Election Today Of Commissioners

Ballots are being cast today in Hicksville, Bethpage, Jericho and Plainview to elect commissioners of the three fire districts and a water district.

George J. Engel, incumbent, is opposed in Hicksville by Robert Hammond with voting taking place at the fire house on East Marie St. from 7 P.M. to 10 P.M.

Two new candidates, William Doyle and William Ericsson are running for commissioners in Bethpage, the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Edward Segal, who is not a candidate. Voting will take place from 4 to 10 P.M. at the firehouse on Broadway.

In Jericho the term of William Braun has expired with voting to take place this evening from 7 to 10 o'clock.

August Keute, incumbent water commissioner in Plainview, is opposed by Joseph Segall. The new Water District office on Manner Hill Rd. at Old Country Rd. is the polling place between the hours of three and 10 P.M.

Miss Farley Home from Hospital

HICKSVILLE—Miss Mabel R. Farley, principal of the Senior High School, here, who has been a patient at Nassau Hospital, Mineola, since Sept. 8 when she suffered a fractured leg, has returned to her residence on Miller Rd.

The accident, which caused Miss Farley to miss an opening day of school for the first time in 25 years, occurred when an overhead pulley in her garage door gave away, causing the door to fall and strike her.

Miss Farley said she is now able to walk about with the aid of a cast-walker.

Mailmen Collecting for Fund

Hicksville and Bethpage Mail Carriers report "results even better than expected" from the first day collection of the Letter Carriers March for Muscular Dystrophy, Sunday. The drive will continue all week, it was said at both post offices.

John H. Knapp, Jr., co-chairman of the Hicksville drive with Michael J. Psylak, said that since a lot of the collections were not in yet, it would be difficult to make any statement at present.

John Minnick, chairman of the Bethpage drive, stated: "We had very good luck, better than we expected, covering about one-half the territory." He added that average donations per home were one dollar.

Town, Chamber Acts On Grade Crossings

HICKSVILLE—A determined effort to get the railroad grade crossing here eliminated took shape here yesterday (Monday) at a luncheon meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors with township and state officials. Oyster Bay town officials are expected to seek a Public Service Commission hearing upon the necessity for action on the no. 1 local traffic headache as the preliminary to an all out campaign by the community.

Assemblyman John J. Burns told of the importance of getting the local crossings from the Second Part of the legislative program into the more urgent First Part category before an effort to get state funds appropriate stand a chance.

Present for the conference at the Alibi Restaurant were Assemblyman Burns, Supervisor-Elect Leo Waters and Councilman Frank Chlumsky, and the following Chamber officials: Mal Pierce, vice president; William Payson, secretary; Henry G. Eisemann, treasurer; William E. Koutinsky, Aaron Rochman, Ernest F. Francke, Everett Smith, Fred Herman, George Rappaport, Michael Sullivan and Sam Pace.

Current funds available for grade crossing work in the state has been appropriated, all on projects in the First Part classification under the laws of 1941, as amended. Suggested action by the community and public officials were outlined by Assemblyman Burns.

Red Cross to Meet

HICKSVILLE—A meeting of the local branch of the American Red Cross will be held tomorrow evening, (Wednesday), in the high school, at 8 o'clock.

Rotarians Guest of Kiwanians

JERICHO—"We ought to do this more often," was the consensus of opinion of Kiwanians and Rotarians when the latter club members were guests in Millbridge Inn, here, Wednesday, Nov. 25 of the Kiwanis Club at the regular weekly luncheon-meeting.

An unusually entertaining program was presented by Frank Warner of the YMCA, president of the New York Folklore Society. His hobby is collecting folk songs from all over the country, tracing them back to the foreign country from whence they usually came, and recording them. Most of his recordings, some of which he played at the meeting, are preserved in the Library of Congress. Besides playing the records he sang several (Continued on Page 2)

INDEPENDENT COMMITTEE OFFERS:

Apology to Plainview Taxpayers

PLAINVIEW—A group identified as the "Independent Committee for the Election of Joseph Segall" today urged the election of their candidate as a commissioner of the water district. Voting takes place today, Tuesday, between 3 and 10 P.M. at the Water District office on Manner Hill Rd. August Keute, incumbent whose term expires, is seeking re-election.

The Committee's statement follows:

"The men and women who, last year, successfully campaigned for John Edwards in his election to the Board of Commissioners of Plainview Water District and who, this year, are endeavoring to do the same for Joseph Segall, feel that they owe the taxpayers and voters of Plainview an apology.

"The basic philosophy of these men and women has always been that, since the small home owners are now the majority group in Plainview, they should be entitled to majority representation in the management of Plainview affairs.

BETRAYED TRUST

"In Mr. Edwards they thought they had found a man who had adopted that philosophy and would work and fight for it. Unfortunately, however, the committee of your neighbors who worked diligently to put Mr. Edwards on the Water Board last year, now finds that he has seen fit to betray the trust that was placed in him and has apparently joined the ranks of those who hold that the small home owners are 'intruders' in Plainview and should mind their own business.

"This year, however, a man who has proven that he is interested in and will work for Plainview as a whole has come to these men and

Offer Cash Prizes for Best Coloring of Christmas Story

The Christmas Story coloring contest of the Mid-Island Herald in cooperation with the Bank of Hicksville starts today and all boys and girls of the mid-Island area 11 years of age and younger are invited to join in the fun for cash prizes.

The first panel of the Christmas story series appears on page six. A new panel will be published each Tuesday and Friday until the contest closes on Monday, Dec. 21. The Christmas story panels with their reverent and inspiring scenes reflect the true spiritual meaning of the Christmas season.

The Bank of Hicksville will award three cash prizes. The first prize is $10.00, the second prize $7.50 and the third prize $5.00.

The panels are to be colored with crayon or paints, as the children prefer. The complete set of panels in the series will be turned in at the Herald office 98 North Broadway, Hicksville, on Dec. 21 for judging by a group of prominent women and asked for their support. This man is Joe Segall, a small home owner, whose record of service to the district on the school district's Building and Grounds Committee, with the civic association and in the boy's baseball league speaks for itself.

"It was not very difficult to recognize, in Mr. Segall, a man whose integrity, intelligence and willingness to work for the community were worthy of support. The support was gladly given in the knowledge that the voters of Plainview would join in and put Mr. Segall in office where he can serve them even more effectively. It is important for Plainview that Mr. Segall is successful in his attempt to unseat the incumbent, Mr. Keute.

"Mr. Keute's supporters claim that he has been a prime mover (Continued on Page 5)

except children of employees of the Herald and the Bank of Hicksville, the bank with the clock.

Don't Look, We're Photogenic

Evidently the Hicksville area has photogenic appeal. This week a call was received at the Mid-Island Herald from the fashion dept. of the "Ladies Home Journal," famous for its coverage of women's news, including fashions and fashion illustrations, as well as for the slogan "Never underestimate the power of a woman."

A pleasant feminine voice asked "What's the weather like out in Hicksville? We said: "It's raining, we can see the rain splashing in the puddles."

"Oh dear! we were going to take some pictures out there today. You don't think the sun is going to come out at all?"

"No" we had to reply, so looks like one of these days Hicksville is going to be the atmosphere for some of those famous fashion shots.

CENTER CIVIC COMMENTS:

Hopeful of Meeting About C.D.

By GEORGE McCARTHY

Sorry we missed last week's column, but this writer was sick puppy them, and even thinking of this C.D. mess was enough to make me worse. I hope that will be the only column we miss until we are able to report a favorable settlement of this dispute.

There has been no change in the situation since the last column, so there is very little to say. We were certainly happy to see someone else blast the C.D. mess publicly the way Allen Carpenter did in the Herald. If more public-spirited citizens spoke their minds, this mess would have to be cleared up.

In this Thanksgiving season, we have one thing to be thankful for, that we have had no emergency arise, that we would have to depend upon C.D. to safeguard us. Looking to C.D. to help us in any crisis would be like leaning on a rubber crutch.

We should be thankful that the inefficient, undermanned and bewildered C.D. was not called upon to help the public out of any trouble. Let's hope it will not be needed, until it can be rebuilt as it should be.

We have spoken to a few politicians, and we are now hopeful that a meeting can be arranged that we may talk over these things with responsible people.

The silence, and the apparent indifference of the heads of "C.D." will not break our determination to clean up "C.D." We know it would be a long fight when we started it, and we will not give up or compromise our aims at all.

Again we want to thank Mr. Carpenter for joining us in this fight for better "C.D." and we invite the public to contact us in care of the Herald, and express your own views on the subject. Remember, the sooner "C.D." is cleaned up, the sooner you will have the additional protection C.D. should afford you.

TB next week.

Making Plans For New Church

HICKSVILLE—Plans are being formulated for the new Our Lady of Mercy R.C. Church building, it was made known at the recent meeting by the Rev. Louis J. Schwietzke, pastor of the church, who is holding temporary services in a building at the corner of South Center Bay Rd. and Old Country Rd., Plainview.

Five acres of ground has been donated as a site for the new church by John Frechich, who made the gift a number of years ago when he sold farm land to the Hillside Terrace development.

A successful benefit was held recently at the church to increase the church building fund when a number of turkeys were given away.

1st Meeting Set

PLAINVIEW—The first Sisterhood meeting of the Plainview Community Center will take place at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow (Wednesday, Dec. 2) in the home of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edna Toff of 15 Abbey Lane. Plans will be made for the election of officers and of committee chairmen. There will also be discussion of the aims and ideals to be set forth in the by-laws.

I feel so grateful that I have an opportunity to vote. Whether the candidate I prefer wins or loses,

I feel at least I've had my opportunity to state my feelings by way of a ballot. In other local elections, a more handful came out to vote compared with the population of Plainview. Are you not interested in who is handling the water district affairs? How about it? Will you be at the polls to cast your vote? And you gals, get out and vote too. After your husband has voted, and is back home—come on down.

By RAE CANTILLI

Hi Folks:

Since the Water Board Election takes place today, (Tuesday) I would like to remind you that it is extremely important that you get out and vote. If you have need of transportation, give me a call, and I'll be glad to help you out. Your vote is so important. The Commissioners are elected by us the taxpayers—and our water system is in their hands.

I feel so grateful that I have an opportunity to vote. Whether the candidate I prefer wins or loses, I feel at least I've had my opportunity to state my feelings by way of a ballot. In other local elections, a more handful came out to vote compared with the population of Plainview. Are you not interested in who is handling the water district affairs? How about it? Will you be at the polls to cast your vote? And you gals, get out and vote too. After your husband has voted, and is back home—come on down.

If you need transportation, give me a call. Let's show the men we take just as much interest in the community as they do. THE DATE: Dec. 1st; THE TIME: 8 p.m. to 10 P.M. THE PLACE: Water District Office, Old Country and Manette Hill Rd.

NOW FOR THE CANDIDATE

August Reute is the incumbent candidate. His platform is based on his past record as a Commissioner.

Joseph Segall is his opponent. Joe is well known throughout Plainview because of his work in the community. He has devoted time and effort to many activities for community betterment. He is a member of the School Building and Ground Committee, Coach and Sponsor of the Police Boys Club, member of the Board of Directors of Plainview Civic Assn. He is a college-trained engineer with a sound business training. Mr. Segall, a small business owner from the Knickerbocker Homes is backed by an Independent Committee of men and women of all sections of Plainview, who feel he is a honest and capable man, well-suited to such an office.

Take your choice, and come down and vote.

If you have any questions regarding the election give me a call. I'll be glad to help you. One more thing when you vote make an X on the space next to the candidate you prefer. Do not use any other mark or your ballot will be voided.

MARCH OF DIMES

I have the pleasure and honor of being Captain of the March of Dimes of the Plainview Country Homes section. Although the drive does not get off until January, I would like to kind of get things organized here in my area. I would like to hear from any ladies interested in helping to fight the dreaded disease, polio. Very capable Mrs. Katherine Stander of Manette Hill Rd. is Chairman of all of Plainview, and I know she will welcome anyone in Plainview that wishes to help out in January.

So long for now.

and is responsible for a great many of the improvements which have taken place in the Plainview Water District. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The responsibility for any improvements in water supply lies with the engineers for the water district, not Mr. Keute.

DON'T ANSWER

"Mr. Keute has never been able to answer any questions concerning the most elementary workings of the water district. He has always referred such questions to the attorneys, the engineers or the employees of the commission. He has refused to face the taxpayers of Plainview at their civic meetings to discuss water problems because he is aware of his lack of ability and is fearful of having it made more obvious.

"Mr. Keute's supporters credit him with having had the foresight to invest surplus cash in interest-bearing securities. If these monies had not been invested, the commissioners would have been remiss in their duties and would probably have been held personally liable for the loss of interest. It is a safe assumption that the advice to invest the money came not from Mr. Keute but from the attorney for the commission.

"To sum up, Mr. Keute is either uninformed of the affairs of the water district or lacks the courage to discuss these affairs with the taxpayers and is unable to carry

Pick Flowers Thanksgiving Day

HICKSVILLE—Many local people picked flowers in their gardens on Thanksgiving Day, which may or may not establish some kind of a local record. Roses were in bud and in bloom in some yards along Fifth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gill of Fifth St. had a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums in bloom on the south side of their house and came to the rescue of some neighbors who needed a centerpiece for the dining room table by allowing them to pick a pretty bouquet from their yard.

the responsibility of being a water commissioner for the fastest growing community in the east. Progress and growth require that he be replaced by Mr. Segall.

Therefore, on Tuesday, Dec. 1 the voters are urged to get out and elect to their board of water commissioners Joe Segall, an engineer whose education, experience and enterprise make him the more logical candidate.

The voting will be held in the new water district offices between 7 p.m. and 10 p.m. and it will be close. Every vote is needed for Joe Segall and Plainview."

"Independent Committee for the Election of Joseph Segall."

Eileen Gleason was elected vice president, Johnny Peterson, second vice president; Janet Eatz, secretary and Donald Rojas, treasurer. Virginia Woodward is publicity chairman.

All teenagers here are invited to join the club which meets Friday nights in Manette Hill School from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The new membership fee is $2, but renewal of last year's membership is one dollar with no weekly dues charged. Membership cards will be distributed at the next meeting Friday, Dec. 4.

The committee reports that lots of "fun-packed" events are being planned, including roller skating parties, and a dance on Dec. 18 in Manette Hill School from 7:30 to 11:30. The 60 cent admission to the dance will cover refreshments.

CURRENT COMMENT:

Good Start By Chamber

By Fred J. Noeth

BEST NEWS we heard in years was the fact that action has been started to get the Hicksville RR grade crossing elimination program out of the "got to do someday" category into the "it must be done NOW" classification.

With the Township officials moving to request a hearing by the Public Service Commission and underline the urgent necessity of this program, there is an excellent chance that something can be accomplished. We have found that the PSC pays scant heed to the grumbling and complaining of civic-minded groups—but when a municipality asks for action, the wheels begin to turn.

That was proven on the Charlotte Ave. and New South Rd. crossing protection efforts. It was also proven in the case of getting the Rail Road passenger station platform lengthened. After the town board made a formal protest, the PSC called a hearing and things happened.

It is not very comfortable to be regarded as a bear with a perpetual sore paw, but it seems that unless the grunting and groaning reaches the point where delicate, politically conscious toes are trod, then only is the whip cracked and the fur starts to fly.

Our congratulations to the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce which appears destined to obtain the solution of many unsolved and tedious problems resulting from our tremendous growth. Our best wishes are accompanied by our known desire to give any possible assistance at our command.

Toy Supply Overwhelms Scouts

HICKSVILLE—"No more toys, PLEASE"—not this year anyway, declare the members of Thunderbird Explorer Troop 91 Boy Scouts, who are literally "mopping their brows" when they survey the mountain of toys which the kind readers brought in to the HERALD office in response to their plea for toys to be repaired and given to children for Christmas.

Many of the toys given need no repairs, not even painting they were in such good condition.

Joseph Gallagher is senior adviser of the group.

In People's Corner

Written in the interest of better local government . . .

BY ALLEN S. CARPENTER

In their last annual audit, the N. Y. State Auditors say of the Town of Oyster Bay:

"The descriptive data on machinery hired for snow removal was inadequate to determine whether the charges were in accordance with the rates fixed by the State Comptroller." (Verbatim from Page #14 of Auditors Report)

Does this sound like our "sterling Oyster Bay"? Is this good business, let alone good government? I am not trying to suggest that my invocations do exist—because I do not know. But by quoting the Auditor's Report I do intend to show, that if they did exist the auditors have no way of knowing—and that they could exist without our being the wiser.

The Auditor's suggest that: "machinery hired for snow removal should be sufficiently described to determine whether the charges are in accordance with the rates fixed by the State Comptroller." (Verbatim Page #19 N. Y. S. Auditors Report)

This condition of the Public Records is certainly not a laudable one—could this possibly be part of that Great Record? of achievement the Town Fathers are so proud of. This may seem minor to you, and perhaps it would be, if the auditors report had not consisted of 13 pages of the like.

If there are any Councilmen who are proud of this condition, I'd like to hear from them.

Charles Saladino Won Turkey Dinner

Nearly 100 members and friends of the Plainview Post American Legion attended an informal dinner at the Hicksville Legion Hall last week.

Dancing to the strains of the melodic music of John Maraboli and his associates was continuous and received a well-rounded hand of applause.

During the evening a complete Turkey and Trimmings was awarded to Charles Saladino and his family.

Harry Wallach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wallach of 182 5th St., Hicksville, who was seven years old Nov. 27th, is sporting a new "bikie". He also entertained a few young friends to mark the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Salvo and three children, formerly of Hewlett, are new residents at 22 Willis Ave., Hicksville.

Pledged to Zeta Beta Tau at Brooklyn Green State University, Ohio, has been Lester N. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Wagner of 14 Herman Ave., Hicksville.

Just As Expected

Just as we had expected, the "public" hearing upon proposed rules for the regulation of Levittown Hall under the unwanted Joint Hempstead-Oyster Bay Swimming Pool and Hall District will be held during regular working hours. Not only that, but it will be held in the Hempstead Town Hall, far from the people who will be expected to abide by the rules. How many local residents, taxpayers supporting the Hall, do you think will be there? Will you be able to take the day off to attend?

Of The People?

Is this what is called government of the people? Is this what has been loudly proclaimed as Home Rule in Nassau County? The people affected live right here in Hicksville and in neighboring Levittown. Is it "home rule" to ask them to travel to Hempstead to attend a meeting concerning their local affairs? No, we don't believe so.

Can You Have Wednesday Off?

In the event that you have the day off, or can take it off, the public hearing on the Hall will be held in the Hempstead Town Hall, on Front St. at 10 o'clock in the morning of Wednesday, Dec. 9. Note that it's very important to attend this particular meeting, but it would be nice to know that you could be there if you wanted to. Well, come day we will have the kind of local government in Hicksville that we need.

New Parkway Lighting

The new lights on Levittown Parkway certainly are an improvement after having been without them for three years. Much of the credit for getting after the Town Board to install them belongs to the South Hicksville Assoc. of Levitt Home Owners, and to Mr. Neil McCormick in particular. Although we appreciate having the new lights, we think it is a shame that our governing body sitting in Oyster Bay has to be continually prodded to bring about needed new facilities.

About Time For Parking Lots

Other new facilities we are happy about are the new parking lots. But again it took prodding for several years to get the desired results. And we can't really blame the Town Board too much. After all, they are not very close to our community and how can we expect them to realize the seriousness of our problem? They haven't been riding around town looking for a parking place so they could pick up a load of groceries, or lug a new shirt, or even pick up a newspaper or magazine.

Perhaps We Are Too Harsh

Perhaps we are too harsh with our Town Board. We must realize that we are but one of a great many communities which are continually clamoring for service from them. We can't hog their attention. They are only five men and they have a very large area to administer. So how can we expect to have them give us very much serious attention.

If Local Government Neglected Us

If we had a local government here in Hicksville, and they were locally elected officials neglected our needs as the Texan Indians once, then we would have a serious gripe. But if it did, we would be able to get a new official through legal elections. As long as we continue to permit ourselves to be governed by what is in all practical purposes an absentee government, we have only ourselves to blame for all of the neglect.

Fire Auxiliary Party on Dec. 15

Plans were completed for the annual Christmas Party to be held Dec. 15 this year by the Hicksville Fire Dept. Ladies Auxiliary at a recent meeting.

A report of the card party held in November included the following prize winners: basket of cheer, Frank Wallach, 182 Fifth St.; permanent wave, Elizabeth Emmel; high scorers in bunco, Mrs. M. Jeanson; canasta, Mrs. Philip Schaffridge; bridge, R. Numis and pinochle, E. Maxey.

Capable friends will exchange gifts at the Christmas party.

New residents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Golden, of 57 Salem Rd., Hicksville. Formerly of Brooklyn they have a daughter, 7 and a son, 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Prete and son and daughter, formerly of Weehawken, are making their home at 43 Salem Rd., Hicksville.

New residents at 33 Salem Rd., Hicksville, are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leader, formerly of Levittown. Their son is aged three.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Grandolfo, formerly of the Bronx, are new residents at 81 Salem Rd., Hicksville. They have a daughter and two sons.

Winter Bazaar at Fork Lane

Charcoal portraits, fortune telling and free gifts from Santa Claus will highlight the Fork Lane School P.T.A. Winter bazaar on this Friday evening, Dec. 4, from 6 to 10 P.M.

A dining room will be set up serving "the only nickel cup of coffee in town" in addition to sandwiches, ice cream, cake and cold drinks. After a light supper, families will find "fun and bargains for young and old". Joseph J. Parnick, president of the Fork Lane P.T.A. promised.

A Little Theater showing comedy films is planned for the children. A fishing pond and games of skill will also be included. Bazaar booths will feature books for children and adults, jugs, candy and white elephants. A wide variety of home-baked goods also will be on sale.

Jean Jaubert, one of the prominent artists in the community, will be on hand to do portrait sketches at the Winter Bazaar, which is the first planned by the Fork Lane P.T.A. This P.T.A. group was organized only one year ago and has grown rapidly to a membership of over 300 parents. Funds from the Bazaar will be used to sponsor a full program of parent-teacher meetings during the coming year. Herbert Cavanaugh, principal of the Fork Lane School, has worked closely with President Parnick in developing the association's program.

Home Bureau Party Dec. 8

The Hicksville Home Bureau will hold its monthly business meeting this morning (Tuesday Dec. 1) at 10 o'clock at the American Legion Hall, E. Nicholai St.

A colorized film by the well known Dionne Lucas of television will be shown.

The Home Bureau's annual Christmas party will be held on Dec. 8 at the Legion Hall. Mrs. Eugene Williams is in charge of the luncheon to be served that day for all members and guests that wish to participate. Mrs. Joseph Savine is in charge of the entertainment committee.

The last call for membership drive will be in December. All new members are asked to join and the old members to renew their membership.

Our Own Decorating Contest

By CONSTANCE GIBSON

Hicksville 3-1485
A committee of Hicksville Gables residents, Mrs. V. McCoy of 8 Gables Dr., Mrs. William DiBella of 23 South Elm St., and Mrs. Ed. Scheckenber of 28 Gables Rd., and your reporter, have been working very hard these past weeks on plans for a Christmas Decorating Contest solely for the Gables.

This contest, the judging of which is to take place on Dec. 28, is entirely sponsored and run by the Gables. The judges will include Frank Mallett, Herald photographer of 183 Plainview Rd.; Mrs. Blanche Christensen, Head of membership committee of the Independent Art Society, and Mr. H. Kimmel, of the Hicksville House Upholstery Co., 106 Broadway. Please expect a member of the Gables committee to call at your home sometime during the week to explain the contest more fully.

Thanksgiving proved to be a time of great activity in the Gables. Mrs. M. J. Phelan celebrating with her family in Canada, Sargeant and Mrs. Nagley of 35 Gables Drive together after 14 months separation while Sgt. Nagley was in Korea and other families celebrated with friends and relatives too.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Weller and daughter Terry Lynn of 301 Plainview Rd. entertained Mrs. Frances Ketchum, Mrs. Doris Mitchell and son Tommy of 20 Walters Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weller, Audrey, Marion, Bob and Eric Weller of South Elm Street and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weller and son Jimmy of Liberty Avenue at their home for Thanksgiving dinner.

Joseph Graham son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham of 19 Gables Rd. celebrated his 11 birthday at the home of his aunt Mrs. Jerry Marin of Glen Oaks on Thanksgiving day. His birthday falls on November 29.

Bud Chernow whose birthday was Thursday was treated to a surprise party at the home of his sister and brother in law Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Geller on that day. It was also the birthday of another sister in law Mrs. Norma Strole who. The two were perhaps the most surprised people of the day.

Edwin Feurenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Feurenstein of 81 Gables Drive whose eleventh birthday was Nov. 19 celebrated it with a party for his friends Nov. 28. The motif of the affair was Hopalong Cassidy, the cake decorated with cowboys and horses made a wonderful centerpiece. Among those present to join in the fun were Joseph Graham of 19 Gables Rd., William McKee of 38 Gables Rd., Richard and Robert Schell of Gables Rd., Frank Hudac, Edward Harrison, Richard Di Leo, Richard LaSella, Jimmy Pilk, Lawrence Tomackovic and Tommy Boyuka. Doreen Jacobee was the only girl invited and she to keep Edwin's sister Barbara from complete loneliness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scheckenber of 28 Gables Rd. entertained Mrs. Scheckenber's mother Mrs. Anna Oleksi of Brooklyn, Thanksgiving day. She had a particular reason to be thankful since it was the first time in two years that Mrs. Oleksi, a victim of a very serious automobile accident just two years ago this Nov. 26 was able to visit her daughter and son in law.

P-TA Christmas Party Dec. 3

BETHPAGE—Highlighting the Christmas Party program at the Bethpage PTA at 8:15 P.M. will be the showing of the documentary film, "One God—the Ways We Worship." Ninth and tenth grade students have been invited to attend with their parents.

The film to be shown has been called "a long stride towards inter-faith understanding." Educators are said to have found the film to be a unique tool in the classroom. Clergymen feel it has helped tremendously in explaining to parishioners how their neighbors worship. The film is adapted from a book by Florence Mary Fitch and features the music of the Don Coonack Chorus, Zilberts Choral Society, the Santa Cecilia Choir, Union Theological Seminary Choirs and members of the NBC Symphony Orchestra.

The Christmas party will follow a Community Sing of carols and favorite songs. Santa will distribute the gifts. Each person is requested to bring a gift in the $5 to 50 cent price range for the Grab Bag, gifts appropriate for a parent, a teacher or a student.

The film is on for old relics for the PTA Antique Exhibit in January. Anything that relates to the history of Long Island or Bethpage would be especially helpful. Anyone wishing to exhibit old articles or pictures for a one night stand may register with any member of the Program Committee: Mrs. Henry Rockhill, Mrs. John Griffin, Rod Hartjen, Leo Schottland, or phone Mrs. Sam Merlin at Hicksville 4-2470.

Plastic Party, An Anniversary

By MAY MALTZAN
Hicksville 3-4514

A plastic ware party was held at 6 Adams St., Woodbury Gardens, last week. Those present were: Ruth Chamblin, Mrs. Don Drummond, Mrs. Mai Gertzen, Marie Boehle, Betty Hogan, Evelyn Murray, Rene Poole, Mrs. R. Sutton, Mrs. Arbinko, Joyce Hudson, Arlene Stillnagen, Laurine Mayer and Ann Kuchenburg. Mabel Hahn was the demonstrator.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. Don Krywak of 22 Ketcham Rd. celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Saturday, Nov. 21. Their two daughters, Mrs. Walter Czarniecki and Mrs. Alfred Bocafola, and their son, Alfred Bocafola, gave the party which was attended by about 50 guests. We've had more replies to our question "What book most impressed you?" Ruth Claire of Hillside Terrace, feels that she was the most impressed with the book "Gone With The Wind," because the chapters were so strong and the description of the Civil War era so vivid.

Thelma Peitras named "Little Men" as a book she enjoyed. She said that it was not as widely read as "Little Women" but it had much warmth and color.

Mary Goldman also liked "Gone With The Wind" and say she could read it over and over. Mary Simon declares "I'll never forget 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' I recommend this for young and old."

This week's recipe was given us

by Mimi Basilec:

CROSS - COUNTRY CLAM CHOWDER

Makes about 8 cups of chowder
1/2 pound salt pork, finely diced
2 medium-size onions, coarsely chopped
2 medium-size potatoes, pared and finely diced
2 cups water
2 cans (about 7 ounces each) minced clams
1 tall can evaporated milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1. Sauté salt pork until crisp in large saucepan; remove pork bits; drain; leave drippings in saucepan.
2. Add onions; sauté in drippings 3 minutes, or until tender but not brown.
3. Add potatoes, water, and clams and clam liquor; cover saucepan.
4. Bring to boiling; simmer 15 minutes, or until potatoes are just tender.
5. Add evaporated milk, salt, and butter or margarine; heat just to boiling. Do not boil, for chowder may curdle.
6. Just before serving, sprinkle sautéed salt-pork bits over top; serve with toasted common or pilot crackers.
