The contests include (1) three men from each team rolling 50 feet of fire hose and carrying it 50 feet to the finish line; (2) three men from each team racing 150 feet, stopping enroute to done complete fire fighting dress, including boots, helmet and rain coat.

School Board To Bring Sessions To Seven District Neighborhoods

HICKSVILLE—The School Board is scheduled to meet tomorrow (Friday) night in the all purpose room of Burns Ave. School, the start of a series of seven meetings scheduled for seven neighborhoods of the district "so that people in each area can see the Board in action and become aware of District problems."

The schedule will follow the system by which the seven voting districts are numbered. If the Board continues meetings every Friday, as it has since July 6, the tentative schedule would be as follows:

JOYBELLE ENJOYS CAMERAS:

Local Brown Swiss Cow Becomes TV Personality

HICKSVILLE—Joybelle, a gentle, brown Swiss cow of the 85-cow herd of Fairway Farms, here, and the Staryk brothers are becoming real trouperes in the magic world of television. Joybelle was a star of the Gary Moore "I've Got a Secret" witnessed by 40 million American TV viewers last week on Wednesday night.

The brown Swiss cow has "become a real ham" in front of the TV cameras, according to Johnny Staryk. The Fairway Farms cow is evenly tempered and "seems to like the cameras". Joybelle has been before the TV cameras on six programs to date including twice on Herb Sheldon's program, as well as Steve Allen and Dave Garroway shows.

The secret guest star on the show last Wednesday was Judy Canova who was, naturally, milking Joybelle. On the same program, the panel including Faye Emerson and Jane Meadows, took part in a milking contest which was won by Bill Cullen.

Joybelle was taken directly into the CBS Studios at W. 47th St., New York City, by truck. In fact, according to Johnny Staryk, it was planned to have four cows used by the entire panel. Fairway Farms had four cows ready but the stage capacity was too limited.

The brown Swiss cow cast an eye at dairy royalty, the American Dairy Princess, Ruth Marie Peterson, on the Today show on June 4 during the observance of Dairy Month. Miss Peterson has been spokesman for the American dairy industry in such faraway places as Osaka, Japan and Bogota, Columbia.

Following every TV appearance by Fairway Farms' Joybelle and the Staryk brothers, there are numerous phone calls from local friends and customers of the dairy.

WANTS LAND TAKEN OVER BY DISTRICT:

Opponent of Garden Apt Project Claims Threat To Water Supply

HICKSVILLE—Protection of the water district supply on Bethpage Road where three wells of the district are located is a prime concern of those residents opposing garden apartments on adjacent acreage, it was pointed out today by Woodie Karran of 29 Seymour Lane. He responded to statements published in the Herald last week, attributed to William Mannilla, local realtor.

The property, consisting of almost 10 acres and known as the former Schwamb farm, should be acquired by the water district to safeguard the taxpayers' investment in wells and pumping equipment, Karran pointed out. He said the wells represent an investment of about $300,000.

"Hicksville in my book," Karran said, "comes first. The Township of Oyster Bay second and really corporations and their monetary gains at the expense of others is not to be considered."

He also pointed out: "I read with much interest the article on Garden Apartments written by William Mannilla, local realtor. It was well written and had an impressive amount of figures that looked real good. As to the accuracy of all his figures, I'll leave that to someone else."

"Seymour Lane residents canvassed the town and submitted a list of over 1,000 people who opposed the apartments. A major part of the list were 'little concerned' who got the apartments, just as long as they didn't. They signed their protest to keep a cesspool away from their drinking water."

"Here are a few figures from those opposing it that are real BAD. The Hicksville Water District is owned by the people of Hicksville. Adjacent to the proposed apartment site, the water district has three (3) wells, complete with pumps, pump house and equipment. Each unit is pumping good water at capacity. The replacement cost of each unit is conservatively set at $100,000. In other words, the Town Board is gambling $300,000 of the people of Hicksville's money against Garden Apartment taxes paid to the Township of Oyster Bay.

"The Town Board is made up of five men, one from Hicksville. Their job is to do what's best for the TOWNSHIP. Here they are, and it will be well worth your time to remember them: McInnes (Hicksville), Norman (Bethpage), Best (Glen Head), Waters (Syosset and Bayville).

"Now to answer Mr. Mannilla's last paragraph. The Health Dept. concerning the contamination of wells is very vague. It advances a few theories but will not sign a statement guaranteeing 100 feet filtration safe for a period of time.

"In short, I would be very happy to supply 100 feet of pipe filled with nice clean gravel, put a pump on one end and set the other in any cesspool containing human waste. If Mr. Mannilla and the Town Board will agree to drink and use for cooking, a substantial amount of cesspool water drawn through this filtration of 100 feet.

"The Board of Health's main function is to insure safe water with a low bacteria count. Each month, samples are taken from each well and analyzed. Should it reach a point of contamination deemed unsafe for human consumption, they merely ORDER to well shut down. $100,000 is charged up to a bad gamble, and never lose sight of the fact that in this case, three wells are being put in jeopardy.

"The same Board of Health condemned wells in Bethpage. Grumman, however, paid a cash restitution for new wells. South Farmingdale had wells condemned. Republic paid on that count. It should be noted that when these wells (Please Turn To Page 6)

Would Appreciate Her Wallet

HICKSVILLE—Erna Anweiler of 16 Farm La., had her wallet stolen on Aug. 24 around noon. She had gone to the bank to cash her pay check, and had placed the money in the wallet, which was a souvenir from Germany. When she arrived back at Gilson's Factory Store on West John St., where she is employed, she noted that her wallet was missing.

The following Tuesday, an envelope addressed to "E. Anweiler, 72 West Barclay St." was delivered to her at the store. Enclosed was her check cashing identification card, snapshots, and a business card of Gilson's with the West John St. address on it, and nothing else. The letter was postmarked at the local Post Office at 8 p.m. on Aug. 24.

It is evident that whoever took the wallet was familiar with the Barclay St. address of Gilson's; and Miss Anweiler wishes to thank the thief and say, "If you needed the money so badly that you stole it, you are welcome to it. But you could have at least returned the wallet."

Service, Celebration On Saturday

OLD BETHPAGE—The Jewish Science Synagogue here recently completed and dedicated, will hold a children's service and Succoth Celebration on Saturday morning, Sept. 22, at 10:30 to which all children in the area and their parents are cordially invited.

A Succoth, built this week in accordance with the precepts of the Jewish faith, which requires that these festive booths be built adjoining the home and synagogue as a symbol of gratitude and historic remembrance of God's goodness to the Jewish people, will be the scene of the celebration.

Jewish Science which is a national religious movement in Judaism, with headquarters in New York City, built the House of Worship here as the first of a series of Jewish Science Synagogues in the suburban area of New York.

At present Jewish Science services are held in Forest Hills and in New York City. The program of Jewish Science is unique in that it stresses true layman participation and leadership in the religious services as well as in the more secular activities of the congregation. Jewish Science, of which Tehilla Lichtenstein is leader, was founded by Rabbi Morris Lichtenstein in 1922 and has as its declared aims the application of the teachings of Judaism to the attainment of inner strength, serenity, and health.

Services at the synagogue are held every Friday evening at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m. Children services will be held every Saturday morning at 10:30. The Synagogue is located at Round Swamp Road and Claremont St.

The Continental Revue which was presented by the Civic Assoc. on Sept. 8, was such a success that it will be seen again, this time for the benefit of the Bethpage Youth Memorial Center.

People who were not able to secure tickets for the first performance will now be able to see Continental Revue at the Broadway School. The tentative date is Oct. 3.

Norma Kline, the producer and director of the show, has added additional acts to the revue, and it promises to be a huge success again.

MEETING TONIGHT
The Executive Board of Central Blvd. School P-TA of Bethpage will take place tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

GABRIELLI PROMOTED
The promotion of Thomas J. Gabrielli of 11 York Ave., Bethpage, to Accountant in the Comptroller's Dept. of the Port of New York Authority was announced by the bi-state agency. In his new position Gabrielli will be in charge of supervising disbursements.

Joining the Port Authority in January, 1949 as a clerk-typist, he advanced through several increasingly responsible positions to his present post.

A resident of Nassau County for the last 1 1/2 years, Gabrielli was born and raised in Brooklyn before moving to his present address. He is a graduate of St. John's University, majoring in Accounting and holding a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. During World War II he served in the Army Air Force for three years.

He is married to the former Nina Silevovich of Brooklyn and has two children, Thomas 9 and Nancy 7.

Mr. Edward Swanson of Plainview says: "It goes without saying that any family with three young children needs plenty of hot water! And hot water can be mighty expensive if you're not getting it the modern, economical way—with oil. Our oil-fired hot water heater heats any other method for dollar value. It cut our hot-water costs at least 40%, if not more, and we can count on it to keep us well supplied at any hour of the day or night no matter how much hot water we need."

"It happened 38 years ago—
I'll never forget the thrill!"

"December 30, 1918, was a big day in the history of our house—which dates back seven generations. It was the day we got our first telephone! I'll never forget the thrill of the first call I made that day. And what a good investment the phone has been ever since—especially when you consider how little the cost has gone up since the days when eggs sold for only 12¢ a dozen!"

MRS. GEORGE W. ANEY

Whether the job is big or little, a telephone call can be a help. That's why good telephone service and a good telephone system are so important. Few things that serve so well cost so very little as your telephone.

Cake donations will be accepted at the Church and will be sold following the Masses on Sept. 30.

The Society's next monthly meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 1. This meeting will be the deadline for the purchase of tickets for the Society's first Annual Communion Breakfast to be held at Henning's Restaurant in Hicksville following the 7:30 Mass on Sunday, Oct. 7.

WELCOME FACULTY

Cooperation and cordiality will keynote the spirit of the first Powell P-TA meeting of the season tonight (Sept. 20), when parents will join in welcoming the faculty for the ensuing year. Miss Mary Quinn, Principal of the Powell Ave. School, will introduce the teachers to the group and present them with corsages made and donated by the Bethpage Garden Club. After, at an informal reception during which refreshments will be served, the parents will have the opportunity of personally meeting and chatting with their child's teacher.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Be Sure You Are In Book

By Fred J. Noeth

THE ELECTION campaign is officially underway and most of the interest this year is naturally focused upon the national scene. We feel that a reminder to voters regarding personal registration is in order before the final day approaches.

Persons who voted in this community in the last general election (not to be confused with school district elections, etc.), were registered in person. They are now registered "permanently" unless they have moved outside of the election district where they voted last year. They must also vote at least every two years to retain this permanent status.

If you are new to this community, having moved here since the last general election, you will have to register on one of three days in October at your local polling place. The dates and hours are: Oct. 11 and 12 from 10 AM to 10 PM and Oct. 13 from 7 AM to 10 PM. Oct. 12 is of course a holiday which should give everyone an opportunity to get down and register.

As for the election itself, on the "local" scene we will be voting for a congressman, state senator and assemblyman as well as a township highway superintendent for a one-year period.

Thomas R. Pynchon of East Norwich is the Republican candidate for Highway Superintendent and the manner in which he has tackled the problems of this position since his appointment a few months ago when John R. Brandt retired makes it easy and logical to support him for election to this office.

Mr. Pynchon, who is no stranger to the township and its residents, during his previous tenure as engineering assistant to Supervisor Lewis N. Waters, quietly and without fanfare demonstrated his ability to do a job, both effectively and efficiently. Several of our community civic groups have had the pleasant experience of having him as a speaker and have been delighted with his follow thru on problems directed to him.

We feel confident that Mr. Pynchon can do the job expected of him and will continue to proceed with the elimination of such highway difficulties which have been an accomplishment to our tremendous growth in population.

Assemblyman John J. Burns of Sea Cliff is so well known to the people of the Mid-Island area as to hardly require introduction. His tireless efforts on behalf of the community in progressing important legislation has been fruitful. The people of Plainview have special reason to be grateful to him and his colleague in the State Senate, William S. Hulst, who co-sponsored the emergency state aid legislation which has eased the tax burden for Plainview and Old Bethpage School Districts. School taxes in these two districts have zoomed this year, but would have been prohibitive if the extra-ordinary aid measure which Burns and Hulst drafted in cooperation with the Education Dept. and local school trustees had not been enacted in the legislature last winter.

Burns and Hulst have also demonstrated their real concern for the Hicksville RR Grade Crossing elimination program and thru their efforts the program has progressed from the "maybe" stage to a realistic "must do" officially ordered project lacking only the appropriation of available funds of the State of New York to bring to completion.

There will be more said regarding the election in the weeks ahead. Meanwhile, you can't vote if you have not registered. Be sure to register Oct. 11, 12 or 13.

Water Supply

were relocated, they weren't concerned with measuring in FEET, they used MILES to isolate wells from large sources of contamination.

"Can you visualize the Garden Apartment Corporation reimbursing the water district to the tune of $300,000 should our wells go bad in four to five years? Or can you see the Town Board writing out a check to Hicksville Water District for $300,000 to pay off a bad guess?"

"I have taken the time to seek out people who understand underground water tables, people who worked with Farmingdale and Bethpage water district problems, and I am firmly convinced that the tract of land adjoining the water district on Bethpage Road should be condemned for ANY PURPOSE, industrial, apartments, dwellings, etc.

"I believe it very poor planning to allow any sewage or waste in volume within 500 feet or more of the wells. Sooner or later, be it four or ten years, the bacteria count will rise, so why jeopardize $300,000 investment. It could happen. Just think, while you are watering your lawn during specified hours on specified days, whether or not Hicksville could stand losing the use of three wells, each producing approximately 800 gallons per minute.

"It should be noted that the Water Commissioners in office at the founding of the district over 30 years ago, chose a site surrounded by farm land. Water samples at that time proved the water pure enough to be used without additives. Right now, units of chlorine and other chemicals are being added because of a rise in the bacteria count.

"As to the present Water Commissioners, I feel they should be equally concerned with protecting their district as well as running it efficiently. The protection should not fall on a few civic minded people who are thinking ahead, and hold the good of Hicksville above the TOWNSHIP OF OYSTERTON TAX RETURNS.

"The very least we can do now, is to keep our wells as isolated as possible, not bring a cesspool, serving 300 families within a 100 feet of them.

"I am not in the real estate business and do not stand to make commissions on sales or rentals," Karan added. "I am fighting and fight I will, to protect what I have already paid my share of, to the Water District, and for what I believe to be for the good of my neighborhood and my town, HICKSVILLE."

Pynchon Is GOP Choice For Highway Position

BETHPAGE—Thomas R. Pynchon is the Republican candidate for Township superintendent of highways in the Nov. 6 election. His nomination was recommended by the Oyster Bay GOP Committee in session at Bethpage State Park Clubhouse, Thursday night, and immediately thereafter acted upon by the Town GOP Executive Committee.

Edwin Fehrenbach made the formal motion to name Pynchon which was seconded by leaders of the GOP organization from every community in the township. Fehrenbach noted that Pynchon had begun 25 years before as a "chain-man" with the county dept. of public works. Over the years he climbed the ladder in that department until he became chief engineer for road construction for the entire townships of North Hempstead and Oyster Bay.

HIGHEST INTEGRITY

Pynchon, who was named three months ago as Highway Superintendent upon the retirement of John Brandt of Hicksville, served as engineering assistant to Supervisor Lewis N. Waters prior to his designation. Fehrenbach recalled. He added: "In addition to his outstanding qualifications for the office, I know this man personally and he is a man of the highest integrity and who's more he is a man of his word."

Supervisor Waters told the assembled committeemen from more than 100 election districts of the Township, that he has known Pynchon for 30 years and "if ever the Town of Oyster Bay presented a candidate who is qualified for the job he seeks, that man is my good friend Tom Pynchon."

Pynchon told the assembly that he accepted the recommendation "with great humility and deep gratitude." Speaking of the election, he added that he trusted it "would never be said that in this year we shall have complacency when it is our God-given opportunity to re-elect one of the truly great Presidents of the United States, Dwight Eisenhower." He urged a campaign to reach the voters thru "the old-fashioned way—that Len Hall likes to call 'wearing out shoe leather'—pushing door-bells and handing the message to the voter directly at Town Attorney Michael J. Sullivan of Hicksville, vice-chairman of the Town Committee, presided at the brief session in the absence of Chairman Leonard W. Hall of Oyster Bay who is also National GOP Chairman.

Until a late hour on Thursday, Hall had anticipated being present to preside at the meeting of the Town GOP Committee, Sullivan explained. However, demands upon his time in Washington in connection with the national campaign made it impossible for him to take part.

Herb Ackelsberg of Plainville tells us that it's a pleasure to own an oil-fired, hot-water heater. "What I like most of all," he says, "is the big reduction it's brought in our bill! They've gone down about 45% since we started getting hot water the sensible, easy way—with oil. Our oil-fired heater has other advantages, too—we get a constant, plentiful supply of hot water without interruption, and having two young children we also appreciate the safety factor in using oil."

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

There is a quiet elation at Hicksville High School . . . the hushed expectancy before a wild burst of excitement. And eight 1956 opponents of the Orange and Black are concerned that a quick, explosive uplitting of Comet gridiron fortunes is in the making.

Resurgence of the sport at Hicksville is the responsibility of new coach, Howard Bowers, who resigned as leader of the powerful Mitchell Field Air Force Bombers to take the assignment. He comes highly regarded on the merits of his work in Tennessee scholastic ranks and previous collegiate tutoring.

Observers at Comet practice sessions are struck by the calm, assuring capacity he has for instructing the game and the top level organization that marks the efficient two hour workouts.

Not a second is wasted. A timetable with minute by minute allotments for specific phases is developed by Bowers and his assistants, Ed Petro and Bill Anderson, the night before practice. The next afternoon activity is conducted like clockwork.

With a squad less than 30, mainly comprising sophomores and juniors, every second is needed and utilized. There is a definite manpower shortage and inexperience the most important factor.

Despite the fact that it's a new start following disaster in 1955, the spirit of the camp is infecting the entire student body. Encouraged by Principal Leon Galloway, the students are hurdling to a peak of enthusiasm for the season opener this coming Saturday against East Meadow.

It will be the first football contest at the Division Ave. High School and will kickoff at 2 p.m.

Over one thousand fans are expected to see the launching of the campaign.

Leading the return of a small group of lettermen is big John Magee who will convert to end this year. He will team with Frank Petire, Steve Pershall and Fritz Pawlitscher.

Ed Estes, rotating from halfback, will play defensive tackle. Jim Barton, John Donnell, Gene Zaza, Tony Toscano, Larry Slofin and Ed Zivica make the Comets strongest position a tackle.

Little respite, however, can be expected at guard positions for Mickey Anglim, Dick Zarczynski and Gene Yeiter where the Orange is shallow at reserves. Barton and Steve Dunefsky will share the load at offensive center.

Dick Stillman is tabbed as the fullback. Senior John Roberts will see plenty of service at halfback. They are the most seasoned members of the club. Bo Robinson is a promising soph who may crash in at a halfback slot.

Up from an impressive year with the Frosh is quarterback Joe Nass. Here is the sleeper for the Orange. He may be the lad who finally handles the T in such a fashion to win even the old guard Hicksville supporters to its side.

He can pass extremely well and that ability will enable the Comets to go with both long and short jabs such as the ones that ate up a good deal of ground in last week-end's scrimmage with well-stocked Massapequa.

Following East Meadow—Bethpage, Westbury, Roslyn, Garden City, Farmingdale, Levittown and Oyster Bay will come up on the schedule. There is a strong conviction here that Hicksville will win five of these games.

The task is huge, however, and Comet supporters may not realize the dividends of this new organization until 1957 and '58 when clipping victory coupons may come fast and furious.

But you can get the punch ready for Saturday: Hicksville 20, East Meadow 7.

AIMING FOR THE POSTS . . . The Hicksville Field Club has suspended operations for the 1956 season but hopes to rally support and players for a big time return in '57. To keep interest going the Black and White will hold a dinner sometime this fall to fan the old flame of former players and friends with a nostalgic trip into the past. Promises to be a warm and good show. . . . Since non-league losses count against getting into the Nassau County Basketball tourney many top flight clubs are finding it hard to round out a full court schedule. Hurt most is Chet Jaworski. He devised the idea of the tourney but now finds many clubs unwilling to take a loss from his team since it hurts in invitation consideration. He has only 15 games for this year. Friends are urging him to give Hicksville a real athletic time Christmas vacation by having the Comets stage an out of state invitational tourney. It's a great time for old alumni to renew friendships at the time when athletics are at their dulllest. Could make the New Year week sensational . . .

Syosset To Open Football Season

By ELWOOD S. KENT, SR.
HICKSVILLE — Head Coach Bowler predicts the opening mid-gut Football league opponents, the Syosset team, will be hard to beat; however, if the true CYO spirit as shown to date is carried into this fray, Bowler can see nothing but a well earned victory. The Syosset game will be played on Sept. 30 at home.

The Yellow Jackets are a light, unseasoned team having lost a number of their players from last year. Condon and McGunnigle though, are back. This insures good results in the kicking and passing departments. Perry is also coming along well in the practice sessions. If the good work continues, he can make the backfield look more solid. Now's the time to buy Ford Trucks

It's smart and thrifty to trade . . . while there's still a good selection of NEW Fords at today's low, low prices!

FORD TRUCKS COST LESS ...

give you a great deal more for your money!

As you know, Ford's initial costs are low. And during September Ford Dealers are offering trucks at surprisingly low prices. See for yourself how little it actually costs to buy a new Ford truck.

And your savings won't stop with the purchase price. Ford's operating costs are rock-bottom low, too! That's because Ford-pioneered low-friction Short Stroke engines are designed for low gas and oil costs and less costly repairs. Only Ford gives you Short Stroke design in every truck, in every engine . . . V-8 or Six. Ford's rugged chassis means sure-fire dependability, and the proven fact that Ford trucks last longer means your truck will be worth more at trade-in time.

For lower truck costs all around, take a tip from America's biggest truck users—the men who keep the most accurate truck cost records—the big fleets buy more Ford trucks than any other make.

Trade NOW and SAVE —

1. Prices are low — rising steel prices have not raised truck prices, yet. Ford trucks at today's low, low prices are the value of the year!

2. Really big trade-in allowances—we're glad to trade . . . and are giving high, generous allowances for any make or model truck you may have.

3. Outstanding truck selection—Ford builds over 300 truck models from pickups to Big Jobs. Choose from our big selection. You'll find just the right truck for your particular needs.

4. Save on operating costs—Ford's low-friction Short Stroke power and rugged chassis are designed for real gas and oil economy, and to reduce downtime.

Roll out your pie dough between two sheets of waxed paper. It's easy to handle and the dough won't stick to the waxed paper.

Speed is the keynote in modern-day kitchens. We'll soon have ranges which will cook a roast thoroughly in only a few minutes!

But some of the finer things in life—like Heckers' flour—still take time. Just as aging is required to prepare the finest wines, so it takes more time to produce Heckers'.

Unlike flours which are bleached, we allow Heckers' to "spend its own sweet time" in turning its own SNOWY WHITE—the NATURAL WAY. That's why Heckers' brings nature at its very best to you—in the form of more flavorful, better textured, and more appetizing cakes and baked goods—everytime. The UNBLEACHED, NATURALLY WHITE flour, Heckers' costs no more.

Don't hesitate to use nonfat dry milk solids in your baking. You don't have to combine them with water before adding. Just mix the dry milk along with the other dry ingredients—then add the water as you would milk.

Hearty fall appetites call for a welcome return to plenty of home baking—here's just the thing: A delightful combination of apricots and pecans in a treat called "Pecanicoat Bread." Your family will love it!

Ingredients

- 1 cup dried apricots (soak ½ hr. in warm water—cut into small pieces)
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 teaspoons butter (softened)
- 1 egg (beaten)
- ½ cup orange juice
- ¼ cup water
- 2 cups Heckers' unbleached flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup chopped pecans

Blend sugar and butter together, add egg, orange juice and water—mix well. Sift flour, baking powder, soda, and salt together and add. Blend well; add apricots and pecans. Let stand 20 minutes. Bake at 325° 1 hour.
