Deadline Draws Close For Home Rule Plea

HICKSVILLE—Taking advantage of every possible hour until the deadline when the one-third valuation of the school district area will be officially declared several millions of dollars more, the Home Rule Committee has delayed delivery of the petition asking for a vote on the question here until almost the final day. Lawrence A. Roman said last night the petition will be delivered before the 1952-53 assessment roll expires. Supervisor Charles E. Ransom told the Herald his office is prepared to receive it. (For earlier story, see page 4).

Neighborhood Raising Fund To Defend Couple Being Sued

HICKSVILLE — The Parc Community Assoc. pledged financial support to the two residents of the development who are being sued by the builder for patrolling a model house in protest to a proposed gas station. It was announced at a special meeting of the association held Monday night at the home of Sal Cardinal, 12 Terry St.

Mrs. Peter Ferrara of 17 Terry St. and Dr. Sidney Berkowitz of Jerusalem Ave. are being sued for $10,000 each for alleged "damages" by the builder.

Salvatore DiGiovanni of Rockville Centre of the law firm of Clark, Fox and La Guardia in New York City has been retained by the Civic Assoc. His first step will be to answer the papers served on Mrs. Ferrara and Dr. Berkowitz on July 17 from Kings County Supreme Court.

About 65 persons representing 40 families in the new development off Jerusalem Ave. were present at the meeting, Monday. It is planned to hold card parties and other social affairs to help raise funds for the cause.

Post Office Gets Ready To Move

BETHPAGE—Postmaster James J. Klingelhoefer announced today that bids are being received until Aug. 3 for moving of government equipment and supplies from Broadway to the new Post Office at Central and Park Ave. He said it is expected the office will be operating in the new building before Aug. 30. Bids will be opened for fuel oil contracts towards the end of the week, it was announced also.

Cost $1,735,032 to Run Schools

HICKSVILLE — Disbursements of the Hicksville School District for the fiscal year ending June 30 amounted to $1,735,032.60, it was disclosed today in the annual report of Sidney M. Volk, district treasurer. The district collected a million dollars in school taxes and $535,937.13 in state aid. Other receipts were $49,932.49 tuition paid by other districts and individuals. Total receipts were $1,959,935.61 leaving a balance on deposit at the end of the fiscal year of $233,904.31.

Heavy Rain Causes Floods

The annoyance of bailing out cellars of brand new homes and insufficient drainage to stop the water from flooding hundreds of new streets after the sudden flash storm, Thursday, was in sharp contrast to the jubilation that used to greet such a crop saving rain only a few years back in this area.

Hicksville, Plainview and Bethpage were rich potato farm lands before construction of new homes started about four years ago and such a drought as the recent six weeks of no rain would have been disastrous to the farmers. Much of the life of the rest of the community depended upon the success or failure of a season's crop of potatoes.

The record 3.6 inches of rain Thursday caused knee high water in the business section of Hicksville but the water quickly drained away about a half hour after the cloud burst. Wet wires caused cars to stall along West John St. which looked like a small lake during the height of the storm. The highway between South Oyster Bay Rd. and Plainview Rd. for 2½ miles was out all day.

Flooded basements seemed to cause most of the distress to homeowners as the water rose to 10 and 12 inches in some streets.

STATE AWAITS BOARD REPLY:

Take Attorney Fee Protest To Albany

ALBANY—The Hicksville Board of Education has been granted an extension of time until Aug. 7 to serve and file an answer to an appeal taken to the State Department of Education on the contract retaining an attorney for Hicksville School District on a one percent of bond issues fee, it was learned this week.

Lawrence A. Roman of Notre Dame Ave., Hicksville, former president of the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. filed his appeal with Lewis A. Wilson, Commissioner of Education of the State Dept. of Education, here, early this month.

PROTESTED BEFORE

Roman had unsuccessfully protested the one per cent fee paid on new school construction bond issues at School Board meetings and at the annual district meeting held in May. His protest is based on the fact, his request to the Commissioner states, that Hicksville Board has paid its attorney $38,900 in fees on $3,800,000 bond issues for five new elementary schools and enlargement of an existing school, in addition to annual retainers of $1200.

Under a contract made by the School Board with the attorney on April 29 of this year, the attorney will be paid 1 per cent on the first million dollar bond issue, three-quarters of one per cent on the second million and a half of one per cent on the balance, he states. New construction in the amount of $4,900,000 has been approved by the voters which Roman says will mean additional

Roman Sees Sullivan Fee Exceeding $80,000

HICKSVILLE—Michael Sullivan, attorney for the school district and an active member of the Ernest F. Francke Research Committee opposing a public vote on the question of home rule for this community, is "apparently retaliating because we are challenging fees paid him and is naturally determined to do everything possible to stop the home rule movement". It was charged today by Lawrence A. Roman, chairman of the home rule committee who has asked Albany for a review of the school board's arrangement on attorney fees. "My interest in this question of the attorney's fee is based upon the fact that we are a suburban community with limited funds. This is not a municipality the magnitude of New York. Fees of about $40,000 have been paid in the past three years and I question whether another $50,000 plus an annual retainer of $1,200 isn't a little bit too much to pay for part-time services of an attorney for a school district this size," Roman stated.

fee of $37,000 or a total fee to the attorney of almost $80,000 "for part-time services".

Roman's request for a review of the action of the School Board is based upon his contention that the fee and contract with the attorney is "not reasonable." He cited a recent decision in East Meadow School District where a half of one per cent was paid the school attorney. In a verdict by the State Education Dept. it was noted that it had found the average fee paid attorneys in the area was .004 per cent compared by Roman with East Meadow's .006 and Hicksville's 1.000%.

Waters Gets Nod For Supervisor Challenge Brandt Re-Election Bid

EAST NORWICH—The Oyster Bay Township Republican Executive Committee will meet again next week in an effort to decide upon the GOP candidate for township highway superintendent in the November election. John R. Brandt of Hicksville, incumbent, is seeking re-election but his designation is being strongly opposed by GOP leaders in Bethpage and Massapequa. Lewis N. Waters of Syosset was this week selected as the Republican candidate to succeed Charles E. Ransom of Sea Cliff as township supervisor.

Howard T. Hogan, GOP chairman, announced thru a spokesman after a four-hour dinner meeting of the township Republican top brass, Tuesday night, at Rothman's Inn that the committee leaders had not "gotten around" to the highway superintendent candidates.

NAME INCUMBENTS

Designated by the GOP leaders were David Welsh of Farmingdale for tax receiver, Dudley McCabe of Massapequa for councilman, Lewis N. Waters for supervisor, and Henry Curran for town clerk. All are incumbents whose terms expire this year.

Earlier in the week, Hogan said Assemblyman John J. Burns of Sea Cliff will remain in Albany and will not, as had been forecast, be a successor to Supervisor Ransom. The latter had made public announcement that he did not seek re-election for another two year term.

It was generally understood that Ransom, who is also a member of the township GOP executive committee, favored the selection of Burns as his successor.

"I sincerely appreciate the fact that the committee gave consideration to my possible nomination for Supervisor," Burns stated Monday. "and I am grateful also for their expression of appreciation in asking that I remain as Assemblyman. I would be highly

Oppose Brandt Re-Nomination

 honored to be chosen as candidate for Supervisor, but I feel equally honored to receive the support of the committee in asking that I continue with my legislative duties."

PRIMARIES FIRST

The official selection of candidates of political parties will not come until after the Primary election on Sept 15 when committeemen are elected. Both Republican and Democratic candidates for committeemen, two in each election district, are now circulating petitions in preparation for the Primary.

Committeemen of both parties, meeting in their separate conventions shortly after Sept 15, will officially pick their candidates for town office this year including a Township Supervisor, Township Superintendent of highways, Receiver of Taxes, two township councilmen, a school director and three trustees of the Jones Fund.

The meeting of GOP executive leaders this week was described as a "tentative preliminary" to the actual convention.

Brandt emphasized to the Herald this week that he is a candidate for re-election as Highway Superintendent. He is a former president of the New York State Assoc of Township Superintendents of Highways and for many years conducted a drug business in Hicksville before entering public office. He is concluding 19 years in office as township highway superintendent and was previously Township Councilman for eight years, being succeeded in that office by Frank Chlunsky, also of Hicksville.

WATERS IS ENGINEER

Waters has had several terms on the township board as a Councilman, the office he now holds. He was for many years a member and president of the Syosset Board of Education. He is a graduate of Oyster Bay High School, received his engineering degree at St. John's College and is a veteran of World War I. He has been a civil engineer and surveyor in Oyster Bay since 1921.

The move to force the replacement of Brandt by a Bethpage or Massapequa man flared in the open on Monday night of this week at a meeting of the Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club at Bethpage. See story on page 19 in this issue.

Playground Costume Parade Set For Friday

HICKSVILLE—Summer Playground will hold its fifth annual "Costume Parade" at all of the school playgrounds here this Friday. As usual a great number of youngsters are expected to attend and participate in this feature. This will be the first special event of the season.

Going into the fifth week of the summer playground, attendance has levelled off for the first time since the start of the season. Average attendance is expected to average from 1,300 to 1,600 children per day. Mondays and Fridays seem to be the slow days, with attendance around 1,300—while Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays average 1,600 with some days ranging upward to 1,800. The heavy storm last Thursday held attendance to 567 children.

With each succeeding week, the total registration continues to set new records as 2,917 youngsters are enrolled in the summer playground. This number is nearly 50 percent of the youngsters enrolled in the school system. The high attendance and registrations is credited by officials to the arts and crafts that are presented for the youngsters.

Fire in Shanty Calls Out Vamps

HICKSVILLE—A construction shed near the new Holy Family Church on Newbridge Rd. caught fire Monday, July 27, and local volunteer firemen were called to the scene at 10:16 A.M. Damage was confined to the shed.

A grass fire in the rear of Shady Maples on South Broadway called out vamps Tuesday, July 28, at 11:46 A.M.

A 1933 Dodge was damaged from a fire at 78 Twinlawn Ave. on July 25 at 2:11 P.M. Frank Masterson is the owner of the car. Damage was confined to the wiring.

A radio caught fire in the home of George Merkel, 245 Dartmouth Dr. on July 25. Firemen were called at 11:55 A.M. Slight damage was reported.

Firemen were called to the home of Harry Rappaport, 18 Bobwhite Ln. on July 22 at 2:09 P.M. to assist with a faulty oil burner.

90 DAYS TIL VOTE?

Only Property Owners May Vote On Home Rule

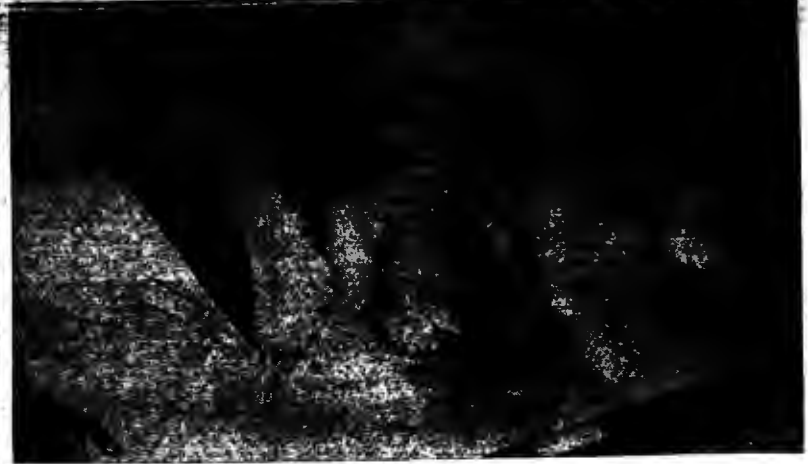

HICKSVILLE—Only resident property owners will be permitted to vote on the question of whether or not Hicksville shall incorporate as a village, the home rule committee disclosed this week. Eligible to vote are those who have been owners of property in the area of the school district for 60 days prior to the election and residents for 30 days.

First step, the committee said, after the presentation of the proposition and petition to Supervisor Charles E. Ransom will be announcement within 20 days of its presentation by Ransom that it has been received. The notice sets the date, not less than 20 or more than 30 days later, for a public hearing to take place in Hicksville on the proposition and petition.

Grounds for objection at the hearing, the Home Rule Committee notes, are limited by village law. The burden of proof is upon those raising objections and all objections must be in writing and signed by one or more resident taxpayers of the town. The hearing is held, it was pointed out, not to debate the merits of incorporation but rather the petition and proposition. Acceptable points of objection, the law provides may include (1) that the person signing the proposition is not qualified, (2) that the persons signing the consent or petition are not owners of one-third the value of the total property in the area of Hicksville school district, or that the area has a population of less than 500 persons.

Within 10 days of the hearing's conclusion, Supervisor Ransom is required to make a written decision as to whether the proposition, petition and other papers are in order. If the decision is favorable, the Town Clerk within a period of five days must set an election to take place in Hicksville, 15 to 25 days thereafter.

Barring legal difficulties, the Home Rule committee estimates on its timetable the election would take place not less than 85 days and probably not more than 90 days after the filing of the petition with Ransom. A majority of those voting for will result in the establishment of Hicksville as a village with its own locally elected mayor and board of trustees.

PILOT PLANT IN HICKSVILLE

Asks Atomic Law Changes To Let Private Industry Develop Energy

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The nation's atomic program has now reached the point at which broader participation by private industry would aid substantially in the harnessing of atomic energy for industrial and other non-defense purposes, an official of Sylvania Electric stated here on Monday. Probably the largest unit in the entire country devoted exclusively to the development of fuels for atomic energy power plants is operated on Cantiague Rd., Hicksville, by Sylvania.

Special to the Herald
The Hicksville operation is a pilot plant for the atomic energy division of Sylvania Electric. Walter E. Kingston, general manager of Sylvania's Atomic Energy Division, recommended changes in the Atomic Act of 1946 when he testified here, Monday. He urges changes in the law to permit effective participation by industry. Opening the field to private industry, he asserted, would insure important advances in the use of atomic energy for defense purposes.

It is Sylvania's opinion, Kingston added in testifying before the joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy that "private industry, risking its own capital and that of its stockholders with the profit incentive or loss deterrent" would contribute greatly toward cost economy in the field of "atomic energy and its products by products."

LICENSE OWNERSHIP
He recommended that the Atomic Energy Act be changed to permit licensed private ownership and operation of plant for the recovery, manufacture and sale of nuclear fuel and components containing source or fissionable material to government licensed owners or operators of atomic power plants. He added that the act should permit licensed fuel or component manufacturers who are not necessarily owners or operators, to buy source and fissionable materials from the government or from private sources licensed to sell such raw materials.

The act, according to Kingston, further should provide that inventions and discoveries arriving from activities sponsored with private capital should remain by patent the property of the sponsoring party. The law, however, should provide for an irrevocable license to the U. S. government on any patentable invention or discovery where such license is required for the national security.

In order that organizations which have been a part of the atomic energy program for past several years do not gain an unfair advantage over those companies wishing to enter the field if the act were changed, Kingston suggested a one or two year interim during which a license to all patentable discoveries and invention is made available to the government which in turn may sublicense the qualified firm wishing to enter the field during the interim period. At the expiration of the interim period standard patent laws should apply.

On the basis that there was a real need for industrial participation of the kind outlined by Kingston before the committee and in the belief that an important opportunity would exist for an industry that could "produce the goods" the Sylvania executive said his company established its atomic energy division in Jan. 1952. The objectives of the division have been to work with the AEC and other authorized industries toward the goal outlined in his testimony.

INVESTED MILLIONS
To date, he said, Sylvania has invested between three and four million dollars of capital in atomic energy chiefly in plants and equipment facilities, and in working capital. Virtually all the company activity in this field up until now has been devoted to research, engineering and pilot plant manufacture under contract to the AEC and its contractors.

It is Sylvania's objective, Kingston said, that when a given type of fuel element or other reactor component has been demonstrated to be of value and its requirements established to be in a position to invest capital to establish and operate manufacturing plants to produce such fuel elements or reactor components as units, competitive prices taking all the normal risks of manufacturing.

Obviously, he added, there would have to be certain guarantees in so far as volume of components is concerned otherwise large capital investments could be obsoleted overnight by changes in the reactor design requirements or other factors.

Eventually, he said, when the need has developed Sylvania expects to be in a position to contribute to the requirements of industrial nuclear power generation until that time the company is using its own funds in cooperating with government approval with the various industrial groups operating in the atomic energy field.

PLAIN-VUES:

Spreading Out Local Coverage

By RAE CANTILLI
Hicksville 4-2618

Hi Folks:

As you can see, my column is going to include not only the Plainview Country Homes' news, but all of Plainview that is not covered by other Herald Reporters. This, for a long time, has been my ambition. I always felt that lack of news within my own development made it impossible to have a column in print consistently, and I also felt that so many people that do not live in developments have been left out in the cold. So starting today, anyone in Plainview, can give me a call and I'll do my best to report consistently. I want to make it clear that I do not intend to infringe on any other Herald reporter's territory.

DEDICATION DAY

Please do keep in mind this Saturday, Aug. 1. Our Volunteer Fire Co. is having their dedication of the new wing of the Fire House, and a very special time is planned. Starting at 7 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 1, at the Firehouse, a dedication ceremony will take place. After the ceremony the firemen will show the public about the firehouse, explaining the various pieces of equipment and their use, the alarm system and generally making the public acquainted with the manner of fire protection that Plainview has.

The public is invited to ask questions on fire protection and equipment. After this phase of the program, a fireworks display will begin, and I've been told, it will be quite a display. Free dancing will follow in an orchestra, and refreshments can be obtained. So, with such a program, how can you possibly stay home? Please do come out and meet your firemen, and see the progress which has been made to meet the need in a community which is growing and growing.

CHOWDER PARTY

That fast growing Plainview Legion Post is holding their first Annual Chowder Party, Aug. 16 under the Chairmanship of Walter Kinney. As I understand from one of the Legionnaires, who called at my door, it is to be a gala affair. In addition to a gourmet's dream of clam-on-the-half-shell, corn-on-the-cob, clam chowder, good old American "hot dogs", and of course something to kind of make it slide down better, there is an afternoon of games and events for all ages.

FUEL OIL BURNER SERVICE
OIL BURNERS HEATING SYSTEMS

Numerous prizes will be awarded plus several door prizes. Tickets are $2 a person with children under 16 free. You can get your tickets from any legionnaire, or you can give me a call, and I'll tell you where you can obtain them. See you there!

BOY SCOUTS

Thirteen boys from Troop 13 in Plainview left for a two week camping experience at the Boy Scout Camp Wauvepeck at Wading River. Under the excellent guidance of Scoutmaster Frank Vernon, who devotes so much of his time to the boys, the Troop is coming along nicely. However, a few more interested men would be of great help to the Troop.

NEW ADDITION DEPT:

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Bealey of 11 Virginia Ave. who became the parents of a son, Paul George on July 2.

Congratulations to the Hickeys of Vernon St. on the newest arrival, a son, born also on July 2nd. On July 6th, a son, Gene Robert made his first appearance into the world much to the delight of mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Beit of 2 Nassau Ave.

All the congratulations may come a little late, but my best wishes go to all.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY DEPT:

Little Tommy Payne of 10 Island St. celebrated his 5th birthday on July 19th. On the 18th, he was guest of honor at a birthday party with the following guests present: Alice and Bonnie Myrick, Terry Richards, Jimmy and David Hamburger, Kenny Hartnett, Dona and Laurie Cantilli and Janie and Carol Payne.

GUESTS-IN-THE-HOUSE

Miss Margaret Newman of Easton, New Jersey was a guest of the Alfred Staubers of Manetto Hill Rd. Miss Newman, who is a cousin of Mrs. Stauber certainly managed to see most of Long Island and Manhattan during her stay. Theaters, Roosevelt's Shrine, Bronx Zoo and the Aquaduce were among the many places visited.

The McIntoshes of Virginia Ave. have a very lovely visitor at their home, Pete's mother, Mrs. A. MacIntosh of Hamilton, Canada is a more than welcomed guest. I had a chance to meet her for a moment and she is a very charming person.

VACATION DAZE

The Alfred Staubers of Manetto Hill Rd. recently returned from a vacation in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. Lucky people.

The Riley's of Virginia Ave. are winding up a 2 week vacation in Tennessee.

Dog gone! I'm agonia go on a trip next year or bust!

GET-WELL-QUICK-DEPT:

I'm glad to say that Ruth Geasner of Island St. is home from the hospital and is feeling so much better.

I hope Ray MacAllister of Island St. will be back to normal by the time this column comes to print.

Well, this is the end of my first big column, so please give me a call if you have any news at all, and let's try to fill the whole page. The number is HJ 4-2618 and my address is 17 Island St.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vignola and two teen aged children have moved to Clearview Village at 34 Cambria St., Plainview, from Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spinella and three sons from Brooklyn have moved to 66 Sunrise St., Plainview.

PLAINVIEW VAMP REPORT:

Invitation to All Local Residents

The Fire Company extends an invitation to all the people of Plainview and nearby sections to attend the dedication ceremony of the new wing of the fire headquarters this Saturday, Aug. 1, at 7 P.M. There will be dancing for the adults and fireworks later in the evening for the children. We feel that this is a good time for our neighbors to become familiar with the operation of the fire company. There will be men stationed at each piece of equipment and throughout the station to answer questions. It might be good to understand the operation of the alarm. Therefore, a man will be stationed at this point. Saturday night is your night at your fire headquarters. The M.C. will be Anthony Ocker Jr. with a number of guest speakers who are familiar with the growth of Plainview and its fire company. The firemen have put in a great number of hours with the journal and the preparation for the dedication with the sole thought that the folks have an evening of fun. So we'll appreciate it a great deal if you come down to the firehouse to show us that the people of the town are behind us and to make us feel that all our hard work is not in vain.

A grass fire in Model Farms area was reported this week by the Chief. There was no damage and the company turned out in force as 45 men answered the alarm.

The racing team is once again hard at work trying to improve their timing in all events. The main idea is to bring home some new trophies from the Floral Park tournament on Aug. 8. The firemen and ladies auxiliary will march in the parade at 6:30 P.M. It would be nice to see some familiar faces along the line of march.

See you all Saturday, Aug. 1, at 7 P.M.

Republican Club Organizes Tonight

PLAINVIEW—An organization meeting of a new Republican Club for this community will be held tonight (Thursday) at the Plainview Firehouse at 8 o'clock. Anthony Ocker, Jr., is temporary chairman of the group. All residents of the community are invited to attend.

POLIO PRECAUTIONS

Gamma Globulin—obtained from human blood—gives protection for a few weeks. However, it is in VERY SHORT SUPPLY.

A vaccine is not ready for 1953. But there is hope for the future.

Meanwhile—when polio is around—follow these PRECAUTIONS.

Primary Day And Politics

By Fred J. Noeth

IN EVERY ELECTION district men have been going around in recent weeks with colored petition forms. These forms are for the designation of committeemen who will be elected by enrolled members of the respective major parties on Sept. 15—Primary Day.

If you are an enrolled Republican, for example, on Sept. 15 you will vote for two men (or women, although the males seem to have the majority numbers) as the Republican Committeemen of your election district. The same holds true for Democratic party members.

Shortly after Primary Day, the committeemen of the 15 Hicksville-Plainview election districts, for a further example, will get together and the 30 men form the so-called Hicksville Republican committee. The committee then elects its leader who in turn is the Executive Republican Committeeman from Hicksville. Ernest Francke is the GOP leader in Hicksville, James "Happy" Norman in Bethpage, Ed Lynn in Massapequa, etc.

It was a meeting of these leaders or executive committeemen that was held in East Norwich last Tuesday night (story on page 1). The meeting had no official status. It was actually a round-table conference, behind closed doors—a meeting of the boys.

After Sept. 15, when the hundred or so committeemen in the township have been elected, there will be another meeting of the top-brass. They will make decisions for presentation to the town convention, and the convention will probably endorse those decisions without comment or change.

We have gone thru this recitation for the benefit of the many new residents in our community, enrolled members of both Republican and Democratic parties. This explains the position that Mr. Francke, also chairman of the anti-home rule committee, holds in the Republican organizational machinery.

A daily newspaper earlier this week indicated that there may be a challenge to Mr. Francke's leadership in the forthcoming primaries from other Hicksville Republicans who disagree with his policies. That would be accomplished thru a process which has become so rare as to be almost unique. As we mentioned, there are 30 committeemen (two in each election district). The replacement of enough to capture majority control of the Hicksville GOP committee would be very uncomfortable indeed for Mr. Francke.

The election of party committeemen—all too often taken for granted as "one of those things"—is the one spot where the enrolled party member can exercise influence upon the candidates ultimately nominated to run under the party emblem.

What will happen in the selection of the highway superintendent candidate for the November election will be worth watching. In GOP town organization, the highway job has always gone to a Hicksville man. But in recent years, along with the growth of Hicksville, population and voter-wise, has also come the growth of other population centres such as Massapequa and Bethpage. Bethpage, it would appear from the meeting held there by the Republican Club on Monday night, is itching to get one of its people into an elective township position.

Whether Mr. Francke can swing it and keep the highway job for Hicksville will be an indication, for some, how much strength he commands in meetings of the Township Republican Executive Committee. It didn't seem to come off two years ago when Mr. Francke himself was seeking the nomination as supervisor to replace Harry Tappen. The supervisor's position has traditionally been a "north shore job" and it went back to the north shore in the person of Ser-Cliff's Charles Ransom. It apparently is going to stay "north shore" with the decision to run Lewis N. Waters of Oyster Bay and Syosset to succeed Ransom this fall.

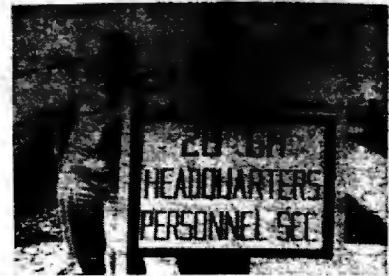

From the Democratic party, little has been heard to date about candidates. Richard T. Mayes, town Democratic chairman, says he does not seek re-election. The Young Democrats of the township have been working quietly but zealously with most of their leadership apparently centered in the mid-Island to south shore area. This is natural since most of the population influx, including Democrats, has been into this region. A guiding factor for them will be whether they can fill up their committeemen's ranks with active workers Sept. 15.

The Republicans seem to have no difficulty in getting committeemen, due in part, we assume, to the fact that since they are the power in control on local, state and federal levels, they are in a position to obtain plenty of patronage—something the Democrats sorely lack.

It may be true that there have been no new incorporations of villages in Nassau in 15 years or so. But there have been annexations galore, right up to this day. Two areas requested and were added to Farmingdale in a year. This week 240 homes in South Hempstead—and they run $30,000 each—asked for the right to merge with Rockville Centre. Maybe they didn't read The Book? Or maybe they just know a good thing when they see it?

It's A Small World

Three days after Tech Sgt Harvey Weiss got acquainted with Pfc Terrence White at LaRochele, France, they discovered that they both come from the same home town—Hicksville. The accompanying picture was mailed home last week, Sgt Weiss, at left, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Weiss of 57 Willoughby Ave., Hicksville, and Pfc White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph V White Sr of 94 Benjamin Ave., Hicksville. They were both in the medical corps when they met. Pfc White has since been transferred to the engineers.

HERALD READER OPINION

Chisholm On Will Of People

Letter To The Editor

By JOHN W. CHISHOLM
District Superintendent
New York State Education Dept
Things are seldom what they seem to be.

In the July 23, 1953 issue of the Mid-Island Herald I noticed that the writer of "Dear Jean" stated "Bethpage is preparing to fight off a movement to centralize that school district with Bethpage, Plainville, Island Trees, and Plainview. Opponents are really concerned since the Glenwood Landing, Sea Cliff, and Glen Head merger went thru over the protests of Glenwood Landing."

At the school election of the New Central School District held in the Sea Cliff School on July 14, 1953, Mr. William Anderson, President of the Glenwood Landing School Board, stated publicly that he wanted the people to know that he, and he alone—not the other members of the former Board of Education—had initiated the Court actions to prevent centralization.

We have seen and read a great deal about democracy and the will of the people in connection with reorganization of these three school districts into a larger school district—a school district that all private and public studies had recommended; however, I can understand the confusion created in the minds of people when they are unable to get the facts. July 24, 1953

Polio Cases Here Leading County

MINEOLA — Hicksville has the largest number of polio cases in Nassau County this year, according to the Nassau Health Department. Four cases have been reported since June in Hicksville. Levittown has three cases. Nearby towns of Westbury, Roosevelt, Mineola, Hempstead, Farmingdale, all have one case each.

Hicksville Night Picture Display

Pictures taken by Frank Mallett, Herald photographer, at Hicksville Night at Ebbets Field, July 22, are displayed at the office of the Herald, 98 North Broadway, Hicksville, and orders for copies are being taken. Also on display are pictures at the dedication of the new second precinct police stationhouse in Jericho last week.

HEAR THIS: The members were surprised to see PHIL MILLEVOLTE, USCG walk into the club Friday evening. PHIL, home for a short visit, will be going back to his base in a few days and we want him to know we appreciate his stopping in to see the gang. GUS NOUEL who hasn't very long to go with the USN, will be stationed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard shortly. The boys from the post who went fishing a few weeks ago had quite a time. Between them they caught 110 Sea Bass and three were sea sick before they were fifteen miles out. The post finally won a game at the expense of the WCA at the Locust Grove school last week. I wish to say thanks to the Legionnaires and the boys of the Hicksville VFW who also paid their respects to "Mon".

The Ladies Auxiliary will hold another Card party on Aug. 14. Plans for a gala barn dance has been formed for some time in Sept. or Oct. with BILL CORCORAN and his boys furnishing the tunes. If there are any members going to the National Convention please let the post Commander know. . . BEFORE I CLOSE: Remember what the little box near the counter is for members? Its to place any bit of news that you may want to have appear in this or any other column. If you wish to continue to have a weekly section for AMVETS, you will have to give a little hand yourselves. Fanny Giannetti Becomes Bride

Miss Fanny Giannetti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Giannetti of 21 Howard St., Hicksville, became the bride of Franklin di Giacomo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank di Giacomo of Huntington Station, Sunday, July 19, at St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon tulle with a lace jacket. Her fingertip veil was held with a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Comeau, sister-in-law of the bride of Huntington Station, was the matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon tulle and satin. She wore a headpiece of aqua flowers and carried yellow roses and stephanotis.

Frank Manna of Huntington Station was the best man. A reception for 150 guests was held at the home of the groom's parents.

After a wedding trip, the newlyweds will make their home in Uniondale.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND BRAUN are now residing at 310 Woodbury Rd., Hicksville, following their marriage on July 19 at St. Hugh's R. C. Church, Huntington Station. The bride is the former Miss Rose Procino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Procino of Huntington Station. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Braun of 83 Halsey Ave., Hicksville. (Mallett Photo).

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Cataldo and 8-month-old son from Franklin Square are now residing at 49 Vernon St., Plainview.

CPL. GEORGE TOWNSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Townson of 12 Garden Blvd., Hicksville, is serving as a cannoneer on a 105mm howitzer with "G" Battery, 3rd Battalion, 11th Marine Regiment, an artillery unit of the First Marine Division in Korea. When the First Marine Division was ordered into Reserve on May 5, the 11th Marine Regiment remained in support of the Army's 26th Infantry Division.

Prior to entering the Marine Corps in Nov. 1951, Cpl. Townson was employed by Perfect Line Co., Hicksville.

WILLIAM N. DE SIMONE of 56 North Broadway, Hicksville, left from Selective Service Board No. 8 in Great Neck on July 14, for duty with the Armed Forces.

FRED SCHAEFFLER, engineer 3/c aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Banner will return to Norfolk, Va., in August after a two-month training operation. The practice squadron has embarked over 3,200 midshipmen from the U. S. Naval Academy and NROTC units of colleges and universities throughout the country. Before returning they will visit ports in South America and the West Indies. Schaeffler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaeffler of 15 Ernest Ave., Hicksville.

Jet fighter bombers from Marine squadron VMF 451 are nothing new to Cpl. MICHAEL J. HEALY, son of Patrick Healy of Floral Dr., Hicksville, but Hawaiian girls in grass skirts and surf-board riding are not an every day event with the Leatherneck. He has about six months to acquaint himself with both in Hawaii.

As part of the task force, VMF 451 will cooperate with the ground troops in training exercises which will include close air support bombing and strafing runs of the type found so effective in the fighting by the First Marine Division and First Marine Air Wing in Korea. Cpl. Healy entered the Marine Corps in Jan. 1952. He and his wife, Irene live in Columbia, South Dakota.

WALTER MATSCHAT of 11 Nelson Ave., Hicksville, has been promoted to Private First Class while serving with the Army in Korea. He recently enjoyed a 5-day rest in Japan. In Korea since January, he was formerly employed at the Hicksville Theatre before entering service. His address is: 518th Ord. Co. (D.S.) APO 8 c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

PVT. RICHARD SILL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sill of 2 Bank St., Hicksville, is now serving in Korea with the X Corps. An aircraft mechanic in headquarters company of the corps, Pvt. Sill entered the Army last October and received basic training at Fort Eustis, Va. In civilian life he attended Hofstra College.

Summer Band Plans Concert

HICKSVILLE—The local Summer Band is planning a program for the public sometime next month, during the closing week of the High School Summer Session, according to Norman Seip, director of instrumental music at the Public Schools. Summer Band is an innovation this year and is made up of instrumental students of all ages from elementary through High School. They met daily from 8 to 9:20 A.M. "They are an extremely enthusiastic group and have made fine progress under the able leadership of Charles Gouse, summer director," Seip added.

Gouse is a graduate of Hicksville High, where he was outstanding in music. He holds a degree in music from Hofstra College and is a pupil of Harry Glass, first trumpeter of the NBC Symphony. "This is the first step in a regular summer band program with a fine future," Seip concluded.

Discontinue Sunday School for August

BETHPAGE—Sunday School classes will be discontinued for the month of August at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Divine worship will be held at 9 instead of eleven during this month, according to Rev. James F. Taylor, pastor.

Grumman Pilot Rotary Speaker

JERICHO—Tom Attridge, Grumman test pilot, was guest speaker at the Hicksville Rotary Club meeting here last week. He was introduced by Buddy Mazzana.

Six boys are guests of the club for two weeks at Camp Grant, Calverton. They are Robert Meade of 39 Bunker La., Raymond Feirstein of 3 Murray Rd., Tom Higgins of 75 Nicholas St., and Salvador Coligloro of 89 Hempstead Ave., Hicksville; and Albin Wagner of Birch Drive and Ray Lymberson of Southern Pkwy., Plainview.

Balloon Contest For Bible School

HICKSVILLE—A "Go Ye" Balloon contest is being featured by the Daily Vacation Bible School of the Church of Christ, 105 Broadway. On certain days of the School, which will be held July 27 to Aug. 7, every child present will receive a balloon with his name attached which will be released at 11:30 A.M. At the close of the School the two children whose balloons travel the farthest distance will be given awards. Additional miles will be added to the distance a child's balloon travels for each day of the two weeks he is present and for each visitor that he brings.

The Bible School is held Monday through Friday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30.

Plan Gala Day for Legion Friends

PLAINVIEW—A gala day at the first annual Chowder Party sponsored by the Plainview Legion Post is shaping up for Sunday, Aug. 16, on the Manetto Hill School grounds according to chairman Walter Kinney.

Clams on the half shell, corn on the cob, old-fashioned clam chowder, hot dogs and liquid refreshments are planned for the day to be prepared by John Marrapodi, Harry Yates and Tom Marchneck.

A complete sports and athletic program for both children and adults has been planned. There will be prizes awarded in all events.

Tickets may be obtained from any Legionaire who may call at your door or at the Plainview Hardware Store on Old Country Rd.

The Legionnaire

Charles Wagner Post
No. 421, American Legion

At times it is virtually impossible to keep one's own thoughts from pervading a weekly column such as this. Because we are writing on Monday our thoughts are on Korea, the Sunday night signing of the truce and the Monday cease fire.

We should stick to the American Legion and usually do so perhaps in this instance, while expressing our own hopes and yes, our fears too, we may also be reflecting the thoughts of many a Legionnaire.

It is sincerely hoped that this cease fire is the beginning of a peaceful era and not merely the building of a huge 'Trojan Horse'. But no matter what happens, peace for a day or a century, all Legionnaires shall never forget 25,000 dead Americans, 13,000 missing Americans and 100,000 wounded Americans!

Draft calls will continue, probably not reaching a peak until next summer, money will continue down war's drain, but if the shedding of blood is ended that is the immediate consideration.

We fervently pray with our fellow Legionnaires that God watches over the conference table!

In the department of how to "Make friend with the Editor" please excuse some of the apparent discrepancies in last week's column. It was scheduled for publication the previous week and we still haven't heard why it wasn't.

Once more a good friend of the Legion and the boys of Hicksville has come forward. This time the Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local 1772 has contributed $60. to the support of American Legion Junior Baseball in Hicksville. Thanks from the Legion and the team.

Is everyone getting ready for the big annual picnic? It's Aug. 30 at the Chateau and is open to all Legionnaires and their friends. Here's your chance to bring your neighbor to the biggest picnic bargain on the island. Prices are up slightly over last year but the improved facilities will make you forget that.

Little credit has been given here to those who worked so diligently on the recent Bazaar. Primary reason being we were among the non-workers and seldom write of events on which we lack first hand information. We did hear however, that Commander Walter Barnett, his brother Gunar, John and Ed Hodkinson, Guy Smith and Jim Carter were among the most regular.

Flag Committee under Jack Eshman making considerable headway and deserves a hand for accomplishments to date. . . . Joe Chance healthy again. . . . Looks like installation of officers may take place on a Friday in September. . . . Harriet enjoyed Department Convention immensely, taking in all sessions while there. . . . Fred Brengel gave excellent report on his convention activities at last meeting. . . . Last meeting poorest attended in a year incidentally. . . . Look for member 200 at Monday's meeting—four prospects were at the last one. . . . Membership O.K'd $10.00 donation to Hicksville Fire Dept. Labor Day Tourney . . .

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD:

Problem of Active Youngsters

By GENE MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

For those of you who saw the TV show, "First Person", last week, we hope you noticed Fred Kareman, M's brother-in-law. You probably didn't, however, as he played a minor role. (Of course—May thought he stole the show.) I hope he succeeds in his acting venture as he gave up a thriving business in Seaside Heights, N. J., selling his part of a huge restaurant there, to his brothers.

Larry Tribe was ten years old last week, and celebrated his birthday with Billy Marx, Robert Bier-sack, Steve Tribe, Ricky Nesbyt, and Jimmie Dickenson. Harry Marx, and his son Billie who visited Hicksville night at Ebbett's Field enjoyed themselves tremendously. If you wondered who the pretty young girl was on Fulton and Vincent Rds. last week, it was the daughter of a friend of Mrs. Meeklenburg who spent her vacation with her.

On this corner, too, last week, on Sunday there was an accident. No one was hurt, but two young ladies were shaken up and frightened as a result of practicing to drive. Sunday was a most busy day in Woodbury Gardens for visiting friends and relatives. As yet we haven't all the names of the various guests, who attended the local birthday parties. As soon as the names come in, we'll keep you posted.

The Question of the Week was supplied by Mildred Mullery, of Hillside Terrace: "What is there for younger children to do to keep occupied?" May suggested to her that she become interested in the Cub Scouts, explaining that if a group were not existent in her neighborhood, one could be started, according to Mr. Hohsfeld, a scoutmaster, who helped us out previously in this respect.

Mr. Mullery had tried to enroll her son in one of the packs to no avail—having been told that it was filled to capacity. If anyone is interested in becoming a den mother, this responsibility can be shared by two, perhaps yourself and a neighbor.

However, if you are desirous of having your son in the Scouts, you needn't be a den mother, just phone

Mr. Hohsfeld or you may contact us, and we'd be glad to help you. This being the Question of the Week, we are open to more ideas and suggestions as to juvenile activity in the local neighborhood.

We were scolding Dolores for telling us that Bunny Kiese of Vincent Rd. had been to the North Pole, believing that the children were making up stories, only to receive a post card from Bunny at Santa Claus' North Pole, at Lake Placid. It depicted Santa tending to one of his reindeer, standing before the North Pole, which is frozen solid all year round. And after telling Dolores that it would take years to visit the Pole and back!

My mother and father spent Sunday with us in Hicksville, and I had promised them a meal cooked on an out door grill. My parents expected to see a tremendous brick barbecue pit, which would up to be a small picnic stove. After they ribbed us about it, we decided to have, instead, spaghetti and meat balls.

Evalyn Noeth donated a recipe this week, which proves that publishers of newspapers enjoy good food as well as the meat man. So let's see what Fred Noeth enjoys eating. Barbecued Spare Ribs. 2 to 3 lbs. ribs cut in pieces. 1 lemon. 1 lg onion. 1 c catsup. 1/3 c Worcestershire. 1 T chili powder. 1 T salt. 2 dashes tabasco. 2 c water. Place ribs in shallow pan, meaty side up. On each piece toothpick a slice of unpeeled lemon, and a thin slice of onion. Roast in hot oven, 450 degrees F for 30 minutes. Combine remaining ingredients in saucepan. Heat to boiling. Pour half over ribs. Continue baking in moderate oven, 350 degrees F, until tender, approx. 1 hr. Baste ribs with remaining sauce every fifteen minutes. If sauce gets too thick add more water. This dish serves 6 generous portions.

Charlie Leary of Ketcham Ave. had an 8 year old party last week. Starting early the crowd played spin the bottle. (Oh, for those good old days). Present were: Dave McGrath Jr., Ronnie and Carol Roth, Joseph Greece, Patrick and Tony Blaser, Robert Brown, Suzanne Charbonnet, Cora Branham, Margie Allison, and later, Barbara Branham and Susan Carter joined the fun fest. Patrick Blaser, also of Briggs St., will be 7 years old on July 25th.

Lisa Sopke, of Vincent Rd. has received her citizenship papers, and we want to congratulate you, Lisa, in adding another wonderful personality in our neighborhood to our citizenship list. Good luck.

Look for us twice a week from here on in—as we go into our new schedule. Faster and up to date news is on its way. Another benefit in reading the Herald.

HI WOODBURY MANORITES! Good heavens, are we missing fun! The summer is almost gone and we haven't had a single weanie roast, community sing, or dance yet. (My feet are aching for a good Polka). Hows about making up for lost time by combining all three at a Community Block party? Should be loads of fun! Let's get together and plan this thing out.

NEW MODERN BUILDING of the Albert Schwinge Corp. at Heitz Place, Hicksville. The business was established in 1921 by the late Albert Schwinge as a blacksmith shop and wheelwright. With the development of the automobile, the concern grew in the field of building farm and commercial truck bodies. A year ago this month on July 22, the plant was demolished by fire and operations were severely handicapped until the new building was completed late last winter. Business is now in full swing once again. Mr. Schwinge died in April of last year and the business since has been incorporated by his widow, who is president of the firm, as the Albert Schwinge Corp. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

HICKSVILLE DOWNS:

Cedar Cliff Civics Is Name

By MARGE KERN
Hicksville 4-1558

Well, folks the meeting of the Cedar Cliff Civic Assoc. was held Thursday, July 23. We were disappointed that more of you didn't attend. The name of Cedar Cliff Civic Assoc. has been voted upon and is now the official name.

We would like to thank BILL BENINTENDI, president of the North Bathpage Civic Assoc., for attending the meeting and giving us some basic ideas on civic groups. The next meeting will be held soon and residents of Cliff Dr. and Cedar St. from Plainview Rd. to Woodbury Rd. will receive notice as soon as a date is selected.

Mr. and Mrs. M. COLLOCK and family attended the mid-Island Club Picnic Sunday, July 19.

On July 20 your reporter was hostess at a plastic party. The guests were Rita Schmitt of Cedar St., Evelyn Weiss of Moeller St., Elaine Carlucci and Marge Fabrizio of S. Elm St., Mrs. M. Smith of North Dr., Beatrice Lombardi, Mary Wierszowski, Alice Bifalco of Cliff Dr. I received a set of steak knives as my gift for having the party and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. HARRY SMITH of 70 Cliff Dr. are the proud parents of a son, William, born on July 20 and weighing 7 pounds and 2 ounces.

JEAN CORRERI of Cliff Dr. celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at her home. Her little guests were Aurelia and Melisande Ranno of Beech St., Scott Hicks, Donna Lombardi, Pat Wierszowski, Sura Gerstenfeld, Herbert Can-fallen of Cliff Dr. and Arlene Harburger of Cedar St. The usual cake, ice cream, soda and candy were served and games were played.

COME TO TEEN CANTEEN:

For All Teens in School District

Hi Teens! Here's your latest pipeline into the doin's at Teen Canteen. And as you may have heard, for summer socializing nothing beats those Thursday night dances at Levittown Hall. They're tops for teens, and we do mean for teens only.

At first, the usher squad of teens down at our affairs used to be kept busy sending home the sub-teens, but now the news has really gotten round, we've had to invite post-teens to leave too. Teen Canteen is for bona-fide teens, that is kids from 13 to 18, from all over our school district, and we mean it.

Of course, this doesn't mean that mom and dad can't come along to act as chaperones. We're glad to have them, but we'd appreciate it if they'd call Mrs. Becker HI 3-4137 first. She's in charge of the House Committee which makes sure that we don't have any more adults at the dances than we need.

Last week's barn dance was a real gone affair. The only thing square about it was the dances. Chick Hendrickson, who's a professional caller, named the tunes and led the steps and our old friend "Pecos Bill" Janak dropped in later in the evening to do some fancy guest calling.

About 150 guys and dolls showed up to eat their fill of cokes and cakes (the last was gratis) and to dance their fill to the old time tunes. Tops in the barn dance hit parade, we hear, were the Bunny Hop, the Polka, Duck for the Oyster, Dig for the Clam, and Hokersy Pokery. We had some round dancing too, later on, and the kids who couldn't duck for the oyster etc. showed us what they could do to the lindy, the charleston and the rhumba.

Some of the fanciest steppers in both categories were Phyllis Reden, Pat Desmond, Al Frost and Jackie Coocie. Phyllis was one of the lucky kids who went home with a door prize, too.

Next Thursday we're planning to have a dress-up dance down at the Hall. Dungarees are verboten for either sex but practically anything else will do the trick. So hop into your gayest duds and have yourself a gay old time. If you've been waiting for an invitation, here's one now. Come on!

We want you to keep another date too. Next Monday, Aug. 2 at 8:30 the Teen Council of Teen Canteen will hold its monthly meeting at Levittown Hall to decide on the doings for August. All the kids now active on the committees of the Canteen will show up and all the kids who'd like to work with us are very welcome too. If you've got a best pal, (and who has not?), that's the place to bring him or her on Monday. (If we want bigger and better Canteen affairs, (and not only dances), then we need bigger and better turnouts at the Council meetings.) That means you, chum, and your chum too.

Aloha, auf wiederseh'n, adios, and so long until next week, kids. See ya!

Activity Group Visits TV City

HICKSVILLE — Boys and girls of the Planned Activities Group visited the RCA Television city in New York Tuesday morning and had lunch in the Automat, according to Harold Robbins of 22 Petal Ln. In the afternoon the children attended the Gary Moore TV show and the Big Payoff TV show.

A picnic at Bethpage State Park is planned for today and competitive games will be held in the afternoon.

The new Anheuser Busch plant in Newark, N. J., will be visited Saturday and a picnic on the company's grounds will be held in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vryn and son, Ben, of 10 Rising Ln., Hicksville, have returned home from a week in Tennessee.

Teen Canteen Meeting Aug. 4

HICKSVILLE—There will be an open meeting next Tuesday, Aug. 4, in the library of Levittown Hall for the Board of Directors of Teen Canteen. Because of the interest displayed at a recent meeting in enlarging the scope of activities for teen-agers in the community, it was decided to begin scheduling dances and other events in all parts of Hicksville as soon as facilities can be arranged. Tentatively a dance (the eighth of the series of summer dances) has been scheduled in the VFW hall off South B'way for the week of Aug. 20.

Invitations have been extended to all civic and community leaders. It is hoped that the various civic groups, service clubs and other organizations will assist in planning a comprehensive community-wide program.

The SENTINEL

Homeowners Sued

Two of our neighbors in the Parc Terrace development are being sued for $10,000 each because of their vigorous objections to the construction of a gas station close to their homes. It is claimed that they interfered with the sale of houses in their neighborhood by informing prospective home buyers of the gas station proposed.

It Didn't Have To Happen

A situation like this should not be permitted to develop in a well planned community and it is a downright shame that it has happened here. It all stems from the custom of allowing variances for gas stations whenever they were requested with little or no consideration of the effect on the overall zoning policy. We are nearly all familiar with the trucks to Oyster Bay when people have to object to a change in the zoning classification or in a variance. Unless people object vociferously, it is more than likely that the change will be made or a permit is granted. This kind of zoning is worse than none. People move into a residential zone with the expectation that it will remain that way and all too often it has happened that a gas station is built nearby, or an area is changed to a business zone. It seems like there is little rhyme or reason to zoning in Hicksville under the present conditions.

Local Government Can Prevent Bad Zoning

Even though zoning powers may remain with the Oyster Bay Town Board after Hicksville becomes incorporated, the presence of a mayor and board of trustees interested ONLY in the welfare of Hicksville will have a powerful effect on the actions of Oyster Bay Township in zoning matters. A group of interested and responsible local officials can bring to an end the continual pilgrimages to Oyster Bay to prevent ill-advised zoning actions. Incorporation can mean an intelligent administration of the zoning, planning and building laws and regulations.

Builders Should Drop Suit

If the builder of the Parc Terrace homes or his agents told prospective purchasers of their houses that there would be a park built on the land adjacent to the development while, at the same time, they had placed a covenant in the deeds causing the purchaser to unknowingly agree to a gas station, then something was very rotten, and not in Denmark.

Dr. Berkowitz and Mrs. Ferrara, persons being sued, as well as other purchasers have every right to be highly incensed. If we were in the same situation perhaps we would have done much the same thing. We hope that the 12th Construction Co will drop the action. The action in court may be part of a new fact to get the gas station permit which was rejected by the Zoning Board of Appeals. It is entirely possible that the builder may agree to drop his actions against the homeowners if they will agree not to fight his gas station when it comes up again.

Our 'Mayor'

We really got a bang out of one of the passages in that booklet issued in the name of the anti-home rule committee. It is stated that we don't need a mayor to represent us before the county government and other municipalities, local state or national. We are told that we already have a "mayor" in the person of the Oyster Bay Township Supervisor. He takes care of everything for us. Sure, he takes care of everything for us. And all of the dozens of communities of Oyster Bay Township, too. So how much time and interest does he give any one community under this "Cheaper By The Dozen" type of government?

Is "Cheaper By The Dozen" Good?

People who should know tell us that a dozen children in a family is a wonderful thing. They say a lot of healthy neglect is good for a child, especially when there are other children to help him out. But does this apply to government? And especially, is it good for Hicksville to share its "mayor" with all other Oyster Bay communities? Can this "mayor" devote an appreciable amount of his "full time" to the interests of Hicksville? Can this "mayor" really give Hicksville the attention it needs and deserves? Can this "mayor", no matter how fine a man he may be, serve Hicksville well when he isn't even directly responsible to the voters here? If we don't like this "mayor", can we vote him out of office? Of course not! The "Cheaper By The Dozen" technique of government does not and cannot serve Hicksville well.

Incorporation Is a Popular Movement

The drive for incorporation comes from ordinary people who want to make their community a better place in which to live. It is backed by people who are not professional politicians. They have no political axes to grind. They merely want to have our government where it belongs, right here in the hands of Hicksville people. They believe that only in this way can Hicksville achieve the best solutions to the problems which have become especially acute because of the great increase in population during the last few years.

voting on the question of home rule, there is still time for you to join your neighbors in bringing good government to Hicksville. Even though the petitions may already have gone to the Township Supervisor by the time you read this, new petitions can be sent in to swell the list of signers, up to the last moment on July 31. Come to the committee headquarters at 98 North Broadway, next to the Hicksville postoffice and sign the petition. You will feel better for it!

Crowded Swimming Pool

The West Village Green Pool was pictured in the Levitt-owned newspaper last week to show the great popularity of the pools. This pool was undoubtedly chosen because it was the most crowded. In fact, there have been times when it is so crowded that people coming in have to wait for someone to come out. This certainly is not an improvement over last year's conditions when only people in the Levitt house area of South Hicksville were entitled to use the pool.

Kiwanis Sees Insurance Movie

JERICHO — Our way of life and the role of the life insurance industry in making it possible was the theme of "From Every Mountainside . . ." the Technicolor film shown on July 22, at Milleridge Inn here to the Kiwanis Club of Hicksville, it was announced by James Walters, Program Chairman.

The film, which was made by Wilding Picture Productions for the New York Life Insurance Co and features a group of well known actors, was presented through the courtesy of Sam Pace, New York Life's representative in Hicksville.

A newspaper editor was one of the principal characters in the full-color film production which dealt with a problem that concerns everyone, the search for security without loss of freedom.

Face stated. Other leading characters were a doctor, a judge and a banker, he noted, and it was in terms of their experience that the story was told. Locale of the picture was Sanderford, a typical, but imaginary, small town in the heart of midwestern America. "From Every Mountainside . . ." was made by New York Life in the interest of the life insurance business as a whole, Pace said, and to portray the contributions of life insurance to this nation's well-being and economic life.

INTER CLUB SESSION

Members of the Westbury Club were present for an interclub meeting. From Westbury were George Peterson, Thomas Hamie, Louis Smiles, George Disbro, Charles Houser and John Kuefhan.

It was announced the Hicksville Kiwanis will hold a charter night in November. The following Joint Committee was appointed: Louis Klein, chairman; Andrew Ferrara, Fred Sutter, Sam Pace, Thomas Jermyn, Councilman Frank Chlumsky, Anthony Ploniski and Arthur Ragazzino.

HILLSIDE TERRACE: Softball Is Good for Muscles

By ERNEST F. GOSSY
157 Duerksen Drive

To the readers who missed this column last week, Ruth and I went to our home town to attend her brother's wedding, which was a beautiful affair as most weddings are. But the temperature and humidity that prevailed throughout the day made one feel as though you were being steamed alive. The wedding was attended by 150 guests and at a reception later in the day, 200 people attended to honor the newly wedded couple. The bride is the former JoAnn Mumbert of Allentown, Penn., and the groom, Edward P. Fyack of Allentown, Penn.

Some recent toddler birthdays and parties in Hillside Terrace were Tony Maria Warren on July 19, one year—Dennis DeLorme on July 17, two years—Andrew Blomstein on July 17, four years—and Matthew Kilkenny, July 13, seven years.

The morning after we returned home, the rains began and it wasn't long during the day before the streets were flooded to curb height and overflowing at some corners. About 4 P.M., I had to leave for work, and shortly after I got my car into the street I began to wonder if I could make it all the way to the Airport.

At exit 36 on Northern State, the Parkway was flooded to a depth of at least three feet with a new Buick stalled in the West-bound lane where it had tried to navigate through. I turned around and drove down Woodbury River to Broadway and managed to get on Northern State at 85. Personally I can't think of any excuse there might be for not having adequate storm sewage drains throughout the county and on many state roads also. We certainly pay enough money in taxes—in the form of license, gas and direct taxation—that we shouldn't have to put up with additional bottlenecks and discomforts not only in driving, but in danger of having our homes flooded also? I hope that we can soon see the day when water will drain off as fast as taxes can drain our funds.

The Yankees beat the Dodgers last Sunday A.M. at the Hillside Terrace playground. If you like to play softball, come to the playground next Sunday at 9:30 or 10:00 hours. I'm sure you will have a swell time. Maybe a few sore muscles that you haven't used in a long time.

Won In Contest

The poem, "Annunciation," written by Maureen Metakes won honorable mention in the annual poetry contest sponsored by the Catholic Daughters. Miss Metakes received recognition of her work at the graduation exercises held at St. Ignatius School, Hicksville, last month.

ANNUNCIATION

One day from out of heaven,
Came an angel white and pure.
He told a girl named Mary,
What she was to endure.
He said with words well chosen,
"Hail, Mary full of grace";
And a smile was upon his face.

HICKSVILLE GABLES:

Facts About That Plot of Land

By CONSTANCE GIBSON
 Hicksville 4-1483
 Many rumors have been circulating as to the final disposition of a plot of land, a part of the Hicksville Gables which runs between Old Country and Plainview Roads. One story had a church purchasing the site, another claimed that two service stations each facing one of the main thoroughfares would be built. Still others contended that the property had been promised as a play area for the local children.

We decided the logical way to get the truth was to speak to the builder, Mr. Villett. As to the promise that the property would be used as a park or play area, Mr. Villett said that it was advertised by the FHA under Mr. Stanley White as a play area; however, he himself says that he never made any such promise. A petition was circulated in the early part of the year, the purpose of which was to get the consent of the residents for a shopping center to be built on the land. The result was some 200 for to go against, Mr. Villett said but despite the fact that the petition was favorably received by the residents, the town council rejected it. Asked what his future plans are he said he would try again next year to get the consent of the town board and when and if he does he plans to build six or seven small stores with ample parking space on the land.

Library Gets Childcraft Series

BETHPAGE—A set of 14 volumes of "Childcraft" has been added to the Bethpage Public Library in the firehouse building, it was announced this week by Mrs. Ronald Law, librarian.

"Childcraft" is designed for young children from pre-school through elementary school age. It contains the world's finest children's literature, pictures and illustrations by world famous painters.

"The pages of 'Childcraft' open new worlds to the young set in arts, crafts, drawing, modeling, construction, creative play activities, background material for school subjects and complete children's anthology", Mrs. Law said.

Four volumes of the set are devoted to the parents to help them with the problems of early parenthood. The guidance a parent secures through "Childcraft" will assure the child of an enriched background and better understanding in the home.

Queens Village Girl Is Bride of James Donovan

Miss Ann Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis of 2911 Vanderbilt Avenue, Queens Village, became the bride of James Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horton of Bronxway, Bethpage, Saturday, July 16, at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Queens Village. The nuptial Mass was said at 10 a.m.

The bride wore a chapel length gown of white lace and tulle fashioned with a lace capelet. Her fingertip veil fell from an orange blossom tiara. She carried white gladioli and asters.

Miss Julie Lauria, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of blue antique silk. She wore a headpiece of fresh flowers with veiling and carried pink roses and blue delphiniums.

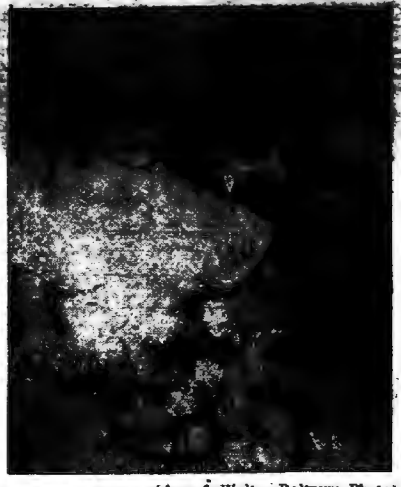

The four bridesmaids were Miss Gwen White of Fresh Meadows, Miss Dorothy Carson of Queens Village, Mrs. Eileen Weber, sister of the groom of Bethpage, and Miss Joan Grandinetti of Juniper Park. They also wore ballerina length gowns of blue antique silk and carried bouquets of pink roses.

The best man was Charles Ujvari of Wrightville, N. J. The ushers were Eugene White of Fresh Meadows, Anthony Cupa of the Bronx, Frank Weber of Bethpage and Patrick O'Brien of Mineola.

A reception for 70 guests was held at Antun's, Queens Village. After a honeymoon to Atlantic City and Washington, D. C., the young couple will reside at 12 Hempstead Ave., Rockville Center.

The bride is a graduate of The Mary Lewis Academy and Queens College. She is now a teacher in Long Beach.

The groom is a graduate of Columbus High

Mothers Form Aid to League

The first meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Bethpage Little League was held at the Powell Ave. School Thursday, July 23. Members of the Board of Directors of the Little League addressed the group of 25 mothers.

The mothers learned that they could help in the Little League work by raising funds, doing publicity work and clerical work.

The board members also stressed the need for umpires. Any father interested in umpiring one game a week is requested to contact George Lee at Hicksville 4-1392.

Election of officers will be held at the next meeting of the Auxiliary on Aug. 5 in the Powell Ave. School. All mothers and interested persons are invited to attend.

Scout Auxiliary Elects Mrs. Auer

By DOROTHY GUELPA
Hicksville 4-3577
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans of 36 Cambridge Ave. are the parents of a daughter, Eileen Barbara, born on July 12 weighing 8 pounds and 14 ounces. The Evans' have three other children, Patricia, Virginia and Tommy.

The first picnic by the Bethpage School P-T A. will be held Sunday, Aug. 16, at the Bethpage State Park picnic area. Preliminary arrangements for activities of the day were made at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Victor Guelpa on July 27.

Mrs. Evelyn Auer was elected president of the Bethpage Girl Scout Mothers' Auxiliary at the last meeting of the summer. Assisting Mrs. Auer will be Mrs. Marie Campagne, vice-president; Mrs. Marian Randazzo, secretary; Mrs. Mildred Noce, treasurer. The new officers will assume their duties in the fall.

HOME WANTED

If anyone in the vicinity has facilities for a Scotch Collie dog and enough room to let him run, there's a fine dog named Rex being offered. He is three years old, silver and white color and a terrific dog with children. But due to the small yard of the present owner he has to be kept tied to the dog house and it really is a dog's life. Rather than give him to the Bide A Wee Horse we would like to know that he has a farm or large area in which to live. Please call Hicksville 4-3577.

A Blood Bank mobile will visit Bethpage Friday, Aug. 14, at the Legion clubhouse from 7:30 to 9 p.m. All blood donated will be for the use of Bethpage residents. Cliff Daley is chairman of the project.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Franca of 25 Caray Ave., Bethpage, on the birth of their son, Ralph John, on June 4 in N. Y. The couple has another child, a daughter, Linda Susan.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gray and four children of North Haven, Conn., and formerly of Concord Ave., Bethpage, were the recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Moran of 53 Concord Ave. Patricia Moran returned with the Gray family to North Haven for a short visit.

Mrs. Raymond Faby was the guest of honor at a surprise stork shower held Monday, July 13, at the home of Miss Shirley Fox on Stewart Ave., Bethpage. The Ground Breaking For New School

BETHPAGE—A ceremony to mark the start of construction of the new Pine Ave. School will be held at the Pine Ave. site Saturday, Aug. 1, at 3 P.M. Frederick Kramer, president of the Board of Education, and other school officials will be present. The public is invited.

Norman And Lynn Blast Brandt At GOP Meeting

SPECIAL TO HERALD
BETHPAGE—A special meeting of the Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club, called by popular demand, was held Monday, July 27. Purpose of the session was to determine "how the people in Bethpage feel about the Superintendent of Highways position" under discussion by members of the Republican Township Committee.

At the previous GOP committee meeting held on July 23, two other men were nominated besides James Happy Norman of Bethpage. The other nominees were John R. Brandt, nominated by Ernest F. Francke of Hicksville and William C. Haysman of Massapequa, nominated by Ed Lynn. Happy Norman said he wanted an expression of opinion by the membership as to their feelings concerning "Doc" Brandt. If the members felt that he had done a good job in the last 12 years, then Happy said he would not seek the nomination. He does, however, feel himself well-qualified to seek this position considering his experience in construction work and in his ability to handle large numbers of men, the audience was told.

Lynn, executive GOP committeeman of Massapequa, was a guest at the meeting and he said that he knew "the Supt. of Highways had been faced with problems, but Doc Brandt had not done a good job.

"Brandt had made promises year after year and they had never been fulfilled. The Highway Dept. is the most dispirited, unorganized and with the least morale in the township."
Lynn said he thought "two years ago when Doc Brandt said he was through—he was through and he should do the gentlemanly thing—step down."
Opinions were expressed by about a dozen members reiterating the "lack of improvement in the highway system" and urging Norman to seek the nomination for himself.
Ernest Francke and John Brandt were invited to the meeting but did not attend, it was reported.

Driver Course To Start Aug. 6

BETHPAGE—A driver training course sponsored by the Adult Education program here will start on Thursday, Aug. 6, it was announced today by James Wright, instructor.

The 4½-week course will include nine road lessons in a dual control car and four classroom lessons. Classes will be from 8:15 to 10:30 a.m. A learner's permit is required for the first behind the wheel lesson but is not needed to register. Registration may be made by calling Wright at Farmingdale 2-0838 R.

See Contest for Committeemen

BETHPAGE—A move to place the names of Curt Fels and Thomas Dryzmalaki on the forthcoming Republican primary ballot to oppose Tony Amato and Paul Dana, was learned this week. Petitions are now in circulation by committeemen to obtain the required number of signatures to place a name on the ballot.

The petition states that "there is a need for new blood and younger men who spend all their time in the community."

Nursery School Plans To Move

LEVITTOWN—The Levittown Cooperative Nursery School, starting its sixth year in September, will be housed in the Community Church on Asales Rd., here. It was located for the past five years in the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. building. The school will also have a new director, Mrs. Grace Treuman of 53 Wilson Lane, Bethpage. A meeting of fathers of nursery school students will be held tonight (Thursday) at the home of Maurice Schoenwald of 1 Salem Gate, Hicksville. A registration meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ann Ashley, registrar, 30 Marksman Lane on Tuesday, Aug. 4, at 8:30 P.M.

Amvets Score Win Over Civics

HICKVILLE - The "Pioneers" of the Robt. O. Ulmer Memorial AMVETS Post 44 defeated the Woodbury Civics Assoc. by the score of 13-8, Thursday. After losing their first two games by an overwhelming score, the charges of Bill (Big Boy) Rumens turned about and handed out a decision that they usually were handed. Obtaining a new pitcher, Ernie Sealander and third baseman Ronnie Hawkins it would seem that they secured them at the right moment.

Pitcher Ernie Sealander and Ronnie Hawkins both homered with two men on and Larry (Rooney) Black had three hits out of four times at bat. The Woodbury Civics crew with a new team will be a team to be watching for an meet of them are young men and full of fight. Their players also honored with bases loaded. AMVETS will meet them in a return match Thursday evening at Locust Grove school.

SERVICE CLASSIFICATION NO. 3 INTERRUPTIBLE LARGE VOLUME SERVICE

Applicable to Use of Service for: Large volume commercial and industrial purposes, on an interruptible basis, to those customers who by written contract agree (1) to use the service furnished hereunder only in the equipment or for the purposes specified in said contract, and (2) not to use in said equipment or for said purposes any gas service furnished by the Company other than gas service furnished under this Service Classification, and (3) to curtail or discontinue the use of gas service furnished hereunder, upon 8 hours notice to the customer by the Company, or at any such time as the outside temperature falls below 20° Fahrenheit, and (4) to provide and maintain complete and adequate standby facilities, and (5) to keep available at all times sufficient standby fuel to maintain continuous plant operation during periods of curtailment or discontinuance of service.

Character of Service: Interruptible natural gas of a Btu content per cubic foot of not less than 1000 Btu on a monthly average, supplied at pressures within the limits prescribed by the Public Service Commission's Order of

The Professionals won the Northwest Little League Pennant for the second straight year after an easy 14-3 victory over the O'Donnell Motors on July 21.

Ristow racked up an impressive record during his first season of Little League baseball with 8 wins against no losses. His sensational pitching all season was the principle reason for the Professionals winning the 1953 Pennant. Included in his record were three no-hit no-run games and two one hitters. In addition, Henry belted five homers to lead the League in this department. He is 11 years of age and will remain with the Professionals during the 1954 season.

Pros Win NW Little League Flag

By Ray De Chester, Jr. In the final week of an exciting NW Little League Pennant race, the Professionals and the O'Donnell Motors clashed at Salisbury Field, July 23 with both teams deadlocked in a first place tie, each having won 13 games and lost only 3. With Gene Senosian and Henry Ristow sharing pitching honors, the Pros coasted to an easy 14-3 win to capture the Northwest Little League pennant for the second straight year. Immediately following the game team managers Lee Samberg and Art Goodman treated all the youngsters to refreshments at Shor's and a good time was had by all.

viewpoint took place at the same field July 20 between the Professionals and the Greater Nassau Realtors. Bobby Baer and Timmy Cook traded evenly for five sparkling innings of play. McCarron and Glasser both opened the top half of the sixth inning with walks, and with none out Henry Ristow was called in to put out the fire. On a wild throw to third in an attempted pick-off play the Realtors tied it up at 3-2. Ristow then struck out the next two batters and Glasser was put out at third on an attempted steal. Cook held the Pros scoreless in the last of the sixth and Ristow struck out the side as the game went into extra innings. In the last half of the seventh, Dave deChester led off with a base on balls and Jimmy Rady singled to right. Baer struck out but Ristow walked filling the bases. On a 3-2 count Vic Rola drove a sharp grounder to third and the winning run scored on the play.

Table with columns for Final Standings and NWLL Major Leagues. Rows include Greater Nassau, Professionals, Ristow and Glasser, etc.

Bean Force in Village League

HICKSVILLE—Bob Bean has become a major factor in the championship ambitions of every team in the Hicksville Community Softball League. Empire's new hope last week wrapped a 6-0 fancy no-hitter around bustling Amperex and came back with a stronger game, Friday, to defeat front runner Maywood 6-2.

He was added in the latter by some lusty clouting by Herman Rigby. The Empire manager has been soaring homeruns to all distances on the local diamond in such a fashion not before witnessed in a local league. His fourth inning blast knocked the props out from fading Maywood.

LEGAL NOTICE

August 30, 1952, in Case No. 106, for the supply of manufactured gas. Rate: (per meter per month) Natural Gas: First 50,000 Cu. Ft. @ 8.5¢ per 100 Cu. Ft.

LEGAL NOTICE

Minimum Charge: $100.00 per meter per month. In the event the service is interrupted by the Company, then the minimum charge for such month shall be pro-rated on the basis of the number of days that service is available to the customer for a full day to 30 days.

Special Provisions: (a) Service will be furnished to new applicants under this Service Classification only when and to the extent that, in the Company's sole judgment and discretion, it has sufficient natural gas supply and sufficient pipeline capacity available for the service requested, and the Company, after supplying customers taking continuous service and customers already taking interruptible service, will have sufficient natural gas supply and sufficient pipeline capacity available to supply the applicant.

(b) The Company's first obligation is to supply its continuous service customers under other Service Classifications. Service will be curtailed to all customers taking service under this Service Classification on a pro rata basis, whenever there is an insufficient supply of natural gas. Service will be discontinued to any customer taking service under this Service Classification whenever there is insufficient pipeline capacity to supply the continuous service customers in the area.

Full details of such changes may be secured from the offices of the Company and may be examined in the schedules of rates on file in the offices of the Company or in the office of the Public Service Commission.

SLIGHTLY OVERBEARING

Since we have not heard a word of protest from Hicksville quarters, we do not wish to be overly harsh with whoever runs the Nassau Legion league but we cannot pass without stating that the final schedule of the first half was a little unfair.

Perhaps we are not aware of the endurance of teenage lads but to schedule five games in a row—all of which had championship bearing—was expecting a little too much.

Considerable praise must be accorded the plucky Hicksville youngsters who managed the course with but one faltering.

The odd twist to the campaign is that Hicksville went to Long Beach some three weeks ago and encountered a grand upset. Only eight Beach players showed up. They were minus a coach and no umpires arrived on the field.

It was originally expected to be a forfeit, but the locals did not want it that way and the game was recorded in the middle of an already over-taxing slate.

GRUMMAN YANKEES TO BE REVIVED

It was in this corner two years ago that the news broke that the Board of Directors of the Bethpage Aircraft plant were going to turn thumbs down on another edition of the famed Grumman Yankees softball team.

The thumb is going upwards again. There is considerable feeling in Bethpage that the team be revived. The fine playing of ex-Grumman players in the leagues around Nassau County have instilled a little pride in the powers that be and the favorable resulting publicity has gotten the ball rolling for another Yankee team.

Just about the only block to the Yankees returning next spring would be an overly ambitious approach.

Long road trips, previously undertaken, incurred the wrath of the average Grumman worker and a more on-the-job-play-around-here set up is contemplated.

The Grumman plant has a lighted field for its night shift workers so that they can enjoy the same relaxing recreation during the meal period as their co-workers in the day do.

Utilizing the field for some Yankee games would bring the club closer to the average worker and could be the answer to most of the disgruntled comments.

WHO WILL BELIEVE .700!

The official batting averages of the Jones Beach softball league were released last week and Ken Sommers of Botto Bros. was well in front with a gaudy .608 mark.

Sommers classy speed has him some 200 points up on the rest of the field.

He got two hits in his first two trips against Roosevelt and when a team mate urged him to get a couple more another responded with, "Yes do. But who's going to believe .700!"

ENOS PICKS UP

According to our latest report Pat Enos really put the wood to the ball in a ten day span and raised his batting average from .235 to .311 before slipping to .299.

The Hornell club is 13 games of the mark set by James-town but rests snugly in second place in the Pony League.

LITTLE LEAGUES UNDER FIRE

Little League baseball is under fire in many parts of the country. Some of the criticism is wise, some foolish.

We ourselves have never openly endorsed or otherwise knocked the program.

It has been our feeling that community sports undertaken should be aimed at the older teenagers who might become a problem for a village otherwise.

Perhaps we are a little callous due to the red tape it some times takes to get facilities for boys in that bracket in a State which refuses to sanction regional and state tournaments for older and more mature high school athletes. However, we find that games under lights, television, regional, state and national tournaments for younger fellows a little perplexing.

We do, however, find Look magazine's approach a little too scorching.

GAINS TIE FOR FLAG

Legion Club Wins Uphill Battle

LONG BEACH—Coach Bill Anderson's Charles Wagner Post Legion nine completed a killing schedule, here, Monday evening—alive and kicking. Tom Valentine pitched the Legion to a 7-2 win over the host Beachers to tie Hempstead and Lynbrook for the first half championship. It was Hicksville's seventh game in nine days.

After the Long Beach contest Hicksville won the toss for the bye and Lynbrook and Hempstead were scheduled to meet Tuesday night with the winner moving to Hicksville yesterday (Wednesday) for the decider.

Suffolk county has defaulted this year, so the victor will be declared the Long Island champion.

If Hicksville triumphs, the Metropolitan championship series will start at Hicksville Saturday afternoon.

Martin Katz pitched the Hicksville crew to within half a game of first place Saturday with a 3-1 win over defending champion Lynbrook.

Hempstead and Lynbrook were at the top of the heap with 8 and 8 records at the end of the day and Hicksville trailed with 7 and 3. The makeup game with Long Beach still remained on the slate.

There is anxiety to have a Nassau titlist and Hicksville, having played two ties in the regular campaign, was given an exhausting schedule to meet that end.

Starting on a Monday the Anderson club faced and defeated Levittown, 9-4, on the pitching of Katz and the hitting of Ed Scott and Joe Pepe.

Tuesday night, Tommy Valentine was given the task of beating down Lynbrook and when darkness fell the score was locked 3-3 and the game was immediately scheduled for the following Saturday.

Richard Hogan was Anderson's ace up the sleeve for a Wednesday night date with Malverne and the youngster did just fine by the coach's selection; however, the team was lagging badly and committed four scoring errors in a 2-1 defeat.

The schedule called for a date at Long Beach the following night but the month's first good rain gave the club a rest it needed and it moved refreshed to battle Hempstead.

The Hub and Lynbrook with only two losses each were a full game and a half up Hicksville, but Valentine held off the visitors 6-4.

Lynbrook was set to wrap the flag up but Katz was equal to the task and climbed home with a two run edge.

Lou Millevolte sliced a two run single in the third to send Katz winging.

Botto Advances at Beach

HUNTINGTON — Bill Brodiuk fired a fast three-hit, 4-0, victory at Long Island Neon, here in the second round of the Long Island ASA tourney, Sunday night, after making the cross island trip from Jones Beach where Jim Barone took a 15-2 decision over Roosevelt in the afternoon.

The only noteworthy factors in the afternoon contest were a home run by Rigby and the playing of first base by George Fowler. Fowler has filled in at third, short and first aside from his regular post at second and handled each with a professional touch.

The win at the seashore put Botto in a solid position in the top three and the win over Neon merely pointed up the climactic struggle Botto and Roy Stephenson, pitching with Post City, are expected to stage for the ASA title. Brodiuk calmed the batters who are resting in first place in the beach loop Sunday and got the first hit to score the initial two runs Sunday.
