2 High School Pupils Told They Must Leave

HICKSVILLE—Two high school students have been told they must leave the local system because, after a year and half of attendance, it has been discovered that they do not live in the district. Originally five were so notified but a "recess" reduced the number to two. Seventeen lower grade pupils must also start attending Locust Grove sessions as of today (Friday). Parents of Crown St. area, in the northeast corner of the district, Wednesday night organized a committee to protest the abrupt dismissals and plan to appeal to the school authorities. Nearest high school where the two will be accepted is said to be Glen Cove.

Fancy Sock Dance Tomorrow

HICKSVILLE—A Fancy Sock Dance will be sponsored by the Senior High P.T.A. group in the school gym tomorrow evening (Saturday Nov. 7) at 8 o'clock. The fanciest socks worn will earn the wearers prizes.

No dungarees are allowed at this affair. Girls are to wear skirts and blouses and boys, slacks and shirts.

The evening's chairmen will be: Mrs. John Fallon, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, Mrs. William Orton, Edward Kist, and Mrs. William Schaub.

Ladies to Award Turkeys

HICKSVILLE—Two turkeys will be given away on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at the fall card party to be held by the Charles Wagner Post 421 Auxiliary in the clubhouse, East Nicholas St. here. It has been decided to hold three card parties a year instead of monthly as in the past.

Tickets for the event as well as turkey cards may be obtained by contacting any member of the auxiliary or by calling Harriet Mangle at HI 3-7852.

Sub-Committee Makes Survey

HICKSVILLE—Questionnaires on salaries have been sent to 82 Nassau School Districts by a subcommittee on salary schedules. It was revealed at the Citizens Advisory Committee on Education meeting at East St. School, Monday, Oct. 28. Jack Drutman is chairman of the sub-committee which has held two meetings during the month. Another sub-committee on Facts and Figures will meet Nov. 9 at the home of Allen Carpenter, chairman.

DEMOCRATS CUT INTO GOP PLURALITIES IN TOWNSHIP

Democratic candidates, for the first time in almost 25 years, won "election" in Hicksville for positions of Town Supervisor, Town Councilman and Tax Receiver, Tuesday, in a sharp rebuke to the incumbent administration. All Republican candidates in the Township were elected, however, although their traditional GOP pluralities were reduced. While the GOP lost ground throughout Nassau County, the sharpest cut came in Oyster Bay Township.

A protest vote by the people of Hicksville over the refusal on Oct. 5 of Supervisor Ransom to permit a local referendum on incorporation combined with the rejuvenated activity of the Democrats in the township combined to wipe-out the traditional 3 to 1 GOP ratio in Hicksville balloting.

In the Township, Lewis N. Waters of Syosset was elected Supervisor to succeed Ransom on Jan 1 with 15,390 ballots (Ransom got 15,848 in 1951). Thomas P. Abbott of Massapequa, Democratic candidate got 11,479 ballots on Tuesday (compared with 5,644 for Democrat Richard Mayes in 1951).

Allen S. Carpenter of Hicksville, candidate for Councilman on the Democratic ticket, carried the voting in 15 Hicksville election districts with a margin of 500 over incumbent Dudley McCabe. Carpenter got 11,938 votes to 13,125 for McCabe in the Township's 76 election districts to lead his party on the town ticket.

Carpenter, who campaigned on the "right to vote" and the reestablishment of a two-party system, carried 11 out of 15 Hicksville election districts. Abbott carried 8 out of 15. Theodore Swienicki of Syosset, Democratic candidate for Town Tax Receiver, also carried Hicksville over David Welsh of Farmingdale, incumbent.

Party Leaders Comment

Post election comment found the Republican leadership "disappointed" with the loss of more than half of the election districts in Hicksville and the Democrats jubilant for the first time in over 20 years.

Thomas Abbott of Massapequa, candidate for Supervisor and chairman of the Town Democratic Committee, said "There is no doubt but what there's been a new birth of an entirely rejuvenated Democratic party. The victory in many districts has convinced me that the

MUSIC LOVERS ATTENTION:

Concert Drive Ends Tomorrow

By ELIZABETH BAKER
HICKSVILLE—Reports that season tickets for Community Concerts were selling "better than ever" were prevalent today (Friday) as the week's membership drew to a close. The campaign closes tomorrow (Saturday).

The week's activities began Monday night when a campaign dinner was held in the Methodist Church, Old Country Rd. with arrangements made by Mrs. Sidney Volk.

Following the turkey dinner served on tables aglow with candlelight, Mrs. Leroy Wells, president of the association, welcomed the members and guests. She introduced those seated at the head table, who have already worked many hours for the success of the concert presented each year as a community service with no profit-no loss theme.

They included: Mrs. Robert Gillespie, who attended 19 concerts last season by being present at other musical events in surrounding towns; Mrs. Sidney Volk, Harold Fuller, Mrs. Eugene Kreider, Dr. Harry Lambert, who attended 18 concerts during the past season; Miss Edith Kerbs, Melvin Berger, who is connected with the Nassau School of Music; Mrs. Earl Davenport, Stephen Timosuk, Mrs. Carlton Bentley, publicity chairman; Miss Harriet Spink, campaign manager, and Mrs. Georgia MacDonald, representative from Community Concerts of Carnegie Music Hall, New York.

The first speaker, Miss Spink spoke of the air of optimism which pervaded the workers this year and expressed the hope that it would be kept going for the next five days, since enthusiasm is what brings success to any enterprise. She reminded the workers that the Susan Joy Shop (tel. HI 3-1380) was headquarters for the drive. Tonight (Friday) the shop will be open until 9 o'clock with the workers staying on until that time. The campaign will close Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when no more names may be taken.

Saturday evening the board meeting will be held in the Alibi restaurant.

This year the event took place Oct. 27 in American Legion Hall. They are (left to right) Mrs. Edward Harvey, vice president; Mrs. Jessie Ulmer, president; Mrs. Henry Brengel, treasurer; Mrs. Eugene Staehle, past president; and Mrs. Arthur Nemninger, secretary.

The guild has 27 directors with each finding 12 women to give two articles of clothing each year for needy families, and for various organizations which have needs that may be filled by sewing. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Theodore G. Roseberry. Tea was served from a table made exceptionally attractive by a centerpiece of fall flowers from the garden of Mrs. Sidney Volk. Glee Club Stars Won Honors

HICKSVILLE—The High School Glee Club's presentation next week of Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller" will feature both singers who have studied with the glee club for years and those who have starred in its past productions.

Jacquelin Dempsey, who will sing the lead role of Musette at the high school auditorium on Nov. 12 and 13, has sung lead roles in the glee club's presentation of "The Mikado" and "The Chimes of Normandy". Last year Jackie earned an A Rating in the All State Solo Competition.

Helen Mayors and Gary Pucio, who play opposite each other as the dancer and captain of the husars, both have worked with the glee club for years. Gary sang in the All State Chorus which performed here on Long Island last year.

BAND MEMBER

Robert Arthofer, Musette's gypsy sweetheart, is not only interested in singing but has been a member of the High Band in both junior and senior high. In the East St. School, Bob was President of the Student Co-operative Assoc. In All State Competition Bob has won medals playing the piano and playing the trumpet.

Josephine Trocola, Madame Pompon of the opera, hopes to try for professional roles in light opera work. Eric Weller, the count, is a member of the Methodist Church Choir here.

Roger Gatke missed glee club work last year because of an attack of polio. This year he is president of the club and is playing the role of the leader of the ballet.

The mother and father of the fortune telling Musette are played by Nina Simonsen and John Wycoff. John is the son of Dr. Joseph Wycoff. Nina, a senior this year, has been a leading alto with the glee club for four years and member of the prize winning junior choir of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church.

Plainview Girl Scouts At Rites

Scout Leaders Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Beck have completed their business for the year and will take part in the investiture ceremony in the Wantagh School, Nov. 3. It has been decided that the Scouts will purchase uniforms for the leaders who have been with the Scouts for two seasons. Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Seeburg, Mrs. Kirchner, Mrs. Beck, Miss Ryan and Mrs. Turner will be recipients.

COOKIE SALE SUCCESSFUL

The Cookie Sale is over and we are happy to report a sale amounting to $1,060.00. Our thanks to the many who bought them and to the Scouts who sold them. The money realized together with the Finance Drive will cover all our expenses through the year. The leader will distribute ice cream to the scouts as a "thank you" from the Town Committee.

Anyone wishing to dispose of a Brownie uniform may do so by calling Mrs. Trask at HI 4-1862. She will act as intermediary and pass the uniform on to someone who needs it. The uniform includes a hat and dress.

PLAIN-YUES:

Farewell Dinner for Riley

By RAE CANTILLI

The holiday season now is in full swing. Halloween kind of being the gate opener ushering in Thanksgiving and Christmas. It was kind of fun to see the kids dressed up in all kinds of costumes walking around the streets. The only thing was that the door bell just kept ringing constantly from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. and when it got to be about 6, I was pulling my hair out. Ah well! On with the news.

FAREWELL DINNER

A farewell dinner was held at Milleridge Inn, Jericho Tpke., on Oct. 27 for Mr. and Mrs. Norman Riley who moved away from the community last week. Mr. Riley, who was president of the Civic Assoc., was honored by those who worked with him in some capacity or another in Plainview.

A beautiful piece of luggage was presented to him, and a plaque with a gold baseball figure in the center was presented to him from the Police Boys Club. Mr. Riley was instrumental in the establishment of the local PBC. Speakers of the evening included: Leonard Benson, Ed Callahan, Wayne Raaberg, John Dowling, John Edwards and Bob Tuttle.

Taking part in the celebration were Pete MacIntosh, Jack Ginsberg, Leonard Benson, Mrs. Rae Cantilli, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Camerano, Joe Segall, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowling, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Branca, Mr. and Mrs. Len Hammer, Luke Farley, Mr. and Mrs. Val Himberger, Paul Lauterbach, Jim Rooney, Bob Tuttle, Lee Baker, Mrs. Ed Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pursley, Robert Wagner, Herman Givartier, Mrs. Wayne Raaberg, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reynolds, Sol Newborn, Sam Ackerman, Don Ramsey, Bob MacDonald, Tom Walsh, Gerry White, and of course, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Riley.

All of us wish the Rileys God Speed, and hope from time to time that they will return and pay us a visit. Mr. Riley is certainly a great loss to the community.

COMMUNITY CONCERT DRIVE

The Community Concert Drive

that takes place around these parts ends Nov. 7. For lovers of good music, this will be of great interest to them. Membership is $6 and this includes, I believe, around 25 concerts. Anyone interested, do give a call to Emil Simonsen, Cherry Dr., Model Farms, HI 4-8302, and additional information can be given.

PRISCILLA GUILD

A regular meeting of the Priscilla Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Lutheran, will be held today (Friday) at the chapel on Central Park Rd. Election of officers will take place. So if you're a member or would like to be a member, do come out. Coffee and cake is served after the meeting, and everyone really enjoys themselves. A trip to see the film "Martin Luther" in New York is scheduled for Saturday evening, Nov. 7th.

GET WELL QUICK DEPT.

Do hope that Ruth Gessner of Island St. is doing well. Mrs. Gessner is in the Nassau Hospital. Anyone wishing to cheer her up, do send a card.

I do hope that Mrs. Leonard Benson of Sunrise St. is feeling much better now that she is home from the hospital. By the way, if anyone has a few hours to spare each day, Mrs. Benson would use a little help around the house until she feels tip-top again. If you could help out, call HI 3-2727.

Just a word of cheer to my sister-in-law, Ann Cantilli, who is hospitalized in New York University Hospital. Do get better and come on home.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Yours truly and friend husband attended a Halloween Party in Baldwin given by Bill and Joan Bowden. Those present were Al and Gloria Shkursay from Baldwin, Bell and Roy Lund, Massapequa Park, Johnny and Audrey Branson, Mineola, Bill and Pat Wright, and Dot and Bob Johnson, Bethpage, Al Wallaces, Baldwin, Jim and Geri Galanagh, Island St., Fred and Rita Tressie, Yernon St., Plainview, and Miss Kay Dingfield from Rockville Centre.

By the way, yours truly is feeling very sorry for herself. She tripped over a curb and banged up her knee. So if you see a character limping around, it's she. So send contributions. See you next week.

PLAINVIEW VAMP REPORT

Firemen to Make Call Upon You

Nov. 21 is the date set for the Fire Company's annual Fall Dance in the fire station. Announcements of the event have been sent out in the mail. The only charge will be for refreshments.

The Firemen will visit Plainview homes within the next two weeks to accept your contributions. Contribution receipts were attached to the cards sent through the mail. The men will cover a different section each Sunday. Nov. 8 at 5:30 P.M. they will cover Morton Village, Model Farms and Old Bethpage plus most of the homes in the east sections of Plainview.

Donors are asked to place their contributions in a sealed envelope and to turn in the receipts for the award. Last year's fund drive placed the company in a position where it was able to turn over $1,000 to the Board of Directors of the Fire Co., which contracts the budget for fire taxes. Therefore the additional monies, added by the work of the firemen helps to reduce the taxes of all of us. New-comers to Plainview are reminded that this is a good time to visit the firemen and see the company quarters. Firemen will wear their badges at the time of the fund drive as a means of identification.

DANCE A SUCCESS
The Racing Team dance proved a great success. Thanks are extended by members to all those who patronized the affair. Another dance will be held Nov. 21 at 9 o'clock in the evening.

ARMED FORCES PACKAGES TO BE SENT SOON
The Comfort Committee wishes to remind residents that the packages for servicemen will be sent out again soon. Suggestions for names to be added to the mailing list are welcome. It is hoped that everyone of our people serving in the armed forces will receive a package for Christmas.

Men in Service Say Thanks

PLAINVIEW—Donald Reynolds, George E. Larsen and J. P. Fadens have written to Mrs. Frank Graham from somewhere in Korea from Key West and from Yokohama, Japan, to thank the Plainview Comfort Committee for their copies of the Mid Island Herald and the packages they have received from the committee.

Donald Reynolds writes from Korea that he really appreciates receiving the package. He states that being over there is not the "nicest thing that could happen to a 'fella' but it really isn't too bad, especially now that the Bruce has been signed. I've been here 9 months now and expect to be leaving soon." He also states that he plans to start college after he is discharged.

From Yokohama, George Larsen writes: "Thanks a million for the last package which I received in the best of condition. I sure appreciate this and the other packages I received before. I am on my last leg in this army as I expect to get my orders in about ten more days, so pretty soon I should be in Plainview again."

J. P. Fadens, who is stationed in Key West, Florida, writes of his appreciation of the kindness and thoughtfulness of the committee members. "The package," he states, "arrived in fine shape and was sure enjoyed by yours truly and the crew."

Now Maybe They'll Listen

By Fred J. Noeth

THE STRONG VOTE registered in Hicksville's 15 election districts on Tuesday for the Democratic candidates was a protest in the form which even the most insensitive political leaders must recognize.

Election districts which "normally" give three-to-one majorities to Republican candidates switched over, and there appears to be two basic reasons: (1) the protest against the rejection of Hicksville's plea for the right to vote on incorporation, and (2) the vigor of the Democratic campaign this year, particularly in this area:

Whether there is a marked trend toward the Democratic ranks will be more clearly shown when the tally of the voter enrollment is made some time in the future. It is our opinion, however, that many Hicksville voters retained their Republican enrollment while they selected those other candidates with sharp discrimination.

The results of the voting in Hicksville sharply points up the undemocratic system of electing officials on a township basis. There are 15 districts in Hicksville and 70 in the Township. While Allen Carpenter, for example, was clearly the choice of Hicksville for election to the Town Board as a Councilman, he was not elected in the town-wide balloting. In other areas of the township, which stretches from the Atlantic Ocean to the Long Island Sound, the "faithful" pulled down all of row A without thought or knowledge of the individual candidates for each position.

As a matter of fact, the Organization wants it that way. Candidates do not make individual statements, they dodge public appearance invitations prior to election day and carry on a campaign of getting the party symbol and not the MEN elected.

And here's an interesting example of how this works: In the City of Glen Cove on Tuesday there were a little over 5,000 votes cast to elect the Mayor, City Council, Judge, etc. In Hicksville on the same day, almost 8,000 voters went to the polls but had no voice in the selection of their government.

Glen Cove's Mayor Joseph A. Stanco also becomes a member of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors, the governing body of the County of Nassau. Hicksville, on the other hand, has to depend upon the rest of the township (an area of 166 square miles) to get the kind of representation it wants on that same County Board of Supervisors.

Incorporation of Hicksville as a Village will not, of course, give it a representative on the Board of Supervisors. But local home rule government will provide it with its own Mayor and a governing body concerned primarily with the problems and difficulties of Hicksville and responsible to the voters of Hicksville.

The vote on Tuesday has given the incumbent township administration cause to wonder if Hicksville has been given the attention which it needs and demands. We can be sure that strenuous efforts will be made in the period prior to the next election to win back some of the support and confidence of the Hicksville voters.

No matter how you look at it, Hicksville as a community came out the victor at the polls on Tuesday.

Comments

Overall victory in the Town of Oyster Bay is just around the corner.

Howard T. Hogan of Farmingdale, chairman of the town, Republican Committee, commented that "Naturally the loss of some districts in Hicksville is disappointing, but I am confident that another year will show Hicksville back on the Republican side of the ledger for all Republican candidates."

"The victory in our Town of Oyster Bay and throughout the county is a well-deserved vote of confidence in an efficient and honest Republican administration."

Allen Carpenter, Hicksville candidate for Councilman, who won in his home community with a margin of about 500, said "There are now truly two parties in the Town of Oyster Bay. The people will benefit only as they support the two-party system. The Democrats of this Township stand ready and able to support good government in this town, county and in the nation."

The Legionnaire

A little over two years ago the membership spread out in force for our Kings Park visit and included in that gathering were a couple new to the Charles Wagner Post. So now we believe that although the man had effected his transfer after 25 years in the Flatlands Post, his wife had still not changed her Auxiliary affiliation. But there was work to be done by their "new" post and these two very fine people were there to do the job.

It was this little incident that stood out in our mind last Friday night as 14 Legionnaires and Auxiliaries travelled to Brooklyn to pay the last respects of the Charles Wagner Post to Roy Willcott. It's difficult somehow to "write" about a departed comrade. We've lost many Legionnaires, we'll lose many more. But we'll lose few with the Legion spirit of Roy Willcott. We are going to miss him.

May God watch over him!

According to John Nees the chocolate bar order for Kings Park has been placed. . . Gifts for the Yanks containers, now springing up all over town, are the work of Bob Beard, Ed Becker, Bill Arvidson and Al Barlow. . . Those who went to Brooklyn Friday night were—Legion-Commander Walter Barnett, Bob Beard, Jack Rondeau, Guy Smith, Henry Brangel, Fred Brangel, Ed Becker, Jim MacLaughlin and your columnist; Auxiliary-President Harriet Mangels, Lily Dacan, Anna Brangel and Rose Becker. Accompanying the group were Bert

As anticipated, the Halloween party was a national success. Undoubtedly the greatest single factor contributing to that success was the preponderance of costumed participants. Nearly everyone joined the fun and the judges had a miserable time deciding on the prizewinners as they reviewed the midnight grand march.

Muriel and Bill Arvidson evidently frightened the "birds" on the judging committee and took down the top award as a very fine pair of scarecrows. Racing into second place by a nose were Jane and Hank Jochum as one of Seabiscuit's cousins (you guessed it. That's the part of the horse Hank played!).

Ernie Gundlach made quite a plea last Monday night for support of the auxiliary's newest fund raising program and we go along 100 per cent.

The ladies will have on display at their meeting tonight various grades of reasonably priced nylon hosiery, skirts, blouses, childrens clothing etc. which can be purchased then or in the future. Sylvia Gundlach is in charge of the sales. Information can be obtained from her by calling HI 3-6722. There will also be a toy demonstration at tonight's meeting so with Christmas getting closer it might be wise to drop in.

Last week's column was cut rather short because of the vital election items but most of the material eliminated was just as well out. You didn't miss a thing.

Til next week—

ers in Hicksville cast their ballots, a far better record than the rest of the county for an off-year election, with a total of 7,332 voting for supervisor compared with an enrollment of 18,900. Two years ago in the last "off year" when a supervisor was elected, there were 4,725 votes cast in Hicksville. In last year's presidential election, 2,487 voted.

There was wide-spread ticket splitting by the voters of Hicksville and the other mid-island communities. The vote tallies coincided with the position taken by the Herald in editorially supporting candidates on both sides of the ticket. Some voters were observed taking copies of the Herald with them into the polling booths.

Lawrence A. Roman, chairman of the Home Rule Committee which has been seeking a public vote on the question of incorporation, said yesterday that the vote in Hicksville clearly indicates the protests of the people of Hicksville.

"People will not forget this denial, next year, nor the year after, but it will stay in their minds and hearts until a vote on incorporation as a village is permitted."

"We expect to receive this right in an appeal in the County Court, set for argument on Nov. 17," he continued. "Most surely the court will not base its decision in technicalities which under the law are unsupportable."

The balloting in Hicksville was viewed by many as a rebuke to Ernest F. Franke, Republican leader who had openly fought against the proposal that a vote be permitted on incorporation.

Township election totals were: Supervisor — Waters (R) 18,390; Abbott (D) 11,479; County Judge — Lent (R) 16,983, Sullivan (D) 12,485.

Councilman — McCabe (R) 13,125; Carpenter (D) 11,938; Councilman — Normann (R) 18,061; Dempsey (D) 11,346; Highway Superintendent — Brandt (R) 18,568; Nonves (D) 11,178; Tax Receiver — Welsh (R) 18,333; Swiencki (D) 11,231; Town Clerk — Curran (R) 18,625; Carroll (D) 11,165.

Fire Damages New Buicks

HICKSVILLE — Several 1952 cars from the Eisenmann Motors store on Carl St. were damaged by a fire Tuesday at 3:51 P.M., when the volunteer firemen were called. Burning grass apparently started all the trouble. Paint on the new cars was scorched, there was tire damage and some ignition damage.

Firemen were also called out to three grass fires Monday, at Miller Rd. and Jerome St., at Midland Ave. and to Elmira St. and Cortland Ave.

On Election Day a sleet was received for a grass fire on Kuhl Ave., a sleet for another on Kramer St., and Wednesday morning at 7:43 firemen went out to put out a grass fire at Newbridge Rd., and Albany St.

Budget Reporting

Simple and understandable reports on the spending of our tax money should be a major concern of any government whether it be village, city, township, county, state, or Federal. Giant size corporations have shown that it is practical to explain in understandable terms the spending of tremendous amounts of money. Their financial reports are often extremely well done.

Better Budget Reports On Way?

More than 300 legislators and legislative advisors from 42 different states recently met in New Orleans. They agreed that better reports on how and why tax money is spent must be prepared to meet the growing demand for simple, understandable explanations. The corporations can do it, why not governments? However, we shouldn't be too hopeful. Corporations in general have been much more solicitous of their stockholders than some governments have been of their taxpayers.

How About The Oyster Bay Budget?

What do you know about how the Town Board plans to spend your money in the coming year? But what opportunity did your Town Board give you to know anything about it? They undoubtedly fulfilled the legal requirements. But they surely didn't go one bit further. Is that good government?

Write In For Copy Of Budget

Why not write the Town Clerk at the Oyster Bay Town Hall for a copy of the 1954 budget? See if they will be responsive enough to your wishes to send you a copy. Let them know you want to know what they do with your money. Unfortunately, copies were not available for distribution to those few who were able to attend the meeting at 10 o'clock in the morning last Tuesday. Nor were copies available to newspaper editors. We must admit, however, that anyone interested enough could copy the office copy. And anyone with enough interest shouldn't mind the job, even if it was laborious and time-consuming.

Marie LaMagno Becomes Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cucuro, newly-weds now at home on Burkland Ave., Hicksville, were married at St. Ignatius Church Sept. 26. Mrs. Cucuro is the former Miss Marie LaMagno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel LaMagno of 8 Burkland Lane, Hicksville.

The bride's white satin gown was fashioned with four nylon tulle overskirts and a train two and one-half yards long. Her veil was held by a beaded crown and her bouquet of white roses was centered by an orchid. To travel she wore a navy blue gabardine suit, powder blue blouse and hat and white gloves.

Peacock blue was worn by the four bridesmaids: Joan Raniere, Rachel LaMagno, Juliana Appolonio and Mary Caravalla. Shrimp pink was the color chosen for the gowns of Dorothy Boudreau, maid of honor and Lucille Cirillo, junior bridesmaid.

The best man was Fred Staria and ushering were: Louis Brigand, Gys. DeMattia, Thomas Catipano and George Kuhl.

Mrs. Cucuro is employed with the LI Lighting Co. and her husband with the Esposito Contracting Co. They are at home in a newly furnished apartment at 8 Burkland Ave.

School Days For Parents

"It will be 'School Days' again for Mama and Papa next Thursday night (Nov. 12) when the Lee Avenue P.T.A. will observe Open House School Night. After the 8:30 to 9 business meeting, parents will go to the various classrooms, where they will pretend that they are the students, and will hear the teacher outline the year's work. Teachers will answer questions regarding the planned program for the grade.

A brochure of the event will be distributed prior to the meeting. Parents are asked to cooperate with the suggested procedure in order that the evening may be as profitable as the administration, faculty and parents can make it.

A large attendance is expected from interested parents. Officers for the year 1953-54 are: president, Robert Easton; vice president, Margaret Dunbar; recording secretary, Helga Phillips; corresponding secretary, Ruth Tiernan and treasurer, Juanita Horne.

SUPPER, RECEPTION

A covered-dish supper and reception will be held at the Church of Christ, 105 Broadway, Hicksville, Sunday, Nov. 9, at 5:30 in honor of the Church's new minister and his family.

C. E. Faust began his ministry with the Church Oct. 18 after serving the Church of Christ, Salineville, O., for two and one-half years. Mrs. Faust will arrive this Saturday to join her husband after a three week visit with Mr. Faust's parents in Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Faust is a graduate of Kentucky Christian College, Grayson, Ky. They have two children, Cindy Lee, 1 1/2 months, and Cathy Lou, 6 weeks of age.

The regular evening service will be conducted at 7:30 following the reception.

Kings Daughters Meet on Thursday

Mrs. George Kunz of Acadia, La., Hicksville, will be hostess Nov. 12 to the Candlelight Circle of the Kings Daughters. Mrs. Robert Wathey of the same street was hostess at the most recent meeting. A report of a trip to the New York State Convention in Rochester, N. Y. was heard. Mrs. George Kunz was hostess at the first meeting of the fall season, when plans were discussed for the awarding of a turkey in time for Christmas. A stork shower was held for Mrs. Knuerr.

The members recently visited their adopted child, Earl Chambers at the Nassau County Sanatorium and presented him with Halloween gifts and a pumpkin filled with goodies for the other children in the ward.

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD
 Let's See Big Turnout Nov. 20

By MAY MALJEAN
 Hicksville 3-5510

Let's see, if we can't have a record turnout at the general meeting of the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc. on Nov. 20. We're giving plenty of notice so that there won't be any doubt about the time and place. The place: The East St. School. The time 8 P.M. The reason for our urging is the elections that take place on that Friday.

New neighbors who have not as yet been contacted by the club are cordially invited by us as publicity chairmen to be enlisted in this all important organization. We do not believe it is necessary to point out the benefits of membership in the association. We have started our season with a bang and hope to continue at this wonderful rate with full co-operation from all.

As for the executive board—do not forget that this next meeting on November 12th will be marked by the presence of Messrs. Franke and Brandt, and out of courtesy for their acceptance a 100 per cent at-

MUSIC APPRECIATION
 Mrs. Carlton Bentley played in reference to the membership drive for the Hicksville Community Center. For those who are not familiar with this group, it is a way to bring appreciation of music to our community. You can attend up to 25 concerts—three of which will be held in Hicksville. The drive ends this Saturday. To those of you who have procrastinated, we offer this phone number in order to be included: Hicksville 3-1390. This is campaign headquarters, or you may drop in at Susan Joy at Broadway and Marie St. to obtain tickets. The price is $6 or $3 for students. Remember that this entitles you to up to 25 concerts.

HERE AND THERE
 Philip Lomasso, of Elm St., has been very sick with bronchitis of late, and we wish his speedy recovery... Ed Mastrella has earned his notary licence and offers his assistance gratis for neighbors in Woodbury Gardens. To contact Ed phone HI 4-2465 or drop by at his home at 71 Vincent Road... My hubby took me out for our anniversary on the town and we saw "South Pacific" again... Looks like Joe Syieck's garage is near completion, over there on Ketcham Rd... Work was done by a local group around the Briggs St.—Ketcham Ave. locality... My husband tells me of Mrs. McNamara's parakeet... Every time he goes to her house at 16 Frances Pl., Woodbury Manor, with her egg order he sees that frisky bird go through his callisthenics... Don't look now but there will be discussion on our road situation with the powers that be... Folks who know

...last week. We wish to express our deepest sympathy.

HALLOWEEN PARTY
 George and Carol Kowalski can a party at the home of Bud and Molly Fisher last Friday night and I don't mind telling you that the affair was terrific. Present were: Yours truly and hubby, Gene, Benjamin Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bertram, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reigelberger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis De Bono, Joseph Erny, Ray Bartiero, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sewart.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK
 "What book that you have read made the greatest impression on you?" Please phone in your answers as I'm sure our readers would find this interesting.

GREEK RECIPE
 In honor of the visit of the King and Queen of Greece, we submit this Greek dish from Mrs. Karenman: HALVAS with SEMOLINA (Farina Pudding): 1/2 c butter (sweet, if obtainable) 1 1/2 c semolina (farina) 1/2 c pignolias or blanched almonds, cut in small pieces, 1 1/2 c sugar, 5 c water, 2 t cinnamon, 1/3 c powdered sugar. Melt butter in wide saucepan. Add farina and cook over low heat until farina becomes a light gold color. Add nuts and cook for 5 minutes. Dissolve sugar in boiling water and stir into farina and butter mixture. Stir until smooth and thick. Cover and cook over hot water, to absorb water. Cool slightly and spoon onto dessert plates. Combine 1/2 c powdered cinnamon with 1/2 c powdered sugar. Sprinkle on pudding and serve warm. Yield: 8 servings.

JUDY'S JOTTINGS:

Surprise Shower and Birthdays

By JUDY de JONGH
Hicksville 4-1813

A surprise baby shower was given for Mrs. Charles (Mary) Graham of 91 Benjamin Ave. Tuesday, Oct. 27. The affair was held in the furnished basement of yours truly's home. Co-hostess was Mrs. Kathy Krafel. Canapés, hors d'oeuvres, rolled ham, potato salad and other tidbits were served, topped off by a fabulous tiered cake baked by Clara Apollonio.

The room was intentionally decorated in pink with the customary umbrella, and a large wishing well to hold some of the many lovely gifts.

Guests included: Violet McGrady, Alice Offenloch, Clara Apollonio, Mildred Scheriff, Ginnie White, Mrs. MacDonald, Eva LaManna, and Ann Carbone of Benjamin Ave. Mary Merzbacher, Molly Murphy, and Betty Watterson of Combes Ave., Estelle Cunningham and Phyllis Lewis of McAlester Avenue, Dorothy Pleasner of East Meadow, Peggy Koch of East Hempstead, Alice Taylor of Baldwin, and the mother, aunt, and cousin of the guest, Mrs. E. McCormack, Mrs. J. McCormack, and Miss Theresa McCormack, all of Brooklyn. The evening proved a success, and was one of the biggest showers we have ever seen.

Related congratulations to Lee Schulte of 99 Benjamin Ave. who celebrated her 6th birthday on Oct.

Apologies are in order to Jim Schulte for having omitted his name from the list of guests who attended the unique shower given a short time ago for Charles Graham. Sorry, Jim!

The Bill Krafels of 85 Benjamin Ave., recently christened their rumpus room with a party on October 16. The tipplers included the Art Scheriffs, Medard Offenlochs, and Chas. Grahams of Benjamin Ave., the Bob Wattersons of Combes Ave., and the Yours Truly's of McAlester. Needless to say, we enjoyed every minute of it.

The Medard Offenlochs of 80 Benjamin Ave. celebrated their sixth wedding anniversary recently with a dinner at Cortes in Bethpage, after which they stopped back to pick up the Art Scheriffs for an evening at Keogh's. Fun was the order of the day, and fun they had!

And felicitations to the Charles Grahams, who celebrated their eighth wedding anniversary on Nov. 3rd quietly at home.

Added Laurels

HICKSVILLE — There will be added laurels at stake when the high-flying Long Beach and Hicksville High School football teams meet Saturday, Nov. 7, here.

To the members of the winning team will go medals that have been prepared as gifts from the Central Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. of Nassau County, which is the only financial institution with offices in both Long Beach and Hicksville.

They will be presented at the end of the game by Vance Carnahan, executive secretary of Central Federal, who has been highly interested in scholastic sports since he graduated from Princeton and was named a member of that university's scholarship committee in Nassau.

Carnahan, through the years that Central Federal was located in Long Beach, quietly scouted the Marine eleven for his alma mater. This year, when Central Federal opened its new office just a stone's throw from the Hicksville High campus, he began to scout the Comet athletes, too.

ELECTION NIGHT ATTITUDE

The scene election night at the Town Democratic headquarters on Newbridge Rd., Hicksville, was one of restrained jubilation. The general feeling was that "at last" the dominance of the Republican Party in Hicksville had been broken and that in the coming years we can look forward to two-party rule."

Victory Party For Norman

By TEX SURPRISE

BETHPAGE — The entire slate of Oyster Bay Township Republican candidates turned out to join some 300 jubilant campaigners from the Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club here, for a victory party Tuesday night to cheer the election of local candidate James "Happy" Norman to Councilman on the Town Board.

Offering congratulations to the new town officials were Lewis N. Waters, Supervisor; Dudley McCabe, Town Councilman; Henry R. Curran, Town Clerk; John R. Brandt, Supt. of Highways; David Welsh, Receiver of Taxes; Francis T. Nichols, School Director; and LeRoy Wells, Bertha Gifford, and Fremont Daffa, Jones Fund Trustees.

The meeting was held in the Club's headquarters on Washington St.

Norman came to Bethpage 21 years ago. Nationally famous as the holder of three world's wrestling titles, he was cited by Pres. Woodrow Wilson as the youngest airman to see service in World War I. Long active in local and national politics, he has been a GOP executive committeeman for over 16 years.

Heading the committee for the affair was Louis Agiesta, assisted by Charles Campagne and Edwin Fehrenbach, president of the Club.

Musie for the occasion was provided by John Scarpino and his Starlighters.

ELIZABETH MUNKEL of 163 Park Ave., Hicksville, receives a ten-dollar gift certificate from Gloria Singerman, daughter of Betty Singerman, proprietor of the Susan Joy Shop, corner of Broadway and Marie St. Elizabeth made the nearest estimate of the number of jelly beans in a glass jar displayed in the window in connection with the store's first anniversary. NORTH WEST NOTES:

Parents Need Aid On Project

By JAMES CHAMBERLAIN

A volunteer project to provide Burns Ave. School with three record players is well underway. A spokesman for the group said the aim of $100 in donations is needed to adequately provide the school with a complete stock of Educational and Entertaining recordings for the youngsters attending Burns Avenue year after year.

A portion of the money needed will be used toward the purchase of parts, cabinets, motors etc. which will be new. The more costly parts are being salvaged by the committee from old radios and phonographs to save additional expense. These volunteers, parents of children attending Burns Ave. are doing this work in their spare time as a service to the community. These record players will have ample volume according to the spokesman inasmuch as standard items on the market in this class are not sufficient to service the classrooms. All donations small or large will be accepted and donors names will be published in this cooperative effort by a volunteer group. Several contributions have already been received at the HERALD office, 98 North Broadway, get behind this committee with your donation today!

BETWEEN ISSUES

A recent explosion at 41 Georgia St. was quickly under control by occupants assisted by our volunteer fire department, the first engine arrived in a hurry, but the other two were delayed at the Railroad crossing. . . It will certainly be a relief to home owners north of the tracks when the new sub stations are established. . . Our expert fire fighters are always on the job when they are needed, the only problem has been the railroad crossing where fire department is sometimes delayed by trains when a call comes from the North side. . . The proposition passed by the voters recently only permits the purchase of the land for these sub stations, how long it will be before the new stations are actually constructed for additional protection is not known, we hope it will be soon.

All members will receive notification of the election of officers of the Civic Association tonight (Friday, Nov. 6) at the Hicksville Inn, be sure to attend, only members in good standing may vote for the new slate, have you paid your dues yet?—If not contact George Schult, Treasurer, 83 Indiana St.

HERE IS ALL IT TAKES to convert to carefree automatic GAS HEAT

Here's the happy ending to tedious furnace tending . . . to soot, smoke, smell and dust . . . to fuel storage and delivery problems, besides. This simple gas conversion unit is all you need to switch to clean, dependable Gas Heat in your home. It costs you less to install than any other type of automatic conversion. It costs less to maintain as well. And new reduced Gas Heating rates now bring fuel costs to an all time low in the bargain.

Now's the time to get Gas Heat!

Yes, with Gas Heating rates recently reduced, with colder weather creeping up, there's no time like now to assure a warm and wonderful winter in your home . . . with effortless, odorless, clean, dependable Gas Heat.

Add in the extra basement space it means (no need for fuel tanks or bins) . . . the far longer service life it gives (no moving parts to wear out) . . . and you can see why more American homes heat with gas than with any other fuel. Over 15,000 Long Island families now enjoy its benefits and the trend is growing every day.

We'll be glad to give you full facts and figures for any heating need from gas conversion burner to complete gas heating systems. Look into it now. The low cost will surprise you.

ON THE BALL!

By Nat Ferrara

Practice a 1-ways pays off! It doesn't matter what the sport may be, no one ever reached the top without learning the fine points of his particular game. And, that learning came only after long, tireless hours of daily practice.

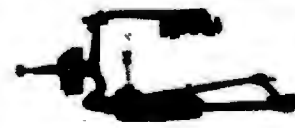

The polished performer has mastered the details of his position. When he makes the double play or the bullet pass look easy, he is simply demonstrating the result of endless hours of repetition.

The car that is a fine performer is the one that has had the attention of efficient mechanics regularly. Such competent service is needed to keep any car running right and economically. Stop in tomorrow and let us check and service your car for more mileage and greater safety. Broadway Service Station, Broadway and James Street, Hicksville. Phone HI 3-9702. BE SURE TO READ... NEW PANORAMIC WIDE SCREEN AT MEADOWBROOK AND HICKSVILLE

the Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

Coach Bill McNamara had his small but spunky squad up for the Farmingdale game and it would be impossible for the Orange and Black to reach another peak this Saturday when undefeated Long Beach visits in the season finale.

This campaign has been far from an easy one for the Comets and the surprising Beachers do not expect rough going on the Hicksville turf.

Ed Scott, Stan Surcharski, Joe Pepe, Howard Speedling and Joe DeVaul are all on the injured list for the Orange and it is debatable how much service can be gotten out of the lot.

Martin Katz certainly must be expected to take over the offensive duties since his passes almost pulled the rug out from under Farmingdale.

He still must have someone to catch the aeriels in addition to being able to run with the ball once its caught.

Not to be overlooked is Dick Evaschuk who turned in a fine 41-yard for a TD in the Daler encounter but didn't run much once Katz took to the airways.

All in all it has been a very interesting season for the Orange and Long Beach would be ill advised to count its season in the undefeated ranks before the Hicksville game.

If McNamara had enough players to man the guns we believe the Beachers could have a long unhappy ride home but as it appears now:

Long Beach 20, Hicksville 12.

Westbury-Mineola with six points leads the Nassau County Football Conference with the Jones, Boys of Floral Park second with five points (with one additional game played) and Hicksville is third with three points. Glen Cove has been defeated four times and has nothing to show for the season.

The Covers haven't scored a touchdown this year and coupled with Hicksville have hardly offended anyone this year.

On the Field Club's home gridiron, Sunday, the Covers will meet the Black and White. According to reports, the visitors will have their claws sharpened considerably for this one.

Glen Cove lost face when Hicksville won 21-0 in city stadium a few weeks back and the feeling is that the only

League Arranges Trip To New York

HICKSVILLE — The Senior Walther League of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church is planning to sponsor a trip to the Guild Theatre, New York, to see the film, "Martin Luther." A bus is being chartered and if more than thirty people plan to go, a saving will be effected on each admission ticket. Miss Carolyn Schanfler has been named chairman of the Arrangements Committee and may be called at HI 4-4838. Calls may also be made to the pastor, the Rev. Edward H. Stammel or to the Vicar. Others who may be contacted are: Evelyn Bearbeck, Kenneth Martin, and Joan Sharratt. Tickets will be on sale in the church office from 3 to 5 o'clock week days and after each service Sundays.

SELF SERVICE—Line of customers at Fairview Farms on Burns Ave., Hicksville, got longer with each passing day of the milk drivers' strike. Many children were brought by mothers who came from great distances, as well as local homes, to get milk. Rain, mud and cold weather did not stop them. Lines formed at break of day. (Herald photo by Frank Mallett).

Get Into Spirit

HICKSVILLE—Children and a number of the faculty wore costumes for the annual Halloween party held by the East Street PTA in the school Friday, Oct. 30. Every classroom was decorated for the occasion.

Each year the East Street PTA and the Classroom Mothers join in the sponsorship of this party which proved an outstanding success again this year.

Muriel Fuerstein, vice president, expressed her thanks to all of the mothers and their helpers for their time and cooperation.

The success of this affair is mainly due to the untiring efforts of Miss Nina Plants, school principal.

3 Teams Tied

WESTBURY—Three teams are tied for first at 21-11 in the Eastern Nassau CYO Bowling league. They are St. Ignatius Princes, St. Martin Green and St. Ignatius Hostlers.

This week saw Arthur Baldwin of St. Ignatius Comets roll 307 and 200 games for a 583 series and Bob Furinka of St. William Black team had a 215 game.

MARIE ST. CRASH

HICKSVILLE—No one was hurt when cars driven by Philip Sonson of 272 Grand St., Westbury, and Leon E. Baker of 15 Harding Ave., Hicksville, collided on W. Marie St., 200 feet west of Broadway, Thursday morning, police reported.
