Sam Mazel, chairman of the project, invites everyone to use the record facilities to send a voice from one of the folks back home to the men away from home. Records may be made by friends and relatives of any man in service, stationed overseas or in the states. One person or several in one family or one group may send a message on the one record.

After the records are cut, the JWV will address, package and mail them free of charge.

New Record Vote Nails Down Republican Control

Mid-Island communities came through with their traditional Republican pluralities, Tuesday, to help put Dwight D. Eisenhower in the White House as the first GOP president in 20 years. A record-breaking vote was cast as over 14,000 went to the polls in 15 Hicksville-Plainview election districts. Incumbent Congressman Ernest Greenwood of Bay Shore, while making the strongest showing of any Democratic candidate in this area, was defeated by youthful GOPer Stuyvesant Wainwright of East Hampton.

Oyster Bay Township with reports of five districts still missing, gave Eisenhower 34,097 and Adlai Stevenson 12,524.

Vote tabulation was slowed, in districts where the turnout far exceeded the capacity of voting machines and paper ballots had to be utilized. The 27th District in Plainview voted 1,335 as 917 cast for Ike and 498 for Adlai.

The 51st Plainedge District topped that mark for this area with over 1400 votes cast, giving Ike 1004 and Stevenson 404.

McCABE VICTOR
Arthur Isaacs, Hicksville candidate on the Democratic ticket for Township councilman, made no special impression on the voters. He got 12,891 with six districts missing and Republican Dudley McCabe received 34,500.

Hundreds gathered at the Hicksville Masonic Temple on Election night to receive the returns. However, at 2:30 yesterday (Wednesday) morning when Eisenhower took the air to acknowledge the victory there were less than a dozen remaining by the TV set. Rothman's in East Norwich was again the scene of the GOP township gathering and all party candidates appeared during the evening. Congressman Leonard W. Hall eventually arrived from New York headquarters to lead a victory celebration shortly after 8 A.M.

Results published in this issue are unofficial and incomplete for some districts where absentee ballots were not included. The votes were tabulated by the Herald staff at GOP headquarters as reported by election district workers.

There was an election eve flurry of excitement in Bethpage where it was reported for a time that an election district registration book had "vanished". Police said they found the book had been taken (Continued on Page 5)

Heart of New Trading Area

HEMPSTEAD—The phenomenal industrial growth of the two eastern counties on Long Island, coupled with a population gain of nearly 500,000 since 1940, a buying power in excess of $2.5 billion annually, and a distinct change in the public's buying habits, were the prime factors governing their decision to establish a $25,000,000 regional shopping center in Hicksville, it was stated today by Walter G. Stacker and Leonard L. Frank, builders.

ANOTHER NEW SCHOOL, this one urgently needed by Plainview, as it appears to Architect Frederic P. Wiedersum. A discussion meeting on the project to construct an 18-room elementary school for the district has been called for Wednesday night, Nov.

12, at the Mannetto Hill School building, as explained in Neighbor Dowling's column on page 11 in this issue. The bond issue for the structure will be the subject of a public vote on Nov. 19 between 8 and 10 P.M.

Henry Gebhardt showed the girls how a fire department is operated and explained the system of alarms and signals used in Hicksville. The scouts were excited at the prospect of sitting in the driver's seat of the fire engine and were especially interested in learning how to read the calls when the siren blows. An unscheduled highlight of the tour when an alarm was sounded and the scouts saw the theory which they had been watching turn into actual fact.

Dear Jean:

Several candidates were busy in the days before Election proving their childhood connection with Hicksville. DUDLEY McCABE, councilman candidate, pointed out he was born here and moved to the South Shore at the age of 7. THOMAS F. DOUGHERTY of Baldwin, according to a news release, "trekked along Nicholas St. to the community's only school 50 years ago". The Democratic candidate for Supreme Court came here as a small child, later moved with family to East Northport. . . . Many local families were among the 120,000 who enjoyed the Republic Aviation Family Day celebration over the weekend. There were 98 cases of sore feet reported as the only casualties. . . . Signs prohibiting U-Turns on Jerusalem Ave. at the Hicksville RR station were posted a full 10 days before the public hearing on the ordinance making them legal. The hearing is this morning (Thursday) in Oyster Bay Town Hall. . . . JAMES BARR of Bethpage, present manager of the Soda Spa on South Bway, Hicksville, next to Stop N Shop, and TED KELLY, now with Schaefer Brewing Co. will take over as owners of the Spa effective next Monday, Nov. 10. It will become the KELLY-BARR SODA SPA. The store was opened 20 months ago by JOHN UPTON and FRANK VONBARGEN. The new owners are related to FRANKIE and JOHNNY. . . . "UNCLE CHARLIE" SMITH, long-time newspaper editor, died on Saturday at the age of 79. His funeral was held on Election Day which was appropriate since so much of his writing was in the field of politics. Election night had seemed quite the same in recent years with his absence from ROTHMAN's as the votes were tallied. . . . Some amusement is being provided for friends of our Editor since they heard he is giving a book review at the Library on Nov. 20. "When did you find the time to read a book?" they want to know. . . . First appearance for SANTA CLAUS in Hicksville will be the Rosary-Altar Society Christmas Sale on Nov. 14, starting at 2:30 P.M. He will make his official Big entrance into town on Saturday, Dec. 6. . . . BMA is scheduled to award contract this week for installation of Christmas lighting on Broadway. . . .

Hicksville residents came to the aid of SIDNEY HAUSMAN of Long Beach who was seriously ill in Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, last week. He was in need of AB positive blood but when volunteer blood donors called the hospital, they were told that the patient was off the critical list and not in need of the blood. But on behalf of Mr. HAUSMAN, who formerly had a business here, we thank you kind donors. . . . An excellent opportunity to send a personal Thanksgiving message to someone you know in the service will take place this Sunday, Nov. 9, at the HERALD office next to the post office from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. and it's all free, courtesy of the Jewish War Veterans Post. . . .

The heavy turn out of voters on Tuesday brought protests from residents who were, in effect, deprived of their privilege to vote they said. There were long delays on all sides and complaints about those "who knew someone" being permitted to cut ahead of those willing to await their turn. . . . Hicksville Republican club held a Returns Party at the Masonic Temple for members, Tuesday night. This was a change for many from the traditional participation at Rothman's. . . .

The traffic signal on Old Country Rd. at Levittown Pkwy was put in operation last Saturday. . . . The street light in front of the Post Office at Hicksville has not been lighted for better than a week and we are still watching for the light to shine in front of Spiro's on Bway. . . . JIMMY COOLEY has been made "official Scout" for NEAL ASHBY of the Daily Mirror for his "Hi-Neighbor" column. If you know some one with an unusual hobby, etc., JIMMY would appreciate hearing about them. . . . Construction of the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza on North Broadway will start early next year.

Knights, Friends Honor Wulfsen

SYOSSET—Over 200 Knights of Columbus members and friends gathered at the Stockholm Restaurant, here on Election Eve, to honor William J. Wulfsen of Hicksville, Treasurer of the Joseph Barry Council.

On the dias were Rev. George M. Bittermann, Chaplain and speaker of the evening; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sullivan; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan; Father Lawrence Ballweg, Assistant Pastor of St. Ignatius; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Douglas, Grand Knight; District Deputy Charles Mulligan of Mineola and guests of honor Mr. and Mrs. William Wulfsen. Sullivan was toastmaster of the evening.

Levitt Emerges As Aggressor

By FRED J. NOETH

THE FACT that William Levitt has assumed personal command of the perpetual effort to alter the boundaries of Hicksville has not escaped notice. It must have been an almost last ditch decision for him to come out publicly to guide his hand-picked "volunteer" committee in the aggressor role. We say "almost last ditch" because we feel certain that there is at least one more trick in the bag—the creation of Levittown City at the expense of its neighbors.

Most discouraging is the way the daily press has fallen into line, ignoring the record as published in their own columns, publishing such downright lies as "the Hall has been the object of the controversy with Hicksville for over two years", or "the town board turned down Levitt's offer of the Hall", or "North Levittown is no-man's land between Hicksville and Levittown".

None of these statements in quotes are true.

The first public statement by Mr. Levitt on his intention to put the Hall on the shoulders of the taxpayers was made at the meeting called last week.

Mr. Levitt was well aware of the fact that he was building the Hall in an area outside of Levittown and that there would be difficulties in trying to pin that section of Hicksville into his super-city. In fact, some claim he built the Hall where it stands just for the purpose of pinning it into the super-city plan. Certainly the location is not central for his development. It stands at the northerly most extreme of his project. A much more logical location would have been on Hempstead Tpke., squarely in the center of Levittown.

But the lie that has been circulated over and over again is now being accepted as fact—a pure and simple propaganda tactic. Now we find a rental agency for the Allied Homes on Jerusalem Ave., in no way connected with the Levitt organization as far as we can determine, taking full page advertisements in the New York City papers and stating the group of stores now under construction are in "Levittown". And then, to make the locations more enticing, they add "a few blocks from Hicksville High School."

In fact, one news article in a real estate section of the Long Island Daily Press said the stores are "south of Old Country Rd., Levittown."

All of which make us give some thought to the question raised at the Hicksville Civic meeting last week about our new high school site on Newbridge Rd. School Trustee Alan Carpenter was asked if the site might be embraced if Levittown incorporates as a city since Old Country Rd. has been claimed so often as a northerly boundary. We might all ask ourselves if an investment by our taxpayers of almost $70,000 which has been paid for this tract is not in jeopardy until the aggressiveness of Mr. Levitt and his satellites is halted, once and for all.

No matter how you look at it, incorporation of Hicksville as a village is the only way this question can be settled for once and for all.

Asks Correction

By RICHARD EVERS
In your column "The Legionnaire" by Bob Mangels I noticed several incorrect statements. While I am an honor student, I am not "tops in my class". I will graduate in February. I am now a student teacher in Hicksville High School. These corrections will be greatly appreciated. 24 S. Elm St., Hicksville.

The Legionnaire

'Twas a wonderful party held at the Legion Hall last Saturday night in celebration of Halloween. Over 85 Legionnaires and their friends thoroughly enjoyed themselves cavorting in myriad costumes appropriate to the occasion and dancing to the fine music of the Tony Bell Trio.

Costume prizes were awarded to Guy Smith who was easily the "elegantist" gentleman present, Betty Emmel, the fattest young lady this side of Ringling Brothers and to John and Adelaide Nees (the devil and his witch) as the best couple in attendance.

For those who missed the party we suggest you talk to any of the following Legionnaires who were there and maybe you won't miss the next Legion affair. Enjoying the party were Rudy and Jackie House, Bob and Betty Beard, Art and Kitty Bletsch, the Barnetts, Farnhams, Carpenters, Ruth and Walt Schlichting, Henry and Anna Hrengel, the Coane's, Williams and a host of others.

The more we think it over—did the ladies avoid us in the broom dance because of our feminine attire or???

We had the pleasure of listening to the New York State representative to Girls State, Friday night, at the Hempstead Legion Post. We attended the meeting with Commander Ed. Becker and County Legislative Officer Al Vitale. It's great to hear a fine (and pretty too) teenager return and speak so glowingly of the knowledge of government gained in this Auxiliary companion piece to the Legion Boys State Program. Too bad every youngster of Nassau can't have the same experience.

During that same County Meeting a resolution proposed by the Lawrence-Cedarhurst Post was approved for transmittal to higher headquarters regarding absentee balloting for armed service personnel in the four States still not permitting it.

Also appearing before the meeting was Dr. Russell Sherman who for the last 25 years has been actively engaged in the Legion's Americanism program. And one last bit from Friday's meeting: Occasionally, as a part of the Legion's Child Welfare program, quick clothing assistance is requested of the Legion and here to for the big draw back on rush service has been the lack of central storage facilities where clothes could be sorted and prepared for distribution in a leisurely manner prior to actual need. Such storage facilities are now available and any contribution of clean, wearable children's clothing is welcome. Therefore if any of our readers find they have children's clothing they would care to donate to this program, either now or in the future, won't you bring it to the clubhouse. We will see to it personally that it is transported to the collection point where it will be made available to all of Nassau County.

Think all you Legionnaires can look forward shortly to a free and very fine social evening at the clubhouse where no one will be expected to work. For once it was planned to make an affair all play. Look for more on this in future columns. . . . Another school dedication due in December with possibly two more in January. Again the V.F.W. joins the Legion in providing the nation's colors for these schools. . . . Membership growing a little more quickly with renewals from Howard Parton, George Mills, Martin Duerr, Bill Bosch and Rudy House and another new Legionnaire added to the rolls—Andy Mandrone. . . . Are the "Gifts For The Yanks" containers in a prominent spot? Hope so because we think the people of Hicksville want to fill them. . . . One group now has regular Friday night pinocle games at the Hall. They know how to make use of their club. Why don't more of you try it? . . .

All Legionnaires and Auxiliary members who can possibly do so please report to the Memorial at the High School 10:30 A.M. Tuesday, Nov. 11, for brief Armistice Day Ceremonies.

Until next week remember—THE LEGION HAS A PLACE IN YOUR LIFE—YOU HAVE A PLACE IN THE LEGION!

BOB MANGELS

JWV Corner

By WILLIAM OLITSKY

Since my 21st birthday I was given the privilege as a citizen to vote. My father was a Democrat, as the ward boss would say—a god one. Dad would walk in the booth on election day, boom boom—he voted. Boys, some of the guys he pulled the lever for were for hunger! No one was going to call my vote. Yes, I'm a registered Democrat because of its principles as a whole. But I'll call my shots. I'll take time out and see what the man has done, what his intentions are, not, I'm against this. I don't like that.

This brings me back to last week's column. If I didn't make it strong enough or was misunderstood, it was not meant to be a political backing for either party. It was meant as it read: don't you politicians make a football out of the veterans! Please be considerate when bills come up for the boys who fought and bled and need those hospital beds. I'll back off for none. Be there one disabled veteran in need of a bed, no matter of his race or creed or whatever veterans' affiliation he is, with my last breath, it will be done. If there is a politician from the president down who is hampering the proper care for these, our disabled, he doesn't deserve to be honored as a representative in my book and should not be supported.

To those men who have been honored to represent us, I say congratulations and may you all, with the help of Our Almighty, do and think a good thought to us, your contingents, don't get even with those who didn't vote your way because we who did vote may also suffer.

Don't forget the Mitchell Field Hospital visit which takes place tonight (Thursday). Meet at the entrance of the hospital 9-5168 to make sure.

We had a well acquainted night on Oct. 25. Comdr. Sid Kaplan wishes to thank his committee Morris Stillman, Dave Katz, Dave Richman for making it a huge success.

We planned future visits on our hospital program and the next night a very big and successful visit was made. An auction was also held with Nate Halfand, vice commander of the Major Lehman Post of Brooklyn, as the auctioneer. Nate is now a resident of Hicksville. Some of the lucky buyers were Sam Moez, Arthur Traidman, Jane and Hy Pokard, Fred Silverman, Ruth Stillman, Stella Markowitz, Lorraine Spector, Claire Silverman, Betty Ducker, Lester Weiss, Bette Katz, H. Fried and I got away with a pyrex set and perfume.

Hicksville Post No. 655 Jewish War Veterans

A Halloween party for the vets at Northport Hospital was held Oct. 30 and we took over booths, Wheel of Fortune, and Toss the Hoop game. The senior hostesses were Mrs. Elliot Lauer, Mrs. Bob Markowitz, Mrs. William Olitsky, Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mrs. Irv Grabow. The post hosts were Seymour Lang and Dave Richman.

Our Pleasure Hunt will be extended from Nov. 15 to Saturday, Dec. 13. The awards are almost all in. There's one more to be received on Dec. 12.

INSIDE OUR SCHOOLS

Transporting Handicapped

By ALLEN E. DAVIS

One of the lesser known but important services provided by the Hicksville Board of Education and Superintendent, Dr. Erie H. LeBarron, is transportation of the physically handicapped children. The term "physically handicapped" is interpreted in Hicksville as meaning those children within the district who are incapable of getting themselves to school or other public agency due to physical disability. Before a child may be transported as physically handicapped his disability must be attested to by Miss Ruth Holder, the School Nurse.

Children in the physically handicapped group usually include those suffering from epilepsy, cerebral palsy and post-polio cases. Children suffering from severe permanent or temporary injuries may be transported if school authorities determine that travelling on a regular carrier could be injurious to them.

Unlike hundreds of youngsters picked up by buses at certain stops, the physically handicapped child is picked up at his home. This removes the necessity of the child having to have weather changes and is a service to parents since many of the children require much care and assistance while moving about.

CONTRACT LET

For the Hicksville district the handicapped children are transported via station wagon by M. L. Chittenden. Contracts are let by the School Board for this service as are the other means of transporting children.

Efforts are taken to provide every service to the children and yet to keep costs to a minimum by eliminating long hauls. For example, children attending the Cerebral Palsy Center in Roosevelt are transported by the Hicksville carrier to Division Avenue, Levittown, and remaining distance by another carrier. Children formerly transported to a Sight Saving class now attend such a class here in the East Street School, Hicksville. (This class has been described in the Herald earlier in this series).

The transportation of the physically handicapped child requires special skills on the part of the carrier. Not only must the carrier be experienced with children but must be thoroughly acquainted with the special problems presented by the handicapped child. How to deal with the diabetic and the epileptic are just two of the many problems arising.

Dr. LeBarron states that the present carrier, M. L. Chittenden, has been capably fulfilling every aspect of this difficult job.

BREAKS COLLAR BONE

HICKSVILLE—Grace Briody of 46 Miller Rd. fractured her collar bone in a fall in her home on Nov. 2, according to police reports.

OUR NEW CONGRESSMAN, Stuyvesant Wainwright (at right) has his arm raised in a victory salute by Leonard W. Hall, Township Republican leader. Wainwright got 23,090 votes in the township and incumbent Democrat Ernest Greenwood received 12,979. The first N. Y. congressional district embraces all of Suffolk county also where GOP chalked up a sweeping victory. (Photo by Frank Mallett).

OFF SOUTH BROADWAY:

New School Is Board Victory

By BUNNY LAUER
Hicksville 3-2794-J

The dedication of our Lee Ave. School on Sunday chalked up another one of many victories for our local school board. The exercises were very impressive and the speaker, Dr. Paul Dawson Eddy, was truly great. We should all be very proud to have such a wonderful school board who by careful planning are making all our needed schools possible. Yet like everything else, there are people who criticize.

It was with great interest that I read a letter in last week's Herald reminding the people that the School Board of District 17 (and what is wrong with Hicksville? we are proud of the fact and it is Hicksville School Board). The letter continued with a few more foolish suggestions like setting aside a period at open meetings for discussion and question by the public. Meetings of that type could well last for two or three days John Doe could start a filibuster on why are the boards green instead of black like when he went to school, huh? You know the public had faith in the people they elected to serve them so for goodness sake let them serve in peace. It's true everyone is entitled to know what is going on but there are no deep dark secrets being kept from anyone.

We're all real proud of little Patricia Ziegler, 3 1/2, of 5 Linden Blvd. who won a pocketbook as the first prize for being the prettiest little girl at the Halloween party sponsored by the Kiwanis, Friday night Patricia has a sister, Jayne, and a brother, Griffith.

Kenneth Mallon of Cottage Blvd. celebrated his seventh birthday with a Hop Along Cassidy party. Yipee, those cowboys sure rode high. Saturday afternoon. They had spiked cokes with a cherry in them, plenty of hamburgers and loads of candy, peanuts and ice cream. The birthday cake was in the shape of a horse shoe and the candles stood in miniature boots. All the guests received cowboy equipment as prizes. Cowboy and cowgirls present were: Jerry and Peter Roth, Bobby and Sheila Remma, Allen Newton, Larry Gross, Lynn Silvers and Maryann Rosa. Everyone had a swell time and mama sure was ready for the bunk house when the gang left.

Gladys and John McLoughlin of Lee Ave. are off to Florida by car. Grandma and grandpa are here from Brooklyn to look after Gerard and Dennis. Boy, that's the way to travel, without the constant nagging of "I want a drink, I'm tired, do I have to sit in the car the rest of my life?"

Isn't this going to be a wonderful world from now on! You did your duty and voted and your candidates got in. All the campaign promises they made. Well, now all we have to do is sit back and wait.

HICKSVILLE GABLES:

Meeting Ike Was Big Thrill

By RUTH SCHULZ

If there is one real around here with her head in the clouds since Oct. 28, she is Mrs. Barbara Seinen of 8 South Elm St. On that date, she had the honor of presenting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower with a bouquet of flowers and receiving a handshake in return. Barbara says she still doesn't remember exactly what she said or did, but it was a thrill she will never forget.

Did any of you get a chance to see the kids parade at East St. School on Halloween? They were really cute with their varied costumes and get-ups, and all seemed to enjoy the individual parties set up for them by the classroom mothers and the P.T.A. I had the pleasure of assisting Mrs. Florence Schaub, class mother of Mrs. Wesley's first grade group, along with Mrs. Jean Faichney and Mrs. Josephine Picari. The children entertained us with a few songs and dances, which we all enjoyed immensely.

Now to get down to the birthdays hereabouts. On Oct. 25, it was the 21st birthday of Arthur Baldwin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baldwin of 13 Gables Rd. Arthur is currently serving in the U. S. Navy, but was at home on a five day pass to celebrate.

Miss Judith Talbot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Talbot of 13 Gables Drive, had her eighth birthday Oct. 30, while Miss Doreen Jakabek of 28 Gables Rd. observed her fifth birthday on Oct. 31.

Miss June Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Olson, Jr. of 303 Plainview Rd. celebrated her fourth birthday with a party given in her honor on Oct. 28. Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Horn, of the same address, and Mr. and Mrs. John Olson, Sr. of Connecticut were present, as were Susan and Janet Caldwell, Beverly and Charles Harrigan, Clifford Goff, David Cassara, Constance and Mrs. Gibson Terry and Linda Nicholson and Howard Haagen.

Another birthday on this same day, Oct. 28, was celebrated by Miss Ingrid Schelp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schelp of 25 Gables Rd., who was also four years old. Judging from the amount of shrieks, squeals, and laughter that emanated from all present, would say a good time was had by all. All included Elizabeth Armstrong, Margie and Donald McGee, Doreen and Ellen Jakabek, Joan Pascel, Christine Seith.

BRIAR PARK, PLAINVIEW:

Facts About Adult Education

By ETHEL ROONEY
HI 3-5324

Hello Folks,
Sorry to have missed a week again but it was my first week back at work and time just didn't seem to come out even for me. Things have levelled off now, so here I am.

We have a new neighbor. Robert Tuttle and his family have moved to their new home at 19 Virginia Ave. Mrs. Gumburg, who lived there for two years, has moved to Florida and although I'm sure all her neighbors regret losing her, they are very happy to have such nice new neighbors. As you all know, Mr. Tuttle is Principal of Our Mannelto Hill School.

Nicholas Girolamo has asked me to urge you all to attend this next meeting of the Mannelto Hill

P-TA. In fact, he gave me a letter about the subject of the evening — "ADULT EDUCATION FOR PLAINVIEW", and I know I can't express things any better so here it is. "Many expressed and many more unexpressed feelings center around the 'cost' of an Adult Education Program for our District. That no matter how fine it would be for our district to have educational courses for our adults, we can't afford it at the present time. Wait until we first get on our feet."

In view of our school tax problem this is perfectly understandable, but in the light of the facts as they will be presented by Elery Bean (who has had many years experience in Adult Education programming) and Arthur Bunce, who is in his second year of program ming these fears of "cost" are negligible if not completely false. If we could get the people of our district out EN MASSE to see and hear for themselves from these experienced administrators on Thursday, Nov. 6 at 8:15 P.M., they would be able to decide for themselves in light of the facts.

The letter contained much more information, including the fact that State Aid of $2.50 per 40 minute period or $3.75 per clock hour, plus registration and tuition fees would just about pay for the program. Why not come to the meeting tonight (Thursday Nov. 6th) and hear for yourself? It is not only your privilege to learn about the program, it is your obligation as a good citizen of the community to come just this one evening and listen to the facts on the subject. I hope I'll see you all there.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS:

Discuss New School On Nov. 12

By JOHN DOWLING

The Board of Education of Union Free School District 19 Plainview, will hold a public meeting next Wednesday evening Nov. 12 at the Mannelto Hill School for the purpose of discussing the new school which the district's children badly need. The vote to approve the bond issue for this building will take place on Nov. 19.

DOWLING

For a month now this column has been carrying all the information possible concerning the proposed new building which has resulted in much favorable comment by the residents of Plainview. Many people have been asking questions concerning the school and the great majority have indicated by their queries and accompanying remarks that they are completely aware of the immediate need for the school and will vote accordingly.

An analysis of the questions being asked reveals that most Plainviewites recognizing the urgent need for additional educational facilities are primarily concerned over whether or not they are getting the full value of their money in the proposed new building.

The answer to this is found in two basic factors: First of all the $1,250,000 bond issue necessary to erect our school is calculated on 1952 building construction costs. This, of course, means that we are getting the full value of our money according to present financial standards. It does not mean that we are getting the full value of our money if we attempt to go back to costs of construction in 1940, 1946 or even 1951.

In retrospect, utilizing the same amount of money needed to complete our present plans, there is no doubt that probably in 1940 or 1946 a million and a quarter dollars might have been sufficient to construct two schools or possibly three. As we all know such is not the case in 1952.

Because every resident of Plainview is a shareholder or stockholder in our educational corporation we must take a realistic view no matter what the picture may be of present day construction costs.

The second basic factor, and to this writer's way of thinking is by far the most important, revolving around whether or not we are getting the full value of our money is the return on our investment. This, as many know, is an elementary principle in the financial world.

The difference in this case, however, lies in the fact that the ultimate return on our investment in a new school will reveal itself in our children. This is the greatest investment-return a parent may acquire. This is what every parent is striving for. This is what every parent wants—a well-rounded and thorough education for his children.

Parents in Plainview can see to it that their children are afforded this opportunity by giving to them the new school they need at this time.

About Halloween, Other Parties

By RAE CANTILLI

The beginning of a really festive season began Friday night with Halloween. Kids of all ages, shapes and sizes dressed in everything but the kitchen sink, hurried from house to house collecting their trick or treats. I tell you I certainly enjoyed some of the loot my little one collected. Naturally, I couldn't let her eat ALL the things by herself.

Miss Lillian Maggio of 35 Blanche St. celebrated her 16th birthday with a tremendous Sweet Sixteen Party given by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gus Maggio. The party was held at the AmVet Hall in Hicksville, and there were more than 100 people present. Music was supplied by John Marapola and his orchestra. Lillian, who is a Junior at Oyster Bay, certainly was a very lucky girl. Happy birthday, and all the luck in the world for future success.

An Adult Education Program is in the process of forming. Of course without public support, such a program would be impossible. Nicholas Girolamo, teacher at the Mannelto Hill School here has been working very hard along with others to try to get such a program started. As I have been told, there are a lot of people interested, and quite a few people who think such a program should be postponed for awhile, along with people who just don't understand. Tonight Nov. 6 at 8:15, there will be an open discussion of this program. Elery Bean, who has many years experience in Adult Education programming and Arthur Bunce, who is in his second year of programming, will be at this gathering. If all the people in the District would come out for this meeting, they can hear all the facts of such a program. So don't forget, Nov. 6, Thursday, at the Mannelto Hill School.

We have a new addition to our little family group. As you know, I have two children and a cat. Now we have a darling little full grown boxer. I use the word "darling" very loosely. I'm scared to death of him, but my husband knows that he is his dog, so what can I do?

Well, that is all for now. If you have any news, please give me a call.

Edwards Seeks Water Election

PLAINVIEW—John Edwards of 27 Audrey Ave. announced today that he is a candidate for election to the Board of Commissioners of the Plainview Water District in the election on Dec. 2, 1952. Edwards is an experienced graduate engineer, an active member of the Plainview Civic Assoc. and has recently been serving with the Building and Grounds committee of the Plainview School District, his sponsors announce. The required petition to place his name on the ballot has been circulated and filed. He plans to ask the Town Board of Oyster Bay to provide supervision for the election.

Anyone desiring to run as a candidate for this office must have the petition with the required 25 names filed with the Ralph Atchue, secretary of the Water Board, by Nov. 12, 1952.

5 Join Fire Dept.

PLAINVIEW — Five residents recently became members of the Plainview Volunteer Fire Co. It was disclosed by Chief August Keute. They are Frank Bergmann of Elmwood Ave., Gus Diemick of Midwood Dr., Albert Pink of 67 Virginia Ave., Bob Tronaman of Old Country Rd. and Tim Sullivan of Old Country Rd.

A nation can achieve greatness only to the extent to which it gives all its citizens a chance to live as individuals.

First Bazaar Is Great Success

PLAINVIEW—A very successful first bazaar by the Mannelto Hill P-TA was held Oct. 24 and 25 at the school. Mrs. Alfred Stauber, chairman of the bazaar, wishes to thank the businessmen, friends, neighbors, members and patrons who contributed to the success of the affair.

Novel orchids donated by Frank Albrecht of Jericho were awarded to Mrs. Goffredo of South Oyster Bay Rd. who is 22 years old as the youngest mother present on Saturday and to Mrs. Oscar Patcott of Blanche St. who is 77 years of age as the oldest mother present.

Famously theatre tickets to the Hickeville Theatre were awarded to Mrs. Shirley Davidson of 8 Island St., George Wunderlich of the 6th grade, Eileen Goulding of the 1st grade, and George McLoughlin of the 6th grade.

Mrs. Stauber announced that many Christmas and greeting cards are left over from the bazaar and may be purchased from any member of the P-TA.

A meeting of the Priscilla Guild of the Plainview Lutheran Chapel will be held tomorrow (Friday) night at the chapel at 8 P.M.

NEW NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZES:

Hogan Heads Woodbury Civics

HICKSVILLE—After numerous delays the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc. really got rolling with its initial meeting in the High School Oct. 28. The turnout was encouraging and definitely harbingers good things for the association.

Immediately after the meeting was called to order the temporary executive committee was disbanded and elections were held. The following officers were elected to serve until Dec. 31, 1952: President, Tom Hogan; Vice-President, Al Rodacker; Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Ed Simpson; Financial Secretary, Herman Gensinger; and Treasurer, Pierre Charbonnet.

Mrs. Nigri, Mrs. Ragusen, and Messrs. Ruvio, Gertzen, Aleasio, Nankville, McNally, Landau, Massey, Luxon, Brady, Mastrella, Koukos, Manta, Damato, Larkin, Traina, and Ronzino were elected to the executive committee.

It was decided that those nominated and those elected for the ensuing two months shall be considered nominees for those offices for 1953. Elections will be held on Dec. 18, and additional nominations will be in order on Nov. 20.

An executive committee meeting was scheduled for tonight Nov. 6 and Ed. Mastrella, Chairman of the Rules Committee, announced a meeting for last Monday.

The new group is presently restricted to the Stackler and Frank development off Woodbury Road. Regular monthly meetings will be held in the East St. School at 8:00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month.

After the meeting President Hogan made this statement: "The fact that this association has been organized is to a very great extent due to the work and contributions of the following: Jim McDonald, Tex Worley, Ray Stine, Henry Lee, Art Hoffman, Margaret Aloisio, Roger White, Joe Barry, Jerry Rug, Gene Mailjean, Gene Doran, Charles Schwing, Dick Kriete, and those elected to office."

"The organization shall represent the residents of Woodbury Gardens and shall concern itself primarily with the betterment of civic conditions and social relationships of the community it serves. In a larger sense it shall be prepared to act in concert with other representative groups in the community of Hicksville where such action in no way conflicts with the aims of this association."

"We are organized to serve the residents of Woodbury Gardens and environs, and this we shall do through democratic process. We aim to learn as much as possible about the community of Hicksville, the town of Oyster Bay, and the county of Nassau and just what part each one plays in the overall picture of community existence in our locality. We shall attempt to keep in close contact and work in close harmony with the authorities and officials who act in our behalf. We intend to see that the builder who possesses a good reputation continues to maintain such good will.

"In short we shall act for the community whenever and wherever the majority of the members of the association dictates."

"Finally, we wish to emphasize the importance of an alert and active membership. No group can serve a community without a thorough knowledge of what that community wants, and how that community feels. Every voice must be raised and every voice must be heard. Only then can we be sure that we are acting in behalf of all the members."

Cute Party At Nicolai St. School

By DORIS WERNER

Hicksville 3-2437-W
Belated Birthday Greetings to little Arthur Martin Landin of Loretta Lane. He celebrated Oct. 29. His brother, Charles Edward has a birthday on Nov. 6. Winston Stone of Meade Ave was 2 years old on Nov. 4.

Florence Altman also of Meade Ave. has a birthday on Nov. 7.

I went to one of the Halloween parties given by the kindergarten class of Nicolai St. School last week. All the children looked so cute in their costumes and they all seemed to enjoy themselves. So did the mothers who were there to help out. I still say those Kindergarten Teachers should be given a medal for the way they handle their classes. It's amazing how they can keep the class under control.

Everyone is sorry to see George, our old KRUG delivery man leave. I hear he is getting a better position with Krug. Lots of luck to him.

more cable means more phones

You're looking at telephone men, hard at work installing new cable.

It's a job that never ends... because the demand for telephone service never ceases. Day after day, the orders for more phones keep coming in for home, business and defense needs. And crews like this are kept busy installing new telephone cable in cities and towns all over New York State.

Expanding and improving telephone service is the biggest and most important program we've ever tackled. It calls not only for new cable, but for new buildings, new central office equipment and other essentials. And because of inflation it is also the most costly.

Despite these higher costs, this program is going ahead at a record rate. Bringing phones to those who are waiting is our number-one job.

NEW SCHOOL IN SESSION:

Dutch Lane School, 1st Of Four, Features New, Modern Facilities

By CRAIG WALSH

The Dutch Lane School, the first of the new ten-room schools in Hicksville, opened its doors to students, Monday Oct. 27. To have the rooms ready for the children the teachers spent Saturday and Sunday arranging the rooms and posting the children's work, done at the East St. School, on the bulletin boards. As a result the children continued their studies where they had left off.

The second, third, and fourth grades are on full sessions according to John J. Chase, principal. The hours are 8:30 to noon and 1 to 2:30. The first grade is on a part time session with two classes attending from 8:15 to 12:15 and the remainder from 12:30 to 4:30. The kindergarten children attend classes in four separate groups as follows:

8:15 to 10:15, 10:15 to 12:15, 12:30 to 2:30; and 2:30 to 4:30.

The fifth grades attend classes at the East St. School on full sessions. The sixth grades continue their studies in the Junior High School from 1 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

TOUR OF BUILDING

The new school contains ten classrooms plus a large kindergarten room and a playroom which also serves as an auditorium. The class rooms are well appointed with furniture suited to the size of the children. The cabinets, plumbing fixtures, and closets, are also designed for easy use by the pupils.

As in other modern schools the "blackboards" are green for better visibility. Extensive testing has shown that white chalk on a green surface permits the children to see what is written with considerably less eye strain than on the black slate surface.

The children's musical training is amply cared for by two pianos, one in the kindergarten and one in the playroom. There is also a well equipped kitchen and cafeteria for serving lunches and also for use by adult groups using the playroom for evening functions. There are tables and seats which may be folded into the wall of the playroom when not in use.

Fluorescent lighting is used throughout. A continuous line of tubing runs the entire length of the main corridor which can be switched on or off from either end. Two large oil burning furnaces furnish steam for heating. Steam passes through large heat exchangers to warm the air which is then forced into each room in controlled amounts by a large fan-duct system. The heating system is large enough to supply a building twice as large in case additional rooms are built in the future.

It is noteworthy that this school was built in the fraction of the time generally necessary for the construction of schools. Ground was broken early last spring and in about seven months time the school was ready for use. This was due largely to the methods of construction used as well as the urgent need for facilities in the Dutch Lane area. The outer walls are brick and the interior partitions are wood studding with plasterboard walls. The only basement area is that used by the heating system and this is but a small portion of the floor area.

Principal Chase says that he hopes to make effective use of the large outdoor areas for supervised play of the children in the near future.

Blazing Fields Keep Vamps Busy

HICKSVILLE — A faulty oil burner alarmed the George Luther family of 123 Brittle La. and Hicksville Fire Dept. was called to the scene on Oct. 29 at 11:58 A. M. No damage was reported.

Six grass fires called out the firemen on Oct. 30 to Genese St. Cambridge Dr., W. John St., Volte Ave., W. Marie St. and the rear of the Water Works.

1949 Plymouth owned by Joseph Flood of 851 Pacific St., Brooklyn, caught fire on Nov. 1 at Duffy and Underhill Ave. Slight damage was reported. Grass fires also called out the firemen that same day to Edward Ave., the new high school property on Division Ave., Alexander Ave. and Harding Ave.

The SENTINEL

Why No Peace

We found out Monday, Oct. 27th, why there has been no peace in this community. Wm. Levitt appeared at Levittown Hall and gave the answers.

It had long been surmised that there was a pipeline from Manhasset (or Penda?) to leaders of a certain civic organization. The objectives fought for by that organization; in defending "Levittown" signs in Hicksville, in demanding split of the Hicksville Park and Parking District, in opposing extension of the Hicksville Garbage District—too nearly paralleled what could be desired by Levitt himself.

Now Levitt quite frankly said that he had been behind things from the start.

Do the leaders of this civic organization "still contend that they were working solely for the benefit of the community?—That they did not attempt to "sell the people of this area down the river" for their own selfish purposes? That Hicksville was trying to take away our pools? That the Hall was not intended to be part of the facilities transferred to municipal operation? That they were not promoting an eventual affiliation with Levittown? That in the process they did not stir up hate for Hicksville?

We do know now, definitely and positively, why there has been no peace in this area.

The Hall

Disposition of the Hall is now coupled to disposition of the pools. Yet the hall matter must be studied as a separate issue, which it is. It is not part of the house-sale package in which the pools were included. To many the building has appeared to be more of a memorial to Abraham Levitt than a functional structure for the community. It is not suitable for sports. There is insufficient meeting-room space; organizations meet in dressing rooms and in odd nooks and crannies. The stage is poorly equipped and makeshift. We already have superior facilities available in Hicksville. With the completion of the new high school the Hall might easily fall into complete discard.

We do not need the Hall here in Hicksville. There is no valid reason for adding the cost of its support permanently to our tax bill. Why should hundreds of home owners be forced to pay for the maintenance of a facility unneeded by them,—or for the maintenance of a memorial to Abraham Levitt, lovable old man though he may be?

If it is of use to Levittown organizations, it should be placed where it is convenient for them in Levittown. It is out of place in Hicksville. One of the Levittown papers has exhorted its readers to "come and take it." We wish they would.

Taxes and Expenses

It is contended by Levitt that operation of the Hall will add only a small amount to the annual tax bill of the home owner. If the people of this area were newcomers, unaware how costs can pyramid, that statement might be accepted. But we need only compare the 1953 budget for the Levittown Park District in Town of Hempstead (Continued on Page 14)

GOING AROUND THE LANES:

Lee Ave. School Impressions

By FLORENCE VRYN
LEE 9-4487

Hope you were down to see the dedication ceremonies at the Lee Ave. School, Sunday. The ceremony was interesting but the OH's and AH's of the parents as they went from room to room were a good indication of how impressed they were. It's a beautiful school and the groups of parents laughing and chatting with the teachers indicated that there is a fine spirit of friendliness there too.

The weather has turned mild again and the kids have been dragging in mud. I was dressed in the fetching costume I wear for doing the floor, baggy pants and faded T-shirt, and I was spreading papers on the clean part. What do you suppose was on top? What jerky one for "Fire and Ice". Have you read that out and out raving? Pull up your chaise, dismiss the maid and tune in your radar. Dig this: Literally, someone should and promptly cover it with six feet of sod the stuff says "Have you ever danced with your shoes off?" Are they daft . . . or do they romp on the sun warmed shores of Miami? Maybe that's why Levitt put the heat in the floors? Another says do sables excite you? They reduce me to a state bordering on kleptomania . . . I keep turning them into cash in my mind. Read the rest of the nonsense, my digestion is too weak to go any further. If this is supposed to sell the stuff they are going to have to think up a new quiz, or make one more my type, like Fast de Bendix overflowing on Monday, or Essence of Burning stew because of telephonitis. This advertising is driving me away from purchasing, also my budget helps.

The Stults' of Thimble Lane had guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerrish, and Bill Stults had a great time acting the suburbanite role to the hilt. I guess we all puff out and brag about our town when visitors come but Bill convinced Michael, the Gerrish's grandson. Michael loved the wide open spaces to romp around in, and when it came time to go home he wanted to have his cake and eat it too, didn't want to go and could not stay. Mr. Gerrish is president of the Happy Leads Social Club of New York. Bill tells me and Mrs. Gerrish is recuperating from a recent illness.

Found another old Jerseyite in my travels. William Mason of Sleepy Lane. Bill is a graduate of Stevens which is so close to my home town you could roll down the hill and wind up on top of the roof practically. Bill has taken root here on the island and the Masons are old residents now. Until recently there were Gertrude and Bill and Jeanne three, with Laurie Ann a year and a half young as the junior partner. The Mason family tree has a new shoot as of September, and his name is John Paul. John is named for his paternal grandfather. The girls are blonde and Gertrude is wondering if that fuzz on young John will turn out to be a copy of Daddy's red top. Nothing like a spot of color for contrast and I hope the lad does develop into a carbon copy of dad.

The election has me chewing my nails down to the elbow. I don't think I can wait out the battle. Interest seems to be as keen all over the area. A sound truck sponsored by an unnamed party made the rounds of the neighborhood Sunday to the very vocal disapproval of my neighbors who let the driver know in no uncertain terms that it was time for a change.

The Girl Scouts are having amateur night at Lee Ave. and I hope many of you mothers will be there. The Scouts are providing refreshments and the program is going to be lots of fun. See you there?

Mrs. L. Schaub and Mrs. Nettie Giese of Hicksville and Mrs. Elsie Kraus of Brooklyn spent an enjoyable week - end on Oct. 25 and home town you could roll down the

with the 1952 budget, to see how charges can skyrocket. In 1952, the budget for six swimming pools was $19,573.91. The 1953 budget for seven swimming pools (with the East Meadow pool added) is $115,500. The cost has risen to more than $16,000 per pool—an increase of more than $3,000 per pool. While the maintenance of some park areas is included in this cost, the bulk of it applies to the pools. Compare this with the $6,000 cost per pool recently quoted by Charles C. Miller of the NLHOA as the figure given by Levitt!

Acceptance of a binding tax obligation which cannot be avoided might easily and eventually result in making home ownership impossible to some. Levitt seems to have no idea how difficult it is for some to make ends meet. The mortgage-payment amounts advertised by Levitt have already been exceeded. Churches must be built and more schools. These are essential to the well-being of the community. A church is far more important to the community, spiritually and as a community center, than a Levitt Hall.

The imposition of unnecessary additional taxes should be prevented.

The Pools

No one should be alarmed by Levitt's threat to close the pools. In the light of the Oyster Bay Town Board's refusal to take them because they were intended "for the free use of the purchasers of the developer's houses and should therefore not be a matter for concern with respect to operation, care and maintenance by the Town", it is extremely doubtful that another Town Board will accept them. The developer's promise of "free use" has now been well emphasized and is well known; its emphasis prior to acceptance of the Levittown pools by the Hempstead Town Board had been thwarted by the Levittown Property Owners Assoc.

With Levitt's promise still on the books he cannot legally place them out of reach of the home owners—they have a vested interest in them conferred by Levitt as part of his sales promotion. The question of incipient abandonment can be handled effectively when the attempt is made.

It would, of course, be preferable to work the matter out amiably, as has been repeatedly suggested by the SENTINEL. That, seemingly, will be possible only after the Hempstead Town Board has refused to accept the pools. The SENTINEL believes in operation of the pools restrictedly for Levitt home owners by a method which will be economical and not disruptive to the community.

Wantagh Water District

A discordant note was struck at the meeting in the Hall when a Wantagh-area Levitt-house owner reminded Levitt that he had not assisted in solving their water-bill problem. The Levitt-constructed water system was sold by Levitt to a private company, and the water bills are now tremendous.

We Give Our Name To Communities

The character of Levitt can be judged by a statement made by him at the meeting,—"This is the first community to which we have given our name; there will be many more." God willing, he will not "give" his name to any part of the Hicksville community.

As Szendy Sees It:

Opinion on Levitt-House Matters
By a Levitt-House Owner

We Hear From Mr. Levitt

Within the past two weeks we have had the opportunity of witnessing two contrasting occurrences: one, the dedication of a new school in the service of the community; the other, a gathering ostensibly for a similar purpose, utilized as an instrument for stirring up dissension, dominated by an aggressive and self-centered "donor", undemocratic in procedure and plan, marked by vituperation, threats, and attempts at intimidation, and expressive of only one kind of allegiance—to Levitt and Levittown.

Some of things said by Levitt & the Hall on that occasion fall into the "unbelievable" category. "Those that don't like the way it's going to be can sell their houses and get out." "If arrangements are not made by you before December 31st, 1952 for municipal operation, I will close these facilities down—I will shut the hall, lock, stock, and barrel."

He was talking about pools which he had advertised for "free use" of purchasers of Levitt houses and which have been said to have been paid for by part of the purchase price. He was referring to a Hall which had been "given" by Levitt to the community some 22 months ago. He was adding special terms to the original offers. They could now be had only if they were operated as he dictated, as part of the Levittown Park District.

"If the present laws do not directly permit transfer to the Levittown District", he said "they should be changed." March upon the Town Board. Make your (my?) demands known! Lobby for it! Organize and apply political pressure!

Was he addressing the people directly concerned? Were the people affected given an opportunity to be heard, to accept or reject his proposal? Hardly. The meeting called on short notice included only representation from organizations which meet regularly at Levittown Hall. They could be expected to agree to a plan which would provide them with meeting facilities at the expense of all the taxpayers.

The gathering, in no way representative of people in this area, was asked to determine the fate of the pools intended for our use and within our boundaries. Levittowners were asked to establish the formula for management of Hicksville-area pools. The answer, Levitt dictated was Hempstead Town Board control and operation—whether we like it or not. Oyster Bay Town Board has refused to split the Hicksville Park and Parking District; other means had to be found for slicing this area from Hicksville and joining it to Levittown.

To the visible consternation of NLEHA members who had contended that they were not being "dictated to by Levitt and Sons" and were concerned only with acting for the benefit of the community, Levitt added, referring to efforts to achieve the "split", "Why of course I was behind it from the first."

All of the problems previously posed have now been resolved down to one basic issue—acceptance or rejection of Levitt and Levittown domination. Shall we permit Levitt to dictate our affiliations, our taxes, and our legislation, merely because he built two pools in this area and planted Levittown Hall in our midst?

It is as simple as that. We need have no concern about the pools; we have a legal lien on them, given by Levitt. As for the Hall—that is a Levitt variety of Trojan horse. We do not need it. It should be moved to Levittown where it belongs.

Thank Heaven this is still a democracy and we still have a voice in our own affairs.

BACK TO SCHOOL NIGHT

Parents of the East St. P.T.A. will participate in a "Back To School" night at a meeting Thursday, Nov. 13, at the East St. School, Hicksville, at 8:15 P.M. The parents will go to a regular school assembly and then return to the class which their child attends.

Mrs. Rebecca Dodge, children's librarian of the Hicksville Public Library, will show some of the new books suitable for children's Christmas gifts.

New Cleaner And Wagon Found

By DOROTHY GUELPA
Hicksville 3-1218-W

The WSCS of the Bethpage Methodist Church will hold a bazaar on Nov. 20, 21 and 22 in the church basement all day. The bazaar date was originally scheduled in December.

As usual Girl Scout Sunday passed here in Bethpage without anything being done to commemorate the occasion.

Arthur Niebergall of 8 West Court says the dogs are getting out of line again. Seems he planted a dogwood tree three times only to have some nature loving dog dig it up.

The Boy Scout Mothers' auxiliary welcomed Mrs. James Taverna into their organization at a meeting on Oct. 20. Plans were completed for a cake sale and the awarding of a Thanksgiving turkey on Nov. 22 at the firehouse. A prize will be awarded to the Boy Scouts who sell the most tickets for the turkey award.

Mrs. Roth and Mrs. Sylvia Kessler will be hostesses at the next meeting.

Mrs. Uccellini of 26 Lexington Ave. reports that a wagon was found at the Powell Ave. School last Thursday and the owner may claim it by calling Hicksville 3-1922-W.

QUICK RESPONSE

The quick response of the residents of Bethpage to the Annual Appeal of The Salvation Army now in progress is indicative of the growing awareness of the public to the many services performed without fanfare by The Salvation Army workers. "The men and women in the blue and red uniforms have undergone a long period of training to prepare themselves for their service to others," said Mrs. Peter Curcio, chairman, today, "but there is no training period for giving financial support that they may carry on. So won't you please give?"

Bethpage To Pay For Fire Truck In Year As Grumma Shares Cost

BETHPAGE—The new hook and ladder fire truck of the district, recently approved by the voters to replace a 24-year-old vehicle, will cost the average homeowner 33 cents a month and will be paid off in one year, the Board of Fire Commissioners explained this week for Herald readers. The new truck is expected to be in service "in a few months."

The statement of James M. Sturtevant, secretary of the fire commissioners, on behalf of the board follows:

"At a special election earlier this month, the taxpayers approved a proposition to purchase a new Hook & Ladder truck for the fire department.

Arranging Barn Dance On Nov 22

BETHPAGE—A gala barn dance for young and old of the community sponsored by the Bethpage P-TA will be held Saturday, Nov. 22, at the firehouse. Dungarees, overalls and calico will be the dress of the evening and prizes will be awarded for the most appropriate costume.

A door prize will be awarded and a prize to the gal most "married" during the night. Music by Al Kord and his orchestra will include square dancing and regular numbers.

Members of the committee include: Edith Foy, chairman; Helen Rafenski, May Winslow, Renee Coggiano, Grace Kella, Mrs. De-Beaumont and Mrs. Wilson.

of explaining to the people of the district what the cost of this apparatus will be, in order to avoid future misunderstandings and to offset inaccurate reports already in circulation.

"The amount of money appropriated for the new truck is $32,000, which will cover the price range of the leading manufacturers of this type of truck. This money will be raised by taxation on the real estate situated in the district and will be collected and paid out in one year. No bond issue will be necessary.

"The taxable property of the district at present is valued by the assessors at approximately $27,000,000, of which roughly one-third represents the property of our largest taxpayer, Grumman. To pay for this apparatus in one year, therefore, will cost approximately ten cents per $100 valuation. To express that another way, the owner of a home valued by the assessors at $4,000 will pay about $4 in tax for that one year toward the purchase of the truck, or 33 cents a month for 12 months. The truck will be completely paid for in one year, and this cost will not appear on the tax bill thereafter.

"When it is realized how our community is growing, and understood that this truck may reasonably be expected to give good service for about fifteen years, the board feels that our residents should be well satisfied with the desirability and economy of making this addition to our equipment at this time."

WOODBURY GARDENS:

Santa Is Coming To Take Orders

By GENE MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-4515

Ed Mastrella, chairman of the rules committee, has reported progress at the meeting held Monday, Nov. 4. Now that our civic assoc. is definitely established and as active as possible in attaining the objectives of the group.

By the way, now that a few snow flurries have momentarily whitened our streets we are made aware of the onrushing holidays. In fact, a communique just received from the North Pole informs us that Santa himself contemplates a visit to Woodbury Gardens during his whistlestop itinerary to poll the younger residents on their preference for Christmas gifts. So alert the junior element to be on the lookout for this distinguished visitor sometime around Thanksgiving.

Two birthdays this week: Charlie Moore is four years old on Nov. 9 and Carol Alessio is also on Nov. 6. Happy birthday - kiddies. And to Mrs. Margaret Abolina, of Adams St., we wish a very happy birthday on the sixth.

Census takers please take note: Add one resident to Woodbury Gardens, namely - Theresa Roth born to Mr. and Mrs. David Roth of Ketcham Ave. on Oct. 28 at 3:15 A.M. This ten pound baby girl evened out the family to two boys and two girls. Congratulations, Dave and Eve.

Dave was quite active some months ago in the first try for a civic club. He and I worked together to reach the public in order to form such a group using a book in which every interested person signed his name and address. This book was passed along from house to house and finally wound up somewhere on Moeller St. It may still be there for all I know. Someone must have been very anxious to block the idea, why—I do not know. But, nevertheless, because of the birth of his latest daughter he had to miss the first meeting of our newly formed group. When things start rolling I'm sure that Dave will be one of the most enthusiastic members with many ideas to contribute on the club's behalf.

We all hope that this issue finds Eleanor Carter feeling much better. She is convalescing, so her friends tell me. Good luck to Dave McGrath with his new addition a '49 Ford. Mr. Mecklenburg still has that dog house for anyone here who can use it. Note proper spelling of his name.

May and I spent our anniversary in the city, where we caught "Guys and Dolls." This famous American musical captured one phase of New York City life—that of the gambler, grafter, con man and burlesque personnel. Put to music, it makes for extremely entertaining soiree. After the play, we would have enjoyed catching some floor show, but—like Cinderella and her footmen—we had to leave at twelve, for if we missed our train—it would have been more than just an evening—it would have been a night in the city until 8 A.M. The next time we step out—I'll park in Queens, and leave at any desired time. This event will—no doubt—be many moons away. After we arrived home from Brooklyn, Sunday night, after a visit to my mother in law—I stopped over to see Charlie and Rosalie Leary, who have always so much material for my column. This is the latest in their neck of the woods.

On Saturday night, Elmer and Gladys Blaser held a Halloween party with costumes. Elmer wore long GI underwear and held simulated dumbbells which were actually two balloons on a rod. His label was "Mr. America" and I'm sure he must have looked it with those padded muscles holding a 200 pound weight. Gladys also made her own clown costume out of pajamas. Charlie Leary was to be seen as a Mexican while Rosalie Leary took the part of the Merry Widow—complete with bustle. Her large plumed hat and extra padding here and there must have completed quite a picture. A Hobo, in the person of Ann Becker, accompanied Bob Becker who wore a top hat and tails, with a long cigarette holder. This was his interpretation of Reggie Van Gleason. (And Away we Go!) Helen Brannham was a Mexican girl for the evening while hubby Bill played Huckleberry Finn, equipped with fishing pole. Charlie Tarrantola must have made a pretty bridesmaid, in a lovely blue evening gown, smoking a big cigar. His wife, Terry, was missed by all that evening. She is staying at Brighton Beach this week. Florence Philmer wore a sheet and a silk stocking over her head to appear as a spook, while husband Danny gave the whole crowd a scare with a most authentic costume—green face—black turtle-neck sweater—three inch thick soles on his shoes—the famous Frankenstein Monster. They had a real great time and will probably be laughing anytime they think of it for months.

A costume that might have frightened the ladies present could have been that of a driving license inspector. That would be enough to send any new female driver scurrying to points far away. Or so I am given to understand by the way they tremble on that frightening and foreboding day of the test.

Expense account item. Loss of one dozen eggs removed from my car and thrown about my lawn. This was a Halowe'en prank, and I'm still in stitches laughing at this terrific sense of humor. It's almost as funny as that new game the children play—"Dig up the farmer's cabbage." Other than that, I assume that Trick or Treat day was more treat than trick, for no reports have reached me of any mischief.

The Home HANDYMAN'S CORNER

By TOM CASHEL

Have you met the NU-WOOD family? No, well now, it's time you folks got acquainted. We here at CASHEL'S are mighty proud to be a dealer of these nationally known building products. NU-Wood interior finish decorates, insulates and hushes noise—all in one product, at one low cost, and with one installation. Three basic shapes, Tile, Plank and Panel, allow limitless possibilities in design for both modern and traditional interiors. The ease of cutting and fitting this material makes it ideal for rooms of unusual shape.

It comes pre-finished in a clean off-white and in warm fade-proof colors. For light-giving ceilings and crisp-looking rooms, choose Sta-Lite—the white that grows whiter with time. Use non-fading Kolor-Fast for interiors that are cheering and easy to live with. If desired, Nu-Wood's gently textured matte surface can be painted to match any color scheme.

Now then—the other member of the family is Balsam-Wool, a sealed insulating blanket that keeps your house warm in winter, cool in summer. It saves enough in heat loss to pay for the fuel bills itself. Yeh man, a partnership of Balsam-Wool and Nu-Wood will earn its keep—and give you no-decorating free. Completely sealed insulation is the secret to give you cool clean comfort these hot sticky days and nights.

So—stop over to see your "Uncle Tom" one day soon and get the dope on this here stuff. There's no obligation. Get your free copy of NU-WOOD interiors today.

State Declines Bethpage Plea

BETHPAGE—The Improvement Committee is working to further preliminary efforts along civic improvement lines, according to Alfred Surridge, chairman. The committee is currently working on a project for identification signs to be placed at the parkway exits that lead to Bethpage. A recent letter to the LI State Park Commission regarding this situation was answered by Herman Boettjer, General Superintendent. His letter states:

"We have your recent letter requesting that signs on the Southern and Northern State Parkways be designated 'Bethpage'.

"You will appreciate that we are under constant pressure from communities on the Island to have the name of their locality included on our parkway signs. On the other hand, we have strong public reaction against too many signs and too much wording on our signs. We have received many complaints objecting to those signs which have more than two or three lines on them because of the difficulty in reading them from a moving car in heavy traffic. Recently we have increased the size of the letters because of these complaints and this again makes it impractical to have too many names on each sign.

"As a result of careful analysis of the entire question of signs, including serious consideration of the complaints and taking into account the large number of communities requesting that their localities be indicated on our signs, we feel that, in order to make our signs reasonably effective, we should have no more than three lines for each sign, made up with large letters. This means that we have room for only the two principal communities (one on each side) on our signs, trusting that the public, with the aid of the usual road maps and the exit numbering system, will have no difficulty finding the greater number of smaller communities such as Bethpage, which we logically cannot find room for on our signs.

"We realize this plan is somewhat disappointing to dozens of the smaller communities which would like to have their names on our signs, but under the circumstances we can see no other reasonable solution to the problem. Any other plan would destroy the effectiveness of all parkway signs with a great number of complaints from the public as a consequence.

"I am sure we can count on your understanding of the problem."

Not A Texan

They say it was a Texas millionaire who threw a Riviera clambake at which champagne gushed from a "miniature oil well," but we wonder. The true Texan doesn't bother with miniatures.—The Richmond Times-Dispatch.

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE" . . . Comes these dates to remember: Nov. 14, special meeting; Dec. 14, second annual visit to veterans at Farmingdale Sanatorium; Dec. 18, Thursday evening, many members with wives are traveling to the Cleary School for the Deaf, to throw a big Xmas party for the "wee ones"; Dec. 21, a gala time at our clubhouse Santa's helper hands out gifts to the kiddies of the post members. These dates are a MUST on your calendar of events.

DID-JA-KNOW: Margaret McDonald, oldest Auxiliary member celebrates her 73rd birthday on Nov. 7th? George Thomas, Charter member and one of the first veterans of Hicksville to join AMVETS, will come back into the fold as soon as he is able? He finds it difficult to attend meetings due to the evenings that we meet. Talked with Congressman GREENWOOD Saturday afternoon and he promises to fight just as hard for the "boys" as he has been doing. Mr. Greenwood . . . you don't have to tell us, some thing we already know. There are many grateful vets among us and I'm one of them.

In the eight overseas cemeteries of World War I west a total of 39,908 men and in the 14 overseas cemeteries on foreign soil, plus those in Honolulu, Sitka, Alaska, and Puerto Rico, are 107,213 graves of World War I dead. AMVETS National Organization now has a few thousand members short of one million, and I can remember just a short time ago when there was only 145,000 members. Why are we the fastest growing vets organization in the world today? Because in AMVETS . . . we get results and proved that we are our own fighters and go-getters of our generation. AMVETS URGE: that VA hospital building program be extended, specifically to include more facilities for the mentally ill. We ask for a complete and comprehensive look at all times of all activities of the Veterans Administration. We oppose Communist China's application for membership in the U.N.

WHA-HOPPED DEPT: To the meetings of the Hicksville Veterans Council? The Strembel twins and Howie Patton? The Normandy White Clovers that the County Commander was going to send me? The Post caps that the boys were wearing a few months back?

IN A FEW SHORT DAYS: It will be Armistice Day. Many of the people will not be home that day, but working at their jobs. It doesn't mean that every thing is forgotten it means that you have to stop a few minutes for the boys of 1918 and remember them if only for a two minute break. No matter what war it is the men on land, sea and in the air fought for the same ideals . . . freedom.

Today in the hills of Korea the boys are fighting again. When you say a silent prayer on Nov. 11 make it a little longer and pray that the youngsters in Korea are soon home again. Though we read about Korea in the papers every day . . . these boys are the "forgotten men". They say it isn't a war, if it isn't some one should tell the boys the "commies" are only fooling. Yeh, tell that to the thousands already gone. Now that the elections are over, if he is your choice or not . . . work, fight and help to put the end to this slaughter in Korea. Regardless if you like the man in office or not, think not of yourself as an individual but as one of the many millions enjoying freedom. Lets stand up and make it All for one, and one for all. As the Bible says, "Be not afraid, for I am with you always." Until next week then . . . this is

BOOK REVIEW EVENING NOV. 20

Library Circulation Up 20 Pct.

HICKSVILLE—The Public Library was busier than usual on Tuesday night, Oct. 21. It was Open House and the Staff was pleased that so many people came out and got to know their Library better. Refreshments were served, and guests were guided throughout the two Library buildings.

The event seemed so popular that it has been suggested that it be made an annual fall occasion. The next event in the Library's series of winter programs will be an evening of book reviews on Thursday, Nov. 20.

The Open House was planned for all of friends, but with newcomers to Hicksville particularly in mind. During September, 228 persons registered as new members, received their cards, and became active Library members. Last year at this time the Library's membership numbered 3,838; as of October first 1952, it was 5,382. The population of the Library's area has greatly increased also, so that while the Library was called upon by about 20,000 people in 1951, today it is expected to serve about 27,500 persons.

During September last year 5,890 books were circulated. . . In September 1952, 6,969 books were taken out: An increase of almost 20 per cent. More and more we the staff is relying on loans from the N. Y. State Library for non-fiction titles. The Library has resorted to this method 291 times this year so far.

Time To Start Christmas Mails

HICKSVILLE — Too early for Christmas shopping? "Don't you believe it!" says Postmaster William G. Mollitor.

This year there are more friends, relatives, and sweethearts in armed forces overseas than at any time since World War II. Their precious gifts and cheery Christmas greetings should be mailed before Nov. 15, and for those to be sent to remote areas mailing by Nov. 1 is recommended, which means now's the time to start.

"Nothing makes me so sad," Mollitor declared, "as to forward overseas a Christmas card or package that may not be delivered before Dec. 25."

It's best, of course, to send both parcel post and Christmas cards by air mail. (Overseas air parcels are limited to two pounds.) Be sure the address is easy to read, and includes the recipient's full name, serial number, branch of service, organization, and correct APO.

Include sender's name and address inside all packages. All parcels should be securely wrapped and tied with strong cord. Use heavy corrugated cartons for added protection during their long journey.

Some foods may be sent overseas. But don't mail perishable items. Valuable overseas gifts should be registered or insured.

"Your next step," Postmaster Mollitor concluded, "is to get ready for Christmas in the U.S.A. Better start checking your Christmas card list right now, for after Dec. 1, the Post Office will be hard pressed to handle the tremendous volume of Yuletide mail!"

Up To Her

Asked today if he could pay a 20c. fine and two guineas costs for maliciously wounding his wife with a poker, the man replied: "You will have to ask the missus. I have no money."—Manchester Evening News.

PBC-ing Around

Hicksville Unit of Nassau County Police Boys Clubs

By PAUL GERCH

This column is to introduce to all Herald readers, members of the Hicksville unit PBC and their parents, to the activities of the PBC. We the sponsors, sincerely hope that through this column, the parents of our young members will get an idea of how their sons are progressing in our various sport programs.

May I take this opportunity to invite all parents to attend our "Parents Nite" to be held at East Street School, Wednesday, Nov. 19. Program will start at 8 P.M. Guest speakers from the athletic world and a sports film are some of the highlights for that evening. Patrolman Bob Reynolds will be in charge of proceedings. How about it kids, bring dad and mom with you.

TRADING AREA

ies and business research organizations indicate an annual buying power of $2,510,000,000 for the 1,052,000 people now living within a 16-mile radius of the Mid Island Shopping Plaza which will be placed under construction by Stackler & Frank early next year in central Hicksville.

CITIES PAYROLL

"Of particular significance," Frank said, "is that industrial payroll alone in Nassau and Suffolk Counties today exceed $337,000,000 a year. This is the total of wages and salaries paid in the 1,581 manufacturing plants in the two counties which employ 85,700 persons. It does not include the millions of additional dollars received by the thousands of employees in stores, service establishments and other non-manufacturing enterprises in Nassau and Suffolk."

"Furthermore," he added, "wages for production workers in Nassau and Suffolk are far above the state average. In the two Long Island counties, the average is $81.26 per week, compared with $68.97 reported for the state as a whole by the State Labor Department."

"Hicksville was chosen as a site for our Mid-Island Shopping Plaza because of its central location with major highways leading to it from all parts of this region with its extremely high purchasing power," Frank explained. "In addition to the 11,800 new homes projected within four miles of our regional shopping center, site in the first six months of this year, there is still considerable land available for the area for continued future expansion of both homes and industry. Although Hicksville is a large established community, it is the center of the fastest growing area in the United States."

When completed, the Stackler & Frank Mid-Island Shopping Plaza will contain 92 stores, including a major and a junior department store, two supermarkets and a multi-story professional and office building. All of the structures will be fully air conditioned. More than 40 acres of parking space has been provided so 5,700 automobiles can be parked at one time. The regional shopping center will have 3,700 feet of frontage along Broadway, north of John St.

NEED MORE INTEREST

It would be a great thing for America if there was as much active interest in citizenship and voting as in baseball at the present time.

To remind the man of the good turns you have done him is very much like a reproach.—Demotenes

Gyms made available to members of the PBC by the Board of Education are as follows:

Junior League—East St. School—Monday and Tuesday—7 P.M.
Intermediates—Lee Ave. School—Mondays and Tuesdays—7 P.M.
Senior League—Hicksville H. S.—Tuesdays and Thursdays—7 P.M.

On Monday, Oct. 27, East St. School was open to Juniors for the signing of rosters. Of the 32 members that appeared, 20 were new members. Sponsors Bob Mangels, Fred Birk, Harry Day and Henry Uffmann were on hand to sign the youngsters. The dads of two youngsters, Frank Tiringier and Theodore Nachtmann, were present to view proceedings. Let's have more of these dads and moms too, at the schools, to watch their boys play ball. With that kind of an audience, we'll know our effort is not in vain. Monday, Nov. 10, and Tuesday, Nov. 11, the Junior teams will be formed and scrimmage games will be held.

Tuesday, Oct. 28, Lee Ave. School was open to the Intermediate group. Fifteen boys signed the roster. Of these, seven were new members. The boys had a scrimmage among themselves. This rather poor showing could be attributed to the cool, rainy evening. We are sure, however, that enough lads will show up Thursday, Nov. 6, to compensate for it. Bob Reynolds, Harold Manasse and Bob Mangels were on hand to sign the boys.

Thursday, Oct. 30, Hicksville High was available to the Senior group. About twenty were on hand to sign the roster with many of the boys promising to bring the absentee Nov. 6. One of the teams will be called The Boosters, and will be coached by Paul Hucklestein. Bob Reynolds, Harry Day, Fred Birk and yours truly, were on hand watching the boys scrimmage. All indications point to a good season for the Senior teams.

A reminder to all members who have missed signing of rosters on the above mentioned evenings: You must do so Thursday, Nov. 6, at Hicksville High. Doors will open at 7 P.M. All age groups are included that evening. New Members are always welcomed.

As an aid to both old and new members, here are the Rules of Eligibility:

In the Junior League, ages 10 to 12, no boy is eligible who was born before Sept. 1, 1939.

Intermediate League, ages 13 to 15, no boy is eligible who was born before Sept. 1, 1936.

Senior League, ages 16 to 18, no boy is eligible who was born before Sept. 1, 1934.

The following are ineligible to play in PBC leagues: College players, High School, Prep School, Varsity and members of the 1952 Junior Varsity, or players who have been members of these mentioned squads.

We were happy to welcome as sponsors recently, Frank Arpaia, Arthur Patterson and Harry Day. We would be happy to welcome new sponsors at anytime. Those interested may do so by coming to regular meetings held in the Legion Hall the fourth Wednesday of the month.

To the businessmen of Hicksville, who have been generous in previous years, a reminder that once again the sponsors of the Hicksville PBC will visit you for donations for our Annual Card Party, Dec. 12. It has been through your generosity, that our card parties have been successful in the past. The people who attended our former card parties, will testify to that.

Keep tuned to this column for further Hicksville PBC activities.

If the Hicksville Field Club continues to use the "T" formation as its principal offensive weapon the powers that be can expect no formation at the boxoffice.

We have never — and the Black and White has lost ball games before — heard the angry outbursts from Hicksville fans as we have since the final whistle blew at the Westbury Field, Sunday.

Actually, there is nothing wrong with the formation itself as some people insist. However, the B&W has been blanked two successive weeks by arch rivals and its fans hardly call it an offensive weapon.

Things might have been a little calmer but for that one minute of Ed Coleman throwing from the deep punt formation and the grand sweep downfield in typical Hicksville style.

It was just ten years ago that many of the same players now with the Field Club started Hicksville on its greatest hour on the gridiron and much of the success was attained from the single wing and deep punt.

The attitude is simply that what talent there is is being wasted.

One thing is sure — no one expected to see Ed Coleman on the defense only.

The T formation requires timing and unlimited practice. It is no secret that only a dozen or so players show up for such sessions this year and it reflects badly on Sundays.

It will be interesting to see if the fans stick with the club now that it is returning home.

At Southampton the B&W posted a 25-13 win but it was considerably stronger in manpower than it is now.

Gaps have to be filled in the line for the remaining line of good players is very thin.

The local boys should mark the return to home soil with a win but it could be very narrow. We think 13-7.

Hicksville High stands a good chance of closing its season with a win at Long Beach if it plays as near or as well as it did against Farmingdale.

Walt Rhind and Rich Evaschuk are potent on the ground and if the Comets stay there they will win somewhere around 20-7.

FINALLY HOME, SUNDAY:

Vamps Rout Pepless Field Club

WESTBURY—Long Island's oldest and bitterest semi-pro grid feud was renewed here, Sunday, and the only degree in which it did not resemble the clashes of the past was that the Hicksville Field Club put a team on the field that in no way resembled its outfits of the past.

As a consequence the Mineola-Westbury Vamps won an 18-0 non-league clash before 1,050 persons and reduced the Black and White to a role of unconsidered for the Nassau-Suffolk Football Conference title.

This Sunday afternoon the Field Club returns to Hicksville to play Southampton in a league game after an extended road tour.

Hicksville had no fight for the contest which was played under sandlot conditions. The field was dry and always dusty without line markers.

In the wake of the 25-0 loss to Glen Cove the week before, a half dozen first line men quit the Black and White and with the injury list added the team was generally disorganized from the start.

Westbury's massive line overpowered the Hicksville offensive line and made it impossible for quarterback Ray Halleran to work or pass from the T effectively.

Once again Coleman was used more as a defensive star and he carried the ball on five times on straight line bucks.

Only when the three tallies were on the board against them did the FC gridders forget the T. Coleman dropped back into the deep punt and threw three passes that carried the Black and White 81-yards to the winners two just before the game ended.

Fine catches by George Thomas and Bill MacNamara marked the advance.

EARLY SCORE

In the first quarter Frank Franzese passed 46-yards to Chick Robb for the first Westbury score.

Robb, left completely unguarded in a mix-up on Hicksville's intended man for man defense, caught the ball on the five. He bobbled it as he ran into the endzone and finally dropped it to the ground there.

It was ruled a touchdown on possession. After that the Field Club tried to untrack itself with a series of pichtouts to the flankers. Thomas and MacNamara did good work with them but they could only go so far.

Near the half Coleman fumbled a punt on his own ten and in a wild pileup Westbury won control of the ball.

Ed Sexton smashed over the last yard and it was 12-0 at halftime. Hicksville was shackled by the wide margin it gave away in weight up front and could not get going in the second half of a game which turned viciously dirty.

Westbury tried to insure the issue with a field goal early in the fourth period but Georgetown's Mike Carra was off to the right with his kick.

As the game drew to a close Franzese intercepted a Halleran pass and a long return put the ball on the losers' twenty.

Joe Cassese ran over for the final TD four plays later.

Form Semi-Pro Court Team

BETHPAGE — A semi-pro basketball team will be organized here tonight (Thursday) at a meeting in the Broadway School gym at 8:30 p.m. V. P. DeFanis of the Bethpage Press will sponsor the team. Any young man over 18 years is eligible to try out for the team.

Comets Upset Dalers 12-7

BETHPAGE — Pure, straight power was used by underdog Hicksville High to upset its traditional rival, Farmingdale, 12-7, here in the State Park Bowl, Saturday afternoon.

The Comets delighted its small band of followers by sending Richie Evaschuk and Walt Rhind into the Daler line time and time again in a 60-yard fourth quarter drive that turned an apparent 7-6 defeat into victory.

Rhind went the last seven yards for the winning score. He swept wide around the right end.

It was an unhappy conclusion for the Daler's campaign since they had of late displayed considerable force and were expected to steamroller the Comets.

The surprising Hicksville line anchored by Stan Sucharski, George Zulkofsky, Charlie Kramer, Bill McGunnigle, Dave Ableman and Bill McGunnigle contained Farmingdale's Charlie Botsch.

In the previous three games he had rammed over for ten touchdowns but he couldn't pick up 20-yards all told against the aroused Comets.

DRIVE ON GROUND

Hicksville stayed on the ground most of the way to beat the Dalers. They had the biggest threat of the first half when they moved, Rhind and Evaschuk carrying, 57-yards to the losers three yard line. There the Dalers braced and won the ball on downs.

A brief flurry of wild passes marked the closing of the second period but Hicksville came back in a hurry to get a score in the third stanza.

Sucharski pounced on a fumble on the Daler 40 soon after the kickoff. Rhind worked it to the 27 in three plays and Evaschuk barged over right tackle, cut in out in and then out.

He flew into the endzone untouched. The Comets failed to convert and it was 6-0.

An intercepted pass started the Dalers on the way to their score, and a 37-yard advance was capped by an 8-yard scoring pass from Bob Christie, quarterback, to end Al Moore.

John Cook's placement barely made the crossbar but with eight minutes left the Dalers had a one point advantage.

The Comets then took the kickoff and wrote off the 60-yards with a determined march.

Joe De Vaul's attempted placement was wide.

It was the Comet's second win in seven starts and this Saturday they travel to Long Beach for the season finale.
