Crossing Project Takes Giant Step

--- See Story on Page Six

Rotarians Clean-Up And Set Good Example

THE MESS of litter and debris on the traffic circle north of the LIRR crossing where roadways and Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, come together has been a source of irritation to many residents --- particularly the Hicksville Rotary Club which feels a proprietary interest because their community Christmas tree is planted there. Picture left shows a sampling of the mess which bothered the Rotarians. The last two weekends members of the club decided to do something about it and five members (at right) cleaned up the litter (a full truck load), mowed the grass and loosened the sod around the trees. Curiously, nobody stopped them or questioned their authority to do the work. The area is under the jurisdiction of the State Dept. of Public Works.

Selling Shares See School Tax Rate Increase

At a special meeting of the shareholders of the Long Island National Bank, a stock sale of 1,075 shares was approved at cost of $28.00 per share. Applications for stock, if available, can be made with William E. Goutsensky, President, or Joseph A. Reinhardt, Vice President, of the Long Island National Bank.

Hicksville Board of Education will establish the tax rate for the year 1961-62 at its regular meeting tomorrow (Fri) night and unofficial sources estimate the rate will increase about 45 or 50 cents per $100 of assessment. With the anticipated new rate a household assessed at $6,000 would face a $29 to $35 increase in his school-library tax bill.

The current rate for school purposes is $4.954 per $100 and 22 cents for the public library, or a combined rate of $5.174. The new rate, based upon the recently announced assessment and anticipated revenues may exceed $5.63 per $100 of assessment.

Nine Blasts at 7 AM Will Mean No School

Hicksville Fire Sirens will sound nine blasts or wails at 7 o'clock in the morning on days when regular class sessions in Hicksville Public Schools have been cancelled. The Board of Fire Commissioners has established the signal at the request of the Board of Education. The plan was worked out in a series of conferences between the Fire Board and School Board members, the last of which was held Monday night.

St. Ignatius R.C. Church, Hicksville, was the scene of the marriage of Lucille Margaret Aqualina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a full length gown with a chapel train of satined silk organza. Her bustle veil fell from a floral headpiece. She carried white roses and a stephanotis.

The Maid of Honor, Miss Dorothy Cervelli a cousin of the bride, wore a pink floor-length silk organza gown, and carried pink and white split carnations in an old fashioned bouquet.

Miss Friscilla Tedesco and Miss Patricia Dowling, both of Hicksville, were bridesmaids. They wore pale green, floor-length gowns of silk organza and carried pale green and white split carnations in an old fashioned bouquet.

John Mahnen of Lakewood, Ohio, acted as Best Man, Michael Moszkow, and Richard Maus, of Hicksville, and Edward Sebeski of Bethpage, were ushers.

'Paradise Island' Is Well Worth Enjoying

FINAL SCENE of Guy Lombardo's "Paradise Island" at Jones Beach Marine Theatre (above) finds the principals all happily united. The HERALD representatives saw the show this past week and hastens to recommend it to one and all. Don't forget it closes Labor Day which is not too many Hawaiian moons away. Below is the hilarious arrival of the S.S. Astronaut with Bomarc Barnstable in charge, prepared to launch Miss Emily Fleetwood goads knows where. The Astronaut arrives in "The Invasion" at the end of Act I. After viewing every Jones Beach production since they began, it is our opinion that this year's offering is "THE BEST".

1961-62 Jericho School Tax Rate Set at $4.86; Split Session Kindergarten on Way Out

Plans are being formulated to transfer kindergarten sessions, now scheduled for Robert Seaman School to either Robert Williams School in White Birch or the George Jackson School in East Birchwood. It was disclosed at the School Board meeting last Monday night, if these plans are finalized, kindergarten classes will run from 12:15 P.M. to 4:15 P.M. and the nucleus of split sessions which plagued West Birchwood last year will be eliminated.

Dr. Kenneth Last, superintendent of the Jericho schools, pointed out that every effort would be made to keep children residing in the same vicinity attend class together. The sixth grade, presently at Robert Seaman School, will be transferred to the Robert Williams School, if present plans materialize. The reason for the shift of these classes to the other schools is due to the overcrowding at Robert Seaman resulting from the Canisius Rock Road School not opening this fall as originally expected.

The school board approved a resolution making application to the New York State Education Department for a review and valuation of the Jericho School System in accordance with the state cooperative department program as stated by the Commissioner of Education on July 17, 1961.

Members of the school board, Dr. Last and school clerk James Slattery are planning to attend a series of conferences offered by Teachers College, Columbia University on Oct. 6, 7 and 8th. The purpose of these lectures is to discuss problems common to all school boards.

The school board also passed a resolution approving attendance of several children in vocational classes at the vocational training school in Westbury.

All members of the school board were present.

Civic Assoc Beach Party Set for Aug 26

West Birchwood Civic Association's summer affair, a beach party at TOBAY Beach is scheduled for Saturday night, Aug. 26th any time after 8 p.m. The Social Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Pike, is working hard to make this an enjoyable evening.

"You bring the food and we'll provide the refreshments," stated Evelyn. "Barbecuing will be permitted until 11 p.m., and there will be games and prizes galore. Mrs. Pike stated that musical instruments (but not pianos) could be brought to the beach.

In other news from the Social Committee, the Election Night Dance will be held November 4th at Robert Seaman School. Following installation of Civic Assoc. officers for 1961-62, a real live band will play for dancing and refreshments will be served.

The annual dinner dance will be held Feb. 24, 1962 at Carl Hoppa's in Baldwin. Due to the tremendous success of last year's dinner dance the Social Committee has arranged a return engagement including cocktail hour, dinner and entertainment. The prices has been reduced to $20.00 per couple.

Property owners in Jericho's School District got a pleasant surprise last Monday night when the school board established a rate of $4.86 per $100 of assessed valuation for the 1961-62 school year instead of the anticipated $5.15 envisioned last May.

At a special meeting in the Jericho High School, the board released assessed valuation figures showing that the district's valuation jumped from $41,098,992 in 1960 to $43,342,921 in 1961. The increase was due primarily to the increasing number of dwellings in West Birchwood and an influx of light industry into the district. Last year's school tax rate was $3.99.

The 1961-62 school budget is set at $2,696,370. Receipts are estimated at $592,000, leaving $2,104,370 to be raised by taxes. Assessed valuation figures are determined by the Nassau County Board of Assessors.

Following is a summary of the tax rate determination:

| TAX RATE 1961-62 | |

AFRICAN REPORT: Curious About United States

by Ken Foran

AKWATIA, GHANA
Wherever I go in Africa, I am questioned about the United States. Some are questions of curiosity, others are questions of policy. When you first meet an African, he will ask you about the climate in America, about sun and about the seasons. After several days, you will become friends, and one evening when you least expect it more serious questions will smack you right in the face. The more striking are the questions, if there are more Africans than Americans present.

"Why do you think that we are Communist?" asked one young Army corporal in Abidjan, about seven miles from here. It is unfortunate that many Americans fail to distinguish between Socialism and Communism. They fail to recognize that we have Socialism in some of its forms. Also, the United States Information Service, in Accra, has a booklet which describes our Social Security. A state, such as Ghana, which is in its infant stage, naturally needs more socialism than the more developed nations. When we see countries, such as England, take steps toward socialism, we should realize that new nations are also going to take steps towards socialism.

Many people, not only Africans, fail to understand African neutralism. Unfortunately, Asian neutralism has also been misunderstood, and consequently, has fallen into disrepute. With the world divided into two camps, the leaders of the newly emerged African and Asian states don't dare risk their independence in a struggle which is the case of Africa, they feel belongs to another part of the world, and from which they have nothing to gain, and possibly their independence to lose.

But, there is more to African neutralism than this. These newly independent people want to be recognized as Ghanians, or free Africans. If joined to a bloc, they feel that they would be known as either Easterners or Westerners but not as Africans or Ghanians. For newly emerged states, identity is very important. In the last year, here in Ghana, there has been reaction against things that are British, because they tend to hide the Africans' expression. Within a year, it is hoped that the country will be driving on the right side of the road. As a recent graduate of the University of Ghana said to me, "Why should we drive on the left? Only the British and their colonies do it that way." (Coburn, the speaker, brought out another cause for African and Asian neutralism. Formerly, as colonies, the newly independent states had no choice of alignment. They were simply dragged along on issues, as immature children, by the Mother State. When anyone is given freedom from his elders, he does not immediately follow along as before. I have no doubt that some states would like to closely align with their former masters, but pride will not permit them. As a member of the Social Welfare Department has told me -- Don't think of our neutralism in a negative way. One of my roommates, a student at Kumasi Technical Institute, has explained why -- "we are undeveloped," he said, "and it hurts. Our only goal is to catch up."

President Nkrumah, a spokesman for African neutralism, has said that the only way for Africa to catch up and to take its rightful position in the world is to borrow from the East and the West. So, materially, and scientifically, Ghana and Africa have been receiving aid from both camps.

Though the Soviets have impressed much of the world with their space achievements, the Africans are more interested in American education. I can not begin to recall the names of all those who have asked me if I could help them come to the United States for an education, and this does not include those who have asked my address. In hopes of asking, when I return to the States in September.

Education, the Africans realize, is the key to their success in the future. More emphasis is placed on education here than anywhere else in the world that I have been. The Columbia Teachers College has begun to answer the call, with its East African Teaching Program. We know that in Afghanistan, the English language and American Education has stopped creeping communism. It is my hope that these forces will perform the same task in Africa, South Africa and Ghana. In particular, are not communist. I hope that by relating some of the African desire to express their stands on world issues, I have cleared up some of the vague points in the readers thinking about Africa.

Misunderstanding, just as understanding is a two way street, or as we would say in Ghana, a dual carriage way. When alone with an American, the African is very inquisitive about segregation; though this does not lessen his desire to come to the United States for studies. One student of my own age, has been under the

Clear Way for Crossing Project

The Hicksville RR Grade Crossing Elimination project, described as one of the biggest programs of its kind in the state, took a substantial long step forward this week with the Albany announcement that the Public Service Commission has approved the final order for the work.

The project now goes to the Dept. of Public Works for its approval and the call for bids. With a price tag of $11 million, the Hicksville RR elimination program, which has been a subject of local comment and civic effort for 40 years, is one of the biggest ever undertaken in the state. Jacking the cost is the fact that elimination of crossings at grade at seven points is required in one operation.

Crossings scheduled for elimination by raising the tracks are Jerusalem Ave., Broadway, Marie St., Nicholai St., Old Country Rd., Bay Ave. (Woodbury Rd) and Bethpage Rd.

Aaron Rochman, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce crossing elimination committee, said yesterday he was delighted with the news from Albany and anticipated the start of construction shortly after the first of the year.

In April of this year he was impressed that segregation was imposed on Negroes to remind them that they were slaves and that all Negroes were thought of as former slaves. Next to New York and Washington D.C., probably the best known city is Little Rock Arkansas. Because our American press so often highlights the worst part of our land, so that mistakes may be improved, foreigners often get the idea that conditions are worse than they actually are. American Outlook, a paper published by the United States Information Service and Operation Crossroads, try to correct this kind of misapprehension.

advised by J. Burch McMorran, Superintendent of the State Dept. of Public Works, that the direction of the Public Service Commission would be required before the Public Works Dept. could progress with advancing the program.

It was also reported from Albany that the plans are now developed under the approval of the Long Island Rail Road and no further obstacles to a call for bids is anticipated.

WISH I'D SAID THAT

"If the United States is going to have to go it alone against communism, let her save her money for the gigantic defense budget that will be required, rather than fritter her wealth away on unappreciative nations who take handouts from anyone without so much as a thank you." — Irwin Scheel, Mabel (Minn.) Record.

"The story of 4-H is a solid case for optimism. The farm youth organization and its work make the abhorred coving, black leather-jacketed packs of delinquents seem almost unimportant by comparison." — Thomas M. McKnight, Mooresville (N.C.) Tribune.

"A Journal survey showed that in Belton, 68% of the people drink hard liquor, 29% drink only beer and wine, and 90% take no alcohol at all. That proves one point: that a lot of people are liars." — James H. Russell, Belton (Tex.) Journal.

"Reading proof on an editorial I found that my fingers on the typewriter keyboard had birthed an appropriate new word: 'government.'" — J. D. Blizard, Dillon (S.C.) Herald.

"The Department of Commerce estimates there will be over 114,000,000 motor vehicles in the U. S. by 1976. All you good drivers who want to cross the street had better do it now." — Harold Rogers, Easley (S.C.) Progress.

JOHN A. HARTMANN, formerly of Plainville and now a farm operator in St. James, was elected to the Board of Directors of the Bank of Suffolk County, Stony Brook and St. James, on June 15, according to William F. Ploch, president. An honorary member of Plainville Chamber of Commerce and for over 14-year member of Plainville School Board, Mr. Hartmann is today president of St. James Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of Port Jefferson Elks, member of Holy Mother Mary Council, Knights of Columbus; and Our Lady of Fatima General Assembly.

He continues active in many agricultural groups. For 13 years he was vice chairman of the Nassau County Extension Service. He is chairman of the National PX Committee, LI Farm Bureau.

TANNED AND HAPPY are John-Jean and Gregg, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Bourke of 131 Michel Ave., Farmingdale, who have just returned from a three-week vacation in Vermont.

LET'S GIVE THE CITIZENS OF NASSAU COUNTY A CHANCE TO BE HEARD ON WHETHER THEY WANT AN AIRPORT AT MITCHEL.

This message is directed to Governor Rockefeller, U.S. Senators Javits and Keating, Congressmen Derouin, Becker and Pike, Nassau County Executive Patterson and Nassau's Board of Supervisors.

Nassau County with 1,300,000 residents has not a single business airport. Yet some of its public officials and its two daily newspapers are falsely assuming the residents of this area are opposed to a business airport, are refusing them a chance to express their views, and are turning down an offer by the Federal government to give the $35 million dollar air facility at Mitchel to the people of Nassau.

We are buying this newspaper space to tell our elected public officials and the reading public that many thousands of Nassau residents have already spoken up in favor of an airport at Mitchel but their voices are being ignored by some officials and these newspapers.

Formal resolutions have been adopted by such organizations as the Nassau County convention of the American Legion (10,000 members); L. I. Electronic Manufacturers Council (over 80,000 employees); N-S Building Trades Council (AF-CIO) and the Building Trades Employers Assn of L. I. (50,000 jobs); Chambers of Commerce in Hicksville, Hempstead and East Meadow; N-S Hotel Motel Assn; and the Long Island Assn representing over 1,000 companies.

ARE THESE THE "PEOPLE OF NASSAU" OUR NEWSPAPERS SAY ARE "ALL OPPOSED" TO AN AIRPORT?

We believe that the people of Nassau County should be given a chance to speak up on this Mitchel Airport issue. So far the only persons opposing a limited-use non-jet general aviation airport at Mitchel are the publishers of two daily papers, a few public officials, a hand-picked advisory committee, and two or three leaders of neighboring civic associations.

An airport at Mitchel has been recommended by these experts:

- The Nassau County Planning Commission has unanimously endorsed an airport at Mitchel.
- The metropolitan civic defense organization has repeatedly said that an airport at Mitchel is essential to evacuate wounded and bring in supplies in case of emergency.
- The Federal Aviation Agency says that an airport at Mitchel is needed for our economic growth and safety.
- The National Safety Council says that only 13 persons on the ground have been killed by general aviation aircraft during the past 10 years. During the same period 99,400 pedestrians were killed by autos, 11,032 by railroads, and 4,770 by buses, bearing out the testimony of the FAA that "there is absolutely no hazard in a general aviation airport at Mitchel."

As responsible business executives and civic leaders, the Directors of L. I. Planners for Mitchel respectfully urge that this issue of an airport at Mitchel be given a full airing in a public forum. The public should hear what arguments there may be for destroying this multi-million dollar aviation facility built by the taxpayers. They should also hear from the many individuals and groups like Planners for Mitchel who believe that an airport at Mitchel is vital to full employment, economic development and the safety of this area.

LET'S HAVE HEARINGS SO THAT THE PEOPLE OF NASSAU CAN HEAR AND CAN BE HEARD!

HERALD READER OPINION

LOST GLASSES

To the Editor:

I felt it only fair for me to express my appreciation to you for the kindness you rendered today regarding my August 2nd dilemma on Northern State Parkway just east of exit 36 (Oyster Bay Road). A Maintenance worker, who was good enough to start my Hertz car and left his glasses under the hood.

It does you good to realize that we still have many real good people left in this world so troubled by bitterness and greed.

I have been treated by the Minicopa operator in the County to a kindness I will never be able to repay and my contacts with him.

DAILY POLLEN COUNT

A daily pollen count is available to residents of Nassau County by dialing IVanhoe 3-9199. Continuing through to Oct. 7th, the count is recorded and will be available 24 hours a day.

Many people of Nassau and Suffolk Counties are material for a great short story.

My constant faith in society has proven itself and if I find the gentlemen who lost his glasses I shall be eternally grateful to all.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs. Edwin B.) O'Connor

After The Fact

After the applause for one number during a high school band concert, the trombonist asked what the boys would be playing next.

"The Washington Post March," the leader whispered. "But," countered the trombonist, "I just finished playing that." - Conny Robinson.
