

Tax Rate Goes Up 45 Cents: School Bd Complains About Assessment

The Hicksville School Tax Rate for 1961-62 has been fixed at $5.625 per $100 of assessed valuation or an increase of 45 cents over the past year. Noting that six cents of the increase is the result of the reduction of property assessment won during the year by the LI Lighting Co on its property in Hicksville, the School Board on Friday night voted to complain to Nassau County Executive A. Holly Patterson.

The Lighting Co in January of this year asked for a two million dollar reduction on its 65-acre electric operating centre on Old Country Rd. The County did grant a reduction to $1,047,400 or about half the LILCO request. The property is now assessed for a total of $4,371,400.

As a result, the total valuation of the School District which is a factor, related to the amount of the budget approved by the voters, rose only a half million dollars for 1961-62 to a total of $90,105,126.

With a gross budget of $9,316,901.21, the School Board finds that State Aid will amount to $3,734,000 (est) and Federal aid $80,000 (est). State building advances amount to $235,000 and an estimated $50,000 will be received from summer school, adult education fees and tuition. The schools will need $4,677,501.21 to be raised by taxes while the public library tax expense will be $196,607.

The School Board asked its new attorneys, Burlant and Catalano, to draft a letter which will be submitted to Trustees for comments and, when approved, sent to the County Executive questioning the LILCO reduction. It was also voted to send copies of the letter to "all newspapers."

Still pending is the million-dollar reduction won by Mid Island Shopping Plaza on its North Broadway property. The decision of Supreme Court Justice Howard Hogan in granting a reduction is currently being appealed by Nassau County to the state's highest court and the effect of this reduction has not been reflected in the district's total valuation as yet.

Bid Again Aug 29; Engage 91 Teachers

Acting on the advice of School Architects Knappe & Johnson, the Hicksville School Board has rejected all bids on heating and ventilating on the four construction projects and will call for new bids on Aug. 29. At the same time the Board has postponed opening General Construction bids until Aug. 29. The architect had reported that due to the cement strike no one would submit a bid on Aug. 8.

The trustees, Friday night, decided to hold on to, for the present, bids on plumbing where there were three bidders (lowest combined base bid, Braun Bros. $123,267) and on electrical work where eight firms bid (lowest combined base bid, Merkel Electric Co. at $173,702).

The Board can hold on to the bids for 60 days after opening without making an award.

While it will not be officially known until General Construction is bid and heating and ventilating is rebid, with all possible alternatives given full consideration, there is some growing concern that the final bids may come uncomfortably close to the amount appropriated by the voters in November 1959.

In other action at the regular meeting, Friday night, the Board adopted a policy to charge students 50 cent for reissuance of bus passes after an initial pass has been issued.

The Board approved the administration recommendation on the employment of the following 91 new teachers:

Burns Ave - Elaine Storch, Lynn Donovan, Renee Fried, Nellie Palermo, Ruth Levandov, Aida DeLuca, Anita Meessha, Helene Faye, and Elizabeth Way.

Dutch Lane: Rose Kamen and Barbara Lawson.

East St: Donald Fournier, Patricia McCann, Roberta Rosen, Charlotte Daughtrey, Jean Thiele, Lynn Gilbert, Rose Marie Ancona, Maxine Gelb, Lois Austin, Jeanette Crenson.

Fork Lane: Suzanne Bach, Joan Blitzer, Jane Mathews, Gertrude Calzetta and Elaine Sklar.

Lee Ave: Philip Provost, Victor Lite, Phyllis Blitzer, Zeld Machler, Robert West.

Old Country Rd: Natalie Weissman, Jeanne Pellerin, Carol Gerard.

Woodland Ave: Anthony Natale, Garth Somers, Joanna Gottlieb, Delores Gervase, Irene Kaplan, and Patricia Davis.

Junior High: science - John Boerke, David Bouton, Donald Clifford, Aloysius Laun, Gary Weber; language arts - Martin Hunt, Naomi

No Opposition To Motel

A 50-unit motel on South Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville, opposite Grumman Aircraft, was the subject of a public hearing before Oyster Bay Town Board, Tuesday. There was no opposition to the application. The location is in an area zoned for industry.

The $350,000 project will include a pool, lounge and restaurant and will be known as the Galaxy Inn. It would become the first motel in Hicksville school district area.

Fire Dept Honors Koutensky

PRESENTATION of a gold badge (see picture at right), suitably inscribed, was made by Fire Co. Lieut Robert Hammond, chairman of the Hicksville Fire Dept Invitation Labor Day Parade and Drill, this week to William Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank. The badge indicates Koutensky's official status as honorary chairman of the 1961 Tournament Committee. Hammond said this week that preliminary results indicate that this may be the most successful Labor Day program in the 33 years that they have been held.

School Sessions Resume Sept 7

Hicksville Public Schools reopen Thursday morning, Sept. 7, for the fall term. Orientation of new teachers is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 1. A district conference for clerical staff people takes place the same day.

Orientation for the teaching staff will continue on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 5 and 6.

The School Calendar for the coming year, adopted by the Board of Education upon the recommendation of Superintendent Donald F. Abt, provides five more days of class session than the law requires. Actually, however, three days were lost last year due to severe winter weather conditions.

There will be an innovation in the calendar this year with week off as winter recess in February from the 19 to 23. Abt noted that February in the past has been a month of poor attendance, usually due to sundry illnesses. February also represents the period of bad weather and snow storms.

SUMMER RECREATION program at Burns Ave. School, Hicksville, wound up with a carnival including a strongman, bearded lady and acrobats. Featured in the side show were Mrs. Sara Albertson, Brenda Albertson, Rosmary McCarthy, Dianne Zettler, Marianne Kraft, Robert Albertson, Marie Massiello, Joe Carfola, Patricia Kraft, Meryl Widder and Alan Aker with their director, Mrs. Mildred Richards. They were assisted by 5th and 6th grades (front row) attired as clowns.

AFRICAN REPORT:

Operation Crossroads, Peace Corps Compared

by Ken Foran.

NKAWTIA, GHANA

When I left the United States on June 25, there was quite a bit of concern about the Peace Corps. Mennon Williams, head of the State Department's African Desk, at his reception for Operation Crossroads Africa, in Washington, D.C., described Crossroads as a "one-rummer of the Peace Corps and a successful model."

Before discussing the Peace Corps and the problems that I think it will encounter, I think that I should describe Operation Crossroads in more detail. This is the third Operation Crossroads Africa, a person-to-person relationship in depth. Operation Crossroads Africa was conceived as an effort to relate students of high leadership potential and concerned faculty members, of all religious, racial and national backgrounds of the western Hemisphere to the African Continent in creative, positive, and constructive ways, to help them begin a relationship for a mutually profitable future; to stimulate and encourage their pursuit of African studies and to prepare for future work with organizations and agencies at work in Africa; to enlarge our awareness and to depend our understanding of our need of the people of Africa and their need of us.

Crossroads was started in the spring of 1957 by the Rev. James H. Robinson of The Church of the Master in New York City. My group of 14 students plus a leader from the University of Arizona is one of 18 similar teams in 12 nations of both East and West Africa. I feel that I should emphasize that Crossroads is the forerunner of the Peace Corps and not its pilot project. It is supported by private funds, $900 of which comes from the individual students; the remainder of $2,200 comes from private donations and from funds of The Morningside Community Center, Inc., specifically raised for this purpose. There is great advantage here, that the Peace Corps will lack, the funds are private; the Africans know that our government has not paid for us to come to Africa. Eastern representatives are also handicapped by the knowledge that they are sent to Africa as agents of their governments.

One student, Jingo, a classics major at Cape Coast, asked me, "Did your government supply you with these tropical clothes?" He was satisfied with my answer. Even in cases of foreign aid, if it is understood that American money comes to Africa from the people, the Africans have more respect for our contributions to African development.

Orientation for the Peace Corps, I have been informed, will be conducted in the United States, and it will last approximately two months. Crossroads orientation consists of one week in Washington and one week in Africa. Noting that Crossroads lasts but for a summer, while the Peace Corps is with a member for two years, the additional length is understandable but I found orientation upon arrival more rewarding and meaningful. Too much orientation before arrival, makes one's presence in Africa seem antithetical. Also warning about health standards, when given in the States prepare the participant for a few days protection, but repeated warnings in Africa are sure protection. Health is a problem that Peace Corpsmen will have to live with for two years.

After only four weeks, I find that vitamin pills and malaria suppressive have lost their flavor. The likelihood of getting serious disease on first contact is greater over a two year period than it is during two weeks. It may be that after two years in a foreign country, a person may lose his desire for knowledge about that area or any other. Here, in Ghana, there is an American Club that meets just to recall the United States. I feel that a sampling of another culture, such as Crossroads provides, should be a requirement for the Peace Corps. Much of what we hear about "strange far-away places" is pleasing at home, but discouraging on location. I have not experienced this myself, but I know of two people in my group, who, having given extensive preparation (Crossroads require a paper and a reading program) have never-the-less been disillusioned with Africa. Anyone who knows Africa will tell you, "expect the unexpected." Time tables, schedules and appointments, either aren't made or they aren't adhered to.

That is why we respectfully urge that the county's elected officials hold public hearings on Mitchell Airport before destroying this $35 million dollar air facility built with taxpayers' money.

As responsible business executives and civic leaders, the directors of Planners for Mitchell know that an area's economic progress doesn't "just happen".

Increased payrolls and an enlarged tax base requires industrial expansion, and, to expand in this highly competitive "space age," industry needs modern transportation facilities including a nearby limited-use non-jet business airport for the use of its executives, engineers, and customers.

Some persons have stated that Mitchell's acres should be used for industrial plant sites instead of for an airport. Our answer is that industry today looking for new sites has as a primary requirement a "nearby airport". We believe that Mitchell Airport will not only insure Nassau attracting new plants but will make possible the expansion of many of the defense-oriented aviation and electronic firms already here.

Experts such as the Nassau County Planning Commission, Metropolitan Civil Defense Organization, and Federal Aviation Agency endorse Mitchell Airport as essential to our economy and to our survival.

Resolutions supporting an airport at Mitchell as vital to full employment, economic development, and area safety have been adopted by leading organizations including the Nassau American Legion (10,000 members); L. I. Electronic Manufacturers Council (80,000 employees); N-S Building Trades Council (AF-CIO) & L. I. Building Trades Employers Assn (50,000 jobs); Chambers of Commerce in Hicksville, Hempstead and East Meadow; N-S Hotel Motel Assn; and Long Island Assn (1,000 companies).

WE BELIEVE THAT AN AIRPORT AT MITCHELL IS VITAL TO THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF NASSAU COUNTY!

AFRICAN REPORT.

The President, Dr. Nkrumah, has been up to six hours late. I recall waiting for him to arrive, at the Republic Day Eve celebration, four hours. Those of us who are used to living well-organized lives must be able to adjust to another culture, which knows no time regulation.

It is likely that when one has spent a few days in Africa, he will remark, "These people have no culture," never realizing African culture is so very different. It only appears to be lacking. My point is that preparation in one's own country, no matter how intensive has little meaning once a person has arrived in a strange country. More important than orientation, which can be supplied, either in Washington, or in Africa, is the individual's ability to adjust to entirely new situations. I speak of situations such as being in country, where almost everyone is black, or eating food that is so hot that no more than three spoonfuls can be taken at a meal. Those who come to Africa and overcome the cultural barriers, will find, as I have, a most rewarding experience.

AN EDITORIAL

It has been brought to the VILLAGER's attention that a considerable number of fire alarm and extinguisher salesmen have been ringing the doorbells in our community. This is presumably to be expected in a community where a recent fire has caused considerable damage and has capped its burden of publicity. Neither the VILLAGER nor the Board of Directors of the Civic Assoc. can approve of, or recommend to our residents, the advantages of one alarm system as opposed to others. But we feel bound to advise the community that home owners are being victimized and sometimes endangered by sales of fire safety gadgets (at all prices) that are not only unreliable but are fire hazards in themselves.

Elsewhere in the VILLAGER, an article on "Your Fire Alarm" indicates some of the basic requirements of a reliable system. It is essential for every potential buyer, however, to be most scrupulous in his purchase of a fire-alarm system for his own protection. Sales techniques and convincing sales demonstrations can sell unreliable equipment that will lead homeowners a false sense of security.

We have learned that many alarm system sales men are completely unequipped to explain the details of the gadgets they are trying to sell. It is important not to be pressured by fear or horror stories into the purchase of sub-standard or useless devices. This may be the most important purchase you'll ever contemplate.

Your Fire Alarm

By Horace Sterling

Recently, many of our residents have felt impelled to investigate various home fire alarm systems or units that could be installed in their residences. Many of these residents have come to the conclusion that a home fire alarm is a necessity. Whether you have already installed a system, or whether you are contemplating a purchase now, the following information should be of interest to you.

The writer has gathered information from consumer publications, fire insurance company articles, UL Fire Protection Equipment list, and discussions with fire prevention experts. The views expressed herein are not necessarily those of the Board of Directors of the Civic Assoc.

1. Alarms of the $1.00 to $7.95 variety, which include flashlight battery-operated buzzers, spring wound devices, plug-in types, and whistles on small spray nozzle cans are sub-standard and completely unreliable.

2. Many electrical systems are sold as completely UL approved, when actually only a few components have been approved. A component may carry the UL label based upon its original intended use (lamp wire or radio speaker) and not be suitable for use in an alarm system. It is a fact that no wired electrical system, sold as a complete package, has UL approval.

3. A wired system that depends on batteries is useless when the batteries go. Every car owner knows how unexpectedly this may happen. A system that depends on house current is useless when power failure occurs.

4. Daily testing is a necessity where an open circuit electrical system is used. A closed circuit system, unless connected to a

Jericho Fire Department To Accept All Alarms

By George J. Frankel

Thank You Friends

To all our dear friends and neighbors who were so wonderful to us during our terrible ordeal, due to our fire, thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We wish we could thank you all personally, but we wouldn't know where to begin. God Bless You All.
Harold and Adele Zorn and Family.

The Jericho Fire Dept. will accept reports of all fires, and refer the information to the correct department, if the location is out of the Jericho district.

On Thursday, Aug. 10th, the Executive Board of the Birchwood Civic Assoc., consisting of President Irwin Baumel, 1st Vice-President George J. Frankel, and 2nd Vice-President Milton Beutley met with Felix Franco, Chairman of the Jericho Board of Fire Commissioners. Mr. Franco informed the Civics group that, in order to avoid the possibility of repeating the confusion that surrounded the reporting of the Zorn fire on Forest Drive last month, (see VILLAGER of July 20, article entitled "Civics Investigate Zorn Fire"), a new set of Dispatcher instructions has been issued to all Jericho dispatchers. Item (7) of these instructions states: "In the event of an out-of-the-District reported fire, the Dispatcher is to make the information and immediately notify the correct Dept. DO NOT bother persons turning in the alarm with 'you called the wrong Department'."

Conversations should be kept at an absolute minimum. The person will be contacted when the emergency is over and be informed of the correct Dept. to call."

Francis further assured the Civic Assoc. that, in the event that there is any question as to whether or not the locale of an alarm is in the Jericho Fire District, the Jericho Fire Dept. will roll.

VILLAGER readers may be interested to learn that both Jericho and Syosset Fire Departments will be requested to do so by the homeowners, send a qualified inspector to your home to inspect the premises and make recommendation to improve safety and eliminate fire hazards. The homeowner is not subject to violations, and there is no charge or other obligation. Homeowners should contact the Dept. in whose District they reside to make an appointment.

President's Corner

Summer is a time for rest and relaxation ... an outmoded theory in which we once innocently believed. Civic Assoc. business, like Old Man River, just keeps rolling along. Just a few of the things that have occupied our ninety degree days ... fires and fire fighting, the Floyd Bennett construction problem, rejection of a day camp on Robbins Lane and even low, low tree branches, a hazard to dog walkers.

Truly brevity is the soul of wit, but repetition can also serve a purpose. While we've all heard this before it might be good for all of us to review just why our Village of Birchwood Park has and needs a Civic Assoc. Our "summer problems" are only a part of the picture ... a picture that some of us tend to confuse.

A Civic Assoc. has as its main task the protection and the maintenance of the property and the well-being of the residents of its community. We, members of what might be termed the hamlet of Jericho, have no official government. We do have the Town of Quaker Bay government which

Floyd Bennet Stores vs Jericho

By Gilbert B. Stein

Paichego, L. I., is located a pretty 45 minute drive from Birchwood. There you will find, located off Sunrise Highway, the present show place of the Floyd Bennet stores, after which our own local store will be patterned. Unlike here, F.B. Paichego does not crowd in upon any residential area. One is immediately reminded of the similarity of it to Davega's Syosset, although it seems that Davega has a higher ceiling and wider aisles giving the impression of a less crowded or cluttered appearance. To get to the Food Department (and F.B. Birchwood will have in excess of 10,000 square feet of super-market space) alone one must pass through a goodly portion of the premises. Since the supermarket will feature the real "leaders" and draw the greatest crowd of shoppers, this is most likely to be the pattern here.

F.B. Departments are run as separate corporate units. Thus you will find that Friendly Frogs runs a very well laid out section selling hardgoods such as refrigerators, washing machines, TV sets, air conditioners, etc. Other Departments, where the calibre of ownership and management may be somewhat lower, show it by lack of attractive display, by overcrowding, by poor selection of merchandise, or by confused arrangements of same. Floyd Bennet stores Birchwood will have 135,000 square feet of area. There will be dozens of various Departments. No doubt our fellow residents may expect a price war in food and merchandise.

Locally we have Davega's, Mid-Island Shopping Plaza, with its numerous stores, and, of course, there is Corvett, Mays, Kleins and A & S and Roosevelt Field, all within easy driving distance. It looks like we shall perhaps get a further break in this direction. Times Square Stores, another large discount operation, is presently completing a really beautiful store (from outside looks) at Hempstead Turnpike and Jerusalem Avenue. T. S. Stores will have 185,000 square feet, greatly exceeding even the local F. B. store. Our housewives will get a break in their food costs. Locally, Waldbaums will have to compete and Waldbaums is no newcomer to discount operations. One of Long Island's largest discount centers, White's in Massapequa Park, (Sunrise Highway) features a Waldbaum Food Concession who represent prices on many items are below those of other Waldbaums Stores throughout the city.

F. B. Stores, as most discount operations, will be open until 10 PM six nights per week. This represents a convenience to the consumer. Being able to pick up practically anything from tobacco to drugs at competitive prices will make it possible for every Birchwoodite to save time and possibly money. Regarding other than food and hardgoods items, this is where

Civic Position on Syosset Budget Verified

A reduction of 42¢ in the Central School District #2 Tax Rate has just been announced by the Syosset School Board. Increased State Aid and unexpended funds in the 1960-61 budget are given as the reasons for the reduction. This confirms the position taken by the Birchwood Civic Assoc. when it recommended a "NO" vote on the school budget.

Our Civic Assoc. contended all along that the budget could be cut without affecting the education of our children. We specifically pointed out the danger of the continually increasing balances remaining after each tax period. This, we felt, would lead to possible waste and would not make the administration aware of the dire need to obtain the most for our tax dollar.

The School Board steadfastly held during the Budget issue that they had cut to the bone and therefore could not possibly cut the budget. The budget they proposed was approved by a slight majority on the second vote. The School Board could have kept the tax rate up but, to their credit, they decided to reduce the tax rate by using the unexpended funds from the previous year. This fund, plus increased state aid, reduced our tax rate from the projected $5.40 to $4.98 per $100 of assessment. This is still an increase from last year's $4.604 rate.

The Birchwood Civic Assoc. at Jericho Inc. is to be enthusiastically complimented for its courageous (and sometimes unpopular) stand in advocating a "NO" vote. A great deal of hard work went into its campaign to defeat the Budget. Many members of our Civic Group were insulted, abused and ridiculed for the Association's position. To these men we owe our gratitude. It should be a very comforting feeling for them to know that they were right and their battle has been won.

BENNET STORES

The comparison shopper, the thinking buyer will shine. The trick is to know prices of nationally advertised brands. One must know something about workmanship, contents, finish and size on all such items to be able to pick real values. F.B. will try to get you to come, perhaps for only a few lead items which have been advertised. They count on you to spend your money on many other things, as you walk through the crowded aisles.

Discount stores are generally no thing of beauty. What they lack on good sales help, on good display, on wide selection and sometimes on quality of merchandise, they try to make up on giving value. It will be up to the selective buyer to recognize and take advantage of any such values. The fact that the store may at times be crowded, that there will be poor service, that the atmosphere is most likely unattractive and that shopping may take time, it will be well worth it if one can save money.

In summary, it can be said that Floyd Bennett Stores will bring much traffic to our area and possibly to our community. The location of the building so directly behind a score of private homes, the raised construction of a factory type building, the ensuing noise and whatever commercialism may be brought about by this operation all are detrimental to our community. On the other hand, our consumers may get a break, there is the convenience of nearby late hour shopping for practically all your needs. There will be full time and perhaps part time job openings. Last but not least, a store of its size will represent some considerable tax income to our county, town and school district. Floyd Bennett, be it boom or bust, be it desirable to some, objectionable to others, will open its doors in Birchwood soon. Perhaps it is not inappropriate to wish to both the people of Jericho and Birchwood in particular, as well as to Floyd Bennett Stores Jericho "good luck" for the future.

is involved with many other hamlets. Our Civic Assoc. serves as an elected group of officials to try and handle the day to day problems of our Jericho living. ... don't call me Mayor ... it's in an unofficial capacity. While we enact no laws we try to see that our citizens benefit from the laws that do exist, are properly protected in case of fire, have the benefit of better than adequate school systems and live in a community that they can be proud to call their home.

An example of the way in which Civic can serve the community relates to the construction of the Floyd Bennett store. While there are many areas we cannot interfere in, since they violate no law, Civic can speak when an individual voice would be ineffective. As has been shown this is a group of businessmen coming to do business in our area and yet showing little regard, not for our feelings, but for reasonable requests that have been presented to them. We hope as a Civic body to encourage them to give more than lip service to the "good neighborly" policy.

Strong action is being taken right now on their lack of regard for the property of our perimeter people. I hope repetition of points you have read before will help to remind you that Civic business is your business. Our Civic Assoc. is only as strong as its membership. Be a member and know why you are a member.

Young Democrats Meet Candidates

A highly successful "Getting To Know You" party was held at the residence of Mrs. Loretta Kearney 41 Sprinfield Rd., Hicksville on Aug. 9 at which neighbors and the newly formed Young Democrats of Hicksville were introduced to six of the Democratic Candidates.

Present at the party were Beatrice Bernstein, candidate for Presiding Court Judge; Louis Schultz, for District Court Judge; Michael Petti and Jerry Murray, for Town Councilmen; Claude Loos, candidate for Superintendent of Highways; Noel McCormack for Trustee of the James Fund and Edward J. Morris, acting Town of Oyster Bay and Hicksville Zone Leader. The Young Democrats, a new organization, is a local political scene founded this year by its present chairman Philip F. Kearney, Jr. of 122 Elm Lane, met the candidates for the first time and were informed of the manner in which they might participate in civic affairs and the upcoming campaign. Bernstein spoke on the current problems which involve young people and the present children's welfare programs in existence on Long Island. She stressed the need for vastly improved technical and expanded facilities. Schultz, an attorney of years, addressed the group on his past experiences in the law profession and his life-long participation in political affairs. Petti and Murray discussed local issues, the next campaign and the tremendous need for improvement in the government of the Town of Oyster Bay and in present transportation systems.

Football Tryouts Set for Aug 29

After a most successful base season that brought two Division Championships to St. Ignace parish, Coach John Caldwell will begin football practice for the Ignatius Yellowjackets on Tuesday, Aug. 29th at 4 p.m. at the Lee Ave. School field.

Coach John Caldwell and his assistants Dick Mayer, Bill Cowie and Bob Rupp had a quick look at their prospects in spring training when 50 anxious football hopefuls displayed their talents. There were a few regulars from last year's third place team who will be back again and the coaching staff hopes to discover sufficient new talent amongst those who report on August 29th to develop the Blue and Gold into strong contenders for the Diocesan title.

The Ignatians won the R.V.C. Diocesan crown in the first year of the Grammar School league in 1955. Since then several stars of that team have continued to develop and show great promise for their Junior year in High School. Skippy Rottkamp, Ray Strassburger and Phil Pignataro who were members of the 1959 Champions hope to be starters for their High School eleven during the coming season. Coach Caldwell hopes that he can produce similar stars for the future. Joe Thomas, head coach at Chaminade High School, said at a recent meeting of the St. Ignace Athletic Association that he considered the Grammar School League as a "farm" for his Chaminade eleven. "A" boys in eighth grade or under in Junior High School are eligible if they attend Confraternity classes at St. Ignace Church. The rules of the Grammar School League require that a boy be under 125 pounds in weight. All boys who compete are covered by insurance against injury. Each player is adequately protected from head to foot with heavy equipment which is a safeguard against injury that could result from such physical contact sports.

The Yellowjackets play their home games at the Hicksville Junior High School field before large Sunday afternoon crowds. Any boy in the parish of St. Ignace who meets the age and weight requirements is invited to report to Coach Caldwell on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Lee Ave. School Field. He would be particularly happy to see a couple of speedy half backs and a pair of husky tackles report for duty.

Practices will be held every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 and on Saturday mornings at 9 o'clock.

Special Treat For Racing Fans

Co-Promoters Duke Donaldson and Billie Kedenburg announce a special treat is in store for auto racing fans this Saturday, Aug. 19, when for the first time on any track the Novice's will race 100 laps with 50 cars participating. There is much speculation as to whether these strictly stock cars can endure the grueling grind of a 100 lap race. Heretofore, 50 laps has been the longest race attempted by this class of cars.

DON'T BE MISLED BY 'FREE' SERVICE GAS HEAT CLAIMS

When you heat with oil... and only when you heat with oil... you get low-cost service contracts that cover everything. More and more home owners have discovered that "free" service means no service. All automatic fuel systems have complicated moving parts common to each:

Remember - When you have an Oil Heat Service Contract, there's never a need to call "outside specialists" and pay extra costs. Your heating oil dealer is completely responsible for care and repair. Members of the Oil Heat Institute of Long Island subscribe to a Code of Ethics that protects you against any misleading or confusing statements and representations. Heating oil dealers accept the full responsibility for the healthful heating of your home. And, OHIL members are pledged to maintain competently trained service specialists on call night and day, 7 days a week.
