Fog Cuts Down Senior Flight to Washington

HICKSVILLE—The senior high school class's one day trip to Washington, D. C. and back, Saturday, Apr. 28, was cut even shorter by an early morning fog.

The 124 students and four chaperoning teachers left here a little after 5 AM for LaGuardia Airport. Their three planes, however, were grounded because of the poor visibility caused by the fog. Instead of leaving at the scheduled 6:30, they didn't leave until 10 AM.

The class took the usual sightseeing tour of the capital, however, which included seeing the White House, touring the Capitol, and seeing the monuments, the Treasury, Engraving, and other government buildings. They saw the changing of the guard at the Grave of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery, Va.

The students returned in two planes, which landed at 7:30 and 9:30 PM. For many students, the trip was their first airplane flight.

Arrange Joint Fire Drill on May 20

PLAINVIEW—Volunteer fire departments of the 9th Battalion, embracing the mid-island area, will conduct a special mutual aid drill here on Sunday morning, May 20 starting at 10 o'clock. It will be presumed that a major shopping centre on Oyster Bay Rd. is afire. Members of the Hicksville Fire Dept. will drill on Tuesday night, May 15, on New South Rd. at about 8 o'clock in the use of the new 75-foot aerial ladder as a water tower, cooperating with pump companies.

Gas Station Sales Benefit PBC

HICKSVILLE—The Nassau County Police Boys Club will benefit by 10 percent of the cash sales at the Ulmer Service Station, corner of W. Carl St. and Old Country Rd., Hicksville on next Wednesday, May 16.

The proceeds will go toward a worthy cause and the Hicksville unit will share in the benefits.

Glee Club Wins LI Championship

HICKSVILLE—The Glee Club of St. Ignatius School, has been invited to give a concert in the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, as a result of winning the Greater Long Island Glee Club Championship.

The Greater LI District embraces the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens in New York City, and the counties of Nassau and Suffolk here on the island.

Having won the County championship, the Club met the Suffolk champs in Hempstead and defeated them for the Eastern LI championship. The following week they went into Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, and defeated the Western Long Island champs to clinch the title.

The 48 members of the Glee Club are in grades 4 through 12 at St. Ignatius school, and are under the direction of Mrs. William Dooley, Director of Music at the school, and organist of St. Ignatius Loyola RC Church.

COMPLETE BOARD BY JULY 1:

June Election Looms For Yocum Position

HICKSVILLE—The four-member Board of Education is scheduled to hold a regular meeting this Friday night (tomorrow) in the new high school, the first since the annual meeting and election which saw Arthur L. Eirich re-elected and Robert Eaton and Allen Carpenter elected, due to take office July 1. No change in the administration of the lame duck board is anticipated until the reorganization meeting of the Board during the first week of July.

The Board at its meeting will be confronted with several problems. One will be the "vacancy" caused by the "resignation" at the annual meeting of defacto member William L. Yocum. It is expected a special election to fill the position will be held, probably by the end of June, which will then provide the district with a full complement of seven members by July 1.

SUPPORT FOR GOODRICH
The Hicksville Citizens for Better Government in School Affairs this week reaffirmed its position disclosed last February when a special election for the Yocum position appeared likely. The association is on record in support of Robert Goodrich of Angle Lane as a candidate for this office.

Eirich, Eaton and Carpenter who had the active support of the Hicksville Citizens for Better Government in School Affairs in the annual election today expressed their thanks and appreciation to all voters for the confidence shown at the polls. (See story on Page 3).

"We will do our utmost to merit this confidence and strengthen it," they said. "Our principles and policies remain the same as they were throughout the campaign."

The Board tomorrow night will also have before it the one-sentence resignation of Emily Waxberg as district clerk, effective May 15.

It has been reported that W. Donald Walling, assistant superintendent of schools for business administration, has told intimates that he plans to submit his resignation, effective July 1. This report has not been confirmed.

Reports of "wholesale" resignations by teachers have not materialized.

BOOST TAX RATE

At the annual meeting on May 1, the voters increased the amount of the budget by $149,400, to make the gross total $5,140,297.43 and in the process added about 20 cents per $100 to the tax rate for next year. The tax rate for school-library purposes, based on $73 million assessment, is thus forecast at $4.01 per $100.

Added to the budget by vote of the meeting was $14,900 to increase principals' salaries, $100,000 for teacher pay increases, $14,500 more for student transportation and $20,000 for a recreation program.

The recreation plan, according to the motion, will be subject to a public referendum, possibly by mid-summer.

Fee for Beach Stickers Likely

OYSTER BAY—Town officials are giving serious consideration to a proposal that season stickers for township beaches be issued upon payment of a fee, effective this season. A fee of $3 for the full season has been proposed. It is understood. Advancing costs of maintenance of the beach facilities it is understood has led to the proposal. The two other townships in Nassau have been charging residents for season stickers for their cars for several years. Non-resident patrons at beaches would be charged more than residents, it is understood.

Firemen Ask Your Support Next Week

HICKSVILLE VOLUNTEER firemen are always ready, 24 hours a day, to answer any alarm—large or small. Here they are in action when a local restaurant was the scene of fire, one of the few damaging fires of the past decade. The firemen in uniform will start their annual door-to-door canvass of funds for their organization on Tuesday evening, May 15, and hope to complete the entire community within a week. Vamps will issue receipts which will be valuable in a prize award on Labor Day at the annual big tournament. The generous support of all homeowners is solicited.

MS Tag Day For Hicksville

HICKSVILLE — Volunteers of the Nassau County Multiple Sclerosis Chapter will be stationed in the major shopping centers here this Saturday, May 12, collecting funds for the MS Hope Chest, according to an announcement by Hy Vichingrad, Chairman of MS Tag Day campaign in this area.

Ms. Vichingrad stated that MS volunteers will be identified by an MS arm band and the MS canister.

CEREBRAL PALSY PARADE which will directly benefit 18 Hicksville children takes place between 7 and 9 PM on Monday night, May 14. Here are three local children at the Roosevelt Centre where the CP victims benefit directly from contributions. They are Dennis Jaime, Isabel Russotto and Maureen Leahy (seated) with their teacher, Miss Lisa Branch. Volunteers will be ringing door bells Monday evening in Hicksville, Bethpage, Plainview and Jericho.

In Bethpage Dominick Noce is chairman of a large committee with Sal Greco as vice chairman. Parade headquarters will be at Bethpage firehouse and those not called upon are asked to bring in their contributions. Give generously in the Cerebral Palsy Parade next Monday night. When the door bell rings, open your door and open your heart. (Herald photo by Egan Mallett).

1st Communion for 400 Children

By RUTH CONTI
Wells 1-7612

The Holy Family RC Church held a Parish Mission conducted by the Paul at Fathers. The first week was for the women and the second week for the men.

Over 400 children will receive their first Holy Communion at the Holy Family RC Church on the first two Saturdays of May.

I understand that Cathy Kalinsky of 27 Elwood Ave. spent her Easter holidays visiting her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Rets in Maryland and was one of the children who rolled eggs on the White House lawn on Easter Monday with her cousin, Diane Rees.

A very interesting meeting was held by the Fork Lane PTA on April 10, when they voted for their representatives and also showed a fascinating film—"Sociable Sixes to Nasty Nines". Members who participated in a panel discussion led by Dr. Lisa Kuhmerker, were Mrs. Nat. Smiley, John MacCarron and Tony Pritchard, parents in the school.

Our sincere sympathy goes to the family of John Mader of 44 Elwood Ave. who was run down by a trailer loaded with timber on Old Country Road at the corner of Newbridge near the Centre Shops.

A new cleaning establishment has opened at 40 Newbridge Road next to the Amoco Station right off West Marie St., and Newbridge Road. This is a drive in cleaner and for the first week they are giving away hardwood sand bowls with every $2 dry cleaning order and are also giving away a group of prizes to anyone who registers their name with them. The prizes will be given away this Saturday, May 19 at 2 P.M.

We are going through a baseball craze here at my house since my eight and a half year old son is now eligible to try out for one of the Little League teams. Saturdays are spent chasing around trying to find out where the tryouts were to be held. I think I know every baseball field in Hicksville now since we went to each one of them.

Birthday congratulations go to Alan Miller of 15 Amherst Road who was one year old on April 15 and celebrated with a small family party at his home.

Don't forget if you have any news pertaining to the people residing in the Glenbrook, Allied, Newbridge or Fairview homes to let me know as I would like to list anything in regard to births, birthdays, anniversaries and so on in this column.

School Board

cials and teachers is still within the option of the School Board which may accept the expression of opinion by the annual meeting or hold to its salary schedule adopted some weeks ago.

CAMPBELL CHAIRMAN
Alan K. Campbell of 19 Rover Lane was nominated by Thomas Affrunti for chairman of the annual meeting. Isadore Siegel seconded the motion. Dr. Campbell appointed Mrs. Waxberg as clerk of the meeting.

Henry Balfour of 28 Boulevard Dr. was selected as chief inspector. Upon motion by Sol Zimmerman, seconded by Charles DeShaw, the time for the annual meeting next year was set for 8 o'clock.

A motion to increase the salary for the School Attorney was defeated.

Voting on the budget began after 1 o'clock in the morning. Results of the vote are published elsewhere in this issue. (See Page 1).

EXEMPTS ELECT

President, James M. Sturtevant; Vice-President, Henry Schaaf; Secretary, Edward H. Schaaf; Treasurer, John W. Klay; Financial Secretary, Harold Koster, and Trustee, Louis Donoh.

Dear Jean:

Mr. and Mrs. PAUL HERFEE of 17 Pine St., Hicksville celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, Apr. 28, with a party for friends and neighbors at their home. Incidentally the Herfee children—Butch and Lola—received some lovely gifts from Japan from their "Uncle BOB" BIRK who is there as a member of the U. S. Army. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. HOWARD GOLDMAN on the birth of a son. The Goldmans also have a daughter. Mr. Goldman is in business with his brother in Hicksville, Goldman Bros., clothes for men and boys. Saw all the girls of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Hicksville Fire Dept. off on their annual theatre trip to NYC where they enjoyed "Pajama Game" on Tuesday evening, May 1. All had on their best bib and tucker and looked like they were all set for a grand time. In the illness dept. this week is Mrs. PEG HUTTLE of Field Ave., Hicksville and PAUL DANA of Bethpage. Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to both.

Remember Mother's Day is Sunday, May 13. An interesting little booklet for flower lovers is issued each month by C. R. GIESE, Florist, on Lee Ave., Hicksville. It is called "Flowers Talks and has some very interesting information. Ask for one. I'm sure they will be glad to give you it. The Hicksville school election really interested people. We got several calls from out of towners who were former Hicksville residents and who were interested in the results. All were quite pleased and expressed the wish that sometime they might come back to Hicksville.

There will no longer be a Levittown telephone exchange when the new phone books appear in July, or thereabouts. LE will become PErshing. Another exchange for Hicksville in addition to WELLS 1, 5 and 8 is in the works. We hear it will be Overbrook. FRED WATKINS of 42 James St., Hicksville, former teacher at Lee Ave. School, has been hospitalized. FATHER GOGGIN of St. Ignatius, REV. STAMMEL of Trinity Lutheran and CLARENCE RAUTER are the Hicksville Fire Dept. chaplains.

Trees are being planted along the center mall on SOUTHERN STATE PARKWAY, and shrubs at the bottom of every overpass. There have been tremendous changes for the better at Dutch Lane School, since HOWARD T. SCHOLEFIELD was appointed principal, and morale among the faculty couldn't be higher.

In the illness dept. this week we have Mrs. JOHN DOWLING of Hicks Circle, Hicksville, who has not been feeling well for some time. Also PAUL YURA of W. Marie St., Hicksville, spent the week-end in bed with a touch of the flu. Saw JAMES McLAUGHLIN of Sunset Ave., Hicksville, with his snazzy new Volks-wagon. Looks funny to see a big tall man getting out of a small car. Good luck with it.

There was a sweet 16 party held at Frank's Alibi on Saturday evening, for Miss LINDA VETERNER. All young ladies and escorts were dressed to suit the occasion for dining and dancing. It was indeed impressive the work that was done by the boys (cubs, scouts and explorers) of the Tri-Parkway Scouting Exposition held on Saturday evening, May 5 at the LI Lighting Co., Old Country Rd., Hicksville. Parents of boys in the Tri-Parkway District should feel proud, for every booth was different and the boys did a good job. Our sincerest sympathy to the family of PASQUALE DEMONACO of Newbridge Rd., Levittown. He was an old and valued friend and had many, many friends, for he did favors for all. He will be missed.

Seven or more students of Fordham were at the Hicksville RR Station on Wednesday afternoon and early evening handing out circulars in behalf of the election of LEAVITT, SOININEN and MALONEY. Prof. Maloney is an instructor at Fordham. The youngsters frankly admitted they were seeking votes for the LSM-FT team. Over at Henningsen's later that same evening, the LSM-FT supporters were holding a "victory" celebration. Among the comments reported from the somewhat gloomy affair was this: Next time we work for 12 months, not the last few weeks before election. Fifteen new subscriptions for the Herald came in last week following the publication of our election special. One reader wrote "Attached is my two bucks for the best newspaper around these here parts. Your paper will still be going strong when some of the new ones have long since bit the dust. Keep up your fine work of printing and exposing the truth even though the sailing is pretty rough at times."

Sorry to hear that Mrs. DORIS MARTENS of Division Ave., Hicksville is a patient at Mercy Hospital, Rockville Centre. Friends and neighbors wish her a speedy recovery. The Hicksville Catering Service, with RUDY ROUSE in command, had charge of the refreshments at the "Boys Life" Exposition at the LI Lighting Co. on Saturday, May 5. All who indulged said the franks were very good. Mr. and Mrs. BEN VRYN and children of Huntington visiting in Hicksville, Sunday. Good luck to Mrs. ROBERT WATHEY of Arcadia Lane, Hicksville, who passed her driving test recently. Bob, now it's either two cars in the family or you walk.

LEON GALLOWAY of Twinlawn Ave., Hicksville, was re-elected at the annual school district meeting as a trustee of the Library District, May 1, for another five-year term. He has completed 17 years as a trustee and is the secretary-treasurer of the Board. Mr. Galloway today expressed his thanks and appreciation to the voters for their support of him at the polls where he received 189 votes in the post-midnight balloting. Elwood S. Kent, his opponent, got 42 votes. Mr. Galloway is principal of the Jerusalem Ave. Junior High School.

Reader Comments On The Election

By IRVING D. MUELLER
To the Editor:
The results of the school board election is in, and, with the election of Eirich, Eaton and Carpenter, we can now hope for legal and efficient board proceedings.

It was evident that the people of Hicksville finally got disgusted enough to get out and vote for trustees who will truly represent them.

They did not give up, even tho it meant waiting in line up to one and a half hours to register; in spite of the fact that the President of the Board refused to act favorably on the recommendation that additional hours to register be authorized; and, the fact that the use of only one book (while two of the three voting machines were idle) caused a wait of almost an hour only thirty minutes after the East Street School opened for voting.

I spoke with several people while waiting in line to vote, both pre-World War II and post-World War II residents, and the answer was the same—they wanted the school board situation cleaned up. These same people couldn't understand why there was only one book, when with three voting machines the book could have been split into three volumes and the waiting lines moved more rapidly. Farmingdale with 20 per cent the number of voters as Hicksville has a three volume book system. Why not Hick-

Eirich, Eaton, Carpenter Win In Hicksville Contest

Hicksville, Bethpage and Jericho school districts elected school and library board trustees last week, whose terms begin on July 1st.

A warmly contested election in Hicksville school district was decided by the re-election of Arthur L. Eirich and election of Robert Eaton and Allen Carpenter as board trustees for the next three years.

They defeated Milton G. Leavitt, Adolph G. Soininen and Joseph Maloney, respectively. Over 4,000 voters turned out to vote.

Hope Sylvestri, campaign manager for the Leavitt, Maloney, Soininen team, issued this statement on behalf of herself and fellow campaign workers:

"As residents and taxpayers who strongly and honorably supported those candidates we felt would best serve the people of our district, promote the educational welfare of our children and restore to our board of education that dignity which it should have, we sincerely hope and pray that those trustees elected would devote their greatest efforts to achieve those goals."

Mrs. Sylvestri declined to say personally why she thought the Hicksville voters decided as they did.

INCUMBENT VICTOR

In Bethpage, Joseph S. Ellinger, an incumbent school board trustee, defeated Robert Mordhorst and Frank Kelly who also were candidates for his post. Ellinger received more than half of the 861 votes cast.

Howard A. Grandjean ran unopposed for the board position vacated by retiring Frederick Kramer. He received 658 votes.

Was the one book system devised by the President of the Board to discourage the people from waiting in line and casting their vote?

As you have probably read, NEWSDAY 3 May 1956, quoted that Maloney, spokesman for his slate as saying: "we wish the victors nothing but success." But, the President of the Board, who is supposed to be impartial, didn't have the courtesy to say that. Her comment: "I just don't want to talk about the election."

In closing, congratulations for your fine coverage of the school board situation.

GREET NEW MEMBER

BETHPAGE — The Kiwanis club met on Tuesday evening, May 1 at Anselmi's for their regular weekly dinner meeting. Bob Mordhorst was welcomed as a new member.

The club will sponsor "Bethpage Nite" at Ebbets Field sometime in August. Plans and specific date will be announced later this month.

Only 250 Jericho residents turned out to vote, last Tuesday night. They elected William Mayhew to the board, over Halsey S. Downer. Both men were running for the post now filled by Hamilton Hadden, Jr., president of the board, who did not run for reelection.

Library trustees also were elected. Hicksville voters elected Leon Galloway for a five year term. He was opposed by Elwood Kent. In Bethpage, Jacob Schaf was reelected for another five years on the board, defeating Robert D. Mellen.

Hicksville's junior high school addition was granted an additional $450,000. Jericho's voters allotted an extra $1,000 for this year's transportation costs.

Congressman Gets Housing Gripes

WASHINGTON — Congressman Sta. Wainwright, representing the first New York Congressional District which includes the mid-Island area, this week commented upon a meeting at Bethpage School attended by over 300 aggrieved homeowners from the vicinity.

Wainwright said: "Last week I attended a most inspiring meeting. These intense, sincere people came to present their troubles. I gave the facts and historical background of my investigation of government insured homes. Despite the emotional nature of the topic these citizens maintained perfect order, spoke briefly and constructively. This must have been reminiscent of the traditional New England town meeting. Thus operated the pure democracy of ancient Athens."

"An unusual complaint arose against the press. Those aggrieved felt that their story was not fairly presented. It was essential for me to correct this impression and to point out that the principal local daily and all weekly papers circulating in the area had supported the home owners and the investigation."

"These papers have fearlessly pointed out the terrible conditions existing in the federally inspected homes at a risk of serious advertising loss. This may not be true of another daily of small circulation in Nassau and Suffolk."

"I explained to those present that the Federal Housing Administration had, as yet, not blacklisted a single builder despite the hundreds of serious and validated construction complaints from home owners. Yet the Veterans Administration, with only one fifth the number of cases, has already blacklisted two builders because of shoddy operations. Presumably the FHA is still doing business with these same builders. Here is a typical example of one government agency not knowing or purposely ignoring her sister agency.

MISS CAMILLE MAVRIKAKIS, PVT. JOSEPH SPITALIERE, JR. were announced engaged recently, at an evening party. The young couple plan to be married in about two years. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agapious Mavrikakis, of 21 Boone St., Bethpage. She is a student at Island Trees Memorial School, where her fiance also attended. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spitaliere, of 3690 Stokes Ave., Bethpage. Pvt. Spitaliere left for Texas Thursday, May 3, for special training in guided missiles. Three months ago he enlisted in the army for a three year period.

"Congress itself is also to blame. A committee of the 82nd Congress held hearings (attended by my able predecessor, Mr. Greenwood) in 1952 in Bay Shore on the very issues raised by my current inquiry. This committee made excellent recommendations for corrective legislation. Nothing happened. The Housing Sub-Committee of the Veterans Affairs Committee in a report presented earlier this year made similar recommendations. Still nothing happened."

"Thus I have taken two courses—turned the cases over to the capable Chief Deputy U. S. Attorney, Cornelius Wickham, and drafted my own corrective legislation for presentation," Wainwright concluded.

Teacher's View on Situation

To the Editor:

I have been following the reports on the school situation made from various points of view. I have also noticed some criticism of the teachers for wanting improved salary scale, especially for the teachers who have been here long enough to be most valuable, which is the place where the proposed scale is weak. I have not seen the teachers point of view represented.

First, it is my belief that salary, while important, is not in itself the most important consideration to most teachers. If teachers felt that the work they do was valued and considered of importance as they themselves believe it to be, they would in all probability look upon the proposed scale as a step in the right direction which would be further improved in the future.

When, however, we hear and see printed the idea that teachers are "paid too much, anyway, and what they need is larger classes, more work, and less equipment", the future of education and of teachers in Hicksville looks dim indeed. It is hard to tell a teacher whose smallest class is 60 and whose largest class is 90 that the average class size is too small. It is hard to see building turned down because taxpayers feel that there is no crowding when teachers are compelled to teach in storage rooms, shower rooms, and lunch rooms with inadequate facilities and no black boards.

The most discouraging part from a teachers' viewpoint is that the most vocal taxpayers seem to put their pocket-book ahead of their children. And yet statistics recently published in one of the local papers show Hicksville as second only to Hempstead in Nassau County as to the number of businesses and industries, but twenty-eighth from the top in tax rate. (Tax rate figures are from the Department of Assessment in Mineola, 1956-57 rates). Moreover, Hicksville's rate is now expected to be lower than last year. These facts do not add up to a healthy attitude toward education on the part of the community, if they are unwilling to give salaries to their experienced teachers which compare favorably to surrounding communities.

Teachers who are happy in their teaching are willing to wait reasonably for a salary situation to be resolved. But if they see no hope for educational growth and improvement of teaching conditions, do not be surprised if they ask for salary improvement, at least. There will be some, however, that cannot be retained at any salary, if they cannot feel their work is considered important to the community.

AN INTERESTED TEACHER.

THE SCHOOL BOARD SITUATION:

Transcript of Leavitt's Answers

Last July, majority School Board members Sutton, Cawley, Yocum and Soininen appointed Milton G. Leavitt to the Board to fill the vacancy brought about by the resignation of Richard G. Schoel. The appointment was made at 4:30 A. M., in spite of the protest of taxpayers who asked for a week's delay and petitioned for an election. Mr. Leavitt was subsequently ousted from the Board eight months later by a N. Y. Supreme Court decision which found that his appointment was illegal because Yocum and Soininen had never been properly elected to the Board.

Mr. Leavitt, together with Soininen and with an added starter, Prof. Maloney, was a candidate for three-year term on the Board at the election last Wednesday. At a candidates' forum held at the new High School on April 27th, 1956 and sponsored by the Taxpayers Association with Sol. Zimmerman of the Taxpayers Association acting as moderator, much of the meeting was recorded on tape. The following is an accurate transcript of the portion of the tape dealing with questions from Jerome Zettler and James Matienzo addressed to Mr. Leavitt regarding actions Mr. Leavitt may have taken in the past to have the Feinberg Law invalidated.

The Feinberg Law is aimed at the removal of Communists from the government and from positions of trust and responsibility in the public schools. The transcription follows:

Zettler: I'd like to address my question to Mr. Leavitt.

Zimmerman: Will you give your name please.

Zettler: My name is Zettler, 70 Gardner Ave. Mr. Leavitt, I understand you are a teacher in the New York school system. Is that correct?—I'd like, to ask you this question. What position have you taken on the Feinberg Law, and have you at any time ever tried to have that law repealed?

Leavitt: What has that got to do with the school board?

Zimmerman: Well, a similar question was asked the other day. Zettler: I think it's a very important question.

Zimmerman: Let Mr. Leavitt answer it the best way he can. Let the people who are present judge whether it's a valid answer or not.

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Zimmerman: Let Mr. Leavitt answer it and maybe we'll settle it that way.

Leavitt: Would you care to state what the law is or would you rather I just answered it?

Zettler: Well, I think you are familiar with the law if you are a teacher in the City of New York system. Are you not, Mr. Leavitt?

Leavitt: Yes, I am familiar with it—with any law that—Zimmerman: Just a moment. Do you know what the Feinberg Law is?

Leavitt: I know the general substance of it.

Zimmerman: You know the general substance of it. Is that enough? Is that enough? Do you think he can answer on the basis of knowing the general substance?

Zettler: In my opinion, I don't think it's necessary for me to give a whole statement on the Feinberg Law.

Leavitt: I do. Zimmerman: Alright, you know the general substance of it. On the basis of—Leavitt: Your question was?

Leavitt: No, Mr. Chairman—

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Leavitt: Mr. Chairman, did you decide what you want to do?

Zimmerman: Well, just a moment now. A question is asked. It may be a question that only the speaker knows about and the answer will only satisfy that speaker.

He's entitled—

Leavitt: He should ask me privately.

Zimmerman: Oh, that's alright. He's entitled to an answer to that question because that's what he's going to base his vote on.

Leavitt: Yes.

Leavitt: I have never participated in any way in regard to the Feinberg Law. The Feinberg Law was a law of the State of New York of—oh, I don't know—about five years—five or six years ago. I never participated even in the discussion of it because it was a State law referring, I believe, not the teachers of New York City—referring to the teachers of Hicksville and every other—the entire State of New York. Does that answer your question or do you want to—

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Zettler: Not exactly.

Leavitt: Well, what else was your question?

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Zimmerman: Alright. Wait a moment. Does it answer your question? If it doesn't, will you please state briefly what you would like to—What question you would like to ask?

Zettler: Well, I'd like to—Would you or would you not favor expelling teachers that take the Fifth Amendment in regard to communist activities?

Maloney: (In a low voice) That's not the Feinberg law.

Leavitt: That's got nothing to do with the Feinberg Law. Would you like to ask that as an additional question?

Zettler: I would like to ask that as an additional question.

Leavitt: I'm sorry I can't give you a legal opinion about it all. This is such a moot question. (Apparently addressing Maloney: I don't want to pass it to you) This guy is an expert on this particular subject and I am not. I'm sorry I don't have any outright opinion that I can answer yes or no about something which has been in the courts for so long. I think there was a new decision on it only last week by the Supreme Court. Was there?

Maloney: Stochower.

Leavitt: Stochower. I'm sorry, would you permit Mr.—Dr. Maloney to explain the situation? And I will give you a yes or no answer immediately after that. Or am I evading the question?

Zettler: I feel very strongly about this situation. And if we are going to have—quarrels here are going to lead a little to the left so far as hiring school teachers—

Noise and interruptions from the floor. Cries of "No", "Please".

Zimmerman: Mr. Zettler, Mr. Zettler. Suppose we let Dr. Maloney answer the question. He is entitled—

Matienzo: The question wasn't directed to Dr. Maloney.

Zimmerman: Eh?

Matienzo: The question wasn't directed to Maloney—Dr. Maloney. Zimmerman: Well here's the point—

Matienzo: May I clarify the question?

Zettler: I yield the floor.

Zimmerman: Alright! Alright! What—What's the clarification?

Matienzo: Mr. Leavitt, in your years as a school teacher—Matienzo, 162 Haverford Road—in all your years as a school teacher in New York City have you ever come across any other teacher with the name of Milton G. Leavitt?

Leavitt: Never.

Matienzo: Are you the Milton G. Leavitt who is a plaintiff to invalidate the Feinberg Law which provides that any city employee can be dismissed for refusal to answer questions out to him by duly constituted authority?

Leavitt: I am not. I have never heard of it until this moment. May I ask you your authority please.

Matienzo: My authority is inescapable. If that is your answer, I accept it.

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Leavitt: No! No! No! Matienzo: My authority—My authority—My authority is being checked. This was given to me—to-night—

Laughter and noise from the floor.

Leavitt: Mr. Zimmerman—Mr. Zimmerman—

Noise and interruptions from the floor.

Zimmerman: Look—Ask the man a question—Has the man answered it?

Matienzo: He has answered my question.

Zimmerman: Let's go on to another question.

Leavitt: Excuse me Mr. Zimmerman. Excuse me—The man stated in —Excuse me—the man stated in about the most vicious way I have ever heard—the first attack that has ever been made upon me—by saying, am I the Milton G. Leavitt who is a plaintiff—who instituted—Would you repeat that sir? Voice: You didn't answer Mr. Leavitt.

Leavitt: I beg your pardon sir. Let me handle this.

Matienzo—who is a plaintiff to invalidate the Feinberg Law which provides that any city employee can be dismissed for refusal to answer questions put to him by duly constituted authority.

Leavitt: There has never been such a case. My name has never been involved in any such case. And the tactic of using an impeccable source which you refused to mention and say it was handed to you—and you are a willing carrier of such a vicious type of suggestion made to an audience like that I think disqualifies you as a questioner at such a meeting. And I am very much tempted—

Applause—noise and interruptions from the floor.

Leavitt: That is the campaign manager of the other side?

Voice: I don't know.

Leavitt: A very interesting campaign, boys.

Voice: Certainly is.

Leavitt: A very interesting campaign.

(End of questioning on this subject.)

P.S. THE HERALD last week carried a photographic reproduction of a certified photostatic copy of an affidavit dated September 16, 1949 from the Brooklyn Hall of Records files of a suit to invalidate the Feinberg Law, "setting forth my similar interest in the invalidation of the Feinberg Law" signed by "Milton G. Leavitt" and giving a residence address which was the address of the Milton G. Leavitt before he came to Hicksville.

Reader Opinion: 'Little Fools' In Our Midst?

By GEORGE W. KUNZ

To the Editor:

I tried to reach you earlier today (May 2) but you were out.

With all this noise over the school situation, there is something I must get off my chest. As it is, I'm developing a frustration from having kept so quiet the last two years. Although I understand it is too late to make this week's edition, you might want to print the following in next week's:

I am writing this before the Board election so that some people won't be able to say that my hindsight is better than my foresight.

Throughout the years I have known him, Milton Leavitt has reminded me of what is best described by the latest giveaway gimmick, THE LITTLE FOOLER.

After reading several of your past editions and the material distributed throughout the campaign, however, I am convinced that the bigger fools are those who came out in support of his election to the School Board. If they don't know by the time this is printed—only time will convince them.

MID-ISLAND HERALD, MAY 10, 1955—PAGE 7

By HOWARD F. DARLING
The weather may not feel like it but a quick glance at the calendar shows that this is the merry month of May. I can easily recognize the fact that Spring is here, not by the weather, but by the aches and pains I hear the men complaining about on the Monday morning train. All I can say is—time marches on.

In May we have one legal holiday—Memorial Day. This is the day when all of us should pause for a moment of silent prayer for our departed loved ones, friends and armed foreign buddies.
Each year on this particular day, the various organizations in town get together for an annual parade through the town and then to the Memorial Mall on the grounds at the Junior High School on Jerusalem Ave. for an appropriate exercise. The Memorial Day Committee this year has chosen two of our town's most outstanding citizens as its Grand Marshal and Principal Speaker.

The Grand Marshal will be Ernest Francke, County Clerk, Nassau County. Mr. Francke is a prominent figure in the political field having been active in politics most of his life. He has done much for the people of Hicksville and Nassau in his present position.

All veterans regardless of organization affiliation are proud of his record as a fighter for the veteran and his rights. No finer man could have been chosen for this place of honor in the parade. The Principal Speaker needs no introduction. He is none other than Henry G. Elamann, a member of VFW Post 3211 and one of the most successful businessmen in our country. It is through his untiring efforts and support that our community enjoys some of the finest projects going. He is widely known in all circles and especially by all for his kindly advice and generous support given to worthy organizations. The committee is to be congratulated for having picked these two distinguished gentlemen to represent our community this coming

Memorial Day.

Commander Louis Klein is desirous that 3211 make an excellent showing this year. He is urging all veterans to come out and march. If you have a uniform wear it, if not your VFW cap will do.

Chairman Robert Obermeyer of the Poppy Committee is anxious to surpass all previous records for selling poppies. If you are willing to help him and have a few spare moments, please call him at WE 1-0184.

Watch this column for the place and date of our annual Carnival and then HURRY, HURRY, HURRY—see the horse that has his head where his tail should be.

The Ladies of the VFW Auxiliary are celebrating their 14th Anniversary with a party at Sunrise Village tonight (Thursday). Ladies are requested to meet at the clubhouse on Grand Ave. by 7 p.m.

sharp: Congratulations ladies and may you have many, many more prosperous years ahead.

Do you want to limber up those weak muscles? If so, call Gene Estropelli at WE 5-0895 for a work out with the soft ball team now being organized.

CEDAR CLIFF HAPPENINGS:

Dogs at Large Scare Children

By MARGE KERN

It has been hectic this past winter with dogs running loose destroying property and scaring school children going to and from school. It has now come to a dangerous situation.

Mrs. Klein of 87 Cliff Dr. was out walking her dog May 2, when a police dog attacked her. Her screams aroused one of the neighbors who called the police. She was told that they wouldn't come for her to call the dog pound. It is certainly a crime that when things are happening no one can do anything about it. Who can a person call to get satisfaction in Hicksville?

To curb situations like this, everyone should cooperate by taking care of their animals. They may be harmless to you, but not to strangers. So keep them leashed.

Mrs. Rizzi had a houseful of measles when her four children were stricken. Also in bed with them is Russel Kane. Hope you are all able to get about real soon.

Another newcomer from the Stork set, Mary Ann Schmidt, was born on May 1, at Midwood Hospital, Brooklyn. She weighed 7 lbs. 13 oz., and joins her brothers Robert and Gene, Jr., at 6 Stanley St.

Happy Mother's Day to moms both young and old! Remember, next Sunday is Mom's Day, so treat her right. It is also my Mom's birthday. Happy Birthday, Mom.

Get well wishes to Mike Lombardi's father. Hope he's up and around real soon.

Gene Schmidt, Jr., celebrated his third birthday Apr. 29.

CARD PARTY MONDAY

The Ladies Auxiliary of Amvets Post 44 of Hicksville will hold a card party on Monday evening, May 14 at 8:30 P.M. at the Amvets Hall on E. Marie St. Refreshments will be served. Donations are 75 cents.

NEW SUNDAY SCHEDULE

Rev. Richard H. Weiskotten, pastor of St. Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hicksville, announces the following revised Sunday schedule: Worship service and bible school at 8:45 A.M., 10 A.M. and 11:15 A.M.

Auction Saturday At Burns Ave School

Auctions for children as well as grown ups, games, pony rides, prizes, movies, refreshments—these are but a few of the attractions promised for this Saturday, May 12, by Ways and Means co-chairmen Dorothy Bartels and Jean Faichney when the Burns Ave. School P-TA of Hicksville holds its annual Bazaar beginning at 10 a.m.

The booths stand in readiness for the big day. Prominent among these will be White Elephant, Used Toys, Bazaar (New Articles), Aprons and Handmade, Plants, Baked Goods, Food. Respective chairmen report heavy and attractive supplies for most booths. "Food", however, is hoping for more homemade donations like cole slaw and potato salads, according to Mrs. Faichney and Mrs. Bartels.

With Mother's Day and tiny budgets in mind most booths will feature small priced merchandise.

Said Mrs. Faichney and Mrs. Bartels, "We hope to duplicate last year's success. Come early and bring your guests!"

On the following Thursday, May 17 at 8:15 p.m., the regular meeting of the Burns Ave. P-TA will be devoted to a teacher-parent talent program, featuring singing, dancing, and skits, according to Mrs. Harold Gregg, Program Committee chairman.

The Cerebral Palsy Assoc. Hicksville Branch, will meet on Wednesday evening, May 16 at the American Legion Hall, E. Nicholas street in Hicksville.

DINE-A-MITEMOTHER'S DAY

If we would stop to think of the utter unselfishness of Mother's love perhaps in addition to the lavish gift we splurge on for the second Sunday in May, we would be more inclined to save her a step, save her a tear throughout the year. We might further thing of getting her out of the kitchen once in awhile and taking her out to dine in a restaurant. Of course, not just any old restaurant, but a restaurant where we know she would really enjoy the food and the environment as well as the service. You can't miss if you treat Mother to cocktails and dinner at the Alibi Restaurant, 50 Old Country Road, Hicksville.

and Walsh and give Adlai Stevenson two more votes at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago this August.

The Hicksville - Bethpage - Plainview areas, Evans pointed out, lie in the First Congressional District, which includes most of Oyster Bay. The Stevenson forces secured 1,200 names on an official petition that has placed their slate on the June 5 ballot against the candidates for delegates who intend to support Averill Harriman.

Social Security

Question: Mr. L. V. inquires: I am 72 years old and have owned and operated a grocery store since 1920. I understand I can keep on with my business and get social security checks each month because of my age. What papers should I take to the social security office?

Answer: You should take your tax returns for 1955 and proof that the tax was paid—cancelled check, money, order stub, or other evidence. Bring something to show your age or date of birth: This could be a birth certificate, baptismal certificate, family Bible or other family record, etc.

Hi Fans:

The majors draft of Hicksville National Little League has been completed. PENCAL DRUGS will be managed by John McAuley; PAN AM PILOTS by Charles Morris, EDWARDS & HANLY by Fred Rehu, and MEADOWBROOK BANK by Frank Muller. If any boy does not receive notification prior to May 12, he is to report for tryout at the Abe Levitt Field as follows: Eight year olds at 10 A.M., May 12; nine and ten year old boys at 1 P.M., same date; eleven and twelve year old reports at 10 A.M., same date, same place.

The National Little League Booster Drive will take place during the weekend of June 30. Any door-to-door canvassing for Little League prior to June 30 is unauthorized in this area.

CYO League in Full Swing

By ELWOOD S. KENT, SR.
HICKSVILLE — The St. Ignace CYO Baseball League is in full swing, with the Seneca's outscoring the Orioles 9-7. The slugging of Kolesch, who hammered a homer, a triple, and a double, carried the Seneca's to a fine victory. Connolly and Geraghty pitched good ball, assisted by a snappy double play to stop an Oriole rally. McKee also homered to keep the lead intact. For the losers, Bolger, Ziegler, and Reilly, homered, but the rest of the team couldn't bunch their hits to beat Connolly's pitching.

Next Saturday morning, all the Senior Inter-Parish boys will start playing ball at their home grounds at Woodland Ave., school. All senior Inter-Parish games will be scheduled there until further notice.

With the next publication of the Herald it is intended to show the schedules of all games—where to be played, and the names of the managers, plus the coaches of each team.

Manager Peplow put the "Warriors" through a sparkling practice drill, and no doubt the new uniforms are now broken in. Here's hoping that there are a lot of hits in their bats.

A bargain at your finger tips

If you define a bargain as "a lot of value at low cost," you pick up a good one every time you pick up the telephone.

Consider the value you get from your phone. It helps you in your business. It helps you run your home. Think how often you use it—how much time and how many steps it saves you every day. How comforting it is just to know it's there, always ready to serve you.

Then consider the cost of telephone service. On the average, it's risen less than 18% since 1940—compared with a 91% increase in the cost of living.

So whether you measure it by value, or by cost, the telephone is certainly a bargain—one of the biggest in your family budget.

2 Local Girls Capture Honors

OYSTER BAY — Two Hicksville girls, Miss Patricia Healy and Miss Mary Reisz, students at St. Dominics High School, here, were winners of the oratory contest held at the school on May 1.

Miss Healy, first winner for the girls, is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Healy of Murray Rd., Hicksville, with whom she resides. She is a senior at St. Dominics and plans to attend St. John's University after graduation. Her topic in the contest was entitled "The Unfinished Tragedy".

Miss Healy is also the winner of the finals in her school to compete with other high school winners for the title of "Miss Arnold Constable of Nassau County." The selection will be made at the Hempstead store on May 26.

Miss Mary Reisz, daughter of Mrs. Madeline Reisz and the late Frank Reisz of Plainview Rd., Hicksville, is the second winner. Miss Reisz is a Junior at St. Dominics and her topic was "Plus XII". She plans to attend college when she graduates.

Civics Opposing 2 Zone Changes

Edward Schreiber, President of the North Bethpage Civic Assoc., announces that the organization's Executive Committee has gone on record as opposed to zoning changes in two Bethpage locations that are currently being studied by the Oyster Bay Town Board.

One of these is the proposed gas station at the corner of Broadway and Cherry Ave. The reasons given are that it would tend to depreciate property values in the surrounding locality, inasmuch as there is no business zoning nearby; it would be out of character in the proposed location, and that, being across the street from the planned Bethpage High School, it would constitute a "traffic hazard."

The second proposed change of zone opposed is located on the South Side of Hay Path Rd., East of Plainview Rd. Presently zoned 1 Acre, the Town Board is being asked to rezone it to 1.4 Acre, for residential development. The reason advanced for opposing this change of zone is that such change would impose additional hardships on the taxpayers and school system of the School Dist., whose facilities are already overburdened and which is undergoing additional expansion at this time to meet the problems caused by the growth of the school population.
