FOUR TON safe was lowered, Friday, from the fourth floor of the Professional Building on the E. Barclay St. from the office of Charles H. Stoll, attorney, and moved in to his new offices in the Stoll Building. It cost about $1500 to move the safe and required the removal of windows, walls, shifting of high tension wires, etc. Story on page 3. (Photos by Frank Mallett)

ALBANY — Sealed bids on the elimination of grade crossings of the Long Island Rail Road at Hicksville, which state engineers estimate will cost over $10 million, will be opened publicly at 10:30 AM at the Gov. Alfred E. Smith State Office Building, here, on Thursday, Oct. 5th. State Senator Henry M. Curran disclosed the date for taking of bids in an exclusive HERALD report last week.

Sealed bids for 30 other projects in the state, costing a total estimated $60 millions, will be opened at the same time and place by the state dept. of public works, according to J. Burch McMorron, State Public Works Superintendent. Thus the second major hurdle on the long road to completion of the Hicksville program will be crossed. The first was the official approval of the plans by the State Public Service Commission some weeks ago.

After sealed bids are opened and studied by engineers of the state, the Dept. of Public Works will proceed to awarding of contracts. An interval of about two months is expected between bid opening and award of contracts which could result in the start of actual construction by December of this year.

Engineers have estimated the project to eliminate Hicksville's RR crossings will take about two years. First temporary tracks will be laid north and east of the present rails. A temporary station will be erected.

The present tracks will be removed and embankment and bridge spans will follow.

The State Dept. of Public Works describes the Hicksville project as follows:

The work includes construction of a viaduct and embankments to raise the track level, bridges to carry the railroad over city streets, and a new station and station plaza just south of Barclay Street near Wyckoff Street. New bridges will carry the mainline of the railroad over Jerusalem Ave., Broadway, East Marie St., East Nicholas St., Old Country Road, and a portion of Newbridge Road, which will be relocated to the west of the present route under a future contract.

The Port Jefferson Branch of the railroad will cross over Bay Ave. and Bethpage Road on new bridges. Street profiles will be lowered and pavements widened where they cross under the railroad. The bridges, one to three spans each, will be of plate girder construction and the viaduct will be of reinforced concrete, "I" beam and plate girder construction.

Army PFC Fred J. Westenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Westenberg, 17 Hastings Lane, Hicksville, graduated from the 3d Transportation Terminal Training Group's Leadership School at Fort Eustis, Va., Aug. 18.

ABOUT 700 TEACHERS and administrators of Hicksville Public Schools gathered in the Senior High School Auditorium, Tuesday morning, for a briefing upon the new term which starts today, Sept. 7. (Herald exclusive photo by Frank Mallett)

Dear Jean..

Welcome home to Mr. and Mrs. SAM WEISS of Willoughby Ave. who returned home last week-end from a well earned two weeks vacation. Also hello again to Mr. and Mrs. DAVE WELTZ of Central Park Rd., Plainville, who returned home the past week after a summer vacation up-state. Heard several of our friends say they had the grandest time at "Isau" on Monday evening. A fair, with the most delicious food served, had Mr. and Mrs. T. MELSEN of Spruce St., serving as host and hostess. Will have to get the recipe. Received a very nice card from ANNE FAY of West St. telling us she was touring the Maritime Provinces (card was from Halifax, Nova Scotia) and was enjoying herself immensely. Happy vacationing, Anne. Glad to hear that Mrs. J. HICKS of 166 Old Country Rd. is feeling better after a stay at Nassau Hospital. Also Mrs. SCHLITZ, mother of one of our favorites, Freddie Schlitz, our boy at window two at the Hicksville P.O., is doing much better after a stay in the hospital. Mrs. Schlitz, a friend of ours since good 'ole' Hicksville days and a former resident of the town, now resides in Amityville. Mrs. MARY BLOSS and FREDIE SCHLITZ, back at their jobs with the Hicksville P.O. after vacations spent here and there. Welcome home also to the MAC MCCORMACK family of Pine St. who spent a week up in the Catskills. Sure missed the old mail bag and Edna. Can't forget Aunt Em's little Kevin who is as cute as can be now-a-days....

Congratulations to newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD ROWELL, Mr. and Mrs. RICHARDT HANSEN, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. LEPOR, who were all married recently in our local churches. Also congrats and best wishes to Miss REBEKA ECKHART of 28 Maple Lane, Jericho, who plans to become the bride of Stuart F. Baker of Levittown. Miss DOROTHY A. GRAY of Bethpage and David H. Benway of Pelham Manor plan a Spring wedding. Their engagement was recently announced by Miss Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gray of Spencer Dr., Bethpage. Our congratulations to Miss OTTOLIE BUONAGURA on her new venture, that of a Navy nurse. Miss B. is one of the girls we know since she was a little babe in arms. She is the daughter of old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. ANGELO BUONAGURA of S Bway. Our belated birthday greetings to Mrs. B. who celebrated on Monday of this week. Congrats, are in order for Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT BOGART who will celebrate 16 years of wedded bliss on Sat. The Bogarts are residing with Mrs. B's mother, Mrs. Eugene Merston of East St. until later this month, when they will move into their new home in Syosset. They recently moved from Orlando, Fla.

We heard that MAJOR HENRY H. FRANK of the Army Reserve, 302nd Civil Affairs, has been called up for active duty for a year of less, effective Oct. 1, 1961. He will be assigned to Fort Gordon, Georgia. He and Mrs. Frank reside at 29 Washington Ave., Hicksville. Mr. and Mrs. ED QUINN of East Carl St., two nice friends of ours, returned home this week from a three week stay in England and Ireland visiting relatives. Joyce and Ed told us they travelled over- and back by jet and had a good time. What a nice second honeymoon. A few members of the Hicksville Republican Recruits had a wonderful weekend in Calliscon, New York. They left Saturday, and came back Monday. That mountain air can sure do wonders.

Town Clerk WM "Bud" D'KEEFE was the guest of CARL GRUNEWALD at the Hicksville Kiwanis last week. Another guest was MICHAEL SIMON, this year's winner of the Club's scholarship award. ...Sorts continue in circulation that a female candidate will appear on the scene for the Fire Commissioners vote in December. ...Hicksville Firemen had several new sections of grandstand available for the spectators at the Plaza, Labor Day....

Judge Stoll Moves Safe With Sentiment

Charles H. Stoll has moved his office from the 4th floor of the Professional Building at Broadway and E. Barlay St., Hicksville, to the adjacent Stoll Building. He and his associates will have open house today (Thurs.) But in the process, "Judge" Stoll, one time justice of the peace, has acquired a $1,500 obligation which can only be termed "sentimental." Back in 1906 a safe was built.

It became the property of the late Jim Dowsey, father of County Judge James L. Dowsey Jr. In 1909 Charles Stoll began the practice of law.

Stoll and Dowsey became partners in law in New York. About 1929 the Professional Building opened on North Broadway at Barclay St. That same year Stoll and Dowsey opened a branch in the Professional Bldg.

In 1938 Stoll and Dowsey closed their New York office and the 4 1/2 ton safe was moved out to Hicksville.

It was hoisted in the elevator shaft to the fourth floor. In those days Stoll's firm occupied the entire fourth floor.

When it came time for Judge Stoll, internationally known attorney as well as an explorer and hunter, to move into his own building, sentiment prevailed.

Last Friday, workmen cut through wall on the 4th floor, removed the window sash. At the same time, the Lighting Co. moved a high tension line out of the way. With the aid of a crane, the 4 1/2 ton safe was lowered to the ground, put on a truck carted around the corner and eased into the new location in the Stoll Building.

ALBERT RYAN, son of Mr. & Mrs. Edward V. Ryan of Plainville, N.J., will celebrate his 9th birthday on Sept. 19.

FOURTH HOMECOMING

Spearheading a drive for a big community turnout, the Hicksville Alumni Assoc. has placed its Homecoming celebration tickets on sale for the Hicksville-Chaminade football game, Saturday Sept. 23.

The Homecoming committee has arranged a two-part program this year to induce a large attendance at the football game. Scheduled for television viewing over Channel 7, New York, the game will enable the Assoc. and friends of Hicksville High to demonstrate support on a wide scale.

Tickets for the football game and alumni reception immediately after are priced at one dollar. The Homecoming Dance, with music provided by Art Swanson, will be held at the Bethpage Country Club. Dance subscriptions are sealed at $1.50 each.

HICKSVILLE P.B.C. held its annual Trophy Awards Night on Wednesday evening, Aug. 30, at the Hicksville Junior High School. The boys and their guests were entertained by Eng Strand, foremost exponent of the magical arts. Audience participation added to the fun of the evening which was followed by refreshments. Heat Wave Cuts Tourney Attendance

Ninety-degree temperature cut into attendance at the 33rd annual Hicksville Fire Dept. Labor Day drill at Mid Island Plaza, Monday. An estimated 30,000 saw the morning parade and about 10,000 persons gathered at the Plaza to see Oyster Bay Rough Riders again take top honors for the day.

North Massapequa rescue team won the first aid drill on Saturday night.

There were 2,160 men in the line of march on Monday, 212 fire trucks, 48 bands, 50 departments and 28 ladies auxiliary units.

Freeport was judged best among units over 50 men. Honors also went to Massapequa and Levittown. Under 50 honors went to North Merrick Floral Park, Albertson and Roslyn Highlanders.

East Meadow won honors for the best band with Levittown second. North Bellmore had the best drum and bugle unit with Roosevelt second.

Hicksville Ladies Auxiliary was judged best among units with over 15. They surrendered their trophy to Albertson, followed by Wantagh.

Best ladies unit under 15 was Port Washington with East Meadow second.

Tragedy hit the program in the morning when William Michaelson, chief of East Norwich Fire Dept., collapsed while leading his unit. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Meadowbrook Hospital.

Few Vote On Fire Budget

Less than 65 voters cast their ballots, Tuesday, upon proposals to spend $136,000 of the taxpayers' money for the operation of Hicksville Fire District in 1962. The budget of $126,000 and three proposals of $10,000 were curbed without substantial opposition. There were fewer than 100 votes cast with less than five votes in opposition.

Miss Mary Ann Murphy and John F. Lepore were married on Saturday, Sept. 3rd at St. Hugh's R.C. Church, Huntington with the Rev. John Byrnes officiating.

He was rushed to the Hospital in a county police ambulance. A number of spectators at the tournament during the afternoon were treated for sun exposure.

WEST BIRCHWOOD-JERICO CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Vol. 2 No. 26

Sept. 7, 1961

EDITORIALS

The Answer is YES!

At the last meeting of West Birchwood Civic Assoc. Board of Directors, Aug 28th, the Board voted to submit to the General Membership constitutional amendments outlined in another article on this page.

These amendments involve streamlining our Board for more efficiency in operation and providing for an easier method of electing our officers and board members.

The meeting to ratify these amendments will be held Friday night, Sept 15th at 8:30 P. M. in the Robert Seaman School. Please plan to be there and vote YES.

The Answer is NO!

Not content with marring the Birchwood Shopping Center with their Kremlinlike monstrosity of a building, the FB people are now trying to get a variance from Oyster Bay giving them permission to install a bigger garish neon sign than the law permits.

The hearing before the Zoning Board of Appeals is scheduled for tonight (Thurs) and President Carl Denny, representing the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. inc., will be there to give our answer—a loud NO!!

NYU Offers Local Programs

The Liberal Arts in Extension Division of New York University will offer the following programs in Jericho in cooperation with the Birchwood Park Civic Assoc and West Birchwood Park Civic Assoc: WORLD POLITICS, A 10-session study-discussion program to meet at homes in Birchwood Park on Tuesday evenings from 8:30 - 10:30. The first session will be held on Oct. 3rd. The course fee is $14 per single registration and $21 for husband and wife. Specially prepared background READINGS will be given to each registrant as part of his fee.

A discussion of the fundamental moral-political issues in international affairs based on the writings of statesmen, politicians, scientists, and philosophers, among them Freud, Einstein, Tolstoy, Dostoevski, Plato, Mussolini, Marx, Lenin, Khrushchev, Eisenhower, F.D. Roosevelt, Sukarno, Gandhi, Churchill, and Wilson. Join with them in considering the curial problems of: - that causes war? democracy; - Communism; self-determination; - power politics and ideology; - international organization and world government; means and ends in world politics. Discussion leaders will be Mr. Joseph Stim and Mr. Murray Flerman.

LOCKING AT MODERN ART, A 10-session lecture-discussion program to meet at homes in Birchwood Park on Monday evenings from 8:30 - 10:30. The first session will be held on Oct. 2nd. The course fee is $20 per single registration and $35 for husband and wife.

And introduction to the revolutionary change in the painter's way of looking at the world. The course helps you (1) to gain insight into the various movements within modern art as they stem from Cezanne, Picasso, and Kandinsky, and (2) to develop further your own capacity to communicate with the artist through his work.

In addition to lecture presentation, there is a discussion of materials contained in a manual furnished to the participant without additional charge. Considerable time is also devoted to viewing and discussing slides of selected paintings - in terms of the artist's intention, of the meanings derived by the viewer, and of the methods employed by the artist to achieve his effect.

The instructor for this program will be Arnold Simonoff, a member of the NYU faculty.

For further information call Mrs. Lillian Katz at HUNter 7-5105.

SPECIAL GUEST

Miss Judy G. Moss of Jericho was invited to be a special guest at a pre-register mixer held by the Long Island Tufts Club on Wed., Sept. 6, in the home of Dr. Ernest S. Seymour, 8 Bowler Rd., East Rockaway.

Miss Moss, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Moss, has been accepted for admission to Jackson College of Tufts University, Medford, Mass. She is a graduate of Jericho High School.

President's Corner

By Carl F. Denny

With summer now officially over, your Civic Association will again swing into high gear. The many projects that had slowed down during the heat wave are now being completed. Amongst these projects was the amending of your Association's constitution.

Among the proposed changes are the size of the Board of Directors and the makeup of the Board, which will be reduced to 13 members in all. Four of these will be drawn from the membership at large.

Another proposed change will make it considerably easier to petition for office. All that will be required shall be notification of intention to the secretary, at least thirty days before the election date, Nov. 4.

Some of the above changes were designed to streamline the Assoc. but the easing up of petitions for office were specifically designed to allow those people interested in being a member of the Board to run with a minimum of difficulty or red tape.

We older members now sincerely appeal to newer neighbors to seriously consider running for anyone of the elected offices of the Assoc. The many problems that will be unique only to the newer sections can best be handled by men and women from these areas. Instructions for filing for office can be found in your newspaper.

Unless we can get interested new people our Assoc. might very well lose its effectiveness. This will not only be a serious blow to the older members, but can well be disastrous to the new areas. To insure the many things that must be done, requires a Civic Association and there will not be an Association unless we can get active participation from the newer members.

This, then, is not an appeal but a statement of fact; either we get new blood or our association will be in serious straits indeed. Please file your petitions for office now, we no longer can afford the luxury of saying "let Joe do it." Contribute your time now for your sake.

General Meeting of Civic Association

There will be a general membership meeting of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc., Inc., on Friday, Sept. 15, at 8:30 p.m. at the Robert Seaman School. This meeting will be held to present to the membership a series of constitutional amendments deemed necessary by the present Board of Directors for the successful future of the Assoc. All members are urged to attend this special and important meeting.

MEMBERS of Jericho Fire Dept will be calling on homes in the area this Sunday, Sept. 10, during their annual welfare fund appeal. See notice on page 12 in this issue.

Town Orders Builder To Clean Up Or Else

Propose 13 Member Board

By Herbert Simins

The Constitution of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. has been reviewed by a Constitutional Amendment Committee for the purpose of making the Constitution conform more readily to the needs of the community.

Accordingly, several proposed amendments have been presented to the Board of Directors. These amendments are summarized as follows:

1. The Board of Directors will henceforth consist of 13 members comprised of 5 officers (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Financial Secretary and Treasurer), the Chairman or permanent alternates of 4 standing committees of the Association, (Education Committee, Social Committee, Welfare Committee and Publications Committee), and 4 Directors-at-Large. Each of the 4 aforementioned committees will elect a Chairman who will also be a member of the Board of Directors. However, a permanent representative to the Board of Directors may be elected by each committee should the Chairman not wish to divide his efforts between two functions.

2. Members of the Civic association who are desirous of being candidates for the Board of Directors-at-Large may signify their intention to run for any office by simply writing to the Secretary of the Civic Association at least 30 days prior to the General Election to be held in November. Petitions will no longer be required for the purpose of being nominated.

3. A Nominating Committee will be formed composed of 5 members; at least two of whom will be chosen from the general membership and the remainder from the existing

Town of Oyster Bay has ordered Sosnow and Schwartz to clean up their property between Sullivan Drive and the L.I. Expressway. This information was given to the West Birchwood News by a spokesman for the Town who stated that Supervisor John Burns had ordered the TOS Legal Dept. to instruct Sosnow and Schwartz that unless this was done in 20 days, the Town would do the job and charge Sosnow and Schwartz.

Residents of Sullivan Drive have long complained that the area back of their homes was in a state of complete neglect, that workmen were dumping on the ground, that the fields were overgrown with weeds and that rodents had been making their nests there.

At the last meeting of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. Board of Directors, President Carl Denny reported that the letters to Sosnow and Schwartz had not been answered and the condition of the area had been reported to Oyster Bay. An inspection by Oyster Bay confirmed the statements made by Sullivan residents, and according to Oyster Bay, the builders were notified but did nothing about their recommendations. With the matter being brought to the personal attention of Supervisor Burns, the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. was assured that speedy action may be anticipated.

Charges Store Ruins Values

Jerome Murray, Democratic candidate for Oyster Bay Town Council, and resident of the community of Birchwood Park at Jericho, recently charged the Floyd Bennett Stores with causing their adjacent neighbors thousands of dollars in real estate losses.

Murray stated that the stores' construction in the Birchwood Shopping Center "completely ignored the interests and real estate values" of its neighbors. The building's rear, said Murray, is "A horrible monstrosity. Its elevation completely blots out the sun and air of neighboring residents, and the construction materials used are an eyesore to residents. Practically all of the adjacent homeowners already have or intend to place their houses up for sale, and will probably suffer large losses of investments."

2 New Recruits Enter Navy

Arthur Lewis Rutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rutz of 139 Cottage Blvd., Hicksville, has joined the U.S. Navy and is off to nine weeks of recruit training, Great Lakes, Illinois.

Arthur Peter Kreyborg son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreyborg of 38 Boxwood Lane, Hicksville, has also joined the U.S. Navy.

Civics To Meet

The White Birch Civic Association of Jericho will hold its first meeting of the 1961-62 season at the Fire House on Tuesday, Sept. 12 at 8:30 p.m.

SIXTEEN AND ALL GROWN UP?

Dear Sir:

I don't know if you can help me or whether or not it's my parents who really need the help, since they seem to forget that I'm fully grown. I'm sixteen years old and without being conceited I think I'm one of the most popular girls in the school. I have dates every weekend and sometimes during the week. My parents say I dress up too old for my age and have embarrassed me several times by telling some of my boy friends that I'm still a baby. My father keeps on telling me that I should spend less time with boys and more time with my girl friends and certainly more time with my school work. He even wants me to have "hen parties" in my house. They are making life miserable for me. Although lots of my girl friends smoke and drink, I don't and my parents are proud of me because of this and always tell everyone what a good daughter I am. I don't know what to do. I'm really confused.

Confused JC 16

Dear Confused:

The fact that you are confused, really reflects the sad state of your upbringing and the sad state of our society in general.

Your parents are right in saying that you should spend more time with your girl friends and school work. At 16 you may seem to be at an age of maturity. In truth you are still a babe living in your parents' home and should be receiving parental discipline. Apparently your parents only talk "at" you and never to you and never take firm steps to make you realize that you are still a minor for whom they are responsible. Your parents do not seem to understand that children need and expect discipline. Your father shouldn't just tell you to stop dating so much. He should make you stop by firm action (including an old fashioned paddling if necessary).

Dating is a custom which is only accepted in the United States today. This is a custom which was developed during the roaring twenties and the entire country acted as one big delinquent. We never outgrew this custom. It is difficult for a teenager to realize that dating serves no useful purpose. Among Europeans dating means courtship in the true sense. It means the seeking out of a partner for marriage. I'm sure that you are not looking for a husband as yet. In this country dating means a needless waste of time and money; the girl's parents are continually plagued with requests for new clothes for new dates; the boy's parents are required to give the boy the family car (love car?) plus "pocket money" for night clubbing. I'm sure many of your friends have spent more on you in one evening than their parents could really afford.

So you are a good girl because you don't smoke and drink while your friends do. It's obvious you are running around with the wrong kind of friends (and your parents seem to know it and not care). You seem to know that smoking and drinking for your age group is wrong. Why do you spend your time with people who commit these wrongs?

Start limiting your dates; spend more time with the right girl friends and certainly study more for study usually brings understanding and maturity.

To Parents In General

Suburbia is supposed to be the great answer to delinquency problems. Unfortunately most people seem to think the problems are created by the children. If you would realize that the so-called juvenile problems are created by the adults in the adult world, half the battle would be won. Children need and expect discipline. Parents are afraid to give it for fear of appearing old fashioned in the eyes of their children. Everyone wants to be the best friend to his or her child. This cannot be. It is unfair to the parent and the child. Adults and children live in two different worlds. If you want your child

B'NAI B'RITH JERICHO SOFTBALL CHAMPS

B'NAI B'RITH LODGE won the Jericho League Championship by beating the Knights of Pythias 7-4. In a thrilling game played at the Merry Lane School, B'nai B'rith clinched a thrilling year by coming from behind and winning their ninth consecutive game.

Trailing 1-0 in the bottom of the first inning, B'nai B'rith tied the score and in the second inning, with two out and after two runs had already scored, Bert Goldman connected for a bases-loaded home run. The winning pitcher for the jubilant B'nai B'rith men was Irv Roncy, while for the losing Pythians the pitcher was Arnold Gluckman.

to reach the adult world safely, act the part of an adult yourself and give discipline where it is needed.

To a great extent many of our children's problems are the fault of the community at large. I'm shocked each time I travel through our towns and see teenagers gathered on corners, in front of stores, on parking fields, apparently with nothing to do but smoke, make noise, annoy passersby and plan mischief in general. Here are groups of boys and girls wasting their time and energy and building up for trouble. There should be a law under which the parents of these children could be punished for neglect. If these children are not directed towards useful activities in their formative years, what hope does society have, that these children will become useful members of society when they reach adulthood. Where is the so called good influence of our schools and churches; of our community agencies? Why aren't these children lured off the streets into attractive community, church or agency centers with supervised community activities? Why aren't more parents working with the school and churches and agencies like the Police/Boys Club.

Wake up to the facts or else you may find yourself in the growing body of delinquent parents.

Start Building New Offices

Construction has begun on a three story office building at the southeast corner of Old Country Road and Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville. The building, which will contain no stores, when completed, will be the largest building of its type in the Hicksville area.

A ground breaking ceremony took place at the site this week. Present at the ceremony were Louis Sista, Town Councilman; Thomas R. Pynchon, Town Superintendent of Highways; Carl Grosswald, Chairman of the Board of Zoning and Appeals; and Louis Kappatatter, Superintendent of Sanitation.

Representing the principal tenant of the building was Robert Tunick, U.L.U., Manager of the Hicksville office of Mutual of New York Life Insurance Co., and Glen Mulvey, Superintendent of Agencies for M.O.N.Y. The Hicksville agency of MONY, which will occupy almost the entire second floor of the building, has been in Hicksville for seven years, and has 15 field underwriters.

The site is approximately 19,500 square feet in area, and when completed will contain a parking field for 39 cars. The owners, Men-Mac Associates, Inc., have provided for twenty foot set backs along both Jerusalem Ave. and Old Country Road, which will be landscaped.

The site was formerly owned by two separate owners, the northerly portion having been owned prior to sale to Men-Mac Associates, by August and Mary Deppsch, long time residents of Hicksville, and the southerly portion having been owned prior to sale to Men-Mac Associates, by August and Mary Deppsch, of Brooklyn, Mary Deppsch is the former Mary Shee. The late Doctor Shee, her father, will be remembered by the older residents of Hicksville.

The building will embrace 13,500 square feet containing 4,500 square feet on each floor. Over 65 per cent of the building has been rented. The exterior sides facing Jerusalem Ave. and Old Country Road will be constructed of glazed brick with aluminum window and masonry tile units. The front entrance will be from Old Country Road, and access will be through a ten foot wide canopy and platform. The building will have an all year round air conditioning and heating system throughout the daily maintenance will be provided for the tenants. Men-Mac Associates has been informed that the building probably will be ready for occupancy by the end of January 1962.

Mortgage financing is being provided by Long Island National Bank of Hicksville, the mortgage broker having been Fairfax Associates, Inc., of 191 West Old Country Road. Title company at title closing was Security Title and Guaranty Co., and the attorneys are Eshler and Hoffman. The general contractors are D. Gerard DeMott Corp. of Hempstead.

Community Club Making Plans

On August 29th, the planning committee of the soon-to-be Jericho Community Club held a general meeting at the Jericho Country Club. This was an informative meeting to acquaint the people of the plans to make the Jericho Country Club into a co-operative.

To an overflow crowd of over 300 interested people, Gil Stein and Ralph Diamond who jointly conducted the meeting explained the money and membership details.

As a result of this meeting, a temporary Board of Directors consisting of 19 men were selected to draw up by-laws and plans so that the proposed cooperative could become a reality.

AFRICAN REPORT

Colonialism Was Big Help

by Ken Foran

ADEN, NIGERIA

Wherever one travels in West Africa, he is sure to find traces of colonialism. The mistake that some Africans as well as some Europeans make is thinking that all colonialism was bad. Much of it was unthinkable in today's world, but there were positive advantages. In Ghana, people view their independence as an end to colonialism in Africa. The people delight in showing off their accomplishments, many of which there are because of the English. For instance, the Volta River Bridge was completed in 1955, two years before independence. Tema, Africa's newest artificial harbour, was planned far before independence. Takeradi, Ghana's other artificial harbour, (Ghana has no natural harbours and, with the exception of Lagos, West Africa hasn't any good natural harbours) was built in 1938.

When an American student makes arrangements to stay at an African University, he is asked whether he cares to dine "high table" or "low table." "High table" is a long table, raised on a platform, between two and three feet above the rest of the dining hall. "High table" has individual seats, while "low table" has benches. But the main difference is that Western food is served at "high table" while African food is served at "low table."

"Chop" is the African word either for food or to eat. Most of the African chop has western origins. "Kenke, a spicy food, has a base of corn, which comes from America. With the exception of cocoa yam, most African yams were introduced to this continent by Europeans. Most of the rice, a staple of the African diet, even today, is imported. If we look at the banks, the post offices, and communication systems, we see not only European equipment, but also European-trained Africans operating services and equipment.

Traveling from Ghana, through Togo and Dahomey to Nigeria, I had a good chance to compare the results of the British and French colonial administration. The most striking difference between the two is that the British have tried to build around the existing nucleus of tribes and cultures. The local customs, rulers and administration have been maintained, enabling traditional pride to exist. Even today, President Nkrumah faces difficulty in running Ghana as a centralized body. Many of the chiefs have never had their power taken away and they don't intend to lose it now. The French, on the other hand, have taken all power from local sources and consolidated it in the hands of Frenchmen. The only way that an African could hope to have any prestige in a French area was to become "a black Frenchman." Until independence, Africans were taught the French alphabet with little verses, part of which goes, "m is for millions to keep my hands warm." There is little wonder why many Togolese people did not go on with education. Perhaps this is the reason for fewer nationalist leaders in French speaking areas.

Those Africans who do continue their education are surprisingly European, both in thought and action. Unfortunately, this includes a very small percentage of the population. When traveling from Ghana across Togo and Dahomey, one is struck by the backwardness of the two republics. With a grudge against Europeans and with their own cultures and ways taken away from them, the Africans in French-speaking West Africa have not moved ahead with the times. The only real leadership in these areas continues to be French. Customs in Togo were particularly disappointing. The border appears to be little more than a place where people are placed to collect bribes. When traveling from Ghana to Nigeria by highway, time is important because the Nigerian border closes at 6 p.m. The long 13 page form, for each piece of luggage, can be overlooked for a fee. The roads are worse in Togo and Dahomey than they are in either in Ghana or Nigeria. Most striking, though, are the African homes. In Ghana and Nigeria, they resemble Western homes, in Togo and Dahomey only palm covered bamboo huts are used by Africans along the coast road. Because people in Africa are so different due to their pasts, both tribal and colonial, co-operation and unification are difficult goals to reach for in the near future.

Postal Staff Gets Thank You

The Hicksville Post Office has received a "thank you" from Uncle Sam for helping to highlight the 20th birthday of the U.S. Savings Bonds program by conducting a successful payroll savings campaign.

As a result of the drive, over 50% of the Post Office employees are now buying Series B bonds regularly through the automatic payroll savings plan.

The "thank you" was in the form of a special citation signed by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and John Lockton, Savings Bonds chairman for New York State.

The award was presented to Mrs. Irene L. Murphy, Acting Postmaster, by Sal DiPaola, area representative of the Treasury Dept. Sanit Osterreicher, of Plainville, Personnel Assistant, who was responsible for the success of the campaign, according to Mrs. Murphy, received a gold tie clasp.

Young Democrats At RR Depot

In the early morning hours of Aug. 31, the Hicksville Young Democrats descended upon the Rail Road station to distribute literature.

The literature campaign was one of many tasks undertaken by the Young Dems in their program of assistance to the Democratic candidates. These Young men and women lined both sides of the railroad track passing out brochures as the people entered and departed from the trains.

This activity was supervised by the organizations chairman Philip F. Kearney Jr. and the executive council of the Club.

WATCHING PERFECTION in action are these Hicksville youngsters. The bowler is Mike Marra of 180 Fairview Drive, Jericho, a self-employed carpenter in the home improvement industry, who is demonstrating the delivery that brought him honors as the only person to ever bowl a perfect game at Mid Island Bowl, Hicksville. Marra accepted the challenge of Joe Ciccerio, noted kegler from Woodbury, on August 13th. The pair rolled a two game match with Ciccerio's 208 being beaten by Mike's 266 and Ciccerio's 224 being overshadowed by the tremendous 300 game. The trophy seen on the left was presented to Marra by the management at Mid Island in recognition of his achievement.

Have your boat well lit when out at night.
FISH TALK

I have noticed that schools of fish will stay in calm water so when I fish I stay in the calmest possible place. Of course, you still need that old luck.
FISH STORIES

I will print as many fish stories as space will allow. Send your fish stories to Allen Zolnoski, 50 Myers Ave., Hicksville.

WE WILL BE CALLING THIS SUNDAY, SEPT 10

JERICHO FIRE DEPARTMENT

The 75 men of the Jericho Fire Department are all volunteers.

These men are your neighbors, all local residents who are ready and willing, 24 hours a day throughout the year, to answer any fire or emergency call within the community.

Because they are volunteers, doing a competent job, the homeowners of the community are saved thousands of dollars in property taxes.

Because they are trained and efficient, the area enjoys favorable fire insurance rates.

As volunteer firemen, they neither receive nor ask any remuneration for their services. Their only compensation is the knowledge that their fellow residents and neighbors are behind them and appreciate their efforts.

A positive way in which all homeowners can express their appreciation is to be as generous as possible during the annual WELFARE FUND APPEAL which takes place THIS SUNDAY, SEPT. 10th.

The funds received are used to cover expenses of the firemen that are not allowed by law to be covered by the annual Fire District tax budget.

A uniformed member of Jericho Fire Dept. will call this Sunday.
