

Candidates on Saturday

ELWOOD S. KENT, SR.
Independent candidates being supported by the Hicksville Citizens for Better Government in School Affairs.

ROBERT E. GOODRICH

THOMAS C. AFFRONTI

Also independent candidates had petitions filed just under the deadline. Two short-term vacancies expiring June 30, 1957 are to be filled on Saturday. Miss Farley is running against Goodrich and Affrunti is opposing Kent for positions on Hicksville School Board.

MABEL R. FARLEY

Civic President Gets Business Post

HICKSVILLE—Anthony Gorczycki of 19 Derby Rd. will be the new administrative assistant for business affairs in the district. He was appointed by the School Board, Friday night, from among nine applicants interviewed the previous evening and will take up his new duties in a couple of weeks. He is 32, married and has two small children.

He is president of Allied Community Civic Assoc., Inc. here, was a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee of Education for two years and a member of the special Citizens Committee on District Building Needs. He is a graduate of the School of Business and Civic Administration, College of the City of New York. He completed two years of graduate study at the Graduate School of Business Administration, NYU. He leaves a position as a financial analyst and editorial assistant at Moody's Investors Service in New York to take up his new position which pays $3500.

State Authority Voices Approval

HICKSVILLE—The ten portable-type classrooms, built to serve the peak load of enrollment, were inspected last week by a representative from the State Education Department in connection with a special article on them to appear in the Bulletin of the State Education Dept.

Dr. Reiss of the Division of Building and Grounds, who handles State approval of school building plans, examined them in detail, took numerous photographs, and accumulated much data for his article. He was accompanied on his inspection by Donald Abt, Acting Superintendent of the District, in the absence of Dr. Lamb on vacation, and Bradford Hoyt of the Architects.

Dr. Reiss stated that they were "an interesting solution to meet the peak-load requirements of a District having the other permanent facilities required by the State Department." He described them as (Please turn to Page 5)

Library Trustees Cite Need For Extension

HICKSVILLE—In Nov. 1955, the people of Hicksville approved a $252,000 extension to the Public Library. At that time it was pointed out by the Trustees that the library had seen circulation increase by 100% and registration by over 300% in the last five years.

All indications are that the library shall again increase its circulation substantially in 1956, both in the children's division as well as the adult library. The library trustees are now asking for an additional $60,000 in order to construct the addition. This is caused by contractor's bids coming in 25% higher than expected.

The Board of Trustees feels the taxpayers voted for and wanted the extension as planned and that they do not want an inferior substitute. Therefore, the trustees are requesting the additional funds to be voted this Saturday, Aug. 18.

The new extension will provide for 75,000 books, 97 readers, larger reference and teen-age sections, a small listening room, 75-seat auditorium and a larger children's section.

The $60,000 requested will mean a tax increase of about one-half cent per $100.00 of assessed valuation or about 20 cents a year based on a 20-year bond issue, officials say.

Seeks to Reorganize Stamp Club

HICKSVILLE—William Wulfskin, of 51 Willoughby Ave., has issued an invitation to fellow philatelists to join a stamp club. He was President of the Hicksville Stamp Club about 15 years ago and is eager to revive it.

Interested parties may call him at WElls 1-0533 for further information.

County Board To Take Local Bids

MINEOLA—The Nassau County Board of Supervisors is expected to take bids Aug. 28 on two important projects in Hicksville. One is for the construction of a concrete curb and side walk at the storm water basin on the east side of Division Ave. and south side of 10th St. The other is for improvement of Massapequa-Glen Cove Road (North Broadway) by stabilizing shoulders from James St. to Northern State Pkwy., a distance of 4.500 feet.

Playgrounds Close Tomorrow

HICKSVILLE—The summer playground of the school district comes to a successful close this Friday with Arts and Crafts exhibitions scheduled at the area schools today and tomorrow, according to Louis Millevolte, Playground Director. Registration is ahead of last year by about 600 with a total of 5,327 children registered. Average attendance was 12,000 per week. A gala round of activities marked the last week at the playgrounds under a program provided by the school district.

HICKSVILLE—While 5,785 voters are registered and qualified to vote this Saturday, Aug. 18, in a special election of School Trustees, the mid-summer slump in civic activity coupled with vacations was today expected to produce less than a 50 per cent turnout at the polls.

With 4,950 previously registered for the annual meeting and election held in May, an additional 835 were enrolled on Saturday and Monday of this week to bring the total up to an all-time record peak.

There were 256 additional registered on Saturday and 579 on Monday. The breakdown of new registrants, by the seven school voting districts were: Burns Ave. 26, East St. 174, Old Country Road 65, Dutch Lane 129, Lee Ave. 147, Woodland Ave. 135 and Fork Lane 163.

Since the voting districts have been split from four to seven, no breakdown on the total number of enrolled voters in each district was available today.

Feature of the voting on Saturday will be the contests for the unpaid position of school trustees. Robert G. Goodrich of 47 Angle Lane is running for one vacancy, opposed by Mabel R. Farley of Jerusalem Ave. In the other contest, Elwood S. Kent Sr. of 127 Pollok Place is opposed by Thomas C. Affrunti of 7 Gull Road.

Also at stake is the vote on the construction of 36 additional classrooms at a total cost of about $700,000 and additional $60,000 for the public library building project.

OTHER EXPEDIENTS
The possibility of a stalemate with the children the losers resulting from Saturday's referendum on additional classroom construction loomed today as the Board of Education realized that many taxpayers are against any form of additional construction, permanent or temporary.

The Board disclosed it is giving intensive study to other expedients in the event that the facilities planned for the peak enrollment period, subject to vote Saturday, are not authorized.

Board president Emil J. Szendy lashed out at "a small majority group" which is insisting upon the construction of permanent white elephants to serve the temporary needs and advocating the defeat of the proposition on Saturday.

The Board spokesman said "seemingly this minority seeks to precipitate a crisis due to extreme overcrowding, so that the voters might subsequently agree to their white elephant proposal."

A discussion meeting for the community on the referendum was set for Wednesday night, Aug. 15, of this week in the new high school at 8 o'clock by the Board of Education.

RECENTLY COMPLETED portable-type classrooms at the Woodland Ave. and Fork Lane schools will again open for inspection this Saturday, Aug. 18 between the hours of 2 P.M. and 10 P.M.

The structures are built of wood on a steel-beam base so that they can be moved as classroom units to Junior High School and Senior High School as the peak enrollment passes from the elementary schools to the secondary schools, according to the School Board President Emil

J. Szendy. The facilities provided are practically identical with those available in the permanent buildings. Interior finish is plywood on the walls, incombustible acoustical tile on the ceilings, and asphalt tile floors. The room sizes and corridor widths are about the same as in the permanent buildings. Identical fluorescent lighting is provided.

Those who have examined the structures have almost universally been pleasantly surprised at their beauty and practicability. Both corridors and classrooms have bright natural light. Each classroom has its own exit door directly to school grounds. These exit doors are in addition to the usual corridor exits. It is estimated that the structure can be completely emptied within one minute after the sounding of an alarm.

Everyone has been asked to view the present structures before voting on additional similar structures on Aug. 18. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

State Official Lauds Temporaries

By CHARLES H. DE SHAW

Despite reports to the contrary regarding the semi-permanent classrooms, reports reaching this column indicate that contractors, construction engineers, architects, as well as residents of this school district have the highest praise for those already constructed at Fork Lane and Woodland Ave. schools.

These are not "shacks", "chicken coops", "shanties", or "cracker boxes" as a small highly vocal group would have the people believe. Even Dr. Wright from the State Education Dept. praised them most highly and is writing a magazine article on them. He considers them outstanding examples of construction and usefulness in solving the classroom shortage problem.

They must be as safe as permanent buildings since the Fire Insurance Underwriters have reduced the premium on them. In addition to this, each classroom has an individual exit door leading to the outside.

For the sake of your children, as well as your pocketbook, vote "YES" on Proposition No. 1 this Saturday, August 18.

Let's hope that the new administrative assistant appointed by the school board will request in the future that all bidders on school supplies submit a sample of product with their bid. In this way the district won't waste money on inferior supplies, as they did in one particular case I am aware of. While in the Administrative Building last week I noticed five one-gallon cans of a brand of cement, which was being used for pasting papers. From personal experience I know this particular product to be the worst type for that purpose, as well as expensive.

It tries to a gummy mass and is impossible to use, in addition to the fact that unless the cover on the can or jar containing this cement is on tightly after using, even though the interval may be a short one of only a few minutes, the entire contents will have dried up. It cannot be placed in a plastic container otherwise such container will dissolve, and an expected loss of from one-quarter to one-half of the contents can be anticipated from evaporation and drying. I don't know the price that the school district paid for the stuff, but it can be purchased in a local store for $5 per gallon.

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Meadows on Brittle La. on the birth of their new son, Stewart, born July 5. The Meadows have two other sons.

The John Comellas' on Belfry Ave. are leaving for a three week vacation in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Brian Henig on Brittle La. returned from a three week vacation at Camp Stillwater in Sussex County, N. J. He brought back with him a dog, which he named "Bill" to replace "Bilko" who had been hit by a car last month.

It is rumored that Milton Leavitt has his house up for sale. Can this be true?

The Gyms in the High school should be ready for the September opening, and the cost of repairs agreed to by the insurance company and the contractor is $20,400.

The audience at school board meetings have dropped off during these summer months, and it may be because the windows of the Conference Room are opened to allow the air to enter; at the same time, insects also enter in droves since there are no screens.

Rumors have it that Attorney Al Rubenstein on Fifth St. is quite in demand by people of other school districts since the ruling of Supreme Court Justice Johnson on school voter registration.

Foot Inspection Plan Revealed

HICKSVILLE—Dr. Philip L. Rubenstein, local foot specialist of 67 Broadway, addressed the Kiwanis Club on Aug. 8, on the subject, "The Importance of a Foot Survey and Examination of Hicksville School Children."

He indicated that previous surveys of other schools revealed that 68% of the children have positive foot problems. Over one-fourth required immediate attention, he said.

A program will be presented before the school board this fall for their approval. If approved it will be the first school foot examination since 1948 during which time Dr. Rubenstein personally examined over 900 children. He is at present zone chairman of the school district area.

CEDAR CLIFF HAPPENINGS

Getting Ready for School Days

By MARIE KERN

First of all to begin this week's news let's say congratulations to Joan Doud (our former reporter) who just welcomed Joan Marie, born Aug. 1, at Hempstead General Hospital. Joan weighed 6½ pounds and joins two brothers and one sister.

The Baumeisters' spent their vacation visiting Florida.

Also on vacation were the Quinns, who spent a few days in Conn.

The Gwaltneys' have friends from Richmond, Va., visiting them, Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell and children Judy and Thomas.

Aug. 4, Tony La Nassa had a birthday, and a few neighbors joined him at a barbecue party in Mr. and Mrs. Figliola's back yard.

There's going to be a cartoon show at 5 Stanley St. next Wednesday for children only.

The Costelles' have a lovely new car, and the color is nice also.

On Aug. 3, Mr. and Mrs. Nocerino celebrated their 10th Wedding Anniversary, and a few of the gals stopped in for afternoon tea. Kathy had a pineapple refrigerator cake on hand and it was enjoyed immensely. The gals consisted of Ann Giardina, Dolores Frans, and Frances Parisi.

Aug. 1, was Joseph Lo Gerfo's 1st birthday, and Aug. 13, August Frans also had a birthday. Aug. 26 is my Gary's birthday, and we hope to have a nice celebration.

The Nasses spent their vacation in Nova Scotia.

Summer school ends next week, and I'm sure mothers and children were happy to be out of each other's hair for a few hours.

Now the task of preparing the children for the first day of school is upon us, and for most it is a "rat race". One child comes home and the other one goes. If only they could go all day it would be a lot easier and less work for mother, Gail and Jill Fraser spent a few days in Babylon visiting relatives, and after returning home, Gail went to the city to stay with friends on another small vacation.

The Gerstenfelds' spent a few days in the Catskills on vacation, and visited the beaches also.

A neighborhood meeting of several Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout leaders was held at Mrs. Barbara Lensky's home, 22 Amherst La., Thursday, Aug. 9. The leaders who attended were Mrs. Schnopper, Mrs. Ranno, Mrs. Gerstenfeld, and Mrs. Aronoff. The number who attended was small due to vacations. Plans were made for the fund raising campaign which will be held in October. After the meeting coffee and cake was served by our lovely hostess, who is also neighborhood Girl Scout chairman.

VISIT UPSTATE

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson of 3 Joland Ave., Hicksville, are due back Friday from a week's stay at Middleburg, upstate New York.

Mrs. Dorothy Stansky of Plainview told us that her hot water frequently ran cold in the middle of a big wash. "There's nothing so annoying," said Mrs. Stansky, "as having the hot water give out when you're all set to get a big job done. This happened to me so many times, that we finally decided to do something about it. Our dealer recommended that we install an oil-fired, hot water heater, which we agreed to. Not only do we have hot water any time of the day and night, but my husband and I are pleasantly surprised at how much more economical it is. Our bills are lower by about 50% since we switched to oil."

New Central Office Names

Starting Friday, August 17, about 18,000 Levittown 3 and 9 telephones will have new central office designations. Levittown 3 will become PErshing 5, and Levittown 9 will become PErshing 1. There will be no change in the remaining portion of these numbers.

These changes are an important part of a long-range plan to standardize central office names to fit a nationwide pattern. Eventually, this plan will help make it possible for you to dial calls direct to points all

Hospital Reports on First Year

Mid-Island Hospital in Bethpage has completed its first year in operation with admissions and other activities exceeding all estimates that had been prepared, according to a summary of the annual report released by the Administrator, James C. McLean.

The Hospital, which pioneered in the design of the modern "Ranch Style" hospital building, with all patient facilities on one level, has been admitting patients at the rate of a thousand a month during the last three months and it is expected that this rate will be increased by 25 percent in the autumn. Almost 8,000 patients were admitted during the year, and over 1,200 babies were born at the hospital.

McLean pointed out that the average hospital stay for patients at Mid-Island was only four and a half days compared to an eight and a half day for general hospitals in the metropolitan New York area. This unusually short stay, he said, was probably due to a large number of patients being in the younger age group, which in general accounts for Nassau County's excellent records on mortality and public health.

The hospital has approximately 300 hundred employees, nearly all residents of adjacent communities. There are over 300 physicians on the hospital staff. The Administrator reported that over 95 percent of the patients admitted came from the communities within an eight mile radius of the hospital.

The hospital is a member of the American Hospital Assoc. and the New York Blue Cross Plan. With the completion of its first year in operation the hospital is now eligible for survey by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, and this inspection is slated to take place during the coming months.

The hospital opened with an initial complement of 200 beds, but all service facilities were designed for an expansion to 350 beds. The Administrator said that it is hoped to undertake this expansion during the present year.

"There's no place like home," says Sidney Purcell, of Baldwin, "especially if it's comfortable! Believe me, our house is 'home, sweet home' since we switched from gas to oil heat. Oil gives us even, comfortable temperatures all-year-round; we no longer get sudden shifts from hot to cold. And the automatic delivery of oil is nothing short of terrific — our dealer does the worrying about our supply. We can count on him to keep our heating plant in apple-pie order all the time."

Garden Club To Meet Monday

The Bethpage Garden Club will meet on Aug. 20 at 1:30 PM at the Methodist Church on Broadway, Bethpage. The members will receive the second of a series of four lessons on Flower Arrangements being given by Mrs. Charles Hartman. Mrs. Hartman is from the Baldwin Harbor Garden Club and is on the Federation's speakers list.

Each member will bring with her two different arrangements for criticism by Mrs. Hartman and will receive instructions for new designs.

Mrs. Edward Helmig of 16 Parkview Circle North, has been appointed Chairman of the club's Fall show which will be held in November. Admission for this show will be free and will consist of arrangements in the Holiday mood.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Howard Grandjean and Michael Kronberg, co-chairmen of the Membership Committee of the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. announce a Membership Contest which will continue 'til September. The member of the Assoc. who brings in and sponsors the most members during that period will receive a valuable gift at a New Members Party on Sept. 29.

This party will be held at the clubhouse on Stewart and Cherry Aves., and all new members will be admitted free. Old members will pay a nominal charge of 50 cents. The party will feature food and drink, dancing, surprises, and the awarding of the gift to the contest winner.

READER OPINION:

Zimmerman Has Own Plan

By SOL ZIMMERMAN
To the Editor:

In the referendum scheduled for Aug. 18, 1956, the voters will be called upon to make a very important decision. They will be asked to authorize the expenditure of $675,000 for the construction of 36 temporary-type, wooden classrooms.

A committee of public-spirited citizens, representing various community organizations, has been functioning as the Citizens' Building Committee. This Committee was organized last February by Dr. Lamb, Supt. of Schools, at the School Board's request. The Committee made a thorough, intensive study of our school building needs. At the conclusion of the study, all members still participating in the deliberations, unanimously agreed that permanent-type schoolrooms are most suitable and desirable for this School District. There were a number of reasons for this choice. Two of the most important follow:

1. On the basis of figures supplied by the LI Lighting Co. which were presented by Allen Carpenter to the Building Committee, it appears that the ultimate population of District #17 will probably be 20% higher than originally estimated. Consequently, even with 22 additional elementary classrooms, the average per classroom, after the peak is passed, will be 30 pupils. Since these 22 classrooms will be needed long after the peak is passed, why shouldn't they be of durable, permanent construction?

2. The sum of $675,000 for 36 classrooms is an average of about $19,000 per classroom. Add to this a minimum of $3,000 for relocation; higher maintenance costs; insurance rates which are 8 times as high as for permanent structures; more rapid depreciation resulting in amortization over a 15 year period as against 30 years for the permanent rooms. The resulting cost is close to the $25,000 per room figure set by the architects for Class A masonry construction. It is obvious that there is far greater value for the tax dollar inherent in the permanent-type construction.

During the recent election campaign, Candidate Carpenter urged the voters to put control of the (Please Turn To Page 14)

Like your pie crust extra crisp? Just when the pie is ready for the oven, try brushing the top over so lightly with cold milk.

Soft and shortening. If you use vegetable shortening, add a pinch of salt to make up for the amount you would have had with butter.

Many people ask us how we can call Heckers' flour UN-BLEACHED when it is so white. The answer is: Heckers' is NATURALLY white because it is never dyed or bleached. It is naturally white.

Unlike bleached flour Heckers' is allowed to take its own sweet time to mellow and take on natural whiteness in its own good way.

Of course, this requires more storage at the mills and costs more. But you pay no more. And the difference in baking (and eating) quality is well known to every Heckers' user.

Easy way to remove food particles from rendered fat. Just pour small quantity of cold water on it. Food particles sink to bottom, fat rises to top as it cools.

And now how about a cake recipe that really invites you to get out in the kitchen and let yourself go? Here it is—tested, proved, and every bit as good as it sounds.

GOLDEN GATE CAKE

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted unbleached Heckers' flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, 3 tablespoons margarine, 2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar, 1/2 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup coconut.

Directions: Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy; add 1 egg and cream well. Add second egg and cream until light and smooth. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add vanilla to batter and add 1/2 of sifted dry ingredients and blend until batter is smooth; add 1/2 of liquid and blend in continuous mixing. Add milk alternately 1/2 at a time, until all ingredients are blended and batter is smooth. Pour batter evenly into lightly greased and floured pan or pans. Bake in 350 degrees oven for approximately 30 minutes.

When cool, frost with Orange-Coconut Frosting: Cream margarine until soft; add sugar gradually, blending with orange juice to spreading consistency. Beat until smooth; blend coconut into frosting.

Or, if you prefer a simpler recipe, you might try this: POUND CAKE

Ingredients: 2 cups sifted unbleached Heckers' flour, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup butter or other shortening, 1 egg, 5 eggs, 1 tbs. grated orange rind.

Directions: Sift together flour and salt. Cream shortening and sugar gradually. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each. Add orange rind, sifted flour and salt. Beat until smooth. Bake in a greased and floured loaf pan (9 x 5 x 3 in.) at 325 degrees for about 1 1/2 hours.

Elect Goodrich And Kent

By Fred J. Noeth

NEARLY 5800 VOTERS of Hicksville School District are qualified to cast their ballots this Saturday, Aug. 18, at seven school polling places on

- (1) Election of two members of the Board of Education for terms of about 10 months each.
- (2) APPROPRIATION of money for the construction of 36 classrooms.
- (3) APPROPRIATION of $60,000 more needed to build the addition to the public library, initially approved last November.

The referendum has taken several unusual twists and turns in the past few days. Weeks ago Robert E. Goodrich disclosed his candidacy for the one vacancy on the Board, the position held by William L. Yocum until ousted by the Supreme Court.

A full week before the deadline for filing of candidate petitions, Elwood S. Kent, Sr. announced his intention to seek the position vacated by the resignation of Edna K. Sutton. At about the same time, Sol Zimmerman also revealed an intention to run for the Board.

Both Goodrich and Kent duly filed their petitions. Zimmerman did not file.

Then on the last day for the filing of petitions, Aug. 7, two additional entries made their belated appearances. Twenty minutes before midnight, the deadline, petitions were offered by Thomas C. Affrunti, former district clerk, for himself, and for Mabel R. Farley, long-time high school principal.

That is when the strange and unusual began to become obvious. The petition naming Miss Farley was filed by Hope Silvestri who was campaign manager last April for the famed team of Leavitt-Maloney-Soininen. The petition statement contained several technical inaccuracies. The Affrunti petition was also carelessly worded, a strange fact when it is considered that the candidate was recently District Clerk and could be expected to be most conversant with such technical details.

At the Board of Education meeting on Friday night, by reason of correspondence from taxpayers and voters challenging both petitions, the subject came up for consideration. At this point a six-page mimeographed legal "memorandum" on the validity of Miss Farley's petition was presented to the Board and distributed to the audience. The memorandum was written by Martin I. Greenfield, local attorney, and prepared for Hope Silvestri and Raymond Schenck.

Joseph Maloney, at the Board meeting, read a prepared statement in favor of the Farley petition and why it should be accepted. The Board did not throw out the petitions. Regarding Farley's nomination, Trustee Allen Carpenter pointed out that he felt that only failure of Miss Farley to qualify as a candidate would, in his opinion, be grounds for adverse action.

Schenck told the Board that he had been advised by Miss Farley that she rents her residence. It was not indicated whether she is a taxpayer or property owner. However, the leasor of a structure is qualified to run for the Board. Only boarders are barred from holding office or voting.

As for Affrunti, we could write volumes about the district's past experience with him as the first and only "full time" clerk. His intimate affiliation with the former ruling majority bloc on the Board has been reported in our columns and is well established. At this point he says he is "not running against anyone," only running for "good education." At the same time, he wants to see the proposal for 36 additional classrooms up for vote on Saturday rejected by the voters.

Friends of Affrunti and Miss Farley claim they are not "running together." This the voters must decide for themselves. Maloney volunteered at the meeting Friday night that "ten or 15 persons" signed the petitions of both these people.

It was common knowledge in the community in the weeks prior to the deadline for petition filing that many prominent and lesser known citizens had been approached as potential

Miss Farley States Her Case

By MABEL R. FARLEY
To the Voters of Hicksville

I am a candidate for membership on the Hicksville Board of Education for the election August 18, 1956, because I believe I have the necessary qualifications for the position. I sincerely hope you will vote for me and give me the opportunity to serve you.

I am a graduate of a State Teachers College. I have studied at Bucknell, Pennsylvania State, and New York Universities. I have B.A. and M.A. degrees. I was awarded the Alumni Meritorious Service Award at New York University with the following citation: "Mabel Farley ever a loyal alumna, has brought the School of Education to the favorable attention of education in New York State through her active membership in state educational and national professional organization."

Affrunti 'Not Against Anyone'

By THOMAS C. AFFRONTI
To the Voters of Hicksville:

On Saturday, Aug. 18, you will have an opportunity to vote for school trustees. Voting is one concrete way each of us can contribute to good education, and I urge you to do so.

I am a candidate in this election, and to aid you in selecting the candidates you wish to support, I am using this letter to tell you of the kind of program I advocate. But first I wish to make it very clear that I am not running against anybody—I am running FOR good schools.

Good education requires good teaching; good teaching requires good teachers. For many years Hicksville had one of the best school systems on Long Island, and teachers considered it a distinction to teach here. Today, teacher morale is at an all-time low, and many of our best teachers have left the district, and there are continuing rumors that many of the remaining good ones are "shopping" elsewhere.

If elected, I shall work constantly to restore good education to Hicksville by promoting policies which will attract and hold the best possible teachers.

Good education requires school buildings fitting of the educational needs of the children. I shall work for such buildings and will oppose all efforts to force them into make-shift, high insurance risk buildings.

Good education requires full citizen participation in school affairs. I will urge the appointment of citizens' committees and will do my best to see to it that their reports receive the full and careful consideration they deserve. I consider it deplorable and dictatorial to fire a citizens committee because it makes a report with which the majority of the Board disagrees. That such tactics should be followed in Hicksville is unbelievable.

Finally, a word about myself. I have lived in Hicksville for five years. I am 38 years of age and have three children. At present I am in the insurance business and formerly was school district clerk and administrative assistant to the Board. I was secretary of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Education during the school year 1955-1956. I have attended scores of school board meetings and have studied and analyzed the problems confronting the Board. I have been active in church affairs, holding membership in the Holy Name Society and the K. of C. I am a veteran of World War II, with service in naval intelligence and overseas duty aboard an aircraft carrier.

I believe parents perform no more vital function than providing their children with good education. I shall be guided by this principle if elected to the Board.

I hope my program appeals to you. If it does, please vote for me. Voting is Saturday, Aug. 18, 7 Gull Road, Hicksville, N. Y., Aug. 12, 1956.

candidates. Possibly because of the auspices or for other reasons, such bids were rejected by those approached. But apparently the 11th hour drive produced results. The petitions filed indicate that the forms had been drawn in advance and the names of candidates inserted later.

Trustee Carpenter noted at the meeting, Friday night, that perhaps the "unkindest thing" that the friends of Miss Farley could do would be to insist upon her running for the School Board.

It is our privilege to know both Goodrich and Kent. Both are men of ability and educational background which eminently qualifies them for the Board of Education. We urge their election because we feel confident they understand the job and are capable of doing it.

Affrunti we can reject. We know him and what he stands for. We find him another mouthpiece for those we have opposed before.

The matter of Miss Farley is something else again. She is highly respected for what she has done as the principal of the high school for 31 years. We realize the folly of attempting to urge logic and common sense in a situation loaded with sentiment, so we won't try. As a candidate for public office, however, Miss Farley or anyone else, must stand public scrutiny. By seeking the position of public trust they summon the glare of publicity. The candidates' specific qualifications and shortcomings, if any, must be weighed by the voter as best he can.

Be sure to vote this Saturday, Aug. 18, between 2 and 10 PM. We urge your vote for Goodrich and Kent, the second row on the ballot.

We also sincerely and earnestly urge your favorable vote on the additional classrooms (Proposition 1) and in favor of the additional funds needed to construct the greatly needed addition to our Public Library.

I am a member of New York State Education Research Association, New York State Secondary School Principals Association, and the National Secondary School Principals Association. I am listed in "Leaders in Education."

I was American Red Cross local canteen chairman during World War II.

I financed my own education, hence know the value of a dollar. I believe in spending other people's tax dollars as I would spend my own money.

I have been Principal of the Hicksville High School for the past thirty-one years, during which time we have made adjustments to meet the demands of the community. Our graduates have entered Mount Holyoke, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Bates College, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, California, New York Universities, West Point, Annapolis, Kings Point and many others too numerous to include in this brief article. Our graduates have become doctors, lawyers, ministers, priests, dentists, engineers, teachers, bankers, businessmen and good citizens.

We have 1312 students from 11 different schools in our Summer High School at present. Our Summer schools have been more than self-supporting. After teachers were paid last summer we had more than a $7,000 balance. We expect a larger balance this year. The balance will be in the district treasury.

I believe as do many of the good people of Hicksville that we cannot have an education that remains static. We must change with the situation in which we find ourselves. It has not been characteristic of the good people of Hicksville to neglect their children. They have sacrificed to have good schools. Now it becomes the duty of tax payers, parents, teachers, and the Board of Education to maintain a high standard of education for Hicksville. Our most valuable resource is, and will continue to be our boys and girls. If elected to the Board of Education my sole interest as throughout my entire adult life will be your children.

The Hicksville Lions Club presented me with an achievement award with the following inscription: "In Grateful Appreciation for Service Extended to the Youth of Hicksville." I sincerely hope you will vote for me August 18th that I may continue to be of service to your children.

Schenk Favors Mabel Farley

By RAYMOND C. SCHENCK
To the Editor:

In a recent issue of your paper you printed Mr. Goodrich's statement of why he believed the people of Hicksville should entrust him with the responsibility of a position on our School Board. Several of his reasons I believe are worthy of comment.

Goodrich says, "... I believe the people expect their Board of Education to seek and consider information and advice from the people."

Comment: An excellent sentiment, but will Mr. Goodrich act on it? The present majority on the Board which is supporting him has treated citizens' committees with disdain. They refused to consider the report of the officially appointed Citizens Committee on Buildings. When this committee refused to write its report, to accord with the Board's views, they abolished the committee—a fine reward for many months of work! The Board majority has also refused to take seriously the actions of the Annual Taxpayer's Meeting. This is hardly a record to inspire confidence.

Goodrich says, "... there is the important matter of developing a school curriculum, subject matter and teaching methods."

Comment: Of course this is most important and essential to it is the morale of the teachers who must carry out the policies of the Board. The actions of the present School Board majority have shown such disrespect for education that the morale of Hicksville teachers is at the lowest ebb in the history of the school district—a school district which was once held in such high esteem that teachers considered it a distinction to serve in the district. The district is now losing many of its best teachers to districts where School Boards respect education.

Goodrich says, "... the development of our present recreational program..."

Comment: The citizens of Hicksville turn to page 47.

Carpenter Resents Pressure

By ALLEN S. CARPENTER
Trustee, Hicksville School Dist.
To the Editor:

Those people among us who insist upon permanent school rooms for a temporary peak enrollment will never be satisfied with temporary or movable classroom units—this they have made plain to all of us. No amount of logic, and no weight of reason can change them.

These people have already forced to referendum, two 11-room elementary school buildings; not once but twice, only to have them beaten and turned down each time by the voters of our district.

Now in their apparent willingness to sacrifice the proper education of a whole generation of children, they are bringing to bear upon the present Board of Education tremendous pressure in the press and by their public statements to attempt to force their will again upon the people with another referendum for a 22-room permanent school building.

These people, not your School Board, are being "high-handed". They are the ones who insist upon forcing their will upon the people of our district. They are so indifferent to the good and welfare of our children that unless they can have their own way, they would rather that our children be denied much needed classrooms. These "pro-education" hypocrites through their stubborn insistence on permanent construction for the peak load period, have already delayed the proper provision of classroom space by about two years. Now they would gamble again with our children's educational welfare.

It is the School Board's responsibility to provide educational facilities for the school children of our district. As a member of your School Board I intend to do my utmost towards making these necessary and needed classrooms available. I know that twice before 22-permanent classroom proposals have been defeated in public referendum. I sincerely believe that they would be turned down again. Believing as I do, only a fool would place the same proposition before the voters for a third time. Only a fool, or one who has no true interest in the good and welfare of our children, would be willing to gamble again with this much-needed class room space.

Any individual, any committee or any group that tries to pressure me into gambling with the welfare of our children, will succeed only in earning my disgust.

These movable classrooms will be needed to properly house our peak pupil enrollment at the elementary level, junior high level, and at the high school level. This construction does not close the door upon additional permanent construction, if and when it is found necessary. Twenty-two permanent rooms will solve none of our problems, even if it could be approved. Thirty-six movable classrooms, together with rooms now under construction, will provide by February of this school term 50 more elementary school rooms, allowing 100 more single session classes in the second term of this coming school year.

I sincerely believe that the people of Hicksville are willing to vote for, and pay the cost of, construction that they know is needed and necessary. We can all agree that these classrooms are needed and I guarantee to you that they are the equivalent of the best classrooms now in use in our district, insofar as safety and educational usefulness is concerned. I wish to further assure the taxpayers and parents that the maintenance and upkeep will be reasonable and practical.

I recommend that the voters of the school district approve the funds in the Aug. 18 (Saturday's) referendum, so that their construction can be started immediately. 11 Loritta Lane, Hicksville, N.Y. Aug. 13, 1956.

Free To Act Kent Asserts

By ELWOOD S. KENT, SR.
To the Editor:

My name is being placed before the citizens of Hicksville to determine whether or not I can be of assistance as a trustee of the school district.

I come before the electorate with a clear, fresh, mind—no prior affiliations—no axes to grind—no obligations to any group or faction. I have not been betrayed, nor do I seek any revenge.

It is my hope that I can be elected, but under no circumstances do I wish anyone to vote for me who after having done so will consider that a favor is owed to him or her.

I believe in upholding the constitution of the U.S.—and sincerely hope that voters of a contrary mind will not pull the lever for me.

It is not possible for any group of individuals to be in complete agreement on all propositions submitted to the board—but this should be borne in mind—a disagreement between any one or several should not develop into a harangue or indicate a start of ill feeling. The problems confronting this board are much too big to become personal and any one who intends to instigate such a feeling is not worthy of election. Again I say, my vote, if elected, will not always be in the majority, but it will not prevent me from thinking clearly on the next issue. It is my opinion that the board members I have met act in the same manner—it is doubtful if the "rubber stamp" is in use on this Board.

HERALD READER OPINION: Refuses to Compromise

By SHIRLEY KARISH
To the Editor:

As a mother and an active citizen I've been fighting for better Hicksville schools for five years. I haven't changed—I'm still fighting for better schools (not JUST better buildings!) I must "rise to a point of personal privilege" at the attacks made on myself and others who are urging a "NO" vote on Saturday. I would be foolish indeed if I worked to hurt my own children, and they would be the first to be deprived if needed rooms are not available.

Those of us who fought for permanent rooms (100 year expected useful life) have compromised. We still think the proposed temporary, however, are educationally and financially unsound. We are willing to accept less, we are willing to accept the concept of a 35 MAXIMUM (30 average) full-session class size. We are willing to accept school construction which will not be as durable as District educational advisors recommended. (The economy masonry type proposed by the Citizens Building Committee has an expected useful life of 30-50 years). Because our community apparently wants to save money first, we are unwillingly accepting the idea of retaining obsolete Nicholas for "the duration", even though its children are deprived of gymnasium facilities. We are (at least some of us) resigned to seeing libraries, music and art rooms used as classrooms for the emergency, and two classes in the gyms at once. However, these special purpose rooms and Nicholas must be replaced by permanent rooms when the emergency is over. Why build them to replace temporaries, saddling ourselves with 45 years instead of 30 years of school mortgage?

However, with all these compromises, there are some things on which I REFUSE to compromise.

When my child's health and education are affected, as they will be when additions are added to a school already at maximum capacity, there I draw the line.

I have been willing to compromise on many things affecting the children's need for relaxed working conditions. On what has the Board majority promised? On offering the cheapest possible item, regardless of value. On taking the first thing they could find, regardless of the cost of its upkeep or the effect it would have on core facilities of the parent buildings. Already a heater unit had to be heated at Fork Lane. When will we be asked to "second guess" payments for new toilets, new lunchrooms, new vocational rooms, new science labs, new gyms? Why not get the right thing FIRST.

In the honest belief that temporaries cannot be ready by January '57 (they took 17 months at Fork Lane, aren't even started at Lee), I think it is worth waiting until September '57 to provide the right facilities the FIRST time round.

The Building Committee members are practical businessmen—they are earning a living at their specialties. They recognize the wasteful effects on the children and the pocketbook of inefficient planning.

I shall vote NO on August 18. I shall continue to work for needed classrooms for our children. 23 Spray Lane, Hicksville, N. Y. Aug. 13, 1956.

Miss Froehlich Becomes Bride

Miss Rosemarie Froehlich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Froehlich of Woodbury Road, Hicksville, became the bride of Edward John Kiewra, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kiewra of Floral Park, Saturday, July 14. The nuptial Mass was said at St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville, at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Leo Goggin officiated.

The bride wore white eyelet embroidered swiss organdy with scalloped neckline and sleeves, torso bodice, tiered skirt and a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a cascade of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of californian daisies with white orchid.

Miss Irene Zelbisky, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore white frosted nylon organza over blue taffeta with matching picture hat. She carried a cascade of a rainbow assortment of daisies.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Loretta Myles, sister of the groom, Mrs. Barbara McCabe, Miss Arlene Allgeier and Mrs. Rose Snyder, friends of the bride. It was a rainbow wedding, each gown covered with white frosted nylon organza with matching picture hats. Each attendant carried an old fashioned bouquet of assorted daisies. The flower girl, Sandra Holinski, niece of the groom, wore a blue organdy gown with white applique. She also carried an old fashioned bouquet of assorted daisies.

Joseph Froehlich, brother of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were James Myles, brother-in-law of the groom, Clyde Wesnofske, cousin of the bride, James Snyder and James Gibbons, friends of the groom. The ring bearer was John Dittmar, nephew of the groom.

After the ceremony the bride placed a bouquet of flowers at the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

A reception for 200 guests was held at Henningsen's Restaurant, Hicksville.

After a honeymoon to the Pocomos the newlyweds will reside in their own home at 175 Willis Ave., Floral Park.

The bride is a graduate of St. Ignatius School and Hicksville High School. She is presently employed at Micro Moisture Controls, Inc. in Mineola.

The groom was graduated from Sewanhaka High School, Floral Park and served four years with the U. S. Navy. He is employed at Wildcat Service Station, Hollis.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Vincent Braun, Sr. of Third St., Hicksville, wishes to thank her many friends and neighbors for their kindness in remembering her during her recent illness. Mrs. Braun was a patient at Mid-Island Hospital, Bethpage, and is now at home recuperating.

Announcement of the engagement of Frances C. Dallmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dallmeyer of Brooklyn to Herbert W. Zirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Zirk of Hicksville was made recently.

STUDENT-ACCEPTED

Carl Schulz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Schulz of 67 Harrison Ave., Hicksville, has been accepted for admission to Valparaiso University, beginning in September, 1956.

Phyllis Ruggiero Sets Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. James Ruggiero, of 180 Lee Ave., Hicksville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Anne, to Richard Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Giles of Clarendon Road, Brooklyn.

The wedding will take place at St. Ignatius Loyola R. C. Church in Hicksville on Sunday, Sept. 2, at 5 p.m.

Mrs. Millie Ruggiero, Marilyn Avallone and Mary Viscoe will attend the bride while Joseph Pirco will be best man.

A reception will be held Sunday evening, Sept. 2, at the Golden Slipper, Glen Cove.

The bride to be, whose parents own and operate the Casa Allegra Restaurant in Hicksville attended Glen Cove and Hicksville High Schools and is employed in the Equitable Life Assurance Co. in New York while the groom is a graduate of Brooklyn Schools and is now attending LIU where he is studying for a law degree.

A veteran of the Korean War, he served in the United States Marine Corps Signal Battalion.

Following the wedding, the couple will tour Canada making the traditional stop-over at famed Niagara Falls and will make their home in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn. Harold Giles and John Ruggiero will be ushers.

William W. Madison, of Foster Place in Hempstead, says: "My son and I recently invested in a gas hot water heater, on the theory that it was an economical way to get our hot water supply. We were flabbergasted when our bills came in—$117 for a four-week period. Then, $88 for the following four weeks, and finally $80 for four weeks. Adjusting it didn't cut our gas bills either, and we immediately purchased an oil-fired, hot water heater. Our dealer told us that oil would cut our bills by about 30%—and he's right! An oil-fired, hot water heater puts money in your pocket."

"hi neighbor"...

What a wealth of meaning is carried by that simple phrase. It lets you know that someone's there to help... not just when you need them most but all the time. That's just the way your friends at Long Island National feel. They're happy to help you all the time... whether it's cashing your checks, letting you in to your safe deposit box, or for more important services such as personal loans and mortgage arrangements. Perhaps it's because they wish for you the kind of individual financial security which makes a whole community flourish... a community where you'll find your bank, staffed by your neighbors... serving you.

Corn Festival And Picnic Aug 26

The Plainview Republican Club plans to hold the biggest Picnic and Corn Festival ever to be held in the community on Sunday, Aug. 26, on the serene and lovely atmosphere of the old Bliss Estate.

Republican Leader Anthony C. Ocker said that the community's participation and reaction to the Field Days held in the past three years have prompted the Club to hold a picnic.

Tickets for the affair are $1.50 per person and the price of the ticket includes all appropriate picnic liquid refreshments in addition to corn, hamburgers and other similar tasty picnic tidbits. Children under 12 years old will be admitted free. A large committee has been organized to handle the cooking chores and experienced chefs will be on hand to satisfy the epicurean desires of all residents who attend.

Tickets for the affair may be procured from Anthony C. Ocker and Joseph Branca, Chairman of the Picnic and Corn Festival; the Republican Committeemen and members of the Committee.

Present picnic plans also call for a game area to be set up.

Bethpage Tax Below Estimate

BETHPAGE — The School Tax Rate for this district will be $4.33 per $100 of assessment which is seven cents less than the $4.45 rate forecast at the annual meeting. The new rate, including the library, is a gain of five cents on the present $4.33, the Board of Education announced.

ville, aware of the growth of juvenile delinquency, need and want a recreation program. At their annual meeting they endorsed a referendum on such a program. The present School Board majority which supports Mr. Goodrich is delaying that referendum and there is some doubt that they will ever authorize it.

The taxpayers of Hicksville are indeed fortunate that they have such a wonderful alternative to Goodrich in the person of Miss Mabel Farley. In over 30 years in our school district Miss Farley has proven by concrete actions her undivided devotion to good education. Independent, forward-looking, and possessing extensive knowledge of school problems, Miss Farley is indeed to be thanked for her willingness to continue her service to our community in this time of great need.

School Board in the hands of businessmen, namely the present School Board Majority. It seems inconceivable that such astute businessmen like Szendy, Elrich, Eaton and Carpenter cannot perceive the superior value of the permanent rooms over the temporary ones.

If the taxpayers want to receive full value for their hard-earned tax dollars, they will vote against Proposition No. 1 on Aug. 18, 1956. Then, in view of the universal agreement on the need for more classrooms, they will get after the School Board to present a plan to the voters for solid, permanent-type schoolrooms. Several such plans were prepared by the Citizens Building Committee and are now in the Board's possession.

THE GREEN THUMB: Daylily Is Not Wild Flower

By ALMA CRAIB

The common daylily that blooms in long drifts along country highways in July is not an American wild flower. It is a garden-escape, which originally came from the Orient and was probably brought home in a sailing vessel by some seafaring garden-lover, perhaps as a gift to his wife or mother after several years' absence. They were highly prized, and were found in 18th century gardens all along the Atlantic Coast. As the pioneers moved westward, the covered wagons carried clones of this tawny-orange daylily, along with "blue flag" iris, to be planted beside the new homes in the wilderness. They are now found all over the U. S. and Canada, and any plant with such a history must be unusually tough and resistant to drought, heat, cold, insects and disease.

The professional grower and hybridizer, however, took little interest in this really beautiful flower until about 20 years ago, when one horticulturist saw possibilities in this plant and in its relative the old-fashioned lemon lily. He crossed them with other hemerocallis that were being brought from the far places of the earth by plant-hunters, and his great success in developing beautiful new varieties attracted the attention of the whole country, and the interest has grown with the years.

We now have daylilies that are short and tall, whose blooming time is from June thru Oct., and in an array of colors from palest yellow to deepest maroon, scarlet and purple. At present hybridizers are trying to grow a clear pink.

The daylilies are not lilies. They are of the genus hemerocallis; lilies are of the genus lilium. The name means beautiful for a day, and each blossom does only one day, but new ones open every morning for a long time.

True to their ancestry, these plants make one of the most dependable and trouble-free of perennials. They may be planted any time from now until frost, but Aug. is the best time, so that they can become established before winter. Local nurseries do not seem to carry them, but they are one of the plants that ship well, and every garden magazine carries a number of advertisements for them. Russell's Gardens at Spring, Texas, is the largest grower and probably the best.

The first year after planting they usually send up just one flowering stalk with half-a-dozen blossoms, but they increase so rapidly that they can be divided the third year, so you get a quick return on your investment. They are not expensive unless you must have the latest developments. They grow well in partial shade; in fact, some of them prefer it. They are not fussy as to soil and stand drought better than most plants. Diseases seldom bother them and insects seem to avoid them. In fact they are as amiable as they are beautiful, and a most worthwhile addition to any garden picture.

Fire Dept. Playoff Starts on Sept. 16

HICKSVILLE—Sept. 16 marks the first round in the playoffs of the fire department softball leagues when the first place Hook and Ladder Co. 6 meets fourth place Emergency Co. 5 at the Lee Ave. School.

Still pending is a game between Chemical Co. 3 and Hose Co. 4, originally scheduled for July 22.

The Slik Stocking "Chiefs and Commissioners" Hose Co. 4 took the measure of the Emergency boys last Sunday, 19 to 4 (or was it 6 to 4 because the game should have ended on seven innings?) with a generous assist by the outstanding base umpire in the person of Capt. Walter Telender of Co. 3.

The game was tight for the first five innings until John Larkin began coaching Co. 5. The Emergency boys appreciate the help that Larkin gave them, however, and hope he will be available to do the same thing on Sept. 16. Commissioner Harold Manaske led the Co. 5 cheering section.

The standing of the companies:

	Won	Lost
Co. 6	5	0
Co. 4	3	1
Co. 3	2	1
Co. 5	2	3
Co. 2	1	3
Co. 1	0	5

Geary's Bows to Danda

HICKSVILLE—The mid-summer's night's dream was activated at Burns Ave. School, Sunday afternoon, as Danda's Inn met the North End (Geary's) in a softball battle. Danda won, 20-5.

With all due reverence to the all-time greats of the past, Ruth, Cobb, Gehrig, et al, perhaps the greatest exhibition of power in baseball history was displayed in a 14-run rally in the first inning.

Great play was exhibited by both collections of great all-stars. Harmer (Toot) Reardon hit a screaming line drive into the left field bullpen, but due to a great throw by George Merkle he was cut down at first base.

Pete (Pops) Dizzino played a great game at third base and went five for six at bat. Ruggerio and Mertz shone was a battery. The Murphy Bros. compared to the Waners of old.

A great job of umpiring was done by Carl (Dutch) Hawkander. Manager Ed (Casey) Farrone of Danda's was so proud and enthused, he issued an open challenge to any or all collective teams in the major leagues.

Dr. Swick Goes On Canada Trip

HICKSVILLE—Dr. Arthur Swick of 40 West Old Country Rd., is leaving for Canada and will be there until Sept. 8.

While the family is vacationing Dr. Swick will do some research work at the hospitals and University of Montreal.

The office will be closed from Aug. 19 until Sept. 8. Patients will be referred to another physician by the answering service.

Take a Ford Test Drive ... and you may save hundreds!

Would you
trade 20 minutes of your time for a saving of hundreds?

August is Saving Season
at your Ford Dealer's.
Big a deal while he clears his decks for the '57 models.

Why put off the fun of a Ford Test Drive for a single day? As you know, it puts you under absolutely no obligation. And it may save you literally hundreds of dollars—we'll get to that a little further on.

By a Test Drive we mean more than a once-around-the-block "spin."

We want you to test the power that rocketed Ford to a 500-mile stock car record at Indianapolis... the GO that won the grand prize at NASCAR's Daytona Championships. We want you to feel how this Ford cost pays off in your kind of driving: in traffic, passing on the highway, getting going at traffic lights. We'll put either a Ford Six or a mighty V-8 with up to 225 h.p. at your disposal.

We want you to drive and listen—drive and feel.

That fine-car quiet results from sound insulation under the hood, under the roof, in door and body panels—the most insulation in any car at anywhere near Ford's low price.

Some other things that contribute to that smooth, silent, luxury-car ride are things which Ford's leading competitor certainly can't boast: Ball-joint suspension with wide base control arms for better steering, more stabilized wheel alignment... shock absorbers that are mounted to the frame rather than the body.

"Sure," you'll say as you drive along the road. "Feels pretty good—but after all, this car is new."

Well, sir, when you come in from your drive we'll show you why Ford will stay like new for a long, long time.

We'll show you how Ford has five cross-members (including a "K" member) in its frame. Ford's leading competitor only has two. We'll show you the deep-block Y-like engine design which enables Ford engines to take it.

Now—what you've been waiting for. How can you save hundreds of dollars by taking a Ford Test Drive?

Simply by proving to yourself that there really is a fine car in the low-price field.

You see, the reason a Ford does not cost hundreds of dollars more than it does, is Ford's huge production and the huge volume which we Ford Dealers sell.

But enough of this talk. Come in. And you do the driving and the talking. Bring the family, too.

About Your Home

You should always set a good example for your children, but don't try to be perfect. Teaching children to understand others is just as important as your being understanding toward them. No child can imitate the picture of the perfect adult who never makes a mistake.

It is important for children to know that every human does something wrong at one time or another. This will tend to keep him from becoming a perfectionist, a sad fate for anyone. Explain that you still love people, even though they make mistakes. Each child must learn that persons closest as well as those distant to him have imperfections.

During an ordinary day, mothers have many chances to offer sympathetic understanding to children. This, done in the proper way, will help develop understanding of others in their children.

Never try to cover up your obvious errors with weak excuses.

Often the youngest of children can sense when an explanation isn't the entire truth. Instead of making excuses or remaining silent, admit your forgetfulness and carelessness to them. Tell the children how angry you are with yourself and that now you resolve to be much more careful next time.

From this the children get the picture that though you sometimes make mistakes, you strive to correct them and not make them again. They'll also gain insight into understanding the problems and frailties of others.

Never have an argument with your husband in front of your children. This will make them feel insecure and greatly damage their personality if allowed to happen often. Don't lose control of your temper before your children. In time this will cause your children to lose a certain amount of respect for you and will also teach them to have little control of their tempers.
