Must Be Ready: Civil Defense Urgently Needs More Workers

HICKSVILLE—An all-out appeal for volunteers to join the local Civil Defense forces is underway with a special meeting for the registration of men and women this Thursday night, Dec. 21, in the VFW Clubhouse at 8 o'clock on Grand Ave. off Fourth St. Frank Sutter, CD Director for Hicksville-Plainview, said last night that the community force has been alerted by proclamation of County Commander, Gen. C. W. Wickersham.

"The Civil Defense setup is proceeding favorably on the county and community level," Gen. Wickersham said this week, "but more men and women volunteers are needed throughout the county for all branches of service. New York City might be the second 'Pearl Harbor.' We can't wait until a bomb falls to organize. We must be ready and at full strength immediately."

All volunteers must be fingerprinted, take the loyalty oath and have a photograph before they can be issued identification, Sutter said. Fingerprints have been taken of nearly 300 volunteers in the area, but almost three times that number are needed for a minimum force.

Those interested may enroll their services at the Herald office, 162 Bway, during business hours, or call Hicksville 3-1400. Training courses for auxiliary police and wardens are scheduled to start shortly and a local control centre is being established.

Sector wardens are being selected for the warden posts, of which there are nearly 30 for Hicksville-Plainview, Sutter explained.

Members of the Disaster Committee of the Red Cross branch, led by Miss Gertrude Wetterauer, are expected to report tomorrow (Thursday) night also at the VFW Clubhouse.

COURT OKAYS CROSSING

The Appellate Division yesterday (Tuesday) gave the county the green light for construction of a grade crossing of the LIRR in the path of the new route for So. Oyster Bay Rd., Hicksville. The plan was opposed by the RR. The Road path is being changed to allow extension of Grumman's runways.

WHAT TO DO IN

Atomic Bomb Attack

ALWAYS PUT FIRST THINGS FIRST AND

1. Try to get shielded
If you have time, get down in a basement or subway. Should you unexpectedly be caught out-of-doors, seek shelter alongside a building, or jump in any handy ditch or gutter.
2. Drop flat on ground or floor
To keep from being tossed about and to lessen the chances of being struck by falling and flying objects, flatten out at the base of a wall, or at the bottom of a bank.
3. Bury your face in your arms
When you drop flat, hide your eyes in the crook of your elbow. That will protect your face from flash burns, prevent temporary blindness and keep flying objects out of your eyes.
4. Don't rush outside right after a bombing
After an air burst, wait a few minutes, then go help to fight fires. After other kinds of bursts wait at least 1 hour to give lingering opportunity radiation to die down.
5. Don't take chances with food or water in open containers
To prevent radioactive poisoning or disease, select your food and water with care. When there is reason to believe they may be contaminated, stick to canned and bottled things if possible.
6. Don't start rumors
In the confusion that follows a bombing a single rumor might touch off a panic that could cost your life.

GOING HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Edgar A. Guest

He little knew the sorrow that was in his vacant chair
He never guessed they'd miss him, or he'd surely have been there;
He couldn't see his mother or the lump that filled her throat,
Or the tears that started falling as she read his hasty note;
And he couldn't see his father, sitting sorrowful and dumb,
Or he never would have written that he thought he couldn't come.

He little knew the gladness that his presence would have made,
And the joy it would have given, or he never would have stayed.
He didn't know how hungry had the little mother grown
Once again to see her baby and to claim him for her own,
He didn't guess the meaning of his visit Christmas Day
Or he never would have written that he couldn't get away.

He couldn't see the fading of the cheeks that once were pink,
And the silver in the tresses; and he didn't stop to think
How the years are passing swiftly, and next Christmas it might be
There would be no home to visit and no mother dear to see,
He didn't think about it — I'll not say he didn't care.
He was heedless and forgetful or he'd surely have been there.

Are you going home for Christmas? Have you written you'll be there?
Going home to kiss the mother and to show her that you care?
Going home to greet the father in a way to make him glad?
If you're not I hope there'll never come a time you'll wish you had.
Sit down and write a letter—it will make their heart strings hum
A tune of perfect gladness—if you'll tell them that you'll come.
THE OLD SARGE.

We the members of the Robt. O'Ulmer Memorial Post and the members of the Ladies Auxiliary extend our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Stephen Pakaluk of Midland Ave., Hicksville, and a former paraplegic patient at Halloran General Hospital, who died of injuries in an automobile accident last week. We have lost a great friend and member in his passing. In this, their hour of sorrow and heartaches, may the family have and show the courage that Steve showed over these last three years. To a buddy, whose loss has stunned everyone of us, we salute you. May we have the courage and fight to combat what is ahead of us as Steve did.

The ID cards and ad books have been given out to many members of the post at our last meeting. Those who wish to secure some can do so by contacting Chairman Tommy Payne, 19 Island St., Hicksville.

HICKSVILLE GABLES: Yuletide Decorating Contest Underway

The Christmas Decorating Contest will be judged one evening during the holiday week. Has been a contest alone trying to obtain prizes. I was rebuffed by one village store and completely crushed by that and the fact that only Mesdames Cotsonas' and Schulz had showed any interest. I was about to retire to my dark and dreary corner and shun the world.

Thought I might take up opium to lull my senses so I wouldn't remember I started this whole thing when lo — our Editor, informed me that Botto Bros. of Plumbing and Heating fame, at 231 Bway, Firestone dealers of 114 Bway and Boos Nursery on Hemstead Ave., had graciously consented to the awards. This despite the fact that all the merchants are constantly snowed under with similar requests each and every week all year long. I hope that whomever wins, will be deeply grateful to the shops involved.

Next year's column will contain suggestions on running this contest on our own in the future. Hope it will be agreeable to all. In the meantime, I hope you will all pitch in and have fun. Remember it need not be elaborate. Homes will be judged on three counts — Door, Window and Lawn. Judges are non-residents and 14 karat promise, unknown to me. They will inform the Editor of their choices and he will in turn, notify me.

S'Matter Of Fact

I've been leading a gay and giddy life lately. Attended Donald Dame's Concert at the HI last Monday night. From a purely non-professional viewpoint (I imagine Miss Spink will review it) it was slightly terrific. Particularly enjoyed the Irish and Scotch folk songs, Saturday afternoon was a very special occasion. Met a lovely, dainty little lady, named Mrs. Franke from Calif., who was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by her daughter, Mrs. Frank C. Graham of So. Elm St. Mrs. Franke will visit here for a few weeks. Sunday I attended the Parochial Christmas Play as a Mother and a critic. Loved it all but was panicked by the donkey who refused to budge at the exit ordinary mortals wanted him to use and after disrupting the lovely, solemn scene, was led back the way he entered. Even the angels rocked with laughter. A moment to treasure.

Happy Birthday This Week To:
Sean Ketchum who will reach the ripe old age of three on Dec.

Getting impatient for Christmas Day

Hello Folks:
Jingle Bells — Jingle Bells —
 After seeing the Christmas Pageant at Radio City Music Hall last Saturday evening I'm in the Christmas mood. The Friendly Circle Club gave New York a treat last Saturday evening and did the tawny up right. First, we stopped at the Hotel Alamac at 71st St. and had a wonderful dinner. By the way, the owners of that hotel are simply super — nothing too good for their patrons. Next, we went to Radio City Music Hall to see "Kim," and the Christmas show. It is a wonderful show and I'm sure anyone who went would enjoy it.
 Speaking of Christmas, have you all seen the lovely trees that Met-alab has at their front entrance? Quite a few people also have their houses decorated. Guess I'll have to light a fire under my husband and get him started on our outside decorations.
 Christmas can't come soon enough for the children, and I'm getting a little impatient myself with all those unopened presents

4 Residents Take Part in Program

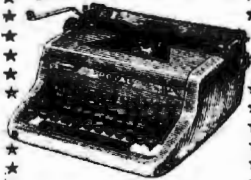

HEMPSTEAD — Four Hicksville residents took part in the Hofstra's College presentation of Handel's Messiah Friday night, Dec. 15, at the Calderone Theatre. Miss Mary Christ and Miss Marion Weller, altos, and Richard Maggl, tenor, appeared with the chorus and Charles Goube, first trumpet, appeared with the orchestra. All are graduates of Hicksville High School.

WOMAN'S CLUB PARTY

The Woman's Club held a Christmas party Monday night, Dec. 11, at the home of Mrs. Henry Lumm on Newbridge Rd., Hicksville. Mrs. Lumm and Mrs. Bergold were co-hostesses for the party. Games were played, gifts were distributed from a grab bag and refreshments were served. "Africa" will be the theme of the Jan. 8 meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Loeffler.

Mrs. Egbert Gorland Elected President

Mrs. Egbert Gorland of Main Parkway was elected president of the Plainview Fire Auxiliary at a meeting held Friday night in conjunction with a Christmas party at the firehouse. She succeeds Mrs. Helen Baumeister. Installation will be held on Jan. 6 at a dinner-dance in a joint installation with the Fire Department.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Edmund Ocker, Old Country Rd., vice-president; Mrs. Robert Berry of Old Country Rd., treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Weber of Central Park Rd., secretary; and Mrs. John Hartmann of Farmingdale Rd., financial secretary.

Hostesses during the Christmas party were Mrs. Ocker and Mrs. William Panciroli. Capsule friends exchanged gifts and gifts were distributed from a grab bag. The next meeting will be held on Jan. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hicks of 32 Lenox Ave., Hicksville, are spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla.

hidden in the attic.
 Did you single girls know that there is an eligible bachelor running around loose in Hicksville Park? I believe he lives on Mead Ave., but I'm not at liberty to divulge his house number.

I hear Mrs. Yolanda Nicolini of 38 McAlester Ave. slipped on her back stoop and hurt her back last Sunday. Hope your injury isn't too serious Yolanda and that you'll be back on your feet real soon!

Mrs. Elizabeth Condon of 47 McAlester Ave. celebrated her birthday on Dec. 19. Sure glad my birthday doesn't fall near Christmas. One present might have to do for both birthday and Christmas.

Because there won't be another issue of the Herald printed before Christmas, I want to wish each and everyone of you "A Very Merry Christmas." And while we are all enjoying it, let's give a thought to the boys in Korea who are making it possible or us to be enjoying our Christmas at home.
 Bye now.

Donald Dame Molds His Audience

By HARRIET SPINK

Reasons why Donald Dame is one of our most popular tenors became immediately obvious to his hearers here on Monday night, Dec. 11, at the opening of the Hicksville Community Concert Association 1950-51 season. To start with, Dr. Dame has an extremely friendly and ingratiating personality which at once lets the audience in with him to share his enjoyment of singing. This they did with enthusiasm and the more easily because there was no formal barrier between the artist and the audience. Mr. Dame's frequent comments and explanations were made with great ease and charm and often were extremely witty. As a result the audience was his to mold at his will to the changing moods of the music.

Skillful Program

The program itself was put together with notable skill and perfectly adapted to the group for which he sang. This reviewer was especially glad to see "Comfort" and "Every Valley" included at this season. Several slight changes in the score, including a cadenza at the end of the aria, were extremely interesting.

These deviations from the traditional presentation were the result, according to Mr. Dame, of a new edition of the messiah which has just recently been completed after 17 year of research. It was questionable to this hearer, however, whether the cadenza referred to really adds to the beauty of the aria, or whether it may not have been a concession by Handel to his tenor soloists.

His second number from Mozart's "Magic Flute" showed Mr. Dame's understanding of the suave and grace of the Mozart style. It was performed with consummate artistry but was to this listener one instance where the original German would have been much preferable to the English which seemed to make inconsequential words intrude upon the beauty of the music.

In Mr. Dame's second group however, the English versions of The Post, The Trout and The Spring were much more felicitous and did, without doubt, add greatly to the understanding and enjoyment of the music. The artist's own understanding and feeling for the style of these "lieder" was a joy. In fact, throughout the entire evening his interpretive gift was one of Mr. Dame's outstanding assets which endeared him to his listeners. I might add that the clarity of his diction whether in German, Italian or English was also outstanding and contributed greatly to the success of each song. The German group was to this writer one of the artistic high spots.

In his third group, Mr. Dame omitted the famous Des Grieux aria from Manon and substituted

The answers to everyday insurance problems
By JOSEPH E. DOCKOW

QUESTION: Some friends of mine had an accident with their car but their insurance company refused to pay their claim on the ground that the application for the policy did not correctly state how the car was to be used. Our friends had never actually signed any application so how could the company refuse to pay?

ANSWER: It isn't necessary for the insured to actually sign the application to become obligated for the statements made therein. His signature on the policy when it is issued makes his endorsement of statements made in the application.

Donald Dame

 In its place—the song of the stuttering bridegroom from Smetana's "Bartered Bride." If any one missed hearing "LeReve," he certainly soon forgot it in the hilarious interpretation of the stammering country bumpkin as presented by Mr. Dame. It was also amusing to note that in receiving his applause, Mr. Dame remained in the character of the part until he went into his encore number which was a delightful unaccompanied Irish folk song, "Little Mary Cassidy" rendered with complete simplicity and charm.

2 English Groups
 Following the fine piano group by Charles Ruitisch, the accompanist, Donald Dame offered two English groups which showed him at home in a variety of styles. The Smuggler's Song by Marshall Kernochau gave him an opportunity for dramatic intensity and a little outright acting in which Mr. Dame showed himself a master. Immediately following and contrasting perfectly was Vaughn-Williams' "The Water Mill" which was purely lyric in character. Still another contrast was offered by "The Wind Mill" by Taylor, the words of which come from an old Sussex fence post. Donald Dame interpreted this as the song of a simple, not-too-bright country fellow who sang through his nose. It was completely amusing yet I wonder if Taylor might not have been utilized to voice Mr. Dame's feelings in his song, "The Smuggler's Song" by Gustave Hohl, which followed was quiet, smooth and very touching, showing again Mr. Dame's mastery of mood changes. His closing number of the group was "O Sing Again" by Gustave Klemm which made a fine climax.

 The next group was made up of five folk songs. Simple songs of this type can be very boring in the hands of anyone but an artist. Done by Donald Dame they were completely delightful. The style and meaning of each song was entirely captured from the robust "Eric Canal" to the frankly entertaining "Stuttering Lovers" to the prattle of "Ohie Meneche." Special mention should be made of the delicate singing of "Has Sorrow Thy Young Days Straded" and the skill with which the dialogue was handled in the blood curdling "Lord Randall."

The final aria from Mozart's "None But Cowards Are Brave," was made into a comedy. Doubtless much of the humor would have been lost in the Italian even if the music would have fared better. Whether or not the "long hair" fans would have preferred the original language it was refreshing to note that Donald Dame makes no bones about intending to entertain his listeners and that his programs contain not a trace of stuffiness. There is also no doubt that his audience loved it and him.

Suaveness of Tone
 His voice is round, smooth and surpassingly sweet. He does not sacrifice sweetness for the sake of power and has the musical intelligence to choose songs that emphasize his many strong points. Among these are beautiful suaveness of tone. At all times innate good taste and intelligence direct the final interpretations. One of the most outstanding points of this singer is his mastery of pianissimo singing and delicacy of style. Each song was completely understood and its message beautifully projected.
 No review of this fine concert would be complete without more than a mention of the accompanist Charles Ruitisch, who was a worthy member of a fine team. Particularly beautiful was his accompaniment of German group especially "The Trout." Vaughn-Williams' "Water Mill" was another high spot although there were many others. His solo group was very well received especially the ever popular A Flat Polonaise of Chopin. As encore Mr. Ruitisch played his own arrangement of a group of Strauss Waltzes. There was no doubt that the audience would have liked more but Mr. Ruitisch was not only modest but stressed self-effacing in his effort not to draw attention from the singer. He need not have worried even though we would have liked another piano number.

 All told this was one of the most successful of all the Hicksville Community Concert Association performances and makes an auspicious opener for the 1950-51 series.

Aces And Clovers Continue Wins

The Hicksville Aces defeated Oyster Bay 60-40 for their latest triumph to remain undefeated in the Second Precinct 13-16 year Police Boys Club League. Having previous wins over Farmingdale, Bethpage, Oyster Bay and the Hicksville Cards, they are looking forward to a meeting with Syosset and will try to make a clean sweep of the league. The Cards meanwhile show a record of 2 wins and 3 losses, having just lost a close game to Oyster Bay, 57-54.

At the East St. School every 7 p. m., the 10-13 year olds fire basketballs from every angle, with the Clovers dropping in, the most baskets to retain leadership of that league with 6 wins and 0 losses.

MERRY XMAS!

How dear to our hearts are these two very precious words "Merry Xmas" — particularly this year.

Faced with things as they exist today, it's great to be an "American" and to enjoy our country's free way of life. Let's keep it that way, Friends, even if we go "All Out" don't it.

One of the greatest privileges we enjoy in this "Free Land" of ours is the opportunity to render service to those whose friendship we value. At this holiday time, may we express to you our sincere appreciation as we extend Greetings of the Season and all Good Wishes for your Health and Happiness in the coming year.

Soccer Players Tie Wanderers

The Hicksville Soccer Club and the Great Neck Wanderers played a 2-2 tie Sunday at Hicksville High School field. A strong Hicksville forward line proved too much for the Wanderers in the first ten minutes, which saw two goals scored for the home team, one by Fleming and the other by Sendikowitz. The Wanderers scored twice near the end of the first half.

The second half resolved itself into a battle of the fullbacks, and neither team could rally due to strong defense.

There will be a meeting of the club at 8 p. m., Friday, Dec. 22, at the Hicksville Inn.

Lineup for Hicksville was as follows:

Forward line: Sendikowitz, Frank. Fleming, Harris, Masons.
Halfbacks: Ashley, Spicer, Sullivan.
Fullback: Nilsson, Walter.
Goalkeeper: Thomsen.
Substitutes: Meier, Freund.

The Spotlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

The sports story of the week took place over at Great Neck, Friday night.

It could have been the story of the year but for Hicksville High's late rush which defeated the Blazers, 49-47, and kept the Orange and Black's undefeated record intact.

The eyelash victory caused quite a bit of humming over the weekend and you would have thought that the Comets had lost to some kindergarten team instead of having scored another victory.

It was quite a change from the acclaim which followed the smashing victories over Port Washington and Manhasset.

However, we feel that the time has not come for panic and are just as confident in the Comets' ability now as we were before they traveled to Great Neck.

True, Great Neck hasn't got one of the better ball clubs in Nassau this year.

False, is the theory that Hicksville played poorly and should have lost.

Each game is played to win, and so what if you make 99 mistakes so long as your opponents make 100 and push.

There are a lot of games that you play along the line you to victory, that you should win and just don't.

That brilliant Port Washington club of a few years back that went unbeaten 35 straight games had five really bad nights, but managed to hang on and win. Today everyone just remembers 35 straight wins.

We are not putting Hicksville in the class of that Port club, but are just pointing up that the best of them have difficult times when they are least expected. Only the really good club win them.

We have little hope that Chet Jaworski's team will go unbeaten this season. The odds are so stacked against such a possibility for any team at any time that to give it a thought is a waste of time.

We do, however, think the Comets stand a good chance of annexing the Eastern Division NSAL Championship. We also acknowledge that it will take some doing to snatch the mantle from Oyster Bay's grasp.

The Comets will have to play much better ball than they did against Great Neck. However, they will also realize this when league play rolls around. Against the Blazers everyone thought the Comets would have a snap. Was it so wrong that they themselves should believe the same thing?

The first team played just a little more than half the game against Port and Manhasset and were benched in favor of keeping the score down so that the Orange and Black could hope for non-league opponents next season.

They had over a full week's layoff between games and got a little stale.

That they couldn't get up steam and won against a foe playing over its head was their credit.

We don't hold that a loss can do a team good. A rude awakening can be helpful.

With four minutes left in the game, Friday night, the Comets were fully awake to the undermining influence of overconfidence and with Dick Alcock and Ted Schwarting showing the way, they overcame an eight point Great Neck lead.

So from this corner the Comets get a slight pat on the back this week.

Meeting 1st and 3rd Mondaies

THIS 'N' THAT from Charles Wagner Post. The most important party of the year is being planned for New Year's Eve. We are calling it an Open House party. Admission is one dollar per person and this will include a buffet supper, dancing, hats and coisemakers. All Legionnaires and friends are invited. . . . Made a Christmas visit to Farmingdale Sanatorium with COMMANDER BOB BEARD and ED BECKER, where we distributed gifts to 42 hospitalized veterans. This is the first time we made a visit there and we definitely should try to do this every year. All the men were glad to see us, especially so since we stopped for a short chat with each one. Nurse VICKI DAINES took us through the Sanatorium. . . . Our membership drive is rolling along at a good pace, but we can do better. Total to date is 97. A big welcome to new members AL GIORBANO, TOM CROSSON, RAY HOLLIDAY and RALPH HENNE. I'm expecting all members to bring or send two dollars to the Legion clubhouse before Saturday noon, Dec. 23rd. . . . Have you seen the beautiful new Legion sign on the east side of the clubhouse? The good work was done by Legionnaire HERBERT OFENLOCH, who has his studios on Cherry St. and Fredrick Pl. . . .

PRESIDENT TRUMAN expressed belief that Senate will act quickly and favorably on Universal Military Service program after 82nd Congress convenes. . . . He said idea of draft and UMT has been accepted by the public. . . . admitted that Korean situation may require re-valuation of veterans hospital program, but didn't commit himself to any such recommendation. After the meeting, COCKE said Legion will soon seek congressional approval of a proposed charter amendment that would allow Korean vets to qualify for membership.

Kiwanis Drops Two League Games; Valley Stream AC Here, Thursday

HICKSVILLE — The Kiwanis club of this village awaits the invasion of the Valley Stream AC slated for the home boards, Thursday night, hoping that the visitors will serve as a springboard for getting it back in the Nassau Amateur League basketball race.

Presented with two of the toughest assignments, for its opening games, by the league schedule-makers the Kiwanians lost 95-58 to the advanced Roslyn Hilltoppers and fell short with a late rally at Oyster Bay as St. Dominic's won 61-60, Sunday night.

Neither loss put the Blue out of the race since the first four finishers in the 18-game race will gain a place in the championship play-offs but the locals desperately need a victory Thursday to stay in contention.

In both the Roslyn and Saints games the Kiwanis was without its full team.

Roslyn In A Rout

There was no question as to the soundness of Roslyn's victory. It was 13-12 at the quarter but in the second stanza the Hilltoppers ran the Kiwanis into the boards and spurred to a 46-22 lead at halftime.

The second half was a more even match but the huge deficit could not be cut down.

At St. Dominic's the presence of Chet Jaworski was a big boost for the Kiwanis floor game and it was nip and tuck all the way.

HHS Squeeze Past Great Neck 49-47

GREAT NECK—Shorn of all its dash and polish for three periods, the Hicksville High School basketball team rallied brilliantly here, Friday night, in the last eight minutes, to beat Great Neck High, 49-47, and avert what would have been an astonishing defeat.

Dick Alcock and Ted Schwarting put their shoulders to the wheel in the wild dash to the wire and pulled the win out of the fire.

Alcock was high man with 18 points, while Schwarting followed up with 12.

Lightly regarded, Great Neck jumped into a 16-10 lead at the first period mark mainly on the work of Charlie Wolfe and Johnny Jahoda. In the second period Alcock flipped in three set shots as Hicksville recovered and gained a 26-23 advantage at halftime.

Hicksville's unbeaten status was in danger in the third period, when the Blazers outscored the Comets 15 to 5 to take a 38-31 lead as the last period started.

Harry O'Black, with nine points for the evening, came to Alcock's and Schwarting's aid in the last period. Schwarting dumped in three shots and Alcock two. Alcock's set pushed Hicksville ahead 48-45, and with a minute remaining, Harold Manasse sunk a foul shot to ice the issue.

Seconds were left when Ruppaport scored the final Great Neck goal.

Catholic Women's Bowling Standings

Standings in the Nassau County Catholic Women's Bowling League this week are as follows:

Team	W	L
St. Barnabas Strikers	10	14

The Saints led 14-13 at the quarter but Hicksville took the lead at halftime 27-25. It was 41-40 in St. Dominic's favor at the three-quarter mark but Hicksville quickly went ahead 47-43 in the first two minutes of the last period.

Joe Dolan then went to work with Phil Knox and pulled the Saints into the lead and appeared to have the game safely in hand with a minute and half to go and the scoreboard showing a 60-52 advantage.

Hicksville suddenly got hot and stormed all over the court. A fast break by Bill Byrnes netted one tally. Ray Halleran, high for Hicksville with 22 points, socked in two line drive shots before the Saints broke the string with a foul shot. Jaworski then banked one in to make it 61-60 but with only eight seconds left the Saints were able to hold on.

At Roslyn, Jaworski and Stan

... were absent. Stahurski cracked two cracked ribs during the week and will be on the sidelines for three weeks. In the Saint contest Jerry Kiesel was out of action.

Hicksville's defeat at Oyster Bay can directly be attributed to failure on the foul line. The Saints dropped in 17 of 33 charity tosses while the Kiwanis was successful with only 18 of 37.

Jaworski was the most effective with 9 of 11 chances converted from the free throw line.
