do mean speed. It is terrific; in fact, it is even impossible to take down a license number. Haven't any of you cab drivers got children of your own? Have you no regard for anyone else's child or pet? And is it necessary to keep tooting your horn all hours of the night?

If someone needs a cab during the night I'm sure they are considerate enough to watch for the cab so that all this night honking is unnecessary. The public is getting fed up with the cab situation here anyway and the high prices don't help any. You know Hicksville is growing and with the growth of a community there will be more means of public transportation and less need of cabs. It is entirely up to the drivers and companies which cabs will remain and which will be forced out of circulation.

Had a nice time at the opening meeting of the Girl Scout Town Council Wednesday night. Mabel Teubner and Ingrid Christ were also there. It's strange that with all the Girl Scouts and Brownies in this neighborhood, there are only four of us mothers who are so actively engaged in Girl Scout work. Come on, ladies we need help. How about giving us a hand. Be on the look out for our cookie drive in October.

Mrs. Olive Knapp of Balsam Ln., was hostess in her home Sunday afternoon at a stork shower held in honor of Mrs. Charlotte Miller. The house was decorated in pink and white. The guests were: Trudy Mahler, Sue Reiland, Kathleen McQuillan, Mrs. S. McQuillan and Mrs. T. Miller. Mrs. Knapp received many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Devian of Philadelphia was the week-end guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reiland of Cottage Blvd. The kids sure enjoy having grandma with them.

Another grandma visiting is Mrs. Ivory of Brooklyn who is staying with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Ivory of Lee Ave.

Welcome to James Charles Wright who entered the world at Nassau Hospital on Sept. 16 weighing 6 pounds and 9 ounces. The parents live at 35 Lenore Ave., and are doing fine. They have two other children and they are very thankful to the Parkers of Cottage Blvd. who gave a helping hand in caring for the youngsters while mama was in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stein of Balsam Ln., spent the week-end at Montauk Point.

We are very fortunate in having one of the nicest school bus drivers at our stop. He is very friendly to the children and they are all crazy over him, especially the little kindergarten children who just about worship him.

GREET NEW MEMBERS

Four new members admitted to the JWV Auxiliary of Hicksville at a recent meeting were: Bernice Weiss, Miriam Schneek, Lee Silverman and Stella Markowitz.

Members of the auxiliary visited Mitchel Field Hospital on Sept. 17. They distributed sandwiches, drinks and prizes and played games. Those who took part in the trip were Edna Olitsky, Ethel Lauer, Jr., Jean Barshai, Lee Silverman and Joan DePaolo.

Mrs. Ethel Lauer, president, appeals to the residents of Hicksville to contribute to the JWV fund which is used to finance trips to veterans hospital. The next visit will be made at Northport Hospital on Oct. 25.

Football Rally And Memories

By Doris Werner
Hicksville 3-3437-W

Dot Bonhard of McAlister Ave. had a Costume Jewelry Demonstration last week. It was a lot of fun and the jewelry was out of this world. Now all we ladies have to figure out is how to talk our husbands into paying for the things we ordered. The ladies present were Keatie Butler, Rose Gatterdam, Eunice Heidel, Mrs. Botger, Lois LaData, Gussie Madson, Agnes Mimihan, Carrie Chapman, Doris Werner, Flo Besalet, Doris Madson.

Mrs. Krause of Meade Ave. has a birthday Sept. 28.

My husband, Ed, also has a birthday on that date. Happy Birthday Dear—my, you're getting old. Frank Black of Duffy Ave. will be 12 years old Sept. 30.

I hear Hicksville High held a Football Rally Friday evening. Those rallies bring back fond memories. Several Hicksville Firemen were present to see that the blaze of the bon fire was kept under control.

also. Now the question is—how do I go to the PTA meeting and my husband to the Civic meeting?

How Our Schools Are Financed

By ROBERT E. TUTTLE
Principal, Manetto Hills School, Plainview
My neighbor, John Q. Public, and I were discussing education. "How are schools financed?" asked John.

"Essentially in two different ways. One is state aid and the other is by taxes on real estate in the individual district."

"How is the state aid a district receives determined?"

"All state aid is based on the average daily attendance of all pupils in the district schools. By state aid we mean money allotted to the district by the State of New York."

"What is meant by average daily attendance?"

"If a pupil is present every day during a school year that attendance would count as one average daily attendance or A.D.A. as it is usually abbreviated. Actually the ADA for any period can be determined by dividing the total days of pupil attendance by the number of days that school was in session."

"From your explanation it seems to me that attendance is highly important."

"Definitely. Since nearly all aid from New York State is dependent on the ADA the greater the total days of attendance per pupil the higher the amount of state aid received by the district."

"Is there anything else I should know about state aid?"

"Yes. It is paid the year following the computation. For example, state aid is based on a three year ADA. The average ADA for 1949-1950, 1950-1951 and 1951-1952 school years is used to compute the state aid paid during the school year 1952-1953. In general, more state aid is paid on the attendance of secondary students ($274 per student) than for elementary pupils ($220 per child Kindergarten-Grade 3). Kindergarten pupils on a half day session are allowed 1/2 of the amount set for elementary children or $110 per child."

"What about emergency state aid?"

"For rapidly growing districts in the state, especially in Nassau County, the state does grant emergency aid. This aid is also based on ADA and other factors as rate of growth in school enrollments etc. In such case, the state aid is based upon a one year ADA minus a one mill contribution on the full valuation of the school district."

"These local school taxes interest me. What about them?"

"As a home owner, John, you should be interested in local taxes school as well as others."

"How is the school tax rate set?"

PREPARE BUDGET

"A budget listing anticipated expenditures for the coming year is prepared by the Board of Education. Usually several public hearings are held on this budget. All expenditures as well as state aid are estimated for the coming year. At the annual school meeting in May the budget is presented by the Board of Education and it is either adopted as is or with whatever changes the voters decide. The total budget as authorized by the people including a working balance, less amounts for state aid and other receipts, such as tuition for non-resident children, rent for use of buildings etc. is used to determine the tax rate."

"But that is early in May and I don't know my tax rate until August or early in September. Why is that?"

"That is true because, although a school district estimates the amount of the budget in May, the assessments of new housing, building etc. are not completed until July. Once the district assessments on real estate are tabulated the total assessed valuation of the district can be determined. Because it takes time to get information (assessments) from the Board of Assessors to the various Boards of Education and for the various Boards of Education to meet and certify tax rates, the tax rate does not become official until the County Board of Supervisors issues the tax warrant. This is usually done at the first meeting of the Board of Supervisors in September."

"Then?"

"The amount to be raised by taxes is divided by the assessed valuation of the district to determine the rate. Usually the rate is stated in dollars per hundred dollars of assessed valuation as $3.25 or in dollars per thousand dollars of assessed valuation as $32.50."

"Then how are my own school taxes determined?"

"Your property, John, is assessed at values which are lower than current market values. For example, if your house is assessed (Continued on Page 11)

Trouble with many people today is that when opportunity knocks they are out in the car.

JWV Corner

BY BILL OLITSKY

"How can I be popular," is the question asked by all of us. Certainly by men in organizations.

If you would make a list of things you liked most about leaders you know, most of these would fit our commander, so people told me. Being inquisitive I started a little heat that turned out to be a pleasure. This is what makes him the guy almost everybody likes:

Most everyone said right off, "Sid's friendly to everybody. It's nothing for Kaplan to jump into his car, and visit with a new resident that he heard just moved into our community." Some said, "so easy to get along with and always ready to help. He's a true friend, you can depend on him. Always has good ideas to advance the organization. When you're talking with Sid the subject seems to wind up leading to what can we do for the Hospitalized Veterans, the children and members of other groups as well as our own."

Here's one of many moments in Sid Kaplan's doing for others: "Sept. 10, Wednesday our commander as usual caught the 5:45 out of Penn Station. Along comes the ticket taker to do his duty. As luck would have it one of the passengers either lost or had her bag stolen. The young lady about 70, didn't know what to do. She was more worried about facing her children, than about the loss, or getting off the train and walking all the way back to Farmingdale. Hearing the commotion he asked a question or two and dug into his mad money."

Honest, Pearl, it was his last ten bucks, because when he got to my house all he had was twelve cents on him. After you read this don't be hard on him, you probably would have done the same thing.

Do you know what he says to that little old lady? "This is from the Jewish War Veterans of Hicksville Post 655."

Even then he took no pat on the back. Sorry, Sid, I just couldn't pass up this incident. I knew the readers of the "Corner" would appreciate it as much as I did.

Like most of us the Kaplan's moved out here from the city four years ago. He thought that suburban and country people were different and had to be treated a special way. He found out he was wrong. "First I had to make myself want to make friends." Before long Sid realized that there were as anxious to make friends as he was. That made it easier. Families who don't get along in a town somehow get in a rut. They just don't care how their property looks because they get the idea that nobody cares or likes them anyway. You have to go at least half way.

Hicksville Post No. 655
Jewish War Veterans

I met Sid at the Congregation Shaarai Zedek on Barclay St. one Sunday, two years ago. During our talks I asked him would he help me in forming a Jewish War Veterans Post. That he did. When we hit a snag, every obstacle was met and overcome. Sid was elected our first Jr. Vice Commander. It was his suggestion that today we have our annual pleasure hunt. As you know this hunt is for funds to make monthly visits to different hospitals, Northport, Mitchel Field, and others. This project was the factor in his nomination and election as commander of our post. Politics made it a close election, but today as commander the Post is 100 percent behind him. He showed his worth, not for himself, but for the community, the disabled veteran, his fellow man. No matter of their Race or Creed. THAT'S OUR COMMANDER, SIDNEY KAPLAN.

Come down to the Congregation Shaarai Zedek where we meet every second Thursday of the Month. Where we can meet and greet you, our new residents of the Hicksville, Plainview, Bethpage and Jericho areas.

ROTARY LENDS A HAND—Dr. James W. Goris, veterinarian, and president of Hicksville Rotary Club, pledges support to Lt. Col. Niall O. The Schools Are Yours!

 for $5,000, and your school tax is $20 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation your school taxes would be 5 x $20, or $100.00."
 "So," summarized John, "my schools taxes are dependent upon the rate set by the relation of the school budget to the total assessed valuation of the district. Then the actual amount of school taxes I pay is determined by multiplying the rate per thousand dollars by the number of thousands assessed on my property."
 "Yes, you have stated the idea in capsule form."

"One other thing interests me. In fast growing school districts I should think it would be difficult to keep within the budget. Goodness knows it's difficult for a family these days. What happens if a district exceeds its budget?"
 "The Board of Education usually will be aware of this condition before it becomes a hard fact. However, this isn't always possible in a rapidly growing area. The Board of Education is empowered to call a special meeting of the district to approve the borrowing of money for necessary expenditures."
 "What do you mean by necessary expenditures?"

"Any expenses incurred in the normal operation of the district or connected with the construction of new buildings, transportation etc. Additional moneys for salaries of employees, fuel, light and telephone and other general operating expenses may also be required. When a special meeting approves additional expenditures, not covered by the budget, the Board of Education can borrow money on interest bearing notes. These moneys must be added to the budget for the following year if not covered by a bond issue, bus bonds or some other form of borrowing as outlined in the laws pertaining to Public Finance."

Dr. Weber was discharged from the U. S. Navy two months ago after duty in Europe. A former resident of New York City, he received his degree from the Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio. He is married and has two children.

WOODBURY GARDENS: Home Owners To Organize Club

By Gene Maljan
Hicksville 3-5615

I want to thank the Herald for granting our community space in the paper, for there is always something going on here off Woodbury Road near South Oyster Bay Road. Let's hear from you folks concerning any events on your street.

Right now, we are cooking up an association of home owners, which is always a beneficial idea, especially in the case of a new development. There are quite a few of us planning a meeting in one of the schools. Among these are Tom Hogan, Hank Lee, Pierre Charbonnet and Jim McDonald. Good luck to you and thanks for working so hard organizing the club. As new developments occur, I'll keep you Woodbury Garden owners in touch.

It is surprising to note how many of our neighbors are taking advantage of the courses in the local High School. I went to enroll and found that John and Mildred Todd, my next door neighbors, are my classmates. My wife, May, is attending with Mary Hogan and Lisa Sepko. Let's see who comes up with the best report card.

I hope Tom's mother, Mrs. James Hogan is feeling better after her gallstone attack. Mrs. Hogan had this attack in the city and called her son, James, of Levittown. He brought her to Hicksville where she convalesced for two weeks.

WHEN ACCURACY COUNTS SO MUCH!

Our pharmacist keeps his knowledge up-to-the-minute with constant study of the new drugs and newest methods. He puts his knowledge into every prescription he compounds for you. Stop in.

A few interesting sights around the Gardens: Tom Hogan finishing his attic. . . . Jeanne Lee planting hedges, walk hubby, Hank, installs cement white to his door. . . . Yours truly struggling with the job of finishing cellar. . . . Rosalie Learly having a social bingo party at her home. . . . This game was put on by the starlighters club upon the arrival of Rosalie's mother, Mrs. Eva Reech. Among those present were Helen Branham, Ann Becker, Eve Roth, Eleanor Carter, Gladys Blaser and Dot Breslin.

Mr. Negri and Mr. Mastrella are also among those who have paved cement walks, and I'm given to understand that Tex Worley has finished his attic and cellar. If things keep up like this the model home will look like a different project.

Could this be the birth of a new movie star? Could be—June Allison is the newest arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allison of 58 Ketcham Ave. Mrs. Helen Branham is serving on the P-TA health committee and doing a splendid job. Maybe more of us can become interested in the parent-teachers association at the East St. school, for, after all, it is only natural for us to desire the very best for our children.

That seems to be all the material I have for now—see you next week. Keep posted!

Dutch Lane Parents Get Invitations

The Education Assoc. of Dist. 17, whose vice-president Mrs. Antoinette Apicella was twice defeated candidate for the school board last spring, has announced that in anticipation of the opening of Dutch Lane school will hold a meeting at Community Hall, on the Parkway, on Oct. 1 at 8:30 P.M.

The Assoc. was severely criticized during the election campaign by Emil Szendy, the first of two successful candidates against Mrs. Apicella, for allegedly "issuing misleading information about the Hicksville school situation." News releases from the Assoc. had said that district was threatened with triple sessions, and "educational larceny".

Meet BILL RIGOTTI of the Arthur A. Johnson Corp. and Mason & Hanger Co., Inc., N. Y.

WE ASKED A TUNNEL WORKER

"Guess how much more telephone cable costs today?"

Deep down in a man-made cave for a new subway, we interviewed Bill Rigotti. He's dug his way around hundreds of underground cables that carry millions of telephone messages every day.

"Cost of cable?" said Bill. "Maybe twice as much, I guess . . . everything's up these days."

Bill Rigotti wasn't far wrong. Cable does cost a great deal more today than it did thirteen years ago. The copper in its wires has more than doubled in price. And the lead that covers the cable has more than tripled in price!

We must pay these higher prices for cable and everything else because we can't dodge inflation any more than you can. Your cost of living is up 92% since 1939. Our costs of materials, wages and taxes are up as much or more. Yet the average price of telephone service has risen only 15%. We think these facts speak for themselves—especially since telephone service today is better than ever before.

How Telephone Company costs have gone up since 1939

Lead up 250%	Cable up 113%
Poles up 128%	Raw cotton up . . . 334%
Taxes up 165%	Buildings up . . . 106%
Copper up 122%	Steel up 73%

yet phone service is up an average of only 15%

OUR INTERESTING NEIGHBORS:

Brom Weber, Gifted Critic

By CRAIG WALSH

"Brom Weber promises to rank among the most gifted practitioners of the art of criticism of his generation." That's what the New York Times said about Brom Weber of Cloister Lane when his first book, "Hart Crane," was published several years ago. Time magazine had this to say about him: "Critic Weber is lucid, level headed, and seems likely to become a very welcome addition to the small list of serious U. S. critics."

Weber's second book, "The Letters of Hart Crane," was published by Hermitage House within the past few weeks and it will be interesting to read what the reviewers will write about our neighbor and his work.

Brom Weber's prime interests are the study of the literature of our times and the teaching of how to write effective literature. He is a member of the faculty of The New School of Social Sciences in New York and teaches several classes in the writing of both fiction and non-fiction. In connection with his work at the New School, he is to be co-editor of "The American Vanguard," a book in which are published the best writings of the students of the school. This is a very ambitious undertaking as the New School is one of the largest schools of writing in the country. It is the ambition of every student of writing at this school to have his work included in "The American Vanguard." It is Weber's belief that familiarity with a subject is not sufficient qualification to write effectively about that subject. He believes that it is equally necessary to know the techniques of writing so that the subject can be introduced and developed in a clear and logical manner. He says that only by mastering the art of communication can a person transfer his thoughts on any subject to other persons to give him information which will increase his knowledge. He is very proud that a goodly number of his students of the past five years at the New School have achieved a degree of success by having their writings published. He says the final success will be indicated by the number of people, over several years time, who like the writings enough to purchase the books or magazines in which the writings appear.

His interest in literature started very early and at the City College of New York he majored in Literature and Social Sciences. He graduated in 1938 and spent the next three years teaching at his alma mater. He spent the war years working with a number of government agencies and was mainly concerned with the organization and preparation of information for use by the armed forces. One of his projects was to help in analyzing the activities of various groups in the Army and to make recommendations which was of assistance in reorganizing the Army to meet the conditions as they existed in World War II.

Weber's work has always been in the field of literature and shortly after the war he became intensely interested in the work of Hart Crane, a young poet and writer of the twenties and early thirties. He became so engrossed in Crane's life that he has written the two books mentioned earlier. They are both voluminous books. Each represents the work of several years during which Weber devoted most of his non-teaching time to collecting the information and writing the books. "Hart Crane, A Biographical and Critical Study," is in the Hicksville Library and it is expected that the second book, "The Letters of Hart Crane," will soon be there.

Nettie Crane, his wife, made the books a family affair by designing the cover jackets of both of them. She is a successful illustrative artist and among her work are numerous illustrations for Esquire and Coronet magazines. The special Christmas inserts which appear in Coronet each year, including the one to appear this Christmas, are the work of Nettie Weber. Several of her expressionistic paintings decorate their home.

Both Webers take horticulture very seriously as a relaxation from their usual work. They spend much time caring for the flowers and plants around their home, although, just like the rest of us, they consider grass cutting a chore. One of their special joys is the avocado plant which grows in their living room. They don't expect that it will ever bear fruit because of the climate and indoor conditions, but they are very pleased that they grew it from a seed to its present height of about four and a half feet.

SHALHO Elects Next Meeting

The South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners will nominate and elect a new president and secretary at its next regular monthly meeting to be held at 8 P.M. on Tuesday, Oct. 7 in the Community Hall, Levittown Pkwy. The new officers will serve during the unexpired terms of Arthur Isakson and Edward Arundell who recently resigned as president and secretary.

The officers recall that SHALHO was formed almost two years ago to give voice to the opinions of the many residents of Levitt houses that the feelings of this area towards their neighbors in other parts of Hicksville were not being "fairly represented." It had its start as a result of the Fork Lane fire incident. A public hearing showed that the criticism of the Fire Dept. was completely unjustified, the SHALHO sponsors, point out.

The association has since given its support a number of issues which it believed would benefit its members. It has taken an active part in the affairs of Hicksville and Town of Oyster Bay in the belief that its interest should be in the town that collects its taxes and administers the area, and in the community where its children attend school, and from whence it receives its services such as water, fire protection, garbage collection, etc.

The speaker of the evening will be Rev. Michael Leavy who was unable to speak at last month's meeting because of illness. He is now fully recovered and will discuss the problems of youth and their solution. The Rev. Leavy is Director of the Catholic Youth Organization for Nassau County and has devoted many years to working with young people.

The SENTINEL

New $10,000,000 Shopping Centre

News of the proposed new Mid-Island centre is of interest to all residents of Hicksville and of especial interest in this area where a last-stand attempt is being made to identify it physically and by name with Levittown.

Shopping Centre a 'Natural'

The SENTINEL has long predicted the eventual development of Hicksville; its strategic mid-Island location, railroad service, proximity to Northern State Pkwy, and central position in relation to thousand of homes, all make it a natural location for business and industry on Long Island.

Hicksville: A Balanced Community

Authorities have long promoted establishment of balanced communities containing not only homes but also places to work and places to shop. Essential to industry is location along the mainline of a railroad; to business, the presence of an adequate market. These Hicksville has, plus room for expansion. WITH INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS CARRYING PART OF THE TAX LOAD, AND WITH BOTH AVAILABLE FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE COMMUNITY, —FOR LOCAL EMPLOYMENT AND LOCAL BUYING,—HICKSVILLE BECOMES THAT MOST DESIRABLE PLACE TO LIVE. A BALANCED COMMUNITY. Affiliation with Levittown becomes unthinkable.

Divide and Conquer

As a base for promoting affiliation with Levittown, animosity to Hicksville has been stimulated, dissension fomented.

Creator of Dissension

The three-column headline on the first page and the impassioned editorial in a recent issue of a Levittown paper should make clear to all the identity of at least one creator of dissension in the community. That editor admits in his article that a minor misunderstanding mushroomed into a "major dispute." And whom do you suppose did the mushrooming? The editor also complains bitterly about not receiving news of the Hicksville schools while an unnamed Hicksville weekly paper is given the news freely. He writes that he was not given a certain piece of news and that when he checked the unnamed paper he learned that "even they had received no such information." So, what's all the fuss about, Mr. Editor?

News-gathering

Years of close acquaintance with first-grade newsmen has convinced the SENTINEL that news is gathered by energetic hard work and initiative and is not gleaned solely from what are known in the trade as "handouts." Certainly, the South Hicksville Herald is interested in receiving news releases on events in this area, but first hand reporting is always the best.

It was interesting to note last week that neither of the Levittown papers covered the recent meeting of NHOA reported first-hand by the South Hicksville Herald. Probably no "handouts" on the meeting were forthcoming.

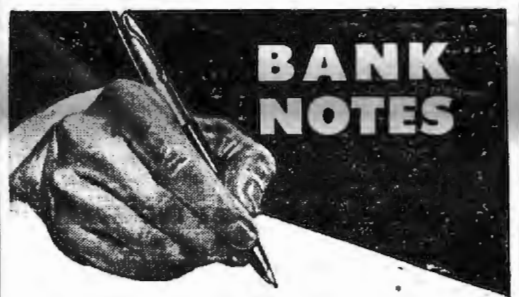

Perhaps the aforementioned Levittown editor is merely suffering from inertia. Also, when his readers complain of lack of news of the Hicksville Schools in his paper they may only be failing to recognize it; it usually appears as news of "District 17," with no mention of Hicksville.

Hicksville Schools in Levittown?

Ridiculous attempts of the same Levittown paper to conceal the connection of the schools with Hicksville by publishing only the numerical designation of the School District or, occasionally by mentioning

Girl Scouts Coming With Cookies

By FLORENCE VRYN LE 9-6407
 Still in one piece after my first driving lesson, gals. Kid you haven't lived until you've been in a driving class. You realize that everyone else just learning is as woolly headed as you know you are. Heaven help the three with me in the car. They are bearing up very well, though. The strain is beginning to tell on my lout suffering spouse. He says he has heard every second of the time I spent behind the wheel so often he dreads to think of seven more classes he has to listen to. But on second thought he realizes it's a lot better than having to sit through them with me.

There goes my diet again, the Girl Scouts are going to start their cookie sale Oct. 11, and the chocolate-mints are my downfall. Last year they went so fast some of my neighbors missed out. This year get your order in early. The Scouts will be around to your door, so expect them. While I'm on the subject, it seems to me some of you who are always telling me you have nothing to do and all the time in the world to do it in would enjoy working with Girl Scouts as a troop leader. Some of you have been trying to get your girl in scouting and realize how badly we need new troops, for there isn't room for all the girls eager to join. You can help the Scouts to help you if you will volunteer to take a troop of girls, too. You must be trained, of course, and there is a leadership course starting soon. You'd want your girl to have a leader who knew her work wouldn't you, so you can see why leaders must be trained. If you can help call me and I'll give you the information from there.

 We have a new neighbor on Tip Top Lane, I hear: Mr. and Mrs. Beckmaker at 60 Tip Top. Haven't gotten over there yet but I hope to one of these days and meanwhile Tip Top is such a nice block I know the neighbors over there have made the newcomers welcome. Remember when we all moved out here, wasn't it hectic? Sometimes I think when we have lived here a while we forget how difficult it is to move into a new neighborhood, and it isn't as easy to make friends as it used to be—the groups are already set up. But if you have let it slip and you have a new neighbor how about breaking out a pot of coffee and making the gal feel at home?

You know it makes me feel even more like a pointy headed dim wit when I heard Charlotte Vatieur tell me she was taking care of her four children with a broken foot. That girl! Never mentioned it during the whole conversation till I asked what she'd be wearing to a meeting we would both be going to... and she laughed and told me I'd know her in any crowd, she was wearing a cast this season, so chic you know. Gal, when I turn my fingernail back the whole town knows about it. The Vatieur's have a new heir to the family good disposition, Douglas who was born Aug. 6. He's a wide awake little chap and who can blame him, there is always so much going on at his house. There is Dolores, Hume Francis and Gregory to keep things buzzing along, and mommy and daddy to keep a fellow feeling on top of the world. Nice house that little lad picked to grow up in. Daddy works in the post office in Franklin Square at taking care of "Fragile — Handle with care" packages. Lucky baby. The Vatieur's live at 32 Bunker Lane.

Hope to see all of you at the Civic Ass'n meeting tonight (Thursday). Try to come its held in the hall over the firehouse on E. Marie St., in town. You won't feel lost. Lots of your neighbors attend and get things done, why not join up? See you there.

CAR JACK FALLS
 HICKSVILLE — Martin Kolsch, 24, of 231 Eighth St., is in North Country Community Hospital suffering a possible fractured skull. He was fixing a flat on a 1948 Chevrolet when the bumper jack slipped and the lid of the trunk fell and struck him on the head. The accident happened in the driveway of Green Pastures Estate, Jericho, on Sept. 19.

ing them as the schools of District 17 of Levittown, certainly do not fall into the category of community service; they do the community an extreme disservice by promoting ill-feeling and resentment. After all the Hicksville High School, which many Levittowners have attended for lack of a high school of their own, and the East St. School, have largely been paid for by taxes collected over the years from Hicksvillites, and even the cost and maintenance of the new schools will largely be borne by Hicksvillites. Why are they not acknowledged as Hicksville Schools? Those who consider themselves North-Levittowners are in such small minority both numerically and assessment-wise that Mr. Editor's policy appears misleading.

A LITTLE COMMUNITY SERVICE MR. EDITOR! PROMOTE GOOD FEELING, NOT DISSENSION!

Herald: Official Newspaper of the District.
 And as to the alleged error of mentioning the HERALD as the newspaper in which news of the District can be found, please note, Mr. Editor that the HERALD is official newspaper of the District, located, incidentally, in Hicksville. Where else would one expect to find news of the schools of Hicksville?

An Issue For Limbo?
 It should be very obvious that this is just another attempt to disrupt relations between residents of Levitt houses in Hicksville and other residents. Let's hope that it can promptly be relegated to limbo with the other phoney issues of the past several years. (A dictionary definition of "limbo"—A place, real or imaginary, to which worthless or foolish things may be relegated and forgotten; hence, oblivion.)

Referendum (?) On Levittown 'City'
 The Levittown Democratic Club now denies that it is sponsoring Levittown "City". That little pamphlet which they issued discouraging on the advantages of incorporating the "homes built by Levitt" and those neighboring communities that desire to share in the benefits of incorporation" into the "City" of Levittown was entirely coincidental. It will all be determined by referendum they say—the people will decide. However, in their little pamphlet they list the referendum as the fourth and last step before incorporation, immediately prior to establishment of the "City", a somewhat late date to voice opposition after a charter has been prepared and legislative approval secured. At that time, a minority, such as the people in this area, included within the boundaries of the proposed "City", would have as much chance in opposing their inclusion in the "City" as the proverbial snowball—and the Democratic Club knows it.

What is really hithering the Club is the mounting opposition to the idea, especially in areas outside Levittown. If the opposition can be lulled to sleep with promise of a referendum, the deal might be put over.

Opinion on Levitt-House Matters
By a Levitt-House Owner

After A Breath Of Western Air

Between deadlines of the South Hicksville Herald five days have been spent in the Pacific northwest within a giant stride of the coast, far from the "fight", past and promised, by pro-Levittowners. Back now, after a breath of clean western air, more than a little resentful of the mischief that has been done to promote a developer's concept of a "unique" community. For one thing the community isn't "unique", except in one respect—and it isn't the biggest and the mostest.

Five days were spent in a similar boom area:—young couples, high birth rate, community hall, school problems, et al. "Greens" were being plowed up to make additional parking space; the shopping centers were big—bigger and better than Levittown. The local Civic Council was circulating petitions and planning to meet in the Community Hall to protest an increase in rent on the rental houses. Split-shift schooling (double sessions to you) were being initiated in one area; they had been eliminated in another where there now were an adequate number of classrooms. A local community-service editor was busily serving the community as he saw it—and being sued for libel—$375,000.00 worth—by the school superintendent and a school ex-trustee. Ho-hum, it was almost like home! Only two things were lacking to complete the parallel:—obvious repetition of house designs; and the name "Levittown", or a similar developer's name, plastered on shops and street corners.

Many problems of that western boom area were the natural problems of a growing community. Lacking, fortunately, were the superimposition upon them of problems resulting from a desire to stamp the community with the developer's name. In that one respect we are unique.

I have never been one to disparage Bill Levitt's ability as an organizer of large scale operations and builder of low-priced homes—good value for the money—at a wholesale rate. But I am, and many like me are, utterly fed up with the aggressive efforts to perpetuate his name, and with the petty finagling that seemingly goes with those efforts when furthered by a civic organization. The civic efforts tie in so directly with the developer's original intent, as now revealed by the same civic organization, that it can hardly be considered coincidental.

We now have been told by that civic organization, after consultation with Levitt, that the fight over the "split" isn't over "by a helluva sight". Seemingly, for some time yet, there will be flailing of arms and spewing of words over what, to most, appears to be a dead issue, even an issue that never had real life. Let's get it over with quickly. Let's stop being unique.

Kunz Appoints 2 Post Wardens

Lawrence G. Demers of 49 Sleepy La., and Joseph Neubig of 7. Glow La., have been appointed as post wardens for Sector 1 of the Hicksville-Civil Defense, it was announced this week by George W. Kunz, Chief Warden of Sector 1.

Mr. Demers will be in charge of area Post 1-14 which is bounded by Jerusalem Ave., Walnut Ave., Division Ave., and Spindle Rd.

Mr. Neubig will have charge of Post 1-12 which is bounded by Levittown Parkway, Newbridge Rd. and Hempstead Ave.

Residents who can serve as block wardens in the two areas are requested to contact the new wardens for full information.

Await Report

Invitations have been mailed to some two hundred educators, civic and religious leaders for a lecture at Levittown Hall by Dr. John Liell of the Sociology Department of Yale University on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 5, at 3:30 P.M.

For two years, Dr. Liell has been directing Yale's sociological study of the "genus homo Levittownus". This lecture is a preview of some of the astonishing facts and strange charts that have resulted.

Now comes the time for takin' 'em down, and puttin' 'em up again. —screens so storm sash that is.

Don't neglect making the necessary repairs to them now—they won't be any better off the end of the season if you don't, that's sure. A wood dowel here and there in a split section might save you the whole sash or even a door. Put them in at a slight angle with a little glue—and they're in to stay.

Of course if you don't like all this fussin' and climbing around on ladders—cussin' and sweatin'—look in on our Jiffy wool storm sash and screen combination—they're wood-like treated and will last a house-time. Self storing too. They will pay you back in fuel dollars in a year or so. Buy a few at a time, it's easy on the pocket-book this way.

These Jiffy sash and screen combinations have been standard for many years and can be matched up with what you buy later on. OR—if you like, we can arrange to finance the whole bunch of windows and doors for a period of 36 months—and install 'em for you too.

Our friendly service is yours for the askin'.

Girl Scouts At Weekend Camp

By DOROTHY GUELPA
About 75 Girl Scouts and Brownies from the combined troops in Bethpage spent their annual three-day week-end at Camp Edey, Bayport, Sept. 12 to 14. Some of the leaders and members of the Town Committee accompanied the girls. The girls left on Friday in three trucks donated by Charles Campaigne at 3:30 P.M. The weather was very warm so the Scouts had a chance to use their bathing suits in the Big Dipper or the Little Dipper depending on the age and skill of the swimmers.

The older girls roughed it by sleeping in tents on the opposite side of the lake from the main bunkhouse and it's a well known fact that Tecla Shaw only made the trip back and forth once a day, because it took her one-half hour to do so.

As usual the meals disappeared seconds after they were placed in front of the campers and the supplies of gum, candy and cookies that were brought from home were gone by Saturday morning.

The smaller girls were fascinated with catching frogs and turtles; Sunday morning all the girls who had received permission from their parents were taken to their respective churches by taxi. A tired but happy group landed home about 5 P.M. Sunday with big plans for next year.

The Bethpage Kiwanis Club helped defray the cost of the outing by personal donations from most of its members.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Samelinski of 5 East Court are the parents of a daughter, Joan, born on Aug. 25 at the Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn.

The Holy Name Society of St. Martin of Tours Church has announced plans for a fall dance to be held sometime next month.

The first football game to be played by the Bethpage High School will be held tomorrow (Friday) at 4 P.M. against the Hicksville freshman team.

A smorgasbord supper will be held by the WSCS of the Bethpage Methodist Church Saturday, Sept. 27, at the church from 6 to 8 P.M.

Mrs. John Brukholder entertained her sewing club Monday night at her home, 38 Cambridge Ave.

HICKSVILLE GIRL SCOUTING: Fund Drive Here Set For Oct. 5, 6

By FLORENCE VRYN
LE 3-0407

The first meeting of the Hicksville Town Council for this season was held Sept. 17 at St. Stephan's Lutheran Church, Mrs. Richard Hawes, Chairman, presiding. Oct. 5 and 6 were established as the dates for the Girl Scout Fund Drive in Hicksville. Mrs. Russell Swift, financial secretary of the Hicksville Town Council, will receive the contributions and have charge of the records of the drive. Mrs. Hawes announced the budget for the year 1952-3 will total $1600.

In this sum are included the money necessary for organizing new troops, for badges and various Council activities for the coming season. The entire district will be covered and there will be leaders responsible for each section. The drive will be conducted throughout Hicksville at the same time and stickers will be given to each contributor.

Mrs. Martin Lauer was appointed chairman of the annual Girl Scout Cookie Drive. Cookies will go on sale on Oct. 11 and encouraged by the success of the last cookie sale the council was confident of even greater public cooperation this year.

Plans to work with the Needlework Guild had been announced and Mrs. Hawes suggested that the work undertaken in cooperation with the guild could be used by the girls as part of their preparation for a Needlecraft Badge. In addition, the Scouts will be asked to distribute bags for the Goodwill Industries as part of a community welfare project.

Mrs. Martin Goodrich, organization Chairman, reported on the number of Scouts and Fly-Ups placed on the waiting list in the various troops. In her report Mrs. Goodrich stressed the need for new leaders and asked that any woman willing to work for the Girl Scouts contact her. There will be a course in leadership offered in Farmingdale beginning Sept. 29 and after four lessons a woman is qualified to lead a Scout Troop. The full course is for ten lessons and arrangements can be made by contacting the Organization Chairman, Mrs. Goodrich.

Troop #17, under the leadership of Mrs. Estelle Wilbur met at East St. School Saturday Sept. 21. A mothers' committee was formed for the coming year with Mrs. Veda Rand as Cookie Chairman, Mrs. Ruth Meatach as Transportation Chairman, and Mrs. Dorothy Knisp as Refreshment Troop leader.

Hearing Today In Washington

WASHINGTON — The scene is set here for 10 o'clock today (Thursday), Sept. 25, in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board Bldg., upon the application of Long Beach Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. for permission to establish a branch office in Hicksville. The hearing takes place before an officer of the Home Loan Bank Board.

Chairman, Mrs. Jane Deets and Mrs. Olive Foran are co-leaders of the troop.

Troop 134 met at the Community Church on Hempstead Ave., (Dutch Lane), Hicksville, on Thursday evening Sept. 18. The Scouts decided to have a Sunshine Shower for a fellow scout and member of their troop, Jacqueline Elwood, who is hospitalized for polio treatment. Jackie will be in St. Charles Hospital and her scout friends will make sure she keeps up with their activities by letter and card. All the members of the Hicksville Girl scouts are invited to join operation Sunshine Shower. The Girls made plans for their camping trip to Camp Edey. They will stay overnight and the trip is scheduled for Sept. 26-27 and will be led by Mrs. William Jones, Troop leader.

Good Collection About Our Land

Perhaps during one of your visits to the Hicksville Public Library you have noticed the unusually good collection of books about the United States. Many of these are part of the "American Guide Series", compiled by the Federal Writers' Project during the 1930's and later continued by popular demand under the name of the "Writers' Program". The American Guide Series includes popular guides to each state, as well as many cities and regions. (And your Hicksville Public Library has almost a complete series, with guides to the Berkshire Hills, New York State, New York City, Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C., Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Nevada, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, California, and Washington.)

These state guide books are illustrated and contain accurate information about points of interest in each state, historical background, and sidelights on the unusual things which the traveler might encounter there. The "armchair traveler" will also enjoy many hours of sight-seeing with one of these books! The Library has also recently added to its collection of books from the popular series, "Rivers of America". In addition to books about the Hudson, Shenandoah, Mohawk, Housatonic, and Colorado Rivers, one may also borrow "The Everglades", by Marjory Douglas, and "The Suwannee River" by Cecile Matschak.

"The Everglades" is a book which points out the drama in the history of the Everglades region of Florida, the "river of grass". There are descriptions of the place and what the people were like before the first explorers came, as well as what has happened in the years between. There's talk of the political as well as the military, agricultural, social and legendary aspects of the many incidents that marked the progress of the region, the plans for the drainage of the glades, of the Florida boom and bust, and of the application of scientific theories on land redemption to this area of America. The author of "Suwannee River" traces its background and associations from its source in Georgia and Florida down to its course to where the Stephen Foster monument stands on the lower reaches.

SOME NEW BOOKS
Why not drop in and borrow one or two of these books for a few weeks? Many of them are still on the "New Books" shelves. Another new book, which you may NOT find on the shelf is Thomas Costain's, "The Silver Chalice". In this latest in Costain's long series of historical novels, he weaves history and fiction into a blend pleasing to many readers. The setting of this novel is quite different from his others: the story takes place shortly after the death of Christ and touches most of the known world of the period. The plot is woven around the silver cup which Christ used at the Last Supper and the making of a silver frame for this cup. The fictional hero is Basil of Antioch, a young and skilled artisan, who is chosen for the important work of making the frame. In this work he meets most of the disciples and travels throughout the Ancient World even to the court of the Emperor Nero. The era about which Costain writes is extremely interesting from a purely historical viewpoint also. Rome is ripe for decline and even though her power has not yet receded, the signs of her rotteness can be found in the life of the wealthy people and especially among those of Nero's court. Thus, this novel of the Roman period and of the early Christian era as well as an interesting love and adventure story.

NORTH EAST REPORT: Mud Puddle Is Health Menace

By Lee Chanin
Hicksville 3-0533-R
Ever since the Zelda Park development was built, the corner of Violet Ave. and Mabel St. has presented a health menace to our children. The curb on the northeast corner is sufficiently depressed to cause an immense accumulation of water every time it rains. The water lingers, dirty and stagnant until it evaporates, since the grading is insufficient to allow it to run off. Children gather in droves to play in and around it, but this unsightly puddle becomes an even greater attraction when some kids improvised makeshift boats and brought them here to float. The noise, confusion and damage to our lawn are secondary to the dangers these children repeatedly expose themselves to. I have explained this unsanitary condition to them a number of times but they continue to wade and splash in it. I appeal to the mothers of these children who I know have warned them against it, to caution their children again.

I also make an appeal to John Brandt of the Town Highway Dept. to come and see this condition. I have called his office a number of times without any results. Our Civic Assoc. made a complaint to him on this situation too. I know Mr. Brandt is a very busy man but this condition cannot be ignored any longer?

Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn of 1 Dorothy Ave. are the parents of a son, James, born on Sept. 15. They have another son and daughter.
Mrs. Frances Stines of 19 Willet Ave. celebrated her birthday Sept. 11 and is planning to spend a week at her mother's with her two youngsters.
Rosemary Dyckman of 1 Mabel St. was 15 years old on Sept. 12 and had a party the next day for her teen age friends.
Judy Stoneham of 47 Willet Ave. was the guest of honor at a party on Sept. 21 held in honor of her 14th birthday.
Richard Meakley of 4 Violet Ave. met with an accident on his bike last week. The bike was smashed but he escaped without injury.
Mr. and Mrs. Laurence McPheeters of Wilmington, Del., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of 2 Gladys Pl.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waters of 6 Regina St. attended a wedding in Greenwich, Conn., last week.
Dora and Don Collins have sold their home at 5 Regina St. and are moving to Florida. Last Sunday about 30 of their neighbors got together and gave them a big farewell party.

Confident that the call to arms for standard bearers of past campaigns will sustain it in its attempt to retain its Long Island semi-pro honors, the Hicksville Field Club travels to Southampton, Sunday, to launch the 1952 season.

As we indicated to you last week, Ed Coleman is now officially in the Black and White fold and his addition will greatly strengthen an already sound backfield.

It will increase the tremendous assets of quarterback Ray Halleran and an even more varied attack is now happily anticipated.

With Halleran at the helm of the Hicksville offense, the attack was expected to be outstanding. Coleman's presence will make it brilliant.

The rest of the county already acknowledges the potential of the Hicksville backs.

George Thomas, Pete Zeiher are the familiar names to local fans. They are scheduled to lug considerable leather for coach Dom Sabatella.

In the line depth is still desired although Gus Econopouly, Ralph Straub, Artie Segretto, Lou and Emil Koji and Herman Higby are all excellent first string material.

Hicksville 19, Southampton 14.

If you were one of the persons who saw the Hicksville High eleven in its early stages this year you would realize just how much credit Coach Chet Jaworski and his staff deserve for rounding the small squad into shape.

The victory over Oyster Bay was heartening, but the team has a long road to go this season and the fine win should not be a sign to anyone that the Comets are worldbeaters.

This Saturday Great Neck, unbeaten in 8 starts, plays host to the Comets at Great Neck.

Both teams are regarded as equal caliber this season. We like the Hicksville runners, however, 20-18.

Cubs, Families Enjoy Picnic

BETHPAGE — Cub Pack, 91, Hicksville Boy Scouts of America, held its annual picnic on Sunday at Bethpage State Park. An exceptionally fine turn-out of families, made it a huge success. Approximately 150 persons attended.

GREAT NECK NEXT: Comets Run Fast To Crush Baymen

HICKSVILLE—Coach Chet Jaworski introduced a small but willing backfield before 1,000 sun-drenched fans, here Saturday afternoon, that ran over arch rival Oyster Bay, 32-6, as Hicksville opened its 1952 gridiron campaign. It wasn't a blue chip meeting but provided balm in abundance for the Comets who bowed to the Baymen 54-6 in the finale of last year's ill-fated season.

Leading the pint-sized attack on the losers was Walt Ryan. He featured in two long down field drives for the winners and went over twice for touchdowns. Ryan drove hard and dug in for more yardage even after he was hit.

Tony Celentano also displayed promise in lugging the leather and Lou Millevolte Jr., 112-lb. quarterback, won praise for solid blocking and sharp tackles.

So convincing was the Hicksville victory that Jaworski was not required to pull out all the stops on the Crawley team. He had his biggest man, Rich Evaschuk, helping out in the important work up front. Evaschuk played tackle and was in the middle of the fine line play turned in by guard Charlie Kramer, tackle George Zulkofski and center Stan Surcharaki.

DeVaul to Ableman In the first period Oyster Bay made a fourth down bid for a yard and a first down on its own 36, but it backfired and Hicksville took over. Celentano and Ryan hit the middle for a first down on the twenty. Quarterback Joe DeVaul then passed to end Dave Ableman on the goal line and Hicksville was in front 8-0.

The visitors failed to move after the kickoff and the Comets went 53 yards to paydirt.

DeVaul and Ableman combined a jump pass play for a first down on the Oyster Bay 40. Ryan squirmed for nine yards.

At that point a 15-yard holding penalty erased one of the gem plays of the game. Halfback Howard Speedling, another fine sprinter in the Jaworski stable, took what appeared to be a naked reverse and steamed untouched 31 yards to the endzone.

Celentano erased the Hicksville disappointment on that count by immediately crashing over tackle 19 yards to the 11 yard stripe. Four downs found Hicksville short on the four but Edward Scott jumped on an ensuing Baymen fumble and two plays later DeVaul pitched out to Celentano for the TD.

Ryan hit the tackle for the extra point.

Passes Score Oyster Bay kicked off to Hicksville and gained on the punt that followed. Taking over on the Comets, 38, Oyster Bay pierced the Hicksville defense with a 28 yard pass from Dom Lambertson to Ben Larramee.

The touchdown came on a fourth down pass from Lambertson to Al Bishop.

Late in the second period De Vaul hit Ted De Lay with a 30 yard pass but the Comets could not score and at halftime it was Hicksville 18, Oyster Bay 6.

The crusher was applied quickly in the third period. Oyster Bay fumbled the kickoff and punted from its own endzone. Scott danced it back 13 yards to the 20. In two runs Celentano picked up 14 yards and Ryan crashed over the last six for the score.

From then on in Oyster Bay played only defensive football. It kicked off all the time and punted on first downs repeatedly.

Hicksville was happy to oblige with two more scores. On his first try running Evaschuk thundered around the left end 33 yards to the Oyster Bay 10. On third down he took it over the last two yards and Jaworski put him under wraps for

Empire Reign At Hub Ended

HEMPSTEAD—Jim Barone lost effectiveness at a crucial hour, here, Sunday morning, as Liberty Aircraft ended the reign of Empire Diner as champion of the Hub Senior Softball League, 4-3, in extra innings.

Barone walked seven and had four wild pitches hurt him desperately.

In the final playoff game, Empire rallied for two runs to tie the game 3-3 in the seventh inning. Four straight hits by Cyril Rumens, Jim Barone, Herman Rigby and Sid Rigby produced the deadlock.

However, a walk, a wild pitch and a single in the last of the ninth severed the Empire dominance of the league after three straight championships.

Delegates from Hi-Y

PECONIC — Four Hicksville High School students were among the delegates of 54 Hi-Y clubs who attended weekend training at Camp Pinecrest Dunes, here, recently. They included Imogene Albrecht, Cynthia DeJesu, Margaret Ghiosso and Karin Steinadler.

another day. A fumble on the losers 20 presented the Comets with their final opportunity.

Ryan dashed 16 yards and Celentano moved it to the nine. Three plays later Ryan had it over.

The victory evened the series between the two schools at two victories and a tie for each.

Hicksville flooded the game with subs in the last period and gave the variety a rest. They didn't actually want it, but Jaworski was saving them for the big clash with Great Neck at Great Neck this coming Saturday.
