ALBANY PONDER'S APPEAL: Szendy Splits With Board, Raps School Attorney Fee

ALBANY—The State Commissioner of Education has under consideration the appeal of a Hicksville taxpayer on the question of the Hicksville School District contract with an attorney, as well as the answer signed by four members of the School Board and a separate reply by Emil J. Szendy, fifth board member, who declined to join with the rest of the Board in its answer.

The School Board's answer to the appeal by Lawrence A. Roman of Notre Dame Ave., was prepared by Charles H. Stoll as special attorney for the Board of Education. Roman's complaint is described by him as a "request for a review by Lewis A. Wilson, state education commissioner, of the action of Hicksville School Board in connection with the contract entered into with the attorney for the school district, relating to his fees."

SIGNED IN APRIL

The regular attorney of the school district, now under written contract since Apr. 29 of this year, is Michael J. Sullivan of the firm of Carroll and Sullivan.

The School Board's answer to the complaint was made on Sept. 8. Roman replied to the answer in a letter to Commissioner Wilson on Sept. 11. Szendy's statement on the matter is dated Sept. 9.

The answer prepared by Stoll and signed by Board members Henry C. Brengel, Edna Kuhne Sutton, Arthur L. Eirich and Richard G. School, Jr. consists of 13 pages with 11 additional pages of exhibits and several photostats.

It asks that the complaint be dismissed and that if the Commissioner decides to grant a hearing that it be held "as soon as convenient for the purpose of settling, on the merits, the issue raised (Continued on Page 9)

Plan To Enlarge Four New Schools

HICKSVILLE—Taxpayers of the school district may soon be expected to vote upon another couple of million dollars in bond issues to cover the cost of additions to four elementary schools, it was learned today. While the size of the additions for Fork Lane, Dutch Lane, Burns Ave and Old Country Rd Schools have not been decided, the board has authorized President Henry C. Brengel to sign contracts with Knappe and Johnson, school architects, to develop plans.

Columbia University, Institute of Field Studies, is making a new study to determine the degree of expansion for the new additions. A preliminary report, presented to the School Board at a recent meeting, recommends the four new buildings be expanded to a minimum of 20 rooms each, ten more than the present sizes. Columbia's final report is due early in October, it was revealed by a spokesman for the school board.

CENTER CIVIC COMMENTS:

What Did Test On Friday Prove?

By GEORGE McCARTHY
Well, if Friday night's test proved nothing else, it certainly showed the Swami is not capable of competent direction. How can he efficiently direct and coordinate his unit's activity while he is on the street, away from his control center? Could it be he has a "two-way" crystal ball? With the control center left in charge of two communications people, who is there to handle any emergencies that may arise?

The crystal ball should have showed the Swami that he had too small a force to cope with this test, but still he has made no move towards a recruiting drive. A total of 27 people turned out to handle the situation. What happened to those 1,320 people Mr. Ryan was so happy about?

Is this the sample of Hicksville C.D. efficiency that Ryan predicted? True enough traffic was stopped in town, but it moved easily enough on the outskirts. Federalists were completely free to move about during the test and there was little effort made to control them. Will Ryan have the nerve to call this test in Hicksville a "fine job"? If it did nothing else it threw a glaring spotlight on the Swami's inefficiency.

I noticed that Ryan's town department was not around for this test. Could it be that he was afraid he might have to give some of those answers that he promised back in July? He sure has played the "Spinx" since then.

Wake up Mr. Ryan, remove the Swami before Hicksville C.D. collapses completely. Why you have not forwarded your report to the state director I don't know, but you are as much at fault as the Swami. You have it in your power to clear up this mess, but you refuse to move. Why?

What political "big wigs" are protecting the Crystal Gazer? We will continue our fight until we uncover these "whitewash boys" and expose them too. The public demands an efficient C.D. force, but the poor showing Friday night was a disgrace.

How long will you let this continue, do the bombs have to fall in your lap before you wake up? It will be too late then, and all your "table pounding" speeches will not help one bit.

Wake up and follow the State Director's order, or one day we may not wake up at all.

Till next week.

William J. Cotter of 162 West John St., Hicksville, left by plane Tuesday, Sept. 8, for Golden, Colo., where he will enter the Colorado School of Mines as an engineering student.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Schaub, he was graduated from Hicksville High School last June. He is living at the Pi Kappa House, Golden, Colo.

HICKSVILLE

Dear Jean:

L. I. DAILY PRESS reported this week that new parking field proposals for Hicksville will be presented to "Hempstead Town Board". It is understandable that our Jamaica contemporary might think we are under Hempstead township control, what with the strings pulled to set-up the Hall-Fool district, the hoarding in Hempstead etc. . . . Our Editor will round out 20 years as a community newspaper in Hicksville next June. . . .

Among the interesting facts in the recent BMA Survey of Shopper's Opinion is the data that the average customer in Hicksville area buys for a family of 3.9 people. The national average is 3.6 persons. . . . Also, 48 per cent of the principal local wage earners are employed in Nassau and the balance outside of Nassau. . . . Hicksville Kiwanis is planning its annual Children's Halloween Party with Father DAVE DUNCOMBE of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church as chairman. The Club will hold a Father and Child night on Nov. 18 with JOE KELLER in charge, aided by FRANCIS ANDERSON, JIM HERRSCHFAT and FRED SUTER. . . . WILLIAM E. KOUTENSKY, president of L. I. National Bank, received an award for four years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis meetings at the Milleridge Inn last week. . . . Better check your operator's license. Many of them expire this Sept. 30. The three-year fee is now $3 instead of $1.50. . . . There will be a kite flying contest at Nassau County Park, Salisbury, on Oct. 4 at 2 o'clock. Children 7 to 12 years of age are eligible. If you want more data, call the Park Office at HE 7-3838. . . . We learned this week that the phone company has tentative plans for a third phone exchange in Hicksville which will have a neutral designation, probably "Maple". (Who said it should be "Maggie"?). . . .

NORTH WEST NOTES

Important Meeting Next Tuesday

By JAMES CUMMINGS
Next Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, the nominating committee will make its report at our monthly meeting in the Burns Ave. School. A slate of officers will be presented to the membership for their approval, election will take place at the November meeting. This is one of the most important meetings of the year for the North West Civics and all members are urged to attend.

The task of guiding our Association for the coming year on such problems as drainage, road conditions, no thru-trucking to cite a few will rest in the hands of the proposed slate. Make it a point to get to this meeting next Tuesday, meet the proposed candidates and if you have any other nominations to make, do so.

However, the membership feels confident that the nominating committee will present a slate to fill the requirements of the various positions on the Executive Board of this Association one of the largest and most active groups in Hicksville.

BIG TURNOUT SUNDAY

A capacity crowd filled the Legion Hall Saturday evening for the NW Civic dance. Many of the people attending remarked that each affair is better than the previous one, everyone had a wonderful time. Door prize winners were Dan Dolan of Indiana St., Charles Parmelee of Brooklyn, Mrs. John Finnegan of Kuhl Ave. and Jerry Estree of the Bronx. Food was served buffet style by the committee who again deserve a big vote of thanks for a job well done.

Everyone joined in the singing of "Happy Birthday" to a swell guy and neighbor, Bernard Gill, a member of the entertainment committee.

JACKIE MILLER of 105 Gardiner Ave. celebrated his 6th birthday with one of the largest parties seen in a long time. Twenty-two children from the area enjoyed games, favors, refreshments and prizes in the Miller garage Saturday, Sept. 19. Jackie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller.

The Tevlins on Myers Ave. are adding a garage to house that new Chevy. . . . Curbing being completed on the side streets between Myers and Kuhl Ave. by T.O.B. Highway Department. . . . Oct. 6 meeting of the civics will include a report by the Road Committee and a slate of officers to be presented by the Nominating Committee. Time 9:30 P. M. at the Burns Ave. School—be sure to attend all these monthly meetings and bring a new member.

Janet Porcelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Porcelli of 2 Rising La., Hicksville, is a freshman in the College of Liberal Arts at Drew University, Madison, N. J. She is a 1953 graduate of Hicksville High School.

Girl Scouts Announce Schedule

HICKSVILLE—A tentative schedule of local Girl Scout troop meetings has been released by Mrs. Robert Goodrich, troop and organization chairman, here.

"The complexity of scheduling the large numbers of girls involved in troop meetings in every school in our district has made it necessary to reserve final approval for the times and places of our meetings. We wish to thank the Board of Education and Dr. E. H. LeBaron, school superintendent, for the consideration scouting has always received..." Mrs. Goodrich stated.

The following is a list of the intermediate troops, their leader and the tentative meeting place:

Troop No. 200, Mrs. Cottone, Lee Ave. School; No. 17, Mrs. Wilbur, East St. School; No. 129, Mrs. Walsh, East St. School; No. 20, Mrs. Henkel, Dutch La. School; No. 1, Mrs. Wintersaler, Old Country Rd. School, and No. 155, Mrs. Hall, Nikolai St. School.

Brownie troops: No. 2, Mrs. Christ, Lee Ave. School; No. 117, Mrs. Arnold, East St. School; No. 85, Mrs. Cersosimo, Dutch La. School; No. 189, Mrs. Yocum, Burns Ave. School; No. 186, Mrs. Polenski, Old Country Rd. School; No. 181, Mrs. Carlson, Fork La. School.

Intermediate troops: No. 30, Miss Lucille, Montana, St. Ignatius School; No. 7, Mrs. Virginia Benson, St. Stephens Church; No. 134,

Brownie troop No. 116, Mrs. Carlson, Parkway Community Church, and No. 23, Mrs. Novotny, St. Ignatius School.

"During the past year over one fourth of all the girls in the area served by scouting in Hicksville were registered scouts," Mrs. Merleton Wilbur, town chairman, said. "Our aim for the coming year is to increase the percentage. We have under consideration at the present time the formation of three new troops this fall. Our most serious problem is the shortage of adult workers. Each troop leader must take a training course to qualify her to lead a troop. No new troop can be considered until we have sufficient leadership, and the assurance of an active parents group," Mrs. Wilbur concluded.

Chamber Gets Parking Report

HICKSVILLE — Several plans for the development of new parking facilities here were outlined or members of the Chamber of Commerce at a general meeting at the Legion Hall on Sept. 23 by George Rappaport, attorney for the park and parking district.

Rappaport explained that three areas are under consideration to provide a total of 370 more car spaces as follows: The property bounded by West Marie St., Jerusalem Ave. and Herzog Pl., owned by Mrs. F. N. Taliaferro, Sr., Frank Oganiga and Sam Kellner. This area would have a parking accommodation for 204 cars.

Property owned by Judge Joseph Lebkuecher and bounded by West Marie St., Jerusalem Ave. and West Nikolai St. with a parking area for 114 cars.

The triangular piece of land bounded by E. Marie St., railroad tracks and E. Nikolai St., with a

Knights Hear Political Talk

HICKSVILLE — Joseph Barry, Council No. 2520, Knights of Columbus, had their first fall social meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 22. Assemblyman John J. Burns on Sen. Cliff, addressed the group on "Free Participation in Politics."

He told the group to become interested in local affairs by joining their civic groups and local political parties. Thus, the citizen has a voice in nominating candidates and being certain that the candidates will present his ideas. He should also take an interest in state and national politics.

Assemblyman Burns pointed out that the citizen should express his opinions and suggestions on corrections of laws and legislature.

After Burns' talk, two movies on Government were shown. The group will have its next meeting Oct. 13 at the VFW.

Clara Mae Gross of Old Country Rd., Hicksville, celebrated her seventh birthday on Sunday, Sept. 13, and received many lovely gifts.

THIS GROUP, consisting of members and friends of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hicksville, distributed 8,000 doorknob hangers to homes in the Hicksville area on Sept. 20. The Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor, stands at the extreme right. The "hangers" extend the "hand of fellowship" to residents to bring their children to Sunday School. It also contains a message from Pastor Stammel stating that Trinity, which is now over 103 years old, conducts three services every Sunday and offers the "only Protestant grammar school in Hicksville, chartered by the Education Dept. of the State, as a private school open to children of all races and creeds."

parking area for 52 cars.

The slogan contest which ends and three additional prizes are Sept. 30 has been extended to include the students of both Junior High and Senior High School. First prize offered in the contest is a $50 bond, second prize, a $25 bond, also offered.

Five new members at the meeting brought the membership list to a total of 127. The goal is 250.

KNICKERBOCKER NEWS:

Problems Of Various Kinds

By SKIPPY GALLAGHER

Hicksville 4-424

So many things happened this week, that I didn't find time to write at all.

It all started when the P-T A held its first meeting of the season. The mothers, and fathers too were out in grand force. I believe it was the largest group to ever attend. Everything went along fine until one irate mother stood up and spoke about the Melville School. Then they were off. I was afraid for a while. Leland Baker of the school board was about to be lynched. All they forgot to bring was the rope.

But after awhile things settled down with the promise of all questions asked would be answered Monday night. I would like to say that the members of the School Board and their staff deserve an overwhelming vote of confidence from all the people for the way they conducted the meeting Monday night, Sept. 21. This meeting was a far cry from the hysterical outburst staged by a small but vocal majority at the recent civic meeting. The way the school board handled it was superb. Everyone had a chance to speak his or her piece but no one was allowed to monopolize the meeting.

Mr. Baker acting as chairman wisely gave the floor to as many people as time permitted. It gave every one an opportunity to sound off. The parents of the children attending the Melville School were assured that everything within the power of the school board would be done, to make the location suitable for continued use. It may even be possible to discontinue use of the untractable basement rooms in the near future. For my part I'm glad they are not going to discontinue kindergarten as a lot of mothers feel this important beginning in a child's life.

MILK WAR
Then along Jamaica Avenue there was almost a milk war. How I get myself involved in these things I'll never know. A woman comes to the door and asks me how I'd like to receive milk for 20 cents a quart. This of course sounds terrific to me as I use 28 qts. a week. It amounted to about $5 a month saved. So I signed up. First I had to explain to my present man that I was accepting another offer. Did this ever happen to you? This was met by screams of protest from my milkman, but come Sunday morning I received my new milk. Monday afternoon comes a tapping at the back door, and my old milkman says, "Mrs. Gallagher we've come to an agreement with this other company. They won't be able to deliver here."

"What," says I. "No 20 cents qt. milk?"

"No," comes the firm answer, "but if you'll take us back our company is allowing you 23 1/2 cents a qt."

I got a choice? He said no milk was going to be delivered on Tuesday.

Come Tuesday morning my 20 cents qt. guy is on the back stoop at 7:30 A.M.

He says, "No guy is threatening me, I can deliver milk where ever I want."

"Okay," says I, and put the milk away. Comes 9:30 A.M.—the old milkman is leaving me 7 qts. also.

"Stop," says I. "I'll be selling milk myself."

"You mean to tell me, Mrs. G. that the other man delivered you milk? That can't be."

Taking him by the hand I show him the 7 qts. of milk I already have in my refrigerator.

"Something's definitely wrong Mrs. Gallagher there was a mistake. He isn't allowed to serve you any more. Well, he definitely won't be here Thursday."

It's true, no one came on Thursday. New or old. So we bought milk at the A & P. Next week I buy a cow.

Meets Tuesday

The Hicksville Home Bureau will hold its business meeting at 10 A.M. in the Legion Hall, E. Nicholas St., on Tuesday, Oct. 6.

Dr. Victor M. Oral of Williamston Park, who is from the Nassau Dental Assoc., will give a short talk on "The Fluoridation Story" and also show a film called "A Drop In The Bucket".

In the afternoon Mrs. Cornelius Krupp will give a demonstration on the skilled use of the sewing machine. Preliminaries for the projects of the coming month will be given which includes upholstery by Mrs. E. Irving Jessor, Poodle Dogs by Mrs. Clinton Foster, and Leather Gloves by Mrs. Theodore Schwartz.

It is very important that the Ladies of the Unit attend all business meetings to learn particulars as all classes are being held in private homes until sometime in January.

Civic Effort Serves Us All

By Fred J. Noeth

OUR VARIOUS civic associations are now embarking upon their fall and winter programs of meetings. The Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. which serves the entire community area, held its first meeting after the summer recess last Thursday night and launched into programs directed at elimination of local grade crossings and several traffic and safety problems, principally the case of the short-cutting homeward bound factory workers who seek out speedways thru new home areas to avoid traffic lights.

We salute all the civic groups in our area. They number at least 12 in the Hicksville School District area, in addition to the over-all Hicksville Civics; three in Plainview, four in Bethpage, etc. May their numbers increase.

Assemblyman John J. Burns in speaking to the Knights of Columbus during the week urged greater participation in local affairs and recommended civic association membership. Burns, former Mayor of the Village of Sea Cliff, came into public life thru diligent activity in his village civic group. And while we were provoked and annoyed with Mr. Burns for his compliance with county seat dictates on the legislation attempting to split up Hicksville in favor of Levittown and Hempstead Township earlier this year, we admire him for his willingness to listen and explain his position.

We doubt if there ever was a civic organization which did not accomplish some good for its membership. There are folks today who still recall the "old Hicksville Taxpayers Assoc." of 20 years or more ago which obtained local house-to-house mail carrier service, wrangled with the school board on the first high school project, battled endlessly for lower taxes. We recall such men as the late Arthur L. Crosskey, C. T. Kelly, Thomas Costello, James Redfern, Louis J. Reinacher, the late Jules Purick and many others who were active in that organization.

And we can go back further to the turn of the century when the Hicksville Improvement Assoc., which included such as Henry Huettner and Julius Augustin who brought to the community its first street lighting, trolley service along John St., etc.

The history of our community is highlighted by the work of citizen groups who brought about change and improvement. We feel certain today that the further progress of our community is assured when we can count off the names of the various area civic groups including Woodbury Gardens, North West, Cedar Cliff, Glenbrook, Hillside Terrace, Juffy Park, Park Community, Woodbury Manor, Twinlawns, South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners, Centric Civics, and others.

People active in civic associations get closer to how their affairs are being managed. They can detect shortcomings and attempt to do something about it. They serve without thought of personal reward or compensation.

Incorporation of Hicksville has been a goal and objective of the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. since its third meeting, almost ten years ago. Its first members readily recognized the need for local home rule government to effectively solve the problems which have grown in size with the passage of the years.

Our best wishes to the officers and memberships of our civic groups. The Herald will always have a friendly ear to reports of their doings and activities. May it be individually and collectively continue to strive for the welfare of their community, and the preservation of their goals and may their efforts be crowned with success. Their interests are the benefit to all of us.

BOTH SIDES OF ISSUE:

Shall We Incorporate?

In anticipation of a vote within a month by the resident property owners of Hicksville on the question of "Shall Hicksville incorporate?" the following is the second in a series presenting both sides of the question:

AGAINST INCORPORATION:

Part of the mimeographed material distributed by the Committee for Incorporation is a proposed budget for a Village of Hicksville. The total budget is estimated at $430,000.00. The only Nassau County villages having gross budgets as low as $430,000.00 are those with populations less than one-third the size of Hicksville.

Hempstead, comparable in population, has a budget of $2,178,996.00. Allowing a ridiculously high figure of $500,000.00 for police and zoning (services which would not be under an incorporated Hicksville), Hempstead would still have a budget of over one and one-half million dollars, more than a million dollars more than the estimate for Hicksville. This is clear evidence of a very unrealistic approach to the problem of incorporation.

Hempstead has an assessed valuation of $83,918,720.00 to tax and our tax, on a smaller tax base, would be correspondingly larger.

Why does the incorporation Committee say that Hicksville could operate on a budget of $430,000.00? Either because they don't want the people to know how high their taxes will be until it's too late, or because they simply have no idea of the necessary costs of any form of government.

A look at just a few items in the proposed budget will show its inadequacy.

We have felt that a village as large as Hicksville would require a village hall to house the various village departments. We find no provision for a village hall, but there is an item of $2,500.00 for rent. This is approximately $209.00 per month. How can all village activities required for a village the size of Hicksville be quartered in facilities rented for $209.00 per month? Besides the Court and Village Board room, Village Clerk's Office, Treasurer's Office, Building Department and space for general clerical help, does this include rental of garage for highway equipment? The monthly rent of $209.00 is ridiculously low.

Perhaps the answer lies in the small office staff and office expense. To take care of all clerical work of the Village Board, Village Clerk, Village Treasurer, Engineer, Building Inspector, Village Attorney, Special Attorney (Yes! There are two. We don't know why), and Police Court, provision is made for four clerk-typists at a total payroll of $10,000.00. Four clerical employees, averaging $2,500.00 per year, will do all the clerical work.

As further evidence that very little business is expected, the budget provides $500.00 for one year's printing, postage and telephone. For all the departments named above, this figure is supposed to cover, not printing, not postage, not telephone, but all three. It would not begin to suffice for any one of the three.

For postage alone, if we estimate 12,000 tax parcels in Hicksville, a very reasonable assumption, it would cost $300.00 to send out one series of tax bills. Before you divide the remaining $140.00 to cover all other postage, printing AND TELEPHONE, remember that it will cost another $360.00 in postage to mail back tax receipts. On this one item of postage $720.00 would be spent, against an entire appropriation of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS to cover all postage, printing and telephone.

A local newspaper recently published an editorial entitled "Figures: Don't Lie, but Hears Figure." We believe that statement is correct.

There is a total insurance premium figure of $10,000.00. We presume that this includes surety bond premiums, fire insurance premiums, valuable document insurance, theft insurance, all Workmen's Compensation and liability. The budget tells us that it includes Water Department and Fire Department. We suggest that the reader consult someone experienced in the insurance business for comment on this figure and its inadequacy.

There is a sum of $600.00 for a Dog Warden, but no provision for a Dog Pound. Perhaps the Dog Warden is to haul this from his $600.00 per year.

There is a haul-down of $150,000.00 for "public works." We would be interested in seeing the itemized list of the obligations of incorporation recently developed, the fact that our area is paying over $167,000.00 this year for Town highway service. Perhaps the extra twenty thousand dollars is for purchase of all necessary highway equipment (We would start without a broom or a shovel) and to start payment for a heavy equipment garage. Allowing $25,000.00 for these items, the incorporated village with the same expenditures as the town would accomplish much more in improvements than does the town. How? By sheer magic?

We feel that the above considerations on the budget proposed by the Committee for Incorporation, that no real deeds have preceded the decision to propose and strive for the incorporation of Hicksville. The budget demonstrates the most shallow realization of the problems of incorporation, and such an important step should not be taken on the authority and urging of those who themselves don't realize the real results of incorporation.

FOR INCORPORATION:

The favorite point of attack for the handful opposed to the incorporation of Hicksville is cost.

The anti-home rule group has been especially fond of quoting a proposed budget released by the advocates of incorporation. Speakers against incorporation fail to point out, however, that the proposed budget they cite was prepared early in 1952—a year and half ago—upon the basis of a total district valuation of $33 million (compared with $49 million today) and a population of about 20,000 persons compared with upwards of 32,000 today.

To understand what is involved in the creation of a village with locally elected officials, your neighbors with common LOCAL INTEREST as residents and LOCAL TAXPAYERS, it is essential that the thoughtful citizen know something of how things are done under our present remote-control government (for which no budget is published, by the way).

First there is the fiction, so dearly beloved by all officials with the possible exception of the Township Tax Collector, of "no town tax." There is a tax bill issued by the township and to argue "no town tax" is ridiculous. To say "no town tax" is an unwarranted and dishonest play on words. True the revenues received by the township, with diligent dipping into reserves as the need arises, offset the general administrative cost of the township. In that sense there is "no town tax." The same is true in Hempstead Township.

But the township of Oyster Bay DOES tax Hicksville property owners. Take highways, for example. The township highway tax last year was 43 cents per $100. This rate has been climbing steadily in recent years. It was 14 cents in 1945, 17 cents in 1946, 24 cents in 1947, 38 cents in 1950 and 39 cents in 1951. For 1954 it will go higher.

The area of Hicksville school district this year paid in taxes to the township for highway purposes $164,777.73.

The township tax bill also collects those assorted special service district taxes such as 3 cents per $100 for water, 14 cents for street light, 3 cents for parks and parking (7), 30 cents for rubbish collection and disposal, 18 cents for fire protection. With highways, this adds up to $11.70 per $1000. On the basis of our 1952-53 assessment of $38,320,403, the Township Tax Receiver thus collected $448,348.71 in taxes. On the basis of our 1953-54 assessment of $49,203,793 (assuming NO INCREASE in the taxes collected by the township), Hicksville property owners will pay $574,684.18.

The disbursement of these funds (better than a half million dollars) is largely in the hands of the Oyster Bay Town Board, a group of men from all sections of the township, with little direct interest in our local affairs.

Now let us look at what the anti-home rule committee says about a proposed budget for the village of Hicksville. They take a gross budget of $430,000 which they know was roughly drafted for a community of considerably less population and smaller total valuation. They ignore estimated revenues from state aid, building permits, traffic fines, dog license fees, parking meters and other income which Hicksville as a municipality is entitled to but will never get as an unincorporated hamlet of the township.

Figures get involved so let's go back a moment at what has been said:

If there is no change in the present tax rates collected by the township for 1954, Hicksville property owners will pay $571,684.18 for services which obviously can be administered more economically and efficiently by a LOCAL VILLAGE BOARD. The opposition criticizes a proposed 1952 village budget of $130,000. Suppose, for the sake of argument, we increase that proposed budget to meet today's requirements to $700,000.

Subtract from this $700,000 the $138,000 or more in state per capita assistance (which Hicksville DOES NOT NOW GET because it is not incorporated), and the tax levy comes to just what we are now paying. If you go further and subtract from the cost of local government other revenues from building permits, licenses, fines, parking meters, etc., the tax cost goes down more.

The taxes now collected and disbursed by the township, which we are discussing, would be replaced by the village tax after incorporation. In other words, the village tax IS NOT IN ADDITION to the present taxes paid into the township coffers. The village tax replaces a series of up to six separate taxes now collected by Oyster Bay and proponents are convinced, after a careful study of budgets and taxes in villages of Nassau which have home rule thru incorporation, that savings for local property owners must result.

Other points raised in the anti-home rule group's statement on a proposed budget were effectively answered in an editorial in the Herald on July 2, 1953 when it was noted that the comparison with Hempstead is inaccurate, unrealistic and deliberately used to frighten and deceive local people.

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD: Gardens To Whoop It Up Oct 17

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

Want a good excuse to get out and whoop it up? Woodbury Gardens folks are going to have the opportunity of attending a "Fall Dance" on Oct. 17. Jim Surless is the man with all the tickets, and he'll probably get around to seeing all of you before long. If you don't want to take a chance you might miss him, phone us and we'll see to it that tickets are reserved for you. Also working on this are Mal Gertzen and Edna Ney.

Refreshments will be served and music will be played by Bill Corcoran and his Harmony Boys. And what has inspired this "whoop"? Well, the children of Woodbury Gardens had a real, honest to goodness visit from Santa last year right in the streets of our development. He rode through the streets in a convertible just like Eisenhower, and ended up on Crescent St. where all the children in our neighborhood shook hands with him personally. None of them walked away empty handed.

This year, the Woodbury Gardens Civic Association has purchased 400 boxes of candy and has $105.00 on hand to go to this fund. This dance will enable the group to buy all of the necessary presents for this Christmas celebration. It looks as though this will be our local yuletide custom. And you can not go wrong for $1.50 a ticket.

We did it again! We won the last game with Belmont homes 10-0. There will be a few more games, Woodbury Gardeners, before the end of the season.

Charles lives on Pine St. He can be proud of his sister, Joyce, who won second prize at the Hempstead Music Festival. She plays a wonderful clarinet. The contestants were chosen by music teachers of the various schools.

I was invited to the Hadassah Fashion Show at Levittown Hall Sept. 22, and spent a most enjoyable evening. This organization is a conscientious group of women who deserve much credit for their wonderful fashion show they put on. The models were as good as any professionals I've seen. They were Ruth Alper, Selma Schoenberg, Mimi Amster, Randy Rothenberg, Eleanor Margolin, Betty Mogavero, Dorothy Siris, Fayc Neuschatz, Faye Passeri, Isabelle Goldschmidt, Blanche Isner, Carol Hamelman, Ruth Feivelson, Florence Galatz, Jeanette Cohen, Rhoda Bieder, Shirley Fogel, Zeldia Smith, Ben-nice Jaret, Rosa Doret and Lee Schwalle.

Chairman of the Committee was Shirley Fogel, and Saralee Levine. Refreshments: Helen Schnide, Publicity: Adele Schwartz. Posters: Joe Lichtenstein. The music that was played all evening as the mod- (Continued on Page 9)

The Hicksville Methodist Church was organized in 1900 in the Union Chapel, which stood on land donated by John Frederick Heitz one of the early settlers of Hicksville. It was situated on Broadway south of the railroad which was then all farmland. Today 53 years later the congregation of the Hicksville Methodist Church can well be proud of their present church building located on Old Country Road.

ing pulled the largest number of votes for the Democrats in the county election last year. He ran against Ernest F. Frankle of Hicksville for county clerkship. In the township election he will be running against Lewis N. Waters of Syosset, now a town councilman, who was nominated a few days previous by the Republicans to succeed Charles E. Ransom whose term expires Dec. 31 of this year.

Abbott, who is 64 has been a realtor and real estate broker for 30 years. Born in Millville, N.J. in 1889, he was educated in Philadelphia public schools and studied real estate economics at Rutgers University. He is the father of four children and has 11 grandchildren. Two of his sons are associated with him in the building and real estate business. He was president of Merrick Chamber of Commerce for two years. He is an honorary life member of Lions International and of the Camden, New Jersey, Real Estate Board of which he is a past president. He is also a member of Spartan Lodge of Masons, Freeport.

The convention was conducted under new county Democratic organization rules enacted two days prior at the county convention. The weight of each committeeman's vote is determined by the number of votes recorded in his election district. Francis Parks, Sea Cliff zone leader, called attention to the fact that the convention was the last which will be held under the system of nominating which has been traditional in the township. In 1955, he said township party candidates will be elected in the primaries.

Award Contract For So. Oyster Bay

MINEOLA — Public Works Commissioner John C. Guibert has awarded the contract for construction of South Oyster Bay Road, from Northern State Parkway to Jericho Turnpike, north east of Hicksville, to Lanza Asphalt Construction Corp. of Oyster Bay. The successful bid was $267,215.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Pero of 223 Gardiners Ave., Levittown are the parents of a son, Paul Joseph Jr., their first, on Sept. 15 at South Nassau Community Hospital, Oceanside. Mrs. Pero is the former Elaine Murray of Plainville.

Albany Ponders Fee Issue

There are 10 points in the Board's answer: (1) That the contract with Sullivan was entered into on Apr. 29.

TECHNICAL OBJECTION

(3) That the appeal is not timely and should be dismissed "but, since much publicity in the District has already attended the Appeal and since numerous un-

avory innuendoes affecting the integrity of the majority of the members of said Board of Education have arisen therefrom, "the board voluntarily waives this technical objection".

(4) Covers the history of negotiations the annual attorney fees retainer of $1200, a discussion of the work performed by the attorney and events leading up to the signing of the contract Apr. 29.

(5) That the Board's decision was "the culmination of careful thought and deliberation over an extended period of time and was taken with due and consummate regard for the best interests of the district."

(6) That fees paid in other sections of the state and outside the state have no bearing on fees for comparable services rendered in Nassau County.

(7) That the complaint fails to show that "there was available or that there was proffered to the Board the services of any other attorney of comparable standing, who would undertake to perform, at a lesser fee, the services" contemplated, or that the School Board had refused to avail itself of such services.

(8) That the complaint fails to show that the Board violated the law or proceeded without deliberation or "in wanton disregard of the interests of the School district."

(9) That the employment of professional services by the Board of Education is a matter solely to be determined by the board and is not a matter for determination by the Commissioner of Education.

And (10) - There is no law to compel the Commissioner to grant a hearing to review the final action of the School Board in this

EXCESSIVE SZENDY SAYS

The individual answer by Szendy, who declined to sign the answer prepared by Stoll, charges that the fees paid and to be paid Sullivan under the contract of Apr. 29 "are excessive," that Stoll's answer is "an incomplete presentation of the relevant facts," and that "I have been and am opposed to the employment of an attorney, at the taxpayers' expense, to answer a taxpayer's contention that attorneys fees being paid by the Board are excessive when no question of law is involved and when only the amount of such fees in relation to services rendered are questioned."

Szendy also points out "The services rendered by the attorney are occasional and very much part time. For such part time service he will receive an average of $18,450 per year. The most paid for full time services in this (School) District are to the Superintendent (Dr. E. H. LeBaron) and his administrative assistant (Stanton Miller), $12,000 and $8,500 respectively."

He concluded that in his opinion Roman has good grounds "for believing that the fees being paid are excessive."

Roman's further reply to the Board's answer calls attention to Schenectady School District where there are 14,157 students and 24 schools in the district and the attorney fee arrangement is one half of 1 per cent of the bond issue (on $1,454,000 bond issue) "out of which the attorney must pay the bonding attorney."

He also urged the Commissioner appoint a State Commission to study the "whole matter of legal fees in connection with school plant construction".

NLHOA and Incorporation

Hicksville incorporation was discussed at the NLHOA meeting last Tuesday night as promised and, strange to say for an organization which is officially "on record" as being opposed to incorporation, much of the discussion stressed the advantages of home rule. For instance, one member said that in some places near his home the street pavement has been in very bad condition for some time and nothing has been done by Oyster Bay Township to repair it.

"Consent To Incorporation"

In response to a question by a member, former NLHOA president Charles Miller gave what was probably the clearest explanation so far of the wording of the incorporation petition. For many months members of the Home Rule Committee have tried to explain that the words "Consent To Incorporation" were required by law even though the object of the petition is to only obtain a referendum on incorporation. Printed literature of those against home rule implied that the incorporation Committee was misleading the public. However, the former NLHOA president cleared that one up very nicely by informing the members that the particular wording was used for a technical reason of law. He said that the signers in effect were agreeing to incorporation if a majority of the eligible voters decided that way in the referendum. He backed up the incorporation Committee 100 per cent.

Subjective vs. Objective Reasoning

Several times during the meeting President Marvin Sultan mentioned that he, along with many others, arrived at their conclusions opposing incorporation "subjectively". Now, that's quite an admission. Does he mean that he, and others in NLHOA, are letting their feelings about Levittown and everything Levitt prevent them from taking a good look at the facts of home rule? Does he mean that when somebody says "Incorporation will raise your taxes" their "subjective" reactions will prevent them from looking objectively at tax differential between incorporated villages and unincorporated areas?

Does he mean that their overwhelming desire for a joint swimming-pool-hall district blinds them to the fact that it is the overlapping special service districts that contribute so heavily to the high cost of "local" government?

We hope that they will abandon their "subjective" reasoning which may sometime obscure the real facts, and take a good objective, factual look at things.

Friendly Reception

One of the features of the meeting was the friendly reception given to William G. Olitsky, owner of a Levitt house and member of the Home Rule Committee. He was given a free hand in explaining why he believes incorporation is advantageous for Hicksville people. Olitsky has been very active in civic, veteran, and youth affairs during his residence in Hicksville.

He pointed out that it was through his activities that he had become aware of the need of local control by a local government. He cited poorly paved streets and inequitable tax assessments as among the results of not having effective local government.

He said that there is one house in town, belonging to a "leading politician", with a market value more than $20,000 and a tax assessment of $5000 compared with $4800 for his own Levitt house! Home rule, Olitsky told the NLHOA members, can bring about improved assessments so that everybody will pay their fair share of the taxes - no more and no less.

Parking

One of the large department stores in Hempstead (incorporated village) has just sent out advertising circulars featuring a map of downtown Hempstead showing free parking space for over 5000 cars within a few blocks of the store. How many cars can be parked free within a few blocks of Hicksville's business center? Less than 300.

Discuss Bethpage Fire Service

BETHPAGE—At the last meeting of the North Bethpage Fire Assn., representatives of the Fire Dept. were present to answer questions of the group and to explain the functions of the Dept. Present were Chief Ed. Thorne, Deputy Chief Ed. Schaaf, Capt. Gallagher of the Hook and Ladder Co., James Sturtevant, treasurer, and Bob Gillespie, past chief of the Dept.

The major question in the immediate concern of the members of the NBFA is the possibility of stationing a piece of apparatus north of the Railroad tracks to eliminate possible danger if a train holds up the tracks on a fire call. They were answered by Mr. Thorne who said that within two years, serious thought would have to be given to establishing two sub stations—one in the north end of town and one in the south side which is now more congested and incorporates more commercial buildings. The estimated cost of these sub stations is between $20,000 and $25,000.

Concerning the budget for future years, one of the members asked if more publicity could be given the budget prior to voting, and he even suggested a town meeting to discuss it. The firemen stated that printed copies are posted around town and that the local newspaper also carry the notice, but that next year a copy would be nailed right outside the clubhouse door if the members so desired.

The amount allowed by law to be raised without a special vote is $1,000 for every million dollars worth of assessed valuation. Anything over this amount has to be voted on by the people in the fire district as separate propositions.

Mr. Gillespie talked on the matter and stated that in the event of an adjoining Dept. such as Levittown being called in, they would dispatch one truck immediately to the scene and small quantities of water or foam which would then be the necessary equipment to extinguish the fire. We do the same thing should it work in reverse.

Mr. Sturtevant explained how the Fire Dept. on Long Island are co-ordinated with the Civil Defense Program. Fire Marshall George Clough has a plan in operation which would move the nearest Dept. to cover a disaster area while those at a greater distance would move up a small amount of equipment to cover the areas left stripped of their apparatus.

Mr. Thorne also pointed out that anyone really needing an ambulance to go to the hospital may feel free to have their doctor call for it and the victim will be driven to any hospital designated by the doctor. The drivers and men assigned to the Fire Dept. ambulance have been given thorough training and are able to be of great assistance in time of emergency. There have been many, many times when through their efforts lives have been saved and injuries have not been aggravated when emergency cases were lifted and removed to hospitals.

No convalescent patients returning from the hospital may be transported because at a time like that the men are not covered by insurance. No one would like to subject their firemen to a risk such as this because all of them serve tirelessly and never receive one cent for their work, and to risk life or injury without any insurance is just plain foolish.

You know as I read this article it makes me pretty proud of the Bethpage Fire Dept. How about you?

Sgt. Edward Hauschild of Railroad Ave., Bethpage, returned from Korea on Saturday, Sept. 19. He was with the Army Signal Corps and had spent 18 months in Korea before being rotated back to the states. His wife Joan is one of the owners of Addy's Soda Spa, and the last we saw of Sgt. Hauschild, he was eating an "Earthquake."

A basketball game and dance will be given by the P-T A on Nov. 7 in the Broadway School gym. The game will be between the Faculty and the Parents.

Treat Four Members Of PBC

By DOROTHY GUELFIA
Hicksville 4-3577

Four members of the P.T.A. went to the Connie Macie Stadium in Philadelphia last Saturday, at the instigation of Capt. Mayer, supervising director of the Philadelphia P.A.L. The occasion was the Eastern Seaboard Baseball Finals with the New York P.A.L. vs. Philadelphia P.A.L.

The boys making the trip were Ralph Kuggerio, Robert Conroy, Ronald True and Robert Olsen Jr. Accompanying the boys were Patrolman Director Vince Baumar and Robert Olsen Sr. of 52 Norcross Ave. who is baseball director of the Bethpage P.B.C.

SUCCESSFUL MOVIE

The Bethpage Parent-Teacher Assoc. wishes to thank all members of the community for their part in making the showing of the French film, "Passion for Life", a success. Those who were able to attend the performance enjoyed the story and went away with a good idea of the meaning of modern education.

School children from the 4th to the 10th grade worked with their teachers to sell tickets. Arthur Bunce's 6th grade sold 96 tickets and is being awarded a cash prize of $10. Milton Meiskip's 8th grade ran a close second with 83 tickets sold. They will receive a $5 prize.

The program committee which made all the arrangements included: Mrs. Sam Merin, chairman; Mrs. Henry Rockhill, Mrs. John Griffin, Leo Shotland and Rodman Hartjen. The finance committee which supervised the ticket sales included: Mrs. George Kranz, Mrs. Nicholas Bicnook, Mrs. Peter Curcio, Mrs. Charles Buxton, Mr. and Mrs. William Benintendi, Victor I. Miller, and Robert Morace.

MERCHANDISE CLUB

The Finance Committee of the P-T A met in the Broadway cafeteria to make final plans for a Merchandise Club which they are sponsoring. The merchandise will come from the James Bell Co. and the members of the committee are now taking orders. The chairman of the group is Mrs. Jeanette Curcio and her committee members are Marie Campagne, Theresa Banero, Emelia Noce, Rosalie DeMurre, Margaret Steimer, Margaret Vecellini, Marianna Buxton, Grace Moran, Angie Miranda, Gerry Freund, Dorothy Rabas, Dorothy Little, Lillian Fehrenback, Fanny Williams, Mary Nylund, Mary Calderone, Mary Warner, Evelyn Pritchard, and Sade Benintendi.

Anyone who is not contacted in the next few days and who wishes to join may call any of these ladies.

Dr. Earl A. Taylor, remedial reading teacher in Bethpage schools, will give an illustrated lecture at the Bethpage P-T A meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 1 at 8:15 p.m. in the Broadway School Auditorium.

Speaking on the controlled reading program of the schools, Dr. Taylor will give findings from the Pupil Survey Record made in May, 1953, for all Bethpage pupils. He will explain the plan of the new program and demonstrate the Timex and the Controlled Reader to be used in each classroom as well as the Junior Metronoscope used in individual corrective work. Parents may secure specific information during the question and discussion period. Those present will receive copies of newspaper reprints on the program along with pictures actually taken in the Bethpage classrooms.

The group will also have membership enrollment during the evening. All people interested in the community are urged to join the P-T A to help provide the kind of environment in which children and youth can be free to develop into responsible citizens.

Parishioners of St. Martins will be sorry to hear of the transfer of Father Michael F. Keenan who moved to Our Lady of Loretta parish in Hempstead.

In his place Father Richard Hanley, who had been in this parish four years ago, will return.

We are sorry to see Father Keenan go, but it's nice to have an old friend return.

Trojan Frosh Whip Comets

HICKSVILLE — Garden City sent a class Freshman eleven to this school, Friday, and defeated the first year Comets 14-0.

The victors tallied in the first and third periods while the Orange staged its only threat late in the contest when they reached the ten-yard stripe.

Hicksville fans did take heart, however, in the fine ball juggling of Vic Sahadachny and John Roberts. Sahadachny also turned in a creditable game on the defense from his linebacking post. Tackle Ronnie Reynolds and Guard Steve Goldsmith also turned in good defensive work.

MC NAMARA DEBUT EXPLOSIVE:

Laterals Dazzle South Side As Hicksville High Wins 14-6

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

HICKSVILLE—Our High School uncorked a rabbit like offense in the second half, Saturday, to present new coach Bill McNamara with a 14-6 triumph over South Side before 1,000 fans.

The Orange and Black had to overcome a stunning second period reverse that resulted in the losers' score to gain the win and their freshman coach looked on with great pleasure as the Comets dashed 60-yards in both the third and fourth periods to register the winning touchdowns.

An inexhaustible bag of tricks, liberally sprinkled with daring laterals, carried the Comets to a net gain of 212 yards rushing on the ground while Lou Millevolte and Martin Katz threw timely passes from the quarterback slot for an additional gain of 46 yards.

But it was a tough ball game until the second conversion from placement by Joe DeVaul cracked it wide open late in the fourth period.

South Side scored in the second period when guard Steve Miller stormed into the Hicksville backfield, on the Comet 28, and stole the ball out of Richard Evaschuk's arms.

Miller just took off for the goal line and was never touched. A pass for the extra point failed.

PEPE RALLIES COMETS

At this point Joe Pepe, originally scheduled for heavy guard duty, came on as a ball carrier and grittily rallied the Comets with churning, driving smashes at the South Side line.

He got ample support from the small but willing Millevolte and halfback Howard Speedling.

Taking over on its own 40 in the third Hicksville exploded. Speedling took an 18 yard pass from Millevolte and two plays later came around the left side on a fake statue of Liberty pass play for an additional 22-yards.

TRIPLE LATERAL

That had the ball on the visitors 25. Hicksville kept hitting inside all day but Millevolte set sail for what looked like an end run but he lateraled to Ed Scott.

Five yards up field Scott tossed a lateral to Pepe and on the ten Pepe lateraled to the still alive Millevolte who scampered into the endzone.

DeVaul made it 7-6 with a true placement.

South Side fumbled the kickoff after a long return by Don Stoddard and Hicksville was off on another drive that carried over into the final quarter.

Pepe crashed over tackle and after picking up ten yards lateraled to Speedling which was good for another 11 yards via a good block by the original ballcarrier.

Katz passed six yards to Pepe. It was Pepe again for an 8 yard lateral play to Millevolte and he followed up with a 7-yard push over center.

An offside penalty set Hicksville back to the 28 but sharp blocking blew open a big hole in the left side for Evaschuk and he thundered for the clinching TD.

Anchored by center Stan Surchaski the Hicksville line kept the losers outside of the Comet 35 all day and never showed signs of tiring even though it was a warm day.

Bethpage PBC Closes Season

BETHPAGE — The Police Boys Club organization here officially closed the 1953 PBC baseball season with their annual Father vs. Son baseball contest at the Junior High School field recently.

At the conclusion of the contest the Fathers found themselves on the wrong end of a 17-14 score after charley-horses and aches thinned out their ranks. It was reported that an unusual quantity of liniment was sold by Bethpage druggists Sunday evening.

Your Automobile's Cooling System

The modern automobile cooling system is really quite simple. Good engineering has made it so, but it takes good service to keep the cooling system working right. And a thorough understanding of just how it works is helpful when some one of its parts fails to do its job.

The life of the engine is as dependent upon the circulation of the cooling medium as it is upon the circulation of the engine oil. The automobile engine is a "heat engine". Unfortunately less than half of the heat value in the gasoline is converted into power, so over half of the heat created by combustion has to be carried off thru the exhaust system and thru the radiator. Engineers have determined that the radiator of an average car that is travelling 60 miles an hour gives off enough heat to keep a six-room house comfortably warm in zero weather. (To be continued.)
