Waters to Cut Ribbon At Plaza Ceremonies

HICKSVILLE—Mimi Benzell, opera and television soprano, will sing at a public ceremony marking the opening today (Thursday) of Mid-Island Shopping Plaza here, newest and largest regional shopping center in the East. Miss Benzell will appear as a guest of the Plaza's owners and merchants.

The ceremony will begin at eleven A.M. at the intersection of the Plaza's two landscaped malls. Officiating will be Lewis N. Waters, Town Supervisor of Oyster Bay; Walter G. Stackler and Leonard L. Frank, owners and builders of the $40,000,000 development, and Alfred L. Weinberg, President of Mid-Island Plaza Assoc., representing the center's merchants. An orchestra led by Bob Richardson will play popular music from 10:30 to 4:30.

The program will end with the cutting of ribbon to formally open the Plaza to the mid Long Island area which it will serve. An atomic lighting spectacle will be staged in the Plaza at 5:45 P.M. on the eve of the dedication (Wednesday) when, with the aid of nuclear energy radiated from a Li potato, a switch will be thrown that will flood the area with 8,000,000 watts of lighting by conventionally generated electricity.

Release Ike Balloons Saturday

BETHPAGE—An Ike Balloon Barrage will take place here, Saturday, when about 3,000 balloons are released over various sections of the community by the Citizens for Eisenhower Committee. Balloons will carry numbered tags. Three tags will correspond with numbers available only by personal visit to Eisenhower Headquarters at 363 Broadway. The persons bringing in the winning tags will be entitled to two full dinners at Beau Sejour in December, according to William Beniatendi, co-chairman of the Committee.

Honor 25-Year Vamps At Firemen's Dinner

HICKSVILLE—Five members of the Fire Dept were recognized for 25 years of service to the volunteer fire fighters at the annual inspection dinner of the Fire District held Saturday night at the E. Marie St. Firehouse. They were Edward Devlin, George Renne, Arnold Jeanson, John Miller and George Hamel. Guest speakers included Thomas R. Pynchon, town highway superintendent and ex-chief of East Norwich Fire Dept; Jerry Shier, operating manager of Gertz Jamaica, Flushing and Hicksville; and Paul Walker, general manager of Gertz-Hicksville.

Fred Miller, chairman of the fire commissioners, was toastmaster. Visiting Chiefs present as special guests included Rene Maufay of Jericho, Edmund J. Brennan of Levittown, John L. Smith of Syosset, Joseph Wylie of Westbury, and Ralph Bergman of Plainville. More than 200 men attended the dinner following full-dress uniform inspection in front of headquarters.

Gertz Manager Sees Hicksville As Shopping Centre for County

HICKSVILLE—Paul Walker, manager of the new Gertz store at the Mid-Island Plaza, in two public speaking appearances during the week emphasized that the department store has high hopes in the community and its future and officially extended a cooperative hand to local organizations and residents. Walker was born in nearby Deer Park, played baseball in this community. He is today a resident of Massapequa.

He spoke at the well-attended Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Friday at noon and at the Fire Dept. inspection dinner, Saturday night.

At both gatherings he asserted that "Gertz is a good store" and admitted to the Chamber of Commerce that sales during the first two weeks since the opening have been "better than planned."

He told the business organization that Gertz had property in Hempstead, now the site of A&S, for a number of years but five or six years ago decided that the Mid-Island area held the brightest promise. There are 70,000 families in a 5-mile radius.

The Fire Dept. heard that while Nassau County has grown 3 1/2 per cent, the Town of Oyster Bay boomed 15%.

Getting down to cases with the business men, Walker said the big mass of cars on the local streets is a "jungle". He added "I want to get to know everyone of you and would like to work with you. We will do what we can to help."

He noted that Hempstead today "has too much traffic" and that the real shopping centre of the county lies here.

Walker called attention to the fact that a recently published picture (in the Herald) showing a prominent local intersection over an interval of 50 years had not "changed very much."

Cited specific problems he said "getting a crossing over the Rail Road is important to you and to us. Parking is important. You can't sell if the customer can't park." He also hoped that joint effort might result in getting some street widening.

The Chamber of Commerce also heard Jules Mirel, advertising ex-

Chlorine Dosage of Water Supply Interests Civics

HICKSVILLE—The taste, odor and appearance of the community water supply continued to cause concern among residents. Officials of the Water District insisted that the water supply is being treated with chlorine at the direction of the County Health Dept. The problem will get special attention tonight (Thursday) when the Duffy Park Civic Assoc. has William A. Cister, member of the Board of Commissioners, present as a speaker, at the Old Country Rd. School.

Remembers Area When He Was Boy

HICKSVILLE—The site of the vast and mighty Mid-Island Shopping Plaza on North Broadway which has its grand opening today (Thursday) was well-known for nearly sixty years as the St. John's Rectory, an orphan home and farm. For George King, who spent most of his childhood and all of his adult life on this property, the $40 million dollar project has special interest.

In 1890, the property for St. John's Rectory was deeded by Bernard Earle, a realtor of his day, to the Roman Catholic Diocese. Mr. King, as a boy of 12, came here in 1892, as one of the orphans. Four years later he started to work for St. John's home and was continuously on the job thereafter.

Mr. King made his home on this site before the Chapel (recently removed to make way for parking fields) and barns were erected. He knew Mr. Earle, the donor of the property on both sides of North Broadway, now owned by Stackler and Frank, builders of the Shopping Plaza.

Produce raised at the farm was shipped, along with milk and dairy products, to the St. John's and St. Joseph's Homes in Brooklyn. For many years there were about 200 orphan boys at the rectory here. The older boys worked on the farm and tended the herd of 50 cows.

Mr. King over the years was progressively carpenter and painter and engineer at St. John's Home. It often became his assignment to transport the late Father Lawrence Fuchs, for many years pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola, and the other priests to the home for masses and services at the chapel.

The home property represented the last, large undeveloped acreage in Hicksville proper aside from the Press Wireless acreage in the North West Section.

Mr. King was an interested observer at the opening held two weeks ago for Gertz-Hicksville

Representatives of two civic groups met with the Board of Commissioners on Oct. 16 at their meeting. Woodie Karran of Seymour Lane, who was among those present as interested citizens, reports the group was told by District Engineers McLinden and Holzmacher that "they had no idea what had caused the bacteria which necessitated injection of chlorine into the water system."

"They all admitted," Karran reported, "that certain areas had bacteria that could be harmful. . . . When asked if it were possible for a small amount of bacteria to get into a low demand area and multiply itself enough to alarm the Board of Health, Engineer McLinden agreed that bacteria could breed under such conditions."

A spokesman for the County Health Dept. told the Herald this week that the treatment of the supply is under the health authorities direction. He could not say how long the (Please turn to page 10)

Wainwright on Visit Here Today

HICKSVILLE — Congressman Stuyvesant Wainwright will tour the community all day today (Oct. 25).

Ernest Franke, guest speaker at the Monday, Oct. 15, meeting of the Central Island Women's Republican Club, requested that the ladies of the club help entertain the visitor.

Mrs. Frances Edgington of 2 Bamboo Lane, said that she would be happy to escort him in the morning, while his afternoon companion will be Mrs. George Matthews of 22 Columbia Rd., and Vice-President of the Women's GOP Club.

She will entertain him for tea at her home from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. thereafter his stops will be 119 East Ave., hostess from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m., and Congressman Wainwright will conclude his visit at the home of Mrs. Sue Schult, 32 Indiana St., from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

During the Club meeting, plans were made for Mrs. Frances Edgington to assist Mr. Knapp of the Republican Club, chairman for the Election Rally to be held at the Masonic Temple on Nov. 5th.

Republican Leader Franke and club president Mrs. Paul Drake called attention to two important events on the GOP calendar in the Mid-Island area. The first is the Rally sponsored by Nassau County Federation of Republican Women to be held at Levittown Hall on the afternoon of Oct. 30. All GOP candidates for election will be present and a large turnout is expected. Vice President Richard Nixon and Atty Gen'l Jacob Javits will be the honored speakers at the Nassau County GOP Rally at Levittown Arena on Wednesday, Oct. 31.

Franke remarked that it would be a definite public service if the women of the area would make an effort to vote in the morning on Nov. 6 so that their husbands would not face congestion at the polls in the evening.

Sullivan Sees Increase In Voters Gain for GOP

OYSTER BAY — Claims by Democratic leaders that enrolled voter gains in the Township reflect opposition to the Republican administration were sharply refuted today by Michael J. Sullivan, Town Republican Campaign Chairman.

"We feel that the annual presumption of the irresponsible elements of the Democratic organization that the new voters are their captives is a continuing insult to the intelligence of the new residents of our Township," Sullivan pointed out. "The town Democratic bosses apparently feel that the new residents arrive with a party label and are not capable of weighing the merits of proven competent Republican administration against wild-eyed claims and forecasts."

"Once again," Sullivan continued, "the opposition is making ridiculous claims based on the increased voter registration in the Township. Our GOP committeemen, augmented by many volunteer workers, have been working hard and diligently and a vast segment of the new registration is the direct result of a drive by GOP party workers to enroll new voters and acquaint them with the achievements of Republican officials in the town, county and state."

"Year after year, experience has proven, new residents weigh the issues and refute the exaggerated and cynical claims of the Tammany Democrats at the polls."

"The Republican public officials and the Republican organization continues to welcome new residents as a valuable asset to our community," Sullivan concluded.

Many Familiar Faces Among Organizers of 'New Group'

HICKSVILLE—Holding its organizational meeting in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church on lower Broadway, Wednesday night, Oct. 17, the re-resurrected Education Assoc. "HOPE" (Hicksville Organization for Public Education) voted overwhelmingly against including in its proposed constitution the statement that the organization would not support any candidate for election to the school board. Thus the school-politic purpose of the group became apparent officially.

Among those present at the meeting, in addition to Alan K. Campbell, Chairman, were defeated school board candidates Thomas C. Affrunti, Joseph Maloney, and Adolph G. Soinenen; former board members, Edna Kuhne Sutton and William Youm; former school district clerk Emily Waxberg; Kurt Pohl, Irving Jessor, James Cass, Mrs. Milton Leavitt, Shirley Karish, Sidney Kosby, William Jack, Hope Silvestri, Joy Binger, Raymond Schenk, Martin Greenfield, Jack Drutman, Ira Waxberg and Sol Zimmerman.

Campbell, acting chairman of the meeting, opened it by saying that "at present there is no existing organization, but we hope to form one tonight". In explaining the purpose of the organization, Campbell said it had been formed by 40 residents, and that one of its functions would be a school survey by James Cass. He said the services of the organization were offered to the school board, and if these services weren't wanted the organization would still act independently.

A letter to Campbell from Emil J. Szendy, School board president was read, along with Campbell's reply. In his reply, Campbell stated that he was disturbed by Szendy's reaction to the announcement of the group's formation, and that time would show those fears expressed by Szendy were unfounded. "Nothing", Campbell stated in his letter, "is further from the truth than this organization intends to abrogate the functions of the school board".

After the reading of the proposed constitution, Campbell said there was no need to go over it article (Please turn to page 12)

Campbell Makes Reply To Szendy's Comments

HICKSVILLE—Alan K. Campbell, Hofstra College Professor, of 19 Rover Lane, president of the new organization for public education, today requested the Herald publish the text of his reply to Emil J. Szendy. Campbell's letter, addressed to Szendy at his home, follows:

"Thank you very much for your long and thoughtful letter about the Hicksville Organization for Public Education. I must admit to a certain amount of disappointment at the attitude which you express in this letter toward the organization but much of your criticism is a result of misunderstanding the purposes of the group. I believe that once the organization has made its ends clear you will find much of what it stands for praiseworthy — that at least is my sincere hope.

"Before attempting, however, to explain the purposes of the group there are a number of specific points in your letter which deserve separate comment.

"You seem to imply that Jim Cass through his membership in a board appointed advisory committee endorsed that committee's opposition to the referendum for temporary classrooms. Apart from whether that committee acted properly or improperly, Jim actually supported the referendum.

"You also charged 'persons listed or known to be prime movers in the formation of the Hicksville Organization for Public Education attempted to prove the referendum on the temporary classrooms was illegal. I must confess that I am unaware of any such persons. Since the organization is open to all residents of Hicksville there may be among the members some who do believe the referendum was illegal. If there be such I do not know who they are.

"Throughout your letter you seem very concerned about the supposed partisanship of this new organization. Partisanship is at best a difficult and elusive concept. If you mean that some members of the organization have pronounced views about education then you are correct. The fact is, however, that many members of the group have different views. These differences have already produced a number of vigorous debates within the organizing committee. The organization hopes to encompass a wide range of views and through discussion and fact-finding discover areas of agreement. The organization is committed to the proposition that men of good will may differ but still work together.

"I should like also to comment on your point that this new organization offered its cooperation without being asked and further that as an independent group we are asking the board to abrogate some of its responsibility. Nothing could be further from our minds. It was our belief that the Board would welcome whatever help it can get in fulfilling its responsibilities and it was toward that end that our cooperation was proffered. The organization sincerely believes that by being independent it will be in a better position to be helpful. An independent group working with the board will be in a better position, I believe, to aid (Please turn to page 6)

Gibbs to Discuss History

The Powell Ave. P.T.A. of Bethpage in keeping with its theme of studying "Our Child and His Surroundings" is pleased to announce a program which will be of importance to the parents and residents of Bethpage on Nov. 1 at the Powell Ave. School. Alonzo Gibbs, a long time resident of the community, will present "The Bethpage Purchase", a history of Bethpage dealing with the original purchase of Bethpage from the Massapequa Indians and tracing the history of our community through the centuries to its present day status.

Much of the material has been obtained through intensive research and delving through records and documents to compile this authentic history of Bethpage. As part of the program, Mr. Gibbs employs the use of colored slide pictures of various historical sites and distributes guides to landmarks in and around Bethpage. Mr. Gibbs who is a poet and literary critic and has long been associated with the Long Island Forum believes that acquainting the members of a community with the traditions and factors which lead to its development will help instill the feeling of belonging to that community. It is a stimulant in nurturing the civic pride so essential to a growing town like Bethpage. The P.T.A. of Bethpage urges its members and friends to participate in this program which will prove of interest to both new and old residents.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Don't Forget Local Contests

By Fred J. Noeth

AS ELECTION DAY draws close and as we note the increase in voter registration due to both new population and those folks who exercise their civic duty only on Presidential election years, it becomes apparent that something positive should be recorded regarding the local candidates.

In a Presidential election year, the great focus of attention is upon the top of the ticket. We hear and read a great deal about H-bomb tests, international relationship, segregation and so-on. Such emphasis upon the national candidates can overshadow the local contests.

Before the moment of decision arrives, let it be said that our local candidates for State Senator, State Assemblyman and for Township Highway Superintendent so far outshine their opponents as to make it hardly a contest. Unfortunately, many will record their vote on the basis of the national political choice only. We are for Dwight Eisenhower. We think he has done a tremendous job and continues to do it well.

We had the opportunity this week to hear the opposing candidates for Assembly and Highway Superintendent speak. John J. Burns of Sea Cliff is well-known to the local voters. His efforts on behalf of Hicksville RR Grade Crossing Elimination in cooperation with Senator Wm. Hulst have been productive. Both men should be permitted to carry on what they have so ably begun.

In contrast the Democratic candidate for Assembly, as we heard him this week, appeared to be unfamiliar with what is expected of a legislator. He talked of school taxes, he talked of local school boards, he talked of local school attorneys. He said nothing of what he would do or try to do if elected to represent us in Albany.

We had an opportunity last winter to spend a couple of days in Albany observing at first hand the workings of our State Legislature. We came to several conclusions: (1) Assemblyman Burns is a tireless worker in behalf of his constituents and his efforts have been fruitful, and (2) seniority among our legislators is to be desired. As a man returns to Albany, he earns by reason of his length of service, the opportunity to serve on important committees and it is on the committees that a great deal of our legislation is developed.

The property owners of the Mid-Island area, particularly Plainview and Old Bethpage, have reason to be grateful to Mr. Burns for it was his special emergency aid law, introduced jointly with Senator Hulst, which produced important and substantial funds to lighten the taxpayers' burden.

As for the highway superintendent position, Thomas R. Pynchon in the few short months that he has been in office has earned an excellent reputation for making good on his promises to home owners. His promises are not given lightly. But when he pledges to take care of a situation, he does so as many local civic leaders have had the opportunity to discover.

His Democratic opponent was ill at ease and spoke like a person carrying out an uninteresting and painful obligation. For us he typifies what has been so frequently demonstrated by the Democrats in years gone by. A person is found to "fill out the ticket." Neither he nor the party seriously expects to win election.

We find it no difficult problem to strongly recommend your support of the local Republican candidates on Nov. 6.

the board in inaugurating or carrying out new policies than a group which is working for the Board. At any rate, I am sure you agree with me that the more citizen participation there is in school affairs the better it will be for the school system.

It is interesting to note how strongly this view is endorsed by the Report to the President of the United States by the Committee for the White House Conference on Education. That report in its concluding section says in part, "The major conclusion reached on public interest . . . is that communication between the public and the schools is now largely inadequate . . . a poorly informed public is often an uninterested or an unduly critical public . . ." The final paragraph of the report states "The general feeling . . . is that a wider participation in efforts to improve education is of great importance and that the responsibility for encouraging the public belongs primarily to the school boards and the school administrators, as well as to State Departments of education. Citizens the time and energy necessary for solving school problems."

It was in the spirit of this Report to the President that we informed the board of the plans of the Hicksville Organization for Public Education and offered to work with the Board if the Board felt we could be helpful. We will, of course, always maintain our independence which I believe is what the Board would wish.

"The comments which I have made to specific parts of your letter have I hope aided in explaining the nature of the group. I should like now to spell it out in a bit more detail."

"The group is non-partisan in the sense that it is not aligned with any specific educational group in the community. The group will however take positions on various educational matters as they arise. The constitution provides that such stands can be taken only by the membership, not by the executive committee. Membership is open to all residents of Hicksville."

"The survey which the group has undertaken under the leadership of James Cass will be informal. In other words it is to be a description, not an evaluation, of the Hicksville School system. The organization feels that only after a survey will it be able to take informed positions on educational questions as they arise."

"Further, the forum about preparation for college is also informational. The organization believes it can perform a real service to the community by bringing to it several college heads to discuss this problem—a problem of such magnitude that a White House Conference has been called to discuss the problem and make recommendations to the President of the United States."

"May I close by saying how strongly I hope you will understand and accept the good intentions which have prompted the formation of this group. It is our desire to contribute to good education for Hicksville children. We do not ask the board to delegate any of its responsibility to us, we would in fact disapprove such an irresponsible act. By the same token we do not intend to abdicate our responsibilities as citizens in a democratic society. Good citizenship requires an active concern with all public affairs and perhaps most of all school affairs which concern all of us directly."

"A friend is someone who walks in when the rest of the world has walked out."

The Inquiring Republican

By HOWARD W. DARLING

Readers are invited to submit any questions they might have pertaining to political terms, definitions, or of pertinent importance to you as a Republican Voter. For the best questions of the week submitted and selected, the sender will receive a miniature GOP elephant.

QUESTIONS: by Arthur Ansted, Hicksville: Can you give me some pertinent facts and figures on the prosperity we are now enjoying under President Eisenhower's Administration?

ANS.: A lengthy question to answer but I will give you briefly some of the highlights:

EMPLOYMENT: 66.8 million in August 1956 — highest in history — more than 4 million higher than the Democrats' highest peak, in wartime August 1951.

UNEMPLOYMENT: At 2.3 million in August is 300,000 under August 1950 at the start of the Korean War.

WAGES: At $1.95 hourly and $79.79 weekly per average factory worker in August are history's highest — 25 cents an hour and $7.05 a week more than highest ever reached under Democrats.

REAL WAGES: Are also much higher because wage rises under President Eisenhower's administration have meant substantial increases in actual purchasing power. The take-home pay (after taxes) of a family man with three dependents is 15% higher in 1956 than 4 years ago.

COST OF LIVING: It has risen only 2% since the end of the Korean War in July 1953. By contrast, living costs rose more than 12% in Truman's last three and one half years and 49% during his entire term.

GROSS NATIONAL PRODUCT: (total value of U.S. output) is now a new all-time record rate of $408 billion annually — $68 billion higher than 4 years ago.

PER CAPITA DISPOSABLE INCOME (average income per person after taxes) is now at a $1,098 yearly rate which means each man, woman, and child averages $188 a year more to spend under Republicans than under Democrats, even in wartime.

FAMILY INCOME: The Nation's 52 million families averaged $5,520 income per family in 1956 before taxes, the highest in U.S. History; 69% of U.S. families had incomes (before taxes) of $4,000 or more. Three-year family income under Eisenhower averaged $5,410 before taxes, nearly $800 higher than Truman's last 3 years.

QUESTIONS: by Arthur Miller, Plainview: Before the Democratic National Convention took place, (the two rival candidates for the Presidency, namely Estes Kefauver and Adlai Stevenson passed some rather strange remarks about each other — could you possibly refresh my memory on a few of them?

ANS.: There were indeed some very "strange" remarks said about each of these men who are now working side by side for the Presidency and Vice Presidency respectively. Here are a few:

Stevenson on Sen. Kefauver: "Kefauver is proving that he is unworthy of the Presidential nomination . . . his false charges about me remind me that there is such a thing as wanting to be President too much."

Sen. Kefauver on Stevenson: "Stevenson has acted in a manner, 'repugnant to liberals everywhere', he is a corporation lawyer 'curiously silent' about monopolies; he would be 'an unacceptable package to the majority of voters' and he lacks 'the will to win'. Moreover, said Sen. Kefauver, Stevenson uses 'a smile and smear technique' on the civil rights question."

And one for good measure — Truman on Stevenson: "What the Democratic Party needs is a dynamic and fighting candidate who will not compromise on fundamental issues. Governor Stevenson is not that type of candidate."

In the words of the New York Journal-American: "Ah, sweet unity!"

QUESTIONS: by Ann McClary, Levittown: What are the Main Bodies of the United Nations?

ANS.: The General Assembly, The Security Council, The Economic and Social Council, The Trusteeship Council, The International Court of Justice and the Secretariat.

MEET OUR PRESIDENT:

Dwight D. Eisenhower

Our 34th President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, was born in Denison, Texas on Oct. 14, 1890. The family moved to Abilene, Kansas, where Ike and his five brothers grew up in an atmosphere of a rugged frontier town life in a religious home. All the boys worked after school to help the family's meager income.

After his graduation from West Point in 1915, he met Mamie Dowd, and they were married in 1916. An army career for the Eisenhowers carried them to a wide variety of assignments and posts. He graduated first in his class from the Army Command and General Staff School.

When World War II broke out, Eisenhower moved up rapidly until he was Supreme Commander of the greatest land, sea and air force ever assembled. After the unconditional surrender in Europe in 1945, Ike returned to a grateful America to become Chief of Staff.

He turned down offers from Democrats as their Presidential candidate and in 1948 was appointed President of Columbia University. He took leave of absence to become Supreme Allied Commander in Europe where he displayed his great abilities for leadership and organization by bringing together many nations into a single force for peace.

Declaring himself a Republican, he was nominated for President in 1952, and received the largest vote in American history. A humble man who places complete faith in the moral and spiritual qualities of people, he has restored dignity, leadership and prestige to the White House.

History will place Dwight D. Eisenhower alongside our great Presidents — Washington and Lincoln. He enjoys the trust of all Americans and he represents their hopes and those of people everywhere for lasting world peace.

The membership voted to send a letter to the Town Board protesting the opening of York, Prose and Windsor St. to vehicular traffic to and from the shopping center. The letter follows a similar one already sent by the Burns PTA Executive Committee.

In high school the language child is trained along commercial or vocational lines, if he is so inclined.

Children are selected for this program by teachers recommendation, said Miss Villagas. The teacher bases her choice upon three factors: (1) Is the child reading at or above grade level? (2) Is he fluent orally and aurally? (3) Does the child really want to learn.

THE GREEN THUMB:

Winter Protection For Roses

By ALMA N. CRAIB

Some folks are getting worried about the winter protection for their roses, and are asking whether it isn't time to put them to bed, now that we are having frequent light frosts. Not yet. Roses are tough, and will continue to bloom for quite a while yet. In fact, some of the floribundas can even have their buds frozen stiff, and when the sun warms and thaws them, they will go on blooming. Some years, Goldlocks gives us a bouquet for our Thanksgiving table.

Climbers and Ramblers need no winter protection whatever, unless they have just been planted. In that case, mound earth around the roots, about eight inches high. It is not at all necessary to take them from the trellis or wall and lay them on the ground, but be sure each cane is securely fastened, so that the wind cannot whip them about and break them. Any pruning they need should have been done immediately after flowering; if you do it now, you sacrifice so much of next year's bloom. Ramblers should have had this year's flowering wood removed, but climbers need little pruning at any time, beyond what is necessary to keep them in bounds. In the spring, cutting out any dead wood is all you will need to do.

The hybrid teas are our least hardy roses and the most exquisite, so it pays to take good care of them. They, too, would probably come thru our comparatively mild Long Island Winters without any protection, but it pays to take precautions in case of a severe season.

Our lack of snow makes winter-killing a more serious threat than in colder regions where a warm, white blanket covers the garden thru the coldest months. So, hill up a mound of earth 6-8 inches high around each bush, and cut back the canes to even height to keep the plant symmetrical. Bring in this earth from some other place in the garden, if you can, instead of scraping it from around the rosebush. Peat, held down with evergreen branches, is recommended by some growers, but earth is better.

The floribundas seem to be our toughest roses. Nevertheless, a mound of earth for them, too, is a worthwhile bit of insurance. The object of covering your roses in this way is not to keep them warm, but to keep them cool. We are apt to have deceptively mild days, even in Jan. and Feb., when the sun shines warmly, especially in protected places, coaxing the plants into growth. Then with the darkness comes bitter cold, and the tender, new sprouts are nipped. The covering of earth keeps them at a low temperature until proper growing time, and if some of the exposed tops are frozen they can be cut back to live wood without any harm to the rosebush.

Woodland P-TA Holds Fall Festival

The Woodland Ave. School Parent-Teacher Assoc. of Hicksville held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 16 in the school. A large attendance was noted due to the theme of the evening, "Classroom Get-togethers". The total membership as announced by A. Weill, president, was 569 but many new members signed up at the meeting.

The support of all the members was urged by Weill to help in making the first event of the year, "The Fall Festival", a success. The Festival will take place this Saturday, Oct. 27 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the school. An enjoyable day has been planned for all who attend. The children may enter the Peanut Circus upon the purchase of a 10c bag of peanuts and may participate in all the games with peanuts. A variety of things will be on sale for the parents — booths of all kinds will be set up for the displays. Hot-dogs, soda, etc. will be sold — no need to go home for lunch. Come one, come all and spend Sat. Oct. 27 at the Festival.

The necessity of another Boy Scout Troop was announced by Mr. Weill. However, the P.T.A. cannot sponsor a Troop without the cooperation of the men as leaders.

Anyone who may be interested may contact Weill at WE 1-4385 or Chas. Sapanaki at WE 1-0395.

The next regular monthly meeting of the P.T.A. will take place on Tuesday evening Nov. 20 at 8:15 in the auditorium of the school. The theme for the evening will be "Sight Conservation and Blindness Prevention."

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '37 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '37 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 103.16 mph for the entire run... Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '37 Ford smashed 453 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah... it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '37 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '37 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '37 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world... a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or seal.

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy... and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car—buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

Use Your Right to Vote on Nov. 6

By CHARLES H. De SHAW
There are certain inalienable rights given to citizens of democratic countries at election time each year.

The right to vote freely without coercion; the right to argue over the merits of the candidates; the right to vote for the candidate of your choice; as well as the right to change your mind on choice of candidates at the very last minute when you enter the voting booth, and the right to keep your vote secret from all. It is true that there is also the right not to vote if you so desire, but we all know how the slave countries are.

The big question is "What are you going to do with these rights?" Are you going to vote and thus exercise the greatest freedom you can have?

Did you say your one vote won't count, so you won't bother to cast your ballot? Your vote does count. The number of persons who do not vote every year because their "one vote won't count," could have changed the election results. Every winner could have been a loser, and vice-versa, if every eligible person voted.

Did you say you don't like any of the candidates, so you won't vote? This is not a popularity contest. The only thing that you must concern yourself about is which of the candidates appear to be best qualified for the job. Voting must be a contest of qualification only.

Did you say you don't want to wait on line to cast your vote? It is far better to voluntarily wait on line to vote, than someday being forced to wait on line to be checked off for either a slave labor camp or the firing squad.

Did you say it can't happen here? It can and might. Inhabitants of the slave countries said it couldn't happen there, but awoke one morning to find that it did happen. They will tell you that it happened because the voters were too lazy to go to the polls.

Did you say there's no sense in voting since the winner is determined before the balloting begins, and anyway, politics is dishonest. When you fail to vote, you are the dishonest one, for you are robbing your fellow citizen of the right to honest, upright, and capable government. The winning candidate can never be known ahead of time, for every ballot is secret, and only when the voting is over, and the votes tallied from all the machines is the results known, and the winner announced.

It has been suggested many times that persons who did not vote be either fined or put in jail, but this is against the very principles of freedom we enjoy, and our government would be totalitarian should they enact such measures. If you value your freedom, your right to choose among candidates, your right to criticize your government, your right to argue the merits of your choice of candidates, along with the other freedoms you enjoy; freedom of speech; freedom of religion; freedom of the Press; even freedom of life itself, there is only one way to preserve it—GET OUT AND VOTE ON NOV. 6, and vote for the best qualified candidate. No matter how you vote—GET OUT AND VOTE!

The Bob Haase's on Straw Lane are having their house renovated. When it is finished, they will have a split level with a basement.

The Nichols on Straw Lane had a visit from the Stork recently. Bob is an assistant Scout Master, and Patricia is a teacher in the Plainview Adult Education Program. She teaches Slip Cover making.

HALLOWEEN is still a pretty lively date in the mid-Island community. This picture was taken last year when a new front "patio" was added to the store of Fire Commissioner Vincent Braun. The big mystery has been, in recent years, where the pranksters acquire these "patios". Next Wednesday is Halloween again.

COMING HOME, these marching sailors were honored at a parade and reception in Hempstead on Wednesday, Oct. 17. Composing the first two "Long Island Companies", they were enlisted last July and trained together at Bainbridge Naval Training Center, Md. Sponsored by the Long Island Public Relations Assoc., the 128 men of these two companies arrived by special buses for their leaves. They marched through Hempstead to the music of the Third Naval District Band and were welcomed at brief ceremonies at the Hempstead American Legion Hall.

treatment would be necessary but asserted that there is "no reason for alarm or concern."

He said that the dosage of chlorine is a routine matter the result of routine checks made of all water supply systems in the county.

Oyster Bay and Hempstead Town Boards on Tuesday morning held a public hearing in Hicksville Court house on a proposed $950,000 bond issue to install new wells and additional mains. Opposition was scheduled to appear with demands that the issue be submitted to a referendum vote of the people.

Karran said that the proposed site of wells on Miller Pl. was questioned at the Oct. 16 conference. "At first mention the commissioners said it was 'miles' from the town dump and incinerator. Later it was proven on the District's own map to be less than one mile from the proposed well site to the incinerator and dump where cesspool cleaners from near and far empty their tank trucks in a sand pit."

Wire and Cable has a plant which disposes of several acids used in processing copper wire.

The Water District is under the management of a three-map board of locally elected commissioners.

by article, and suggested that it be approved as read. He apologized for not having copies of the constitution available to pass out to the audience, such as they did with the Statement of Purpose and Membership Application.

At this point William Jack asked if it was the intent of the organization to endorse candidates for the school board, and was told by Campbell that it was purposely omitted from the constitution.

"The body", Campbell said, "can cross that bridge when they come to it". The question caused considerable comment, among which were the following suggestions: The organization refrain from doing so; at least split body apart; the organization should pattern itself after the Citizen's Union or the League of Women Voters, merely putting forth the facts concerning the candidates, but refraining from endorsing any; and, The Statement of Purpose does not prevent the organization from doing so should they so decide, so leave the constitution as it is.

A motion to incorporate the provision against endorsing any candidate for election to the school board was defeated 57 to 21.

The recommendation that the temporary officers remain in office until next February raised the question as to whether any of them had been connected with the 'Education Association' active in the last school board campaign, as charged by Emil Szendy.

All of the officers denied the charge, with Campbell adding, "This was before my time, since I haven't lived here long, but I probably would have been a member of it."

The officers were then elected without dissent, and Jack publicly expressed his complete and unbounded confidence in the officers, "but none in Sr. Szendy". At this Charlotte Zimmerman remarked, "If this is going to be a 'Hate Szendy' organization, it won't get off the ground."

JACK JESTS

Campbell said not as far as he was concerned, and she went on to say, "I say this in view of the remark that was just made, which I hope was made in jest". Jack replied, "Of course I was just jesting, everyone knows that".

James Cass, in giving an explanation of the need for research and survey in the schools, said that the Survey Committee would be comprised of 8 sub-committees, all of which would have their own independent chairmen. He also said that it is planned to publish the fact findings in a manual and distribute it through the community. He agreed, under questioning, to have the manual contain as much information on what is being done by the schools as what needs to be done.

A motion by Ira Waxberg, that the organization notify the school board to appoint an advisory committee, was tabled, since a number of the people present were unfamiliar with the object and duties of such a committee. Waxberg charged that this item had been on the board agenda for some time and had always been conveniently by-passed at each meeting. It was suggested that the object and duties of the advisory committee be prepared for presentation at the next meeting of the organization.

MOTION TABLED

Just before the meeting was adjourned, Sel Zimmerman, proposed that the organization go on record supporting Burns Ave. PTA's application before the Town Board to close Prose, Windsor, and York Sts. to Mid-Island Shopping Plaza traffic. This was tabled since a considerable number of persons present were unfamiliar with the situation.

The Statement of Purpose of this organization reads:

1. Obtain and publicize facts concerning the school district and the problems of public education and, from time to time, make recommendations to both the school board and the public.
2. Encourage citizen participation in public school affairs through attendance at school board meetings, PTA's, public hearings, forums and discussions of educational policies and issues.
3. Promote relevant studies of the education process as it affects our children and our community, with the aim of seeking continuous improvement and full value for the tax dollar.
4. Cooperate, as an independent organization, with the school board and the school authorities in our mutual efforts for better education.

O'Reilly Favors Federal Aid

Bronson O'Reilly, Democratic candidate for Congressman, put himself on record recently for increased federal aid to education as one way of meeting the problem of increasing school taxes in fast-growing suburban areas.

Speaking before the Jefferson Democratic Club at the Fire House, O'Reilly said in part:

"Partly because of the verdict of last year's White House Conference of Education that a broad program of federal aid to schools is urgently required, I am prepared to defend the proposition that federal aid to education is desperately needed, that the money involved is not an expense, but an investment. The problem is one that directly affects each of us who pays ever-rising local school tax and is of the utmost concern to our underpaid teachers."

William Merritt, Democratic candidate for State Senator, also addressed the group.

ective, who discussed the impact of the new shopping centers on established businesses. He welcomed the friendly hand of greeting from Walker and mentioned the need for cooperation, friendliness and good will.

Mirel said shopping centers have developed a "new cultural pattern".

CHRISTMAS PLANS

The Chamber meeting was conducted by President Patrick Buffalino. Eugene Staller, chairman of the retailers committee, reported on plans for a Christmas promotion program. Reports on parking projects were given by Aaron Rochman and Councilman Henry McInness. The town official predicted the RR plaza parking area would be ready "in about two weeks" and that the thought was to limit it to 2-hour parking, while the so-called triangle field between Marie St. and Nicholas, east of the LIRR, might be set aside for all-day commuter use.

A letter was read from Henry G. Elsemann, who was prevented from attending due to business reasons, which suggested that Cherry St. be opened across the LIRR as a means of easing the traffic on Broadway. He also suggested that traffic be directed to halt on all corners on Broadway on red signals to permit east-west traffic movement.

ONE LINE SHOTS

Hicksville High, smarting yet from the 1955 31-0 lacing, rules a 20-point favorite over Levittown in the clash slated for the Comet gridiron, Saturday. . . . The long range opticals of referee Beryl Follet gave faulting Westbury the push it needed to ride over the Comets 14-0, Saturday. Some 40 yards downfield, he called Hicksville for pushing, on a dazzling 38-yard punt return by Dick Stillman, while the umpire who was not four yards from the play saw no violation. It put the ball on the one yard line and the Wave swarmed back after the ensuing punt. . . . Another 15-yard assessment against the Comets late in the second period came on mild jostling for a forward Westbury pass. It was a free ball but this time the umpire flagged the Comets. Could be he wasn't giving Follet a chance to make him look like a dunce twice? . . . They scored on the sequence too. . . . Comets outgained Westbury 217 to 214 yards on the ground but in the air the wave had four completions for 70 yards. John Roberts zipped off 82 yards, Dick Stillman 77 and Vic Schadancy 51. . . . It's 1,139 yards rushing for the Comets so far this year. Only 11 thru the sky. . . . Roberts has clicked off 488 in 51 attempts. Only the almost legendary Ed Coleman ever was higher. His grand unreachable is 1,369. . . . Glen Cove took a quarter to get used to Bethpage's aggressiveness and fought back for a 6-6 tie, Friday night. Football is sometimes a rough game and if you stir somebody up look out! . . . We have naught but contempt for a dirty football player but admire one who can dish out some rough stuff to defend himself. . . .

A team using the name Hicksville AC in the York-Jersey Football league has replaced the old Field Club in the loop and is using the B&W reputation to help get on its feet. It may not need it soon. Last week the team beat West New York 67-6 for its third straight win. Anybody that good can stand on their own feet. . . . Predictions: We had the big win for Garden City over Great Neck but came up with just 10 right and 5 wrong last time. It's 89 and 25 on the year. There were six ties which we count in the loss column. First team mentioned is our choice for winner: Baldwin-Mineola, Bethpage-Farmingdale, Carle Place-East Rock, East Meadow-Island Trees, Freeport-Sewanhaka, Garden City-West Hemp, Glen Cove-Uniondale, Great Neck-Port, VStream-Hemp, Malverne-Hewlett, Mephram-Lawrence, South Side-Lynbrook, Oyster Bay-Manhasset, Oceanside-Wantagh, Westbury-Roslyn. . . .

Only a last minute salvation can keep basketball from joining football as a dead sport on a County basis in Hicksville. There isn't going to be any local team in the Nassau basketball loop if a sponsor doesn't come forward fast. The PBC Alumni is going down the drain with a record of four championships. The hostility to the program for the post-high school age group has not been breached in that organization. . . .

Dads Join Boys At Scout Camp

HICKSVILLE — Thirty-two boys and 22 Dads of Boy Scout Troop 293 participated in the Tri-Parkway District Father and Son Round-up at Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, recently. The Dads joined the boys in the camping fun for a change. The Dads and boys took turns cooking the meals.

Troop 293 is known for its concentration on hiking and camping and have scheduled at least one over-nite hike per month. This ensures the Scouts of the opportunity of passing hiking tests for advancement. Recently the Troop undertook a Conservation Project in which they planted 1000 white pine seedlings at their campsite in Melville.

The trees were planted on a site that had been completely burned out several years ago, therefore it was necessary to clean-up the spot before planting. Even so the Scouts accomplished the entire task in a record time of two and one-half hours.

FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

...less to own ... less to run ... last longer, too!

• Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. You'll like what you see.

Look at costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more for your money in a Ford. For example, only Ford gives you modern, gas-saving Short Stroke power in every truck, V-8 or Six. More comfort with a Driverized Cab. More safety with Ford's exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully ... consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

Prepare for Veterans' Day

By ARTHUR RUTZ

HICKSVILLE — Veterans' Day, Sunday, Nov. 11, will be observed by Charles Wagner Legion Post with the dedication of a Memorial Wreath at the Memorial Mall on the grounds of the Junior High School at 11 a.m.

The Post Membership and Auxiliary led by the Color Guard will attend the ceremony conducted by Post Chaplain Robert Hassel.

The withdrawal of sponsorship of Explorer Post 359 Boy Scouts of America by Post 421 is due to the lack of active adult leaders able to conduct the many outdoor programs of the Explorer group, according to James Carter, Institutional Representative and an active scout for the past 43 years.

VISIT HOSPITAL

Post 421 will make its annual visit to Kings Park Hospital on this Sunday, Oct. 28. Post Welfare Officer Ernest Gundlach will direct the distribution of two truckloads of fruit, cookies and cigarettes. Beer and Eats are included in the admission price.

Congratulations and Condolences to Artie Bletsch, Jr. who had a brand new baby girl and his father, Artie, Sr. (Post Commander) with seven broken ribs, in Nassau Hospital at the same time. American Legion Junior Baseball has been discontinued at Post 421 due to the lack of interest shown by the local boys and the equipment has been donated to the CYO baseball program.

Follow-Up Building Fund Campaign Seeks $50,000

HICKSVILLE — With a minimum goal of $50,000, Our Lady of Mercy Follow-Up Building Fund Campaign got underway with an Indoctination Meeting at the Campaign Office on Thursday, Oct. 11. Sixty-five men were on hand to volunteer their services in the Drive for Funds to be known as "Our Lady's Project."

The Rev. Louis A. Schwebius, Pastor, outlined the urgent need for additional funds to cover the cost of the building now under construction and to bring the parish closer to the reality of its eventual development into a much-needed and much-desired parochial school. Father Schwebius further emphasized the responsibility of all parishioners, young and old, to assume their share of the financial burden of the parish building fund on a "Fair Share" plan.

In the initial campaign, an approximate 60% of total parishioners signed up for pledges. The majority of these have fulfilled their obligation and many have since renewed their pledges on the same basis. The remaining 40% will be canvassed again during the current campaign to ascertain whether circumstances at the present time are more favorable for the signing of a pledge, and newcomers to the parish will be approached for the first time.

For the benefit of newly registered families, a letter of explanation will be forwarded prior to the Worker's visit to the home. This procedure will give husbands and wives an opportunity to discuss the Question — I understand that most self-employed professional people are now covered by Social Security. I am a dentist in Hicksville. What do I have to do at this time?

Answer: The 1956 amendments extended coverage to all professional people, with the exception of physicians. The first step is to obtain a social security number. If you had one issued to you at any time previously, that is the number you use when you report your net earnings for 1956. The first return is due on or before April 15, 1957, when you file your income tax report.

Question — Have the recent changes in the Social Security Act increased the monthly benefits payable?

Answer: No! The amendments did not provide for any benefit increases at this time or in the future.
