ABOUT SIX THOUSAND boys and girls enjoyed the visit of Santa Claus to Hicksville, Saturday, and each received a gift from him on Broadway. Police estimate another couple of thousand were present when a helicopter chartered by the Chamber of Commerce landed on the Stackler & Frank property on North Broadway, bringing Santa to Hicksville. Other pictures on Santa's spectacular arrival will appear in Friday's Herald.

Await Court Verdict On Home Rule Appeal

MINEOLA—The decision of County Judge Cyril Brown on the appeal of Hicksville people from the Supervisor's decision on the right to conduct a vote on incorporation of Hicksville as a village is still being awaited. The appeal was argued before Judge Brown, here, on Nov. 17.

Judge Brown has had the appeal under consideration now for 22 days. All parties involved had agreed to an extension of time beyond the 10 days suggested in the village law. The extended period expires two weeks from today on Dec. 22.

Supervisor Charles E. Ransom, following a public hearing on Sept. 17, had turned down the home rule vote petition signed by over 6,000 property owners of Hicksville. The Home Rule Committee of home owners, led by Lawrence A. Roman, has taken the decision before the county judge for review and are asking for a reversal of Ransom's decision.

If the court upholds Ransom, the petitioners will be required to start again with a new plea. If Ransom is reversed, an election on the question will follow within a matter of days.

Honor Poster Boy At Polio Dinner

GARDEN CITY — Five-year-old John J. Coonan of 511 Broadway, Bethpage, chosen as the 1954 Polio Poster Child will be among the guests of honor at the annual spring board dinner at the Garden City Hotel tomorrow (Wednesday) night, Dec. 9. Johnny, who still wears a brace on his right leg, was stricken on Sept. 22, 1950, and treated at Meadowbrook Hospital. Plans for the $300,000 March of Dimes in January will be outlined at the affair for community leaders.

Hillside Civics To Hear Waters

HICKSVILLE—Election of a vice president and treasurer will take place when the Hillside Civic Assoc meets tomorrow (Wednesday) night, Dec. 9 at East St. School. Guest speaker of the evening will be Lewis N. Waters, supervisor-elect of the township, discussing township government.

The Assoc. is making plans for a Christmas party for children of the area and will award three baskets of cheer for the best decorated homes during the holidays.

Levittown Hall Policy Hearing At Hempstead

HEMPSTEAD—A public hearing will be held in the Town Hall, here, tomorrow (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock by the commissioners of the Joint Hempstead-Oyster Bay and Swimming Pool District to consider "policy" regarding the use of Levittown Hall, Hicksville, when it comes under control of the commissioners on Jan. 1.

Built and owned by Levitt and Sons with policy directed by the builder, in cooperation with an "advisory council", the structure will be tax-supported starting with the new year. The commissioners are Supervisors Harold Herman and John McConnell of Hempstead and Charles E. Ransom of Oyster Bay.

A spokesman for the county administration said this week that the regulations proposed "makes it quite clear that any organization which will create agitation, resentment and an uproar endangering the peace and good order of the community" will not be successful as an applicant for use of the hall. The comment was directed, it was said, at "Reds".

Mid Week Coming Events

Chamber Urges More Areas For Public Parking Fields

HICKSVILLE—With a new public parking field now under construction and another projected up for consideration of the Town Board at Oyster Bay today (Tuesday), the Chamber of Commerce directors are preparing to recommend at least four more possible sites. Two are west and two are east of Broadway, all in the vicinity of Marie St.

Car Park Hearing Today

OYSTER BAY—A delegation of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, led by President Al Schackner, is expected to be present in the Town Hall, here, this morning (Tuesday) to urge favorable action by the Town Board upon the parking fields projected for Hicksville. A public hearing will be held on the appropriation of funds for field no. 4 on property formerly owned by Griffin and Rushmore between E. Marie St. and E. Nichol St. on the east side of the L. I. R.R. right of way. The area will hold about 50 cars.

Preliminary negotiations are already in progress in behalf of the Park and Parking District regarding two sites: (1) enlargement of the present field on the north side of W. Marie St by acquiring more property owned by Mrs. F. N. Taliaferro, and (2) near the corner of Marie St and Jerusalem Ave, now owned by Judge P. Lebknecht.

New recommendations approved by the directors were made by Aaron Rochman, chairman of the parking committee, at a Chamber directors' luncheon Friday at the Milleridge Inn. These include property formerly owned by Griffin and Rushmore. One large parcel is bounded by the Rail Road, Bay Ave. and Heitz Pl. and is already being used informally by commuters. The other is bounded by Heitz Pl., Bay Ave. and Plainview Rd. and immediate consideration is urged on that portion of the block formerly owned by Griffin and Rushmore.

Rochman pointed out in his report that the Griffin and Rushmore property is "ideally situated" and can be obtained for a fair price "without dickering and negotiating".

Councilman Frank Chlumsky was present at the meeting together with George Rappaport, attorney for the Park and Parking District.

2 Local Scouts Guests Of Honor

NORTH HILLS—Two Hicksville Eagle Scouts, John Sholl and Richard Gallagher, were guests at the dinner of 54 business, professional and industrial leaders of the County held at the Scout Harbinez Training Centre on Shelter Rock Rd., here, last night (Monday). Henry G. Eisemann, president of the Bank of Hicksville, was toastmaster.

Eisemann explained that the purpose of the dinner was not only to honor the assembled scouts but also to give them the opportunity of meeting Nassau's business leaders. "Nassau is not only a good place to live, it is also a grand place to work", Eisemann said. Also attending from the mid-island area were C. Robert Kimmel and Willard C. Weber of Farmingdale and Judge Paul J. Wittlitz of Levittown.

Foreign Mail Costs 8 Cents

HICKSVILLE—First class mail for foreign countries is being delayed unless it carries sufficient postage. Postmaster William G. Mollitor warned today. The rate on first class matter is eight cents for the first ounce and four cents for each additional ounce.

The rate for third class matter, unsealed Christmas cards, containing no writing within, is two cents.

The post office will be open this Saturday, Dec. 12 from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. for the Christmas rush and will remain open for service starting on Monday, Dec. 14, from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. An extra window will be open for stamp sales in the Post Office.

Bank's Anniversary Recalls Half-Century Growth Of Town

HICKSVILLE — The Bank of Hicksville this week distributed an attractive booklet noting the 50th anniversary of the Hicksville's oldest banking institution. The book features "now and then" in a series of picture pages. The pictures and text for the most part appeared as a series of ten special advertisements recently published in the Mid-Island Herald.

The booklet as well as the advertisements are the work of C. M. Johnson of Bethpage.

The growth and prosperity of Hicksville during the half century is also reflected in the booklet. For example, comparing views of Broadway at Herzog Place over the 50-year span, the bank notes "it is now lined with a great variety of modern shops where the progressive Hicksville merchant is happy to meet every need."

The book includes a message from Henry G. Eisemann, president of the Bank since Jan. 8, 1952. The first directors met in the Grand Central Hotel on April 9, 1903. Charles E. Fassbender was president from 1903 to 1918. Henry W. Underhill from 1918 to 1926, Daniel Underhill from 1926 to 1941 and Joseph J. Ulmer from 1941 to 1951. First premises occupied by the bank, Eisemann recalls, were rented annually for $120.

Deposits of the Bank of Hicksville which were $114,915 in its first year, $3,159,710 in 1928.

$4,660,287 in 1943, are $15,719,340 this year.

Officers of the Bank of Hicksville are Henry G. Eisemann, president; Charles E. Colthurst, vice president and cashier; George C. Karlson and Elmer H. Kroemer, vice presidents; Samuel S. Underhill, chairman of the executive committee; Directors George H. Hauser, Dr. Elwood A. Curtis, Arthur S. Underhill, Dr. Moley L. Smith, Ernest F. Janke; Charles J. Barveland and Conrad J. Heilman, assistant cashiers; Frederick E. Willis is counsel to the bank.

Kroemer Is Bank Vice President

HICKSVILLE—Elmer H. Kroemer, director of the Bank of Hicksville, was elected a vice president of the Bank at a meeting of the Board of Directors on Tuesday, Nov. 24. He is also president of the congregation of the Trinity Lutheran Church.

One In Four Eligible Girls Members Of Scouting Program

HICKSVILLE—Girl Scouts in this area number almost 25 per cent of those eligible to participate in the scouting program, it was made known in the annual report by Mrs. Robert Goodrich, organization chairman of the Girls Scouts, here.

Current figures represent a total of more than 500 registered girls with 45 leaders taking part. There are now 12 intermediate troops, 10 Brownies and one senior troop compared to nine intermediate, five Brownies and one senior troop a year ago.

Mrs. Goodrich's report showed that scouting has been complicated in some schools by double sessions. Another problem has been the consistent increase in the number of girls who move into the area and who want to participate in the scouting program. Troop meetings are held in every school. The latest troop to organize is the intermediate troop at the Lee Ave. School, formed last March with Frances Cottone as the leader. In her report Mrs. Goodrich stressed the excellent cooperation given the Girl Scouts by the local Board of Education. She singled out Dr. Erie LeBarron and his staff for particular praise.

Election of officers will take place at the Dec. 16 meeting in the East Street School.

Obituaries Dorothy Pepper

HICKSVILLE—Funeral services are to be held in Philadelphia for Mrs. Dorothy Pepper, age 29, of 164 Fourth St., Hicksville, who was found dead Sunday morning, Dec. 6. Mrs. Pepper, active in community affairs, was formerly President of Nicholai St. School Parent-Teacher Assoc. and was a candidate for election in the November Township election.

She was found in the garage adjoining her home by her husband, Lieut. Commander John W. Pepper Jr., at 8:15 Sunday morning. Hicksville Fire Dept. was called to administer first aid, but was of no avail. She was pronounced dead at 8:45 A. M. by Dr. Harry R. Storm of 125 Leshy St., Jericho. Death was apparently due to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Besides her husband who is with the U.S. Navy Dental Corps, she leaves three children: Meira, age 4; John, eight and Jimmy, six.

Mrs. Pepper, past president of the Nicholai St. PTA was a child guidance counselor with the Baxter Foundation for Research in Educa-

Dear Jean:

"Home Sweet Home of 1864", the Hospital Print House, will be open to the public from 10 A.M. to 9 P.M. Saturdays and Sundays and from 10 to 6 weekdays. The home is located on South Oyster Bay Rd., just north of Northern State Highway, Syosset. 30,000 persons have already inspected their "dream homes". Labor disputes and work stoppage in plants which manufacture wax paper containers for milk will not cause a major problem for continued milk supply in Nassau. Most residents get their home supply delivered in glass bottles. . . . CHARLES RANSOM does not conclude his term of office as township supervisor until the last day of this month, but his successor LEW WATERS is already being introduced around and making appearances as "Supervisor". . . . The third panel in the Herald Christmas Story Coloring Contest appears in today's issue. If you missed the first two panels, a limited number of copies of these are free for the asking at the Herald office, 98 North Broadway, next to Hicksville Post Office. . . . The number of auto accidents in Plainview has increased sharply, it is noted from police reports, the result of the population increase. . . . The L. I. National Bank features a realistic moving Santa indoors. . . . Those reindeers and Santa (with sleigh) are racing upward over the Bank of Hicksville. A minor problem arose this year. The clock had been added to the bank sign during the year and Santa and his team had to aim higher. . . .

There is some discussion of a dinner-dance being sponsored by Hicksville's three service organizations—Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary—jointly the first week in February. . . . Candidates for the civil service job for Postmaster at Jericho have been filing their applications "slowly". Residents are reminded the last day for applications is Dec. 15. . . . The problem of gunners out in Plainview, particularly near the Morbin Homes, has residents rightly concerned. That has long been a favorite haunt for gunners but the expansion of home building has now reached out to border the wooded area. The Plainview Civic Assoc. is interested in getting a township ordinance enacted to prohibit such activity to protect the many small children. . . .

tion. She was president of the Baxter School P.T.A., second term.

Previously she had been with the Civil Service Administration as a purchasing consultant for the Army Quartermaster Corps.

She was a candidate for trustee of the Jones Fund on the Democratic tickets in the township election last month.

Ahron Luhmann

HICKSVILLE—Funeral services were held Sunday night, Dec. 6 for Ahron Luhmann, who died Friday, Dec. 6, at the Avish Mowen Funeral Home, 15 E. Barelay Street. Interment took place yesterday (Monday) in Jerusalem Cemetery, Wantagh.

He was for many years a custodian with the Hicksville "Public Schools and was more recently employed by the Long Island National Bank.

The fire department held funeral services at Mowen's Funeral Home on Sunday evening.

Mr. Luhmann, late of 210 Second St., is survived by his widow, Wilhelmema; two sons, Fred of New York City, and Henry of Hicksville; and Meta, sister of Hicksville, nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Charles W. Levey

HEMPSTEAD—Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Charles Wesley Levey of 26 Botsford St., father of two Hicksville residents, Mrs. Robert Waucher and Charles W. Levey. Interment was at Greenfield Cemetery on Monday morning, Dec. 7.

Party Thursday

HICKSVILLE—A night club atmosphere will be achieved for the annual Christmas party of the East Street P.T.A. this year to be held at 8:15 P.M. in the East Street school Thursday, Dec. 10. Husbands are planning to turn out to help celebrate the occasion. The refreshment committee will serve sheet cake, coffee and biscuit, tortoni. There will be no business meeting, just tables arranged around an open space to be reserved for dancing.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Vincent Hoosick and Mrs. Joseph K. Keryon of the program committee are planning for a record attendance.

HISTORIC POINT at the corner of W. John St. and Cantiague Road, Hicksville, was marked officially by the state of New York with a marker until a few years ago when the sign was demolished by a motorist. A group of Long Island teachers on a tour of historic sites paused for the Cantiague Woods story when this picture was taken. Local residents are seeking to have the marker restored.

WOODWORKING, a course open to both men and women, is among the favorite activities at the Hicksville Adult Education program conducted in the high school under the director of Elery Bean. Many of the things made in this course will be on exhibition tomorrow (Wednesday) night, Dec. 9, during the Open House Program which starts at 8 P.M. in the high school. In this group, pictured in action, are H. Grayson, A. Fuelling, G. Auer, E. Bernard, Q. Hannah, J. Lynch, F. Moore, Shirley Waliner and C. Ray Adams. This is the fourth picture in a series taken by Fred Fortsch and Tony Hoda, members of the photography group. Woodworking is offered Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and includes "all types of projects of your own choice may be construction, instruction given in the use of hand tools and on the various machines including jig saw, hand saw, jointer, sander, circular saw, wood lathe, mortising machine and drill press". There are more than 1100 adults enrolled in the program of adult education in Hicksville during the current fall term.

Dancing and Music Liven Junior High P-TA Party

By ELIZABETH BAKER
HICKSVILLE—Tap and interpretive dancing, voice and instrumental music were all on the program at the Christmas Party meeting of the Junior High School P-TA Thursday night, Dec. 3, in the Hicksville High School gymnasium. Unison singing of carols added Christmas magic to the festive occasion.

Mrs. Joseph Rogow, program chairman, and Barbara Cunningham, girl's athletic director, acted as directors of the evening's events.

An appropriate opening to the fine program was provided by Barbara Jud, who with no accompaniment sang "The Lord's Prayer." Barbara, who possesses a fine soprano voice, is a member of the choir at Trinity Lutheran Church, and an eighth grader at Junior High School.

A spirited reading of "The Night Before Christmas" was given by Peggy O'Leary, also a Junior High student.

Another student, Carol Nazler displayed considerable talent in an interpretive dance entitled "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Carol wore a little hipstick on the tip of her nose and a black dancing costume.

Everyone had fun during the next number, the spectators and the participants in a Balloon Dance. The women tied balloons to their ankles and each couple tried to break the balloons possessed by the others. Since, as is customary at most P-TA meetings, there was a dearth of fathers present, the winners were two women, Mrs. Herman (Charlotte) Miller and Mrs. Isadore (Clara) Siegel. They received a prize for their prowess at balloon breaking.

A tap dance by Sandra Rogow, accompanied on the piano by her father, Joseph, drew prolonged applause from those present, as did a piano accordion number by Caryl Schaffer. Both are Junior High students.

The next entertainer was a student in the senior high school, Jacqueline Dempsey, soprano and one of the stars in the recent operetta at the school. She sang a number of carols including "O Come Let Us Adore Him," and "O Holy Night" and also "Ave Maria."

The professional touch, although not lacking in the amateur numbers, was emphasized by the appearance of Michael Tolomeo, and Melvin Genger, who played a duet on the violin and viola. They were accompanied by Eric Pischmote. All were members of the Nassau School of Music. Their selections included "Hungarian Dance No. 5" by Brahms.

GAY DECORATIONS

The decorations included a gaily decorated Christmas tree, student-painted murals of Christmas scenes and lighted candles on the tables. Another festive touch was provided by Yuletide corsages, presented at the door to each woman

200 Attend Fete For Supervisor

RYOSSET—Two hundred public officials and political figures attended the testimonial dinner at the Stockholm Restaurant, here, Thursday night, honoring Township Supervisor Charles E. Ransom. He retires from public office on the last day of December.

Ransom was sworn in as Town Clerk on Nov. 11, 1925. He served in that position until Jan. 1935 when he became County Clerk. He first entered public life in 1914 as a county court attendant.

Local Groups Erect First Community Christmas Tree

PLAINVIEW—The first community Christmas Tree for Plainview has been erected and is now on display in front of the Mannelto Hill School for public enjoyment.

The beautiful 30-foot tree, which was cut down, moved and erected by members of the Fire Dept. and Civic Assoc. under the supervision of Al Stauber is a gift of Morton Bros. on whose property it was growing.

The lighting of the tree by Ed Ocker is being financed jointly by the Plainview Volunteer Fire Dept., the Plainview Civic Assoc., Inc., Amvets Post, Legion Post, Republican Club and Democratic Club. A Christmas Festival ceremony at age.

which time the lights will be officially turned on has been arranged for Sunday, Dec. 13, at 5 P.M.

The highlight of the ceremony will be carol singing by the Girl Scouts under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Craib.

An interesting and sentimental aspect of the project has been the revelation that Mr. Stauber, who directed the relocation of the tree, planted it as a seedling 25 years ago.

In People's Corner

Written in the interest of better local government

BY ALLEN S. CARPENTER

There are good and bad Democrats. There are good and bad Republicans. But the only good Democrats and the only good Republicans, are those who without hesitation place the welfare of their country far above the interests of their party. They are the Americans who make up the flesh and bone of our great country.

To prove that you are utterly loyal to your party leaders, will not prove that you are a good Republican or a good Democrat, quite to the contrary—it may only prove that you are not a GOOD AMERICAN.

The same goes for newspapers. One which has proved that it is completely loyal to a party machine, has lost its right to be a part of the great American newspaper fraternity. It has sold its birthright for a mess of pottage. It has deserted the code and the creed—the tradition of the free American Press. It has betrayed its fundamental duty to its reading public.

A good party man, may oppose his leaders, for the good of his country. And it will rebound to the glory of his party. To support leaders when they are wrong, will hurt their party—may even lead to its destruction.

The same applies to a newspaper. When its readers know it puts party above justice, personal gain above integrity, they begin to distrust its editorials and to suspect the slant of its news stories. When this happens it becomes of no use to anyone. Only by being free can the American Press, be of service. Only with honesty, can its usefulness be preserved.

When our town officials dispense legal advertising in a cold blooded manner, calculated to control the American Press—they are assisting in the downfall of yet another great American tradition.

Are there any among our town officials, who can truthfully say that they are proud of this part of their record.

DEAR SANTA CLAUS

Promises and Pleas Flood Mails

HICKSVILLE—Santa's mail thru the local Post Office this year is full of promises to "be good" and declarations of goodness. One little girl who is certainly honest writes to Santa that she has not been too good but EX-GOLLY she's going to be "AT LEAST UNTIL CHRISTMAS." Another little boy who wants a two wheel bike writes:

"Dear Santa: Did you do it?" (what we don't know) "I want a two wheel bike. I promise true that I won't be a bad boy anymore but I'll show you etc. etc. etc." Donnik D'Angelo authored this epistle. Along with all the "etc's" he sends "lots of love and kisses."

Gary Schlessinger of 64 Twin Lawns Ave. besides a chemistry set, a remote control auto, and a microscope set, wants a ten or fifteen cent package of stamps.

A youngster who signs himself Phillip J. Beale includes in his list "a toy spider, a walking talking set, and a cash register," among the 20 items listed but urges Santa to "get what you can."

June Baker wants a walking doll, a new sled and game and she hopes that Santa is not too busy.

Peter Steve Begley of 2 Archer Lane has a drawing of what might be "a man from Mars" that he wants. He asks if Santa can make them and shows the position of the switch control on the robot. It may be a "space suit" because he wants it in "cize 4."

Jimmy who lives at 60 Elm St. goes right to the point. He wants: "trains, bike, truck, car, horse, books and crayons."

Susan, who is Jimmy's sister, notes down the same things as her brother but adds, "chair and dishes."

Duncan writes a short list but begins: "Dear Santa: I went to the seashore. Love Duncan. P.S. I'll leave you a piece of cake. Please don't forget my fire engine. My brother wants a spinning top."

Raymond Clarkson of 4 April Lane lists: "a space fort, plumber, wallet, Jerry Mahoney doll, space helmet, American Bricks and an army gun."

Kathryn Clair wants a family of dolls: "A doll with an evening gown, a bride doll, a Toni doll, a Roxana doll and a Mary Hatline doll." She also notes that "one of each" will be OK with her.

Tommy and Carolyn Bijon, both of 7 Plover Lane, send good sized shiny gold stars for postage on their letter to the North Pole. Tommy wants electric trains, and a new suit, and Carolyn wants a candy land game, a bunk bed, walking doll, a party dress and a sister doll.

Danny Lee of 187 Cottage Blvd. notes that he always tries to be a good boy and intends to keep on trying. In a long list he includes: "Tert your aim on the crow game, a helicopter, a golden trumpet, a police car and a finger button accordion." His younger brother, Raymond also has a long list which includes: a big new farm set with barn and silo—I now have over 100 pieces; a pirate ship, English soldiers, and something he calls "a popular priced Trio—built to last, a simple one-piece hand control, operates mouth and body."

After "hoping that you are, feeling well" Tommy M. Kinsella tells Santa: "Please bring me two switches. I would like a crane car too. Please bring me a two colors light that is revolving, the colors that are green and red."

This feller really has a lot of people to obey, Bobby Burman of 26 Cable Lane, who declares in his letter: "I am a very good boy. I obey my mother and daddy and grandpa and Ray. And I obey Larry. Will you please bring me a typewriter for Christmas? If you are in the neighborhood before Christmas Eve you may drop it off then."

Doreen Duros of 81 Eighth St., Hicksville writes: "Please bring me a cuddle doll, the large one dressed in pink and also some dishes. Thank you."

Ann Samoray of 61 West Marie St. wants "some more clothes for my doll, Frances, a Roy Rogers watch with a picture of Roy Rogers on the front of his name on the back."

Jackie, Phyllis, Linda and Billy Laaser of Round Swamp Rd., Old Bethpage, had their mother write their letter. Linda wants a doll and carriage. Billy, who is nearly 2, would like a nice toy he can take to bed with him and maybe an extra one you may have, Phyllis, 11 would like a pencil case and some games and Jack 6, would like an engine for his train set and a transformer. They admit too that their behavior has not been perfect but they are going to try and make it better, "at least until Christmas."

John Marton in a neatly typed letter advises Santa that he has been a good boy this year. He says:

"I am getting trains from my daddy and grandpa, but would also like a set of walkie-talkie telephone and a junior lineman tool belt. If you can spare a few games so that I may have something to play with when the weather is bad, it would make me happy too."

Ricky Zahoras, 2½ and his sister, Joan, 7½ of 78 Myers Ave. writes a most explicit letter. After listing "a fire engine and a tractor" for Ricky and "ice skates, Cinderella wrist watch, and a haton" for Joan, they tell Santa to look in the Sears Roebuck catalogue and name the exact pages where each toy can be found.

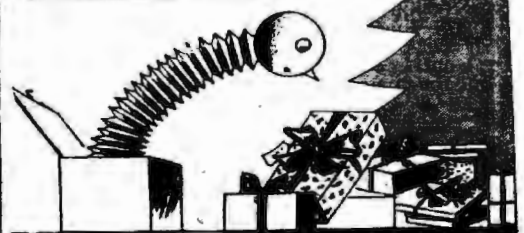

Bruce Patoka of 91 Spindle Rd., Hicksville, writes that he would like some cars, tractors and a paint set."

Hold Bar Mitzvah For L. Felerstein

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Felerstein of 3 Highway Rd., Hicksville, announced Saturday evening, Nov. 28 in honor of the Bar Mitzvah Day of their son, Leonard. The occasion marked the attainment of the age of 13 by Leonard.

The celebration began in the morning with services in Shaari Zedek synagogue with Rabbi Irving Grossman presiding. A collation was provided for the congregation following the service.

During the evening, more than 100 guests attended a party in Masonic Temple in Leonard's honor. A supper was served by a caterer. All the tables were pretty with bouquets of fall flowers and aglow with candlelight. An orchestra provided music for dancing.

Merry Memders Arrange Shower

The Merry Memders gave a story shower recently for Rita Young-hans at the home of Edith Gray of 32 Garden Blvd., Hicksville. To provide the proper atmosphere for the occasion, the club members arranged a sprinkling can over the dining room table to which were attached long streamers with a jollied tone.

The hostess was assisted in serving by Betty Tabler and Mollie Felder.

Others present were: Connie Cassaro, Emily Goodman, Gertrude Poesy, Louise Thomas, Rose Youngmans, Anne Erhardt, Dorothy DiSanto and Louise Salvato. Unable to be present but contributing to the successful party were Constance Clarke, Mrs. Peterson and Anne Moyer.

Pat Duffy of Hicksville, member of the Wreath and Poil Society at Hofstra College, recently took part in the committee's work of brightening up the alumni offices in Holland House with a new coat of paint.

ALONG WOODBURY ROAD Teen Problem In Neighborhood

By HAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-6615

PLEASE NOTE: The Executive Committee of the Woodbury Gardens Civic Assoc. will meet tomorrow (Wednesday) night instead of Tuesday (tonight) as was originally scheduled.

Several people have spoken to us about the condition that prevails in our community. We have hesitated so far in taking any recourse in this matter as it is a delicate subject. Our street lights have been broken continuously by the teen-age group of our neighborhood. This does not involve the older teen-agers but the ones in the younger group. The destruction takes place in an isolated area as they obviously prefer operating near home. However, we have been approached over and over again by various residents, asking help in clearing this situation up.

The other evening a young woman came into our house practically in tears. While standing in a phone booth she had become the target for the children's rifles. I do not know anything about firearms, but I do know that several of the children have rifles and have made no secret of it. The shot used in the gun is powerful enough to put approximately 100 holes in the phone booth.

This is an unerving experience for anyone trying to make a phone call, which may or may not have been an emergency. However, the street light had been shot out and there she was in the dark, for all she knew being shot at by one of the "mad men" we are constantly reading about in the papers. "Something should be done," was what she kept saying over and over. The sad part of it is that we know as do residents of Woodbury Gardens, who the children are who are involved. A petition was being circulated around to be given to the parents, but we thought that such action would not be necessary and asked the petitioners to refrain from such action.

The street sign, which is made of steel and had been put into the ground, was dug up and left across the road for a couple of weeks. Rock throwing is a common form of recreation for them. Detectives from the Telephone Co. have been around several times. I hope this will be cleared up in a nice way. Several other incidents have occurred that will not be mentioned now, and I hope it will not be necessary to bring them up at all.

ASK ABOUT CLUBS

Several readers have asked us about various organizations out here. Being from the city and leaving old friends behind, it is often lonely for the new home owner. This need not be with the wonderful clubs etc. Comment is: "We don't know which one to join or whether or not we would like their type of work and program."

I think a civic organization is always a good bet because it is one way of knowing your immediate neighbors. However when the word "civic" is mentioned, people think it is a political group, which is not always the case. We have been contacting various clubs out here to Police have been contacted and help contacted. These firms decide which one is suited to them. We will write about them as they come in and invite all groups to call us as we would be glad to inform anyone of their work. This goes for every type of organization, garden, knitting, women's and civic clubs etc.

Several recipes are on hand, sent to us by readers. Please don't think we have forgotten them. We'll get

Something New For Giving

HICKSVILLE—Something different in Christmas giving, Gift of Thrift savings accounts in "the book with the 'Rulebook' look" are being offered to the public this year by Central Federal Savings and Loan Assoc. of Nassau County. It was announced today by executive secretary Vance Carnahan who described the innovation as the "only new idea in banking since Christmas clubs were started."

Under the "Gift of Thrift" title, Central Federal has made the savings account available at both its offices, 101 West Park Ave., Long Beach, and 250 Broadway, here.

"While, fundamentally, there is nothing new in giving savings accounts as gifts, Carnahan said, "we have designed a neat package that includes a passbook jacket decorated in the Christmas spirit, a holiday envelope for mailing and a signature card which is already stamped and ready for the recipient to fill out and mail back to us."

 Robt. G. Ulmer Memorial Post

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE" . . . The campaign to make the post membership . . . "200 More for '54" . . . is gaining speed. On Friday evening meeting, Dec. 4, new members to Join AMVETS were Walter Wells and Tom Marzola. Those old members and bring in those new ones. Our membership officer . . . Mike Purish says this year will top all other previous years and though the other membership officers had done a swell job, he expects to make the best record of them all. In-

Our renewals . . . Johnny Logoskiy, Pete Fochi, George Strzembel and Tom Hogan. Fellows, we are out for that Trophy which National will present for membership . . . it will look nice in our trophy case. Get after each other they were close to 40 members present at the meeting.

THINGS WE DIDN'T KNOW: Our Adjutant, Fred Kastner was an Officer with the 38th Cavalry Div. in World War II. Big Bill Rumens was injured on the job a couple of weeks ago . . . sorry we didn't hear about it till the other day, buddy. Mrs. Ulmer, mother of our Standard Bearer, has been ill for the past few weeks.

IMPORTANT EVENTS: Post Officers and members will travel to Cleary Oral School at Lake Ronkonkomo where they will distribute books and toys to the children there. On Saturday Dec. 19 afternoon at the post club, Chairman Bill Danda will have plenty of help from the post and the Auxiliary when the children of the St. Mary's Orphanage visit with us to see Santa Claus and receive gifts, books, ice cream and cake and also enjoy moving pictures of Mickey Mouse and other animated comics. Bill . . . let me say once again . . . "You've done one swell job!"

Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20, AMVETS play host to at least 200 children of the post members. In the evening, starting at 7:30 p.m., members and their wives or lady friends will meet at the club for a little dancing and food. AMVETS which backed the United Nations since its beginning, has sent a list of names which cries against the admission of Communist China to the UN. If they are admitted . . . I for one . . . will do my utmost to notify National Headquarters that AMVETS Post 44 will not be sticking our necks out for any more UN ideas.

The County AMVETS Welfare Ball which will be presented at the Hempstead Armory on Jan. 23, will no doubt be the biggest Ball staged by AMVETS yet. The tickets are available at this time and can be purchased from any post officer of #44, or from Chairman of the Post Committee, Jim Surless. Get those tickets early. Last year 200 people or more had to be turned from the door due to no more tables or space. Mal Gertzen headed the Barn Dance affair and deserves more than a big hand . . . it was a terrific job and it will go down in the history of the post as a job that no one can ever beat.

NOW TO CLOSE: Again the same subject is "Membership". All members who have not renewed as yet . . . GET IT IN. Not a prediction . . . but an actual fact the membership will be doubled and may even be tripled. Remember our slogan . . . "200 More For '54".

HICKVILLE GABLES

Decorating Contest Takes Shape

By CONSTANCE GIBSON
 Hickville 4-1463

We are very happy to be able to report that the Hickville Gable Decorating Contest is in full swing. All those so far approached by the committee members have responded with enthusiasm. The contest itself is to take place on Dec. 29 when the Gable homes will be judged for religious theme, general appeal and lighting by Frank Mallett, Newark photographer of Plainview Rd., H. Kimmel of Hickville House Upholstery Co. and Blanche Christensen of the Independent Art League of Hickville.

Three first prizes and three second prizes, to be announced later will be awarded. Blue ribbons will be stapled to the doors of first prize winners, yellow for second and pink for third. Mrs. William DiBella of South Elm St., Mrs. Ed Sreeneberg of Gables Rd., and Mrs. Wilson of Gables Rd. have been working hard for the contest.

We would like to offer our best wishes to Bernadette McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. McCoy, who entered Mitchell Field Hospital Wednesday, Dec. 2. The McCoy's reside at 8 Gables Drive.

ATTENTION, St. Dominic students. As St. Dominic's representative on the teen-age editorial board of the national Catholic magazine Extension, I would like to take this opportunity to call your attention to the fact that the magazine is at present running a contest open to all students. The contest is divided into three parts, I-A Thumbnail sketch of 500 words on a leading Catholic figure, giving his steps to his present position

Mr. and Mrs. James Cerone of 271 Plainview Rd. set a record for entertaining during the holiday, having 17 guests at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cerone and children Robert and Bruce of Larch Street, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monahan, Robert, Regina and Kevin Monahan of Bridgeport, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monahan of Syosset, Mr. and Mrs. James Whirt of 2 Spruce St., plus the Cerone's four children: Bronwyn, Mark, Debra and Darren. It was the first time that Mr. and Mrs. Monahan of Syosset had the pleasure of having all their grandchildren together.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ariet of 30 Gables Rd. spent the holiday at a birthday and Thanksgiving party at the Brooklyn home of Mr. and Mrs. Sedling. It was Mrs. Sedling's birthday. Cecilia Ariet had dinner with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sikany in New York after which she went ice skating in Central Park.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D'Amura of 15 South Elm St. held a toy demonstration in their home Dec. 1. Eighteen residents of South Elm St. attended. Mr. Hoc of South Elm St. will visit the children of his friends on Christmas morning with a toy for each child. The parents are contributing towards Santa's suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oates of 20 South Elm St. have a new Willys car. It is a lovely black with white sidewall tires.

Mr. and Mrs. Fernandez of 9 South Elm St., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Giamelli of 11 South Elm St. and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver of 6 South Elm St. had dinner at Geides Inn in Centertown with Mr. and Mrs. Giamelli of 50 Landon Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch of Fifth St. The couples have formed a small club, saving their money collectively and then having a night out.

We would like to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wolfey of 16 First St. on the birth of a daughter, Dec. 3 at Brunswick Hospital.

Top Ranking In Scholarship

HICKSVILLE—The well worn phrase "Local Boy Makes Good" would certainly apply to Burton Weisman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weidman of 178 West Marie St., proprietors of the Peter and Wendy Children's Shop, at 122 Broadway. He is the top-ranking candidate of the 14 non-city candidates receiving a dental scholarship from the four-year Regenta Scholarship, awarded each year on a 50-50 basis in medicine and dentistry, one-half going to New York City residents and one-half to non-city residents.

Burton, who has been a major in dentistry at the Columbia University Medical Center since September of this year, was graduated in '53 from New York University. He is also a graduate of Franklin K. Lane High School in Forest Hills. The Weidmans have been local residents for the past four years.

It may be true that time waits for no man—but it manages to get him in the end.

Staten Is. Scores Late To Beat Field Club

HICKSVILLE—With less than thirty-five paid admissions looking on, Staten Island Tigers scored their 16th straight win, Sunday, when a late Field Club fumble set up the winning touchdown on the ten yard line. The score was 14-7.

The anxiety to prolong the dreary football campaign was not shared by all the Black and White players and many gaps were filled by players from this year's high school team.

Neither team exhibited great offensive ability, but the play was spirited and a half dozen fights broke out necessitating four ejections.

The Tigers, who will entertain the Field Club in a return match at Staten Island this coming Sunday, scored with just 28 seconds left in the first half on a short buck following two pass completions.

Hicksville quickly squared it at 7-7 in the third period when Dan Colletta smashed in to block a Tiger punt. The fourth plunge from inside the five by Dan Desmond recorded the equalizer.

Quarterback Elias Stets circled the right end on a keep play for the extra point.

It appeared that the deadlock would be maintained until the finishing but Stats missed Billy Booker with a lateral in the fourth period and the Tigers recovered.

Three ground attempts failed but a fourth down pass that FC defender, Julie Switcha, batted into the arms of the Tiger end turned the trick.

Still Receiving Grass Fire Calls

HICKSVILLE—Despite the lateness of the season volunteer firemen continue to be called to grass fires.

A grass fire was extinguished Thursday, Dec. 8, at 1:35 P. M. on Miller Rd., and one on Dec. 6 at 1:22 P. M. at Newbridge Rd., and Hudson St.

Dec. 2 at 2:46 P. M. a silent was received for an oil burner fire at 26 Arcadia Lane at the home of Nicholas Lombardi.

HICKSVILLE VS LEVITTOWN:

'Natural' Series Soon Reality

HICKSVILLE—The Mid-Island Herald has learned that a major schedule change will take place and that interscholastic athletic relations with Hicksville's newest and closest community, Levittown, is but a few weeks from becoming a reality.

Regarded as a natural, the series will get underway Dec. 22 at the Panthers' home basketball court with a home and home series arranged for the coming years.

In order for this year's game to take place St. Mary's of Manhasset, in its first year of competition, has agreed to release Hicksville from one of its two dates already scheduled.

Nassau County.

Eastern Division basketball has provided more County champions than any loon in the County and Port Washington, Garden City, and St. Dominic's continually rate high in court standings.

Manhasset and St. Mary's will not provide any brethren from the League card of Westbury, Sea Cliff, Farmingdale, Oyster Bay and Roslyn.

Also in the mill is a contract for football games between Hicksville and Levittown for the seasons of 1954 and 1955. Dates have already been assigned and only the formality of contract signing remains before the gridiron series is realized.

The addition of Levittown which is a seasoned basketball school that acquitted itself admirably last season in the South Shore Athletic League gives Hicksville one of the outstanding states of opponents in

Port Rebuffs Hicksville 68 - 49

HICKSVILLE—Defending North Shore Athletic League champion, Port Washington, had a difficult time running with Chet Jaworski's youthful Comets, here Friday night in the bandbox, but won a decided 68-49 non-league victory standing still.

The veteran Port five, stabilized by the poised Ernie Jackson, could only work the small confinds for 19 field goals just three more than the losers netted.

Victory, however, was assured from the foul line where Port deposited 30 of 41 free throws. Hicksville had 85 chances but converted only 17.

This failure from the charity stripe—particularly in the early stages when 12 of 17 missed the mark—blocked what started as a good bid by the Comets to overcome the many advantages held by the visitors.

It was 14-10 at the quarter but with the winners hitting with 13 of 25 foul tosses the bludge grew to 24-24 at halftime.

Both clubs used a pressing zone and the Comets moved quickly to close the gap to 37-31 in the fifth minute of the third period when Joe Pepe pushed three straight goals in.

From there Port had a romp as the personal fouls mounted and Hicksville did not have the replacements with which to match Lou Costello's boys who are listed in the early season book as a cinch to repeat with the title.
