School Prayer Attracts Notice

Adoption of a resolution unanimously by the Hicksville Board of Education at its final meeting of the fiscal year designating a stanza of the Star Spangled Banner as a "prayer" which may be used in Hicksville Public Schools attracted widespread attention this week. The action took place Friday night following a lengthy executive session and about an hour of sometimes heated discussion in public.

At the reorganization meeting of the School Board on Tuesday of this week, George Kunz succeeded Robert D. P. Eaton as a member of the Board. The Trustees elected Jerome Zettler of 70 Gardener Ave as president of the Board after a motion to elect George A. Jackson of 61 Berkshire Road failed to get a majority vote.

Herbert H. Johnsen was re-elected vice president and Cornelius McCormack, secretary of the Board. Also re-elected were Fred J. Noth, District Clerk; Herbert Beckman, Treasurer; and Burlant and Catalano, attorneys.

At the meeting on Friday which was attended by more than 100 persons, many of them present apparently to call for the abandonment of Nicholas School, persons in the audience became involved in somewhat heated argument with retired Board President Eaton who used his gavel vigorously to maintain order.

Legal questions flew thick and fast with several lawyers in the audience raising issues.

The Charles Wagner Post, American Legion, of Hicksville at a meeting on Monday of this week applauded the action of the School Board and took issue with the Supreme Court on the so-called Regents' prayer. (See reader opinion column in this issue for a statement of the Legion's position -- Editor).

The New York Herald-Tribune on Sunday, July 1, reported that Dr. Charles A. Brind, counsel to the State Education Dept., was asked to comment on the action of the School Board in substituting part of the National Anthem for the Regents' prayer. He was quoted as saying: "I don't see any problem because you are dealing with one of the great American documents and not with a prayer written by state officials."

The Board on Friday received two petitions regarding Nicholas St. School, one calling for abandonment of the building with 750 signatures, and another one suggesting that class sizes be increased to not more than 40 pupils.

LI District to Use 'Prayer' From Anthem

SOME OF HEADLINES in the daily press on the action of Hicksville School Board in adopting a stanza of the National Anthem as a prayer which may be used in the schools. Top to bottom, Newsday, Sunday News, Sunday Mirror and LI Press. Robert Eaton, who proposed the prayer, said he has received letters from all over the nation, all complimentary and favorable, except one.

The entire question was put off for consideration at a special public meeting of the Board this Friday night, July 6 starting at 8:15 PM in the student cafeteria of the Senior High School.

Jerome Zettler the new President of the Board of Education, elected Tuesday night, is a five-year member of the Board. His tenure is equal to that of his neighbor, Herbert H. Johnsen who was re-elected vice president.

Zettler has been president of the North East Civic Assoc and was co-chairman with Johnsen of the Hicksville Ambulance Fund. He is a sales executive with a paper concern and is the father of two girls attending Hicksville schools.

The final meeting of the fiscal year on June 29 set a record for duration, concluding at 3 AM Saturday. The Board took action on 67 motions or resolutions.

Veterans Bid Farewell to Comrade

by William G. Olitsky

Sidney Kaphan of the Sgt. Ben Levitt-Hicksville Post #655, Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America, who was one of our most active members, at the local level, for many years died rather suddenly on June 30th. Sidney was one of the founders of our Post. He succeeded me as Commander in 1952 and succeeded himself for a second term. During that term of office our Post won every membership award on and up to the National Command. For his effort Sidney received the National Award for most members signed by an individual. After his term of office he served continually in all Post matters. As one of the Executive Board he was our guiding hand.

Assemblyman Edwin Ferberbach, Councilman Carl Gruenwald and Francis J. Anderson, County Clerk, voiced the sadness of all veterans and local groups over "the untimely passing of one of our most dedicated long-time members whose devotion and zeal will be sorely missed."

Sidney Kaphan was also active in his beloved Synagogue of which he was recently elected to serve as its Trustee.

He was one of our few to hold the Post's "Distinguished Service Medal". With all of his other activities, Sidney served as our Quarter Master, the office he held at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife, Pearl, of 77 Center Street, Hicksville, his two sons, Stephan and Mathew also his mother and three brothers.

Without friends there would be no tomorrow; without friends there would be no stability. F-R-I-E-N-D-S are your guidance, your encouragement and your example.

Library Corner

Liber means book and to make books available is the basic and original reason for a library's existence. Books may be read for entertainment, for inspiration, for esthetic gratification or for information.

Since libraries house books containing information, the library came to be looked upon as an information center. As such, there developed a demand that other printed materials containing information in non-book form, such as newspapers, magazines and pamphlets, be housed and organized by libraries to supplement books as printed sources of information.

But is this the end? Other objects, containing no printed words, entertain, inspire, gratify and/or give information. Phonograph records, tape recordings, photographs, film slides, motion picture films, paintings, sculpture, who would deny that any of these objects communicate effectively in one or several of these ways? Should these types of non-printed materials be made available by the library for use and circulation? There is a growing demand that they should be.

Then, there is another type of growing demand on libraries. Since the library houses books and other printed and non-printed materials, why should it not also house activities? Isn't it a logical building to function as a community center? Shouldn't it provide space that can be used for community meetings?

More specifically, since the library is the basic cultural resource of the community, should it not also function as a center for cultural activities? By sponsoring film programs, book talks, concerts, discussion groups, art exhibits, readings etc., it has the opportunity of providing a cultural stimulus that many communities do not have the facilities to provide elsewhere.

These are some of the ways in which libraries, while retaining their basic function as book centers, are evolving to fulfill as effectively as possible their role as pragmatic institutions in the changing modern community. Much of this is presently happening, much is in prospect, and much is still being debated.

AMONG the hundreds who turned out at the Jericho Jewish Center last week to greet the spiritual leaders of the new Roman Catholic Church of St. Paul the Apostle. More than 900 attended the first masses said last Sunday at Mid Island Plaza. (Photo by Frank Mallett)

Hi, Neighbors

MURIEL SUGARMAN

They say that truth is stranger than fiction and once again it happened to Birchwoodites. Last week, Doris and Horace Bernstein attended a wedding in Canada. Upon reentering the United States, the Custom Inspector asked where they were from. When he heard Jericho, he asked if in Birchwood. Upon an affirmative answer, asked if they knew the Grande of Village Drive! It turned out that he is the brother of Gert Grand. Incidentally happy birthday to Horace.

Anniversary greetings to Harriet and Morry Liebowitz (9 yrs) and to Bea and Ralph Diamond (21). Birthday greetings to Stephen Reichgott (8 yrs old) and Paul Frankel (14 yrs old).

Congratulations to our Civic President, George Frankel. He was just elected a member at large of the Thunderbird District Committee of the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America. Congratulations also to Jean and Joe Hochman on the Bar Mitzvah of their son, Robert.

Sincerest sympathy to Saul Schwartzback of Forsythia on the loss of his mother.

Those who attended the United Jewish Appeal supper at the Jericho Jewish Center, last Sunday not only had a good time, but had the privilege of seeing our own Ralph Diamond, who chaired the affair receive a plaque from the President of Israel.

At a gala affair, the Jericho Lodge #846 Knights of Pythias installed their new officers for the coming year. Samuel Weiner is the Chancellor Commander.

It is always a pleasant duty to report happy occasions, especially engagements of the young folks and more so when the happy couple both live here. Our best wishes to Belle and Ruby Reback of Middle Lane on the engagement of their lovely daughter Norma to Richard Goldstein of Birchwood Park Drive.

President's Corner

by George J. Frankel

Now that the summer season is in full swing, we are once again concerned with the safety of our children on the streets of our community. One of the greatest dangers facing us is the careless way our youngsters handle their bicycles. They ride down the middle of the street instead of staying near the curb, they wander across the road, they make wide turns at intersections, they ride in groups down the center of the street, and, worst of all, when riding on the sidewalk, they suddenly dart down a driveway or bounce out from between two parked cars. Motorists find that it takes superhuman effort to avoid hitting these young cyclists.

We, as parents, must realize our responsibilities in this area, teach our children the safe, correct way to ride a bicycle, and exercise our parental prerogatives to see to it that they obey the traffic laws as well as the laws of common sense. Each of us must do his part. Let us avoid a tragedy or serious accident in Birchwood.

Jericho Jewish Center Installs

by Horace Bernstein

On Sunday June 24th, the Jericho Jewish Center held its installation of Officers and Trustees of the Temple for the Year 1962-63.

Herman Lubitz was reelected for his second term. In his address to the Congregation, pledged his services and that of the Temple to "Service to the Community". The Jericho Jewish Center at present sponsors a Cub Scout Pack, Brownie Group. The Boys Scouts of America Council have free use of the Temple for their periodic meetings.

For the past four years, the Temple has sponsored a Jericho Blood Bank that is open to all residents of Jericho. The Temple is now undertaking to take over from the Birchwood Civic Association, the sponsoring of a Golden Age Group for all elder residents of our Community.

The United Jewish Appeal, this last Sunday were permitted the use of the Temple for their first exclusive all Jericho Fund raising affair so ably handled by Ralph Diamond, who is a member of the Congregation.

Last Wednesday night, the newly formed Catholic parish held its meeting in the Temple to meet and welcome their spiritual leaders.

This is the Jericho Jewish Center service to the Community. To its own people, the Temple is now providing daily for morning and evening services. It is Mr. Lubitz' wish that not only members, but people of the community and surrounding area avail themselves of these services.

The Religious School of the Center is now providing training and instructions for almost 500 boys and girls. Classes are now being formed for September which will also include a high school class for those who wish to continue their studies after confirmation.

Other officers elected to the Board are: Victor Marshall, Administrative V.P.; Herbert Rosenberg, Ways and Means; Raymond Simpson, House and Site; Oscar Grand, Membership V.P.

Group Attends School Meetings

by Samuel Becks

The Jericho School Committee of the Birchwood Civic Assn. has been attending school board meetings with a view of ascertaining and watching the expenditures that were approved at the last budget vote. There were several areas in which questions were raised as to the possibility of unnecessary increases in the school budget, 1962-1963.

The Superintendent, Dr. Westphall, submitted his recommendations for additional new teachers and replacements. All the recommendations have not been completed and very shortly the comparison will be made as to the hiring of new and replacement teachers as budgeted for the 1962-63 year.

The 1962-3 indicated a surplus of $21,000. However, it has been reported to the school board that this carryover has been reduced to $200, a reduction of $20,800.00. The $12,000 budgeted in the current school year for a new Superintendent was not deleted in setting the tax rate. The Board indicated that at the present time they do not expect to engage a new superintendent and that these funds will be held in reserve. However, these funds have been segregated.

The School Board is considering the request of the Civic Association in establishing permanent registration for the school registration rolls. However, they have advised that they will not consider increasing the board membership from five to seven as requested by the Board of Directors of your Civic Assoc.

The Jericho School Committee has submitted to the business manager, Mr. Slattery, an insurance survey which would effect savings to the school district of approximately $7,500.00. These proposals have been submitted in writing. However, no action is being taken inasmuch as an insurance review is expected from the State of New York.

The School Board went into executive session for consideration of requests by the custodians committee and no information was given publicly.

HERALD READER OPINIONS

SCHOOL PRAYER ISSUE

To the Editor:

In this week of July 4th, the 186th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, it is significant that Hicksville's citizens should be considering fundamental questions as to a citizen's obligation to his government and to his basic code of social behavior, his religion, or his ethics.

Our Declaration of Independence was a great political divide in American history, separating men who were torn between loyalty to an existing political system and allegiance to the principles of highest human action.

In a somewhat similar situation regarding the school prayer issue, we Americans find ourselves today, except that only an extremist would compare our Supreme Court with the tyranny of George III and his ministers.

However, the human dilemma is every bit as profound and poignant as the choice confronting the Americans in 1776. To some people, our choice in the school prayer issue is a choice between acceptance of the law of the land as interpreted by the Supreme Court or disobedience to the law. The Charles Wagner Post 421 of the American Legion feels that today's problem is far too complex to be disposed of so easily.

While we clearly accept our citizens' obligation to cease saying the Regent's established prayer in the schools, if the Supreme Court says it is unconstitutional, we feel no obligation or see no logical reason why a citizen must dissent at this time from all acknowledgments of God in our public schools.

The American Legion has long believed that religion or a belief in God is the cornerstone of all great social, economic, and political systems. Nevertheless, obedience to legally enacted laws is also a foundation stone of the United States. But respect and observance of governmental edicts to an American is no slavish acceptance of an unpopular law. Another pillar of our system is the right to legal dissent and corrective action.

Our forefathers stated the conditions under which a citizen may overthrow an unpopular existing political system in the great Declaration we commemorate this week. Later, our Constitution suggested how we may alter an institution or law within our Federal Union.

There is ample precedent for the variety of reactions Americans have made over the Regent's prayer decision, and more than one proposal seems permitted under our democratic system. Those of us who can accept this ruling with a sense of agreement or even from a mere sense of duty are expected to do so. Those of us who feel affronted and alarmed by the decision or its implications, should feel free to test the scope of this particular ruling by substitute action until the full intent of the Court's decision is made clear.

Many citizens and leaders of our country feel that the ambiguity of the First Amendment of the Federal Constitution must be clarified soon by Supreme Court decision or legislative amendment. The divisiveness that this great amendment engenders among our people, it is widely felt, is a greater threat to our religious, civil, and political security than any present foreign subversion or external threats.

The Charles Wagner Post 421 of the American Legion of Hicksville, therefore, condemns neither the Supreme Court's Regent's prayer decision, nor the brave freemen's action of the Hicksville School Board. We ask our citizens to obey the particular ruling as it has been expressed and as it will be clarified and interpreted by further action of our various courts.

Meanwhile, our people should urge our legislatures, executives, and lower courts to take legal steps to bring about a clarification of the First Amendment which will reflect protection for the fundamental rights of the minority AND THE MAJORITY of our people.

LIBRARY SERVICES TO SCHOOL CHILDREN

To the Editor:

Perhaps if the scope and nature of the public library services to school children were more widely understood the question of duplication of services between the public library and school libraries could be laid to rest. The public library does not simply duplicate school library material and services, it at once supplements them and goes beyond them. The truth of the matter is that there is not enough books, space or staff in the School District libraries, public or school, to meet the rigorous demands imposed upon them. Advanced junior and senior high school students are often expected to do research of the type formerly done at a college level. Much of this information can only be found in college textbooks, adult non-fiction or reference books.

By reference books I do not mean the World Almanac, but reference books that are wide in scope and/or technical in nature. We get hundreds of inquiries a month that high school and junior high school libraries are simply not equipped to handle because of limitations of space, staff and scheduling. Most of the time from three to five each afternoon, much of the evenings, and all day Saturday, the references staff spends working with junior and senior high school students and young adults of college age. Educational theory and practice is being revolutionized. School and public libraries must be taken into consideration or the program founders. Research cannot be done without adequate sources, space, and staff.

In addition to this, your public library serves school age children in other directions. 15-20 classes visit the library once a month or more to better understand their library and borrow books for assignments or general reading. The library bookmobile stops at four elementary schools each week and enjoys great popularity. While a bookmobile is not, strictly speaking, a service directly to school it serves a purpose of making books readily available to school children who often live at an inconvenient distance from their public library.

We are not claiming that we are doing work that should be done in school libraries. We are claiming that what we can offer in the nature of advanced material, centralization of sources and diversification of service is a unique and indispensable.

TWO HICKSVILLE residents were among 14 Meadowbrook Hospital employees who were honored for 25 years of service at a testimonial dinner in the Huntington Town House this week. Dr. George C. Erickson, hospital Superintendent, (at right) presented jeweled medallions to Mildred Schaefer, a practical nurse, of 35 Bay Ave., and Michael Ciampi, painting foreman, of 203 West Nicholas St., both of Hicksville, in recognition of their long service to the East Meadow institution.

RUBBISH DUMPERS

To the Editor:

I have been reading articles and letters in THE VILLAGER regarding covered garbage cans and incinerator nuisance and am encouraged to bring up a matter which I believe is even of greater importance.

While you fuss about a little old fly in a little old garbage can—a dump—complete with rubbish flowing into the streets is tolerated at the end of Deer Lane, Hicksville. I've lived here seven years and can testify to the contributions made by the good citizens of Jericho.

Last summer, Nassau was visited by armies of chinch bugs. Can you doubt that, the dumping habits of suburbia was responsible? A little thought is all that is needed to realize that untreated garden rubbish harbors every type of fungus and insect that plagues the home-owner gardener. With a little wind to help out, insects have been known to travel for miles in a single day, perhaps even to your well-sprayed garden. Black spot isn't caused by dampness, it is caused by a mold, the kind that makes all the leaves drop off of your roses. And the mice! What fun they have making runways in the catgrass clippings!

Oh—I forgot to mention the beer cans, cigarette stubs, smelly babies' mattresses, old shoes, and other such choice items. All it needs to make a middle-age village out of our countryside is a couple of hogs rooting around in the fermenting grass clippings.

Sincerely yours,
Miss Flora H. Kahne

An Open Letter

Dear President Lubitz and Congregation,

This letter is sent with the utmost appreciation and admiration for your extreme consideration of the problem I recently faced.

The announcement of Rev. Daniel Ponerton and Rev. Daniel Ryan arriving in Jericho on Wednesday, June 27, 1962 required quick action for a large meeting hall, preferred in Jericho. Your prompt and generous reply to my request was extended without a moment's hesitation.

I know I express the sincere feelings of the Catholic people for your understanding and help in a most difficult situation.

The generosity expressed by you, President Lubitz, Mr. Horace Bernasconi, Mr. Ray Simpson and other members, to offer your help towards our Catholic priest and parish most certainly has formed the foundation for a perfect relationship between the Jericho Jewish Center and the parish of St. Paul the Apostle.

Sincerely,
MRS. ELSIE POST

How to discourage burglars, when away

Prepared as a Public Service by the Burglary Prevention Week Advisory Committee, 11 S. Morgan St., Chicago 7, Illinois.

CONNECT TIMER TO LAMP

A darkened house, or a light that burns all night, attracts burglars. The automatic timer to turn lights ON and OFF each evening. This makes house look lived-in and is a good protective measure.

CANCEL ALL DELIVERIES

A littered porch and lawn means you're away. Arrange to have mail held and all deliveries suspended during your absence. Ask a neighbor to sweep your sidewalks and mow your lawn, too.

LOCK ALL DOORS AND WINDOWS

Securely lock all doors and windows. Use safety latches on doors and windows, too. Don't make a burglar's job easy!

LEAVE BLINDS PARTIALLY OPEN

Tightly drawn blinds may keep the sun out, but also betray your "absence." Leave curtains and blinds as you normally would, when home.

NOTIFY POLICE

Tell your neighbor and local police of the dates you'll be away. They can keep an eye on things during your absence.

CLOSE GARAGE DOORS

Keep garage doors closed. An empty garage, with the doors open, indicates no one is home. It's a good idea to keep garden tools and ladders locked up, too. Otherwise a prowler may use them to get into your home.

Regulate Size Of Letters Jan 1

Hicksville Postmaster Irene Murphy, issued a reminder this week that very small and odd-shaped letter-type mail will be banned starting Jan. 1, 1963. The action is a major preliminary step towards standardization of mail sizes essential to the most efficient use of mechanization. This move towards standardization will eliminate a major source of delay in mail processing — the extremely small and odd kinds of mail which cause trouble in modern sorting machines and other postal equipment. The Dept. emphasized the move is being made with the full cooperation of envelope manufacturers and large mailers, who were commended for their assistance.

Mail less than 3 inches high or 4 1/4 inches long will be banned. It must meet both the height and length minimum standards. Also prescribed will be pieces that are not of the normal rectangular shape. For example, post cards of the shape of autos and animals. At the same time, while there will not be an outright ban, the dept. will ask mailers, starting Jan. 1, to secure all four edges and pieces which are square or virtually square in shape.

These types also cause difficulties with mechanical equipment. The technical standard to determine whether mail is too "square" is that it must have a height to length of 1 to 1.414. This means, for example, that it must be roughly one inch in height for each one and four tenths inches in length.

This reminder is issued now so that local businessmen may order stationary of the proper size and have it ready for use by Jan. 1, Mrs. Murphy stated.

MASTER CHIEF YEOMAN Francis A. Calnan, USN, will be at the Hicksville Navy Recruiting Station on Wednesday, July 11, to explain WAVE career opportunities to interested young women.

Miss Calnan enlisted in the Navy in May 1945 and received her basic training at Hunter College, New York City. At present she is attached to the Navy Recruiting Service in New York City as a touring representative of the Navy WAVES. Chief Calnan's previous duty stations include San Francisco, California, Glenview, Illinois and Paris, France. She recently came to New York from Headquarters, U. S. Naval Forces, Europe, in London, England.

Chief Calnan states that the Navy offers many fine opportunities for young women for training, education and travel. For information on the WAVE Program, phone or visit Calnan at the Navy Recruiting Office, 67 North Broadway, Hicksville, Wednesday, between 10 a.m. and 12.

Operation VFW

William M. Gouse Jr., Post No. 3211
By Eddie Klebing

Viewed by an audience far from the anticipated number expected, the film "Operation Abolition" issued its warning last Friday evening at the Hicksville Junior High School. It was accepted by those who attended, as a film worth coming out to see. The viewing lasted 45 minutes. It was followed with a speech by Robert Becker of Lynbrook, which included a question and answer period. Mr. Becker, a man familiar with the events depicted in the film, proved to have a vast knowledge on the adverse philosophies of communism.

The Hicksville War Veterans Council plans showing the film again and is looking forward to all patriotic minded citizens to make some attempt to attend. Let us hope the future viewings of "Operation Abolition" is preceded by more advanced publicity than the last. It is a film worth coming out to see.

POST NEWS: George Kramer, heading up the picnic committee advises us that all members have been notified by mail of the fun-fest to be held at Salisbury Park this August 12. Members are urged to return their books and advise the committee as to the number of people planning to attend prior to the drawing of prizes on the meeting of July 23. This is important so plans can be made for the purchase of the food.

We welcome Arnold Bashwiler to our fold and hope to have him sitting with us at many future meetings. Good luck Arnold and don't be a stranger.

Under discussion is the possibility for a family group from the Post to spend an evening at the Westbury Music Fair either in late August or early September. If attended in a group, a fairly good discount can be had. If you are interested, contact the Post or come down to our next meeting and help select the show we can attend together.

Bob Obermeyer advises me that the V.F.W. hall is available for rental and can accommodate up to 100 people. If you're planning a meeting or social event, arrangements can be made by calling Bob at OV 1-5356.

Keep an eye out for the July issue of the V.F.W. Magazine. It will feature an interesting article on a V.F.W. sponsored insurance plan. Frank Blesi pocketed the raffle money at our last meeting. The next one is July 9. See you then.

Christian Mothers In Final Session

The St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers held the final meeting of the school term on Monday, June 18 in the school hall.

In addition to the regular order of business, the newly elected officers were installed. After the moderator, Rev. Leo J. Goggin made the presentation of awards the annual June Show was staged by many of the talented mothers.

The principal, Sr. M. Venable, expressed her gratitude for the support and help given her by the mothers during the past year. The Dark Horse prize of $40 was won by Mrs. Stolzberger. Mrs. Madeline Keller will be the chairman of the Mothers' Auxiliary Booth at the annual parish bazaar to be held the weekends of August 10 through 12 and August 17 through 19.

Busy Weekend for St. Ignatius

Six of St. Ignatius travelling teams played a total of eight games over the weekend and came out on top in six of them. The Bantam Gold team beat St. Edward's by a 3 to 0 count, winning their ninth straight and clinching their sectional championship even though they still have one game left in their schedule.

The Grammar Blue team beat St. William's by 10 to 4 and, undoubtedly, will win at least second place in their section.

The Tyro team trounced St. Rose's by 25 to 2 in an abbreviated contest but then suffered their first defeat of the season by losing 14 to 4 to Corpus Christi.

The Senior team started a new league schedule by dropping the opener to Holy Family by 6 to 5.

Meanwhile in the intra-parish leagues, the seven to eight year old sections completed their season with the Cubs winning in Section B and the Mets taking the crown in Section A. Both teams will receive appropriate awards for their championship teams.
