Watch Sky For Santa Arrival Here This Year

HICKSVILLE—Santa Claus, who has arrived here by jeep, sleigh, open roadster and fire trucks in the past five years, may come right out of the sky this year on Saturday morning, Dec. 5, it was learned today. He is expected to be greeted by thousands of boys and girls.

The community Christmas program, including decoration of Broadway with lights, will be handled this year by the Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Business Men's Assoc., it was announced yesterday. Patrick Buffalino, former president of the BMA who is now chairman of the retailers committee for the Chamber, has complete charge of arrangements.

Irving Kenner, BMA president, announced that the Chamber will utilize the lights acquired by his group and used for decorations each year. The lights are scheduled to go into operation shortly after Thanksgiving Day, it was stated by Al Schackner, Chamber president.

The Chamber of Commerce Directors met last Friday at the Milleridge Inn and heard a report of progress on parking fields from George Rappaport, attorney for the park district. The Chamber parking committee meets next Friday, Nov. 27, at 7 W. Marie St. The next Chamber directors' meeting is set for Dec. 4.

Vamps Protest Lt. Suspension

BETHPAGE—The Fire Dept. here this week formally protested the suspension of Lieut. Michael Mancini by the Board of Fire Commissioners. Henry Suhr, dept. secy. in a letter to the Board, said the 65-members protest Mancini's suspension—pending a formal hearing on a complaint brought by a commissioner—on three grounds (1) vagueness of complaint, (2) lack of consideration for his excellent firemanic record before suspension, and (3) possible stigma attached to such a suspension of an officer without due investigation of charges presented "which were apparently personal in nature". It is reported the complaint was filed by Commissioner Henry Strauber.

Blind Child To Learn 3 Rs

HICKSVILLE—Six year old Dorcas DeJong, who has been blind since birth, was enrolled Monday in the kindergarten of the new branch of the Nassau Christian School, 40 West Nicholas St., here where she will learn the three "R's" side by side with classmates who can see. Assistance will be given her in learning to sing songs, and to play games by her teacher and classmates, according to Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church.

The unusual enrollment has been worked out in cooperation with the Industrial Home for the Blind in Brooklyn which will send a teacher to visit regularly and advise the school's staff. Dorcas, who lives at 21 Michigan Dr., Hicksville, will begin preliminary Braille instructions soon in preparation for reading readiness.

The Lutheran Church is noted for its work among the blind, but this experiment to educate a blind child in a school for "seeing" children is the first ever undertaken by the church.

Another False Alarm Of Fire

HICKSVILLE—Volunteer firemen were called out twice, Monday afternoon, the first time at 2:43 and the second time at 3:15, to a grass fire on Moeller St. The fire at the time of the first alarm was at the upper end of the street, but when the second alarm was received, the lower end of the section was afire.

A false alarm from Box 611 at the Burns Avenue School called the firemen out at 7:30 Monday evening.

Wednesday, at 11:34 A.M., firemen were called to a grass fire at Ninth St., and Fifth Ave.

Book Review Program Tonight

HICKSVILLE—"Quackery in our Public Schools" and "Seven Sleepers" are the two books to be reviewed this Friday evening, Nov. 20, at 8 o'clock in the Children's building of the Hicksville Public Library. Mrs. Frank Webber will review the former book which is by Albert Lynd, and Mrs. Robert Peterman will review the latter, written by Margaret Hendrichsen.

Weekend Coming Events

TONIGHT, Nov. 20, 8 P.M.—Children's Book Reviewed at Hicksville Public Library Meeting, Jerusalem Ave. and Second St.
TOMORROW, Nov. 21, 8 P.M.—Barn Dance at Bethpage Boys Club at Bethpage Legion Hall.

ROOM FOR 150 cars is being provided in a new parking field in the rear of the Professional Building where work started last week on Thursday. Entrance to new field, next to Larry's Dept. store, will be a one-way avenue from Broadway. There will also be exits and entrances from E. Barclay St. Former barn on the property is being remodelled to house equipment of the park district. In this Herald photo by Frank Mallett officials are discussing one of several drainage sumps on the site of the parking field.

WORK STARTS on a new public parking field on the former Griffin & Rushmore property as Councilman Frank Chlumsky handles the steam shovel controls. Watching the operations are George Rappaport (at left) counsel for the Hicksville Park and Parking District, and Chester Voorhies, engineer who designed the parking area. DECISION RESERVED:

Summers Defends 'No Vote' Ruling

MINEOLA—Reserving decision on the home rule vote appeal, County Judge Cyril Brown made two brief comments at the conclusion of 90 minutes of oral argument before him here, Tuesday. He said that if he needs more than the 10-day period in which to make a decision, he will advise the attorneys involved; and that there seemed to be agreement that the grounds for a decision would be upon one of the five points of legal objection allowed under the village law.

Want To Be Postmaster ?

WASHINGTON, D. C. —

The U. S. Civil Service Commission and Post Office Dept is open for receipt of applications for an examination for Postmaster at Jericho, L. I. at $3,445 a year, until Dec. 15. All previous existing Postmaster examinations for first, second and third class post offices and lists of eligible have been cancelled. Applicants must take a written test, must be one-year residents between 21 and 63 years of age. Data is available from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Judge Brown's reference was to that part of the law which cites the five specific points as to how and when objections to a proposed vote on incorporation may be made. Two of the points (map and description of area, minimum of 500 persons and incorporation of an entire district) were not raised at any stage of the proceedings.

Talk About Results . . .

A MID ISLAND HERALD Free Sale AD brought such speedy results for one local woman that she wrote the business office to say thank-you, something all newspaper like to hear. Her letter read: "Enclosed is my bill and cash to cover it. My ad in your paper brought excellent results. I sold my article the next day."

"Thanks for such a wonderful town paper."

Another Car Park In Works

OYSTER BAY—A public hearing will take place here on Dec. 8 upon the acquisition and improvement of parking field no. 4 for Hicksville shoppers, it was learned last night. The tract, which is directly across the RR tracks from the first field built, runs from E. Nicholas north to E. Marie St.

The sum of $50,000 is to be appropriated, following the public hearing, for acquisition and improvement of the site which the Chamber of Commerce Parking Committee estimates will accommodate about 50 cars. The chamber has urged the property be acquired.

Purchase of the site had originally been recommended by the Citizens Advisory Committee on parking in 1949, it was recalled today. Councilman Frank Chlumsky disclosed today that he and the Town Board are also working steadily toward the acquisition of additional parking field for shopper and commuter use in the community of Hicksville.

Letter Carriers Join In Appeal

NEW YORK—Michael Pryslak, a letter carrier of Hicksville, will be co-chairman in the "Letter Carriers' March for Muscular Dystrophy," serving with U. S. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, honorary national chairman of the "March".

Pryslak is one of 100,000 letter carriers across the United States who will call on every American home the day after Thanksgiving to collect funds to help victims of muscular dystrophy, a fatal disease affecting hundreds of thousands in the U. S., most of them children.

Hundreds of branches of the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) have responded to the organization's president, William C. Doherty, who has urged all members to cooperate in the "March".

propositions were not qualified, (2) that the valuation of these signs for the amount proposed does not total one-third the total value of the district, and (3) all objections must be stated in writing.

Judge Willis B. Carman appeared for 10 proponents who are appealing the decision of Supervisor Charles Ransom in refusing to permit a vote on incorporation to take place. Michael J. Sullivan appeared for the objectors and Theodore V. Summers, town attorney, appeared. He said for Supervisor Ransom. David K. Sigerson, attorney for nine of the objectors at the hearing, did not appear.

Summers, "clarifying his status" said "I am here as town attorney whose job it is to sustain any act of the town board, supervisor or department." He said the Town Supervisor is "impartial, the same as I am this morning, and he and I came to the same conclusion" on the proposition.

He said that if the proponents "want justice, then they should not oppose the decision of the supervisor".

Michael J. Sullivan, charged that a "double standard" is being applied by the proponents. He spoke of "these people who say they can't understand the law... but claim to understand the complex problems of municipal government." He said "it is just a mathematical question. There are not sufficient signatures".

The signature on behalf of Ampere Electronic Corp of Duffy Ave., Hicksville, with an assessed valuation of $250,050 was criticized

Dear Jean:

Congratulations to Dr. GEORGE H. HAUBER who has been re-elected chairman of the Hofstra College Board of Trustees. He is well known in Hicksville, is a director of the Bank of Hicksville, and executive vice president of Ronger Aircraft in Farmingdale.

Speaking of banks, that half-million dollars distributed by our local banks to 6,000 Christmas Club members, in more than 400 gift boxes given club members in the entire states of Montana ($500,234), New Mexico ($485,660), South Dakota ($298,347), North Dakota ($285,945), not to mention Idaho, Utah and Wyoming. . . . The November issue of Harper's Magazine reports on a three-year study of life in Levittown by HARRY HENDERSON. He says, among other things, life for women in huge new housing projects is "a long, monotonous daily propagation". Husbands are nearly all commuters who leave between 7 and 8 A.M. and are not likely to be back before 7 or 7:30 P.M. Lites are out in most houses by 10 P.M. . . . Bethpage GOP Recruits have elected CURT J. FELS as president. . . . Hicksville PBC boys are helping the Christmas Seal Sale by delivering posters to local merchants under the direction of Patrolman ANDREW HEBBERER. Armistice Day was observed in Plainville with a brief ceremony at the World War II memorial in front of the firehouse on Nov. 11. WALTER KINNEY sounded taps and Legion Commander ALFRED SCHUPP placed a wreath. . . . Talk from Albany where special session of Legislature is underway that Nassau may get another assemblyman. He will probably go to Town of Hempstead, maybe a Levittown man. . . . Lighting Co's new electric operating centre at Hicksville got first big workout in that 70 mph snow storm on Nov. 8. Altogether there were 50,000 homes in Nassau and Suffolk without electricity during the storm. . . . You can imagine the number of phone calls that came into the hq. . . . Many of Hicksville's prominent professional men and their wives will be present this evening (Friday) for the 17th Mercy Ball at Garden City Hotel. Missed from the festivities will be late Justice THOMAS CUFF who sparked the Mercy Ball program. . . . No less than six meetings have been held by merchants regarding the future of the BMA and association with the Chamber of Commerce. All appears settled this week with the BMA facing out of the picture as of Jan. 1 and the BMA officers urging retailers to join the Chamber. . . .

The hearing before COUNTY JUDGE BROWN in Mineola, Tuesday morning, went off about as expected. Herald readers that morning got a repeat on what arguments were advanced by WILLIS CARMAN even before the court session began. Few Hicksville people were in the audience. ERNIE FRANCKE was there together with MARVIN SULTAN, NLEQA president and another of the objectors. LAWRENCE A. ROMAN, chairman of the Home Rule Committee, could not be present. He was in St. Louis on business for his company. . . . Bethpage School Board may engage a survey team to make a study of the district needs such as has been done for Hicksville by Columbia.

ed repeatedly by both Summers evidence to disprove it presented and Sullivan. Carman countered at the Sept. 17 hearing and it that there had been no formal should stand.

Town Attorney Gets Into Act

By Fred J. Noeth

THE WIDESPREAD interest in the question of whether or not the people of Hicksville are going to get the right to vote on home rule is clearly shown in the questions frequently heard since Tuesday: "What happened at Mineola? What did the judge decide? What did he say? Will we get a vote?"

Tuesday's Herald carried a rather full report of the points made in the oral argument before Judge Cyril Brown by Willis B. Carman, attorney for those making the appeal for a vote on the question.

Judge Brown had little to say. He just listened, accepted the various written statements of basically the same arguments stated orally, and told the attorneys after 90 minutes of talk he would let them know if he would require more than the 10 days suggested in the law in which to make his decision.

The shocker was the vigorous participation in the argument, solidly on the side of the objectors to a vote taking place, of Theodore V. Summers, attorney for the Township of Oyster Bay.

Mr. Carman wanted to know, as Mr. Summers started to speak, what role the Town Attorney would play. Judge Brown also wanted to know, and said so.

Mr. Summers said he was representing Supervisor Ransom, that he personally is not taking sides on the incorporation question, and then proceeded to lambast the incorporation proposal, the petition, the people who signed it, the people who prepared the petition, Mr. Carman and almost everybody connected with the question—with the possible exception of Michael Sullivan and the 34 other objectors.

Mr. Summers referred to remarks made by Mr. Carman, at one point, as "a blow below the belt". He said people signed the petition because they were influenced by friendships, that people would sign "most anything"—in fact that the people of Hicksville are a pretty stupid lot, led around by (ugh) civic-minded friends and neighbors.

He did appear on behalf of Supervisor Ransom but he certainly did not act like Mr. Ransom—or even sound like him. He danced around the courtroom, got red in the face, showed the petition under the Judge's nose and claimed "the sloppy, unintelligent way the papers were prepared and the form of their submission precluded an intelligent investigation".

Mr. Summers was so hell bent to denounce the whole idea that he went way off the beam and said "only about one-fifth of the population of the area attempts to foist its will upon the other four-fifths of the population." He built up a whole case on the claim that 6,000 signed out of a "population of approximately 30,000." He forgot that population figures include ALL INHABITANTS—yes, even infants and children.

For "the township attorney to be so ill-informed about the actual number of adult property owners in the community of Hicksville, obviously an important community as we note from his desperate struggle to keep hold of it, casts doubt upon Mr. Summers' entire argument."

He told the court there was "nothing political" about the incorporation question and by that very comment brought politics into the question.

Mr. Sullivan had little to add to his previous arguments and did not file another brief, not wishing to add to the voluminous records now before the court. Mr. Summers, apparently, did not mind doing so. He added an 18-page brief to the mountain of papers.

The Legionnaire

Charles Wagner Post No. 321 American Legion

According to Dr. Charles Buchman of Kings Park, six per cent or approximately one in every 16 persons in the United States are subject to mental illness requiring hospital care as furnished by Kings Park. So you can readily see the patients to whom the American Legion tries to bring some small measure of joy are by no means members of an unusual class. They form an army of nearly 9 million unfortunate persons.

This time in addition to the Archie McCord and Ernie Pyle Posts we will be joined for our Kings Park visit by the new and rapidly expanding Plainview Post commanded by Al Schropp. Each Post have separate cigarette quotas to meet—25,000 for Charles Wagner—and in addition share the cost of ice cream, candy and entertainment to provide a one day a week respite from the monotony of hospital life for the confined veterans and children.

Because our free cigarettes are available only for V.A. patients, the Posts, despite the worthy cause for which the smokes are intended, are obliged to make their purchase of a fully taxed basis, cutting their purchasing power over fifty per cent. The Legion however, does not ask for assistance in this. We have and will continue to meet our obligation to the best of our ability.

You readers can help though in another way. If you have clothes that are wearable though worn, or neckties or scarfs in any condition since the latter are used for rug making etc., or suitable recent magazines, drop them at the Legion on Nicholai St., at Jack Rondeau 106 Nevada or at our house!

Our membership officer Al Schropp has submitted the following: Service in time of war, is a duty of necessity. Service in time of peace, is a service of choice, a service which although not beyond the call of duty, is certainly beyond the demands of necessity. The American Legion program requires the service of devoted Americans, Americans who are proud of their war record, but are not content merely to rest upon it.

"For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the great wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit the heritage, the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

Membership in the American Legion, is a challenge to our patriotism. The American Legion program gives those men and women, who served our country in its recent wars of necessity an opportunity to continue to serve in peacetime, our community, our state and our nation.

A welcome awaits every veteran at the Legion Hall on the First and Third Mondays of each Month.

'Til next week.

READERS OPINION

Ahern Answers Strauber Attack

By WILLIAM J. AHERN

As a charter member of the original Central Park Fire Co., now Bethpage Fire Department, and a long-time resident of this community, I was very much disturbed by an article published by Commissioner Henry Strauber censoring the Fire Department. I have made some inquiries and feel the residents of the District should know the facts as I found them.

We have a board of five commissioners—all men of good sense and highly regarded in this community. Query: Why did Com. Strauber let off such a blast at the organization he has served well and faithfully for a long period of time... the other members seemingly content with the conduct of the department?

I have learned that Mr. Strauber and one of the firemen clashed on a matter that, had they allowed tempers to cool, could have, and should have, been settled with a hand shake.

As to the charges, may I quote a saying of the late lamented Al Smith, "Let's look at the record."

The $900. dinner referred to was authorized by the Commissioners on March 6, 1953, at a meeting at which Mr. Strauber was present. The actual cost was $672.50 and not $900.00 as stated. Mr. Strauber attended the affair and made a speech, a good one I may add. He also, together with three other Commissioners, signed the check approving the payment of the bill on April 25, 1953, the night of the dinner. I am sure everything that has been in order or Mr. Strauber would not have approved the bill. This is all on record.

Then there is the item of $150.00 for landscaping. Some time before Decoration Day the department, with the approval of the Commissioners, erected a memorial to deceased members, the cost to be paid by the Firemen from Departmental funds which are provided from dues and public donations. (More about these funds later.) When the project was completed, the Commissioners were asked to pay $115; not $150, for landscaping. They refused, and the bill was paid by the firemen. Why discuss this, everybody was happy.

Now we come to the Fireman collections. It has been the custom in our and other districts to solicit donations from the public to supplement dues paid by the firemen, for purposes not covered by taxation.

Among the purposes for which these above described funds are used are:

Small articles, such as, flashlights, company shields for trucks, etc., which become part of the equipment.

Firemen magazines, training books, premiums on insurance for firemen which is in addition to the coverage provided by taxation.

Dues to state and county associations.

Donations to all organized charity drives and a specific contribution of $250.00 to sponsor Little League teams.

At the conclusion of the recent drive a block dance was given to the public, refreshments were served, and no admission charged.

THE SOUTH HICKSVILLE

Sentinel

By Craig Walsh

Day in Court

Hicksville incorporation vote issue had its day in court this week. Everything went about as scheduled, but the big surprise was that Theodore Summers, Oyster Bay township attorney, filed a brief. It wasn't a very good brief, but he didn't have very good material to work with. So perhaps his losses shouldn't blame him too much. During the oral arguments he made statements on several occasions that he was forced to retract.

Twisted Interpretation

Summers tried to make a great play about the 6000 signers of the incorporation vote petition being only one-fifth of 20 per cent of the total population of 30,000 trying to force their views on everybody. What did he take the court for? And what did he take us for? The 30,000 "people" in Hicksville includes many who are children, and many adults not property owners.

Let's Figure It Out

There are about 6000 children in school. Let's guess that there are 4000 children under school age. Also perhaps about 2000 between school age and 21 years. And, as a pure guess, perhaps 3000 adults who are not property owners. This comes to a total of 13,000 persons who were probably not eligible to sign the incorporation petition. This leaves 17,000 who were eligible. And this is probably very conservative.

One Fifth Becomes One Third

Thus, the 6000 signers become about one third of the total instead of the one fifth as quoted by Summers. This checks very closely with the required signatures of the owners of one third of the assessed property which were actually obtained.

Check It Another Way

There are approximately 8000 homes in Hicksville with somewhat less than 10,000 persons listed as joint owners. The overwhelming number of signers were home owners, and there were more than 6200 of them. That's practically 40 percent of the home owners who expressed the desire to have a referendum on home rule. And because many homes have one person listed as the owner, the actual percentage is even higher.

People Want Referendum

This one episode of the town attorney's remarks probably points up more than everything else that a very substantial number of Hicksville home owners, the backbone of the community, want the opportunity of voting on home rule. Although the town attorney is paid big money to represent the Town Supervisor's opposition (!) to our incorporation, he certainly did a very good job of emphasizing the weaknesses of their stand.

Second Class Citizens

The citizens of the incorporated villages of Nassau and Suffolk had the opportunity of objecting to their tax assessments at the annual Grievance Day this week. Although Grievance Day has been a tradition for many years on Long Island, the second class citizens of Hicksville, have never had the privilege. Don't you think it's about time we got to be first class citizens?

LAURA COLEMAN

Mrs. Sophie Coleman of 80 N. Broadway has made known the engagement of her daughter, Laura to Ragnald Alvord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Alvord of Bellingham, Wash. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Coleman, a Hicksville High School graduate, is employed as a secretary at Grumann Aircraft Co. Her fiancé is a member of the United States Airforce and is stationed at Mitchell Field.

Mothers To Meet Monday Evening

The Mothers Auxiliary of St. Ignatius School, will meet on Monday evening, Nov. 23, at the school hall, E. Nichols St., Hicksville at 8:15 p.m.

Final plans for the Christmas party to be held at the December meeting will be made. The Family and Parents Education Committee will have a panel discussion on "The Adolescent".

All mothers of children attending St. Ignatius school are urged to attend this meeting as it will prove to be an enlightening and enjoyable evening.

Valentine L. Denninger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine L. Denninger, Sr., of 91 Woodbury Rd., Hicksville, was one of ten men initiated recently into the Arnold Air Society, honorary organization of the Air Force ROTC unit, at Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, N. J. Membership in the organization is limited to AFROTC students who demonstrate qualities of "leadership and integrity and who maintain a satisfactory academic standing."

Recalling Audience With King

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5715

For the last week or so, I've reliving one of the most thrilling moments of my life. That is the time I had an audience with King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia. This took place during World War II when he was on a tour of the United States. He was stopping at one of the larger hotels in Brooklyn, and various organizations and people of the Near East, or I should say — Arab World—were invited to his quarters. Upon entering the suite, I felt as though I were in a palace. The customs of the kings of the Wahabi Sect, a faction of ultra devout Mohammedans make it necessary to carry all of their elaborate furnishings wherever they go.

Surrounded by his slaves, and heavily armed body guards, he must live as though he were in the feudal ages. Upon being instructed in the proper manner of being received by a king, I trembled into this imposing hall. The king was, I should say, practically "alone". There were 10 soldiers there—arranged five on either side and as the people were introduced to him they would then leave and enter the banquet hall. Everyone was introduced to him personally. When my turn came I blurted out something about not being able to speak Arabic too well only to have him answer me in a beautiful English accent. However, very seldom does an Arab king or prince speak directly to a subject—speaking through an interpreter generally.

King Abdul Asis Ibn Abdur Rahman al Taisal Al Saud, which is his full name—was a striking figure of a man. Although close to 70 at the time, he seemed unbelievably handsome to me, weighing 300 lbs. He looked taller than 6'4"—perhaps it was his broad shoulders, black hair, moustache and beard, and his sizzling black eyes. This is an experience I'll be telling my grandchildren about someday. His recent demise has brought back all of my memories of that short meeting.

Getting down to earth, belated happy birthday to Dianne McGrath, Tommy Blaser, and Rick and Leo—and I want to congratulate Mrs. Pines, of Vincent Road on receiving her driver's license. Had a delightful evening at Thelma Petras' fashion show last week at Hollins Rd. in Hillside Terrace. With such an array of her creations, it was hard to decide what to purchase. (P.S. — Gene has Christmas gift all solved. Now he'll have to pick up something else to surprise me).

Gene met me at the East St. P.T.A. meeting after attending an executive meeting of the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc., and he informed me that Councilman Chlumsky, Brandt and Francke are interested in Woodbury Gardens' road conditions. He jotted down the story in the civic notes today. I knew you'll be happy to see that, although it is a long way from being solved, we've put in our bid. Now it's a matter of time and circumstances. Gene seemed to have his tongue in check.

We took the time out to phone the Farmingdale Agricultural Institute this week in matters that concern this column, and came up with some important news. First, we have been besieged by phone calls asking us what to do about the black widow spiders hereabouts. About all we knew about same was that Gene knew a woman who was bitten by one and was deathly sick for three weeks. The results of our research informs us that a black widow spider is about the size of a quarter. That, alone, rules out about half the phone calls.

Our readers asked, "What can we do to eliminate them?" Our source tells us that they are hard to eliminate. Outside, all you can do is to avoid having spaces between wood for the pests to nest in; but indoors you can spray DDT in such spots but the fluid must strike the insect—else you have done no good. These bombs, they tell us are futile. Clean up, and take your chances that the villain is in reach to shoot him. Not much comfort. However, they did allow more comfort in another respect. That, alone, rules out about half the phone calls.

exceedingly alarmed about the "armies" eating their collar floors away. We have the same problem.

Gene phoned an exterminator, just to be ornery, and asked his professional opinion as to what sort of "bug" is tearing our house down. He told said exterminator that there were little white borers eating some wood under our ceiling. (Continued on Page 13)

Woodbury Gardens Civic Notes
There will be a meeting tonight (Friday) at 8 P.M. at the East St. School. You will learn results of our talks with John R. Brandt, Ernest Francke, and Frank Chlumsky about our road situation. Briefly, the aforementioned men assured us that our roads will be fixed "by 1954". Reason for delay is the fact that sewage projects would entail double costs if our roads are done now. They said they would make an appointment to check over bad spots to be repaired until such action is taken, because they believed that the situation is such that our request "is more than right".
It was pointed out at the meeting that after we had complained about the terrible conditions of our roads in 1952 and were told that Oyster Bay township hadn't taken them over that after said letter—they were inspected and approved. It was further pointed out that our interest was mainly that we have action on the current problem and that the past does not concern us at this point.

Fire Chief Gets Into Argument Extend Voting Period 3 Hours

BETHPAGE—George Ludwig, chief of the Fire Dept., today answered charges by a candidate for election as fire commissioner regarding the handling of fire apparatus. The commissioner contest, which will be decided by vote on Tuesday, Dec. 1, has roused wide-spread interest throughout the district. William Doyle and William Ericsson are candidates to succeed Edward Sengstacken who is not seeking re-election.

The Board of Commissioners this week announced the extension of voting hours on Dec. 1 by three hours at the request of a taxpayer to accommodate night workers. Voting will begin at 4 o'clock and conclude at 10. Previous hours started at 7 P.M.

"During the current campaign for election of a Fire Commissioner in Bethpage, it has been stated publicly on several occasions by one of the candidates, William Ericsson, that he has in his possession a copy of a letter from the manufacturer of one of our fire engines attributing the recent breakdown of that truck to running the engines at excessive speeds and also offering to send an instructor out to run a class in proper pump operating procedure.

"The original of this letter was addressed to the Fire District, but it was mailed to Commissioner Henry Strauber at his home address. It was not presented to the Board of Fire Commissioners until after a copy had been given to Mr. Ericsson and used by him in his campaign.

"Not only does this procedure appear highly questionable, but the letter itself casts aspersions on the ability of the firemen that are uncalled for and unfair.

"We deny that at any time has any of the equipment or apparatus been abused or improperly operated, or that the mechanical failure of the truck in question was the result of its operation by any of our firemen.

"The Bethpage Fire Dept. has among its members many officers and firemen well qualified to instruct in pump operation and every other phase of technical training for the fire service, several of whom are or have been professional fire fighters. Their experience and ability are available to every new man in the Department. In addition, the Department participates regularly in the training courses furnished by the Nassau County Firemen's School of Instruction and holds regular classes in both its Basic Course and its Pump Operation Course.

"The gratuitous offer of instruction by the manufacturer of a piece of apparatus which we have already been using for over two years is entirely unwarranted, and we resent the aspersions it casts on the ability of our men, as well as its use as propaganda in an election campaign," Chief Ludwig concluded.

Frank Strachan of 6 West Ct. is recuperating in Nassau Suffolk Hospital following an operation. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Winter Program In Full Swing

BETHPAGE—The Winter Recreation program in Bethpage has been in full swing since Oct. 14. The school administration appointed Howard Vogts and Miss Rosalie DeMareo, both teachers from the Bethpage School, as recreational supervisors.

The program has been taken over by the Student Council, which in turn has appointed a board of members to act as representatives, and is responsible for the committee as set up. These committees are: registration, equipment, cleanup, decoration, and check room.

Refreshments are supposed to be handled by the different class of the high school.

On signing up for the program students pay only a 25 cent membership fee for the year. The money collected is to be used for an occasional orchestra or any additional expenses that may arise.

This program came into being through the efforts made by the Bethpage P.T.A. The group hopes that the parents are aware how much this kind of program can help our youngsters, the advantages they can gain by sharing in such a program, and how important it is for the parents themselves to help and support such a program by offering to help whenever called upon.

Parents who have some free evenings and who would like to work with teenagers are welcome to come down to the school any Wednesday or Saturday nights to register. This program is available to girls and boys from the seventh grade to 19 years of age.

Republican Club Nominates

BETHPAGE—Edwin Fehrenbach was nominated president of the Theodore Roosevelt Republican Club at a meeting of the Nominating Committee, Monday night.

Others nominated are: vice president, William Ericsson, Lorraine Carter; corresponding secretary, Joan Lang; recording secretary, Florence Mullins; treasurer, Charles Campagne; sergeant at arms, Henry Spindler; financial secretary, Joseph Popia; trustees, Al Marcus and Jack Strong.

After a long discussion it was moved to have nomination of officers from the floor at the next meeting at the same time as the election.

Guest speakers at the meeting were William Doyle and William Ericsson, candidates for fire commissioner in the Dec. 1 election. Both men stated their reasons for seeking the office and asked the support of the people present. Gus Barnhart, 2nd deputy chief, who also spoke said: "When the fire dept. is slandered I'm insulted. We have good fire protection in this district and the men take pride in the dept. The charge of negligence should be corrected in Mr. Ericsson's speech."

At the beginning of the meeting James "Flappy" Norman was introduced as the new township councilman. He thanked all who helped the Republican campaign and "promised to do everything I possibly can for the people."

Doyle Seeking Place On Board

BETHPAGE—William V. Doyle announced this week his candidacy for the post vacated on the Bethpage Board of Fire Commissioners by retiring board member Ed Sengstacken.

Doyle has been a resident of Bethpage for 31 years and is an active member of the Fire Dept. and a member of the rescue squad. He is also an assistant Nassau County Fire Inspector.

He is a local business man, a member of the Kiwanis Club of Bethpage, the Little League and the Butcher Brothers VFW Post 4987 of Bethpage.

In announcing his candidacy for the post Doyle said:

"My practical experience as fireman and my experiences with the tax problems of the local residents through my real estate business qualify me to represent the people of this district on the Board of Fire Commissioners."

Minnick Leads Carrier March

BETHPAGE—John Minnick has been appointed chairman of the Bethpage post office "Letter Carriers March for Muscular Dystrophy."

The Bethpage "March" will be conducted in conjunction with the nationwide drive to raise $5,000,000 for the hundreds of thousands of victims of this disease, called "America's most mysterious disease." It affects mostly children and is always fatal.

CHILDREN'S BOOK SALE

Herald Readers Opinion

As to the firemen, they were garments which they had to wear, particularly in the big-out-of-bed-on-a-saturday-to-answer-an-ambulance-call-or-to fight a fire. Don't you agree with me that they deserve something more and that they are serving as they do at risk of their health without salary and, incidentally, the men pay part of the cost of these jackets from their own pockets.

There was some mention of a "list" of people who did not contribute. There is no such list—never was—and in the history of the Department no call to the firemen for contributions has ever been made—never will.

Now, during the recreation room, when the firehouse was built, provision was made for public facilities on the main floor. Check rooms and other necessary facilities were installed.

Use of the fire company basement by the firemen for a recreation room was granted by the Commissioners. I am informed that this space cannot be used for public assembly as the stairs are too narrow.

Bowling alleys and some other equipment were installed by the firemen and paid for, not by taxation, but by various donations, accumulated dues and funds raised many years ago by the original Fire Company through dances and amateur shows. To give Mr. Strauber the benefit of the doubt, he may not know this; it's ancient history.

I trust the above facts will be of interest to the residents of this community who no doubt were as disturbed as I was by these unfounded accusations. Bethpage N. Y. Nov. 16, 1958.

SPORT-O-GRAMS

MR. BASEBALL!
 By Nat Ferraro

Few men in a any industry, profession or sport have had an exciting or honorable career as has Ed. Barrow, former general manager of the New York Yankees. Way back in 1915 he managed the Red Sox to the pennant. In the next year he made baseball history by converting Babe Ruth to the outfield. For the next few decades he was the guiding genius behind the numerous pennants and World championships won by the Yanks. Only recently he was elected to the Hall of Fame. It will be a long time, if ever, that his like will come along our way.

There will be no stockpile but the inventory looks fairly good for Hicksville High when it gets around to the football business again next fall.

Expected to return from this year's Comet crew which turned in a respectable four and three record are 14 varsity and second string lads who will provide coach Bill McNamara with a starting point.

Martin Katz, who threaded the needle which nearly pitched Farmingdale, will be set to fill the air with forwards next fall and he will have Ed Scott, running from halfback, to gather them in once more.

The turn of another year will make the promising running of Ken Connors, he slashed some 28 yards to set up the winning TD against Westbury, more certain.

In the line John Martarello will be as welcome a tackle as any coach could want and he will aid the work of Len Foster at tackle, Pat Baris at guard, Tom Klemenok at center.

Four ends are scheduled for another season. Richard Hogan, Vic Tricola, Robert Muller and John De Vaul are on the returning lists.

Perhaps we haven't caught all those who will be in the Orange and Black in '54 but the effects of the building program of the athletic department under Chet Jaworski are apparent.

This year Ted Scholefield coached his freshman team to five straight wins after an opening loss to Garden City. Bill Anderson had an enjoyable campaign as his Jay Vee team won four and tied one without a loss.

In the present day scheme of interscholastic athletics activity on a varsity level must be supported by a program which feeds experienced players into it.

And next year might see the start of a big payoff for Hicksville.

Their performances were so good for the Freshman eleven that both Victor Schadachny and John Roberts are given an outside chance to leap to the varsity in their sophomore years.

Savings Assoc. Increases Rate

FARMINGDALE—The dividend rate of the Farmingdale Savings and Loan Co. starting with the current dividend period payable Dec. 31st has been increased to 2 and 3/4 per cent per annum. It was announced this week by Rudolph H. Weber, president. The increase was voted at a meeting of the Board of Directors on Nov. 10.

The company has been serving this community and surrounding areas for the past 19 years in savings and mortgage lending.

basketball game against Manhasset, Dec. 1st.

At present Joe Pepe, faster on the court than he is on the gridiron; Richard Evaschuk, Tom Knipfing, Bob Payton, Ed Scott and John DeLay appear to be running in front for starting berths.

However, the mill turns quickly with Chet Jaworski seeking the right combination to keep the Orange up in the front ranks of the Nassau court game so it is much too early to find any clear lines drawn.

It may well be that Jaworski will see fit to go down to the Jay Vee ranks and pull one or two of those now slated for service there. The nod or nods may go to Ron Caly, Vic Tricola, Bob Frazer, Richard Hogan, Al Rife, Bob Di Lorenzo, Roger Gline, Bob Zembrosuskin, Jim Kelly or Ed Maura.

Those are aside from the boys he has now working out on the varsity level.

Steve Ruggiero found 25 aspirants for his PBC Alumni team when he called the first practice session Monday night.

There was a possibility of the always touchy problem of cutting but Steve was forearmed with a plan that could spare him that task.

"We will run them, and see who can run," said the mentor who has three straight Alliance championships behind him based on just that theory.

And run they did with those who couldn't keep up with the pace dropping off every so often.

When the demanding workout was finished Ruggiero counted Stan Kellar, Bill Byrnes, Ted Scholefield, Bill Chesock, Dick Kerbs, Ruben Callajas, Pat Enos, Morton Rossner, John Econopolou, Reg Jederowski and Reg Avelord as definite candidates.

Farmingdale's Charlie Finger, presently starring for Adelphi College on the football field, will be another player soon to join and the club looks for the return of Tom Hartmann and Jim Quinn.

There is a big player list to fill however and Ruggiero could use more candidates. They are welcome to consult with him Monday nights until 10 o'clock in the high school gym.

Name Judges For Teen Essays

HICKSVILLE—Miss Helen Farley, high school principal, and Mrs. Edna Lubbe Sutton, School Board member, have consented to act as judges of Teen Canteen's essay contest together with Adolph Solin, of that organization. Mrs. Estel Orono Cogan, Contest Chairman, announced today.

Prizes for the most successful essay on the subject of "What I Want in a Teen Age Recreation Program" will be presented at the Teen Canteen Christmas Night dance at Levittown Hall. Twenty-five dollars in cash will go to the writer of the best essay, with ten dollars and five dollars going to the two runners-up.

Teen Canteen wishes to express its appreciation for the cooperation of Miss Viola Woods, who heads the English Department, and to Leon Galloway, Junior High School principal, for their help.

Warm support for the plan to appoint paid professional teenage recreational directors was voiced by Teen Canteen this week in a letter to School Board. The letter also thanked the board for permitting the use of the elementary schools by Teen Council in the evenings.

Other action taken by the Canteen's board includes approval of the plan to divide Teen Council into two groups, one to meet at the Burns Ave. School and one at the Dutch Lane School in order to make Canteen facilities more available to young people in each area. Ed Kari, Teen Council Chairman, announced that the next dance would be held Nov. 28 at Levittown Hall.

Nominations for the annual election of Canteen officers were set for the next board meeting Nov. 23.
