Hall Policy Takes Shape; Levitt Owes Back Taxes

HEMPSTEAD—Public notice was given today that a public hearing will be held in the Board Room of the Town Hall, here, on Wednesday morning, Dec. 9, starting at 10 o'clock upon "the adoption of rules for the regulation" of Levittown Hall in Hicksville. The hearing will be conducted by Supervisors Harold P. Herman, John M. McConnell and Charles E. Ransom as commissioners of the "Oyster Bay-Hempstead Joint Community Hall and Swimming Pool District" which takes over management of the Hall from Levitt and Sons on Jan. 1.

The published notice of sale of tax liens on lands for unpaid taxes, scheduled to start Dec. 7, at the County Courthouse in Mineola, this week disclosed that $4,248.52 in taxes has not been paid by Levitt & Sons and County Community Corp, Levitt subsidiary on the development in Hicksville. Of the total, $3,070.17 in taxes is due on the Hall and surrounding property, listed as owed by "Levitt & Sons".

Santa Claus will make a personal appearance, first riding through the area in an open car to announce the gathering at the school. There will be presents and candy for each child. Jim Surles is chairman for the civic group with Mel Gertzen, co-chairman, aided by Edna Ney, Netta Howell and Jim Barry. It marks the second annual Christmas Party by Woodbury Garden Civic Assoc.

4 School District Reject Merger

BETHPAGE—Prospects of a four-district consolidation in this area were seen quitted this week when representatives of Flintridge, Bethpage, Island Trees and Plainview School Districts indicated they will "go it alone" on a high school construction program. Loss of home rule and the high costs involved were cited as main reasons for the decision to forget about merge the school districts.

Service Clubs In Joint Session

JERICHO—Frank Warner, general secretary of the Nassau-Suffolk YMCA will talk on "American Folklore" at a dinner meeting in the Milleridge Inn here, tomorrow (Wednesday) noon when the Rotarians will be guests of the Kiwanis Club.

Banker Presents Safety Insignia To 20 Boys In Junior High Patrol

HICKSVILLE—"The only part of a bicycle we worry about is the nut behind the handlebars," declared Patrolman John McNamee in a talk at the Junior High School, last Thursday, Nov. 19 at 1 P.M. when the 20 boy members of the school's Safety Patrol were awarded real white leather Sam Browne belts by the Long Island National Bank of Hicksville. Making the presentation was William E. Koutensky, president of the bank.

Although Patrolman McNamee's comment drew a wave of laughter from the students in the assembly hall, they were all keenly interested as evidenced by the attention paid to the officer. He told them never to ride their bikes at night unless it was an absolute necessity and then, that to comply with the state law they should have a headlight visible for 500 feet and a tail light reflector, visible for 200 feet.

He emphasized that, according to the New York law a bicycle is a "vehicle", and that it should have a horn and handlebars. When laughter followed this remark he said: "You'd be surprised at the number of children who ride with a piece of pipe stuck in place of handle bars."

He also warned the children that they should use hand signals the same as the driver of a car and be demonstrated the correct gestures.

He said: "If you don't tell the motorist behind you that you are going to make a left turn, how is he going to know it." Other warnings he made included: Never to ride two on a bicycle unless it was intended for that, that the luggage rack was not a seat and that two on a bike caused lack of balance, and that a handlebar rider blocked visibility.

He said: "We have 250 major bicycle accidents in the area, and by these I mean those cases which are hospitalized. These are usually the result of carelessness on the part of the bike-rider."

He also said that the students (Continued on Page 6)

Await Verdict Of County Judge

MINEOLA — County Judge Cyril Brown is expected to make known his verdict on the Hicksville incorporation vote plea by the end of the week. The ten-day period since the hearing on an appeal from the Supervisor's decision in denying the right to a vote expires on Friday, Nov. 27. If Judge Brown upholds Supervisor Ransom's verdict, the proposers will have to start all over again. If Ransom is reversed, a vote could take place on the question in a matter of days.

Classes Tomorrow

HICKSVILLE—Adult Education classes will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) Thanksgiving eve, it was announced today by Ebery Bean, program directory. The Adult Education classes are preparing for open house set for Dec. 9 in the high school starting at 8 o'clock.

ROTARY DECIDES TO WAIT:

Postpones Ambulance Project

HICKSVILLE—The Rotary Club has decided to postpone action as a group on efforts to get an ambulance for the community "for six months to a year", it was disclosed this week by Dr. James Goris, chairman of a special committee of the club, following a meeting with the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Goris reported that the fire commissioners said they would accept an ambulance on behalf of the fire district, if it were presented to them, but "could not guarantee the successful operation of it on a volunteer basis". They indicated to the Rotary committee that "paid attendants" might be required, boosting the district budget, plus the additional insurance coverage required.

Other groups which have, from time to time, suggested that the fire district provide ambulance service on a volunteer basis have been the Hicksville Civic and Community Assoc. which has been in favor of a community ambulance since 1948, and more recently the North West Civic Assoc.

The proposal has generally been coolly received by authorities although such service is provided successfully in Bethpage, Farmingdale and other neighboring fire districts.

Show Features Variety Of Interesting Hobbies

BY ELIZABETH BAKER
HICKSVILLE — "There's something about a Hobby Show. It's as exciting as a fair," an attendant was heard to remark Thursday night when a large number of people attended the High School's P.T.A. Show in the school gymnasium.

bit, collected by Edward Profit and a display of Confederate money, bonds and even documents written by the Confederate side were in the show, collected by Leon Galloway. (Continued on Page 3)

Chemistry experiments were in process with Roy Stephens as the young chemist. There was a glittering array of old glass including examples of the old Bull's Eye window collected by R. A. Buckley, a complete scene created from sea shells, drift wood and other treasures washed up by the sea, arranged by Mrs. Alfhild Nygren and hundreds of different kinds of buttons from the collection of Miss Roby Burt, also chairman of the affair. The glass exhibit even included a brown glass ventilator window from an old Pullman car, the music was picked up from a Richard Ferns demonstrated a "talking light beam." He said that phonograph, amplified and sent to the light beam. This was picked up and reamplified by a photoelectric cell. It was explained that this could be heard at any distance as long as the light beam hits the photoelectric cell. William Eisenmann showed a radio and amplifier on the same table.

Old playbills were on exhibit.

Keute, Segall Seeking Water Position In Vote

PLAINVIEW—Joseph Segall, 36 Amby Ave., today announced his candidacy for the post of Water Commissioner in the Plainview Board of Water Commissioners. The election takes place Tuesday, Dec. 1, between 3 and 10 P.M. in the new Water District offices located on Old Country and Manetto Hill Roads.

Segall, who is a college-trained engineer holding a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering, has compiled an impressive record in community affairs since his taking up residence in the community approximately two years ago. He is opposing incumbent Gus Kente who is seeking reelection.

Segall has served as a coach and sponsor of the local Police Boys Club, is an active member of the School District's building and grounds committee and is a member of the Civic Association's Board of Directors.

On a number of occasions he has stated that he feels that community-elected officials have the clearly defined responsibility of "bringing to the residents on regular scheduled occasions a report of the activities and functions of their respective offices."

"In the matter of the Water District," he remarked, "information is sporadic and appears to be forthcoming only when some controversy arises."

"Although Water District meetings and records are open for public inspection," Segall pointed out, "you can't expect Plainview's residents, who, after all, are supporting the Water District, to appear at these meetings to seek information."

"Since the residents are bearing the burden of costs, they are entitled to receive systematic activity reports and if I receive the support of the residents in this Dec. 1 election I intend to see to it that they get the information they are entitled to receive," Segall concluded.

Segall is 28 years old, married and has two daughters, Deborah, 4½ and Judith, who is 1.

NEIGHBOR DOWLING VIEWS NEWS: Your Vote Dec 1 Is Important

By JOHN DOWLING
Plainview residents will go to the polls next Tuesday, Dec. 1, between the hours of 3 and 10 P.M. to elect a Water Commissioner to a three-year term on the district's Water Board. The voting will take place in the new Water District offices on Manetto Hill and Old Country Rds.

The District's Water Board is composed of three commissioners who function as the top policy makers in the Plainview water setup and are permitted allowances not to exceed a $1,000 a year for their efforts. They also employ a District Water Superintendent who is paid somewhere in the neighbor of $6,000 annually and who in turn, in addition to other important duties such as supervision and operation of the district's highly technical pumping machinery, is in charge of other Water Dept. personnel. He also reports to the three-man Board of Water Commissioners.

As can be readily seen, the post of Water Commissioner is an extremely important position and merits a great deal of community respect.

It is the responsibility of the residents of the Plainview community to participate in the December 1 water district election. As one resident so aptly put it:

"It is our civic duty to make plainview one of the finest communities in Nassau County and we can only do that by maintaining interest in community affairs and voting in all our home community elections." Don't forget the election date and exercise your "home-rule" right by voting.

PTA HEARS POLICE OFFICER Urges Local Youth Centers

HICKSVILLE — "Youth Centers should be a must in every community," asserted Nassau County Police Lt. George Barr, Thursday night, Nov. 19, in a talk on "Juvenile Delinquency" before the Burns Ave. PTA, here.

"Despite the fact that much juvenile misbehavior is unreported, last year one million children were picked up by police throughout the country with 350,000 of these going through Children's Courts.

"Each year," he estimated, "the percentage of juvenile misbehavior rises and in most cases this means juvenile crime. By 1960 there will be eight and one-half million children between the ages of 10 and 17 when the problem will become acute."

NEED ADULT HELP

Lt. Barr pointed out that a great deal of good is done by Police Boys Clubs but that really, crime prevention in this age group, was a community responsibility, deserving the whole hearted support of all citizens. "Despite this," he declared, "when 205,000 letters were sent out soliciting funds in Nassau County less than 25 cents per family, or $40,000 was received."

In conclusion, Lt. Barr stated: "Fifty per cent of today's hardened criminals are former juvenile delinquents with criminal records. Therefore as delinquency increases, so will crime and lawlessness."

Gladys Kist, publicity chairman of the PTA group, gave a brief talk on her experiences with Teen Center and public apathy toward the teenage problem.

Dance Centre Opens

HICKSVILLE — The E & H James centre will hold registration this Saturday, Nov. 28, at the Amateurs Hall at 25 E. Marie St., opposite the firehouse. The school is under the direction of Emily Foubert and Helen Link. Registration hours are 10 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Supreme Court Reverses Town Board

In a case very similar to our own home rule movement, the Oyster Bay Town Board found itself overruled by the Supreme Court this week. Naturally, we are very pleased and encouraged. A year ago last April residents of an unincorporated area adjacent to Muttontown (an incorporated village) petitioned the Town Board to consent to its annexation to Muttontown. Owners of more than two thirds of the assessed property joined in the petition. The Board rejected the petition on the grounds that the annexation to an incorporated village was not in the best interests of the residents. To put it bluntly, after reviewing the facts the Supreme Court, told the Board it was all wet!

'Not in the Best Interests'

This business about "not in the best interests" strikes a familiar note in Hicksville. It's exactly what the Board said about our petition. When the people, 6242, in our case fulfill all of the requirements of the law in trying to get home rule and are told that what they want is not in their best interests, what does it mean?

It can only mean that the Board believes we are not fit to run our own affairs. Do you believe that?

Why Do They Object?

What kind of a reason do you suppose the Town Board has for objecting to incorporating any community in Oyster Bay. It certainly can't be on account of taxes because the incorporated villages get more for their tax dollar, than we do. It can't be that the Oyster Bay Town Board gives us better government. That's a bad joke here in Hicksville. The only reason that's apparent is that they will lose some of their power and influence if we incorporate. By preventing incorporation, they can effectively keep the people from having a real voice in the government affairs. They can keep control in their own tight little group and resist the will of the people. That's why they don't want incorporation!

Fate Depends on County Judge

The fate of the present effort to bring local home rule to Hicksville is in the hands of Nassau County Judge Cyril J. Brown. There's every reason to believe that Supervisor Charles E. Ransom's rejection of our petition will be declared to be all wet! For the good of Hicksville as a leading Long Island community, we certainly hope so.

"Advertising for competitive bids is required under Section 15 of the Public Works Law, for all Public Works in excess of $2,500." See 5 opinions of the State Comptroller, 289, 1949.

"The following contracts for Public Works were let without advertising for competitive bids, although proposals were obtained from several concerns in each instance."

- Purchase and Installation of Parking meters in the Hicksville Parking District—$17,111.50
- Construction of the comfort station at Alhambra Beach $3,075.62 (State Audit page #13)

This may be another of those "small things." Disregarding the laws which they are sworn to maintain, is not one of those things "The Town Fathers" should be proud of. If by chance, or design, there are any among them that are proud of "these small things", please let me know who you are so that the people can be advised of your name.

We the people have a healthy respect for the laws of our land; should we expect less of our "Town Fathers"?

They wanted to stand on their record, we'll play some more next week.

obey the law to cross only at the corners in the high school vicinity, but that down in the village, they don't. "The pedestrian only has the right away at the intersection," he said.

KOUTENSKY SPEAKER
Before he presented the Sam Brown belts to the boys, and swore them in, Bank President Koutensky told the students that he lived in Hicksville when the only school was the one on Nicholas St. He also told an interesting story about Dizzy Dean who was told that his English had been criticized after a radio appearance. He was asked just how far he had gone in school. Dizzy replied: "To the sixth grade because I did not want to pass my father."

In presenting the belts he said that he could see that the students had been admiring Patrolman McNamee's uniform and that he was sure the Sam Brown belts would give them additional pride in their duty of protecting the lives of their fellow students.

(A picture of the group will appear in Friday's Herald—Editor Dr. Eric H. LeBarron, superintendent of Schools, who introduced Koutensky, also gave an interesting talk to the students. He said he wanted to compliment the Safety Squad, Leon Galloway, Junior High principal, and Mrs. Anne Merrill, faculty member who is in charge of the patrol, for their work because he knew that the qualities of Scholarship, Leadership and good citizenship were required for the job.

He commented on the fact that Mr. Koutensky had been in Hicksville for 47 years and had risen to the top in his field as president of the bank.

"I have never found a man who worked harder for our community than Mr. Koutensky," he said. "It is through him that we have our annual Christmas party at the Hicksville Theatre which some of you must have attended. It is through him that many of our graduates have secured positions in the bank."

Receiving the belts in behalf of the Safety Patrol was its captain, Erik Rifkin. He thanked the donor and then led the assemblage in the Salute to the Flag.

Music was provided when the students marched to and from the auditorium by the school orchestra led by Norman Seip, faculty member.

An efficient member of the afternoon's program was Miss Barbara Jud, vice president of the Student Council, who in a completely poised way acted as master of ceremonies.

Present as an observer was Patrolman John Redican.

HICKSVILLE GABLES:

Sgt Nagley Home From Korea

By CONSTANCE GIBSON

Hicksville 4-1482
Sorry we had to miss last week. We would especially like to thank everyone who showed concern over the absence of the column.

The Gables' Neighborhood club has been progressing very nicely, thanks to the weekly subscribers of their little paper. So far, they have collected some $28.50 for the polo fund. We regret, however, to have to announce that because of the strain on both the children and Mrs. McCoy of 8 Gables Rd. who has been aiding the children in the preparation and mimeographing of the paper, it will now be issued bi-monthly rather than weekly.

In connection with the paper, the children ran a contest, the prize a $5 gift certificate from the Hicksville Bike and Toy. Miss Virginia Uehel, 8, of 15 Gables Drive won at a drawing in the McCoy home, Saturday, Nov. 14. If you get and enjoy the paper or wish to get it, we wish you would give Mrs. McCoy a call.

We would like to extend a belated congratulations to Eric Weller of South Elm St. who did such a wonderful job in the High School production of "The Fortune Teller." Mr. Weller's brothers, Sam Weller of Plainville Rd. and Walter Weller of Liberty Ave. and their families, along with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Weller and daughters, Audrey and Marion, of South Elm St. attended the show.

Mrs. Donald Nagley of 35 Gables Drive welcomed her husband Master Sergeant Nagley home Thursday, Nov. 19 after a 14 month stay in Korea. While in Korea, Sgt. Nagley served as head of the Casualty Commission, a position which called for frequent visits to the front lines. He is now stationed with the ROTC at Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute as an instructor.

Also home from the service is HMB Arthur Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baldwin Sr. of 13 Gables Rd. HMB Baldwin took his family down to the Brooklyn Navy Yard, Saturday, Nov. 21, to visit his ship "The Orion" which she is at anchor there.

The Baldwins also celebrated two birthdays this past week. Mrs.

Baldwin celebrated her's Nov. 15 and her son, Peter, his ninth on the following day. A small family gathering made the occasion a memorable one.

Edwin Feurenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Feurenstein of 31 Gables Drive marked his eleventh birthday, Thursday, Nov. 19. However, he is waiting till the Thanksgiving holidays to celebrate with a family gathering.

We would like to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Lee of 21 Gables Drive who welcomed a son, William Joseph, Nov. 9. The baby, who weighed, 8 lbs., 12 ounces at birth is the complex third child.

Mrs. M.J. Phelan of 39 Gables Rd. is leaving tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, for Hamilton, Canada, to spend the holiday weekend with her brothers who live up there. Mrs. Phelan's parents Mr. and Mrs. Doody of New Foundland are also journeying there along with other members of the family, for the first gathering of the entire family in fourteen years.

Mrs. Ed Snekensberg of 23 Gables Rd. was chosen a class mother at the Parents and Teachers Tea held Nov. 12, at Hicksville High School. The Tea, mainly for the parents of Junior High students, was catered by the girls of the Junior High homemaking class.

Mrs. Arthur Strirat of 66 West Cherry St. and children Arthur and Carolyn are leaving Nov. 30 for Miami, Fla., where Mr. Strirat has purchased a gas station and the family will live.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartels of Greenlawn are giving a housewarming Nov. 30 for members of the family. The couple who had resided on New Bridge Rd. for 40 years expect some hundred guests. Mr. and Mrs. John Olson and Mr. and Mrs. William Horn of 303 Plainville Rd. are giving a Thanksgiving party for members of their family and also for Mr. and Mrs. Ducaux of Massapequa.

Mrs. Olson who was on the committee for the East Street School Bazaar informs us that it was a huge success, netting some $660. Mrs. Olson said, however, that they could have done better if they had had more contributions.

Laumann Given Dinner, Friday

CENTERPORT — Herman E. Laumann of Garden City was honored at a dinner on Friday evening, Nov. 20 at Link's Log Cabin, here, for his many years of service as secretary of the Long Island Water Conference. Laumann is president of the C. W. Laumann Co., of Bethpage.

Mr. Laumann was presented with a guest book signed by the 154 well wishers who attended the dinner along with a copy of "This is Your Life, Herman Laumann" which was read by Clarence Hamel of the Manhasset-Lakeville Water District. Expressions of gratitude were offered by Otto Laux, retiring president of the Conference and member of the Franklin Square Water District and the new resident, Ken Eden of Manhasset-Lakeville District.

Married In Spokane, Wash.

Following a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Banschback, who were married Oct. 18, were at home in Apt. 1206 Cooper-George Apts., Spokane, Washington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson V. Banschback of 16 Nelson Ave., Hicksville. His wife, the former Beverly Mae Eastwood, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eastwood of 605 Hally Ave., Crookston, Minn.

The ceremony took place in St. John's Lutheran Church in Spokane at 4 P.M. with the Rev. Theodore E. Dorpat officiating. Thirty candles were used to light the church altar which was banked with baskets of white, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride's white waltz length gown was designed with a nylon tulle skirt over white slipper satin, and high boned collar. A Juliet cap of satin and lace held her finger veil. To travel she wore a cinnamon colored flannel suit with matching hat, gloves and shoes and a stole of natural muskrat.

The church reception was held under the direction of the Vesper Guild with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums centering the bride's table, flanking around miniature figures depicting the wedding party.

The chatter about Macy's coming into Hicksville has ended with the recent report in the dailies on the shopping center being planned for Roosevelt Field. Another big name along with Macy's is expected to break soon. . . . Meanwhile Plainview Shopping Center on South Oyster Bay Road is starting construction of its 50 store center including the following tenants: Grant's Woolworths, Miles Shoes, Kent Cleaners, Fanny Farmer Candies, Thom McAn Shoes, Jay Jewelers, Grand Union, Whelan Drug, Post-ure Line Shoes, Great Western Meats, A & F, Wilbur-Rogers, Glenda-Lyn Shops, Cotton Fair Ladies Apparel, Mayfair Cleaners, Bakery, Cocktail Bar & Lounge . . .

Across the street in the GREAT MIDWAY SHOPPING CENTER stores scheduled are JC Penny, presently with branches located in Levittown and Smithtown, Neisner Bros. 5 & 10, National Shoes, Food Fair and other specialty shops . . . The big question around town is "What about the big Stackler & Frank Shopping Plaza," some say looks bad what with Macy opening in Roosevelt Field, while others remark its just a matter of time until the big name department store is announced. However others cannot understand why Macy's did not open in Hicksville, the fastest growing community on the island, in the geographical center with every convenience nearby railroad station, bus lines, easily accessible by major highways from all of Long Island, meanwhile centers go up left and right around Hicksville. . . . GOLF, with Pat Naso as instructor, is among the courses in the Hicksville Adult Education program conducted Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 P.M. The subject is described as "professional instruction for novices and players with some experience. An opportunity to get started in this popular sport or improve your game is offered". Naso is kneeling to illustrate a point for the class in the high school gym. In the group are James Korbi, Jim West, Alice Bandazy, Rita LoBianco, Helen Krueider, Warren Allen and Harold Gottlieb. This is the second in a series of pictures of the Adult Education Program, directed by Elery Bean, taken by a student of the photography group.

Hobby Show

 Principal of Junior High School.

Henry Boos displayed his exhibit of roses and other flowers of the long Indian Summer. He showed a pearl gray rose, a Lowell Thomas yellow rose, some Japanese yews which he had rooted in a flower pot and other flowers still in bloom. Mrs. Boos also had an exhibit of her crochet and Cubscouting work in the show.

Albert Flontner, whose exhibit was called "Electronic Equipment," was building a two channel audio mixer.

Mrs. Frank G. Weber's exhibit of metal work and jewelry was much admired and included a hammered brass tray, buttons and costume pins.

The polished beauty of Majolica ware was exemplified in the display added by Mrs. Dora Beames. Mrs. Hester Easer displayed knitting particularly the new types of quickly created articles made with large wooden needles.

Two handsome lace tablecloths on display were the work of Miss Harriet Spink.

Miss Mildred Clark's display of Cookbooks attracted a lot of interest, as did the book plates owned by Miss Helen Clinch.

Margaret Phelan was in charge of the display of Hobby Books from the Hicksville Public Library. Kenneth Barnes, librarian, demonstrated the overhead projector in Room 151, and George Gros showed colored slides of pictures taken in Germany.

John Casser and Stuart Orton, raddle hams, had sets in operation at the show.

Mrs. Charles H. Rowehl, Beatrice Metzger, Mrs. Theodore Metzger and Mrs. Clinton Wilbur showed examples of stenciling. Mrs. Wilbur is the teacher of the Adult Education Class in this work.

Many talented young artists showed paintings. These included 17 year old Marion Strehl, J. McNamee, Eugene Henriksen, Charles Margio, Mrs. Wade, Alice Kraemer, Agnes Meyer, Joan Healy, and another entrant whose name could not be learned in full, listed as Wenck.

Others who took part in the show which benefited the Scholarship Fund were: Mrs. Fred Mohsfield, cubscouting; Roy Willoughby, clay models; Mrs. Angelo Lepetit, woodcarving; John Fouech and William Schelein, both stamp; Brooke Nelson, and Arthur Rath, army badges; Michael Kraynak and Bill Collins, woodworking; David Marsden, David Stupperbean, Jay Peggiali and Harry Faust, model planes; Bob Winterhalter, astronomy; Tom Haller, model cars; Craig Macintosh, stamps and solders; Elsa Petersen, china cups; Fred Tanz, post cards; Arthur Zimmet, science; Esther and Mae Byerly, stamps; Mrs. Abbott, handwriting analysis; Charles Terry, planes—radio operated; Robert Coelino, model boat; Alan Mallet, model cars (old style); Mrs. Halloran, textile painting and Mrs. Alfred C. Anastasia, sewing.

The latter sewing exhibit was an outstanding one as several completely made garments were shown with the patterns attached.

The teachers committee members, who worked hard for the success of the show included: Miss Burt, chairman; Raymond Buvelley, Ruth Daly, James Wellon and Runhild Wessel.

Albert Miller of Hicksville has enrolled as a student at the University of Tulsa.

90th Anniversary

HICKSVILLE—This is the 90th anniversary of the first Thanksgiving Day greeting telegram, according to V. Eichorn, Western Union manager here.
 The first Thanksgiving greeting telegrams were sent 90 years ago when President Lincoln proclaimed Aug. 6, 1863 "as a day for national thanksgiving, praise and prayer." The first, national Thanksgiving Day was proclaimed by President Washington who selected Thursday, Nov. 26, 1789. Uniform national observance started in 1864.

This is the fifty millionth telephone — installed in the White House November 18, 1963

Today There Are Fifty Million

The 50 millionth telephone in the United States has just been installed in the White House.
 Fifty million telephones! That's more than in all the rest of the world put together. It's one telephone for every three people compared with one for every 68 people outside this country. Nearly 6,500,000 of those phones — about one-eighth of the total — are right here in New York State. They are served by the New York Telephone Company and 108 other telephone companies.
 The growth of telephone service in America is a measure of its growth in value and usefulness. Today it is an essential part of the life of every community — available to practically everybody, everywhere.

 One reason it is so widely used is that its price is well within the reach of everyone. Today the telephone is one of the biggest bargains in the family budget.
 Good service, provided at a fair price, has given the telephone a major role in serving American homes and American industries. It has made us a nation of neighbors.

Central Issues Yuletide Checks

LONG BEACH—Central Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. of Nassau County is delivering $141,041 to 1,126 Christmas Club members this week, Executive Secretary Vance Carnahan announced.

The Yuletide checks, representing more than Central Federal has ever distributed in its history, included not only savings but also dividends that depositors earned on their Christmas Club savings at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent. Last year $90,869.58 was distributed to 781 members.

Carnahan, pointing out that the 1,126 Christmas Club account in 1955 were all in Central Federal's Office here, said he expected the number to be doubled in the coming year with the addition of accounts already flooding into the mutual institution's Hicksville office.

That office was opened in July, 1953, which was much too late for Christmas Club accounts but its Vacation Club counterpart received an enthusiastic reception from people who recognize the value of scheduled savings for a given purpose, Carnahan said.

OVERCOOKED FOR THANKSGIVING:

Field Club Needs League Play To Add Zest To Turkey Day Menu

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

HICKSVILLE—The Field Club spreads a Thanksgiving Day feast for the Mineola-Westbury Vamps in a pointless Nassau Football Conference game, here at 10:30 a.m., Thursday and the rumblings are already loud that the fare isn't too appetizing to Black and White players.

Two weeks ago the Conference decided to cut the last third of its schedule from the books since Glen Cove and Floral Park were in heavy financial difficulty.

The move in effect gave the title to Westbury since Hicksville was some three points behind the Vamps. Each club was to have met the other three times.

Westbury bested the Black and White 15-0 in the first meeting at Hicksville. The next game was to be played at Westbury and the third at Hicksville on the holiday.

When the schedule was cut, however, the game at Westbury was deleted and the Thanksgiving date was allowed to stand.

Since the cost of posters, preparing the field, janitorial services, umpires fees and such make it impossible to start a semi-pro game without an initial cost to the home club of $125.00, this means Hicksville will have to bear the load twice while Westbury is spared. It has been reported that the Vamps took home somewhere around $250.00 from the first contest and will get at least $150.00 guarantee, Thursday.

Supporters of the Hicksville team claim that the Vamps should stand for the expenses of the game.

Moreover friends of both clubs have been trying to get across the point that regardless of the folding of Glen Cove and Floral Park that if Hicksville should win, a third game could be played to decide the title as was originally hoped for.

If the game were advertised in such a manner it would stimulate far more interest and the third outing would attract a banner house.

The league presently plans an All-Star contest at Hicksville, Sunday, with members of the three other teams facing Westbury.

Choosing the local field was a concession that Hicksville still has the best drawing power on the island, but the announcement hasn't caused the slightest bit of excitement.

A hypo is definitely needed for the Turkey game since it will have plenty of competition. Hempstead

High starts against Glen Cove at the same hour while Hofstra College entertains Scranton in the morning.

Football fans who become conditioned to the nothing-can-be-gained-attitude surrounding the meeting may wait for their grid activity promised in the afternoon when a national telecast pits Utah against Brigham Young.

Another consideration is the weather. If it is a so-so day, the gate will suffer.

Hicksville, to meet expenses, must have at least 500 persons stroll past the turnstiles. That includes the guarantee to Westbury.

Any receipts that all persons over that figure bring in both clubs will split evenly, it is reported.
