Highlight of Alumni Homecoming:

Channel 11 to Televis Hicksville Gridiron Opener Against Chaminade This Saturday Morning at 11

1. 14 No. 37 Thursday, September 21, 1961
HICKSVILLE, L. I., NEW YORK

10c

Entered as Second Class Matter at Hicksville, N. Y. Post Office

The opening Hicksville High School football game of the season against Chaminade High School, set for this Saturday, Sept. 23, will be televised live over WPIX, Channel 11 at 11 AM. The TV-cast was previously announced for Channel 7.

In preparation for the game, high school students in the vocational carpentry shop have built a temporary stand next to the gridiron as a location for the TV cameras.

The TV-ized game is one of several special events arranged in connection with the Fourth Annual Homecoming festivities of Hicksville High School Alumni Association, according to President Howard Finnegan. The Alumni has been selling tickets for the game and an evening dance at Bethpage Country Club as well as an Alumni reception immediately following the game.

Hicksville and Chaminade are both highly rated in the forthcoming scholastic gridiron wars by sports writers. Ed Hurley in the Sunday News describes Hicksville as "an early season football power" and Sam Goldaper in the New York Herald-Tribune said it may take a miracle for six other entrants to dethrone Chaminade in the Catholic school league.

The Herald-Tribune on Monday reported the switch of the Saturday's Hicksville-Chaminade telecast from Channel 7 to 11. When the Mid-Island HERALD called the WPIX studio on Monday to get a picture of a TV camera, we were told the game was not programed. On Tuesday a surprised-sounding young lady, called the HERALD back and admitted that the game would go out over Channel 11.

13,105 Enroll In Our Schools

There are 13,105 boys and girls enrolled in Hicksville Public School as of the new fall term, it was learned this week. There are 7,736 in elementary grades, 3,226 in Junior High and 2,143 in Senior High School.

There are approximately 8500 boys and girls enrolled in public and parochial schools in and outside of Hicksville who are receive-bus and other transportation from the School District this term.

The Board of Education will hold a special meeting tomorrow (Fri) night at the Senior High School to receive the report and recommendation of Architects Knappe & Johnson regarding bids received for more than two million dollars worth of school construction originally approved by the voters in 1959 but delayed more than a year by a taxpayer suit.

NIMS Subject For Chamber

The new NIMS program (Nation-wide Improved Mailing Service) will be the subject of the first fall meeting of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce today morning, Sept. 22 at 9:30 a. m. the Seaman and Elsemann Building, Julius Schwartz, Chamber President announced this week. Joseph Hagedorn, of the L.L. Lighting Co., Chairman of the Hicksville Mail Users Council, will describe the program. A brief film of Post's Operations will be shown.

"Hicksville, as the second largest Post Office in the Long Island suburban area and one of the 250 largest offices in the country is in particular need of the new program," according to Postmaster Irene L. Murphy. "What we are asking for is the cooperation of the largest mailers in town to see that the Post Office gets more mail earlier in the day and less after 5 p.m. In return for their cooperation we promise more efficient handling of problems which were formerly beyond our control. We are very grateful for the cooperation we have had so far."

Schools Ready For Esther

In preparation for Hurricane Esther, due to reach eastern Long Island last night or today (Thursday), Hicksville Public Schools cooperated with the Nassau County Police and set aside evacuation areas in four public school buildings, according to School Superintendent Donald F. Abt.

Woodland Ave and Burns Ave Elementary Schools were designated for the Second Police Precinct area and The Senior High and Junior High Schools for the Eighth Precinct.

Battery-operated radios were available and the school nurse and cafeteria staffs were alerted by their respective department heads to prepare for emergency duty. Students were reminded by their pupils to listen to local radio stations in case classes were cancelled. The School District has also arranged with Hicksville Fire District to have nine blasts sounded on fire signals at 7 o'clock in the morning when classes are called off.

Isn't the horn of plenty usually on the car right behind you?

Resident Home from Moscow Trip

A view of the Moscow scene today by a Hicksville resident who has just returned and was also a visitor there two years ago is given by George Lubin of 5 Ingram Dr., Hicksville, on page 1A in this issue. A Grumman Engineering Aircraft Corp. expert on plastic, Lubin believes the current Russian resumption of nuclear testing is "strictly propaganda."

POSTER BOY is Kurt Warnke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Warnke of Hicksville. The 1961 Fund Drive of the Association for the Retarded Children is scheduled for this Sunday, Sept. 24. Eight-year-old Kurt has "made remarkable strides in his ability to respond to instruction, to play with other children and to make himself understood" according to Dr. Edmund C. Neuhaus, executive director of AHRIC. He will attend the Special Services School in Westbury maintained by the Nassau County Vocational Education and Extension Board this fall.

MRS. A. GALLO, at left, president of Fork Lane PTA of Hicksville, and Mrs. C. Waldemayer, program chairman, are working to complete plans for the first PTA meeting at 8:15 PM on Tuesday, Oct. 10, in the Fork Lane School gym. Features of the Oct. 10th meeting are: a discussion of "Behavior and Discipline" by Dr. Stanley Tektel; introduction of the Fork Lane Staff by James Walters, Principal; presentation of the 1961-62 Program; showing of film slides of school activities; and the enrolling of members in the PTA. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria at the close of the meeting.

Central Avenue Far Rockaway.
Interment will be at Beth Moses Cemetery, Pinelawn.

MR AND MRS ALBERT K. BOASI

CROWN PHOTO

Miss Betty Jean Agiesta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Agiesta, of 1 West Ct., Bethpage, became the bride of Albert Kenneth Boasi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boasi of 11 Imogene Drive, Massapequa, on Sept. 9 at St. Martin of Tours R.C. Church, Bethpage.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bell shaped gown of peau-de-seau and chantilly lace with a chapel length train. Her butterfly veil cascaded from a pearl and crystal crown. She carried a white orchid, stephanotis, and mums on top of a lace covered missal.

Both bridesmaids, Mrs. Marily Reinhardt and Miss Eileen Scheick, wore street length gold dresses (bell shaped) of antique taffeta and carried old fashioned bouquets of gold and white mums.

The maid of Honor, Miss Lynn Moyahnan, wore the same dress as the bridesmaids, but carried gold, white, and rust mums.

Two flower girls, Miss Patricia Klick and Miss Linda Jeanne Press, wore short white dresses of silk organza. They carried old fashioned bouquets of gold and white mums with headpieces to match of gold and white mums.

The ushers were, Paul Boasi, Fred Irving, and James Agiesta.

The ushers and the groom wore morning suits of oxford gray.

Mrs. James Agiesta, mother of the bride, wore a bell shaped street length dress in olive with matching accessories. She wore a white orchid.

The mother of the groom wore a light blue sheath of lace over taffeta, with matching accessories.

She also wore a white orchid.

The bride attended St. Ignatius School, Hicksville; Bethpage High School, and the State University at Farmingdale. She is now employed as a secretary at Grumman Aircraft.

The groom attended Bethpage High, served in Korea with the armed forces and is presently employed by Singer Sewing Machine Co.

They toured upstate New York and the New England States for their honeymoon trip. The couple are now residing at 60 4th St., Bethpage.

West Birchwood News Begins 3rd Year

Message from President Denny

When I first moved to our community, I was welcomed by several members of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. and asked to join. I inquired as to the organization's functions and benefits, among the benefits listed was that as a member I would receive a copy of the WEST BIRCHWOOD NEWS. Upon joining I did indeed begin receiving the paper, granted irregularly, (a situation that has been rectified) but receive it I did. There were many excellent editions and occasionally there were some not quite as good, but the fact of the matter is that there was always a paper published. This paper does not compose nor edit itself and so on this anniversary edition I wish to go on record as thanking for myself and the community our Co-editors Seymour Berkman and Larry Keavey and their staff for a job well done.

There have been many satisfactions in being active in our Civic Assoc., but there are few that will better the satisfaction and privilege of knowing and working with Messrs Berkman and Keavey. Their efforts in insuring our community paper should be acknowledged publicly and what better time than now. This is their baby, and it is indeed a baby to be proud of, so once again my thanks and the community's thanks for a job well done.

Seymour and Larry have great plans for the future, but as with every community project your help is required. Articles on hobbies, social events, athletic events, anything that you feel your friends and neighbors would be interested in seeing in print, are welcomed by the editors. Reporters are needed for our social or "gossip" column, volunteers are needed to just mailing the paper, so why not help make our paper an even better one by contacting either the editors or myself and volunteering your services for just a little while once or twice a month?

Women's Guild Sponsors Gala

The Huntington Town House next Saturday night will be the scene of a gala dinner dance sponsored by the Jericho Catholic Women's Guild. All who plan to attend the affair should contact Grace Bruch, 17 Sutton Terrace, Jericho. A complete evening of pleasure is planned. Festivities will begin at 8 o'clock cocktail hour. Dinner will follow at nine and an orchestra will provide dance music for the rest of the evening.

Adding to the excitement of the evening is the fact that formal attire is in order. The gala will be at their dressiest, while their escorts can choose either "black tie" or dark suit. Donation is $25 per couple. Proceeds from the event will go to the Servants of Mary.

Any Catholic women in Jericho who wish to join the Guild may contact Helen Petersen (OV 1-8552) for information.

President's Corner

By Carl F. Denny

One of the major complaints of the members of our association has been the lack of continuity in terms of distribution of our newspaper. This situation has now been resolved with the assistance of the publisher, Fred J. Noeth, and the efforts of your Board of Directors. From here on in, if you are a paid member of the Assoc. you will receive our WEST BIRCHWOOD news regularly.

I have long felt that one of the reasons for the lack of interest on the part of certain of our membership has been the faulty communication between the Officers and Board members and general membership. We sincerely trust that now this situation will be rectified and that there will be renewed interest in our organization. As those of you who attended our constitutional amendment meeting know, we have now made it considerably easier to run for the Board and Officers positions. The mere filing of your intentions to run with the secretary is all that is required. I have in the past appealed for men and women to come forward and contribute just a little of their time in order to make our community an even more desirable place to live. Those of you who will accept this responsibility will find that this is heading for the Rockland Drive straightaway. Here they really pick up speed, because there's not a single Stop sign for the full length of the road. The same goes for Sullivan Drive and Orange Drive. Each of these long stretches is without the kind of clear warning that makes motorists take notice and slow down.

ELECTION NOTICE

Due to the fact that all the proposed constitutional amendments were passed at the General Membership Meeting Sept. 15th, it will no longer be necessary for persons wishing to run for office to file petitions. If any member of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. desires to have his name placed on the ballot for President, Vice President, Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer or Director at Large (Four directors will be elected) he need only notify Gloria Goldman, 21 Sullivan Drive in writing not later than October 5th. This is your association. If you wish to participate in the Nov. 4th election notify Gloria Goldman now.

But it looks like this situation has about reached the end of the line. The Oyster Bay Town Board will hear a petition submitted by the Civic Assn. Community Welfare Committee which requests Stop signs along these main thoroughfares. Approval is virtually certain. When the Town Board considered a similar request for our present Stop signs last year, it was accepted without a hitch.

According to John Nason, chairman, the Welfare Committee conducted a survey in the Spring to select the best locations for the badly needed traffic signs. The original request to the Town Sign Division was "lost." The second request was presented several weeks ago.

The hearing at which the West Birchwood application will be considered will be held at the Town Hall on Tuesday, Sept. 26. The session starts at 10 a.m. The Town Hall is located west of Rt. 106, on Audrey Ave., Oyster Bay.

Kathy Kantor will represent the Welfare Committee at this hearing. Councilman Edward J. Poulos, who has aided our safety efforts in the past, states that "it would be appreciated" if any of our residents "could spare the time to speak in favor" of the petition.

Few will dispute the need for Stop signs on the roads involved. A steady stream of complaints is heard from residents protesting the danger to children from speeding cars and to the hazards of backing a car out of a driveway into these streets. Some time ago, a car was demolished in just such an accident on Rockland Drive. Fortunately, the driver escaped unharmed.

The principal offender are "outsiders" — delivery vehicles, cars driven by the still-present construction workers and visitors. The situation, bad now, will get even worse when access to Cantigue Rock Road is available and through traffic will use our streets. To get back and forth from Jericho and Westbury.

AN EDITORIAL

A Puzzlement!

The attitude of Floyd Bennett stores toward their neighbors of Jericho becomes more and more puzzling. Certainly a store of this kind, soon to be in competition with Davego on one side, all the Mid Island Plaza plus the coming giant Time Square store on the other side, would seem to need the good will of the community.

Yet F.B. has done nothing but foster bad feelings throughout Jericho. First, by erecting a monstrous building not exactly in keeping with the type of community we have been striving to create in Jericho; second by attempting to erect a gamish sign exceeding current zoning permission, a sign that would completely ruin any remaining semblance of suburban peace and quiet in this area. Thirdly by erecting a store encroaching upon the homes backing on the shopping center.

We are amazed that in this day and age a business organization can give so little consideration to the feelings of a community. Perhaps the people of Jericho will reciprocate in the same manner.

AFRICAN REPORT

Barriers to Misunderstanding Men

By Ken Foran

Lagos, Nigeria

One of the purposes of Operation Crossroads Africa is to break down the barriers of misunderstanding that exist between Africans and Americans. The American students participating have several strong advantages. Tourists rarely have the ability to mix with the people of the land they are visiting.

There are bonds that link students all over the world. In West Africa, where the need for education at all levels is keenly felt, students have an unusually high respect paid to them. This is particularly true of American university students, whom many Africans hope will return to teach their children. While his is highly respected, the student in Africa is often short of spending money. By saying "I am an American student," I can lower prices and at the same time destroy the image of the "rich American."

It is also considerably easier for young people, who are flexible enough, to mix with Africans at their cultural level. Africans have trouble understanding things which they haven't experienced. Thus, to speak about Communism is often meaningless; they haven't experienced it.

In Africa, politics and palava, the word for a discussion, are on local concerns. Most Africans lack conceptions of things they have not seen and ideas are difficult to convey. Two Africans, whom I spoke with, in Ibadan, Nigeria, thought that America was several hundred miles away. Another, because he saw me wearing Nigerian dress thought that all Americans dress like Nigerians.

Wearing African clothing, I have found to be one of the quickest and best ways of breaking down cultural barriers. While wearing Nigerian clothes, in Ibadan, which is the largest sub-Sahara city and largest Negro city in the world, I created a disturbance in the markets. People dropped what they were doing and ran out to shake my hand and tell me how I looked in their dress.

"You are wearing our cloth," "Welcome to Nigeria," and "We are glad to have you with us," were common expressions. At the same time, "Where are you from?", "What is your mission?", and "how long will you stay with us?", were frequent questions. The Nigerians were most surprised to learn that I and other American students had paid to come to Africa and that private individuals and organizations have helped to sponsor us. African and Eastern governments pay for government selected students to go abroad, which makes it difficult for Africans to understand how we have come for our own volition and funds.

Often people will offer small gifts in hopes that "you will always remember us in Africa." Because of health precautions, I am often unable to share in their food. My mission, to answer the African's question, is to convey American friendship. The African has a boundless quest for friends in America and a deep desire to carry his friendship to America. He wants to know if America is really like the movies show it.

Some Africans thought that the West was still only inhabited by Indians because the American movies show the "wild west." At the same time, he wants to make sure that my countrymen understand Africa is not all jungle and wild animals. The largest wild animal that I have seen has been at Kumasi. Many wood carvings are crude representations because the carvers are creating animals that they have never seen. More impressive to the African than seeing a European purchasing these carvings at a high price is an American student bargaining for some African wares in the market places, particularly if he is in local dress. The more one bargains, and lowers the selling price, the higher is the African's respect for the purchaser.

Travelling with an African can be a rewarding experience. When taken into the confidence of an African student, I have found markets and places of interest that I never would have discovered on my own. But more important, I have found friends who are irreplaceable.

PRESIDENTS CORNER

one of the more gratifying and stimulating endeavors that they ever have undertaken.

Those of us who perhaps intend running again for office would indeed welcome competition and perhaps would even step down to insure new vitality and vigor in our organization. I am not appealing for candidates, I am trying subtly to inform our membership that unless we do get new people there is a chance that this organization will fall by the wayside. Should the above occur, it would take considerably more than one column to make you aware of the seriousness of the consequences. So that this is no longer an appeal but a demand that the membership now become actively interested in, and participate in the various activities and committees of the West Birchwood Assoc. Again, should this not occur, you and only you are to blame for the consequences.

Our elections are held Saturday evening Nov. 4, and are run in conjunction with our annual Election Eve dance. Anyone who attended last year will attest to the marvelous time had by all, we have retained an even better band, and the Social Committee will again be in charge of refreshments. This affair is free to our members and if you have a neighbor or friend who attended last year make a note to ask as to whether or not it would be worth your while attending. I am certain the answers you will receive will insure your attendance that evening, so make plans now for Nov. 4, 1961.

at the Robert Seaman School, it will be one of the more enjoyable evenings on your calendar.

To those of you who are desirous of running for office, please do not wait until tomorrow, call me now at WE 8-3206 or write in to our Secretary Gloria Goldman at 21 Sullivan Drive.

Let's really make the Association perk in 62.

Hicksville Resident Home from Month in Moscow

SOUVENIR of Moscow, music box with model of Sputnik I on it amuses Richard Clark, head of Presentations, Plant 5 (L). It sounds Sputnik's "beep-beep-beep" and then goes into Russian national anthem. George Lubin, Grumman plastics expert (R), was in charge of Technical Information of USIA-sponsored show.

George Lubin gives—

A glimpse of the Moscow scene

When Plane News asked George Lubin last week what was behind Premier Khrushchev's pronouncement on resuming nuclear testing, Lubin replied, "Strictly propaganda, in my opinion. Khrushchev believes he can get all he wants without war, by threats. He's a cold poker player. People high in the Russian government told me war is risky, since it can go either way, but by pursuing present tactics they are achieving what they want anyhow."

Lubin, who recently returned from a month in Moscow, continued, "I'm sure that war would be extremely unpopular with the Russian people. They are still feeling the results of the last one, as can be seen from the great numbers of war amputees on the streets. I feel that Khrushchev would not get sufficient backing to risk a war. But the Russian people will back all his bluffs—they enjoy it."

Lubin, who is plastics consultant in Structures, Plant 5 Engineering, was

Head of Technical Information for 'Plastics-USA', an exhibition of modern painting and sculpture and of all kinds of plastics for modern living. The exhibit was sponsored by the United States Information Agency, and the plastics were contributed by American manufacturers.

It was a popular show, and Lubin was kept busy lecturing and answering questions from manufacturers. "The head of the Shipbuilding Institute in Leningrad kept coming back to query me and finally inquired if I would come to work for him as a consultant," he said. "I jokingly quoted a fantastically high retainer fee and he seemed quite disappointed, but a few days later he was back again and said it was all arranged with the Council of Ministers—and when could I start?"

Lubin brought back numerous photographs of Russian-built fiberglass boats, about which he plans to write an article in the near future. He said he was able to obtain a library card, free, from the great Lenin Library in Moscow, giving him unlimited access to any kind of information he wanted.

A number of differences were noted in the Moscow scene. Whereas Americans were a tremendous novelty and were treated as honored guests when Lubin was with the American National Exhibition in Moscow two years ago, they are now accepted without much curiosity, he said. "As a result of the Soviet accomplishments in space, they feel equal to, or better than, Americans," he said. "They are extremely interested now in our mass production techniques and the high quality of our products, and they would like to trade with us. 'If you don't trade with us, we'll buy from the English and the French' was the attitude of many I talked to."

He said they are jubilant about prospects of 'free' transportation, 'free' black bread, and 'free' haircuts promised when the 22nd Soviet Congress meets this fall. "They don't seem to realize such programs will undoubtedly raise taxes," he commented, "but it does make for good propaganda."

Women are slimmer

Lubin said the Muscovites are better dressed than when he visited the USSR in 1959. "The women are slimmer—but that may be because they aren't getting as much to eat. Meat is very scarce, and what there was of it was not good. I gave up ordering it in restaurants after a few experiences and confined myself to soup, bouillon, and ice cream."

He brought back a typical menu, which lists a side order of peas (canned) for the American equivalent of 55 cents; sturgeon salad, 63 cents; eggs with mayonnaise, 44 cents; a side order of butter, 10 cents. The cheapest beer (served warm) is 34 cents a mug.

The average Russian's pay, Lubin said, is approximately $100 a month—a figure which leaves little room for luxuries, since a man's coat costs, on the average, $90-$100, and a suit, $100. A small car is $2,000 and a large one, $4,000. Rent for a small apartment may be only $6 a month, but there are no apartments to be had in Moscow. "The only ads you see for apartments are for exchange in another city," he said.

Crowd catcher

The Russians poured into the American exhibit. "This will give you an idea of their interest," he said. "The most recent plastics show at the New York Coliseum drew 35,000 in a week. In Moscow we had 45,000 a week, in an area one-tenth that of the Coliseum."

He said questions on the techniques of plastics production, and the examples he saw there, indicated that the Russians are far behind the United States, generally speaking. "And yet," said Lubin, "they have some items that are not available here. I brought back, for example, a block of flexible styrene foam—the cheapest kind of plastic, which, in flexible form, we don't have. I also brought a sample of nylon rubber used for oil storage containers."

Lubin said his luggage was, he knew, thoroughly searched while it was in his hotel room, but neither on entering nor leaving the Soviet Union did he have any trouble with customs. "They couldn't have cared less," he said.

He brought back hundreds of colored slides, and with these he has been giving lunch hour talks to interested groups at Plant 5 since his return.

RUSSIAN-speaking American guide answers queries on doll, one of many plastic toys displayed at 'Plastics-USA' exhibit.

GRUMMAN parts, including radome, were among items exhibited by US industries. Guides were chosen for ability to interpret US to USSR.

'PLASTICS-USA' was most popular show in Moscow. In three weeks 135,000 poured in. Lubin acted as press officer, said reporters were accurate and courteous.

'Overwhelming contribution'

Grumman President E. Clinton Towl has received a letter from Edward R. Murrow, Director of the United States Information Agency, thanking the company for George Lubin's services in connection with the 'Plastics-USA' exhibit in Moscow. The letter reads:

"Dear Mr. Towl:

"I want to express to you my sincere thanks for permitting the United States Information Agency to avail itself of the services of Mr. George Lubin of your company in connection with the PLASTICS-USA exhibition currently touring the Soviet Union.

"From all reports received from the exhibition management, it appears that Mr. Lubin made an overwhelming contribution to the success of the project during its Moscow showing. His specialized lectures on plastics technology were enthusiastically received by the Soviet plastics technicians who visited the exhibition. Mr. Lubin worked arduously and persistently and won the admiration and respect, not only of the Soviet citizens who flocked to hear his lectures, but also of his American colleagues in Moscow.

"Let me again state my appreciation for so generously allowing Mr. Lubin to give of his time and energy to what we consider one of the most worthwhile endeavors our Agency is engaged in—the dissemination of information about the United States among the peoples of the Soviet Union."

TO KISS OR NOT TO KISS

Dear Sir:

I'm 18 years old and consider myself to be an average young man. When I take a girl out on a date for the first time there always comes that awkward moment when I have to say good night. If I like the girl and want to see her again, I don't know if I should attempt to kiss her good night or just say good night. If I kiss her (or attempt to) I might offend her. If I don't kiss her (and she expects me to) or wants me to, I might offend her. What's right, Kissless

Dear Kissless:

You have come across the age old problem of "What's on a Woman's Mind."

As you grow older you will develop more of an instinct as to how to handle what you term the "awkward moment". Even now you probably can tell when a girl wishes to be kissed goodnight. If it's a girl you like and you want to play it safe, don't kiss her good night. Call her the next day and ask her for another date. If she was disappointed at not being kissed good night, your asking her for another date will more than make up for the disappointment.

EMBARRASSED WIFE

Dear Sir:

Whenever my husband and I are out with other people for a social evening, invariably the evening winds up with my husband telling off-color jokes which have proven to be embarrassing to the people we are with and to me. I've asked him time and again to please refrain from telling these jokes and he absolutely refuses to listen to me. He says I have no sense of humor and he calls me a prude. How can I stop him from continuing with what I consider a bad habit.

A.V.E.

Dear A.V.E.:

Apparently your husband lacks tact and understanding.

Most individuals who end up telling off color stories do so because they do not have the intelligence or ability to carry on an interesting conversation and try to take refuge behind the embarrassment created by an off color story. They are like insecure children who go into tantrums to obtain attention.

See if you can obtain the help of one of your husband's close friends. Ask the friend to speak to your husband. Your husband may be more willing to listen to an outsider than to you. You might also show him this answer. It might possibly wake him up.

WHEN TO DRINK

Dear Sir:

Is there a correct age for a person to start drinking liquor?

21 plus

Dear 21 plus:

Yes; When you are old enough to know that you shouldn't drink and you don't.

Jr High PTA Meets Tuesday

At the first meeting of the Junior High P.T.A., held on Sept. 18th Mrs. Anthony Raffo, President, welcomed the parents and teachers and introduced the following officers and chairmen:

Mrs. John Holder, Vice-President; Mr. Richard Been, Treasurer; Mrs. Nathan Helfand, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Ernest Sielaff, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Vincent Hoesack, Council Delegate; Mr. Richard Been, Budget Chairman; Mr. Frank Keltos, Program Chairman; Mrs. Albert Cramer, Ways & Means; Mrs. Joseph Drab, Room Representatives; Mrs. Jack Hellrigel, Membership; Mrs. William Bosch, Refreshments; Mrs. Robert Nankerville, Scholarship; Mrs. Raymond Rogger, Publicity and Historian; Mrs. John Coffey, Legislation; Mrs. Aaron Stehn, Hospitality; Mrs. George Wright, Publications; Mr. John Kearns, Student Activities; Mr. George Karadenes, School & Community; Mrs. J. Veltz, Juvenile Protection.

After a business meeting, Principal Bernard Braun spoke to a capacity audience on the subject: "Clarification of the School's Policy and Standards, Its Tracking and Guidance."

Ernest Buonopane of the Hicksville Lion's Club was also present. On behalf of the Lion's Club he donated the "Code of Social Behavior" reprints to the PTA to be sent to the parents of all students.

ALUMNI HOMECOMING

Comprising the Homecoming Committee for the 1961 celebration are Lou Millevolte, Lou Kappstatter, Gus Econopoulis, Frank Estrada and Joseph Nasso. Mrs. Joseph Nasso will be the hostess for the reception after the game.

All friends of Hicksville High are welcome to join in the activities.

AS ONE OF THEIR MANY community projects, the Hicksville Lions Club contributed the recreational games and facilities for the Handicapped Children's camp of the Human Resources Research Corp. of Roslyn. This year has been the pilot year for this camp for handicapped children. The introduction of play therapy to help in the rehabilitation of the handicapped child has been used to the equipment of the Hicksville Club contributing the Lions share of the equipment. At the closing day ceremonies on Aug. 18th, Henry Viscardi (center), President of Abilities and founder of the camp, extended the thanks of all the handicapped to the Hicksville Lions Club. Dr. Lowell D. Glaz, Lions president, is at left, and Harold Rutig, club project chairman, right. (Photo by Charbonnet).

Tickets or reservations may be made with the Homecoming Committee or any member of the Assoc. Board of Directors.

Dr. Charles Masel, Jay Schwartz, Fred Suter, Marlene Kutner, Helen Hanlon, John Sanyk, Howard Finnegan, Gladys Schwartz, William Geyer, Florence Orles, Lena Olynk, William Marton, Henry McInnes and Harold Holden are board members.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Public Hearing will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay on Tuesday, October 3, 1961 at 10 o'clock A.M., prevailing time, in the Hearing Room, Town Hall, Oyster Bay, New York, at which time citizens and parties interested will have an opportunity to be heard upon the following proposed amendments to the Building Code of the Town of Oyster Bay:

AMEND Article 1, Section 8 relating to fees, by amending the second sentence thereof by deleting the period following the phrase "Section 4 of the Tax Law" and adding the following: nor shall any fee be charged for issuing a building permit for construction of a Fallout Shelter in a one family residential dwelling.

AMEND Article XI, Section 1-10 inclusive, pertaining to the MINIMUM ELEVATIONS FOR ERECTION OF STRUCTURES AND CONSTRUCTION OF ROADS, by deleting same in its entirety, and by enacting a new Article XI as follows:

Article XI - MINIMUM ELEVATIONS FOR ERECTION OF STRUCTURES AND CONSTRUCTION OF ROADS.

Section 1 - Prior to the issuance of a Building Permit the application for same must have been approved by the Engineering Department of the Town of Oyster Bay as to the street grades, drainage requirements and first floor elevation, except in such cases where the property involved appears on a filed map on which street grades and drainage have been previously determined and approved by the Department of Public Works and the Planning Commission of the County of Nassau.

Section 2 - Final site grading shall be such that the drainage flow is away from the building, and that the flow is disbursed on the premises by natural absorption, or by installation of generally accepted standard drainage or retention facilities. At no time shall sidewalks or adjoining lands be subjected to danger or damage created by surface water drainage from the premises involved.

Section 3 - Upon submission of an application for a building permit for the erection of any structure on soil which has been filled, or must be filled, or which is on bog, silt, soft clay, mud, muck, or other impervious material, the Building Department of the Town of Oyster Bay shall be supplied with all engineering data, tests, or other information deemed necessary by the Building Department, to ascertain the methods and material to be used to insure proper support of the structure or structures proposed. Cost of such tests, data, or other information to be borne by the applicant. This information must be certified by an Engineer or Architect properly licensed by the State of New York.

Hadassah Eye Bank Luncheon

Last chance to join the "H-Stylers" who have prudently made their reservations for the Third Annual Eye Bank Luncheon, tendered by the Jericho Chapter of Hadassah. The latest in fall and winter fashions, as presented by The Empire Shops, will highlight a most entertaining afternoon. The date - Wednesday, Sept. 27th, at 2 p.m. The place - Carl Hoppl's, Baldwin. Donation: $5.00 or a filled eye bank. For reservations - Jay Schachter - OV 1-3491 or Ann Lerner WE 1-6902.

Cub Scout Registration

Registration for the 1961-62 Cub Scout season will be held the night of Sept. 26th at 8:30 p.m., at the Jericho Jewish Center. Parents of all boys, both those who have previously been in the pack and those who will enter cubbing for the first time, must attend this meeting. It is difficult at this time to determine whether or not we will be able to accept all new applicants. Therefore, it is advisable, prior to the meeting, to send a letter listing name, address and age of prospective cub to Elliot Spencer, 99-Hazewood Drive, Jericho. Should it be necessary to limit applications, we will give preference to those boys whose letters carry the earliest postmark. The 1960-61 season was a most successful one. This was due principally to the excellent work of both den mothers and committee men. However, most of the den mothers, having served the pack for two or three years, will not be available for this season. There is a need for den mothers and assistant den mothers to supervise and teach the dens. A training course is being arranged and it is expected that mothers of all new applicants will make themselves available for service.

Syosset Pupils Win Honors

By Horace Bernstein
Nine students in grades 10 through 12 at Syosset High School have successfully completed with 2000 pupils from the metropolitan area for placement in the Columbia University Science Honors Program. This is almost double the amount of students that won last year and takes on greater significance when records show that public high schools in the competition placed only one or two students.

Purpose of the program is to give, Saturday morning science courses in specialized areas. These courses use facilities and course content not available in the high schools.

Tenth grade scholars who were recipients of the awards were: David Baron, Gail Greenberg and Peter Novak.

Eleventh grade winners were: Stephanie Levin, Joel Levine and Gregory Novak.

Twelfth grade winners were: Michael Dewey, Larry Goldberg and Charles Weidig.

Jackson PTA Meets Tuesday

At a Special Term, Part II of the Supreme Court, County of Nassau, at the Courthouse, Mineola, New York, held on the 12th day of Sept., 1961, at 33 Willis Ave., Mineola, N.Y.

PRESENT:
HON. BERNARD S. MEYER
Justice

In the Matter of the Application of AMADEO FRANCESCHINA;
and
EILEEN FRANCESCHINA;
For Leave to Assume the Names of AMADEO FRANCES and EILEEN FRANCES.

Upon reading and filing the petition of AMADEO FRANCESCHINA and EILEEN FRANCESCHINA, verified the 16th day of June 1961, which petitions are entitled as above, and which pray for leave of AMADEO FRANCESCHINA to assume the name of AMADEO FRANCES, EILEEN FRANCESCHINA to assume the name of EILEEN FRANCES, in place of and instead of their present respective names, and it appearing that the said AMADEO FRANCESCHINA has dual citizenship in that he was born of citizens of the United States of America on May 15, 1924, while his parents were visiting Italy, and it further appearing that EILEEN FRANCESCHINA was born in Manhattan, City and State of New York on the 12th day of February, 1925, and that the Certificate of her birth bears #6797, and that the name of her father is ANTHONY PIZZACAR and that the maiden name of her mother was MILDRED TADAGLIAMONTE, and the Court being satisfied thereby that the averments contained in said petitions are true and that there is no reasonable objection to the proposed changes of name;

NOW, on motion of FRANK P. DE LUCA, the attorney for the petitioners, it is

ORDERED, that AMADEO FRANCESCHINA be and hereby is authorized to assume the name of AMADEO FRANCES, and it is further

ORDERED, that EILEEN FRANCESCHINA be and hereby is authorized to assume the name of EILEEN FRANCES, and it is further

ORDERED, that the said petitioners are authorized to assume the said respective names on and after October 27, 1961, upon condition, however, that they shall comply with the further provisions of this order; and it is further ORDERED, that this order be entered and the aforementioned petitions be filed within 10 days from the date hereof in the office of the Clerk of this Court; and that a copy of this order shall be, within 20 days from the entry thereof published in MID-ISLAND HERALD, a newspaper published in the County of Nassau, and that within 40 days after the making of this order, proof of such publication thereof shall be filed with the Clerk of the County of Nassau; and it is further

ORDERED, that following the filing of the petitions and entry of the order as hereinbefore directed, the publication of such order and the filing of proof of publication thereof and the service of a copy of said papers as hereinbefore directed, and on and after 27th day of October, 1961, the petitioners AMADEO FRANCESCHINA, shall be known as AMADEO FRANCES and by no other name; and the petitioner, EILEEN FRANCESCHINA shall be known as EILEEN FRANCES and by no other name.

Charges Smoke Screen by Dems

Thomas R. Pynchon, Oyster Bay Republican chairman, speaking at the dedication of a Voter Information Center sponsored by Ernest F. Franke Republican Club on Herring Pl., Hicksville, Monday night, warned the large gathering "we are now in that span of days prior to every election that has been called 'The Frivolous Fifty'." During this time the Democrats try to churn up a smoke screen to blind the voters to Democratic shortcomings as they strive to slip into the hall."

"You can recognize this period with less than two months to Election Day without looking at a calendar," Pynchon pointed out. "The mimeograph machine at Democrat headquarters spews forth unsubstantiated allegations while at the same time resorts to low-level attacks upon individuals. Unable to offer any substantial reasons why they should receive votes, they resort to the polls and desperately anxious to divert attention from the shortcomings within their organization, the clerk and dagger seekers seek to discredit the outstanding and experienced Republican officials by devices which shock and disgust all thoughtful citizens."

Pynchon warned that it has come to his attention that the opposition is poised to spring some of this type of campaign tactics this year than ever before, particularly because of "the attack that has been raised by the unfolding of scandals and corruption in the Tammany strong-hold of New York."

Army Capt. Thomas P. Matthews, son of Mrs. Helen C. Matthews, 12 Cedar St., Hicksville, completed a three-year residency in anesthesiology at Fitzsimons General Hospital, Denver, Colo. Captain Matthews entered the Army in 1956.

Women Voters Meet Tuesday

Mrs. Daniel Orloff of Plainview, president of the Oyster Bay Township League of Women Voters, has announced that the guest speaker for the League's first General Meeting of the year will be Mrs. Odia G. Carlson. Mrs. Carlson is well known in League circles throughout the state, having served in various positions on the State Board of Directors of the League.

The meeting will be held on next Tuesday, Sept. 26, 8:30 PM, at the Hicksville Public Library, 169 Jerusalem Ave.

Mrs. Thomas Lookey of Plainview, chairman of the evening's activities, extends an invitation to all women of voting age in the Oyster Bay area to attend. A "coffee hour" will follow the meeting.

NURSES TO MEET

The Long Island Assoc. of Industrial Nurses will hold a Business Meeting on Sept. 21, at 8 P.M. at the Meadowbrook Hospital, Conference Room Bldg. B. A discussion on State Conference will be topic. Conference to be held Oct. 6-7-8 at Lido Beach Hotel, Long Beach.

Art League Adds Drama Classes

Marvin Percher, Director of the Mid Island Plaza Art League, announced the beginning of two new courses for juniors between 5 and 14. Creative Dramatics and Creative Junior Workshop. Registration will take place Saturday, Monday and Tuesday from 3:30 to 4:30 Sept. 23, 25, 26, at the Art League's headquarters at 531 Nassau Mall, Mid Island Shopping Plaza.

Classes will be given Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday after school hours at the nominal cost of $1.00 an hour in 10 class sessions, full session payable in advance. The League also offers art courses for children on Saturday mornings. For more information call OV-1-1431.

WINNER AT FAIR

Rita Henkel of 20 Winding road, Hicksville, was one of 20 winners of prizes given by The Insured Savings and Loan Association of Nassau and Suffolk Counties to visitors who registered at their booth at the Long Island Fair and Industrial Exposition at Roosevelt Raceway last week.

Mrs. Henkel won a $10 savings account in the member of the savings and loan group where she chooses to place her account.

ENROLLS AT COLLEGE

AROUND THE DISTRICT

By Joe Koerner

Once again, we find the long pleasant days of summer, have sped into oblivion and in its wake, a record through made its way back into the "Hicksville Lore Mills". The Jr. High School, that venerable old building with the expandable walls, took a long, deep breath and admitted a few hundred more students over last year. The approximate student body, now hovers close to the 3400 mark. The Sr. High not to be outdone, also upped its enrollment over last year. With this record crowd to draw from, the scholars and athletes from the Hicksville School District, should be taking their fair share of titles, this year.

GOOD NEWS DEPT. Concerns the return of our good friend, Stan Kellner, to the Jr. High coaching staff. He was as explosive as ever & promised some belated news on the summer basketball leagues. According to information picked up under the bleacher seats, the "Stomper" returned from a global tour with a hob-nailed hat; a gift from the Prime Minister of Gobi.

The football season got off to a quick start, with record squads turning out for practice sessions at both the Sr. and Jr. Highs. I don't have the time to scrounge outside the Jr. High for info on district sports or other interesting data, so as in the past, any information received would be greatly appreciated. The coaching staff at the Jr. High promised some sport hi-lites for the next issues.

WELCOME MAT DEPT. The glad hand starts with Robert Petross, newly installed Director of Bldgs. & Grounds in our school district. A short portrait of Mr. Petross puts him in the category of being 67 years young. He brings with him, a world of experience in the Bldgs & Grounds business. Past experience amounts to a temporary job, in the same capacity, with the City College in Brooklyn. (He decided to retire from this position after 30 years of service) In our opinion, our School Board made an excellent choice in obtaining the services of its new Director and I believe this opinion is substantiated by 100% of the Custodial, Maintenance, and Grounds employees in our school district. In very much the same manner as his predecessor, Mr. Lewandoski, Mr. Petross is an easy man to engage in conversation. He's strict but very fair and impartial at all times. With these attributes going for him, there's no doubt that a 100% co-operation will be the result.

While on the subject of shop-talk, President Wallace Collins of the Hicksville N.T.U., representing bldgs and grounds personnel, wishes to remind the membership of the first fall meeting of the assn. Time 3 pm...Place Sr. High Cafeteria...Date Sat. Sept. 30 The agenda will include election of new officers and general discussion of subject matters. A full turnout is expected.

A sad note concerns the recent death of our good friend and co-worker, Alfonso Saintz, Custodian at the Dutch Lane School. Al had suffered 3 heart attacks within the past year and the last one proved fatal.

The welcome mat department, should be including a number of other, new district personnel but space does not permit individual mention. Anyway, welcome to one & all.

Good news Dep., concerns the complete recovery of our good friend, Murray M. Duncan, Principal of the Old Country Rd. School. Mr. D underwent three serious abdominal operations before making this complete recovery.

Grandma Moses now has a new rival in the form of Grandmother, Anita Foster, Head Cook in the Jr. High kitchen. This is the first time around for Anita in the grand-mother role, with the new arrival checking in at the Nassau Hospital on Sept. 6th. Name May Michelle 7 lbs. 13 oz. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jaworowsky.

The Hicksville Classroom Teachers Assn. held its first meeting of the season, last Friday afternoon in the Jr. High Auditorium. Vice President Ray Curran, presided.

MacGregor Raps GOP Leaders

Robert W. MacGregor, Democratic candidate for Town Supervisor, told a gathering at the Glen-Sea Democratic Picnic at Tappan Beach, Sea Cliff Sunday, that "Republican office-holders and public employees are bewitched, bothered and bewildered by bossism." MacGregor said: "The shifting tides of leadership in Nassau's GOP, preceded, as they were by the bitter Hall-Sprague feud and the figurehead folderol of naming leaders who were allowed to do everything but lead, has produced a country filled with officials who hesitate, as officials, party workers who hardly know for whom they are working and jobholders who can't do the job they're holding because they don't know to whom they are beholden for the job. Of course, the obvious victims of all of this political rug-pulling are the taxpayers. They're not getting the government they're paying for at the county or town level. Even conscientious government employees, and there are many, find themselves demoralized by the aura of indecision which permeates down to them from officials who don't know from day to day what part they'll play next in the high-echelon headrolling game."

Frederick Fulco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Fulco, of 35 Nevada St., Hicksville, has begun a three year course of professional study in Design in Industry at Parsons School of Design.

When a car is this beautiful, you know Pontiac built it!

Who else but the builder of those front-running Wide-Track Pontiacs could bring out a car so freshly and finely styled! It's longer, with a crisp, low silhouette. It's distinctly Pontiac, with a new twin-scoop grille—you can recognize a block away. Powered by the potent Trophy V-8, with 215 to 348 h.p. Beautifully poised on Pontiac's famous Wide-Track stance. We've even cut the turning radius as much as 3½ feet to make handling easier. The result is a pride-pleasing new version of America's Number One Road Car. Come on in—and let a Pontiac show you its stuff while it's showing you off!
