SANTA CLAUS, who will not be seen around these parts for another 12 months, makes a final appearance in public on the front steps of the Bank of Hicksville before joining the happy group at the Rotary Club Christmas party given for children of members. With him is Barbara, daughter of Charles Barrels (looking thru the door), assistant cashier of the Bank. Enroute to the Milleridge Inn, where the party was held, Santa made a call upon the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Purick of W. Nicholai St. who was ill and could not attend the party. The highest, most important news item for the week is that everyone Republic workers are getting their bonuses added to one week's straight-time earnings for all employees before Dec. 31, 1953. The big payoff came to $5,000,000. . . . Numerous employees got their bonus checks and paychecks on Dec. 24. Paychecks are closed today (Dec. 25) and all employees will be paid 8 hours for the day. . . . Rehearsal announces that a Christmas bonus has been distributed to its employees. Following established custom, . . . Colleagues who plan the holidays with an office party are advised to go easy on the liquid cheer. New York Safety Council says that anyone with doubts over the subject should leave his car home and travel by train, bus or taxicab. . . . State Civil Service Commission announces applications are being received at Albany until Jan. 22 for the jobs of switch operators at the station on Jericho Turnpike. Salary starts at $50-week, and rises to $65 in five annual increases. A written test will be held Mar. 6. . . . The Christmas party, Wednesday, at the Theatre was over before it began for Little ALLEN ZOLNOSKI. His consciousness was cut off as a result of close action as the children entered the theatre. . . . County Board of Supervisors on Dec. 22 consider contract for revision of plans for the new County Jail at East Meadow, in back of Manhasset Brook Hospital. County hopes to get job started in 1954. . . .

Did you hear the story about how Santa actually got "stuck" in a chimney in Hicksville, Tuesday, and had to remain there in the dark for nearly an hour until the youngsters, who saw him go up the fireplace, left the room? . . . Amazing as it may seem, the Hicksville Post Office today is handling a greater volume of mail than it did when the office here served both Hicksville and Levittown. There are about 100 working on the mail service here this year, including extras for the holidays. . . . Understand the fire commissioners of Hicksville are getting ready to order new street signs for some sections, right after the start of the new year. Money was appropriated by taxpayers in annual fire district budget. . . . Many youngsters will be disappointed if it don't snow for Christmas. . . .

Says Advisory Group Practices Parent vs Taxpayer Conflict

HICKSVILLE—The dual role of local bus owners as both parents and taxpayers, and the efforts of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Education to consider school problems and resolve conflicting interests are explained by Healy Frank in the December publication of East St. School Parent-Teacher Assoc.

Marine Maj. Melvin J. Flanagan recently completed training at the Officers' Legal School at El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Anna, Calif. The school provides a course of instruction which thoroughly indoctrinates officers with the Uniform Code of Military Justice and military judicial procedure. Major Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. ## Lions Entertain Thier Children

HICKSVILLE—Cookies, candy and cartoons, as well as ice cream and soda were provided when all the fathers of the Lions Club took their children to the annual Christmas party held Sunday afternoon in the Hicksville Inn. Naturally Santa Claus was there and distributed a gift to all the children.

The program began with movies with cartoons featured, then came the refreshments and as the grand climax the visit from Santa. Kenneth DeJongh was inside the red suit trimmed with ermine and the general chairman was Dr. Jack Weber.

Every Tuesday and Friday

Frank, in an article entitled "Parents vs Taxpayer", writes:

"Many of us, particularly the more recent arrivals from the big city, but also many older residents, find themselves in a dilemma peculiar to a rapidly growing community: As parents we are not satisfied with our school system the way it operates now, we would like to do away with all the double sessions, reduce the size of classes to 25 children or less, and increase special facilities such as gymnasiums, athletic fields, etc., and offer more of the needed services such as speech training classes for retarded children and the many others that may spell the difference between a happy, well-adjusted child and a failure now and in later life. As taxpayers, on the other hand, we become alarmed every time someone mentions a new bond-issue or suggests additional school facilities. And when such new indebtedness is being submitted to a vote by the school board, we can't help wondering how they arrive at the figures and plans."

LAWS AND SURVEYS

"There are, of course, many ways. Some are laid down by law, such as minimum bus transportation requirements and certain details of school construction. Others are arrived at by making scientific surveys covering population increase, present children of preschool age, projected new construction, etc. Such survey in the case of Hicksville was made by Columbia University.

"Other plans are based on the wishes of the community as expressed by various civic and social organizations. To give the greatest possible number of people and organizations a voice in the planning, the School Board here in Hicksville created a Citizens Advisory Committee on Education. The members

Resident Wins Sweet Prize

HICKSVILLE—If Mrs. Pauline R. Loeffler of 126 Sixth St., has a "sweet tooth" she is going to be able to really satisfy that craving for candy for she is one of the winners of a national candy contest, according to word from New York City.

She has won a year's "membership" in the Gift Club sponsored by Barricini Candy and will receive gifts of candy at intervals during the year. Prizes were given for the best brief statements as to why the contestants liked that particular kind of candy.

of the committee are plain, ordinary residents of this community, most are also members of various P.T.A., Civic Associations, Lions, Kiwanis, Veterans Organizations, Church Groups, etc.

NEW PROPOSALS

"With all these groups represented, you can see that the Committee is bound to hear just about everybody's views on the different topics they study. Last year problems covered included the question of a new High School, which has since been approved by the voters. It also recommended additions to four of our schools, Fork Lane, Dutch Lane, Old Country Rd. and Burns Ave., to just about double their capacities. These recommendations are being acted-on now by the school board and will soon be brought before the voters of Hicksville.

"At the present, the Citizens Advisory Committee is studying questions relating to future school sites, salaries of personnel, bus transportation, and others. All meetings of the committee are open to you, they take place on the last Monday of every month in East St. School. As a member of both the Advisory Committee and the East St. P.T.A., I will be glad to try to answer any questions you may want to bring forward. We of the committee are trying to resolve the conflicting interests of the Parent and the Taxpayer by comparing them, weighing them, and considering the stakes: the future of our children," he concluded.

PLAIN-VUES:

Best Wishes For This Season

Hi Folks:

First of all, I want to extend a very Merry Christmas to all my readers and to the Mid-Island Staff. I hope in this coming year that you may be prosperous, healthy and happy.

LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

The annual Christmas Party of the Sunday School of the Church of the Good Shepherd—Lutheran was held Sunday at the Fire House. Over 350 parents, friends and children were present. Recitations by the children of the Sunday School and Carols sung by both young and old were some of the highlights of the program. Many anxious parents, including yours truly, waited until their bright ray of sunshine stood up on the platform to say their little piece. One of the outstanding things was "Away in the Manger" sung by the very little ones in the Sunday School.

It did your heart good to hear the little voices singing this very famous Christmas song with such zest and vigor. Presents were given to the children, and to the teachers. Pastor Hirsch announced the program. It was a very entertaining and joyful event, and brought you back to the fact that Christmas is more than just Christmas trees, tinsel and gifts.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS:
I consider myself and those living around the "Our Lady of Mercy" R.C. Church very fortunate. All day long all the beautiful Christmas Carols are played from the Church so that all can hear. It is wonderful to sit down in your living room and listen to these beautiful songs. The Nativity Scene in front of the Church is beautiful.

GET WELL QUICK

I sincerely hope that little Jimmy has been in a hospital in Brooklyn for over a week. My prayers go out to him and all those that are sick that they will be better and home with their families for the joyous holidays that are ahead.

Ladies Elect New Officers

PLAINVIEW — The regular meeting and Christmas party of the Fire Co. Auxiliary was held Friday night with Ann Ocker presiding. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Grace Berry, Mrs. Minnie Bergman, Mrs. Madeline Cervell and Rae Cantilli.

Election of officers took place. Grace Berry is president; Mildred Pancorilli, vice president; Lillian Sauter, secretary; Hazel Large, treasurer; Elizabeth Grabow, financial secretary.

After the regular meeting, the party was held. Capsule gifts were exchanged and a grab bag took place. Carols were sung. Dark Horse was brought by Ann Ocker and won by Arlene Denner. The next meeting is Friday, Jan. 22.

LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS

Christmas And Children

By Fred J. Noeth

YES, VIRGINIA . . . there is a Santa Claus. You know how the story goes. A little girl wrote a letter to the editor of a famous New York newspaper. His answer to Virginia has become world famous. It is reprinted on greeting cards. . . . In substance, he told Virginia that Christmas lives in the heart of man.

Christmas is not the round of parties. It is not measured in the size of the mountain of greeting cards received or given. It is measured in the warmth of a personal greeting, a friendly hand given in good wishes exchanged.

The spirit of the season is measured in the gleam of a child's trusting eyes as he pours out his dreams to a benevolent gentleman in a red suit and a white beard.

Children and Christmas go together. In fact, we can't have one without the other. On this Holy Day we celebrate the Birth of a Child.

It began with a Child and, annually, it comes back to The Child. Life would be a great deal less complicated if the Spirit of Christmas could be sustained, every day of the year. Merry Christmas, everyone.

99 Percent Plus

The entrenched politicians pulled out all the stops! They beat local government for Hicksville in the first round. But it was by less than a single percentage point, and perhaps the first round isn't over yet.

County Judge Cyril J. Brown decided that Supervisor Charles E. Ransom was all wrong on two major issues. Judge Brown said that the 1952-1953 assessment roll was the correct one to use, rather than the 1953-1954 roll as Ransom had wanted, in determining the total number of signatures required to obtain a referendum. Also, he said that an officer or authorized executive of corporation could sign the petition, and that consent of the stockholders and the corporate seal seal were not necessary. He disallowed sufficient signatures to bring the total to only 99.1 percent of those needed.

28 More Signatures Needed

If anyone has any doubts about the importance of the individual in democratic government, let him look at these figures. Only 28 more signatures would have obtained a referendum. If only 28 of the more than 300 active workers had gone after just one more signature, or if only 28 homes owners had visited the Committee headquarters to sign the petition, we would have the referendum. Let no one doubt the importance of his voice in his government.

Right To Change Mind

Judge Brown said that persons who had signed the petition had the right to change their minds, and then to change it again, even after the deadline for filing the petition had passed. That was very unfortunate. He failed to mention the withdrawals of those who hadn't signed in the first place. This amounted to about $60,000 worth of property, and if disallowed the margin would have been decreased to $50,000, or 99.6 percent of the goal. It was mighty, mighty close.

The Big One

The president of the Amperex Corp. is in a mighty uncomfortable position today. The confusion over the validity of that corporation's signature to the petition caused the rights of more than 6000 taxpayers to be thwarted. After a presumably authorized executive signed the petition, the president sent a very curiously worded letter to Supervisor Ransom. It is a matter of public record, and it states in a very roundabout manner that there was some question as to the signer really having the right to sign. But the signature was not withdrawn. However, Judge Brown did decide it was not valid, and that really put the referendum under. The assessed valuation of the Amperex property is approximately $235,000, the largest on the petition.

What To Do?

What should the Amperex president do? He has the choice of doing nothing and let the confusion stand, or he can make clear his meaning. He can stand up and say that his corporation is not going to stand in the way of Hicksville's progress, and after all, he has a big stake in Hicksville's future prosperity. Or he can do the "practical" thing and play patay with the pressure politicians. It is these same politicians he may have to approach in the future regarding some possible favor like a change in the zoning regulations, or to have the road in front of his plant, or to keep from increasing his tax assessment, or any one of many other things. These he must consider, and carefully.

Stand Up, Mr. President

Your neighbors, the people of Hicksville, are waiting on you, Mr. President. They want a clear cut statement from you. You still have time to get on the side of progress and prosperity in your community. The question of your company's signature on the incorporation referendum petition can still be clarified and re-argued before Judge Brown. Your neighbors are waiting, Mr. President.

Last Battle To Fight

Many a hard-hoed war after the first battle was lost. So it will be here, too. The importance of local government is far too important to be forgotten just because of an initial setback. The fight will continue, and the citizens of Hicksville control their own local destiny. We expect the South Hicksville Club to continue its efforts to help the local Police and Fire Department. We sincerely hope all you local organizations will join this year's Christmas Party.

Names in recent Legion news—Al Vitale, Jack Zandona, Eddie Gundach, Tony Bell, John Nees, Frank Gornale, Jay Jabour, John Spinella, George Osborne and Jim Carter who will investigate the ways and means of forming a Welfare Fund. Meeting Jack Hansen, General Manager, Hicksville, on the new building at 101 Old Country Rd. . . . The new Community Center is now open regularly in Hicksville . . . All participants will receive several giftsmen (ours is still large, too). Hicksville Sweet Shop took down second place on Gifts for Yanks container collections.

This is the season of the year when friendship and good feeling are on the rise; when lively jingles and time honored carols perfume the avenues and homes and hearts. It is a time when we of the Legion are prone to boast of our good works of the past year, realizing very humbly how little we really have accomplished and the magnitude of the job still to be done. It is a time of parties and merriment, of gifts and well wishes; and a time when we return to our churches to celebrate the birth of Christ, a time that could well be extended to cover fifty two weeks of the year!

We like Christmas and we know you do too. So to all our readers and friends everywhere—

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Scout Mothers Entertain Boys

HICKSVILLE — A "merry Christmas" came early to the Boy Scouts of Troop 64 Monday night, Dec. 21, when the Mothers Auxiliary of the troop gave a party for them at the Methodist Church, Old Country Rd., at Nelsonson St.

Scout Leader Fred Hobsfield presented the following mothers of former Boy Scouts with a small insignia: Mrs. Irene Cullen, Mrs. Hobsfield, Mrs. Lee Bevan, and Mrs. Mamie Frieke. A pin was sent to Mrs. Eugene Szable who was unable to be present.

Scout Leader Hobsfield was on the receiving end too, being presented with gifts from the boys of the troop. A general grab bag for the boys also provided fun for all.

Skits were presented by the boys and all joined in carol singing. The 14 mothers present enjoyed watching the rapid disappearance of the raised, frosted doughnuts, chocolate and white milk, candy and ice cream during the refreshment period.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Gail Engel was installed as the new president of the Boy Scout Auxiliary of Troop 64 at a meeting in St. Stephen's Parish House, Dec. 16, when a mothers' Christmas party was held. Others who took office were: vice president, Anna Bee; secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Butler; and treasurer, Mrs. Fred Hobsfield. Becoming a new member was Eileen Evers.

Christmas colors were used on the table during the supper served by hostesses: Mrs. Oscar Larson, who was chairman; Mrs. Marie Brendel, Mrs. George Fury and Mrs. Arthur Swick.

Cheeks to be used toward the expenses of the scouts during the year were presented by the mothers to the Explorer Scouts of Troop 64 and to Sea Scout Skip 18.

Seek Uniforms For New Troop

A Boy Scout Troop has just been organized at the Little Flower House of Providence, Wading River, with 23 boys enrolled. Uniforms are what these boys would like to have so if any Hicksville area people have some outgrown scout uniforms the gift of them to these boys would be greatly appreciated. These may be sent to Suffolk County Boy Scout Council, 77 So. Ocean Ave., Patchogue.

The troop, the first set up at the institute, has the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raymond Campion as representative to the Scout Council and the Rev. John P. Drab, institute chaplain, as troop committee chairman.

The institute cares for orphans, and children from broken homes up to the eighth grade of school.

Honey Of Punch For Christmas

If you're planning a Christmas party and are hunting for a really special punch to serve the crowd, here's one you'll find truly ambrosial. It's calyed honey fruit punch, and this recipe will make 3 quarts, or enough for 24 servings. Don't forget to allow for extras, though.

Pour 1 quart of boiling water over 1½ cups sugar, 1 cup black tea and 5 whole cloves. Cover and let steep for 5 minutes. Strain, and combine with 1 cup of orange juice, 1 quart lime juice, ¼ cup lemon juice, ½ cup liquid honey, and 1 cup cold water. Pour over cracked ice to chill, and garnish with thin orange slices, or a holiday arrangement of red cherries and mint leaves.

HICKSVILLE—The honor of taking the "grand championship" award at the Royal Agricultural Fair in Toronto, Canada, out of that country for the first time belongs to Dr. Elwood A. Curtis of 100 Nicholai St., well known Hicksville dentist with an office above the Whelan Drug Store on Broadway.

Dr. Curtis won the grand prize for his white Wyandotte chicken which won over 8,000 other entries.

The December issue of Feather Fancier, a monthly Canadian paper devoted to standard-bred poultry, water fowl, pigeons and pet stock, published in Georgetown, Ontario, devoted considerable space to Dr. Curtis, ability as a breeder in a report of the 1953 Royal Show. There were 16 exhibitors from the United States.

To quote the editor: "Almost all the provinces of Canada were represented, as far east as Halifax and as far west as Sacramento, California. Then I mustn't forget Dr. Curtis and his fine wife from Hicksville, Long Island, New York. Champion Standard and Grand Champion of shew were won by Dr. Curtis on a white Wyandotte eki. This is the first time this trophy has been won outside of Canada."

Dr. White also won the Championship Trio on White Wyandottes, his second win in this class.

The Canadian editor also said: "Dr. Curtis first showed at the Royal in 1952 where he won the big majority of prizes including Special Best Young Fair in Show. At the 1953 show he made an even more impressive win, taking all firsts but one, and winning for the second time, Best Collection. He won Grand Championship of Show on his first eki. He also won Champion Trio of Show. Truly a remarkable win. We salute him."

The paper also published the above picture of the many trophies won by Dr. Curtis.

Raising prize chickens has been a hobby of Dr. Curtis for more than 30 years, who picked the birds because being without teeth, they could not ruin him of his daily 8 hours spent in his office. He has entered numerous contests from Philadelphia to Toronto and has captured 25 grand championship trophies and hundreds of ribbons. For four years in a row he won the "best-in-show" President's cup at the annual Mineola Fair. He recently turned down a $5,000 offer for one of his champions, preferring to keep it for mating purposes.

Dr. Curtis declares that his hobby also has its practical side. The high price of eggs has never bothered the family which is kept well supplied by the champion cocklers.

As Miss Rife opened her many pretty gifts she was seated in a chair especially adorned for the occasion and placed beneath a pink and white umbrella.

Mrs. Waller Finds Donor Of Gifts

HICKSVILLE — Mrs. Herman Waller of 223 West Nicholai St., who last week sought the aid of the Herald to find the name of the donor of a package left for her full of nice Christmas presents, said Tuesday that the mystery is solved.

She makes daily trips to the Meadowbrook Hospital where she recently underwent an operation so she asked there if they knew who might have sent her the presents. It was the Tumor Clinic which works with the Nassau County Cancer Committee of 1551 Franklin Ave., Mineola, who was her special Santa Claus. Mrs. Waller was glad to learn to whom to write her thank-you letter. She has to keep returning to the hospital until she has completed 20 treatments, but said that she feels fine and looks so well that her friends just can't believe that she has been in the hospital.

LETTER TO SANTA CLAUS
" My name is Bobby Murphy. I am a good boy. I help my mommy and I go to the store for her. Please bring me a tool set, and real trains, and a crane truck, and a leather toy set to make a wallet. Please bring my brother a watch, a fire engine and a tool set. Please bring Russell a little car and a pull toy. Can I have a piano and watch for me too? Bobby of 20 Clider Lane."

Berger Reviews Concert Given By Leonard Rose

By MELVIN BERGER

There are two ways in which those holding beliefs can tell of these convictions to others. When the beliefs are held only tentatively there is much need for an impassioned recounting, in an effort to convince both the listener and yourself. However, when you are secure in your beliefs, you can very simply state their existence, safe in the knowledge that you are sharing a basic truth.

Concert going offers an analogous experience, and after Leonard Rose's concert, one could very quietly tell the many who missed the performance what a rare thrill they had denied themselves.

Leonard Rose, cellist, gave the first of three concerts sponsored by the Hicksville Community Concert Assoc. From the first notes of the opening Aria by Bach, everyone realized that here was a man who drew a tone from the cello as few other string players can. When after the second selection, the Francoeur Sonata, Mr. Rose announced that there was a misprint in the program, and that the name of a substitute pianist was printed, in the expectation that his usual accompanist, Mitchell Andrews, would be drafted, but had not been, the audience was completely won over.

In this warm, almost informal air, the concert continued with Schubert's "Arpeggione" Sonata, a work covering the entire range of the cello, and played flawlessly by Mr. Rose. After intermission the major work was Tchaikowski's brilliant, virtuoso piece that dropped many a jaw in the audience. The program was rounded out with several short, trivial pieces, without which no community concert would be complete. One wonders whether the double standard of one type of program for New York concerts and another for out-of-town will be eliminated and we may be privileged to enjoy the much soldier New York concert fare.)

The enthusiastic applause of the audience brought Mr. Rose back for two encores, and only the turning on of the auditorium lights prevented the crowd from clamoring for more.

As we left the hall, we had the feeling that we didn't have to go out shouting about Leonard Rose or Community Concerts in order to keep vivid a memory of a very exciting evening.

I Shall Miss You, Mother

Dedicated to a friendless dead mother
By J. A. LaPensee
Your sparkling eyes are broken,
Looking without glow into emptiness;
They are now nothing but a token
Of the past when all the fulness
Of life was mirrored in them, sunshine,
Heaven, flowers, bushes, trees
And all the beauty of this world.

No, mother, mothers never die!
For with your baby's first breath and first cry
You have created for yourself eternal life.
When your body, resurrected and ascended
To God's Heaven, glowing in celestial shine
Your eyes will send on rainbow-colored rays
All thy blessings, mother, to the child of thine.

I shall feel again the loving warmth
When you held me as a baby in your arms;
And my heart won't ache and won't be sore;
You will live in it, mother,
I shall not miss you anymore.

Employees Present $500

To House Of St. Giles

Mineola employees of the Long Island Lighting Company presented The House of St. Giles The Cripple with a check for $500 as a Christmas gift at the Employees' Association annual Christmas dinner in the Hempstead Elks Club, Thursday, December 17.

Thomas J. Hill, president of the Mineola Unit, Long Island Lighting Company Employees' Association, presented the gift to Herbert Weindorf, controller of the home. Sending Christmas gifts to children at St. Giles has been an annual affair for the Mineola employees who previously gave toys to the children. This year, in an effort to further assure that their gift would bring the best possible benefit to all the children, the Mineola unit changed to a monetary gift to be used at the discretion of the home's executives. The money was made available through voluntary contributions.

St. Giles is the only in-patient cerebral palsy unit in Nassau County. It cares for children between the ages of three and 12 years of age with the limit extended to 16 for children showing sufficient improvement.

'Doctor Jones' Says

By Paul B. Brooks, M.D.

Interested in antiques? Here's a pamphlet, probably close to a hundred years old, a columnist customer sent me. It was put out by "The Shaker Society, Mount Lebanon, Columbia Co., N.Y.". It's advertising "Norwood's" tincture of veratrum viride they were making over there. Well, I knew next to nothing about the Shakers. So that precipitated another investigation.

A medical friend referred me to Dr. Clark Rossman, of Hudson. He's retired now, after 50 years of practice; his father 50 years before him. He knew the Shaker story from A to Z. They were a religious sect—came over from England about 1774. One of their main settlements was on Mt. Lebanon. Movement in a dance that was, originally, part of their religious ceremony—that gave 'em their name. They were industrious and ingenious, the doctor said, and Mt. Lebanon (It's New Lebanon now) got to be an active manufacturing center. Gail Borden, when he was experimenting on condensing milk, saw 'em using "vacuum pans" to cook fruit and so on. Boiling at low temperature: the idea he needed to make his experiments a success. During the Civil War they supplied canned goods to the Northern army. And they made various medicinal products, including their tincture of veratrum viride.

Years ago preparations of veratrum viride, (green hellebore) apparently were widely used, most often as a "fever medicine". It was heart and circulatory depressant: slowed the pulse, dilated the blood vessels and caused sweating. By my time it's largely been dropped—considered unsafe. Lately they've been using it (with caution) in some high blood pressure cases.

This Shaker pamphlet made it sort of a "miracle drug". Good for all sorts of diseases, including "mania", cancer, asthma, epilepsy, tuberculosis, "etc., etc." It is safe", it says, "beyond a peradventure." They didn't have modern advertising experts, then, to improve on the facts. Reputed to've been honest people, the Shakers presumably wrote what they believed. A common trouble: They knew some things that, as it turned out, weren't so.

How much public health there is in this story—well, anyway there's plenty of it in Columbia County.

Girl Scouts Go Out Carolling

HICKSVILLE—More than 200 Girl Scouts and Brownies sang carols throughout the village on Thursday, Dec. 17. The troops and their leaders joined in this demonstration of community wide Christmas spirit, and the town committee hopes to make the custom an annual one, according to Mrs. Morton Wilbur, Town Committee chairman.

Among those serenaded by the scouts was Dr. Eric H. Le Barron, Superintendent of public school Girls from troop 155, under the leadership of Mrs. Merle Hall sang carols in front of the Le Barron home on Halsey Ave.

After the carols, the Scouts returned to East St. School where they were served hot chocolate and cookies by the members of the Town Committee. Among the troops and leaders who participated in the program were Troop 17, leader Mrs. Wilbur, 117, Leader Mrs. Arnold, 23, leader Mrs. Novotny, 235, leader Mrs. Polenski, 30, leader Miss Montana, 129, leader Mrs. Deets, 155, leader Mrs. Hall.

Extend Time For PO Test

WASHINGTON—The Civil Service Commission has extended the deadline to Dec. 29 for accepting applications in the examination for postmaster at Jericho, New York. The time limit was extended because the number of applications received so far had not been sufficient for adequate competition, the Commission announced today.

Applicants must have resided for one year in the community that is served by the post office. They must be able to handle simple records of accounts and be able to deal satisfactorily with the public. They will be required to pass a written test. Further information and application forms are available at the post office. The forms must be received by the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before the deadline date.

It takes a strong political fence to keep the bull in.

Lighting Company To Spend $600,000

The Long Island Lighting Company will spend more than $600,000 in 1954 for "adjustments" caused by municipal improvements.

LILCO's gas and electric operating departments will relocate overhead and underground lines, move main pipe lines and build new ones.

The "adjustments" are necessitated by road widenings, sewer projects, storm drain installation, storm clearance and other jobs by the state, county, towns and villages.

The adjustment cost to LILCO this year will be $550,000, almost $150,000 more than 1952.

Study Hunting Near Dwellings

MINNOLA—State laws which prohibit gunners to discharge their weapons near homes are causing concern for new home owners in areas of great hunting pressure. In South Meadow, while supervisors of Nassau County townships agree hunters must be controlled, two of them think the problem does not require immediate action.

Supervisors Charles E. Ransom of Oyster Bay and Henry A. Nehm of North Hempstead agree some kind of anti-hunting legislation will be needed eventually but not now.

Hempstead's Presiding Supervisor Harold P. Herman thinks something should be done, at once.

"I would want to discuss this master seriously with the members of the town board," Herman said, "and to consult with the town attorney. Hempstead Town is developing population density in many areas, but there are still miles of open stretches of marshland in which hunting should not be dangerous.

"It is altogether possible that some regulations should be worked out under the town law. We'll look into it."

Ransom pointed out Oyster Bay is still the most rural of the three townships but won't keep the distinction very long.

"We have no complaints," he said, "and outside of the ducks in Great South Bay, I wouldn't know what there'd be left to hunt. Until there seems to be some evidence need for posting 'No Hunting' areas, we're apt to be too concerned."

A check with the county attorney's office revealed that there are two general restrictions governing hunting in Nassau. Under Section 171 of the State Conservation Law, you can't use a rifle anywhere in the county and you can't fire a shotgun across or along a public highway.

In rural Rockland County, you can't fire a gun within 500 feet of a house but that part of Section 171 does not apply to much more populated Nassau.

However, there is one way the townships could restrict hunting now, a spokesman for the county attorney's office pointed out.

Mothers' Club Presents Check

BETHPAGE—A check for $1,200 was presented to the Rev. Father Michael J. Hartigan, pastor of St. Martin of Tours R.C. Church to be used toward the school building fund by the Mothers Club of the church at the meeting Wednesday evening, Dec. 16.

The meeting was in the form of a Christmas party. In charge of Mrs. Neil Lehman, Mrs. Carl Saito, Mrs. Bill Brand, Mrs. Biancelli, Mrs. George Balog, Mrs. Walter Spielman, Mrs. Tom Hoey, Mrs. Joe Healy, Mrs. James Donnelly, Mrs. Michael McCabe, Mrs. John Auer, and Mrs. Otto Bertachini.

Door awards were given to Mrs. Thomas O'Neill, Mrs. William Weaver, and Mrs. Joseph Raab.

Section 130 of the town law, which permits the towns to take measures necessary to protect public safety and welfare.

"The towns could, under the provisions, designate certain areas where hunting, in the interest of public safety, is prohibited," he said. "But of course that would involve many legal problems, boundaries, and so on."

A sweeping ban on hunting for

Mrs. Raab received a doll given by Mrs. Vincent Mancuso. Prizes for games were won by Mrs. Frank Bavero and Mrs. Michael Fogarty. A bride doll was awarded to Mrs. Claude of 48 Malibar Rd., and the second prize, a bicycle, went to James Wheely of 128 Brenner Ave. Aprons were won by Mrs. Joseph Biancelli, Mrs. Saito, Mrs. Allen McBride, Mrs. Raymond Andrews, Mrs. Joseph Kabbie, Mrs. Charles Neville, Mrs. Steven Patrys, Mrs. Malcolm Trauth, Mrs. Otto Bertachini, and Mrs. Thomas Coyle.

New members are: Mrs. Robert Baserlein, Mrs. Joseph Bylicki and Mrs. James Tucci.

The evening came to a close with the entire group singing Christmas Carols.

The entire county could only be adopted enabling legislation in Albany, he said, since the state Conservation Department controls hunting laws. The county administration has no power to restrict hunting in unincorporated areas.

Folks could have a wonderful time at home if they had money enough to spend the winter in the sunny south.

NORTH WEST NOTES:

Season's Greetings To All

By JAMES CUNNINGHAM

President Bernard Gill and the members of the Executive Board of the North West Civic Assoc. extend to all members and friends Holiday Greetings... and may the spirit of Christmas bring most wonderful blessings to you and yours.

CHILDREN'S PARTY

A vote of thanks to Frank Mullin and his entertainment committee for the terrific job they did for our annual Christmas Party for the children held Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Burns Ave. School. The hall was filled to capacity with youngsters who enjoyed the festivities as they eagerly awaited the arrival of Santa.

From the very start the program was most entertaining with a group of children from Ethel's Dance Studio performing in excellent fashion. The best movies by far were presented by Cliff Pace who ran several delightful films for the children. The entertainment rolled on as the kids greeted the guest star, Arizona City Martin who had a bang-up job all afternoon, singing, signing autographs, talking with the youngsters.

Santa arrived amid the shouts from the children and then talked with each youngster and presented them with a youngster full of toys, games, etc. Soda and refreshments were distributed to all present and the show drew to a close as Santa departed for the North Pole to fill again his bag for a visit on Christmas Eve to thousands of boys and girls all over the world.

An excellent job done again this year by Pat Boland behind the scenes. As Christmas draws near may I close by saying, "May your gifts be many, your troubles few... And a Merry, Merry Christmas from your reporter to you."

Spread Out Fun For Holiday

HICKSVILLE — Christmas fun at the Nichols Street School is being spread out this year in several programs. The tree was put up Monday, Dec. 14 and decorated by Irvin Munowitz's intermediate special class who did a fine job using student made ornaments.

Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 16 the choir of the school and the band, both under the direction of Myra Martini, presented a fine musical program. Different talented students presented solo dances and songs. An accordian selection was heard.

Tuesday morning, Dec. 15 the first grade under Sandra Seliger presented a musical "The Shoemaker and the Elves." Those taking part were: Suzanne Walsh, Bud Cottine, Sue Giffachic, Armand Sepangki, Clifford Mueller, Peter Wallace, John Barcellos, and Sheldon Kreulstein.

Participating in the "Dance of the Christmas Fairies" were the following students from Mrs. Seliger's class: Harriet Kauff, Susanne Walsh, Karen Cesarski, Patricia Mirabella, and Janet Wallace.

Mrs. Seliger was assisted by Myra Martini. The closing exercises for the programs including the Flag Salute were by Charles Germann and Tommy Fox.

Friday, Dec. 11 Clayton Frauke's fifth grade presented a program in the afternoon which included a Christmas carol by the entire class and a one act play "The Naughty Reindeer," written by one of the students, Dana Spaulding and enacted by puppets made by the children.

A piano solo was played by Rosalind Blue, a Hiwasian dance was presented by Patricia Hiscox. "White Christmas" was sung by Patricia Christian and an accordion solo was played by Carol Bedow. The closing exercises were by Brenda Wintersteller and Peter Wood.

Judith Bienstock took part in the program's opening exercises and Elaine Mitchell was master of ceremonies.

The accompanist for the fifth grade program was sixth grader Richard Bankowsky.

Schools Close Until Jan 4

Local school children who are enjoying their annual Christmas vacation will pick up their books again Monday, Jan. 4 as classes resume.

The Long Island National Bank and the Bank of Hicksville will be open Thursday, Dec. 31 from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. as a convenience to customers.

BLOW OPENER

Hicksville Misses Many Chances To Upset Levittown, Bows 50-43

LEVITTOWN — Hicksville High's Comets missed some 50 shots from close-in here in Memorial High School, Monday night, and thus lost a chance to upset Levittown in the varsity inter-scholastic opener between both schools. The Panthers, who are co-favorites in the South Shore Athletic League's Section Two race, won 50-43 after checking a last period Comet rally.

It was Hicksville's fifth loss against two wins in pre-league play.

Coach Chet Jaworski had the perfect offense designed for this game. The Comets broke the Levitt zone with repeated sharp passes from underneath plus the blowing of six layups at the end of fast breaks in the first half tolled heavily.

Despite this unnerving aspect the Comets outlasted the visitors and were up 16 to 12 on goals from the floor. It was the foul line that gave the Panthers the edge.

Levittown zipped in 26 out of 38 foul attempts while Hicksville had 11 successes in only 22 tries.

The Comets lead at the quarter but fell behind 21-16 at halftime.

Refreshed after the intermission the Panthers sparkled in the first six minutes of the third period as they extended their lead to 31-19 and in the fourth period the advantage at one point moved to 54-24.

With Bob Paton providing a defense line the Comets moved at that point. Pope and Paton were on the receiving end of two classic fast breaks, Richard Evanschuk providing the important middle pass, and two steals under the Levitt nets whittled the lead to 37-32.

In the final race to the wire Levittown had the manpower and the tremendous free throw chances prevailed.

Evanschuk lead the Orange and Black with 15 points. Joe Pepe had 9; Paton 8; Bob Dalay 6; Ed Scott and Mike Contant 2 each.

County Changes Plans For Jail

The Nassau County Board of Supervisors at its meeting Monday, Dec. 28 will consider an ordinance authorizing County Executive A. Holly Patterson to sign a contract with Chapman, Evans & Delehanty of New York city, architects, for revision of plans for the new Nassau County Jail at East Meadow.

County Architect Lawrence J. Lincoln said that the revised plans will be to conform the new buildings, originally devised for a hillside, to the level site off Carmans Avenue, East Meadow, and to save construction costs.

Since first proposed in 1946 the cost estimates have ranged around $5,000,000. Authorities believe that the revised plan will save about $1,000,000 in spite of constantly rising building costs.

The tentative revised plans have been approved by the New York State Corrections Commission. Among changed features will be the use of basement areas, reduction in the number of walled courtyards and increasing the number of usable floors.

County Executive Patterson and Sheriff H. Alfred Vollmer will continue to work closely with the architects and state commission in the hopes of getting the project under construction during 1954. The proposed contract provides a fee of six percent of the construction costs to the architects. The fees are paid by the decision of County Architect Lincoln to supervise construction.

The Board will also pass on resolutions setting Jan. 11 for public hearings on proposals to grant five year extension to various bus companies for 10 existing bus routes, pending public service commission franchises.

Indians Victors In Volley Ball

HICKSVILLE — Afternoon activities for boys at the Lee Ave. School, here, temporarily came to a halt on Dec. 15, as the Volleyball League completed its schedule. Mr. Mangiarotti, Physical Education instructor in charge of the program announced that the eight team league was headed by the Indian team which compiled a record of 7 wins and no defeats. Iowa was second with 6 and 1 record.

The rest of the league finished in this order: Purdue and Illinois were tied for third place, Minnesota finished fifth, Michigan sixth, Ohio State seventh, and Wisconsin eighth.

Immediately following the Indiana's vacation a 10 team basketball league will get underway. Names of the teams were chosen from professional basketball teams.

League play will begin Jan. 4 and will carry through into March. At the termination of league play there will be a series of play-off games climaxed by an All-Star game.

Games will be played Monday and Tuesday afternoons, starting at 3:30 and ending no later than 4:30. Three games will be played each afternoon.

Among Final Letters To Santa

NORTH POLE. Santa's auxiliary received many letters to be read from the many good boys and girls in Hicksville. Mrs. Mary E. Baerden, 32 Essex Rd., said, "Whew," she said to Santa who is not getting much sleep these days keeping all his appointments. "It's lucky our toy-makers are willing to work long and hard. It's going to take some doing to give these children even part of their Christmas lists."

"Right you are," replied Santa who was busily shining Rudolph's nose so it could be at its brightest for the yearly trip. "Gotta make the kids happy you know."

Jeanne Brown of 62 Walnut sent a really fine letter this year. Her list which includes a doll, a ball and a dress; a box of crayons and a coat and cap was arranged in a folder of yellow poster paper gaily adorned with crayon drawings of a Christmas tree, a stocking, a candy cane, a fireplace, and that ageless greeting "Merry Christmas" of course.

Russell wrote that he is a good boy and when "you come to my house please bring a telephone truck, a big truck, a road scraper, turnpike, gun and games. Charlene also declares that she is a good girl and "when you come to my house please bring me a doll and feeder, a Howdy Doody doll, a washing machine, a cake mix set and an aerordian."

Wendy assures Santa that she has "tried to be a good girl so Mommie and Daddy said I could write to you. If you have room in your pack I would like you to bring me a crayon sharpener, a Saucy Walker doll, broom and mop, called a Dolly Housekeeper. I'd like to have some new dishes too for my dollies, a make believe toaster for my doll house would be nice. Please remember my nice friends and a very Merry Christmas to you."

Joseph Bodnar writes: "I would like very much to have a shaving set like my dad's and a rifle and a truck. I've been a good boy."

Chloe Leibnuecher says "I asked you for a Sweet Sue doll when I was talking to you—but I would like to change it to a Saucy Walker doll. I love you."

Elizabeth T. Aushatz, age 7, 41 Island St., Plainview, lists a Sweet

Flood Of Coloring Entries

The judges of the Christmas Story Coloring Contest, sponsored by the Herald in cooperation with the Bank of Hicksville, have been swamped with the many excellent entries and do not expect to come up with the names of the three cash prize winners until the weekend. The Bank of Hicksville will award $10 in cash for the best set of six colored panels, $7.50 for the second prize and $5.00 for the third award. Winners will be notified directly when to report for their prizes and a group picture. All entries postmarked as of Monday, Dec. 21, are being considered.

Sue doll, Roxane, clothesline, clothespins, birthday party music box, a piano and bench, Trix Stix, stove, ice box, clown toothpaste holder, dolly sewing box and sculpture craft.

Mike lists a tractor drive-in, a uke, punching bag, boxing gloves, basketball, Peter Pan puppet, pool table, cement truck, telephone, road scraper, trombone, 2 gum holsters, blackboard and tool set.

Kevin tops his list with "a baby doll, blackboard, bicycle, toy auto to ride in, gun set, truck, horse."

"I want a train set," writes Richard Baerdens of 32 Essex Rd., Bethpage. "please bring my brother some toys too."

Santa had to put on his magic glasses for one letter with continuous lines rising and falling like writing but once he donned them he made out just what you wanted. He liked your address on the front: "Santa Claus, Igloooville, North Pole." He read Roddy O'Grady's letter too with his magic glasses.

Michael Entenmann also begins: "I am a good boy. I would like you to bring me a tool chest, a tinker toy building set, and a set of finger prints. Kathy is my sister and so is Janine. They would both like to get dolls. Kathy wants a kitchen set with a broom and dustpan, Janine wants a rattle, and blocks. She's only a little baby. We need a table and chair set too. Thank you and will leave some cookies and milk on the table in the dinette. Love, P.S. I want a space cadet set too and a rifle with caps. Kathy wants a piano too and some dresses for her dolls."

Most of these letters reach the North Pole minus any postage thanks to the courtesy of the Hicksville post office.
