Say Chemicals Will End Stench Of Garbage Pit

STOSSEY—Answering complaints about the stench of a garbage pit next to the township incinerator plant at Locust Grove which has been blanketing the mid-Island area with a foul-smelling smog, Lewis N. Waters told objectors this week that application of "a chemical compound" is expected to soon make the vicinity "smell like a rose." Waters is a town councilman and deputy supervisor of the township. He is quoted as telling the Southwood Home residents complaining about the stink that "we are doing everything in our power to get fires under control and eliminate odors." Waters said no rubbish had been dumped in the 600-foot long pit which is 26 ft deep "in the past two weeks and they won't be in the future".

Teachers Confer, Kids Vacation

HICKSVILLE—Local school teachers will travel to several Long Island villages on Friday, Oct. 23, to attend the annual Long Island Zone meeting of the New York State Teachers Assoc. There will be no classes for public school pupils.

Forums beginning at 9 A.M. will be conducted in Great Neck, Rockville Centre, Patchogue, Hempstead, Huntington and Bay Shore, and each teacher will attend the forum which suits his particular needs.

The zone meeting is spread out this year as an experiment to overcome problems of traffic, parking, eating and general confusion with the nearly 9,000 Long Island teachers attending.

Democrats Seek Speaking Dates

HICKSVILLE—Democratic candidates for election on Nov. 3 are available for speaking engagements before any interested organization of club, large or small, "regardless of the group's political affiliation" it was announced today by Carlton H. Bentley, chairman of the candidate's activities committee. Arrangements for speakers can be made by calling township Democratic headquarters here at HI 3-5031.

$1,000 A Year More For Town Officials

OYSTER BAY—One thousand dollar a year raises are provided in the 1954 township budget, the second annual increase in pay for town officials, it was learned today. The township budget will be the subject of a public hearing at the Town Hall, here, on Tuesday morning, Oct. 27.

The four township councilmen who last year got a nice pay increase from $2700 a year to $4000 will get paid $5000 after Jan. 1. The tax receiver, town clerk, and highway superintendent who last got raises from $6200 to $7500 are also due for further increases to $8500 a year each. The Township Supervisor, who also gets paid by the county of Nassau, will also go up into the $8500 scale.

The building inspector, who is appointed and not elected, gets a raise from $6000 to $7072. His raise last year was from $5054 to $6000.

STORE BEGAN IN 1891.

Griffin & Rushmore, One Of Oldest Businesses Here, Closes Its Doors

HICKSVILLE—One of the community's oldest businesses, Griffin & Rushmore, will close permanently the end of this month. A public auction will take place at the building on Heitz Place near the Courthouse on Oct. 30 and 31. The store, dealing in farm and garden supplies, feed, seed, coal and other commodities for over 60 years, has been closed already and the building has been sold to McElravy & Hauck Co., wholesale plumbing supply concern.

The towering frame building is one of the oldest business sites in the community. It was erected in 1891, sixty-two years ago, by Robert and James H. Seaman of Jericho as a feed and general farm supply store serving the agricultural trade for miles around.

In connection with this business, a creamery was operated in the same building and managed by Ed Underhill. It was an ideal outlet for the farmers' milk supply in those days. Huge cans of bulk milk were brought there daily. As a result, a supply of real fancy butter was produced.

In 1905, James H. Seaman became sole owner of the feed and farm supply department. Forty-three years ago in 1910, Frank E. Griffin and Byron Rushmore purchased the building and business from James H. Seaman. Several years later this partnership, known as Griffin & Rushmore, expanded the business to include anthracite coal and erected the large coal pockets.

For a quarter century, Mr. Griffin and Mr. Rushmore engaged in the farm supply business and were the growers and shippers of "Be Square" Brand Maine Certified Seed Potatoes. For several years they produced New York State Certified Seed Potatoes also.

Mr. Rushmore died in Feb. 1952. John Christ has been manager of Griffin & Rushmore for 18 1/2 years.

STATE HEARS ORAL ARGUMENTS ON FEES FOR SCHOOL ATTORNEY

ALBANY—Oral arguments are being heard here this afternoon (Tuesday) by the State Commissioner of Education regarding the complaint of a Hicksville taxpayer that the fee arrangement between the Hicksville School Board and Attorney Michael J. Sullivan is "not reasonable."

Attorney Charles H. Stoll was expected to appear at the hearing to represent the School Board and defend its actions. The complaint was brought by Lawrence A. Roman of Notre Dame Ave. with the cooperation of the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. Roman expected to be present at the hearing to detail personally this complaint.

The attorney fee issue came to public attention at a preliminary budget hearing of the school district held in March of this year. While Sullivan is on a $1,200 a year retainer fee with the district, he is also paid a percentage of bond issue (project) costs set at 1 per cent on the first million dollars, 3/4 on the second and 1/2 on the third and additional millions. Roman in his complaint has cited examples of other school districts in Nassau where one-half per cent and less is being paid the school attorneys, charging that the Hicksville arrangement is "not reasonable."

The Herald will have a representative at the hearing today and bring its readers a first hand account of the proceedings in Friday's edition.

GOP To Hear 5 Candidates

PLAINVIEW—Candidates for township election will be among the five guest speakers when the Plainview Republican Club meets tomorrow (Wednesday) night at 8 o'clock in the Firehouse, here. Speakers will include Henry Curran, GOP candidate for town clerk; David Welsh, tax receiver; James Norman, councilman; and Lewis N. Waters, seeking election as supervisor.

New Book By Dr. Gosselink Contains Stories Told Here

HICKSVILLE—The Rev. Marion G. Gosselink, D.D., co-pastor of the Parkway Community Church of Hicksville, has recently published his latest book, "Junior Story Talks." Appealing to children, the 40 talks stress the calendar's red letter days in a slim volume.

Dr. Gosselink has tested these story talks, which deal with Biblical, religious or ethical themes, and found them to help in the spiritual training of children. Each two-page talk brings an anecdote or a Bible parable down to the child's level and hits home with a corresponding modern message in the holiday theme.

Ehrlich was elected to the Board of Education in May, 1953 and took office July 1. He first became interested in school affairs, as a member of the Fork Lane PTA.

Another feature of the evening will be a color film, "starring" the pupils of Old Country Road School. Refreshments will be served immediately following the meeting.

The Notice had also been served personally and by registered mail upon Town Clerk Henry M. Curran, Michael J. Sullivan and David K. Sigerson as attorneys for the objectors and upon 35 objectors who include both Sullivan and Sigerson.

MINEOLA—The Board of Supervisors at its Oct. 14 meeting approved continued occupancy of the old Albertson house at Old Country Rd. and Rensley Rd., here, by the county Civil Defense dept. with a one year lease for $4,696 from Court House Square Inc of 32 Third Ave., owners.

Dear Jean:

Turning out more planes during July and August than the combined output of all other Navy aircraft construction was the Oyster Bay Aircraft Engineer Corp., Bethpage, high commendation from the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics. Output for the two-month period was 18 per cent greater than the total deliveries of all other "airframe suppliers". . . . Invitations are out from the Hicksville Library Board for a reception on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 1, to meet KENNETH BARNES, the new librarian, and Mrs. Barnes. . . .

ERNEST FRANCKE, Republican club president, in a meeting notice to members urging attendance wrote "Remember your Government begins at Home" and then as an afterthought continues "in your own Township". Almost slipped and said home village that time, eh?

The Garden City home of GEORGE HAUSER, director of the Bank of Hicksville and vice president of Liberty Aircraft, was entered by thieves on Sunday who took $1500 worth of furs and jewels. . . . FRED UNSER Sr celebrates his 101st birthday today (Oct. 20).

Picture of FRED FROHNHOEFER of 36 McKinley Ave., Hicksville, appeared in the daily papers this week on the Sahara-like deserted sands of Jones Beach. Fred was there to fish, not swim. . . . The Citizens Advisory Committee on Education holds its regular meeting next Monday evening, Oct. 26, at East St School cafeteria. . . . Curiously provision for establishment of a department of public works for first class townships (such as Oyster Bay) has been a law since 1952. Why then, if such a department is needed in Oyster Bay as GOP committeemen were told a few weeks ago, it is not being put into operation? . . . Biography for JOHN E. BRANDT, candidate for re-election as highway superintendent, would have you believe he can perform financial miracles. The release from the GOP press agent says "this year Brandt's department will begin a $2,000,000 drainage control program. $100,000 will be spent on drainage this year, but the tax rate will remain at last year's figure of 45 cents". How to get two million dollars worth of work for 100 grand? As for the tax rate, a special rate will soon be levied to cover drainages. . . . but of course you understand, there is "no town tax". . . . Personally we like DOC Brandt, and find his opponent has failed to utter a single sound about what he would do if elected. . . .

CENTER CIVIC COMMENTS:

More You Learn, Less You Know

By GEORGE McCARTHY

The longer we are acquainted with Civil Defense, the more we realize that it is just a poor mistreated step-child. When we learned, through our investigations, that the local C.D. units receive no financial aid from the county, we went to the township for information. We could find no one there who could tell us what the per capita allowance per unit was, or where the money comes from. Inasmuch as there is no town tax, where does the money come from? Why is the money allotted received in a plain envelope, without any letter of explanation? Who receives the reports on how this money is handled?

We see that Mr. Ryan has solved the alert signal problem—at least to his satisfaction—the only trouble is, it's too expensive to test. Three thousand dollars worth of fire works is his answer. Oh well, he's been up in the air so long, he now wants the rest of the county that way too. His steadfast refusal to comply with the state director's orders is just an example of the rapid efficiency of Civil Defense. Why the general tolerates such insubordination is something that has us all wondering. He would never have become a general if he permitted such insubordination while he was in the army. Perhaps Mr. Ryan has him watching fireworks too?

Getting back to the local scene, we're worried that the Swami's crystal ball must be short circuited. He first sends a very stern letter to some of us, and playing "big shot", he accepts resignations, but then sends letters to some of these same people, who's resignations he accepted, and asks why they have not been attending meetings. Tch, tch, tch.

Speaking of meetings, don't forget our meeting tonight, at 8:15 p.m. again, it is important that you attend.

Chamber Gets Parking Report

HICKSVILLE—Progress of the Oyster Bay township efforts to obtain additional off-street municipal parking areas for the community was outlined at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Directors at the Miller Ridge Inn, Jericho, this week. The report was made by George Rappaport, special attorney for the town board on the project.

Surveys have been completed by engineers of property owned by Judge Joseph P. Lebkuecher at the southeast corner of W. Marie St. and Jerusalem Ave.; property of Johanna Taliaferro at the northeast corner of W. Marie St. and Jerusalem Ave.; and property of Sam Kellner and Frank Ongania, adjacent to the present parking field in that block, to determine costs of raising buildings establishing parking fields. The appraisals set on the various parcels "pending negotiations for sale of the properties." Also surveyed is the parcel on the east side of the LIRR between Marie and Nicholas Sts.

According to the report made to the Directors "all that remains to be done now is submitting of the engineer's survey and the purchase negotiations."

Federal Aid Survey Underway

By JOE DOWLING

A survey to determine Federal aid eligibility is now under way in the Plainview School District. It was reported this week. Questionnaires have been sent to all parents via the school children in addition to a newsletter from district Principal Robert Tuttle, outlining the objectives of the project.

This survey is similar in many respects to a previously conducted one which later resulted in a Federal grant of $50,000 to the Plainview school system.

Since the Federal aid regulations governing construction and operational aid to schools are geared to assist localities designated by the president as critical areas as a result of defense build-ups or comparable activities it is necessary, from time to time, to conduct these district-wide surveys, the Board of Education pointed out.

This survey in no way guarantees Plainview Federal aid but merely supplies the Board of Education with the information required by Federal educational officials in order to determine the district's eligibility for grants of this nature.

President Eisenhower is expected to designate critical areas in the near future; therefore, Plainview School officials are urging all residents to complete the questionnaire as soon as possible and return it to the Manno Hill School so that no time will be lost in filing the application for a Federal grant.

If the district comes within the framework setup by the Federal government to determine aid eligibility any grant that might possibly be forthcoming would be of great help to Plainview.

Glee Club To Present Musical Comedy Nov 12, 13

HICKSVILLE—The first, live production of a Victor Herbert musical comedy here will be presented by the High School Glee Club on Nov. 12 and 13. "The Fortune Teller," which will be given in the high school auditorium, is a popular comedy with a nostalgic view of the lost world of singing counts, hussars and gypsies.

Jacquelin Dempsey, who appeared last year in the Glee Club's presentation of "Chimes of Normandy," will sing the role of the fortune teller, Muesette. Robert Arthofer will play her gypsy sweetheart, Sandor. Also paired as sweethearts are Helen Mayors as the dancer and Gary Puccio as the dashing hussar.

Directed by Miss Harriet Spink and Raymond Rusch, high school teachers, the choral group has already begun rehearsals for the presentation. The club members hope for a sellout both nights as they plan to buy new robes with the proceeds from the musical comedy.

Advance ticket sales will open Oct. 28. Tickets may be obtained from the high school office and from members of the Glee Club.

We Also Need An Ambulance

By Fred J. Noeth

ESTABLISHMENT of community ambulance service for Hicksville Fire District has been a favorite project of ours for several years. We were struck by two items reported in the community newspapers which come across our desk during the week and their relation to this problem.

The Mineola Civic Alliance, holding its initial meeting, went on record as favoring an ambulance for the village and would like to have the vehicle manned by the Mineola Fire Dept. The significance of this is the fact that Mineola is the location of Nassau Hospital and yet the county seat community residents feel the need for volunteer ambulance facilities.

The second article, which made a number of the Suffolk County newspapers, concerned a program being launched by Suffolk County doctors "to insure faster, more efficient emergency service to victims of accidents."

The statement of the doctors—and there seems to be good reasons to believe this Suffolk policy can be applied to Nassau without dispute—answers most effectively the objections to volunteer ambulance service. This is it:

"The Medical Society feels that it is more important to get the victims to the hospital as soon as possible than to wait for a doctor to make a thorough examination at the scene. The ambulance and rescue crews are usually first to arrive. If they are qualified first aid men, they can do everything a doctor could do immediately."

The statement was made at a conference at Brookhaven Town Hall by Dr. David Wexler, chairman of the Medical Society's emergency service committee. It received complete endorsement of the police, rescue crews and ambulance men who attended.

In the face of those comments we wonder what becomes of the feeble opposition by certain folks that "you can't move a patient until the doctor arrives, it's the state law", or "an ambulance service is of no value unless you have a doctor to ride along."

This further comment was recorded, credited to Dr. Fred Bromberg of Bay Shore, chairman of the traumatic committee of the American College of Surgeons Chapter in Suffolk, who said of the training of first aiders to qualify them to give first aid and move victims as rapidly as possible where no doctor is available. "This is not a new idea. The attendants on ambulances throughout New York City and upstate are similarly trained. The system works—it's been well proven."

Doctors in Suffolk have volunteered to give the rescue and ambulance crews the additional training.

Volunteer ambulances have been provided with tremendous success by both Bethpage and Farmingdale Fire Departments in this area. The need for such service in Hicksville with a population of more than 30,000 can no longer be ignored or lightly dismissed.

Court To Review 'No Vote' Ruling

THE HOME RULE vote petition is far from a "dead issue". The orderly process of taking the decision of Supervisor Ransom, who could not see fit to permit a vote on the question, to the County Court for review as is plainly provided by law, is now underway.

So much of the Village Law on incorporation is devoted to the specific and detailed process of appealing the verdict of the Supervisor that one might almost suspect that such action is not only regular practice at this stage but is welcomed.

Plants Cooperate As Residents Seek Caution On Local Streets

HEADED HOME but some local plant workers don't always make it as these snapshots by Frank Corcoran of 35 Linden Blvd., Hicksville, prove. The man holding his chest was taken to the hospital and a boy was hurt before the car (other picture) crumpled upon impact with a pole. One accident occurred at 1:30 in the afternoon and the other the previous day at 7:30 in the morning on Farm Lane at Broadway and on Linden Blvd. Full cooperation with the formal request for cooperation by Grumman and other plant workers made thru the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. has been pledged in urging caution.

Grumman Plant News, Oct. 8, issue, employees publication, featured as an editorial a letter from Hicksville Civics noting "three has been a decided increase in recent weeks in the use of the residential streets of Hicksville as short cuts to avoid traffic lights on main intersections. There have been far too many near misses for small children residing in these new home areas not to cause grave concern on the part of parents."

The issue also carried a cartoon warning "The child whose life you save—may be yours."

Society Elects Cunningham

The new church off Newbridge Rd. will be dedicated on Nov. 15. A pre-dedication dance will take place in the church auditorium on Friday night, Oct. 30.

Miss Eunhild E. Wessell of the Hicksville High School faculty, will attend the annual conference of Long Island teachers on Oct. 23 in her official position as a member of the International Relations Committee of the Long Island Zone.

Miss Gladys Gilda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glide of 171 Second St., Hicksville has enrolled at Traphagen School of Fashion, New York, where she will major in costume design and illustration as a first year student.

Levitt Learns?

We hear that Levitt & Sons has approached the school problem in the Pennsylvania development differently than they did here. It seems that they have offered to set up a non-profit corporation to build two new schools. The corporation would lease the schools to the local school board at an annual rental not to exceed $50,000 for each school. At the end of 20 years the schools would become the property of the school board.

Can Be A Good Deal

This approach to the school problem by a large developer could work out to the advantage of all concerned. This would be especially so if the schools were made available for use at the time the purchasers move into their new houses. We all know the difficulties experienced here when we first moved in. Instead of schools near our homes, we found school sites. Our children had to attend school several miles away for several years, crowding the youngsters already there. Double sessions were, and still are, to a large extent the order of the day. We heard talk that large developers such as Levitt and Sons, should be required by law to furnish school facilities ready for use when the houses are first occupied. Naturally, the developer could not be expected to pay for such facilities, but an arrangement could certainly be worked out for him to get his money back. We are very glad that the purchasers of Levitt houses in Pennsylvania might do better on school building than we did. And we are glad that Levitt & Sons has offered to take this forward step.

Arbitrary Dealings

In their dealings with the Hicksville school board, we have been told that Levitt & Sons were very arbitrary. They offered to sell sites for the three elementary schools pretty much on a take it or leave it basis. There was no room for discussion concerning the suitability of the sites, from the School Board's viewpoint, as to the location of the site, or of the purchase price. The result is that the Dutch Lane site is much too large and too close to the Old Country Road school the Fork Lane site is too small, and the Old Country Road site is too broken up by irregular boundaries. Also, two of the schools are on busy thoroughfares. We hope that Levitt has learned to be a bit more receptive to the ideas of the Pennsylvania school board when it comes to designing and locating the new schools there. Everything considered, however, it looks like a good deal.

Backfire

It had to happen! The Town Board certainly asked for it. The great unpopularity of its infamous joint swimming pool district decision and the denial of the Hicksville incorporation petition has driven a number of people into political activity. And at least one person on the opposition ticket says that he had become disgusted with the Board and he wanted to do something about it. So now he is running for public office. More power to him and others like him. When a political party becomes so derelict in its duty that it does such things as set up a public referendum at the taxpayers expense, and then ignore the result, or deny the right to vote on incorporation on bald faced pretenses and technicalities, then they have to expect that they will face heavy opposition at the next election.

"He'll Find Out!"

We heard this story from a candidate making his initial plunge into politics. Seems like he asked a fellow resident of Syosset, who happened to be a town official (he didn't want to mention any names), if it was true that the opposition of a Hicksville editor to Town Board decisions had anything to do with his loss of town legal advertising. The answer, said the new politician, was "He'll find out!" The implication was all too obvious and verified what we already knew. So now we have a new politician.

East St. P. A. Members At 398

A membership total of 398 was recorded at the second regular East St. School P. A. meeting on Oct. 8 in the school auditorium.

All classroom mothers who will serve this year were introduced by Mrs. Edwin Faurstein, vice president.

Gorden Bowen, safety chairman, submitted a report on the recent re-survey of traffic conditions at the school. Further investigations into this matter for all Hicksville schools took place during this past week.

The fifth annual bazaar will be in the school auditorium on Nov. 19 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Booths will include candy, toys, white elephant, food, handicraft, and many others.

Oct. 26 is the date of the children's annual Halloween Party, and the P-T A will provide orange drinks for each pupil.

"Families First," a film, was shown by Miss Winifred Barry of Oceanville, who conducted a discussion afterwards.

The group's next regular meeting will be Nov. 12.

Korean Evening Set For Tomorrow

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, Old Country Rd., Hicksville will hold a Korean Evening, tomorrow (Wednesday) night at the church at 8. Rev. Whang-Andrew, a Korean pastor, accompanied by his wife and children, will be guest speaker.

Members of all societies of the church are cordially invited to attend and Rev. Andrew will give the proceeds of the silver collection towards his work in Korea.

The WSCS will have its regular business meeting after the program. A collection of articles will be taken for the Ingathering of the Hicksville Needlework Guild who will have their display on Oct. 27.

BONANZA ART SALE

A bonanza sale of paintings will be sponsored by the Independent Art Society of Hicksville this Friday, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church. The exhibit will include paintings by such artists as Robert Truchler, Olga Hoebel and many others.

The evening's entertainment will feature an old fashioned amateur show sponsored by the church, and refreshments will be included—all for 25 cents admission.

Dr. Herman L. Siegler, podiatrist-chiropractor, of 39 Flamingo Rd., Levittown, has returned recently from Boston, Mass., where he attended a three-day Scientific Convention from Oct. 10 to 12 representing the American College of Foot Orthopedists.

Dr. Siegler's practice extends into the Hicksville area. He is a member of the Posiarty Society of the State of New York, Nassau County Division.

QUARTERLY MEETING

HICKSVILLE—The Exempt Firemen's Assoc. will meet next Monday night at the firehouse, according to J. Gordon Ulmer, president.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a nylon net and lace gown featuring a strapless bodice with a long sleeved lace jacket, and a bouffant ballerina-length skirt. Her elbow-length veil fell from a pearl tiara, and she carried a cascade bouquet of gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Miss Sandra Zibit of Flushing, as the maid of honor, wore an ankle-length gown of pink satin and nylon net with a net stole over a strapless bodice. She wore a pink lace cap and carried pink carnations.

Frederick Cusick was best man for his son.

After a reception at the Cusick home for about 50 guests, the newlyweds left on a short trip to New York City.

Town Officials —By Appointment

You may have seen an article in the Sunday News of Oct. 4th, about our "New Town Officials." It states that on January 1st, 1954 a Republican Councilman (and they named him) would assume his new duties as the Oyster Bay Town Supervisor. It went on to say that another Republican (and they called him by name) would, at the same time, start his two year term as Town Councilman; it further stated that the other Town Officials would not be changed.

This was not a weekly football forecast—this was a news item, purporting to state the facts. The little matter of the people's vote on November 3rd, was not even mentioned. This oversight is an approach to politics accepted by the Republican leaders of Oyster Bay, as an indication of proper respect for their tremendous service to the public.

The people of our Township have surrendered their rights and privileges as First Class Citizens, to an office holding class. The News story merely spotlights a condition as it exists in our Township. The story is true; every "T" is crossed, every "I" is dotted. Of what use is the election of November 3rd? The office holding class, held their meeting, and have chosen our Public Officials for another term. This is Our Home, This is Our Pride!

The American principle, Government of the people, by the people, for the people, has been murdered in our Township. The dead body has been lying around unnoticed for many years. Any citizen who goes to the polls on November 3rd, and votes the straight Republican ticket must do so, realizing that he has just given that poor dead body another good hard kick.

The bosses agreed that "Lou" would be our Supervisor. They tell "Happy" that he will serve as Councilman (whether he likes it or not). Of course, they know that there is the minor irritation of the election, a mere technicality—which won't even cost the candidates time or money. The candidates are instructed to keep their mouths shut in public. The party knows that the Best Impression they can make, is none at all.

The majority have become so accustomed to following the leaders, that they have come to believe that anyone who disagreed with the leaders was downright immoral. Today, however, we have seen things, and read things that are making us think for ourselves. We are beginning to see where the real immorality lies.

You know and I know that the American spirit of Freedom and Independence is not yet quite dead in Oyster Bay Town. We may be slow to anger, but once aroused to our plight, good Americans will fight for their voting privilege.

Whenever, and wherever the American two party system breaks down, the people are bound to suffer. When one party alone is absolute in power, we are asking for irregularities, we are asking for the disregard of the public will and welfare.

The public official, who has been appointed by the office holding Aristocracy—must first be loyal to his "office holding class". When the interest of the public does not coincide with the "class interest" the people suffer.

No man can serve two masters. We have example, piled upon example of our Town officials outright flaunting of the public will—and their cleaving to the party rule. The Park and Parking District Affair, a child could have shown more finesse. The Press Wireless debacle. The Hicksville Incorporation Movement, might have been defeated at the polls, once—but now, never! Today it must be defeated in the cloistered halls of the party.

I may be naive, but I believe with all my heart that if our Town officials were really elected, instead of being appointed, their and then only can we expect that their loyalty to the people might be greater than their devotion to their party bosses.

On November 3rd—Election Day—each of us will have a choice—to aim another hard kick at that near-dead body of American Principles—or to use our rights and privileges as First Class Citizens to restore to the people, The Democratic American Way of Life.

Korea Thanks Local Donors

NEW YORK CITY — A Certificate of Honorary Citizenship of the Republic of Korea was presented here recently at the Korean Consulate to Wilford Jackson of 145 Fourth St., Hicksville, chairman of the Hicksville ARK Committee which collected 10,560 pounds of clothing for Korean relief.

In a message to the people of Hicksville, Ambassador Ben C. Lim said: "I have just returned from Korea and I want you to know that wherever I went the people of my country asked me to convey to the American people heartfelt gratitude for your loving gifts of relief supplies. Nothing has been more uplifting to the afflicted than the knowledge that you have not forgotten their plight."

"The members of your American Relief for Korea Committee and the untold number of volunteers of your community certainly performed an outstanding service in the ARK clothing drive. They did their utmost with great enthusiasm in the cause for the alleviation of human misery."

The Certificate signed by President Syngman Rhee is translated as follows: "In appreciation and recognition of the humane and generous contribution to the relief campaign sponsored by the American Relief for Korea for the millions of Korean war refugees, you are hereby awarded by me an honorary citizenship of the Republic of Korea."

"By offering your precious time and effort you have voluntarily rendered sincere cooperation with the American Relief for Korea during its relief campaign to collect clothes for the Korean people, and this has alleviated the tremendous hardships confronting the many innocent victims of the ruthless aggression in Korea. Your generous contribution and deep sympathy offered for the safe-

Legion Jottings

America's Legion, Bethpage

By TOM OLIVERI
Hicksville 4-3020

Many members of the Post and Auxiliary will display their talents in Bethpage's Scenic Free Show sponsored by the North Bethpage Civic Assoc. Stewart and Cherry Aves., on Oct. 24. Hours and hours of entertainment are yours for an admittance equivalent to the cost of a few packs of cigarettes. This promises to be one of the best shows in town and not worth missing.

An oddity of the Columbus Day Dance was the winning of both the door and special prizes by Richard Peppe, 210 Fernside Ave., Bethpage. Who said lightning never strikes in the same place twice, the dance, considered successful in all respects was headed by Carl Bertram.

Speaking of dances, Val Mihic heads the committee planning the Halloween Masquerade Benefit Dance scheduled for Oct. 31st.

Normally, the Legion Clubhouse would be used but due to the tremendous response accorded to date, it was thought best that the activities take place in the Bethpage Firehouse. The committee feels that by switching locations everyone could be accommodated. This is a cause worthy of your consideration, where your attendance will go a long way in helping others. Let's all get behind Val and push this benefit over the top.

Best wishes to Tom Dryszmalaki on the opening of his South Shore Poultry Market on Merrick Rd., Massapequa. Good luck Tom. We'll be over for some of your Bar-B-Q specialties. . . . Bob's Electronics, soon to open on Broadway, Bethpage, will be operated by none other than our own Commander Robert Parcell. . . . Birthday greetings to Mike Kaliayak. Best wishes to Bruce Easley for a speedy recovery in Roslyn Hospital. Phil Mihic back on job after recuperating from recent surgery. Remaining with the Mihic's for a moment, Val tells us that after trying to grow grass for three years he finally discovered a manufacturer specializing in concrete grass blocks. What next, Val?

Faces we would like to see at meetings: Anthony Russo, Al Peterson, Charlie Danna, Al Simmonds, and many others. Let's all try and make Oct. 22 meeting.

Bethpage GOP Rally Oct 26

BETHPAGE—The growing community of Bethpage deserves representation on the Town Board, members of the Republican Club were told at their meeting on October 19, by Anthony Misono, member of the State Compensation Board. He said the Republicans are "lucky to have Happy Norman as their candidate for councilman".

Misono said he is confident "that Happy Norman will win the election" but the question is by what margin of votes he will win. The party, he added, needs the support of everyone in the district to work and bring their enthusiasms to others in the district.

PLANNING RALLY
The club is planning a gigantic rally on Monday, Oct. 26. Chairman of this committee is Louis Agiasta who will be assisted by Charles Campagne and Ed Fehrenback. Paul Danna will be in charge of the motorcade while Al Marcus will have the chance books. Dick Guido will head the publicity committee with the help of Tom Dundon, Fred Berk, Rose Maggie and Tex Surprice.

Anyone wishing to be in the motorcade may assemble in the parking lot adjacent to the clubhouse Oct. 26 at 6:30. Any vintage car from 1900 will be welcome. Further information may be obtained from Danna.

Club President Fehrenback appointed a nominating committee—Chairman Danna, with Helen Roodie and Jack Gifford. The slate voting will be in December.

NASSAU CHAIRMAN
MINEOLA—Edwin R. Lynde of Massapequa, Deputy County Attorney, is Nassau Chairman for the United Defense Fund—USO, it was announced this week.

Airport Manager At Kiwanis

JERICHO—George McSherry, manager of the Port of Authority's New York International Airport, will speak at the Hicksville Kiwanis Club meeting at the Miller Ridge Inn, here, tomorrow (Wednesday) at noon. He will discuss present operating features of the International Airport and the future of commercial aviation.

McSherry, who lives at 2 Merillon Ave., Garden City, came to the Port Authority in 1947 as assistant manager at LaGuardia Airport and the following year went to the International Airport as manager. He was closely associated with Orville Wright, one of the famed brothers who invented the airplane. He is a native of Ohio.

Garden City Overcomes Comets In Tight Battle

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

HICKSVILLE—The Orange and Black lost the epic struggle of its 1953 campaign, here Saturday, as Garden City High proved its superiority in height, weight and numbers before 1,600 fans in a taut 13-8 victory.

The loss removed the plucky Comets from the ranks of the undefeated, but only after a grueling battle which wasn't over until the final gun.

When that shot came to end the Hicksville hopes, sparkling Joe Pepe was picking his way up the right sideline for 48 yards and needed just one block to bring the Orange the win.

It would have been storybook beyond belief for in this stand against the powerful visitors it was Pepe who stood out both offensively and defensively for Hicksville.

After a bad pass from center rolled into the Trojan end zone for an automatic safety early in the period Pepe took off on a dazzling 69-yard touchdown which was too full of twists, stops, sidesteps and turns to describe.

With that belt, the score moved to 8-0 Hicksville and when Pepe trotted off the field he got the biggest ovation an individual player has received at Hicksville High in over a decade.

But the visitors had the guns with which to come back. Five plays after the kickoff a running play by the name of Mike Bill cracked the left side for 17 yards and went dashing into the Comet end zone.

Al Williams converted and it was 8-7. Just before the half the Trojans pounded the Hicksville line until a 50-yard drive reached the Comet 3. The move was repulsed there but the fourth down smash cost Hicksville the services of John Marterilo. It was a decidedly draining blow for the Orange.

Pepe and Ed Scott tried to shake loose for Hicksville after that but couldn't get free despite some classy shifting.

Garden City's winning play was a 34-yard pass and lateral play that put them on the 8. Don Pratt then passed on third down to 6 foot 5 inch Bill Farburgson who took it over the middle and stepped into paydirt.

The conversion was blocked. It was a hard mid-field battle until the final four minutes. Garden City raced to the Hicksville 1 but four plays later the Comets had possession on their own 11.

Pepe went 14 yards on a double reverse. Joe De Vaul skipped nine around left end. On the final play the tireless Pepe went to the Trojan 31 on a run similar to his scoring dash.

A last desperate lunge from the side forced him out of bounds.

EDWARD F. MUSSLER, JR. of New Bern, N.C., formerly of 6 Field Ave., Hicksville, returned to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., as a member of the junior class. He was one of a small group chosen for advanced Air Force training in the R.O.T.C.

PLENTY OF FIREWORKS:

Field Club And Jones Boys Boil In 13-13 Deadlock

HICKSVILLE—A host of nasty dispositions spilled over this field in the second half, Sunday, and when the dust finally settled down, the Field Club and the Floral Park Jones Boys had a costly 13-13 tie in the Nassau Conference standings.

The tie cost each club one point in the league standings with each club pulling tactless errors that cost them a victory.

For three periods Hicksville was steady on the defense yielding only one touchdown in six goal line stands inside the 15 but the Jones Boys prodded the Black and White with frantic play and Don Sabatella's charges responded with an unexpected wide open offense.

It was a young quarterback by the name of Bill Wright who guided 63 and 49-yard scoring drives for the Field Club. He passed for seven completions although he got a lot of help from Lou Koji and Bill Barnes with startling catches. But his running of the T pitch-out or keep play completely upset the visitors' defense.

Interference on Tom Hennerty in the end zone put the ball on the one and Don Gatz barged over for the score.

The extra point attempt was blocked and it was 6-6.

Six minutes later Hicksville was in front. Wright passed to the left flat to Barnes. Barnes in turn threw a long cross field aerial to Don Gatz on the five and it was a 13-8 lead. With five minutes left in the game a pass and a lateral covered 48 yards for Floral Park and gained the tie.

The crowd of some 800 was treated to extra fireworks after the game when one Jones Boy attacked an official and it was a full 15 minutes before the danger of a general riot was dismissed.
