

EFFECTIVE ANSWER TO ALARMISTS:

3 Positions Up for Vote on May 2; Schedule School Budget Meeting

HICKSVILLE—The annual school district meeting, vote on the budget and election of three trustees of the district will go forward on May 1st and 2nd, according to law. Alarmist reports in various publications earlier this week that the business of the district was stymied were thus dispelled and proven false. A special meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday night to approve the necessary resolutions.

WILLIAM L. YOCUM

His Position Not on Ballot

The annual district meeting will take place in the new High School auditorium on Division Ave. on Tuesday, May 1, starting at 7:30 P.M. The budget for the coming year, expected to exceed five million dollars, will be made public prior to the meeting. Election of three trustees will take place on May 2 with voting at four schools.

The three Trustee seats to be filled will be those currently held by Arthur L. Elrich, and ousted defacto member Adolph O. Soininen, along with that of ousted defacto member Milton G. Leavitt. Despite pleas from the taxpayers and Elrich and Emil J. Szendy that a special election be held prior to the regular election to fill Leavitt's, Soininen's, and William Yocum's seats, School Attorney Bertram Crane has ruled that this would be "illegal" since the State Education Dept. is appealing the ouster of these three persons by Supreme Court Justice Hamm.

Monday evening, William Yocum, at a special Board meeting publicly stated his "acquiescence" to Justice Hamm's order and said that in order that the voters of Hicksville have a voice and that the Board have a full complement of seven members, he was willing to abide by that order and relinquish any and all rights he might have or would have in the future, if the Appellate Division overruled Hamm. He asked that School Attorney Crane phrase the proper words for doing so, which Crane declined to do on the grounds that as far as he was concerned to do so would be violating the opinion of the State Education Dept.

Trustee Joseph Cawley said that all that was needed was for a board member to move that Yocum's position be filled at the regular election and then direct the attorney to phrase the proper wording. He insisted that Yocum was a "test case," and that the matter had now gone beyond Hicksville's desires, or the state's, and was now a national matter and therefore Yocum had to remain as he was.

"School Boards all over the country, as well as the courts are carefully watching this case, and in no event should it be dropped." He went on to say that not only would he not make the motion but neither would he vote in the affirmative if he lived to be a "thousand years of age." Yocum answered that if the Board refused to bring the seat he held to a vote of the people, they will have to answer to the people the reason for refusing to do so.

At the annual election, May 2, a proposition will be offered to the voters on the expenditure of $450,000 more to cover the construction costs on the Jr. HS. The sum originally approved last year for the construction of an addition to the Jr. High was $2,400,000.

During the discussion on the proposition, Elrich protested the opening of bids by the board when only two trustees were present. That, he contended, was not a duly convened board, and disregards the recommendations of the State Dept. of Audit and Control requiring a duly convened board be present before any construction bids are opened. He has reported to the Herald that he is taking the matter up with the department.

Two of the members, upon the recommendation of Stanton Miller, Asst. Supt. for elementary education, voted to present to the taxpayers an additional proposition on May 2 for the appropriation of an additional $125,000 for development. (Please turn to Page 16)

Date of Senior Trip Uncertain

HICKSVILLE—The High School senior class will visit Washington, D. C., again this year, but they will make the trip after the Easter recess. The school board has authorized the administration to decide whether and when the trip shall be made. However, Stanton H. Miller, asst. superintendent, said Monday that he has not yet decided with Dr. Wallace E. Lamb, superintendent, on the exact date.

About 150 seniors will fly down to Washington and return on the same day as they have done for the past two years, Miller said. Teachers will officially chaperone the group, he said.

Elks Elect Schulz as Ruler

HICKSVILLE—Herman Schulz of 119 East Ave. was recently elected exalted ruler of Levittown Lodge, No. 1931, BPOE. Also elected were Robert Emory of Hicksville, Esteemed Leading Knight; Joseph Limoli of Wantagh, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Peter Affalto of Plainville, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; George Mathias of East Meadow, secretary; Kenneth Peterson, Levittown, treasurer; Henry Molten of Hicksville, tiler; Paul Capola, Massapequa, 5 year trustee, and Barney Roque, alternate delegate.

SCULPTURED BASSWOOD mural was dedicated recently at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Hicksville, in memory of little Paul Jud who died two years ago in a school bus accident. The dedication was part of a special Family Service attended by about 1,000 men, women and children; R. W. Edward H. Stammel, Pastor of the Congregation, conducted the service. Paul's parents, Helen and August Jud (left and right, above) unveiled the memorial. It depicts Jesus teaching a little boy. The Tree of Life is in the background and symbolizes the theme that as a twig is bent so will the tree grow.

The memorial is now permanently installed on a wall at the head of the main entrance to Trinity Lutheran School. The work of art was done by the local artists, Albert Wood and Five Sons, Inc., of Port Washington.

NAMES WIFE OF OUSTED TRUSTEE:

Goebel Brings Libel Action for $100,000

HICKSVILLE — Barbara C. Soininen, wife of A. O. Soininen who is one of three members of the school board ousted as a result of Supreme Court proceedings, and the Litmor Publishing Corp. have been served papers in an action for libel and defamation of character by Harry H. Goebel, New York attorney and local resident. The action is for $100,000 and is instituted in the Nassau County Supreme Court. Goebel is being represented by his associate, Jesse Sobol of 39 B'way, New York.

Litmor Publishing Corp., second defendant, is the publisher of a local daily newspaper. The claimed libel is predicated upon statements made in an article appearing in the newspaper on Mar. 29. This article, carrying the by-line of Mrs. Soininen, referred to Goebel as "the grand actor, star of the proceedings" and went on to say "... but for a mere flyspeck of technicality, he would be otherwise engaged in other star performances—ambulance chasing, fee splitting or dabbling with guest editorials."

Goebel pointed out today that "Mrs. Soininen and the Centre Island News have 'exceeded the bounds of propriety' by unjustifiably having attacked and having permitted attack on the professional integrity and repute of a lawyer in good standing at the bar. The statements, if true, warrant disbarment. The implications cannot be permitted to go unchallenged."

Bishop to Bless New Chapel, Hall

HICKSVILLE — Holy Trinity Episcopal Church's new Chapel and Parish Hall will be blessed by Bishop DeWolfe next Sunday morning, Apr. 8. At 9 A.M. the bishop will be at the church to celebrate the Holy Eucharist service.

The Rt. Rev. Shirley H. Nichols is scheduled to visit the church here on Wednesday, Apr. 18. Bishop Nichols, the retired Bishop of Salina, Kansas, will administer Holy Confirmation to classes now in preparation.

Social events planned by the church include a Smorgasbord Feast on Saturday, Apr. 14, at 5:30 P.M. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

A two-day Rummage Sale has been scheduled by the Altar Guild for Friday and Saturday, Apr. 29 and 30. Both events will be held in the Parish Hall.

ONE OF TWO EAST OF MISSISSIPPI:

Sign to Flash Hour, Temperature

HICKSVILLE—The roof top of the new Seaman & Eisenmann building at 167 H'way., here, now gives the exact time and local outdoor temperature to north and south traffic on Broadway.

The new installation is the first sign in this state to flash the time and temperature, alternatingly on the same set of bulbs. The only other sign of this type east of the Mississippi River it set up in New Jersey.

Seaman & Eisenmann's sign, however, was constructed under a newer, less complicated patent. It is the first sign in the country under the new patent, according to George Schneider, owner of the County Neon Sign Corp.

County Neon, at 11 Jerusalem Ave., here, constructed, wired and installed the sign. The unit was bought from a New York City firm which owns the new patent.

The double-faced sign faces north and south, lighting the same message both ways. A top line reads "INSURANCE." The line under it flashes numerals telling the correct time of day beneath the word, "TIME" for six seconds. When the time goes off, the word "TEMP" gleams for six seconds, below numerals telling the outdoor temperature in Fahrenheit degrees. Then the "time" lights again, and then the temperature, alternatingly.

The 11-feet high and 8½ feet long sign is clearly readable for a distance of 750 feet, Schneider said. White frosted bulbs shine from a porcelain body.

Time is kept by an electronic thermo control unit underneath the sign. When this area changes from Eastern Standard Time to Daylight Saving Time, a remote control button in the building makes the adjustment.

GOP Women Hear Of Fire Safety

HICKSVILLE—The Center Island Women's Republican Club, with Mrs. Paul S. Drake, presiding, met Monday evening, Mar. 20, at the Town Republican headquarters on Newbridge Rd.

Emil J. Szendy, School Board member, spoke on "Fire Safety in Our Schools." He said "we can be proud of the care taken in our schools for fire prevention". He spoke of the precautions taken in the construction of schools. He cited the fact the top of all stairways are enclosed to prevent up-drafts, which causes fire to spread rapidly. He also stated that all inflammable materials have been fireproofed. Szendy said the community owes a debt of gratitude to the Fire Dept. for their excellent cooperation with the School District, namely, checking of sprinkler systems and fire extinguishers and numerous other measures to insure the safety of the children. Ernest Francke, Nassau County Clerk, spoke on the importance of voting in the June 5 primary. He said, "How we vote then, determines who we shall have in the top echelon, and in the final analysis it is up to the voter to choose his representatives."

List Student In Who's Who

JERICHO — Miss Imogene Albrecht, a senior at State Teachers College at New Paltz, will be listed this year in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

Miss Albrecht is one of 16 seniors to represent the school in the directory, according to Donald G. Whittridge, dean of students at New Paltz. The 21 years old student has been on the Dean's List for academic excellence, throughout her college years.

Miss Albrecht graduated from Hicksville High School in 1953. She attended Jericho elementary school. When Miss Albrecht graduates in June, she plans to teach elementary school, probably the fifth grade.

SCHOOL BOARD SITUATION:

The Ill-Repute of Our District

By EMIL J. SZENDY

The present leftovers from the old Board majority, Mrs. Sutton and Mr. Cawley, have recently taken to bemoaning the ill-repute into which the District has fallen. The ill-repute acquired during the period when the majority controlled and perpetrated abominations from which stench spread far and wide. They do not express regret for the abominations; they bemoan only the stench,—it should not have been permitted to spread, or been noticed, or been found objectionable.

The catalogue of abominations is lengthy and will be covered in several articles. Presented without slant or coloration, they serve as a severe indictment of the old Board majority.

First, let us consider the present situation on the Board, an abomination with stench noted wherever the metropolitan and Long Island papers are read.

Three trustees have been ousted by Supreme Court decisions following suits brought by taxpayers. Yocum and Soininen had been seated contrary to the "clear and unmistakable" meaning of the statute. The natural reaction of the reading public was "How could this happen?" "Something must be rotten in Denmark (or Hicksville)".

Leavitt was ousted because his appointment depended on the votes of Yocum and Soininen. The election of Yocum and Soininen had been found nugatory (without effect) and invalid.

The Leavitt appointment was made at 4:30 A.M., fifteen minutes after a vacancy had been declared. That carried a stench of its own, a stench of high-handedness and power politics. To make the appointment, Yocum and Soininen, whose elections had already been challenged, voted. They could have abstained, and permitted the filling of the post by election, as taxpayers had petitioned. The post would then have been legally filled, regardless of the adjudication of their own elections. But no, power hunger or something else drove them to participate. Leavitt was appointed,—and has now been ousted.

The Board was reduced to four members, and that too was noted by the metropolitan newspapers. All four members must be present and vote as one to pass any Board action, said the counsel to the Department of Education. It does not make sense, and competent legal opinion believes otherwise.

A single solution to eliminate any stalemate thus created would have been an immediate election to fill the posts of the ousted trustees. They could have run, and been either reinstated or replaced, and the District would have been back in business again. Yocum, Soininen, Leavitt, Cawley and Sutton have prevented the holding of a special election.

A special election is necessary to remove all possibility of illegality in filling the posts vacated by Yocum and Soininen. One would assume that these gentlemen would run to the Board with their written acquiescences, so that the matter could be cleared up quickly and once and for all. Besides the election of four trustees, the District will probably vote on a referendum for additional monies for the Junior High School, bids for which came in some $350,000 higher than the appropriation, and for purchase of the Willet Avenue site.

If an election for the posts vacated by Yocum and Soininen were held on Saturday, April 28, the Junior High School money and the Willet Ave. site could be voted on at the same time. Also, additional temporary classrooms could be put on the same referendum, if Cawley and Sutton abandon hope of more permanent construction, already twice defeated by the taxpayers. That would leave, for Tuesday, approval or rejection of the budget, and for Wednesday, vote on three trustees. It makes sense to split things up this way, and the results would not be challenged for illegality.

Will the Board act sensibly? Or will Cawley and Sutton insist on further complicating a sorry, smelly mess?

Remember . . .

BETHPAGE — Lawrence J. Hawley, whose Army record in Korea was reported to be excellent and whose family has been associated with the Navy long and often, has donned a new uniform recently.

Hawley graduated from the Nassau County Police Academy in Mineola on Mar. 29. He is serving now as a probationary patrolman in the seventh precinct, Seaford.

The 25 year old Bethpage man lives at 58 Parc View Circle, South, here, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Hawley, his wife, Haroko (Patricia), and their two children, Michael and Patricia. Mrs. Hawley is Japanese by birth, and came to this country as a war bride in 1954, with her husband.

WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

A good time was had by all who attended the White Elephant Sale and Dance sponsored by the Pine Ave. P-TA on Mar. 24. There was lots of dancing and entertainment, but the evening's festivities came to a climax when Edward Prinz, dressed as a white elephant started the auction of "white elephants" that everyone brought so attractively gift wrapped.

The blind auction thus was indeed very amusing since no one knew what they were bidding for until they opened up the packages. The door prizes were won by: Mrs. Zeld Plotkin, two turkey dinners at Anselmi's Restaurant; Mrs. Shirley Sapin, set of dishes; Mrs. Ann Kelly, set of hand towels; and George Sapin, five quarts of oil.

Mrs. Dorothy Fink and Mrs. Zeld Plotkin, co-chairmen of Budget and Finance committee who ran this affair would like to thank the many people who worked with them on the committee. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Litterine, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kee, Mrs. Betty King, Mrs. Julia Green, Max Baum, Sol Fink, Minnie Pace, Morrey Plotkin, and Mr. and Mrs. Prinz. The dance took place at the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. clubhouse on Stewart and Cherry Aves.

Pupils Will Not Have To Makeup

BETHPAGE — Bethpage public school students will not have to make up the two days lost on Mar. 19 and 20 because of the heavy snows.

School authorities say they have applied to the Town of Oyster Bay Highway Dept. for a letter to Albany citing the impassability of roads.

Easter vacation began half a day late for the Broadway High School students here, however. School was open Thursday morning to make up for time lost in October, 1955, because of a broken pipe.

P-TA SPRING DANCE

The second annual Bethpage P-TA Spring Dance will be held on Saturday, May 26, at the Bethpage Country Club. Music will be provided by Mr. Colletta's Orchestra, and there will be dancing from 10 P.M. to 3 A.M. Tickets to the affair are $2 per person and table reservations may be made for a party of four or more couples.

The committee wishes to advise everyone to get tickets early since the success of last year's dance may increase the demand. The number of tickets will be limited. Tickets will be sold at all Bethpage P-TA meeting at each school, and can be had by contacting the following chairmen: Mrs. Lee Mordhorst (Broadway School), 51 Essex Road; Mr. William Doyle (Powell Ave. School), 314 Broadway; Mrs. Fred Sherman (Central Blvd. School), 281 Broadway; and Mrs. Viola Chandler (Pine Ave. School), 1142 Stewart Avenue.

Open House for Jericho Parents

JERICO—The April 16 meeting of the P-TA will be an Open House for parents at both the Robert Seaman and Cedar Swamp Rd. schools.

On Monday night, Mar. 26, a nominating committee was chosen to present a slate of new officers to the association at the May meeting. At that time, too, the election of officers will be held.

The association also chose members for a new committee being organized by the school board. The committee members, recruited from among eight local organizations including the P-TA, will work with the board on plans for the new elementary school approved for the Jackson site.

Prof. Alva Bahnsen, associate professor of history at the C. W. Post College on Jericho Tpke., was guest speaker at the meeting. He told the parents and teachers what the United Nations has been doing to help provide food and medical aid for displaced and parent-less children.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Deliberate Confusion

By Fred J. Noeth

FEAR BASED UPON CONFUSION is being maliciously used in the Hicksville School Board situation by various proponents. To hear it told earlier this week, Hicksville will be deserted by the faculty en masse . . . schools may not open in September . . . the education of the children is going to pot . . . all is confusion.

We don't expect that our few remarks will be acceptable to the extremists. We are currently the objective of a big smear technique and some of the things we have seen in print about ourselves have made us wonder how we could live with such a hateful person (if we are to believe the assertions) as ourselves.

May we take the teacher salary schedule question for an example of how fear and confusion is being carefully planted and spread? Early in March, proposed salary schedules for next year came before the board of Education. The Citizens Advisory Committee (which, it is recalled, is largely the appointees of the former controlling Board majority), offered a new schedule. The Classroom Teachers Assoc. of the local schools offered its schedule. The School Administrators said they concurred with the more conservative proposals of the Citizens Committee.

The Citizens Committee—which includes at least two teachers as members—acted after its five-member subcommittee (which included a teacher) had held three meetings, studied and compared salary schedules for 54 districts in Nassau and met with the Classroom Teachers for discussion. The resulting schedule was offered as being "equal to or better than most school districts in Nassau area."

A teacher's salary schedule, it should be remembered, is a year-by-year progression fixing the pay for teachers employed by the district. All schedules provide for annual increases, beginning with the first year and spanning a period of 15 or 16 years with the local schools. (See Tables, Page 7).

When the schedules came up a year ago, Dr. E. H. LeBaron, then superintendent, commented that during 18 years with the Hicksville Schools the salary schedule had been revised upwardly every year.

As we said, the three proposals (Classroom Teachers, Citizens Committee and Administrators) were received by the Board and then taken under individual consideration for action at a subsequent meeting.

In the meantime, the Citizens Committee revised their original proposals still higher.

The Board of Education by four affirmative votes, last Thursday night, approved the new upwardly revised schedule urged by the Citizens' Advisory Committee. The Administration had not offered a new schedule. Board member Joseph Cawley had whipped up his own little schedule which fell just between the Advisory Committee's proposals and the Classroom Teachers request. His schedule, unsupported by the research and diligent work of the Advisory Group, failed to get affirmative vote.

It is interesting to note that the Advisory Committee got this comment by its subcommittee, headed by Chairman Herbert H. Johnson, "The time has come to start to slow down the continuing spiraling of teachers' salaries." The Johnson committee included Henry Yost, James Barron, Chester Jaworski and Walter Schreiber.

Threats of wholesale resignations, remarks such as "they have us over a barrel" expressed publicly by Board President Edna Sutton as she voted for the adopted schedule, and other gestures are highly improper and hardly conducive to improvement of the already confused situation in the Hicksville School District.

Question: Reader L. F. writes: I have worked under social security for more than 15 years and am getting at least one-half of their support from 300. They must be single. HERALD READER OPINION:

Maloney Attempts to 'Clear Up'

By JOSEPH MALONEY

To the Editor:

The Goebel-Szendy-Eirich team of "Division Ave. Divisionists" have created and spread a number of false impressions about the former five member Hicksville School Board majority, particularly about my three team-mates—Bill Yocum, Ott Soiminen and Milt Leavitt.

I shall limit myself to clearing up one of these false impressions, in the hope that you will not be guilty in the future of helping to spread such or similar misinformation. Furthermore, I hope to clear up these matters for all Hicksville residents.

The completely erroneous false impression is that "Messrs. Yocum, Soiminen and Leavitt did something wrong in serving on the Board; and got away with it till the Supreme Court caught them."

This impression is so wrong as to be humorous but unfortunately many people believe it. Anyone who reads your paper consistently (and I do), but does not attend Board meetings and take the trouble to analyze the facts as I have, would believe it too.

Let's look at the facts:

(1) Bill Yocum and Ott Soiminen ran for the School Board at a special election when the number of members was increased from 5 to 7. Bill got 46 per cent of the votes running against Goebel, DeLorme and Harding (Goebel got 9 per cent). Ott Soiminen got 43 per cent against Eaton and Toppetta. They won by a plurality (the candidate with the most votes). At the regular May elections, Bill and Ott would clearly have been declared the winners, since a plurality is sufficient.

The law on special elections dit-fers somewhat from that for regular May elections and the Goebel-Eaton appeal (by the two losers who refused to accept defeat like good sports) was made to the Commissioner of Education. The Commissioner, the highest legal authority available and the superior to the Board of Education, according to State Law, ruled that Yocum and Soiminen were properly elected. Goebel and Eaton then took the cases to Judge Hamm who ruled that the two men had needed a majority (over 50 per cent) to be elected and were therefore declared not elected. The Commissioner immediately appealed this ruling to the next of two higher courts and forbade the holding of an election to fill the "vacated" seats pending the appeal.

What did these two men do that was wrong? Answer—Absolutely nothing. They ran, got most of the votes, served the district well, and on learning of the ruling stepped down gracefully. Yocum and Soiminen are not waiting for the Commissioner's appeal but are running again to let the people decide. They have been honest enough not to go against the Commissioner of Education whom Mr. Goebel has labelled a bad loser and Mr. Szendy a dictator.

Goebel and Eaton were clearly within their legal rights to appeal to the Commissioner and later to the Supreme Court. However, they are responsible for reducing the Board to five members.

When Mr. School resigned last July the six remaining members appointed Milt Leavitt by a 4-2 vote. Since this was the normal usual way of filling a vacancy till the next regular elections, Messrs. Goebel, Szendy, Eirich made the usual, normal way seem quite dishonest and cleverly stalled the Board meeting so that the appointment occurred at a late hour. The Goebel-Stephan appeal to the Commissioner to remove Leavitt based on the late hour had only nuisance value but was cleverly used locally to discredit the Board Majority.

When Yocum and Soiminen were removed, Milt Leavitt was also removed simply because their two votes were decisive in his appointment. Leavitt did nothing wrong nor did Yocum or Soiminen.

Again Goebel-Eaton-Stephan are responsible for the present four member impasse. By no stretch of the imagination have Yocum, Soiminen or Leavitt caused any of it.

When these three men learned as a result of the discussion in Albany with the Commissioner, which you and I attended, that their resignations would clear the way for a solution, they immediately announced that they wished to resign.

Obviously a special election on April 7 is not the answer. In fact, if more than two candidates ran for each vacancy, winners would receive pluralities only, and $1,000 of taxpayers money would have been wasted since pluralities count only at the May 2 election, according to Judge Hamm.

When Board business is blocked by the reduction in membership from 7 to 4, when teachers leave Hicksville for neighboring communities since the salary situation and Board policy are uncertain, when precious Board time is wasted by Szendy and Eirich exploiting and enjoying the confusion and lack of progress, when next year's school budget is jeopardized, blame Goebel, Eaton, Stephan, Eirich and Szendy. They won their case. The Hicksville school children and the people of Hicksville are the losers.

The voters will have their opportunity to award or reject Eaton and Eirich. Goebel should also run again to give the people of Hicksville a chance to show their feelings for what someone has referred to as the "Minorities Mouthpiece". I should be most happy to run again, either of them and to discuss the issues, publicly any place, any time.

Talent Show Satires Board

HICKSVILLE—The Senior High School P-T-A is presenting a talent show on Friday April 20 and Saturday, April 21 at 8:30 P.M. Teachers and parents will provide the entertainment for the evening, according to PTA president Dominic Schabatis.

The teachers, under the direction of Mr. Beller will provide several song and dance acts. The parents will supply the pantomimes, satires and comedy acts.

One of the highlights of the evening will be a satire on any Board of Education in action. The cast for this act include Walter Schelling as president, E. Irving Jensen as Secretary and also Frank Muller, John Mac Carron and George Belford as trustees. Mrs. Belford and Mrs. Visalli are teacher candidates applying for a position.

Other acts include a Paris Night Club Scene, A Trained Seal Act, A Charleston Number, and many other hilarious skits. A most entertaining evening is in store for all. In addition, our high school students will benefit by all the shenanigans, for the entire proceeds will go to the student scholarship fund. The admission is only 50 cents, so let's make a date for either Friday, April 20 or Sat., April 21 at the auditorium of the new high school on Division Ave. 8:30 P.M.

Start Work On Library May 1

HICKSVILLE—Work may begin on the Public Library addition on Jerusalem Ave. by May 1, according to Kenneth E. Barnes, director of the library.

He estimated that by that time the architect will have secured final approval of the plans and specifications from the State Department of Education in Albany, and the contracts will have been advertised for bidding and awarded. The School Board gave its approval to the plans and specifications when it met with the Library Board and the architect, last Thursday night.

Barnes expects to stage a ground-breaking ceremony on about May 1, when work on the $252,000 project begins. He said that according to the architect's predictions, the new addition would be completed in about a year.

While the contractors are building the extension there may be certain times when the library may have to close, Barnes said. He pointed out that the builders would be working on the existing structures as well as outside on the new construction.

The library board has hired the architect firm of Chapman, Evans and Delehanty for the new addition. Steven Nolan, of the New York firm, has been working on the project.

Day of Music for Elementary

HICKSVILLE—It will be Instrumental Day for the local elementary schools on Saturday, April 28, when a program will be held at 3 P.M. in the Division Ave. School auditorium.

Each school will be represented by its own band and band director. There will also be string ensembles and some outstanding soloists. Each school has done something to be proud of that it is anxious to show to parents and friends, according to the school music dept. There has been a steady growth again this year in the instrumental department. The total number of children studying instruments at this time is 460, of which 300 are in the school bands and in string groups, officials say.

The public is invited to see and hear for themselves the progress that has been made.

Report To Taxpayers:

By SOL ZIMMERMAN

The Hicksville School Board, at the meeting held March 29, did not accept the "resignation" of Mr. Vocum. Messrs. Szendy and Elrich contended that since Supreme Court Justice Hamu had ruled that Mr. Vocum's election was a nullity, Mr. Vocum held no office from which he could "resign".

At a previous Board meeting, the School Administration had recommended the adoption of two changes in the District's Transportation Policy. One change was adopted immediately after it was introduced. It will provide for the transportation, next year, of a number of junior and senior high school students who are not riding at present. The other policy change failed to receive Board approval at the March 29 meeting. It provides that distances to schools be measured to the nearest useable entrance instead of the front door as is the present practice. Trustee Elrich opposed this change. While measurement to the nearest entrance appears to be more equitable, Mr. Elrich's opposition is probably based on the possibility that many taxpayers would not favor the elimination of transportation for 321 younger children, from Kindergarten to 6th year, while, at the same time, granting it to older children. This would be the net effect of the adoption of both policy changes. The decision on adopting these policy changes could very well have been left to the taxpayers.

The Board failed to approve the legal notices relating to the Annual Budget Meeting May 1, and the Regular School Election, May 2. Publication of these notices must begin not later than April 4. Mr. Szendy objected to the wording of the proposed notice. He contended that the law, based on Judge Hamu's decision, required that a special election to fill the unexpired terms of the ousted Board members is the first order of business. Consideration of matters relating to the Annual Meeting and Election would then be in order.

Architectural plans for an addition to the public library were presented to the Board. The addition was authorized by the taxpayers in a recent referendum. The Board accepted and approved the plans. Invitations to bid will be sent out in the near future.

The Board finally adopted a new Salary Schedule for Teachers. The adopted schedule was recommended by the Citizens' Advisory Committee who had revised its original proposal. The Advisory Committee had put forth a tremendous effort in preparing a schedule which would be fair and equitable to the teachers and the taxpayers. After the schedule was adopted, Mr. Isaacs, representing the Hicksville Classroom Teachers Assoc., made a public statement. He protested that the increases were inadequate and, consequently, many teachers would leave the school system. The schedule was adopted after a schedule proposed by Trustee Cawley had been defeated by the negative votes of Trustees Elrich and Szendy. Comparative figures are given in the accompanying table.

After Mr. Cawley's proposal was defeated, President Sutton gave Messrs. Elrich and Szendy a caustic tongue-lashing for failing to approve the proposal. Mrs. Sutton's castigation was in line with a new principle of democratic government which is becoming quite a fad among some of our citizens. The principle is that if an elected official does his duty as he thinks his constituents want him to, he is a fair target for violent abuse and insults by those who disagree with him. He may then justly be accused of being evil and sinister, of paralyzing the School Board, of ruining our Educational System, and loads of similar tommyrot. Let us remember that opposition and honest differences of opinion provide the necessary vitality to make the "American Way" work. Those who yearn for the ways of dictatorship are bound to be unhappy in a democratic climate of government.

Reader Opinion

By SUE SCHULT

To the Editor:

Mr. De Shaw's letter to the editor would be considered bad taste but for the source. Always the bridesmaid and never the bride, Mr. De Shaw has had his name on the ballot to run for the School Board twice and twice withdrew. Ran for Water Commissioner last year and was real low man on the totem pole. Ran for Democratic Committee man unopposed and lost. A member of the Taxpayers Association—rabble rousers that get nowhere fast. A man such as he condemns a group of well educated, truly sincere men who are willing to give of their time and talents. Men who are willing to take the abuse and criticism of those who have tried to make the goal and failed.

I have never met Dr. Maloney but I admire him for his keen interest in the education of our children. What his politics are (Democrat or Republican) should have no bearing on his qualifications as a candidate for the School Board. One has to admire a man who will stand up and fight for the things he believes in. I as a staunch Republican and fighter for the majority say "Yea Team—Yocum—Soininen—Leavitt and Maloney—all the way!"

The bride, in a gown of Spanish Chantilly lace over satin, was given in marriage by her father. She carried two white orchids on a prayer book, with stephanotis streamers.

She was preceded down the aisle by Gail and Palma Craddock, her nieces, who were flower girls. In white tulle hemmed with white roses, they carried pink old fashioned bouquets of sweet peas and daisies. Their head pieces were in matching pink.

Patricia Anne DuPriest, the sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a pale lavender tulle and net gown, trimmed with white daisies. Her old fashioned bouquet was of yellow sweet peas and daisies, and her head piece was yellow to match.

Three bridesmaids wore the opposite arrangement of the same colors, lavender and yellow. They were Katherine Zoubantes, of 35 Duffy Ave. here; Laura Marino, of 11th St. here; and Ruth Ramos, of East Meadow.

'Tho April Showers

Will come your way, you won't mind them so much if you bear in mind that the flowers won't bloom without them, that every dark cloud has a silver lining and that we really have so much to be thankful for it seems a pity to complain about a little shower. And, of course, rain or shine, you can count on consistently fine drinks, food and service at this restaurant. Whether you come in for lunch or dinner, you will find a real appetizing menu. We are looking forward to the privilege of adding your name to the ever-growing list of satisfied customers who come regularly to the Alibi Restaurant, 50 Old Country Road.

HERALD READER OPINION:

Open Letter To Zimmerman

My dear Mr. Zimmerman:

I have just finished reading your column, "Report to Taxpayers," in the March 29 issue of the Herald. One thing you said in that column has been revolving in my head, to such an extent that I have gone back several times to reread the sentence.

In noting your opinion that three teachers are too many on a seven man board, you made this statement, and I quote: "The best interests of the teachers are not always coincident with the best interests of the pupils and/or taxpayers." You also cite some of the things which Mr. Leavitt has tried to promote during his tenure of office, among which was his "advocacy of small class sizes in order to lighten the teachers' load."

From the way you state it, it would appear that all teachers want, is high salaries and small classes so they can sit back and rest! Mr. Zimmerman, do you know why teachers all over this country are concerned with large classes? As a teacher I can tell you. We want to be able to work with every pupil we have—not a large mass—each one as individually as possible. We want to be able to encourage the leaders, lead the brilliant into further fields, open new pathways to all. We want to help the less brilliant who need a little extra help to keep up with the class. We want time to work after school, coaching plays, operettas, teaching twirling, taking children on trips to see things in which they are interested.

Mr. Zimmerman, do you know any teachers personally? Do you know why they are teachers? If we were interested only in making money, we would never become teachers. Why are so many men, with master's degrees, even doctorates, in the teaching field? For the money? Industry could pay much more.

No. Fortunately for you, Mr. Zimmerman, and all other parents, most of our teachers are teaching because they love kids—yours and everybody else's. We like working with youngsters. It gives us a satisfaction that all the money in the world couldn't purchase. Our best interests are in the best interests of the students, because we are professional people. Teaching is not only a profession, it is a calling.

Taypayers

on the Steamroller at 4:00 A.M., a half hour after Mr. School's resignation was read and accepted. Of course, after his appointment, Mr. Leavitt became so adept at the use of this technique that he soon took over the controls of the Steamroller.

What is the "Technique of the Steamroller"? Briefly, it consists of an agreement among the members of the majority, sometimes after consultations with advisors, to introduce, suddenly, at a Board meeting, an important matter, policy, or item of Board business. Out of a clear sky, Trustees Szendy and Erich have thrust under their noses, for immediate consideration, a very important matter. The subject may even have merit. Messrs. Szendy and Erich are not given time to study the matter or to consult with their constituents. The Steamroller takes over and the issue is settled without delay.

Mr. Leavitt plans to bring to the attention of the voters some of the matters on which Szendy and Erich voted "no" or "abstained". Some of the proposals may have been good. But will Mr. Leavitt point out to the citizens that on almost all of the matters, Szendy and Erich had no information until a scant half hour before the vote was taken. We can recall no instance, during the past ten months, that the Board majority willingly permitted postponement of a vote in order to give the minority an opportunity to study the problem. A study of the Minutes of Board meetings will prove this to be true. Tabled motions or postponed votes are practically non-existent.

Even the important matter of a dossier of the District's children was introduced, unexpectedly, by Mr. Leavitt and was rammed through by the Steamroller after less than a half hour of discussion. Subsequently, at a public forum, sponsored by the Hicksville Youth Co-ordinating Council, Mr. Leavitt admitted that suggestions made by those present, including his present teammate, Dr. Joseph Maloney, were meritorious. He promised to reopen the matter at a future Board meeting. That was the last that was heard of it. Public discussion and education, before adoption, would have been in the public interest. The "Technique of the Steamroller" precluded this sensible procedure.

For the same reason that a doctor gets out of bed at three in the morning because your child has a tummy ache, so does a teacher stay after school to have conferences with experts about the child who sits quietly all day and never joins in with the class—about the boy who wants to hurt anything and anybody and is full of resentments. That's why we spend hours hunting for new materials to make what we teach more interesting. That's why we continue to do graduate work, to improve and improve ourselves as teachers.

And, Mr. Zimmerman, if you will think it over, you will see that hiring and keeping the kind of teacher I have described is in the best interests of the taxpayers also. What kind of a community are we if we are not providing the best of everything for our children? Please remember that the most important piece of equipment in the school room is the teacher.

(Mrs.) Audrey B. Foley, Teacher,
Jamaalton Ave. Junior High School,
Hicksville, New York.
Mar. 29, 1954.

St Boniface Top Bantams

MINEOLA — The St. Ignatius Bantam basketball team of Hicksville traveled to Chamaine High School, here, Sunday, and were defeated for the Nassau County Championship by St. Boniface of Elmont.

The Saints, who have been noted for their last period comebacks, have snatched victory from defeat all season long against great odds. They have been able to do this because of their team spirit and aggressiveness. Sunday, they met a team of the same calibre who had just a little more fight and team spirit.

The boys from St. Ignatius played a slow deliberate game in the first half but their shooting from the outside along with their foul shooting was slightly off and St. Boniface built up an early lead by Cucinello.

At the beginning of the second half, the Saints, led by Cerone, started to move, but the early first half lead built up by St. Boniface was too much for the boys to overcome.

The St. Ignatius CYO Sports Assoc. is proud of the way this team handled itself throughout the season. They have been committed throughout the Northern Division for their team spirit, sportsmanship and fair play and for this reason they are a credit to their parish, parents, school and themselves.

The boys who played on this team which won the Division Championship but lost the County Championship are as follows: McGinnigh, Connerly, Harmon, Remels, Ceone, DeStonaco, Nasso, McGulre, Bassi and O'Neill.

Christian Mothers Enjoy Play

By MRS. JOHN REGAN
The St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers held its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, March 26, at the St. Ignatius School, Hicksville.

4 Car Crash Here Saturday

HICKSVILLE—Two moving and two parked cars were in collision Saturday, Mar. 31, on Broadway near E. Cherry St., here.

The driver of one car, Edward J. Gorlitz, 34, of 15 Arnold Ave., here, was sent to Meadowbrook Hospital along with three year old Edward Gorlitz, an occupant of the car. Both were treated for contusions, and the little boy for shock.

The other driver, Henry Ohlenschlager, 66, of Susan St., here, could not produce his driver's license at the accident, according to the police.

Gorlitz and Ohlenschlager were both headed north on Bway., when they collided with two parked cars, standing on either side of the street. The parked cars were owned by M. Luera, of 46 Cliff Dr. and Thomas Skelly, of 125 Halsey Ave., here.

School Board

ment of the basement in the Jr. High for supervised recreation; which could also be used for audio-visual aid classes.

Construction of this area, Miller said, would enable the instruction of 320 additional students. Cawley, intimating that such wording would not secure the approval of the electorate, suggested that the wording be changed to "supervised supplemental educational activities."

Miller, in answer to objections by Eirich and Szendy, said that if the District would build for all Jr. HS students, we wouldn't need to go to this extreme.

Eirich and Szendy voted in the negative on the motion, with Szendy stating that he did not consider it desirable to ask the voters to spend $125,000 for a cellar area, since he believed that amount of money could be better used elsewhere for facilities if needed.

The Willet Ave. site came up for discussion, with Eirich, Szendy and Cawley voting in favor of it being presented to the voters on May 2 for approval. Edna Sutton, board president, voted no, "even though the district needs the property badly", since there was a question in Attorney Crane's mind as to whether it could legally be done at that time even though the money would be taken out of surplus.

At 1:07 a.m. Tuesday morning, after considerable hassle over the Yocum situation, Szendy walked out declaring, he was fed up with the foolishness and nonsense of Cawley and Sutton, and that the matter of Yocum would not be resolved as long as Cawley insisted that Yocum was to remain a test case, thus defeating the wishes of the taxpayers.

Sister Rose Dominic thanked all those good men and women who so graciously give their time and help during the school noon hour. Sister Rose Dominic asked all mothers to cooperate fully with the Nuns and teachers and to impress upon their children respect for their superiors.

Mrs. Harriet Seith announced that April will be the last meeting at which tickets will be sold for the Communion Breakfast to be held on Sunday, May 27, at Henning's Restaurant. The Rosary Altar Society will hold a card party on Tuesday, April 10 for the benefit of the Little Sisters of the Sick Poor. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

On Friday, April 13, at 2:00 P.M., the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine will show a film on Cancer. It will benefit greatly, all those people who have a terrible dread of cancer.

Mrs. Edward Lynch gave a wonderful book report on "True Devotion." Mrs. Sullivan announced an intermission at which time pamphlets on marriage and care of the children were sold.

After intermission, a two act play, "The True Devotion" by St. Louis De Montfort was presented. A wonderful portrayal of character acting was displayed by three very fine participants, all past presidents of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Dorothy Willant played the part of Madeline, a loving mother of five children and a good home-maker. Mrs. Marij Montana, also a happy wife and kindly neighbor acted the part of Sally. Mrs. Dorothy Griffen was magnificent in her portrayal of the tired, harassed Joan, who just can't seem to get started in the morning. Wondering how her neighbors always seem so happy and bright, yet constantly busy, Joan soon learns the secret by reading a small booklet on "True Devotion," presented to her by her two neighbors, Madeline and Sally. By True Devotion to Mary, the Mother of God and constant perseverance at everyday tasks, offering up all to God through Mary His Mother; drab household tasks can become a loving habit.

Mrs. Willant should be congratulated as both author of the play and thespian. The Auxiliary was proud of all three former presidents on their display of good talent. Rev. Lawrence Ballweg gave a brilliant talk on St. Louis De Montfort and fully explained the meaning of True Devotion. Father Ballweg said that on Oct. 11, 1954, Pope Pius XII issued an encyclical stating that, Mary, as Queen was to have a feast-day to be celebrated yearly on May 31. Father Ballweg also said that True Devotion to Mary gives everyone a feeling of being accepted in whatever he does; a feeling of importance; also a feeling of security in this life and the life hereafter.

Sister Rose Dominic said that St. Ignatius School will resume again on Monday, April 9, at 9 A.M. Mrs. Sullivan, President of the St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers asked Rev. Wissler to adjourn the meeting with a prayer.
