Big Petition Is Public Record Until Hearing

HICKSVILLE—The documents involved in the request for a vote on home rule for this community became a public record late Wednesday and may now be examined at the Hicksville Courthouse each day, Monday to Friday, from 9 AM to 4:30 PM. The office is closed from 12 to 1 PM for lunch. Joseph McCarthy of the Vet Service Agency has custody of the records which will be open for inspection until Supervisor Ransom's public hearing in the same building on Thursday morning, Sept. 17, starting at 10 AM.

Set 2 New Courses For Adults

HICKSVILLE—Two new courses being offered for the fall term of the Adult Education Program of the school district are expected to attract many when registration is held Sept. 14 and 15 at the high school, Director Elery Bean said today. They include Hy-Speed Longhand, to be conducted by Arthur Knerr of the high school commercial dept., which makes possible speeds up to 50 words a minute in taking notes by the use of abbreviated writing; and golf, taught by Pat Naso, who has almost 20 years experience in collegiate and professional ranks. Naso, also on the high school faculty, has been assistant golf pro at Bethpage and was associated with Lake Tarleton Club, Pike, N. H.

Ambulance Call For Toothache

PLAINVIEW—A 29-year-old man was found on the road suffering from such a bad toothache that he was taken to Meadowbrook Hospital in an ambulance here Sunday, Aug. 16.

Henry Crenshaw of Old Country Rd. and Manetto Hill Rd. was found sitting on the corner near Manetto Hill Rd. suffering from difficulty in breathing. He had an infected jaw due to bad teeth, police reported.

Borley Seeking Re-election

HICKSVILLE—Harry Borley of 135 Woodbury Rd. is a candidate for re-election as a commissioner of the water district. The election will be held in the courthouse, Heitz Pl. and Bay Ave., on Tuesday, Aug. 31 between 7 and 8 P.M.

Chess Player Seeks A Club

HICKSVILLE—Sam Sherman, 21 Terrace St., is trying to organize a chess club. Anyone interested in such a club should contact Sherman at Hicksville 8-7779 between 7 and 8 P.M. Those interested need not be expert players, he says.

Chiasso Flying Across Atlantic

NEW YORK—Emilio Chiasso of 112 Seventh St., Hicksville boarded a Trans-World Airlines Skyliner this week at New York International Airport here for a trans-Atlantic flight to Europe. He will visit Italy on his tour.

Can Still Give To Vamp Fund

HICKSVILLE—Newest resident and householders who were not at home during the recent door-to-door canvass by volunteer members of the Fire Dept. may make their contributions to the department's welfare fund at fire headquarters, E. Marie St., any day of the week. Ernest Dieterich, in charge of the house to house appeal, said that the firehouse custodian has a receipt book for the convenience of those who still wish to donate to the program.

Schools Open Here On Sept 9

HICKSVILLE—Public schools here open for the fall and winter term on Wednesday morning after Labor Day. The opening day is Sept. 9, the Board of Education announces.

Playground Concludes

HICKSVILLE—The summer playground here runs for eight weeks and is the longest program of its kind on Long Island, featuring arts and crafts together with sports. Registration this year was 3,277, double last year's record attendance. The fifth season concluded this week. It is sponsored by the school district and board of education with Chester Jaworski as director.

Vote On Home Rule By End Of October, Proponents Hope

HICKSVILLE—With the hearing by Township Supervisor Charles E. Ransom set for Sept. 17 upon the proposition and petition asking for incorporation of this community of 6.5 square miles as a first class village with a population of over 30,000, one major step must still be taken before the village can become a fact. A vote of all resident property owners of the school district area on whether or not a village should be created with locally elected public officials could take place before the end of October.

Following the public hearing which starts at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sept. 17, at Hicksville Court House, Supervisor Ransom will have a maximum of ten days in which to determine if the petition, proposition and other papers are in order. Within that 10 day period, which would expire on Sunday, Sept. 27, he is required by law to make a written decision and file it with Town Clerk Henry Curran at Oyster Bay.

TOWN CLERK'S ACTION

If the decision is favorable, Curran will then have five days, in which to give notice of the election to take place not less than 15 or more than 25 days thereafter.

However, there are several points where the Anti-Home Rule group can be expected to erect legal barricades in future desperate efforts to prevent the question from coming to a vote, it was noted today by the proponents.

At the hearing before Ransom, for example, Ernest Francke's committee may attempt to destroy the proposition on the grounds that persons signing the consent petition are not the owners of one-third the total valuation of the district. The feverish attempt to file affidavits of property owners who have been persuaded by the Anti-Home Rule group to have their names deleted from the petition is expected to feature the push to whittle the $13,000,000 represented by signatures to less than the one-third requirement.

RANSOM IN COURT

After Supervisor Ransom has rendered decision on the proposition, and the committee of over 200 volunteers who worked three years to bring the question to this point is confident that he will find it in order, the opposition has 10 days in which to take an appeal from Ransom's decision to Nassau County Court.

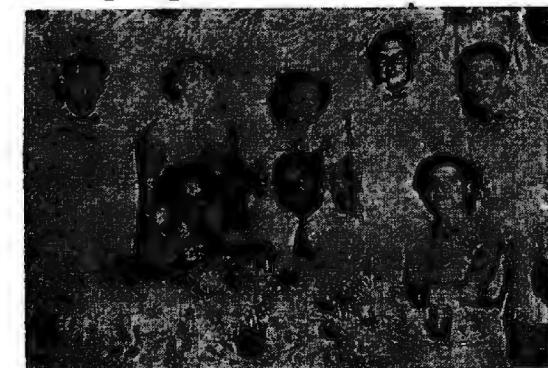

The County Court hears the appeal and must then either uphold Ransom or reverse his verdict. If Ransom's decision, supposing that he found the petition in order, is upheld, the remaining steps involve

Raising Legal Defense Fund

MORE THAN HALF of the $1,000 fund being raised by new homeowners for the legal defense of two Park Community residents being sued for $10,000 each by builder has been achieved, President Peter Ferraro of the Park Community Civic Assoc. disclosed yesterday. One of the series of events being sponsored to raise the defense fund was the successful restaurant-style dinner at the Cardinal home, 12 Terry St., Hicksville, Friday night, Aug. 14. Coming events include the awarding of a three-day paid upstate vacation and a September block party. Those who arranged the dinner are pictured above. Seated, left to right, are Mrs. Mary Cardinal, chairman; President Ferraro, Mrs. Ann Rametta. In the rear are Sal Cardinal, Mrs. Harriet Haumann, Mrs. Lorraine Ferraro, Tom Rametta and Rudolph Haumann. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

Teen Canteen Advisory Group Seeks Cooperation

HICKSVILLE—The Teen Canteen had its third open adult meeting at Levittown Hall, Monday evening, Aug. 17.

Marvin Sultan, executive chairman, stated that the purpose of the meeting was to get organizations and individuals to help establish a permanent and expanding youth program in Hicksville.

"We need individuals, both inexperienced and experienced in working with teens, to serve on the Board of Directors, to act as full or part-time advisors, to serve as chaperones, and to work on committees," he said. "We need the help of organizations in sponsoring activities and providing chaperones, music, and transportation."

Amvets Post Here First in Nation

Special To Mid-Island Herald
HICKSVILLE—The Robert O. Ulmer Post No. 44, AMVETS of World War 2 and Korea can again stick out their chests and cheer. The local veterans were picked as the "top" Number 1 post over all AMVETS throughout the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, Italy, Japan, France and other foreign based posts.

Jimmy Cooley, organizer of AMVETS here in Long Island, received notification from Washington, D.C. Saturday afternoon. For the past several months a post was picked throughout the thousands of AMVETS for their outstanding work and for the month of August Hicksville walked away with the honors. They were judged on the work that they have done in helping AMVETS to become known throughout these parts and for the aid that was given veterans and their families. In the notification, credit was also given for the veteran's column, "AMVETS' Alley" which was judged by National Publicity Director Alvin Keller and Editor of the National newspaper, John Kett.

At the September National Convention, one of the several AM-

VETS posts accorded this honor will have the opportunity to win the trophy will be presented to the outstanding post of the number already named. Said Post Commander Hal Cooley, "The honor that have come to post 44 has been brought by the hard work of each individual member, and as one member of the post replied . . . AMVETS have come a long way and they will go further."

Jimmy Cooley, Adjutant, said "my dreams of recognition of post 44 by all AMVETS has been accomplished. This month in small towns, large cities, from coast to coast, posts on foreign soil, ships returning with members of AMVETS from the seas and oceans of the world will no longer crack farmer jokes about us. We are proud to have been picked as the top . . . Number One post of the month and we will not stop there."

Struck on Highway

HICKSVILLE—Stella Pruet, 27, of 25 Mangan Pl., was struck by a car as she was crossing Old Country Rd. at Richard St. Wednesday, Aug. 12. She was struck by a 1947 Plymouth operated by Robert Kohn of 506 Ardley Blvd., Garden City, police reported.

Dear Jean:

We had seen in Tuesday's Herald with the announcement that SUPERVISOR RANSOM will hold a public hearing in Hicksville Courthouse, Sept. 17, upon the incorporation petition. Newsday had it wrong again Wednesday and set the date for Sept. 19. We checked with RANSOM and the date remains at Sept. 17. . . Postmaster WM MOLLITOR is sending letters to residents between 16th St. and the Parkway advising them that their correct mailing address is "Jericho", not Hicksville. . .

The grandstands for the Labor Day tournament have about been completed on Levittown Parkway, Hicksville. However, there is considerable more work to be done by the vamps, including erection of protective fencing, etc. Incidentally, 1000 pounds of franken are among the items ordered by the committee for the Big Day (let's hope it don't rain). . . "The Breather" is still at it in the north east section of Hicksville with several more calls reported by residents this week. . . Before the summer vanishes, you may be interested to know that ice cream was discovered by Marco Polo traveling in Asia centuries ago. Until 1851 it was a rare and costly delicacy, available only to the very rich.

Residents of the Scooter-Tip Top Lane intersection in Hicksville are circulating a petition asking for stop signs or signals at the corner to prevent a serious accident. The neighborhood says motorists take the corner at high speed. . . Mrs. WILLIAM WETTERAUER Sr. of W. John St., Hicksville, won a $300 first prize in the "Journal American Daily Double" contest last week in the harness races at Roosevelt Raceway. She predicted a DD price of $61.90, only 20 cents off the actual price, by writing numbers on strips of paper and pulling them out of a hat to get the winning combination. . . The LIRR has been stopping trains at a station marked "Landia", so recorded on time tables, just because BILL LEVIT put up the Landia sign on his depot. But the new developers of the former Landia layout have changed the name to "Jericho Hills" so now what is the RR going to do? . .

200 Enjoy Band Concert

HICKSVILLE — More than 200 parents and friends attended the Summer Concert of the High School Summer Band on Sunday afternoon in the High School auditorium. The band, under the capable direction of Charles Gouze, played a variety of selections ranging from "The Thunder March" by Sousa, the "Chorale", to "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" by Bach-Yoder. Ruth Davenport played "Valse in E Minor" by Chopin as a piano solo, and George Marks presented "Trumpeter's Lullaby" by Anderson as a trumpet solo.

The band consists of students of the grammar, junior high and senior high school grades, and for the concert it was augmented by several former players in the high school band. The band has practiced daily under Gouze from 8 to 9:30 A.M. in the high school. It is part of a long range program of musical education in the Hicksville schools. The purpose is to give the younger students the experience of band playing while in the lower grades and to give them the association with more experienced musicians.

Build Office, Terminal

HICKSVILLE — Construction of an office building and truck terminal is being planned west of the Miller Rd. and LIRR intersection. The Fifth Ave. Corp. of Maspeth is planning the one-story building which will have cement block walls with brick exterior trim.

NORTH WEST NOTES:

Primary Contests Interesting

By JAMES J. CUMMINGS

Just a little over a month from now registered voters will be asked to cast their ballots for committee men in local election districts. For the first time in many, many years the Republican incumbents face opposition in four election districts. Contests of interest to residents in North West Hicksville are in the 16th District with John J. Finnegan of 62 Kuhl Ave. and Sofia Schult of 32 Indiana St. as candidates in opposition to incumbents Clifford Place and Leroy Wells.

In the 4th District John Larkin of 16 Nevada St. will make it a three-way battle to unseat incumbents Stamford Wiens and John Jeanson.

In the Democratic primaries George Coburn of 84 Gardner Ave. is running unopposed in the 10th District. Remember that the new candidates are your neighbors, very active civic minded individuals who will be concerned with our local problems and will keep them upper-most in the minds of the local "leadership".

As one homeowner to another, I personally urge your vote and support of Mrs. Schult, John Finnegan and John Larkin as committee men for the 16 and 44 districts respectfully. These candidates at a later date will make official statements regarding the urgency of your vote for them in this column. We want recognition in our section and can have such by electing these new candidates, who will work for the people in North West Hicksville.

The people are fed up with the many false promises and statements made regarding our roads and drainage program which they are still completing. Visits to the Town Board by certain individuals have proved futile; all promises, no action! The time has come for our people to stand up and be counted—let the officials know where we stand—do so by helping elect our people to the job of committee men in the 16 and 44 districts on Primary Day, Sept. 15th.

Farming Declines

MINEOLA — Exemptions for potato growers on taxation where farm lands are declared by federal-state authorities as infected with the golden nematode of potatoes have declined sharply for 1954, giving further evidence of the declining mid-island acreage available for farming. The exemption, which formerly ran into millions of dollars, is down to $4,345,000.

Communists Reveal POW Rojas Died In Captivity

PLAINVIEW—Pfc. Raymond A. Rojas died in Communist captivity, according to a Defense Department telegram received by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rojas, 78 Nassau Ave., Sunday night, Aug. 16. The Rojas had waited two years for word from their son.

Down Memory Lane

By TERRY JAMES

Many is the time while walking down a busy street, your glance will strike upon a bent and aged figure standing all alone by the side of a busy thoroughfare waiting until the traffic ceases its motion or until some thoughtful person helps her across the way. I've stopped so many times and thought just how much neglected these forgotten souls are, left to walk their weary way alone . . . Perhaps because they are no longer young? Perhaps because there are some in the world who think that they are no longer useful? Perhaps because they may seem in the way of youth?

These questions can only be answered by oneself. Today's poem deals with the thoughts of a man who if he could but live his life all over again.

If I could live my life anew
I'd try to do so much for you
Put gold back into silver hair
And brush away each fear and care.

I'd give you back your legs to walk

Your speech that fades when'er you talk,

Each hand that shakes, and eye that's dim,

Restore the strength to weary limb.

Your hearing that has gone astray

The happy thoughts of yesterday,

All youth that's gone I'd give to you

If I could live my life anew.

In March, 1951, when Rojas was 19, the Red Peiping radio broadcast his name. Shortly after that, his parents received a brief letter obviously dictated by his captors. After that, they received no other word. His name was not on the "official" Red list of PW's issued in December, 1951.

Young Rojas enlisted in the Army when he was 17 years old after his high school graduation. Dreaming of being an engineer, he thought his Army service would provide some money for education and also provide valuable training.

The Rojas have two other children, Donald, 16, and Anita, 22, a nurse at Meadowbrook Hospital, East Meadow.

Maggio said that a meeting is being planned to which all local organizations will be invited to send representatives for the purpose of formulating the advisory board.

He hopes that all organizations will cooperate in this civic undertaking and further information may be obtained from Maggio at 35 Blanche St. or by calling him at Hicksville 3-6256.

Bigger Plans For Shoppers

By Fred J. Noeth

THE APPLICATION of Stackler and Frank for increased business use zoning on the acreage of their proposed "Mid-Island Shopping Plaza" on the former St. John's Home property, along North Broadway, should serve to silence recent reports that the plans for development of this big project as a vast $85,000,000 shopping centre have been shelved.

It has been a year since the announcement was first made for a planned shopping centre designed to draw customers 10 to 15 miles from Hicksville. During the months which have passed since the first big splash of publicity, little more had been heard.

Now it appears that the project will be even bigger than was first announced. We are told that the developers have already invested $80,000 in the preparation of surveys, preliminary plans, etc. Unquestionably, it will be even greater than Levittown Centre on Hempstead Tpk. It will be a tremendous asset to Hicksville as a community.

Perhaps the most dazzling part of the plans, as disclosed to date, is the provision for the parking of 4,900 automobiles. What tremendous significance that figure must have for the owners of property in Hicksville now occupied by stores. It provides food for thought on the part of store-tenants now in areas where the cry for more parking fields has been repeated, again and again, with little or no success.

The combination of two opposing factors—plenty of parking at one point where a new trading centre is being built and lack of parking where older stores now struggle can very well change the entire character of our community.

The moaning and groaning for more adequate parking has not been solved by township government and it will not and cannot be solved by a form of government wherein the people in charge are not even residents of the community. Only incorporated villages—(need we cite Farmingdale, Rockville Centre, Hempstead, Freeport and Garden City?)—have taken the bold, forthright action on a local level necessary to provide the solution.

You disagree? Well, five years of earnest pleading, petitioning and personal appeals by merchants and shoppers alike, have resulted in two small public parking fields with a total capacity of 150 autos.

You agree with the Anti-Home Rule group that the approach has not been in the best "kneeling pad" tradition? Well, can you guess who has been advocating at merchant meetings, as recently as the past few weeks, that business leaders "demand" action from the Town Board on parking? Yes, the Anti-Home Rule boss.

Our only hope of achieving some degree of planning and action to solve such urgent problems as parking, traffic congestion, public park areas, taxi control, etc., etc., lies in the establishment of Hicksville as a self-governing municipality. The opportunity is now before us.

Child Struck Down on Broadway

HICKSVILLE—Philip Robinson, 9, of 3 Second St., Westbury, was struck by a car as the child was crossing Broadway north of Fourth St. Sunday, Aug. 16. He was treated by Dr. Arthur Swick for contusion of the right leg and abrasion of the left arm and sent home. The car was operated by Leonard Byczek of 38 Old Hill Ln., Levittown.

parties, trips to ice shows, plays, etc., and an excursion to see "A Night in Venice" at Jones Beach. A community-wide meeting at Hicksville High School is tentatively scheduled for the second or third week in Sept. Costing one dollar to cover both transportation and admission, tickets for the representatives.

HERALD READER OPINION

Still Fighting Dictatorship

Identification: 24 years a resident of Hicksville. 25 years a member of Robert L. Bacon and later the Hicksville Republican Club. A Mason, ex-fireman, a veteran of World War I and a father of a World War II veteran. Born in the U.S.A. and fought against dictatorship and I still hate the word or anything that smells like dictatorship.

This all brings you up to my story or feelings regarding the local political setup.

For the past six months I have been hearing stories about Jack (Doc) Brandt, whom I have known for a quarter of a century or more. One day Jack says he is fed up with the whole thing and wishes to retire some place in New Jersey—the next day he wants to stay the "Big Boss" on the Highway. I hear the "Big Boss" of the township wants to drop him—then Boss E. F. throws his hat in the ring for Supervisor but it bounced right out again when Lou Water's hat hit the deck and stuck there. This made the little big boy see fire so he countered with a right hand full of Doc Brandt-pills and all. I am sure that if you swallow the pills again in November no harm will come if you drive over some of the Township roads that Doc promised you 10 or 12 years ago that he would take care of. The pills will be shaken on through but quick.

Boss E. F. calls the Doc and some of his gang in and tells them, "We need money and a lot of it, Doc, it's up to you". Maybe the money is more important than a good street. You pay either or both ways.

I have the highest regard for a man or woman who offers his or her service to their community and the people by having themselves elected as a Committeeman, but, how, in heaven's name can a Committeeman serve you if he is

Letter To The Editor

told what to do and how to vote at Committee meetings? If they refuse, the public trough will be taken from under their noses and they will be told to "root hog or die".

E. F. knows his right foot is on the well-known banana peel.

After we vote on the Home rule his left foot will advance to his downfall.

Four years ago, two years ago and again this year E. F. has had his eye on the top job in Oyster Bay. The boys in the "know" were afraid he couldn't stand an investigation.

When Len Hall went to Washington, Hicksville was sure the town leadership would come here, but, our boss was only able to pull 8 out of 11 votes. How big can a man think he is?

I am just a man about town who was against home-rule until a few months ago. I do a lot of listening to other people of all walks of life, read and like the Hicksville Mid-Island Herald. Tonight I feel like a lot of other people do here in Hicksville so I am putting it on paper.

Call for Bids

BETHPAGE — Water treatment equipment will be installed in the Bethpage Water District, it was learned this week as the Board of Commissioners asked for bids on the work. The Board will receive bids on the construction of building extensions and installation of water treatment equipment until Sept. 1 at the Bethpage Firehouse.

Summer Band

The Hicksville High School Summer Band, under the direction of Charles Gouse, turned in a very creditable performance Sunday afternoon. The kids really had their hearts in the band. They got out for practice every morning at 8 o'clock, all through the summer. The interest and ability of both the players and the conductor was very evident in the quality of their playing. With the musical talent available in Hicksville, ranging from youngsters in grammar school to adults, in and out of the musical profession, it seems a shame that we don't have some kind of community band or orchestra as so many communities on Long Island do have.

Little League Here

The season for the North West Little League is just about over. It seems to be agreed that all concerned, kids and grown-ups, have gotten out of it far more than they have put in. We hope that next year Little League will be a community-wide affair.

Amvets Alley

Robert O. Ulmer Post
East Marie St., Hicksville

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE" . . . The 3rd Annual picnic held Sunday, Aug. 9, grows dim and slowly fades into the past, but the fun and the many new friends AMVETS made will not be forgotten. Thanks must go to these workers who had very little time for gaiety themselves . . . Mike Eliash, Mike Purish, Nina Cooley, Johnny Kwiatski, Fred Blackley, Jim Surles, Johnny Logoski, Joe Mignone, Lou Mignone, etc. etc. If I have for gotten anyone, I'm sorry . . . HI-LITES OF PICNIC: Wearing dark glasses and almost getting away without being recognized was Col. Foery, C. O. of the "Fighting 69th". Some one borrowed our Vice Commander's fancy Stein by mistake. The "Pioneers" were handed a defeat by the Woodbury Civics Assn. during the A.M. of the affair. As usual Hop-A-Long Bruno did more than his share of the work . . . ditto for Fred Mignone. The Ladies Auxiliary getting upset by the score of 10-9 by the Single Men of the post. Marion Mignone and Tessie Rumens belting the softball all over the field with "Limp" Zvanik trying to run em down. Official attendance hit over 300 people.

HEAR THIS: Reported from Phil Milleville and Newfoundland that people are still wearing coats up there. A letter from a budgie in Korea tells us that the releasing of the American troops by the Reds is more pathetic than we realize. Jim Surles will run for 1st Vice Commander. The Margaret C. McDonald Memorial Trophy will be awarded on the evening of our 5th Installation or a later date. The installation will also see the presentation of a Silver Medal to one of the Ladies Auxiliary members, one to the post member for outstanding service and the third medal to a civilian for working with AMVETS on our "Operation Fixit" during Xmas.

Have secured the address of Dick Scott now a Corporal with the Hqrs. & Hdqs. Co., 188th Inf. Regt., Ft. Campbell, Ky. I'm sure that Dick would like to hear a word from all his buddies . . . DATES TO REMEMBER: Tonight (Aug. 21) regular meeting; Aug. 28, Post Executive Committee meeting and Awards and Certificate of Merits Committee; Sept. 4, nomination of new officers; Sept. 18, final nominations and election of new officers . . . please be sure to attend this meeting; Oct. 10; Fifth Birthday and Installation of Post and Auxiliary Officers. Before I close let me say that on our club wall in the Citation for the Membership Record we broke this year: Signed by National Commander, Marsh Miller, it is proof enough that Post 44, Nassau County's first AMVETS are moving ahead . . . If you veterans of World War II and Korea want an outfit where buddies are buddies and you can have the shirts off their backs . . . meet me at the corner of AMVETS Alley.

League Mothers Hold Meeting

By DOROTHY GULPA

Mrs. Clement Lawler, of East Ct., reports her female tan boxer dog has been missing since last Monday. The dog, named "Ricky", was the children's pet, and Mrs. Lawler is anxious to find her. A reward will be paid to anyone knowing the dog's whereabouts. Call Mrs. Lawler at HI 3-7046.

RASH OF ACCIDENTS

A rash of minor but painful accidents has hit the Miller Homes section near the Broadway School.

Ann Iken, East Ct., had a very sore foot after she stabbed a pitchfork through it.

Michael Caggiano, Beverly Rd., was struck in the back of the head by a stone thrown by someone at a Broadway School Little League game. He suffered a bad cut that had to take several stitches.

Russell Bucceri, 7 Center Ct., fell from his bicycle and smashed his mouth badly.

My baby, Rosemary, fell from the fender of her sister Bea's bike, and she is limping around on a scraped heel.

Be of good heart, mothers! School opens soon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taverna, 6 East Ct., are biding time till their new home in Huntington is completed. Mr. Taverna has been transferred and given charge of the Huntington branch of his company.

BETHPAGE FIRE DEPT. has a fine new fire truck, this 65-foot aerial hook and ladder truck which went into service around Memorial Day. It replaces a 27-year-old hook and ladder which had given long and faithful service but outlived its usefulness. Fifteen members of the company have qualified as driver-operators of the new truck. The Fire District won approval for the truck last October after three ballots over a period of two years. The taxpayers defeated the petition in the first two votes. (Baltrym photo for Herald).

Evelyn Jones Becomes Bride Of Samuel Rozzi of Bethpage

Miss Evelyn Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, of Bronxville, became the bride of Samuel J. Rozzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rozzi, 46 Sherman Ave., Bethpage, at St. Peter and Paul's Church in Mt. Vernon on Saturday, Aug. 16.

Accompanied by her father the bride wore a gown of imported French lace over an accordian pleated shirt and the lace bodice had an embroidered scoop neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls, and she carried a prayer book with a marker of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Dorothy Hanga, of Mt. Vernon, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Roy Miller, of Mt. Vernon, the bride's cousin; Mrs. James Cox, of Middleville; Missy Rae Canavacio, of St. Albans, and Miss Lepore Brazzi, the bride's niece. They wore strapless ballerina-length gowns of blue nylon tulle with matching jackets and caps of yellow pompons. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow pompons.

Philip Rozzi, the bride groom's brother, was the best man, and the ushers included Louis Frank, of Oceanaside; James Ketcham, of Farmingdale; Sam Albreccio, of Huntington, and David Jones, the bride's brother.

The Hotel Gramatan in Bronxville was the scene of the reception.

MEMBERS OF HERALD STAFF and their families and friends enjoyed a barbecue on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Noeth, 22 Twinlawn Ave., Hicksville, when Miss Mary Haughey, assistant editor, was guest of honor. Miss Haughey, seated in the centre with her fiance, Staff Sgt. Herbert Knaack, is getting married this Saturday and will leave the Herald staff. Photographer Frank Mallett was behind the shutter and, of course, could not be included in the group picture.

Hope For Vote in October

voting the Town Clerk take place and the vote is thereafter scheduled.

Lawrence A. Roman, chairman of the Home Rule Committee today acknowledged the warning given by Ransom in Tuesday's Herald reminding those interested that "all objections must be in writing."

JUDGE AS ATTORNEY

Roman said "this is in conformity with the Village Law we are advised by our attorneys, Willis B. Carman and Robert Callahan of Farmingdale. We are fortunate to have the firm of Carman and Callahan, with long years of experience in municipal affairs, particularly in Judge Carman's home community, the Incorporated Village of Farmingdale, representing us at the hearing on Sept. 17."

The village law also provides that the entire hearing is conducted solely by the Supervisor, not the Town Board. Testimony may be taken at the hearing "which shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by witnesses," the law provides.

Particularly significant, the Home Rule volunteers feel, is the legal requirements, clearly stated in the village law "that the burden of proof is on those raising objections."

The law also states that the hearing before the Supervisor may be adjourned, but must be concluded within 20 days or by Oct. 6.

HUCKVILLE DOWNS:Felice Asking About Civic Assoc.

By MARGIE KERN

HA 6-1230

What's happening with the Civic Association? When is the next meeting? Everyone keeps asking me. When I hear about it, I'll let you know.

Before I begin the news, let me first welcome Mr. and Mrs. M. Waters into the community. They are former residents of Levittown, now living at 73 Cedar St.

Barbara Peat of 70 Cedar visited her grandmother for a month up at North Adams, Mass. Jo-Anne (Barbara's sister) spent a week in New York visiting relatives.

The Minets of 68 Cedar have only the apron to finish on their garage. They're hoping the weekend weather permits as they can complete it. They also visited Montauk Point whitewash association.

Mrs. Colwell, 47-70 Cliff Dr. spent a few days in Gedney, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Cedar recently returned from Cape Cod where they had a lovely time. They spent a week in a cabin and did their own house-keeping. Their second week was spent at home doing odd jobs. They put up their leaders and gutters. This was completed in the nick of time as a few days later we had that terrific rain storm.

The Rifaico's of 88 Cliff Dr. spent a day while on vacation at Morristown, Pa., visiting friends. They are also "fencing themselves in" and doing a good job too.

Talking about good times, my husband and I had a lovely time the Herald picnic which we attended, Sunday. The steaks were "out of this world" and the food was plentiful. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Noeth, for asking us over.

The Harrills of Stanley St. recently returned from a trip to Kentucky.

Scituate-Greenport

SCITUATE — The 50th Wedding anniversary for nearly 2,000 people was held on both sides of Levittown Parkway at Birch Lane, here, Sunday by members of the volunteer fire department in preparation for the Labor Day weekend which will attract many and their friends from all sections of Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. James Langley were entertained on Sunday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lorimer Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGann, Mr. and Mrs. John Byron and children Nancy and Jack, Mrs. Sweeney and daughter Patricia. Mrs. Langley had not seen Mr. and Mrs. Byron who live in New York for years.

Janice Smith of 70 Cliff was guest of honor at a surprise party given by her friends at Carol Finger's house, 2 Stanley St. Her guests included Patsy Rankel, Nancy Trostreich, Maureen Maure, Maureen's girlfriend Arlene, Carol Van Arnum, Paty Pat Sarfield, Jim Calwell (Janice's uncle), Frank Finger, Harold Schall, Jack Roberts and Eugene McCarthy. Games were played and refreshments were served. They also danced to records by leading orchestra leaders and singers.
