Plan Individual School Dedications

HICKSVILLE—Double sessions, where necessary, will be spread evenly throughout all schools of the district when the new buildings are opened for use during the coming months, it was learned today. When the four new schools now under construction are ready, the Board of Education anticipates quadruple sessions in kindergarten, double sessions in first grade and single sessions above that grade. In addition, some fifth and sixth grade classes may be located in Nicholas St. School.

The Board is also making plans for individual dedications of the new schools with the first ceremonies at the now-occupied Lee Ave. School tentatively set for a Saturday, either Oct. 18 or 25. The programs for Dutch Lane Old Country Rd., Fork Lane and Burns Ave. Schools will follow as these four buildings are completed, it was revealed.

Plans to reactivate the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Education are also being progressed by the School Board with former members being contacted first regarding their continued interest.

Greek Orphan Learns Rapidly

HICKSVILLE—Eva Econopoly, a 18-year-old orphan from Greece, is now making her home here with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Econopoly of 8 Herman Ave. Mr. Econopoly is owner of the Hicksville Sweet Shop at 90 Broadway.

The young girl is the grandchild of George Econopoly's brother. Her parents were killed by Communist guerrillas. She is rapidly being taught to speak English by her teachers at the East Street School and the Econopoly family.

Fire Chief Urges Fall Clean-Up

HICKSVILLE—Calling attention to the fact that carelessness is the cause of most fires, Chief Edward R. Schluter today urged all residents to join in the observance of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 5 to 11, by checking their premises and places of business to eliminate fire hazards. "It is particularly appropriate at this time as we get our heating systems ready for the cold months ahead, that we carefully check such apparatus before putting it to use," Schluter stated. He recommended that homeowners use the services of competent electricians in making necessary repairs. Local students are participating in the observance with drills and special programs.

Recruits Meet Again on Tuesday

HICKSVILLE—By laws and constitution for the new Republican Recruits here will be outlined at a meeting of the group in the VFW Clubhouse on Grand Ave., next Tuesday night, Oct. 7, at 8 P.M. All young people 16 to 30 years of age are invited to be present. There was a large attendance at the first session, last Tuesday night, when Richard Maggi was elected temporary chairman, Miriam Weiss, secretary; and Lydia Zebertovich, treasurer. Speakers included County Clerk Ernest F. Francke and Ralph Casso and Edward Fahrnbach of the County GOP Recruits.

Events During Coming Week

 WEDNESDAY, Oct. 8—4:30 P.M.—Hicksville Democratic Club meeting at Legion Clubhouse, E. Nicholas St., Hicksville. (Detailed HERALD Community Calendar on Page 9)

HEARING IN 2nd WEEK: Loan Assoc. Cites Area Growth

By MARY HAUGHEY

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A decision by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board upon the application of a savings and loan association to establish a branch in Hicksville is not expected to be made for several months, it was learned this week, as the anticipated one-day hearing goes into its second week.

Letters of objection to the application made by the Long Beach Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. to open a branch in Hicksville were submitted by the Banking Department, State of New York; Farmingdale Federal Savings and Loan Assoc., Westbury Federal Savings and Loan Assoc., Wheatley Hills National Bank, Roosevelt Savings and Loan Assoc., Savings Banks Assoc., of New York, Bank of Hicksville, and L. I. National Bank of Hicksville, as the hearing opened here last Thursday morning, Sept. 25.

Vance Carnahan, executive secretary of the Long Beach Federal Savings and Loan Assoc., testified for two days—Thursday and Friday—and the hearing was scheduled to be resumed again yesterday (Wednesday).

Carnahan said that his firm had selected Hicksville as the location for a branch office because it is in "the fastest growing section of Long Island."

CITES LOCAL GROWTH

"Hicksville has grown at a faster rate in the last two years than any similar area in Nassau County and has unlimited area for expanion," Carnahan said. "Hicksville needs a savings and loan association for we can offer the community facilities which the commercial banks cannot."

Theodore Ornstein, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Long Beach Federal Savings and Loan Assoc., told the Federal Bank Board that the proposed branch office would be three miles from the nearest present savings and loan association and would therefore not infringe upon the area they serve.

In presenting his case for the need of a savings and loan association, Carnahan declared that Hicksville has grown from 10,000 population in 1948 to over 27,000 in 1952.

He said there are 7,450 homes in the community and since Sept. 1, 1951, the following new home projects are under construction: Glenbrook Homes, 138 dwellings; Newbridge Terrace, 188; Nas Salem, 890; Park Terrace, 77; Linden Homes, 62; Jade Homes, 116; Martin Crest, 166; Center Island Manor, 628; Woodbury Manor, 99; Hillview Farms, 82; Woodbury Gardens, 10; Hicksville Terrace, 18; Rogpage, 150; Zelmour, 23; Ro Ann Gardens, 28; Sunnymede, 37; or a total of 2,241.

NEW PLAINVIEW PLANT

Industrial plants and the approximate number of employees were listed by Carnahan as follows: L. I. Lighting Co. (under construction); Allen Manufacturing Co. (14); Rapone & Sons (80); Pollack Seed (20); Meenan Oil (70); Metalab (150); Eagle Ice Cream Cone Co. (No est.); Amperex (375 to 500); Empire Storage (4); Gillison Knitwear (100); Nassau G.L.F. (12); Hoffman Breweries (proposed); Karlson & Reed, Kroemer Seeds (15); Atlantic Concrete (15); Fairchild Camera (200), and new plant proposed in Plainview will employ 900 to 1,000, he declared.

Also Crosby Labs (15); Circle Wire & Cable (30 to 40); Etna Products (20); Rubber Corp. of America (60); Glasfloss (275); C. M. Johnson (165); General Electric Corp. (20); McKeon Lumbar (15); Argo-Schildknecht (30); Eastern Tile (12); Hicksville-Rorbach Plate Glass (9); Gilmore Electronic Equipment, and Meadowbrook Paper Co.

There are 67 trains in and out of Hicksville daily, 4,200 weekly commutation tickets are sold for (Continued on Page 18)

Brings Blaze to Firehouse; FD Rescue Boys on Tank

HICKSVILLE—D. T. Graham of Elmont brought his blazing auto to the front door of the firehouse on E. Marie St., Friday morning at 5:01 A.M. The cushions in the rear of the car caught fire. Damage was confined to the cushions.

Police called the firemen to the water tank on Newbridge Rd., Thursday at 9:50 P.M. Three boys had climbed upon the tank and firemen flood lights helped direct the boys to a safe descent. A grass fire on Old Country Rd., at the L. I. Lighting property, called out firemen on Sunday at 11:18 A.M.

Bethpage Open House on Oct. 10

BETHPAGE—Junior Fire Fighter reports are being distributed to all school children of the district by Bethpage Fire Dept. in observance of Fire Prevention Week. The reports will give the children a chance to participate in the elimination of hazards in their homes.

Fire Chief Harold Looney and Fire Inspector William V. Doyle will make an inspection of all schools of the district and participate in fire drills at each. Boy Scouts under the leadership of Scoutmaster Henry Rockhill are helping distribute fire prevention posters.

Members of the Fire Dept. will hold open house at their headquarters on Friday, Oct. 10, from 7 to 10 P.M. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.

A construction shanty at Cliff Dr. and Spencer St., burned to the ground, Sunday. Firemen were called at 11:59 A.M. and the County Fire Marshal is investigating alleged vandalism.

Nursing Class Starts Monday

HICKSVILLE—A Red Cross home nursing course will start next Monday night, Oct. 6, under the auspices of the Adult Education program, according to Director Elery H. Bean, and registration will be taken on the first night. No fee is charge for the three and a half week course set for Monday and Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 9:30 P.M.

Total registration in the program this year is approaching 900, Bean added.

FACTS FOR LOCAL VOTERS:

Non-Personal Registration

By BARBARA SOININEN

Although the subject was covered in the Herald editorial column last week, some of the facts apparently were not quite understood. All inhabitants prior to 1948 know that the Hicksville Republican Club, as a public service, has provided an annual house-to-house canvass. They have also known that although authorized Republican Committeemen and/or their assistants have done the enrolling, the voter is not enrolled Republican.

A number of new owners or tenants are surprised, confused or outright suspicious of it all and question the validity of it. I will try to explain.

Hicksville is an unincorporated village and therefore non-personal registration is bond-fide. When you are enrolled at your door, the canvasser records the names of all occupants of the house who are of voting age and eligibility. By that I mean you must be a citizen and have lived here the required length

Use New Schools

New Hicksville School Buildings while not yet completed will be used for the first time, this Saturday, but not for education. The Dutch Lane and Burns Ave. schools will be utilized for the voter registration. Voters of the 35th, 45th and 46th Districts, who formerly went to Levittown Hall, will use Dutch Lane. The 16th District (Cliff's Service Station last year) will use Burns Ave. School.

of time. You are not enrolled under a political emblem. You do that personally on Election Day. You do not have to go to the polls then on Registration days.

Also that enrollment is good indefinitely. You do not have to re-register the following year. However, we continue to come back year after year, just to check if there are any new eligible voters in your house, to remind you to vote, to see if you desire absentee ballots for any member of the household and to answer any questions you might have. Some time during the next ten days most of you will find cards in your mail boxes, placed there by young Republican Recruits. These cards will inform you of your district and list the names and telephone numbers (Continued on Page 17)

Youths Bazaar Helps CP Fund

HICKSVILLE—A bazaar held in the Midland Ave. neighborhood Saturday netted $28.00 for the Cerebral Palsy Fund. It was announced this week by Charles Montana, local fund chairman.

Marion Kudrick, Patricia Eliash and Barbara Eliash sponsored the bazaar at the Kudrick home, 20 Midland Ave. All kinds of toys, plants, soda pop and cookies which were baked by Mrs. Eliash were sold by the children.

The young girls wish to thank all the mothers in the neighborhood who helped make the bazaar a success.

CAR HITS HYDRANT
HICKSVILLE—Edward Shea, 29, of 77 Autumn Ln. was not hurt when his 1950 Plymouth hit a fire hydrant on Newbridge Rd., near Dogwood Ln., on Sept. 24. The cap of the hydrant was broken and the front end of the car was damaged, according to Second precinct Police.

Dear Jean:

Friends and neighbors of Benjamin Terry, 454 1/2 E. Dwyer, Hicksville, will be sorry to hear that he is seriously ill at Meadowbrook Hospital. Mr. Terry is well known in Hicksville. For many years he was the driver of the Railway Express truck in this vicinity.

A local man is running for the State Assembly from our area. He is THOMAS A. POWELL of Bobwhite Lane, Hicksville, president of the local Democratic club, opposing incumbent JOHN J. BURNS of Sea Cliff. . . . This is a political joke and some of our GOP friends may even get a smile out of it. An informal poll was being taken by a country editor and he was amazed to find a farmer-reader who was going to vote for DEWEY this year. When asked why, the farmer replied: "Because I voted for him in the last two elections and I've never had things so good in my whole darn life". . . . Five-year-old ROBERT BROUGH of 168 Sixth St., Hicksville, got a $100 defense bond and a miniature of a freight car at Grand Central Terminal, N. Y. C., recently. With his mother, he was the 100,000th visitor to see the 100,000th freight car built by Eastern Railroads since WW II. . . . Oyster Bay Town Board holds a public hearing next Tuesday morning, Oct. 7, upon the proposed extensions of Bethpage Garbage District. The Herald didn't get the legal notice on this hearing. . . . It will be interesting to notice if DUDLEY McCABE, the Republican candidate for Councilman, appears at the North West Civic meeting next Tuesday night in the high school. His opponent, ARTHUR ISAKSEN of Hicksville, has also been invited. A county political columnist says that the policy word from hq., is that GOP candidates will not share speaking platforms with their opposition.

MORTON VILLAGE in Plainview has started the first 337 section of houses and now announces 1400 sales already out of 2000 planned. . . . Holy Family parish chapel, auditorium, rectory and convent is expected to cost $600,000, according to reports. Three separate buildings will be erected at Newbridge Rd., and Cherry St., Hicksville. . . . We are again getting duplications of our street names. There is now a Lee Place off Old Country Rd., in the Southern homes (confusing with Lee Ave.) and the Cherry St., (or Lane), mentioned above, down in the south end which is confused with Cherry St., which runs from the RR west to and across Jerusalem Ave., and St. which runs from the RR west to and across Newbridge Rd. . . . Hicksville School Board will soon call for bids on the Woodland Ave. School. . . . FREEMAN PARR was welcomed as a new member of the Hicksville Rotary this week. . . . Hicksville Kiwanis heard R. M. PATTERSON, passenger agent of LIRR, at its meeting last week. . . . When SENATOR IVES started a statewide tour by bus this week in his campaign, his son, GEORGE SKINNER IVES, was with him. The latter is a Hicksville resident and an attorney with his home at 10 Barwell Lane in the Levitt-built section. . . . Two children were apprehended near that construction shack fire, over the weekend, by Fire Dept. Deputy BOB HAMMOND. . . . Letters went out this week from the Salvation Army in its annual appeal FRANK CHLUMSKY is again Hicksville area chairman with CHARLES E. COLTHEURST as treasurer and ROSEANNA BARBES, secretary. . . .

Hofstra College this week reported a total enrollment of 4,383 students, greatest in its history and 420 more than last year. . . . STUYVESANT WAINWRIGHT is Republican candidate for Congress from Suffolk and opponent of incumbent ERNEST GREENWOOD. Saturday WAINWRIGHT was guest at a luncheon of a Riverhead and Mattituck association of businessmen and a few hours after the meeting, the clubhouse burned to the ground. The hot political discussions which took place earlier were blamed by a wit for "igniting" the place. . . . More facts are coming out about the proposed shopping centre on the home property on North Broadway, Hicksville. We hear it will consist of 92 stores, off-street parking for 5,700 cars, have 3,700 feet of frontage on Broadway, and provide employment for 2,000 persons. It will be known as the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza. . . .

Miss Mary Hughes Wed at Mass

Miss Mary Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes of 75 Combes Ave., Hicksville was married Saturday morning, Sept. 27, to William Shanhou, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shannon of Brooklyn, at a nuptial mass at St. Ignatius R. C. Church, Hicksville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white

Chantilly lace over satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip length illusion veil was held in place with a lace headress. She carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Mrs. Edward Huber of Sunnyside was matron of honor and Edward Shannon was best man for his brother Edward Huber was usher.

A reception for relatives and friends at the Trot-Inn, Westbury, followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Shannon is a graduate of St. Joseph High School, Brooklyn. Mr. Shannon, a graduate of Bishop McLaughlin High School, Brooklyn, is an Air Force veteran.

Selling Concert Membership

HICKSVILLE—Community Concert Assoc. held its annual dinner meeting Monday night at The Alibi Restaurant. The dinner was attended by the Executive Board and volunteer workers.

The enthusiastic meeting marked the opening of current one-week campaign during which the association plans to enroll a capacity audience which will insure another full series of concerts for the season.

Mrs. Dale Bronson, President presided at the dinner and introduced Harold Welch, Assistant Eastern Manager of Columbia Artists, who addressed the meeting. Welch will be here all week to assist with the campaign.

In an interview following the meeting Mrs. Bronson, said that the Executive Board and the workers of the local Community Concert Asso. are contributing their efforts during the campaign week in order to accomplish "something eminently worthwhile for the community, — entertainment coupled with inspiration on an adult level."

She added that such a concert series can only be presented when someone underwrites the expense, which often leaves a deficit, or by the Association plan, whereby many citizens contribute their efforts in a cooperative enterprise which eliminates deficits.

George McIntosh, Membership Chairman, reminded residents of the community to make the work of the volunteers as easy as possible by getting in their memberships early and not to make it necessary for them to make several trips or inquiries for each membership. He pointed out that it is to the advantage of every member not only to get in his membership promptly but to try to get another new membership along with it as every dollar collected by the Association goes into securing more concerts.

Campaign headquarters for the week are located at Holden's Stationery Store, 100 Broadway. The telephone number is HI-3-4483. Volunteer workers for this area are Miss Harriet Spink, Mrs. LeRoy Wells, Miss Mildred Clark, Mrs. Miriam Bentley, Mrs. Sidney Volk, Miss Elaine Knecht and Dr. Harry Lambert.

Adult memberships are $6. per season and student memberships are $3. per season, Miss Spink said.

NORTH WEST NOTES.

Civics to Meet With Town Officials

By JAMES CUMMINGS

Early this week Town of Oyster Bay Highway Dept. stepped up their road improvement and drainage program in NW Hicksville. Nevada St. was first to receive a bluestone top, Myers and Nevada St., section was near completion, Tuesday. Myers, Gardner and Kuhl Avenues will follow according to information given your reporter by Jack Brandt this week.

August Smith, foreman of the job, informed me that they have initiated a new type of curbing to be installed throughout the development using Nevada St., as an illustration. Brandt felt that eventually all streets would have a bluestone top, but that this would take time. Our civic assoc. has given top priority to this road question, continually writing and calling the Highway Department to get going on these roads; in addition to publicity received through this column each week. We hope now that they have begun the work they will continue until all main roads and side streets are finished.

with the Town Board will be presented at our monthly meeting that same evening in the High School study hall at 8:30 P.M., if time permits due to other business at hand. Both candidates for town councilman have been invited to address the membership at this meeting.

Nominations of officers will take place. Make it a point to attend, bring your neighbor!

BETWEEN ISSUES we learned that the new model on Burns Ave., built by Jerry Spiegel will have 6 complete rooms, 3 bedrooms, living room, dining room, large kitchen, fireplace and complete new front. Price—?—you guess. The new Mid-Island Shopping Plaza planned on North Broadway near Nevada St., will give complete access to every type of store, department and otherwise — the largest of its kind on Long Island — a nursery and play area for shoppers children is said to be included. Read the Herald each week for the news.

The flood conditions at Ohio & Kolmar Ave., are being corrected by the installation of more than 75 feet of lateral pipe and a rock bed. Four engineers are also working on a solution to the low spot on Kuhl Ave., and Georgia St., another bad spot. Representatives of the Civic Assoc., will appear before the Town Board next Tuesday, Oct. 7th, at 8 o'clock to discuss these conditions in NW Hicksville. A report on this meeting

Press Freedom As We See It

By FRED J. NOETH

EVERY WEEK of the year has been designated for some special observance. Some weeks have double and triple designations. The week starting today is of special interest for us—and we hope for our readers as well. It is National Newspaper Week and we would like to take the occasion to say something about your community paper.

A great deal of important wordage has been put on paper about an event such as this. Much has been said in editorials and from speaker platforms about Freedom of the Press. Actually, we would rather have you keep alert to our freedoms by observation.

For example, this issue of your community paper, the Herald, to our way of thinking comes pretty close to our initial idea—that the paper belongs to the people who read it. Just look through it and notice the numerous contributing efforts. We had not thought too much about this angle until Newspaper Week came upon us, but there are no less than 20 by-lined articles in this particular issue. That means there are at least that number of reports and articles which have been identified as to authorship. Many more items are not individually identified simply because it is not practical to do so.

We take a certain amount of pride in calling attention to the front page story by our very capable assistant, Mary Haughey, covering a hearing this week in Washington. Our reason for the first-hand coverage of this event was not so much because of the nature of the application—which would normally rate full coverage—but Miss Haughey went to Washington to get this story because we had good cause to expect that certain significant facts about the tremendous growth of our community would be presented by all parties involved. Our development these days is so rapid that even statistics compiled in the first months of this year can be inaccurate and inadequate within a period of weeks.

To be worthy of the confidence our readers have placed in the HERALD, as witnessed by their vastly increasing ranks as regular subscribers, we recognize the prime responsibility of correctly reflecting local trends and changes. On Newspaper Week all members of the HERALD staff repeat their resolve to meet this responsibility.

We realize that what we do and say may not always meet with the approval or coincide with the views of all our readers. We are always glad to have your written expressions, either way.

Herald Reader Opinions

INTEREST IN CITY

To the Editor:

I wish you to know that I was very interested to notice in a recent publication of yours an account and discussion concerning Levittown's incorporation. I think you are to be commended for raising this issue and publicizing it in your paper. I thank you very much for it as it has genuinely aroused an interest toward the subject in me.

GIFT FOR LIBRARY

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of Hicksville Public Library and myself, please accept our appreciation for your gift to the library. The three bound volumes of the Mid-Island Herald will be kept in our reference collection and, I am sure, be used by both our borrowers and staff frequently.

The Legionnaire

The greatest item of interest to occur in many a day belongs not to the Legion but to the Legion Auxiliary, who, on Saturday night observed their Thirtieth Anniversary with a grand dinner and dance at the Hicksville Legion Hall.

Mrs. William McIntosh, first President of the Auxiliary and one of the 13 Past Presidents on hand for the occasion, was Mistress of Ceremonies and principal speaker in an evening which was devoted to just enough speech making and a preponderance of reminiscence.

The celebrants were served a first class turkey dinner and we know Rudy Bous, who catered the affair, will be pleased to hear that all to whom we spoke were more than pleased. The formal phase of the program began right after dinner when Past Presidents of the Auxiliary and Past Commanders of the Legion took a bow and Thirty Year Membership Awards were made to Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Fred Davis and Mrs. Henry C. Brengel, all charter members of the unit.

Following this there was dancing in the flower decked hall to the very fine music of the Tony Bell Trio.

Among those present were Sylvia and Ernie Gundlach, Chick and Jay Jabour, Rose and Ed Becker, the Brengels-Anna, Joan, Henry and Fred; Helen and Art Ferro, the Bill Schmidts, Sallagyi's, Stolls, Edna Gilde, Caroline Steple, Betty and Bob Beard and Offenbachs by the dozen. There were many, many more of course, some familiar to us, others not so familiar who were probably members before we were born, but because Al Barlow was swamped behind the bar he had to let our note taking go and jump in to help.

Before we leave the subject we'd like to pass out bouquets to Al Barlow for his fine job despite his illness that evening that caused him to relinquish his duties for several minutes to John Pank and also to Joan Brengel and Helen Ferro for running such a swell party.

Can't wait for number 35, ladies!

Saturday, Oct. 4 is American Legion Day at the Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy. It's announced that the "Annapolis" of the American Merchant Marine entire corps of cadets will pass in formal review with the county commanders of the five Boroughs of New York, Nassau and Suffolk Counties taking the review. Activities start at 10:45 A.M. and all Legionnaires and their families are invited to attend. The facilities of the Officers Club will be available and for those interested Kings Point will face the N. Y. U. football team in the afternoon.

Have heard the PA System Committee is making excellent progress and a report will probably be made at the Oct. 6 meeting. . . . And speaking of the coming meeting, Marie Blance who was to have appeared at the Sept. 16 meeting, but could not do so because of a schedule mix up, will attend and let us in on what happened at Boys State 1952. . . . Interesting to note that in the Legion sponsored Girls Insignia program, a Nassau girl was elected President. . . . She will appear before next County Meeting. . . . County anxious to know names of Legionnaires active in Civil Defense (including Volunteer Firemen) so how about letting Commander Backer know at next meeting? . . . Circus check should be in by Monday also.

Al Barlow has issued membership cards to life members Henry C. Brengel, Forrest Mason and Nick Harter and to renewing members Frank Milla-check, Al Carpenter and Dr. Harry Lambert. When will you SIGN FOR '53?

Registration days are drawing near. Do I want to vote? You and I, as veterans, have much at stake to see that the right men and women get in office. Look over the candidates and vote for those who promise more for the veterans benefits and better government. I have found in my travels to various veterans functions, men like Sen. Irving Ives, Congressman Leo Hall and Ernest Greenwood are always ready to do the right thing.

Last year, as command of our Post, I called on both Hon. Representatives Hall and Greenwood to help our cause in different Post functions connected with our monthly visits to Northport Hospital. Without hesitation, these men came through, no ifs or buts. Thank you, Ernest Greenwood, for all the wonderful books you so graciously sent to me for preparation for our hospital visits. The aid we received from these men helped us in our hospital visits at Northport.

The Ladies Auxiliary was host to President Rita Brett and her staff of the Nassau-Suffolk district of Ladies' Auxiliary held last week at the Temple Shaarai Zedek on East Barclay St. It's nice to have folks come from all over the island and meet. Oscar Lauer, newly elected vice commander, was on hand for the affair.

-If you want it done, get Sid Jungman to do it. Sid was given permission to purchase 100 gifts for distribution to the men in service. In our work for the disabled veterans, our commander does not want us to forget our own boys and girls from Hicksville area who are also serving. But we need your help in our Gifts to the Boys of Hicksville. Call Sid Jungman at Hicksville 3-5373 R and give him the name and address of the young man before he entered service and his military address.

Sam Mezel's lady must have read this corner about his ability to brew coffee, for he went and got himself engaged. I won't say lucky girl, because Sam's the lucky fellow. The post members and auxiliary wish Sam and Claire the best of everything.

All members, new and old, will meet at the Temple on Saturday, Oct. 25, to get acquainted with each other. The night will mark the start of our plans to a series of successful visits to the veterans hospitals.

A word about our second annual Pleasure Hunt: Soon you folks will have a chance to take part in our Pleasure Hunt for the benefit of the hospitalized veterans. This is our only means of financing our hospital visits. Your contribution will make you people of Hicksville a part of our visits. You can further participate if you can entertain, sing, dance or play a musical instrument. Transportation will be furnished. We go the last Sunday of each month.

Happy Birthday . . .

Between Duffy and Old Country: Don't Forget to Register to Vote

Hi Folks: Mr. and Mrs. Jack LoDato of Meade Ave, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kyle of Manchester, Conn. last weekend.

Dot Bonhard of McAlester Ave, celebrates her birthday on Oct. 2. Mrs. Bottjer of Meade Ave, celebrates hers on the same day. Happy Birthdays to you both.

If you want to vote this year—and you all should—don't forget to register on Oct. 4 or 11.

Rachel LaMagne of 8 Burkland Lane was 14 years old on Sept. 27. Allee Hertel of 13 Burkland Lane celebrated her birthday on Sept.

28. Belated best wishes to you girls. There was a big turnout at the Nicholas St. School Parent-Teachers Assoc. last week. Most of the parents attending were from the new Burns Ave. and Old Country Road schools groups. It was a very interesting meeting and those that didn't attend will surely want to make the next meeting on Oct. 16.

Organize Stevenson Volunteers

HICKSVILLE—The first meeting of the "Volunteers For Stevenson" was held Monday night in the Community Hall, here, where an overflow crowd heard Douglas F. Young, executive director of Nassau County Volunteers for Stevenson, describe the work of the many enthusiastic County Community organizations.

After the meeting A. William Larson, organizing chairman, said "The Levittown Volunteers for Stevenson welcome the active support and participation of all those interested in the help of Adlai Stevenson. This independent volunteer group invites Republican, Democratic and uncommitted voters to join in the common effort to help Stevenson carry Levittown by a substantial plurality."

All friends of Stevenson are invited to attend a meeting tonight (Thursday, Oct. 2) at Hicksville Legion Hall, 24 E. Nicholas St., at 8:30 P.M. and in the Community Hall on Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 9 P.M.

NAME LOCAL CHAIRMAN
Van Cunningham has been appointed Hicksville Chairman of the Volunteers For Stevenson, the local branch of the nationwide independent citizens group working for the election of Adlai Stevenson.

Cunningham, who resides at 151 Scooter Lane, moved to Hicksville in 1950. He is employed as an industrial writer by Doyle Kitchen & McCormick, Inc., of Manhattan. He attended public schools in Winchester, Mass., and Ohio Wesleyan University.

"Volunteers for Stevenson will devote a large part of its efforts to getting out the vote in Hicksville," Cunningham stated in his initial press release. "In the 1950 elections, out of possibly 12,000 potential voters in Hicksville, 5,632 went to the polls. We will do everything possible to see that the 15,000 voters now in Hicksville exercise the precious privilege of voting this presidential election year."

Cunningham is married to the former Evelyn Rutter of Andover, Mass. They have three small children.

FIRST PACK MEETING

HICKSVILLE—The first meeting of the season for Cub Pack 293 will be held tonight (Thursday) at the Methodist Church, Old Country Rd. at 7:45 P.M. Den 1 will entertain with a skit. Refreshments will be served. All parents are urged to attend.

Good Reason for Joining Our P-TA

By GENE MALJEAN

Hicksville 3-5515

After dropping my daughter Dolores off at school the other day I noticed that we have some very pretty educators at East Street. Perhaps I've neglected the PTA too long. . . . If my wife is reading this—I'm only joking. . . . But seriously, the PTA could use some of our parental cooperation—either in a small way or in whatever manner we have time to participate. This would be a splendid opportunity to become acquainted with neighbors on other streets. Perhaps we would meet Henry Frank who edits the East Street News or Pierre Charbonnet, financial secretary, or other interesting residents of our development. Let's look into it.

Speaking of Pierre: Charles Vesnat Junior, a French Naval Cadet, visited the Charbonnets on his way from France to Canada. He is the son of Commander Charles Vesnat M.D. of the French Colonial Army who is now stationed in Etheopia. Aline Charbonnet knew the Vesnat family in New Caledonia.

Must have been fun at Cora Brenham's birthday party. All the children wore gay plaid shirts and dungarees. Among those farmers present were Kenneth Ronnie and Carol Roth, Patrick and Thomas Blaser, David McGrath, Charles Leary, Dianne Millett, Deborah Green, Margie and Bobby Allison, Arthur Becker, Susan Carter, Jacqueline and Susanne Charbonnet. Mrs. Novak visited her daughter Eleanor Carter of Ketcham Ave. She was also visited by her aunt Sophie Pink.

Gladys Blaser and Rosalie Leary were made class mothers of the first and second grades, respectively.

I'm just getting around to smoking that cigar that Jim McDonald left for me. His wife, Patty, presented him with James Randall McDonald Jr., on Saturday, Sept. 20. Net weight: 8 lbs, 11 oz. Not to be outdone, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Luzon of Moeller St., became parents of a boy whom they named Dennis. 10 lbs 3 oz was the reading in this event.

More news next Thursday—see you then.

Miss Dolores Maljean of 16 Futon Ave., Hicksville, was the guest of honor at a lawn party held Sunday, Sept. 28, in observance of her sixth birthday. Her guests were: Malakoe Garra, James Garra, George Garra, Connie Garra, Jimmy Garra, Georgine Garra, Eleanor Makhone, Frened Makhone and children, Stephanie and Johnnie, Beth Cox and daughter, Jeanne, Richard Lee, Bunny Klee, Carol and Patty Stein, Roy Sopko, Tom and Mary Hogan and son, Kenneth.

300 KIDS

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville, Inc., extends its heartiest thanks at this time to all who contributed to the success of National Kids Day here. James H. Walters, principal of Nicholas St. School, was general chairman. Pictures taken at the affair are exhibited at the Herald office, next to the Post Office.

HICKSVILLE GIRL SCOUTING:

Getting Acquainted and Camp Trip

By Florence Vryn, LE 9-6407
Girl Scout Troop 23 met at St. Ignatius' School, Thursday, Sept. 25. The meeting was opened by the girls reciting the Brownie prayer and Pledge of Allegiance. After a short business meeting the older Brownies helped the new members get to know the rest of the troop by playing a "Get-Acquainted" game. All the girls sang songs and played games, fulfilling the purpose of the first meeting of the new season, to help the new girls feel part of the group.

The Brownies are: Kathy Craw, Maureen Lynch, Janet Martarello, Teresa McAleer, Mary O'Shaughnessy, Kathleen Reimels, Joan Stubing and Judy Talbot. The new recruits are Elizabeth Brady, Marie Cramer, Charlotte Emmel, Mary Forget, Florence Harrison, Marguerite Ivory, Kathleen Kennedy, Maureen McLaughlin, Elizabeth Pesinkowski, Veronica Simile, Patricia Stephenson, Betty Vryn.

Mrs. Virginia Benson is Troop Leader and she is assisted by Senior Scout Barbara Strauss. The Troop plans to walk to the Library from the School as part of their activity for the next meeting. Mothers of members of the troop are requested to send consent slips with the girls to the next meeting.

Troop 134 went on a camping trip to Camp Edey, Bayport, Sept. 26-27. They left from the Community Church on Hempstead Ave., Hicksville, at seven Friday evening

Richard Evers of 24 South Elm St., Hicksville, is on the Dean's list at Adelphi College, Garden City. It was announced by the college. Mr. Evers is a senior at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Morschner and daughter, Anna Marie, of Howard St., Hicksville, have returned from Europe where they spent the summer months.

HICKSVILLE GABLES:

Back After A Wonderful Summer

By Ruth Schuls
Hicksville 3-2543-R

Well, folks, we're back in business again. We had a wonderful summer as usual and hope all of you fared as well. Always feel a trifle sad this season of the year with everything slowly but surely dying off. But must compliment most of you here in the Gables on the lovely appearance of the houses and gardens. They really look lovely.

The Kepler family of 24 Gables Rd. left here this summer for New Hampshire and have leased their home to Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Brooklyn. The Wilson household also includes their three charming daughters, Barbara currently employed by Telephone Co., Loretta who attends Hicksville High and Janet, a student at Junior High, and their pet dog, Pug. Mr. Wilson is employed by a local plumbing firm owned by H. Roas.

More new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. Thornton McGill of Brooklyn. Mrs. McGill will be fifth grade teacher at the Old Country Rd. School when it opens in the near future. Mr. McGill continues to conduct his undertaking establishment near their former home while their son, Thornton, Jr., is attending New York University.

Also with us from Flushing are Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey and daughter, Patricia Ann, now at 25 Gables Dr. Mr. Dewey is employed by the Ford Co. in Great Neck. Pap, Winkle, completes this little family group.

Way back on July 28 we had a new arrival here, John Garland McGee, who came to live at 27 Gables Rd. Young John weighed in at 9 pounds 3 ounces at Mercy Hospital and was welcomed into the family by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGee, sisters, Kathy and Margy, and brother, Donald.

PLAINVIEW COUNTRY HOMES:

Girl Scouts Here Need New Leader

By RAE CANTILLI
Hicksville 3-0233 M

How do you like this gorgeous weather? Makes one think of "Sept. Song" or Autumn Leaves, Football, Chrysanthemums and Christmas are in the air. I love it! I saw quite a few familiar faces up at the Barn Dance given by the Plainview Fire Dept. Auxiliary, Warren and Margo Pursey of Sunrise St., Val and Ruth Himberger, Bob and Ruth Gessner, Flo and Sonny Myrick, all of Island St., and yours truly. The MacIntoshes of Briar Park were there, along with a big group of Briar Park people. The music was divine, and I must say the Barn Dance was a big, wonderful success. Everyone I talked to really enjoyed themselves.

Friday night, a surprise shower was given by a few of the neighbors on Island Street for Ginny Payne of Island St. Ruth Himberger, Ruth Gessner, Flo Myrick and myself were the hostesses. It was a real surprise for Ginny because it took place several weeks after baby Carol was born. The decorations were an elaborately decorated umbrella, which was gorgeous to see. Streamers in assorted colors fell into a decorated basket. The effect was wonderful. Among those attending were Dottie Wakeman of Hicksville, Ethel Geigetter, Kay Hartnett, Clara MacAllister, Mary Ward, Ruth Gessner, Ruth Himberger, Flo Myrick and Rae Cantilli, all from Island St., and Louise Fesselmeier of Old Country Rd. I can still taste those smooth whiskey sours and old fashions.

I would like to return to the world of reality, now. Seriously speaking, the Girl Scouts in Plainview are in a little difficulty. Their present leader, can not any longer continue working with the girls due to personal reasons. She is being more than generous by continuing until another leader can be procured. Please, if any mother or anyone at all could find it possible to become a Scout Leader, they would be helping the girls, plus having a wonderful time themselves.

The girls in the Scout Troop are going to meet every Friday night from 7:00 to 8:30 P.M. In order to become a Scout Leader, you must go through a very pleasant training course of one night a week for 8 weeks at the Methodist Church on Main St., in Farmingdale. It isn't an unpleasant affair. In fact it is very enjoyable. So if you are at all interested, please give me a call.

And don't forget when those Brownies and Girl Scouts ring your door bell and ask you to buy a box of cookies, give them a break. The cookies are delicious.

That P.-T. A. meeting is Oct. 2 at the Manetto Hill School, 8:30 P.M. is the time. Get down and find out how you can help better your children's education, and take an active part in your school.

BRIAR PARK, PLAINVIEW:

Beware of Fast-Talking Salesmen

By Ethel Ramsey, HI 3-5324

Another week has come and gone—and a lovely week it was too. Every where you looked this week-end you saw men working on new lawns, removing old lawns and painting. It seems everywhere these is a nice week-end, the paint buckets are put to use. I'll bet some of the husbands are grateful for rainy weather. At least then they can sit around and watch television or sleep.

Mrs. White of 103 Manor St. has asked me to extend her heartfelt thanks to the unknown man who returned her purse last Monday. It seems that Mrs. White's little girl fell out of her carriage along South Oyster Bay Road. In her rush to get the baby to the doctor, she never noticed that her lovely new beaded purse fell out also. Hours later when she got home and looked for her keys she discovered her loss and frantically tried to retrace her steps looking for it. Later in the afternoon a man in a grey-green car, late model, turned up at her house with the purse. She was so excited that she didn't have a chance to properly thank him. If he reads this, I'm sure he'll know that she wasn't being remiss, she was just too excited to think clearly. By the way, baby is doing fine. She is rapidly recovering from the black-eyes and other bruises received in her fall.

The Manetto Hill P.T.A. will meet this Thursday, Oct. 2 at 8:30 P.M. People who have donations to make for the coming bazaar are requested to bring them along to this meeting. These meetings are always of great interest to all who possibly can should try to attend.

I've heard stories of a racket being worked in this section of Nassau. Men who pose as landscape artists come around and offer to sell you the necessary materials to beautify your plot at a cost much lower than usual because you do the necessary planting yourself. The cost usually runs around forty to fifty dollars, and the victim is high pressured into signing a contract. Later, when the items are delivered, they consist mostly of rather skimpy plants which are not even meant for planting near the house. Before you sign anything, make sure of what you are getting.

The plan of the Plainview Water District to spend $750,000 for the construction of new wells, tanks and other equipment has been approved by the Town Board. Another hearing will be held at the Plainview Fire House at 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, October 7th. This meeting will be held by the New York State Water Power and Control Commission for the purpose of hearing anyone who might be affected by the plans of this district to secure a new supply of water. This new water supply, of course, would eliminate the difficulty we had this summer with very strict water use rules.

The Rosary for Peace group will meet on Tuesday evening, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Jean Dennis, 22 Nassau Ave. at 8:30 P.M. Why not drop in—it's only for half an hour.

Don't forget the Plainview Civic and Community Assoc. will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 21 at 8:15 P.M. at the Manetto Hill School. This is your organization—it is the one outfit interested only in making Plainview a better place to live. Try to attend the meetings. They always have interesting programs.

Has your subscription expired? or is the expiration date coming close? If you'll give me a call, I'll be glad to take care of the renewal.

THE SCHOOLS ARE YOURS:

Meetings of Our School Districts

By ROBERT E. TUTTLE
Principal, Manetto Hill School, Plainview

My neighbor, John Q. Public and I were discussing education. "How many different types of school district meetings are there?" asked John.

"Before I answer your question let me say this. School district meetings are excellent examples of grassroots democracy in action. In district meetings all qualified voters of the school district have an opportunity to decide the vital issues regarding the educational program in the community."

"You stated, before I believe, that any voters qualified to participate in municipal or state elections can usually vote in school district meetings provided they own or lease property in the school district or have a child attending the local school."

"That is true. School districts having a population of 3,000 or more may require voters to register before voting at district meetings. Now there are essentially two types of district meetings. One is the annual meeting and the other is any special meeting called by the Board of Education."

"Notices of district meetings must be published in the paper. Right?"

"Yes, legal notices must be printed twice in a newspaper having general circulation in the district. The first notice must be published at least once in each week within the four week period or at least twenty-two days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice must specifically state the business to be transacted at the meeting unless otherwise provided by Education Law and is dated and signed by the District Clerk, acting as the agent of the Board of Education."

"You said there were two kinds—annual and special meetings. That's not hard to remember."

"Let's consider the annual meeting first. As the name implies it is held once each year on the first Tuesday in May. This applies to all school districts in Nassau County except those whose limits correspond with those of an incorporated city or village."

"Is this meeting advertised by legal notice?"

"Yes."

"What is the usual agenda of the annual meeting?"

"The typical agenda is something like this. The District Clerk reads the call of the meeting. A chairman is elected by those present and qualified to vote. The District Clerk usually acts as clerk of the meeting. Next the budget for the coming school year July 1 to June 30 is presented by the Board of Education. Generally the budget is discussed at considerable length. Voters present are at liberty to ask any question even to requesting an item by item vote. If this happens a vote is taken on each item or on each category in the budget."

"What does category mean?"

"The budget is divided into several categories or sections such as Instructional Service, Maintenance of Plant, Capital Outlay and Debt Service. In the Instructional Service category are salaries of principals and teachers, supplies and textbooks etc. In Maintenance of Plant are the salaries of custodians, cleaning and maintenance supplies etc."

MEETING PROCEDURE

"When the budget has been approved (by item or category) a motion is made and seconded that the district shall raise dollars—the total amount of the budget minus anticipated receipts—for the coming year. Then a secret ballot or a recorded 'aye' and 'nay' vote is held upon the question. A roll is kept of the names and addresses of each person voting following the appointment of tellers. With the announcement of the vote, the next usual order of business is the election of members of the Board of Education to replace those whose terms expire on June 30th."

"Didn't we discuss something about nominating petitions some time ago?"

"That's right. Nominating petitions for a candidate for election to the Board of Education must be signed by 25 qualified voters and submitted to the District Clerk (Continued on Page 14)

Plainview P-TA Meeting Tonight

The Manetto Hill P.T.A. of Plainview will hold its next regular meeting tonight (Thursday, Oct. 2) at 8:15 P.M. The theme for this meeting will be "The Door to Recreation". Mrs. C. Meredith Springer will be the guest speaker.

The association is planning a bazaar in the school auditorium, Friday, Oct. 24, from 7 to 9 P.M. and Saturday, Oct. 25 from 2 to 9 P.M. Members who wish to make a donation are asked to bring it

CAR HITS CHILD

PLAINVIEW — A six-year-old child, Ernest Zarza of 15 Vernon St., was hit by a 1950 Chevrolet as the child was crossing Universal Blvd., on Sept. 28, police reported. The child was treated by Dr. Carl Schwartz for contusion of the left knee. Harold Sudbrink, 48, of Forest Hills, was arrested for leaving the scene of the accident, according to Second Precinct Police.

OFF SOUTH BROADWAY: Lee Ave. P-TA Organizes Oct. 22

By BUNNY LAUER
Hicksville 3-2794 J

Here's some good news I'm sure you've been waiting to hear. It is all about our own P-TA at Lee Ave. School. Guess you felt kind of left out of things reading about what's doing at Nicholai, East St. or Junior or Senior High or even Dutch La. P-TA's when that building isn't even completed yet. To date the Lee Ave. School isn't fully equipped yet. The chairs for the gym-auditorium still haven't arrived and you know it is impossible to have all the parents and teachers meet without a place to sit.

You just don't decide that you want a P-TA and lo and behold, there it is. A new P-TA has to be set up and a P-TA County director has to attend the organizational meeting to help plan and start things rolling. Donald Abt, Lee Ave. principal, has been in constant touch with the local P-TA council and Oct. 22 is the tentative date set for a meeting of parents and teachers of the School. There will be plenty of work for all who are interested. It will be a new branch of an old organization. Let's all pull together to make the Lee Ave. P-TA an association that will be fitting to such a gorgeous school.

The Junior High P-TA will meet tonight (Thursday) in the high school building. This P-TA is also a fairly new chapter and deserves your support. Your executive committee has put in a lot of time and effort to give you an interesting evening. Show your appreciation by attending and joining.

Back to the railroad Wally. Yep, Wally Ivory of Lee Ave. is back at work after a week at home which was supposed to be a vacation. All he did was turn over a lawn and start to insulate the attic and numerous other little chores that only Marguerite could think of.

Mrs. Helen Romano of Lee Ave. has been on the sick list. We all miss your cheery smile.

Am kinds lonesome this week and as my Holly and Iva are spending the week end in the Bronx visiting grandma.

The Merklers from next door have added a beautiful new awning on the side door. Everyone is putting improvements on their homes. The Frank Homes sure look different from what they did three years ago.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Congregation Shari Zedek is holding a rummage sale Oct. 15, 16 and 17. If you have any suitable things you'd like to donate, give me a ring and I'll have it picked up.

The Dan Blackers of Cottage Blvd. celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary Saturday by having a family dinner in their home. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blacker of the Bronx, Mr. and Mrs. Julie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Lang and daughter, Jean, of Flushing, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Both. After dinner everyone went to Guy Lombardo's for cocktails and dancing.

Little Doty Christ of Lee Ave. celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday with a party in her home. Her guests were Dianna Wharton, Anna and Lorraine Silberling, Frances Wallace, Ruth Ann Kappstatter, Jeannie and Sue Christ, Gail Jochem, Marie Eisner. On Sunday the Christ's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Berndt, Mr. and Mrs. Spiecker, Mr. and Mrs. Riedlinger all of Flushing, Mr. and Mrs. Rose and children, Donald and Barbara,

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Charles Wagner Post, Hicksville American Legion, held a card party at the clubhouse, E. Nicholai St., Hicksville, Wednesday evening, Sept. 24.

Winners were: Mrs. Mayme Davis, first non-players prize; Mrs. A. Färter, pinochle; Mrs. VanAneken, bridge; Mrs. Helen Wladyska, bunco; and canasta, Mrs. Arlene Jabour. The door prize, a set of cake plates was won by Mrs. Steve Smatiak and Miss Loretta Lorenzo won the raffle prize, a set of pilsern glasses.

of Hicksville. Doty received many beautiful gifts.

To Ann Shulman of Linden Ave. East—hurry and get well.

Mom and Dad Lauer had an executive committee meeting of the Old Timers Assoc. of the Bronx, Fulton St., in their home last week. The association is planning to have a branch on Long Island. Anyone who was formerly a member of the Fulton St. group in the Bronx is eligible or if your wife or husband was a member, you are also eligible. The OTA does wonderful work. They give scholarships to needy children to camp. If you know of a needy child you would like to see in camp next summer contact Dad at Hicksville 3-2794-R as he is in charge of the Pop Lauer Camp Fund.

WHITEY next door is very busy teaching his rebel friends who just moved up north how to speak English.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
Sealed proposals will be received for the installation of water mains and appurtenances in Glenbrook Homes Section 2, by the Board of Water Commissioners of the Hicksville Water District, Nassau County, New York, at the office of the Water Commissioners, 85 Bethpage Road, Hicksville, N. Y., until 8:00 P.M. prevailing time, October 16, 1952, and then at said office, opened publicly and read aloud.

Repeat Stand on 6 Local Issues

The following is a statement of policy of the South Hicksville Association of Levitt Home Owners, issued by its Executive Board this week:

In spite of wide publicity given the activities of the South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners, it has become apparent that many residents of the area are confused about the organization's principles and how it stands on certain specific issues. The confusion, we believe, can best be laid to the divergent views expressed by a pro-Levittown group whose interests have repeatedly attempted to disassociate the 2,213 Levitt homes from their rightful and advantageous place in the community of Hicksville. Since its inception, SHALHO has recognized (geographically, tax-wise, district-wise, etc.) its place in the Township (Oyster Bay) and has striven toward closer and more harmonious relations with Hicksville. It is appropriate at this time, as the organization enters its second year of community service, therefore, that SHALHO sets down its reasons for existence and the action it has taken on specific community issues.

SHALHO was organized to:

- (1) Bring together residents owning Levitt homes in Hicksville who are interested in civic betterment and with the purpose of promoting good citizenship and the general welfare.
- (2) Serve individual homeowners in expediting the solution of their particular problems.
- (3) Provide a means for free and open discussion of pertinent problems without restrictions imposed by strict adherence to "parliamentary rules."
- (4) Oppose any "pet projects" that would needlessly increase our tax load but to watch warily for economy measures that would endanger our safety and security.
- (5) Establish community harmony by encouraging our members to take an active part in local affairs, both political and social.

The foregoing statement of principles have guided us in dealing with the following specific issues:

- (1) SWIMMING POOLS — We favor retention and exclusive use of the two Levitt-built pools in our area. In opposing the proposed split in the Hicksville Park and Parking District, we held the Levitt organization to be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of the pools as per their advertised "free use" to owners of Levitt-built homes. In addition, we pointed out the prohibitive cost of a separate district which would include a great deal of park and parking areas, in addition to the pools. Our arguments against the split were presented to the Town Board at a public hearing last May 9 and resulted, in major part, to the Board's denial of the proposal.

Levitt continued to operate the pools this Summer and we anticipate no change in the situation. If the present owners find it necessary to dispose of the pools, however, we are on record favoring the creation of a separate "swimming pool district" to be administered by an elected pool commissioner, or the Town Board, with provision being made for separate taxation of Levitt home owners in the proposed district. This would result in minimum taxation and

Rev. Leavy Speaks Next Tuesday

"The Problems of Youth and Their Solution" will be the subject of a discussion led by the Rev. Michael Leavy, director of the Nassau County Catholic Youth Organization, at the regular monthly meeting of the South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners to be held next Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 8 P.M. in the Community Hall, Levittown Pkway.

The Rev. Vincent Powell, director of the Kings County CYO is also expected to be present and take part in the discussion. SHALHO officers point out that the meeting is open to the public and all residents are urged to attend.

The Rev. Leavy is eminently qualified to speak on the problems of youth in that all of his adult life has been devoted to helping youth of all races and creeds. In addition to his formal training in special courses at Fordham, Columbia, and New York Universities, he had practical experiences in the boys clubs of Harlem, West Side, and East Side of Manhattan. More than ten years ago he came to Nassau and immediately became active in the Catholic Youth Organization. He was to a large degree responsible for building up the very active program for youth of all ages. Since 1947 he has served as director of the Nassau County CYO. He is attached to St. Frances de Chantal Church in Wantagh.

SEVERAL VOLUNTEERS

According to Cornelius J. McCormack, in charge of arrangements, several residents have already volunteered their services in taking charge of groups of youths in an organized program of athletics.

In announcing the meeting, interim SHALHO president Robert E. Wathey, 49 Arcadia Lane, said it was the wish of the organization to bring the controversial "teen-age problem" before the community in the light of "sane reasoning."

"As parents we must ascertain to what degree this 'problem' exists," Wathey declared, "and, with the help of competent authorities, seek out preventive measures that will not hamper the normal development of our young people."

ELECT TWO OFFICERS

During the business session of the meeting, SHALHO will nominate and elect a new president and secretary to fill the unexpired terms of Arthur Isaksen and Edward Arundel, respectively, who announced their resignations recently.

Isaksen, a founder of the organization, announced his decision to retire from the presidency following his nomination as Democratic candidate for the vacancy Oyster Bay Town Board Councilman. "I will continue as an interested and active member of the organization," he added, "which has done so much to further community harmony and instill in its members the spirit of civic responsibility."

Included in this evening's business agenda will be a discussion of the recently proposed "City of Levittown," which, reportedly, will include all Levitt-built homes in Hempstead and Oyster Bay Townships. SHALHO represents an area which comprises 2,213 Levitt homes.

Forced to Limit Instructions

Only approximately 200 of the almost 400 children who applied for admission to the religious instruction classes of Holy Family Church could be accommodated because of the limited facilities, according to the Rev. Martin J. O'Dea, pastor. He was very pleased with the turnout, but regretted that only those children who are planning to study preparatory to their First Holy Communion could be accepted.

Classes are to be held Saturday mornings at ten o'clock in the St. Ignatius old school building on Broadway, Hicksville.

The SENTINEL

The Potato Fields Are Gone

In the short two years we have been here the picture has changed completely. Gone are the potato fields that bordered the Levitt homes on the north. The gap between South Hicksville and central Hicksville is rapidly being closed. To the east, the Allied Homes and the Parc-Terrace homes are filling the gap, being occupied, and also sending numerous children to the Hicksville schools. The separateness of the Levitt homes will soon be gone. In no time at all we will be in the minority in South Hicksville.

Our Isolation Is Gone

The change is more than physical. That cultivated sense of isolation is gone. There is inevitably, as time goes on, greater participation in Hicksville activities, especially activities centered in the schools. In many cases already our common interest in the education of our children has provided the bond which will eventually unify the community of Hicksville.

Levittown "City"

Levittown Democratic Club confirmed its previous announcements by recommending formally last week that Levittown "City" include all Levitt-built homes, irrespective of township lines. Definite boundaries are being drawn up now, it is said. The SENTINEL will be surprised if those boundaries do not include other homes in addition to Levitt homes; the original intent was to straighten the boundary lines and follow established major arteries.

It is difficult to understand why there must be this insistent aggressive desire to integrate outside areas with Levittown,—difficult to understand until one remembers the "split", and its sponsors, now revealed.

Again we will be faced with attempts to split this area away from Hicksville, in spite of the bonds that have been and are being established, and to integrate it with Levittown. We have no real bond with Levittown; similarity of houses and swimming pools does not constitute a bond, anymore than ownership of similar clothes. And tax-wise and service-wise we have much to lose and nothing to gain. Why should anyone in this area strive to sell our fortunate location right for a mess of pottage?

The New Campaign

Elements of the new campaign to achieve a "split", are in themselves innocuous, even commendable;—they would be more than acceptable.

GOING AROUND THE LANES.

Cooperation For The Asking

By FLORENCE VRYN
LE 9-6497

Wasn't the weekend wonderful? The air was so crisp it almost made you feel like working, almost but not quite as far as I'm concerned. Judging by the swarms of cars which lined our winding lanes it was a big day for visitors. I was particularly impressed by the cars parked by the curbs because my driving and boy are they ever an obstacle; Off hand, cause I was doing my best to I don't know where else you'd put a car except in your pocket if you couldn't park at the curb but I'm preparing my excuses ahead of time just in case.

Seriously, the driving course is thorough and most of us have a good working knowledge of fundamentals. Some of you mentioned to me that you really need to drive but you can't enroll in the course because you haven't a sitter for the kids. Most of the girls in my class have little children but they swap time with girls who are in another class and it works out fine with each girl minding the other children. Cooperation can make lots of things possible you know.

Many of the churches have Sunday School and it lasts longer than the regular Service. Have you tried meeting the mothers of the other children and working out an arrangement where one takes a group down and the other picks them up and brings them home? It'll get the children to Church, which the little dears should attend, and not give you the excuse that Sunday is too crowded to fit Sunday School in your busy schedule. I don't care what Church it is, but you should make an effort to get the kids there. Off my soapbox for the duration, but honestly some of you are so timid about working these deals out.

Saw Mrs. Meade of Bunker Lane pass the other day with Melinda. Golly how these kids sprout up. She took Melinda down to see the phone company office where mommy works and the little one was very interested in meeting the people and watching the routine. If you have ever met Mrs. Mead you know how pleasant her manner is and young Robert has inherited his mommy's nice disposition. He's in the Lee Ave., school now and so is Melinda. They love the shiny newness of the whole building and I haven't met one youngster yet who doesn't appreciate the nice school and get a glow of pride in describing it to visitors.

The Ruppels of 43 Coachman Lane have a second son, Dudley Scott, who was born Sept. 11. Henry, who is two, is mildly interested in the newcomer but he loves the lively pace a baby in the house creates. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott, Arlene's parents are delighted with both their grandsons and Henry feels there is plenty of attention to go round. When you add on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruppel, who even with eleven other grandchildren fuss over the new arrival, you can see its a pretty sunny (ahem, small pun intended) place for both young men. Dudley has long black hair at present but Arlene says Henry had the same when he was an infant and he is a blonde now so we guess Dudley will go along with the majority. Mommy and daddy are blondes, ya'know.

When I empty pebbles out of my small son's shoes and dash after him to keep him out of mud puddles I think of Debby-Corenstein with a great deal of envy. Walt till my son gets to be a senior in High School. Boy what a wonderful thought, no more cookie crumbs all over, no more tricycles to bang my shins on. . . . Debby is active in P-T A work too. The young man gets quite a bang out of men learning to drive, since he's an expert at it. But Debby's don't fine and in no time at all she'll be whizzing down Cherry Lane like a veteran.

Mary Beth Goff celebrated her first birthday Sept. 18 and she really had a time. The young woman looked good enough to eat in a pink organdy dress that mommy made for her. It was frothy and just made you think of icing on an angel cake. Grandma and Grandpa Herkamp came out from Queens for the day and Grandma Goff came with a beautiful surprise—a diamond ring for Mary Beth. The ring has quite a story behind it. Grandma Goff received it from her mother on her sixteenth birthday and she gave it to Mary Beth because she is the first granddaughter in the family. In fact, there were eight grandsons born before Mary Beth came along. Not to the Goff's on Wishing Lane though (they breathed a sigh of relief at that statement). Just two of them, Peter and Michael.

Those of you who did not hear Ernest Greenwood speak at the Hicksville Civic meeting last week missed hearing one of the most interesting and delightful men I have ever heard. And I don't mean politically either. He just is a genuinely nice man and it was a pleasure to hear him. I'm not campaigning, but I do think you give credit where its due and Mr. Greenwood was an intelligent and informative guest.

Speaking of politics if you haven't registered, this Saturday, Oct. 4 is the day to do it. Vote for whom you will but Vote. This is an important election and women should start using their vote to good purpose. Women have not made much of an improvement in the years they have been voting and that's because so few of them use their privilege. Don't you be one of the crowd who neglect democracy's greatest privilege—the right to vote.

ceptable if they were not part of the overall effort to achieve an objective now partly concealed. Little Leagues and Lite-A-Bike Campaigns are desirable activities; why must they be labelled as "Levittown" activities in this area? Many of us would willingly cooperate and collaborate, except for the label that goes with it. Is the label more important than the activity?

The insistence by our neighbors to the south on the label is more than an expression of community pride in Levittown, at least so it seems to the SENTINEL. If it were merely community pride then it would recognize the right of Hicksville to community pride, and to its own identity, not to be submerged in any way in Levittown.

The Democratic Club in Levittown has apparently decided to carry the Levittown banner in the campaign to bind us all together after we have been convinced that living in Levitt houses, bathing in Levitt-built pools, and participating in Levittown-sponsored activities, make us all Levitt-owners under the skin, genus homo Levittownus.

"Genus Homo Levittownus"

A recent press release from Levitt Hall identified us as "genus homo Levittownus". We have become a separate part of the human race, identified not by physical, racial, or spiritual characteristics, but by the houses we live in. Possession of a Levitt-built house has destroyed our individuality, our independence; the predominant and identifying characteristic now setting us apart from the balance of the human race is residence in Levittown.

Our children are no longer just 'teen-agers—they are Levittseens. How far can this promotion of the name Levitt go?

Opinion on Levitt-House Matters
By a Levitt-Home Owner

Parental Responsibility

The incidents recounted in this column occurred in this area. They might be incidents in any area. So far as it is possible to prevent them, they should not occur, and it is up to parents to see that they do not happen.

Last week an alarm was received at Hicksville Fire Headquarters from the "B" section of Levitt houses. The alarm was sent from a fire alarm box provided for the convenience of the residents of that area. It should be kept in mind that only a relatively small number of residents have telephones, and that a fire alarm box is necessary to provide residents without phones a means for sending in an alarm.

Upon sounding of the alarm the usual rush and bustle, incidental to getting fire fighting equipment promptly to the scene, ensued. Vamps in all parts of the district rushed to their cars and headed for the fire house, hickysplit. The fire trucks were manned and off they went down Old Country Road to Levittown Parkway and over to Bobwhite. Traffic stopped. There the usual near misses, cars turned and followed the fire trucks. For 15 minutes the hazard of being on the public highway, in cars or as pedestrians, increased many fold. The vamps, hanging on as the truck speeded on its mission to save property and perhaps life, hazarded their own lives.

And to what effect or useful purpose? None. It was a false alarm. A seven-year old boy had sent it in as a prank. He admitted it. Nevertheless, his father, instead of being apologetic and disciplining the child, is said to have become abusive and addressed the vamps, some of whom live in Levitt houses in this area, as "scum."

Some time ago a resident in the same general area told the following story: It seems that he was up on the roof of his carport making some repairs when he heard a small crash, a shriek, and the screaming of brakes. Down in the middle of the street a five year-old had fallen off his triycle directly in front of an on coming car. Fortunately the car had stopped in time, the injuries to the youngster were only those resulting from his own fall. Nevertheless, there he lay, yelling "bloody murder". Our resident, unsure of what had happened, climbed down his ladder, picked up the child, and sent him on his way with the admonition that if he again found him triycling in the middle of the street he would spank the pants off him.

A half hour later the same child, having recovered from his scare, was again triycling in the middle of the street. As he came abreast of our resident he announced beligerantly, "My father says I can ride anywhere I want to!"

Teaching of caution to prevent highway accidents should begin in the home. Parents have a direct responsibility to their children and to the community. The occasions for accident should not be created;

they should be prevented.

False fire alarms which cause cars and fire trucks to careen through the street should not be sent as a childish prank; children must be taught that it is not a prank but malicious mischief which may indirectly cause injury or death to some child or parent. Also, that both the child sending the alarm and the parent are subject to punishment under the law.

In a "garden community" there is no need for triycling or playing in the roadway. Most of us in this area drive cars; most of us drive slowly and with caution. Some do not. But even with maximum caution, when children are on the roadway, unfortunate combinations of circumstances may result in accidents. When they occur partly because parents have not taught their children that they should play elsewhere, the parents are probably more at fault than the motorist. Caution is a parental responsibility.

STATE POLICY

would not change the present Hicksville Park and Parking District boundaries.

On two occasions we have attempted discussion of the problem with the proponents of the split and Levitt & Sons and, on both occasions, our offers were ignored. The pool question is squarely in the lap of the Levitt organization where it belongs and where we hope it will remain.

(2) SCHOOLS—We applaud the devoted and untiring efforts of the Hicksville School Board to meet the enormous problems of an expanding school population. Their efforts have been consistently successful and have not burdened us with a prohibitive tax load.

(3) POSTAL BOUNDARIES—We are opposed to any change in our Hicksville postal address. The proposal to change it to "Levittown" is by the same element that attempted to split the park and parking dist. It is just another of a series of attempts to disassociate us from Hicksville. We haven't been fooled in the past and we're not fooled now.

(4) STREET LIGHTING—We consider it adequate in our area except for the stretch running on Levittown Parkway from Old Country Road where there is a definite need for improved lighting facilities.

(5) COMMUTER PARKING—We favor expanded parking facilities for free use of residents of the Parking District. The Town, at present, will match with the District an amount up to $12,000 for the purchase of such facilities. We favor the immediate use of this fund.

(6) YOUTH PROBLEMS—We decry the hysterical approach to the problems of our youth. We will work with recognized civic, church and athletic groups to alleviate whatever difficulties may exist.

with them at the Oct. 2 meeting, 10 days before the annual meeting.
"Can nominations be made from the floor at the annual meeting?"
"No, beginning in 1952 nominations must be made by petition. Of course there can always be a write-in vote and space must be provided on the ballots for such a vote. Again tellers are appointed and a secret ballot taken for election of members to the Board of Education. A roll is again kept of the names and addresses of each year. After the results are announced any other business which may legally come before the meeting is transacted and the meeting adjourned."
"That appears to be a very lengthy agenda."
"Very true. Perhaps that is the reason many districts today are holding the annual meeting on two successive nights as provided for in the Law, the first night for the budget and the second for election of members of the Board of Education."

"What about special meetings?"
"Special meetings may be called by the Board of Education for several purposes as stated in the legal notice of the meeting. These meetings can be called to elect a board member to fill a vacancy, to secure approval of funds to purchase a new school site or to build a new school or to purchase school buses. A special meeting can be held to appropriate moneys for additional transportation or for any necessary expenditures not covered by the current budget."

COMBINATION DOORS WITH A ONE YEAR GUARANTEE?
That's the folks, there's more years of service—and greater value in Phenix combination doors.
These doors carry a service warranty against material and workmanship, sagging or failure of dove joints under normal use. While the guarantee period is for one full year only, it must be remembered that 12 months of use will test a door thoroughly. In this time the door will have been opened and closed thousands of times and subjected to all weather conditions. If any defects are to be discovered, they will become apparent long before a year has elapsed.
And Phenix says flatly that any defective or broken parts will be replaced or repaired free of charge—provided of course, that the door is correctly installed and registered through the dealer (CASHEL) from whom it was purchased. Few if any other combination doors on the market today carry an equal guarantee of satisfaction—another demonstration of the fact that Phenix quality is well worth having for your home.
So you see—because of Phenix double wedge-lock construction—the much stronger than ordinary construction, your purchase of this door will prove to be the best investment you can make in terms of long years, of trouble-free, satisfactory service.
We're sure we can fit you to size.

St. Martin Mothers Club Meets

By DOROTHY GUELPA
Hicksville 3-1218 W

Mrs. and Mrs. Macari of 15 Carolyn St., helped their daughter, Nancy, celebrate her first birthday last week with an outdoor party. Her guests were her grandmother, Mr. Macari of Flushing and Mrs. Mottl of Bethpage, Mrs. DiDomico and son, Anthony, of Hempstead, Mrs. Eleanor Heur and daughter, Eleanor, of Hicksville, Miss Morselli and Karen Brusock of Bethpage. A lovely birthday cake and icecream made the party a big success.

Mrs. Wendler of Winthorst Ave., was hostess at a Tupperware party held Thursday at St. Martin of Tours Church for the benefit of the Rosary Society.

FIRST FALL MEETING
Mrs. Dorothy Guelpa presided at the first fall meeting of the Mothers Club of St. Martin of Tours Tuesday, Sept. 23. Mrs. Virginia Simpkins, past president, was given a pin and carrying set in recognition of her service last year.

Pink and blue triptics were presented to Mrs. Simpkins, Mrs. Ann Hayes and Mrs. Betty Clemente for their babies who were born since the last meeting.

A lawn sprinkler donated by Godfrey's Farm Equipment was the dark horse prize which was won by Mrs. Jean Axmacher.

Mrs. Lydia McNamee, Mrs. Ruth Armstrong and Mrs. Dorothy Guelpa attended a meeting of the Nassau County Council of Catholic Women Monday in Merrick.

Louis Budenz, former editor of the Communicative Daily Worker, was the guest speaker. He spoke about teachers of Hofstra College who had been dismissed and of the McCarthy probe which he said is getting results despite the fact that Sen McCarthy started without too much knowledge of the workings of the Communist party in America.

Miss Fornari Wed
Miss Lorraine Fornari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Livio Fornari of 17 Barbara St., Bethpage, became the bride of David Briakman of New Hampshire, Sept. 21, at St. Martin of Tours Church. The Rev. Michael Keenan officiated.

Mrs. Robert Cook of Huntington was the matron of honor. Raymond Fornari, brother of the bride, was the best man.

A reception for 100 guests was held at Anselmi's Restaurant.

A Halloween dance will be held at the parish house of St. Martin of Tours Church on Oct. 25 sponsored by the Holy Name Society.

BETHPAGE - A new course, "Personal Analysis", will be offered by the Adult Education here for a five-week period starting on Thursday, Oct. 9, it was announced this week.

The course will be a series of psychological tests followed by individual counseling. Individual strength and weakness will be defined to develop better understanding in planning employment or additional education, according to the program director.

LEGAL NOTICE
STATE OF NEW YORK
DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION
WATER POWER AND CONTROL COMMISSION
In the Matter of the application of PLAINVIEW WATER DISTRICT
PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to Section 523, Article XI, of the Conservation Law, the Water Power and Control Commission will meet in the Plainview Fire House, Old Country Road, Plainview, in the town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, on the 7th day of October 1952, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon of that day for the purpose of hearing all persons, waterworks corporations, municipal corporations or other civil divisions of the State of New York that may be affected by the execution of the plans of the PLAINVIEW WATER DISTRICT for securing a new and additional supply of water, plans for which have been filed with the Water Power and Control Commission, at its office 90-75 Sutphin Blvd., Jamaica 2, New York, where the same are open for public inspection; and for the purpose of determining whether said plans are justified by public necessity, whether they provide for the proper and safe construction of all work connected therewith, whether they provide for the proper protection of the supply and watershed from contamination or provide for the proper filtration of such additional supply, and whether the same are just and equitable to the other municipalities and civil divisions of the State of New York and to the inhabitants thereof affected thereby; and whether said plans make fair and equitable provisions for the determination and payment of any and all legal damages to persons and property, both direct and indirect, which will result from the execution thereof.

The execution of such plans may affect lands situated in the county of Nassau, may also affect the flow of water in streams flowing in or through or underground waters in the county of Nassau, the riparian rights on said streams, and also the water rights of said streams.

All persons, waterworks corporations, municipal corporations or other civil divisions of the State of New York, who have objection to the execution of said plans, in order to be heard thereon, must file such objections thereto in writing and in duplicate in the office of the Water Power and Control Commission, 90-75 Sutphin Blvd., Jamaica 2, New York, N. Y., on or before the 6th day of October 1952. Every objection so filed must particularly specify the grounds thereof.

No person, waterworks or municipal corporation or local authority can be heard in opposition thereto except on objections so filed.
Dated, Albany, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1952.

J. C. Thompson
Secretary to the Commission.

2 New Bobcats In Cub Pack

BETHPAGE - Roy Merin and Joseph Minicossi were welcomed as Bobcats into Cub Pack 118 at a pack meeting Friday night held at the Powell Ave. School.

Awards presented during the meeting were: Peter Kent, gold arrow; Jack Hadjusek, gold arrow and silver arrow; James Wise, bear badge; Ralph Mais, wolf badge; John Maher, wolf badge, gold arrow and bear book; Wayne Whitaker, bear book; George Lee, silver arrow.

Skits were presented by the den on the theme for the month "Mail Goes Through."

The Cub Pack will take a trip to the L. I. Agricultural Institute Oct. 4. They will leave from the Powell Ave. School at 9 A.M.

The Cubs will join other Scouts on Oct. 18 for the annual pilgrimage to Teddy Roosevelt's grave in Oyster Bay.

A meeting of the parents of Cub Scouts will be held Tuesday, Oct. 7, at the Powell Ave. School at 8 P.M. Mothers of Den #2 will outline the theme for October, "Doorway to Adventure." Dave LeFeber, assistant district commissioner of BSA, will be a guest speaker.

BITTEN ON FACE
BETHPAGE - Patricia Devito, age 4, of 64 Martin Rd., was bitten on the left cheek by her dog as she was playing in the living room of her home on Sept. 24, police reported.

VFW Promoting Display of Flags

BETHPAGE - A program to promote the local public display of the American flag by the Bethpage VFW Post of Bethpage will start Saturday, Oct. 4, and will continue until Nov. 1, it was announced this week by Robert Burn.

Members of the VFW Post will set up booths in the business section each week-end of the month where residents upon the purchase of flags and receive instructions on how to display the flag.

The VFW Post will campaign to have an American flag in every home in Bethpage to be displayed on national holidays starting with Armistice Day on Nov. 11.

A representative of the VFW Post will call at individual homes if requests are phoned to Robert Burn at Hicksville 3-2276 J or Everett Baldwin at Hicksville 3-1539 J.

More Business Zone Area at Bethpage

BETHPAGE - Residential property zoning here has been changed to a business upon the application of William Scholz, it was announced by Leslie Diabrow, Town Clerk, this week.

The property is located at the intersection of Oak St., and Hempstead - Farmingdale Tpke. The Town Board granted the zone change with stipulation of a 50-foot marginal road along Hempstead Tpke. and a 25-foot setback on Walnut St., and Oak St.

FALLS FROM LADDER

BETHPAGE - John Murray, 50, of 33 Bayview Ave., Oyster Bay, fell from a ladder and broke his wrist at the warehouse construction on South Oyster Bay on Oct. 26. The workman was working on plumbing installation at the new warehouse. He was taken to North Country Community Hospital in a private car.

NORTH EAST REPORT: Children in Street Can Get Hurt

By LEE CHANIN
 Hicksville 3-8653 R

Leslie Chanin brought three newly acquired baby frogs to the Pet Show sponsored by the Kiwanis Club at East St. School playground Saturday. There was quite a big turnout of pets and children despite the cold wind.

Many local children are playing in the road and are in danger of being hurt by even the most careful motorists. It's always a great worry when backing out of a driveway that a small child will get in the path unseen by the driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Huber of 33

Violet Ave., are the parents of a 7 pound 1 ounce daughter, Deborah, born on Sept. 8.

Timothy McCarvey of 6 Violet
 Ave., was three years old on Sept.
 14. Arline Lutz of 2 Mabel St. had a big party Friday for her 15th birthday. Jeffrey Wilson of 2
 Gladys Pl., marked his first birthday on Sept. 26. His parents took him to White Plains for the weekend where they celebrated with their relatives.

The Walter Littmann family of 33 Libby Ave., moved last week end.

HICKSVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY: Picture Book Hours to Start

The first activities of the 1952-53 winter season at the Young People's Building of the Hicksville Public Library, Jerusalem Ave., at Second St., will take place next week.

Tuesday, Oct. 7th, the first of a new series of Picture Book Hours will take place. These will be led every Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 3:30 P.M. by Mrs. Rebecca Dodge, Children's Librarian. The Picture Book Hour has been planned for pre-school children and kindergartners; therefore it isn't really an hour, but just long enough to interest the children and encourage them to "grow" into the regular Story Hours later! Parents will find this a time in which to browse in the adjacent adults' library building; mother will welcome the opportunity to relax in the comfortable chairs and catch up on her current magazine and newspaper reading, as well as to check on the best buys in electric irons as shown by the Librarian's file of "Consumer Reports" and "Research Bulletins".

The regular Story Hour will resume on Saturday-morning, Oct. 11 at 11:15. This has been planned for grade school-age people. Remember the dates: Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 3 for the Picture Book Hour, and Saturday, Oct. 11 at 11:15 for the Story Hour.

During the month of September, the exhibit in the main library building has been around the theme of "South of the Border". We have received several inquiries concerning the colored costume sketches which form the display. They were originally done in water color by the artist Jo Bertas for his book "Latin American Costumes".

Space has limited us to a selection of five sketches portraying the costumes of Uruguay, Venezuela, Peru, Ecuador, and Chile. The Library has many books about Latin America: travel books, novels, reference books, maps, histories. Many of these are or were best-sellers, for instance, "Green Continent" by German Arniegas, "Inside Latin America" by John Gunther, and "Bloody President" by Fleur Cowles. Helen Wheeler, Library Director HICKSVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Old Bethpage Votes on Funds

OLD BETHPAGE—Vote upon expenditure of a special additional sum for school transportation will take place at a special meeting of School District 26 at the schoolhouse on Round Swamp Rd. here, next Monday night, Oct. 6, at 8:00 P.M. The Civic Assoc. of Old Bethpage will meet there the same evening an hour later with guest speakers William Alexa and James "Happy" Norman, GOP committee men.

(Continued from Page 1) the Hickville station, 1,000 monthly tickets, 1,200 daily trip tickets and 1,500 one-way daily trip tickets are sold, Carnahan said.

HALF SHOP HERE

Jack Harman made a 6-week house to house survey for the applicant of 1,601 homes in Hickville, it was reported. The survey showed that 850 shopped in Hickville, 43 in Levittown and the rest in other nearby towns.

Harman's report revealed that the 165 double parking meters in the business area "net $350 a week." He took a sample survey of 174 cars parked in the railroad station area and found that 58 cars were from Hickville, six from Bethpage, 10 from Brooklyns, 50 from Levittown, five from N.Y.C., three from Plainville, four from Westbury and the rest were from scattered locations.

Carnahan explained that the proposed branch Savings and Loan Assoc., office would "encourage home ownership, sell government bonds, money orders and modernization loans." The office would be in the heart of the business section with counter space and two to three tellers.

Henry G. Eisemann, president of the Bank of Hickville, and William E. Koutensky, president of the L.I. National Bank of Hickville were present at the hearing Thursday and Friday. They are expected to testify this week to show that the two banks now established in Hickville have met the financial needs of the community and are expanding to meet future requirements.

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

It's almost gotten to a point where people don't care but barring another late switch the Hicksville Field Club will open its 1952 campaign against the Jones Boys on the high school gridiron this Sunday.

The original opener slated for Southampton, last Sunday, was called off when the Suffolk club pleaded it was not ready for a contest. Hicksville agreed to drop the contest and Southampton promptly invited Patchogue to play.

That left the local club high and dry on what turned out to be an ideal day for a football game.

This Sunday the World Series will be in contention with the Black and White and a good many fans will stay home to see the Yankees beat the Dodgers.

Some will recall last Thanksgiving Day's tussle with the bruising Jones Boys and will attend. That was the championship game Hicksville won 7-6.

That win left its mark for the following Sunday the Black and White was so riddled with injuries that little Lindenhurst did the unheard of by beating Hicksville 26-18. The Field Club loses to top running opponents but not to the smaller ones.

When the team was first organized the spirit of the players and the fans ran high in this sector. At present everything is a little dormant and the Jones Boys contest will put to a test the drawing ability of some of the bigger Hicksville names.

Considering the competition, anything over 800 persons would represent a case for those who worked and got name ball players for the team this year.

Repeated mention of the fact that this will mark the return of Ed Coleman and Ray Halleran has worn the patience of the fans a little thin.

In plain words they are anxious for action and are fed up with talk.

At present there is an emprise on the team that isn't doing it any good. The powers that be absolutely refuse to purchase new uniforms or even replace the unsightly ones that the players must wear!

A tight hold on the purse strings is admirable, but the players want to look like a football team and are willing to forgo any rewards they may get to field an attractive team.

It has always been a mark of the Hicksville Field Club to make the best appearance on the field and many want that standard maintained.

Annually the team must fall back on the businessmen of the village for its major support. Those men respond to the idea that the team is good for the village and are sold the idea that it helps the players.

We think it is consistent with most people's thinking that some of that support—which is outstanding for a Nassau County village—should go to making the team look like something.

And when the players are willing to go along with the expenditure who should stop them!

For the game Sunday we take Hicksville, 12-7.

We must go with the book this Saturday and pick Oceanside to dump Hicksville High 25-7.

Bethpage High School has been admitted to the North Shore Athletic League Eastern Division and will start varsity competition.

This will not mark a new opponent for Hicksville, according to Bethpage folks, since it is their claim that their boys have been the backbone of Farmingdale High in the past.

Farmingdale is a traditional rival of the Comets and the record will support the Bethpage contention.

TOUGH ONE NEXT SATURDAY:

Great Neck Rolls Over Comets

GREAT NECK—Hicksville High gave away far too much height, weight and experience, here Saturday, as undefeated Great Neck strictly ran over the Comets 39-7. A crowd of 900 persons watched the Blazers rumble to their tenth straight victory in a two-year span with only a 43-yard touchdown run by Howard Speedling providing excitement for Orange and Black followers.

While the scoreboard showed a definite beating for the Comets they came through the contest in fine physical shape. This is a happy point for the Orange since this Saturday the Comets entertain a strong Oceanside team at Hicksville and will need all its stamina for the test.

NO CONTEST

Hicksville contributed many mistakes in its own downfall. The passing was poor and fumbles costly but the Blazers could have accomplished the same ends without them such was their margin of power of the losers.

Inside of three minutes, Great Neck led 14-0. On its second scrimmage play Hicksville elected a pass that Hank Spira intercepted and returned 25 yards to the Hicksville five. Jim Mastro banged over left tackle for the score.

Two minutes later a fourth down fumble gave the Blazers possession on the Comet 32. Jack Cohen then crashed over the leftside and went all the way to score.

Ahead 14-0, Great Neck quickly gave signs that it was relenting, but Hicksville could not cope with the powerful line and just before the quarter ended the score went to 21-0 when the Blazers rolled off 59 yards in 12 scrimmage plays.

Botto Dinner For 40 Guests

HICKSVILLE — Botto Bros. softball team has begun its round of victory celebrations and will have its annual Dinner Dance at the Alibi Restaurant on Wednesday night, Oct. 8.

An informal gathering of the team was held at the home of co-sponsor Robert Botto at Alexander Ave., Thursday night.

Some 40 guests have been invited to the Alibi Dinner and later in the month the Village of Rockville Centre will fetter the Botto club at a dinner in honor of the Hicksville Club's annexation of the 1952 championship in that Night League.

BASEBALL CLASSIC

On country lane and city street, we hear the sound of marching feet. Deserted homes and shops shut tight are further signs of wholesale flight. Have these good folks been plagued by fate? Or, have they started much too late? For, all of them have the same aim... to see that first World Series game.

The main aim of every car owner is to get to his destination as quickly and safely as possible. That presupposes the services of a skilled mechanic. For such expert car repairs and for that all-important preventive maintenance care, make regular visits to the Broadway Service Station. Your Friendly Texaco Dealer, Broadway and James Street, next to Post Office. Phone HI 3-2634.

From then on it was mostly a restrained offense for the victors. Never once in the contest did they pass although they got another score in the second period when Hicksville fumbled on its own two. Mastro took only one play to go the required distance.

SPEEDLING GOES

Just before the half, Walt Rhind and Joe Celentano combined for a first down on the losers 42. Time had expired on the clock but Great Neck was detected slugging and the defensive foul cost them 15 yards and allowed Hicksville one additional play.

The Comets made the most of it. Joe DeVaul faded back for the apparent desperation pass but Speedling swung around from his right-half post and took the ball from DeVaul. He just cleared the left end and then thundered down the sideline 43 yards to a touchdown.

Rhind, a good driver despite the odds, rammed over for the extra point.

Great Neck picked up two more touchdowns in the second half. The varsity team secured the first one and the second stringers got the other.

In the fading minutes De Vault hit Speedling with a pass good for 31 yards and then tossed to Lou Millevolte. The 110-pound halfback scampered six yards with it and then lateraled to end Ted DeLay who dashed to the 11-yard stripe as the game ended.
